Marquette women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Marquette woman's words: "Mrs. Hattie Parker, 175 W. Crescent St., Marquette, Mich., says: 'For several years I was a sufferer from kidney trouble. I had a severe pain in the small of my back and was subject to headaches. I had but little strength or energy and could hardly attend to my work. I tried a number of remedies but did not succeed in finding relief until I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Stafford Drug Co. They helped me from the first, and I continued until I felt better in every way. I do not hesitate to recommend this valuable remedy to anyone suffering from kidney trouble.'"

South Dakota Man and His Wife Are Murdered by Their Son-in-Law.

Albion, Neb., March 30.—News reached here today from Provo, S. D., just over the Nebraska line, of the murder last night of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, ranchers, near that place, by their son-in-law, Richard Barton, who, it is alleged, killed them with an axe, after which the dispatch says, he mutilated the bodies. Barton, it is said, threatened his wife and cautioned her not to reveal his crime until he had opportunity to escape; but she informed neighbors and a pursuit began, resulting in Barton's capture at Edgemont, S. D. Domestic trouble is supposed to have prompted the crime.

H. H. ROGERS' RAILWAY.

Now a Completed Proposition After an Expenditure of $40,000,000—Expected to Operate at 50 per Cent of Gross Earnings.

Boston, Mass., March 30.—H. H. Rogers' Virginia railway, the construction of which was begun in 1902, is now a finished proposition, and the completion of the enterprise will be celebrated by a $20-a-plate dinner to be given at Norfolk at which Mr. Rogers and friends will be present.

The new road extends 442 miles, from Deepwater, West Virginia, on the Kanawha river, to Sewell's Point, near Norfolk, Va. It is said to represent one of the finest of railroad construction to be seen in this country. Every improvement known to modern railroading has been installed, and the engineers claim that the road will have no difficulty in operating for 50 per cent of gross earnings.

To date the enterprise represents the expenditure of a trifle over $40,000,000, although the only securities in the hands of the public are $17,000,000 6 per cent notes of the Tidewater Construction company due in 1913, and $23,750,000 equipment trust 5 per cent serial notes. The annual interest charge on these two issues of notes amounts to $1,020,000, and from guaranteed tonnage the company can easily figure upon earning its fixed charges during the next three years with a small surplus left over. The company is already assured from its own properties of an annual haul of 1,600,000 tons of coal, and it is figured that as soon as the new project gets fairly under way, the minimum will be 2,500,000 tons per annum.

It goes without saying that the new enterprise is not looked upon with favor by the big coal roads. The Norfolk & Western and Chesapeake & Ohio, of course, antagonized by the construction of this road with its easy grades to tidewater, and it remains to be seen whether any attempt will be made to cut rates. Mr. Rogers' people say there is enough business for all at fair tariffs and add that there is not the slightest chance of any "sell out" to any of the larger railroad systems. In coal trade circles it has been well known that the Pennsylvania railroad has long sought to keep the better grades of West Virginia soft coals from the New York market. Incidentally it may be said that New York harbor receives annually no less than 15,000,000 tons of bituminous coal, practically all of which comes from the Pennsylvania fields.

The Pennsylvania railroad, dominating the railroad facilities from the soft coal regions, has kept Pocahontas and New River coal out of New York, but with the completion of the new Virginia railway the New York market will be at once developed. Many large ocean-going steamships in their attempts to annihilate time records between this country and continental ports, are naturally anxious to secure the best grade of coal to be had, and it has been demonstrated that even at a premium of twenty-five cents per ton for Pocahontas and New River grades, there is a striking economy over Pennsylvania coals in the additional steam power developed.

It will be recalled that the Virginia railway had its inception in the inability of Mr. Rogers to secure from the soft coal road combination what he considered an equitable transportation charge from the New River coal fields to tidewater. He threatened to build his own road and has carried out his threat very much to the discomfort of the big coal roads, who outwardly profess indifference and declare that there is not sufficient traffic awaiting transportation over the new line to pay the interest on its construction cost.

CLEVER TACTICS FOLLOWED.

Wall Street Professionals Take Profits Without Much Affecting Prices.

New York, March 30.—The speculative advance came to a pause in the stock market today, and there was a general disposition to take a survey of the position and seek light on the sources and motives of the sudden activity which sprang up Saturday and continued yesterday. Under seemingly capable and skillful leadership the profit-taking sales were not pushed at the expense of prices, but were constantly renewed when the market strength became sufficient to absorb the selling.

When the realizing had begun to affect the prices and to cause a drooping tendency, some influential stock was picked out for a demonstration of strength with a view to sentimental effect on the tone of the market. Erie was the first choice for this purpose, and the strong statement of the road's earnings for February was pointed to as justification for the rapid rise in that stock. St. Paul was the next favorite of the supporters of the market, its rise following assertion that the Pacific coast extension is practically completed and capable of early earning power commensurate with the outlay of capital which has been made in the building.

The profit-taking sales were pushed steadily throughout the session, although the general list at no time followed the advance in the selected stocks in a comprehensive manner. The price of copper was marked up again on the stock exchange in that metal in New York, but the copper and smelting shares were heavy.

Divines Play Detective.
Revs. Scott, Schumaker and Antonsen of Manistique visited several saloons in that city a week ago Sunday evening and are said to have gained entrance into the places conducted by Ole and Paddy Johnson.

Warrants were sworn out in Justice Knox's court, with the result that the two dealers will be tried in circuit court on the charge of violating the liquor laws.

Is Badly Scalded.
Grant Smith, a fireman for the Scott & Howe Lumber company, operating on the Gogebic range, was badly scalded some days ago. He got into one of the boilers to fix something and the other fireman, not knowing he was there, turned on the steam. Smith was scalded about the arms and breast before he could get out of the boiler and will be laid up for several weeks.

Unusual Run of Operations.
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gribble will extend them sympathy upon the unfortunate run of surgical operations made necessary in their family within the past two months, says the Crystal Falls Drill. First Willis Nichols, their grandson, was operated upon, then Mr. Nichols and at the same time their son, Bert Gribble. Then another grandson, Harold Gribble, went under the knife and lastly their daughter, Mrs. Richard Nichols, was operated upon for appendicitis. This is certainly a remarkable run in one family within such short time.

Sheriff After "Sib" Larson.
"Sib" Larson, ball player, who was to organize and manage a team in the Soo this year, has left the city. He is said to be wanted in Manistique on a charge of obtaining money on false pretenses. Sheriff Smith of Manistique has been in the Soo, looking for him. It is reported that Larson wrote a check on the First National bank of the Soo and secured the money on it from a saloon keeper in Manistique. It is alleged that he had no money in the bank.

There are several other charges that could be made against Larson," said Sheriff Smith. "It is claimed that he left a large board bill unpaid in our town. He was seen here night before last, but somebody informed him that he was wanted by the officers and it looks as if he went to Canada."

New Automobile Traction Line.

There has been organized at Iron River a corporation that will be known as the Iron County Transit company, the purpose of which is to operate a line of automobile buses. The company was organized with a capital of $10,000, divided among fifteen stockholders. It is the intention to put four buses in service. The order has already been given

CANNON HUNTING TARIFF VOTES.

Speaker and Lieutenants Wary of Trying to Get a Rule to Stop Debates.

Washington, March 30.—The tariff bill in the house is becoming of secondary interest to the leaders as compared with their feeling his way along. He wants a rule to close discussion. After his experience with the house on the opening day of the session he is chary of putting a rule to the test. There has been some firing of a canvass, with the result that the speaker has decided not to press for a rule just yet. He prefers that the house should weary itself a little with long speeches. The debate is not contributing much information to the tariff subject. The attendance is becoming thin. It is difficult now to keep a quorum upon the floor.

Talk of a Party Caucus.

The enterprises for securing separate votes upon this and that schedule are in full swing. That gives the speaker and the ways and means Republicans some uneasiness. For that reason the leaders are encouraging talk about a caucus, whose verdict shall be binding upon all Republican representatives. They hope by that process to crush the divers little insurrection that are forming because of dissatisfaction with certain schedules.

There is considerable contention as to whether members shall be allowed to give a vote on certain amendments in the house and go on record before their constituents, or whether all shall acquiesce in the decision of the caucus, which probably would be to stand by the bill in its entirety. The latter action would furnish representatives with an excuse to their constituents for not making a fight for schedules in which the local interest was keen. The ways and means Republicans wish all amendments submitted for their approval or disapproval.

Shifting Eight to Senate.

The outcome of all this agitation at the house end will probably be a gradual tightening of the lines. As soon as the organization feels sure of its ground it will begin to hurry the bill along and to put on pressure for its adoption as reported by the ways and means committee, with such amendments as the committee itself may be willing to submit. The effect of this will naturally be to divert to the senate and its finance committee a great number of people now in Washington on tariff errands, as it becomes plain that the only hope of securing modifications in the bill will be at that end of the Capitol.

CHARMING MRS. JEFFRIES.

One-Time Champion Pugilist Fortunate in Choosing a Wife.

Boston, Mass., March 30.—It is a singular fact that with few exceptions champion pugilists have been fortunate in the selection of wives, and this is especially true of James J. Jeffries, on whom many depend to bring back the championship of the world to the white race.

Mrs. Jeffries, who is touring the country with her husband, is at present in Boston, and would be selected in any society as a most charming little woman, feminine in all that the term implies and possessing beauty of a pronounced type. Tastily dressed in a neat fitting tailor made gown that brings out her figure to perfection, topped off with a handsome set of furs, Mrs. Jeffries looks anything but the "boss" of the big pugilist. She is as possible the opposite of her husband as it is possible to imagine, yet her influence over the one-time champion has been such that he readily gave up splendid chances to add to his fortune in order to settle down on his beautiful ranch on the outskirts of Los Angeles and there spend an ideal existence with his charming companion.

Mrs. Jeffries is a clean-cut, refined little woman, who never uses slang, and prides herself on having everything up to date and the very latest. She plays the newest music, has her city house in Los Angeles furnished in the most recent style, and wears clothes of the most fashionable color and cut. In manners she is pleasing. Her plump, well-developed, classically feminine little figure makes her look even shorter than she really is. She stands five feet two inches tall in high heels. German by birth, she speaks with a slight accent, but is usually taken for French. Her voice is one of her chief charms, low and peculiarly pleasing. Her eyes are black, while her hair is dark brown. Mrs. Jeffries is still in the twenties.

It was no marriage in haste and repent at leisure affair with the Jeffries. They were acquainted four years before they were married. The elopement was a beautiful man when his wife first met him and he has since confessed that he was most of that four years getting his

BASEBALL TONIGHT.
The crack Manistique baseball team will meet the Ishpeming City team this evening at Braastad's Hall, the game starting at 8 o'clock. Worth, who struck out thirty men in the game with the Negaunee Unions Monday, will be in the box tonight. He is credited with being a better pitcher than Crowe, and judging from his record at Negaunee there is some basis for the claim. His catcher, Hirschman, is also a wonder, and the general team work is excellent. Pat Harrington, captain of the Ishpeming team, who has played against Crowe and Severon, the old Manistique battery. In several games, thinks the work of Worth and Hirschman cannot be excelled. He says that the men who filled the points for the Spaulding team here a few seasons ago are not in the Manistique men's class.

RUSH FOR GOLD FIELDS.

Rich Quartz Found in Sturgeon Lake District Causes Excitement.

According to a dispatch from Port Arthur, Ontario, to a Chicago paper, a rush of prospectors to the field in which the Belmore Bay Gold Mining company's property is located, will soon start. In view of the fact that syndicates are being formed to take over claims in the field where the Belmore Bay company is operating, it would seem that the shareholders of this company should have no trouble putting its affairs on a sound financial basis.

F. BRAASTAD & CO. WAS AN OLD RESIDENT.

The late Mrs. Johanna Driscoll, whose death was briefly announced in yesterday's issue of The Mining Journal, was an old and highly respected resident of the city. During the past few years she made her home with her son, Dennis Driscoll, where she passed away Monday afternoon. She was one of the pioneer residents of Hancock, the family having located there in the early days. She is survived by five sons and one daughter. The sons are Michael Driscoll of Husbelt, James and Jerry Driscoll of Eureka, Utah, and Dennis and C. B. Driscoll of Negaunee. The daughter is Sister Florence, who is in a convent at Schwanau, Wis. Mrs. Driscoll felt so well Monday morning that her daughter, who came up Saturday, left for home Monday morning. There was every reason to believe that the deceased would live for some time, but she took a sudden change for the worse later in the day and passed away rather unexpectedly. The funeral services will be held this morning at 7:30 o'clock at St. Paul's church and the remains will be taken to Hancock on the South Shore train, leaving here at 8 o'clock. Interment will be in the cemetery there this afternoon.

TRAVEL BY WATER SAFER THAN LAND

BUT ONE LIFE LOST ON PASSENGER BOATS IN UPPER LAKES DURING THE YEAR 1908.

BIG DECREASE IN TRAFFIC

Dull Times Result in 700,000 Less Persons Being Carried Than in Preceding Year.

Operators of the great lakes passenger steamers have again made good the statement that travel by water is safer than by any other method of transportation. The annual report of Captain C. H. Westcott, Detroit, supervising inspector of the Eighth district, shows that during the year 1908 more than 11,000,000 passengers were safely carried on the great lakes. The eighth district embraces all the lakes north and west of Lake Erie, with their tributaries, except that portion of Lake Superior bounded by Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Out of the 11,187,294 passengers transported, but one was lost. This case was the suicide of a passenger on a steamer on Lake Michigan. He sprang overboard while the boat was in mid-lake, and there was no chance of saving him. This remarkable record is a companion to that achieved during 1907, when nearly 12,000,000 passengers were moved without the loss of a life chargeable to the fault of crew or owner. Thirty-nine lives other than those of passengers were lost during the season. Of these, twenty-four went down in the tragic foundering of the steamer Clemson in Lake Superior. A sailor was lost off the steamer Owawa while she lay in port at Detroit; two lives were lost in the Chicago district; six in the Milwaukee district; one each in the Grand Haven and Port Huron districts.

The excellent work of the lifesaving service is shown in the saving of seventy-six lives through the efforts of the service. Of these fifty-two were saved in the Port Huron district, and eighteen in the Marquette district.

The falling off of more than 700,000 passengers carried is ascribed in large part to the dull times, and the smaller number of people who made long trips; it may also be due somewhat to a change in the methods of reporting the traffic from the various ports.

Vessels in the Detroit district carried during the year a total of 7,588,576 passengers, which is 216,000 less than the number carried during the 1907 season. The Chicago district is next with 1,880,873 passengers; the Marquette district reports 347,700 passengers.

Property loss in the Eighth district during the year is placed at $1,268,593, distributed as follows: Detroit district, $38,445; Grand Haven, $37,635; Milwaukee, $15,325; Chicago, $88,100; Marquette, $708,229; Port Huron, $385,459.

The loss of the steamer Clemson, Nesbitt and Hurlbut account for a large portion of the total in the Marquette district. There were several expensive collisions in the Port Huron district, including the loss of the steamer North Star in mid-lake.

Accidents during the year reach 219, of which fifty-four were collisions. There were twenty fires, nine sinkings, sixty-six groundings, and thirty-three cases of damage from other causes.

Work of Inspectors.

During the year the inspectors issued 920 certificates to steam vessels and 951 certificates in all. Vessels inspected have a gross tonnage of 888,765. Original licenses issued number 982, and there were 849 renewals. Original licenses include 334 operators of motor and pleasure boats in the Grand Haven district, where there are a large number of resorts. Thirty-nine licenses were suspended for cause during the year.

Fifty vessels were added to the records, with a total tonnage of 98,164. Fifteen new ships were recorded in the Detroit district, four in the Chicago district, eleven in Milwaukee, twelve in Grand Haven, one in Marquette and seven in Port Huron. Twenty-three boats went out of service, with a tonnage of 13,992.

Certificates granted and tonnage inspected in the various districts follows:

District	Certificates	Tonnage
Detroit	128	191,399
Chicago	218	281,984
Milwaukee	248	272,040
Grand Haven	148	47,556
Marquette	71	18,244
Port Huron	106	72,472

"We feel that the efficiency of the steamboat inspection service has been increased during the year, but we are determined to secure even better results during the coming season," says Captain Westcott. "The spirit of active co-operation on the part of the owners continues to be manifested, and this is very helpful in attaining the highest standard of efficiency."

CHURCHMEN NOT DETECTIVES.

Duty to Keep Men Out of Jail, Not to Put Them in, Says Bishop.

In an able address on "Church and State" given before a male audience at the Calumet Y. M. C. A. last Sunday, Bishop G. Mott Williams, of this city, is said to have made his views very plain regarding the part the church should take when it comes to the matter of actually enforcing the temporal laws bearing on either social or moral matters. He plainly expressed himself as against the plan of the church, church officials or attaches making it their express business to discover law-breakers for the purpose of causing their arrest and punishment. He emphatically denounced law-breaking of all kinds but took the ground that it was the duty of the church to take the course with wrong-doers which tends to dissuade them from wrong-doing without the necessity of incarceration and punishment.

"Broadly considered, it is the great duty of the church to keep men out of jail instead of putting them in," was one of the terse remarks of the bishop.

He insisted that, so long as he retains any influence in church matters, he would use it against the countenancing of the practice of churchmen to make it their principal business to bring about arrests ## and prosecutions, as he believed that the busy one's self with the real work of Christianity as exemplified by the work of Christ would bring about greater and better results, even in connection with the very matters of special interest.

FAILED TO ENDORSE.

German Club Voted to Keep Hands Off in the Mayoralty Fight.

Between 100 and 150 Germans attended the political meeting held at Kroug's Hall last night, at which it was expected to endorse one of the two candidates for mayor, but no such action was taken.

The meeting was called to order by Herman Schauer, president of the club, and a motion was made by Fred Thoney to endorse the candidacy of Mayor Robertson. Mr. Thoney's motion was amended to the effect that the club endorse neither of the candidates and the amendment carried by a vote of forty-eight to thirty-four, a number of those present not voting. In consequence the meeting was of short duration and was over before 9 o'clock.

One of the officers of the club stated after the meeting that it was thought best not to make any political endorsement this year, owing to the infancy of the organization, but that within the next two years it was hoped to perfect an organization of from 300 to 400 members, which would be able to wield formidable power in future campaigns and other local controversies.

THEATRICAL.

"Brewster's Millions."

Frederic Thompson's big production of "Brewster's Millions," the breezy and delightful comedy which has enjoyed such a remarkable career of prosperity since its initial performance, will be presented at the opera house tonight by the Cohan and Harris comedians, headed by Robert Ober. This comedy, adapted from Geo. Barr McCutcheon's famous story of the same title, by Winchell Smith and Byron Ongley, is now being presented by two companies in America, two in England, and one on the Continent. The story is a satire on fraud and finance. It is full of originality, life and action and contains no dull moments. Marvellous and unusual stage effects are promised.

Frederic Thompson, the wizard of tremendous effects, whose Luna Park at Coney Island is the wonder of the world, has invented some scenic surprises for this production that have made all other producers sit up and take notice. In the third act there is a remarkable effect of a yacht in a storm at sea, wherein the illusion is so perfect that a spectator feels he is witnessing the reality. The scenic investiture of this act is particularly beautiful.

In their dramatization of Mr. McCutcheon's book, Messrs. Smith and Ongley have taken certain dramatic liberties, but the main theme is not destroyed. Related briefly, the story tells of the efforts of Montgomery Brewster to spend in one year one million dollars, an inheritance from his grandfather, to obtain a bequest of seven millions, which under certain conditions to him by an uncle.

The conditions stipulate that while every penny of the million must be expended it in reckless gambling, engagements or the erection of memorials. Furthermore, he must preserve absolute secrecy in regard to the whole affair. The difficulties which confront "Monty" Brewster in spending the million are better described in the play than in the book, appealing more strongly to the spectator than the reader.

EXPLOSIVES CARRIED AS BAGGAGE.

American Railway Association Believes That It Is Frequently Done.

Railway officials of the upper peninsula are especially interested in a matter that has recently come to the attention of Bureau of Explosives of the American Railway association. It is charged that many of the users of explosives, and especially miners who are foreigners and not conversant with the law, are in the habit of transporting as baggage on passenger trains articles that contain explosives.

A case of this kind was recently discovered when a valise was checked from Pittsburg, Pa., to Gary, W. Va. During transit the valise came open and disclosed the presence of an assortment of dangerous explosives. It was delivered to the railway company as baggage by two foreigners, who have been arrested and are now in prison awaiting trial before the United States court for violation of the act of congress approved May 20th, 1908. This act prohibits the transportation of explosives in vehicles used for the transportation of passengers, or in freight cars unless full information is given to the contents of the packages and unless the package is prepared to shipment strictly in accordance with regulations prescribed by the interstate commerce commission.

The penalty provided for violations of this statute is a fine not to exceed two thousand dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed eighteen months, or such both fine and imprisonment as is the discretion of the court.

This matter should be carefully considered by all shippers, not only to avoid violations of the law, but for the reason that the practices mentioned above are exceedingly dangerous and liable to cause a destruction of life and property.

The above case is the third one that has been discovered within the past few months and railway officials will vigorously prosecute the parties responsible for any violations of the law discovered.

All members of Superior have, No. 217, L. O. T. M. M., are requested to pay all assessments to Mrs. John McClintchey, finance keeper, at the foot of Michigan street. (3-31-09)

BOWLERS PRACTICING FOR TOURNAMENT

MARQUETTE WILL PROBABLY BE REPRESENTED BY THREE TEAMS AT MEETING APRIL 19—CLASS B CONTESTS.

Interest in the coming upper peninsula bowling tournament at Marquette during the week of April 19 took a jump yesterday afternoon when over twenty bowlers appeared at the down town alleys for practice, and there was also a good turnout in the evening. It looks now as if there will be three instead of two Marquette teams in the five-men event. No. 1 will consist of Allen, Foad, Jenks, Miller, Vaulderstine. The line-up of Nos. 2 and 3 has not been finally decided, but will probably be as follows: No. 2, Conklin, Godwin, Manns, Phelps, Webby; No. 3, A. E. Anderson, Bell, Jeanson, Rydholm, Stafford. There will be a practice match Thursday evening between teams 1 and 2 and a match between teams 2 and 3 a night or two later.

The idea of dividing all entries into two classes has been received very favorably, and it is practically certain that this plan will be adopted, class A being limited to the strong bowlers from each city and class B to those whose averages in the local leagues this season have not exceeded 140 or 145. It is believed that the class B events will arouse much enthusiasm among a class of bowlers who do not usually consider themselves strong enough to cope with the "cracks."

Most of the leading down town bowlers are also members of the Guild Hall association, but a number of promising new bowlers are being developed at the Guild Hall alleys, and it is likely that the Guild Hall will see some of the younger bowlers, who have not hitherto figured in tournaments. The Guild Hall alleys are becoming increasingly popular and will be the means of producing a new crop of bowlers among the younger generation.

The bowlers in other towns in the meantime are not idle, and the local committee was especially pleased yesterday to learn of the formation of two new teams to represent Calumet, which was not represented at the tournament last year.

WILL BE "BUSTED" AGAIN.

State Will Not Be Able to Pay Its Bills After August, It Is Said.

The earliest prophesies of a busted state treasury next fall or late in the summer still holds good, and it is the general expectation of those familiar with the financial condition of the state, that by the first of next year there will be a deficit of $2,000,000. Cash payments will probably stop about the first of next August and thereafter the state and its employees will have to do business on a credit basis, unless some way out of the dilemma can be found.

On the last day of February there was $28,000 in the general fund. It has since reached a higher figure but will shortly begin to go the other way. Taxes yet to be collected will replenish the strong box to an extent, but there must be the most stringent economy, if a brighter aspect to the situation, for it means that at the last end the appropriations bills will come with a rush and undoubtedly an effort will be made to force through some items. If the committee could have all the requests for cash early and devote plenty of time to examining them there would then be better opportunity, it is declared, to put the ax to some amounts and reduce the total as well as protect the treasury until the next levy comes in.
