

LITTLE INTEREST IN TARIFF DEBATE

Senators Who Discuss the Conference Report Are Heard by Only a Handful of Members at Times During the Day.

Night Session Is Held to Allow the "Progressives" Opportunity to Express Their Views, but It Is No Better Attended, and It Is With Difficulty That a Quorum Is Finally Obtained—Interest Centers in the Vote, Slated for This Afternoon.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Small interest was shown in the tariff debate in the senate today, but a night session was called to allow the progressive senators opportunity to express their views.

The effect of the maximum and minimum provision as agreed upon by the conferees was the chief subject of discussion this afternoon.

Mr. Hale said that nobody knew whether the new tariff law would be acceptable to the people and would be satisfactory, but whatever the result he was satisfied that for ten years the people would frown upon any project or plan or tribunal that would be likely to disturb conditions and keep open the subject of tariff legislation.

People Tired of Tariff Agitation. Mr. Hale said that nobody knew whether the new tariff law would be acceptable to the people and would be satisfactory, but whatever the result he was satisfied that for ten years the people would frown upon any project or plan or tribunal that would be likely to disturb conditions and keep open the subject of tariff legislation.

Senator Hale sent up a circular letter from the committee of one hundred appointed at the national tariff convention held at Indianapolis last spring for the purpose of promoting tariff commission legislation.

That is your high-toned agitation," remarked Mr. Hale, bowing to Senator Beveridge.

"I never heard of such a thing before, but I do not see anything improper in that letter," replied Mr. Beveridge.

Senator Hale then offered a letter signed by H. E. Miles, chairman of the tariff committee of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Senators Go on a "Strike." At 5:30 o'clock the senate took a recess until eight, but at that hour the senate appeared to have gone on a "strike."

When a night session was suggested by Mr. Bailey, Mr. Aldrich and other senators did not take kindly to the idea of sitting up late to hear opposition speakers, and Mr. Aldrich was one of the absentees tonight.

Senator Nelson, at 8:30 o'clock, moved that the sergeant-at-arms send for the absentees. The absentees were ordered brought in, but it was found that the telephones at the homes of a number of the senators had been "temporarily detached."

Cummins Assails the Bill. Mr. Cummins, of Iowa, was the first speaker this evening. He contended that no substantial tariff reform would be accomplished by the bill.

Senator Cummins attacked various schedules as affording no relief to the consumer, and declared that he would vote against the bill, although he was confessedly superior to any bill framed for revenue purposes and its schedules were better than those of the Digley law.

"I am opposed," said Mr. Cummins, to the bill, because it is not such a revision as I have expended the best years of my life fighting for, and is not a fair and reasonable performance of the promises of our platform.

HOUSE INSURGENTS TO SUFFER NOW

In Revengeful Mood, It Is Said, Speaker Cannon Will Administer Punishment by Means of His Committee Assignments.

These Are Due to Be Announced Today—Gardner of Massachusetts Will Lose the Chairmanship on Industrial Arts and Expositions, While Cooper of Wisconsin Is Saved Only Because of President Taft's Intervention—Lieut. Weeks in High Favor.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Speaker Cannon is expected to announce his committee assignments tomorrow. A selection which is expected to cause much concern is the designation of Mr. Weeks, of Massachusetts, as chairman of the committee on postoffices and post roads.

Mr. Gardner, of New Jersey, who would be entitled to the chairmanship of the postoffice committee on that committee, today for the first time voted with the "insurgents" and Democrats on the urgent deficiency bill.

Mr. Cooper, of Wisconsin, who was also an "insurgent" against the rules, may retain the chairmanship of the committee on insular affairs. It was reported today that Speaker Cannon in his haste to get the bill passed, had overlooked Mr. Gardner.

EVELYN'S STORY READ IN COURT

District Attorney Jerome Resting His Case, Thaw's Counsel Begins His Endeavor to Offset the Testimony of State's Alienists.

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 4.—The state rested in the Thaw case today, and it now devolves upon Thaw and his attorney to offset the testimony of the state's alienists, who are to have sworn that Thaw is still insane and would be a menace if released.

John B. Gleason, Thaw's original legal adviser, took the stand this afternoon and cleared up some of Thaw's apparent vagaries upon which District Attorney Jerome has dwelt so persistently.

Through Mr. Gleason, Thaw's lawyer hopes to show that Thaw's attitude toward Stanford White was not due to delusions, as the state contends, but was prompted by what Thaw knew of White's practices.

Mr. Gleason presented the report of a detective agency regarding an alleged attempt on Thaw's life the night of Dec. 24, 1903. It was not made public, but was introduced to counteract the state's contention that Thaw had delusions concerning the "Monk" Kastman gang, which he believed had been engaged by his enemies to beat and perhaps kill him.

SWEDISH PEOPLE ARM FOR SELF-PROTECTION.

Gunshops at Stockholm Are Practically Denuded of Revolvers and Small Arms—Strike Is Serious in Capital City but Elsewhere Is by No Means as Alarming as Has Been Predicted.

Stockholm, Aug. 4.—Although Stockholm is badly crippled by the labor strikes, the movement is by no means so general in the provincial industrial centers of Sweden. In most places the street cars are running and no disturbances are reported.

A corps of a thousand workmen is being organized with the object of maintaining order, and the people generally are arming for self-protection. The gun shops have practically been denuded of revolvers and small arms.

EXPIATES HIS CRIME ON THE GUILLOTINE

Refused Clemency by the President, a Paris Parricide, the Murderer of His Mother, Is Publicly Decapitated This Morning.

Paris, Thursday, Aug. 5.—A sudden official announcement that a public beheading would take place at 4:30 o'clock this morning in the boulevard fronting Saint-Pierre created a great sensation in Paris, which had not seen an execution in fifteen years.

There were some jeers as the closed wagon containing the condemned man left the prison yard by a side street and then drove up the boulevard two hundred yards to the guillotine.

GREAT COAL STRIKE IMMINENT. Great Britain is threatened with a general coal miners' strike directly involving nearly a million men, and indirectly many times that number—for if the supply of coal is cut short it will necessitate shutting down many establishments in no way related to the coal trade except as consumers.

It is possible that the political effect of the Payne-Adair tariff will be as disastrous as those of the McKinley act, for it will hardly be asserted that the people are incapable of folly. Yet there is basis for the opinion that something has been learned from the experience of the last seven years.

THE RECEPTION OF THE TARIFF. It is easy with surface plianability to predict a short life and unhappy one for the new tariff bill. It is by no means an ideal measure for broad compromise, and pleases neither standpatter nor downward revisionist.

In 1890, following the enactment of the McKinley act, the party responsible for that enactment suffered a crushing defeat, and two years afterward lost the presidency. Yet from 1890 to 1892 the country was prosperous.

It is possible that the political effect of the Payne-Adair tariff will be as disastrous as those of the McKinley act, for it will hardly be asserted that the people are incapable of folly. Yet there is basis for the opinion that something has been learned from the experience of the last seven years.

Copper Country

NOTED GEOLOGISTS HERE.

Curator of American Museum and U. S. Geologist in Copperdom.

The copper country is this week entertaining two geologists of national fame, who are visiting the district, studying the geology of the country and its history. They are the guests of Dr. A. C. Lane, state geologist, and Dr. L. L. Hubbard of Houghton.

Professor Leveitt is in the United States geological survey service, and is one of the most famous geologists of the country. He is accompanied by Professor Wood, of the Kalamazoo Normal school. Professor Leveitt is the author of several books on glacial phenomena. In the geological survey service, he is a graduate of Ames college and has been in the service for twenty-three years. He has been sent to the Alps by the United States government to study conditions there and to give a comparison with conditions in this country. He is in the copper country to investigate the glacial phenomena and to study the lake lines.

It is seldom that the copper country entertains such well known scientists. Every country is being extended them by the mining companies and geologists. Dr. Hovey was formerly a student at Heidelberg, Germany, which institution both Dr. Lane and Dr. Hubbard attended.

NAME DELEGATE TO MUNISING.
Dr. L. L. Hubbard to Represent Portage Lake Club at Tournament.

Dr. L. L. Hubbard of Houghton has been selected to represent the Portage Lake Rod & Gun club at the annual meeting and tournament of the Upper Peninsula Sportsmen's league to be held at Munising on Friday and Saturday of this week, under auspices of the Grand Island Rod & Gun club. The selection of Dr. Hubbard was made at a meeting of the Portage Lake club Tuesday evening.

COLONEL EVERETT HERE.
Expresses Much Surprise at Change in Houghton in Ten Years.

Colonel Sylvester T. Everett, vice president and principal shareholder of the New Arcadian Copper company, is in Houghton. He came to attend an important meeting of the shareholders of the company, which will be held today. Colonel Everett had not visited Houghton for ten years, and he was much surprised at the wonderful change these ten years have made in Houghton. It was a most agreeable surprise to Colonel Everett.

RUSHING CHURCH WORK.
Contractor O. Perreault of Houghton is making rapid progress with the work at St. Cecilia's Catholic church in that village. The building was not of sufficient dimensions for the accommodation of the congregation. It was therefore out in two parts, and the rear of the edifice was moved back twenty feet on a new sandstone foundation, the gap left in the center now being newly built up. Mr. Perreault expects to have the work all completed within two weeks. When this is done it is expected there will be sufficient room for all the members of the parish.

GUILTY OF NON-SUPPORT.
A jury in Justice Brand's court Tuesday afternoon brought in a verdict of guilty in the case of the People vs. Oscar Reil, a Hancock man, arrested on a charge of non-support. Reil has furnished a bond and will appeal the case to the circuit court.

BACK FROM THE WEST.

Sheriff Byers' Assistant Brings a Prisoner from Butte.

Under Sheriff Phil Sheridan returned yesterday morning from an official trip to Butte, where he went to get Vincent Kalafatis, wanted in this county to answer to a statutory charge. The under-sheriff left here two weeks ago and was tied up for five days by the washouts on the Duluth branch of the South Shore road.

Upon reaching Houghton yesterday morning Mr. Sheridan, after looking up his prisoner, started for his home in Hancock to get breakfast. Upon reaching the place he found the building vacant. During the officer's absence his family had moved to Houghton and Phil had not been aware of the change, now figuring on moving until his return.

MERCHANTS HAVE BIG PICNIC.

The merchants of the Portage Lake town could not have been favored with a better day for their third annual outing than was handed them by Weather Observer Wiesner. During the early morning the conditions were not too alluring, but when the big clouds arrived all was joy and old sport appeared in all of his forms. Every train parkward was crowded, and at noon it was predicted the affair would be a monster event. The committee were early at the park and had arranged everything so that when the big crowds arrived all was in readiness for their reception. The merchants of Houghton and Hancock have established their reputation as entertainers, and it is now an assured thing that the outing for the benefit of the clerks will become an annual event.

BOXING SHOW AUG. 16.

Advised received from Duluth are to the effect that a boxing contest has been arranged between Walter White, colored, of Duluth, and Mike Schreck, an old-timer in the roped arena, but who is still quite a clever exponent of the game. The date is August 16 and the place the Amphitheatre, Houghton. White and Schreck have boxed Gardner, but this bout has been called off and Schreck has been taken on. This will be the first boxing contest in Houghton in several years, and Portage Lake fight fans are looking forward to the ball with interest. There will be some good preliminaries and those promoting the affair promise a fine evening's card.

FORMER COPPER COUNTRY STAR.

Baseball fans will remember Dick Thorsen, who pitched for Grand Forks in the old Northern-Copper Country professional league. He started with the Duluth team of the new Northern league this year, but evidently did not make good, for he was dropped. Since that time he has had a reversal of fortune, for he established a strike-out record in semi-professional ball in a game recently played, when he fanned seventeen of the batsmen who opposed him. The game was between the Itawells and Kewanee teams of Duluth, and the Itawells won by the score of five to one, Thorsen playing with the Itawells.

ATHLETIC MEET ARRANGED.

An athletic meet on a small scale will be carried out at Anthony's farm, Hancock, Sunday afternoon. The Hanna club of South Range, James club of Hancock and Rapids club of Hancock will participate. Prizes will be given to the winners, the first man in each of the five events to receive a silver medal and the second a bronze medal. The five events will be the sixteen-pound shotput, standing high jump, running high jump, running broad jump, and running hop, skip and jump.

Mining News

EAST BUTTE.

The East Butte company has expended a considerable sum of money in running the long crosscut on the 500 level of the Montana vein in the district. No. 1 to cut the Glangery vein at the southern end of the property. The crosscut passed through a number of small veins, but opened nothing important. When the crosscut hit the Glangery vein a great volume of water flooded the workings and suspended everything but pumping. It is thought by some that a better plan for developing the Glangery vein would have been to sink shaft No. 2, which is a large four-compartment shaft, now 400 feet deep. It is in the neighborhood of the Glangery vein, and could have been sunk to the 1,500 level with the money used to construct the long crosscut. At that depth the value of the vein might have been determined. Although shaft No. 1 is down 900 feet the opinion is generally entertained by competent mining men that the East Butte has not yet opened its ground to sufficient depth to establish the value of the ore deposits. The developed ground, extending from the surface down to the 900 level, shows low grade deposits, and the view of mining men is that the proper course will be to open the ground to the 1,800 and 2,000 levels. The Glangery has been bulkheaded to slant off the water tapped. It drains a large territory, and another 200-gal pump, being operated by the electric power of the East Butte, is in the East Butte is handling 400 tons of ore per day at the Pittsmead smelter. A new furnace has been blown in and also an old one recently repaired. The Pittsmead unfortunately was compelled to stop work for several days, and in sight to meet expenses, and thereby reduced its ore reserves without developing new ones.

NORTH BUTTE.

In the North Butte a crosscut is being extended to open the Jessie vein on the 2,200 level, and it is expected to reach the vein about the first of October. If it opens good ore, that will be of great advantage to the North Butte, and will make the future brighter. The company is also working to make connections with the Baldor State shaft which the Montana vein is sinking to develop the extension of the Jessie vein. Raises are being made from the 1,200, 1,400 and 1,600 levels in the Granite Mountain claim, bought by the company some time ago. The Lewissons, who owned the Granite Mountain, sunk the 300 level, but while there is a small vein in the ground there is no ore. It is necessary to pass through the Granite Mountain to reach the Jessie vein on the Edith May. It is expected that the second working shaft of the North Butte will be completed by the first of the coming year.

LA SALLE.

The situation relative to the La Salle property is this: The company has a substantial treasury, with a balance of close to $750,000 on hand at the last report, just issued. It has a very large amount of money in the mineral belt. It has good management and is being developed thoroughly and practically. Up to date there is nothing of exceptional merit to be found, except on the Tecumseh property of the La Salle, and the opinion is generally entertained by competent mining men that the proper course will be to open the ground to the 1,800 and 2,000 levels. The Glangery has been bulkheaded to slant off the water tapped. It drains a large territory, and another 200-gal pump, being operated by the electric power of the East Butte, is in the East Butte is handling 400 tons of ore per day at the Pittsmead smelter. A new furnace has been blown in and also an old one recently repaired. The Pittsmead unfortunately was compelled to stop work for several days, and in sight to meet expenses, and thereby reduced its ore reserves without developing new ones.

BUTTE COALITION.

The 1,700-foot level from the Tremway shaft of the Butte Coalition to the Minnie Healy has cut three veins outside of the Minnie Healy. The first, in Tramway ground, is fifteen feet wide, all second class ore. The second vein is twenty feet wide, all first class, and the third vein probably a branch of the second, is twelve feet wide, four feet of which is first class and the remainder good second class ore. $5 drifting has yet been done and the crosscut is being pushed through to the Minnie Healy. The latter part of July and up to date in August, Butte Coalition has been producing a record amount of copper, or at the rate of thirty-six million pounds per annum.

NOTES OF COPPER NEWS.

The ore body recently encountered on the lower levels of Denn Arizona seems to be proving quite extensive, according to the best information and the opinion among mining men seems to be that the property will soon be in a position to produce steadily.

The Franklin Mining company will hereafter have its mineral shafted by the Calumet & Hecla, instead of the Quincy Mining company. On Aug. 1 these shafts are to be sunk to the level of the Quincy company and the same was not renewed, a more advantageous arrangement having been made with the Calumet & Hecla.

A number of additional men were put on during the past two weeks by Calumet & Arizona at the Powell shaft, which is being called the "Wagner," and it is due to the ability of Colonel Powell, the manager, to having his name used in that manner. The company has also employed a considerable number of new men at its other shafts and is daily increasing its output from the mines.

AMALGAMATED.

As already published, it has been announced officially that the Amalgamated Copper company hereafter will employ American labor in preference to foreign whenever it is obtainable. This is understood to apply to all the mines of the company as well as to the smelters. A number of the several years ago the company has experimented with the employment of foreigners such as Austrians, Slavs and Montenegrins, and has arrived at the conclusion that American labor and workmen from the north of

DEATH HOODOO IN HISTORIC DIAMOND

Even Those Who Wore the Jewel Victims of Its Malign Influence.

BLUE HOPE GEM IS FEARED.

Experts Sure That Hoodoo Will Be Felt by Its Latest Purchaser, Who Paid $80,000 for It.

London, Aug. 4.—European gem experts are so sure the famous blue "diamond" is "hoodooed" that they are satisfied that they will know, from the awful facts they predict will befall him, just who it was for whom the stone was purchased at auction in Paris a fortnight or more ago at the very moderate price of $80,000.

The diamond's history has been traced back about 250 years. Misfortune has befallen those who have had anything to do with it so persistently during all the night or more ago at the very moderate price of $80,000.

Superintendent General des Finances Nicholas Fagnot borrowed the stone from the king for a gorgeous fête, when so crossed his majesty's jealousy that the minister fell into disgrace and lost all his power.

Queen Marie Antoinette, to whom King Louis XIV. gave the gem from among the crown jewels, died on the scaffold.

Princess de Lamballe, Marie Antoinette's friend, who was ceaselessly allowed to wear the diamond, was killed by a Paris mob.

William Fals, an Amsterdam diamond cutter, to whom the gem was sent to be polished, following a forty years' hiatus in its known history, was robbed of the stone by his son, with the result that he was himself ruined, while his son killed himself.

Francis Beaulieu, a Frenchman, who somehow got the diamond from young Fals, hid himself in London and experienced so much difficulty in disposing of his plunder that he finally starved to death, succeeding, however, in disposing of the stone the day before he died to Basil Matson, a dealer from whom the late Henry Thomas Hoop of Teopden, bought it in 1820 for $60,000.
