April showers, forsooth! April blizzards.

April went out like a lion; we'll hope for better things from May.

In short, Auditor General Fuller favors Chase S. Osborn for governor first, last and all the time.

The Jackson county grand jury has concluded its probe into Jackson prison affairs. Now for the showdown.

If any upper peninsula newspaper publisher is finding things too slow in the town of his adoption he might find his pulse quickening if he moved to Escanaba.

The Young Turks are proving to the world that they can use their sneeriness with all the neatness an dispatch that the Old Turks came to command after their extensive practice in that gentle art.

The date for the opening of the baseball schedule of the Marquette-Alger county league is not far off, but the weather man has not yet allowed the players to stretch their legs.

We know more about Colonel Roosevelt than he knows about us, as he is beyond the reach of the newspapers.

Ask Labor Commissioner Fletcher about it, and he will tell you that the house of representatives is as fickle as any jade.

Summons were this week served on F. I. Baldwin, editor of the Escanaba Journal, to appear in an action for $10,000 damages brought by the publishers of the Escanaba Morning Press.

Dickinson county is opposed to the proposed plan of re-arranging the judicial district not only because our people will be greatly inconvenienced, but because it means the continuation of Judge Cooper on the bench.

There is cause for gratification among all classes of people that the coal operators and their miners have finally succeeded in arriving at a basis of an agreement which is to endure for three years.

The situation brought about by the expiration of the old agreement has at times, during the past few weeks, looked ugly. The absolute refusal of the operators to in any way recognize the union has been a sore point with the miners.

ment which is to endure for three years. The situation brought about by the expiration of the old agreement has at times, during the past few weeks, looked ugly. The absolute refusal of the operators to in any way recognize the union has been a sore point with the miners, and one which has seriously threatened to precipitate a strike.

Regarding a possible conflict between the ambition of Chase S. Osborn for governor and the natural ambition of O. B. Fuller to succeed himself as auditor general, the Soo News says, in part: "No one denies more emphatically than Auditor General O. B. Fuller the intimation that opposition exists in Delta county to the suggested candidacy of Chase S. Osborn because of a fear that it might imperil Mr. Fuller's chance for re-nomination."

Considerable interest is being shown in the preparations for the second national peace congress, which will convene at Chicago on May 3 and remain in session for three days.

The coming congress in Chicago will be similar to the New York congress. Its great object will be the strengthening of public sentiment for international arbitration and the consideration of the next steps to be taken toward the realization of universal peace.

Evidence that the principle of arbitration has achieved great triumphs is presented in the official announcement of the Chicago congress. It points out that within a century more than 200 important controversies between nations have been settled by this pacific means.

Universal peace may be something of a dream, something as chimerical as the millennium, but it is none the less worth striving for and it is such affairs as this second national peace congress at Chicago that commend themselves to all people.

PAINE, WEBBER & CO.'S WEEKLY COPPER LETTER

Information Concerning the Red Metal Market and Copper Stocks. There were exciting situations in the copper share market during the past week, but the lessons that are to be learned from these situations are perhaps very strong indicators tending to point the way to the future.

Copper Range Consolidated.

The annual report of the Copper Range Consolidated will be issued within two weeks and we are very much inclined to think it will furnish a very much more favorable view of the company's position than will be a disappointment to the shareholders and will compare more favorably with the annual dividend reports of any of the copper mining divisions of the Copper Range.

FRANKLIN.

It appears to us that the future of the Franklin property lies as much in the territory to the south as it does to the north. While there is little doubt that development possibilities are enhanced and there is a great speculative opportunity for finding good copper bearing bodies in the east, there is also a possibility of Franklin management in their own unexplored territory near the northern boundary line and in the Rhoads Island territory recently secured to the Franklin control.

Mining News

Commenting on the slump in North Butte stock, the Boston Financial News says: It is a fact that North Butte, was the most popular copper issue on the list with the public during the advance which followed the panic, and which carried the price from the extreme low of $30 to $80 1/4, and the result of this buying was a great accumulation of the stock in commission houses, where it was carried on margin. It is believed by many that a bear campaign was started for the purpose of dislodging this stock, and that it has proved successful in that while the stock was scattered as thoroughly as it was, no one could have secured the control, but that now the stock is coming to the market, it would not be surprising if Amalgamated interests were the buyers. The next dividend declaration comes in May, and while there have been rumors that it would be passed the chances are that the other way as the company is just about earning the $4 rate now being paid.

East Butte.

The shareholders of East Butte will vote May 11 on a plan to take over the Pittsmead control and the approval of the plan which will work out to such advantage to both companies is assured. The financing of the proposition is arranged and the necessary details are decided. The East Butte will have a large acreage in the center of the richest mineralized territory in the state, with well developed ore bodies on several properties, a modern smelting plant capable of handling 5,000 tons of ore with a prospect for immediate standing as a mining and smelting proposition of national importance.

Mass Consolidated.

When it was announced a month or more ago that the Mass Consolidated had uncovered a copper bearing lode of rich stamping rock, an examination of the formation left no doubt in the mind of one at all familiar with the conditions at the property that the new opening would become the important factor in the production of this property and would eventually result in placing this Mass property on a profitable producing basis with the metal selling at anything like a reasonable price.

CONGREGATIONAL OFFICERS.

At the meeting in Calumet this week, the following officers of the Lake Superior Association of Congregational Churches were elected: Moderator, Rev. Jesse Pevey, Lake Linden; registrar, Professor James Fisher, of the Michigan College of Mines; members advisory board, Rev. Wm. Steensma, Chassell, and Rev. J. O. Fisher, Red Jacket.

DUNCAN TOWNSHIP LANDS.

Through the efforts of Isadore Goulette, of Sidnaw, the state tax commission recently has taken possession of the state board, to Sidnaw, accompanied by two crews of expert timber estimators, to re-estimate and re-assess the lands of Duncan township, which comprises 180 sections. Mr. Goulette made complaint to the governor, attorney general, auditor general and state tax commission, calling their attention to the difference between the assessed valuation of properties owned and controlled by the large corporations and the small, individual taxpayer. Examination of the assessment roll by the commission showed that the properties

S.S.S. CURES S.S.S. BLOOD POISON

When the blood becomes infected with the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, the symptoms are soon manifested. The mouth and throat ulcerate, copper-colored spots appear, a red rash breaks out, the hair begins to come out, and usually sores and ulcers show themselves on different parts of the body. At the first sign of the disease S.S.S. should be taken for the trouble is too powerful and dangerous to trifle with. If allowed to run on the tendency is to work down and attack the bones and nerves, and sometimes it makes a complete physical wreck of the sufferer. The disease can make no such headway if S.S.S. is commenced and used according to directions; its progress can be stopped, the poison removed, and health preserved. S.S.S. goes into the blood and removes the insidious virus, cleanses the circulation and makes a complete and permanent cure by driving out the cause. S.S.S. quickly takes effect on the blood, and gradually the symptoms disappear, the health is improved, the skin cleared of all spots, sores and blemishes, and when S.S.S. has thoroughly purified the circulation no trace of the disease is left. S.S.S., a purely vegetable remedy, cures Contagious Blood Poison because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, tested and proven for more than forty years. Home treatment, book and any medical advice free to all who write.

City Brevities

Today's weather: Snow; stationary temperature.

Isaac Joslin and wife will go to Grand Rapids Monday to make their home in that city.

Mrs. Simon Toupin has returned from Quebec, where she attended the funeral of her mother.

James Maney, assistant passenger agent of the South Shore road, was in the city Thursday night.

The meeting of the Musical club, which was to have been held this afternoon, is postponed for a week.

There is something of interest to everyone to be found in the Forer strength advertisement, to be found in another part of this issue.

Judge Stone has returned from Escanaba, where he has been holding court, and will leave Monday for Menominee to sit at the May term.

Ed. Watson, a locomotive engineer of the L. S. & I. road, has been promoted to roadmaster on the Marquette, Ishpeming and Big Bay division.

Jack Rivers, the well-known baseball player, has resigned his position with the South Shore road in Duluth, and expects to go into business for himself in Detroit.

Arrested in Marquette—Mike Suszek, who is wanted in Alger county on the charge of running a blind pig, was arrested in this city Thursday by Marshal Manning, Deputy Sheriff J. Conroy, of Muskegon, came up Thursday night and got the prisoner.

Will Give Another Dance—Our Boys' band, which gave a very successful dance last week, has decided to give another at Legion Hall next Thursday night, as about $50 is needed to complete the uniform fund. Trombly's orchestra will furnish the music and tickets will be sold at the door at fifty cents per couple extra ladies, fifteen cents.

Took Refuge from Storm—The first commercial boat of the season was found lying at anchor in the harbor early yesterday morning. Investigation showed that the craft was the steamboat "George Parent," bound for Two Harbors with a cargo of steel rails, which had taken refuge from the northeaster that was stirring up a tremendous sea. The boat had laid to outside the breakwater about half of the night but was unable to effect an entrance into the harbor until daylight. As soon as the storm subsided she will depart for her destination.

Bobbing on May Day—As the Savings Bank clock tolled the midnight hour, a jolly party of Marquette men enjoyed a bob-ride down the Front street hill this morning. Those participating in this unique May Day festival were E. J. Butler, who served as engineer; Dr. Deadyman, conductor; John Otterson, fireman; and Andrew Rasmussen, Oscar Sellberg, Charles Peilister, E. H. Bush, Phil Hoy and L. G. Cray. The snow was in excellent condition for bobbing and the full course was covered—from Ridge street to Baraga avenue. A number of trips were made.

Condition of Harbor—Captain Swenson, of the hydrographic office at Duluth, has made public the following information regarding the condition, depth of water, etc., of the Marquette harbor: "There is about twenty-five feet of water in the harbor proper. At the larger of the ore docks belonging to the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railway, there is twenty-one feet of water, while at the smaller there is eighteen feet and six inches. At the Pickands-Mather coal docks the water is eighteen feet and six inches deep. At the other coal dock there is sixteen feet of water and seventeen feet at the merchandise dock."

The Lion in Evidence—This year it was April and not March that "went out like a lion." In fact the two months appear to have in some way been interchanged, for April was cold and stormy, while the preceding month was unusual, by mild and pleasant. People got out of their beds yesterday morning to find a blinding snow storm raging from the northeast, which continued throughout the day with little abatement of its fury. The walks and streets were drifted, sleighs were again gotten out and it was almost beyond belief that the month of May was at hand. The one consolation that local residents have is that there was even a heavier fall of snow as far south as Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Baseball Meeting Today—The executive board of the Marquette-Alger county league will meet in Marquette today to arrange a definite schedule, select umpires and take up such other matters as must be settled prior to the opening of the baseball season. The meeting between the Ishpeming and Negaunee managers over Pitcher "Fats" Siebenthal will probably be threshed out, among other matters. Last year Siebenthal played with Ishpeming, but a short time ago he announced that he would wear a Negaunee uniform this season. The Ishpeming managers contend that players should not be allowed to jump from one team to another in this manner and will protest against Siebenthal's playing with Negaunee.

CALUMET CARRIED OFF THE HONORS

COPPER COUNTRY REPRESENTATIVES WON FIRST PLACE IN BOTH ORATORY AND DECLAMATION.

The champion high school orator of the upper peninsula is Raymond Burt, of Calumet, and the champion declaimer, Miss Lucille Spaulding, also of Calumet; at least such was the decision of the judges of the Upper Peninsula contest, held at the Normal school last night. Second place in oratory went to Jay Hamilton, of Newberry, and, in declamation, to Miss Mary Erdlitz, of Menominee. Willard Rappleye, of Menominee, was the third choice in oratory, and Miss Louise Williams, of Munising, in declamation. Superintendent W. D. Hill, of Crystal Falls, and Dr. Tupper and Judge Stone, of Marquette, acted as judges.

All of the contestants showed careful training and exceptional ability, and the contest was heard by a good sized audience with great interest. Several musical numbers were interspersed in the program, the performers being Halmar Beckman, Peter A. Behan, Miss Winnie Mathews, Miss Marguerite Barnes and the Normal school ladies' double quartet.

The Three Orations. Raymond Burt, the winner of the oratorical contest, had for his subject "World Peace." With a delightfully pleasing voice and almost perfect enunciation he decried the practice of war among nations and pleaded that nations might learn to settle their differences before a court of justice, applying the same rule as in vogue among individuals. He spoke of Jefferson, Grant, Lincoln and Sherman as opponents of war and said that war destroys commerce, devastates fields and saddens homes. Ovilization and humanity should be placed above patriotism, he declared.

"The Child Labor Question" was the subject chosen by Jay Hamilton, of Newberry. This was an exceptionally well written and thoughtful production. "Child labor began with the introduction of machinery," he said. "Child labor destroys the body, cramps the mind, ruins the soul, kills ambition, creates socialists, breeds hatred, fills the almshouses, asylums and prisons, and degrades the standard of citizenship."

Willard Rappleye, of Menominee, spoke on "Our Martyr Chief," Abraham Lincoln. He declared Lincoln to exert a greater influence on posterity than Washington, as he was closer to the people. Lincoln's greatness lay in his phenomenal intellectual capacity, his rare sagacity, his sense of obligation, his honesty, justice, patriotism and moderation, he said. Mr. Rappleye was perfectly at home before his audience and spoke with easy grace.

The Declaimers. Miss Lucille Spaulding, the winner of the declamatory contest, rendered Phillips' famous eulogy on Toussaint L'Ouverture, the black hero of San Domingo. Absence of affectation and her clear cut and forceful enunciation were doubtless what won her first place.

Miss Erdlitz, of Menominee, had for her subject Senator Beveridge's speech, "The March of the Flag," which she rendered in an expressive and pleasing manner.

Miss Spaulding, of Munising, rendered by all odds the most dramatic and difficult selection of the evening, De Quincy's "Martyrdom of Joan of Arc," and had she chosen something more simple, would have fared more kindly at the hands of the judges.

Following the program, the contestants and guests were tendered a reception by the members of the Osiris and Ylgrasil societies.

ORATORICAL CONTEST.
To Be Given at the High School Auditorium, May 6.

An oratorical and declamatory contest, to be participated in by pupils of the high school, interspersed with a few brilliant musical numbers to be given by high school talent, is the program at the high school assembly room, Thursday evening, next. The speakers in the declamatory contest are the five chosen a few weeks ago from a preliminary contest. They will give the same pieces, but have improved in delivery since that time.

The oratorical contest will be between four pupils, delivering orations of their own writing. There are five contestants in declamation. The speakers and their subjects in both contests are as follows:

—Declamatory—
"After All, We Must Fight"..... Patrick Henry
Helen Beacon.
"Our Battle Flags"..... Carl Schurz
Arthur Pennell.
"Vision of War"..... Ingersoll
Ruth Welch.
"Scene Between Douglas and Marmion"..... Scott
Angeline Wylie.
"The Strenuous Life"..... Roosevelt
Walter Larson.
—Oratorical—
"The Pacific Squadron"..... Will Byrne.
"Theodore Roosevelt: The Foremost Man in America Today"..... Walter Hornstein.
"Syllables Govern the World"..... Edith Mitchell.
"Patriotism"..... Anna Sweder.
All but Will Byrne, of the oratorical contestants, spoke last year in the contest. Anna Sweder receiving second prize. The musical program has not yet been arranged.

THEATRICAL.

Theatergoers of this city will no doubt manifest interest in the engagement of the Nellie Kennedy company, for a solid week, beginning Monday. This company is one of the oldest on the road. They promise an entirely new line of plays and high-class advance vaudeville between acts, with a complete change of program nightly. The company carries a carload of scenery and effects. The play to be given Monday night is entitled "The Girl in Command." Prices for the week will be ten, twenty and thirty cents.

It Took a Week to Make These Trousers

at the tailor shops of Kling Bros. & Co., where every modern facility is afforded. That's one evidence of the care that is put on Triumph Trousers. Every pair of Triumph Trousers is cut separately by shears instead of by machines which cut many at a time, but do not always cut sizes accurately. All cloth is London shrunken. This "cold water" process takes much longer than the quick steam process, but it secures maximum shrinkage. Each garment is subjected to a rigid inspection—it must be perfect in every detail before it can leave the shops. The same attention to style and shape is given Triumph Trousers, made by Kling Bros. & Co., as the most exclusive individual merchant tailor would give to your personal order. Triumph Trousers are not made by the million dollars' worth, as some lines are. But they are made right. Made to satisfy a discriminative trade that demands a distinctive note of style that the ordinary custom made trousers lack. That's the hand tailored effect. This cannot be embodied in trousers which are made in large lots. It is impossible in blocking out immense quantities at a time. Especial attention is given to the cut of Triumph Trousers. We have the trousers for you—a perfect fit, no matter what your build. Come in and see the snappy spring novelties.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CIVIC LEAGUE

ALL INTERESTED IN GOOD CITY GOVERNMENT ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE GATHERING MONDAY NIGHT.

The first regular annual meeting of the Civic League will be held next Monday night, May 3, at the public library at 8 o'clock. At this meeting reports will be made on the work thus far attempted by the officer and committees, the contemplated work and policy of the league will be outlined and discussed, and officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

The executive committee requests that not only the present members attend but that all men who will join in the work of the league. "The object of the league," as stated in its constitution, "shall be to promote a clean, efficient administration. To accomplish this, it will try to influence men of sterling character to accept nomination for public office. It will lend its influence to the election of such candidates as stand for business methods, rather than politics, in city affairs; for thorough sanitary conditions, the maintenance of unexcelled schools and of high standards in civil affairs. It will endeavor to hold officers to a thorough sense of their responsibility by private appeal and by giving publicity to their action."

It would seem as if a majority of the voters in any American community would gladly unite to accomplish such objects and yet thus far but a small fraction of the voters of Marquette have signified their interest in a decent and economical conduct of city affairs by uniting with the organization.

If you are satisfied that Marquette is so well governed that no effort is needed to better it, come out and learn some facts in regard to actual conditions. If you do not believe the league has done effective work come and learn what it has tried to do and help shape its future policy. At least come out and manifest an interest in civic improvement. Economy in administration, efficiency of service on the part of public officials, conservation of public health and maintenance of public morality can only be achieved as the citizens who want these things, stand together to make their wants known and insistently demand that the politicians shall serve the community and not assume autocratic control.

COMMITTEE.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

Methodist church—"The Scarlet Letter" will be the subject of the sermon tomorrow evening at the Methodist church. In the morning the pastor will preach on "Things to Be Awaited."

First Church of Christ, Scientist—The two regular Sunday services will be held in the hall in the Opera house. The subject of the week's lesson is, "Everlasting Punishment." Morning service at 10:30; evening service at 7:30. All are welcome.

First Baptist church—At the morning service at this church tomorrow the Marquette lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will attend in connection with the celebration of an anniversary, and Dr. Kerr Boyce Tupper will deliver a sermon on "Independence and Interdependence." In the evening Dr. Tupper will speak on "The Immigration Question," the first of a series of Sunday evening sermons on "Living Questions." The following subjects will be discussed: "The Sunday Question," "The Amusement Question," "The Labor Question," "The Saloon Question" and "The Church-Taxation Question."

Northern Normal Notes.

Will Jansen, a former graduate of the Normal, now a student at the College of Mines, was a visitor during the week.

Miss Ella Bacon of Escanaba spent Monday of this week, visiting her sister, Miss Carrie Bacon, and attended some of the classes with her.

Miss Edna Wehse of Crystal Falls visited several classes at the school this week, in company with her cousin, Miss Martha Bauman, a junior student.

Mrs. Ward M. Mills left this week for a visit at various points in the West. She is visiting at present at Denver and will go next to Los Angeles, California.

The senior class is hard at work on the commencement play, under the able direction of Mrs. Rushmore. The play will be given Monday evening of commencement week.

A basketball game between the girls' teams from the Normal and the Marquette High school was played Thursday evening at Legion Hall. The score was 11 to 5 in favor of the Normal team.

After the oratorical contest last evening, a reception was tendered the visitors, under the auspices of the two literary societies, Yegorin and Ostris, in the society rooms in Longyear Hall.

Miss Kathryn B. Libby, critic in the first and second grades, spent Monday and Tuesday, visiting schools at Evanston and Chicago. At the latter place, she spent a day at the School of Education in connection with the University of Chicago.

Miss Spaulding had an interesting exhibit of one hundred or more prints, some in colors, from many notable pictures, old and modern, early in the week. She received them from an art store in New York and used them to illustrate work in her department.

Dr. E. R. Downing was away the first part of this week in the interests of the Normal. He visited the schools of Ishpeming, Republic and Champion; at the last named place he delivered an illustrated lecture on the subject of the "Making of the World."

The following teachers from Menominee were in attendance at the oratorical contest which occurred last evening of the Normal school: Superintendent E. J. Sheve, Miss Edna Bradley, Messrs. H. G. Rawson, C. J. Borchart and J. B. Crouch, principal of the high school.

Thursday morning Assembly was in the hands of Miss Kathryn Libby, of the training school. She had the children of her first and second grades tell stories as they are in the habit of telling them for their lessons in language and literature. Among the children who took part were Miss Mary Faught and Master Clarence Christian.

A letter from Miss Linton, received recently, states that she has been spending some time since April 1st in Paris and London, and that she should sail for this country on the 30th, which was yesterday. She expects to land in New York and to stay there for about six weeks, studying music at the Teachers' college, Columbia University. Miss Linton expects to return to Marquette in time for the summer quarter.

President Kaye has been called to Lansing on Normal school business and will be away for a number of days. He left for the state capital this morning. Among the visitors from Lansing at the contest last evening were Mrs. P. E. Blake, W. R. Goodrich, principal of the high school, and E. S. J. Paulus, supervisor of music. From Calumet came Miss Ella Rogers, teacher of English in the high school. Principal and Mrs. E. J. Hall, Thomas E. Burt and Miss Luverne Whyte.

Assembly on Tuesday morning was in the hands of Mrs. Rushmore, who asked several of the seniors to take part in the exercises. Miss Grace Mackey gave in a very charming manner two humorous readings, "The Mourning Veil" and, as an encore, "Katie and Me." Ernest Roberts sang "The Mountebank's Song" and, in response to persistent applause, sang "When Love is Done." Miss Thelma McEwen read in truly child-like manner, voice, and expression, Riley's humorous "Telling a Bear Story" in which a very imaginative small boy tells of the wonderful feats of Johnnie in circumventing and killing two bears. It was one of the best pieces of work of this kind ever offered here by one of the students.

At the athletic banquet, held a few weeks ago at the Hotel Clifton, President J. H. Kaye spoke of our need of a good school song. He stated that he has come to graduation, has had a class song, but the school has not yet had one expressing the life of the institution itself. President Kaye emphasized this fact, and in order to stimulate those students who have ability in this direction, he offered prizes for the three best songs—ten dollars for the first, five for the second and three for the third best. Several songs, with very stirring and appropriate music, have been selected, and the competitors are to choose the music of one of these and fit the words to it. The songs selected are "The Orange and the Black" (the Princeton song), "Lipide," "Ducker," "Sailing," and the Eton "Boat Song."

The upper peninsula oratorical contest occurred last evening as scheduled, and the program as given in yesterday's edition of The Mining Journal was practically carried out. President James H. B. Kaye acted as presiding officer. The contestants in oratory were Richard Rappleye of Menominee, who spoke on the subject of "Our Martyr Chief"; Jay Hamilton of Newberry, whose subject was "Child Labor Problem," and Raymond Burt of Calumet, who spoke on "World Peace." Those who contested in declamation were Mary Erditz of Menominee, who read the "March of the Flag," by Beveridge; Louise Williams, who chose De Quincey's "Martyrdom of Joan of Arc," and Lucille Spaulding, Wendell Phillips' "Toussaint l'Ouverture." The judges awarded first place among the orators to Raymond Burt, second to Jay Hamilton and third to Willard Rappleye. For declamation, first place was given to Miss Lucille Spaulding, second to Miss Mary Erditz and third to Miss Louise Williams. The contest was one to be remembered for a long time and reflects great credit upon every one of the schools represented. Calumet was peculiarly fortunate, as first place in each event fell to the students from that place.

MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co.'s correspondent at New York yesterday telegraphed as follows:

"The activity during today's session was confined to the industrial department, these being mostly short covering in Amalgamated and Smelters, and the steel issues were also in good demand. The rails were inclined to lag, and the Harrimans did not respond to the good statement of earnings put forth yesterday. The foreign news was not of character to materially affect sentiment, and it is thought that the Turkish affair will be settled without further agitation. There was a considerable decrease in the public interest, and the bear element were inclined to be more aggressive than heretofore on some points, but the action of the list is still indicative of organized support."

Boston Stock Quotations.

Writing from Boston yesterday, Paine, Webber & Co. had the following to say of the stock market:

"North Butte opened strong this morning, influenced by several good sized buying orders. Later in the day the stock lapsed into dullness, but ruled about a dollar and a half above the closing price of the session. Mass Mining advanced a point and a half on heavy buying caused by good reports from the mine. Local people are becoming heavily interested in Mass, and the stock looks better than for some time. The balance of the list was very quiet and showed little change. The railroads and the industrials in New York were very strong and were helped by the large short interest which is closing tomorrow."

Paine, Webber & Co.'s Wheat Summary.

Concerning the wheat market, Paine, Webber & Co.'s Chicago correspondent had the following to say:

"Prices covered a range of about two cents for the day and closed 1/4 lower than yesterday. Everything in the way of news during the morning was bullish and the trade responded by starting a broad and strong market, which carried July to 112 1/2. Above 112 there was a big lot of long wheat thrown on the market in the way of profit-taking. As the volume of outside trade was moderate for the day, the load became heavier for the early buyers and there was a switch to the selling side in a general effort to take profits in a market which appeared to be ripe for natural reactions. There is no material change in the news. The situation is bullish. Winter conditions prevail over the Canadian northwest, and it is altogether too cold this side of the line for spring wheat. There is some talk of reduced average in the extreme north. There is likely to be the same pinch in supplies for spring wheat for interior millers as there has been in the southwest. We regard the present setback as a natural one and favor buying orders on this or any further depression."

STANDPATTERS ALARMED.

Washington, April 29.—The removal of S. N. D. North, director of the census, which appears to be the desire of Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, cannot be accomplished without a hard struggle, in which sensational features are to be set forth. The hints of immaturity in connection with the census bureau have been silenced, and Mr. Nagel is quoted as saying that he never had any such in mind. They, therefore, may well be dismissed from public consideration. Neither has the slightest suggestion of inefficiency or disloyalty to the best interests of the government been made in the course of the proceeding. Although these included a session with President Taft at which Secretary Nagel and Director North were present and remained three hours.

Congressmen Find Real Revision Downward Demanded by Their Constituents.

Washington, April 29.—Republican members of the house of representatives who went home immediately after the lower branch of the legislative body dissolved the tariff bill are returning to the Capitol with a good bit of advice for the Republican senators and with some new light by which they expect to be guided when the tariff bill gets back to the house. The information they are bringing back is tending to alarm some of the senators who had supposed that public sentiment would support without much protest the programme the stand-pattens of the party had planned to carry out.

Young men's suits with plenty of grace and full of ginger—built in a way that grey-beards won't fancy and built in that fancy way because they're not meant for old folk. Wide-shouldered coats. It's permanent—tailored into the cloth—a matter of needle work—not pressing. Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so? The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. "MIKADO" MAKES A HIT.

Greeted by Large Audience in Spite of Inclement Weather. The home talent producing the beautiful opera, "Mikado," scored a big hit last evening at Ishpeming theater. In spite of the very unfavorable weather the audience almost completely filled the house. It was one of the most appreciative and enthusiastic audiences that has assembled in some time and the players were accorded a big reception. All of the principal roles were in excellent hands and the entertainment was pleasing from start to finish.

Clarence Brown of Marquette took the part of the mikado most satisfactorily. Dr. E. G. Robbins, playing the part of Wauki-Poo, the aikado's son-in-law, sang in his usual pleasing style and he also acted the part excellently. T. E. Ludlow, who directed the production, handled the comedy part to perfection. He assumed the role of Ko, which he had played in previous productions and was thoroughly at home in it. R. Chennour, in the part of Poo-ho-Bah, and Sven Krogdahl, as Pish-Tush, sang their parts well and spoke the lines effectively. The Misses Angela Schumacker, Irene Trenberth and Alice Shea, the three sisters, carried off their share of the honors, while Miss Grace Wood, as Kakisha, an elderly lady in love with Wauki-Poo, did some splendid acting, and her solo work was also very pleasing. The chorus, comprising over forty young men and women, was one of the best ever heard in an Ishpeming production. The stage settings were very pretty. The wings and other portions of the scenery were decorated with pink pea blossoms and blossoms of Japanese lanterns and parasols were displayed to excellent advantage. The box decorations were also effective and were very favorably commented on.

Mrs. F. E. Raiskey, under whose direction the opera was given, directed the music, and Miss Olga Girri presided at the piano and was assisted by Trombly's orchestra. The costumes were furnished by Philip Schwirzelona of Cincinnati.

SPLENDID SLEIGHING.

Runners in Use Yesterday After a Rest of Nearly a Month. As a result of the heavy snow fall yesterday the sleighing is now as good as it was at any time during the winter. Considerably over a foot of snow came down and in places the roads are very heavy as the snow was wet and soggy. Some of the business houses had their wagons out yesterday morning but they were obliged to abandon them before the day was over, as it was almost impossible to pull them around. The storm inconvenienced a great many as 75 per cent of the sleighs were stored away for the summer. It was one of the hardest days that the delivery men have had in some months as the storm was quite bad in the outlying districts, where the wind had a full sweep. The railroad men reported that it was a worse day than any they had experienced during the winter, as the rails were covered with a coating of ice and there was constant danger of the engines and cars leaving the rails. Two ore cars on the Lake Superior & Ishpeming line were derailed on the crossing near the Oliver Iron Mining company's office and a couple of street cars also went off the track, though no damage resulted in either case. It was with much difficulty that the switching work was conducted in the railroad yards and the movement of ore was lighter than during any day since shipping started. The sidewalk plows were out all day, but in many places the snow drifted back again almost as fast as it was moved. It may be necessary to use the big plow on some of the outlying roads today as they are reported in bad condition. The walk plows will be out again this morning, and a number of men will be employed shoveling. When the thaw starts the snow will disappear rapidly and there will be an unusually heavy flow of water into the sewer system.

Yesterday's storm will raise the water in the fishing streams and lakes from six inches to a foot. Up to this time local sportsmen have had very few opportunities to fish and those who have gone out have had poor success. From present indications the streams will not be in condition for satisfactory fishing for at least twenty or thirty days.

VERY CLEVER ACTRESS.

Florence Roberts Will Be Here Wednesday in Play of Great Strength. Florence Roberts, whose position as a dramatic star is firmly fixed, will appear at the Ishpeming theater next Wednesday evening in a new play by Seymour Obermer, entitled "The House of Bondage." In this production Miss Roberts will have the highly capable assistance of Thurlow Boygen, Hallet Bosworth, Harry Gibbs, Ann Warrington and Mary Bertrand. A correct and handsome setting is given the piece by John Cort, under whose direction Miss Roberts is appearing.

Miss Roberts' entire career, in which an unbroken succession of successes have emphasized her ability, has given her no role that so admirably suits her qualifications as that of Joan in Mr. Obermer's play. The part is that of a wife whose love is killed by infidelity and neglect. Turning from this husband, Joan falls in love with a great surgeon, whom she, in a philanthropic spirit solely, has assisted in raising money for the erection of a sanatorium. This surgeon is prominent among specialists in brain diseases, and when Joan's husband develops a chronic ailment of that sort, is called on to perform upon him an operation of a vital nature. Fortunately the operation is successful, and through a cleverly unswerving series of complications, Joan's difficulties are properly and logically solved.

"The House of Bondage" has been particularly praised on account of its brilliant lines. It is declared to team with smart epigram and keen repartee. Mr. Obermer, too, has shown himself a master of stage craft in his construction of situations and climaxes. At the close of the second act he has given Miss Roberts a scene in which she is offered opportunities for emotional acting which exceeds anything she has heretofore attempted.

WELLKNOWN MINING MAN DECLARES NORTH BUTTE MINE IN GOOD CONDITION.

Thos. F. Cole, who recently spent several days in Butte, Mont., inspecting the properties in which he is financially interested, has returned to Duluth. While in the Montana city he was the guest of his associate, John D. Ryan, and a banquet was given in his honor at the Silver Bow club. The function was attended by a large number of the leading mining and business men of the city. It is reported that Mr. Cole inspected the North Butte mine from top to bottom and that he also closely inspected other properties in the camp. He stamps as false and without any foundation whatever the rumors which have been heard lately of poor showings in the lower workings of the North Butte property. He declared the stories malicious fabrications of stock market manipulators. He further says that the North Butte mine is looking very well.

The actions of the North Butte stock the past few days have created no little interest among the speculators. It is reported that a great many in this section bought the stock Wednesday about the time it was striking its lowest mark. Those who bought it under $55 have since been able to realize a profit

The Ishpeming business college has also been fumigated. Dr. Burke said that there are only three or four cases of diphtheria in the city, and that there is no cause for alarm. Several times during the past eight months there have been more than twice as many cases here. The schools that were not

FROM MORGAN'S CURB LETTER.

The severe blizzard in this section and electrical storms south completely prostrated the telegraph service for a time today, and as a result, Eastern market returns were very incomplete and difficult to obtain. The Ontonagon stocks were the feature of the Boston list, and scored some good advances; class from 13 1/4 to 12 1/2, Michigan 11 1/4 to 12 1/2, and Adventure from 8 1/2 to 9 1/2. North Butte fluctuated nervously between 64 and 66. Amalgamated was a trifle stronger, and the Steels held steady. Trading in the curbs, like the listed stocks, was also handicapped, but prices were well maintained. Cactus, San Antonio and Chief Consolidated continue in good request, with very little stock offered at going figures. Calumet & Montana is wanted in large blocks at 30 cents, up 15 cents this week, the advance said to be due to new developments at the property not yet made public. Groux was quiet at $1. Railroad earnings show a very satisfactory increase, in fact more favorable than expected. The copper market situation shows no change worthy of mention, but prices are being well maintained. A steady improvement is noted in the steel and iron industry, the barometer of trade. With this condition existing, copper will naturally do better, and in turn, the copper shares. We feel very optimistic on the general situation and advise purchases of the medium and low priced issues. We like Shannon, Greene Cananea, Superior & Pittsburg, Hancock, Butte Coalition, Groux, San Antonio, Shattuck, Cactus and Chief Consolidated.

Asks Ore Tariff Be Retained.

A dispatch from Virginia, Mesaba range, says: A petition has been started and is being circulated among the business men and mining men requesting that congress retain a tariff on iron ore of at least twenty-five cents per ton. It is being freely signed. Other petitions will be circulated over the range and all will then be sent to Congressman C. B. Miller, who will be requested to give it to Senators Nelson and Clapp for presentation in the senate. The matter will also be brought to the attention of Congressman H. O. Young and United States Senator Burrows of Michigan, who are making a strong fight for the retention of the tariff.

Stiff Fines Assessed.

The end of the term of circuit court at Manistique this week was marked by a bunch of stiff sentences imposed by Judge Steere on violators of the liquor laws. The court sentenced Patrick McNamara, Nels Johnson and John Hayden each to pay a fine of $100 or go to the Detroit house of correction for sixty days. Fred Miller was told to pay $40 and costs or go to jail for forty days. S. J. Bouscher and G. A. Johnson got the same kind of a dose, while Ole Johnson was stung for $100 or a sixty-day term in jail. They all paid. Richard Curran, who was convicted of an attempt to poison, was given an indeterminate sentence at Jackson, with a minimum of seven and a half years.

Still the Regimental Band.

Menominee will not lose the Third regimental band headquarters. The reports that such would be the case arose out of a misunderstanding of orders. The order read that the former adjutant and present adjutant of the Third regiment would be at Menominee for the purpose of transferring the band equipment. The order was interpreted in Menominee as meaning that the band headquarters and equipment would be transferred to some other city and information to that effect was given out to the press. It now develops that the order simply referred to the regular transfer which marks the election of a new adjutant to office. The adjutant is responsible for the equipment and when his successor is chosen it is necessary for the former adjutant to personally inspect the equipment and to check it up in the presence of the new official.

Cold Weather Hurting Business.

As is the case throughout the upper peninsula, merchants of Escanaba in general are complaining bitterly over advertising being slow. The advertising has prevailed so far throughout this season. Escanaba has not yet had a single warm day and clothing and dry goods stores are feeling the effect severely. At this season of the year spring suits and dresses should be moving rapidly but up to the present time, owing to the continued low temperatures, there has been scarcely any demand for the new goods. It is expected, however, that an improvement will be shown in May and that a general revival of business and good feeling among the merchants and people will be brought about.

Woman Editor to Retire.

Miss Nettie Steffenson, said to be the only Swedish newspaper woman in the United States, who edits her own paper, the Manistique Herald, and is also a practical printer, has just celebrated her fifteenth anniversary as a newspaper publisher. She was born in Modun, in the Land of the Midnight Sun, and came to this country in the fall of 1881, landing in Manistique. During her first years in this country she went to school and worked in a family for her living. Later she learned the printing trade and afterward was "preman" on several Swedish publications in Michigan, until, in April, 1894, she started the publication of an independent Swedish weekly, her present newspaper. Besides having made a success in the business, she has gained esteem for the stand she has taken for temperance and good moral during all the years of her business career. Miss Steffenson also gained quite an influence in politics and the Herald has for the last seven years been either the official city or county paper, or both. Fifteen years engaged in the toil of getting out a newspaper have not passed, however, without leaving their trace on Miss Steffenson's health and she is now seriously thinking of retiring. Although she has no great financial success to show for her labors, the fact that she has published her paper with a conscientious and honest way, without fear or favor, she deems her best reward.

Negaunee Department

NEGAUNEE TO HAVE THIRTY-THREE SALOONS

FEW CHANGES IN THE PERSONNEL OF THE LIQUOR DEALERS—ALL THE OLD ONES TO REMAIN IN THEIR PRESENT STANDS.

The placing of the lid on the saloons of Negaunee has not resulted in driving any of them out of business, as the bonds of thirty-three dealers, the same number as were in business last year, were approved by the council at its special meeting Thursday evening. A few of the former saloon men retired, but new ones have taken their places. Ole Johnson, who has conducted business in the Kappes building for a number of years, is to be succeeded by Matt Neimi and Matt Aho in the Cherry Hall building, and Matt Neimi has taken out a license on his own account. John Paralla, one of the oldest Finnish liquor dealers in the city, has taken Gust Hakala as his partner. James Johnson succeeds his brother, Christ Johnson, in the latter's building on Gold street. Mr. Johnson was one of the oldest and most successful liquor dealers in the city. The bonds of the new licensees were also approved by the council.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM.

Three Evenings Will Be Devoted to Closing Exercises.

It has been decided that the closing exercises of the Negaunee public schools shall be held in the auditorium of the new high school building on the evenings of June 8, 9 and 10. The eighth grade exercises will take place on the evening of the 8th. They will consist of a novel program. There will be musical numbers representative of the four seasons of the year, with appropriate recitations interspersed. The senior class day exercises will take place on Wednesday evening and the commencement proper the following evening. This year's class is the largest ever graduated from the Negaunee schools.

W. G. Mather, president of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company, has accepted the invitation from the board to deliver the principal address at the dedication of the building the evening of the 10th. L. Wright, superintendent of public instruction, has also been invited to speak.

THE CONSTIPATION EVIL.

Is Responsible for Most Cases of Piles. Constipation paralyzes the blood vessels of the lower bowel, and often causes piles. Women, and all other indoor workers, are the most frequent sufferers. But curing constipation alone won't cure piles. A special medicine is needed—internal treatment, to strengthen the flabby veins and start pure blood circulating. Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid is the only internal pile cure. Sold under guarantee. At the People's Drug Store, Marquette, Mich., City Drug Store, Ishpeming, or Dr. Leonard's Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. ### YESTERDAY'S SNOW STORM.

One of the Worst That Has Ever Occurred Here at Such a Late Date.

The snow storm which set in Thursday evening and continued throughout the night and yesterday was possibly the worst that has ever occurred here at such a late date. The big storm of two years ago, on the 17th of April, was regarded by many of the old timers as being one of the worst that they had ever seen in this section in April, but a greater quantity of snow fell yesterday than during the storm in 1907. Two years ago the snow was wet and caused the railroad and street car people considerable trouble. The street cars had to give up the fight about 2 o'clock in the afternoon and they did not get the line open until the following afternoon. About eight inches of snow fell, but in yesterday's storm considerably more than a foot came down, while in many places the drifts were from two to three feet in depth. The temperature during the storm period was between fifteen and twenty degrees above zero.

All of the business men and others who had their sleighs when they could get out without difficulty put them in use yesterday morning, though several were obliged to use their wagons, as they had stored their sleighs for the summer. The street car company had trouble during the forenoon, but succeeded in getting the line open from the railway crossing in this city to the terminal at Lake Avenue before noon. The large new car left the rails on Cyr street on one of the first trips, and it was 10:30 before it was put into commission again. Meanwhile the plow did effective work on the Ishpeming end and the cars were running nearly on schedule after dinner, though it was necessary to bring out the plow at intervals to keep the line open. There was little traffic until evening, when a party went to Ishpeming to attend the production of the comic opera "The Mikado" by local talent.

The storm was general throughout the Northwest, but in most places it rained. It snowed at all points between here and Milwaukee and it was reported that it was with difficulty that the trains were kept moving. Many of them were delayed from one to several hours and some freight trains were annulled. The Northwestern passenger train was one hour behind time, arriving here yesterday morning, but the South Shore train moved practically on time.

PATIENTS DOING WELL.

Dr. N. J. Robbins, the health officer, reports that the small pox patients are doing well and that none of them are in dangerous condition. Miss Helga Arvidson, a member of the senior class of the high school, has been discharged from quarantine, and it is expected that she will be able to resume her studies next week. Miss Arvidson had practically recovered from the disease when it was discovered. She had such a light touch of it that it did not interfere with her school work. All of the schools in the city have been thoroughly fumigated, and it is not anticipated that there will be any further danger on account of the disease. Messrs. Scaguit and Webb, whose children are ill, are still in quarantine, but it is expected that they will be permitted to resume their work at the mines next week. It will perhaps be two or three weeks before the quarantine will be raised on their homes.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Joseph Larochele was up from Princeton yesterday.

A. D. Bohrer, proprietor of the Gwinn pharmacy, was up from the Swanzye range yesterday.

H. G. Muck, who spent the past several days at Green Bay and other points in Wisconsin, arrived home yesterday. Mrs. Muck will visit relatives in Green Bay for a few days longer.

The Negaunee Light Infantry will give one of its series of hops tonight at its armory in the brick block. The organization has given some pleasant parties during the past year and the hops are usually well attended. The Twin City orchestra will furnish the music.

C. L. Sporely has returned from Detroit, where he was called last Saturday on account of the injury to his son Everett, who is a student at the university there. He reports that the injury was much more serious than at first supposed. Besides a fracture of his leg Everett's ankle was also badly twisted. It is expected that he will be able to resume his studies within a few days, though it is not likely that he will be able to play all this season.

UNIFORM RATE BILL PRACTICALLY DEAD

FRATERNAL SOCIETIES HAVE DONE EFFECTIVE WORK IN OPPOSING WETMORE MEASURE, NOW IN HANDS OF SENATE COMMITTEE.

Leading members of fraternal organizations in Michigan, who have been fighting the uniform rate bill, introduced by Senator F. C. Wetmore, believe that it will be shelved. It is reported that strong opposition to the bill has developed in the lower peninsula, and many representatives and senators will fight it bitterly should it be reported out. A delegation of twenty-five or thirty representatives of fraternal orders, headed by Director C. J. Byrns of the Modern Woodmen, held a conference with some of the representatives at Lansing a few days ago, and were assured that the bill would not be passed. A canvass has been made in the house of representatives, and it is said that not a single member of eighty introduced in the lower peninsula, and many representatives and senators will fight it bitterly should it be reported out.

It was argued that should the bill become a law many poor men will be unable to carry insurance for the protection of their families, on account of the heavy increase in the rates. It was pointed out that the membership of the Modern Woodmen of America, which is the largest beneficiary society in the world, having a membership of considerably over 1,000,000, feel that they are capable of conducting their business as successfully in the future as they have for the past twenty-six years. The statement was also made that the management is seriously considering the necessity for a rate readjustment, and that an expert actuary is now familiarizing himself with the condition in the order.

The expert who is looking into the affairs of the Modern Woodmen has, it is said, advised the management that the society can adopt a rate absolutely adequate to its needs 50 per cent lower than the rate provided for in the Wetmore bill.

WHO IS ATTORNEY FOR MARQUETTE?

LAST NIGHT'S SESSION OF COUNCIL LEFT THE MATTER IN SAME STATUS IT FOUND IT IN.

LIQUOR LICENSES GRANTED

Two Old Officers Received Reappointment and Dr. James Was Named for Park, Cemetery and Street Commission.

George P. Brown, city attorney No. 1, held the fort at the council meeting last evening, with Michael F. Madigan, city attorney No. 2, nowhere in evidence—at least he wasn't on the floor. The net result of the session was the maintenance of the status quo in regard to this disputed office.

Immediately on the session being called to order, Clerk Donovan read a communication from Mayor Vaughan setting forth that he had received and accepted a resignation of the office of city attorney from Mr. Madigan, subsequent to his confirmation by the council the evening of the 20th, and that he had appointed City Attorney Brown to act until further notice was received by him.

In conclusion he said: "Mr. Brown informs me that in order to avoid litigation or controversy over the question as to who is entitled to act as city attorney, he has made to Mr. Madigan the following proposition, neither of which has yet been accepted by Mr. Madigan: "First, That a statement of all the facts be made in writing and submitted to Judge John W. Stone, with a request for his opinion as to whether or not Mr. Madigan is city attorney, such opinion to be binding upon Mr. Madigan and Mr. Brown as to their claims to the office."

resign. He stated that he had opinions in his hand from three firms of attorneys to this effect, and requested that the clerk read them.

Another Motion. At this stage Alderman Hennessy moved that the opinions be received and placed on file and that the council proceed at once to vote on Mr. Peters' original motion. Alderman Downey seconded this proposal, but before it was put to the council Alderman Asire submitted the third motion in the series, to the effect that the mayor's communication, together with the attorneys' opinions, be laid on the table.

This motion carried, Alderman Peters, who first had moved to accept the mayor's communication and recommendations, voting for it, along with Donovan, Asire, Ward, Schauer and Reichel. Alderman Butler, Downey, Hennessy and Ekstrom voted in the negative.

Alderman Asire subsequently explained that his purpose was to prevent the council from becoming involved in the dispute, which appears to be between the attorneys. The supporters of the original Peters' ordinance professed themselves as satisfied with the disposition made of the matter, because of the fact that Mr. Brown was recognized as attorney by his presence in the council chamber and the fact that business disposed of by the alderman had been passed on by him.

The next developments in the case are a matter of conjecture, but it was reported last evening that Mr. Madigan will begin legal proceedings to secure possession of the office. It is said to be entirely probable that the dispute will receive another airing at the council session Monday evening next.

Johnson Retained. The committee on public buildings reported to the council in favor of the retention of Charles Johnson as janitor of the city hall, and he was unanimously selected for the position. He has filled it the past two years, and has discharged his duties in a manner that has met with general approval. The committee reported that it favored the retention of John Flynn in that office, and Mr. Flynn, too, was unanimously endorsed.
