Those Tigers are looking better all the time.

It's about time that the milk ordinance emerged from committee, isn't it?

As far as that Paris labor conference is concerned, Mr. Gompers is usually a storm center.

However, it does not appear that Mr. Bryan has taken himself out of the presidential race in 1912.

There has been no further criticism of State Game Warden Pierce's administration of his department since the publication of his report for the years 1908-1909.

It may be that no particular business will take Secretary Ballinger to Beverly, but the probabilities are that he and President Taft will find some little time that they can devote to the now famous Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

Whether or not Ormsby McHarg's resignation came as a result of his too free criticism of former President Roosevelt and his conservation plans, it will no doubt have the effect of reminding subordinates in the federal government that discretion in speech is a major virtue.

The Milwaukee Sentinel says that Senator LaFollette is planning a systematic campaign for Democratic votes.

The most convincing statement concerning Mr. Harriman's condition is the one which comes from Mr. Harriman himself. It bears the earmarks of sincerity and truth.

Aviation is, it appears, to become a new form of amateur sport. The companies manufacturing monoplane, biplanes and other forms of aeroplanes took, during the progress of the Rheims tournament, orders for fifty-two machines, costing from $2,000 to $5,000, and most of them were placed by persons who plan to use the machines for their personal entertainment and exhilaration.

An article in today's issue of The Mining Journal outlines the progress that has been made by the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company in developing a mine in the North Lake district, a little over three miles from Ishpeming, and its plans for the future, which are ambitious.

5% DEBENTURES Running one to five years secured by first mortgages on improved real estate worth more than double outstanding debentures.

WHICH HAD SPREAD OVER FACE, BODY AND ARMS—SWELLINGS WERE AS LARGE AS A DOLLAR—WHEN THEY BROKE, SORES WOULD NOT HEAL—SUFFERED 3 YEARS.

The "wets" in Oakland county, which is now "dry," have obtained sufficient signatures to warrant the county board in resubmitting the question, and it will be asked to do so at its October meeting.

It is predicted that the supervisors will order an election, despite the fact that this course will be opposed by the "dry" forces. The latter argue that resubmission is unconstitutional, although it is provided for in the legislation on which their theory that a county which once went "dry" must always remain "dry" is a convenient one, from their point of view, but they would doubtless take emphatic exception to the reverse of this proposition.

The project of establishing a trade school in connection with the Menominee school system is receiving some discussion in that city, and it is predicted it will be carried out in the course of the next year.

MADE SOUND AND WELL BY 3 SETS OF CUTICURA

"My trouble began about three years ago with little black swellings scattered over my face and neck. They would disappear but they would leave little black scars, right would such at times as I couldn't keep from scratching them. Larger swellings would appear in the same place and they were so painful I could hardly bear it and my clothes would stick to the sores. The first doctor I went to said the disease was scrofula, but the trouble only got worse and spread. By this time it was all over my arms and the upper part of my body in big swellings as large as a dollar. It was so painful that I could not bear to lie on my back at night. The second doctor pronounced my disease inflammation of the lymphatic glands. He stopped the swellings, but when they would break the places would not heal. He tried everything that he could but to no effect, and he finally said I had a blood disease and it would take a long time. I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies and used them according to directions and in less than a week some of the places were nearly well. I continued with the Cuticura Remedies until I had used three sets, and now I am sound and well. The disease lasted three years from the time it commenced until I was cured. Before Christmas something broke out on my seven year old brother's hands in the form of large sores. I tried everything I could think of but to no effect until I happened to think of Cuticura and one application cured him. Also, not long ago, my sister got a bad burn on her ankle. I have been using Cuticura on that and it gave her scarcely any trouble. O. L. Wilson, Puryear, Tenn., Feb. 8, 1908."

BOARD HARMONIOUS.

The trustees of the Newberry hospital for the insane, as noted in another column, met in Marquette yesterday and discussed the sensational reports in regard to an incident in which Trustee C. J. Byrns figured at a recent session of the board at the asylum. The result, it will be noted, was a vote of confidence in Mr. Byrns and the Newberry members of the board. The formal statement given out also relates that the members of the board are working in complete harmony, and with single purpose to advance the interests of the institution.

THE HOME RULE LAW.

In the light of the talk heard here of projects for remodeling the local governing machinery the "home rule" law enacted by the last session of the legislature become of interest, for it is under the terms of that law that action would have to be taken. Its important provisions are outlined in another column.

SIGNALS TO MARS.

Professor David Todd of Amherst College intends next autumn to take the most sensitive wireless telegraph receivers he can find up in a balloon, in order to diminish any obstructive influence that the atmosphere may exert, and listen for signals in space. We wonder how Professor Todd can tell whether his signals come from Mars, or whether the receivers have not simply responded to electrical waves sent out from the sun—Scientific American.

"FRAUDS UPON THE PUBLIC"

It is what some physicians have called patent medicines, and it is undeniably true that some are frauds and some are even worse, because they are injurious. On the other hand, there are many patent medicines, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and others, which are of real worth, and are recommended by physicians of recognized ability.

ement. Section 21 of the law permits the proposal of an amendment by two-thirds of the council or by a 20 per cent petition of electors, which amendment may be submitted at the next regular election, or at a special election. It is further provided that when an amendment originates in a legislative body it must be published and laid on the table for thirty days before action is taken, the object being to prevent any "snap" action by the council and to assure the public a chance to be heard in regard to any change that may be proposed.

LET PINCHOT ALONE. The vapors of a fellow like Ormsby McHarg only serve to endear Chief Forester Pinchot to the public. He may have been overzealous. He may have been indiscreet in some of his public utterances. This is not charged up against him by the people, for they realize that the substance of his work is all good. None realize it better than the far western communities, which are familiar with all the details of forest reserve management.

A LAUGH OR TWO. Reminiscent. Mr. Jefferson had not been altogether an exemplary husband and father, but he possessed certain engaging qualities which secured him many friends and made his death the cause of sincere mourning to his widow. Get Big Men Behind You

That was the doctrine of Andrew Carnegie. And that is the secret of every great business success.

Get them in every department. But, above all, get big men in advertising—in selling your goods to the millions.

The big men are the profit makers in all lines of salesmanship.

You know that is true of your road men, who meet but a few of your customers.

Why does one article dominate a field, and an equal one remain unknown?

Why does one advertiser win enormous success, and another in the same line utterly fail?

Nine times in ten the reason lies solely with the salesman-in-print.

One employs capacity, one incapacity. One fights with cannons, the other with arrows.

Successful advertising isn't an easy matter. The man who can do it are exceedingly rare, and they command the rare man's pay.

The only way to get them is to make a business of getting them—to seek and sift and develop. That is our business, and it has been for 36 years.

The only way to get their maximum service is to have them work in corps. That is how our big men work.

A splendid example of what such men can do is this agency itself—the largest of its kind in existence.

These men are at your service, if you have a line which offers them a chance.

They are willing to prove by a test campaign that they can outsell any other men in the field.

They can do it every time, in every salable line. For they combine their abilities. And this is the ablest corps of advertising men in America.

We shall ask no contract, no commitment, no statement of what you will spend. All will depend on results.

We offer you this service—the service of big men—for the usual agent's commission; for the price of the commonplace.

Our plea is this: Whatever is worth doing is worth doing well.

These are days of giants' combats in the advertising field. The man who strikes with a puny stroke does himself an injustice.

If you believe in big men, and want to know how to prove our powers, ask us to state the way.

WHITE BRONZE

Marble is entirely out of date. Granite soon gets moss-grown, discolored, requires constant expense and care, and eventually crumbles back to Mother Earth. Besides, it is very expensive. WHITE BRONZE is strictly everlasting. It cannot crumble with the action of frost. Moss growth is an impossibility. It is more artistic than any stone. That why not investigate it? It has been adopted for over one hundred public monuments, and by thousands of delighted customers in all parts of the country. It has been on the market over 25 years and is an established success. Many granite dealers have bought White Bronze for their own burial plots. I have hundreds of beautiful designs of all grades of work, and want to have you see them. If you are interested in a monument, headstone, marker or grave cover. On receipt of a postal card will be pleased to call with designs and samples of White Bronze.

Upper Peninsula

Ex-Jail Bird in Custody--
William Carroll, arrested at Newberry, charged with an unimpeachable crime, was given a hearing before Justice Taylor and bound over for trial at the fall term of circuit court. Since his arrest the officers have learned that Carroll has a bad record and that he has already served two terms at Jackson. Carroll's real name is said to be Cobalch. Sheriff Turnbull states that he has learned that Cobalch has served a term at Jackson for forgery and that he was sent up from Vanderbilt for an attempt to dynamite the jail and sheriff's residence at that place. If convicted of the present offense with which he is charged, the prisoner will go back to Jackson for another long term of years.

Sees Danger to Ball League--
Our Marquette range baseball friends are just now in the midst of an excitement akin to that which flamed over the Menominee range a few years ago when Iron Mountain and Crystal Falls fought to the death in a contest for supremacy, going beyond the bounds of the financial patronage of the game warranted, says the Crystal Falls Diamond Drill. Rivalry of an intense nature has developed and it is a question of winning, no matter what the cost is. The costs are generally counted later on, to the sorrow of the sport. From all accounts, the Marquette range baseball league had a good thing had the teams been content to play the game on the same basis that they played last year. The hot heads demanded better ball, so outside men are being hired and the end of it all is not hard to see.

Agreement in Bank Litigation--
An agreement has been reached between Riley & Rice and the receiver of the First National bank of Ironwood as to the pending suits by depositors to enforce the liability of the directors and officers of the bank for losses arising from their alleged neglect of duty, where by the suits will be dismissed at the request of the controller of currency, who has, it is stated, authorized the receiver to prosecute the actions on behalf of all creditors of the bank alike and who will act in harmony with Riley & Rice in doing so, reports the Bessemer Herald. This will relieve the individual depositors from personal responsibility of the suits and from any liability for costs. It is understood that it is the intention of the receiver to at once institute actions in the federal courts of this district in season to have the cases disposed of at the September term.

Soo Girl in Luck--
Mrs. David Brown and daughter, Miss Retta Brown, have returned to the Soo from a visit with their son and brother, Attorney Lawrence Brown, at Seattle and Spokane. Miss Brown registered for the drawing of land in the Flathead reservation and has been informed that she is one of the lucky ones, getting a number low enough on the list to ensure her getting a homestead on the reservation. Miss Brown is achieving fame as a land speculator. During her trips to Pasadena and other cities, and has invariably made a good profit on her deals. She has a friend well acquainted with the lands in the Flathead district who has promised his support in helping her to select a good claim. The selections will be made either in March or April, and Miss Brown expects to make her home on her entry for fourteen months and then purchase the land outright from the government.

Court Dates Are Confusing--
The fact that the United States district court convenes at Marquette on the same date as the Chippewa county circuit court meets has caused some confusion at the Soo, inasmuch as witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear at both places on the same date. S. C. Taylor has been cited to appear and act as a circuit court juror, and also to be at Marquette as a witness on a Sault Ste. Marie case. H. L. Parsille, clerk of circuit court, is wanted as a witness and the government has informed him to be present at Marquette on the 7th of September, when his official duties require him to be in the Soo. To students who do not wish to leave town, we make this offer: We will not charge for tuition from the day you complete our course until we find you a position in this city. We will allow any student to take a test similar to that given at the Ferris Institute or any other first-class business school. Our requirements are the same as those of any other business college.

We will give a written agreement embodying any of the above offered. You take no chance provided you are willing to work hard and stick to it until you are competent. 6-19-1f

For Folks Who Save

There will be a pleasing distribution of dividends on September 1st. These dividends take the form of accrued interest on savings deposits and are paid by all savings banks—on the basis of three per cent per annum. This bank will itself pay out to its savings depositors a number of thousand dollars in interest and we hope that you, reader, will enjoy your share in the distribution. If you don't, will the fault be yours or ours? On every dollar which you deposit in our Savings Department we will allow you compound interest at 3 per cent—payable September and March 1st. You ought to save at least 10 per cent of your earnings.

If you make a deposit now, or before September 5th, and leave it in the bank until March 1st, it will be entitled to six months' interest at that time. Deposit by mail, if more convenient.

MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co's correspondent at New York yesterday telegraphed as follows:

"The list suffered a slight setback after early advances but became comparatively dull on the decline. It is felt that the recent decline have discouraged adverse factors to a great extent, but there does not seem to be a disposition on the part of investors formerly anxious on the bull side of the market to resume active operations for the present. A good sized short interest is said to be outstanding and trade conditions continue to indicate further improvement, which tends to place the list in a stronger position."

TAFT SEES AN OLD-TIMER.
Augustus Galloupe Voted for the First Republican—Never Since Has He Scratched the Party's Candidates.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 31.—Augustus Galloupe of Beverly saw his third presidential ticket. The first was John Tyler, the second Andrew Johnson and the third William H. Taft. President Taft also saw Mr. Galloupe, but not quite in the intimate way the old gentleman hoped when, at eighty-one years of age, he hopped lightly as a boy into an automobile and set out for Taft's cottage at Woodbury. Mr. Galloupe is the father of George A. Galloupe, former representative and senator from this district and now the only living one of three sons who, like their father, avowed the Republican ticket.

After the meeting on the bridge President Diaz will call on President Taft in the second and third district and will return the courtesy by crossing the bridge and calling upon President Diaz in Ciudad Juarez. It is against the law for the president of Mexico to go outside his country, but a special law has been passed permitting a visit to the United States. There is no such law in this country, but the rule has been established by custom and precedent.

An Interesting City.
There is no more interesting city in the United States than El Paso. Like Santa Fe, it holds a strange mingling of the old and the new. One finds every evidence of American rush and enterprise in the heart of the city, but in the outskirts—unless one accepts the fashionable residence section of Sunny Top—there is a pronounced Mexican air to everything. Along the high roads that lead one through the high, bare mountains to the parched desert, one finds the square, one-story houses of adobe brick and the white walls in the spring and fall, and the garret in the cool and shady court yards in summer—nearly every house in El Paso has its court. Here one hears Spanish and Spanish only. All the white men in this part of the country can "patter" the lingo—some of them like natives, but a majority just well enough to get along.

GOLD LACE TO SHINE AT MEETING OF PRESIDENTS
Elaborate Ceremonies Planned for Event When Taft and Diaz Clasp Hands Across Boundary—Rulers Will Dine Above Midstream—Executives of Mexico and the United States Have Not Greeted Each Other Officially Before.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 31.—When President Taft and President Porfirio Diaz meet on the international bridge that connects this city with Ciudad Juarez, it is possible that the ceremonies will eclipse any thing ever seen along the historic Rio Grande.

All Texas is taking a deep interest in the meeting of the presidents, and not less interest is manifested by the better classes of Mexicans on the other side of the border. It is planned to have the presidents meet on the international bridge, across the Rio Grande river, connecting the American city of El Paso with the Mexican city of Juarez.

The Ruales.
Ciudad Juarez, at the other end of the international bridge, is a typical Mexican village. There is nothing American about Juarez, save on holidays, when the Yankees flock across to take in the bull fights. Then the plaza is alive with all kinds and conditions of men. Indeed Mexicans make up the majority of the bull ring spectators, and it is not unusual to see one of them, deathly pale, and cowered for all time of his curiosity concerning bull fights.

TIME OF THE NATION.
How It Is Kept at the Naval Observatory in Washington.
THE SIGNAL FOR HIGH NOON
It Is Flashed Out Over Nearly a Million Miles of Telegraph Wires Every Day in the Year—The Finely Adjusted Instruments That Are Used.

Washington, Aug. 31.—A few minutes before 12 o'clock noon every day in the year a young man walks into a certain room of the main building at the naval observatory, which is set up on a hill in northwest Washington. He glances at the various clocks in the room and then goes over to a table which is covered with electric apparatus. He watches the clocks to see that they are running correctly and then shifts a switch. The clock is so finely adjusted that when the second hand points to 60 it exactly marks the beginning of a new minute. As it touches the 60 the switches are thrown on. That starts a signal that goes out instantaneously to one million miles of telegraph wires. In Washington, New York, Buffalo, Cleveland, Newport, Baltimore, New Orleans, Key West, Galveston, Chicago and elsewhere the time balls go up on their poles. People know that it is five minutes past noon.

NEW COUNTRY SCHOOL.
Great Progress Made in Rural Education in America.
Little Red Schoolhouse Gives Way to the Consolidated Agricultural School and to Training in Mechanic Arts and Home Economics, a System Very Successful in Several Western States—Helps to Keep the Boy and Girl on the Farm.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The day of the old-fashioned district school is passing. It is being replaced by the consolidated rural school, according to Assistant Secretary Willet M. Hays of the department of agriculture. Not only is the little old red schoolhouse beginning to fade away into the realm of history, romance and tradition as Professor Hays sees it, but the day of the agricultural high school is at hand and the high school that trains the boy in the mechanic arts or the girl in the economics of the home. It is a day when the need is growing for the training of the youth of both sexes in these things that will help them in later years to make a living in other vocations of life than in the professions.

CONFIRMED PROOF.
Residents of Marquette Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ailments—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Marquette, who so testified years ago, now say their cures were permanent. This testimony doubly confirms the claims of Doan's Kidney Pills to Marquette kidney sufferers.

recognize the fact that this is an age demanding more technical knowledge and should train the boys and young men in fields in which they will have to earn a livelihood and should train the girls and young women in the arts appertaining to the management of the home.

The appearance of the document by Professor Hays at this time, put out by the department of agriculture, suggests that the agricultural high school bill which has been before congress for several sessions, is not going to be allowed to drop. The department of agriculture is pushing it and Professor Hays has been devoting a great deal of attention to furthering this measure and trying to make converts to the idea. Efforts will be made at the next session to get favorable consideration of this measure in congress. It is not a visionary scheme for the reason that many agricultural high schools are already in operation, successful operation it is said, and many rural schools have been consolidated.

Professor Hays thinks that part of the American educational system which is of collegiate grade is sufficiently well organized to warrant the belief that its development by easy evolutionary steps is assured. What he is giving attention to is secondary education, in the grades below the college and education in the rural schools. He says: "The plan of establishing a system of large agricultural high schools is gaining popular favor. There is good reason to expect that we shall have a class of high-grade secondary schools providing vocational finishing courses for those who, expecting to live on farms, will close their school life with from two to four years vocational high school work. The wonderful success of the Minnesota, Nebraska, Wisconsin and other agricultural high schools, in preparing for country life and in returning to the farms rural youth of both sexes, and the success of their graduates in becoming better farmers, home makers and citizens, gives assurance that such schools will receive extensive practical trial and use. That these schools are adapted to fit into our system between the rural school and the agricultural college is an established achievement in states where the effort has been made.

"In short, a movement is well begun to organize better, as a part of our great American school system, the secondary schools so as to meet especially the needs of country life. This movement contemplates that, below and leading to our more than sixty state colleges of agriculture already established, we shall have 300 to 400 agricultural finishing schools—practically one in each congressional district of ten or more counties, either separate or as a strong department of an existing institution."

Still more important, as Mr. Hays sees it, "is the larger movement to establish a system of consolidated rural and village schools, and of courses in agriculture in town and city schools so near the homes of the farm youth that some thing of instruction in agriculture, in home economics, and in social and civilt affairs, as well as in the accepted rural subjects of a so-called general education, shall be taught to all the boys and girls of the farm. To meet this first need the consolidated rural school in the open country and the consolidation of rural schools about the villages and cities is rising rapidly into prominence along with the vocational high school; and many city and non-public schools of secondary and higher grade are seeking to add agricultural instruction to their courses of study."

CLEVELAND-CLIFFS' NORTH LAKE PROPERTY

COMPANY WILL, WITHIN A FEW YEARS, HAVE EXTENSIVE MINING INTERESTS ON THE NEW NORTH RANGE, WHERE A SECOND SHAFT HAS BEEN STARTED

The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company is preparing on an extensive scale for the development of its iron properties on the North Lake range, where about a year ago ground was broken for the first shaft. A concrete shaft has been completed by the Foundation company of New York, extending a depth of seventy-eight feet, to the ledge, and six feet into the rock.

The location is an ideal one for a mine, as there is a large area of territory for stock piles, buildings and railway tracks. The first shaft is being sunk in the swamp immediately west of an embankment about thirty feet in height, and a short distance southwest of North Lake. The pit from which the city of Ishpeming procures gravel for its streets and roads is less than a half mile due north from the shaft.

Ground was last week broken for a second shaft to be located less than a quarter of a mile east of the concrete shaft. In this shaft the ledge will be encountered at a depth of twenty-one feet from surface. The first few feet of the shaft was put down without the aid of timber, but as soon as the hard pan was encountered it was decided to timber from surface to prevent caving. It is expected that the ledge will be reached in a week or so, when sinking through the rock will be started.

In time shafts Nos. 1 and 2 will be connected by drifts, as the ore body extends through the territory between them. The boarding house erected last fall by J. Wahlman & Son was last week moved from a point about midway between the two shafts to some 200 feet farther north, where it will be out of the way of the stockpiles, trestles and railways. The ground selected for the stockpiles is ideal for the purpose, and will require but little grading, with the exception of a ravine, a short distance east of the concrete shaft, some 200 feet in length.

A steam shovel and switching crew are now employed cutting an embankment, through which the tracks will extend to No. 1 shaft. The dirt being removed is used for filling around the concrete. It will take the present force several months to complete the grading. The fill leading towards the shaft is about thirty feet in height; the surface will about reach the top of the concrete in the shaft and the tunnels extending north and south from it. Directly opposite the mouth of the shaft, a timber yard will be laid out, and all of the timber used underground will pass through the tunnel. The tunnel extending to the south will be used principally to take cars and other underground equipment to the shops, which are to be located immediately south of the tunnel's entrance.

Railway Route Surveyed.

The Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway company has surveyed a route for a line extending to the properties. It will follow the Chicago & Northwestern tracks leading to the old gravel pit, quite closely and will go almost to the pit before it turns into the mine. Very little grading will be required for the spurs extending from a point near the gravel pit, as the surface is nearly level. The workmen had no difficulty bringing the steam shovel, locomotive and cars over the main track. A new section of track were used and put down temporarily, being removed in place as the equipment was advanced toward the property. It is expected that the permanent tracks will be put in before the stripping will be finished.

Ground has been broken for a power house, also a combination shop building, which are to be erected about 150 feet south of the concrete shaft. Both shafts are to be operated by electric power furnished from the plant to be installed at the Maas mine in Negaunee. All of the buildings will be solid brick. Each power house will be fifty by fifty feet in size. The location of the power house on No. 2 shaft has not yet been selected. The main portion of the shops building will be 110 feet in length by thirty-two in width. There will be a wing for one of the shops, thirty-two by forty feet in size, and the main building will be connected with the No. 1 power house by a vestibule. The construction company of Milwaukee, which has done considerable work for the company on the Swanzey range, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the three buildings, and the work is to be started as soon as the material can be assembled.

Sinking operations at both shafts will be conducted by temporary hoisting plants. It is not anticipated that the sinking of the concrete shaft from the ledge to the ore body can be started within a month and it will probably be a year or more before the ore will be reached, as it is some 600 feet from surface.

Office and Warehouse.

The new combination office and warehouse building, which is being constructed by J. Wahlman & Son, will be ready for occupancy within a month. The plastering has been completed and the interior finishing work will be started as soon as the material, which has been delayed, arrives. The building is located about 400 feet southwest of the concrete shaft, and will face south. A spacious veranda extends along the entire south side, and the building is well lighted. It has nine office rooms and one very large room on the north side for the storage department. There are two entrances to the clerical department, one from the north and the other from the south, both with large vestibules. The superintendent and captain will each have private offices, as will the stenographer and chief clerk. At present Superintendent Graff and Captain Stephens have temporary office quarters in a small building near the temporary warehouse and blacksmith shop, immediately east of the site on which the No. 1 power house and shops are to be erected.

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS.

Ishpeming Theater Will Be Occupied for Several Nights, Beginning Friday.

Several attractions have been looked for the Ishpeming theater for the next ten days. The offerings for September will be the most numerous of any single month since the house was opened. Most of them will be popular-priced attractions, and some of them have been seen here before. During the latter part of the month "The Parisian Model" and "The Royal Chef," both musical comedies, will be played.

"Ole Olson," with Ben Hendricks, the Northland singer, in the title role, will be presented Friday night. The story of this play is a combination of wholesome comedy and heart interest. In its wholesome comedy, its touches of pathos, the play offers a good example of wholesome entertainment. It will be presented with the same scenic environment and competent company that has done so much to do with its success in the past.

William Owen, To the theater-going public of this region William Owen needs no introduction. He has appeared here several times in the past fifteen years, in many plays and many roles. In the part of Orlando in Shakespeare's "As You Like It," which Mr. Owen and his company will present here next Saturday evening, he will have ample opportunity to display his natural gift of comedy portrayal.

Labor Day Attraction. "Lena Rivers," written by Mary J. Holmes, and dramatized by Miss Balah Poynter, will be the theater's offering on Labor Day, afternoon and evening. Popular prices will prevail at both performances. For the matinee they will be twenty-five and ten cents.

"Lena Rivers" is a wholesome comedy and the attraction comes well recommended. Those who witness the play will find in it scenes that are likely to be remembered. One of these is the little barefooted Lena and the faithful old granny bidding farewell to the old home in Slocumville, Mass., as they start on their journey to their new home in the South. Another is that of the party which brings together the heroine and her handsome Southern lover.

"In Wyoming," Tuesday. "In Wyoming," Willard Mack's stirring play of Western life, which was favorably received at the Ishpeming theater last season, will be the attraction Tuesday evening. The company carries considered one of the best of those dealing with Western life. It has been said that the day of the Western play was numbered, but "In Wyoming" is a play destined to live for a long time.

Thirty-two men are now employed, and the mine is being operated on two shifts, with the concentrator and roaster working almost full time. Last month 1,500 tons of fine dirt were treated. This was the biggest work performed since the mine opened. Mr. Fox expressed himself as well pleased with the men who were sent down from Ishpeming a few weeks ago. He said that he has

LIQUOR DEALERS REMOVE SIGNS

NEGAUNEE SALOON KEEPERS TAKE NO CHANCES ON BEING ARRESTED FOR ALLOWING THEIR ADVERTISEMENTS TO APPEAR ON FRONT OF THEIR PLACES OF BUSINESS.

The Negaunee liquor dealers who have had signs on the front of their business places, or on the outside of their windows, were busy removing them yesterday, in order to comply with the provisions of the Warner-Cantton law, which becomes effective today. Some of the dealers had neatly painted signs on their windows, and a few had attractive electric signs, furnished by liquor concerns. There seems to be some doubt as to whether painted signs on the inside of window glass, or displays of signs of liquors in the windows are legal. Some of the saloon men have consulted attorneys on these points. The brewing companies have removed the painted signs from the sides of the buildings.

The section of the law referring to saloon signs reads as follows: "No sign of any kind or description, mentioning, referring to or advertising any of the liquors named or mentioned in this act, shall appear upon or be attached to the outside of the part of any building used or occupied for the retail sale of any liquors named or mentioned in this act, and any person who shall offend against the provisions of this section shall be deemed to have been guilty of a violation of this act and on conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in section seven of this act."

The State Brewers' association, with headquarters in Detroit, has been asked whose duty it is to remove the signs, and its attorney makes this reply: "I should say that a safe course to adopt would be to assume that that duty rests upon every person who has the authority to remove them. I am informed that many of such signs belong to brewers who have unquestioned authority to remove the same. The proprietor of the saloon has also authority to remove such signs. It would not be safe to assume that the sign on the front of the saloonkeeper could escape liability because the other did not perform his duty."

A liquor dealer yesterday said that he had been advised that the retail dealers in Detroit, also in other cities of the state, were removing the signs on the inside of their windows, and were removing liquor displays from the windows.

The removal of the signs in Negaunee yesterday created general comment. Many of the liquor dealers were busy early in the morning erasing the painted letters from the glass, also taking down the signs ornamenting the entrance and hanging over the front.

The law relative to the serving of free lunches in the saloons has also been enforced before the removal of the signs, contending by many that a dealer can sell the lunches, deducting the cost from the price of the liquor, if he chooses. The provision reads as follows:

"It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person engaged in the business of selling, furnishing or giving away, making, brewed, fermented, vinous or intoxicating liquors at retail, or at wholesale and retail, by himself, his clerk, servant, agent or representative, directly or indirectly, to give away or furnish to any person during the early part of 1910, and one contract for 24,000 tons has been placed at $18 delivered for shipment over the first half of next year. The contracts for foundry iron have aggregated about 3,000,000 tons. Seventeen dollars eastern Pennsylvania furnaces for No. 2 X is now the minimum. Forge iron has been relatively stronger than foundry grades with sales at $17.35 delivered. Additional sales of malleable have been made on the basis of $16 at Buffalo furnaces.

The Pitsburg district Bessemer iron has advanced fifty cents a ton with sales of about 20,000 tons at $16.50 and 5,000 tons at $16.57 at furnaces while 11,000 tons of basic has been sold at $15.25 Valley furnaces.

Stove manufacturers have been liberally purchasing in the North, while Western pipe works have bought about 10,000 tons No. 2 Southern at $13.50 Birmingham for this year's shipment. Most of the Alabama furnaces are now asking $14 for next year's delivery. There has been great increase in the output of cast iron and steel, making iron and it will not be surprising if the August product exceeds that of Oct. 1, 1907, which was at the rate of 28,000,000 tons annually.

Additional car orders have been placed by railroads calling for about 10,000 tons of plates and shapes and marine work is pending for about 30,000 tons of steel plates. Fabricated structural steel contracts have aggregated 30,000 tons, the most important order being 22,000 tons for the New York, West Chester & Boston railroad.

HOW CITY CHARTERS MAY BE AMENDED

METHOD OF PROCEDURE UNDER HOME RULE BILL PASSED BY LAST LEGISLATURE.

BY VOTE OF THE PEOPLE

In No Other Way Can Existing Systems of Municipal Government Be Changed—How to Do It.

A copy of the home rule bill for cities passed at the last session of the legislature was received by the city recorder yesterday, and as some of its provisions are of special interest locally in view of talk of a possible revision or amendment of the charter of the city of Marquette, we herewith publish a summary of the bill, in so far as it relates to revision and adoption of city charters, and to general powers given cities.

The initiative for a revision of a city charter may come in either of two ways: (1) From the legislative body (in Marquette the common council) when it shall declare for charter revision by a two-thirds vote of the members elect; (2) From the people, when 20 per cent of the qualified electors of the city shall have signed a petition asking for such revision.

When a revision of the city charter has been asked for in either of these two ways, the question of having a general election shall be submitted to the electors for their adoption or rejection at the next municipal election. In case the electors, by majority vote, declare in favor of such revision a charter commission shall be selected, consisting of one elector from each ward and three electors at large, having a residence in the city and ward officers are nominated. The names of all candidates properly nominated shall be placed on a separate ballot without their party affiliations designated. The electors receiving the largest number of votes in each ward shall be declared members of the commission, and also the three electors at large receiving the largest number of votes in the city.

Amending the Charter.

In case it is simply desired to amend the charter, such amendment may be proposed by the legislative body by a two-thirds vote of the members elect or by a petition signed by 20 per cent of the qualified electors of the city. The proposed amendment shall then be submitted to the people at the next general or special election. When it originates in the legislative body, it shall be published and remain on the table for thirty days before action is taken thereon. Every amendment to a charter before its submission to the electors, shall be transmitted to the governor of the state. If he shall approve it, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return the amendment to the legislative body with his objections thereon, and it must be reconsidered. On such reconsideration, if two-thirds of the members elect agree to pass it, it shall be submitted to the electors. Every charter and amendment, before submission to the electors, shall be published as the charter commission or legislative body may prescribe.

In case a charter commission is elected, such commission shall meet on the second Tuesday following the election and frame a charter. When one satisfactory to the commission has been prepared, it must be published and voted upon by the people. If a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the charter, it becomes the law of the city, otherwise the commission may prepare another charter or, upon request of 300 voters, a new charter commission must be elected.

Powers Denied Cities.

The home rule bill gives cities very broad powers and prescribes that existing charters shall stand until revised by a referendum vote. Some of the restrictions placed upon cities are the following:

1. The rate of taxation now fixed by law may not be raised except by majority vote of those voting at the election at which such a proposition is submitted, and in no case shall such rate exceed 2 per cent of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property in the city.
2. Charters or amendments thereto shall not be submitted to the electors oftener than once in two years, except in cities where no charter has yet been adopted.
3. Not more than two special elections may be held in any one year.
4. The salary of no public officer may be changed during his term of office, nor shall his term of office be shortened or extended, unless he resign or be removed for cause.
5. No charter or amendment thereto may be adopted, unless approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, and no public property of a value in excess of ten cents per capita, according to the last preceding census, or any park, cemetery or property bordering on a water front, may be sold unless approved by three-fifths of the electors voting thereon at any special or general election.
6. Bonds may not be issued without providing a sinking fund to pay them at maturity, but no sinking fund shall be required in the case of serial bonds which fall due annually.
7. No debt may be repudiated by any change in the charter or by consolidation with any other municipality.
8. No franchise shall be submitted to the electors at any special election, unless the expense of holding the election, as determined by the legislative body, shall be paid in advance by the grantee of said franchise to the city treasurer.

ASYLUM TRUSTEES MEET.

Pass Vote of Confidence in Mr. Byrns and Newberry Members.

At a special meeting of the board of trustees of the Upper Peninsula Hospital for the Insane at Newberry, held in Marquette yesterday afternoon, the board discussed the articles recently appearing in various papers, and gave out the following statement:

"At a regular meeting of the board on Tuesday, Aug. 24th, Trustee Byrns was viciously attacked by one of the patients. Mr. Byrns defended himself and the patient was at once restrained by the attendants without being injured or hurt in any way. Gossip and newspaper articles have exaggerated the matter but the board most emphatically states that there is unanimous sentiment among them that every member has the best interests of the institution at heart and that they are working in perfect harmony. There is no friction in the board, and they deeply regret the extended publication of articles which in any way discredit the actions or sentiment of any member."

They also passed a vote of confidence in Trustee Byrns and the Newberry members of the board.

FAIR BALL GAMES.

Three Contests Between Ishpeming, Negaunee and Marquette.

Final arrangements were made yesterday between the fair directors and the managers of the Marquette, Negaunee and Ishpeming baseball teams, whereby the three teams will play three games during the fair for a purse of $400. How the purse will be divided and the schedule will be arranged at a meeting of the ball-ball managers to be held today. The games will be played on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, and which teams will be pitted against each other on Tuesday will be decided today.

This news will be hailed with joy by fans of the three towns, and there will undoubtedly be a goodly number who will take in the fair solely to witness the contests on the diamond. The three towns are more nearly in the same class at any time this season and so far as the fair management is anxious to have a game Monday afternoon and it is possible that Marquette and some outside team may cross bats that day. Negotiations are now in progress with the Lake Labeer team of the copper country, which may result in that team coming here to play Marquette the first day of the fair.

SIGNS TAKEN DOWN.

Memory Only Will Now Tell Location of Saloons in Michigan.

Marquette saloon keepers in common with those of all other parts of the state were busy yesterday removing all signs from in front of their places of business. The removal of the liquor signs makes quite a difference in the appearance of some of the down town streets, and it is now hard to distinguish, except from memory, a saloon from any other business place.

The law forbids only such signs as advertise liquors in any way, and most of the local saloon keepers have retained in their own names in front of their places of business. Others have gotten around the law by placing liquor advertisements inside the windows, which are plainly visible from the streets. This is not a violation of the law.

Some question has come up as to what constitutes a liquor advertisement. For instance, one local dealer has asked if the word "Buffet" can remain on his windows. Some attorneys are of the opinion that a buffet is not necessarily a place where liquor is sold, and hence does not come within the scope of the law. This question will be put up to the prosecuting attorney.

All the free lunch counters were yesterday removed from the saloons, and from now on, everybody will have to pay for his meals or go without. This change will be apt to result in many a midnight raid on the good wife's pantry as the husband will no longer be able to obtain his customary evening lunch at the usual hang-out. However, the anti-free lunch law is generally acceptable to local saloon men, as they were a source of no little expense, from which no revenue was obtained.

UNION MEN EXPECT TO HAVE BIG TIME

INTERESTING PROGRAM HAS BEEN ARRANGED FOR CELEBRATION OF LABOR DAY MONDAY.

Gustave Larson William Clendinning and J. Miller, the committee on arrangements for the Labor Day celebration to be given under the auspices of the Central Labor union, report that more than usual interest in the coming event seems to have been aroused and that the most successful celebration in the history of the organization is in prospect. As there are no celebrations at Ishpeming or Negaunee, a large delegation of union men from those cities is expected to come to Marquette.

The day will begin with a grand street parade at 9:30 a. m., in which all the unions of the city are expected to participate. Some exceptionally fine floats have been promised for the parade. The parade will form on Baraga avenue and terminate at the city hall, where the unions will be addressed by Mayor Daniel Vaughan, Rev. J. M. Rogers and George Tucker.

In the afternoon a picnic will be held at Pressee 1st where the following program will be carried out: Tug-of-war, carpenters vs. masons; flag race, clerks vs. painters; tug-of-war, molders vs. coal haulers; shot put; 100 yard dash; bicycle race around the island; football race, team men's race, and children's sports. There will be dancing at a five-piece orchestra. Our Boys' band will also have a prominent part in the day's events.

In the evening a ball will be held at Fraternity Hall, tickets for which will be $1, and supper will be served at the old hall at thirty-five cents per glass.

Two special trains will be run to the island, the first of which will leave the L. S. & I. depot at 1:45 p. m. The celebration is being extensively advertised, and in Marquette and in nearby towns and cities, and the union men anticipate a large crowd will be in attendance.

THEATRICAL.

"In Wyoming."

"In Wyoming," which comes to the grand house Friday night is not a melodrama, as one might be led to suppose, but a striking story of Wyoming ranch life by Willard Mack, with some tremendously strong situations and a splendid western atmosphere. The hero is a veritable young Lincoln, and his success in both life and love makes a stirring and vital play. Leon Eckhardt, who is presenting the piece, has spared no expense in assembling a cast of considerable strength, and the scenic equipment is said to be entirely adequate.
