

MRS. JAS. H. BOYLE MAY GO SCOT-FREE

That Wife of the Kidnapper Will Not Be Punished for Her Alleged Part in the Abduction of Sharon Is Now the Indication.

Authorities Without Proof That She Was Aware the Child Was Stolen, and Mrs. Whitla Said to Be Adverse to Her Prosecution, Especially Since the Defense That Is Made Is a Very Plausible One, the Release of the Woman Is Looked For.

Mercer, Pa., March 29.—The opinion is spreading among the people of this county that Mrs. James H. Boyle, now in the county jail here, will not be prosecuted in connection with the Willie Whitla kidnapping case, but that she will very soon be entirely eliminated from the case and will be allowed to depart. There is said to be no local proof whatever to connect her with the abduction, and she absolutely refuses to aid the local authorities in the least, the supposition is that she will soon be free. This is borne out by the delay in arraighing her.

Although it was positively stated today by the district attorney that "they" would take her to Sharon tomorrow for formal arraignment, it was stated tonight that the trip to Sharon had been abandoned for the present, and that Mrs. Boyle had agreed not to demand an early hearing. It is said that her prosecution is not exactly desired by Mrs. Whitla, whose wishes are likely to be respected.

No results are known of the attempt to locate the alleged accomplices, and it looks tonight as though Boyle is to be made to bear the entire punishment for the abduction.

Woman's Story Very Plausible. Pittsburgh, March 29.—The news that Mrs. Boyle may never be brought to trial for her alleged part in the abduction of Willie Whitla was received here tonight with interest. Detective Harry Perkins, who has been very active in the case, declares that the woman will have a very plausible defense if she is given a hearing.

"From what Mrs. Boyle has told me," said Perkins, "I believe that she will have a straightforward story to tell on the stand. She will say that she had been sick for two or three weeks previous to the kidnapping of the boy, and that her husband, 'Humpy' Boyle, had come to see her and told her the boy had been placed in their care by his father.

"The story, I think, will continue that she understood the boy had been exposed to small pox, and that they were to get a large sum of money from the father for taking care of it. She explains that when she received the money there was no place else to hide it, and she concealed it in her clothes. She says that she knew nothing of the kidnapping, having seen no newspapers."

HERBERT L. SWIFT IS ADJUDGED INSANE Due to the Excessive Use of Alcohol, Meat Packer's Son, Heir to a Million, Is Committed to Kenilworth Sanitarium.

Chicago, March 29.—Herbert L. Swift, thirty-three years old, son of the late Gustavus F. Swift, founder of the packing firm of Swift & Co., has been adjudged insane by a commission of physicians and has been an inmate of Kenilworth sanitarium since March 8, by order of the county court. This became public here today through the discovery of the files in the case, which had been hidden.

In the hearing Louis F. Swift, a brother, testified that the man had threatened to kill himself and the members of the family. Excessive use of alcohol was given as the cause. Herbert Swift is married, but has no children. He has an annuity of $8,000 from his father's estate. At the end of fourteen years he will receive $1,000,000.

CLOSES NINETY-SEVEN SALOONS. In Heavy Vote, Clark County, O., Goes Dry by Eleven Majority.

Springfield, O., March 29.—With the heaviest vote in its history, Clark county today went "dry" by eleven majority in a local option election. The election affects ninety-seven saloons in the county, and three breweries. The city voted "wet," but the county precincts voted overwhelmingly for the "dry" side. Commission Plan Defeated.

Pierre, S. D., March 29.—The proposed change to the commission form of city government was defeated today by a majority of twenty-six. A light vote was cast.

DARING THEFT IN KENTUCKY. Mail Pouch Robbery Is Said to Have Netted More Than $50,000.

Georgetown, Ky., March 29.—A daring mail pouch robbery in which it is alleged that the thieves secured probably more than $50,000 in currency and checks was made public today by the local post-office officials, when the iron and plated leather of two pouches were found by a boy near the crane from which they had been taken. Checks to the amount of $28,000 addressed to the Burley Tobacco society are said to be among the stolen property. There is no clew to the thieves.

MRS. MARY FARMER EXPIATES HER CRIME

The Second Woman to Be Put to Death in the Electric Chair, New York Murderess Is Executed in Auburn Prison.

Leaving a Statement With Her Spiritual Adviser in Which She Exonerates Her Husband of Complicity in the Killing of Sarah Brennan, She Walks Unflatteringly to the Place of Execution and With a Prayer on Her Lips Meets Her Doom Bravely.

Auburn, N. Y., March 29.—Murmuring a prayer for her soul, Mrs. Mary Farmer walked unflatteringly to the electric chair in Auburn prison this morning and was executed for the murder of Mrs. Sarah Brennan at Brownville last April. Shortly afterward, Rev. Father Hickey, the woman's spiritual adviser, gave out a statement signed by Mrs. Farmer, in which she declared her husband entirely innocent, asserting that he knew nothing of the crime until after it was committed.

Mrs. Farmer was the second woman to meet death in the electric chair. The crime for which she was executed and for which her husband, James D. Farmer, also under sentence of death, was the murder of Mrs. Sarah Brennan, a neighbor, in the village of Brownville, Jefferson county, about four miles from the city of Watertown, Thursday, April 23, 1908. The body of Mrs. Brennan was found in a trunk in the possession of Mrs. Farmer and her husband. Mrs. Farmer and her husband were given separate trials, and although the evidence was circumstantial, both were convicted and sentenced to be electrocuted. Mrs. Farmer's counsel attempted at the trial to establish that she was insane and irresponsible for the crime, but the court of appeals declared that it was "clearly a deliberate and intentional act" and that there was no circumstance that "mitigated against its heinousness."

Came from Ireland Nine Years Ago. Mrs. Farmer came to this country from Ireland in 1900 and worked for a time as a domestic in Binghamton, going from there to Buffalo, where she married James D. Farmer in 1904. Early in 1905 they moved to Brownville, where they remained for a few months at one of Farmer's relatives, after which they moved to a new building in the village. In May, 1907, they moved into a portion of an old building formerly used as a hotel in a part of Brownville known as Paddy Hill.

Mrs. Brennan and her husband Patrick lived in a house nearby, which they had occupied for twenty years and which was owned by Mrs. Brennan. Mrs. Farmer became a frequent caller at the Brennan home and Mrs. Brennan occasionally called on the Farmers. Mrs. Brennan kept the deed to her property, insurance papers and a savings bank book in a black oilcloth pocketbook in a tin case in her bedroom.

Months before the homicide, in October, 1907, Mrs. Farmer went to a lawyer's office in Watertown, produced a deed of the Brennan property and, impersonating Mrs. Brennan, had the deed transferred to James D. Farmer, signing the name "Sarah Brennan." The deed was returned from the clerk's office to James D. Farmer Nov. 26, and Jan. 7, 1908, Mrs. Farmer and her husband went to another lawyer in Watertown and had the deed drawn to Peter J. Farmer, a child who had been born to them the preceding Sept. 2.

Story of the Murder. The day of the crime, Mrs. Brennan's husband left early for his work, his wife telling him she was going to visit a dentist in Watertown. Between 9 and 10 o'clock the attorney came to leave her home and enter the Farmer house. She was never seen alive again. Early the same day Mrs. Farmer took her baby to the home of a neighbor and left it, saying that she was going up town. Between that time and the time Mrs. Brennan was found, Mrs. Farmer was seen to go to the home of a neighbor and later he left for the home of his sister, where he was laying a walk. Soon after Mrs. Farmer went into the Brennan house, she returned and told the girl to go for her husband, but Farmer refused to return home. Mrs. Farmer then went to the sister's home with a package, which proved to be the black oilcloth pocketbook of Mrs. Brennan, containing the deeds, insurance and other papers, and said she wanted to leave it for a while.

Brennan, upon his return from work that afternoon, was unable to get into his house. The keys which his wife was in the habit of leaving were not in their accustomed place. While he was trying to get in, he saw Farmer standing nearby, the man remarking: "Brennan, don't you know I bought this place?" Brennan finally secured a ladder, entered a second story window and occupied the house that night. The next morning, he went to work as usual.

Mrs. Farmer, that some morning, went to the sister's house, took Mrs. Brennan's oilcloth pocketbook from where it had been hidden in a chair, and with her husband went to Watertown, where they had an attorney prepare papers for the deed to the Brennan property. During Brennan off the premises, which were served on him that night. Brennan went to Watertown and made inquiries for his wife, but failed to find

WARRIORS DESERT HOSTILE CHIEFTAIN

Breaking Up Into Many Groups, Crazy Snake's Followers Try to Escape Without Regard for the Grand Dreams of Their Leader.

They, too, Scattering Out in Detachments, the Troops and Their Auxiliaries of Cowboys and Frontiersmen Invade All Portions of Disturbed Zone in Determined Effort to Corral the Indians, Fighting Occurring in Which Redskins Are Worsted.

Oklahoma City, March 29.—Chittie Harjo (Crazy Snake) was surrounded at midnight in the North Canadian bottoms near Pierce. Three hundred militiamen, cowboys and deputy sheriffs are closing in upon him, and his capture is expected at daybreak.

Oklahoma City, March 29.—A detachment of Crazy Snake's band of belligerent Indians was surrounded by deputy sheriffs this afternoon near Crazy Snake's home, and a lively battle ensued. More than 200 shots were fired. One Indian was killed, eight Indians were captured and the remainder fled with the deputies in pursuit.

There were about fifteen Indians in the band, which had taken refuge in a house. The deputies had tracked them some distance and were informed by a farmer of their location. Advancing from all sides, the posse fired a volley at the house. The Indians rushed out, scattering among the trees and making a valiant defense. The posse, firing all the while, steadily advanced and soon routed the band. None of those captured were seriously injured, but it is known that a number of Indians were hit by the posse's shots.

Organized Resistance Abandoned. Crazy Snake's band apparently has been broken up into numerous small groups. It seemed at nightfall that each was trying to accomplish his own escape without regard for the grand dreams of the chieftain to realize which they were called together Sunday by the smoke of signal fires. All efforts at organized resistance seemed to have been dropped by the Indians. The militiamen seemed well able to cope with this latest phase of the situation, however, which became evident late this afternoon. They too, scattered out into bands. They invaded the hilly and wooded districts of the Creek nation in a determined effort to hunt down the war party. The wisdom of this policy at once became evident, for by 7 o'clock today they had captured Little Tiger, a sub-chief, and several other Indians. Most of them were heavily armed.

The Indian killed by the posse was the only fatality of the day reported to Colonel Hoffman. There are numerous rumors of engagements here and there, with varying numbers of fatalities.

Twenty Renegades Reported Slain. One story told is that a posse of farmers near Checotah fought a large band of negro renegades and killed twenty. This, with similar rumors, cannot be confirmed. A very disquieting condition exists throughout the troubled district, however, and almost anything in the way of a fight would not be surprising.

Deputy Sheriff Jones early today reported that he believed his force had part of Crazy Snake's band surrounded, including the chief himself. This gave rise to a story that the leader was killed. No confirmation of this could be obtained, and it probably is incorrect, as nobody could be found tonight who had seen Snake during the day. Scores of cowboys and frontiersmen, militant gun fighters, joined the militiamen in the chase during the day and evening. These men declare that if Crazy Snake was anywhere in the district he would be run down before morning.

Many More Killings Predicted. Fort Smith, Ark., March 29.—The body of Edward Baum, the deputy sheriff killed in the attack on the home of Chief Crazy Snake last Saturday, was brought to his home in this city today for interment. The man who accompanied it declares that the trouble in Oklahoma is very serious, and more killings will undoubtedly be added to the list before the trouble is over. A party will leave here early tonight for the scene of the disturbance. The members will be heavily armed. They announce that they will either kill or capture Charles Coker, charged by Crazy Snake's son with killing Baum.

New York Sleuth Kills Man in Fight. New York, March 29.—Frederick Johnson, an elevator man, in an apartment house at 615 Fifth avenue, was shot and killed tonight by Joseph Parise, a detective, in a hand-to-hand struggle in the elevator in the building. The detective had arrested Johnson for entering a flat which Parise had been watching. Parise had a finger shot off in the fight, and is in a hospital.

Double Tragedy at Denver. Denver, Colo., March 29.—John Collins, father of the wife of former Governor McDonald, today shot and fatally wounded Mrs. McDonald's aunt, Miss Sarah Nichols, and then killed himself. The cause of the tragedy is unknown. It is believed, however, that Collins was insane.

BLOODY BATTLE IN INDIANA. Americans and Hungarians Clash, and Many Men Are Wounded. Terre Haute, Ind., March 29.—Five American miners are known to have been wounded, one perhaps fatally, in a race riot tonight at the Bogie mines, north of Jasonville. The battle started when Hungarian miners opened fire upon a delegation of American miners who went from Jasonville to warn the foreigners to leave the mine. The Hungarians are barricaded in one of their houses and are surrounded by several hundred Americans, armed with revolvers and shotguns. The Hungarians are armed with old army rifles, which they purchased at Terre Haute during the winter. The house which the foreigners have adopted as a stronghold has been riddled with bullets, and it is thought that many of the foreigners have been wounded. Howard Harshline, American, is expected to die of his injuries. He was shot in the breast with a shotgun. An American miner named McComb is also seriously injured.

BRITISH MINISTRY UPHELD BY COMMONS

By a Strict Party Vote, and After a Notable Debate, Parliament Refuses to Condemn the Government's Naval Policy.

London, March 29.—By a strict party vote—253 to 135—tonight, commons refused to express lack of confidence in the government's naval policy. The motion on which today's notable debate hinged set forth "that in the opinion of this house the declared policy of his majesty's government respecting the immediate provision for battleships of the newest type does not sufficiently secure the safety of the empire."

Sir Edward's speech was by far the most notable contribution to the debate, because of its remarkable candor. He dwelt on the diplomatic aspect of the British-German rivalry and the hopelessness of expecting any cessation of the race for armaments, and predicted European bankruptcy if it continued. He frankly declared that the British navy was designed solely for protection against Germany.

BALKAN QUESTION IS SETTLED FOR YEARS

Notified That the Great Powers Have Recognized Austria's Act of Annexation, Servia Surrenders to the Demands of Europe.

Belgrade, March 29.—Servia has completely surrendered to the demands of Europe. The tension of six months over the Balkan situation came to an end this afternoon, when its ministers in London, France, Russia and Italy informed the Servian government of their recognition of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria-Hungary. The action of Servia has probably set the Balkan "question" at rest for many years.

London, March 29.—Special dispatches from Rome and Vienna give rumors that King Peter of Servia and the members of his family are preparing to leave Belgrade.

Reservists Being Discharged. London, Tuesday, March 30.—The intervention of the powers with respect to the controversy between Servia and Austria-Hungary has been postponed until tomorrow, according to dispatches from Belgrade, as the Russian minister has not yet received instructions from St. Petersburg. It was the intention of the representatives of Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy to inform the Servian government yesterday afternoon of the recognition by the powers of the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina by Austria-Hungary, and to advise Servia to accept the settlement that has been arranged. Notwithstanding, however, that this action has not yet been taken, Servia has accepted to the plan in principle, and many reservists have already been discharged.

Russia's Foreign Minister Resigns. Paris, March 29.—A despatch from Berlin to the Echo de Paris says that the Russian foreign minister, M. Isvolsky, has resigned, and will be succeeded by either Prince Engelstschiff or M. Tsharykoff, chief of the foreign office.

COSTLY FIRE IN HAVANA. Havana, March 29.—The two piers of the Havana Central railroad, in the upper part of the harbor, were totally destroyed by fire today. It is reported that the fire was of incendiary origin. The total damage is estimated at $200,000, covered by insurance.

WEATHER FORECAST. Washington, March 29.—The following is the weather bureau's forecast for the next state admitted to the Union: Wednesday, fair. Sun sets Tuesday at 6:21. WOULD HONOR ABRAHAM LINCOLN. Congressman Proposes Next New State Shall Bear Name of Martyr. Washington, March 29.—Representative Kinkaid, of New Jersey, one of the Democratic members of the house, proposes in a bill he introduced today that the next state admitted to the Union shall be named Lincoln. His resolution declares that the nation owes to Lincoln, next to Washington, its very existence.

TARIFF IS THEME OF DAY'S DEBATE

For More Than Ten Hours the Ways and Means Committee's Bill Is Discussed in the National House of Representatives.

Not One of the Many Speakers Favor the Measure in Its Entirety, While Much Is Found in It to Criticize and Condemn—Denouncing the Caucus Resolution Disciplining the Insurgent Democrats, Moon of Tennessee Furnishes the Only Excitement.

Washington, March 29.—The tariff question was discussed in the house today for ten and a half hours. Not one of the many speakers favored the Payne bill in its entirety, while the Democrats found much in it to criticize and condemn. The maximum and minimum features of the proposed measure were especially obnoxious to them, while the Republicans urged higher duties on lumber, iron, pottery and zinc ore, as well as a duty on tea.

Mr. Moon, of Tennessee, scathingly denounced those of his Democratic colleagues who adopted the caucus resolution that disciplined the twenty-three Democrats who supported the Fitzgerald amendment to the rules, and this furnished the only exciting incident.

Those who spoke on the tariff were Representatives James, of Kentucky; Cushman, Washington; Kennedy, Ohio; Gillette, Massachusetts; Scott, Kansas; Peters, Massachusetts; Deikema, Michigan, and Hill, Tennessee.

Mr. Moon Shows Bitterness. Mr. Moon, who was one of the twenty-three members whom the caucus resolution disciplined, was scathingly denounced by the Republicans in the adoption of the Fitzgerald amendment to the rules, defended his action in vigorous language. He vigorously denounced the attitude toward him and the twenty-two assistants by the minority leader and other Democrats in the house which, he said, had shown an intolerance unbecomingly. He characterized the Democratic caucus resolutions as "humiliating, dishonorable, contemptible and pusillanimous."

Mr. Moon criticized the Clark amendments, he said, among other things, called for the appointment of a "monrel committee" of fifteen to name the committee of the house. He declared that when the Fitzgerald resolution was called, Mr. Clark, instead of taking advantage of the situation, "fled the field." Facing Champ Clark, he said: "Rally your forces and every Democrat in this house will stand with them for the abrogation of the rules that are still obnoxious."

Denounces Program of Lawlessness. Mr. Moon sarcastically suggested that those Democrats who had passed upon Mr. Clark a losing conflict might well give up their rights and power into his keeping. The caucus resolution he interpreted as an announcement not to obey the law of the land. "In your desire to express your enmity to those of your own party who disagreed with you in your hatred of the speaker," he said with much feeling, "you declare yourselves for a program of lawlessness and revolutionary conduct in the house."

"Are you in a conclave? Are you in the society of the blackhand, or are you standing in the interest of a great constitutional party, contending for the liberty of the common people on the floor of the house?"

The insistent Democrats and the Republicans loudly applauded as Mr. Moon set down.

Night Session Largely Attended. The largest gathering of visitors that has attended the sessions of the house during the tariff debate filled the galleries tonight. Mr. Nye, of Minnesota, delivered a numerous speech, in which he favored the free entry of lumber. Mr. Sisson, of Mississippi, closed the debate, and the house adjourned until tomorrow.

WOULD LIMIT BUSINESS. Senator Hale Proposes That Only Tariff and Census Bills Be Considered. Washington, March 29.—In the senate today, Senator Hale, chairman of the Republican caucus, introduced a resolution to confine the business of the extra session to the consideration of the tariff bill and the bill providing for the thirteenth census, but he afterwards amended it so as to permit the introduction of bills and the transaction of executive business. Contrary to expectation, the resolution aroused a spirited discussion, but the debate dealt with other subjects than the limitation of business. Apparently there was no objection to such limitation, but the measure went over until Thursday to allow of further consideration of the question.

Senator Elkins Complains. During the session Mr. Elkins, of West Virginia, took occasion to criticize the distribution of the Republican membership of the finance committee, declaring that while New England has three members on the committee, the South had been entirely denied representation. His tone was very similar to that of Mr. Scott, his colleague, who criticized the distribution in the Republican senatorial caucus last Monday.

School of Citizenship for Nebraska. Lincoln, Neb., March 29.—The house this evening passed the Bryan school of citizenship bill, and the measure now goes to the governor. The bill was drafted by W. J. Bryan. It empowers the regents of the state university to establish a chair for instruction on the duties of citizenship and good government.

ATTEMPT TO KILL COLONEL ROOSEVELT?

Correspondents at Horta, in the Azores, Where the Hamburg Puts in With Mail, Send News of an Exciting Incident at Sea.

Presumably Insane, an Italian Is Described as Rushing to the Upper Deck With the Purpose of Attacking the Former President, Only to Be Quickly Mastered by Sailors and by Orders of the Captain Put in Irons for the Rest of the Voyage.

London, Tuesday, March 30.—A dispatch to The Standard from Horta says that when the steamer Hamburg put in there with the mails, it was learned that an attempt had been made abroad to assassinate ex-President Roosevelt, but that it was frustrated and his would-be assassin was placed in irons. The Daily Mail's Horta correspondent says: "Reports are current, and I repeat them with reserve, that an attack has been made on the life of ex-President Roosevelt."

Details of the Incident. New York, Tuesday, March 30.—Giuseppe Tosti, a steamer passenger on the Hamburg, is the man who threatened ex-President Roosevelt, according to a special cablegram from Horta to the world. The incident happened soon after the Hamburg was losing sight of America.

Tosti broke from his companions in the steamer and started for the upper deck, where Mr. Roosevelt was standing with his son Kermit. "He has let them take away my child," Tosti is said to have shouted in English. "Now he shall pay for it!"

Sailors seized Tosti, quickly mastered him and carried him below, and by the captain's orders put him in irons. The incident, it is stated, is known only to Mr. Roosevelt and a few fellow passengers.

Tosti, after his imprisonment, refused for four days to eat, crying: "Roosevelt is trying to poison me." The ship's doctor now must taste all the food offered to Tosti before the man will eat it.

Ex-President's Party All Well. Horta, Faval, Azores, March 29.—The steamer Hamburg, on which former President Roosevelt arrived here early today, left this afternoon for Gibraltar, by way of Ponta Delgada, island of San Miguel. With the exception of one or two days when the sea was a little rough, the Hamburg has had pleasant weather from New York. Mr. Roosevelt has not discussed politics with any of his fellow passengers; he would only talk of his forthcoming expedition into Africa.

He promissed the decks every day. Mr. Roosevelt and the members of his party are well. They went ashore here and, escorted by the governor, were driven about the town.

MISS MUNN NOT HIS FIANCEE. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Denies Reported Engagement to Washington Girl. Thompsonville, Conn., March 29.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., today stated that the report "he is engaged to Miss Munn, of Washington, was absolutely without foundation."

NEWSPAPER STORY STIRS STATE SOLONS. Committee Is Named to Investigate a Statement Attacking the Integrity of Members of the Michigan Legislature. Lansing, Mich., March 29.—[Special.]—A legislative investigation that means something was started tonight when Representative Baker of Cheboygan, put in a resolution asking an investigation of a statement that appeared in the Lansing Republican Saturday night, it having been clipped from the Detroit Free Press of the same date. The statement purported to be from a railroad passenger conductor, unnamed, and referred to the killing of the proposition to allow a penalty over-charge for failure to buy tickets. It follows:

"When our bill was introduced in the house, one member said to me: 'How much is there in it for us?' 'Not a red penny, said I.' 'You notice our bill was killed. One old rouser' at the state house said that if we'd sweetened up about $500 the result might have been different."

Mr. Baker's resolution set forth that this was a serious reflection on the integrity of the house, and asked for an investigation committee. Mr. Baker, F. C. Miller, of Ionia, who took a leading part in the effort to pass the bill, and Mr. Farmer, one of two Democratic members, were named.

The Edwards bill, allowing the incorporation of the lodges of Kaleva and Ritari passed the house tonight. The Clarks bill, calling for a board of prison industries to run all prison industries, is the special order in the house for tomorrow. Mr. Clarken believes it will pass.

School of Citizenship for Nebraska. Lincoln, Neb., March 29.—The house this evening passed the Bryan school of citizenship bill, and the measure now goes to the governor. The bill was drafted by W. J. Bryan. It empowers the regents of the state university to establish a chair for instruction on the duties of citizenship and good government.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL

Associated Press dispatches and is especially devoted to the Upper Peninsula interests.

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Unless all signs are at fault the women of the country, and the department stores, will succeed in getting material changes in the glove schedule, as it is now outlined in the Payne tariff measure.

Other things being equal, we have no doubt that Mr. Johnson, pugilistic premier, would greatly prefer to measure strength with Gentleman Jim than with the younger and sturdier Jim Jeffries.

President Taft would, of course, greatly dislike to veto any tariff bill that the two houses of congress could agree on, but he has his own ideas of what the Payne bill should provide, and unless the measure pretty closely coincides with those ideas he will not hesitate to use the veto power, and to place his reasons before the public in no uncertain terms and the responsibility where it belongs—on congress.

The home rule question is one of the most important that the legislature will have to dispose of, and at the same time one of the most difficult.

The new Escanaba Daily Press has sprung full-armed into the municipal election in that city, in espousal of the re-election of Mayor Perron for a fourth term.

The "leading citizens" of Crystal Falls persist in the belief that they are adopting a wise and creditable course in preventing socialist speakers from being heard in their town.

The assertion has been made by some critics who do not like that gentleman's attitude toward the "home rule" legislation that must be enacted during the present session of the legislature that the mining companies of the upper peninsula have had a good deal to do with framing Representative Monroe's opinions on that subject.

OHIO'S NEW SALOON LAW.

A new law for the regulation of saloons, which contains several features in the nature of innovations, has just gone into effect in Ohio.

The really curious feature about this law is the fact that it has the backing and support of the liquor dealers themselves, or at least the better members of this class, who profess a sincere desire to help regulate the saloon business and bring it into better standing in general public sentiment.

THE UNKNOWN MILLIONAIRE.

Here are some of the gifts for public purposes during the week: James Milliken of Decatur, Ills., $1,500,000 for charitable institutions in his home town; Elizabeth Milbank Anderson of New York, $500,000 for a sanatorium for the sick children of the poor; Hubert E. Pushmeyer of Boston, $100,000 for scholarships at Phillips Exeter and Harvard.

Never have the rich been more denounced as inherently vicious than in this country during the last few years. Wealth-baiting has become a profession. The Hebrew prophets were not more certain that land and goods meant robbery of the poor than our denunciators of plutocracy.

It has become an exception, when a large fortune passes, not to learn of the dedication of a large part to public uses. Sometimes through social pressure on the individual conscience, sometimes through an unconscious expression of the humanitarian spirit and the old-fashioned desire to help lame dogs over stiles, sometimes through a realization that too much money is bad for a family—for a variety of reasons the many are finding themselves the heirs of the few.

Another thing about the bestowings challenges attention—namely, the number of unknown millionaires. Men and women little known out of an immediate and small social acquaintance give away more money than the richest man in America possessed in Washington's time.

It is an extremely frigid day when Hon. Joseph Fordney of Michigan got into the public prints. Mr. Fordney represents the eighth district in congress and can always be found on the opposite side of every question.

NOTES OF COPPER NEWS.

It is evident that the independent mine operators of Montana have lost their means of opposing the smelter trust and the Amalgamated Copper company smelters.

The two furnaces that were idle at the Greene-Canaan company's property have been blown in. The blowing in does not mean that the company will operate its smelter full blast, for just as soon as success 1 and 2 have been heated up to capacity, the fire will be drawn from Nos. 7 and 8, so that the company will operate, as heretofore, but six of its eight furnaces.

There was no apparent diminution of either size or richness in the ore bodies. We called particular attention to the trend of this development in our report of last year and as all of the ground lying in the direction of this general development is owned by the Superior & Pittsburg with the exception of one claim, and as ore on this claim has already been found to exist, it is not hard to draw a deduction as to the great possibilities of this property.

The new Baltic Lode Exploration company's operations to date reveal two ledges, evidently the main Baltic and its twin, the so-called West Lode at that formation. The lodes are seventy-six feet and twenty-six feet wide respectively, and are separated by a bank of mixed trap and amygdaloid fifty-two feet wide, making them workable through a single line of shafts.

Tracing and test pitting continues. An exploratory shaft will be started in a day or two, and diamond drilling by two outfits is expected to be in progress at about the same time.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my back, and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed some frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." Sold by all druggists.

Mining News

CALUMET & ARIZONA.

In the annual report of the Calumet & Arizona company, just issued, General Manager Powell says, in part:

"At the Irish Mag shaft during the year we have developed new ore on both the top and bottom levels of the mine. At the latter shaft development in our oxide ore bodies has shown them to extend considerably in unexpected directions and this is particularly true of the large oxide bodies northwest and east from the shaft and is a repetition of our experience of the previous year, which was referred to in our report of 1907. The development on the north end of the Sunnyside claim of the Superior & Pittsburg has shown oxide ore to exist on the Gibraltar claim; this in connection with the large leached bodies shown on the Gibraltar promises well for ore on that claim.

"In November we started a new shaft on the line between the Hope and Waggoner claims about 580 feet west of the east line for the purpose of developing these two claims. The result obtained in the Shattuck-Arizona mine, which ground lies adjacent to this shaft, and the additional information which our development work has given us during the past year along the line of the geological conditions governing the deposition of ore in this camp, leads us to feel very much encouraged as to the possibilities of the particular ground which will be opened from this shaft. There still remains a large amount of Calumet & Arizona ground to be developed, and the results, so far as our work has advanced, indicate well for additional ore finds and permanency of the mines."

The financial statement shows:

Assets: Cash and copper on hand at 12 1/2 cents per lb. $1,230,782.78 Ore in stock at mine and smelter at $10 per ton 87,310.00 Supplies on hand at mine 470,988.67 Accounts receivable 336,913.53 Notes receivable (demand) 1,382,054.83 Stock in other companies 167,500.00 $8,675,549.91

Liabilities: Accounts payable $292,280.57 Assets in excess of liabilities $8,423,269.34

President Briggs says: "We produced for the year 1908, 14,024 tons refined copper. Our product in gold and silver was in value $234,356.07, averaging per ton of refined copper $16.72. The highest average price per month received for refined copper was for copper delivered in February, 1908, viz—13.57 cents. The lowest was for copper delivered during August, 1908, viz—12.65 cents. The average price received for refined copper during the year 1908 was 12.94 cents.

"The policy of our management has been to treat as low a grade of ore as can be handled at a reasonable profit, in order that all values should be recovered and saved to the stockholders. This has resulted in a lower production for the year, but at a very satisfactory cost. The market and industrial conditions have not been such as to justify any attempt to increase production, and we believe that the ultimate profits of stockholders will be materially increased by a conservation of the ores.

"During the year we completed payment upon the main group of claims at Copper Giant in the Mammoth district, being satisfied that they will prove a valuable asset to the company. We still hold an option on some adjacent claims, which may be exercised during 1909. We call your attention to Mr. Powell's report upon the claims in the Courtland district, payments on which are spread over the coming year. These properties are only thirty-two miles from our smelter at Douglas and already we have blocked out quite a large tonnage of ore. It is expected that during the present summer the railroad will be completed to Douglas and regular shipments made as soon as the railroad is ready to receive them.

"Your directors feel that in the properties at Courtland they have a very valuable property, both on account of its development location and the character and extent of the ore already developed. We still hold options upon claims amounting in all to $530,000, payments on which are spread over the next twelve months. Demand loans will be called in to meet these payments. The amount expended in developing land under option in 1908 was $274,721.06 and for payments on options $89,990, a total of $374,721.06."

SUPERIOR & PITTSBURG.

The annual report of the Superior & Pittsburg company shows the following:

Assets: Cash and copper on hand at 12 1/2 cents per lb. $74,158.93 Ore in stock at mine and smelter at $10 per ton 10,500.00 Supplies on hand at mines 155,235.94 Accounts and bills receivable 31,298.44 Stock in other companies 145,000.00 $216,193.31

Liabilities: Accounts payable at Bisbee (current) $269,220.19 Notes payable (including advances on bullion) 1,426,554.82 $1,695,775.02

Liabilities in excess of assets $879,581.71

Referring to the discovery or opening of various large and important ore bodies, General Manager Powell says that "during the year the development work has shown good results from all the shafts. The satisfactory results from this development have a most vital bearing on the future of Superior & Pittsburg and prove the continuity of the ore along the same trend as has been developed through all of the big mines of the Copper Country and Calumet & Ariz.

MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co's correspondent at New York yesterday telegraphed as follows: "Stocks were strong and active again today, with a slight setback toward the close, evidently occasioned by profit-taking. The news was all in favor of the market, and was taken advantage of by the bulls to strengthen their position. With the Balkan situation cleared up, it should help the market to quite a degree. The market is broadening out considerably, and instead of being a market of specialists, the whole lot is participating in the activity. The public is becoming interested to a greater degree than for a long time, and it is their operations that make big, broad, active markets. Money continues cheap, and with all these conditions it seems as if there would be a good active market for some time. At this level, however, we would be cautious and avoid buying on the swells."

Writing from Boston yesterday, Paine, Webber & Co. had the following to say of the stock market: "There was a tremendous amount of profit-taking all through the list today. Everybody had the idea that the present rise was caused entirely by short covering, and that as soon as this was over the market would react. Local traders, both on the floor and around the street, sold stocks right and left. The market, however, easily absorbed all sales and closed at the top. We like the way the market acted and think the whole list will sell higher. Copper Range is being quietly picked up by one house and it closed at 77 bid, with none offered at less than 78. Several speculative accounts were liquidated in East Butte. The buying easily took care of all the

COAL OPERATORS TAKE UNYIELDING ATTITUDE

Give Notice That Unless Present Agreement Is Renewed, the Wages Will Revert Back to the Low Scale in Effect in 1900.

Shamokin, Pa., March 29.—From local operators in close touch with President Baer, of the Reading railway, and Morris Williams, of the Pennsylvania Coal company, it was learned today that unless the officials of the United Mine Workers of the anthracite districts signed another three years agreement, the same as the one now in force, the coal companies would insist on all the conditions reverting back to 1900. This would mean the abolition of the sliding scale and a reduction of 20 per cent in wages.

Conference to Occur Next Week.

Chicago, March 29.—The September option touched a new high record for the season in the wheat pit today, when it sold at 109 3/4. The May advanced with in 1/4 of the best mark for the season. Sentiment Improves, Trade Reports and Washington Advices Helping, and Stocks Are in Demand at Advancing Prices.

New York, March 29.—The stock market today fulfilled the promise of a wider speculative interest which was contained in the sudden revival on Saturday. The effect of the rapid advance in prices at the end of the week was to bring in a large increase of orders for stocks today which were executed in the market with many symptoms of sentiment reverting back to 1900. This would mean the abolition of the sliding scale and a reduction of 20 per cent in wages.

The brokers found themselves with orders in their hands when the market opened on the purchase of anywhere from one hundred to five thousand shares of stock, the latter figure representing individual purchases in several cases as noted on the floor. Moreover, these orders were for purchase "at the market" in some cases, that is, without limitation on price. This state of affairs was responsible for the buoyant upshot of the opening prices, the first quotations in United States Steel and Union Pacific being wide or at simultaneous prices varying a fraction.

The speculative element continued to lay much stress upon the early return to the financial district intended by E. H. Harriman, and also the conferences which have taken place between that gentleman and President Hill of the Great Northern. The Harriman stocks were prominent features of strength, though the price of the Harriman stock, the higher, made since the panic.

Another factor in the strength of the market was a report from Washington of influential efforts being made to expedite the progress of the tariff bill, and hope was thus aroused that this bill would be passed at an early date and be removed as a disturbing influence. There was much discussion of the anthracite labor outlook, and the professed belief that a costly conflict would be avoided was a helpful influence on the whole market and on Reading in particular. The news bearing on the advance did not extend much beyond these points, and the technical position as reflected in the long passive resistance of the prices to apparently depressing factors was a point most relied on.

Advances in the price of copper and lead were announced during the day. Reports from the steel trade indicate that in spite of the dullness in that trade in general, the orders for structural material in March were the largest for any month in the history of the trade.

WIFE ENTITLED TO $1 OUT OF $5.

Set News for Husbands in Dictum as to Division of Income.

Kansas City, Mo., March 29.—Police Judge Kyle fixed the amount of "pin money" a wife should be allowed. Husband's wife prepared for the worst in reading the verdict. The amount is 20 per cent of the husband's income. Judge Kyle figured it out to an exact penny with pencil and paper, and then gave it out with as much nonchalance as he affects when assessing a $2 fine. Mrs. J. W. objecting to her husband in court, charge of disturbing the peace. The chief charge was that he doesn't give her enough money. "How much do you make?" Judge Kyle asked Jollif. "Sixty dollars a month," Jollif replied. "You've figured a minute and said: 'Now, I'll tell you what you ought to do. After the rent and the house expenses are paid, you ought to give your wife $3 a week. She's entitled to that much. She takes care of these children, she never gets out of the house, I'll tell you something else. She'll save more money than you will out of that $3 a week.'"

Jollif started to tell the court that his wife took money from under his pillow while he was asleep, but the court waved him aside. "You may go, with the understanding that you wife gets her 20 per cent regularly," Judge Kyle said.

CAN'T CLOSE LAKE TO FISHING.

Percy Summer Club Loses After Many Years of Litigation.

Concord, N. H., March 29.—The final step in the Percy Summer club litigation, which lasted nearly a quarter of a century and attracted wide attention on account of the inland fisheries question involved, has been taken with the receipt by State Treasurer Solan A. Carter of a check for $1,400 from officers of the club to cover the costs of the case. About twenty-five years ago the club, which was composed of wealthy men from New York and other cities, bought all the land adjoining Christine Lake, in the town of Stark, N. H., and announced that the lake would thereafter be closed to public fishing. Residents of that section of the town objected to this cutting off of a privilege which they believed belonged to them, and finally the fence which the club had erected on its property was partly torn down and a number of citizens proceeded to fish in the lake. The club's lawyer sent to have the general public enjoined from crossing its land to get to the lake and from fishing or boating there. The state and federal courts, one after another, decided against the club, and finally, about a year ago, the United States circuit court handed down a decision that the lake or ponds of more than ten acres in area were the property of the state under the common law and as such were public waters, open to all who cared to fish there, and that "Christine Lake, came within this category. The officers of the club finally decided not to carry the case to the United States supreme court, but to close the matter by paying the costs assessed upon them.

MUST HAVE MORE REVENUE.

Revision Down, Therefore, Is a Most Difficult Problem.

President Taft and the Elder Statesmen of the Senate Anxiously Wrestling With Plans to Increase Receipts and at the Same Time to Respond to the Demand for Lower Tariffs—Various Ideas Set Forth Tentatively to Test Public Opinion—Federal Expenditures Increasing Rapidly All the Time.

Washington, March 29.—When Senator Aldrich completes his work on the tariff bill which will contain revenue raising provisions which are not in it now, President Taft does not want a bankrupt treasury on his hands, and his friends in the senate do not intend he shall have one if they can prevent it. In the estimation of the elder Republican senators—and possibly President Taft holds to the same view—the vital defect in the Payne bill is that it does not insure the national administration against financial breakers. So it is that the overshadowing problem at this moment is how to increase the revenues promised under the Payne bill. The president and those senators with whom he takes counsel are decidedly more interested in the problem of how to raise money with which to meet the running expenses of the government than in the fate of any particular schedule in the Payne bill.

Any man of consequence who has a workable plan for raising money for the government will find a hearty welcome at the White House or at the committee on finance of the senate. Of course if the Republican party did not face a demand from the people of the country for lower tariff rates it might be easier to solve the problem of revenue. But the demand must receive recognition, and the party in power at the same time prevent this administration from running into financial trouble. Mr. Taft appreciates the situation. He is seeking from various sources suggestions for raising more revenue without creating too much antagonism. It was at his suggestion that the ways and means committee of the House provided for an inheritance tax in the Payne bill. Now he is the chairman of the finance committee of the senate and is "feeling out" the country on a proposal to levy a tax on dividends declared by corporations. An income tax also is being considered. Representative Stevens of Minnesota, plans to offer a bill providing for such a tax. He would use the money so raised for the improvements of the inland waterways.

The view of the elder Republican senators is that if an income tax should be levied the revenue from it should be used in paying the running expenses of the government. Summed up, the problem before the "powers that be" is, "How can we obtain the most revenue with the minimum amount of objection on the part of the people?" Under Mr. Payne's estimate the bill now before the house would fall more than $100,000,000 short of providing revenues sufficient to meet the expenses of the government for the fiscal year beginning the first of July next. One may reasonably assume that Senator Aldrich and the members of the finance committee of the senate are not so optimistic as the chairman of the ways and means committee. Here are Mr. Payne's latest estimates: Total appropriations for the fiscal year beginning July 1, $1,044,014,298.23; deficit from this amount the estimated sinking fund appropriations, $90,000,000; the bank note redemption (paid by banks), $90,000,000; the Panama appropriations at the recent session (to be provided for by bonds), and 5 per cent estimated appropriations which are not met, and the actual expenditures for the year is fixed at $872,221,701.77. To meet this demand Mr. Payne estimates revenues as follows: From internal revenue sources, $230,000,000; from miscellaneous revenue, $62,000,000; from postal revenue, $223,000,000; customs under proposed tariff bill, $305,225,173; internal revenue on legacies, $20,000,000; internal revenue on cigarettes (increase), $1,200,000. This gives a total of $862,065,885 of revenue for the fiscal year, and leaves a shortage of $10,158,816.77. Of course, Mr. Payne expresses the belief that business will so revive during the coming fiscal year as to insure an increase in customs receipts over his estimate, but evidently his optimism is not shared by the members of the finance committee of the senate.

But it is not for next year only that the congress is legislating. The presumption is that the tariff law enacted at this session will stand for at least ten

Production of "Parsifal," Here Thursday, Has Attractive Stage Picture.

Among the most imposing and elaborate stage pictures in Messrs. Martin and Emery's production of "Parsifal," which will appear at the Ishpeming theater Thursday evening, are those disclosed in the third act. The rise of the curtain reveals the interior of Kinglor's castle, in the north of Spain. The huge dismal cloisters are hung with stuffed owls, snakes and other symbols of the art of necromancy. Kinglor is discovered in the center of the stage, a green glow of light covering his face and his imploring servant Dweigger groveling at his feet, waiting to do his bidding. The beautiful Kundry is commanded to appear, making her entrance through a cloud of vapor. She is forced to accede to Kinglor's evil command of luring the good Knight Parsifal into the magic garden, there to attempt his downfall. Calling his power of necromancy, his imps and devils to attend him, he proceeds to create out of the sombre gloom of his castle, a scene of brilliance, seductiveness and allurements. A crash of thunder throws the scene in darkness and springing into vision, like a flashing meteor, is the magic garden. The scene change is accomplished in less than four seconds, and requires the service of fourteen extra stage hands besides the special crew of eight men carried by the company, necessitating the most elaborate mechanical equipment ever set on tour.

At the close of this scene when "Parsifal" has regained the sacred spear, another wonderful transformation takes place. Standing on the parapet in the rear overlooking Kundry, her hosts of beautiful flower girls and evil knights Kinglor, Parsifal proclaims the power of good over evil, and making the sign of the cross with the sacred spear, he bids the magic garden with its inhabitants to "begone." A blinding crash of thunder and lightning accompanied by an incessant rain of fire finally abating to a low rumble out from which is heard the low strains of the soul stirring Parsifal "redemption" music. Parsifal still standing triumphant in the rear, before him a scene of utter devastation and waste. The massive castle has crumbled into a shapeless heap, the flowers have withered into decay and the bodies of Kinglor and the flower maidens lay strewn on the ground. Kundry alone survives with Parsifal and as the curtain descends the mighty chords of the redemption music swell the air.

FROM MORGAN'S CURB LETTER.

"The market for copper shares is broadening daily, and the higher it goes the more active it becomes. The advance in the shares, however, is not reflected to any extent in the metal, as the demand this morning was declared to be light for both foreign and domestic shipping, although all grades were advanced ½ in both the bid and asked prices today. Profit-taking was indulged in to a considerable extent on the first swell and throughout the first half of the session, but all offerings were remarkably well taken. The New York Times attributes the present strength in copper shares, in a great measure, to the rumored merger, by T. F. Cole, of the more important copper producing companies of this country. Whether or not this report has any foundation in fact, it is nevertheless true that this upward movement has the appearance of genuine strength, and we believe copper should be bought whenever they are weak. Goldfield Consolidated was strong today, on the report that the deal is closed, and that Nixon retires, and his stock goes to one of the strongest pools of millionaires known on the street. The Live Oak tunnel is being extended thirty to fifty feet a week, and is now within 650 feet of the shaft; the ore running about the same. Leached material alternating with sulphide ore running 2½ to 3 per cent. The showing is declared to be exceptionally favorable. Good progress is being made in the drift on the 900-foot level of East Butte. The vein is showing a tendency to widen.

The Upper Peninsula Brewing company's delivery team ran away yesterday afternoon, creating much excitement. It passed through a number of the streets and alleys in the business section and then started north towards the First street school, where one of the horses fell and their flight was stopped. No particular damage resulted.

The members of the Manistique baseball team, who met the Negaunee Union last night, and are to play there again tonight and Ishpeming Wednesday evening, are registered at the Nelson House. The party is composed of W. E. Hansen, manager, J. E. McNaughton, Vern S. Herselman, W. S. Crowe, P. C. Deemer, C. B. Orr, Ray Roberts, Ray Barnes, J. J. Anderson, Glen Thomas, Rudolph Erickson, Allen Birch and A. W. Work.

SAWBIDGE STORE GREATLY IMPROVED

VETERAN HARDWARE MERCHANT IS COMPLETING A NUMBER OF IMPORTANT ALTERATIONS AT HIS BUSINESS BLOCK ON WEST IRON STREET.

J. H. Sawbridge, the hardware and furniture dealer on West Iron street, has made a big change in the interior of his business block. Carpenters have been employed there since shortly after the first of the year, and the painters are now finishing the decorations. The front of the building is to be painted later. The colors will be white and mahogany finish, similar to those used inside, where the walls and ceilings are white and the counters, shelving, etc., are mahogany color.

The building is one of the oldest on Iron street, it having been erected some forty-five years ago. It has been used continuously during this period as a hardware store. Mr. E. Maitland, who conducted the enterprise for ten years, until thirty-one years ago, when Mr. Sawbridge bought him out.

The improvements practically put the building in as good condition as when it was first erected. The floors and joists have been put over and the floors made level. In the hardware department three different floors were laid during the forty-five years since the building was constructed. All were in bad condition and were pulled out. A maple floor was put down and steel was placed on the side walls. Every room in the building including the workshop and warehouse at the rear, has been thoroughly gone over.

In the hardware store room two feet of ceiling was done in order to put in the floor desired. The furniture department in the second story has been fitted up, in keeping with the lower rooms. Steel has been placed on the ceiling and side walls and the department is more attractive than ever before. The building has been repaired for electric lights, in accordance with the national code, and new fixtures have been installed.

A portion of the old warehouse at the rear was on the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic company's right-of-way. This has been removed entirely. The stocks in several of the departments in the main building have been rearranged so that they are now more convenient to get at. Mr. Sawbridge carries large and complete lines of hardware. He has been doing a fine business for many years past. He had his banner trade in 1907, but says business last year was excellent. Some months ahead of the corresponding months in the previous year.

The first buildings erected on Iron street were put up without any uniformity, and, as a result, some were several feet farther back than the others, and many had steps leading to the front entrances extending out where the sidewalks ought to be. J. P. Wendell, who was the first mayor, elected in 1873, issued an order to the property owners, the owner of the Sawbridge property being among them, to move their buildings so that the fronts would line up properly. Practically no attention was paid to this established the southerly line followed started out with a crew of men to demonstrate to the property owners that he meant business. He cut away several stumps that were projecting over the ground that had been surveyed for the sidewalks. The Sawbridge block extends back eight feet from the walk line. Instead of moving the building an addition of eight feet was put on.

The Manistique team defeated the Negaunee team in an evening game at Negaunee, Mich., Saturday night. The Manistique team won by a score of 2 to 0.

The indoor hall game between the track Manistique team and the Negaunee team, played here last evening, was the best contest of the kind ever seen in this city. The visitors won, but it required eleven innings for them to do so, and that the score was 2 to 0. The series were Crowe and Williams, for Manistique, and Kirkpatrick and Dunlavey, for Negaunee. A big crowd witnessed the game, and enthusiasm ran high.

CONVENTIONS TONIGHT. Political Parties Will Nominate Candidates for City and Ward Offices.

Much interest has been aroused in the election during the past two or three days, and the caucuses and conventions to be held this evening will be well attended. The caucuses are to be called at 7 o'clock and the conventions will convene one hour later. The Taxpayers' party's convention will be held at the fire department's headquarters in No. 1 horse shoe block. The People's party convention will take place in the Finnish Temperance society's hall on Case street. Each party is to hold its caucuses in different places in the several wards. It is likely that there will be some contests for delegates to the conventions.

The leaders of both parties seem to be undecided as to whom they would like to see nominated for the office of treasurer. There are three candidates in the field and all have friends who are working for them. It seems to be generally conceded that Harry Salvage will be the Taxpayers' nominee, but it is a question which of the other two, Joe Mercur or Charles Mattson, will receive the nomination on the People's ticket. W. H. Mitchell, the city recorder, will have no opposition in the nomination on the Taxpayers' ticket, and it is conceded that Joseph Mondor will be the People's party's nominee.

While nothing definite has been heard from Mayor Winter as to whether he will make the run in the general wards, but the leaders are not announcing who are to be nominated. The only candidates for ward offices, who have declared themselves are H. G. Muck, for supervisor, and Richard Nesbitt for alderman, both in the Third ward. Mr. Muck held the office of supervisor a few years ago, and the last time he ran he was defeated by a close margin by Captain Edwin N. Corey of the Rolling Mill mine.

DISPUTE OVER WARD LINE. Question Raised as to Supervisor Cary's Right to Vote in Third Ward.

City Attorney T. A. Thoren has been asked to determine whether Edwin N. Corey, supervisor in the Third ward, who is a candidate for the nomination at tonight's caucus, is a resident of that ward or the Fifth. The question has been raised by members of the People's party, who are favorable to the nomination of H. G. Muck. Mr. Corey lives close to the line that divides the Third and Fifth wards and those who have brought up the question claim that he should vote in the Fifth ward.

In defining the ward line, a provision of the city charter reads: "The Third ward embraces all territory south of Jackson and Main streets and east of Cyr street and side line drawn south through the center of Cyr street and west of the extension of a line from the center of Teal Lake avenue, southerly to the limits of the city."

Those who contend that Captain Corey lives in the Fifth ward, instead of the Third, interpret the charter's meaning to be that the southerly line mentioned in the latter part of the above paragraph should be a straight line extending from Teal Lake avenue. When the lines were drawn at the southern line followed through the Palmer road, as is shown on a map of the city prepared in 1891. In view of this fact the city attorney can come to no conclusion other than that the southerly line had reference to the Palmer road and that Captain Corey's residence belongs in the Third ward. This line was established about twenty years ago. The question was raised once before and the same decision was reached by those to whom the matter was referred. On that matter referred to all of the ward boundary lines are indicated with red ink and the line dividing these two wards is plainly shown as the road line.

HARMONY FEATURED THE CONVENTION

NO CONTESTS FOR PLACES ON THE PEOPLE'S TICKET NOMINATED LAST NIGHT.

TWO PARTIES ARE LINED UP

Aldermanic Fights on in Every Ward and for Supervisor in All Except Two.

For Mayor—John Robertson. For Recorder—W. A. Ross. For Treasurer—Peter Byrne. For Justices of the Peace, full term—L. P. Cray and Peter Prineau. For Justices of the Peace, to fill vacancy—C. D. Blanchard. For Constables—Jacob Dolf and John Berg.

The People's party convention, held at the city hall last night, was entirely harmonious, and the same was true of the ward caucuses that preceded it, the result being the nomination of John Robertson for mayor and W. A. Ross for recorder. There was no contest for places on the ticket, either at the caucuses or at the convention, and the only deviation from the slate that had been forecast was the substitution of George Sambrook for William Hamblay as the candidate for alderman in the First ward, the change being necessitated by the refusal of Mr. Hamblay to make the run. There was a very fair attendance at all of the ward caucuses and the same was true of the convention, the assembly room of the city hall being well filled, when the meeting was called to order by James E. Sherman. James E. Sherman was the unanimous choice of the convention for temporary chairman and Charles Dolf for temporary secretary. The chairman appointed John Bloom, B. T. Hinson and Peter Hinson as the committee on credentials, and James Bennett as the committee on permanent organization and order of business. The latter committee reported in favor of making the temporary organization permanent and adopting the order of the convention call for the order of business. The committee on credentials seated the following delegates:

Ward Delegates. First Ward—John Miller, J. J. Bloom, William Hamblay, Max Desotel, William Wiseman, Sr., Steve Yarabek, Frank Dollar. Second Ward—J. T. Messier, Owen Ayotte, William McCreane, Philip Miller, James Goldsmith, Anthony Rice, Oliver Morris. Third Ward—J. E. Sherman, E. L. Stewart, Charles Dolf, Ed. Mitchell, Dan Morrison, Bert Hinson, A. E. Delf. Fourth Ward—Con Wellman, Oliver Johnson, Modeste Riopelle, August Stuck, John Bennett, Charles Nelson, Robert McKenzie, Ole M. Everson. Fifth Ward—August Peterson, Charles Carr, Ed. Vadnais, Peter Johnson, L. F. Beale, C. G. Peterson, R. J. Darrow. The following ward committees were elected: First, James Bennett; Second, Joe Lefevre; Third, E. L. Stewart; Fourth, Julius Thurbel; Fifth, Walter T. Ward. The convention then proceeded to the business of nominating the People's party ticket, which took but a few moments as all the candidates were chosen by acclamation.

Contests in Every Ward. Now that the two tickets have been nominated it is evident that there will be contests for alderman in every ward in the city and for supervisor in every ward save two, the Third and Fourth. In the First Ward Sambrook will be opposed by E. J. Butler for alderman, while Wm. Wiseman and James Hudson will contest for the office of supervisor. In the second M. H. Hennessy and Henry Duttmer are the rival candidates for alderman and Dr. Z. Vadnais and Joseph Fay for supervisor. In the Third Alderman Asire will be opposed by Henry Patenaude, but D. W. Powell will have no opposition for supervisor. In the Fourth Alderman Elkstrom will be opposed by William Clendenning, but Jacob Smith has the support of both parties for supervisor. In the Fifth Alderman Williams and Walter T. Ward have been nominated for alderman and Martin Sweder and Nels Flodin for supervisor. With the exception of mayor and recorder, the present incumbents of the city offices to be filled at the spring election have been unanimously endorsed for another term by both the Citizens' and People's parties.

ANSWERED DEATH'S CALL

Martin Daniels Departed This Life Last Night at 9 O'Clock. Martin Daniels, Jr., a popular and well-known young man of this city, passed from life last evening at 9 o'clock, at the home of his parents, Captain and Mrs. Martin Daniels, 916 North Front street. The young man was twenty-one years of age and had been seriously ill for about two months. His entire life had been spent in Marquette, until incapacitated by illness, having been some time in the employ of Henry Ockstadt in the dray business. He was a member of the Modern Brotherhood of America. Besides the father and mother, three brothers, William, Francis and Ernest, are left to mourn his death. The funeral will be held from the family home Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

HAS ENTERED HIS ONE HUNDRETH YEAR

W. W. DENLEY, MARQUETTE'S OLDEST RESIDENT, TODAY CELEBRATES HIS NINETY-NINTH BIRTHDAY. W. W. Denley, Marquette's oldest citizen, was born March 30, 1816, and today enters upon his one hundredth year of life. Although Mr. Denley is far beyond the three score and ten allotted to man in the Holy Writ, he is still in good health, gets out of doors almost daily and frequently takes a walk of two miles or more in length. He eats well and is still able to carry on an interesting conversation, although his memory is not so good as it was a few years ago. For the last two years he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Bertel, on East Michigan street.

This remarkably well-preserved old man was born in London of well-to-do parents, who were attaches of the royal court. At the age of sixteen he ran away from home and came to New York city as the servant of his parents, who were in London, but came back to America in a short time. Within his lifetime he has crossed the Atlantic ocean five times.

While in New York he learned the trade of piano forte making, and when a young man was owner of a piano factory at Kingston, Ont. This factory was destroyed by fire and, as the loss was total, it made him a poor man. At two different times he has served as a soldier under the British flag, and in recognition of his military services was given 150 acres of land near Bruce Mines, Ont., by Queen Victoria. In 1850 he first came to Marquette from the Soo and engaged in business as a contractor and builder. A short time later he returned to the Soo to look after some property interests and did not return to this city until 1884. Since that time he has spent most of his time on his farm near Skandia, where his wife died several years ago. For several years after this bereavement, he continued to live in one of his homes here, but two years ago was induced to move to Marquette and become a member of his daughter's home.

Mr. Denley does not know to what he owes his long life, further than that he was endowed from birth with an excellent physique and constitution. Although never a drinking man, he has not been a teetotaler, but has never become addicted to the use of tobacco. Of a roving disposition, he has traveled in almost every state in the United States and in many parts of Canada and England. His bright light of an iron constitution, coupled with a rugged, out of door life, is the only apparent reason for it having been his good fortune to round out ninety-nine years.

He cast his first vote for Andrew Jackson, while living in New York, and since that time, while a resident of the United States, has voted for the men whom he considered best fitted for the offices to which they aspired, in preference to the allegiance to any particular political party.

Of a large family of children that have been born to him, but four are now living: Mrs. Henry Bertel and Mrs. J. Walsh, of this city; Mrs. Elizabeth Duphenson of Somera, Tex., and Charles Denley, of Skandia.

GAME LAW REVISION

Measure to Have Closed Season Every Other Year Being Considered. Prosecuting Attorney Frank A. Bell has returned from Lansing, where he was given a hearing before the game laws committees of the legislature and presented the needs and wants of the people of Marquette county in the matter of game law revision. Mr. Bell states that the committees seem to be favorable to a general gun license but that they are inclined to balk at the proposal to limit the license to one deer a season. To have a closed season every other year is a compromise measure that is being considered by the committees. A game law bill is liable to be reported out by either the house or senate committee almost any day.

LIVELY INTEREST IN BOWLING TOURNAMENT

UPPER PENINSULA LIKELY TO BE LARGELY REPRESENTED IN MEETING TO BE HELD HERE APRIL 19.

The local bowlers are actively preparing for the first tournament of the Upper Peninsula Bowling association to be held at the Marquette alleys during the week commencing April 19. The arrangements for the tournament are in charge of a committee consisting of Messrs. Allen, Bell, Foard, Miller, Stafford and Van Iderstine, who will be divided into three or four sub-committees to look after the various details. The events will be for singles, doubles, three-men and five-men teams. The prizes will be selected and placed on exhibition at least a week before the beginning of the tournament. Entries are already assured from Neegaunee, Ishpeming, Houghton, Hancock, Calumet, Lakeland and Marquette; and it is quite likely that Iron Mountain, Escanaba and some other upper peninsula cities will be represented.

The committee is also considering the advisability of putting on one or more events for second class bowlers, and if given sufficient encouragement this will be done. The members of the committee are confident that the coming tournament will eclipse the one held here last spring, successful as it was. The local bowlers will not be restrained by any consideration of hospitality from making a try for all the prizes in sight. Marquette will be represented by at least two five-men teams. The first team will consist of Allen, Foard, Jenks, Miller and Van Iderstine. The second team will be chosen from Bell, Conklin, Dunster, Godwin, Jeanson, Manes, Stafford and Webb. Marquette will also have at least a dozen entries in the singles, six in the pairs and four in the triples. The Marquette bowlers realize that they will have to "go some" to make a creditable showing against the out-of-town experts; and active daily practice has already begun. There will be an open practice game each afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock for those intending to take part in the tournament, and a number of special evening matches will also be arranged. Such a match has already been arranged for Thursday evening between the No. 1 and No. 2 five-men teams at 8 o'clock.

The five-men league contest was finished last week. The Repeaters were the winners, having captured ten out of the fifteen games played, and the Eagles were second, winning eight out of fifteen. This will leave the alleys free for practice for the tournament, and for special matches, a number of which are now being planned, including several inter-city matches between Marquette, Neegaunee and Ishpeming, and a match between the Guild Hall bowlers and their downtown rivals.

DETROIT MAN'S IDEA OF HOME RULE BILL

PROPOSALS OF P. J. HALLY, CORPORATION LAWYER AND MEMBER OF CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION, MET WITH FAVOR.

At a conference in Detroit last week of members of the legislature and representatives of several Michigan cities to consider desirable home rule legislation, P. J. Hally, of Detroit, a corporation lawyer, submitted a bill which met with some favor. Mr. Hally was a member of the constitutional convention and suggested the following: The act should be comprehensive in scope, dealing only with general provisions, leaving the details of administration to be determined by each city. All present charter provisions and the provisions of special acts should be continued until changed or repealed by the municipality affected. A charter commission should be convened only for a general revision and when the people desire it. Villages of 3,000 should be permitted to incorporate as cities. Amendments to present charters may be proposed by a vote greater than a majority of the common council or by an initiatory petition. Cities where they desire it should have the power of eminent domain. In defining the general powers it should be done so that—except as to those provisions which are essential to every city as a corporation, and as an agent of the state—each city may feel free to take or refuse the power specified. The limit placed on borrowing money should be high enough to satisfy all and to meet the constitutional requirements, leaving the question of any increase from its present limit to each city with proper restrictions. Make the collection of school, state and county taxes mandatory. Provide for an executive head, a clerk and a body vested with legislative and administrative powers. Limit the submission of a general revision of the charter or of any amendment or amendments to one in two years. Leave the question of annexation of territory to the board of supervisors, with a referendum. Leave the question of city representation on the board of supervisors either to the board itself or to the legislature for the passage of a general law. If left to the board or supervisors, provide that each city shall have at least one representative. Prohibit the calling of more than two special elections in one year. Require all bond issues—except special assessment bonds—to have the sanction of a popular vote.
