MR. TAFT GREET'S PINCHOT HEARTILY

Ballinger, However, Apparently Recognizes Only Senator Borah, Though the Forester Is Standing Beside the Idaho Statesman.

This an Incident of the President's Arrival at Salt Lake, Where He Will Remain Until Sunday Noon—His Principal Speech of the Day Is Delivered at Reed Smoot's Home Town, a Mormon Stronghold, Where His Reception Is Most Enthusiastic.

Salt Lake, Sept. 24.—President Taft today addressed the people of Provo in the Mormon tabernacle. Provo is the home of Senator Smoot, and 80 per cent of the people are said to be Mormons; but Provo furnished probably the most effervescently enthusiastic audience of the chief executive's tour to date.

From Provo, Mr. Taft came to Salt Lake, arriving at 4:30 o'clock, to remain until Sunday noon. When the train arrived here, Chief Forester Pinchot was at the foot of the car steps with Senator Borah of Idaho.

"Why, hello, Pinchot" called the president, extending his hand heartily. "I'm glad to see you."

Mr. Pinchot responded cordially. The president greeted Senator Borah with the exclamation: "Hello, Bill, old fellow; I'm mighty glad to see you."

Several of the members of the party followed the president, and then Secretary Ballinger. Mr. Pinchot was standing directly beside Senator Borah, Ballinger greeted Mr. Borah with a handshake, but apparently recognized nobody else. Neither he nor Mr. Pinchot spoke.

Mr. Taft rode at the head of a procession of automobiles to Fort Douglas where he reviewed the Fifteenth infantry. Tonight he was a guest of honor at a dinner given at the Hotel Utah to the city at 11 o'clock and retiring at a hotel.

Protestant Ministers Perturbed. The president's visit caused a flurry among the Protestant ministers, arising from the committee's decision to have the president speak at the Mormon tabernacle Sunday morning.

Sound Middle Course Is Best. "Theoretically that may seem rather a rule-of-thumb method of government, in the long run you'll find that the course pursued was the result of compromising the views of the majority into one sound middle course, which is much better than the following some doctrinaires' theory to the uttermost."

OMAHA POLICE HAVE A STRENUOUS DAY

Because of Disorders in Consequence of the Street Railway Strike, Riot Calls Come from Almost All Parts of the City—Cars Are Stoned and Members of Their Crews Are Injured.

Omaha, Sept. 24.—Riot calls came from almost all parts of the city today. Seven such summonses came within an hour this afternoon.

At most points from which the riot calls came the crowds dispersed when the officers appeared. Two teamsters were beaten into submission and arrested this afternoon, following a fight with the police in West Farnam street.

The car service was stopped this evening, to avoid trouble.

Turbulence at Butte, Mont. Butte, Mont., Sept. 24.—More than a thousand strikers gathered at the Cagnon mine this evening with the intention of attacking the miners when they came up. Guards kept the strikers back from the mouth of the mine, and constables and deputies and the police fought their way to the opening.

Without the Aid of a Windshield, He Reduces His Record to 2:02 1/4.

Columbus, Sept. 24.—Trotting furnished most of the racing at the Grand circuit meeting this afternoon. Uhan, without the aid of a windshield, reduced his record to 2:02 1/4 and came within a quarter of a second of equalling the track record, held by Sweet Marie.

Baron May was the strong favorite in the 2:12 trot and became almost prohibitive after winning the first heat easily. His refusal to trot in the second heat scoring pushed the field price above $10.

Darky Hal, the first choice for the 2:05 pace, won that race, although she took the first heat. She seemed to have the second won when D's came out of the rack, winning by a length.

All the World Will Join in Honoring the Discoverer of a Great River and the Man Who Made It of the Greatest Service.

Visualizing Their Historic Exploits at the Scene of Achievement, the Work of Hendrick Hudson and Robert Fulton Will Be Commemorated at New York on a Scale Surpassing Anything Hitherto Attempted in the Way of Similar Endeavor.

New York, Sept. 24.—The man who discovered the Hudson river and the man whose invention made it of great service will be honored during the coming week here at the scene of their achievements.

For the next eight days the people of New York and visitors from all parts of the world will witness a series of pageants surpassing anything hitherto attempted in the way of historic commemoration.

A Brand-New War in Sight. Madrid, Sept. 24.—It is generally believed here that the complications which have arisen between Spain and Mulai Hafid, sultan of Morocco, are likely to result in a Spanish-Moroccan war; that is, a war between Spain and the forces of the sultan of Morocco, in distinction to the fighting going on today, which is limited to the Moorish tribesmen inhabiting the Riff country.

Madrid, Sept. 24.—The decision of France to disregard Mulai Hafid's protest has caused great satisfaction here. Furthermore, it is understood that the United States, Great Britain, Germany and Russia will adopt the same attitude as France. Thus being assured of a policy of non-interference on the part of the other powers interested in the matter of Mulai Hafid's protest against Spain's occupancy of the Riff territory, Morocco, it is understood that Spain, using the precedent of 1893, intends to demand the payment of an indemnity covering the cost of the military operations in Africa and the right to occupy the territory around Melilla until the indemnity is paid or the sultan provides sufficient troops to maintain order in the Riff country.

WOOD AND BUILDING MATERIAL I ALSO HANDLE Artistic Monuments COST NO MORE THAN PLAIN ONES IN WHITE BRONZE Marble is entirely out of date. Granite soon gets moss-grown, discolored, requires constant expense and care, and eventually crumbles back to Mother Earth. BRONZE is very expensive. WHITE BRONZE is strictly everlasting. It cannot be scratched, and it is more artistic than any stone. That why not investigate it? It has been adopted for a one hundred public monuments, and by thousands of delighted customers in all parts of the country. It has been on the market over 25 years and is an established success. Many granite dealers have bought White Bronze for their own burial plots. I have hundreds of beautiful designs of all grades of work, and want to have you see them if you are interested in a monument, headstone, marker or grave cover. Unexcelled in a postal card will be pleased to call with designs and samples of White Bronze. Geo. E. French, MARQUETTE, MICH. Agent for the Monumental Bronze Co., of Bridgeport, Conn. CURE FOLLOWED YEAR OF AGONY Intense Itching Eczema Drove Him Nearly to Despair—Chief Surgeon of a London Hospital Called It Worst Case He Had Ever Seen—Got Little or No Relief Until CUTICURA STOPPED HIS UNBEARABLE TORTURE "About four years ago, in London, I was troubled by a severe itching and dry, scurfy skin on my ankles and feet. The same, in a few days, was on my arms and scalp. I could hardly keep from scratching myself. I need hardly say, made it worse. Then large red patches appeared, with inflammation and soreness. After ten days, thousands of small red pimples formed. On becoming dry, these caused intense itching. I was advised to go to the hospital for diseases of the skin. I did so and was an out-patient for a month or more, the chief surgeon saying: "I never saw such a bad case of eczema." But I got little or no relief. Then I tried many so-called remedies, but I became so bad that I was obliged to give up. On coming to this country I heard so many accounts of cures by Cuticura Remedies that I resolved, as a last resource, to give them a trial. This was after suffering agonies for twelve months, and right glad am I that I did so, for I was relieved of the almost unbearable itching after two or three applications of Cuticura Ointment. I continued its use, combined with a liberal use of Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Resolvent Pills and am more than thankful to say that after using three sets of the Remedies, I was completely cured. I can only add that should any one be suffering as I did, I hope that they will do as I did, and I am sure of the results. Henry Scoble, 2922 Cross St., Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 8 and 10, '07." Atlantic.

No decision has been reached as yet by the Atlantic management relative to a second shaft on the Baltic lode.

At the present time the work in the Section 16 shaft is confined to the sixteenth and twenty-fifth levels.

At this twenty-fifth level, which is the lowest point of attack in the shaft, drifts are now being run.

While the conditions at this property seem to be particularly unfortunate just now, it must be remembered that there is always the chance of the Isle Royale finding the Baltic lode with the same rich ground as the Superior is showing.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Robinson and daughter Erma, of Elkhart, Ind., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Monroe, on Rock street.

Miss May Egan, who has been the guest of Miss Jopling and Miss Shiras the past few weeks, left last evening for her home in Amboy, Ill.

Yesterday was pay day for the South Shore employes. The road usually pays on the 25th of the month, but today being Saturday, the checks were passed out a day early. Checks were issued to about 2,600 South Shore employes, and to 700 employed on the Mineral Range road.

The Rev. B. L. Newkirk, pastor of the Wayne avenue church, Germantown, Philadelphia, is expected to arrive in the city this morning and to occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church tomorrow morning and evening. Mr. Newkirk, who is a personal friend of Dr. Juppier, is one of the most successful of the young pastors of Philadelphia.

Baseball at Prison—Manager L. H. Dwyer's second team will play a game of baseball at the prison tomorrow morning. The players will leave for the prison at 7:30 o'clock.

Boys' Band at Bijou—Manager Gillard has engaged the Boys' band as a special attraction at the Bijou theater this evening. An interesting film "The Mendel Lutz" will be shown and the program promises to be one of unusual interest.

Painful But Not Serious—Miss A. M. Ward, private secretary to President Fitch, of the D. S. S. & A. railway, received a telegram from Seattle yesterday, stating that the injury received by George W. Hubbard on Sept. 16 was the result of falling into a manhole, and though painful, was not considered serious.

New Ore Car Here—The Clark rapid dumping car, which is to be tested on the L. S. & L. railway, arrived in Marquette from Duluth about noon yesterday, and was at once sent to the shops for inspection. It was expected that the car would be sent to one of the mines last evening, and that it will be unladen at the dock some time this forenoon.

Another "Lifer" Coming—Rob E. Herzog, of Detroit, has been sentenced to the Marquette prison for life, having been convicted Wednesday of the most heinous crime on the calendar, that of having committed a statutory offense against his own daughter, aged sixteen and nineteen. He is said to have lived the life of a rascal and to have turned his own home into a harem.

Hortense Nielsen Coming—A problem play from the pen of Henrik Ibsen, entitled "A Doll's House," with Hortense Nielsen in the leading part, will be seen at the opera house early in October. Miss Nielsen and associates have recently presented this play in Menominee, Sault Ste. Marie and other nearby cities, where it has created more than usual attention from the press and the public. Those who go to plays to be instructed rather than to be amused will be interested to know of the coming of an Ibsen play, with the characters in capable hands.

Steamer Widlar Aground—The steamer Widlar is fast aground and will be a shale float about 1,200 feet east of the L. S. & L. dock at Presque Isle. She left the dock about noon Thursday with 10,000 tons of ore on board, but grounded before she got out to the breakwater. Thursday afternoon and all day yesterday tugs and other vessels tried to pull her off the beach, but were unable to do so, though she could be turned about. It is now thought that the vessel will have to be lightered before she can be released. The Widlar is owned by W. H. Becker, of Cleveland.

Basketball Plans—Plans are actively under way for basketball in Marquette the coming winter. Toward the close of last season there was a great deal of interest in this sport, and this year the players intend to get started earlier. It is possible that a city league will be formed and a regular schedule of games played. At least six teams, it is said, would be glad to join such a league, those suggested being lives from the high school, the Normal, the Knights of Columbus, the Ferguson Business college, the Guild Hall and the City team. Such a league series would doubtless create more interest and draw larger crowds than the haphazard games played last season.

Marquette vs. Ishpeming—The Marquette baseball team will leave Willeston's news depot at 1 o'clock this afternoon on a motor car for Ishpeming, where a postponed game will be played. The lineup of the Marquette team as given out last evening will be as follows: Young, short stop; Weiser, right field; Biopelle, left field; Mack, third base; Richardson, center field; Schollus, second base; Dunaway, first base; Walsh, catcher; Jeanson, pitcher. In the game to be played with Ishpeming Sunday afternoon Walsh will not be in the lineup and Richardson will take his place behind the bat. Schollus will be in the box. Clinton on second and Jeanson in the center garden. It is expected that quite a large number of the Marquette fans will be in attendance at both the games.

MULLIN BOUND OVER.

Restaurant Keeper Will Have to Face Charge of Running Blind Pig.

Walter Mullin, the Baraga avenue restaurant keeper, against whom complaint of selling liquor without a license was recently made by Officer Joe Remotel, was bound over to circuit court in the sum of $200 by Justice Byrne yesterday. Three witnesses testified for the prosecution but no defense was introduced at the preliminary hearing. The case will come up at the December term of court.

The two women who were in Mullin's place on the night of Sept. 9 and from there were taken to the calaboose by the officer, following which complaint was lodged against Mullin, testified for the state at the hearing. They stated that they had obtained beer at the restaurant from Mullin on that day. The third witness testified to having bought beer there at a different time.

It was reported yesterday that Mullin had bought the Garfield House in Ne-gamunee, and expected to leave Marquette within a short time.

ANENT SALOON SIGNS.

Attorney General Bird Ingeniously Finds Way to Retain Them.

Saloon signs, in modified form, will shortly go back to the fronts of saloons all over Michigan. It is to be expected, from an opinion on the Warner-Craunton law made public Friday by Attorney General Bird.

The words "Saloon," "Beer," "Whiskey" or any other insignia of the business may without violation of the law appear on the buildings. There is but one restriction. The name of the brewer or the distiller must not be used. Explaining his ruling, the attorney general said:

"The intent of the law, as I understand it, was not to prohibit the advertising of liquor, per se, but to prohibit the advertising of particular brands. The law does not carry any inhibition against the statement, in so many words, on the outside of the building, that beer, wines or liquors are sold within. The intent of the framers of the law was to put an end to the competitive advertising of brewers and distillers."

The attorney general's ruling will be of particular interest in the smaller cities and towns, where the saloons are not so largely owned by the breweries as in the large places.

LAST CLASS WILL BE HELD SATURDAY

The free baking school closes Saturday, with a class at 2 p. m. and judging by the large number of women present at every session, the whole of Marquette are taking a genuine interest in the school. K. C. Baking Powder has become a household word and the women who have tried it are telling their friends and neighbors of the great success they are having with it. It leaves nothing to be desired. Food baked with it is light, wholesome and sweet. Those who wish to secure the greatest of Cook's Books should not fail to bring in the certificate at once, as Saturday will mark the close of this very interesting series of lessons. At Saturday's class, which will open at 2 p. m., Miss Goggin will bake and serve K. C. white cake, gold cake, corn meal muffins and tea cakes.

THEATRICAL.

"The Royal Chef."

Ben Jerome's once immensely popular musical comedy was again presented in Marquette at the opera house last evening to a rather small audience. While the production was not so elaborate as some that have preceded it, there was much of it that was decidedly good, especially the singing. Due perhaps to the small audience, the production was draggy in spots, and there was at times too great delay between the numbers.

From a musical standpoint the production was excellent, Leona Heimerman, as Kitten O'Reilly, and Charles Vaughn, as Lieutenant Parks, being the stars in this respect. Miss Heimerman in "O'Reilly," Mr. Vaughn in "Old Glory Flies Everywhere," and the two in "Kip-pande," won deserved favor and applause. Ethel Bales, as the rajah's daughter, cleverly sang two solo numbers and was pleasing in a duet with Mr. Vaughn. Byron Broots, who played the Rajah, was well cast and gave a splendid rendition of "Rajah Bold Am I." The singing of the chorus was good.

W. A. Bolme, in the role of the chef, is very good as a comedian but he seemed to be suffering from hoarseness last night, which impaired his voice. However, he made a decided hit in "Let Me Go Back to That Dear Old Chicago Town." Lon Chaney, as Lord Mite, pulled off some very funny stunts.

The scenery was adequate, though not elaborate, and the electrical effects were conspicuous by their absence.

erating electrical energy as well as to afford an abundant supply for irrigating a large tract of valley land. The electric power will be transmitted to towns and industrial plants in that region.

Chapala Hydro-Electric & Irrigation company has obtained a loan of $2,200,000 which will be used to erect a new hydro-electric plant at Puente Grande, on the Santiago river, near Guadalajara, and in the construction of transmission lines to the mining districts of Etzatlán and Hostotipaquillo. The company has also obtained a loan of $3,000,000 from the federal government. The latter sum will be used to build a dike across a portion of Lake Chapala and in the construction of an extensive system of irrigation canals and ditches. The company has headquarters at Guadalajara.

Adolfo Fartinez has obtained a concession from the federal government for the installation of a hydro-electric plant on the Quetzalpa river, state of Hidalgo. He has had surveys made for the proposed plant and it is claimed that 10,000 horsepower can be generated. Transmission lines will be built to industrial centers in that section. Mr. Fartinez is said to be representing large financial interests in the proposed enterprise.

Jose Riaz Rubin, who recently obtained a concession from the federal government for the utilization of the water in the Matamoros river for generating electric power, is preparing to build a dam across the stream and install a hydro-electric plant. He will furnish power to neighboring towns and industrial plants in that section. He lives at Puebla.

The Guanajuato Reduction & Mines company has begun the construction of an electric railway which will run from its Las Playas mines to the yards at Zacoalco. The road will be a freight business exclusively and will be one of a number of electric mining roads in the Guanajuato district.

ABDUL A TROUBLE-MAKER.

Ex-Sultan a Constant Menace to Turkish Government.

Is Trying Hard to Regain His Power, It Is Reported—Where His Enormous Wealth Went—One Report Says That the Liberal Leaders Got $70,000,000.

Constantinople, Sept. 24.—A few months ago, when Abdul Hamid was deposed and exiled to Salonica, the world thought that the troubles caused by the "Red Sultan" had come to an end. Unfortunately this is not proving true, and Abdul Hamid at his Allatini villa has made himself again the center of attraction. Old Abdul evidently will not remain inactive so long as he is alive. Attempts to escape and conspiracies are the talk now from the new Yildiz in Salonica, and the Young Turks hesitate to hasten the ex-sultan's trial and condemnation. This has been a mystery to all, but of that mystery I have been hearing explanations. When the Liberal armies were marching on Constantinople and Abdul Hamid's life was in danger, according to the story I hear, he drew from various banks over seventy-two million dollars and to the moment of his surrender he hoarded this money in some unknown corner at the Yildiz Kiosk. Abdul now wants the money, but the treasurer is not there! Where is it?

The wealth found at the Yildiz and turned over to the public treasury amounted to $7,500,000, and nobody guessed that Abdul had any more until he recently began to speak to the officer to whose charge he has been intrusted. This officer came to Constantinople and an investigation was made. Abdul had given dates and his treasury was withdrawn of whatever cash he has had. But with the exception of a few high officials in Constantinople, the affair is kept strictly secret, although it appears that sooner or later a great scandal must stir the capital again.

Various theories are advanced here about this lost treasure. Some say that as Abdul is shrewd, he has taken away the money and has it somewhere to be used for a conspiracy. Others say that during the storm Abdul Hamid's friends at the Yildiz divided the money among themselves. Some of these kind friends of his were hanged, but nothing about any such stealing was said during their trial or after their condemnation. The most dangerous statement made is that those who first entered the Yildiz on April 27 last, when the sultan was deposed—that those men, the liberal leaders, looted the treasury. This is a serious accusation against Young Turk leaders high in public admiration, and, if proved to be true a factional war among the Young Turks would be a natural outcome.

Turkey's peace is menaced not alone by Abdul's wealth. His dream is to reorganize his partisans and march on the capital with an army to regain his power and punish his enemies. This is not idle talk, and there is much in evidence to show that the history of the most energetic Turk has not been closed yet. There is some unknown hand working with him in the land. Twice he has attempted to escape. After a month of residence at the Allatini villa he succeeded in bribing some of his guards, and at night a light took place within the walls of the villa. Three were killed, and seventeen were arrested and brought to this city to be tried before a court-martial. The ex-sultan himself was found out of doors ready to flee.

Another episode is more recent. On the day of the first anniversary of the Ottoman constitution Abdul Hamid entered into the spirit of the celebration. He bought thousands of dollars' worth of fireworks, and the illumination of the villa was the best, they say, in the empire. But the same day he was celebrating and professing to be so happy he was conspiring against the Liberals. On July 23 last he had a quarrel with three of his wives, and drove them out of the villa. At the gates the women were arrested and searched. A letter was found in their possession addressed to an Albanian reactionary. It contained suggestions for a plot against the Young Turk rule. It is even said that one of these heavily-veiled women was Abdul Hamid himself, but this cannot be verified. Since these occurrences the guard at the villa has been reinforced and high walls have been raised, the kind that Abdul Hamid built around the Dolma-Bache palace, where his brother, the present sultan, was imprisoned for many years.

While the ex-sultan lives at the Allatini villa and dreams of overcoming his enemies, his partisans are not inactive. It must be remembered that 15,000 soldiers were sent to Monastir to build public roads as a punishment for their reactionary demonstration on April 13 last. Now I am informed on good authority that one-third of them have already deserted their camps and have escaped to the Albanian mountains.

For the last three months there has been trouble in the Albanian provinces, and the central government has been unable to put down the insurrection. There are Albanians who are striving for independence; others who are partisans of the old regime, and a good majority of them are demanding a kind of autonomy for Albania. It is asserted that Niaz Bey, the "hero of the revolution," who is a native of Albania, and who after fleeing the Albanian mountains, a month ago suddenly left Constantinople for home, is the leader of the latter movement. Djavad Pacha's forces were beaten in the Albanian mountains. An army of 12,000 men was sent from Constantinople to reinforce the general's operations. For a while the Albanian provinces were supposed to be pacified. In the last few days news of late fighting is in circulation here in diplomatic circles. At the Sublime Porte they admit that the Albanians are refusing to pay taxes.

It is rumored here that the insurgent Albanians will march to Salonica, and after freeing the Allatini prisoner, they will march on the capital to re-establish the old regime. Strange happenings at ways are common in Turkey. The "Liberty" soldiers, came mostly from Albania, and another army with different ideals, might appear some day before the Byzantine walls, coming down from the same spot. Mahmoud Schefket Pacha is reported as saying: "It won't be a surprise if some day they hang me on the bridge on the very same spot where the reactionaries were hanged. I know my history lesson well."

Not less uneasiness prevails in this city. Hieroglyphic marks have been appearing over the doors of Greek and Armenian stores and houses, and parties responsible for this have not been found yet. In Turkey these nightly chalk marks mean massacres of the Christians. During the last days of his downfall Abdul Hamid failed in his plan to massacre the Christians, in order to bring foreign intervention; now it is claimed that the reactionaries in Constantinople are plotting a new massacre for the same purpose, to get rid of the committee rule.

A few mornings ago the local papers announced a revolution and fighting against the Turkish government in Yemen, Arabia. The soldiers in Heljan have been attacked by Arabian insurgents, and it is in the hands of revolutionists, and it will be twenty days before Turkish reinforcements can reach their destination. It is said that back of this Arabian movement is Izzet Pacha, Abdul Hamid's former secretary, who is an Arab himself, and who is plotting for the re-establishment of the Arabian empire.

WANTS THIRTY MARRIAGES.

Priest Gives His Flock Until New Year's to Evolve Them.

Norristown, Pa., Sept. 24.—The congregation of St. Gertrude's Church, West Conshohocken, has been given a time limit in which to make a record of thirty weddings, according to the observations of the Rev. Peter Quinn, the pastor of the flock. Father Quinn made the suggestion yesterday when he was making the announcement of his matrimonial alliances. He referred to the recent lawn fetes and picnics, which were not only gratifying financially, but were social successes as well. Finding that the young people of his flock were becoming better acquainted, Father Quinn concluded that there ought to be more matrimonial alliances as a consequence of the reign of so much sociability among the younger people, who had responded numerously and energetically in raising needed church funds. Accordingly, he gave the congregation until New Year's to evolve the thirty marriages.

NIGHT COURSES FOR WORKING MEN

OFFICERS OF YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION WILL CONDUCT EVENING CLASSES, COMMENCING OCT. 1, AND CONTINUING UNTIL APRIL 1.

R. J. Wise, secretary of the Ishpeming branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, has completed arrangements for a night school during the fall and winter months. It will open a week from today, Oct. 1, and will close April 1.

The purpose of the association's night school is to enable men to increase their efficiency, thus preparing them for better positions and salaries. A schedule of classes for the different studies has been arranged, and the study hours each evening will be between 7:30 and 9:30 o'clock.

A special course, prepared by Dr. Peter Roberts of New York, will be offered to foreigners desiring to learn English. The student can begin speaking English at the first lesson, progressing step by step until he can converse on numerous subjects, using correct pronunciation. There will be two night classes and two day classes each week for a term of six months. Those taking this course may attend any of the classes. The fee for the term of six months will be $4.

An electrical club will be formed for the purpose of studying electrical engineering, and instructions will be given by lectures, general discussion and recitations on a text. Practical problems will be given supplementing the theoretical study.

The course in mechanics will comprise a study of Ohm's law; electro magnets and the magnetism of iron; the theory and characteristics of continuous current generators and motors, including series, shunt and compound wound machines; the theory of commutation, parallel operation and speed control of motors, together with a discussion of the principles of generator and motor testing. GIRL WINS $350 PIANO.

Olive Fowler, 743 Michigan Street, is a Fortunate Young Lady.

The judges in the Baldwin Piano company's missing letter contest, William Andrews, judge of the municipal court; C. D. Cole, manager of Childs' Art gallery, and Rev. A. Savola, pastor of the Finnish Lutheran church, met yesterday afternoon at J. N. Fahrman's store in the McEneaney block, and examined the 300 or more solutions. Some of them were almost perfect and it was with much difficulty that the judges selected the three winners from among the twenty that were most accurate.

Miss Olive Fowler, daughter of Alfred Fowler, 743 Michigan street, was awarded first prize, a $350 Hamilton piano. Miss Fowler is fourteen years of age and an exceptionally bright girl. Her answer to the contest was perfect in every detail. George Douglas, 147 Douglas street, son of Captain J. H. Dunstan of the Salisbury mine, was awarded second prize, and C. B. Skiff of Negaunee was given third prize. The latter is a new comer to the city.

The judges did not know from whom the answers had been received, as the names of the participants were not made known to them.

Miss Nielsen's support includes Marvel MacGregor, a well known actor. The remainder of her cast includes all of the people who were with her last season when she presented "A Doll's House" at the Studabaker theater, Chicago, and the Davidson theater, Milwaukee.

ISHPEMING

ODD FELLOWS' HALL.

Ahmek Lodge Will Take Possession of New Quarters Oct. 1.

The carpenters and painters will soon finish their work in the second story of the Odd Fellows' block, corner Main and Pearl streets. The hall that Ahmek lodge is to occupy will be one of the most attractive in the city. The decorations, which have just been completed by Trembath Bros., are artistic. The walls are buff colored, with trimmings of white, gold and light green. The panel designs were selected with excellent taste.

The hall will be brilliantly lighted by electricity, the lights being controlled from the presiding officer's chair. The several ante-rooms leading from the hall are being finished in buff, and the dining room, kitchen and pantry, on the north side of the building, are to be papered.

One of the important alterations on the second floor was the removal of the turn at the top of the front stairs, which gives considerably more room than there were formerly. New windows have been provided throughout. A glass window is still to be put in the office room on the corner, and the six office rooms are yet to be decorated. A new stairway has been built in the rear and windows have been placed in both halls, which were formerly dark. Ladies' and men's toilets have been provided on the second floor. The new steam plant has been tested.

The lodge will hold its first meeting in the new quarters the week after next. Court Pride of the Independent Order of Foresters, Sir Humphrey Davey lodge, Sons of St. George, and the Modern Maecabees will assemble there, and will have their present meeting places next month.

"FAUST" TUESDAY EVENING.

The Daily Herald of Reading, Pa., said of Porter J. White's "Faust," which will be the attraction at Ishpeming theater next Tuesday evening:

"That a first-class attraction will draw a large audience was demonstrated at the Academy last evening when Porter White's company, an ensemble of marked capability, gave a most enjoyable and artistic presentation of 'Faust' to an audience that filled every available seat in the house. It was the best production of 'Faust' ever given in this city. The entire play was a grand success and every player a proclaimer."

The company's business at Little Lake is now much larger than ever before, the increase being due to the heavy transfer business with the Marquette & South-eastern branch to Gwin.

All the World Will Join in Honoring the Discoverer of a Great River and the Man Who Made It of the Greatest Service.

Astor-Lenox-Tilden public library, and the naval pageants of historic and illuminated floats opposite the Riverside Park, there will be thrown open during the celebration a great number of private and public collections of historic interest.

The parades of street floats down Fifth avenue and through the court of honor, past the reviewing stands, have been planned two years in advance and worked out by a great staff of artists, sculptors, costumers and designers, night and day, in a specially designed factory.

But impressive as the naval parades will be, and colorful as will be the pageants, there is no question that the greatest popular interest attaches to the airship flights that will be made from Governor's island some time during the first week of celebration.

Lavish Electrical Decorations. Busy as will be the days, the nights will be perhaps even more beautiful. For a week during the Hudson-Fulton celebration the city of New York in all its bounding will be the most brilliantly illuminated in the world.

Hidden Searchlights Will Play. The Singer tower, the white shaft of the new Metropolitan tower, the Flatiron building, the Times building and all the better known and more conspicuous private buildings, as well as all the municipal buildings, will be made the objects of special display.

JOSEPH H. ROBERTS HAS PASSED AWAY

PURCHASED FARM.
John Mitchell Has Bought George McDonald's Property at Three Lakes.

George McDonald, who has conducted a farm at Three Lakes for some years, has sold his interests there to John Mitchell of this city, who intends to move his family there next spring. The farm is an extensive one.

Mr. McDonald has kept the property in fine condition and he has good buildings, including a large dwelling and barns. The territory about Three Lakes is attractive and in time there will doubtless be a large number of summer camps in that vicinity. There are at present four camps there, owned by Peter Trudell, Jr., Harry Trembath and Abram Boulson of this city, and Werner Niander of Ishpeming.

Mr. Mitchell, who was in the grocery business here for some years, and who was at one time treasurer of Marquette county, has had extensive experience in farming and he will doubtless make a success of the Three Lakes venture.

A CLEVER ACTRESS.

Miss Hortense Neilson, who will be seen at McDonald's Opera House Tuesday evening in Isben's "A Doll House," is of Danish birth, although American bred. She has achieved her greatest success in the role of Nora Helmer in Isben's masterpiece. Besides being an actress of ability Miss Neilson frequently gives public lectures in high schools and colleges, usually speaking on Isben's works. She has been appearing almost exclusively in "A Doll's House" for the past three years, and it is said that she has a strong supporting company, including Norval MacGregor, an actor with a fine reputation. Miss Neilson and her company produced "A Doll's House" at the Starbuck theater in Chicago and at Davidson's theater in Milwaukee last season.

CHANGE TIME OF CEREMONY.

The ceremonies incident to the laying of the corner stone of the Scandinavian society's new block on Gold street will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock sharp, instead of at 2, as at first intended. The members of the society have been requested to turn out in a body and they are asked to meet at their hall as soon after 12:30 as possible. The program of exercises will consist of prayer by Rev. E. F. Hicks, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, and addresses by Mayor Winter and T. A. Thoren. The latter will review the history of the society from the date of its organization until the present time.

Thomas Pascoe, who is to be cashier of the new Negaunee State bank, was busy yesterday getting the rooms in order for the opening, which will take place some day next week, probably Monday.

Thomas Trengrove, a former resident of Ishpeming, who is now located at Evelevet, Minn., was in the city yesterday. He visited the Negaunee cemetery where eleven members of his family are buried. He will probably have the bodies removed to the Ishpeming cemetery.

The Negaunee baseball team will go to Munising tomorrow morning to play the last game of the season with that nine. The Marquette-Alger league series will close a week from tomorrow, when the Negaunee team will meet the Marquette team at Union Park. The Ishpeming nine will go to Munising that day and will probably play a double-header. The Marquette and Ishpeming teams will play off their remaining two games today and tomorrow at Union Park. Both contests will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Hans Rasmussen, an old resident of the city, has been critically ill the past few days. He was obliged to give up his work at the Pioneer avenue crossing over a week ago. Because of his advanced age it is feared he will not survive.

The services at St. John's Episcopal church tomorrow will be: Holy communion at 8 o'clock; morning prayer at 10:30; Sunday school at 11:45, and evening song at 7:30. The D. L. S. society will meet on Monday evening when a musical program will be given.

TRANSFER OF REV. COOMBE TO IRONWOOD WAS NOT EXPECTED BY FRIENDS HERE.

The announcement that Rev. C. Planette had been appointed by the Detroit conference to the pastorate of the Mitchell Methodist church, succeeding Rev. W. B. Coombe, who is to be transferred to Ironwood, was a surprise to the friends of Coombe in Negaunee. When Rev. Coombe left for the conference, over a week ago, he expected to be returned to Negaunee. Rev. Coombe is expected home today, but it was not known yesterday when he will reach his farewell sermon. He has been here for the past four years, having been transferred from the copper country. During this period he has made a number of notable improvements at the property and he leaves with the church in good condition in every way. His departure will be regretted. Rev. Coombe is an orator of ability and the church at Ironwood is to be congratulated on securing his services.

Rev. Planette has been at Menominee for the past two years, ever since he entered the Detroit conference. He is formerly a member of the Erie, Pa., conference, where he spent several years. He is a married man. It is not known just when he will arrive here, but it is not unlikely that he will reach at the Negaunee church until two weeks from tomorrow.

AUSTRIA'S WAR ON SNAKES.

Austria's new territory is undesirable rich in snakes, mostly of the poisonous varieties, and the government is taking vigorous measures to exterminate them. HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The high school orchestra met Thursday evening.

A meeting of the Girls' Glee club was held yesterday afternoon.

Superintendent E. E. Scribner gave a short talk to the school Thursday, at 1:30.

Angela S. Linnacher, '09, visited classes Monday afternoon, with Marguerite McEnroe.

We were very sorry to learn of the death of Nels Thompson, father of Carl Thompson, our senior classmate, and we wish to offer our deepest sympathy to the family of the deceased.

The teachers of the city have formed a literary society with the following officers: President, E. E. Scribner; vice president, Miss L. Fisher; secretary, Miss E. Carlyon; treasurer, C. L. Phelps.

The girl football "rovers" of the high school held a meeting Wednesday at 3:30, and practiced all of the football cheers. Marguerite Scribner was chosen cheer leader for all the games this year. She will have her hand at the game to be played this morning between Ishpeming and Negaunee at Union Park.

The senior class held a meeting Thursday and elected the editorial staff for its Annual, which will be published the latter part of the year. The staff is as follows: Editor in chief, Clarence Bystron; business manager, John Neary; art editor, Marie Lind; clubs editor, Lawrence Lind; secretary, John and Cecelia; Marguerite Scribner; class editor, Ted Butler; athletic editor, H. Herbert Hodson.

The Boys' Debating club met Thursday and the following program was chosen for Thursday, Sept. 30: Topical speech, "Interstate Commerce Commission." Lawrence Lind; oration for debate, "Resolved, That all railroads in the United States should be owned and operated by the federal government." Don Haven, Louis Umuthi, affirmative; Albert Bashaw, John Neary, negative; declamation, George Dunston.

Our football team will line up against the Negaunee High school team at 10 o'clock this morning at Union Park, and a very fast and furious game can be expected. Coach Watson has about twenty men in his squad and most likely all of them will be seen in the game today. The strength of the team can not very well be estimated until after a few games have been played as a majority of the men are new and are not in the best of condition on account of the early fall weather. The following are the men who will be given a try-out in today's game: Fager, Luffington, Kangas, M. Sivala, ends; Markert, Hodgson, Henrickson, Hayden, Isakles, Dandon, Bashaw, Bargh, E. Johnson, C. Johnson, Chils, guards; Niemi, center; Butler, Nolan, Stein, quarterback; E. Sivala, Thoney, halfbacks; Henrickson, Kangas, Nolan, fullbacks. The admission price will be fifteen cents to all.

The Girls' Literary society has been divided into four sections. At the head of each division has been placed a supervisor, whose duty is to make out a program for each a month in the section which she represents. The divisions and officers are as follows: Division 1, Marguerite Scribner; division 2, Irene Backett; division 3, Margaret Peneliet; division 4, Marie Lovell. The first program under the new arrangement was very successfully given yesterday by the first division. The program was as follows: Piano solo, Louise Harwood; reading, "Marco Tullius," Mary Small; recitation, "Pictures of Memory," Nora O'Brien;

SIBERIA THE FUTURE GRANARY OF EUROPE.

Development of the Country Is Rapid Now—Settlers Are Flooding There—Russian Government Owns All the Land, but Is Expected to Remove Restrictions.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 24.—One of the most interesting features connected with the opening of Siberia lies in the future of the food supply of the world, in which the enormous areas of virgin soil in its western section are destined to play an important part. With the present rapid settlement and development of the vast Khirgiz steppes, with the expected construction of railways assuring the outlet of Siberian wheat to Russia's northern, western and southern ports, the last-named being assured of cheap and easy transit when the establishment of water communication between the basins of the Volga and Don has been accomplished, the steadily increasing production of wheat from Siberia will find ready access to Western Europe.

Available statistics show that every family of settlers has on an average, twenty-two acres under wheat at the end of the third year. The average harvest per acre is equal to about 300 quarters, of which about eighty quarters go for the consumption of the family, the remainder being available for the market. There are now over 30,000 households in this position. On the basis of this calculation it is estimated that the present annual surplus is about 1,000,000. But this amount is only a fraction of the estimated surplus during ensuing years, since the number of households settled in Western Siberia during the years 1906-07-08 exceeds 150,000, or five times the number previously settled.

Land Owned by the State.

One of the most serious drawbacks to the investment of capital in industrial enterprises in Siberia lies in the fact that all the land remains the property of the state or crown, with the exception of town lands. The emigrants do not become freeholders, but only have the usufruct of the land allotted to them. The difficulty of acquiring land raises a serious obstacle to the development of industries. Its removal can not be long deferred.

As regards mining, Siberia also suffers from restrictions which do not prevail in European Russia. For instance, in the Altai region, which is known to be rich in mineral wealth, the right of mining is hampered by the necessity of obtaining a special permission from the mining authorities in each case. Many of the iron deposits in the Altai are geologically related to the Urals. Copper, lead and silver are also met with in great abundance, but the chief wealth of the Altai lies in its coal deposits, which will, no doubt, be worked on a large scale as soon as the present restrictions on mining are removed.

FROM MORGAN'S CURB LETTER.

The New York market opened higher, but immediately became soft, and the stocks which showed any activity sold off. There was no news of importance on the market. About noon some strength developed and recoveries were made. Butte stocks were somewhat weaker. The features in Boston, both issues being heavily traded in. The former sold down on news of trouble between the unions in Butte, and the latter gained, on the expectation of its smelter being placed in commission shortly. All Butte stocks were somewhat weaker. Adventure and Shannon were stronger. The balance of the list was practically unchanged. Butte wired early this morning: "The miners refused to go to work on the eight o'clock shift this morning on account of the difference between the miners' and engineers' unions. The mining companies are in no way involved and refuse to side with either. Nearly every mine in the camp is closed."

Chief was in demand on the curb, being readily taken at 1½. Cumberland Ely was weaker, selling down to 6%. The others were quiet, with no changes of importance.

JAMES C. MAYBRAY KNOWN LOCALLY

ALLEGED RACE TRACK SWINDLER, INDICTED BY FEDERAL GRAND JURY, HERE IN 1899.

RAN IN TOURNAMENT RACES

Member of Fire Department Says It Was
He Who, Under Name of Ducette,
Defeated Daniels, of Ishpeming.

James C. Maybray, who was indicted by a federal grand jury for fraudulent use of the mails at Council Bluffs, Ia., Thursday, is the man who won the professional footrace at the firemen's tournament, held in Marquette in 1899, according to a member of the hose company. Maybray entered the race as the representative of the Marquette department, under the name of Charles Ducette, of Antrim.

The race was one in which there was a great deal of interest, and which is recalled with pleasure by some Marquette people, who claim to have received a number of the Ishpeming and Negaunee visitors of some of their spare change as the result of Maybray's beating out D. J. Daniels, which name is said to have been a nom de plume assumed by another professional sprinter, better known as the "Kansas Cyclone." As both the Marquette and the up-the-road men were backing "ringers," and neither crowd knew there were two out and out professionals in the race, the letting was lively.

"Just before the race was pulled off, I understand the two runners recognized each other and for a time it looked as if the race would fall through, but the men were finally induced to start, and the fact of their mutual recognition did not leak out among the crowd. At that time Maybray was a college athlete and he was just as anxious as were his Marquette supporters that his identity should be kept a secret, as he would have been barred from participation in college athletics, had it become known that he ran for money. I think the two raced for a purse of $250."

Story of the Race.
The Mining Journal of Aug. 12, 1899 contains the following account of the race:
"The afternoon's program was opened with the 100-yard professional foot race. It was to take place at 1:30 but the preparations for it consumed so much time that it was finally pulled off in the beginning of the cloudburst that deluged the city and soaked the crowds in the grand stand. There were four entries in the race: Charles Ducette, of Antrim; D. J. Daniels of Ishpeming; Matt Dooley and Mart Fisher of the Copper country. Ducette won by a wide margin, but very little of it was covered, though Daniels' supporters took some bets.

"So much time was lost in the attempt to arrange ropes for the runners that the first drops of a heavy shower were felt before they were on the mark and they started in a heavy rain. Developments proved that the race would have been better omitted from the program. It was seen as the men came into the line that something was wrong, as Daniels and Ducette were running alone. The men traveled at a terrific pace and Ducette won out by about four feet, making the distance in 14.2 seconds.

"A great row followed the finish of the race. Daniels, Fisher and Dooley all asserted that the start was dead wrong and that Ducette had the best end of the deal. Daniels says he was beaten right on the start by Ducette, who jumped out four or five yards. Neither Dooley nor Fisher started from the mark, being hopelessly distanced at the beginning of the race.

"On starter Martin Delaney declaring that the start was all right, E. W. McPherran and John Mangum, who officiated as judge and referee, declared Ducette the winner and all bets were paid accordingly. Ducette's supporters cleaned up a neat sum, as they placed money wherever they could. There was much discussion and bad feeling over the race and as it was run at a time when everyone was scurrying for shelter, it was not much of an addition to the program."

R. C. SHADY WAS CHAIRMAN.

R. C. Shady, formerly of Munising and now residing at Gorgona, Panama, has sent The Mining Journal a copy of the theater program gotten out for the presentation of "Captain Rackett" by the Gorgona Dramatic club, which was played at the National theater in Panama on Labor Day, for the benefit of the Red Cross society. The program is an attractive, eight-page booklet, and suggests that the presentation was the result of a great amount of labor. Mr. Shady is chairman of the Gorgona division of the Red Cross in the canal zone.

MUST REPORT CASES OF TUBERCULOSIS

UNDER NEW LAW PHYSICIANS HAVE HARD AND FAST DUTY—
PREMISES OCCUPIED BY PATIENTS
MUST BE DISINFECTED.

Health Officer Dr. Z. Vadnais has recently received a copy of the tuberculosis law passed by the last legislature, which is modeled after the law now in effect in New York state, and has been declared by medical men to be the best law yet passed by any state.

The law makes it the duty of every physician to report in writing the name, nativity, age, color, sex, occupation, place where last employed and address of every person known by said physician to have tuberculosis, within twenty-four hours after such knowledge is obtained. Blanks for this purpose are furnished by the state board of health. In addition to the information already outlined, the physician must report the evidence upon which his diagnosis was made, the part of the body affected and the stage of the disease. Fifty cents is allowed the physician for each case so reported to the health officer. These reports shall be transmitted quarterly by the health officer to the state board of health.

In case of the vacating of any apartment or premises by the death of removal therefrom of a tuberculosis patient, the attending physician shall report the same to the health officer, whose duty it becomes to see that the apartment or premises so vacated is thoroughly renovated and disinfected before again occupied.

In case the orders of the health officer to disinfect a former abode of a tuberculosis patient are not obeyed within forty-eight hours, the health officer may place the house or apartment as follows: "Tuberculosis is a communicable disease. These apartments have been occupied by a consumptive and may be infected. They must not be occupied until the order of the health officer directing their renovation and disinfection has been complied with. This notice must not be removed under penalty of the law except by the health officer or other duly authorized official."

It shall be the duty of any physician attending a tuberculosis patient to instruct the other members of the family regarding the communicable nature of the disease and as to how they may escape infection. The physician shall also transmit a circular issued by the state board of health, to the patient, to inform him of the precautions necessary to avoid transmitting the disease to others.

Any persons violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $50. A physician who fails to report any case of tuberculosis or falsifies any such report is liable to a fine of not to exceed $100.

It's the "bluing" in laundry work which makes the "whiteness." Some "blues" cost $3, other cost $6. We use only the $6 kind. That's why our work is twice as white as some other work.
