MINING NEWS

Should Curtail Output. N. L. Amster Declines the Copper Mining Companies Wasting Money.

N. L. Amster, the well-known copper believer at Boston, and who heads a number of copper mining companies, believes the copper companies are wasting millions of dollars annually because of failure to restrict production in time of depression.

It is true that this country showed a surplus of marketable copper on hand at the end of 1908, but the surplus is not a surplus of marketable copper, it is a surplus of copper in the ground.

A good deal of the copper produced by the Tennessee company is sent to Europe through southern ports in the form of its copper, as well as its principal product, metal values calling for electrolytic process, and no impurities of consequence.

The Tennessee company's shares were listed on the New York Stock exchange in February, 1907. The stock reached the highest price in its history during the copper boom before it was listed.

Copper was in big demand around 24 cents in May, 1907, while in October of the same year it was a drop in the market around 12 cents. This became producers turn out as much copper in times of depression as when business is booming.

There is a probability that the Houghton-Huron baseball club will play the Iron county league this year. The Double-B team is the fastest in the copper country.

Senator Charles Smith of Hubbard is elected grand hospitaler at the annual meeting of the Michigan Council of De liberation of the Scottish Rite Masons in Detroit last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith of Hancock have gone to Ontonagon for a short visit with relatives, after which they will go to Seattle, Wash., where they will make their future home.

Rev. W. Ward, pastor of the Laurium M. E. church, delivered yesterday afternoon's address before the Bible study club of the Calumet Y. M. C. A. His subject was "Self Discipline."

It is stated that there is a probability a cricket team will be organized to represent Houghton and Hancock. If the team is organized, it will apply for admission to the Copper Country Cricket league.

STRONG RULES NEEDED.

Is Necessary to Lodge Much Power in the Speaker of the National House if Headway Is to Be Made With Legislation.

Washington, March 7.—Thoughtful Washington will agree with Speaker Cannon rather than with Editor Higgins in the controversy as to the merit of the hour rules which the magazine man has been so far to provoke. It is true that the rules are rigid and that the speaker apparently has autocratic power; but no one can study the course of legislation on Capitol Hill without conceding the necessity of drastic rules and of lodging much power in the speaker.

Again, the majority of the house wants no such change in the rules as the country is opposed to the test of the alleged interest of a majority of the house. The most able organized movement in the house has seen in years, that engineered by Representative Gardner of Massachusetts, did not dare put all its contentions to the test of a vote, but compromised with the speaker on the institution of a "calendar Tuesday."

It always is possible for the house to thwart the will of the speaker, and that it does not do so often, is because the house is not a democracy. It is a body of men, and the speaker is not a democracy. The speaker is not a democracy. The speaker is not a democracy.

The most conclusive proof of the imprudence of the Cannon position is found in the attitude of the elder Democratic leaders, like John S. May, Champ Clark, De Armond and Bartlett, of Georgia. They sometimes criticize the speaker vigorously on the floor, but not a man of them would follow the younger Democrats in the recent attempt to condescend with the Republicans and change the rules.

The secret of the control of congress is in public opinion, not in the rules or in deals with leaders, not in the rules and not in the leaders when they appear him. Tall shows the symptoms of getting on better terms with the strong man of Capitol Hill. He can get along with congress smoothly and yet sacrifice no principle by the exercise of a little tact, but if he wants progressive legislation he must go over the heads of the leaders to the people, if necessary. The rules will not stand in the way when that course is followed.

PAYING POULTRY

What's the use of spending your time and energy in trying to make a little money out of hens with natural conditions against you?

There is no more trying or difficult or bothersome work than taking care of poultry—making it pay, yet poultry, exactly the same as with stock—horses or cattle—you must have it in a healthy condition, otherwise you can't make it pay.

INTERNATIONAL POULTRY POWDER is just as effective in keeping your poultry in a healthy, strong, paying condition as nature is in keeping your stock in good condition. Keeping your hens in good condition, so that they will be healthy, and so that you will get the most good out of them is just as important as keeping your stock in good condition. INTERNATIONAL POULTRY POWDER is away ahead of any other poultry powder that we have ever come in contact with. If you have not already tried it, do so at your very earliest opportunity. Use it regularly according to directions, and you will find it is not expensive at all, but productive of the very best results. 25c PACKAGE, 5 PACKAGES FOR $1.00.

Basketball Tonight—The El Portanas and the City team will meet at the Legion Hall tonight at 8:15. The line-up is as follows: City team, Fraser, Reinhardt, C. Drake, A. Catlin and H. Weiser; El Portanas, Beaudin, Olson, Bird, Dunlavy, Driver, Hasditt, Wallace and Madison.

Baby Born on Train—A baby girl was born on South Shore train No. 7, about 11 o'clock last night, while the train was between Sands and Gordon, enroute to Marquette. The mother is a young woman who was bound from the Soo to the copper country. With her babe, she was taken St. Mary's hospital, where it was reported this morning that both were doing nicely.

Clerk-Carrier Examination—A competitive examination for clerks and carriers, under the rules of the civil service commission, will be held at the post-office March 27. The examination will cover spelling, arithmetic, letter writing, penmanship, copying from plain copy, United States geography and reading addresses. The salary of clerks and carriers varies from $600 to $1,200 per year, according to length and grade of service. Postmaster Mangum states that he has had difficulty in getting enough men to take this examination to supply the needs of the Marquette office.

L'Anse Team Defeated—Before one of the largest crowds that ever gathered in Legion Hall, the Marquette City basketball team defeated the L'Anse City team by the score of 25 to 17 Saturday evening. Good team work was impossible, owing to the large crowd, but both teams worked hard and fast throughout the game. Klamert's boys' band made their first public appearance at the game and their music was enthusiastically received. The band numbered fourteen pieces, all boys, and their work was excellent, considering that they have been organized only a short time. Sullivan's Peerless orchestra furnished dance music after the game, which was enjoyed by a large number.

INSURE WITH PETER WHITE & CO.

HOWIE A CANDIDATE.

(Communicated)

One of the encouraging features of the present political disturbance is the appearance as candidates for aldermen of men such as Thomas C. Howie, who has consented to become a candidate in the Fifth ward. Mr. Howie has for many years been a resident in and a property owner of the city of Marquette and is perfectly familiar with the city's requirements. His long experience in business affairs fits him preeminently for public service. As a practical man who knows the value of a dollar, and whose aim in public office would be to see that the city gets full value for every dollar expended he cannot be surpassed. The opportunity to secure so valuable a man for public service does not often present itself, and should be quickly availed of by the voters of the Fifth ward. Mr. Howie is not entangled with any faction and would therefore enter upon a position of public trust as a represent-

GUILD HALL ALREADY POPULAR WITH PUBLIC

MORE THAN 200 MEMBERS ARE NOW ENROLLED, AND THIS WITHOUT SOLICITATION.

The officers of the Guild Hall association are gratified at the way applications for membership are coming in, over 200 members being enrolled up to Saturday evening, and this without any solicitation. The majority of applicants so far are boys and girls, but a good many applications from adults are expected this week. The secretary or treasurer will be at the Guild Hall every afternoon from 4 to 6 this week to receive applications and answer inquiries. The board of managers think it wise for any one wishing to secure a locker to apply for membership without delay, as the lockers are going fast, and those most conveniently located are being taken first.

The different departments are now in running order, except that the gymnasium classes are not yet fully organized and the swimming pool cannot be used to good advantage until the sprays for the shower baths arrive. The plunge was used for the first time Saturday afternoon by a class of about thirty boys under the watchful eye of Major Burdett, and that they enjoyed it hugely was very manifest. The arrangement for heating the water by live steam was tried for the first time on that day, and proved a success, the temperature being kept at 70 degrees without difficulty. It has been found necessary to increase the force of employees in order to take proper care of the building and to give satisfactory service to the members. John Willis has been engaged as janitor, with Charles R. Bell and Frank Hayden as assistants, Mr. Bell having special charge of the bowling alleys.

The board of managers are anxious that no member shall suffer any harm from over exertion in the gymnasium, especially at the start, and have adopted a rule requiring every member before using the gymnasium to present a certificate from a physician that such exercise can safely be undertaken. Such certificate may be obtained either from the family physician or from Dr. H. T. Carriel, who has been appointed as consulting physician for the association and who will take all necessary examinations without charge.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co.'s correspondent at New York Saturday telegraphed as follows: "During the past week the feeling has been one of waiting. The president's inaugural address was considered favorable, and created some confidence, although from expressions therein, it would seem that the former policies are to be pursued, although perhaps on more judicial lines. The news developments have not been of a startling character, and the New York stock market was dominated mainly by professional operations. The most significant news item was the announcement of the reduction of 10 per cent in the wages of the employees of the Lackawanna Steel company, which indicates what may be expected in the case of other companies. The United States Steel issues were conspicuous for their weakness last week, but displayed a better tone, and considerable short covering took place, together with replacement on a moderate scale of some of the stock liquidated on the decline. Generally speaking, it would seem that traders have decided to wait until after March 15 in order to obtain some definite idea as to the probable extent of tariff revision before committing themselves to any great extent in the market. Large sales of copper metal have been reported during the past week, which has induced fair buying of the copper metal stocks, but, although the buying is of an encouraging nature, the reported surplus at this time is so large that investors, for the most part, do not seem inclined to buy securities of these companies aggressively. Between now and March 15 security values are likely to be very low in view of the rampant discussion of tariff changes."

PEDESTRIANS START RACE.

Fifteen Countries Represented in Big Match in New York City. New York, March 7.—Fifty-four pedestrians, divided into twenty-seven teams, started tonight in the international go-as-you-please race at Madison Square Garden. The duration of the contest will be 142 hours, the finish being scheduled for 10 o'clock next Saturday night. Five thousand dollars in prizes is offered, of which the winning team will get $1,500 and the next seven teams proportional amounts. Team partners can relieve each other as often as they choose, but neither can be on the track more than twelve hours out of every twenty-four. The men were selected from the best professional talent in the world, and fifteen countries are represented.

IS WORLD'S BOWLING RECORD.

Lipman Team of Chicago Rolls a Score of 2,961 at Pittsburgh, Pa. Pittsburgh, March 7.—The world's record for five-men teams was broken here last night by the Lipman team of Chicago. The score was 2,961, thirty-five points higher than the record score made by the Bonds team of Columbus at Cincinnati last year. When it was seen that the Lipman team had a chance to break the record, interest in the game was intense and spectators flocked to that portion of the big auditorium. A few moments before the game was ended it was apparent that the world's record had been broken and that even the spectators were cheering and yelling. Enthusiastic spectators rushed into the enclosure of the alley to honor the team. Lipman, Ward, Segones, Bartch and Woj were overwhelmed with congratulations, handshakes and pats on the back. With difficulty they could be kept away from their admirers to their dressing rooms. The Lipman five are the leaders of the tournament so far, the next team being the Webers of Toledo, with 2,686, only 276 less than the old champions. The Douglas five of Pittsburgh are third, with 2,347.

Three Chicago Thugs Get Life Term, "Plus Fourteen Years." Chicago, March 7.—The crime: Robbing a woman of $48 and two bottles of whiskey. The verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendants guilty in manner and form as charged in the above verdict. We, the jury, further find that the defendants were armed with deadly weapons at the time of the commission of the crime, and we, the jury, further find that the said defendants have been convicted of a similar crime prior to the commission of this offense." The penalty: Imprisonment for life, plus fourteen years. Judge Kersten's comment: "The defendants will not be able to serve out their full sentence."

PENALTY IS 10 TO 20 YEARS.

Gay Raser, Accused of Killing Franke, Convicted of Manslaughter. Medina, O., March 7.—Guy Raser was found guilty of manslaughter yesterday by the jury trying him for the murder of his sweethearts, Franke, Oct. 8, last. The penalty was ten to twenty years in the penitentiary. When the clerk read the pronouncement Raser's head dropped to his arms and he wept. Raser was convicted of having shot Oris Lee, a fellow inmate of the prison, who was engaged to be married. The wedding had been postponed several times. When Miss Lee's body was found along the road leading from Wadsworth, with a bullet hole in her head, it was discovered she was in a delicate condition. Raser attempted to prove an alibi.

PATRIOT NEAR MENTAL WRECK.

Lawyer Fighting for Freedom Believed on the Verge of Insanity. New York, March 7.—New York lawyers who have been interested in the case of Albert T. Patrick agree that his present application for his liberty, now pending before the appellate division of the supreme court in Brooklyn, is decided adversely, there is every likelihood that his mind will give way. The long weary hours of confinement and efforts to prepare a defense, the physical hard handling lumber in the prison yard during the day has overtaken his powerful mind. That was plain Friday when Patrick, during the argument before the appellate division in Brooklyn, several times seemed to lose all control of himself, and made incoherent declarations that moved even the stern justices to pity.

MEANS MUCH FOR CUBA.

Fusion Is Arranged Between Two Powerful Political Factious. Havana, March 7.—At the end of a protracted session the joint committee of Miguel Y. Zavala and President Gomez agreed on the preliminary terms for the fusion of the two factions under the title of the Liberal party. This amicable agreement is of vital importance, indicating the establishment of harmony between President Gomez and Vice President Zavala and the removal of the possibility of grave dissensions which constituted serious danger to the success of the new government.

READ THE LABEL.

Under the Pure Food Laws baking powder labels now show the ingredients of which the powder is made. Those who appreciate the importance to health and good baking of using a pure cream of tartar baking powder will read the label of the label carefully and make sure that the ingredients mentioned include cream of tartar. The food law does not force consumers; it merely helps them to protect themselves. All good housekeepers want cream of tartar baking powder, and will not use alum substitutes in the food, if they know it. As the ingredients are printed on the back of the label, all may know the facts. Good baking powder is one of the most useful things in the kitchen; it is easily obtained at any store; the better it is, the more economical it is in cooking materials, and the more it conserves the health of the family.

"PRINCE OF SIDE STEPPERS"

Ex-Vice President Fairbanks and His Wonderful Record. Absent from His Chair Only Three Days in Four Years—Yet Has Traveled 65,000 Miles and Made Over 700 Speeches—Never Said a Harsh Word of Roosevelt or His Policies—A Consummate Record, but Profitless as a Painted Ship Upon a Painted Ocean. Washington, March 7.—Ex-Vice President Fairbanks has nobly and bravely quailed with nobility and receiving a shining silver, suitably engraved, from his political opponents. It is not difficult for a vice president to make such a record, for he performs the thrilling duties of his post in a political vacuum, yet the party which has not surpassed all of his predecessors in the final shattering blow to the singular notion that he has a frigid manner and an arctic temperament came this week when the Democratic members of the United States senate placed in his possession, for permanent keeping as a family heirloom by future generations of Fairbanks a massive silver cup symbolizing the esteem and affection which the barbarian minority feel for him. No previous vice president was thus honored. All of them were honored by complimentary resolutions offered by the majority, but the best and most distinguished of them hitherto have fallen short of a loving cup.

Nor will the vice president be neglected in Indiana. Even the Democrats of Hoosierdom have a fondness for him. And retirement, for has not the Democratic governor sent a special message to the Democratic legislature concerning the retirement of Indiana's eminent son, and has not the said Democratic legislature unanimously adopted a resolution favoring him to appear March 8 and accept its congratulations and an expression of its esteem and goodwill? Times have changed in Indiana. Politics is not the same as in the old tempestuous days. Hendricks, McDonald, Morton, Voorhees and Harrison would scarcely be able to comprehend a situation in which vivid personal compliments from political enemies follow the most distinguished and out-of-the-way day into the prosaic seclusion of private life and the practice of a profession. It is not the cordiality of Democrats both in Washington and Indiana, for the vice president, is in no way, apparently, the result of a lukewarm Republicanism on his own part. Mr. Fairbanks, of course, has had hours of gloom and pain over party politics, but the party which will not be a loyal supporter; and in the future he will give to its affairs that expert attention which may be expected from a well-preserved political navigator still on the sunny side of sixty.

It is the first time that the president's term of office, his eloquent efforts conclusive evidence that he has been faithful in the performance of his duties. "During the past four years Mr. Fairbanks has never been absent from the chair in the senate during either day or night, and the Fairbanks method, was sound. He was in attendance on the general conference of the Methodist church at Birmingham, Ala., and again when he went to Ohio to the funeral of his brother-in-law." So constant has he been in attendance on the senate that the chair of Maine, for many years the president pro tem, has been forgotten by the public as a presiding officer. Only when Mr. Fairbanks was eating his luncheon or was summoned to see a visitor has Mr. Fry been called upon to preside. As chairman of the senate's deliberations the vice president has been distinguished for parliamentary impartiality and decorum. It has been impossible to get him to take sides; and even within the ranks of his own party, controversies of his sweetest, he has remained neutral. He has been a model of impartiality and decorum. He has been a model of impartiality and decorum. He has been a model of impartiality and decorum.

DECIDE RIGHTS OF SOW.

Solemn English Jurists Argue to What Extent Beast May Take Up Road. London, March 7.—The usually solemn and church-like court of appeals echoed with laughter for several hours while counsel, the master of the rolls, Lord Justice Moulton and Lord Justice Buckley debated the question whether a sow is entitled to sit and rest herself by the roadside, or merely to enjoy a walk along the king's highway. The owner of a large pig for damages caused by the sow's presence in the roadway. It seems that the hog was thoughtlessly sleeping in the center of a public road near Truro, in Cornwall, when a horse and cart and the motor approached. Roused by the pounding of the horse's hoofs on the road and the tooting of the automobile horn, the old hog, slowly and laboriously, struggled to his feet. When human beings are in the way of the motor car nowadays they lose no time in scrambling to a place of safety. Not so this particular Cornwall hog. He had his own ideas on the right of way. It was at this point in the narrative that the court evidence became amusing and, incidentally, conflicting. It is not easy to tell from the testimony just what the hog really did. If we are to believe some of the witnesses he is master of a bag of tricks that would entitle him to a place in Ringling's circus. The consensus of opinion was that the hog refused to judge from his position in the center of the road. One witness contented himself with saying that the animal "snorted" at the oncoming motor car. Another declared that the hog "barked" several times at it. It was neither of these actions, however, which was responsible for the court action. Evidently "snorting," "barking" hogs are every day sights in Cornwall. Finding his defiant grunts of no avail, the hog actually sat up on his haunches, with his front feet in the air. Such an exhibition of cleverness was too much for the horse attached to the cart, and he shied across the road. One witness said he thought the horse was trying to emulate the trick of the hog, but the others who were called refused to be drawn on the psychology of the animal. When the horse shied the motor was close behind it and attempting to avoid a collision, the driver ran his machine into a stone wall. One witness facetiously remarked that he thought the motor was trying to go both horse and hog one better, and turn a back somersault. Accounts vary as to what the sow did in this emergency. One witness states that it sat down in the middle of the road, resigned to its fate. Another says it arose and "snorted." A third declares with conviction that it sat up on its haunches and "barked at the cart." At any rate, the horse took fright, and Mr. Higgins, in order to avoid injuring the horse, turned his motor car sharply into a wall, damaging it. He was awarded damages at the Bodmin assizes against Mr. Seale and Mr. Seale appealed against the verdict. "Perhaps the horse took the pig for a dent of the United States enjoys. The ghost, Lord Justice Moulton suggested, when J. A. Hawke, who represented Mr. Seale, had described the sow's adventure. "It was a fine afternoon," Mr. Hawke replied. "That was what induced the sow to take a walk." "What happened to the sow?" the master of the rolls asked. "No one seems to know," Mr. Hawke answered. "Why did the judge think the owner of the sow liable?" Lord Justice Moulton demanded. "It was asserted that the sow had a right to be on the road, but not to sit down," Mr. Hawke explained. "A man may sit on the highway," Lord Justice Moulton argued. "Why not a pig? So far as I can gather, this pig got up the moment the motor horn was sounded, as a well-behaved pig should do." J. A. Rankin, who represented Mr. Higgins, argued that the sow should not have gone out unattended. The court decided in favor of the owner of the sow, with costs.

SHOOK HANDS WITH CROWBAR.

Ward's records in tunnel driving were established and one of the greatest engineering feats of the century was successfully completed when drillmen in Idaho and Montana, working in the CBI cage, Milwaukee & Puget Sound Rail way company's bore in the Bitter Root Mountains at Telf. Mont., shook hands at the end of a crowbar. The tunnel, which is 8,721 feet in length, twenty-four feet three inches in height and eight feet six inches across the floor, lacked only 1,300 of an inch of being in true alignment, while in the level the two crews of 175 men each, differed about 1,100 of a foot when the drill of rock between the two states was pierced. The best record was made in January, 1909, when 750 feet was driven, the figures for November, 1908, being 731 feet 5 inches.

London, March 7.—The South Wales coal industry is threatened with a big strike which may affect 12,000 men. The trouble began yesterday, with 3,000 men idle. A general strike would seriously disturb Atlantic shipping, as some of the big liners might not be able to coal.

OLD ASSESSMENT ROLLS UNEARTHED

TAXES IN 1873, THE YEAR THE CITY WAS INCORPORATED, WERE LESS BY SEVERAL THOUSAND DOLLARS THAN WERE THE SCHOOL TAXES LAST YEAR

In sorting the books and papers of the late Carl Tellefsen recently, copies of the assessment rolls during the first six years after the city was incorporated were found, and they are now in the possession of the city recorder. The old rolls for two or three of the years are not complete, but the roll for 1873, the year the city was incorporated, is intact. During that year and the two succeeding years, as in the previous years, when the city's affairs were conducted under the township laws, the assessment rolls were prepared by the supervisors of the different wards. Beginning with 1875 the rolls were prepared by the city assessor, William E. Dickinson, then superintendent of the New York mine, was supervisor in the First ward, in 1875; George Sheldon in the Second and A. G. Morrison in the Third. F. P. Mills, Sr., agent of the Cleveland Iron Mining company, was elected mayor in 1875 and the late W. F. Swift was city recorder. John H. Mills, who is remembered by many of the older residents, was city marshal and street commissioner, and the late George Hayden was city attorney. Mr. Mills did not fill out his term as marshal and street commissioner and the council appointed John Jones to complete it. Following the election in 1874 Mr. Jones was again appointed marshal, serving throughout that year. John Sullivan, an instructor in the Ishpeming schools, was the city's first assessor, having been elected in 1875, and his work is to be seen in three of the old rolls.

In 1875 Ishpeming's assessed valuation was apportioned by wards, but the valuations of Marquette and Negaunee cities were both equalized under the plan now followed. It appears from a statement of the assessed and equalized valuation of the several cities and townships, and the apportionment of state and county taxes, as equalized and apportioned by the board of supervisors at its adjourned annual meeting in Marquette on Oct. 24, 1875, that there were only eight townships in the county at that time, these being Negaunee, Ishpeming, Marquette, Ft. Forsyth, Richmond, Tilden and Chocoma.

County's Assessed Valuation $3,919,000.

It would appear from the statement issued by the board of supervisors following its annual meeting in 1875, that the assessed valuation as fixed by the various supervisors and assessors throughout the county was unsatisfactory, as the total valuation of all assessable property in the three cities and eight townships was reduced from $5,229,297 to $3,919,000. The largest reduction was in Ely township, where the assessor placed the total valuation at $1,208,970 and the board deducted from this sum, $908,970, leaving the valuation as equalized, $1,000,000. There was a decrease in the assessed valuation of the city of Marquette and all of the wards of Ishpeming, also all the townships of the county, but the valuation of the city of Negaunee was increased $40,230, making it $510,000. The assessed valuation was $976,835. The sum of $170,830 was deducted, leaving the equalized valuation $806,000. Marquette's valuation was reduced from $1,683,116 to $1,900,000.

The townships were equalized as follows: Negaunee, $509,000, a reduction of $12,125; Ishpeming township, $150,000, a reduction of $185,732; Marquette township, $94,000, a reduction of $260,000; Forsyth, $100,000, a reduction of $101,972; Richmond, $50,000, a reduction of $15,000; Tilden, $100,000, a reduction of $40,230; Chocoma, $65,000, a reduction of $35,000. The total amount deducted from the roll was $2,419,347.

Mines Exempt from State Tax.

In 1873 and until the early eighties, when the law was repealed, the mining properties were exempt from state taxes, but the producing mines paid a specific tax to the state of one cent per ton on all ore mined. The valuation of the mines in Negaunee exempt from state taxes was $228,000, and the valuation of the Ishpeming mines was $465,500. Ishpeming township's exemption on account

"The Alaskan," one of the best comic operas that has graced the stage for many seasons and one that was last year accorded a tremendous success throughout the entire country, will be seen at Ishpeming theatre tonight, when it will be given by John Cort's splendid organization of principals and his famous beauty chorus. This opera, by Joseph Blethen, Max Fagan and Harry Girard, has easily earned the distinction of being original from both the composers and authors' standpoint.

DOUBLE-H TEAM COMING.
Crack Copper Country Nine to Play Here Friday and Saturday.

The Ishpeming City indoor baseball team will meet the Double-H team of Houghton in two games at Braastad's Hall next Friday and Saturday evenings. The copper country nine is said to be a faster team than any of the fraternal league aggregations, and has won games from all of them. It is composed of old-time players, and has claimed the upper peninsula championship for the past four years. Among the members are Mitter, Trathen, Wagner, Brand and Cy Wedge. Brand played here a few weeks ago with the Hancock Elks' nine against the Ishpeming team. The visiting nine will line-up as follows: Mitter, catcher; Barnes and Cy Wedge, pitchers; Wagner, first base; Brand, second base; Heinz, third base; Trathen and Corneliser, short stops; Thomas, Tom and Will Wedge, fielders. Cy Wedge is manager of the team.

ORATORICAL CONTEST.
Booth Goodman and Lawrence Lind Were the Prize Winners.

Booth Goodman was awarded first place in oratory and John Neary received honorable mention in the oratorical contest held in the auditorium of the Ishpeming high school Friday evening. The contestants were judged by their papers and on the manner in which their orations were delivered. The judges on thought were Rev. C. G. Ziegler, Miss Jessie Rodges and Mrs. Will St. Clair, and E. E. Scribner, A. E. Sterne and Rev. M. M. Allen passed on the oratory. There were seven contestants in oratory and four in declamation.

Lawrence Lind won first place in declamation and Beatrice Jenkin received honorable mention. The speakers chose the subjects and wrote their own papers. Lamonte Rutledge headed the program. His subject was "The Man and the Hour." He spoke on the building up of man to meet the requirements of life. Fred Cornell reviewed Lincoln's career, his subject being "The American of Americans." Margaret Benedict dealt with the "Battle for Justice." Booth Goodman, the winner of the contest, spoke on "The True Glory of a Nation." "The Conservation of Our National Resources" was John Neary's subject. Marie Lorent spoke on the "Heroism of Florence Nightingale." Lawrence Barnaby gave a biography of Joan of Arc.

FROM MORGAN'S CURB LETTER.

"The market for copper shares today was quite uninteresting, and while prices held well and the tone was steady, the volume of trading was considerably smaller. North Butte Copper Range and Amalgamated had a half point spurt early, but receded fractionally at the close. Greene Cananea and Superior & Pittsburg were quiet and unchanged, as was East Butte. Greater activity was noticeable in the curb issues. Carter leading, with only a limited amount of stock offered. Bids in the usual good request, and while there is no aggressive bidding for it, the stock is being readily absorbed as offered. Live Oak, San Antonio and Chief Consolidated were all slightly easier. For the immediate future, we do not look for any decided movement in the general market, but we believe, however, that the trend is upward and the standard issues should be bought to hold."
