MARQUETTE, MICH., AUG. 3.

Entered as second class matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

State Chairman Garber, of Ohio, this week made an authorized announcement that W. J. Bryan is a candidate for president.

The Ziehr bubble is effectually punctured, it seems, though the owner of the name may continue indefinitely to bowl over local talent wrestlers and pick up "easy money" from men wholly under his class.

Petriella, the head of the attempt of the Western Federation of Miners to gain a foothold on the Mesaba, in now openly counseling violence. In other words, Petriella has thrown off his disguise, and is showing the true character of his labor leadership.

Benton Hanchett, the distinguished Saginaw jurist, has declined the appointment proffered by Attorney General Bonaparte as assistant counsel in the conduct of important government cases in Illinois.

The leaders of the Duluth ore handlers' strike may have conducted themselves in a creditable manner and advised the men well in regard to going back to work, but it appears that they advised them badly when they got them out in the first place.

The Detroit News regards Attorney General Bird as the most promising figure among the public men of the state to be selected as Governor Warner's successor.

The indefatigable Mr. Bird, attorney general, has declared the $1,000 appropriation for a "corn improvement association" unconstitutional, on the ground that it is class legislation.

An early survey of the possible routes of the Negaunee-Marquette interurban is promised. By the terms of the company's Marquette franchise the successive steps in the opening of the road must be crowded into a comparatively few months.

SUPERIOR TRUST COMPANY HANCOCK MICHIGAN Capital - - $150,000 This company is under the supervision of the state banking department and is authorized by the law to act as executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, receiver or trustee.

and if they can raise the money there is no doubt that they will go ahead.

Governor Warner and Attorney General Bird have agreed to commence amicable proceedings to determine the validity of the binder twine plant bill passed by the recent session of the legislature, and duly signed by the governor.

Railroad employees, in the operating department, must submit to certain physical tests. If they are imperfect of vision or cannot distinguish colors accurately they are not wanted.

Yes, the extension of the water mains to North Marquette would cause the city a heavy expense. Also the extension of the intake out of the cressote and contaminated water zone would cause another heavy expense.

The indefatigable Mr. Bird, attorney general, has declared the $1,000 appropriation for a "corn improvement association" unconstitutional, on the ground that it is class legislation.

There has been some talk in lower peninsula papers to the effect that the constitutional convention was likely to degenerate into an arena in which the administration and anti-administration forces would try out their strength.

It has been intimated in some quarters that Governor Warner would have an interest as a man of a faction in the deliberations of the body. That this is in any way so he makes absolute denial in the following statement, the sentiment of which will meet with general approval.

ful if, under the most favorable conditions surrounding the drafting of the document, the voters adopt the new constitution. Its defeat will be certain if factional politics enter into the making of it.

Every citizen of the state should take part in the election of delegates in order that strong, able, representative men be selected. Fitness should be the sole standard, and when the selections are made those who are charged with the important duty of preparing a fundamental law for the state should be unhampered by any political or kindred influences or prejudices.

Not only we Americans, but Europeans as well, are prone to believe that the United States has the greatest race problem in the world to solve. As a matter of fact our race problem's greatness lies not so much in its size, but in the determined if blind efforts which we are making to solve it and solve it permanently.

The Westminister Review contains a thought provoking article on the growth of French power in Canada. Since 1759, when Wolfe set the British ensign above the citadel of Quebec, all Canada has been nominally British, but only nominally.

When the Caspe region on the gulf and river St. Lawrence shall have been filled with French Canadian settlers, as we may safely predict it will be during the next two or three decades, it will interpose a solid racial barrier between the provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island and the English speaking provinces of the west.

LET UNCLE SAM DIG THE CANAL. It is the opinion of many prominent officials that the building of the Panama canal should be hastened by the United States government.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of My Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys.

My interest and participation in the deliberations of the constitutional convention will be simply that of any other patriotic citizen of Michigan. The convention should be absolutely separate and removed from all other state influences, and the members should be left free by all branches of the state government to do the work assigned them.

Victims of hay fever will experience great benefit by taking Foley's Honey and Tar, as it stops difficult breathing immediately and relieves the inflamed air passages, and even if it should fail to cure you it will give instant relief.

MAY ABANDON IRON INDUSTRY.

Texas Likely to Sell Penitentiary Plant to Encourage Private Capital.

Austin, Tex., Aug. 2.—The state of Texas may abandon the iron industry in which she has been engaged for the last few years. The fifty-ton furnace and iron pipe foundry which the state owns is situated at Risk and is operated by penitentiary convicts.

The New Birmingham iron ore field in Eastern Texas is soon to be developed on a large scale. It is announced that the Star & Crescent and the New Birmingham companies which own furnaces at New Birmingham have consolidated and are preparing to manufacture steel.

Today's weather: Fair and warmer. Yesterday's temperatures: Seven a. m., 52 degrees; noon, 60; 7 p. m., 56. Maximum, 60 degrees; minimum, 52.

Captain Thomas of Princeton was a visitor in the city yesterday.

O. McLaughlin, of Munising visited friends in the city yesterday.

Game Warden Pell Mandlay of Ishpeming was in the city yesterday.

A dance given by the Ideal Orchestra will be held tonight at Fraternity Hall.

W. S. Wright, fire insurance man, has gone to Perkins where he is to adjust a loss.

A number of young people gave a dance at the pavilion at Presque Isle last night.

J. E. Sues, W. J. Maas and C. L. Sporey of Negaunee were in the city yesterday.

John Shaw, of the E. I. Du Pont Powder company, leaves today for the east, on a two weeks' vacation.

Visitors from Ishpeming who were in the city yesterday were Al. Andrews, Mrs. F. H. Raisky, and W. J. Mugfur.

Rev. J. A. Johnson of Galesburg, Ill., has rented the cottage of Henry R. Patrick and will remain here for four weeks.

Miss Ruth Reed and Miss Mabel Brown left yesterday to enjoy an outing on the Reed houseboat on Lake Michigan.

Miss Ira Blossom and her two sons, Clark and Leonard Blossom are visiting E. H. Betsel. They will be here a month.

Mr. and Mrs. John Siegel will leave this morning on the Tionesta. They are on their way to St. Paul where Mr. Siegel is to attend the Foresters' convention.

Thomas Smurthwaite of Traverse City, president of the Grand Traverse & Arizona Mining company, is in the city. He will meet with local stockholders this evening at the office of Judge Byrne.

E. W. Maynard arrived home yesterday morning from a two weeks' trip to Denver, where he is shortly to take a position at a new powder plant being put in by the E. I. Du Pont company.

Mrs. Guy Freeze, who has been visiting friends in the Soo, has returned to Marquette accompanied by Mrs. Harry Rapp and Miss Sylvia Balk, who will be her guests for the remainder of the summer.

Nels Flodin, superintendent of the Lake Shore Engine Works, left last night for the East to purchase machinery for the company's new plant. He will visit New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburg and other cities.

Office Transfer—The Du Pont Powder company has notified its Marquette customers that its sale office has been removed from Marquette to Duluth. No reason for the change is given in the communication which is signed by J. G. Reynolds, manager of the company.

Going Camping—Professors J. H. Kaye and William McCracken of the Normal school will leave Monday for a canoe trip down the Escumaba river. Professor Kaye, who is superintendent of the school will go to Epworth Heights near Ludington when the canoe trip is completed.

Ball Game Sunday—Marquette will not be without a baseball game Sunday for the West End Juniors are to play the Gately team of Ishpeming at the new fair grounds, and it will be a good game. Westen and Croupp will be the battery for the Gatelys and Devine and Beumin will be the West End Juniors' battery.

Auto Traveler Here—H. H. Houston, who with his wife and son, traveled 1,000 in an automobile from Chester, Pa. to Negaunee where he is visiting C. I. Sporey, brought a party in the automobile to Marquette yesterday. They spent the day visiting friends. The Houston party completed their long trip only a few days ago.

Now Have Waiting Room—Residents of Lakewood and of the Chocoye district now have a waiting room for trains. A freight car equipped with cane benches has been placed at the side of the tracks and another, which serves for freight shipments, has been placed nearby. The Western Express company has installed an office at the station and besides there is a baggage room and telegraph service.

Will Install Wheel—The new water wheel for the city's light and power plant is now on the way to Marquette and Mr. Retelle of the city's electrical department stated yesterday that the work of installing the wheel will probably begin a week from today. The wheel is believed to will occupy seventy-two hours and while it is being done, Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights, all the power will be turned off and the city will be in darkness.

Don't Notice Them—It is not worth while to notice people presenting an unusual appearance on the streets this week. Swollen muscles, blistered heads, even still teeth, are the come from enthusiastic rehearsals of the dances of the nations for the Kirmess next week. If it is interesting to see these dances in moving pictures, how much more interesting will it be to see them given by youth and beauty. The voting contest for the most popular dance will be one of the special features of the Kirmess program.

Play Two Games—Weakened by the absence of four members of the team whose places have been filled by substitutes, the Marquette baseball team will play Rapid River at Rapid River this afternoon, and a second game is to be played tomorrow. The team with a number of Marquette fans left this morning at 8 o'clock. Two weeks ago Marquette defeated Rapid River by a score of seven to four. Considering the effect of the trip and the weakened condition of the team, it is a question whether the victory can be repeated.

Pathetic Story—The story told in pictures at the Grand theater today and Monday is that of a dog's devotion for its aged master who is a beggar. The scenes show the dog as it guides the old man's steps through the last days of his adversity, and upon his death, the animal's continued devotion and its final end is described. They are probably the best pictures that have ever been shown in Marquette. Besides these pictures there are a number of humorous ones, and the ballad singing of Ryan and Barrett are also attractions of merit.

HISTORY OF CATHOLIC DIOCESE IS COMPLETE

FATHER REZEK OF HOUGHTON PUBLISHES VOLUME II OF COMPREHENSIVE WORK OF U. P. INTEREST.

The Mining Journal is in receipt of Volume II of Father A. J. Rezek's "History of the Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette," which completes the writer's task of preserving in permanent form the traditions of early Christian effort in the upper peninsula and the facts connected with the growth of the Catholic church in the region, as well as the story of the development of each individual parish. The appearance of the volume was delayed by a fire that burned out M. A. Donoghue & Co., of Chicago, the publishers, but as it is published it fully carries out the original plan of the writer.

The volume is uniform with the first part of the work, but whereas the first volume treated of the lives of the first bishops, with particular stress laid on the career of Bishop Baraga and his work among the Indians, and sketched in outline the story of the diocese, the present volume takes up the parishes, and presents all the facts of interest connected with them, also referring briefly to the men who have been in charge of them from time to time. The volume is copiously illustrated with pictures of early church buildings, long since deserted, with portraits of clergymen, past and present, identified with the church's work in the diocese and pictures of the present churches and various institutions. The story of the parishes of Sault Ste. Marie and DeTour and of St. Ignace are particularly interesting, and are well told.

In the front part of the volume is found Bishop Eis' estimate of Father Rezek's work, in the form of an auto-graph letter. It is as follows:

Bishop's Residence,
 "Marquette, Mich., May 27, 1907.
 "Rev. A. J. Rezek,
 "Houghton, Mich.

"Dear Sir:—The History of the Catholic church in the Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette, of which you are the author, fills a long felt want. It is replete with the lives and labors of the early missionaries and their successors, who did so much heroic work in upper Michigan and Wisconsin.

"The first volume has already found its way into many homes and libraries. But the second volume, now in press, promises to receive even a greater welcome than the first. Giving the local history of every parish, together with the names of the priests, and photographs of all the churches, schools and rectories, old and new, its value cannot be overestimated.

"You deserve much credit for the arduous task in gathering material for this history, and for the expense you incur in publishing the same with so many illustrations and superb binding.

"I hope your work will be appreciated and that your history will find the large sale it deserves.

"Your faithfully,
 "Frederick Eis, Bp."

The volume is handsomely printed, on fine book paper, 400 pages, half Morocco binding, and is identical in size and style with Volume I. Solicitors will soon place it before the people of the diocese.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

First Church of Christ, Scientist—Service Sunday at 10:30 a. m., subject, "Spirit." Felix Hall, Opera House block.

First Methodist Church—"There is No Substitute" and "Be Still and Know" will be the sermon themes tomorrow. Miss Flora Retelle will sing at both morning and evening services.

Rev. R. Bruce Brown, of the Deciples of Christ congregation, will preach tomorrow at the church, 317 Washington street. The morning subject will be "Conscience." In the evening the theme will be "Overcoming the World."

Baptist, Rev. C. H. Maxson, pastor—After the morning sermon tomorrow, the pastor will administer the Lord's Supper. At 7:30 in the evening he will give another address of the series on "Vacation Stoppers," speaking on this occasion of Williamsburg the colonial capital of Virginia.

Presbyterian—Morning service, 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 12 m. County house meeting, 7:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor meets at 6:30 p. m. Evening service, 7:30 p. m. The regular morning and evening services will be conducted by Rev. M. A. Breed, of Monticello, Iowa. The true ring of his faith and zeal is characterized by his preaching, which he sanctions: "A religion that does not reach out after others is least of all Christian; an experience of the grace of God that does not long to share it, has not progressed very far; and a church whose chief business is to save souls makes its existence unnecessary if it does not get at it." All are cordially welcomed to these services.

MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS.

New York, Aug. 2.—The discouragement of professional traders over the absence of outside interest in stocks resulted today in a condition bordering on stagnation. The trading was practically flat at times, the professionals finding no satisfaction in scalping profits from each other.

The forecast of the week's currency movement gave warning of unfavorable factors at work in the money situation. Yesterday's heavy credit balance of the treasury action to aid the New York money market this fall and relieve the foreign markets from demands which New York may make on them for gold.

The quoted rate is 6 to 6 1/2 per cent. The government's surplus on cotton was again a disagreeable surprise, the improvement during July having proved much less than anticipated.

Not much was accomplished by today's operations. The rise of the early part of the day was lost at one time, and then recovered in the last half hour on scanty dealings.

Closing prices were: U.S. Steel... 85 1/2, Am. Steel... 85, G. & O... 35 1/2, etc.

PROMINENT LODGE MAN GETS HANDSOME CHARM

WORTHY PAST PRESIDENT ANDREWS HONORED BY TRELAWNEY LODGE, SONS OF ST. GEORGE—LODGE PRESENTED WITH SILVER CUP.

At the meeting of Trelawney lodge, No. 399, Sons of St. George, Thursday evening the members presented their worthy past president, William Andrews, with a handsome watch charm, emblematic of the order. On the front of the charm, swinging on a hinge, is a splendid piece of hand carved work, in raised relief, consisting of the horse and rider, St. George, in the act of piercing the dragon. This emblem of the order is executed very artistically from a solid piece of gold. On the back of it is a continuation of the emblem of the order. It is engraved with the inscription, "An appreciation to Wm. Andrews, by Trelawney lodge, No. 399, Sons of St. George."

Mr. Andrews is an infatigable worker for the order and the members say that the healthy condition of Trelawney lodge today is due in large degree to his untiring efforts; and that the token presented to him is but a mild expression of their esteem and appreciation for the work he has done in building up the society.

Mr. Andrews is a past president of Trelawney lodge, also a past grand president of the state organization, has held important chairmanships of committees to the supreme lodge, and was greatly honored by being selected as the first representative to the supreme lodge. He is also to be one of the representatives to the next session of the national organization, which convenes in Calumet in October.

The presentation address was made by Mayor Roberts, who has also been a member of Trelawney for some years. Mr. Robert reviewed briefly the life of Mr. Andrews from his early Cornwall home up to the present time, eulogizing him for his self-sacrificing spirit and the energy by which he tried to do his duty to his fellowmen.

When the presentation was made Mr. Andrews was too surprised and moved by emotion to respond.

Further good things were in store, when the members of the general celebration committee appeared on the scene and presented Trelawney lodge, through its president, the beautiful trophy (cup) which it won at the recent reunion.

The presentation and speech were made by William Bamford, a member of Sir Humphrey Davey lodge. Mr. Bamford spoke of the efforts that Trelawney lodge had put forward to win the cup and congratulated its members on their achievement. Other members of the committee spoke much in the same spirit, wishing the Trelawney lodge much success in its future undertaking.

The president responded in behalf of the lodge, with many thanks. Other speeches were given expressing elation and good feeling and wishing the already strong and vigorous lodge of about 300 members, mostly young men, a still greater growth and usefulness.

Engraved on the cup is the following inscription: "Prize for the Best Appearing Lodge, Nineteenth Annual Reunion, Ishpeming, Mich., July 20th, 1907. Won by Trelawney Lodge, No. 399."

TRAGIC DEATHS RECALLED.
Boat of Young Man Drowned Five Years Ago Is Found on Lake Shore.

Four years ago last November—Sunday, Nov. 3, 1902, to be exact—four young men lost their lives in Lake Michigan. They were Abel and George Levine, sons of Marcus Levine, a business man, now of the Mesaba range, and Emil and Albert Carlson, sons of Oscar Carlson, an old resident of the west end of the county. The quartet had been hunting on the southwest shore, and on a storm coming up they attempted to cross the lake in their small boat, wishing to return home as soon as possible. This was about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The frail craft was capsized, and its occupants perished. The search for the bodies was kept up until the lake froze over, but it was not entirely successful. While the remains of three of the victims of the accident were found, those of Emil Carlson were never recovered. This week Wednesday, a party of Champion young people picnicking on the south shore of the lake were startled to discover on the beach a boat containing the bones of a man's leg. They reported their find to the authorities, and yesterday the boat was identified by Mr. Carlson as that of Emil, his missing son.

M. J. Olson, the piano tuner, who has been in Chicago and Duluth for the past few years, will soon resume his residence in Ishpeming. Mr. Olson has visited Ishpeming twice a year. He has a large number of customers in the county. He advises The Mining Journal that he will arrive in the city in about two weeks.

ORE FROM NEW YORK MINE.

After completing his contract for the Young Men's Christian association William Trebilcock will transfer most of his men to the old New York mine, where he has a contract to load ore for Richard Quayle. Men have been employed two summers picking ore from the rock dump. It is expected that at least 5,000 tons will be shipped before the close of navigation. Over 3,000 tons were sent out last summer. Mr. Quayle is at present working five men on the job, while Mr. Trebilcock has had a half dozen there for several weeks past loading the ore. In addition to doing the loading, Mr. Trebilcock is also obliged to reduce the size of the chunks, none of which are to be over six inches.

LOADING WITH STEAM SHOVEL.

A steam shovel was yesterday put in operation at the Ohio mine, west of Michigan, owned by the Niagara Mining company, and it is expected that the ore in stock, about 25,000 tons, will be cleared up before the shovel is removed. The Ohio has been loading about twenty-five cars a day since the opening of navigation from the pockets. The management will endeavor to ship 100,000 tons this season.

NEW FIRE HALL. Building Committee Instructed to Prepare Plans and Specifications.

Action was taken at the council session Thursday night toward providing new headquarters for the fire department. The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company formally notified the council that the plot near the Breitung house is at its disposal for the erection of the building.

The announcement that the council is now in position to take definite steps in providing this much-needed improvement is pleasing to all concerned.

Heavy Highway Expense.

According to the report of the committee on streets and highways the sum expended last month for street and road improvements, street cleaning and sprinkling was $3,202.60.

The bills payable for the general fund amounted to $1,648.41, and the water works bills to $682.69.

MINER MEETS DEATH.

Employee of Cleveland-Cliffs Company Had Life Crushed Out Yesterday.

Charles Carlson, a resident of Ishpeming for ten or a dozen years, was instantly killed yesterday morning at the Cleveland Lake mine.

His partner, who was nearby, escaped injury. Carlson's body was badly cut and bruised, and it took the workmen nearly thirty minutes to recover it.

The remains were taken to Swanson & Person's undertaking rooms, where in the afternoon they were viewed by a jury composed of Joseph Gill, Charles Gustafson, William Dowrick, Sr., William Thexton, Axel Carlson and Thomas Brazil.

An adjournment was taken until today, when the inquest will be conducted by Coroner William Prim.

The deceased was well known, particularly to the Scandinavian residents of the city. He had been employed at the Lake mine a number of years and Captain Alfred Collick said yesterday that he was one of the best miners at that property.

He was familiar with the class of work he was doing when he met his death. He was about thirty years of age and is survived by his widow and two children. His family resides at the Cleveland-Cliffs new location on the north shore of Lake Hancock.

He was a member of the Swedish Home society, under whose direction the funeral will be held.

DEED TO RIGHT-OF-WAY.

Oliver Company Makes Transfer of Land Traversed by New Road.

City Recorder J. D. West yesterday received from General Superintendent W. H. Johnston of the Oliver Iron Mining company a copy of the deed transferring from the corporation to the city the right-of-way of the land traversed by a new road, which the city constructed last spring, south from Washington street to the Saginaw road in Section 16.

The transfer is made at the nominal cost of $1. The company reserving the right to at any time construct a railway, or give that privilege to a railway corporation, at any point crossing the thoroughfare. It is not expected that the present road will be disturbed for many years by mining operations, as it is located at a good distance from Section 16 mine, which is the nearest property.

The city has this summer had a crew working on Excelsior street, which leads to the new road. Several inches of gravel have been placed on the surface through the low land between the Excelsior and Junction locations.

WILL FINISH IN TEN DAYS. Excavation for Foundation of Y. M. C. A. Block Is Nearing Completion.

William Treblcock, who has the contract for the excavating for the foundation of the Young Men's Christian association's block, to be erected at the corner of Division and Pine streets, expects to finish the job within a week or ten days.

His workmen have lost some time the past week on account of wet weather. The excavating is being done to the sand, which is three feet lower than the level of the basement floor.

After the muck is removed three feet of the opening will be filled with rock and sand, which will have a concrete surface, the latter being the floor. The main sewer is twelve inches above the surface of the sand and in order to get a fall from the building this extra work had to be done.

Mr. Treblcock will remove from 2,700 to 3,000 yards of earth. A sufficient quantity of the stone and sand has been piled on the bank to complete the fill necessary to bring the floor up to the desired level.

Bids are being received for the construction of the building and it is expected that they will be opened a week from today. It is anticipated that the new bids will be considerably lower than the first, on account of the alterations recently made in the plans.

BIG SPECIAL FEATURE. Sensational Bareback Riding Stunt in Norris & Rowe's Circus.

Glowing accounts of the sensational bareback riding features with the Norris circus, here August 13, have preceded the show's coming visit to this section.

Before last season's tour had come to a close, Norris & Rowe had determined upon the riders they would secure for the present tour if offers of high salaries could tempt the expert bareback riders to sign contracts, so it was with unexcelled satisfaction that the young showmen received contracts from riders whose names are famous in the realm of the white tents.

George Holland and Ross Backell are a duo of the most accomplished bareback experts whose astonishing feats have been heartily applauded by European as well as American audiences.

Holland is a somersault rider and Miss Dockrill is one of the daintiest and graceful equestriennes.

Another feature of the circus is a daily evening horse and cowboy show, which is dainty Elma Mareta, who has no equal as a somersault rider.

Frank Miller performs what is called a "burrisse burle and jockey act." Upon a partly bred fiery Arabian stallion, Miller stands upright, dashing at highest speed and jumping high hurdles and over obstacles until the wonder of it all is that he can maintain his perilous and difficult position; Edward V. Hocum is another rider who accomplishes the "hazardous somersault on the bareback of a galloping horse; Daily Miller does a high school manege act and John Carro has the most highly educated equine in the world in his horse, "Rinaldo." The latter goes through his act without a rein, bridle or trappings of any kind and without word of command.

Herbert Rumbley is the famous rough rider

TUBE MILL COMING.

Superintendent Edward Kopp of the Michigan Gold mine has been advised by the Abbey Mill company of New York that the silica tube mill ordered some months ago had been shipped the 25th of July, and it is expected to arrive here within a few days.

The company was under contract to deliver the mill by May 1, but additional time was granted on account of the rush of orders at the factory. The gold mill was installed last fall, but it has not been operated, as the management has been desirous of getting the tube mill ready for commission before starting to treat the quartz.

As soon as the tube mill is installed the pumps will be started. There is a very large tonnage of quartz in the stock piles. Much of this contains desirable material for silica, which is at present worth of $20 per ton in the Milwaukee and Chicago markets.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kopp are rejoicing over the birth of a son.

Jake White, a former resident, is in the city on a visit to relatives.

A concrete walk is to be laid at the Eren block, corner Cleveland avenue and First street.

E. M. Dempsey and wife of Cleveland were in the city yesterday, visiting James Clancey and family.

A meeting of the Ishpeming branch of the Women's Christian Temperance union will be held next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Shavers.

Mrs. C. L. Adams arrived home yesterday afternoon on the 4 o'clock train from a few weeks' stay in Vermont, where she had been called on account of the death of her mother.

Miss R. Sedgwick and Miss L. Girzi will serve tea this afternoon between 3 and 5 o'clock at the golf club house. There will be a dancing party this evening between 8 and 11.

Persons having bills against the Sons of St. George on account of the recent rights being reserved for accept any or to reject any or all proposals.

sired to close up the accounts as soon as possible.

The fair to be conducted by the ladies of St. Joseph's church congregation will be held at the Woodmen's hall during the week of October 21.

There will be a quarterly meeting service at the First Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow. Love feast at 9 a. m., followed by reception of members and the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Miss Dorothy Kenyon, leading woman with the Harvey Dramatic company, which opens at Ishpeming theater next Monday evening for a week's engagement, was last season's star with J. H. Stoddard in his magnificent production, "Minnie Brier Bush."

Besides being an actress of ability, Miss Kenyon has achieved considerable success as a writer of poetry. Many of her compositions have appeared in the leading magazines of the country in recent years. She is a Michigan woman, her home being in Detroit.

Passed Them Around for Her Friends to Munch and a Strange Thing Happened to Her Sour Lunch.

Normal school is closed for the summer and the girls have gone home. It was a little after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon when about three hundred of them appeared at the South Shore station. Some of them walked and some of them rode, but they all got there in time for the train, and that's why the officials of the station today are resting.

He Was Apprehensive.

Charles F. Wright, the ticket agent at the depot lost some of his usual composure when he saw them coming. As the waiting room filled and the foremost of the young women started toward the ticket office windows, he made a rapid examination of the polished brass grating which hedged him in, and satisfied with its apparent strength, decided to stay. Just then a hundred and eighty-three feminine voices made a simultaneous demand for transportation to a hundred and eighty-three different places. Mr. Wright is now qualified to sell circus tickets under any conditions, for he handled the crowd of Normal girls; and all of them went away pleased.

Live in Ten States.

The majority of those who left live in the upper peninsula, but besides these, many started for distant points. A number of tickets were sold for places in Minnesota, several young women left for homes in Nebraska and others are now on their way to Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana, Massachusetts and New York.

During the interval between the time when the tickets were purchased and the time when the train left, the girls took over the station as their own. The center of the young women's interest was the baggage room. Early in the day the trunks began to arrive and long before noon the room was filled and a hundred pieces of baggage were stacked outside.

Girls and Trunks.

Probably in all the land there is no more energetic railway employe than Duncan MacDonald, the South Shore baggage master, but yesterday, in addition to the regular day's traffic, he had some three hundred trunks to handle and what was a more serious matter, there were some three hundred feminine owners of the trunks whose anxieties he had to appease, and all within an hour or a little more. As he afterwards told an acquaintance, "he had to stop soon."

The baggage room is separated from the waiting room by a wide low counter from behind which trunks are checked. MacDonald had no polished brass bars to protect him and the counter wasn't an obstacle worthy even of notice to the young women. With their tickets in their hands, they took the baggage room by storm, and when all the floor space behind the counter was jammed with excited maids, more and more of them struggled to get into the room. Some of these succeeded and from vantage points they gained, lofty perches on top of piles of baggage, they hurled excited queries at the worried baggage master and made insistent demands for their trunk checks.

Gave Them Pickles.

Gradually the crowd in the baggage room thinned and the feminine clamor began to lessen. It was shortly before train time and MacDonald was the center of bevy of young women about his desk, when ruddy cheeked brunette, a hundred and ten pounder, wearing a black walking skirt with a short-sleeved duck jacket and a natty little straw sailor tilted over her nose, walked toward the group. She carried a paste-board pail, one of the kind usually used by ice cream dealers, in her right hand, and it was filled with pickles.

Baggage Man Got His.

Just then the baggage man turned around. A tall blond girl at his elbow had her ticket in her left hand and she held her pickle in the right. Probably she thought the ticket was wanted but it was her right hand that she extended. The baggage man was writing and he had his right hand extended. Gravely the blond laid her pickle in it. "My trunk is that little one with straps on it over in the corner," she said, and added, "I want it checked to Escamaba." Absently the baggage man slipped the pickle in his vest pocket and affixed the check. It was just then that the blond girl took a bite out of the ticket in her left hand.

Lovers Say Goodbye.

There were no isolated spots in the baggage room but here and there several couples managed to effect some sort of detachment from the crowd, serious faced young men they were, and the countenances of the young women with whom they whispered were not less downcast. One of these young women sat in the east end seat of one of the benches, and the young man with her stood at her side, half supported by the arm of her seat. They were speaking in low tones and the theme, it was plain, was a sad one.

The train was announced and as she clung to his arm, they walked out to the steps of the coach. He held her hand as they said goodbye and a little later, from her seat in the coach, she called out to him. "I'll write on the train so you'll get it first thing tomorrow," she said.

Traveling Man Embarrassed.

Another of the couples in some manner became separated in the rush as they left the waiting room. She was a brown-eyed girl in a tan Eton jacket with yellow mousquetaire gloves, and it was just as she reached the steps of the coach that she discovered that she had lost her escort. She looked about searchingly before she saw him over near the wall of the station where he was just as eagerly seeking her. Their glances met as she beckoned to him across the heads of the crowd and as he started toward her, she again lost sight of him. It was a little while before he reached her side, and as he drew near she showed impatience.

"You let me get lost and I don't think it's a bit nice of you," she complained, half turning she seized his arm, and then she found that she had made a mistake for she had laid hold of the arm of a traveling man from Milwaukee, who had been patiently sponging his way forward, and for whom she caused the first touch of embarrassment that he had felt in six weeks. The traveling man was rapidly recovering from his astonishment and was about to reply when the young man rescued the blushing maid.

Yell Is Farewell.

The waiting room was empty, the last stragglers were boarding the train, Ticket Agent Wright was eying the coaches sedulously and MacDonald was mopping his forehead when the conductor called "All aboard." As the train started, windows were thrown up and farewells were waved and shouted to the ones left on the platform. As the rear coach left the station a group with happy faces, their handkerchiefs waving, raised their voices in unison and gave the Normal yell.

WILL TRY TO BRING 1908 MEETING HERE

BUSINESS MEN MAKE REQUEST OF DELEGATES TO UPPER PENINSULA FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION CONVENTION.

At the meeting of the Morse Hose company last night, Fire Chief Marcy and foreman James J. Donovan were elected delegates to attend the convention of the Upper Peninsula Firemen's association at Ontonagon August 20-23 next, and as many of the company as can get away will go with them.

A number of Marquette business men have asked the two delegates to make an effort to have the meeting for 1908 brought to Marquette and an attempt will be made to bring this about. It is said that Munising is also trying to get next year's convention of the firemen, but it is believed that with a little properly applied energy and some diplomacy Munising's hopes can be defeated and the meeting brought here.

Parade and Tournament.

On the first day of the meeting a parade of all the companies represented in the association will take place. The convention will be held the first night. Officers will be elected and a place of meeting for 1908 will be chosen. The tournament takes place the second day. Marquette has had no team for several years, and the company is not entered in the tournament this year. Teams from five cities are to compete and the judges will be selected when the meeting opens.

On the two last days of the meeting, a field meet is to be held, and it is said that all efforts will be made to revive interest in the yearly athletic events which formerly were features of the annual meetings.

CATHOLICS MUST WED IN DAYTIME

TABOO ALSO PLACED ON HOME WEDDINGS BY ARCHBISHOP MESSMER OF MILWAUKEE.

BOOK OF REGULATIONS ISSUED

Prelate Warns People of His Faith Against the "Political Catholic," and Puts Ban on Liquor at Picnics.

No Catholic in the arch-diocese of Milwaukee, of which the diocese of Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette form a part, Archbishop Messmer being Bishop Eis immediate superior in the church may hereafter be married after 3 o'clock in the summer; no Catholic may be married in a private house, nor with anything but religious music, solos and duets being forbidden; and bridal parties are admonished that a "Catholic wedding and a Catholic church are not the place for a display of female fashions and freaks of fashion." Wholly Catholic weddings must take place in the church and mixed marriages in pastoral residences.

These are some of the rules laid down in the "Handbook for Catholic Parishioners of the Arch-diocese of Milwaukee," a 120 page booklet just issued by Archbishop S. G. Messmer. It is comprehensive in its scope. Intoxicating liquors are barred from picnics, fairs and other gatherings held for church purposes; socials and card parties are forbidden on Saturday and Sundays; and lectures on profane subjects, organ recitals, sacred concerts, stereopticon exhibitions and entertainments of a similar nature are strictly prohibited in churches.

No Picnics After Dark.

The rule governing picnics, fairs, bazaars and dances, set forth in the series governing church revenues, is as follows: "Picnics, excursions and similar gatherings for the sake of making money for church or school or other pious purposes may never be held after dark, nor on Sundays, holy days and fastdays, nor where beer or other intoxicating drinks are sold. Moreover the bishop's consent must be obtained in every single case. Fairs or bazaars may not be arranged without the bishop's permission, nor on Sundays, nor with the sale of intoxicants. Moreover priests are commanded to do away entirely with the abuse of arranging balls or dances for pious purposes."

One of the noteworthy portions of the book, which is divided into two general sections, the temporal administration of the parish and the parish policy, is one regarding the regulation of public affairs in accordance with Christian principles and in which it is declared that no Christian, unless compelled, should stay away from election. The archbishop frankly goes on record as preferring the election of an honest, outspoken Protestant rather than a Catholic in name only, who uses his religion as a means to political advancement and personal enrichment.

Warns Against "Political Catholics."

To abstain from voting is always poor politics, and often poor Christianity," says the archbishop in his handbook, and he immediately proceeds to warn Catholics to "be on their guard against political candidates who are Catholic in name only, without practicing their religion, or who look only to political advancement and personal enrichment. Such a man elect a straight-up-spoken Protestant of good Christian principle and fair intention, than a Catholic with less religion and probably less principle.

"The Catholic citizen can not throw off the 'Christian'; he must be a Christian citizen and his politics must be Christian politics, whether it be in the union, and the state or in his township, village or city. The loyal citizen must be guided by principle, not by the mere hope of profit; party principles and politics must be subordinate to Christian principles; he will look more to the man of religious conviction and honest purpose than to the platform of his party. For a man to sell his vote for filthy lucre or political advancement is a sin against God, just as well as a crime against the country."

Honors Grand Army of Republic.

The Grand Army of the Republic and the United States and state troops are the only exception to the rule by which non-Catholic societies are forbidden to assist at church funerals or other functions wearing their regalia.

Catholics are urged to combat the desecration of the Sabbath and the evils of the saloon, a reduction in the number of saloons, stricter supervision, early closing on Saturday nights and Sunday closing, at least in the forenoon and after dark being advocated.

Teaching the catechism in the English, as well as in the foreign language, by pastors of parishes in which a foreign language is used is also demanded, the priests being instructed to use the double catechism, having the foreign text on one page and the English on the other.

Where parents, priests, or laymen oppose the use of such a catechism in their parish schools, it shows on their part a lamentable ignorance of the needs of the Catholic church in this country or a sinful and blind national fanaticism," says the book.

Pastors are also admonished that they are in conscience bound to care for the spiritual welfare of Catholic children in public schools as well as those in private schools.

The book contains the general rules and regulations governing parishes.
