Numberless hosts have gathertd here from all parts of the country, awaiting the coming of tomorrow's spectacle. In spite of the threatening clouds which hung overhead during the day and afternoon and later turned into a drenching downpour of rain, the visiting thousands did not allow their ardor to be dampened or their interest in the spirit of the festive occasion to be lessened because of the disagreeable weather

It is believed that Mr. Taft and Mr. Sherman will be inducted into office according to program. The fininshing touches in the decorative scheme of the magnificent court of honor were put on today, and the final rehearsal of the orchestra for the inaugural ball at the pension office building was held. The rush of visitors from all parts of

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co.'s correspondent at New York yesterday telegraphed as fol-

"The list was irregular throughout the session. The lower prices in the early trading were the result of London's easier tone, and the desire to secure profits on stocks bought on the recent decline before the inaugural was respongible for most of the selling. Although with the balance of the list, the news is likely to mect some opposition from the laborers, and thus cause discord but in this respect it is very likely that labor will have to be liquidated along the lines of the recent reductions in various commodities.
