The facts in connection with the rejection of the local option petitions by the Schooleraft county board of supervisors are to be presented to the state counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, and there is said to be a possibility that the supreme court will be sought in an effort to compel the Schoolcraft board to overrule itself and order the submission of the question. It is claimed by the people who circulated the petitions that the action of the board in rejecting them was not warranted. The dispute is an unfortunate one. It will be seriously unfortunate for the liquor interests if the supreme court should find that the power of the board was arbitrarily used in their favor, and if that tribunal should require it to submit the question. In that event the "dry" side of the controversy would be given a considerable boost.

Mr. Bennett is less farreaching in his claims for Bannard, but predicts his election by 20,000, a small enough margin, considering that the vote in New York on the office of governor was over 600,000 in 1906. Herbert Parsons, chairman of the New York county committee, agrees with this forecast. Both men assert that there is every prospect that Mr. Bannard will hold the normal Republican vote, and that there will not be, as there was four years ago, any wholesale desertion of the candidate in the closing stages of the campaign. "THE GIRL QUESTION" TONIGHT. Pepular Musical Comedy Production the Offering at Ishpeming Theater.

"The Girl Question," which had such an extended run at the LaSalle theater in Chicage, and which is making its first visit to the upper peninsula, will be the attraction at Ishpeming theater this evening. The comedy is said to be full of incessant action and brimming over with fun and laughter. The cast is an exceptionally strong one and the escaping. chorus is large and attractive. There is said to be a very tangible love story running through the play and its plot is of sufficient depth to hold the at tention of an audience, even though the songs, dances and pretty girls were prices. eliminated Among the strong musical numbers are "Good Bye Pal," "I Hate to Work on Monday," "O. TALKING BASEBALL LEAGUE. Copper Country Trying to Take Some of County's Best Players.

The copper country baseball enthusiasts are talking of organizing an outdoor league, to be composed of several teams, representing most of the principal towns in that section. The advisability of organizing a professional league is now being considered and it looks as though it will be formed. It is proposed that the league shall be known as either the Northern league, or the Northern Association of Baseball clubs. In the event the organization is perfected it will have the protection of the National commission and will be in class "b," the same as was the old Soo-Copper Country league of a few years age It is proposed to have not less than cight teams. Men who held positions on teams in the Marquette-Alger county league during the season recently closed have been offered places in the copper country, and it is likely that some of them will locate there, as from present reports there will be ball games every day. I'm players will be on a salary basis and they will not be expected to work at other positions. This arrangement will doubtless be more satisfactory to the players than the one under which they worked here.

It is reported in the copper country that Ironwood, Ishpeming and Marquetta fans would like to see their towns represented in the league, but they will stand no chance of getting in. copper country fans seem favorable to a league of their own and they propose to make it strong enough to grab up all the best players in the peninsula organization they will have no trouble Dress Circle thought that the receipts from the Gallery games will almost support the nines. The corper country has a great many fast ball players and it is vertain that a large percentage of the men who wer on the teams there last season will able to hold places on the league nin Gust Simpson, Ishpeming's crack eter fielder, was a short time ago offer Men's Overcoats (Ulster), regular $19 a position in the copper country, and s thinking seriously of locating there His friends here are satisfied that h will be fast enough to hold a place on any team up there. It is also reported that Frnie Burke could secure a position, though when he left here for his Ladies' Dresses, Saturday, at Braashome in Canada about ten days ago. he advised his friends that he intended All Ladies' Suits at reduced prices to return to Ishpeming next season.

ANOTHER REDUCTION.

N. P. L. Dividends Were Further Lowered by Recent Convention.

The Light of the Legion, that reaches embers this week, contains an account of the recent N. P. L. convention at Wilkes-Barre, Pa. A disturbing piece of news for members is the further reduction of the dividends that will mature iuring 1910, 1911 and 1912-just to what extent (says the report) "carnot be fuliy determined until the time comes for the cash dividends to be declared next year." It is vaguely predicted that the reduction will not be such as "need oc casion any material larse of member
