

GREAT REVIVAL TO LAST ALL YEAR

With "Kansas for Christ" as the Slogan, Evangelist Campaign in Sunflower State Will Be Pushed in Every County.

Hundreds of Ministers Will Take Part in Big Movement, Which Will Continue Until Close of 1908, and Effort Will Be Made to Demonstrate What May Be Accomplished in Concerted Religious Work Carried Forward on Strictly Business Lines.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 29.—"Kansas for Christ" is to be the slogan in a statewide evangelist campaign that is to be rushed simultaneously in every county of the Sunflower state next year. Hundreds of ministers of various denominations, together with numerous well-known evangelists, are to hold revivals. An entire year will be spent in the movement, and an effort is to be made to demonstrate to the whole country what may be accomplished in concerted religious work carried forward on strictly business lines.

The great revival is to be under the leadership of Rev. Wm. Edward Biederwolf, who planned it. The undertaking will be subject to the general supervision of a board of two ministers and two laymen from each denomination. This body, which has already been organized with fifteen denominations represented, has selected Edward E. Taylor of Philadelphia as secretary.

WHOLE STATE BECOMES DRY.

Georgia Law Banning Liquor Traffic Is Effective Wednesday.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 29.—With the advent of the new year the law preventing the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor passed at the last session of the legislature becomes effective, making Georgia the first of the Southern states to be placed in the prohibition column.

BUY FAMOUS PICTURES.

Americans Get the Pick of a $4,000,000 Art Collection.

London, Dec. 29.—The pick of the Kann art collection, purchased by Duven Bros. last August for a sum reported to be in the neighborhood of $4,000,000, has gone to America, one of the chief purchasers being Mrs. Collis P. Huntington. The pictures taken by Americans include several Rembrandts, among them being the famous "Old Woman Cutting Her Nails," painted in 1658, and his noted work, "Crossing the Atlantic."

KING EDWARD CUTS EXPENSES.

London, Dec. 29.—King Edward continues his work of economy in reducing the expenses of the royal household. If it is decided to have the domestic work of his palaces done by the smallest possible staff, and he has abolished the system of keeping a full complement of servants at each of his residences. Only a nucleus staff—sufficient to keep the place in order—is maintained at each palace, while the full staff accompanies the court wherever it goes. In other ways the king has effected economies.

NEW RAILROAD PROJECT.

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 29.—A meeting of the stock and bondholders of the Mobile, Jackson & Kansas City and Gulf & Chicago railroads will be held here tomorrow, when it is said these lines will be formally consolidated into the New Orleans, Mobile & Chicago railroad, with a capital of $60,000,000. The consolidation is reported to be merely an organization of a new holding company to take over the properties for the Frisco system.

GIVE WORK TO MANY

Cambria Steel and American Shipbuilding Companies to Resume in Full.

Johnstown, Pa., Dec. 29.—Announcement is made that on the first of January practically every department of the Cambria Steel company plant will resume operation and fully 75 per cent of the men laid off during the recent financial stringency will return to work. Over four thousand men are affected.

Good News for Cleveland.

Cleveland, Dec. 29.—R. C. Welmers, vice president of the American Shipbuilding company, announces that his company will put back practically all its men by the middle of January. He says the company has an abundance of work on hand and that he expects a loosening of the money market after the first of the year that will justify the reopening of all the company's plants to their capacity. Fully 5,000 shipbuilders here will be re-employed. Another 5,000 hands will go back to work in a number of small factories that were closed temporarily in November. Business conditions will be normal by Feb. 1, it is expected.

RELATIVES WANT WEALTH.

Mary Baker Eddy's New Project to Be Fought in the Courts.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 29.—Disputing the power of Mrs. Mary Glover Eddy, head of the Christian Science church, to make disposition of so large a part of her fortune, formal notices have been served upon Trustees McClellan, Fernald and Baker, having in charge Mrs. Eddy's estate, ordering them not to take $1,000,000 to found the charitable institution recently announced or any other appropriation from Mrs. Eddy's estate, pending the outcome of the litigation.

PROPOSED BASEBALL WAR.

Question of Third Club for Chicago Will Be Settled Next Week.

Chicago, Dec. 29.—The matter of the proposed invasion of the Chicago baseball field by the American association will be taken up at Cincinnati Jan. 6, between President O'Brien, of the American association, and the National commission which meets in the Ohio city on that date. This action was taken at the annual meeting of the American association here today. Other business accomplished was the re-election of George Tebeau, of Kansas City, as chairman of the board of directors, and of M. C. Cantillon of Minneapolis as vice president of the organization.

ANCHOR IS WEIGHED

Admiral Evans' Big Fleet Sails from Port of Spain for Brazilian Capital.

Fort of Spain, Trinidad, Dec. 29.—The American battleship fleet weighed anchor at 4 o'clock this afternoon and steamed for Rio Janeiro. Accompanying the fleet were the supply ships Culgoa and Glaeser. Early in the morning a signal went up from Rear Admiral Evans' flagship Connecticut to prepare for departure at 4 o'clock this afternoon and steamed for Rio Janeiro. Accompanying the fleet were the supply ships Culgoa and Glaeser. Early in the morning a signal went up from Rear Admiral Evans' flagship Connecticut to prepare for departure at 4 o'clock this afternoon and steamed for Rio Janeiro.

Eagerly Awaited at Rio Janeiro.

Rio Janeiro, Dec. 29.—As the day for the arrival here of the American battleships under Rear Admiral Evans approaches, interest in the festivities that will be given in honor of the American officers increases. Preparations are now almost entirely completed, and while the program has not yet been issued officially, it is easy to perceive that the people are anxious and eager to repay the welcome extended to Brazil at Washington and Norfolk last summer.

THOUSANDS ARE ILL

Pittsburg Stricken With the Worst Epidemic of Sickness in Eighteen Years.

Pittsburg, Dec. 29.—What is said to be the worst epidemic of sickness since 1880 is being experienced in Pittsburg. Physicians estimate that thousands of persons are prostrated by grip, pneumonia and typhoid fever. Every home is affected in some manner and a scarcity of employes in large office buildings is seriously felt. The Pittsburg Railway company is having difficulty in manning its cars.

HIDDEN TOWN FOUND.

Mexicans Discover Many With Large Populations Previously Unknown.

Mexico City, Dec. 29.—The government engineers who are making explorations and surveys of mountainous tracts of land in remote parts of Mexico have made a report to the federal department of the interior to the effect that they have discovered a number of towns and villages, the existence of which was not before known to the government and which are not upon the official maps and records. Some of these towns are of considerable size, their population ranging from 1,000 to 5,000 people. They are situated in valleys in the deep recesses of the Sierra Madre, and have little communication with the outside world.

GOVERNOR TO CALL A SPECIAL SESSION

Legislature of Nevada Will Be Convened Within Two Weeks to Deal With the Disturbed Situation at Goldfield.

Executive of the State Decides Upon This Course Following the Receipt of Further Advice from the President—Formation of a Body of Rangers, Like in Texas, Is Proposed, and Meanwhile the Troops Will Not Be Withdrawn.

Reno, Nev., Dec. 29.—A special session of the Nevada legislature will be called tomorrow by Governor John Sparks. The governor said tonight that he would issue the proclamation in the morning, and the date of convening would be about two weeks hence. The call will be made at the request of President Roosevelt, who has notified Nevada's government that such action must be taken or the troops at Goldfield will be removed.

Jubilant at Goldfield.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 29.—The announcement made today that Governor Sparks would call the Nevada legislature together in special session has put an entirely new aspect upon the labor situation here. At least a portion of the federal troops will remain here for an indefinite period, and all fear of serious disturbances growing out of the dispute has vanished.

The mine owners are jubilant over the new turn of affairs and, while refusing to say what their program of procedure will be, they are openly and avowedly in a position to carry every point they have contended for. The officials of the union declare that they are not concerned about the troops.

Washington's Ultimatum.

Washington, Dec. 29.—President Roosevelt has indicated by telegram to Governor Sparks of Nevada that the federal troops now at Goldfield will be ordered to remain there for three weeks more provided that the governor within five days issues a call for a special session of the state legislature. The telegram of the president is in reply to one from the governor in which he sets forth the need of armed intervention and expresses the doubt that to call the legislature would result in the request from that body for federal aid.

Divided Into Hostile Camps.

"During the year 1907 practically one-fourth of the time was occupied in actual strikes, and several months in agitation about other strikes. Without considering the merit of any of the controversies, it is only necessary to state that the entire district became divided into two hostile camps; on the one hand the miners with their adherents and sympathizers and on the other hand the mine owners, with their adherents and sympathizers.

SIX SHIPS CHARTERED

American Farm Machinery Valued at $25,000,000 Now Going to Europe.

New York, Dec. 29.—A record-breaking shipment of American agricultural machinery is about to be made to Europe. Six big steamships having been chartered for the transportation of everything conceivable used in farming work. These cargoes will represent a value not far short of $25,000,000.

ARKANSAS BOY KILLS.

Conway, Ark., Dec. 29.—Near Volonia, in the eastern part of Faulkner county, today, Henry Bryant, a boy of fifteen, shot and killed his brother-in-law, Oscar McCord, aged twenty-six. A moment later John Bryant, the boy's father, dropped dead of heart failure.

WEATHER FORECAST

convinced that arbitration and peaceful methods are more certain and lasting means of improving his condition than by dynamite and the shotgun.

"This can only come about with time, and for the present, and some time in the future, the strong arm of the military must be in evidence to convince all that no other method will be tolerated.

No Relief from Legislature.

"The assembly of that session, with the exception of one, passed a resolution denouncing the injustice done Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone by the denial of a speedy trial. The resolution, however, was tabled, by the senate. It is a matter of only a few weeks since I called for the most expeditious action on the part of the members.

"For these reasons I deemed it impossible to convene the legislature in special session to meet the present emergency and still think it highly advisable.

Points Out Governor's Duty.

The answer of President Roosevelt upon the governor's telegram, where he is taking a winter outing, and wired to Governor Sparks from the White House is as follows:

"Your telegram received. It in effect declares that you have failed to call the legislature together because, in your judgment, the legislature would not call Nevada against domestic violence. You are in the United States for the United States for the use of troops although in your opinion it ought to do so.

Michigan Courts to Decide a Point of Much Importance to Packers.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Dec. 29.—Are water and flour in sausage adulteration? That is the question the courts of this state will be forced to decide as the result of proceedings brought by the state pure food department against three local grocery firms handling sausage sent to this city from Chicago.

Up to the State to Act.

"I repeat again, what I have already said to you several times, that under the circumstances now existing in the state of Nevada as made known to me, an application to the legislature of the state is an essential condition to the indefinite continuance of the troops at Goldfield. Circumstances may change and if they do I will take whatever action I may deem necessary to require so far as my constitutional powers permit. But the first need is that the state authorities should do their duty and the first step toward this is the assembling of the legislature.

FIRE CURE FOR BURNS.

New Method of Treatment Saves Lives of Several Persons.

New York, Dec. 29.—Physicians at Roosevelt hospital are enthusiastic over a new method which is being tried there for the treatment of severe burns. It is said to have been unexpectedly successful during the short time it has been on trial and the doctors say that a number of lives have been saved that would have probably been lost if treated by any of the old methods.

SIX SHIPS CHARTERED

BANKERS' PLAN NOT IN FAVOR

Bill Being Framed by Republican Leaders at Washington Will Not Give Sanction to Proposed Asset Currency.

Additional Circulation Will Be Provided by Expanding the Present System of Issuing Notes, Such Paper to Be Retired When Time of Stress Passes, and Limitation Will Be Imposed on the Use of Clearing House Certificates.

Washington, Dec. 29.—Senators Aldrich, Allison and Hale, who took personal charge of framing a currency bill that is to be the Republican measure for amending the banking laws and enlarging the circulating medium, are expected to have the act ready for presentation to the senate when congress convenes Jan. 6. Senator Allison will probably introduce the bill after it has been submitted to a caucus of Republican senators.

The general scheme of the bill, it is now announced, will not be for an asset currency which was proposed by the American Bankers' association and it probably will prevent a repetition of a large issue of clearing house certificates whenever the banks get hard up for cash. Additional banking currency is to be provided by expanding the present plan by which banks issue notes and there will probably be definite limitations of the amount any bank may put out.

RECEIVER FOR CHELSEA WORKS.

Detroit, Dec. 29.—The Detroit Trust company has been appointed receiver for the Chelsea Stove Works, of which State Treasurer Glazier is the head. It is estimated that the plant, with buildings, material, equipment and patents, is worth $750,000.

MOTHER AND CHILD BURN.

McArthur, O., Dec. 29.—Mrs. Boyer and one child were burned to death and another child was badly burned in a fire that completely destroyed their home near Hamden last night.

KANSAS IS FOR TAFT

War Department Head the Unanimous Choice of the State Central Committee.

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 29.—At a stormy session of the Republican state central committee, ending late last night, Secretary of War William H. Taft was unanimously endorsed as the choice of the party in Kansas for president of the United States. The state convention is called for March 4 at Topeka. A resolution to nominate state officers by the primary system was tabled by the vote of 13 to 10.

London, Dec. 29.—Lord Curzon of Kedleston, chancellor of Oxford University, has agreed to allow himself to be nominated for the vacancy among the representative peers of Ireland caused by the death of Lord Kilmaine.

GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER.

Congressman Hobson of Alabama Proposes a Novel Enterprise.

Washington, Dec. 29.—An official journal, to be published weekly by the government, more often if necessary, and which probably will contain brief notices of the work of the executive departments and independent bureaus and proceedings of the supreme court of the United States and of congress so far as they may be of general public interest, is provided for in a bill which Congressman Richmond P. Hobson, of Alabama, proposes to introduce after the holidays. The sum of $75,000 is appropriated for the equipment and $275,000 for the expense of issuing the publication.

ENOUGH FOR 23,000 HOUSES.

Concrete to Be Used in Panama Locks Would Build Big City.

Washington, Dec. 29.—The engineers on the Panama canal are deciding in vast figures these days on the magnitude of the work to be done upon the locks of the canal. The amount of concrete to be used in building these locks would suffice to construct eight-room city houses of thirty by thirty feet, with two stories and basement and with concrete floors and with concrete roofs, to the number of 22,482. Allowing each of these houses a seventy-five foot lot, they would make a continuous street from New York to Philadelphia, with enough houses left over to make a row on one side of the street from Philadelphia to Washington. The houses would furnish suburban homes for 190,000 people or would house a population equal to that of the city of Minneapolis.

PENSION EX-PRESIDENTS

Plan Broached by Grover Cleveland Has the Support of Senator Allison of Iowa.

New York, Dec. 29.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland, under the title of "Our People and Their Ex-Presidents," has contributed an article to the Youth's Companion for Jan. 5, referring to the poverty of Jefferson after he left the presidency as a blow to national pride. Mr. Cleveland declares that a definite and generous provision should be made for the maintenance of the chief magistrates at the end of their terms. He deals with the subject at length and explains that he feels he can do so without his sincerity being questioned, since he is beyond the need of aid from the public treasury.

STATE REPUDIATES BONDS.

Millions of Paper Put Out by North Carolina Is Worthless.

New York, Dec. 29.—Governor Robert B. Glenn, of North Carolina, in a letter replying to a communication from Edward L. Andrews, who represents the holders of $11,000,000 of special tax bonds of North Carolina, which matured three years ago and were never paid, declared that the legislature has twice repudiated the bonds and that the state will not pay one cent for them. Governor Glenn declares that North Carolina has acted fairly with its creditors, but that it will not pay for bonds "concocted in sin and brought forth in iniquity."

Who can those wealthy New Englanders be who insist in going further with the Brownsville riot cases?

The bump given western football by the eastern teams was mild compared with the jolt given it by the eastern football critics.

Query: If it cost Mr. Newberry $34,000 to be defeated in a campaign for nomination as congressman, how much would it cost him to be successful?

Governor Hughes ought surely to get the New York delegation. His very admirable administration of New York state's affairs since he took his oath of office entitles him to it.

The committees in charge of Marquette's forthcoming charity ball are indebted to the publishers of the Ishpeming Iron Ore, the Negaunee Iron Herald and the Munising News for publicity given the affair.

As yet we have failed to observe that the recent decision of the brewers at Menominee to sail in and help reform the saloon business has had any effect on that business.

The same feeling that led the lower part of the state to include the lieutenant governor with the governor as officers which the people were to be given a chance to choose by direct nomination will lead the lower peninsula to turn its back on all candidates in this region for speaker of the house.

The same feeling that led the lower part of the state to include the lieutenant governor with the governor as officers which the people were to be given a chance to choose by direct nomination will lead the lower peninsula to turn its back on all candidates in this region for speaker of the house.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry, who is a candidate for delegate at large in the Detroit district, and who will contest that honor with Mr. Stair, suggests a direct primary as the best way in which to determine which man the electorate prefers.

"The upper peninsula press is almost a unit for James MacNaughton for delegate at large, and W. H. Johnston of Ishpeming and Chase S. Osborn of Sault Ste. Marie as district delegates from the upper peninsula to the national Republican convention next June," remarks the Calumet Evening News.

Considerable interest in the forthcoming charity ball is being manifested at Ishpeming, Negaunee and Munising, and delegations representing all three towns will be present. The committees hope that they will be large and representative, as the ball is to be a function of the most notable affairs of the kind ever held in this region.

Congressman Loud will, it is reported, have opposition when he again appears as a candidate. It will come from State Senator Frank L. Edinborough, of Bay City, who is credited with already having begun work to develop sentiment for himself, and who will, it is declared, shortly announce his candidacy.

A Denver judge has just sentenced a batch of promoters and engineers who have been exploiting the gullible public by means of sales of stock in the Lost Spanish Bullion Mines company, a typical get-rich-quick concern.

The charge on which the convictions were obtained was use of the mails with intent to defraud, a crime committed in the case of nearly every fraudulent mine promotion.

More money is spent on education in the United States than in any other country of the world. According to Dr. Elmer E. Brown, United States commissioner of education, this sum amounted in 1906 to about $500,000,000 of which $400,000,000 was spent on public education and three-fourths of this $400,000,000 was spent on the common schools.

"Every time Governor Warner is reported as having said or done anything commendable or otherwise, his political enemies make a grimace like that of the man who has attempted prematurely to swallow a mouthful of hot pudding," says the Lansing Journal.

"It will be a very prosperous new year," says the Ishpeming Iron Ore, "if you will get out and tell every one you are going to vote the Republican ticket. Why? Simply because that starts the wheels of confidence going, and they are the turbine drivers for the machinery of prosperity."

RAILROAD BUILDING SOUTH.

The Manufacturers' Record has just published its annual detailed statement of railroad building in the south, Oklahoma and Missouri, together with illuminating comment on the year's progress.

Louisiana this year leads the list of states in new railroad construction, replacing Texas, which has had first place for several years.

"Until the panic the railroads generally continued their progressive policy of making liberal improvements, spending large sums for expanding terminals, adding second track, revising lines, and erecting various buildings, such as shops, new stations, warehouses, etc.," says the Record.

The Record's figures show that the South has had a very satisfactory railroad development during the year 1907, and indicates clearly that it is to continue to contribute a large share of the country's new mileage, for although it is likely that much of the work projected for 1908 will be postponed all of it is necessary and will have to ultimately be done, along with much other new work which will be taken up as soon as it can be satisfactorily financed.

More money is spent on education in the United States than in any other country of the world. According to Dr. Elmer E. Brown, United States commissioner of education, this sum amounted in 1906 to about $500,000,000 of which $400,000,000 was spent on public education and three-fourths of this $400,000,000 was spent on the common schools.

These are tremendous figures and there may be those who still believe that they need justification. For the benefit of such why not contrast Russia, a country which makes no such efforts as ours to educate her people, with the United States. Russia contains 8,647,857 square miles of territory to our 3,567,563. She has a population of 129,174,297 to our 80,000,000. She has one student to every twenty-six inhabitants instead of one to every four.

That is one comparison; now for another. The total exports of Russia in 1903 amounted to less than $3,000,000 and the total imports to about $14,000,000. In the same year the exports of merchandise from the United States amounted to $1,025,719,237 and imports of merchandise to $1,392,231,302. This gives some indication of the difference in economic value of an educated self-governing people and an ignorant, despotically ruled people.

But there is another and a more striking illustration of the value of education which Andrew D. White gives in his autobiography. Dr. White was in St. Petersburg at the time the Crimean war, 1853-56. American inventors besieged the officers of the czar with offers of improved weapons which would put the Russian troops more nearly on an equality with those of France and England. Their offers were refused on the ground that the Russian soldier was too ignorant to use any gun more complicated than the old "Brown Bess" musket. Because of that ignorance Russia was defeated.

The Germans believe that they won the Franco-Prussian war because their privates were better educated than were those of the French. Evidently the ignorance of the Russian peasant and workman is a handicap to his country in both peace and war.

"Bumps is wild over his new auto." "Huh! You should see him under it." "The sick man cast a timid look at the door and whispered: 'Say, doc, you don't mind, just go outside and see if my old woman is listening at the keyhole, will you?'"

A LAUGH OR TWO.

Charity Naturally Painful. "General Booth, the head of the Salvation army, was discussing the anti-suffrage bureau that his church had opened.

"Kindness and charity," he said, "are factors of these bureaus. The charity will be of the right kind, I trust. There are, you know, two kinds of charity, one too much of it is like the barber's."

"There was a poor deacon in Warwick who had no money and needed to be shaved, and he went from a barber to barber, but none of them, despite his holy office, was willing to shave him for nothing."

"In the end, though, he found a barber who, on hearing his tale, said gruffly: 'Sit down there in that chair.' 'Suddenly the barber's dog in the adjoining room set up a terrific howling.' 'Be still, there, cried the barber, who muttered anxiously: 'What can they be doing to him?'"

"Alas," said the deacon, "I shouldn't wonder if one was shaving him out of charity."—Philadelphia Record.

An Illustration of Confidence.

John D. Crimmins, one of the builders of New York's $13,000,000 Plaza hotel, said recently at a dinner:

"The public confidence in capital was great at the time this magnificent hotel was projected. Now, with the public confidence in capital so weak, it would be impossible to put such a project through again."

"The doctor, after he had examined this man a little, shook his head severely. 'Just tell me, will you?' he said, 'how much whisky you have been averaging daily?'"

"The sick man cast a timid look at the door and whispered: 'Say, doc, you don't mind, just go outside and see if my old woman is listening at the keyhole, will you?'"

Thoughtful. There is an elderly business man of Cleveland, of whom friends tell a story amusingly illustrating his excessively methodical manner of conducting his business and his domestic affairs.

POOR HOLLAND!

From Paris Henry Sienkiewicz, the great Polish novelist, appeals to persons eminent in science, literature and art, to the whole intellectual world in short, to protest against the forced Germanization of Prussian Poland, and particularly against von Buelow's proposal to buy the land of Poles by condemnation for German colonists.

The World described von Buelow's scheme when it was first announced. The policy of Germanization goes back to Bismarck's time. Private-contract purchase of land only was contemplated by him, but the Poles are guilty of the atrocious crime of not wishing to sell their homes for the purpose of having their own nation extinguished. In spite of enormous expenditure, the Poles are gaining upon the Germans in the disputed provinces. So forced purchases are now proposed.

Meanwhile from Warsaw comes news that the Russian General Skalkin has ordered the suspension of the Polish School association and the closing of 1,000 of its schools, maintained to perpetuate Polish patriotism and language. The money of the association about $150,000 has been sent abroad to keep the government from confiscating it—stealing would be a shorter and uglier word, but more accurate. Russia is thus inciting Prussia, which has long made the anti-Polish school an instrument of oppression in the persons of little children.

Prince von Buelow's policy has caused anti-German riots in Galicia, where under Austrian rule the Poles are most fairly treated. It is a strange thing that it should be cultured Prussia which sets examples in barbarous repression to red Russia. Can it be possible that the German people will long approve such policies?—New York World.

BROKE THROUGH THE ICE.
Eugene Perreault of Lake Linden Drowns in Torch Lake.

Breaking through the ice while skating, Eugene Perreault of Lake Linden met a tragic fate yesterday afternoon. He was drowned in the waters of Torch lake. The young man was aged twenty-six. He was employed as a blacksmith at the Calumet & Hecla mills, and was the support of a widowed mother, Mrs. E. Perreault. The body had not been recovered at a late hour last night.

GOVERNOR WARNER COMING.
Definite Information Finally Received Regarding the Executive's Visit.

Lieutenant Hecker, commanding the Hancock Naval Reserve, was officially informed on Saturday that Governor Warner would surely accompany General Wagner, inspector general of the Michigan National Guard, when the latter comes to Hancock to inspect the division next Saturday night. To accommodate the governor, who is making a tour of the upper peninsula, the date of the inspection was changed from tomorrow night to Saturday night. Captain Frederick D. Standish of Detroit, commander of the Michigan Naval Brigade, will also be present.

This will be Governor Warner's second visit to the copper country. He was here in June, 1906, when the tenth anniversary of the Finnish college in Hancock was celebrated, and on that occasion he delivered an address. He also visited the points of interest in the county and made many personal friends so that on the occasion of this visit he does not come as a stranger. It is believed there is some slight political significance to his visit as he is again a candidate for the gubernatorial position.

COPPER COUNTRY NECROLOGY.

Mrs. Margaret Lynch, ninety-four years of age, died in Hancock Saturday after having been an invalid for two years. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Scully of Butte; a granddaughter, Miss May Lynch of Hancock, and by two sons, Patrick Lynch of Painesdale and M. C. Lynch of Lamont, Ill. The funeral will take place this morning from St. Patrick's church to the old Hancock cemetery.

Mrs. Rhota Kaarti of West Hancock, sixty-five years of age, died Saturday. Her husband and several grown children survive. The funeral will be held this morning from the Finnish church.

Hartley W. Taylor, a former resident of Hancock, died at Butte a few days ago. He was formerly general secretary of the Portage Lake Y. M. C. A. and had held other positions in Hancock. His remains were sent to Albion, Mich., his old home, for interment.

The funeral of John James, the young man who was killed at the Challenge mine last Thursday, was held Saturday from Grace M. E. church, Houghton.

UNITE ON EARLY CLOSING.

The businessmen of Houghton and Hancock have decided to close their stores after Jan. 1 at 6 p. m. every night but Saturday and Monday. The arrangement was made practically unanimous at the meeting held Friday night, and since then a canvass has been made which results in the compliance of all the merchants. The Torch Lake towns have agreed to a similar arrangement, and Calumet is the only place yet to be heard from.

TO WED CRISTAL FALLS GIRL.

Rev. John Wargelin of Eveleth, Formerly of Hancock, the Groom.

Rev. John Wargelin, a former Hancock young man and graduate of the Finnish college, is to be married Jan. 6, according to Crystal Falls address which says: "Rev. John Wargelin, of Eveleth, Minn., is to be married at Crystal Falls, Jan. 6, to Miss Maria Hoikka. Rev. Mrs. Wargelin is a graduate of the Finnish college at Hancock and following his admission to the ministry he did some missionary work and then was given a permanent charge at Eveleth. He is a young man who has made the most of his college opportunities and is a zealous worker in the cause to which he has consecrated his life. His bride is related to Rev. Mr. Hoikka, a well known Finnish clergyman on the Menominee range."

Mr. Wargelin graduated from the Finnish college two years ago. His first pastorate was at a new Finnish Lutheran church at the Soo, from which place he was transferred to Eveleth during the present year. He is a brother of Isaac Wargelin, secretary of the Finnish Mutual Life Insurance company of Hancock.

COPPER COUNTRY CHURCHES.
Mrs. Walker of the Good Will Farm Delivers an Address.

In the absence of the pastor the pulpit of the Portage Lake Baptist church has been filled during the past few Sundays by lay speakers. Mrs. Walker, superintendent of Good Will Farm, spoke last night on child rescue work. Her address was an exceptionally interesting one, based on her experience of some years with Good Will Farm, and also in the more extensive field of Chicago.

Rev. E. J. Cross of Mt. Morris, this state, who has accepted the pastorate of the Portage Lake Baptist church, will arrive in Hancock Jan. 2 to assume his new duties.

An interesting watch night service will be held at the Dollar Bay M. E. church tomorrow night. J. H. Edwards, Superintendent of the public schools, and Dr. E. T. Abrams of the state legislature will deliver addresses, and Rev. W. H. Palmer of the Hancock M. E. church will preach a sermon.

Edward Reid a student at the Michigan Agricultural college, who is spending the holidays with his parents in Hancock, sang a bass solo in the Hancock M. E. church on Friday night.

In all copper country churches yesterday the services had reference to the new year. There were special sermons and special music in many of them.

LAST DAY OF OLD YEAR.

Few Events Planned in Celebration of the Coming of 1908.

The year 1907 will slide into history tomorrow night, and in the copper country little notice will be taken of it. Several of the Methodist churches of the county will hold watch night services, and there will be a few social affairs, notably dances in Germania Hall, Hancock, the Calumet armory and the Hancock Elks' temple.

In Houghton the big event of the eve of the New Year will be a chicken supper served by the men of Trinity church. A church supper does not usually have the force of a big public occasion, but Rev. J. E. Curzon has made this one important. He will be assisted by one of the most prominent business and professional men of Houghton and Hancock, his parish including the two towns. There is to be a musical and literary program in connection with the feast. It is "Snow Flakes".....Cowan
Hancock High School Girls' quartet.....
Misses Noble, Finch, Scott
"Love Me and the World is Mine".....Ball
Miss Vera Scott.

Reading.....Miss Minnie Bassett.
Piano solo, "Invitation to the Dance".....Mrs. F. W. Taylor.
Vocal solos:
(a) "When Song Is Sweet".....Beethoven
(b) "Were I a Star".....Hawley
Con J. Holland.

Violin solo.....J. Bucholtz
Accompanist, Miss Clara Penberthy.
The annual concert and hall of the Hancock Maenorehor Lyra will be given tomorrow night in Germania Hall. It will include an operetta, "The Director's Christmas Eve," with the following cast of characters:
Mr. Frank, the director.....Fred Scheller
Tonia, his daughter.....Dr. P. Scheller
Schnoesel, the unwelcome suitor.....Lorenz Herras
Minna, the cook.....John Stinn
Willie, Tonia's lover.....Christ Welter
Zuira, in search of a third wife.....Theodore Klusen
Stolz, president of the Singing society.....Nick Herras
Frederick, servant.....Carl Stauffer
Chorus.....Hancock Lyra
Proceeding the operetta there will be a brief concert program with a solo by Fred King, a trio by King brothers and selections by Klinghammer's orchestra and the Hancock Lyra.

The dramatic event of the season will open the New Year at the Kerredge theater. This is "The Squaw Man," with Henry Jewett in the title role. It will appear in the Calumet theater the following night. In recognition of the holiday and the great popular interest in the play Manager Kerredge will also play a matinee New Year's afternoon. He has arranged for a special train at night for people from Torch Lake points.

MINOR CRIMINAL MATTERS.

Girl Accused of Stealing Jewelry Is Sought by the Police.

Levin's and Herman's jewelry stores of Red Jacket have informed the Red Jacket police that during Christmas week a girl giving her name as Mary Lieblin secured under false pretenses small articles of jewelry. She claimed that she was acting for Mrs. Elizabeth Saddy in taking the goods out on approval, and as her appearance was favorable the jewellers trusted her. No trace of the girl has since been found and Mrs. Saddy denies all knowledge of her.

The Calumet police on Saturday arrested eighteen school boys, charged with breaking windows and damaging other Calumet & Hecla property. Their parents paid the costs of the cases and Justice Arnold dismissed the boys with a reprimand.

Matt Hansen, an insane man awaiting examination before Judge of Probate Bentley, attempted to swallow an electric light globe in the county jail Friday afternoon. Sheriff Beck arrived in time to prevent a deed which would have undoubtedly worked serious injury on the demented man. Hansen will undoubtedly be committed to Newberry when the court has time to pass upon his case this week.

Theodore St. Arnold, of Houghton, who was released from the county jail Dec. 1 after serving three months for failure to support his wife and children, was arrested again on Saturday on the charge of forcing his little daughter to drink a large quantity of whiskey. The girl is only ten years old and the whiskey would have had a fatal effect had not the county physician been called in time to administer effective treatment. St. Arnold also forced some of the whiskey on his wife and she is recovering, but it is said he will be given a hearing before Justice Brand today.

Frank Murdoch, a thirteen-year-old Calumet boy, attempted to run away Saturday, but was captured at Houghton by Sheriff Beck and returned to his parents. He was headed for Spring Valley, Ill.

COPPER COUNTRY SPORTS.

Amateur Hockey League Plans—Rage for Skating Continues.

The second set of games in the amateur hockey league will be played next Friday night, Hancock at Laurium and Red Jacket at Houghton. The games during the past week gave the public a line on the teams and also showed the management of the different seasons their weak spots. The Hancock team lost to Hancock Friday night with a score of 7 to 5. The Houghtons were outplayed, the Hancock having much better combinations and a stronger defense. In succeeding games, however, by the absence of John Hamilton, the former high school cover, who played his old position in the opening game. He goes back to the university next week.

Houghton is to be strengthened by Ed. Haug, who is now attending the M. C. M. In his high school days he was a great cover and will play that position with Houghton for the remainder of the season. This will necessitate some changes in the team, but what those will be has not been announced. The Red Jacket and Laurium teams will continue to play for a time at least with the line-up shown in the opening game.

Skating continues to have a strong hold on the copper country public. The Amphidrome Saturday night held 800 people. A small proportion came to dance, but there were easily good skaters on the ice at one time. The Paestra at Laurium is attracting equally large crowds and the smaller rinks of the county are well patronized.

The open rink which has been conducted on Portage lake by the Yantic sailors closed yesterday. The promoters found that an open rink is not a paying proposition in the face of the greater attractions at the Amphidrome.

Some little interest in basketball is being worked up in Houghton. Ed. Haug is developing a town team and the M. C. M. has a strong five. Haug played last year on the Lehigh college team, champion of the Eastern colleges.

COPPERDOM BREVITIES.

Edward Demar, architect of the Soo, is visiting relatives in Hancock.

Mrs. H. J. Stevens of Houghton left yesterday to visit friends in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis M. Coughlin of Canton, O., who have been visiting friends in Hancock, left for home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil T. Thomas of Duluth are visiting Mrs. Thomas' grandparents, Captain and Mrs. Johnson Vivian, East Houghton.

David Klinglund, a M. C. M. graduate, was in Houghton Saturday enroute to Stambaugh from a Christmas visit at his home in the Soo.

Mrs. Jennie Dexter McCann of Marquette, who had been the guest of Miss M. Dignan of Houghton over Christmas, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Irving J. Sturjis of Boston left for her home yesterday after spending

Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Goodell of Houghton.

MICHIGAN.

The Michigan Copper company, which was started up in 1905, and which has been in process of development for the past three years, has at length reached a point where it would seem that the shareholders of the property would receive some return for their long patience and faith in the property. During the winter months the company hopes to get the stamp mill in the last stages of completion. The Michigan made money during all the last copper boom and so at the present time it finds itself in excellent condition, in spite of the low copper prices. The company is at present hiring stamping capacity from the Adventure and will probably continue to do so for some time to come.

The opening of the property followed closely the methods that Mr. Stanton had made so familiar to us all. Production was begun early and was continued, the scale of operation at the property broadening in accordance with the ability of the property to work out its own salvation. This scheme, while fairly long, has proved in the case of the Stanton properties entirely successful, and very few of them have failed to make good in the long run under this procedure. In its new mill which the company will largely pay for out of earnings, the company will have the benefit of two stamps of the most modern type, with a larger capacity than the two that the company has been using for a long time past at the Adventure. The company has also been steadily adding to its ore reserves. It has three shafts, named A, B and C. Of these the C shaft is the farthest advanced. It is bottomed at the 11th level at the present time and C shaft is expected to be bottomed at the same level in a very short time. It is now sinking between the 10th and 11th.

The opening of the property has been more thoroughly opened up, and it was there that the peculiarities that the company has had to contend with were originally developed and the plan of successfully treating them was evolved. The Rich and Calumet veins are the two present developments concern themselves with almost entirely. The Calumet provides the stamp rock and the Branch vein is remarkable for the mass copper which has been so abundantly uncovered in the property. The Stanton vein, which was the source of the property's original prosperity in the days of mass copper production, will also be looked into at depth, and it is the general belief that it will prove good.

Shaft B has also been making a good showing and the company already has plans for a new rockhouse to be installed there. Some very good rock has been stopped from the upper levels. With the three shafts in operation the company ought to decidedly better its showing of both mass and stamp rock and in the very near future to at least double its production. With the return of prosperity to the copper situation it should very shortly pass the last corner of its career. The property will make use of many labor saving devices and produce its output with characteristic Stanton economy.

SMELTER SITUATION.

With the closing down of the Utah Consolidated smelter Jan. 1 there will remain but one copper smelter operating in the state, that of the American Smelting & Refining company at Gardfield. Previous to Judge Marshall's decision there were five operating smelters in Utah. The Bingham Consolidated has worked through all the ores and other smelter material on hand and has "gone cold," never to resume its operation. Its reverberatory furnace it recovered between $50,000 and $100,000 in values. The United States Smelting company plant is finishing up its material on hand and it is rumored in Salt Lake City that it will build a new smelting plant in Nevada, where it will be in position to handle Utah and Nevada ores and not be held up by the farming interests. The Mines' Smelting company, a $10,000,000 concern, organized by the Heinze interests just previous to the troubles in New York, has made no move toward the erection of its contemplated plant beyond the purchase of a site. There is no question, however, that this smelter will be built, for Salt Lake capital will help out in furnishing the necessary funds. This Bingham company has secured a ten-year contract for the smelting of all the Silver King Coalition ores upon terms which make this contract alone of sufficient value to warrant the building of an independent smelter. Then there are the Ohio copper concentrates and the ores of the Bingham Consolidated to be treated as well as the products of many independent mines, all of which would guarantee a tonnage sufficient for the successful operation of such a plant. A good portion of the Bingham Consolidated smelter will be used in the new Heinz plant, and it is understood that the Bingham Consolidated company has voted to sell its plant to the Mines' company. The mines of Utah are now dependent upon the Gardfield smelter of the American Smelting & Refining company, and the company has no spare capacity at the present time to treat outside ores, except where the mine owners will make five-year contracts upon terms which are considered onerous.

MEETING STILL DELAYED.

No meeting of the directors of the Tamarack Mining company has been called for action on the dividend ordinarily due for declaration at this time. It is almost needless to say that no dividend will be declared at this time, by reason of the severe decline in the price of copper during the last few months. The well-known high operating costs of the Tamarack mine, six months ago $4 per ton, is now $8. The fiscal year of the Quinny Mining company ends next week, and despite the unsettled state of the copper market, which has existed for some months, the company's annual report should show up better in some respects than the exhibit for the year 1906. The average price at which Quinny sold its copper last year was about 19 1/2 cents and this year it is expected that it will not be far under this figure, probably between 18 1/2 and 19 cents. The product of refined copper however, will show a considerable increase over the 16,000,000 pounds produced in 1906. The gross sales were large and actual costs of mining per pound will probably show a slight increase, owing to eleven months of high wages. The construction charge will show an increase over last year.

EXPECTS 20-CENT COPPER.

Thomas F. Cole tells his friends that he believes copper will reach a price of 20 cents per pound in 1908, primarily as a result of the restriction in production which is now taking place all over the country. He says a 12@13c market for copper has shut down the smaller copper producers in all sections of the country and that he considers it absurd for any large property that cannot show substantial profits on 12c copper to deplete its reserves and give away its assets for a higher metal market. He takes the position that the American consumers are so short on stocks that they are actually sweeping up the market for any copper that they can get. He figures that the position that the American consumers are so short on stocks that they are actually sweeping up the market for any copper that they can get. He figures that the position that the American consumers are so short on stocks that they are actually sweeping up the market for any copper that they can get.

Talks of Constitutional Convention.

A. E. Sharpe, attorney of the Soo, who is a delegate to the constitutional convention at Lansing, asserts that it is the full sentiment of the convention to do the work of framing a new constitution most conscientiously and thoroughly and to best conserve the interests of the state and its people. Every matter dealt with is receiving the most thorough consideration in every detail. Advice and information are secured from every reliable source and duly weighed. Whenever a matter is brought up with which other states or countries have had experience, opinions are secured from those sources and it is not at all infrequent that competent men are brought from considerable distance for the purpose of addressing both the special committees and the convention as a whole on specific matters.

SHANNON.

The Shannon Copper company has plans prepared for the enlargement of the two old furnaces in its smelter, whereby it will have a smelting capacity of 3,000,000 pounds of copper per month. The new 100-ton smelter is turning out at the rate of 1,250,000 pounds per month. This is the normal Shannon production. It is planned to throw the two old furnaces into a single furnace after the same methods employed in the Washoe smelter. The new smelter is the public utilities commission proposition which he, himself, introduced and is pushing with all possible vigor.

In this proposition Mr. Sharpe holds that Michigan should have a commission composed of three high class men whose duty it shall be to exercise a control over all utility institutions of a public or semi-public nature, so that the interests of the people as well as of the institutions themselves will be best conserved. This would apply to all railroad lines, boat lines, electric car lines, telephone and telegraph systems and the like. The commission would have full power to regulate all matters arising between the institutions and the public and even between the institutions themselves. For instance, all controversies regarding rates, franchises, systems and time tables and general service and other matters of like importance would be taken up by the commission and adjusted. This plan has been adopted by a number of other states with remarkable success. Massachusetts, Virginia, North Carolina and several others have had commissions of this sort for several years and having realized great benefit as a result. Mr. Sharpe states that the proposition is now receiving a great amount of strong support and that he fully believes it will carry.

Upper Peninsula

Drowned in Icy Waters.
While walking along the slippery top of the Menominee paper mill dam Frank Lax, a mill employe, fifty-five years of age, missed his footing, fell backwards into the icy water and rolled into the river. His body was recovered a short distance from where he rolled into the water. A wife and two children survive.

Delta County's Tallest Man.
Isaac K. Haring, who died at Escanaba last week from an attack of blood poisoning resulting from a slight injury of the toe, was one of that city's oldest and best known residents. He was aged sixty-four and was a veteran of the Civil War. Nearly everyone in the city knew "Ike" Haring. He was the tallest man, by many inches, who had ever made his home in Delta county. His aged mother still lives.

Killed With "Unloaded" Gun.
Arthur Sweeney, aged eighteen, son of a foreman at the North-western Copper company's plant, shot and almost instantly killed Ralph Goldsmith, aged sixteen, at Gladstone last week. Sweeney picked up a 38-caliber revolver and thinking it unloaded pointed it playfully at his companion with the order to throw up his hands. Upon the boy's refusal to do so Sweeney pulled the trigger and the bullet went crashing through young Goldsmith's head.

Captured Live Owl.
While the car ferry Sainte Marie was crossing the straits on her late trip the other night, Captain A. H. Boynton saw a large bird flying near the pilot house. It lit on the bow of the boat and he returned the flashlight beam to it and ascertained what it was. He saw that it was a large owl. He called the attention of Wheelman Dan Sullivan and said there was a nice turkey that he could easily get, as the strong light had blinded it. Dan went down and took hold of the bird, which immediately began to pull up a scrap. Sullivan got pretty badly scratched up. He finally pulled the piece of canvas which he threw over the bird and captured it.

Given Fur-Lined Overcoat.
Humanity is admonished to clothe each other with the mantle of charity, and that charity covers a multitude of sins. The members of the official board of the First Methodist church of Escanaba did not have any of these things in mind, however, when they contributed to a fund for the purchase of a fine fur-lined overcoat for presentation to the pastor, the Rev. Frederick Spence. The only thing the members of the board had in mind was to give Mr. Spence something that would be fitting evidence of their appreciation for his successful work. A special meeting of the official board was held and the coat was presented to Mr. Spence by Attorney A. H. Ryall. Mr. Spence was completely surprised and in trying to respond to the presentation speech he proved the truth of his statement that he was "utterly lost for words." It is not often that the relations between pastor and people are so cordial as which exist between Mr. Spence and his congregation.

Kisses Win Husband.
It is reported that a pretty school teacher at a country school not far from the Soo, having trouble about her pupils arriving late, said she would kiss the first boy to arrive in the morning. Before sunrise four of the largest boys in the district were sitting on the doorstep, and at 6 o'clock every boy in the

TWO COMEDIANS.

Shortly after Raymond Hitchcock made his first big hit in New York, Eddie Foy, who was also playing in town, happened to be passing Daly's theater, and paused to look at the pictures of Hitchcock and his company that adorned the entrance. Near the pictures was a billboard covered with laudatory extracts from newspaper criticisms of the show.

When Foy had moodily read to the bottom of the list, he turned to an unobtrusive young man who had been watching him out of the corner of his eye.

"Say, have you seen this show?" he asked.

"Sure," replied the young man.

"Any good? How's this guy, Hitchcock, anyhow?"

"Any good?" repeated the young man, pityingly. "Why, say, he's the best in the business. He's got all these other would-be side-ladders lashed to the mast. He's a scream. Never laughed so much at any one in all my life."

"Is he as good as Foy?" ventured Foy, hopefully.

"As good as Foy?" the young man's scorn was superb. "Why, this Hitchcock has got that Foy person looking like a clown. They're not in the same class. Hitchcock's funny. A man with feelings can't compare them. I'm sorry you asked me, I feel so strongly about it."

Eddie looked at him very sternly and then, in the hollow tones of a tragedian, he said:

"I am Foy."

"I know you are," said the young man cheerfully. "I'm Hitchcock."—Everybody's Magazine.

Albert Fubert, one of the guards at the Marquette prison, had a runaway Saturday evening. The cutter in which he was driving was overturned at the Carp river railroad crossing, and the horse got away. The harness was broken, but nobody was hurt.

New Year's Reception—Miss Frances Jopling, assisted by a party of her friends, will receive on the afternoon of New Year's day at the home of Peter White, East Ridge street.

Marriage Licenses—Marriage licenses were granted Saturday to Ludger S. Berry and Miss Alice Edith Stoye, both of Marquette, and to Joseph A. Brown of Marquette and Miss Flora Kermode of Ishpeming.

Ed. McCarthy Here—Edward J. McCarthy, who was a candidate on the Citizens' ticket for the office of city clerk at the special election, when four other candidates made the race, is in the city for the holidays. His headquarters are now at Escanaba.

Date Changed—"The Squaw Man" will appear at the opera house next Saturday night. Originally it was billed for Marquette on Friday night, Jan. 3, but as this was the date of the big charity ball, Manager Koopeke of the opera house succeeded in having the date changed.

Last Day of Term—Today is the last day of the December term of the circuit court. Just before the holidays an adjournment was ordered, when unfinished business is to be disposed of. The next session of the circuit court will be the February, which opens the fourth Monday of the month, Feb. 24.

Condition Improved—Since he was brought to St. Mary's hospital about a week ago, suffering with a serious spinal complaint, the condition of Isaac Coleman has undergone some improvement and hopes are now entertained for his recovery. Mr. Coleman was employed at the Big Bay lighthouse station and was stricken with the affliction about a month ago.

Entertained at Cards—Miss Laura Blake entertained at 500 at her home on East Ridge street Saturday evening. Many of the guests were young people home for the holidays, and nine tables were played. Miss Rena Maitland, Miss Myrtle Mitchell, the Misses Wile and Keith and Leslie Maitland of Negaunee were also guests. Dainty refreshments were served, and a most enjoyable evening spent.

Painfully Injured—John Pratto, a lumberman, who was employed near Munising, was caught under a number of falling logs Saturday and sustained injuries which may result in his death. He is now at St. Mary's hospital. Besides suffering a broken jaw and a broken nose, a number of his ribs are crushed and he has numerous bruises. He was brought to the city on the afternoon Marquette & Southeastern train from Munising.

Rates for the Ball—The South Shore has announced special rates to Marquette for the big charity ball to be held at the Lake Shore Engine Works plant on the night of Jan. 3. The round trip rate from Negaunee and Ishpeming will be fifty cents and from points west of Negaunee and Ishpeming in the copper country, the round trip rate will be a fare and a third. Tickets will be on sale the day before the ball and will be good on trains returning the day after.

THROUGH AT OPENING OF THE NEW CHURCH

FATHER CORCORAN OF MANISTIQUE DELIVERS ADDRESS WITH STEREOPTICON VIEWS.

Rev. Father James Corcoran, pastor of St. Francis' church at Manistique, for two hours last night held the interest of an audience numbering nearly a thousand at the opening to the public of the newly finished French Catholic church. The spacious interior of the church was brightly lighted and well heated and every pew was filled. In addition to the speaking an excellent musical program was given.

The program was opened with the selection, "Meditation," by Sullivan's orchestra. This was followed by the duet, "Jesus Lover of My Soul," given by Mrs. Della Taylor and Alfred Gramstadt. Miss Mae Taylor then gave a piano selection, "Christmas Time," and Mrs. Taylor sang "The Holy City." Following Father Corcoran's lecture the orchestra gave a selection and Miss Cartier gave a vocal selection. The program closed with a duet by Mrs. Taylor and Mr. Gramstadt.

The stereopticon pictures shown were scenes from the life of Christ, from the Annunciation to the Ascension, and all the principal events of his life were shown. As the scenes were shown they were explained by Father Corcoran. While the pictures were being shown the choir sang. While one of the pictures of the Nativity was on the screen "Dieu a Visite La Terre" was sung. Gounod's "Ave Marie" was given when the picture showing the farewell of Jesus to his mother was displayed. While another of the passion pictures was on the screen "Stabat Mater" was sung. At the scene of the resurrection the choir sang "Halleluia." Miss Vangie L'Huilier also sang a solo during the course of the lecture.

Other Pictures. Besides the scenes from the life of Christ, numerous pictures of the Holy Land were also shown. Both present day and ancient manners and customs and costumes were displayed, and in connection with some of the pictures Father Corcoran related interesting and humorous anecdotes. Notable among the other pictures was the one of the old Pentateuch scroll, said to be the oldest book in existence. The event was successful from every standpoint.

MANY LOCAL GAGS.

Some of the Characters and Acts of the Hibernian Minstrel Show.

There will be local gags galore in the Hibernian's minstrel show which will be given at the opera house next Monday and Tuesday nights, and there will be a dozen laughs a minute throughout the entire performance. People you know will be dealt with in many of the dialogues, but it is stated that nobody's feelings will be hurt.

James J. Donovan, as the middle-man of the big minstrel show, will have his troubles with the six funny end men. On one side will be Holy Shepard, who is directing the show, Frank Hanley and Edward Pelissier. On the other end Ambrose Hogan, George Deegan and Fred Price will add to the fun-making.

Throughout the performance, which will be divided into two parts, a number of rattling good specialties will be introduced. Mark Ferris, in the big finale of the first part, will be one of the hits. Miss Cartier and her lazy moon act is another of particular merit.

The night came on, the good wife smiled to herself as she softly said, "Thank God, we're happy, healthy and bright. We all take Rocky Mountain Tea at night."

Ideal for Business Men

Our New Year's Greeting

and word of encouragement to our many friends in forming their good resolutions for the coming year is selected from an address delivered several years ago by Mr. David R. Forgan, one of the leading bankers of Chicago and now president of the National City Bank of that city. The quotation follows:

- "The life of a successful business man, though devoted mainly to making money, need not be sordid. He, too, may have his ideal. Let me suggest one:
- "To be HONEST, making money honestly or not at all.
- "To be FAIR, refusing to injure a competitor.
- "To be JUST, remembering that all must live.
- "To be KIND, regarding employees as something more than an investment.
- "To be CHARITABLE, giving liberally for the upraising of humanity.
- "To be HEALTHY, exercising as a duty.
- "To be SOCIABLE, having a side to friends not known to all.
- "To be LOVABLE, being more to a wife and family than a means of support.
- "To be SYMPATHETIC, fearing littleness of soul more than littleness of fortune.
- "To be BROAD, accumulating resources higher than the material.
- "Above all, to be TRUE TO ONE'S SELF, condoning nothing in self which is to be condemned in others."

HUNTER KILLS WHITE DEER NEAR THE CITY

SNOW-WHITE DOE FALLS BEFORE RIFLE OF CARETAKER AT THE HURON MOUNTAIN CLUB.

Thomas Gallagher, caretaker of the Huron Mountain club, is one of the few men who was lucky enough to bag one of the much-valued white deer. It was shot several weeks ago near the club. During the hunting season a white deer frequented the hunting grounds in the vicinity of the Huron Mountain club. It was very evident that all these in search of large game were aware of its existence, as it was pursued from dawn until darkness. It was some days before Mr. Gallagher, who after searching the thickest of miles around, got sight of the animal. It was on a dead run but was brought down with one shot, which penetrated the thigh, leaving but a slight wound.

The animal is a doe, being last year's fawn and is a beautiful specimen, weighing about 100 pounds. It is a spotted white. This is the only white deer ever shot in that territory. Mr. LaBonte is the owner of a white deer which was killed a number of years ago in the vicinity of the Yellow Dog river. Mr. Stierle has the latest victim at his photograph gallery and will stuff it after which it will, in all probability, be on exhibition for some days at the gallery. As yet, Mr. Gallagher has not decided what he will do with the animal. This is the first white deer that has been killed in Michigan in many years and the general belief has been that the rare animals have long since been killed off. That owned by Mr. LaBonte was killed several years ago, and also a number of others killed in Michigan and upper Wisconsin within the past two decades are held by owners in several sections of the two states.

REPEAT XMAS MUSIC.

Program to Be Given at St. Peter's New Year's Day.

Announcement is made that the program of Christmas music will be repeated at the high mass at St. Peter's cathedral at 10:30 o'clock New Year's day. The choir at the cathedral is composed of thirty-four boys and young men, under the direction of Father J. A. Sauriol, and was organized a year and a half ago. It has been well trained and is now doing excellent work. The repetition of the Christmas music is at the request of many of the parishioners, and the program will be as follows:

Ecece Sacrosancti.....
 Father J. A. Sauriol.....
 Noel..... Adm.
 Kyrie and Credo, "Our Lady of Lourdes"..... R. J. Sorin
 Gloria, St. Rose of Lima..... Nemmens
 Sanctus and Agnus Dei.....
 Father J. A. Sauriol.....
 Adeste Fideles..... Novello
 Introit, Puer Natus Est..... Gregorian
 Gradual and Hallelujah..... Gregorian
 Offertory and Communion..... Gregorian
 After mass, "The Angels We Have Heard on High"..... Lambillotte
 Soprano Solo and Grand Chorus.
 The choir will be accompanied by the organ and violins.

If you want the family healthy, strong and active during the winter, give them Hillster's Rocky Mountain Tea. It will surely make and keep the whole family well. See Tea or Tablets. The Staffors Drug Co.

REMAINS OF PIONEER WILL ARRIVE TODAY

FUNERAL OF M. H. MAYNARD WILL TAKE PLACE FROM HOME OF MISS C. S. PICKANDS.

MAY BE HELD TOMORROW

News of the Death at Jacksonville, Fla., of Prominent Marquette Man a Shock to Entire Community.

While definite arrangements have not yet been made, it is probable that the funeral of Matthew H. Maynard, who died at Jacksonville, Fla., will take place tomorrow afternoon from the home of Miss C. S. Pickands, 317 East Arch street. Mr. Fred Maynard of Chicago, who is now in the city, stated last night that he was momentarily expecting word that the body had reached Chicago. The services will be conducted at the Pickands' home by Rev. J. M. Rogers, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Maynard had for years been a member. Friends of the family and the members of the Masonic fraternity, to which Mr. Maynard had belonged since 1857, will attend the services at the house. The burial will be private.

Lived Here Fifty-Three Years.
 Matthew H. Maynard was one of the most prominent and widely known citizens of Marquette. He came to the city fifty-three years ago, in June, 1855. The news of his sudden death was received here Saturday morning and was a shock to the entire community. As he had done every year for several years past, with Mrs. Maynard he left the city some months ago to spend the winter in the south. They spent a part of last week in Jacksonville and had planned to go to Orlando on Friday. Mr. Maynard was stricken with an attack of la grippe and the end came speedily.

Mrs. Maynard will not accompany the remains to Marquette but will remain in the south, as it is feared that she would be unable to withstand the hardships of so long a trip and the sudden change of climate. That instance, however, Dr. Davis, "I only know it has worked and that my conscience will be easier for having tried it in this case. The retina does photograph the object last seen in life and does hold it on its delicate film for a certain length of time. I am sure of that. That instance, however, recorded when this film has been taken out and photographed on a delicate plate I am equally sure of."

Born in Indiana.

Matthew H. Maynard was the son of a Congregational minister and was a native of the state of Indiana. He was born March 10, 1832. Shortly after his birth his parents returned to Vermont where they had formerly lived before coming to Indiana in 1838. It was in Rutland county, in the little city of Castleton, that Mr. Maynard's youth was spent and where his early education was obtained.

After leaving school in Castleton, Mr. Maynard entered Middlebury college, from which he graduated in 1855. It was just three years later, when he was twenty-three years old, that he came to Marquette. He was admitted to the bar in this country and began to practice law. The year after his coming to Marquette he was married. His wife was Miss Mary E. Foote of Cleveland, O. They had three children, two of whom, Mrs. Reese and A. F. Maynard, are now alive.

Mr. Maynard was active in the political affairs of the city and county and he held a number of federal and county offices. He was county treasurer for eight years, district attorney, prothonotary, county clerk, register of deeds, postmaster for three years, and also acted as receiver in the liquidation of several banks. For a long period he was associated with Peter White in the law business. He was one of the oldest Masons in the city. Though not a charter member of the lodge, he joined it a few months after it was organized here in August, 1857, and was one of the first officers after the charter was granted in January of the following year. It is said that he was the first Mason initiated in Marquette. The office he held after the charter was granted was that of junior warden. At that time, in 1858, the order had only seven members, most of whom are now dead. He was one of the first worshipful masters of the order and held the office first in 1860-61 and '62. He also occupied this office during the years 1875-76 and 1877. He was grand master of the grand lodge of Masons of the state of Michigan. He retired from active life about fifteen years ago.

DREAM ASSURED HER.

Survivor of Disaster and Mother Who Never Lost Faith Are Reunited.

Nashua, N. H., Dec. 29.—Mrs. Mary Rowe of this city dreamed that her son, Edward L. Rowe, was in danger, but that he was saved. Her dream proved true, and tomorrow she will meet him in Providence. He was one of the survivors of the wreck of the schooner Thomas W. Lawson.

While the Lawson was foundering off the coast of Seilly islands, Dec. 13, Mrs. Rowe had her dream. The next day came the news of the disaster. The reported loss of all hands on board did not shake Mrs. Rowe's confidence in her vision. "We shall hear that Edward is all right," she said.

Later reports were to the effect that all were dead but one, and that he could not live. Still Mrs. Rowe's faith in her dream was not shaken. Then came the news that Edward was alive and would return home, and the mother was vindicated.

MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS.

"Writing from New York Saturday, Paine, Webber & Co. had this to say: "The stock market was quite buoyant in the early session, but during the last half hour the market eased considerably and closed in most cases under last night's level. The buying in the last few sessions has been mostly by the short element, there being very little investment demand. The presence of quite an extended short interest made it possible for the market to be rallied with ease, but still the elimination of the short interest, to our minds, weakens the position of the market. The bank statement, published after the close, was fully as good as expected and indicates a gradually improving condition. Still the January first disbursements have not as yet been cared for and although the feeling in regard to the financial situation is improved rather sentimentally than materially we are disposed to think the market will be irregular until the underlying conditions become more normal."

NATION'S ART COLLECTION.

Valuable Paintings and Other Works Nucleus of Great Art Gallery.

Washington, Dec. 29.—Though for fifty years artists have railed at "the country which had no art, which gave no impetus to art and did not even possess a national gallery," the United States has been for a long time the possessor of a magnificent collection of valuable paintings, which may form the nucleus of a great United States art gallery.

Congress will soon be asked to make an appropriation for the purpose of fitting up hanging galleries on the second floor of the Smithsonian Institution, in which many of these treasures can be displayed. Some are at present in the Corcoran art gallery here; others are on the walls of private owners who have decided to them to the nation when it shall be ready to receive them, and still others are stored away where nobody ever sees them. In fact, few people know that they exist.

Some of the treasures which will form the nucleus of an American art gallery were given by the late Harriet Lane Johnston, niece of President James K. Polk; by William T. Evans of Montclair, N. J., and by Charles L. Freer of Detroit. From surplus funds in the institution a valuable collection of etchings gathered by the late George B. Marsh has been bought. Individual pictures have also been given by J. B. Henderson, of Washington, and Miss Eleanor Bledgett of New York.

Greatest of these collections is that which Charles L. Freer has given. These treasures are at present at Mr. Freer's home in Detroit; the deer of gift which makes them the property of the federal government specifying the right of the donor to keep them until his death.

With the following enumerated treasures he gives as well the sum of $300,000 to be devoted to the construction of a fireproof building in which the art works are to be preserved.

By James McNeill Whistler—One hundred and nineteen paintings in oil, water color and pastel; 100 drawings and sketches, three wood engravings, 200 etchings and dry points, 165 lithographs, and all of the decorations of the famous Peacock room. That room, by command, must be reproduced in the National gallery in exact duplication of the original.

By the American artists Dwight W. Tryon, Thomas W. Dewing and Abbott H. Thayer—Sixty paintings in oil, water color and pastel.

Of oriental paintings—Two hundred and ninety-eight Japanese and Makimono; 121 screens and fifty-three panels by various Japanese and Chinese masters, besides four albums on Japanese art and thirteen Tibetan paintings.

Oriental pottery—Nine hundred and fifty-three pieces from Japan, China, Korea, Central Asia, Persia and Arabia. A small collection of Chinese and Japanese bronzes and lacquer work by Koyetsu, Korin and Ritsuko.

The Nile overflows its banks from July to October. This is due to the rainfall of the Abyssinian highlands.

MANY HAVE MOVED AWAY.
St. John's Congregation Has Forty Families Less Than a Year Ago.

"Our congregation has lost forty families during the past year," said Rev. J. A. Keul, pastor of St. John's church, Saturday. "Most of them have gone to Colorado and Bovey. About one-half of the families who moved to the Mesaba formerly resided at the Winthrop. In view of this big loss our annual collection for the orphans of the diocese was gratifying. Our total this year was $206.08, compared with $178 last year."

Following the high mass next Sunday the annual congregational meeting will be held. The year's financial report will be a satisfactory one, as it will show the congregation to be entirely free of debt. The annual election of two trustees, each for two years, a secretary of the cemetery board for two years, and four ushers for one year each, will be held. T. J. Dundon and M. F. Lally are the retiring trustees, and William Leininger completes a term as secretary of the cemetery board. Rev. Keul's candidates for the trusteeship are Messrs. Michael Nolan, James Murphy of the Cleveland, Patrick Hennessy, Joseph Malloney, Frank Cleary and Dennis Harrington. Joseph Schilling, John G. Welsh, Thomas Hughes and John Losseloy are his candidates for secretary of the cemetery board; Michael Navin, George F. Ruez, B. J. Goodman, Jr. and Joseph Fitzpatrick the candidates for usher.

HIRING MEN FOR WOODS.
Lumber Concerns on Mesaba Range Are Increasing Their Working Force.

According to John R. Kroghdahl, a former Ishpeeming man, who is now with the Rainy Lake Labor Exchange, with headquarters at Virginia, Minn., the lumber concerns of that section are increasing their working forces. The Virginia of last week quotes Mr. Kroghdahl as saying that conditions so far as the labor market at Virginia are concerned are very satisfactory. Its article is as follows:

John R. Kroghdahl of the Rainy Lake Labor Exchange reports conditions very satisfactory so far as the local labor market is concerned. He states that no difficulty is experienced in putting all the men to work who ask for positions. The Virginia Lumber company and the Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg railway company are the largest employers as they now have upwards of 500 men working north of the city. Other lumber concerns engaged in cutting timber in this vicinity are also employing a large number of men but the total is not as great as last year at this time owing to the fact that neither the Virginia people nor the Weyerhaeuser interests are as active. The impression seems to be general that both these concerns will add many more men to the woods forces."

FUNERALS YESTERDAY.

There were three funerals in Ishpeeming yesterday afternoon. The first was that of the late Mrs. Martha Johnson of the Salisbury. The services were conducted at 12:30 o'clock at the home of her son, John Emanuel Grand, by Rev. E. V. Isaacson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church.

Mrs. Joseph Trudell, one of the oldest French residents in the southern part of the city, who died Thursday night, was buried yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Joseph's church. Death was due to a complication of diseases, from which she had suffered for some time. The family has lived on Excelsior street for over twenty years. The surviving members are the husband, two adult sons and two daughters. She was fifty-five years of age.

The funeral of the late August J. Bjorling, held from the Swedish Lutheran church under auspices of the Swedish Home society, was very largely attended by members of the order and other friends. Rev. E. V. Isaacson conducted the services.

ANNUAL CONCERT.

Epworth League of First Methodist Church to Give It New Year's.

The arrangement committee for the annual concert of the Epworth league of the First Methodist Episcopal church, to be given New Year's night in the auditorium of the church, has prepared a fine program. The admission charge will be twenty-five cents. The doors will open at 7:30 o'clock, and the concert will begin a half hour later. The program will be as follows:

INJURED AT PRINCETON.

Martin Flax, a young man raised in Ishpeeming, was injured Saturday on the Swaney range. He was employed in the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company's machine shop, and while at work was caught by a belt and carried to the ceiling. He sustained a compound fracture of the right leg about midway between the ankle and knee and the right arm was dislocated at the elbow. He was brought to the Ishpeeming hospital. Last evening he was reported as doing well, considering the nature of his injuries.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

John Brown is here from Chicago, on a visit to his family.
Walter Hummel of Milwaukee is visiting friends in Ishpeeming.
William Bannalack, bookkeeper at the Lincoln mine, Mesaba range, is in the city visiting relatives.
C. C. Mitchell, manager of the John W. Gately company's store in this city, left Saturday night for Chicago.
Harry Murphy, a former resident, who has been living in Minnesota for some years, is in the city visiting friends.
The Misses William Penhallagon and Etta Parsons of Dogeville, Wis., are in the city, the guests of John Strongman and family.
Robert Lyons, who has been in the employ of the Oliver Iron Mining company at Coleraine for some months past, is home on a vacation.
Miss Amanda Johnson, who taught for a time at the Ishpeeming Business college, left Saturday night for Butte, Mont., where she expects to remain permanently.
Dr. W. S. Picotte left for Montreal this morning. He will be absent from the city for a week or more, during which time his practice will be looked after by Dr. N. J. Robbins of Negaunee.

The Ishpeeming corps of the Salvation Army will give an entertainment tomorrow evening at the barracks. Several Marquette people will take part. The admission will be fifteen cents for adults; children free.
The members of the Owl club will entertain their lady friends tomorrow evening with straw ride, after which a short musical program will be given at the club rooms in the theater block. Refreshments will be served.
The Ishpeeming band made such a good impression with its concert last Thursday evening at the Ishpeeming theater that it has had a number of requests for another entertainment, and one will be given within three or four weeks.
The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen will give a grand annual ball at Marquette tomorrow night will prove a big drawing card for the young people of Ishpeeming. Many will avail themselves of the special train to attend the ball, which promises to be the event of the season at Fraternity Hall.
Over 100 couples attended the third of the series of Elks' parties Friday night at Braastad's hall. A number present were from Negaunee. Dancing started promptly at 8:30 and continued until 1 o'clock. Trombly's complete orchestra furnished most satisfactory music and a fine lunch was served.
Rev. F. W. Jewell, pastor of the Methodist church at Rogers City, Mich., who is visiting relatives in the city, addressed a large congregation at the Salvation Army barracks yesterday afternoon. Rev. Jewell has many friends and acquaintances here, as he resided in Ishpeeming for some time prior to fifteen years ago.

Gertrude Merrill Rowe, aged five years and four months, daughter of Nathaniel Rowe, 408 East Ridge street, died yesterday morning at an early hour, diphtheria being the cause. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at the house by Rev. C. L. Adams, pastor of the First Methodist church.

CUBANS HAVE NEW BUGBEAR.

Start Story of Plot to Foist American President on the Island.

Washington, Dec. 29.—The war department is making political falsehoods occasionally these days that does not pertain to the campaign of its secretary, Mr. Taft. The Cuban output has to be handled sometimes in the insular bureau of that department, for the Cuban politicians ever ready to invade American newspaper columns. While Governor Magoon is the head of the Cuban government, he reports through the war department.

One of the latest evidences of desperate Cuban politics is a widely circulated statement that a plot is being hatched, with the knowledge of Washington officials, to foist an American president upon the island. It is recognized at that department as an effort to discredit Gen. Mario Menocal, the leading Cuban conservative, whom Secretary Taft favored for the presidency, when Palma resigned, and when, for a while, it was thought feasible to put some Cuban in his place.

Menocal is almost as much a resident of the United States as ex-President Palma was. He lived here for several years, attended the Maryland Agricultural college and afterward graduated at Cornell university.

General Menocal is an engineer by profession and one of the big men of Cuba. He is manager of the Chafarina sugar estate, owned by an American company, and said to be the largest in the world. Naturally he is much in sympathy with the United States, but he is not an active candidate for president. He has been much mentioned in that connection, along with another conservative candidate, Manuel Sanguilly, who used to be a Cuban senator.

Election a Long Way Off.

There is much scepticism at the war department about Cuba having any presidential election for a long time to come, although President Roosevelt has expressed the hope that it might be held within a year. The Magoon government is running along smoothly and the census of the inhabitants has recently been completed. There remains a vast amount of tabulation before the voting lists, which will comprise about 400,000 men, can be made up. The war department will insist upon the municipal and provincial elections being held first. When those subordinate governments are well established and able to go it alone for a few months without disturbance a presidential election may follow.

It is hardly expected, however, that the three or four political parties will consent to the holding of an election, and matters are otherwise in such an unsettled state that an election might demonstrate the necessity for continued occupation of the island. If the little republic is to go it alone again, the authorities here want it to start under the best possible auspices.

Liberals Have Split.

The Liberals have split into two parties and already have two candidates in the field. One is General Jose Miguel Gomez, former governor of Santa Clara province, and also Liberal candidate for the presidency against Palma; the other is Dr. Alfredo Zayas, formerly a senator from Habana, the manager of the Gomez campaign committee, and now a member of the advisory committee of the provisional government. to patent buckets which admitted no luto, it was taken to the pasteurizing department, where it was treated and settled ready for the consumer.
One of Mr. Willetts' employes roughly estimates that, counting in the value of the dairy buildings, which cost $500,000, the cows, which cost from $30 to $3,500 each, and all the labor and other expenses, the milk he has sold has cost him about $10 a gallon.
The piggery had been as much of a model as the dairy and if Mr. Willetts could get about $118 a pound for the pork he would come out even on his pigs. The chicken farm has been another model one, but until the public becomes accustomed to paying about $35 a pair for its fricasseed spring chickens Mr. Willetts' chicken farm could not be productive of profit.

WHY THE "DOG" WATCH?

A Nautical Problem That Stumped Admiral Fighting Bob Evans.

Ever ask a sailor man or a know it all sharp why the dog watch is so called? Chances are he will reply:

"Why, the dog watch is two short spells, from 4 to 6 and from 6 to 8 in the evening, to break the monotony of the regular four hour watches, so that the same men will not stand watch during the same hours every day."

"Simple and lucid. But hit them with this: 'Why is the word "dog" applied to this short watch? You have a double half shift on every son of Neptune, from fo'c'st'le to quarterdeck, says the New York sun."

"The first question was put to the officers' mess of a big battleship during the week-end visit of our special prize grader to New York harbor, and without exception, from executive officer of a quarter century's service on every sea on the maps to the ensign with his first stripe, they all gave the book answer. 'Not one could explain the why of the dog.' A boat's crew from the same ship could not give even the stereotyped explanation of the general term dog watch, although a gunner's mate allowed that "it might be they once had dogs on ships and they were let loose when this watch was on."

"An officer of an Atlantic liner said he never heard so silly a question. "Why, the dog watch is the dog watch that's all," he explained. "There's no why or wherefore about it. It's always been the dog watch and always will be. Read sea yarns by the book writers who never saw a greater sheet of water than the village millpond and you'll hear lots about the dog watch."

"Having had the matter disposed of so easily by this officer, inquiry was pushed to the East river, where there may be found men who have been going down to the sea in real ships for more years than many of the steamer lines have existed. The pursuit of the dog was useless. Not a grain of old nor a young line soaked merchantman knew or cared why the dog was before the watch. One old fellow inquired: "Why do you want to know that for?" "For information," "Well, I'm blamed if that ain't amazing funny."

"That was on the verge of discouragement. Battery Dan was sought, but the distinguished authority was on vacation. "Say," suggested a Harlem boatman, "what's the matter with fighting Bob? He's a bully boy, and if he can't tell you the great American navy will lose caste."

"So up to the rear admiral went the query: "Will you kindly inform me why the name "dog" is applied to "dog watch" and up from Fortress Monroe came the answer:

"Dear Sir—I am unable to give you the information you ask about the dog watch. Of course, we all know why the watch is made two hours, but no one seems to know why the name dog will be applied."

"You're very truly, R. D. EVANS. "Think of it—the commander of the great fleet of fighting boats unable to tell why the dog has been on the watch since ships sailed or steamed. The investigation now excited the suspicion of a native fake, and there was a momentary thought of phoning to Oyster Bay when a wireless flash suggested the simpler and more fascinating recourse to a public library.

The dictionaries were merely aggravating, telling nothing unknown to the most common seaman. "Five thousand Facts and Fancies" (Patnaus) was the only book found that sought to throw light on the matter, and its explanation reads:

"Dog Watch (a corruption of dodge watch). "The dog watch was introduced to prevent the same men from always keeping watch the same hours of the day; hence on these occasions the sailors are said to dogle the routine, or to be doing dodge watch."

There you have it, as fresh as a gourd of water from the old spring by the chestnut tree.

If these steamships get much faster there won't be time to play more than one round of jackpots on the way across.

Negaunee Department

MISS TAYLOR RESIGNS. Will Be Succeeded at Case Street School by Miss Blanche Jeckell. LARGE COLLECTION. St. Paul's Congregation Contributed Over $360 for Orphans.

Miss Lillian Taylor, who has taught in the first grade at the Case street school, has resigned her position. Miss Blanche Jeckell, who taught here for some years prior to last June, and who is now teaching at Colorado, Minn., has been tendered the place and is expected to accept and to be here for the opening of the term a week from today.

The members of the board of education are much pleased with the success of the night school. The daily attendance from the opening night until the close, just before Christmas, was 109 1-5. There are over 130 enrolled. None of the students are under twenty years of age and some of them are from thirty-five to forty. Among the students are several business men.

The school will reopen a week from tonight and three sessions will be held each week during the term, on Monday, Tuesday and Friday evenings, from 7 until 9 o'clock. There are three instructors, an assistant having been added in the typewriting department. Among the students are many girls and young men raised in the city who started to work before finishing their high-school course. There are also several foreigners who have little knowledge of the English language. Some of the latter are in the primary department. The students, as a rule, are learning rapidly.

LIVELY SOCIAL SEASON.

Young People of Two Cities Have Been Kept Busy the Past Week or More.

From a social standpoint the remainder of the winter promises to be lively in both Negaunee and Ishpeming, as a number of parties are to be given. The past week has been unusually active, as there were a number of entertainments and dances. A number of young people attending school or working at other points are visiting relatives and friends in the two cities, and the assembly here Thursday night and the Elks' hop at Ishpeming Friday night were largely attended by the visitors.

The Woodman's ball at Braenstad's hall, Ishpeming, tomorrow night will be largely attended by Negaunee young people, and many here plan to attend the big charity ball at the Lake Shore Engine Works plant in Marquette Friday night. Tickets can be purchased at Kirkwood's, Perkins' and O'Donoghue's drug stores in this city. Much interest is shown in the big function, and it is expected that the representation from both Negaunee and Ishpeming will be large. It is already certain that the ball will surpass any similar affair ever given in this part of the country.

The second of the series of assembly parties will be given after the first of the year, but the date has not yet been decided on. Later in the month the Elks of Ishpeming will give another hop and there will be two or three other hops in the city before Lent. In the Hemattic city before Lent.

During the coming month most of the fraternal societies of Negaunee will have special entertainments at the meetings when the new officers are installed. The members of the local camp of the Modern Woodmen of America will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the society either here or at Ishpeming.

CLOAKS HALF PRICE.

J. W. Beachy will display Cloaks, Suits and Furs at half price at Mrs. M. E. Arland's today and tomorrow, Dec. 30 and 31st. (12-30-21)

MOVED TO COPPER COUNTRY.

Steve Tessell and Steve Brooks of Quinnesec who have been in the employ of Longyear & Hodge, diamond drill engineers, on the Cascade range, have been transferred to the copper country. The firm recently suspended operations near Palmer, also on the Swanzy range. They had four drills in operation at Princeton. A year ago this time there were in the neighborhood of twenty-five drills working in the Swanzy district but now there are only five, all of which are owned by the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company. There is a number of diamond drill men in this region out of employment. Several of the drills that were operating on the Menominee, Mesaba and Gogebic ranges during the past year have also been withdrawn.

WILL SING NEW YEAR'S.

Edward Hickey and Henry Navins of Ishpeming, who assisted the choir of St. Paul's church at midnight mass and the 10:30 service Christmas morning, will be heard again at the high mass New Year's day. Their solo were much appreciated by the members of the congregation and Miss McAuliffe, director of the choir, and several requests that they be asked to sing again. Messrs. Navins and Hickey were members of St. John's church choir at Ishpeming for a number of years.

UNIFORMS THIS WEEK.

The new uniforms of the Union indoor baseball team are expected here from the Spaulding house this week. The shirts and trousers will be maroon color, with the letter "U" in black on the breast of the shirt. Four or five members of the Union team weigh in the neighborhood of 200 pounds, and the others are less than 150 pounds. The team expects to have its next game some evening next week.

DIED ON THE MESABA.

George May, who spent the greater part of his life in Negaunee, died Saturday on the Mesaba range. He was 67 years of age and was expected here this morning on the early train. His mother, Mrs. John May, and three sisters, Mrs. John Mulvey, and the Misses Anna and Mary May, former a teacher in this city, reside here. Funeral arrangements will be completed today.

CLOAKS HALF PRICE.

J. W. Beachy will display Cloaks, Suits and Furs at half price at Mrs. M. E. Arland's today and tomorrow, Dec. 30 and 31st. (12-30-21)

FIST FIGHT MAKES SOLONS LAUGH.

"Undesirable" Assignment That Caused It One of the Best Possible.

GAY TIME FOR ALL WHO ARE ON WITH M'KINLEY

Representative Booher, the Cause of It All, Will Have a Chance to Enjoy Life With Congress' Star Host.

Washington, Dec. 29.—The whole house of representatives is laughing because De Armond and Williams pulled off a sensational "scrap" over the assignment of Representative Charles F. Booher to the most desirable committee in the house. Of course, the committee on coinage, weights and measures isn't a very important one, and probably not more than a session or two will be held during this congress, but think who is its chairman!

The Hon. William B. McKinley of Illinois has this distinction, and before he gets through with his job Booher, who leaped into fame as the cause of a congressional fistfight, will thank his lucky stars. For McKinley is the greatest promoter of junkets and the most lavish entertainer and giver of feasts who has a right to hang his hat under the dome. It was McKinley who organized a personally conducted tour of the tropics last spring, and took Speaker Cannon and a big party of statesmen to Panama at his own expense. And when he came back he gave a reunion dinner, which was the most elaborate and expensive ever "pulled off" in Washington. He was one of the organizers of the Taft "Cupid" junket to the Philippines, when Miss Alice Roosevelt met her fate, as well as others of her girl friends. McKinley, several months ago, took a large and appreciative bunch of congressmen and newspaper correspondents to Jamestown and bore all the expense and paid for the publication of a book about it, and "stands" for an elaborate and costly dinner about once a month to the "James-town Survivors." As a dinner host he is sans peur et sans reproche, and holds a high rank in the hall of gastronomic fame, which nobody has ever filled so adequately. In fact, McKinley of Illinois has so much money that he doesn't know what to do with it, and it is his delight, not being a "tight wad," to give his friends the best times of their lives about once a week.

Once a man plays in great luck to get on his committee. In fact, scarcely had the clouds of the Williams-De Armond strife faded away before Booher received an invitation from McKinley to one of his famous feasts, slated for next week. All of which goes to show that the minority leader and the Missouri solon acted a little too hastily when they got to blows over Booher's assignment to coinage, weights and measures. Booher may not be so much of a gourmet as he is thought to be, but he certainly will have a good time.

Twice a day, usually at noon and again at 4 p. m., Secretary Taft directs that the big "clock door" of his office at the war department be opened wide. It is the signal that he is ready for quizzing by all the newspaper correspondents who have gathered. He pushes aside the papers on his desk, tilts back in his broad swivel chair, and faces the throng of reporters who are waiting for the freest and best natured talker on such occasions of any member of the cabinet. He tells many things that he doesn't want published, but, nevertheless, there are some things that he does not talk about at all.

One is politics. After he had been questioned the other day from every possible angle regarding his candidacy and had parried every question, he added:

"I'd rather talk about the Philippines, gentlemen. That has been a very convenient topic of conversation recently. I can discuss that when I do not feel at liberty to talk about politics."

There are just as many lawyers and other professional men as ever among the 391 members of the house of representatives. But an abnormal number have a great desire to qualify as farmers. "Uncle Jock" Cannon has proof of this in the fact that more members applied this year for a place on the agricultural committee than applied for any other house committee. Therefore it has not been regarded as an especially desirable committee. In fact, it has been looked upon as a minor committee, assignment to which could not be viewed as anything of a distinction. In very many states there has been an awakening among the farmers to the extensive and exhaustive work the department of agriculture is doing and also to the constantly increasing appropriations congress is voting for that department. Members, of course, except those with urban constituencies, keep a sharp eye on the farmer vote, and they think the agricultural committee nowadays is rich in opportunities.

"Democrats get over the grief of defeat mighty easily," said Representative Hines of New Jersey in one of the house lobbies the other day. "Reminds me of an old Dutchman I used to know. His wife died, fell down a well, and my old friend didn't put a long face on it every long, but brought home another wife in about a week. He said: 'Well, this was a little bit unexpected and sudden, but the boys determined to give the proper kind of a celebration. They assembled at his home on his wedding night, and gave him a 'belting.' Hogs were tooted, bells rung and an awful din made. Finally the Dutchman could stand it no longer. He raised a front window and bawled out: "Why don't you boys stop making of the noise? Don't you know there was a funeral here soon, alrehty?"

FORM "FAMILY" TRUST. Senator Davis Names His Daughters as Private Secretary and Laborer.

Washington, Dec. 29.—Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas, who denounced the trusts with such vehemence a week after he was sworn in as senator, has put himself on record as being not opposed to the family trust in matters of patronage. The senator found at his disposal as a senator, after he took the oath, two small appointments, one a private secretary at $1,800, the other a laborer at $900 a year. He conferred the appointments on each of his two daughters. Some of the colleagues of the Arkansas "trust buster" have suggested the advisability of increasing the latter's quota of patronage, as Mr. Davis has six other children not provided with appointments.

RACING HIT BIG BETTORS HARD.

LATTER'S WINNINGS PUT AT $200,000.

Dave Johnson Started in With $100,000 in Cash, a Horse and an Automobile—Now He Is Broke.

New York, Dec. 29.—Plungers and big bettors had a bad session at the race tracks this season. From the very outset things would not break well for the heavy speculators, so that, with the exception of John W. Gates, the western millionaire, Jesse Lewisohn and a few others, all wound up on the wrong side of the slate. Bookmakers, too, suffered, but no individual loser lost as much as either Gates or Lewisohn.

It was at the Sheepshead Bay meet that Gates made his biggest killing. Spots Darnell was the horse running for Boots Darnell, who laid up in 4 to 5 when Gates began to plunge. From $25,000 to $40,000 was the amount estimated that he got down at these figures, and Saylor won by a neck. When the story of the winning was published and a steward of the Jockey club asked Gates to explain the millionaire plunger put up a great bluff. When his answer was known in the betting ring there was no end of merriment among those who knew. He had said:

"I bet just $1,500 on Saylor, and of that amount I let one of my friends have $500, while another took the same amount, so that I only had $500 on for myself. Darnell! Why, he didn't bet at all, he was so busy telling his friends what a good thing Saylor was! I never bet big money. I'm only a piker!"

Cleaned Up $200,000.

It is said that if Jesse Lewisohn won a dollar he cleaned up $200,000 on the year. Lewisohn, who laid up in the hospital as the result of an operation continued to send his wagers to the different tracks and showed rare judgment in making his selections, too. Two years ago Lewisohn went abroad after dropping $250,000 to the books. But he came back with renewed confidence and did so well that when the recent campaign opened he began speculating on a big scale.

But the gamest bettor of them all known as a betting freak, is Dave Johnson. He's either got thousands or millions. Now he has the latter. When Johnson went on the track last spring he had a bank roll of over $100,000, a handsome automobile and one of the fastest sprinters on the turf—Rosenben. Now he has not a dollar. Rosenben is sold and his automobile is a thing of the past. But he will come back; he has been down and out so many times before that it is nothing strange to him. He was and is a plunger. Anything from $5,000 to the size of his roll he will put down on a horse that "looks good" to him. He would win big money one day and drop it and more the next. Before the season was over he didn't have a dollar in the world, and was sitting behind one of the bookies looking on.

Sweats Off on Betting.

"I'll never play the races again," was the stout declaration of Timothy D. Sullivan as he was leaving the Brighton track one day in December. He lost $130,000 this year, and $50,000 alone on Miller's mounts. Big Tim began the 1907 campaign with great expectations, but things broke hard. Among other of the big winners on the track during the season were Frank Farrell, owner of the New York American baseball team, who cleaned up about $50,000; Charley Ellison, who at one time was valet to Tommy Burns, the jockey, who got away with about $100,000; Joe Yeager, who was $150,000 to the good before the Saratoga meet, but who dropped the bigger part of this roll there; F. Carman, the amateur whist player, who got off with about $100,000, and Chicago O'Brien, who went West about $50,000 to the good. George Wieslock, former president of the Met, who played from the ground this year, cleared about $150,000.

The heaviest losers, their aggregate losses about meeting the winnings of those mentioned, were Al Dryer, a close friend of Gates; A. B. Hudson, another of the Gates-Drake crowd; Paul Rainey of Cleveland and his brother Roy, Eddie McDonald and Whitey Langdon.

Get Enough to Laugh.

As for the bookmakers, the profits and losses were about evenly divided. The big winners were Louis A. Cella about $50,000; George Ross, about $80,000; Jack McGinnis and Emil Herz, with William H. Davis, dean of the club house commissioners. "The only man who's got any ready money nowadays is Diamond Jim Brady," said a frequenter of the Waldorf-Astoria the other day. "Brady bent the race this year, not for a large amount, but for just enough to make him laugh at all of us losers." He quit about $100,000 to the good.

HEIRS TO PROFIT.

Court Sustains Claims of Descendants of Daniel Boone's Comrade.

Denver, Dec. 29.—Two Denver descendants of Captain John Sevier, to whom the government ceded large parcels of land in southwestern Kentucky, north-eastern Arkansas and some of the land on which the city of Nashville, Tenn., has been built, are about to become wealthy through a decision of the United States supreme court sustaining their claim to the property of Captain Sevier. E. P. Sevier of this city will receive $250,000 as his share of the estate and Charles Sevier may also receive a like amount. Besides the two Denver heirs there are six or more descendants of Captain Sevier in Colorado who will gain wealth by the decision of the court. They are residents of Routt and Grant counties.

Captain Sevier received a large gift from the government for military services during the war of the revolution and for assisting in the settlement of Kentucky. He was a companion of Daniel Boone. An expedition against the Indians was conducted by Boone and Sevier. After the death of Captain Sevier title to the land became clouded and by error the government ceded the land to other persons. A few years ago Samuel Sevier of Kremmling, Col., discovered that the grant had been made through an error and he secured the papers making the original concession and substantiated his case before the United States court of claims. The case was appealed on points of law, and the finding of the court of claims has been sustained by the supreme court.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Prevalent in the Kidney Disease. Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patients and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do. There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Write Home of Swamp-Root, writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

SANTA CLAUS RODE IN AN AUTOMOBILE

APPEARED BEFORE SALVATION ARMY LITTLE ONES SATURDAY WITH HUGE ELEPHANT.

606 PACKAGES GIVEN OUT

Parade Headed by Brass Band, With Three Hundred Children in Line, Escorted Jolly Saint to Hall.

Of all the Christmas celebrations that have been held in Marquette within the past few days, that which took place at the Salvation Army headquarters Saturday night was undoubtedly the largest, and it was also probably the most elaborate. Arctic ice, chilly blasts and frost are usually associated with thoughts of Santa Claus, and also heretofore he has used reindeer on his annual pilgrimages. That the old saint has acquired a few modern notions may now no longer be doubted, for when he was here Saturday he put up at the Hotel Clifton, traveled about town in a big red automobile, preceded by a brass band, and, most wonderful of all, straight from the jungle of the tropics he brought with him a huge elephant. The elephant was with him through the evening at the Front street hall, when gifts were given out to more than three hundred children. Six hundred and six packages were given out, for each child received two packages. One contained a box of candy and the other a toy.

Line of March. The celebration began just a little after 7 o'clock. At that hour hundreds of children had gathered at the hall and in the street outside. Through the efforts of Mrs. L. G. Kaufman, the automobile of Mrs. E. N. Breitung was obtained for the occasion. Daisy Corliss and Grace Corliss, daughters of Captain Corliss, with Cassie Baggren, Agnes Nix and several other little girls, had places in the big machine. They acted as attendants to Santa Claus. In double file, in a line a block long and captained by members of the Salvation Army corps, three hundred children marched behind the big automobile. The Salvation Army band headed the procession. It was truly a happy crowd that marched up Front street to the Hotel Clifton. At the hotel a halt was called and Santa Claus, who was waiting there for his young friends, joined them. He was given the seat of honor in the big machine with the little girls.

Space Was Doubled. The big hall of the army headquarters had been made bigger in preparation for the celebration. The partition which separates the dormitory from the hall had been taken down and with the beds removed the floor space was almost doubled. Fronting a stage, which had been erected, were rows of chairs and these were quickly filled. With the older folks the gathering numbered over four hundred. The children of the Sunday school were seated on the stage, near which stood the big Christmas tree, decorated with tinsel and long strings of pop corn. Captain Corliss made a brief address, welcoming the big crowd and extending to them good wishes. Then the program was given by the children. As told in Saturday's Mining Journal, it consisted of musical selections, both by the children and by the band, vocal and instrumental, and recitations and dialogues. Each number was applauded heartily. The children had been drilled by Miss Daisy Corliss and the entertainment they gave was one of singular merit.

Santa and the Elephant. It was at the close of the program, just as the band was playing lustily, that Santa Claus took the center of the stage, and his appearance heralded the one big surprise of the evening. With a twinkle in his eye he stepped on a chain. A curtain fell away from one side of the stage, and then with ponderous steps, his trunk swinging from side to side in time with the music, the great elephant appeared upon the stage. It was when the music ceased that Santa Claus summoned the big crowd of little folks. He told them to form lines and pass before him and his directions were complied with speedily. Big, heavily laden baskets had been placed ready to his hand, and as the youngsters passed before them he handed out the gifts—presents for little boys and big boys, presents for little girls and big girls, pretty presents for the toddling babies and candy for all. Happiness not only spread over the faces of the little ones; it stuck out a foot. They simply gurgled with delight.

Presents for All. The toys were of every imaginable sort. The little girl who had set her heart upon a dollie, got a dollie and, straightaway, beaming and happy, marched off with her new prize in her arms. The big boy and the little boy had their dearest wishes realized. There were books and games and toys, and candy. They all, three hundred of them at one time, and all youngsters, actually got enough candy, more than they knew what to do with.

The general appearance of the little people, as well as the number of them, was something of a surprise. All of them were well and warmly clad. Here and there one might see a thin pale face, but on the whole it was just an unusually big crowd of merry children. Their well-dressed appearance, at least in a great many cases, is easily explained, for there were many there who a week ago were not so dressed. Some of them, until the charity of the Salvation Army found them out, were scarcely dressed at all. As told recently, seventy-five Christmas baskets were sent out by the army on Christmas day and these fed about three hundred and fifty persons. Besides these baskets, more than five hundred garments of all kinds, for old and young, were given by the army, and Saturday night's brave showing, at least in many cases, may be traced directly to the Salvation Army storage room from which the five hundred garments were issued.

PREPARING FOR BIG EVENT.

Decorating of Hall for Trainmen's Ball New Year's Eve Now Going On.

Efforts are being made to make the dance to be held tomorrow night by L. Hood Lodge, No. 10, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Trainmen, the event of the season at Fraternity Hall. The work of decorating the hall is now going forward, and tomorrow florists will be in charge of the work.

The central feature of the dance will be the electrical display which will take place at midnight, and with which the new year will be welcomed in. In the center of a mass of floral decorations on the south wall of the hall will be the numerals, in electric incandescents, 1-9-0-7. As the midnight hour strikes these will change, and at the last stroke they will read 1-9-0-8. Besides a large number from Marquette, many out-of-town people will attend the dance. For the occasion a special train is to be put on from Michigamme.

CHARITY BALL OCCURS TONIGHT

PROCEEDS WILL BE DEVOTED TO PAYING SALARY OF TRAINED NURSE FOR WORK AMONG THE POOR.

A charity ball given in an unusually worthy cause will be held at Fraternity Hall tonight, and is expected to be largely attended. The object is to help defray the expense of keeping a trained nurse at work among the poor of the city. The nurse, Miss Hoyle, is already on the ground, and since her advent some days ago has had much to do. This philanthropy is one now generally practiced in American cities, and has been found to give fine practical results, and to relieve much suffering. In Marquette Miss Hoyle not only is assuming personal charge of sick cases among the poor, but is a visiting nurse, and by her advice is able to correct many illnesses in their early stages and to have precautionary measures taken that entirely obviate sickness in others. What she has already accomplished proves that the field is one that should be filled.

So much for the cause. The ball will, it is promised, be an unusually enjoyable affair. It is in charge of a number of well-known Marquette women, and will be complete in all its details. The full Marquette City orchestra will furnish the music, and the dancing will continue until 2 o'clock. The supper will be one of the special features. It is in charge of Mrs. J. G. Kaufman and a number of other ladies and will be a homelike and unusually elaborate repast, served in the hall, and with no extra charge. Tickets for the ball will be seventy-five cents for each person, and may be procured at Stafford's, Conklin's, Bigelow's, the First National Bank and elsewhere. No invitations have been sent out, and all people who want to dance and make merry in a brilliant scene, and at the same time further a worthy charity, will be welcomed. The hall should be crowded to its capacity.

The following named ladies are the patronesses: Mrs. Charles H. Schaffer, Mrs. Celia Northrup, Mrs. Edward N. Breitung, Mrs. Julia A. Hanson, Mrs. E. B. Palmer, Mrs. S. R. Kaufman, Mrs. D. H. Merritt, Mrs. James E. Jopling, Mrs. F. H. Begole, Mrs. H. H. Williams, Mrs. J. Page Laughlin, Mrs. E. W. MacPherran, Miss Beatrice Hanson, Miss Frances Dickerman, Miss Frances Jopling and Miss Suzette Williams.

NEW PASSENGER ENGINE HERE.

Third of Consignment of Nine from Philadelphia Now at Shops.

The first passenger engine of the nine new locomotives that are to be added to the South Shore equipment was received Saturday. It is the third of the shipment, two big freight locomotives having been received Friday morning, as told in The Mining Journal. The remaining six yet to be received are now on the way and will be here before the week is over.

The big passenger engine left the Baldwin works in Philadelphia, where all of the nine were built, Dec. 16 in charge of C. Baker, of the Baldwin company. The engine is of the Mogul type and weighs 100 tons, with tender, and about seventy-two tons standing alone. It will be known as No. 602 and will be ready for service by tomorrow morning. The length of the drivers of the new engine is sixty-four inches and her cylinders are nineteen by twenty-four inches. The two freight engines which came Friday morning will be placed in service today.

COUNCIL IS DIVIDED ON SALOON QUESTION

IF TIE VOTE GIVES MAYOR ROBERTSON DECIDING BALLOT, NUMBER WILL BE REDUCED.

COMPROMISE IS SUGGESTED

If Aldermen Limit Number of Saloons, the Method of Choosing Twenty-Five Will Be a Hard Problem.

The question of limiting the number of saloons in Marquette is the one important and interesting bit of municipal business to which many persons interested are looking forward, and as the next council meeting, at which the question is to come up for vote, is to be held just a week from today, there is a deal of anxious speculation about what the aldermen propose to do.

It is said that the saloon question was the subject of discussion at the secret session held by the aldermen at the recent council meeting. It is also said that as a result of this discussion, it was found that the members of the council were pretty evenly split on the question. About four members of the council were strongly in favor of reducing the number of saloons, as provided in the Gordon law. An equal number were just as strongly opposed. The remaining members were divided in their sentiments, but had not fully made up their minds. If the members of the council remain evenly divided upon the question, and if the vote turns out that way, the number of saloons will surely be reduced, because in the event of a tie vote the question will be decided by Mayor Robertson, and Mayor Robertson has stated definitely that he is in favor of reducing the number of saloons. He has said that he will vote to limit the number of them, if it falls to him to decide the question.

Choice a Serious Question. That the aldermen will do something is now assured. If they do limit the saloons to twenty-five and pass an ordinance to carry out the other provisions of the bill, a serious question, the manner in which the choice of the twenty-five will be made, will arise. This choice could not possibly be made in a manner satisfactory to all interests. If it were made by lot, with the selection a matter of pure chance as has been suggested, it is more than half likely that those very saloons which are the least desirable would be the ones chosen to remain in business, and many saloon men who have always been careful to observe the law with exactness would be put out of business.

If the matter of choosing twenty-five men to whom to issue licenses were placed in the hands of a committee of the council, another suggestion, the members of that committee would be placed in a delicate position. Any method of procedure they might devise would leave them open to criticism from many quarters.

The method of reducing the number of saloons, not by carrying out the provisions of the Gordon law, but by making the business costly to those engaged in it, has been suggested as a compromise. It has been pointed out that under any circumstances, five or six of the present fifty will probably drop out. If the license were increased to $750 it is probable, so it is said, that it would result in six or eight more staying out of the saloon business next year. In this manner it is argued that the number would be reduced materially, and the council could adopt an ordinance providing that no licenses be issued to persons who had not been in the saloon business for a period of years. The ultimate effect of this procedure, it is contended, would be that the number of saloons would be reduced to twenty-five in time and without working hardship upon many men in the business.
