Notwithstanding His Announcement That He Would Not Be a Candidate, His Supporters Place Him in Nomination.

Four Thousand Admirers of the ex-Congressman Fill Every Seat in the Big Hall, and When He Is Formally Made the Standard Bearer of His Following the Demonstration Continues for Twenty Minutes Before the Calls for Order Are Heard.

New York, Oct. 6.—William Randolph Hearst was nominated for mayor of Greater New York tonight at a mass meeting of four thousand of his admirers at Cooper Union, despite his announcement that he would not be a candidate. Every seat in the hall was filled, and when Mr. Hearst was nominated the demonstration lasted twenty minutes before the chairman's calls for order were heard.

The principal address was by Wm. M. Ivis, the Republican candidate against Mr. Hearst and Mayor McEllan. Four years ago, Mr. Ivis said: "Four years ago I would have regarded Mr. Hearst's election a public calamity. But I am now convinced that there is not a more sincere, public-spirited and capable citizen before the public than Mr. Hearst."

Former Governor Black Argues Before the Court of Appeals.

Albany, Oct. 6.—Former Governor Black today before the court of appeals attacked the constitutionality of the law under which Harry Thaw was committed to the Matteawan hospital for the criminal insane. Mrs. Thaw and her daughter, the former Countess of Yarmouth, listened to the arguments. General Black contended that the commitment was made without due process of law, since there was no proof that Thaw was insane at the time of his arrest.

DR. COOK FAIRLY MOBBED. His Welcome at St. Louis So Strenuous He Narrowly Escapes Injury.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—The appearance of Dr. Frederick A. Cook in the Union station late today turned a crowd of ten thousand centennial visitors into a mob, each member of which tried to pat the explorer on the back. The result was a crush wherein the explorer, his wife and the reception committee narrowly escaped injury. The cheering of Dr. Cook began fifty miles from the city. He stood on the rear platform and bowed his acknowledgements. Tonight he delivered an illustrated lecture at the Coliseum.

TRAIN WRECKERS BLAMED. Santa Fe Engineer Is Killed and Seven Other Men Are Injured.

VERRAZANO'S MEMORY HONORED AT NEW YORK.

Italians from Four States Parade Down Broadway to the Battery and There Unveil a Statue of the Man Who They Claim Discovered the Hudson Long Before Dutch Arrived.

New York, Oct. 6.—Contending that in the discovery of the Hudson river, as in the case of the North pole, there is "honor enough for two," thousands of Italians smothered in flags, hunting and gay uniforms paraded down Broadway to the Battery this afternoon and there unveiled a statue of Giovanni De Verrazano, whom historians describe as the first trans-Atlantic voyager to arrive at New York. The Italians maintain that Verrazano discovered the Hudson eight-five years before the Half Moon's arrival. The parade was comprised of 250 Italian societies of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts. Nearly 2,000 Italian men and women and 300 sailors from the Italian cruisers Etna and Etruria marched. A number of cliff dwellers in Broadway skyscrapers threw paper bags filled with water and other missiles down upon the marchers. The monument is a heroic bust upon a pedestal seventeen feet high. The only English inscription is an extract from the writings of the historian Fiske, stating: "There is no doubt whatever of Verrazano entering New York harbor in 1492."

LONDON EXPECTS COMPROMISE. With King Intervening, Budget Bill Is Likely to Be Modified.

London, Oct. 6.—While the house of commons is concluding the commission stage of the budget, the king is working hard to prevent the crisis which the government's financial proposals threaten to precipitate. The leaders of both parties are silent, but the rank and file demand "no surrender." It appears likely that the bill will be modified before it leaves the lower house, thus enabling the king, without loss of prestige, to agree to the bill, on the understanding that a parliamentary election be held in January.

Glen Curtiss Having Previously Captured the Aviation Honors, Both Blue Ribbons of the Air Are Now Held by the United States—America's Long Distance Contest Is Won by the Big Gas Bag St. Louis III, Which Covers Nearly 600 Miles.

Zurich, Oct. 6.—The Gordon Bennett international cup race has been won by Edgar W. Mix, the American aeronaut, whose balloon, the American, landed near Warsaw, Poland, early yesterday. The racing committee unofficially estimates the distance covered by Mix at 650 miles, or 198 miles more than Leblanc, a French competitor, who landed near Warsaw, Poland, early yesterday. A telegram from Mix says that the weather throughout was very bad, there being a continuous rain and fog. He was up thirty-five hours and saw the sun for the first time as he was landing Tuesday. Some of the contestants relate perilous experiences.

PARIS TO BANQUET THE WINNER.

Paris, Oct. 6.—While the French people are disappointed to have the United States hold both blue ribbons of the air, Glen Curtiss having captured the aviation honors, Mix, the winner of the international balloon race, is popular here, and the Aero club of France probably will give a banquet in his honor. Mix was assistant to Leblanc in 1907. Since then he has been an active aeronaut. Mix's home is Chicago, Ill.

TRAVIS AND HIS PARTNER DEFEATED.

New York, Oct. 6.—Frederic S. Douglas and Professor Alex. Smith defeated Walter J. Travis and Tom Vardon, a British professional, in a thirty-six hole match play at the Hackensack Golf club today, four up, two to play. Travis was decidedly off in his putting, which fact was the strongest feature of his game. During the first twenty-seven holes the only assistance that Travis gave Vardon was securing a half with Smith in the bogey on the sixteenth hole. The home stretch, Travis gave a splendid exhibition of his former championship form.

The time also equals the world's record for two-year-olds, made by Directly in 1897. The air line distance from St. Louis is 590 miles, and the time was 41 hours and 35 minutes, which breaks the distance and endurance records. Walkon is eighty miles west of Duluth, Minn.

Table with 2 columns: Race, Time. St. Paul, Oct. 6.—The balloon Indiana landed near Albany, Minn., at 10 o'clock this morning. Albany is twenty-five miles west of St. Cloud, and more than five hundred miles from St. Louis, the starting point. McGill, the pilot, was violently ill this morning, and his aide, J. H. Schauer, insisted that they descend for medical help. In descending, the balloon dashed into the tops and tore out a section of wire fence. Both men were thrown out. Schauer's shoulder was dislocated, and McGill was bruised.

NAVY OPENS FOOTBALL SEASON.

Although Winning from St. John's, 16 to 6, It Is Clearly Outplayed.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 6.—The navy opened the football season this afternoon and was clearly outplayed by the much lighter but faster eleven of St. John's college. While the score was 16 to 6 in favor of the navy, all the glory goes to the college team. The navy's back field men were unable to gain through their opponents' light but aggressive line.

UNITED STATES STEEL ON THE DOWN GRADE.

Persisting in Its Weakness, It Closes 7 1/2 Points Below the Top Record, Touched Monday—Stocks Generally Are Affected for a Time, but at End of the Day Are Little Changed in Price.

New York, Oct. 6.—There was further heavy speculative liquidation in all departments of the stock list today, and material losses were made on prices. United States Steel closed lower than yesterday and 7 1/2 points below the top record, touched Monday. The effect on the speculative world was seen in the enlarged volume of sales. Losses incurred, or threatened, involved some weakness in other stocks, which probably were liquidated to supply resources for safeguarding holdings of Steel.

Presumably, the violent relapse in Steel has most effect on the tone of the whole market in a purely sentimental aspect. The marvelous upward course of Steel had increased the speculative imagination as few things of late years had done. But foreign speculators especially have grown restive and suspicious that they were following only an ordinary stock market maneuver, of which the increase in the Atchison dividend was a disconcerting influence.

The market lost its mainstay with the failure to sustain Steel and proved vulnerable to the effect of the calling of loans by the banks. The reception accorded the increase in the Atchison dividend was a disconcerting influence. Atchison started upward, but stopped nearly two points short of its high price on the movement inaugurated in expectation of the dividend increase. At the same time, the heavy selling of Steel was renewed, to take advantage of the effect of Atchison's strength. The inference was a prospect of relief by this means for the money market was the main factor in the later effective rally in prices. The net price changes proved small, despite the wide fluctuations.

EX-BANKER MORSE SUCCESSFUL IN GIVING A NEW BOND FOR $125,000.

New York, Oct. 6.—The last of the twenty signatures required to validate the new bond for $125,000, which Charles W. Morse had to furnish to save himself from further incarceration until the federal court of appeals decides his case, were attached to the bond this afternoon. The renewal of the bond is regarded as an indication that the decision on the appeal, which has been looked for soon after the court's appeal convenes Oct. 11, may be delayed until winter. Morse is confident that his appeal from the sentence of fifteen years in prison, on conviction of violating the banking laws, will be granted. He has succeeded in paying off $7,500,000 of his debts.

SHIRAZ FOR AMERICAN TOURISTS.

Historic House at Stratford Becomes Property of Harvard University.

Stratford-on-Avon, Oct. 6.—While a guest on Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht some months ago, Marie Correll, the novelist, proposed to Edward Morris, of Chicago, that the house built at Stratford in the sixteenth century by the father-in-law of John Harvard, and in which Harvard had lived and which then was likely to be sold and demolished, be rescued and preserved as a shrine for American tourists. Mr. Morris, then a young physician, and the place for Harvard University, and named Miss Correll, Sir Thomas and others as trustees.

Miss Correll supervised the restoration of the quaint building and organized the dedication ceremony which was held today. American Ambassador Reid accepted the house in behalf of Harvard, in the presence of a representative assembly of Americans and English, after which Miss Correll entertained more than a hundred guests at lunch at her residence nearby. American flags and the Harvard crimson decorated both places. Miss Correll presented Ambassador Reid with the key to the house, in an eloquent speech. In part, she said: "When the Stratford folk mixed their chance, I thought it was time to make the property a gift to that wider world which has the intelligence and feeling to remember that from the lives of men like Harvard have sprung all the rich results of the present, and the shining connected with these great men should be allowed to perish."

GROCERS ADOPT CASH SYSTEM.

The groceryman of Newberry announces that beginning Nov. 1 their business will be conducted on a cash basis. No goods will be passed over their counters unless they are paid for. The credit system, with the frequent loss of numerous bad accounts, has long been the bane of the grocery business. The retailers have long been compelled to pay their goods on a closer margin, and that the customer who has been in the habit of paying cash will not hereafter be required to help pay the accounts of "dead beats" in higher prices. All will now be on an equal footing.

Bets that Honus Wagner will outlast Ty Cobb are somewhat the rage in old Pittsburgh town.

A cool quarter of a million dollars has been waged on the Detroit-Pittsburg series. And the sporting fans have not yet gotten their blood up.

The president, when he reached San Francisco, had traveled 5,925 miles, talked 112 times in public and had completed a third of his trip. And he was still as fresh as a daisy.

The University of Michigan football team is said to give greater promise than at any time for several years past. It is well. The team will have to have some class to trim up Pennsylvania, Syracuse and Minnesota, which will be necessary to make a wholly satisfactory season.

It seems to be the consensus of opinion that there will be what is termed in politics "a pretty little fight" over the succession to the office of collector of customs for this district. Numerous candidacies have been suggested. There's no likelihood that the position will go a-begging.

The Milwaukee Sentinel makes the mistake of saying that Herbert Parsons of New York asserted that Speaker Cannon was a party to the deal which he charges was entered into by up-state New York Republicans and Tammany members of congress, and reaches the conclusion that in view of Cannon's denial the issue is one of veracity between them. Parsons, however, did not charge that Cannon was a party to the deal, but only a beneficiary of it.

Inasmuch as Mr. Murphy and his Tammany dummies nominated Justice Gaylor, a man whose title to public notice has been based largely on his vitriolic abuse of this combination for the milking of New York, it is no more than fit and proper that William Randolph Hearst, whose chief title to distinction has been his hostility to the same outfit, should fall in line for Gaylor and all the rest of Murphy's work. Consistency is, indeed, a jewel, but oftentimes one is forced to conclude that it belongs in the category of rare gems.

Chase S. Osborn has been visiting in Grand Rapids and other lower state cities. He has parried press correspondents who wanted to know his political plans by references to the near approach of the deer hunting season and other subjects distantly removed from the one they were most interested in having him express himself on. But the impression everywhere went abroad that Mr. Osborn will be a factor in the gubernatorial race, and we have no doubt that it is correct. We note, also, that the lower Michigan newspapers comment that Mr. Osborn made friends at every turn.

Before his departure from New York this week Wilbur Wright made the statement that hereafter he and his brother will devote their energies to the commercial exploitation of their machines, and will leave the field for exhibitions to other aviators. Henceforth they intend to fly solely for experimental purposes. They do not wish to be regarded as showmen, and plan to refuse all offers to appear for exhibitions. "The flight up the Hudson," Mr. Wright says, "was more than an exhibition. It was more like the taking up of a challenge, or the making of a record to stand as a milestone in the history of aerial navigation."

The New York majority issue is to be fairly drawn between Mr. Barnard, the Republican nominee, supported by the Fusionists, and Justice Gaylor, supported by Tammany and Mr. Hearst's newspapers. In the few weeks intervening before election the voters will be thoroughly acquainted with the things for which the rival tickets stand. Justice Gaylor will be extolled, and will extoll himself, as an independent, who will govern the city for the best interests of all. But behind him, and to belie him, is the sinister figure of Mr. Murphy. Mr. Barnard will stand for business methods in municipal administration, for legislation to purify the ballot, for honest police administration, in short, for everything that is the antithesis of Tammany. There is nothing to becloud the voters, no third candidate to draw their support. They must make a direct choice between Barnard and Gaylor. Which will it be?

The growing importance of the apple crop in western Michigan is emphasized by the statement from Fennville that a quarter million dollars has already been paid growers in that vicinity this season for this fruit, largely by Chicago buyers, first class stock bringing $3.50 the barrel in the cars at that shipping point, says the Grand Rapids Herald. The chief drawback that apple growers have to contend with is the codling moth; and where proper attention is given to spraying the trees, a large crop of fine, unblemished fruit is practically assured. Without due care in spraying, the large proportion of the crop is pretty certain to be inferior and in small demand for the market. Profitable as is the peach crop in western Michigan, the apple crop is declared by not a few orchardists to be even more so, when taken year by year, and given careful, intelligent attention. For fruit culture western Michigan offers opportunities unequalled anywhere in the country.

The upholding of the verdict of the trial court, finding John R. Walsh guilty of misapplication of the funds of the Chicago National bank, by the court of appeals was anticipated, and is taken to almost certainly mean that Walsh will have to begin serving the five-year term in Fort Leavenworth prison to which he was sentenced by Judge Anderson. The only body that can now intervene is the federal supreme court, and this tribunal does not often review cases passed on by the court of appeals and still more infrequently changes the disposal made of them. In fact so rarely does the supreme court take up such appeals that the occasions when it is done are but the exception that prove the rule that the findings of the court of appeals may be regarded as final. The trial court is upheld on all the mooted points in the Walsh case, and the nature of the opinion handed down leaves but little likelihood that the supreme court will find this one of the few cases in which it sees fit to intervene. The path before Walsh now seems to lead straight to Fort Leavenworth. It is a sad ending of a career that led from dire poverty to the position of one of the dominant financial figures in the second city of the land. Walsh is an old and broken man. He has counted over seventy years. It is improbable that he would ever leave Fort Leavenworth prison alive.

STARTED SOMETHING.
When Chairman Parsons, of the New York county committee, charged that the bills sought for the purpose of making the New York city elections honest to the end that the Republicans might have a better chance of defeating Tammany—were defeated by up-state Republicans as part of a bargain by the terms of which certain Tammany votes in congress would be delivered for the upholding of the Cannon regime at the opening of the special session, he started something.
We noted yesterday that Speaker Cannon's remarks on the subject were pointless. In the first place he disclaimed any knowledge of what had been done in New York. In the second place his comments were confined to slurs on Parsons and a few brickbats for the insurgents, neither of which could be classified as argument on the question at issue. Parsons, however, in rejoinder to Cannon, has flatly reiterated his charges, and has declined to give an ell of ground.
Naturally such a sensational episode is attracting attention. It is remarked that a man as high in the party councils as Parsons would not likely make such charges unless he knew whereof he spoke. It is said that congress may be asked, either by the Democrats or by insurgent Republicans, to investigate the matter. Parsons says he can give names whenever the time is ripe. He is, apparently, ready for a fight on the issue, if one is forced.
Obviously Mr. Parsons' charges are not productive of party harmony. But he justifies them by saying that there is nothing that is more important than securing honest elections in New York, and that no crime against the people can be greater than conspiracy to defeat the passage of laws designed to secure greater sanctity for the ballot. The New York legislature refused to pass several bills that would have materially enhanced the chance of wholly cleaning out fraudulent voting in New York this fall. As the Republicans controlled the legislature it is clearly apparent that the interests of the Republicans in the metropolis were betrayed by representatives of their own party. It's plain to see that there was something rotten somewhere.
There may well be a congressional investigation into charges of such seriousness made by a man whose position in the party warrants what he says being received with attention. No more serious political scandal has been charged in years than the one alleged by Mr. Parsons to have operated to handicap the Republicans of New York city in order to benefit Speaker Cannon and his friends at Washington. It will be too bad if it is allowed to be smothered up without the entire truth becoming known.

OKLAHOMA'S BANKING LAW.
James K. Hsley, president of the Marshall & Hsley bank at Milwaukee, home from a trip to Oklahoma with the legislative committee that investigated the workings of the Oklahoma law guaranteeing bank deposits, comments unfavorably on the operation of that revolutionary statute. "Without emphasizing at this time the injustice of making one bank responsible for the dealings of its neighbors," he says, "it is manifest that the chief weakness of the law is the fact that it enables unscrupulous and incompetent men to enter the banking business and obtain deposits which they would be entirely incapable of obtaining if they depended upon their own business standing in the community. In other words, it lowers the standard of the entire banking business."
In support of this view Mr. Hsley relates the story of the closing of the Columbia Bank & Trust company the day after the Wisconsin party arrived at Oklahoma City. The management had obtained control of that institution eight or nine months before the crash, at which time its deposits were in the neighborhood of $360,000. In six months time, by offering high rates of interest and making all sorts of reckless promises, the deposits were built up to $2,800,000. These deposits were put out with a free hand, large amounts being loaned on oil enterprises of the president of the company, W. L. Norton, and other large sums being advanced to real estate speculators. More conservative bankers, familiar with the methods of the man managing the institution, feared trouble ultimately, but did not expect the crisis to come as early as it did.
However, on September 27 the Oklahoma City Clearing House association learned that the Columbia Bank & Trust company needed $250,000 cash to continue its business. It was decided to advance this amount, if satisfactory collateral could be produced. This condition, however, the company could not, or would not, meet, and the state banking department took possession on September 29, asserting that it would at once pay off all depositors in full. But the department did not make good. Small accounts were settled, but the larger ones were not met. Discrimination was alleged, the holders of the large accounts maintaining that if there was not at the time available sufficient funds for settling all accounts such money as was available should be distributed pro rata, and suit was brought for the appointment of a receiver. The action is still pending. Other complications enter into the matter, and one that is much trouble in settling.
It needs little more than the fact that it was possible to increase the deposits of this institution from $360,000 to $2,800,000 in six months to damn the Oklahoma law in the eyes of most people. Such expansion obviously cannot be anything but unsafe and unhealthy, and any law that permits it is, on prima facie evidence, a bad law. That the guarantee principle as applied to banking is fallacious certainly will be shown by experience. Meanwhile it is a commentary on the excellent sense of the mass of people that they have not been led astray by the superficial arguments that can be made for the plan. It has gained no ground.

THE LATE GAD N. SMITH.
A man of the blithe, wholesome, social qualities of the north country was Gad N. Smith, whose sudden death at Marquette has just been reported. During a space of a quarter of a century he was a familiar figure at the conventions and important conferences of his party. That he will be greatly missed by those who are accustomed to attend these gatherings is inevitable.
In political matters he believed in the efficacy of organization and was loyal as a party man and as a friend. His service for fourteen years as county clerk and in other offices attests to the opinion held of him by his neighbors.
Mr. Smith was much better known as a party leader than as a member of the bar and a great number of persons distributed among all the counties in the state had a pleasant acquaintance with him. That a large percentage of those who recall to him during the Civil war is a plausible conjecture, it being a subject on which he did not lay emphasis. From a private's rank he rose through merit to be a major in a Connecticut regiment.
Mr. Smith's public service in civil life included membership in the legislatures of both Connecticut and Michigan. For several years prior to his death he was collector of the port of entry at Marquette, to which office Sault Ste. Marie and Gladstone, Mich., and West Superior and Ashland, Wis., are attached as sub-ports of entry.—Detroit Free Press.

The news of the death of the Hon. Gad Smith of Marquette, United States collector of customs for the Superior district, will come as a surprise and sorrow to his best friends in Michigan, in the Republican party and particularly in the upper peninsula of Michigan, where Mr. Smith had long been known and loved.
He was a faithful servant and a diligent employe of the government. He regarded as a public friend in a public sense, and his record is one to which his surviving kin may point with pride. As a member of the Michigan senate and later, as a United States official, he did with his might what his hands found to do.
In private life and in the circle of family, of which he was a worthy exponent, he carried a gentle and charming disposition, at once a friend and counselor. In Menominee he was well known and some of his closest friends are residents of this city.—Menominee Herald-Leader.

The death of Gad Smith at Marquette will be regretted all over the upper peninsula, for Mr. Smith was well known and favorably known throughout the north country. He was one of the north country's sturdy products. His presence, for so many years, in the political life of the state gave him an acquaintance which was wide and those who knew him, even in a casual way, always felt delight in the personal acquaintance, and those who were closer to him were the better appreciative of his high qualities of mind and heart. His death is a distinct loss to Marquette.—Houghton Gazette.

PARSONS AND CANNON.
It is a fact that the so-called "signature" bill, a measure that would have made fraudulent registration and voting in New York city more difficult, was defeated through Tammany opposition and contemporaneous lack of interest on the part of up-state Republicans. It is also a fact that about the same time at Washington the Cannon "rule" were saved through the unexpected support given to them at the last moment by a group of Tammany and Brooklyn congressmen. It is also a fact that Lucius N. Littauer, who is reputed to possess large influence with up-state Republicans, was very busy last March in behalf of Speaker Cannon and placed the speaker under great obligation, for Mr. Littauer, a manufacturer of gloves, was able to secure in the house draft of the tariff bill the atrocious glove schedule that President Taft had great difficulty in getting out.
These facts are not matters of surprise or surprise to the common knowledge. Together they give plausibility to the direct charge of Herbert Parsons that a combination for specific purposes was reached last spring to which Albany, Tammany Hall, and some one representing the speaker's room at Washington agreed to purchase at an honest price all lands in America owned by negroes; to repeal the fifteenth amendment to the constitution and to disfranchise every negro voter in America; to remove every negro to the territory secured for this purpose and to establish the race in a government of its own, as an independent nation.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA.
They Clog the Pores—Only a Liquid Can Reach the Inner Skin.
Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and can not penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.
This is the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the only standard liquid eczema cure, oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. Prescription. After ten years of cure after cure, the world's leading skin specialists have accepted this as the true eczema cure.
We ourselves do not hesitate to recommend D. D. Prescription at $1 a bottle, but for the benefit of those who have never tried the prescription, we arranged with the D. D. Laboratories of Chicago to send a special large trial bottle at 25 cents on a special offer now. This first bottle ought to convince every sufferer, and, at any rate, it will surely take away the itch at once.

The objects are to secure homes for the American negroes outside of the United States; to purchase at an honest price all lands in America owned by negroes; to repeal the fifteenth amendment to the constitution and to disfranchise every negro voter in America; to remove every negro to the territory secured for this purpose and to establish the race in a government of its own, as an independent nation.

SANDWICH NAMED AFTER AN EARL
British Card Find Without Time to Eat Started the Idea.
London, Oct. 6.—During this season of seafood dinners and picnics it might be well to remember that the earl of Sandwich celebrated his seventieth birthday recently. And the earl of Sandwich is no relative of the duke of Marmalade and the prince of Mayonnaise, either, but a real British earl, with manes and title, recorded in the infallible peerage.
The article now known as a sandwich figured in man's speech as "bread and butter and" until the appearance of the fourth earl, who had a craze for card parties. When his lordship was gaming away his pocket money he would not allow himself to be disturbed either by meal hours or church hours or anything of that sort. Accordingly he always went to the card table with a small parcel under his arm "butter and bread and."
His habit became widely known in London society and was imitated by others. So it happened that when parties went to meet the earl at a card table they brought along their food and quite naturally the article of food was nicknamed and afterward named "sandwich."

FIRE DEPARTMENT EQUIPMENT.

Chief Louis Voetsch of Houghton Has Several New Ideas.

Chief Louis Voetsch, of the Houghton fire department, is constantly on the alert to improve the system and the service and his latest idea is to locate an alarm gong at the junction of Shelby and Franklin streets and college avenue, in order to insure a clear street when the department is responding to an alarm in East Houghton.

UPPER PENINSULA REUNION.

Spanish War Veterans Hold Meeting in Houghton to Decide.

A meeting of Gorge Miller camp, United Spanish War Veterans, was held at Houghton last night for the purpose of making preliminary arrangements for a reunion of the Spanish war veterans of the upper peninsula in Houghton next summer.

The only definite arrangement thus far made is the decision to hold the reunion in Houghton.

The Houghton fire department is now particularly well equipped, and Chief Voetsch said yesterday that it is in shape to cope successfully with any unusually large fire which might occur in the business district.

The Gamewell fire alarm telegraph system is in use in Houghton, and it is in good working order. There are nine alarm boxes, and attached to the system are sixteen gongs located in the houses of the paid firemen.

Chief Voetsch has two devices of his own invention on the alarm system. One is the division of the system into three loops, east, central and west.

The members of the department are all experienced firemen and have every facility for locating the fire immediately after the alarm is given.

The Rivals football team challenge any 140-pound team in the county to a game to be played in Marquette or elsewhere. Address communications to E. St. Julien, 125 North Third street.

Died at South Bend—News of the death of Mrs. Walter Baker, of South Bend, Ind., formerly Miss Etta Evans, of Marquette, was received yesterday. Mrs. Baker had been ill for some time and death was not unexpected.

Ed Rydholm Married—Miss Anna Touchette, of Fort William, Can., became the bride of Ed. Rydholm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rydholm, of Marquette, at Fort William last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Rydholm are now visiting their parents and will make their home in Mackinaw City. Mrs. Rydholm was formerly a Marquette girl.

Likely to Recover—Word was received from Green Bay yesterday to the effect that Joseph Donckers' injuries were not so serious at first thought, and that he is likely to recover. Donckers was flung on a locomotive, and in sticking his head out of the cab, was struck by a box car on a siding. His head and shoulders were badly bruised.

Fish Warden Here—Charles N. Smith, state deputy fish warden, was in Marquette yesterday, informing the local fishermen regarding their duties as to preserving spawn this fall. The fish spawn this year will be gathered under the direction of the state instead of the government, as heretofore. The fishermen are required to preserve all the spawn found in the fish they catch.

Symons-Cheverton—Public announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Cheverton, daughter of the late Lydia Campbell Cheverton, to Clifford L. Symons, of London, England. The wedding took place several months ago in the church of the Transfiguration in New York city, the Rev. Charles Houghton, D.D., officiating, but it has been kept secret, except to the immediate relatives. Mrs. Symons visited in Marquette this summer and formerly spent a year with Mrs. L. C. Palmer.

Will Be Heard Oct. 18—The hearing of the petition of Robert Shaw and others to oust Supervisor Libby from office in West Branch township has been postponed until Monday, Oct. 18, at the request of Mr. Libby's attorney, W. S. Hill. Acting upon orders from Governor Warner, Circuit Court Commissioner Geo. P. Brown and Prosecuting Attorney Bell will conduct a thorough investigation of the administrative affairs of West Branch township at that time. Press of farm work was the reason for which a postponement was asked by Mr. Libby's attorney.

Are Pulling Up Stakes—The Young Mining company, of Crystal Falls, which has been exploring the old shaft on the Harlow property across the road from F. H. Vandenberg's residence, is taking out the drilling machinery and apparently is preparing to abandon the work. The company has simply cleaned out the old shaft and drifted a short distance north and south. The results evidently were not such as to warrant further exploration. When the exploratory work was first begun, it was announced that a diamond drill was to be put to work on the property, but it has not been done.

Will Depress Track—The Cleveland Cliffs company has recently completed the laying of a concrete floor in the old foundry building, now occupied by the Gannon Grocery company. Concrete floor was laid in part of the building before the wholesale grocery began business, but the whole floor has been of concrete but a few days. The track running into the building is to be depressed so that goods can be loaded to and from the cars without lifting. These improvements give the grocery company an exceptionally convenient and sanitary place in which to keep their stock and conduct the business.

Practice Football Game—A practice football team was played at the Guild Hall field yesterday afternoon between the Normal and high school elevens. No attempt was made to keep track of the score, though regular scrimmage was indulged in. The Normal team showed up exceptionally well, especially the back field, and consistent gains were made through the high school line and around the ends. Catlin, for the high school, did some good tackling. A large crowd watched the practice. Indications are that the Normal team will be unusually strong this fall, and the manager is looking for games with outside teams, especially those representing high schools. The Normal and Guild Hall elevens will play a regular game Saturday, which is expected to be hotly contested.

Scholts Gets Big Puff—"It was a happy thought with Manager D. Everingham when he procured the services of "Happy" Bert Scholts, of the Marquette league team, to perform on the slab for the locals Sunday in the contest with the speedy Niagara aggregation of baseball artists," says an Iron Mountain exchange. "The Niagaras have been starring on the green diamond all summer, and for several seasons. 'Happy' Scholts was not a novice. He has been doing star work for Marquette all summer. Manager Everingham knew all this when he engaged him to twirl, and 'Happy' was in no way a disappointment. Although much was expected of him he lived more than was expected, and by his phenomenal work Sunday won a happy spot in the hearts of the local fans, the visiting team and fans. This modest young twirler from the 'Queen City' with beautiful control, all the the shoots and curves, and with a head which he knows how to use, cool and composed, pulled his teammates together in the fourth session when they allowed the visitors to score four times and checked the onslaught. 'Happy' is not only a twirler, but an all-around player; good with the 'willow,' making two hits, one of which was a three-bagger, a good runner and fielding pitcher. 'Happy' struck out twelve men and allowed seven hits. At least two of the hits could have been fielded."

INSURE WITH PETER WHITE & CO. PITCHERS' RECORDS.

What the Three Marquette Twirlers Have Done This Season.

An examination of the Marquette pitchers' records for the league season which closed last Sunday shows that "Happy" Scholts pitched thirteen games, won eight and lost five; Clinton pitched seven, won three and lost four, and Jeanson pitched four and lost four. The average number of hits per game made off each pitcher was, off Scholts, five; off Clinton, five; of Jeanson, eight.

In the games pitched against Ishpeming, Scholts has won two and lost three; against Negaunee, he has won two and lost one, and against Munising, he has won four and lost one. Clinton has pitched and lost one against Ishpeming; pitched four and won one against Negaunee, and pitched two and won two against Munising. Scholts has struck out ninety-eight men during the season, an average of eight per game; Jeanson has struck out twenty-three men, an average of six per game, and Clinton has fanned forty men, an average of six per game. All the pitchers have been stingy in giving passes, to first and average about one-half of one to a game.

All these figures are based on league games only.

This Should Interest You

It is told that a merchant in New York city advertised for a young man to fill a certain position. The next morning he found six applicants in waiting. The merchant asked:

"How many of you young men have savings bank accounts?" Only one replied that he had. "I'll take you," said the merchant.

His bank account was a recommendation. It suggested at once to the merchant, the possession of qualifications he desired in his service.

You can start an account with this bank with $1.00, $5.00 or any other amount. We allow 3 per cent interest on deposits in our savings department.

MAY HAVE TO CHANGE TIME OF INVENTORY

NEW TARIFF LAW REQUIRES CORPORATIONS TO MAKE RETURN FOR CALENDAR, NOT FISCAL, YEAR.

Business houses and manufacturing industries that take inventories at other times than the end of the calendar year will find an unpleasant task outlined for them in the workings of the tariff act passed by the recent session of congress in some cases compliance with the new law will prove expensive. This is owing to the enforced report of business for each calendar year.

The new tariff act provides that every corporation, joint stock company, or association, organized for profit and having a capital stock represented by shares, and every insurance company shall be subject to pay annually a special excise tax equivalent to 1 per cent upon the entire net income over and above $5,000, received by it from all sources during the year, exclusive of amounts received by it as dividends upon stock of other corporations.

This tax is provided for in section 38 of the act, in which these words are found: "said tax shall be computed upon the remainder of the net income of such corporation for the year ending Dec. 31, 1909, and for each calendar year thereafter; and on or before March 1, 1910, and March 1, in each year thereafter, a true and accurate return under oath or affirmation of its president, vice president or other principal officer, and its treasurer or assistant treasurer, shall be made by each of the corporations subject to the tax imposed by this section, to the collector of internal revenue for the district."

The form for this return is to be prescribed by the commissioner of internal revenue, with the approval of the secretary of the treasury, and it shall set forth the paid-up capital, the bonded and other indebtedness, the gross amount of the income, all the ordinary and necessary expenses actually paid out of earnings in the maintenance and operation of the business and properties, all losses actually sustained during the year, and not compensated by insurance or otherwise, stating separately any amounts allowed for depreciation of property; the interest actually paid within the year on its bonded or other indebtedness not exceeding the paid-up capital stock; the amount paid by it for taxes imposed under the authority of the United States or any state or territory, or by any foreign country; the net income of such corporation, after making the deductions authorized.

The provision requiring that the return be made on the calendar year, and not on the fiscal year which the corporation or other concern may have been working under, will undoubtedly arouse strong opposition. It seems to be up to the corporations affected to make their returns as required, or to secure modification. How this can be done here the first return is to be made is not apparent.

MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co's correspondent at New York yesterday telegraphed as follows: "The stock market was erratic and feverish during today's session. Heavy liquidation took place on the decline, especially in United States Steel. Short covering on a good scale rallied the list in the last hour. Call money rates were easier, which served to stem the tide of selling, and the market presented a solid appearance at the close. The hardening tendency of money rates at this time seems quite consistent, and the holders of large lines of stocks do not seem to discourage traders over the recent action of the market. However, until the situation is relieved by a return of funds from the interior, or gold imports, we are inclined to advise purchases on declines, only for moderate profits."

Boston Stock Quotations.

Writing from Boston yesterday, Paine, Webber & Co. had the following to say of the stock market: "Continued heavy selling of Steel common was responsible for the further break in the entire list. Four hours are said to have been sold 150,000 shares of Steel common in the past two days. The local market continued dull, with scattered selling. There was no evidence, however, of any liquidation, and the coppers will rally easily when the rest of the market turns. Greenback money continues in good demand, closing at 10 1/2, practically the top price."

Copper Metal Prices.

New York, Oct. 6.—On the metal exchange, copper was weak today, declining some twenty points, without a sale. Spot copper closed at 12.25@12.50, October at 12.25@12.50, November at 12.30@12.50, December at 12.40@12.55 and January at 12.40@12.70. The London market closed quiet at a decline of 7s. 4d on spot, to 2s. 8d, and a decline of 4s. 3d on futures, to 2s. 8d, 17s. 6d. The spot sales in the English market were 800 tons, and the sales of futures were 2,400 tons. In the street, local dealers reported copper unchanged, Lake at 13 1/2 @ 13.25, electric at 12.75@13 and casting at 12.62 1/2 @ 12.87 1/2.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKETS.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Wheat was strong throughout the day and the final quotations showed net gains of 3/4 to 1/2%. The feature was the persistent buying by several of the larger shorts, presumably inspired by the high premiums prevailing for cash grain here and at other important grain centers. The situation at Minneapolis, where the stocks for the last four days have showed a moderate decrease, compared with an increase of 1,500,000 bushels at the corresponding time last year, was an important factor contributing to the strength here, the decrease being more remarkable in view of the liberal movement now in progress in the Northwest. The excellent milling demand for cash wheat at Minneapolis and Kansas City and the Ohio crop report, which showed a deterioration of two million bushels, were additional bullish influences. The December opened at 101 1/2 to 101 3/4; highest, 102 1/2; lowest, 101 1/2; closing, 101 3/4.

Corn.—The material falling off in the offerings from the country, notwithstanding the somewhat weather for the movement, checked the declining tendency and held the market steady nearly all day. The market closed a shade higher than the final figures of yesterday. The December opened at 57 1/2; highest, 57 3/4; lowest, 57 1/2; closing, 57 3/4.

Oats.—This market was bullish early, but weakened late in the session, owing to the liquidation of December holdings. The volume of the trade was small. The close was heavy, 1/4 @ 1/4 to 3/4 lower. The December opened at 39 1/2; highest, 39 3/4; lowest, 38 3/4; closing, 38 3/4.

A Reproduction of Instructions to Our Employes

IT will give you a hint of the way we do business here and prove that right service and value-giving are practiced on the inside, as well as preached on the outside, of this store.

1. Don't ask for and accept a customer's idea of his own size. Have your tape measure handy and measure him correctly to the smallest fraction of an inch.
2. Don't demand an instant expression from the prospective buyer as to what shade and style he wants. Give him an opportunity to form his own opinion when he sees the different models.
3. Don't sell a man the garment that's nearest to his size. FIT HIM. That's what our alteration department is for.
4. Don't be in a hurry with a customer. Many men object to being rushed and if the man is in haste to arrive at a decision he'll show it himself.
5. Don't speak slightly of the suit or coat a customer has on, or criticize its make, color or fit. No man likes to have his taste and judgment belittled even by inference.
6. Don't take the "upper-hand" all through the transaction. If the customer has ideas it's your business to meet them as nearly as you can. You're there to serve him, not to dictate.
7. Don't withhold a suggestion if you have one to offer which will benefit the customer. But the important thing is to offer it as a suggestion and not as the edict of an oracle.
8. Don't fail to tell the truth about what a garment is made of—give correct details of fabrics and linings. There are no goods in this store that won't stand for the truth being told about them.
9. Don't hesitate to show the entire line. If the purchaser is willing to devote enough of his time to see the line, it's certainly up to you to put your time against his.
10. Don't fail to show the customer the new and attractive seasonable good things in suits and overcoats for fall and winter from

Regent Osborn Eloquent in His Entusiasm Over the University of Michigan.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 6.—It all started because some one said he had sent his sons to the University of Wisconsin—when Regent Chase S. Osborn of the good old U. of M. was listening. Be it known that Mr. Osborn is spending a few pleasant days in Grand Rapids, chatting with his old friends and admirers. There are many things to which the genial globe trotter from the north enjoys demonstrating his allegiance; but if you want to see reflected in real life all the grace and energy and enthusiasm which a trout leaps at a fly, observe this gentleman from Saginaw, Maric, et al, when some one rises to remark that any school on earth is any better for any purpose or anybody at any stage of the game than the University of Michigan. Osborn will grab the militant banner of the maize and blue broadsides, upon the unconscious offender. Of course his language is always beautiful and his temper entirely subterranean—but there is no mistaking his earnestness. In fact it's worth while for most any of Michigan to give himself a collection of good old patriotic thrills such as accompany every package of Osborn U. of M. eloquence.

"The University of Michigan is the greatest cosmopolitan school in the world," declares Mr. Osborn, whom Governor Warner placed on the governing board of regents not so very long ago. "There may be special fields of endeavor in which our neighbors excel, such as geology and agriculture at the University of Wisconsin. But when you remember that the Michigan Agricultural college and the Houghton Mining school are also a part of Michigan's state collegiate equipment you can still insist upon Michigan's scholastic supremacy even in fields of specialization. And the great University of Michigan itself is a specializing leader. It is, for example, the only school in the world, outside of distant Italy, where the intricacies of turbine engineering are disclosed. It possesses the only naval experimentation tank in any school and the only one outside of the government's own laboratories. It leads in experimentation in cement. It has no superior beneath the living sun in the general lines—law, medicine and the arts. It is an old school, and yet it is new. It is old in traditions, old in glory, old in triumph. But it is new in its vigor and enthusiasm and search after progress. And need I add that it has taken the laurels of the land to crown the brows of its deserving athletes? What name in the past has typified the ultra upon the football gridiron? Michigan. (And there will be a renewal of the old triumphs this year.) What name is the synonym for victory on track and baseball field, for honesty in sportsmanship, no matter what its kind? Michigan! (And there will be a renewal of the old triumphs this year.) And accompanying every enclava is a satisfying bill of particulars, and infinitum."

UPPER PENINSULA EDUCATIONAL MEETING

SEVERAL FINE SPEAKERS WILL BE HEARD AT THE ANNUAL SESSIONS HERE NEXT WEEK.

"We expect the forthcoming meeting of the Michigan State Teachers' Institute, under direction of the Upper Peninsula Educational association, to be held in this city the last three days of next week, to be one of the most successful gatherings of its kind ever arranged in this region," said Superintendent E. E. Scribner, Ishpeming, in a letter to the president of the Upper Peninsula Educational association. "The preliminary programs, with the exception of those in the art and commissioners' sections, are now complete.

"Teachers from out of town desiring accommodations are asked to correspond with Professor C. L. Phelps, chairman of the Ishpeming committee. The other members of the committee are A. E. Sterne and the Misses Ada McDowell, Anna Lacey, Nellie Fisher, Nora Casey, Winifred Lacey, Anna Welsh and Jennie Kellogg. Teachers are requested to report at Mr. Phelps' office, on the second floor of the high school building, for registration and assignment of rooms. A committee of young men will meet the trains and act as guides.

"I would like to impress upon the minds of the members of the various boards of education the importance of attending the meetings of the school officers' section, of which Dr. J. H. Andrus, of Negaunee, is chairman. The Ishpeming board of education plans to have those in attendance at this session partake of a luncheon, prepared by the young girls of the high school, who are taking the cooking course. After the luncheon an address will be given by Hon. A. S. Lindeman, a member of the Milwaukee school board, upon the subject: "Necessity of Reorganization of Our School Government." I had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Lindeman deliver this same address before the members of the National Educational association this year, and he is a forceful talker and his discourse is full of common sense. Mr. Lindeman is a Milwaukee manufacturer.

"Other speakers at the school officers' session will be Luther L. Wright, state superintendent of public instruction, and Judge Norman W. Haire of Houghton.

Teachers' Reception.

"At the reception to be tendered the visiting teachers at Braastad's Hall Thursday evening from 9:30 until 12 o'clock, we hope that there will be a large attendance of Ishpeming citizens. We want to give the visiting teachers as enjoyable a time as is possible during the intermissions between the meetings. It is expected that the boards of education of all of the schools will give the teachers Thursday and Friday off. Teachers who are given a vacation and who do not attend the meeting are obliged to forfeit their salaries for two days. We want the people of Ishpeming, as well as the teachers, to attend the evening programs. I have heard Mr. Orth, former United States district attorney of Cleveland, speak and he is a keen, forceful talker.

"As the expense of conducting the meetings will be considerable, it is proposed to charge adults not holding membership in the association thirty-five cents for the evening entertainments. The members will be admitted on their badges. The annual dues for women teachers is fifty cents and for men $1. The railroads have made an open rate of a fare and one-third from all points to Ishpeming. Tickets will be on sale from Wednesday until Friday, inclusive, with the final return limit the 18th on the train leaving Ishpeming at 8:25 a. m., for all points going west. The tickets will be limited for going passage, commencing on the date of their sale. The rates announced up to this time are fifty cents from Marquette and return; $7.65 from Mackinaw City and return and $5.70 from Saxon and return."

The rate at private hotels in the city is to be $1 per day and the hotel rates will be as follows: Nelson House, $2 to $2.50; Urban, $1.50 to $2; Commercial, $1.50 to $2; Garfield, $1.50 to $2.

Superintendent L. L. Wright has appointed Mr. Scribner, conductor of the institute meetings and Commissioner A. E. Sterne has been named a member of the local committee by Mr. Wright.

INTEREST IN DEMONSTRATION.

Hundreds of Ishpeming Ladies Are Attending the Cooking School.

Miss Louise Goggin, in charge of the K C baking powder demonstration, in the Dundon block, who was called to Chicago a week ago, on account of the death of her father, returned yesterday and Miss Rosana McDonald, who filled her place temporarily, left for Jackson, where she will resume her work for the company.

The cooking demonstrations are being attended by as many ladies as can crowd into the spacious store room. During the past few afternoons in the neighborhood of 200 have attended and that the demonstrations have proved highly interesting is evident from the fact that the ladies remain during the entire session.

Miss Goggin, who is a graduate of the Boston cooking school, is not only a great lecturer, but she is conceded to be the best cook that has ever given a demonstration in this city. All of the recipes used are new and some delicious dishes are being prepared. The demonstrators will remain here the remainder of this week, and will leave the city Sunday for Ironwood.

Some exceptionally fine potatoes are on sale at the Negaunee greenhouses. Send your orders direct to the greenhouses and they will be filled promptly. (10-5-11)

UNUSUALLY ACTIVE YEAR IN PROSPECT

WITH THE GOOD DEMAND FOR IRON ORE CONTINUING, 1910 SHOULD BRING A BOOM TO THE LAKE SUPERIOR REGION.

Because of the large amount of exploratory work going on and because of new mines being opened on the several iron ranges of the Lake Superior region, it is evident that the whole region will experience a boom the like of which has not been seen in years. More exploration work is being done on the Marquette range than at any previous time in a number of years. The pronounced demand for iron ore that has developed during the past six or eight months has caused a renewal of activities in all branches of the industry, and as a result mineral lands are eagerly sought.

There are now a large number of diamond drills working on this range than for several years past, and the results, as a whole, are said to be most satisfactory. The principal drilling operations are being carried on in the territory west from Ishpeming to the Champion mine and in the Palmer district. The drilling in the district west is being done by the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company and George J. Maas and his associates, and T. F. Cole and his associates are drilling near Palmer.

The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company's operations in the North Lake district are by far the most important that have been started on this range since the opening of the Maas mine in this city, and the development of the properties here will mean much for Ishpeming from whose merchants the people will obtain the greater part of their supplies. It is expected that within a year or so the company will employ seventy-five families residing at the North Lake location.

In the American mine district George J. Maas and his associates are doing a very large amount of work, and it is generally understood that the results are satisfactory, and in time several mines will likely be opened. The American is being developed rapidly and the working force has been doubled within the past few months. The management still desires additional men and it is expected that a year hence there will be in the neighborhood of 400 men employed. The company has recently added new machinery, also an ore crusher.

Reports from the Menominee, Vermilion and Mesaba ranges are to the effect that extensive exploratory work is being done and that many new mines will be opened during the coming year. On the Mesaba range some twenty mines and prospecting companies have been formed during the past few weeks. It is said that the new companies are not of the wild cat order, but all are legitimate development and mining corporations. Several of the new companies are selling no stock.

The Robinson Lake Iron company is one of the most active in the Vermilion district. It has a number of diamond drills at work. The Armstrong Lake Iron company is a new organization, is preparing to conduct drill work on an extensive scale on lands recently acquired. The Vermilion Iron Development company, another new concern, has been organized in this city, and property at Tower, also the Murphy claim. Considerable work was done at the Pine Iron property some years ago, but it was abandoned at a time when the prospects for the development of a paying mine looked favorable.

Henry Downing, a former resident, is down from Coleraine, Minn., on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Downing. He will remain a week or so.

The Chicago & Northwestern Railway company's crew has finished work at the new bridge put in on the South Shore line between the union depot and Pioneer avenue.

The improvements at Alderman M. T. Murphy's home will soon be completed. Besides building an addition at the rear, the family's former living quarters have been entirely remodeled. The plasterers are now working in the old portion of the building.

The Negaunee baseball fans are manifesting much interest in the world's series of games between the Pittsburgh and Detroit teams, to start at Pittsburgh tomorrow. A number of enthusiasts would go to either Pittsburgh or Detroit to take in some of the games if they thought they would be able to get into the park.

The contract for the plumbing to be done in the new Scandinavian lodge building was awarded to F. J. Merten, and not to Jos. O. Richards, as was stated in Monday's paper. Mr. Merten's men are now engaged at that work. He also has men at work installing a heating plant in the residence of City Attorney Theo. Thoren.

Rosen Bros. & Klein will conduct their fall cloak and suit opening tomorrow and Saturday, and will be seen by their announcement in this issue. There is to be a fine display of garments including the Walter Siegel and Redfern suits and cloaks. Invitations have been sent out to the ladies in the county, and the opening will doubtless be well attended.

A band of gypsies arrived here yesterday morning and pitched their tents in the eastern part of the city. They were in town but a short time when both the men and women began making the rounds of the business district. The men were looking for horse trades and the women begged for opportunities to tell fortunes. Some of them worked in Ishpeming.

RECORD BREAKING CROWDS ATTEND

At Baking School in the Dundon Building, 102 Main Street.

The attendance at the Free Baking school the past week, has been very large, in fact all records have been broken and the interest evinced by the women of Ishpeming shows no sign of abating. On account of this unusual interest, it has been deemed advisable to continue the classes for a few days so that those who have not been able to attend at last. The bakery for the Kenton team was Mackey, pitcher, and White catcher. The Sidraw team, which won by a score of twelve to three, was credited with nine hits.

If your piano needs tuning, William Leisinger will take your order, and M. J. Olson will do the work. (6-28-11)

Music Session—Chairman, Daisy La Vigne, Champion; vocal solo, Miss Norma Ross, Marquette; "Music in the High School," Mrs. Rosa Fling Marden, Negaunee; "The Importance of Vocal Drill," Miss Minerva Cook Hall, Escanaba; discussion.

STILL TALKING BASEBALL.

Ishpeming Fan Suggests Strong Line-Up from Two Teams.

There is a desire on the part of many to see a final game between the Ishpeming and Negaunee teams next Sunday at the Union park grounds, and it is possible that a contest will be arranged. The players are considering the matter, and it is likely that an agreement will be reached today. All the players favor having games on Saturday and Sunday. In the event each team takes a game, a double-header will be played Sunday afternoon.

If two or three games are played, the team opposing Negaunee will be selected from among the Ishpeming and Marquette players, in order to make the line-up as strong as possible.

MUST STOP USING GUNS.

While going to school yesterday noon, the twelve-year-old daughter of John Bluet was struck in the thigh by a stray bullet from a twenty-two caliber revolver, while turning the corner on Vine street to York. It is thought that the shot was fired by some boy in the neighborhood. Marshal Trearrow said yesterday that he has received a number of complaints about boys and others using fire arms in the northern part of the city. Within the past few weeks five or six cows have been used as targets and two of them have died as a result of gunshot wounds.

TWENTY-TWO STRIKE OUTS.

A. Goulette, who injured his arm a few weeks ago, is in fine condition again. A week ago last Sunday he pitched for the Sidraw team against Kenton, securing twenty-two strike-outs and allowing but three hits. Winn Keeler was his catcher. Besides this unusual performance Goulette also was credited with four hits out of five times at bat. The battery for the Kenton team was Mackey, pitcher, and White catcher. The Sidraw team, which won by a score of twelve to three, was credited with nine hits.

If your piano needs tuning, William Leisinger will take your order, and M. J. Olson will do the work. (6-28-11)

DEATH OF MRS. CROLL.

Mrs. Max Croll, who had been ill for a long time, and whose condition during the past few months had at times been precarious, died yesterday morning at the home of her brother-in-law, D. D. Smith, at Palmer. Death did not come unexpectedly, as it had been evident for some days that she would not live very long. She was a devoted and successful business woman, and was survived by her husband and two children. Her father, Dr. Charles Mueck of Swaney, also three sisters, Mrs. C. L. Smith of Green Bay, Mrs. D. D. Smith of Palmer, and Mrs. J. A. Goodman of this city, are also living. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon, with church services here at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Croll was a member of the Eastern Star lodge of Norway, Mich.

MANY WERE DISAPPOINTED.

The members of the Mitchell Methodist church congregation were much disappointed Sunday because Rev. W. B. Coombe, the retiring pastor, was not present to preach his farewell sermon, he having been called to Ontonagon on account of the death of his mother, whose funeral was held Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Coombe had been ill for four years and a number of times during that period her condition had been alarming. The attendance at the Sunday morning service was unusually large, there being a number present from Ishpeming, Rev. Coombe and family will leave tonight for Ironwood, their future home, and his successor Rev. D. C. Plattner, is expected to arrive here tomorrow from Menominee.

BANK TO OPEN MONDAY.

The Negaunee National bank will open for business Monday morning at its temporary quarters in the Neely block. Mr. Meilleur left Tuesday for Ontonagon, but will return the latter part of the week, to remain two or three weeks. Herman Wagner, the cashier, has started on his location prospects, and is expected to remain here permanently from this time on.

BOTH BOYS SAVED.

Louis Roen, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results. Sold by all druggists.

FROM MORGAN'S CURB LETTER.

"The break in the New York market continued today, and the entire list continued steadily lower throughout the session until the last half hour. Steel common was subjected to greatest pressure, with considerable selling in Anaconda, Smelters and the leading rails. The rise in interest rates on all money and the desire to realize profits at the high level are given as reasons for the drop. In a spurt near the close all made advances, several fractionally above the opening prices.

The Boston coppers sympathized with New York only to the extent of fractionally lower quotations, there being no evidence of a desire to liquidate. The offerings were very light and readily absorbed. Activity centered in Lake and Greene Cananea and, to some extent North Butte and Superior & Pittsburg Lake was a trifle weaker during the day, but the net change at the close was slight. The trading in Greene was again heavy, and despite the general depression the stock advanced to 10 1/2, many names changing hands at that figure. Superior & Pittsburg was firm and made a fractional gain. The balance of the list showed no change of consequence.

There was nothing sensational in the price issues. There was good buying of Chile at 1 1/2. Cumberland Ely was weak, selling at 6 1/2. Toluene advanced to 4 1/2 bid, on the report of the opening of a 14-foot vein of high grade ore on the 1400-foot level. A report that Keweenaw has struck the Ose-43 pole eighteen feet wide and carrying good copper values sent the stock up to 8 1/2.

Yesterday's closing prices were as follows:

COLLECTOR'S JOB MUCH SOUGHT FOR

D. W. POWELL OF MARQUETTE AND C. J. BYRNS OF ISHPEMING ARE CANDIDATES.

OTHERS MAY ENTER RACE

Senator Smith, Who Oves Much to Byrns, Believed to Be Pledged to Him—Position a Good One.

Much interest is being shown here and generally in the upper peninsula in regard to the disposal of the collector of customs for the Superior district made vacant by the death of G. A. Smith. It is the most important federal office in the upper peninsula, and is an eagerly sought prize whenever it is vacant.

There are already two avowed candidates and the names of two or three other men have been mentioned as possible seekers for the appointment. The men in the former class are Daniel W. Powell of Marquette and C. J. Byrns of Ishpeming, both of whom have taken active steps to secure recommendations to the president for the commission and who propose putting up an active campaign.

It is said that the office is one which in accordance with the disposition of the senatorial patronage that has been in vogue, Senator William Alden Smith will have a large voice in filling. Senator Burruss cannot be left entirely out of the calculations, as the division of territory in these matters is never very definite and usually in relation to such important offices it is deemed desirable to have the senators in agreement, if that is possible. When they pull in opposite directions a merry fight is the usual result.

Byrns Helped Smith. Mr. Byrns is a serious factor in any race that may develop for the office for the reason that he was in a position to give William Alden a vote for senator when he voted in the election of 1907, when William Alden was sent to the senate. He not only voted for Smith, but was an indefatigable worker for him during the several weeks of the stormy fight that culminated in his election. Mr. Byrns has been at all backward about acknowledging his indebtedness to Byrns. On the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the Y. M. C. A. block at Ishpeming, some two years ago he told the vast audience assembled, that Byrns had done as much as any one man to send him to the senate.

It has been frequently stated that Byrns was in line for succession to the office of collector of customs, and that he would have the unequal support of Senator Smith for the appointment when the position was open. This has never been asserted by either Byrns or Senator Smith, but the story has hopped up at intervals both in lower state and upper peninsula papers. And it is now the assumption among men at all intimate in touch with the political situation that Mr. Byrns would not be a lively in the field for the appointment unless he was assured of the aggressive support of the junior senator.

Powell Is Pleased. Mr. Powell last evening said he was well pleased with the reception his candidacy has met with in the brief time that has elapsed since it was known he would seek the office. He has received, he asserts, assurances of much influential support and has been encouraged to make an energetic canvass. It is the general idea at this time that the race will be between Byrns and Powell. W. E. Knox, editor of the Soo News, and a close friend of Senator Smith, has been discussed about the city as a possible candidate who would probably also be a serious factor in the race, if he entered it, but it is stated with some show of authenticity that Mr. Knox positively is not a candidate. Neither have any of the other candidates talked of as yet taken, as far as The Mining Journal can learn, a definite aspect.

If, as seems likely to be the case, Senator Smith has pledged himself to Mr. Byrns, it needs no great powers of deduction to figure out that the pressure that Mr. Powell's supporters will bring to bear must, to be effective, be exerted on Senator Burruss sufficiently to induce him to take a hand in the game in opposition to the plans of his junior colleague. If this came to pass the issue would depend on the amount of the comparative depth of water that the two Michigan honorables carry at Washington. It requires no great imagination to see how the eyes of the whole state might come to be fixed on the disposal of this office. The fact that Senator Burruss will be a candidate for re-election next year may, however, make him disinclined to "mix" things. Another possibility in the situation is that candidates will spring up in other parts of the upper peninsula. While the office has usually been held by a Marquette county man there is nothing in precedent that would stand in the way of an appointment being made from any part of the district.

Many Expect to Attend Upper Peninsula Meeting at Ishpeming.

Marquette teachers are looking forward with interest to the meeting of the Upper Peninsula Educational association, to be held at Ishpeming next week Thursday evening, Friday and Saturday. Preliminary programs that have recently been distributed among the teachers give promise of a meeting of unusual value and interest.

In addition to addresses by many of the prominent educators of the upper peninsula, a number of outside speakers are expected to be present, among whom are Samuel P. Orth, of Cleveland; Fred L. Keeler, deputy state superintendent of public instruction; Charles McKenney, president of the Milwaukee Normal; Professor J. G. Carter, Troop, of Chicago University; D. B. Waldo, president of the Kalamazoo Normal, Miss Ida M. Densmore, of Kalamazoo; and Honorable H. R. Pattergill, of Lansing. Marquette educators on the program are Superintendent G. W. U. P. ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED.

Sportsmen's Meeting at Munising Yesterday a Big Success.

At the meeting of upper peninsula sportsmen held at Munising yesterday, about fifty were present and the organization of an Upper Peninsula Sportsmen's association was perfected. The object of this association is chiefly to make a united stand for the better protection of fish and game in the upper peninsula. Much interest was manifested at the meeting and plans for work at the next session of the legislature were to be made at once. The following were the officers elected:

President—J. R. Wyman, Munising.

First Vice President—Paul Swift, Houghton.

Second Vice President—John Scheu-ter, Manistique.

Secretary and Treasurer—Charles Shipley, Sault Ste. Marie.

Four five-men gun clubs participated in the shooting contests and three members of the Ishpeming-Negaunee Gun club were present. The cup offered by the Munising Business Men's association was won by the Channing club with a score of 210. Manistique was second with a score of 197 and the Soo third with a score of 166. The Munising club also participated.

The cup for the highest individual score was won by Charles H. Hewitt of the Soo, who broke eighty-seven birds out of a possible 100. The next meeting will be held at Channing.

WITHIN 700 MILES OF POLE.

The Longyear Has Recently Returned from Trip to Spitzbergen.

E. J. Longyear, the well-known mining man and drill contractor, who is at home either on the Lake Superior iron ranges, particularly the Mesaba and at Hibbing, or in Minneapolis, has recently returned from a trip to the north pole, according to the Duluth News-Tribune.

He says that he believes that both Peary and Cook reached the pole.

Mr. Longyear returned to Minneapolis and was interviewed. He was not looking for the north pole, himself, but he got as far as latitude seventy-eight degrees, fifteen minutes, which is within 700 miles of the pole.

Another new logging railroad is about to go into commission in the district. More construction of this kind has been accomplished in the peninsula this season than for a number of years. This is largely due to the fact that most of the standing timber still to be cut lies remote from streams suitable for log driving. The newest logging railroad is that built by the Ontonagon Lumber & Cedar company. It extends from the village of Ontonagon on the shore of Lake Superior, southwesterly to the Fire Steel river, a distance of six and one-quarter miles. More mileage will be added next summer. The company is cutting timber in the Fire Steel country and it has 200 men at work in two camps there. Similar railroad lines are being built in the Sawyer & Goodrum company in Iron and Dickinson counties, by the Sagola Lumber company in Marquette county and by Helard & Sons of Philadelphia in Baraga county.

The roadbed of the Van's Harbor branch of the Soo line has been completed and already all but four miles of this new railroad has been ironed. The remainder of the steel is expected shortly and it is likely that the advent of winter will shut the entire line in operation. The Van's Harbor branch will be an important feeder for the Soo line. It opens the eastern portion of Delta county, which has never before been provided with railroad facilities. The line extends from Van's Harbor, on Big Bay de Noquette, to Cook's Mills, a station on the Soo line in Schoolcraft county. It traverses a large tract of timber land owned by the Van's Harbor Lumber company and among some of its most important functions will be the delivery of logs to the Van's Harbor mill. This mill has recently gone in to commission, a new plant being built to take the place of one that was destroyed by fire last spring.

TO BE BUSY WINTER IN LUMBER WOODS

LOGGERS PLANNING TO GET OUT BIG CUTS IN ANTICIPATION OF HIGHER PRICES.

GETTING THE CAMPS READY

Operators Already Preparing for the Season's Work—Several Railroads Built.

The coming winter will be an unusually lively one in the upper peninsula lumber woods, according to reports from various sections of the peninsula. Lumbermen everywhere are looking for better prices than have prevailed for the last two years and are preparing to take advantage of them. There is not much demand for mining timber at present, as the mines appear to be well stocked, probably having laid in a large supply during the reign of low prices. This will be apt to cut down the cut of operators getting out mining timber, but loggers engaged in getting out lumber for general purposes are getting ready for a busy season. Operators are now preparing their camps and getting things in readiness, and some of them have already begun operations.

In Marquette county lumbering is no longer the important industry that it once was, as is shown by the fact that the city of Marquette has been importing instead of exporting lumber this summer. However, the Sagola Lumber company is conducting extensive operations in the extreme southern end of the county, and the Northern Lumber company at Birch is busy and expects to get out a large cut the coming winter. Reicheid Bros. will get out pine logs from the mountainous country at the head waters of the Yellow Dog and Salmon Trout rivers and other loggers will work on private contracts in different parts of the county.

In Chippewa county the largest cuts will be made in Whitefish township, where are located the mills of the Chesbroughs, and the Calumet & Hecla company has large holdings. The township will also be the scene of a number of smaller operations. It is estimated that the season's output will be largely in excess of any season during the past few years.

Most of the largest operations will be those of the Sawyer & Goodrum company, with mills at Marinette, and those of United States Senator Isaac Stephenson's manufacturing concerns, with mills at Wells, with the Escanaba and Lake Superior railroad to keep the plants supplied with logs. Series of logging camps will be conducted in the upper peninsula this season and many hundreds of men will be employed. Labor is none too plentiful and it is likely that wages will run higher than the scale that has ruled for two years past.

New Logging Railroads.

Another new logging railroad is about to go into commission in the district. More construction of this kind has been accomplished in the peninsula this season than for a number of years. This is largely due to the fact that most of the standing timber still to be cut lies remote from streams suitable for log driving. NATURAL GAS IN MARQUETTE.

The invention of the Gem Oil Burner has made it possible to use coal oil or kerosene in any locality and enjoy the advantage of natural gas for heating purposes of all kinds. This new method is cleaner and less destructive to stoves than coal, and it makes a regular, fresh fire at all times, doing away with the continued labor attending the use of coal or wood. It may be put into any stove without changing or damaging the latter in the least, and will heat the largest size cook stove or range sufficient for family cooking for $1.50 per month.

The Gem Oil Burner company of Wellingborough, O., is the promoter of these newly improved burners and has brought this system of heating all kinds of cook stoves, ranges, heating stoves and furnaces up to the acme of perfection. The territory through this state will be rapidly taken up by local agents. The company's representatives are located for a few days on South Front street, in Hager's old furniture store, with a cook stove burner in operation, where our citizens can see it and examine its workings.
