Included in Zelaya's Baggage Are Two Valises Filled With Gold and a Third Grip Fairly Bursting With Paper Money.

Reception of the Man Is Frosty—Only 200 Persons Give Him Welcome, and One Man Who Timidly Cries "Down With Yankees" Is Hissed—The Refugee Denies Washington's Right to Extradite Him—Knox's Mind Is Poisoned, He Says.

Mexico City, Dec. 29.—No Mexican officials met Zelaya on his arrival here today, but two hundred Central American and Mexicans welcomed him.

As Zelaya stepped from his Pullman, several in the crowd shouted "Viva Zelaya," "Viva Mexico." A Mexican timidly cried "Down with the Yankees," and was hissed.

Zelaya appeared to enjoy the demonstration and he raised his hat in acknowledgment. He posed for half a dozen press photographers and then rode to the Palace hotel.

Zelaya is technically correct in announcing himself still the head of the government. He surrendered the office, but was permitted to retain the title of president in order that he enjoy the immunity of the office.

Zelaya made this arrangement in consideration of rumors that the United States would hold him individually responsible for the deaths of Groce and Cannon.

His Accounts Will Be Investigated. President Madriz has appointed a committee of five to examine the accounts of the Zelayan administration.

When asked what attitude he would assume if Secretary of State Knox sought to extradite Zelaya, he said: "Mr. Knox is not my judge. I am an answerable only to my government for my actions. I have no ill feeling against the American people or government."

LAWYERS HE FAVORS WILL BE ENACTED

Mr. Taft Has Assurance That His Program for the Conservation of the Natural Resources Will Be Carried Out.

Already the Bills Have Been Drafted, Secretary Ballinger Having Been at Work on the Measures for Several Months, in Fact, and Before Congress Adjourns Next Spring the Legislation Desired by the President Will Be on the Statute Books.

Washington, Dec. 29.—"Acts rather than declarations" is the terse way in which Mr. Taft has described to callers his program for the conservation of the natural resources.

Without waiting for the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation, Mr. Taft will soon prepare a special message on conservation. He has received assurances from both houses of congress that while some trouble may be expected in the legislative branch, the legislation which the executive will suggest will be enacted before the spring adjournment.

ZELAYA TECHNICALLY CORRECT. He Retains His Title in the Hope of Escaping Uncle Sam's Vengeance.

Managua, Nicaragua, Dec. 29.—Zelaya is technically correct in announcing himself still the head of the government. He surrendered the office, but was permitted to retain the title of president in order that he enjoy the immunity of the office.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Paine Webber & Co.'s correspondent at New York yesterday telegraphed as follows: "Quite a little short selling was indulged in Monday and Tuesday, and the covering today was noticeable in various issues, but at the same time several of the higher priced stocks appeared to be in plentiful supply. The strength in the copper metal issues was significant, and the continued production of the Butte camp, it is thought, will greatly benefit the statistical position of the raw material. The Great Western issues were again actively absorbed, in anticipation of the successful placing of the bond issue of the company among investors, and the gross earnings of the road, compared with others operating in like territory, make it appear that after the contemplated improvements are completed the company should show a satisfactory surplus appreciable to the ordinary share."

FIRST BELOW ZERO WEATHER OF SEASON

SNOW STORM, ACCOMPANIED BY A FALL OF THIRTY DEGREES IN THE TEMPERATURE, FORCES MERCURY TO EIGHT BELOW.

The first severe weather of the winter has prevailed here since Tuesday morning. The mercury fell about thirty degrees, to a few points below zero. About a foot of snow has fallen. Thermometers registered from five to eight degrees below zero yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. This was several degrees colder than it has been at any time during the night, but on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock it was five below at a number of the higher points in the city.

The cold and stormy weather has not interfered with rail traffic to any great extent, but snow plows were used Tuesday day and again yesterday evening on the sidetracks in the Ishpeming yard. The city crews also had the plows out yesterday. At some of the mines where rail shipments are being made to furnaces, there has been no movement of ore since Monday. From other properties the usual shipments were made yesterday.

Below zero weather has been reported from many points in the Northwest. At several places the thermometers registered from ten to fifteen below, while the average temperature Tuesday night near Duluth was five below. The snow fall has been general and sleighs have taken the place of wagons at many places where they have not been used for three or four winters past. The fall was the heaviest in some parts of Wisconsin that they have had in ten years and in no place in the northern part of that state is there less than a foot of snow.

The change in the weather will be welcomed by lumbermen. Up to this time there has not been sufficient snow to permit the teams to haul good-sized loads. At most of the camps a majority of the workmen will now give their attention to the hauling, as there is no telling how long the roads will remain in good condition. The snow in the woods is not much over a foot in depth and a few days of warm wind and sunshine would soon break up the roads. Parties operating north of here, also B. J. Goodman, who is working a crew north of Clary, plan to continue their work just as long as the roads are in condition for hauling.

FOREIGNERS CLANNISH.

Methods of Spending Sunday Differ from Those of Americans.

How does the foreign population of Cleveland spend its Sunday afternoons? Nearly two-thirds of the population of this city, it is estimated by the directory and board of election officials, is made up of foreign-born citizens. Their methods of spending their day of rest in many instances are different from the American-born residents, who through the public parks, take trolley rides into the country and otherwise enjoy themselves.

It is true that a few foreigners visit the parks, but these for the most part are the ones who can scarcely be identified as foreign born. The bulk of them are clannish and stick to their various colonies, which are busy places on the Sabbath.

The day usually begins with church-going. The foreigner, brought up under strict religious conditions in the old land ordinarily takes a long time to depart from them. Every Sunday morning, therefore, he goes to church with his family. Later in the morning he may be seen lounging about the house, waiting for dinner to be served.

After dinner, father takes his weekly outing, while mother and the children settle down to spend the afternoon in each other's company. The men desert the colonies, going to the ball games, for street car rides and to roam in the country. The young men take their best girls with them, but the married ones usually prefer going alone, because the family is often too big to lug along. That's why mother waits behind.

The girls, at least those who haven't any regular beaux, usually stay behind, too, spending the afternoon chatting with each other.

Sunday evening in the foreign colonies of Cleveland, however, is often a jolly occasion. The weekly dances, held in the neighborhood halls, give the young people, and some of the older ones, too, a chance to hark back to their native land. Native dances are equally as popular as the American steps, and the orchestras intersperse native with American music. These dances last until early morning, when the crowd disperses everybody having to get up early Monday morning and go back to the week's toil again.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

LAWYERS' BANQUET LARGELY ATTENDED

Forty-four sat down to ANNUAL FEAST AT HOTEL MARQUETTE LAST NIGHT.

FAREWELL TO JUSTICE STONE

Program in Reminiscent Vein Brought Forth Many Fond Recollections and Memories.

Forty-four of the legal fraternity of the twenty-fifth judicial circuit sat down to the twenty-first annual banquet of the Marquette County Bar association, which was held at the Hotel Marquette last evening. The occasion was fraught with peculiar significance and sentiment in that it was a farewell to Judge (now Justice) John W. Stone, who will leave tonight for Lansing to become one of the justices of the supreme court. The large representation of attorneys from all the counties of the circuit was in itself a magnificent tribute of the high regard in which Justice Stone is held by those with whom he has been in close contact for so many years. The guests sat down to the tables, which were arranged in "U" shape, about 9 o'clock and the following excellent menu was served:

- Canape Caviar
- Celery Hearts
- Dry Martini
- Cotuits, in Shell
- Stuffed Olives
- Saltea Pecans
- Radishes
- Essence of Chicken
- Broiled Nova Scotia Lobster.
- Sauce Crapadine
- Victoria Sherry
- Roman Punch
- Roast Mallard Duck, Currant Jelly
- Candied Sweet Yams
- Asparagus Tips
- White Seal
- Walnut Salad
- Neapolitan Ice Cream
- Assorted Cake
- Camembert Cheese
- Toasted Crackers
- Deini Tasse
- Cigars
- Cigarettes

After all had eaten their fill of the many good things set before them, A. B. Eldredge, the toastmaster, introduced the program of responses, which were largely in reminiscence vein, and chiefly dealt with the humorous and other experiences of the court and members of the bar during Judge Stone's term as circuit judge. One attorney from each county in the circuit had a place on the program, their names and subjects being:

BUSINESS IS IMPROVING.

Lake Shore Engine Works Employing More Men Than Ever Before. Numerous orders for mining machinery have been coming in to the Lake Shore Engine Works of late and the company is now employing about 120 men, more than at any time in its history. The plant is still looking for more help and is working full time, some night work being at times necessary. The orders are coming in from all parts of the country and the prospects for a busy next year are very bright. The branch office, recently established at Butte, is bringing in a large amount of western business, and just now a 300-horse power electric double drum hoist is being manufactured for the Butte-Haikuva Mining company. Purchases of the Lake Shore Engine Works' products have found them to be high class goods and wherever placed, they have served as an advertisement for new and additional business.

THEATRICAL.

"The Climax." "The Climax," a three-act comedy drama by Edward Locke, is scheduled to appear at the opera house next Tuesday evening. The piece has been produced by Joseph M. Weber, and is said to be an attraction that is really worth while. It comes with the car marks of success, having made a hit at Weber's theater, New York. Its author is a young American with fresh ideas, and it is said he has supplied his offering with new touches. The story has been told in a straightforward way and has made a strong hit for popularity by reason of its simplicity. Love and ambition, gentle intrigue, pathos and humor are dominating notes in an unassuming tale of three people with the artistic temperament and one person contrary engaged.

K. C.'S THE VICTORS IN HARD FOUGHT GAME

BEFORE AN IMMENSE CROWD, ONE OF THE BEST BASKETBALL GAMES EVER PLAYED IN CITY WAS WAGED.

In what is said to have been the fastest, cleanest and altogether the best game of basketball ever played in the city, the Knights of Columbus defeated the City team at Legion Hall last night by the score of 13 to 11, the winning basket being made in the last minute of play. The two teams were equally matched and from the time the game started until its close the result was in doubt every minute. A crowd of about 200 was present, and both teams being on an equal number of supporters, there was simply a bellman of enthusiasm throughout the contest. The teams lined up as follows: K. C.'s, Ring, center; Connell and Hanley, forwards; McGuire and Lane, guards. City team, Primate, center; Reinhardt and Sullivan, forwards; Weaver and Richardson, guards; James Cameron and Austin Cathin, ends; umpire and referee, exchanging positions between the halves.

During the first half, the City team had a little the best of the argument and made two baskets and three foul shots, while the K. C.'s scored two baskets and three fouls, leaving the score 8 to 5 in favor of the City team at the close of the half. The second round was a different story. The K. C.'s came back strong, determined to arrest a victory in spite of the advantages of the City team. The City team also fought fiercely and held the game safe until a few moments before time was called, when the K. C.'s tied the score by throwing a foul and a moment later Lane tossed the ball into the basket with the winning and final score. During the second half, the K. C.'s scored three baskets and two fouls, and the City team one basket and one foul.

Following the game, the floor was cleared for dancing, Trombly's orchestra turning the music, and a large crowd enjoyed the light fantastic until a late hour. The wide-spread and intense interest in the game last night shows conclusively that a basketball league, with a regular schedule of games, would prove a great success, and it is probable that steps in that direction will be taken at once. In view of the difficulty in arranging a league composed entirely of local teams, a plan is now on foot for a six-team league, composed of two teams from Marquette, two from Negaunee, and two from Islepeping. Negotiations are now in progress. With L'Anse and other co-oper country teams.

STREET TALK.

Marquette people may not be much alarmed about tubercular cattle, but one can't help noticing that a large majority are rapidly pinning their faith to the Marquette City Dairy, where they know the animals are free from tuberculosis and general conditions are right. It now requires five horses to deliver the goods from Marquette's ideal dairy. (12-27-1w)

DAIRYMEN SCARCE AT PUBLIC MEETING

ONE MILK DEALER AND LESS THAN A HALF DOZEN CITIZENS PRESENT LAST NIGHT.

TUBERCULIN TEST FAVORED

All Who Were There Expressed Themselves to the Effect That the Proposed Ordinance Should Include That Requirement.

With a single exception, the dairymen, supplying Marquette with milk were conspicuous by their absence at the public meeting to discuss the milk ordinance, held at the city hall last evening. Three members of the ordinance and rules committee of the council were on hand and perhaps a half dozen besides constituted the whole number present, yet an hour or more was profitably spent in the discussion of the milk question.

As the result of the meeting, the ordinance and rules committee appear to be more strongly in favor of enforcing the tuberculin test than before, and one member expressed the opinion that he would favor the passage of a measure that would be a "sizzler," perhaps modeled after the ordinance recently passed by the Escanaba council. Every person present at the meeting last night expressed himself as in favor of requiring all cattle to be tested for tuberculosis, and forbidding the sale of all milk and cream from out-of-town herds that could not show a clean bill of health from the state veterinarian or other competent officer.

Dr. Deadman and James Pendill were the principal speakers for the lay and both emphatically emphasized the need of an ordinance that included the anti-tuberculosis requirement. Dr. Deadman stated that his professional experience in this county led him to believe that at least 10 per cent of the cattle were infected with tuberculosis, and that in some herds the disease claimed as much as 50 per cent. Mr. Pendill was well fortified with government reports, setting forth much the same facts as Dr. Deadman, and further showing that there was both possibility and probability of the disease being communicated from cattle to human beings in milk, cream or butter.

Difficulty of Enforcement. All being in substantial agreement as to the desirability of the tuberculin test requirement in any ordinance that might be passed, much of the time was spent in a discussion of a possible means of enforcing such an ordinance, should it be passed, and this problem proved a hard one. All agreed that none of the present city officers was in a position to gather samples of milk from time to time and test or have same tested, in order to see whether the ordinance was being obeyed. One member of the committee advised that the police force be increased by one, and that a part of the new man's duties should be to take milk and cream samples from the dairymen's wagons and have them tested, and also to inspect the dairies from time to time. This brought out objection to the creation of another city office and consequent increase of the municipal payroll. Another of those present suggested that some one be employed occasionally by the day to take milk samples and have them tested. It was generally agreed that some adequate means of enforcing the proposed ordinance was the first thing that should be settled, and the meeting adjourned without any plan satisfactory to all having been suggested.

The single dairyman present expressed the opinion that there was nothing in the proposed ordinance that should be in the least objectionable to any honest dairymen, and that the dairymen themselves would derive great benefit from its passage. From a standpoint of dollars and cents, he said, he could not afford to have tubercular cattle in his herd, and the sooner they were weeded out the better for him, as well as for the consumers of his product. To prevent any extraordinary hardship when the ordinance first went into effect, he suggested that, if possible, the expense of having the herds tested the first time.

SHOULD PROTECT SETTLERS.

Duty of State to Prevent Fake Sellers of Home-seekers' Gold Bricks.

"Some measures must be taken to prevent the sale of absolutely barren lands in Michigan to ignorant purchasers by land sharks," says Robert Graham, president of the state board of agriculture. "There have been new methods of farming discovered by which barren land can be made productive and in this boom which has been started there is an opportunity for people to be robbed of their money unless they are careful to make a thorough investigation before buying. I know there is plenty of good cheap land for settlers, but there are also many acres that will not grow anything in the shape of crops, and we can't afford to have people robbed with that land." Asked how some measure of protection could be provided, Mr. Graham said that he understood the state public domain commission intended to withdraw a large quantity of the worthless lands from sale, and will whenever requested, furnish prospective buyers with all the information at hand as to the value of land they purpose to purchase. "I do not want to stand in the way of the plan of some citizens to interest settlers in Michigan, but I do not want to have people buy farms in certain sections of this state with any idea that they can grow crops on them, for I know they cannot. We have plenty of good lands which can be turned into profitable farms by settlers, but it is the duty of the state to see to it that fakers do not sell worthless land to people who are seeking a chance to establish a home."

MARQUETTE COUNTY SAVINGS BANK

Savings Bank Building, Marquette.

Christmas time is the best time because it is the kindest time. Nobody ever felt very happy without feeling very kind, and nobody ever felt very kind without feeling at least a little happy.

So, of course, either way, about the happiest time is the kindest time—that's this time. The most beautiful things our eyes can see are the stars; and for that reason, and in remembrance of One Star, we set candles on the tree to be stars in the house. So we make Christmas-time a time of stars indoors; and they shine warmly against the cold outdoors that is like the cold of other seasons not so kind. We set our hundred candles on the tree and keep them bright throughout the Christmas time, for while they shine upon us we have light to see this life, not as a battle, but as the march of a mighty fellowship!
