Only brokers' business is handled over their wires, however, the operators in the cities refusing to transmit private messages. The stock quotations attracted much attention again yesterday. The closing figures showed something of a recovery, and the whole market increased strength, though it was nothing to brag about at that.

WILLIAMS TO RETAIN MINORITY LEADERSHIP.

Aspirations of Missourians to Succeed Mississippians Must Wait.

Washington, Aug. 13.—The aspirations of Missouri Democrats in the lower house of congress to be the minority leader will have to be put on ice for a while, it seems. John Sharp Williams, whose election to the United States senate from Mississippi is now certain, wants to hold the minority position for another two years, as he will not go into the senate until 1911. Close friends of Champ Clark of Missouri had been feared that the Mississippi statesman, who has just defeated Gov. Vandaman, would develop symptoms of locomotor ataxia when it came to repeating the side-stepping performance so gracefully executed by Clark last spring, when Clark's friends were booming him for Williams' place at the head of the Democratic cohorts in the lower house.

"Champ Clark for minority leader? Why, sure! Oh, no, not in the next congress, but when John Sharp Williams leaves the house."

This was the reply of a man prominent in the Democratic councils, when asked what he thought of the Missouri man's chances to head the party on the floor and shape its course in debates and parliamentary tactics.

"Why, John Sharp Williams has the pledges, in black and white, of 100 out of 153 Democratic members in the next congress to vote for his renomination for speaker, which means the floor leadership of his party. He had them before the Fifty-ninth congress adjourned, and left here with them in his inside pocket last March. Nothing can defeat Clark two years from now, though, if he returned to congress, and, by the way, that is liable to be a Democratic house."

It is hardly necessary to add that this is the comment of Charles A. Edwards, secretary of the Democratic Congressional Campaign committee. It is the same Charles Edwards who smoked out Col. Henry Watterson to the extent of revealing the latter's "dark horse" candidate for the Democratic nomination, Gov. Johnson of Minnesota.

Representative De Armond of Missouri was not mentioned as in the running, but Williams' friends feel particularly kind toward Clark for the consideration he showed Williams when he withdrew his name from further consideration last spring, at a time when it was freely predicted that he could have won over Williams had he made an aggressive campaign.

STOESSEL'S WIFE DEPENDANT.

A Port Arthur Woman Charges Theft of Two Milch Cows.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—A case brought against the wife of General Stoessel by Frau Rutzki, formerly a dairy owner of Port Arthur, is a peculiar echo of the famous siege, and is attracting much attention.

Just before the investment of Port Arthur, Frau Rutzki, who had no desire to experience the siege, departed, leaving three valuable milch cows, with fodder sufficient for a twelve-month, as a loan in charge of Captain Bondaryeff, chief of the military hospital, with instructions that the milk be used for hospital patients. After some weeks the losses of Russian officers were so heavy that General Stoessel ordered all the officers of the administrative medical corps to the front.

Captain Bondaryeff prevailed upon General Stoessel to allow him to remain. At the same time, it is mentioned, he sent three cows as a present to Mme. Stoessel. The same consumed the milk, and Captain Bondaryeff remained at his safe post, subsequently to be decorated with the Order of Stanné for valor.

After the Stoessels returned to St. Petersburg Frau Rutzki turned up with a demand for her cows or their value. Mme. Stoessel declared that the Japanese took the cows, but witnesses testified that not only were the cows eventually sold for hard cash, but that the milk was regularly sold from the Stoessel household during the siege at a high price.

"I Wish I Could" ---- "I Will"

The first expression is that of failure; the second of success. People are often heard to remark that it is impossible for them to accumulate anything. There are few things that are impossible of accomplishment and saving is not one of them. All that is necessary is a little determination; a little of the "I WILL" spirit.

MARKETS

New York, Aug. 13.—A vastly better one was shown by the stock market today, though the movement was narrow and at times feverish. Substantial recoveries were the rule, and the recent liquidation seemed to have run its course.

Paine, Webber & Co. telegraphed from New York yesterday as follows: "There was considerable short covering in the New York stock market today and the list maintained its strength until the close, with prices from 1 to 5 points higher than yesterday's final figures.

Table with columns for various stock markets (U.S. Steel, C. & N. W., etc.) and their respective prices.

New York, Aug. 13.—Prime mercantile paper, 66 1/2 per cent. Sterling exchange, steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at 48.45 for demand and at 48.10 for sixty days; commercial bills, 4.82. Bar silver, 67 1/2. Money on call strong, at 2 1/2@4 1/4 per cent; ruling rate, 4; closing bid, at 2 1/2, offered at 3.

Wheat Summary. Paine, Webber & Co.'s Chicago correspondent said yesterday concerning the wheat market: "Everything points to a clearing up of the troubled situation for the trade. It was a nervous and unsettled wheat market most of the day, but with a tendency to recovery in prices. The market made one cent headway from the closing prices of Monday during the morning.

WON RACE WITH DEATH. Thrilling Night Ride of an Idaho Mining Operator.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 13.—Relays of horses, a railway velocipede, an electric launch and a high power automobile were employed by Thomas H. Whalen, a mining operator in the Idaho hills, in making a night trip of 110 miles in a little more than eight hours from Wallace to Spokane, to connect with a transcontinental train to carry him to the bedside of his dying sister in Ohio.

LUCKLESS SUITOR SEEKS $250 BALM. Threatens Suit to Recover the Sum Spent in Courting a Widow.

Worcester, Aug. 13.—Samuel Barcombe of Clinton has upset the regime of courtesies. Riled by a letter from Mrs. Rose Childs, a vivacious young widow, he has threatened to enter suit not only for breach of promise to wed, but to recover damages for the time and money lavished upon her.

PORTO RICO NICE PLACE. Returned Jurist Tells of Conditions on Island Dependent, and Improvements Under American Rule.

The island of Porto Rico, treated as the child of Uncle Sam, is waxing fat, is prosperous, smiling and happier than ever was. Every one is doing well; every one of any consequence at all rides in his automobile, and the entire population seems to realize that the water lashed little bit of land is a sort of Heliopolis.

HOT WEATHER GENERATES CRIME, SAYS ALIENIST. British Expert Talks of Mid-Summer Madness in New York.

London, Aug. 13.—To judge by some called reports appearing in the English papers one might assume that the whole of New York had been for the greater part of last week at the mercy of frenzied mobs, thirsting for blood.

HARRIMAN SEE'S COAL SHORTAGE. Gives Expansion of Industries and Delay at the Mines as Cause.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 13.—E. H. Harriman and his two sons stopped off here during a break in the westward vacation trip which the railway magnate is making in his special train. The Harriman party was accompanied from Chicago to Omaha by President Harahan of the Illinois Central. In answer to questions, Mr. Harriman said:

"In the development and improvement of railroads one factor of vital consideration is the relative cost of material and labor, and the scale of rates for traffic. Labor and material costs more, yet rates have been reduced and taxes increased. This is not a consideration which holds out either to the people or the railroads the brightest prospect.

A MIRACLE OF THE SEA. Story of a Man Dropped Overboard from One Ship and Found by Another.

In the world's great grief of news there are tales of the sea and its dangers almost every day. In one week not long ago the Sun printed three stories of shipwreck that rival Poe's "Narrative of A. Gordon Pym." One ship burned on Lake Michigan and five of the crew died fighting to the last. Another ship went down with all hands on board off the lonely coast of lower Java.

Returned Jurist Tells of Conditions on Island Dependent, and Improvements Under American Rule.

In describing the happy conditions in Porto Rico, Judge Rodey grew enthusiastic. He said that of no part of Uncle Sam's territory has he better provided for, or where the people are happier, which means, at the same time, more prosperous.

There is plenty of money being made in Porto Rico just now, and it is piling up like a snow drift, after awhile will be heard from in America. This money is coming out of the wonderfully rich soil, and Americans are not lagging in the digging thereof.

Sugar is the principal crop, and the little farms are jammed so full of the cane that there could not possibly be a larger yield. Farmers owning little patches of land—fifteen to forty acres—do very nicely. Others who own as much as 500 acres are growing wealthy.

There is danger of Uncle Sam spoiling this child of the sea. A million and a half dollars is sent down there by the treasury department each year to defray governmental expenses. Some of this money goes for educational purposes involved by government. No tax is levied to make the island self-sustaining, which is just where being a bit spoiled.

Each Holder of Honorary Colony in Brother King's Army Must Have Uniform to Match.

The changes of costume that kings and princes have to make at all hours of the day, when on a visit to a foreign land, are little short of kaleidoscopic. When kings make foreign visits they usually precede themselves in admirals' uniforms. The official reception takes place at first, but when we met the Carpathia at Gibraltar they did. I had been in the sea eight hours."—Baltimore Sun.

This is the case no more. A feeling of the keenest disappointment has dulled the enthusiasm of the natives, yet they make no protest. Spain gave them nothing, and now the United States is withholding the thing that is most dear to them.
