Canal a Political Project. "The Panama canal is a great political project," said the court, "and there has been and is now much honest expression of opinion as to the advisability of having chosen the Panama route in preference to the Nicaragua route, and now, since the cost of building the canal is so much larger than first estimated, whether the United States should own any Atlantic-Pacific canal."

PRESIDENT TAFT IN FLOWER LAND

Visiting First the Harbor of San Pedro and Then Los Angeles, He Is Enthusiastically Greeted in Southern California.

He Spends the Night at the Home of His Sister, Mrs. W. A. Edwards; Today He Will Be Taken to Pasadena and Through the Orange Districts of Riverside, and This Evening He Will Start Eastward, on the Latter Half of His 14,000-Mile Trip.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., OCT. 11.—President Taft arrived in the hospitable flower land of southern California today, and was enthusiastically greeted.

Mr. Taft visited first the harbor of San Pedro, below the city, and, at a sail of an hour and a half in the big government breakwater. Returning to the city at 1 o'clock, he rode in an automobile for two hours through crowded streets. The president passed in review the city and its surroundings and made an address to them wherein he sought to inculcate a lesson on patriotism by caucusing them on the meaning of the flag and their plea of the liberty it represents.

When made a member of the Los Angeles Association of Pioneers today, the president declared that his acquaintance with this city began in 1891, which he said, amid cheers, entitled him to precedence over many members of the welcoming committee.

It was in the tropical park near the railroad station that the president, alighting from his private car, was officially welcomed. When the brief ceremonies were ended, Mr. Taft entered an automobile, a mass of yellow chrysanthemums, and at the head of twenty-five other cars his party and the committee were driven through the downtown and residence sections.

At the banquet tonight the president dined beneath a pagoda laden with flowers and fruit. The entire auditorium was transformed into a bower of roses, chrysanthemums and other blossoms. Electric bulbs glowing in the ceiling and lighting the pillars in the decorative scheme added a touch of color to the scene. The eight hundred banqueters rose and greeted the president as he entered.

The first night out he will be requested to board the boat bearing the twenty-five guns assigned to his guard of honor at a banquet. The next night he will be allowed to rest, but the third night the boat bearing a hundred senators and congressmen will signal the Oleander to send the president aboard his steamer to attend a banquet.

The local football season has gone far enough to show that either Neumann or Ishpeming will get the high school honors.

The Michigan score of 3 to 0 against Case is at least much better than a score of 0 to 0, or one of 3 to 0 with Case having the big end. Let that be borne in mind.

Justice Gaynor is losing his temper. Sure sign that he regards Mr. Hearst's entry into the race as a serious blow to his hopes.

The Michigan Federation of Labor has gone "wet." At its recent annual convention at Bay City the Federation pledged itself "to assist in the proper regulation of the saloon, but to oppose any attempt to bring about prohibition by any means whatsoever."

The withdrawal of District Attorney Jerome as an independent candidate for reelection had been confidently looked forward to. It was patent to all observers, and must have been to Mr. Jerome himself, that there was no chance that he could carry his campaign through to a successful issue.

out of water by an open letter intimating that because of Mr. Hill's corrupt practices he was not a proper man for the legislature to elect. To this day the state has had no direct information as to what the governor had up his sleeve, and there has been a militant group of Republicans who have maintained that he had nothing, and that his attack on Hill was unfair and unjustifiable.

We have heard a report that Senator Burrows will shortly visit the upper peninsula to look over the lay of the ground in regard to the office of collector of customs for the Superior district.

The relations of the senators are so intimately involved, and the situation might easily turn out to have a bearing on major state politics. Senator Smith is showing his hand freely, and evidently intends to support C. J. Byrns of Ishpeming to the full extent of his power.

There was a time—and not very long ago, either—when such a program of railway legislation would have elicited at once a very storm of protests. So far, however, there have been no such indications. Railway regulation has come to stay—and the railway companies, as well as the general public, have come to recognize its benefits.

Among the things accomplished by the seven cyclones that performed during one afternoon in Norton county, says the Jewell (Kan.) Republican, was the taking up into its whirl of a 1700-pound white face bull, and slamming him down again one mile from the starting point.

Mr. Webb's remedies for unemployment are an elaborate system of registration of labor for towns and labor colonies, but it is doubtful whether any of these measures could be successfully worked out. Under a paternal form of government, when London has had times, the towns are very apt to have proportionately hard times, as one of the penalties of centralization, and dumping the surplus labor on the towns would simply spread the trouble instead of curing it.

It is reported that Arthur Hill of Saginaw is a patient in a Chicago sanitarium, and that both his mental and his physical condition are serious. His breakdown is ascribed to his inability to carry the strain of conducting his immense business interests and a strenuous political feud at one and the same time.

WORK ENOUGH FOR CONGRESS. Should President Taft include in his December message all, or even the greater part of the recommendations he has suggested in his recent addresses, congress will certainly have work enough and out to keep it busy.

Upper Peninsula In Faster Company—A correspondent at Rapid River, Delta county, writes: "Eight days ago, the first baseman of the local team, signed with the St. Louis Browns for next season. Cole is going to Flint, in the southern Michigan, and Gravelle to Grand Rapids, in the Central league. Manager Buchman has weakened his team considerably by selling these men, and thus has overcome a deficiency in the treasury."

It is a matter of pride to the average resident of the upper peninsula to know that the Northern Normal school at Marquette has the largest attendance this autumn in the history of the institution. It means that more young men and women of the upper peninsula are taking advantage of the facilities it offers, for practically every student is a resident of this part of the state.

This Should Interest You

It is told that a merchant in New York city advertised for a young man to fill a certain position. The next morning he found six applicants in waiting. The merchant asked:

"How many of you young men have savings bank accounts?" Only one replied that he had. "I'll take you," said the merchant.

His bank account was a recommendation. It suggested at once to the merchant, the possession of qualifications he desired in his service.

STATE AND COUNTY TAXES ARE HIGHER

ANNUAL LEVY, AFFORTIONMENT AND EQUALIZATION MADE BY SUPERVISORS YESTERDAY.

CHANGES IN THE VALUATION

Total Taxable Property in the County Is Increased About $98,000—Marquette City Not Changed.

Both state and county taxes will be higher next year than they have been this—that much is certain as the result of the levy and apportionment made by the county board of supervisors at their annual meeting yesterday. The total tax levied against Marquette county by the state and for is $104,294.13, which is about $39,000 more than the state levy last year. The total county tax authorized by the board of supervisors yesterday was $176,117.18, which is $23,917.18 more than last year's levy for county purposes. The total valuation of taxable property in the county was fixed at $26,828,000, an increase of nearly $98,000 over last year's valuation.

As finally adopted, the report of this committee changed the valuation of one city and eight townships, some being raised and some lowered, as compared with last year's valuation. The valuation of taxable property in the city of Negaunee was raised from $6,177,529 to $6,250,000. Champion township was reduced $25,000. Ely township was raised $10,000. Forsyth was raised $50,000. Humboldt was raised $10,000. Michigan was lowered $50,000. Negaunee was raised $5,000. Richmond township $50,000 and Tilden township reduced $25,000. The valuation of Marquette and Ishpeming and the townships not mentioned above was fixed at last year's figures. The net result of these changes is to increase the assessment roll of the county $97,471. The total valuation of the cities and townships in the county as equalized yesterday is as follows:

Table showing valuations for various townships and cities like Marquette, Ishpeming, Negaunee, etc.

Table showing distribution of county taxes for General fund, Poor fund, Court house bonds, etc.

Table comparing State Tax, County Tax, and Road Tax for various locations like Marquette, Ishpeming, Negaunee, etc.

Table showing Clerk's Report of Expenditures for Circuit court, Justice courts, Law department, etc.

Table listing County sheriff, Jail maintenance, Coroners, Insane, Contagious diseases, etc.

The board of county road commissioners reported that they had received $37,965 during the year and had expended $37,174.13, leaving a balance of $790.87 on hand. With this money, road has been secured for the further improvement of the Marquette-Negaunee road, three and a half miles of dirt road has been built between Humboldt and Republic and on the Harvey-Green Garden road, extensive grading and bridge building has been done. In addition to establishing a quarry near Harvey and building a temporary road from that quarry to the main highway. The board voted $1,000 toward a steel bridge across the Escanaba river at Princeton. Samuel Bennett and James Jamieson were each voted $100 in return for efficient work in keeping the court house and grounds in good condition. Captain C. D. Blanchard was re-elected poor commissioner and J. H. B. Kaye was re-elected school examiner. Prosecuting Attorney F. A. Bell called the attention of the board to a law passed at the last session of the legislature, enabling county boards to work prisoners in the county jail on county work or hire out their labor. He suggested that such a plan would be advisable in this county, in view of the large number of convicts that make a practice of spending about half the winter in jail. The matter was referred to the committee on highways and bridges for a report at the next meeting. The supervisors then adjourned until Dec. 1.

TESTING GUARANTY LAW.

Important Case Pending in the Courts of Kansas.

An Outline of the Arguments Against the Plan, Which Are Said to Be the Strongest That Have Been Made—Charge the Deprivation of Property Without Due Process of Law.

Washington, Oct. 11.—With the issue of a guaranty of bank deposits likely to continue in the field of finance and politics for some time, friends and opponents of the system alike may be interested in the arguments advanced against the system in the Kansas Bank guaranty cases, now pending in the United States circuit court of that state. The complainants are a stockholder of a state bank, Frank S. Larabee, forty-seven state banks, and 150 national banks. The defendants are the bank commissioner and the state treasurer of the state of Kansas. The defendants seek to have enjoined the enforcement of the bank guaranty act of 1909, under which Kansas is trying the experiment of guaranteeing depositors in state banks against loss. Former United States Senator Chester I. Long is counsel in the case, and associated with him are John L. Hunt and J. W. Glead. Copies of their brief and argument have been filed in Washington, and the chief fiscal officers of the government declare that their statement of the case against the guaranty law is the strongest that ever has been made.

Bank Guaranty a Live Issue. The issue has been a live one in the politics of the Middle West. It has been espoused by Mr. Bryan and has been a battle cry of the Democratic party. Oklahoma was first in the field with a bank guaranty law, which threatened to place with the national banks, which are not permitted to guarantee their deposits, while Kansas, moved by the plausibility of the guaranty scheme, hastened to fall into line. That the issue is "popular," in the sense that every bank depositor is pleased with the notion that something which costs him nothing can protect his money, of course, is true. The attack on the Kansas law, while not necessarily assailing the principle of a guaranty of deposits, is equally worth studying as illustrating the legal difficulties which at present stand in the way of the institution of a feasible bank guaranty scheme. It is to be borne in mind that neither the Kansas law nor any other act of limited amount compulsory, and there is no provision forbidding it shall have a certain guaranty fund or a certain number of members. These conditions, however, do not make the organization any the less an insurance company, but simply make it a less safe insurance company. In this connection, the attorneys point out that when the first bank elected to come under the law and back up its certificates, "The depositors in this bank are guaranteed by the bank depositors guaranty fund of the state of Kansas," the certificate was "a fraud and a lie," for the reason that there was absolutely nothing behind the certificate but a small fraction of the assets of TWO—TESTING GUARANTY LAW. tion of the fund. According to state the insured bank itself. More than a month after the law went into effect, certificates were out purporting to cover $7,500,000 of deposits and behind them was nothing morally or legally except about $2,500 in the guaranty fund and $1,000 in the "good faith" fund. Assessments Out of Proportion. A simple discrimination in the sections of the act relating to assessments on banks is cited in the provisions requiring that the original assessments and subsequent assessments shall in no case be less than 20%. "Twenty dollars is one-twentieth of one per cent of $40,000," say counsel. "A bank having $40,000 of deposits eligible to guaranty is subject to assessments of $20. A bank having $20,000 of deposits would pay the same, but if it paid at the same rate as other banks it would pay only one-half as much." A case is cited where the American State bank of Hill City would pay $20 to guarantee $58,000 of deposits while the Farmers and Merchants' State bank would pay the same amount to guarantee only $15,200 of deposits. A peculiar situation is disclosed in the provisions permitting a bank to withdraw from the bank depositors' guaranty fund. If a bank elects to withdraw from the fund and continues to do business, it may not receive back all the bonds deposited by it until "the affairs of all banks in liquidation shall have been closed up and the said banks shall have paid assessments on account of same." If, however, a bank desires to retire from business and allows banks to become members thereof, the losses in this mutual insurance company are paid out of a fund raised by assessments on the banks. The expenses of operating the company—the salaries of its officers, clerks and employees, its office rent, travelling expenses—and the cost of stationary and supplies are paid by the state. Say the counsel on this point: Puts State Into Insurance Business. "The law simply creates an insurance company, without providing any of the restrictions designed for the protection of policyholders that are provided in the case of strictly private companies. There is no provision making the payment of future premiums beyond a very

"THE GIRL FROM U. S. A."

Attraction to Be Here Friday Evening Well Spoken Of.

"The Girl from the U. S. A.", which will be the offering at Ishpeming theatre next Friday evening, opened the season of the Majestic theatre at Fort Wayne, Ind., the latter part of August, remaining there a full week. All the papers of the city spoke in the highest terms of the attraction, the Fort Wayne Daily News, saying of it, in part:

"The Girl from the U. S. A." is a musical comedy drama that might easily be classed as a musical melodrama, and it is full of catchy songs, has action without end and carries with it a story that interests at all times. The Majestic shook with applause at frequent intervals during the performance on the opening night, and if the reception accorded the piece at its initial appearance is any indication the three-day engagement of the company here promises to be tremendously successful.

"The story carried is one of an American girl and an American newspaper correspondent abroad, who rescue a young French actress from the designs of a couple who seek to get rid of her in order to obtain her money. The two Americans first heard a Turkish tyrant in his haron, but fail to rescue their French friend, and later they effect her rescue from a Chinese mandarin, to whom she had been sold by her persecutors.

"A feature of the show is the Leland comedy quartet which renders several numbers. Among the song bits of the piece are 'A Daughter of Uncle Sam,' 'Isn't This a Good Old Town,' 'Will You Won't You? Why?' and 'Hypnotize Her.' Judging from the manner in which the audience took to 'The Girl from the U. S. A.' a more suitable piece for an early opening could not have been selected and it is certain that great houses will greet the bill during the remainder of its engagement."

Gentlemen: I noticed an item in your paper, of the 7th, stating that A. Goulette, formerly of the Marquette-Alger county league, pitched a game of ball a week ago last Sunday for Sidway against Kenton, saying that he struck out twenty-two men. I am an interested party, and I wish to dispute this.

The Kenton pitcher, Mackey, had it all over Goulette, striking out eighteen men and allowing but three hits, while Goulette struck out twelve men and allowed four hits, two of them being two-buggers.

NORMAL ALUMNI TO HOLD REUNION

LIMITED AND LIFE CERTIFICATE GRADUATES OF NORTHERN NORMAL TO HAVE BANQUET THURSDAY AT GUILD HALL.

One of the features of the fourteenth annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Educational association, to be held in this city the last three days of the week, will be a reunion of the limited and life certificate graduates of the Northern State Normal school. The reunion will take the form of a banquet, served by the members of the Ladies' Guild of the Grace Episcopal church, in the Guild hall Thursday evening at 6 o'clock, after the session of the primary section of the general program.

Fully 85 per cent of those who will attend the Institute meetings are primary and district school teachers. All of the talks to be given at their meeting will be of a practical nature. It is expected that it will close at 4:30 o'clock.

As an added attraction, Miss Lillian Berry Reid, who is credited with being one of the best concert and oratorio sopranos in America, was most favorably received. Miss Reid possesses beauty, and has a superb lyric and dramatic voice of unusual range and is as charming in the simple ballads as she is impressive in the arias of the masters.

BOYS ENTER STORE.

Henry Granberg, John Jondreau and Henry Gummerson entered the Ishpeming Store company's place Sunday afternoon and carried away some tobacco, rubber balls and finger rings, valued in all at about $10. They first got into the barn and went from there through a window in the rear of the store building in which they found a broken pane of glass. The youngsters are of tender age and they did not realize the nature of their offense, so that the management left them off with a reprimand, after the goods had been recovered by Marshal Trevarrow. The boys had thirty-nine rings and about $3 worth of package tobacco.

We have never made more elaborate preparations for a fall opening. It's Saturday, Oct. 16th, at Braastad's. (10-12-11)

Our five and ten-cent department, just opened, is a revelation. Bargains galore. (10-8-14) F. BRAASTAD & CO.

WAS A MUSICAL TREAT.

O'Urbano's Great Italian Band Appears at Ishpeming Theater.

Never in the history of the city has there been offered to the music lovers of this city such a treat as they were given yesterday afternoon and evening at the Ishpeming theater by Signor Luigi D'Urbano and his famous Italian band. The organization made its initial appearance in the afternoon, and again last evening in a complete change of program.

Signor D'Urbano, who is spectacular in his work, is a rather tall, well-built, athletic looking man, with an attractive face, an engaging personality, and a wealth of long black hair. In directing his band, every member of which is an artist in the fullest sense of the word, he stands on his tip toes, leans over and talks energetically to certain soloists, sways back and forth, leans backward and shades his head until his long hair hangs about his face like an aureole, while his control over his musicians is something marvelous. They may be playing with all their power, when a slim hand is upraised and like a well-balanced piece of machinery, the music comes to stop—not a break—not a discord.

As an added attraction, Miss Lillian Berry Reid, who is credited with being one of the best concert and oratorio sopranos in America, was most favorably received. Miss Reid possesses beauty, and has a superb lyric and dramatic voice of unusual range and is as charming in the simple ballads as she is impressive in the arias of the masters.

WITCHCRAFT IN CUBA.

It Holds Many of the Rural Districts in Terror—The "White Blood Cure."

From time to time America and the world in general are subject to an appeal from phantasmagoric parties and organizations for a better moral treatment for the negro. Looked at from a purely theoretical standpoint such an appeal can be supported by very powerful arguments. But to those who have to do with the descendants of the slaves in everyday life the question assumes a very different aspect.

In the Southern States of America the whole question of lynching, which every now and again assumes a wave of horror through civilization, is caused by the lusts and passions of the negroes. But the crimes of Louisiana, Georgia and Alabama are mild compared with the horrible crimes of cannibalism which takes place with alarming frequency in Cuba. After half a century of freedom the blacks are no more civilized than when their forefathers were landed from the slavers in Havana Bay.

of the police. During the American intervention strong measures were taken by General Wood to repress the clubs and for some years the negroes were comparatively quiet. During the last six months however, they have again shown their heads, and several murderous assaults have been committed in the streets. Nativism is, however, the lesser of the two evils.

Mate Anchored His Part of the Schooner When Captain Bluffed Him.

Some years ago the Yankee schooner Sally Ann, under command of Captain Spooner, was beating up the Connecticut river. Mr. Comstock, the mate, was at his station forward. According to his notion of things the schooner was getting a "leech" too near certain mud flats which lay along the harbor shore, so that he went to the captain, and with his hat cocked on one side said: "Cap'n Spooner, you've gotten a leech too close to them flats. Hadn't ye better go about?"

MUCH GAME KILLED OUT OF SEASON

SPORTSMAN SAYS THAT MARQUETTE COUNTY HUNTERS WHO FORMERLY HELPED TO ENFORCE THE LAWS DISPLAY AN INDIFFERENCE NOW.

"I have never before seen so much evidence of violations of the game laws in this county as can now be found," said a sportsman yesterday. "Men who have aided in the protection of game in years past have lost interest and some of them are now violators. Because no special effort is being made by county officials to protect the game, these sportsmen are becoming indifferent. They say that if the foreigners are permitted to kill game out of season they see no reason why they should not also get their share."

MR. HERING FAVORS EXTENDING INTAKE

AFTER DAY'S INVESTIGATION OF WATER SITUATION SAYS BOARD IS ON RIGHT TRACK.

WILL MAKE FURTHER TESTS

Suggests That to Determine Distance and Direction of Extension More Facts Are Needed.

Rudolph Hering, senior member of the firm of Hering & Fuller, of New York, expert municipal water supply engineer, spent a busy day yesterday with the water board and the Commercial club committee now working with the water board. Mr. Hering is considered one of the best informed men in his line in the country and as the result of his visit all who talked with him know many things about city water and its purification that they did not know before.

During the forenoon, Mr. Hering, accompanied by R. C. Young, of the water board, and A. T. Roberts, of the Commercial club, inspected the lake shores from Presque Isle to the prison and obtained a fairly comprehensive view of the local water problem from a geographical standpoint. Later, Mr. Hering was shown the data on the subject that has already been compiled and toward evening he met in the city hall with other members of the water board and the Commercial club committee.

Though Mr. Hering did not enter to hazard any positive opinion as to the best way to improve Marquette's public water supply or the limited knowledge of local conditions that he was able to get in a single day, he was inclined to favor the extension of the intake, as to the exact direction and distance in which to make the extension he thought it might be well for the board to make further investigation, especially as to currents and by tests of water taken at various places and depths. At 3:30 p.m. from shore he was of the opinion that but little if any creosote would find its way into the intake, and that the danger from pollution from sewage would be overcome, even though a sewer should be built from North Marquette emptying into the lake near Picnic rocks. Both the depth of the mouth of the intake and the low temperature of the water at that distance would tend to kill any sewage bacteria that might drift toward the intake opening.

Time Method of Purification.
In case that the city ever grew so large that its sewage would contaminate the water at the mouth of the extended intake, he stated that a purification plant could be installed at small expense. He considered that the cheapest and most effective way to purify water was by treatment with hypochlorite of lime, a system which was in use in Jersey City and in many cities in Europe, where its results were highly successful. This treatment causes the oxidation or operation of all harmful bacteria, rendering the water pure and wholesome. The chemical process in treating with hypochlorite of lime is essentially the same as with the ozone treatment, which was under investigation by the water board some months ago, but, according to Mr. Hering, the former is much less expensive. He thought that water could be given the lime treatment for about fifty cents per 1,000,000 gallons. However, he expressed the opinion with considerable assurance that the extension of the intake 3,000 feet or thereabouts into the lake would insure pure water for years to come, and that no purification or filtration plant would be needed in the immediate future.

AUGUST WAS GOOD MONTH.

Receipts of City Lighting Plant $400 More Than Last Year.

The receipts of the light and power commission for the month of August were $400 in excess of the same month last year, due largely to an increase of 250 in the number of installations during the year. Though the greatest increased earnings are found in the "residence lighting" item, there was a slight increase from the business lights. The expenses of the month were considerably higher than during August 1908, due to the new repairing on the foundation of the flume, consisting of concrete piers and new covering for part of the distance between the dam and the generating station. The plant is now valued at $244,962.92, with $53,500 outstanding bonds and $20,041.40 cash on hand. The earnings and expenses for the month were as follows:

—Earnings—
	Aug. '09.	Aug. '08.
Street lighting	804.33	799.37
Com. Ave. lighting	14.50	14.50

KIMBERLY-WILFLEY MEETING. Determined Effort to Be Made to Get Mill Into Operation.

At the meeting of stockholders in the Kimberly-Wilfley Mining company, held at the city hall last evening about thirty were present and much interest and enthusiasm in the proposed scheme to get the mine on a dividend paying basis were manifested. It is stated on good authority that the company's holdings are rich in zinc ore and that all that is needed is money to put up a mill to turn that ore into a commercial product. To accomplish this the directors propose to raise $30,000, about $18,000 of which has already been subscribed.

At the meeting last evening in the neighborhood of $700 was subscribed and A. P. Wilson and E. D. Mosher were appointed a committee to solicit further subscriptions among the local stockholders. In view of the abundant returns that may be expected from a small additional investment it is felt that all the stockholders ought to rally to the support of the movement to finance the project to build the mill.

A. R. Wilfley has offered to give his services to the company for one year as superintendent at the mine, and without that time to put the mine and mill in working operation. The money now being deposited to build the mill is being raised in a Marquette bank and no part of it will be withdrawn until the whole amount necessary has been obtained.

The Kimberly-Wilfley mine is located in the Kokomo district, near Leadville, Colo., and is within 150 miles of Denver.

KITCHEN COMFORT. A Money Saver and Something That Every Housewife Needs.

The writer yesterday saw a new invention which makes it possible to use kerosene or coal oil in any stove or furnace without changing or damaging the latter in the least and after it is in will heat the largest cook stove or range sufficiently for family cooking for less than $1.50 per month.

The Gen Oil Burner Co., Willoughby, Ohio, is the promoter of this successful burner, and the territory is rapidly being placed in the hands of local agents all over the state, who will retail cook stove burners at $12 apiece. To get them started in here patrons may buy direct from the manufacturers free of board cars at Willoughby, O., for half that sum for a day or two longer or until an agency is established. The cost of these burners is within the reach of all, especially now, while one can secure the benefit of the wholesale price. The exhibition will continue until Wednesday night at 118 South Front street. The selling of their burners will then be left in the hands of competent agents.
