

STEEL CORPORATION IS SENATE THEME

Almost the Entire Day Is Devoted to a Debate on the Profits of the Company, and Personalities Are Indulged In.

These Occur When Mr. Root Reverts the Criticism of the Tariff Bill Framers and Is Replied to by Mr. Money—Incidentally the Finance Committee Is Upheld Again, When by the Vote of 42 to 35 the Duty on Bar Iron Is Fixed as Recommended.

Washington, May 14.—Again the committee on finance was upheld when the senate today, thirty-five to forty-two, voted down an amendment by Mr. Cummings, Republican, of Iowa, to lower the duty on round iron, etc., and upheld the house rate, which was recommended by the senate committee.

Almost the entire session was given up to a debate on the profits of the United States Steel corporation, and toward the end of the day personalities were freely indulged in by the senators. This occurred after Mr. Root had spoken in defense of the finance committee and in criticism of the failure of that committee to provide more ample information concerning various schedules.

Washington, May 14.—That tuberculosis is no longer a problem of the doctors, that it probably will take two or three generations to reduce its ravages to the rate at which typhoid fever has been regulated, and that public health should be awakened to a greater sense of its responsibility in combating the disease, was the substance of an address by Dr. William Osler, the noted physician of Baltimore and Oxford, England, before the public meeting today of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

Other distinguished men who spoke were British Ambassador James Bryce and Speaker Cannon of the house of representatives, both of whom urged the fostering of the idea of children's playgrounds as a means of keeping them in the open air as much as possible.

Dr. Osler congratulated the association on the work it had done, the three principal things accomplished having been, he said, the awakening of the public, the loosening up of the money bags of legislators and of philanthropic persons, and the enlistment of men and women who are thoroughly in earnest in the campaign.

LABOR BILL TO GO TO THE GOVERNOR.

Conferees of the Legislative Bodies at Lansing Reach an Agreement and the Report Is Accepted by the House. That Women in Shops, Stores and Offices Must Not Work More Than Nine Hours a Day Is an Important Provision—Union Leaders Seem Pleased With the Measure as Revised, and Particularly "Dick" Fletcher, Who Gets More Pay.

Lansing, Mich., May 14.—[Special].—"Dick" Fletcher, labor commissioner, has put across another one on the "fussy Forty-fifth." Fletcher wanted a salary raise, but the house cut it out. The senate put it back, together with other amendments to the labor bill. The committee conferred this morning, and the senate said it would stand pat. This afternoon it revised, and the house adopted the bill without noticing that the senate had not receded on all questions. Fletcher's $500 raise was among them.

The bill contains a provision that women must not work more than nine hours a day, or fifty-four hours a week, which provision the senate tried to cut out. It will prevent women working long hours in factories, stores and offices. The senate also receded from its position relative to the age at which children may work about hazardous machinery, it proposing that the age be cut from eighteen to sixteen. The labor men seem well pleased with the bill.

The highway bill passed the house today. The proposition that the good roads money raised shall be spent only in the county where raised was knocked out. The bill codifies the highway laws and is the longest of the session, containing no less than 184 pages.

PRIMARY ELECTION COMPROMISE ACCEPTED.

The primary conferees reported, and the bill was passed with but four dissenting votes. The report was as outlined in these dispatches last night. Representative Curtis appeared in the house today, with his wife, and took his seat. He spent most of yesterday afternoon in the senate, but today he ventured into the house. Nothing happened. The talk of a legislative investigation of the caucus is talked down and it is not likely that any such thing will happen.

THE RIGHT NOT TO SELL

The decision of the court of appeals that the American Tobacco company may sell to whom it pleases and may refuse to sell to whom it does not please should not be allowed to pass without a word of warning. The decision is one that may easily return to the state. We do not know that the court could have reached any other conclusion, but that is beside the point.

One of the most serious complaints that can be urged against any concern that has a substantial monopoly in its field is indulgence in one or more of the well-known forms of cut-throat price manipulation. A monopoly that under-sells in certain places or on certain articles, or that refuses to all to sell to certain persons, is in a far different position from a person or concern that, without enjoying a monopoly, engages in such practices. Judge Cullen declares that "a refusal to sell to any particular individual becomes illegal only when it is done in pursuance of a combination with other persons to injure the individual with whom they refused to deal."

It is worth considering whether we should not have a plain rule of law for such cases, prohibiting such discriminatory selling when the seller controls a very large part of the product. And this may be suggested without any purpose but that of serving the very best interests of all concerned—those of the large sellers as well as those of the small buyers. Any one who would think the possible effects of a decision giving to a monopoly some of the prerogatives supposed to appertain chiefly to political or commercial autocracies would be a poor friend of even the biggest sort of business.

There are certain principles of fair dealing and fair business which this country began to feel in its bones long ago. You can't overcome them without excavating the bones—which wouldn't be a particularly agreeable, or even a safe, undertaking.

Northern Normal Notes.

The Junior party which was to have occurred last evening was postponed until Monday evening.

Miss Harriet B. Otman, in charge of the music department this year, is preparing for a concert to be given at the end of May by the members of her Normal chorus.

Mrs. John Trevillion of Calumet was the guest of her daughter, Miss May-Louise Trevillion, over Sunday and Monday, and visited the school, attending several classes.

Miss V. Thornton of Munising, last year a student at the Normal, spent Tuesday morning visiting the school as the guest of Miss Elizabeth Byers, Miss Thornton will be remembered as possessing a soprano voice of unusual power and sweetness.

Herbert Waldo, son of D. B. Waldo, formerly principal of the Northern Normal, was very seriously injured on Wednesday week by being struck upon the head with a baseball. He was unconscious for several days, but from last accounts of his condition he seemed to be slowly gaining his faculties.

Friends of Miss Florence Markham of this city will be pleased to learn that, by virtue of her high record as a student at the Normal for the past two years, she is the valedictorian of her class. She is very closely followed by Miss Doris King, also of this city, who takes second honors.

Tuesday morning of this week, at Assembly, two very interesting readings were given by the Misses Theodora Merson and Emma Sanders. The former read an incident in the story of the persecution of the Christians in the arena by Nero, and Miss Sanders gave the stage coach journey of Rebecca, from that charming story by Miss Wiggins.

The final contest for the Kaufman oratorical prize will be held Tuesday evening, May 25. The judges on thought and composition are Superintendent Ora Schurtz of Negaunee, Superintendent F. D. Davis of Escanaba and Superintendent Fred A. Jeffers of Atlantic Mine. The contestants are Emma Sanders and Ernest Roberts, members of Ygdrasil Literary society, and Olga Grand and Elna Nelson, of Ostris. The meeting will be open to the public.

On Thursday of last week Assembly was in charge of Miss Spalding. She gave a recitation on the life and work of the painter Raphael. Spalding of him as probably the best loved painter. He lived but thirty-six years and worked at his art only twenty.

President Kaye was out of the city last week on school business, who had been to Lansing. He went from there to Custer to see his father, who he found very ill. He was detained there until this week, but returned to Marquette on Tuesday, the physician assuring him that he could safely be away for a few days. Thursday noon, however, he received a telegram informing him that his father had passed away that morning. He left on the afternoon train. His father was a man of broad culture, having done considerable work on subjects of literature, art and philosophy were held in high esteem.

Ostris Literary society held its regular meeting Monday evening. The program for the occasion concerned the lives of some of our most important presidents who for some time have not been the subject of public attention.

Miss Matilda Stanton had prepared a paper on the subject of James Monroe but was unable to read it and this was done by Miss Florence Markham. Miss Maud Warren told the life of Andrew Jackson. Haven R. Stewart told an interesting incident in the life of Jackson.

Miss Anna Copeland played on the melodist Schubert's "The Erl King." Miss Ethel Thornton discussed the life of Grover Cleveland, and Miss Jennie Johnson read a paper on the life of James A. Garfield. The last name on the program was a violin solo by Alexander Finlay, a guest for the evening. His work was excellent and he was forced to give two encores before his hearers were satisfied. He was accompanied on the piano by Haven R. Stewart.

Assembly on Thursday morning was presided over by E. J. LeRoy, of the department of modern languages. His subject was "Universal Peace." He discussed briefly the growth of the sentiment among the nations for an amicable settlement of differences and compared war, between nations, with the old law of nations settlement, by means of differences between individual men. Individuals and sections in a country resort to courts now for a reasonable settlement of disputes, and nations are feeling their way to that goal for the solution of International problems.

Notwithstanding the vast increase, recently, in national expenses for navies and armies, there have been formed no less than five hundred peace societies since the first one was formed in 1815 in this country. Mr. Lautner outlined the course of the peace conferences at the Hague and then briefly but enthusiastically pointed out the prominent place our own nation is taking in this splendid movement. To illustrate the serious views held by our country he mentioned the fact that, although the Philippine islands came in our possession as an incident of war during the late trouble with Spain, we actually paid, after war was over, twenty million dollars for them.

One conviction of Calvo was declared to be, in his estimation, one of the most signal acts in the history of the world. Mr. Lautner was in Europe during the Spanish-American war and he said that wherever he went he heard the same thing, that America would never relinquish her hold upon Cuba, for Cuba is very rich. Yet, exactly according to promise given at the instigation of hostilities, as soon as an adequate government had been established by the Cubans the Americans withdrew every soldier and every officer sent there to assist in the preservation of peace and the working out of a plan of self government.

Among the many factors tending to make possible this great ideal of universal peace Mr. Lautner mentioned the simple "universal" language Esperanto, designed and studied as a means of communication between persons of different languages, a language so easy to acquire that one day's study will give as much of mastery of it as a year's study will of any other.

Copper Country

HOUGHTON MAY LOSE IT.

Copet County Fair May Move—Mass Meeting Last Night.

A mass meeting of the citizens and business men of Houghton was held last night for the purpose of taking steps to retain the Copper Country Fair in Houghton.

The building of the big warehouse of the Peninsula Wholesale Grocery takes away from the Copper Country Fair the major portion of the grounds formerly in use by the fair as the place for showing its stock and other exhibits.

John T. McNamara, secretary of the Houghton County Agricultural Society, or the Copper Country Fair, and manager of the Amphidrome, waited upon the village council Thursday night to bring up the question. It was true, as he stated, that a premature and not well-considered statement has been published that the fair association could secure enough space surrounding the Amphidrome to take care of all exhibits.

The village president stated that if Houghton could raise $1,500 for a Fourth of July celebration he could not see why it could not raise a considerable sum to retain the fair. He believed the fair brought considerable business to the village during the week of its operation each year.

The problem which the business men and the council must face is the building of a dock on the outer line of the Amphidrome company's property. The council could not appropriate money to build a dock on private property, but it can pay for building docks at the foot of Portage and Ripley streets and the street committee was empowered to secure estimates for this work.

Trout Fry for Streams—Word has been received from the Soo that the state fish car would arrive in Marquette Sunday night with 104,000 brook trout fry to be distributed in the streams in this vicinity. The fry will be distributed along the line of the M. & S. E. railway, and both the Munising and Big Bay trains will be utilized in their distribution Monday.

Few Whitefish Netted—Local fishermen report that they are having only average success this year, and that the number of whitefish netted is especially small. Yesterday, the Anderson tug returned from a two days' trip with no whitefish at all. Lake trout are about as plentiful as last year and some fine specimens have been netted. This is usually the best part of the summer for lake fishing.

Gate to Avoid Collisions—A gate has recently been erected at the crossing of the M. & S. E. switch to the Pickands coal dock and the D. S. & A. switch to the Spear coal dock. The appropriation to be asked for this year is the same as was allowed by the council two years ago. MARINE NOTES.

The Anchor line package freighter Schuykill passed the Soo at noon yesterday and was due at the Spear docks at 2 o'clock this morning.

The Cleveland-Cliffs steamers Presque Isle and Angeline are due to arrive at the L. S. & I. docks Tuesday. These will be the first Cleveland-Cliffs boats of the season.

The steel trust now has sixty-two steamers and eighteen barges in commission and no more boats of that fleet will be started. Last season the company operated ninety vessels.

The steamer Panny, of the Carter fleet, loaded 5,300 tons of Mary Charlotte ore at No. 5 dock yesterday and cleared for Toledo. The Luzon, another Carter boat, was expected to arrive for ore some time last night.

The water in the harbor is from eighteen inches to two feet lower than the normal for this month. Owing to the shallow water No. 4 dock has not been used for loading ore this season.

Passenger travel over the Great Lakes will be heavier this season than for several years. So say transportation men, and they base their predictions on the unusual number of inquiries received and the advance bookings. The first passenger sailing vessel to leave the head of the lakes for Buffalo and intermediate ports this year will be the Anchor line steamer Tionesta which will leave Duluth June 11. The vessel will leave Buffalo on her first uplake trip June 5. All passenger vessels have wintered in down lake waters, and will open the season from that end. The Anchor line will have three boats in the regular service between Duluth and Buffalo, Junata and the Japan being the other two. The big North West of the North-east Steamship company line will leave Buffalo on her first trip June 19, and Duluth on the return three days later. The North West is exclusively a passenger steamer, carrying no freight. Accommodations have been reserved as far ahead as the middle of July.

The regular Saturday night hop will be held at Fraternity Hall tonight. Music by the Peerless orchestra. (5-14-2d)

COMMUNICATED.

To the Editor of The Mining Journal: I was much interested in the report of E. A. Haven, an inspector for the state dairy and food department, recently given in your columns.

You have already written so many timely and splendid articles on this important subject that have been such a good fruit, for which the public should and does feel grateful, that I beg your further indulgence.

Mr. Haven's many good suggestions in reference to the cleanliness and ventilation of the dairies meet with my hearty approval. But I was very much surprised to learn that a public officer in this enlightened day, to say nothing of a state dairy and food inspector, did not believe in testing all the cattle for tuberculosis, only the suspected ones.

Now every modern pathologist knows that it is the healthy looking, unsuspected cow that very often proves to have the disease when subjected to the government tuberculosis test, and that milk from cattle with tuberculosis is recognized by sanitary experts and medical authorities the world over as one of the most fruitful sources for the spread of consumption.

I would like to ask Mr. Haven of what use are sanitary barns when many of the cows are already rotten with consumption and the milk teeming with germs.

"Consistency thou art a jewel." People who have lost relatives by this disease who had no consumption in their family history, and who in all probability were infected by using milk from tubercular cows, will not be satisfied with anything less than an absolute certainty, and that can be obtained only by the tuberculin test administered by a scientific veterinarian.

There are about twenty dairies and places in the city where milk is offered for sale. Fourteen of these were visited and inspected by Mr. Haven. From his report I learn that only five have had their cattle tested, and I am credibly informed that in three out of these five tubercular cattle were found and destroyed; he it to their credit, these herds are now clear of the disease. With this as a basis it is only fair to presume that tuberculosis exists in most of the herds not yet tested.

What is our health committee going to do about it?

Yours for the truth, the health and the lives of our citizens.
A CITIZEN.

Marble is entirely out of date. Granite soon gets moss-grown, discolored, requires constant expense and care, and eventually crumbles back to Mother Earth. It is very expensive. WHITE BRONZE is strictly everlasting. It cannot granulate with the action of frost. Moss growth is an impossibility. It is more artistic than any stone. Then why not investigate it? It has been adopted for over one hundred public monuments, and by thousands of delighted customers in all parts of the country. It has been on the market over 25 years and is an established success. Many granite dealers have bought White Bronze for their own burial plots. I have hundreds of beautiful designs of all grades of work, and want to have you see them if you are interested in a monument, headstone, marker or grave cover. The Business Opportunity

Business opportunities are open only to men who have money to invest. Every day someone who has saved a little money is stepping into a business of his own, while the man without a bank account must see the opportunity pass. Very often a few hundred dollars will put one in the employing class and open the way to an independent future.

Even though the individual amounts be small, regular saving soon makes the fund required to enter a business of your own. The only way to take advantage of the opportunity is to be ready when it comes. Anyone can be ready who will save the surplus of his earnings.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE MARQUETTE PRISON

The official house Journal arriving yesterday from Lansing contained the prison committee's report on the Marquette prison. The report, in full, is as follows:

To the Members of the House of Representatives:
Your committee on the upper peninsula prison, instructed by a special resolution of the house of representatives to investigate said institution, begs leave to report that it has visited Marquette and conducted an investigation into the conduct and management of the prison in accordance with instructions. Sessions were held at the prison during the day and at the hotel during the evening, two sessions being held at the prison, one session at night at the hotel. Three days and three nights were consumed in the specific work of the investigation and the taking of testimony. The members of the committee made a thorough investigation of the prison, each of the cell blocks, and in fact everything in and about the institution which was considered of interest in an inquiry of this character.

Contract Work.
The contracts entered into between the prison board and contractors were gone over carefully, reading the original contracts section by section. It is customary with the great majority of state institutions to submit contracts to the attorney general, before finally passing upon them, for his approval as to the legal aspect of the same. The contracts of the Marquette prison were not submitted to the state's legal adviser. The old contracts prior to the one entered into in 1908, provided that the state should furnish light, heat, power, formulating by guards or keepers, hauling the raw material from the depots to the prison and the finished product from the prison to the depot.

In the last contract entered into and awarded to Sinauer Bros. of Chicago at one hundred men for five years at forty-five cents per man, the contract also included, in addition to the provisions mentioned above, an additional proviso, that if any of the goods turned out were unsatisfactory to the contractor, that the contractor could turn them back to the state. These contracts also provided that while the state must be held to the full limit of the contract, the contractor can abandon the contract on six months' notice.

Conditions in the shop indicated that men were worked to their physical limit, far beyond that expected in a free shop, brought about by the tasks, which in many cases were exceedingly high. The tasks are fixed by the warden as prescribed by law. Punishments for failure to perform tasks are of common occurrence. (The warden said that he favored the state account plan as against the contract system.)

In the matter of tasks assigned, some men are more apt in performing them than others, and in that event overtime is made. On the other hand, many are unable to perform the tasks from the fact that they are not adapted to the handling of sewing machines, which is the major portion of the work of the overall contract, and in many instances, as shown by the testimony, convicts are punished for failure to perform the tasks.

A thorough investigation of the shop during working hours revealed a condition of affairs which to the committee seemed as though every man was exerting every atom of energy in his making up to perform the tasks assigned him for the benefit of the state.

While the testimony shows that in some instances extra money was received by persons connected with the prison, yet there was nothing definite as to its coming from the contractor, and the committee is of the opinion that the hand of the contractor is seen in this intense desire to get so much work out of the convicts. The law provides that no officer or other prison employe in or about the prison shall be permitted to receive in any way perquisites, emoluments or supplies for himself or his family from the prison other than the compensation allowed by law.

Information has come to the committee that in the matter of the awarding of the last contract to Sinauer Bros., that other parties had bid for the labor of the convicts, a price higher than that offered by Sinauer Bros. It is the opinion of the committee that the last contract entered into with Sinauer Bros. of Chicago should be submitted to the attorney general in order that that official may pass upon the same; that the tasks assigned the men in a majority of instances are too high and far beyond their physical limit to perform; that the question of gifts or money, not in accordance with the law, be eliminated by the contractor if such perquisites are being tendered to officers by the contractor.

The warden stated that he was in favor of the abolition of the contract system as soon as the prison contracts expire and this idea of his is in line with the bill passed by the legislature without a dissenting voice, that the contract work in prisons be abolished at the expiration of the contracts now in existence. We congratulate the house of representatives and senate on the fact that they have passed judgment upon that matter and given the measure immediate effect without a dissenting voice.

The committee is of the opinion that the reformatory idea in the prison is in a large measure, most slight of, brought about by the fact that the contract system has everything else subordinated to it and that too much time is consumed along that line and too little in the reformation of men. The inhuman punishment inflicted tends to break the spirit and brutalize the men and they care little for the attempt at reformation when the contract system is in vogue. The abolition of the contract system will doubt bring about a change in the prison atmosphere and the institution, instead of a place carried on for the enrichment of the contractors, it will get in line with prisons of other states where the contract system has been abolished and be in every sense of the word what a prison should be—a place where the offenders of the law shall be confined and kept employed and when released be better men and citizens.

Punishments.
In the matter of punishments the committee inspected the department cards and took testimony from officers and convicts.

The law provides: "The warden or deputy warden may punish the convicts for misconduct in such manner and under such regulations as shall be adopted by the board, provided, that punishment, by showing with cold water, or whipping with the lash on bare body shall in no case be allowed and the warden or deputy warden shall as soon as the next day after inflicting punishment on any convict enter in a book to be kept for that purpose a written memorandum thereof signed by him stating the offense committed and the kind and extent of punishment inflicted, but in no case shall any punishment be brutal or inhuman and that no corporal punishment shall be inflicted without the presence of the prison physician."

The taxpayers of the state to learn through the official channel of the auditor general's office, with the vouchers on file there, that the prison was paying exorbitant prices for chicken, potatoes, strawberries and flowers—much of this out of season when the prices were very high. It is a degree of extravagance that your committee believes calls for the strongest condemnation by this house and every taxpayer in the state. The fact that the law allows the warden provisions for his family and guests visiting the prison on business, certainly it was never intended that extravagance should run riot as shown by the vouchers in the auditor general's office, that the warden should be allowed to be permitted this extravagance to go on, and it is their duty as prescribed by law to act as a buffer between the warden and the state, seeing that the warden gets everything that he is entitled to and also that the state is not compelled to pay bills for luxuries and unnecessary articles in excess of business decency.

The recommendations of the committee are exactly in line with the bill passed by both houses of the legislature that all bills for luxuries, fruit and flowers out of season, be denied the approval of the board of control, that all bills be checked in the same manner that each and every member of the board would check up the bills of his own business; and that the meetings of the board of control be strictly along the lines of prison business, rather than in the nature of a monthly reunion and banquet.

Section 21 of the prison laws provides that "no warden shall be directly or indirectly interested in any contract, purchase or sale for or on account of the prison." We believe that the warden has violated the spirit if not the letter of this law in this regard. Your committee finds by vouchers in the auditor general's office that the warden, after abandoning his residence and going to the prison to live, purchased for his wife, Kate Russell, household goods, bedding, silver, kitchen utensils, etc., etc., to the amount of $800; and from his brother, William Russell, a pair of horses to the amount of $500. The committee believes that exorbitant prices were paid for these purchases and that it was in violation of the law and that in the warden should reimburse the state for purchases made from members of his own family--this return of money to be made through the attorney general's office and state treasurer. Also that all transactions of this character in the future be prevented by the board of control before they become public property by appearing as paid vouchers in the auditor general's office. All matters in this respect referring to vouchers in the auditor general's office, of course, are open for inspection by any one who cares to investigate them.

Miscellaneous.
In the course of our sworn testimony a number of witnesses were called to stand who, as part of their testimony, made statements in reference to the escape of a convict named Ryan. There was nothing in this testimony, from the warden down, but what appeared to the committee as though gross negligence was exhibited in allowing Ryan to escape. It is too long and too deep a subject for the committee to go into, but they are of the opinion that another tribunal other than the legislative investigation should at some future time take up this matter along with others.

In the case of William Van Gorder, sentenced for manslaughter from Iron Mountain for from five to fifteen years, and paroled at the expiration of his minimum sentence, the committee believes that unusual liberties and courtesies were extended to this man while in prison, as much so that he became the talk of the prison population as well as the men about town in Marquette. He came to the prison with $3,500 in money. Van Gorder stated that he had received a small part of the money back and expected the balance, but the committee believes that the money should not be held back but paid over promptly to the paroled prisoner and recommended that the warden square up on the Van Gorder account, paying over at once any money due him. He said himself that not long after being imprisoned he was made a trusty and was not confined in a cell, but was allowed a bed in the barn where prison employes also slept. He drove the prison team to and from the city and almost every evening, according to his own statement and the statement of witnesses, drove to the city and was seen as late as 2 o'clock in the morning driving around the city of Marquette. Later he brought with him from Iron Mountain his pedigree stallion, which was kept at the prison. Testimony by two citizens of Marquette, who paid repeatedly $15 and $25 for services of the stallion, which did not go to the owner, Van Gorder, and for which amounts no record appears on the prison books.

Your committee recommends that in the matters pertaining to William Van Gorder and Ryan, the escaped convict, that they be thoroughly investigated at some future time when a higher judicial tribunal might be called together in Marquette county.

We recommend that we believe for his safety and return to health, that his transfer is imperative and we ask that the board of pardons transfer this convict, as provided by law, from Marquette to Jackson prison with as little delay as possible.

We recommend that in the matter of punishments, which we believe are too severe and in many cases inhuman, that if legislation does not pass this session covering the matter, that it be taken up by the board of corrections and charities without delay and that the punishment of convicts by chaining and hand cuffing be dispensed with and that no padding or lashing be permitted except in extreme cases, and at no time for the failure to perform tasks set by the warden for the benefit of the contractor.

We recommend that in the matter of extravagance in the warden's household expenses, that the board of control be instructed to scrutinize every bill carefully and that all items for luxuries be cut out of the bills; and also in the event of the board failing to check up the bills as they should be that it shall be within the power of the auditor general to disallow items of extravagance; after the bill passed takes effect that the board of control see to its enforcement.

We recommend that William Russell, whom your committee believes is in no way fitted for the important task of keeper of the big overall shop, owing to his physical condition, which is extreme nervousness, making him unfit for the care of convicts working under such a strain as they are, be removed from the position at once.

We recommend that as long as the contract system exists in the prison that any convicts or employes of the prison or any official accepting or performing any emoluments or money from the contractors, shall be dealt with as prescribed by the statute governing these matters.

In view of all matters which have been made a part of this report, and in which your committee believes the warden has been exceedingly deficient as regards extravagance, punishment of convicts, purchase of articles from members of his own family, and the general management of the prison, we are convinced that the warden has shown himself to be lacking in the qualifications which should be possessed by a person in charge of a prison.

BASEBALL TOMORROW.

Much Interest Manifested in Opening of the League Series.

With favorable weather the first of the series of league baseball games at Union Park tomorrow afternoon, between the Ishpeming and Negaunee teams, will be witnessed by an unusually large crowd. Much more interest is shown than last year, and all the games to be played this summer will be well patronized.

The management has decided that all games, with the exception of those to be played with the Munising team, will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock. The games with Munising will commence thirty minutes earlier, in order that they may be completed in time to permit the visitors to return home on the afternoon train. When the Ishpeming team plays at home tickets will be on sale the Saturday evening and Sunday morning prior to the game at Wanek's billiard hall, in order to prevent delays at the gate. Arrangements will also be made for the sale of tickets in Negaunee.

The workmen employed at the park will finish work on the fence and grounds today, but the grand stand and bleachers will not be enlarged until next week. For all the games in which the Ishpeming team participates the admission will be twenty-five cents, with ten cents extra for seats in the stand.

The Ishpeming team will be composed of eleven players, as follows: Nichols and Laxstrom, catchers; Goulette, Cooney and Andrews, pitchers; Heindell, Gorman, Toman, Haglund and Simpson. It is not known what all of the line-up tomorrow will be, but it has been decided that Goulette and Nichols will be the battery. Olson will be on first base; Haglund, will probably be at second; Cooney at short and Gorman at third. This leaves five players, Laxstrom, Toman, Heindell, Simpson and Andrews, available for the fields. Tom Cooney is captain and field manager.

JUNIOR RECEPTION.

Unusually Large Number Attended Function in Braastad's Hall.

The reception to the members of the Senior class of the Ishpeming High school tendered them last evening at Braastad's Hall by the Junior class was an exceptionally pretty party. It is doubtful if the hall was ever more artistically decorated. The decorations were confined to the senior class colors, yellow and white. On strings suspended from the center of the hall to the ends and sides one foot apart were white and yellow roses. On either side of the platform occupied by the orchestra were beautifully decorated cozy corners, and above the center of the platform the letters "I. H. S." were illuminated. The refreshment booth in the southwest corner was also beautifully decorated.

Nearly 1,000 invitations were issued and it is estimated that over 500 people were present. Sweet's orchestra of seven pieces furnished satisfactory music and punch was served throughout the evening. The committees in charge of the affair were as follows:

General supervisor—R. O. Yungbluth. Decorating—Clarence Rystrom, chairman; Marguerite Scribner, Marguerite McEnroe, Florence Lioret, Marie Lioret, Lais Unnuth and Fred Corneil. Refreshments—Marie Lioret, chairman; Marguerite Scribner, Viola Jones and Pearl Kahn. Invitations—Clarence Rystrom, chairman; Harold Shadlock and R. O. Yungbluth. Games—Herbert Holmson, chairman; Lawrence Seaborn and Edward Ham. Reception—Roy O. Yungbluth, Mr. and Mrs. Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Scribner, Walter Sterne and T. H. Bargh.

The seniors, who will graduate this year, and in whose honor the reception was given, are as follows: Herman Albert, Irma Altschwaeger, Thomas Bergh, Lorain Barnaby, Margery Barney, Agnes Bergman, Myrtle Bigger, Jane Brewer, Albert Brown, Mayme Brown, Loretta Burke, Charles Carlson, Lily Carlson, Ethel Collick, Edgerton Cooley, Will Cooley, Emily Cox, Catherine Devan, Herbert Devine, Jane Drow, Dorothy Eger, Ida Eggan, Hulda Flack, Lyda Gill, Hilmer Gillette, Bodo Goodman, Guida Holmstrom, Minnie Hegdahl, Selma Hoyseth, Clifford Jaedecke, Ingeborg Johnson, Ethel Johnson, Will Keese, Bertha Krogdahl, Lida Larson, Catherine Lorange, Albert Matthews, Sadie McHale, Ellen Mielmarch, Alice Moody, Ray Muck, John Murphy, Mary Nelson, Lola Nesbitt, Sadie Nolan, Gyda Olsen, Lena Olsen, Sophie Olsen, Lillian Pearce, Isabella Pryor, Loretta Power, Will Quinlan, Angela Schumacker, Alice Shea, August Spoglund, Emily Smith, Jennie Solerger, Walter Sterne, Harvey Tonnesen, William Trebilcock, George Tucker, Leve Verran, Ethel Warnberg, Lutz Webber, Rose Werner and Emily Wood.

BASEBALL TODAY.

Teams composed of students of the Ishpeming and Negaunee High schools will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Union Park grounds for the first baseball game of the season. There are about forty fairly good players attending the Ishpeming school, and it is a question which ones will play in today's game, though the battery will be Will Keese, pitcher, and Will Quinlan, catcher. It is possible that the other positions will be filled by the following: Matthews or Cooley, first base; Holmson, second base; Sivola, third base; Brown, short stop; Haglund, left field; Trebilcock, center field; Johnson, right field. The admission will be twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen for school children.

BAXTER CASE HEARING.

W. P. Belden and R. P. Bronson and Mayor Winter and F. A. Bell of Negaunee arrived home yesterday from Madison, Wis., where they attended a hearing in the Baxter mine suit, instituted against the owners of the mine over a year ago. This is the second hearing that has taken place since the case went into court, and it is expected that it will be the final one. As there are a number in this county who put money into the Baxter mine at the time it was taken over by the pool organized by Ishpeming and Negaunee men, the decision of the court will be awaited with interest.

WESTERN PLAY TONIGHT.

"Montana," which is said to be an exceptionally interesting play, will be the popular-priced offering at Ishpeming theater tonight. Jim Graham, foreman of the Busham ranch, a hardy son of the plains, is the central figure of the play. The leading feminine part is that of Flo Harper, a girl of the West, who rides and shoots as well as a man. It is said that Jim and Flo are assisted by a most capable company. The play is mounted with special scenery and, judging from the favorable reports heard of it, will be one of the best of the season.

ENLARGING QUARTERS.

The Swedish Home society is improving its hall in the second story of its business block on Cleveland avenue. The space on the upper story between the block and the adjoining building is to be converted into two rooms. One will be used for paraphernalia and the other as a dressing room.

FROM MORGAN'S CURB LETTER.

"Prices at the opening were firm and higher in both Boston and New York, but soon became dull with a downward tendency. As has been the case for some time past no stock could be had when the prices broke and the trading was very light. There were but few changes of note from yesterday's close. All indications point toward an approaching revival of business, which will surmount all former experiences. The enormous production of gold, exceeding that of any other period in history, both in volume and cheapness; the expectation of at least normal crops on an increased acreage; steadily increasing railroad earnings; the advantage to be derived in the future from vast economies introduced through labor saving equipment; the enlargement and improvement of power plants of various kinds by the great manufacturing companies; and the universal substitution of rolling stock of much greater capacity and durability by transportation companies, in the period just preceding the panic, must soon make itself felt in no uncertain manner. The heavy orders for material

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS TOMORROW

MARQUETTE WILL JOURNEY TO MUNISING AND NEGAUNEE AND ISHPeming WILL PLAY.

ALL THE TEAMS SEEM STRONG

Many New Faces in the Line-Ups Make It Impossible to Even Guess the Winners.

The baseball season of 1909 will be opened tomorrow with Marquette playing at Munising and Ishpeming at Negaunee. C. G. Stocking, of Ishpeming, Judge Thoren, of Negaunee, and H. R. Fox, of Marquette, representing the league officials, met at the Hotel Clifton yesterday and made final arrangements for the opening games by assigning the umpires.

In accordance with the agreement made some time ago, an umpire was chosen from each of the four cities in the league, and the choice was as follows: From Ishpeming, Faribly; from Negaunee, Gaffney; from Marquette, Freese; from Munising, Schilling, Gaffney and Faribly will officiate at Negaunee tomorrow, and Schilling and Freese at Marquette.

Manager Fox will take twelve players to Munising tomorrow, on a special train over the Marquette & Southeastern, which will leave here at 8:45 in the morning. The line-up of the Marquette team will be as follows: Holsvickson, catcher; Scholtus or Hanson, pitchers; Davis, first base; Gilbert, second base; Craig, short stop; Beaudin, third base; Biopelle, left field; Woodman, center field; Weiser, right field.

It will be noticed that there are but three men in the line-up who were members of the team last year, Craig, Woodman and Beaudin. Craig and Woodman recently moved to this city from Newberry, and their work in practice has been a matter of favorable comment with the fans. Beaudin is a Marquette boy, who was formerly a member of the Independents, and last season played with a team in the copper country.

Munising Team Strong. As the Munising team will be composed almost entirely of new men, how strong it will be is largely guess work, but the fans in that city express supreme confidence in the nine and declare that the Ager county city will make a strong bid for the top of the percent age column.

The Munising News of yesterday contains the following dope on their team: "Munising will have a team this year to which any loyal enthusiast can point with pride. Come out Sunday and root for the boys who will appear in our line" this year.

"If the weather man gives us half a chance Munising baseball fans will see one of the prettiest exhibitions of baseball here Sunday they were ever privileged to witness on the local lot, Munising vs. Marquette. "It is quite probable that Manager Trueman will use Frost and Hagle as the battery Sunday, Gunstrom, who was injured in one of the mills here recently, will be unable to catch but will appear in the outfield and will be there with the stick. He will also get around the bases in his usual form, for he says his injured hand has no effect on his foot work."

This makes it look as though Marquette would be kept busy in tomorrow's game, but the boys may be expected to give a good account of themselves.

Ishpeming vs. Negaunee. The game between Ishpeming and Negaunee tomorrow will also be watched with interest. The Ishpeming team has been strengthened by four new players, although the loss of Pitcher Siebenthal may be keenly felt. The Ishpeming management, however, claim that in Tomam and Goulette they have two slab artists the equal of any in the league.

The lineup Sunday will be picked from the following players: Laxstrom, Nicholas, Tamam, Goulette, Olson, Heindel, Cooney, Mogland, Gorman, Simpson and Andrews.

The Negaunee team may spring one of the surprises of the season, as all but three of the players will represent that city on the diamond for the first time. Last year Negaunee was the tail-end of the league, but the fans have been busy during the winter and spring and do not propose to have that questionable distinction next fall.

It is likely that a record crowd will be present at this game as the interest and rivalry between the two cities is intense, and is not less heightened by the fact that Siebenthal, who is expected to pitch for Negaunee, pitched for the Ishpeming team a few weeks ago. It is reported that the Ishpeming fans are planning to give him a noisy reception.

The Negaunee lineup will be as follows: Cole, catcher; Siebenthal, pitcher; LaFave, first base; Dunlavy, second base; Imeson or Willet, third base; Messier, short stop; Scanlon, left field; Cannon, center field; Faulk, right field.

SHRINE MEETINGS.

Ahmed Temple to Gather Here May 26—Imperial Council at Louisville.

Marquette members of Ahmed temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, will entertain the ceremonial or summer session of this feature of Masonry the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, May 26. This ceremonial session, when new candidates cross the burning sands is always an enjoyable feature with the members of Ahmed temple and there will doubtless be a large delegation of Shriner in attendance.

The session of the Imperial council, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, will be held at Louisville, Ky., on June 7, 8, 9 and 10. This will be one of the biggest and best Shrine gatherings ever held and thousands of members from all parts of the country are expected to attend. E. W. McPherran and possibly other Marquette Shriners will take in this meeting.

Humorous posters, advertising the big gathering, have been received by local members, and those who figure on going are already speculating on the cordial reception they will receive and the good time they will have in the big grass state city. The program is all made up and judging from the folders there will be something doing every minute. One big feature, which Marquette people cannot see every day, will be a southern negro jubilee, with a cakewalk participated in by 500 colored people. There will be plantation melodies and numerous other features.

It is likely that a record crowd will be present at this game as the interest and rivalry between the two cities is intense, and is not less heightened by the fact that Siebenthal, who is expected to pitch for Negaunee, pitched for the Ishpeming team a few weeks ago. It is reported that the Ishpeming fans are planning to give him a noisy reception.

THEATRICAL.

"Montana." "Montana," a typical western play, was the offering at the opera house last night, and in comparison with other plays of its class the production was quite satisfactory. The company was greeted by a very small house, but the performance was well worth the price of admission. The play is one that demands more than an ordinary amount of difficult acting, but the members of the cast were equal to their parts.

The most difficult role was that of the villain, Perrault, a half bred Cree, which was splendidly carried by Grenville James. He not only looked the part, but every movement was realistic and his manner of handling the French-Indian patois was all that could be desired.

Elmer Bulham was well cast as the leading man and the same may be said of Esta May, the leading lady. The secondary lovers' roles were taken by Rex de Rosselli and Estella Morton in a creditable manner. The minor roles were adequately cared for.

The South Shore passenger department have announced low rates to Detroit, Mich., and return via St. Ignace and Mackinaw City for the meeting of the F. & A. M. Grand Lodge of Michigan, in session May 25th and 26th, 1909.
