Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

Fists are now succeeding arguments at many a British campaign meeting.

The insurgents have waited to put one over Speaker Cannon. No wonder they cheered last Friday.

Five candidates for the Ishpeming postoffice: Marquette was never able to show anything to equal that.

With the passing of Gifford Pinchot the members of President Roosevelt's "tennis cabinet" have been pretty well eliminated from the Taft administration.

It seems to be the opinion locally that before the windup some of the numerous candidates for the postoffice at Ishpeming will be calling for an election, just like the one we are to have in Marquette.

If President Taft wanted his message on the interstate commerce law and the control of corporations to have first place in public interest, he should not have submitted it on the day he ousted Pinchot.

The congressional inquiry into the interior department will proceed as per announcement, though there is no longer any chance that it can result in the deprecation of Pinchot.

A body of business men at Muskegon have served notice on the saloon men that there must be a strict observance of the laws governing the traffic in liquor.

The vote by which Speaker Cannon was overridden in the house Friday last indicates by what a narrow margin the Republican organization has under the existing conditions, control.

Senator Sullivan has offered a resolution in the New York legislature calling for an investigation by the judiciary committee of the senate into the subject of the "white slave" traffic.

Many local politicians have commented on the gradual fading of talk of impending hostilities between Senators William Alden Smith and Julius Caesar Burrows.

Many of Pinchot's friends will be grievously disappointed by the apparent poor judgment of his course, and will be entirely at a loss to understand it.

In the course of a deposition in a Wisconsin libel suit, growing out of politics, Senator Stephenson related, among many other things, that the break between him and the La Follette wing of the Republican party in Wisconsin came when he refused to stand an assessment of $250,000 for La Follette's presidential campaign fund.

The Escanaba saloon men are evidently not afraid of the Warner-Crampton law. Eight of their number were arrested and arraigned last week for violations committed since that statute became effective.

President Taft decided that he might as well do the thing he obviously had to do—remove Chief Forester Pinchot—without delay.

Why he should desire this is difficult to see. If he wished to put President Taft in a hole, he has signally failed to do so.

Pinchot's conduct is all the more inexplicable because he has been in no way crowded. President Taft has, as far as the public knows, refused to interfere between him and Ballinger.

Many of Pinchot's friends will be grievously disappointed by the apparent poor judgment of his course, and will be entirely at a loss to understand it.

Calumet Baking Powder. The only high-class Baking Powder sold at a moderate price.

Of incidents reported from Washington. It will be pleased, we believe, to find some reason for Pinchot's conduct that will restore some of the prestige he has doubtless lost by the surprising developments of the week.

OSBORN AND MONTGOMERY. Chase S. Osborn, of the Soo, has given the campaign for governor its first sensational turn by his letter to Justice Montgomery, questioning the propriety of his being a candidate unless he resigns from the supreme court.

At the Chapin mine, Iron Mountain, Mich., where the caving system of mining is employed at a depth of about 1,200 to 1,400 feet, the surface of the ground has caved, forming a pit nearly one-half mile long, 800 to 900 feet wide, and 100 to 130 feet deep.

Mr. Osborn announces frankly his intention of discussing the qualifications of other candidates. This does not carry promise of the harmonious campaign we had been hoping for.

Upper Peninsula

Wants $10,000 Damages—

The case of David McLeod of Iron Mountain vs. the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul has been docketed for trial in the Marinette circuit court, which will convene today.

Nine Sentenced to Prison— Joseph Rikhtarich, Jacob Rikhtarich, Primoz Hobjan and Mike Yellenz, who were arrested with several others at Iron Mountain for the alleged robbery of freight cars in the Antoine yards of the Northwestern road and who were arraigned in the court of two years.

PAW PAW—Van Buren county remains dry. By a unanimous vote the board of supervisors petition from Columbia township, containing 185 names, was turned down by reason of insufficient affidavit, leaving a deficiency of 15 names.

PONTIAC—A jury in circuit court decided that Thomas O. Tyack must pay $800.18, his wife's funeral expenses. His wife died at the asylum and her father took charge of the funeral arrangements.

MUSKEGON—A committee of six of Muskegon's prominent business men, have come out with a statement to the effect that if the liquor laws are not changed they will advocate local option in the county.

LANSING—The public domain commission has settled with W. B. Mershon of Saginaw for the pine seedlings for the purchase of which Mr. Mershon furnished the money while he was a member of the forestry commission and which he claimed in controversy. It was agreed, it is stated, that Mr. Mershon should receive seedling to the value of $493.23, the amount he invested, the little trees to be valued at $1 per thousand.

LUDINGTON—Ludington is to become the "spotless town" of Michigan if the plans laid out by Health Officer J. O. Saitter are carried out. The decree has gone forth that Ludington must be clean when his term as health officer expires next spring.

PONTIAC—Surveyors are at work on the proposed electric line between Farmington and Lansing. They expect to complete their work by March. It is the hope of the company to have the road completed before the fall and to start active business. The road will connect at Farmington with the D. T. R., making a direct electric route from Detroit to the state capital. The superintendent of the line declares the road will be extended from Lansing to Grand Rapids.

DETROIT—A report current here is to the effect that the members of the prison board have compromised on General W. T. McGarrin of Grand Rapids as the man to succeed A. N. Armstrong as warden of Jackson prison. It is said that the deal which has existed since the governor presented the general's name last spring, has been ironed out and that the necessary votes have now been pledged so that with the aid of the governor's vote the position is definitely assured for the Grand Rapids man.

JACKSON—Stephen Lapham, a paroled prisoner, was convicted in circuit court of violating the local option law. Lapham, who was doing a bootlegging business, furnished three young men with two bottles of whisky and a fight resulted. It is possible that the prosecuting attorney will join Judge Parkinson in a request to the board of pardons to overlook Lapham's offense, otherwise he may have to serve an unexpired sentence of five years. This is the first case of violation of the local option law in which a verdict of guilty has been returned by a Jackson court jury.

The Very Old Way and the New

BUTTER MAKING—First came the shaking and jolting of cream in a bag, dragged swiftly over a rough road—then the old wooden churn—and now, Silver Creek Creamery Pasteurized Butter. Clean—Good to the Taste—Nourishing to the System.

LOWER STATE NOTES. COLDWATER—Hale Smith, a farmer who has just moved to Coldwater, the other night bought some chickens for supper. In one he found sixty-four pearls, varying in size, the largest being as large as a common pea.

PAW PAW—Van Buren county remains dry. By a unanimous vote the board of supervisors petition from Columbia township, containing 185 names, was turned down by reason of insufficient affidavit, leaving a deficiency of 15 names.

PONTIAC—A jury in circuit court decided that Thomas O. Tyack must pay $800.18, his wife's funeral expenses. His wife died at the asylum and her father took charge of the funeral arrangements.

A LAUGH OR TWO.

Community. In the hereafter the man encountered a single group of animals—two or three heaved an after and some snorts, all shivering, though the climate, to say the least, was mild.

Braving Up the Staff. It was the new city editor's first night. Summoning a veteran of the staff, he said: "I'm going to brace up this force. I want a couple of crack-jack writers, such as Rex Beach or Jack London, and I want a humorist. Know of any that we could get?"

A Judicial Expert. The native with a single met the native with a pile. "Howdy, Zeb!" quoth the staid native. "Hear 'bout th' fuss down to th' court house?"

Marriage of the Bride. A clergyman, noticing the simple appearance of the couple he had just married, decided to give them a few words of advice. He explained to the young man his duties as a husband, and then told the young lady how she should conduct herself, winding up with the old injunction that she must look to her husband for everything and forsaking father and mother, follow him wherever he went.

Saving the Situation. Dr. Hilly Little Laycock of Wheeling at the recent diocesan convention in New York, said of a certain resolution: "It was, perhaps, unintelligible, like the Wheeling man's prayer."

Three Versions. "How far is it between these two towns?" "About four miles as the flow eries," replied the witness. "You mean as the cry flows." "No," put in the judge, "he means as the fly crows."

The Particular Smokers' Choice. La Verdad. The new Turpentine-made LA VERDAD. Clean Smokers wonder how we are able to combine such high quality in a cigarette.

TWO MORE CHINESE ARE ROUNDED UP

CHARLES YIM AND SAM LEE ARRESTED AND MUST FACE DEPORTATION CHARGE.

CANNOT SHOW "CHOC CHEES"

Immigration Inspectors Believe Them Not Legal Residents and Will Ask That They Be Returned to China.

Immigration Inspectors Harry Edsell and Frank M. Jewell

dropped into Marquette Chinatown, assembled in social convention at Pong Lee's laundry, yesterday afternoon, and arrested Kung On Chau, better known as Charles Yim, proprietor of a laundry on West Washington street, and Kung Chung Gah, otherwise Sam Lee, one of the laundry partners doing business under that name on Spring street.

Cleaver Ruse at Duluth.

Upon arriving in the copper country, Mr. Edsell learned that the three celestials had made a getaway, the local officers believing that one of them had gone to Duluth and two to Chicago.

Telegrams were sent to the two cities and the one who went to Duluth was arrested by the Duluth police.

Upon arriving in this city yesterday afternoon, the inspectors made a round of the Chinese laundries and found all of them dark, with the exception of Pong Lee's on Washington street, opposite the post-office, where the whole Chinese population of the city had assembled for a social good time.

Among the number were Charles Yim and Sam Lee, who could not show certificates of residence, though both have lived here for several years, and they were arrested.

Inspector Edsell stated last night that twenty-six Chinese had been arrested in the upper peninsula, on the charge of not being legal residents of the United States, within the few weeks.

Most of these have been ordered deported, but in no case has the order been executed.

Several of the number are fighting deportation, claiming that they are merchants, the Chinese Exclusion act, under certain conditions, a Chinese engaged in business in this country is not liable to deportation.

The question at issue in these cases will be whether a Chinese who holds a share of more stock in an American corporation is engaged in business under the meaning of the Exclusion act.

Others claim to be American-born. It is likely that a number of these Chinese will not be deported until after the trial of "Felix" Wagner in United States court at Marquette next May.

Wagner is accused of smuggling Chinese into this country across the St. Mary's river, and it is said that several of the celestials under arrest can give testimony tending to prove Wagner's guilt.

All the Chinese ordered to be deported, provided they are unsuccessful in their attempts to prevent it, will be sent back to China at the expense of the United States government.

If all are taken to the Pacific coast together, there will be a carload of them and they will be placed on a China-bound vessel, under guard of the United States marshal or his deputies from the upper peninsula to the coast.

YOU ARE INVITED.

Arrour & Co. extend a cordial invitation to ladies and gentlemen of Marquette and vicinity to attend the opening of their Marquette branch house today.

Stone to the supreme bench.

DENTAL ASSOCIATION ELECTED OFFICERS

HAS COMPLETED THE FIRST YEAR OF ITS EXISTENCE—PLANS OUTLINED FOR EXTENDING ITS SCOPE.

The Iron Country Dental association met in Marquette Saturday evening for a social session and to elect officers for the ensuing year. It has just completed the first year of its existence and is now considering plans for largely extending its scope.

Dr. O. F. Brauns and H. Sturtz of Iron Mountain were in attendance at the session and were elected to membership, as was Dr. R. C. McCann of Marquette.

Dr. A. W. Haide of Negaunee was the retiring president, and the members Saturday evening gave due acknowledgment to the value of his work in getting the association fairly started and arranging interesting sessions during the past year.

The next meeting of the association will be held Feb. 5, in this city. During the winter monthly meetings will be held. It is expected that at least one of them will be held in Iron Mountain.

NINE CONVICTS IN ONE PARTY

ELEVEN NEW ARRIVALS RECEIVED AT THE MARQUETTE PRISON YESTERDAY—CASE OF "TOO MUCH JOHNSON."

What is said to have been the largest number of convicts received at the Marquette prison at any one time—exclusive of transfers from the Jackson prison—were delivered at that institution yesterday.

The new arrivals numbered eleven, most of whom were from Iron Mountain, where they were sentenced by Judge Cooper in the recent term of circuit court.

There were nine convicts in this party, and they were in charge of Sheriff Albert Robbins, of Dickinson county, and four deputies, the latter being Jack Estey, Tom Blackney, Joseph Hambley and August Johnson.

The convicts were Louis DeYoungie, arson, three to six years, with a recommendation of six; Micheline Michela, rape, five to ten years, with a recommendation of ten; Peter Nash, larceny, two to five years, with a recommendation of five; Mike Yellen, larceny, one year and six months to five years, with a recommendation of two; Joseph Richards, larceny, one year and six months to five years, with a recommendation of two; Charles Dublin, disorderly person, six months to two years, with a recommendation of one year, and Paul Clifford, disorderly person, six months to two years, with a recommendation of two years.

Four of the men sentenced for larceny were convicted of extensive car thefts at Ansonia, a suburb of Iron Mountain.

The booking of the convicts and other work connected with their reception took up considerable time. They will be put to work in the various shops at once.

Sheriff Robbins and his deputies returned to Iron Mountain last evening. The other two men received at the prison yesterday came in on the late train last night, in charge of the sheriff of Kalkaska county.

They were James Simonds and Walter Myers, both of whom have been sentenced to a term of not less than nine nor more than eighteen years. The men were convicted on a serious statutory charge.

Officers of the Marquette prison have had considerable amusement out of the appearance in a local paper of a report that Charles Johnson, one of the "star" witnesses in the Whalen-Ogg investigation of the institution last year, is dead at the Iron Mountain prison.

When he finishes up his present sentence he is urgently wanted at Akron, O., where two indictments stand against him. One of the Whalen-Ogg recommendations was that this particular Johnson be transferred to Jackson prison to permit him to testify in the vengeance of the Marquette prison officers, because of his testimony.

The board of pardons, on the matter being called to its attention by the warden, gave him a thorough investigation, found that he was getting along well in the Marquette prison and decided that he was better off there than he would be at Jackson.

Another Inquiry. There has been even a later inquiry into Johnson's case. When Governor Warner was in St. Louis, en route to Yucatan peninsula, to purchase a supply of dynamite, he was handed an anonymous typewritten letter, purporting to be from a paroled convict, detailing alleged wrongful treatment suffered by Johnson.

The governor directed Ira Carley of the board of control to make a thorough investigation into the matter, without the knowledge of any of the prison officials, and assisted by O. C. Davidson of Iron Mountain, he did so at the last board meeting, finding the statements in the anonymous letter entirely false. Johnson was in the hospital, suffering from rheumatism at the time. He told the board members that he was being well treated and that no less than three physicians had called in an attempt to secure relief for him.

It is the belief of the prison officials that the source of the anonymous letter referred to was the federal building in Marquette, a belief in which they are confirmed by certain common characteristics in it and other typewritten work from the same source. Principally among which is an unusual and prominent pica type.

The other Charles Johnson, the convict who died at the Ionia institution, was transferred to the Ionia asylum six years ago, July 24, 1903. He was in the prison when the change of wardens occurred in September of the previous year. He was a man of violent temper, and assaulted another inmate with a hammer shortly before he was transferred to Ionia. The facts regarding the identity of the man who died at Ionia might easily have been ascertained by inquiry at the Marquette institution, had there been any desire on the part of the writer of the untruthful article to give them.

ARMOUR & CO. will open their branch house on Lake street today. The public is invited to call any time during the day.

The Maple Grove dairy will sell milk at eight cents a quart. Let the quality of the milk speak for itself.
