DAILY MINING JOURNAL

A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED).

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Of course it's Hughes. We knew all along it was going to be.

To hear Mr. Bryan tell it there is no longer any "enemy's country" in these broad United States.

The weather man continues to dish us up every possible variety of his goods except a heavy rain.

It was eminently wise of Mr. Taft to allow Mr. Bryan to have the last word without making any more ado.

Dr. Bradley takes a most complacent view of his recount when he compares it with a contest in the credentials committee of a regularly called convention.

The attempt of the New York bosses to head off Hughes by playing Secretary Root as their last trump card failed largely because Mr. Root refused to be played.

If President Roosevelt had appreciated what a heated colloquy between Bryan and Taft his letter to the gentleman in the west would give rise to perhaps he wouldn't have written it.

There's no doubt about it at all. Somebody has seen Mr. Stair. The Detroit Free Press has put out two successive issues without labeling the collective Warner men in the state as rogues, rescals and bootlegs.

Some of our Ishpeming friends want to run our Marquette-Alger county baseball teams up against the strong semi-professional teams of the U. P. Evidently they are willing to take a chance on being disillusioned.

The mass of Republicans of the state are of one mind on one proposition. They hope that the state board of canvassers will push whatever recounts they have to make so that the party will be able to vote for some kind of a candidate for governor.

There seems to be an opinion in some quarters that Attorney General Bird's post-primary views on what the upper peninsula needs have no more value than the Detroit F. P.'s ante-primary predictions as to what the upper peninsula was going to do with its vote.

Governor Cummins of Iowa announces that his first concern is going to be a strong, hard pull for all the Republican candidates in Iowa. The governor knows that this course is the one that will most strengthen his chances to be elected senator.

The friends of Edw. McNamara of Mackinac county were successful in each reing J. H. McCallum of Schoolcraft out of the Schoolcraft delegation, but it appears that they failed to name a McNamara delegation that would stick to the last ditch, and one of its members went over to the Luce and Alger county delegations at the convention at Newberry Tuesday, bringing about the nomination of W. R. Burns of Munising.

Activity of the saloonmen at Manistiquette is credited with the defeat of Mr. McCallum, and there have been other cases where they have attempted an organized participation in political matters of state moment.

again proved his known popularity without seriously threatening to break into the house of representatives, so great is the normal Republican majority in this district.

It is fortunate for the Republican party in Michigan that the Bryanites are demoralized and disintegrated, says the Bay City Tribune.

Governor Hughes continued his peculiar and unheard of methods throughout the period when the great question in the state of New York was whether or not he should be renominated.

Republicans will view the primary election recount with conflicting emotions. Governor Warner's friends are righteously indignant.

Now that smallpox, thanks to compulsory vaccination, has become a rarity in civilized communities, scarlet fever steps forward as the worst of the acute diseases of childhood.

It was inevitable that President Roosevelt would intervene in the absurd debate that Mr. Bryan started when he declared that he, rather than Mr. Taft, was the true heir of the Roosevelt policies.

What do they cure? The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's two leading medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

As to the so-called Roosevelt policies they never have been authoritatively delimited. If they embrace all of Mr. Roosevelt's proposals during the last seven years neither candidate upholds them.

Bryan is notoriously out of sympathy with Rooseveltism as it expresses itself in colonial government and in the demand for a bigger army and navy.

But if strained and fantastic definitions of Rooseveltism are disregarded, and it be assumed that essentially it represents no more than the century-old effort to get private out of government.

TO CUT VACATION SHORT. President Roosevelt Will Return to Capital Earlier Than Usual - Washington Living Up.

Washington, Sept. 16.—In a little more than another week Washington will be back on the political map.

When the president returns to Washington this will be a different town. It is a fact, often demonstrated in the seven years that Theodore Roosevelt has been at the head of this government.

Mr. John White, of 28 Highland Ave., Houlton, Maine, says: "Have been troubled with a cough every winter and spring. Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but they all failed."

THE DEMAND FOR TRAINED FARMERS. The last ten years has seen an enormous increase in the demand for men trained in agricultural lines.

Many of us can look back twenty years to the time when untrained men were at the head of agricultural instruction in most of our agricultural colleges.

Today we are getting the result of the past twenty years of training in the agricultural schools and their dependencies, the dairy schools.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

Mrs. A. Thoney entertained a number of friends at the Wa-Hoo club last week.
H. P. Johnson left for Detroit this morning on the South Shore-D. & C. excursion.
H. L. Siegel is temporarily in charge of the city recorder's office, as deputy recorder.

Dan Sullivan, proprietor of the Hotel Clifton, has arrived home after a few weeks' absence from the city.
L. H. Drummy, of the Postal Telegraph company, has gone to Milwaukee to spend a few weeks' vacation.

Charles T. Geill left yesterday for a visit to Grand Rapids. While there he will attend the Michigan fair.

W. H. Johnston, of Ishpeming, was a Marquette visitor yesterday. Mr. Johnston has just returned to the county after a month's absence.

Dr. Tappey of Detroit, who has been spending some time at the Huron Mountain club, came down from the club yesterday and left for his home last evening.

Mrs. J. H. Lalochelle left last night for the cities, to look up the new styles for fall and winter. She will visit several cities before returning to Marquette.

George McCallum of the Soo, deputy collector of customs, is in Marquette this week, in connection with cases up for consideration in the present term of U. S. court.

W. A. Brown, traveling salesman, who has made Marquette his home for the past year, will reside in St. Paul, where he has been taken by new business connections.

Air Motor, the race horse which broke his leg at the county fair meet last week, promises to make good recovery. Dr. Bowman has the fractured limb in a plaster cast, and he reports the condition of his equine patient entirely satisfactory.

The last but one of the South Shore-D. & C. excursions occurred yesterday. The final excursion will occur Saturday morning. Many upper peninsula people have taken advantage of the very reasonable rates for trips to Detroit, Cleveland and Buffalo.

A number of Marquette horsemen have gone to the copper country to attend the races which will be held today, tomorrow and Saturday. The copper country horsemen have arranged one of the best programs that has ever been offered in that region and are assured of a large field of entries.

Work Started Yesterday--Work has been started by Lipsitt & Sinclair on the building for the electrical substation to be erected at the rear of the lot directly behind the city hall. The structure will be built of vitrified brick and will be fireproof. All the equipment for the substation, also the special equipment that will be required at the power station, has been delivered, and it will be possible to have the station in operation a few weeks after the building is completed. Lipsitt & Sinclair will push work on the structure as rapidly as possible.

"Lena Rivers" Tonight--"Lena Rivers," a play of which much has been said and written, comes to the Marquette opera house this evening and will be presented by a capable company. It is based on the popular novel of the name, written by Mrs. Mary J. Holmes, and the play follows the book, introducing many of the latter's principal incidents and all the popular characters. The dramatization is said to be deftly made by Miss Poynter. The heart interest in "Lena Rivers" is pronounced, and it is said to be a play which has a particular appeal for our people. It will doubtless be greeted by a good house this evening.

"ANYTHING TO BEAT WARNER" THE CRY

LANSING DISPATCH SAYS THE "ANTI-WARNER" PLAN TO PREVENT HIS NAME FROM APPEARING ON TICKET, AT ANY COST.

Governor Warner is to be eliminated from Michigan politics once for all, even if it results in the election of a Democratic governor this fall. That is the plan of the old machine crowd, and the machine has the powerful sympathy of Arthur Hill of Saginaw, who is eager to settle in full the big debt of hatred which he has owed Warner since the governor went out of his way to denounce Hill when the latter was a candidate for United States senator. Tip Atwood was nominated at the same time and he, too, has a bill to settle, says a Lansing dispatch to the Grand Rapids Press.

The anti-Warnerites are all wise politicians of the old practical school and they figure it out that the only sure way to make sure that he will not be re-elected to the old job this fall. With his retirement from office his powerful state organization of officeholders who gave loyal service during the primary campaign will quickly go to pieces and they calculate he will be wiped out of state politics for all time.

Use Bradley as Catspaw.
To accomplish this Dr. Bradley is to be used as a catspaw, he making a demand for a recount of the primary election votes. The plan means the sacrifice of Dr. Bradley, too, but the old machine crowd cares nothing for Bradley, save the use they can make of him in the present emergency. Mr. Hill will not be in the state during the final tussle outlined, business calling him to California, but it is significant that Watts Humphreys and Benton Hauchett, the two leading lawyers of his town and two of the greatest in Michigan, are expected to appear at the recount as Bradley's attorneys.

The revenge project as it is arranged will split the Republican party wide open in Michigan: it will leave the state ticket without an official head and will probably result in the election of Lawton T. Hemans as governor, yet it is beautifully simple. It is merely to drag out the recount by legal delays until it is too late to finish it in time to put the name of the winner on the official ballot. Under the law this would have to be done ten days before the election.

Just Awaiting the Verdict.
When the result of the recent primary for the gubernatorial nomination was announced Arthur Hill immediately stated that he would support Lawton T. Hemans, the Democratic candidate, in preference to Warner. Claims were soon after made that Dr. Bradley had been beaten out of the Republican nomination by foul means.

It was immediately announced that the Bradley folks would demand a recount of the votes. Dr. Bradley was not exactly in sympathy with this announcement and said to the press that he acquiesced only because his friends demanded it. Since that time no formal move has been made toward a recount, evidently waiting for the formal action of the state board of canvassers in announcing the result.

Appeal Repeatedly to the Court.
After the expected recount has begun the combine will watch every move as a hawk watches a mouse. At the first decision of the board of canvassers that favors Warner--and of course there must be many such decisions even if the rival candidates split about even--the supreme court will be appealed to against the action of the board. And other decisions will be taken into court as they arise until it will be absolutely impossible because of the legal delays to complete the count and announce a result in time to get the candidate's name on the official ballot. Resultantly the Republicans will have to write the name of Warner or Bradley on the blank space at the head of the ticket. Thousands will do this, but other thousands will not--or will write some other name in preference to the two named, thus giving Mr. Hemans, the Democratic nominee, the chance of his life.

There are no stumbling blocks in sight at present that would likely upset the plan. Two of the three members of the canvassing board are anti-Warner men and not a member of the attorney general's office would raise a finger to save Warner's political life unless official duty absolutely demanded it.
A Merry Row All Around.
The result will be not only the jamming, if not the complete obliteration, of Warner's chances, but manifold complications in every county where a real fight is being made against the county Republican ticket. The matter threatens to embroil the whole state but those who are planning the governor's downfall have counted the cost. It is "anything to beat Warner," and the governor and his friends will have to do some quick thinking if they expect to thwart the plans, which, according to indisputable authority here, have been figured out to the finest detail.

UPPER PENINSULA FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

PLAN OUTLINED FOR DECIDING IT BEYOND DISPUTE THIS FALL—FOUR DISTRICTS ARE DESIGNATED.

The board of control of the Upper Peninsula Interscholastic Athletic Association has decided upon a plan for settling the upper peninsula high school football championship this year. The eligibility rules will be far more strict than they have been before, and no student will be allowed to play who is not well up in his studies. No student who, upon entering school this fall, was twenty years or over in age will be allowed to play, and no high school student who is carrying an eighth grade subject will be eligible to the football team. Some of the high schools have shown a tendency to cheat students on the strength of their athletic abilities, but this will be done away with entirely in the future.

The upper peninsula has been divided into four districts, namely the Bessemer-Ironwood district, Escanaba-Memontone district, Marquette-Ishpeming district and the copper country district. The districts have been named after the principal schools in the vicinity, but will include all the smaller schools, as well. Norway and Gladstone will be included in the Escanaba-Memontone district, and there will be several towns in the Bessemer-Ironwood district. Negaunee will be in the Marquette-Ishpeming district, while L'Anse will be classified in the copper country district.

The best team in each district will be decided by the twenty-fourth of October. On October thirty-first the winners of the Marquette-Ishpeming district will play, thus eliminating a third team from the race.

On the following Saturday, which will be November fourteenth, the two teams which have survived the eliminating process will play for the upper peninsula championship, thus leaving at least two weeks for the winning team to get in condition for the final struggle for the state championship.

This is by far the best plan which has yet been devised for settling the high school championship. In previous years disputes have always arisen as to which team had the sole and undisputed right to represent the upper peninsula against the lower peninsula champions. There will be none of that this year, however, as all teams will be under the control of the U. P. L. A. and will have to abide by the decisions of the board of control.

N. P. L. MAY BE ALLOWED TO REENTER WISCONSIN

GROSS IGNORANCE AND CARELESSNESS APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN CAUSE OF ORDER'S FINANCIAL TROUBLES IN THAT STATE.

The following from the Life Insurance Independent, a publication which will be of interest to members of the National Protective Legion:

"On the application of the National Protective Legion for a renewal of the license to do business in Wisconsin, an examination of the books of the order was made by Attorney Walter C. Wright, some extracts from whose report are given below. The laws of Wisconsin require the maintenance of a full reserve on the basis of the National Fraternal congress and 4 per cent, and according to the examiner's report the total balance is $425,700, how it arose and deficiency being the result of the excessively high dividends which have been paid in years past."

According to the examiner gross ignorance and carelessness appear to have been the cause of the order's financial troubles. Respecting the methods of bookkeeping employed he says: "They (the account books) are simply books of record, or single entry books, even the general ledger, so called, being nothing more than this. There is no general journal or cash book, and no trial balance has ever been taken. The financial statements or reports have simply been made up by gathering the aggregates from the different books. As books of records, the present books are satisfactory enough, but we have recommended the installation of a double entry system of accounting, as soon as may be practicable, and the complete balancing of accounts, at least monthly."

The relations between the order and the First National bank of Waverly, Wis., in the only sharp criticism, this bank is the only bank of deposit used by the Legion and its cashier, Mr. Percy E. Lang, happens to be chairman of the finance committee of the Legion. A large amount is always kept at this bank, on deposit and interest is paid on only $25,000.

Owing to the depressed condition of the stock market the value of the stock and bonds held by the Legion on November 30 last, as computed by two reliable firms, was $169,482 less than claimed by the Legion.

Respecting the above-mentioned deficiency of $425,700, how it arose and how it may be met, Mr. Wright says: "It was entirely due to the award of excessively high class B benefits or dividends in the past; and, owing to the foregoing explanations of the strictly conservative valuation of the assets of the order, it can be considered a simple estimate of the deficiency. Of course the legion cannot be immediately admitted to do business in Wisconsin under the full fraternal congress 4 per cent reserve fund. But it may be noted that, as the number of outstanding class B certificates is 199,978, it is quite possible by a somewhat less than double collection of dues from the holders of such certificates for the present year, or a collection of about $21 from each full certificate holder to raise the assets to such an adequate reserve fund will be provided."

The church of England bishopric of Mackenzie River, in British North America, is five times as large as the United Kingdom.

MAY STUMP FOR TAFT. Revival of Rumor About the President.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Again a whisper reaches Washington that President Roosevelt may take the stump before the campaign has passed into history. Though the story is too incredible to place great reliance upon, there are many politicians of both parties among those who drop into town who are disposed to credit it. As for the Republicans, and especially those who may be classed as close friends of Candidate Taft, the suggestion is warmly welcomed. Apparently they feel that there would be nothing of impropriety in Mr. Roosevelt going before the people and urging the election of the man whom he endorsed to carry forward the work inaugurated by the present administration. One of the associates of Judge Taft was asked today whether the president would not fairly make himself liable to just criticism by indulging in public addresses favoring the Republican ticket.

"By no means," was the reply. "Some years ago unquestionably an entry might have been raised against such a proceeding, but the times have changed, and as I look at it they have changed, for the better. Everybody knows that Mr. Taft was the president's favorite from the beginning for the nomination, and for the reason that Mr. Roosevelt felt that he was the best qualified of all the gentlemen who aspired to the executive office to continue the reforms, which have been started in the last six or seven years. What good reason, then, can be advanced against the president encouraging any opportunity that may offer in which to publicly voice the grounds upon which he bases his belief that the election of Taft and the defeat of Bryan would be for the best interests of the country?"

"Any one here I want to tell you that some plain words should be spoken concerning the apathy which envelops the political situation. That the voters seemingly are not taking as great an interest as usual in this presidential contest cannot be disputed, and if the Republican party is to get out its full vote something must be done to stir up the rank and file. Let's be honest about it and admit that while Mr. Taft will be a decidedly interesting figure on the stump and that the decision to place him there is a wise one from the standpoint of getting the men with the ballots acquainted with him, yet he is scarcely a match for Mr. Bryan as a public speaker. Bryan can enthuse the crowd and that is something we want very badly at this time. Who is the one man who can convert the skeptical when it comes to making the crowd throw up its hat, and hurrah! Obviously the answer is Theodore Roosevelt. Let him make three or four speeches—not too partisan, but pointing out with becoming dignity why Mr. Taft should be the next to sit in the White House—and I believe the tide will swing to the Republican ticket in a manner that will relieve the situation from the merest shadow of the menace of Bryan."

DEMOCRATIC CLAIMS UNTRUE, SAYS NAGEL

Negroes Will Not Bolt Ticket, Declares National Committeeman—Thinks Missouri Safe.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—That the claims of the Democrats to the negro vote are unfounded was declared by National Committeeman Charles Nagel of Missouri, who has for several weeks been canvassing the negro vote in the campaign. Among those who are of the national convention and the Foraker agitation, Mr. Nagel is satisfied, has disappeared. An auxiliary negro bureau to the national speakers' bureau has been established in the Harvester building, with Walter M. Farmer, a colored Chicago attorney, in charge. This bureau will provide colored speakers for different sections of the country through the campaign.

For several days prominent negroes of the country have been in consultation with Committeeman Nagel at the national headquarters planning the campaign. Among them was Rev. A. J. Carey, pastor of Bethel church, who has been selected as one of the speakers for the national bureau. Other negroes who will be attached to the bureau are Nelson Crews of Cincinnati, J. Milton Turner and B. H. Cole of St. Louis and Rev. James McDonald of Hannibal, Mo. "The negro situation," said Mr. Nagel, "is in good shape for the Republican party. I have made a thorough canvass and I have yet to discover anything that would warrant the party fearing any slump in the negro vote. The preachers, the teachers and the lawyers of the race are all with the Republican ticket. They will have more influence over the race than ever before, and all of them understand more clearly than ever before where their salvation lies."

Committeeman Nagel is optimistic about Missouri, which gave Roosevelt, in 1904, a majority of 26,000 over Parker. The Democrats hope to reclaim Missouri, but Committeeman Nagel declares they recognize that it is not Democratic.

MORE ARMY AERONAUTS.

Washington, Sept. 15.—With the utility of aerial navigation as an adjunct to the army it was practically demonstrated by the phenomenal flights made at Fort Meyer during the past week by Orville Wright, with the activity displayed by foreign governments in securing aerial navies and with the advantage of maintaining constant contact with the army it was practically demonstrated in recent international conflicts, military authorities are arguing the necessity for increasing the strength of the signal corps of the army. Indeed, there is now awaiting the action of the military committee of the senate a bill providing for doubling the strength of the signal corps.

CONGRESS ON TUBERCULOSIS

Important Gathering in Washington from Sept. 21 to Oct. 12. First Time It Has Been Held in the United States—Some Important Scientific Discoveries Will Be Announced—Great Variety of Interesting Subjects Will Be Discussed.

Washington, Sept. 16.—As the time for the opening of the international congress on tuberculosis draws near it becomes more and more evident that the event will be one of the most important gatherings the country has had in recent years, not only in the character of the personnel of the big meeting but in the widespread benefit to humanity that is likely to result from its deliberations. The convention will be in session from Sept. 21 to Oct. 12.

The international congress has been held in a number of countries, but never in the United States, and the meeting will be the beginning of a concerted movement by practically all the states of the Union against tuberculosis. It is the purpose of the congress to get the people acquainted with the facts and create interest in them so that the great mass of the population will work in co-operation with the professional men.

Another feature will be the prohibition of important scientific discoveries. All previous gatherings of the great leaders in the fight against the white plague have been marked by such announcements and it is not likely that this congress will be an exception. Nor will all the attention be devoted to the medical side of the subject, for the social side of the work has grown remarkably and prominent social workers from all parts of the world are expected to be on hand and take part in the proceedings of 2,000 officers and men, and it passed will not the signal corps in the line of the army.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Byrns Celebrated Event Last Evening.

A number of the members of Hematite camp, Modern Woodmen of America, gave Head Director C. J. Byrns and wife a surprise last night at their home on North Fifth street, it being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Mr. Byrns arrived home yesterday morning and will leave again today for Rock Island, Ills., where he will spend some time on Woodmen business.

Before leaving Rock Island Tuesday Mr. Byrns was given a surprise by the members of the executive council, who presented him with a number of pieces of fine silverware. Mr. Byrns had been unusually busy for a day or more following his return from Colorado Springs, where he spent several days on business in connection with the society's tuberculosis sanitarium to be established there, and the surprise tendered him by the executive officers rather took him off his feet. Head Consul Talbot made the presentation address. He complimented Mr. Byrns very highly on his achievements during the several years he has been a director of the society, and said that the members of the board considered it proper that they should in some way express to him their appreciation of the valuable services he has rendered.

A number of pieces of silverware also were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Byrns by their callers last night. Captain S. H. Collick made the presentation address.

Paid Neat Tribute

The Escanaba Daily Mirror of recent date had an interesting account of a meeting of Sandy camp of the Modern Woodmen of that city at which a number of prominent officers were present. National Lecturer Duffey, who was one of the principal speakers, paid Mr. Byrns this tribute:

"While it is true that a man is what he makes himself it is also true that not all men are well made. While it is true that many men receive from their fellows commendatory words it is also true that often times such words are not deserved. But if ever there was a man who could be properly styled a self-made man your state has him enrolled as one of its citizens. If ever there was a man deserving of the eulogistic words of his fellow man the roster of woodcraft in Michigan bears his name and that name is Charles J. Byrns.

"With a smile that is always a welcome hand shake that is a guarantee of friendship, and a word that has yet to be broken he has won his way from a humble beginning to a position of influence in your state, an office of trust in our grand societies and a place among the big men of the nation which justifies you in reposing supreme confidence in him and warrants me to say to you, you should be proud of your citizen, our neighbor in woodcraft, Charles J. Byrns."

LADIES DID WELL.

Seven Large Boxes of Clothing, Etc., Sent to the Mesaba Range.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church's congregation, who on Monday made an appeal through The Mining Journal for clothing and other articles of wearing apparel for the fire sufferers on the Mesaba range, were much pleased at the liberal response from Ishpeming people. On Monday and Tuesday a sufficient quantity of goods came in to fill seven large packing boxes, all of which were forwarded on a train leaving here Tuesday night. The ladies of the church desire to thank those who contributed for their liberality and promptness.

The donations will be much appreciated by the fire sufferers, many of whom not only lost their clothing but also their household effects. When the fire wiped out Chishelm a week ago last Saturday night the residents of the town practically lost everything they owned in the way of household goods and clothing.

Contributions of both money and clothing are still being made in various parts of Minnesota for the Mesaba sufferers. The people of Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth have been contributing most liberally and more than $100,000 in cash has been sent from the three cities besides many carloads of provisions, clothing, bedding, etc.

Have You the Factory Look

There is nothing that compromises a man in the respect of the world like a suit of clothes that does not fit; a suit that sags and hangs and looks awry after two days of wear.

Are you content to accept the arbitrary styles and sizes of ready-made, factory-made clothes—when a tailor-made suit ordered through me will cost you no more. Are you satisfied to wear a suit cut to fit an average man? When no average man ever existed? When the Royal Tailors of Chicago and New York will tailor you a suit to your own individual measures without taxing you more than your usual clothing outlay?

Why not let me show you the complete line of snappy, dressy, original fabrics waiting to be made up into a suit for you.

SEVEN INDICTMENTS RETURNED BY JURY

ROCHE AND ROSS, POSTOFFICE ROBBERS, HELD FOR TRIAL IN U. S. COURT HERE.

THREE CRIMES ARE CHARGED

Three Shimmelfinnings Charged With Counterfeiting Are Also Held—Thomas Connors Wins in Circuit Court.

The grand jury in session in United States court this week returned seven indictments. Five of the number were returned against men who were already in custody, and bench warrants were issued for the other two, who will be placed under arrest as soon as the warrants can be served.

The men indicted were George Ross and Frank Roche, who were arrested at Escanaba some weeks ago, as a result of a case worked up against them by Postoffice Inspector Clark, who was then located in this district, and Herman, William and August Shimmelfinnings, of Mackinac county, who were arrested for counterfeiting. It is expected that all five men, who are in custody here, will be tried at the present term of court.

Ross and Roche, who were the most ambitious burglars who had been run down this region in many a month, are indicted on three different charges, namely, the robberies of the postoffice at Koss, Daggett and Kipling. It is suspected that they also robbed a number of other small upper peninsula post-offices.

The Kipling office was robbed June 8 last, and the indictment sets forth that it was despoiled of 1,000 two cent, 300 five cent, 150 ten cent, 500 eight cent and 200 one cent stamps, of a value of $108.70, and $14.60 in money. The Daggett office was robbed a few weeks later, and returned much more booty for Ross and Roche than the office at Kipling. There they made a haul that is given in the indictment as $207.24. The number of two cent stamps stolen was 15,850, and large numbers of other denominations were also taken. The Koss robbery occurred a little over a month later, July 28, and the value of the stamps and money taken, together amounted to $129.70.

Ross and Roche were first suspected by reason of the fact that they were reported to the postoffice inspectors by a Chicago house as having turned in large values in stamps in payment for merchandise. The case was turned over to Postoffice Inspector Clark, who worked it up in short order, and the men were arrested several weeks ago at Escanaba, where they were taken in the postoffice building, to which they had been decoyed. At that time they were believed to be contemplating other robberies. Their ostensible business at Escanaba was the running of a shooting gallery. At their room was found a large collection of tools, jewelry, revolvers and other articles that they had purchased with the proceeds of their robberies, in many cases sending in stamps in payment. The cases against them on account of the Koss, Kipling and Daggett robberies are said to be very strong, and no doubt is expressed that they will be given long terms in the Detroit house of correction.

The Shimmelfinnings were arrested a few months ago in Mackinac county, by United States officers for counterfeiting. Crude bogus "quarters" were traced to them, and their apparatus, which was as crude as the coins they turned out, was seized. The molds in which the bad money was made were of plaster paris and the "quarters" were finished on but one side. They had been used principally, it appears, to play slot machines. The indictment returned by the grand jury mentions thirty two pieces of this phony money. The Shimmelfinnings have pleaded not guilty, and it is expected that they will be given a hearing at this term of court.

Yesterday in United States court was taken up with the case of Charles A. Connors vs. Elvin T. Larson, trespass on the case upon premises, which was started Tuesday. It is a damage suit for the non-fulfillment of contract.

In circuit court the day was given up to the consideration of the case of Paulina Haupt vs. Thomas Connors, trover, for which a jury was called Tuesday afternoon. It was charged that Connors had trespassed on lands owned by the complainant north of Humboldt three years ago, and cut 600,000 feet of lagging, for which damages were asked. The arguments were concluded yesterday afternoon, and after Judge Stone's charge it took the jury only about an hour to find a verdict in favor of the defendant.

The court now has under consideration the case of Matt Winberg vs. Cecilia H. Manigold.

COMMISSION HELD SESSION.

Sewer Contract Let—Bids on Street Work Rejected.

The park, cemetery and street commission held its September meeting this week. Roger Tunney was awarded the contract for the construction of a sewer in Park street, from Fourth street west to the end of Park, his bid being the lowest. It was sixty-four cents per lineal foot.

The bids on the grading, curbing and macadamizing of Harrison street, between Lee and Seventh, were rejected, for the reason that they exceeded the estimates. The commission will undertake the work on its own account, and it will probably be done the present fall.

Clerk Anderson was instructed to advertise for bids for the grading, curbing and macadamizing of Sixth street, between Spring and Fisher, three blocks, and also for the laying of a sewer in Park avenue, from Washington to Bluff and then west on Bluff.

The commission's pay roll for the month of August aggregated $9,097.15, which was probably the largest payroll ever reported in the department. A large force of men was employed on street work and it was augmented by the force that was employed in putting in concrete work.

The principal work that Street Commissioner Mitchell has in hand at this time is the rebuilding of the highway on West Washington street and past the plant of the Upper Peninsula Brewing company west to the city limits. A large amount of grading was necessary on this road, but it is now pretty well completed and the stone is going on. Two substantial concrete culverts are being provided, one at the foot of the Nester house hill and the other at the Brewery creek. The street commissioner is also engaged with the finishing up of the block between Front and Lake street, on Washington, which will be ready for the tar treatment in a few days.
