

DAILY MINING JOURNAL A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED).

Who would have ever thought that Commander Peary had such a keen eye for the main chance?

The secrecy in regard to Mr. Harriman's condition was observed, it appears, in order to give time to get the financial house in order, and the result has shown that it was put in the best of order.

The Lansing Republican is concerned lest Governor Warner's appointment of Judge Collingwood will have a damaging effect on Lieutenant-Governor Kelley's chances next year. Well, Kelley is abundantly able to take care of himself.

The Millman case is the third one of the kind that Dr. Fritch of Detroit has been under suspicion for. When so many trails lead to Dr. Fritch's office the burden of suspicion against him is heavy, even if so far he has avoided an acquaintance with the inside of prison walls.

Brescia, Italy, is not having the same good fortune with its aeroplane flights as did Rheims, France. Accidents have been numerous at Brescia, and there have been no notable performances. The aeroplanes have not yet been developed to a stage where they can be counted on to perform well on every occasion.

What with the Higgins case, the cases growing out of the Ironwood bank failure and other important matters, the present session of the United States congress in Marquette bids fair to be one of the longest ever held here. And interest has a session possessed more of interest for the upper peninsula public.

The Godspeer given Dr. Cook on his departure from Copenhagen shows that the confidence of his Danish admirers has not been in the least shaken by Peary's charges. Captain Amundsen and Capt.
Sverdrup, two of the greatest of Danish explorers, express unreserved confidence in him, and assert their belief that he will be able to make every claim good.

"The Democratic League" is the result of the Saratoga conference. A press dispatch says: "The league promises to play a most important part in the New York campaign in 1910, and it is not unlikely to have weighty influence in national politics." Time will tell the tale of the new league's influence, and we won't have to wait very long to have it told.

Football prospects at Ann Arbor are reported to be none too bright. Is this a feeling to get the public prepared to see the once famed Michigan football team pounded around again? Michigan is scheduled to meet Minnesota this fall, and by many this is regarded as a first step to its return to athletic relations with all the other leading universities of the middle west.

The frequent blow-ups in the teams in the Marquette-Alger county league persuades that they are not on a proper basis. There have been complaints from the players from time to time, and the managements in some cases have had faults to answer for. Much of the trouble is doubtless due to the looseness of the general organization. Another year it may very well be tightened up.

The beginning of this week will see the entire 6,000 hands of the Pressed Steel Car company back at their employment at the McKees Rocks mills. They were taken on last week as rapidly as places could be made for them, and the imported men have all been sent away.
The outcome of the trouble has been much more fortunate than there was any reason, but a few weeks ago, for expecting.

The postoffice department has made a ruling that mail carriers who have been compelled to take their chances with ugly tempered dogs will appreciate it. It excuses carriers from delivering mail on any premises where such dogs run at large, and requires that in such a case the owner of the dog must call at the postoffice for his mail. Many cases have been reported where carriers were bitten while discharging their duties, and the new rule is a proper one. The Wayne county appears to have obtained an efficient servant in Sheriff Gaston. He has shown up particularly well in the Millman case, in which he has been successful in getting results with little delay. Sheriff Gaston is a man of initiative and ability. In demeanor he is quiet and gentlemanly, and thus furnishes a marked contrast to his predecessor.

Hager Bros. Co. Ltd. are now formally opening their new stores. It is an event of more than ordinary interest, for they have erected the finest building devoted entirely to a single business in the city, if not in the upper peninsula, and now have one of the best appointed exclusive furniture establishments in the northwest. In every detail the structure is modernly equipped and it reflects the greatest credit on the enterprise of the firm. It is a business house of which the town will be proud.

The Ishpeming Record intimates that Angus Kerr's candidacy for congress has a stout spring attached to it, and that the thing he has in mind is not so much running for congress as paving the way for his appointment as postmaster at Calumet. It will be recalled that the Escanaba Journal suggested that Chas.
S. Osborn was playing the same sort of a game with reference to the office of governor—allowing his friends to discuss him as a possible candidate, whereas, in fact, the thing he had in mind was to representative Young's seat. But Mr.
Osborn entered an emphatic denial. Perchance Mr. Kerr will follow his example.

Plans for fusion in New York are taking definite form, and it is assured that the Republicans and other anti-Tammany forces will unite in naming a ticket.
Several candidates are under consideration. It is desirable that there be a clean-cut issue between the Tammany organization and the forces that oppose it. Thus it will be fortunate if there are but two candidates. Justice Gaynor has announced that he may make an independent campaign. His presence in the field would confuse the issue, and might be the determining factor.
But, as a matter of fact, at this time the New York political situation is decidedly mixed, and no one can predict with any degree of confidence what will come out of it.

Here is a nutshell presentation of the sort of argument Governor Hughes is giving the voters of New York on the direct nominations question: The people do not intend to let any outside or clique take away the rights which belong to the many. A great movement is here. It cannot be stopped, because it is in accord with the spirit of a free country. The greatest security we can have is the intelligent play of public opinion. A few who make a business of political activity run things.
That is not American. We should let the enrolled voters control the primary.
The convention as a rule is not representative. Sometimes it may be, but generally it is not. The way to get a representative legislature is to make the nominations come directly from the party voters. Political leaders should stand before the people, resting upon the suffrages of the people.

The management of the Ishpeming baseball team is to be commended for its action in releasing the four players who had been disturbing factors, and whose refusal to conduct themselves properly when off the ball field was impairing their team's chances of victory.
The Ishpeming ball players have been well rewarded for their work. They owe it to the management, and the people who support the team, not only to play the best game they are capable of on the diamond, but to keep in such condition that it will be possible for them to give a good account of themselves.
All players who will not respect what is so plainly their obligation should be summarily dismissed. The Ishpeming team will doubtless gain in strength as a result of the shakeup, for rostering ball players are of little use to any team. But whether it gains or loses, the management has taken the proper course, and one that should be copied by others under similar circumstances.

The indictment against E. T. Larson and George H. Beddow, cashier and assistant cashier, respectively, of the defunct Ironwood bank, returned by the grand jury in United States court Friday, set forth a formidable array of counts. It is said that Larson will probably plead guilty and that Beddow will stand trial. The most sensational count of the entire number is made against Larson, and it alleges that on or about June 1, 1909, the defendant appropriated to his own use and that of H. F. Jahn, George H. Beddow and Eugene G. Brady, the sum of $150,000 belonging to the bank, and that this sum was invested in margins, options, etc. What is read into the count in the indictment is that the defendant and the men involved with him in the irregularities in the management of the bank made one final desperate plunge with the bank's money in an effort to recoup previous losses and make possible putting the bank's affairs in good order. The bank was closed shortly after this $150,000 is alleged to have been improperly appropriated. The investment of $150,000 in options and margins would cover a large debt and a favorable swing of the market might have meant tremendous profits.

in years have aroused interest equal to that shown in these Ironwood cases, and their progress will be watched with close attention.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.
The Virginia election the coming fall will be marked by a determined effort by the Republican organization to break into the "solid south." Virginia is to choose a governor and other state officials and there are some Republicans who confidently predict that their party will carry the state. It is the general opinion, however, that this is an oversanguine view, and the more conservative observers are content to foretell considerable inroads on the usual Democratic strength.

The Republicans are favored by the fact that whereas they are united, the Democrats were left with a legacy of discord on their hands by the primaries, in which the "machine" candidate for governor was nominated over his opponent, after a bitter contest. Republican hopes are largely based on a belief that the defeated faction will not recover from their dissatisfaction by election day, and that some will remain away from the polls and others will vote for the Republican candidates. President Taft is doing all that he can to strengthen the hands of the Republican, and the state is to be invaded by a galaxy of brilliant Republican orators.

Whatever the result in Virginia, and it will probably be a sizable gain in the Republican vote, but short of enough to give a Republican victory, the signs of the times indicate that if the Republicans hammer away stubbornly on the "solid south" it will not be long before they are keeping the Democrats busy in their own territory. The Democratic party of the south is already pretty well Republicanized on some issues. The tariff furnishes the most conspicuous example. Many Democratic representatives were tariff men, and high tariff men, too. At least the high tariff faction was in part indebted to Democratic votes for success when the result promised to be close.

The more the industrialism of the new south becomes accentuated the more important will be this drift away from the old dominant party. The Republican organizations in the south are gradually coming into better hands. The time has passed when it subjected a man to reproach to be identified with them, and the time is coming when they will include many of the leading and influential citizens of all the southern states.

MR. VREELAND.
As currency legislation is expected to be the principal work of the next session of congress, there will be interest to know something of the new chairman of the house committee on banking and currency who succeeds Mr. Fowler.
Mr. Vreeland was a member and vice-chairman of the national monetary commission, appointed under the terms of the Aldrich-Vreeland act. He went into a narrow and feeble jaw, especially the lower jaw.
It is claimed that baby foods are being fed to children until they are over two years of age. Scientists claim that children over a year old should be given tough food of some sort, which will cause them to chew food and so bring about a better development of the lower jaw. The present-day baby is said to show a narrow jaw that will not permit of his cutting all the teeth he is entitled to.

Science nowadays is trying more and more earnestly to reach the individual mother and instruct her personally and directly along lines that even so short a time ago were reserved for discussion in the clinic and the lecture room. For instance, the best authorities on anatomy are now delving for publication that modern methods of feeding babies are bringing about the formation of a narrow and feeble jaw, especially
the lower jaw.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.
A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Marquette women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Marquette woman's words:
"Mrs. Hattie Parker, 175 W. Crescent St., Marquette, Mich., says:
'For several years I was a sufferer from kidney trouble. I had a severe pain in the small of my back and was subject to headaches. I had but little strength or energy and could hardly attend to my work. I tried a number of remedies but did not succeed in finding relief until I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Stafford Drug Co.
They helped me from the first and I continued until I felt better in every way.
I do not hesitate to recommend this valuable remedy to anyone suffering from kidney trouble.'

A RIVAL OF GLOUCESTER.

Luenburg, Nova Scotia, Is Some Punkins in the Hunt for Cod.
The fishermen of Gloucester have long monopolized fiction and poetry as being the real catchers of cod and the most picturesque of those who make their living on the Grand Banks. Rudyard Kipling let his character in "Captain Corcoran" speak disrespectfully of the Frenchmen and Bluesneers who competed in the race for fish, and other so-called sea writers have done the same.

If you ask a Bluesneer, that is, a resident of Nova Scotia, who are the real bankers, he will tell you "the men of Luenburg." Luenburg is the rival of Gloucester in the hunt for cod, and a pretty husky rival, too, for fishermen from that seaport on the south shore of Nova Scotia are the backbone of that industry that is valued well over $3,000,000 a year.

The Luenburg fishermen spend about half the year at home, but they do not use this time sitting around the docks spinning yarns. They are busy with lobster catching or in the woods. When they are not fishing they begin to make ready for the sea.

The schooners are put in order and stocked with provisions. On the Sunday nearest March 21 the churches hold services and prayers go up for safe return, these Bluesneer fishermen, but they keep an eye on the profits, too.

The fishing schooners are small, rarely reaching 100 tons. The law requires vessels exceeding that size to carry a certified master, and the Luenburg man can't see the use of passing examinations in navigation. With compass and a dipsey lead the master of a banker can find his way in any weather.

The start from Luenburg is like the start of a yacht race. Most of the bankers go out on the same day and there is good-natured rivalry among the skippers in navigation. A whole compass and a dipsey lead the master of a banker can find his way in any weather.

These trawls are something sizable in the way of fishing lines. The main line is from one to one and a half miles long, with a fringe of smaller lines which carry the hooks. The trawls are anchored at each end and are set like the trawls of a whaler whose hub is the schooner. The dories move up and down the trawls, taking off the fish and re-baiting the hooks. It sounds easy, but in a heavy sea it is ticklish business.

When a schooner has loaded full with fish, cut and sailed down, she steals away from the shrieking mob of foghorns and makes for Luenburg. It is a lucky ship which enters port without her colors at half-mast, which would indicate that one of her crew has gone. The fleet gets back from the spring trip about the end of May, unloads and sails back again on the summer trip, which lasts until the autumn.—New York Sun.

HUMAN MOTHS GROWING SMALLER Science nowadays is trying more and more earnestly to reach the individual mother and instruct her personally and
directly along lines that even so short
a time ago were reserved for discussion in the clinic and the lecture room. For instance, the best authorities on anatomy are now delving for publication that modern methods of feeding
babies are bringing about the formation of a narrow and feeble jaw, especially
the lower jaw.
It is claimed that baby foods are being fed to children until they are over two years of age. Scientists claim that children over a year old should be given tough food of some sort, which will
about a better development of the lower
jaw. The present-day baby is said to show a narrow jaw that will not permit of his cutting all the teeth he is entitled to.

Both the dentist-surgeon and the professor of anatomy declare that children over a year of age, when in good health, should be given bones to chew on and even pieces of welldone beef to gnaw on.
In this way the formation of good, square lower jaw is acquired and all the teeth can be allowed to come in.
Every medical man, and, indeed, every mother of a family who has watched children in recent years, must have noticed the increasing narrowness of childish jaws, and any dental surgeon can bear out the fact that nowadays a startlingly increasing number of small children are forced to have one or more teeth drawn because their jaws are unable to accommodate the same number of molars which their grandmothers and fathers found room and use for.

A woman takes religion almost as seriously as a man takes politics—but she doesn't swear about it.

AFTER SUFFERING
TEN YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

MARLTON, N. J.—I feel that Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me new life. I suffered for ten years with serious female troubles, inflammation, indigestion, nervousness, and I could not sleep. Doctors gave me up, as they said my troubles were chronic. I was in despair, and did not care whether I lived or died, when I read about Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; so I began to take it, and am well again and relieved of all my suffering.—Mrs.
GEORGE JOHNS, Box 40, Marlton, N. J.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration.
Every suffering woman owe it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.
If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

NORTHERN STATE NORMAL SCHOOL
MARQUETTE

School Begins Monday, Sept. 27, '09.
The Northern State Normal School admits graduates of approved high schools to the two years' course leading to a life certificate and diploma. It offers courses leading to a three-year certificate, which is renewable for three years and valid in graded schools, and also a rural school certificate. Has excellent facilities for training teachers for special work in Kindergarten, Music, Drawing and Nature Study. It has an exceptionally fine corps of teachers who are specialists in their departments, and its training school gives a splendid opportunity for the training of teachers.
There is a splendid dormitory in connection with the school, which is an ideal home for the student.
The building is lighted with electricity and heated with steam; the living rooms are large and pleasant; the dining room has a seating capacity of one hundred and fifty persons. The expenses are moderate. Students of the Northern Normal School who finish the life certificate course are given fifty-six hours' credit at the University of Michigan. For information and catalogue write IRON COUNTRY WRESTLERS WIN.

John Rowett an Easy Winner of First Money at Houghton's Tournament.

John Rowett of Bessemer won first money in the Cornish wrestling tournament at the Amphidrome Saturday.

The feature of this round was the match between Martin and Clark. Martin is one of the best wrestlers and Clark is a boy of twenty-one.

In the next pairing, Rowett beat Sid Chapman, the crack South Range man, in one hitch.

The feature of this round was the match between Martin and Clark. Martin is one of the best wrestlers and Clark is a boy of twenty-one.

There was much talk during the tournament regarding Ziehr and Harrington. Dr. Miller of Calumet issued a challenge on behalf of Ziehr against Harrington.

It was announced that Tony Caponi and Eddie McGorty, boxers, would meet at Germania Hall, in Hancock, during fall week.

The September term of the Houghton county circuit court, with Hon. Albert T. Streeter, circuit judge, presiding, will open this morning.

As usual, the first day will be devoted to arranging the calendar and hearing motions. There will be no sessions of the court on Tuesday, owing to the fact that the board of supervisors will be in session on that day in the court room.

The criminal calendar will probably be taken on Wednesday morning and the first case may be that of Charles Gillis charged with murder.

It is impossible as yet to get a line on Gillis' defense. It seems that Gustafson was running away from the house in the dark, and that he was shot in the back, the shots from the house apparently being for the purpose of scaring the distributors.

An announcement which was made in Detroit on Saturday, and which will prove of interest to some residents of Houghton and Hancock, is that of the engagement of Miss Marion Eddy, daughter of Frank W. Eddy of Detroit.

The Detroit conference will meet this afternoon at almost every minister of the M. E. church in the copper country will be in attendance.

Two forthcoming autumnal weddings of interest, in which two popular young couples of Calumet will be united in marriage, are announced.

PREPARING FOR THE FAIR.

Houghton Amphidrome Will Be Turned Over to Carpenters Today.

With the opening of the copper country fair but one week away, Secretary McNamara will begin work in earnest today in the preparation of the Amphidrome and the grounds for the reception of the exhibitors.

Mr. McNamara says that he has assurances that the livestock and agricultural branches will make a better showing than ever this year.

The Houghton County Agricultural society is entering on its seventh fair and its officers believe that in that seven years a great change for the better has come about in agricultural affairs in the district.

Marble is entirely out of date. Granite soon gets moss-grown, discolored, requires constant expense and care, and eventually crumbles back to Mother Earth. Besides, it is very expensive. WHITE BRONZE is strictly everlasting. It cannot crumble with the action of frost. Moss growth is an impossibility. It is more artistic than any stone. Then why not investigate it? It has been adopted for over one hundred public monuments, and by thousands of delighted customers in all parts of the country. It has been on the market over 25 years and is an established success. Many granite dealers have bought White Bronze for their own burial plots. I have hundreds of beautiful designs of all grades of work, and want to have you see them if you are interested in a monument, headstone, marker or grave cover. On receipt of a postal card will be pleased to call with designs and samples of White Bronze.

Given Light Fine—Just before federal court adjourned Saturday afternoon, Judge Knapper imposed a fine of $100 on Lloyd Fairchild, who had pleaded guilty to timber trespass to the amount of about $400. The sentence was unusually light. Mr. Fairchild has aided the officers in running down other timber trespass cases.

Circuit Court Today—The September term of circuit court opens today with Judge Stone on the bench. The court will go over the calendar today, dispose of such cases as can be disposed of, and assign others for trial. Most of those charged with criminal offenses are likely to be arraigned. Tuesday has been set aside for hearing applications for final citizenship, of which there are a large number. The jury will have to report Wednesday morning.

Commercial Club Meeting—The regular monthly meeting of the Queen City Commercial club will be held this evening. It has been suggested that the city buy a strip along the water front and build a dock of its own, and this matter may be brought up at the meeting. In order that strangers may have less difficulty in finding rooms and board in Marquette, the club has established an information bureau at J. L. Walton's tailor shop, on Washington street, where those who wish to rent rooms or board transients may leave their names, and those who may wish rooms may secure necessary information.

Art in Motion Pictures—Miss Cecil Spooner was especially employed to enact the difficult dual role of Tom Catty, the pauper boy, and Edward, the boy Prince of Wales, in the film production of Mark Twain's celebrated story, "The Prince and the Pauper," which is to be seen at the Bijou today and tomorrow afternoon and evening. Graceful, effective and polished as an actress, her finished art has contributed much to the beauty and strength of this notable silent drama. Yet it was not without misgivings she entered upon her task. "I was very much afraid," she said, "when I first faced the camera. From what I had seen of motion pictures before, I feared it would be impossible to get much art in such tubular plays. The story was so big, the best that was in one so necessary, it seemed hopeless. Yet now I am convinced that not only can the highest types of mimic art be successfully presented in the films, but that they are helpful to the player's fuller grasp of work. They inculcate what the American actor needs most—the art of expression and gesture. Depending upon the spoken word and inflections of the voice so much on the stage, these necessary things are almost forgotten. The motion picture revived this in me, it has really helped me. The experience was helpful and beneficial. I was almost sorry when the three weeks needed for the rehearsals and photographic work were at an end. I believe that now that the best players on the stage are beginning to embark in this pantomimic work, the stage productions themselves will be lifted up wonderfully in their interpretation through the greater skill the motion picture work will give the actors. Not only is the motion picture field helping the theater by making more numerous the army of players, but it is helping the actors in their work." INSURE WITH PETER WHITE & CO.

BEDDOW WANTS TRIAL POSTPONED UNTIL MAY

HIS ATTORNEYS ALLEGE INABILITY TO PREPARE THEIR CASE FOR HEARING DURING THIS TERM OF COURT.

M. M. Riley and Arthur O'Neil, attorneys for George H. Beddow, assistant cashier of the defunct Ironwood First National bank, argued before Judge Knappen Saturday afternoon their motion for a continuance of Beddow's trial until the next term of federal court, which will be held in May, 1910. The court has not passed upon the motion and has given Beddow's attorneys permission to renew their application for a continuance Tuesday morning, at which time he will announce his decision.

The attorneys stated that they could not arrange to try Beddow's case this term for several reasons. A number of their witnesses reside out of the state and they allege that it would be impossible to bring them into court this term. One of these witnesses resides in Tucson, Ariz., and the others in Wisconsin, most of them in Hurley.

Furthermore, the attorneys claim that the suicide of H. E. John, president of the bank, has made it necessary to prove certain important facts tending to show Beddow's innocence, though other witnesses, to whom John had made the statements that they expected to come from John direct. The point of these statements is that the alleged false entries made by Beddow were made at the direction of John and Larson, and that the defendant did not know that they were false entries.

That the books of the bank are voluminous and are now in the hands of Receiver Tillinghast is another reason given why Beddow's trial should be postponed. Beddow's attorneys claim that they have not been allowed access to the bank books up to the present time and that it would be impossible to examine them in time to prepare their case for trial this term of court. They further allege that they expect to show that some of the entries claimed to have been made in Beddow's handwriting are not in his handwriting and that to prove this claim it will be necessary to employ a handwriting expert, who would have to go over the books prior to the trial. Still another reason given is that some of the counts of the indictment against Beddow speak of transactions with which they are unfamiliar.

In reply to the motion for a continuance of Beddow's case, Assistant District Attorney Clute stated to the court that the government was willing to admit Beddow had held responsible positions and had borne a good reputation for integrity prior to his connection with the bank, and that therefore it would be unnecessary to introduce the character witnesses, who constituted most of those who lived outside the state. Mr. Clute claimed that there was ample time before next Monday to subpoena any witnesses to whom H. E. John may have made statements regarding Beddow's connection with the bank, and stated that the bank's books, in so far as they concerned any of the counts of the indictment were now in Marquette, and that the defendant and his attorneys could have full access to them at any time prior to the trial.

Judge Knappen was of the opinion that the contention that certain witnesses lived out of the state was not of much importance, but was in point as to the defendant's ability to go over the bank books and prepare for trial by next Monday, which is the latest date that the trial could be begun this term. Accordingly, the court's ruling on the motion was withheld until tomorrow morning.

LARSON'S DEPOSITION TAKEN.

O. H. Olson, Wakefield, Contesting Payment of Accommodation Note.

The deposition of E. T. Larson, former cashier of the First National bank of Ironwood, was taken Saturday in the case of P. Tillinghast, receiver of the bank, against O. H. Olson, of Wakefield. The case has been brought by Receiver Tillinghast to force payment of a note for $5,000, found among the assets of the bank, which was one of the many so-called "accommodation notes," and its outcome is important because the court's decision in this case will in all probability determine whether or not any or all of the accommodation notes are collectible.

The defendant, Mr. Olson, through his attorney, M. M. Riley, maintains that the note was given without consideration and therefore is null and void. Mr. Olson has in his possession the following receipt for the note:

Ironwood, Mich., Oct. 31, 1908.
Received from O. H. Olson note for $5,000, collateral to which is bonds of the Commercial Investment Co., in the amount of $6,000.

E. T. LARSON, Cashier.

Olson holds that the note is non-collectible as the bonds specified in the receipt were never deposited with Larson, and that the note was given without consideration. Larson testified in his deposition that no bonds or other collateral had been deposited and that Olson had received no money in consideration for the note. The deposition was taken as it is thought that Larson may possibly be in prison when the case comes to trial.

MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co.'s correspondent at New York Saturday telegraphed as follows:
 "Short covering on a large scale again took place in the early trading, but later a reactionary tendency developed, induced by heavy pressure on the metal issues, particularly amalgamated and steel. Disappointment was expressed over the Copper Producers' report issued yesterday. The recovery from low levels was too rapid to hold, and the action of the market appeared natural in view of the fact that the railroad situation is still surrounded with matters of such a nature as will tend to create considerable discussion and agitation. The bank statement foreshadowed a firmer money market and the aggressiveness of the party in favor of lower prices should tend to create a two-sided market next week."

Writing from Boston Saturday, Paine, Webber & Co. had the following to say of the stock market:

"The excitement in U. S. brought liquidation throughout the rest of the list. The short interest in Amalgamated and Steel seems to have been largely eliminated, and both were distinctly weak today. The Copper Producers' report issued yesterday was very discouraging, and many of the bullish holders of copper issues are getting tired. We look for a fluctuating market, with prices gradually seeking a lower level, until conditions readjust themselves to the loss that

HAGER BROS.' NEW STORE IS ADMIRER

FORMAL OPENING SATURDAY WAS LARGELY ATTENDED BY APPRECIATIVE VISITORS.

STOCK ATTRACTIVELY SHOWN

Three Floors Occupied With the Lines and Large Floor Space Provides for Future Requirements.

The new store building of Hager Bros. Co., Ltd. had a formal opening under favorable auspices Saturday. Trombly's orchestra was in attendance and played concert programs for the entertainment of the visitors, who gave the establishment a thorough inspection. During the late afternoon and during the evening the building was thronged with appreciative people, who congratulated the members of the firm on opening such a finely appointed business house in Marquette.

The building is the finest exclusive furniture house in the upper peninsula, and one of the finest in the Northwest. Its ground dimensions are 42x100 feet, and it has three stories and a basement. At the rear will be provided an open court, fifty feet square, to which access will be had by an alley to the east of the

TUESDAY AT 2 P. M.

DON'T FAIL TO ATTEND THE OPENING CLASSES.

CHANGE FOR EACH DAY.

Free Baking School in Vacant Store Opera House Building—Every Lady in Marquette and Vicinity Invited.

The K C free baking school promises to be the best ever witnessed in Marquette. Miss Goggin will illustrate her talks with practical baking tests. She shows in an easy, simple manner how to have perfect results with least time, material and labor expended.

The receipts used are by Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill of the Boston Cooking School. All receipts are practical and so thoroughly tested that they are known to be absolutely correct.

Classes from 2 to 5 p. m. beginning Tuesday and continuing for one week. Each day there will be a change in the dainties prepared and every class will be of special interest.

The room is large and plenty of chairs will be placed for the comfort of everyone.

Don't fail to attend the opening class at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

At Tuesday's class Miss Goggin will bring and serve the following dainties: Ribbon cake, date muffins, tea cakes and peanut cookies.

Don't neglect asking the representatives of K C Baking powder, who call to see you, to show you the "Cook Book." It is not like anything you have ever before been shown.

occupies a large space at the rear of the third floor.

The building is exceptionally well arranged throughout for the quick dispatch of business and the easy handling of goods. There is large aisle space on both the first and second floors, and the lines are displayed to excellent advantage. The company has ample room to take care of the expansion of the business that will doubtless follow on the occupying of such a handsome building.

The contractors for the building were Lipsett & Sinclair; the architect, John D. Chubb.

NEW CURE FOR WHITE PLAGUE.

Carrying Hod and Breaking Rock Is Treatment in Europe.

New York, Sept. 12.—Departures bordering on the sensational from the usual treatment of tuberculosis were told of in his home by Dr. H. M. Biggs, chief medical adviser to the department of health, who had just returned home from an inspection tour of European sanitariums. Dr. Biggs says there will be installed in the Otisville Municipal sanitarium of this city a cure for consumption, entitled the exposure of tuberculosis infants in the open air, with the temperature standing as low as ten degrees Fahrenheit, and a treatment for both men and women consumptives, which will include periods of hard manual labor, such as breaking rock and carrying the hod, and increased doses of fresh air, even in the coldest winter.

TWO STATES TO VOTE.

Issue in Maryland This Fall Is Negro Disfranchisement.

In Virginia There Is a Sharp Contest for the Governorship, and the Republicans Are to Supply Many Speakers—President Taft Anxious to Break Solid South.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Two interesting state elections this year, which are only about two months off, and in which the outcome will be scanned with close attention by politicians of both parties, are those of Maryland and Virginia. In Maryland, the amendment to the constitution to disfranchise colored voters is the issue that is attracting notice. In Virginia, the governorship, along with other official pieces, is at stake and the question is what strength the Republicans will be able to disclose, after a most aggressive campaign, with the Democrats divided, and with President Taft doing all he is able to do to help along the movement to break up the solid South.

Republican leaders in Maryland are fighting the disfranchising amendment tooth and nail and they profess great confidence they will defeat it. If they do, it will be a hard blow at the Democratic bosses and the machine which has the Democratic party of Maryland in its grip. On the one hand, the Republicans of the state appear to be united against the effort at disfranchisement. On the other the Democrats show symptoms of being considerably divided. Many of the independent Democrats are hostile to the plans of disfranchisement. Not only are they opposed to it, but they are taking active steps to defeat it. Another element which is weakening the cause of the amendment is the foreign-born citizenship. This element does not like the looks of the plan which the Democrats are supporting and is openly endeavoring to defeat it.

It appears that the Democratic leaders in Maryland are not alone in the country who are pulling through. Much of this vote is prejudiced against the negro. Some of it is ignorant and easily swayed to the will of the organization, of which Senator John Walter Smith is the head. The expectation of the Democratic leaders is that the large vote for disfranchisement they will be able to roll up in the country will offset the vote in Baltimore, where the majority will be against the disfranchising amendment. It is said there will be five thousand independent votes against it in Maryland. One of the influences in Baltimore against the amendment will be the present Democratic club. It has a membership of several thousand, many of them of the foreign-born element, and it will go against the disfranchising scheme.

The outcome of the contest in Maryland is important not alone for the effect on the political situation in that state, but for its bearing on the general question of disfranchisement of the colored voter. If Maryland turns down the disfranchisement plan, it will be taken as an encouraging sign by colored voters in states farther south. Moreover, if the Democrats fail to get the amendment adopted, it will be a blow to them from which they are not likely to recover, and may mean Republican control of the state for some time to come.

Ishpeming Department

ISHPEMING HAS ONE JEWELER LESS

OUTPUT INCREASING.

Pluto Powder Company is Now Working Forty-Five Men.

The demand for the Pluto company's dynamite is increasing every day, said Howard Heyn, the company's upper peninsula representative, Saturday. "Our new plant south of the Winthrop is working satisfactorily and our average daily output is now 15,000 pounds. We are doing a nice business in the copper country, as well as in other mining fields of the Lake Superior district."

The Pluto company is now employing forty-five men at the works, and all departments are running full time. The company has a complete plant and up to this time no serious accident of any kind have occurred. The manufacturing department is in charge of competent men and the company's business is, if anything, larger than the management expected it would be. The plant has been in operation only about six months, George P. Jones, the company's consulting engineer, under whose supervision the local plant was installed, is here for a few days, inspecting the works.

William Andrews has attached the stock of jewelry and store fixtures in his block on West Division street for rent, due him by John Niemi, who conducted business there for some months past. Niemi left the city on the 26th of last month, leaving his clerk in charge of the business. The day before his departure Mr. Andrews asked him for the rent, which was past due, and he begged off, saying that he would pay it when he returned from the copper country, where he intended to peddle jewelry. He took all of the best of the goods with him.

The following day, the 27th, Niemi's wife and child took their departure for Finland, but denied that they were to meet him enroute. Inasmuch as the man has not since been heard from his creditors are satisfied that he has been there this landed safely on the other side of the Atlantic. Before leaving Niemi gave one of the keys of the store to his clerk, giving him instructions what to do during his absence.

Mr. Andrews will come out of the deal without a loss, but there are several other creditors who will suffer. Several claims have been placed in the hands of Ishpeming attorneys for collection, but the amounts will not be paid until next summer. Niemi conducted business in the Blakely building on Division street for some time before he "branched out" into the Andrews block. He is said to have had a fairly good business, and it is thought that he left with a goodly sum in his pocket. The store owned by Mr. Andrews will be sold under the hammer to pay the amount of his claim.

A GOOD ATTRACTION.

W. B. Patton, in "The Blockhead," is Highly Recommended.

"Patrons of Ishpeming theater who fail to see W. B. Patton in his new play, 'The Blockhead,' Tuesday evening, will miss a real treat," said an Ishpeming man who saw the performance at Marquette one evening last week. Mr. Patton was last seen in Ishpeming two years ago, when he created a favorable impression. His work is artistic in every sense, and he is a comedian of exceptional ability. His ability for intermingling pathos with comedy has few equals and as "Professor Theodore Blockson" he is gaining a great popularity with each performance. It is a character admirably adapted to his peculiar style, and is full of the rich charm.

YESTERDAY'S GAME POSTPONED.

The league ball game between the Ishpeming and Munising teams that was to have taken place yesterday afternoon at the Union park grounds was postponed on account of the rain. The Munising team came up on the morning train and returned again last night. This makes two postponed games to be played by these nines. It is likely that both will be played on week days. Chappit of the copper country, who played a few games with the Ishpeming team early in the season, was to have been in the line-up yesterday. He came down Saturday evening and it was reported yesterday that he has decided to accept a position at his trade as machinist, offering him here. He is a good fielder and twirler. Thompson, one of the four men released from the team Friday, left that night for Minneapolis. He said before departing that he has a fine collection of release souvenir letters that he hopes to frame. All came as a result of his not behaving himself. Thompson has a good record as a player. Last year he was mentioned in Spaulding's guide as having stood third in general average among the third basemen of the United States. He played with the fast Fargo team, and had a record of over 170 games for the season.

A BEWILDERING SUCCESS.

"The Parisian Model," an alluring novelty, will be presented at the Ishpeming theater on Friday evening. The New York Morning Telegraph in reviewing the musical comedy said: "That it is a bewildering success, goes without saying. It is more than the regulation success. It is a sensation." In fact, the unanimous opinion of all who have witnessed the comedy is that it is one of the merriest and brightest seen in years. It delights the eye from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The music by Max Hoffman is cheering and delightful in its harmony. The book and lyrics by the well-known composer, Harry B. Smith, will tickle the risibilities of any audience.

Have your piano tuned now. M. J. Olson, the piano tuner, will remain in this city during the summer months. Orders taken at Wm. Leininger's store. (6-28-11)

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENT.

MONOPLANE AND BIPLANE.

It was in the hotel of a western mining town, says the Youth's Companion, that the New England guest registering in the office heard a succession of loud yells—"What in the world is that—a murder going on upstairs?" he demanded. "No," said the clerk, as he slammed the book and lunged toward the stairs. "That tender-foot up there don't get the hang of it and every few days he gets one of the spiral springs screwed into him like a shirt stud. I guess I'll have to go up if there ain't anything more I can do for you for a few minutes."

Rector to Take a Bride--

Rev. R. S. Gil, rector of St. John's Episcopal church at Munising will take unto himself a wife at the Soe next Wednesday. The bride-to-be is Miss Mary Ella Walz.

Two Crops of Clover This Year--

Max Laage, one of AuTrain township's prominent and successful farmers, has a field of clover eight or nine acres in extent. He cut the first crop and it was a good one—about July fourth last. The second crop is now about eighteen inches high and growing right along. This Alger county hay field appears to be a veritable agricultural mint for its owner.

Bank Buys Bonds--

The First National bank of Munising is becoming a considerable investor in township bonds. It has taken the entire $18,500 issue of Rock River township, recently voted for the purpose of improving the highways. The First National has also bought the $5,000 bond issue of Germautown township, Schoolcraft county, the money so raised to be expended in building a school house.

Files Petition in Bankruptcy--

Robert W. Chapple, who has conducted a shoe and repair business at 331 Main street, Menominee, for a number of years, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. His assets are listed at $1,200 and his liabilities at $4,000. Mr. Chapple has been handicapped to a more or less extent ever since the Spies building was destroyed by fire a number of years ago, when his entire stock of shoes was burned.

United in Marriage--

Miss Ethel Ince Barely and William H. Rezin, former residents of Iron Mountain, were united in marriage at Rhineclaud, Wis., last week and are spending the honeymoon at Witch Lake. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barclay, who resided in Quinnessee a number of years ago, later removing to Menominee. She was employed in the Iron Mountain postoffice for two years. The groom is engaged in the drug business at Crystal Falls, where Mr. and Mrs. Rezin will be at home to friends after Nov. 1st. The press extends congratulations.

Timber Lands Change Hands--

Robert Gerstner, who has been lumbering in that region for many years, closed a deal for the purchase of thirteen tracts of timber land in the Nett river district, out from Crystal Falls. The lands were purchased from the Porter-Peter company. The deal included a number of houses and other buildings at Nett river, where the company operated a saw-mill until it was destroyed by fire about a year ago. The price paid was $7,000. Mr. Gerstner is now looking over his new possessions and arranging to operate one or more camps. The lands are heavily timbered with hardwoods.

Saloons Observing the Law--

St. Ignace saloons were closed very tight Sunday, so much so that an awful thirst got started, says the St. Ignace Enterprise. Monday being Labor Day, the drought continued and the thirst increased. This was due to the fear of the new liquor law, which provides for the annulment of the license of a dealer who is twice convicted for violations thereof. We understand that Mackinac Island was also under the lid for the first time in years. Signs of every sort are down both outside and on the walls of the saloons and there seems to be a disposition on the part of the saloonmen to keep within the requirements of the law.

Chippewa County Schools--

The enrollment in the Chippewa county rural schools will reach the 1,000 mark, according to Commissioner Thomas R. Easterday. This is an increase of about 300 over last year. Four new schools have been added, one in Superior township and the other three in Raber, Eadyard and Pickford townships. The building in Superior township is in Drimby and is an eight-room, two-story structure. According to Mr. Easterday, it will be one of the finest rural schools in the upper peninsula, or perhaps the state. It is constructed of cement blocks. Out of 100 school rooms in the rural school system of Chippewa county, eighty are now open. Mr. Easterday is somewhat amused at the peculiar condition of things relating to the fuel. "Some schools located right in the midst of the woods are charged more for wood than those where a considerable haul has to be made," said the commissioner.

Raunderous Assault Alleged--

Mrs. Mary Potter and daughter Mary of Stephenson are at the county jail, charged with shooting at Julius Brown, a neighbor, says the Menominee Herald-Leader. The charge arose out of a long standing feud which culminated in the alleged murderous attack. Brown was the habit of driving his cow into pasture land owned by Mrs. Potter, and she resented this. When he still continued to trespass on her property, she called forth and drove the cow into her barn, refusing to allow him possession of it until he paid the charges she demanded for the use of her land. Brown replying that the cow and recovered it. Some time later he was crossing through the Potter lot on his way to his farm, it being a short-cut home. Mrs. Potter and her daughter saw him coming, it is claimed, and armed themselves. When he was about thirty feet away from the house Mrs. Potter is said to have fired a shotgun at him; her aim was poor, and Brown escaped injury. He swore out a warrant, and the mother and daughter were arrested and brought to the county jail. They will be taken before Justice Larsen for examination. It is thought the justice will probably put them under a bond to keep the peace and dismiss the case.

Big Log Drive Completed--

The big main river drive, which the Menominee River Boom company has been running down the stream since June 1, has reached Marquette. After months of labor 100,000,000 feet of timber lies in the company's boom. The timber represents the cuts of nearly all the mills in the twin cities. It has been collected from the various tributary streams and cut-offs along the Menominee river. Each log is stamped with the owner's private mark, and by this mark the river men will know where to put the timber when the sorting begins. It will take until November to complete this work. Each and every log must be examined and whirled into its place from the immense mass. When all the logs are separated, they will be rafted down the river to the various mills. It will take until late in November to sort all the logs. A crew of seventy-five men has been employed on the drive since June. Every day they have guided the errant course of the thousands of logs with their peevish and canthooks, and now that that task is over they will be going back to the woods to work in the camps and get out logs for the spring drive. It is estimated that there is enough lumber left in the Menominee river region to last for twenty years if cut at the rate it has been the past few years. Most of the timber brought down the river in the last drive is the property of the Lundington, Spies, Wells and Stephenson mills. It will keep them running all winter.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

HIGGINS' FATE IN THE BALANCE

THOUGH OUT SINCE SATURDAY AFTERNOON, JURY HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO REACH A VERDICT.

LAST DAY OF THE TRIAL

Arguments of the Attorneys for the Government and the Defense and Charge of Court Occupy Most of the Day.

After having had the Higgins case since 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the jury is apparently no nearer a verdict than when it first retired to the jury room, and it will continue its deliberations this morning. The jurymen reported about 11 o'clock Saturday night that there was no immediate prospect of reaching a verdict and they were allowed to go to the hotel for the night. About 10 o'clock Sunday morning they returned to the jury room and remained in session until after 7 o'clock last evening, except during the dinner hour. There is no basis for any speculation as to how the jurymen may be divided in their opinion of Higgins' guilt or innocence, but it is the general opinion that no agreement will be reached. Saturday, the fourth day of the Higgins trial, was consumed in the arguments of the attorneys to the jury and the court's charge. District Attorney Covell first spoke to the jury and delivered a strong presentation of the state's side of the case. He pointed out the discrepancies in Higgins' robbery story and also in the descriptions of the men seen about the postoffice about the time of the alleged robbery. He emphasized especially that Higgins described his assistants as foreigners, who spoke brokenly, while the statement heard by Mrs. Lane from the men she saw running away from the postoffice was couched in good English. He argued that the evidence produced at the trial showed conclusively that Higgins was feigning his injuries and that the robbery story was a fake.

Arguments of Defendant.

John M. Shine, one of Higgins' attorneys, followed Mr. Covell and gave reasons why his client should be acquitted. He emphasized the good reputation and the responsible positions that Higgins had held prior to his arrest on the charge and reviewed the story of the robbery in detail, showing that it was reasonable. He declared that if Higgins was simply pretending his injuries and had not been robbed as he claimed, he had suddenly transformed himself from a reputable, law-abiding citizen into the greatest and most skillful actor in America.

H. M. Oren, who has conducted Higgins' case in the court room, followed Mr. Shine. He urged that the government's case had been worked up by expert men and that it was fair to suppose that everything possible against his client had been produced in court. He pointed out that though Higgins had undoubtedly been shadowed ever since the night of the alleged robbery, that nothing had been found to indicate that Higgins had any of the money lost from the postoffice or that he had done anything that would indicate he took it. He based upon the fact that the money must have been taken on Sunday, Dec. 25, and that there had been no opportunity for him to get away with it on that day. Mr. Oren made a scathing arraignment of Dr. Dickinson and his testimony, declaring that he had shown undue anxiety to convict Higgins from the first. He stated that his testimony had been contradicted by other equally reputable physicians. One telling point made was that Dr. Dickinson said nothing about Higgins picking out of one eye while lying on the floor of the postoffice, in his testimony at the preliminary hearing before the commissioner.

The Court's Charge.

The court's charge to the jury was somewhat lengthy and was considered eminently fair to both the prosecution and the defense. He informed the jurymen that the important question for them to decide was whether or not Higgins had been robbed, as he claimed, or whether the robbery story was a scheme to cover up the defendant's guilt. The court explicitly stated that the fact that Higgins had more money on hand than he should have had, under the postal regulations, would not in itself constitute guilt under the charge of embezzlement as preferred in the indictment. The case went to the jury at 3:15 p.m.

THEATRICAL.

"The Parisian Model."

A new and very much up-to-date musical novelty, "The Parisian Model," for the first time, will be presented at the opera house Tuesday evening. The part of the model is rendered by the delightful little comedienne, Miss Grace Hazard, who joined the company direct from her vaudeville triumphs in Europe and America. Patrons of this musical comedy will be treated to a decided novelty when Miss Hazard introduces during the action of the play her justly famous vaudeville act, and adds her new bag-pipe specialty to her celebrated pot-pourri of songs and dances. While in Scotland she became possessed of the idea that she could learn to play the bag-pipes and in spite of the discouragement of her friends, who knew the difficulty of acquiring proficiency on the old time instrument, sought out Piper Major Henry Forsythe and took from him a course of instruction. Forsythe is the piper to the Prince of Wales and the most famous artist in his line in the world. Owing to Miss Hazard's diminutive size, a set of pipes just half the usual dimensions had to be made to order for her use, and her teacher declared after he had given her two months' tuition that he had never met such a promising pupil. The costume which is produced in a most startling manner, is true to the traditions of the opera from which her song is taken. The materials were purchased in Edinburgh and a celebrated tailor in Glasgow superintended the construction of the kilt, jacket, sash and sporran. The plaid or tartan, as they say in Scotland, is that of the MacGregor clan. In addition to the Scottish novelty which no other artist on the American stage has ever attempted, Miss Hazard will sing a number of her old-time songs, including: "I Dreamt I Dwell in Marble Halls," "On Yonder Rock Reclining" and "Torpedo and the Whale."

A PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

Miss Mayme L. Hicks Becomes the Bride of William Atkins Ulrich.

In the presence only of relatives, William Atkins Ulrich and Miss Mayme L. Hicks were united in marriage Saturday evening. The wedding was a pretty home event. It was solemnized at the residence of the mother of the bride, on East Hewitt avenue, at 8:30 o'clock. The Rev. Ames A. Maywood, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, was the officiating clergyman. Little Carroll Trevillion, niece of the bride, was ring bearer and the only attendant. The ceremony was performed in the parlor. This room, as were the others, was prettily decorated with pink and white flowers, sweet peas and smilax. As the nuptial party entered, Miss Clara Hicks, sister of the bride, presiding at the piano, played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Subsequently, as the marriage service was taking place, she played very softly, "O Promise Me." The bride was given away by James Trevillion, her brother-in-law.

The bride's wedding gown was a handsome costume of white satin de chene, made in Princess style, with train, and embellished with hand embroidery, chiffon and lace trimmings. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and bride's roses. The going-away gown was of wistaria-shaded cloth. Carroll Trevillion was dressed in pink mill.

Refreshments were served following the ceremony, and at 11:30 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich departed by train for Duluth. They will also visit Chicago before returning to the city. After Oct. 15, Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich will be at home at 116 East Hewitt avenue, occupying the residence purchased by the groom some months ago and which he has recently remodeled and furnished. No cards have been issued.

The bride in this wedding is a young woman of rare charm and sweet disposition, qualities which have endeared her to a legion of friends. She was born and reared in Marquette. Until her recent resignation from that position, she was probate clerk of Marquette county. Mr. Ulrich, who came here from Pennsylvania, has been a resident of the city for the past eleven years. He is a popular young man and holds a responsible position in the railroad department of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company, that of storekeeper at the North Marquette shops.

The esteem in which the newly-wedded couple are held is attested by the many beautiful gifts which they were the recipients. Among the gifts was a handsome five-piece set of solid silver, presented by the county officials at the court house.

EXCELLENT SHOWING MADE.

July Was Good Month for Electric Light and Power Business.

The report of the light and power commission for the month of July shows an increase in earnings of nearly $400 over the same month a year ago and an increase of about $350 in the net receipts. There are now 1,685 customers using light or power, which is 228 more than a year ago. The delinquent accounts have been reduced nearly $1,000 during the year. The plant is now valued at $233,029.84, with outstanding bonds aggregating $33,500. The report is as follows:

Table with columns: Item, July '09, July '08. Rows include Street lighting, City lighting, Business lighting, Residence lighting, Power, Miscellaneous, Total electric, Expenses, Manufacturing, Distribution, General, Interest, Total, Net income, elec.

UMPIRE'S DECISION NEARLY CAUSES ROW

MARQUETTE PLAYERS LEAVE THE FIELD WHEN WALSH IS CALLED OUT IN LAST HALF OF THE SEVENTH INNING.

For the first time this season, a league ball game ended at the fair grounds yesterday afternoon by one of the teams leaving the field and refusing to play the game out. Marquette and Negaunee were the opposing teams and an unsatisfactory decision of Umpire Siebenthal was the cause of the Marquette nine leaving the field, incidentally to which a general row was averted only through the activities of the police and the more level-headed players and managers.

Owing to the threatening weather, Manager Fox telephoned Manager Miller of Negaunee, early yesterday morning, and asked that the game be postponed, as it would be impossible to get out a crowd, even if the grounds were in shape for play by afternoon. Manager Miller asked that no final postponement be made until afternoon, and the Negaunee players arrived in Marquette at 10:40 a. m.

Upon going out to the grounds in the afternoon, it was found that the assigned umpires were not present and only 200 or 300 people were in attendance. Manager Fox suggested that the regular game be postponed but that the two teams play an exhibition game and divide the gate receipts. Manager Miller was at first in line to accede to this proposition, but after talking with his players and certain Negaunee fans, he insisted that the regular game be played. The grounds were in fair condition for play. Clinton of Marquette, and Siebenthal of Negaunee, were selected as umpires.

Scholts Not in Condition.

"Hap" Scholts, who was in the box for Marquette, showed from the first that he was not in condition, probably because of having pitched three games last week, and the Negaunee batters got to him freely, baffling out two runs in the first inning and two more before the fifth. Steinhilber, who pitched for Negaunee, proved a puzzle and Marquette was unable to score.

With the score 4 to 6 in favor of Negaunee the game ended in the last half of the seventh. The trouble occurred while Marquette was at bat. With two out and Dunlavey on third base, Walsh batted a grounder in front of the plate and started to run to first, and Dunlavey made for home. At this juncture, all the Marquette players and fans with in hearing distance declare Siebenthal called out "out," and both runners stopped. Walsh returning to the plate and Dunlavey to third. Then Siebenthal declared the ball had been a fair ball and, of course, Walsh was an easy out. Walsh was angry and started for the umpire, but was promptly restrained.

The Marquette fans were equally indignant and began to roast the umpire unmercifully. The Marquette players meantime quitting the game. One of the most vociferous "roasters" of Siebenthal's decision was sitting on the players' bench. Siebenthal started toward the players' bench and it is alleged made as if to strike him. At any rate, some of the Marquette players stepped in and would doubtless have made it lively for Siebenthal, had not the police promptly interfered and with the assistance of Manager Fox and others cleared the field. Thus ended the game and both teams left the grounds in a bad humor.

It is stated that the Marquette management will protest the game on the ground that the umpire was not eligible under the rules of the league.
