

PROHIBITS SALE OF COAL LANDS

Mr. Beveridge of Indiana Explains to the Senate the Important Legislation He Has Proposed Relative to Alaska.

He Figures the Deposits Concerned at 15,000,000,000 Tons—These He Would Lease on a Royalty Basis—Had That Been Done in Case of Iron Ore, He Says, the Revenues Would Go Far Toward Meeting the Expenses of the Government

Washington, Feb. 23.—In the senate today Mr. Beveridge explained his bill for the withdrawal from sale, and the leasing instead, of the Alaskan coal deposits. He expected that these deposits would, in time, be needed by the entire country.

Mr. Beveridge noted the fact that if sold the Alaska coal lands must be disposed of at a flat rate of ten dollars an acre. He pointed out that in 1906 President Roosevelt withdrew all of these lands from entry, but no law has been passed confirming the withdrawal.

Of his second bill, Senator Beveridge said that if the leasing policy of various mineral deposits belonging to the government and at the same time the interests owning and operating these deposits would have made reasonable profits instead of the enormous profits which have built up some of the mightiest aggregations of capital and some of the most tremendous fortunes in the history of the world.

The senate passed a bill allowing the allotment of lands in forest reservations to Indians. Mr. Heyburn argued that the bill would give the Indians preference over whites, but Mr. Clapp called attention to the fact that the whites had this right.

Important Bills Go Through the House. Washington, Feb. 23.—After a debate of two and a half hours the house today passed the Sherley bill to establish a uniform bankruptcy law throughout the country.

The house also passed the Sterling bill to amend the employers' liability act. The bill permits action to be brought in a federal court, concurrently with the state courts, and gives right of action to the injured employee's survivors.

Each is beyond the reach of the other, so far as taxation is concerned. The proposed amendment in no sense seeks, nor can it reasonably be argued to suggest, any change in the independent or sovereign rights of either sovereignty as enjoyed and defined by the courts ever since the government was organized.

Still, it does not follow, even if Governor Hughes were right, that the amendment should be rejected. On the contrary, it follows that it should be ratified, because under the interpretation all incomes would be treated alike. No exemptions would be allowed and no exceptions permitted, save as congress might and should exempt all incomes up to a certain amount.

Arguing that as the safety of the state depends on the safety of the nation, he said: "Should a foreign fleet bombard the city of New York, I can imagine that the borrowing capacity of the Empire State might be impaired. But the impairment would be measured by the danger and assault brought to the Republic. In other words, New York's credit will be protected in proportion to the ability of the federal government to protect itself against the enemy."

"When regiments must be equipped and armed, when battleships must be counted the cost, this government should have the power to lay its tax upon the incomes of those who have them. But should it come, the Republic should be clothed with full and ample authority to lay a just share of the burden upon the income of the whole country."

Mr. Brown declared that if New York should reject the amendment it would do so because of inherent objections to any tax on incomes, and not because of any fear of the effect on her borrowing capacity. Indeed, the experience of all income taxing nations had shown that the credit of the state is not impaired by imposing a tax on its bonds.

Asserting that the perpetuity of this nation's plan of government depends on the co-existence of the state and federal authority, he said that neither could be destroyed by an amendment to the Constitution. If that may result at all, it must come through revolution, and he did not believe a revolution to be in sight.

Novark, N. J., Feb. 23.—President Taft here tonight addressed one of the largest and most enthusiastic dinner audiences he has met in all his travels—eight hundred members and guests gathered at the Newark Board of Trade banquet at Kruger Auditorium.

Mr. Taft expressed pleasure at being a fellow guest with Senator Lodge, who was discussing the high prices, a question which has occupied the attention of all the people and has invited investigation into its cause by congress and some of the state legislatures.

By meeting the expenditures on the Panama canal with the proceeds of bond issues we will have enough cash to meet the deficit in our ordinary expenses, and if we meet the expenditures on the Panama canal for the following year we will have a surplus of $35,000,000; or, if the new program for the present year tariff keeps up to present indications, this surplus may be increased to $50,000,000.

Continuing, the senator said: "That combination to control the sale of certain articles have, in some instances, advanced the price artificially I have not the least doubt. If I am correct, the facts gathered by the committee will demonstrate that the main body cases which we ought to be able to reach. Whatever the facts show, they will be stated without attempt either to blacken, to whitewash or to mislead."

"The occasion calls for firmness and justice, for a determination to exterminate the evils born of greed and unscrupulousness which imper with the food supply of the people or with the necessities of life, if laws can be framed to do it."

Capital City Celebrates "Victory." Managua, Feb. 23.—Another victory over the revolutionists is announced by General Toledo, minister of war. It is based on an official dispatch from General Rivas, commanding the government forces who engaged Chamorro's force at Tisma. General Toledo stated that the losses on both sides were very heavy, that the battle lasted seven hours and was the bloodiest of the war. The revolutionists, he says, were compelled to retreat on their position.

The government asserts that General Chamorro was in personal command of the enemy. It admits that the engagement was fought with varying fortune

PEACE IN SIGHT FOR NICARAGUA

Victories of Immense Importance to the Cause of the Revolutionists Indicate That the War Will Soon Be Terminated.

Deceiving the Federals by a Feint With One Division, the Wily Chamorro Captures Granada. With His Main Army—He Will Now Be Joined by Estrada and With Him Will March to the Capital City of the Republic. Only Thirty Miles Distant.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Victories of immense importance to the insurgents in Nicaragua are told in despatches received today at the state department.

General Chamorro, with the main division of the insurgents, has evaded the government forces sent out to check him and by a feint movement has taken the city of Granada. The Chamorro family is very powerful there, and the capture of the city is most important.

It is inferred that Estrada, once believed to be going in the direction of Greytown, is marching to make a junction with Chamorro and attack Managua. The losses of the government troops in the guerrilla warfare which has raged the last few days are stated to have been terrific.

The despatches say that after the engagement of Feb. 19 scores of unburied dead lay upon the field. The losses to the provisionals were slight.

Indicates End of the War. New York, Feb. 23.—The capture of Granada by the insurgents is interpreted by the representatives of the insurgents here to indicate the end of the war and that Estrada soon will be president of Nicaragua.

The capture of Granada has a population of 25,000 and most of the republic's wealthy families reside there. It is connected with Managua by a railroad thirty miles long. Colonel Vivas, General Estrada's representative, said: "We have not the least doubt that Estrada is marching unopposed to join Chamorro at Granada. They will join forces within two days and march on Managua."

Washington, Feb. 23.—Private advices received here tonight tend to confirm the despatches to the state department announcing the fall of Granada and the victorious movement of the Nicaraguan insurgents. General Chamorro, according to these advices, crossed the Tipitapa river Monday near Lake Managua with his main force, sending one division further up the stream to make a feint and attract the government forces while the main body got across and started for Granada.

It is inferred here that the revolutionary element in Granada started on uprising which assisted Chamorro. The following from General Estrada, addressed to Senor Castillo, the Washington representative of the provisional government, came tonight: "Following three days of fierce fighting, Generals Mena and Zeledon absolutely destroyed the Madrid army in Chontales, under command of Vasquez, Godoy, Mata and Gonzales. The two divisions were killed or wounded. One hundred of the enemy, and two hundred were wounded. We scored a complete victory. Chamorro is in the immediate vicinity of Managua."

Senor Corea, the former minister from Nicaragua, received a telegram dated yesterday, reading: "Complete victory at Tisma. Many prisoners and ammunition captured. Chamorro totally destroyed. He intended today to ford the Tipitapa, but was repulsed and is being actively pursued."

Bluefields Is Jubilant. Bluefields, Feb. 23.—There is jubilation here tonight. General Mena has reported the complete rout of the government forces at San Vicente. Other reports state that Granada is in the hands of the revolutionists, and that Aurelio Estrada, with a thousand men, has joined Chamorro and the combined force is marching to Managua. The news, however, has failed definitely to locate Chamorro. Mena's telegram said: "The disbanded government forces are being everywhere. The leaders are attempting desertion, but the natives are locking to our side every minute in numbers which precludes arming all of them. According to information brought from there by citizens flying from the scene, has been abandoned by all save the officers, who are hopelessly trying to recruit."

An American with Mena estimates the Madrid led at 150. Mena's men acknowledge the bravery of a detachment of the enemy, which crossed a plain to attack them. The remnant reached the crest, driving the provisionals before them, but with ranks depleted they were unable to hold it. Retreating under fire, they reformed on another hill, whence they were driven again. Of seventy men, only seventeen escaped."

Federal Examiners Find That It Has Been Looted of $144,000—Geo. W. Coleman, Missing Now, Is the Official Blamed for the Defalcation and He Is Sought by the Police on the Charge of Embezzlement—He Has Been Flying High, It Is Stated.

Boston, Feb. 23.—Following the discovery that the National City bank of Cambridge had been looted of $144,000, the institution was closed today, probably forever, by order of the comptroller of the currency. Later a warrant charging embezzlement was issued for the arrest of George W. Coleman, the bank's young cashier. The bank's capital stock of $100,000 and its surplus were wiped out by the defalcation.

Last Thursday a bank examiner began an examination of the books, Friday Coleman fled. Monday friends received a telegram from him, dated Kansas City, saying that he would be home tomorrow. The stockholders are liable to assessment if the assets are insufficient. Coleman is the son of a prominent Cambridge man. He maintained two touring cars, a kennel of dogs, etc.

Bank Wrecker Allen Goes to Prison. Madison, Feb. 23.—Phil Allen, Jr., wrecker of the First National bank of Mineral Point, Wis., was taken to the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth this afternoon to serve his ten years' sentence. The decision to get Allen out of the way now, instead of holding him until the calling of the conspiracy cases, against President Calvert Spencely and the others was made as a result of the discovery of secretly written letters in which Allen is alleged to have attempted to frame up deals against the receiver of his estate, the Central Wisconsin Trust company, of Madison, with the alleged purpose of concealing stocks and retaining them in the name of relatives. The letters were intercepted by Sheriff Hallbach.

STOCK MARKET LIFELESS. Trading the Smallest of Any Day for Many Months. New York, Feb. 23.—The stagnant, inert stock market today suggested that speculation was awaiting the development of new forces. Boom traders labored to turn small fractional profits at the expense of each other. No other dealings were distinguishable. The sales fell to a figure lower than for any day the past year. The critical stage of the Baltimore & Ohio negotiations with the employes caused depression in that stock. The money markets were firmer here and abroad. The approaching March settlements will be larger than last year. The emergence of the crops from the winter rigors is being studied closely and is an influence on the present halt in the speculation.

NEW YORK BROKER EXPELLED. Washburn Adjudged Guilty of Reckless and Unbusinesslike Dealings. New York, Feb. 23.—Clifford M. Washburn, the board member of the defunct brokerage house of J. M. Fiske & Co., today was adjudged guilty of "reckless and unbusinesslike dealings" for his firm in connection with the Columbus &ocking Coal & Iron pools by the governors of the Stock exchange and was declared ineligible for reinstatement. This is tantamount to expelling the firm.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—At a meeting of the supreme court justices tonight, it was decided that the decision invalidating the Illinois parole law would not take effect immediately. For the present ex-convicts out on parole will not be returned to prison because of the decision, and criminals in prison will be unable to secure liberty on the ground that the parole law is illegal.

MANUEL'S THRONE THREATENED. Authorities at Lisbon Discover a Widespread Revolutionary Plot. PHILADELPHIA RIOTS ARE LESS FREQUENT

That They Are Unable to Cope With the Strike Situation Is Virtually Acknowledged by the Authorities, However, and They Ask for the State Police.

Philadelphia, Feb. 23.—The police today virtually acknowledged their inability to cope with the strike situation when a request was made that the two hundred members of the state police be brought here.

The rioting, however, was less frequent today. For the first time cars were run until evening on the line penetrating the unyielding Kensington vicinity. There was again a continuous disturbance on Market street.

The Baldwin Locomotive Works was the scene of a serious disturbance. Shots were fired, while laborers from the upper floors hurled bolts and nuts at the policemen.

A mail car was derailed this afternoon in Germantown avenue. The car was badly damaged and had to be dragged to the car barn. The mail was transferred to another car.

Wolgast received $3,750 for his end.

Nelson gives his conqueror due credit, but maintains that he trained too long and that he was down to weight too soon. It was the impression of many about the ring that Nelson did not show his usual speed and accuracy.

LOWER STATE NOTES.

PORT HURON—A surprise party on M. H. Merritt, a Riley township farmer, came to an abrupt termination when the floor of a room in which seventy-five guests were gathered gave way and settled several feet. A panic ensued, but no one was injured.

BATTLE CREEK—Several days ago Verus Fay, a teamster, fell into a gravel pit and his arm was broken. While he was on the way to the doctor's office, he fell on the splints on the arm adjusted, he fell on an icy walk. His other arm and his collar bone were broken in the fall, and he is now confined to his bed, helpless.

OWOSSO—While visiting relatives here, the wife of Rev. John Reitzel received word of the death of her husband at Sioux City, Ia. The news came as a shock to Mrs. Reitzel, although she had been informed that he was ill. Mr. Reitzel was a former pastor of the Owosso Congregational church and was on a lecture tour in the West when stricken. His late home was in Chicago.

TRAVERSIE CITY—Lost in a blinding snowstorm on Grand Traverse bay, Charles Koenig, who had been fishing there, wandered about for several hours, finally striking the shore four miles north of Edge-wood. He was chilled through from his long stay on the ice, but there was nothing to do but walk eight miles more to his home. In all his wanderings, he hung onto a big Mackinac trout which he had caught.

LANSING—The Lansing Fuel & Gas Co. says that someone is tampering with its gas meters throughout the city. Numerous complaints have reached their office, and Monday, Rouser & Hicks, druggists at East Lansing, reported that $37.50 had been stolen from their meter. The new meter is an August meter, a further five-cent meter of gas is burned, a quarter has to be dropped in a slot. All the meters have been found with broken locks.

CORUNNA—The Shiawassee county sugar beet growers met in this city and adopted a resolution demanding $1 more a ton for their beets from the sugar companies. This resolution will not go into effect until the next season. The Owosso sugar company will be the hardest hit of any of the state companies, although the Mt. Clemens company buys some beets in the county. It is estimated, according to the present output, that the increase will mean $100,000 more for Shiawassee farmers every season.

HOLLAND—Just a "Wee little nip" with friend caused the downfall of one of Holland's budding patriots, when Special Officer Dick Ras, who has been on duty lately in connection with the enforcement of the curfew law, was found on the street by a party of city officials somewhat the worse for liquor and was summarily deprived of his star and club, which were his insignia of authority. The matter was taken up by Chief of Police Kamferbeck and after investigation had sustained the truth of the charge, Ras was dropped from the force at once.

MUSKOGON—The last of the notorious saloons that flourished on the levee in the wild lumbering days, "The Horseman's," known as John Peter's place, has been closed by the police and notice posted that any effort to resume business at the place this year would lead to the arrest of the proprietor, John Peter. The saloon has figured frequently in the criminal annals of this city. The owner of its present lease, August Meyer, is a fugitive from justice, having jumped his bail bond after conviction for keeping his place open on Sundays. William Hunter, who afterwards operated the place as Krueger's agent, was recently taken to the Detroit House of Correction to serve an eighty-day sentence for selling liquor to a minor.

PINCONNING—The explosion of a gas-tank on the Michigan Central pumping station on the shore of Saginaw bay, resulted in the death of Sylvanus Helmer, the engineer. The building was completely destroyed. The engine was alone in the building at the time, and whether he was killed outright or burned to death is not known. The first notice of the explosion came from the Michigan Central Central and B. & N. railroad, and situated about two miles and a half from this city. Helmer was a single man and lived with his mother about 200 feet from the scene of the accident. The damage to the building and pumps is estimated at $1,000.

WITH THE "WETS" AND THE "DRYS."

(Under this head only signed communications and those authorized by the respective campaign committees will be published.)

THE TAXPAYER'S VIEWPOINT. T. August Lillehu, in discussing the taxpayer's viewpoint of the pending prohibition campaign, quotes a New York writer (name not given) in the perfunctory defense offered by prohibitionists to the argument that the taxpayer and property owner are asked to pay a price for prohibition all out of proportion to benefits possibly to be derived from it.

This defense presumes to charge all the expense of police protection, penitentiaries, almshouses, public hospitals and what not to the account of the licensed saloon and reaches the conclusion that, far from in any manner contributing to relieve the taxpayer of any of his burden, the licensed saloon makes that burden much heavier than it would otherwise be.

Granting for the moment that the use of liquor, or, more properly, the misuse of liquor, is liable to the general indictment brought against it, it still appears clear that the argument advanced by Mr. Lillehu is misleading and deceptive. Mr. Lillehu gives the impression that with the passing of the licensed saloon there will be an end to the misuse of liquor in the territory from which it is excluded, and that, immediately, there will be a cessation of the extraordinary expenses which Mr. Lillehu assigns to the liquor traffic.

Mr. Lillehu knows from experience that this is a deceptive argument. The licensed saloon is in itself neither a good nor an evil. It is merely a licensed saloon. The significant thing is not the licensed saloon, per se, but the liquor traffic, the selling of liquors, wine and beers, that goes on within its shelter. It is this traffic that is liable to abuse. Mr. Lillehu and others who present the argument for which he stands sponsor leave the impression that when the licensed saloon goes the liquor traffic and whatever profits are charged to it, also goes. Yet Mr. Lillehu knows that this is not the case and that the argument has a false and misleading premise.

The licensed saloon and the liquor traffic do not go hand in hand. The licensed saloon can be expelled and the liquor traffic still lingers. It is this fact that makes the taxpayer and property owner impatient to take up the heavy burden of expense that devolves upon them when the licensed saloon is abolished. Mr. Lillehu's answer, under the circumstances, doesn't answer. As long as the liquor traffic remains there's not a dollar saved by abolishing the licensed saloon. As long as the liquor traffic can be successfully combated under existing laws, the real solution of its abuses must be regulation of, rather than abolition of, the licensed saloon.

A LAUGH OR TWO. THE MYSTERY OF SNAKES.

Snakes are creatures of mystery. I have often tried to trace a snake immediately after it had entered its hole in a small rubbish heap, but always without success. It disappears like magic. The reason is the snake can only burrow in soft mossy or ferny places, and so haunts old runs made by the small mammalia. Brusler never wasted time looking for a snake. "I can't find a mossa a use; 'tis gone," he says. The harmless grass snake deposits its eggs in some warm place, like a manure heap, for incubation. It is a question, "Have the small reptiles, at the moment of birth, the guidance of a mother to instruct them in life?" I have never seen the grass snake surrounded by her young, nor to my knowledge has anyone else. The little snakes, it must be remembered, are more or less matured when the so-called eggs are deposited. At birth both snakes and reptiles are about three inches long, and in a few days grow to a foot and over. I think I can venture to say that I have never seen a snake after birth, nor going into the nest hole.—London Express.

CHINESE ROMANCE.

Celestial Awaiting Deportation Says He Has an American Wife.

Bret Hart's remark, through the mouth of one Truthful James, concerning the dark ways and vain tricks of the Heathen Chinese, would seem to be borne out by one George Yeung Soo, erstwhile of Minneapolis but now of the second floor of the Houghton county jail.

Now he has made known a romance and is trying to use a presumable white wife as a sort of an anchor to windward. There is a good story in Soo every once in a while and yesterday a reporter for this newspaper sounded the well of the Celestial imagination for another aid to filling out the work of a dull day.

Soo was willing to talk. He explained that the story he was reading was one which was written 1,200 years ago. He could not tell about it because it was too long and the plot was too complicated for the editorial brain.

But the romance he disclosed was more interesting, probably, to the reporter than would the Chinese tale. Soo, as has been said, is not to hark back and repeat or anything like that, is constantly seeking a way out of his difficulty. There must have come to him a process of reasoning something like this: "The Melian man's government can't separate man and wife and if I have a Melian wife the government can't deport her and that may help some," or whatever the Chinese equivalent for that last Americanism is.

So George Yeung Soo produced a marriage license made out in his name and that of Mary Kawacki at St. Paul, in the district court, the first day of June of the year 1909. He says solemnly that he was married to Miss Kawacki three days after the issuing of the license and in a Catholic church at that. The church is on Virginia avenue, St. Paul. It is too bad that it is impossible to reproduce the ceremony, but whatever the Chinese equivalent for that last Americanism is.

Soo thinks the possession of an American wife will help his case. He says he is writing her and looking into the matter and gives her address as 637 Granby street, Milwaukee, where she is living with her aged and ailing parents.

NATURALIZATION LIST GRANTS.

County Clerk Now Has One Hundred and Three Applicants for May.

County Clerk Richardson yesterday posted two additional notices of application for naturalization for the May term of court. The information follows: Gabriel Hendrickson was born in Finland and lives in Dollar Bay. He entered the United States through the port of Sault Ste. Marie in 1906. Charles Palu-assotti is from Italy and lives at Calumet and arrived in New York in 1899.

These two names bring the list for the May term of the circuit court up to 103, which is the largest list in some time, in fact since the September term, 1908, when the list was over 200.

$60,000 TO STATE TREASURY. County Treasurer Rashleigh Forwards Second Instalment of Tax.

CALUMET VACCINATION.

All Children of the Schools Will Be Guarded Against Plague.

All school children of Calumet school district No. 1 must be vaccinated, if they have not been so treated recently. Superintendent H. E. Kratz gave out the order yesterday and the work will be started at once by the township health officer.

There have been reported in Calumet, Laurium, Tamarack and other parts of the district thirty or more cases of smallpox the past few weeks. The cases are very light and sporadic, the physicians declare, and cannot be attributed to any direct cause, possibly, other than the changing weather conditions.

Whenever it is discovered that one member of the family of a pupil or student becomes ill with what is thought to be or may possibly turn out to be a contagious disease, the school attended by this pupil is closed at once and fumigated and every possible precaution is taken to prevent a spread of the disease.

THIS IS A PURE PARADOX.

A Jonah Would Have Been a Mascot at the Ishpeming Match.

The members of the Houghton Gun club desires that this reference to their trip to Ishpeming on Washington's birthday be made "funny."

The members of the club assert that the cause and one only contributed to their defeat, and that cause gives rise to the first example of a pure paradox, which has been encountered in quite a while. And that is, a Jonah would have been the club's mascot, had he been there.

The suit of Leo Hennes et al vs Charles Helard & Sons of Pequanung opened in the Houghton county circuit court yesterday morning. Rees of Houghton is on the other side.

St. Patrick's Day Meeting—Arrangements have been made by the Ancient Order of Hibernians of this city for an entertainment at Baraga auditorium on the night of March 17, St. Patrick's Day. The principal speaker will be Martin H. Carmody of Cigar Rapids, who is a prominent Hibernian and also one of the National officers of the Knights of Columbus. He is known to many Marquette people, having visited here during the A. O. H. convention in 1908. He is an orator of wide renown and his address will undoubtedly be one of the best ever delivered in Marquette on a similar occasion.

Wanted: A Postmaster—Notice of a competitive examination under the rules of the civil service commission for the position of postmaster at Skandia have been posted in the local government building. The examination will be held in Marquette, March 19. Application blankets for the privilege to take this examination may be obtained from the postmaster at Skandia or from Miss Theora Bernard at the Marquette postoffice. The examination will consist of practical tests relating to registry and money receipts, an example in simple addition, and the reading and writing of addresses.

Dead River Getting Low—For the first time this winter, the water in Dead river has gotten so low that the current is scarcely sufficient to operate the wheels at the light and power station. The scarcity is said to be caused by the extremely cold weather of the last week, which has caused many of the tributary streams to freeze solid. Word was sent to the caretaker at the Silver Lake dam to open the gates several days ago, but no increase in the supply has been noticed as yet. Superintendent Retalle expects to go to Silver Lake today to see whether or not the water has been let out of the dam. It has not yet been necessary to cut off any of the lights, but it may be if more water is not forthcoming within a few days.

INSURE WITH PETER WHITE & CO.
MEETING OF STUDY CLUB.

Delightful Musical Program Rendered by Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Davis.

The ladies of the Study club held their monthly evening meeting Monday night.
Mrs. H. C. Davis and Miss Linton were the hostesses, while the husbands of the members and the ex-members were the guests, with Mrs. A. T. Roberts as guest of honor. The evening's entertainment was a musicale with Mrs. Davis as pianist and Mrs. Roberts vocal soloist.
The following program was given:

1. Piano solo Grieg
(a) Sonata, Op. 7.
(b) Papillon.
(c) Berceuse.
Mrs. Davis.
2. Vocal solo Schubert
(a) Med en buket Schjelderup
(b) Ein Traum Grieg
(c) Light Sinding
Mrs. Roberts.
3. Piano solo Seeling
Mrs. Davis.
4. Vocal solo Schubert
(a) Ave Maria.
(b) Ungehduld.
(c) Du bist die Ruh.
Mrs. Roberts.
5. Piano solo Rubenstein
Kamionoi-Ostrow Rubenstein
Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Davis' numbers in their variety of theme were unusually well chosen, and her execution and interpretation showed her at her best. This was particularly true in her accompaniments, when singer and accompanist were in perfect sympathy and harmony.

Mrs. Roberts in a very informal way explained the characteristics of Scandinavian song, and gave the English translation of the words before singing.
In the first three numbers, Schjelderup shows the sad and mystical which always so strongly marks Scandinavian feeling, while Grieg, who is as much German as he is Norwegian, gives us the joyousness of the German. Mrs. Roberts gave each of her numbers with a fine sympathy and artistic finish, which showed the breadth of her musical culture.

She very graciously responded to several encores, repeating by request Schj-elderup, then giving Schubert's "Where Is Sylvia," and "The Bell Ringer's Daughter," by Noewen.

A social hour and delicious refreshments closed a wholly delightful evening.

LOCAL ORATORICAL CONTEST.

Austin Catlin Will Represent Marquette
in Sub-District Contest.

At the close of school yesterday afternoon, the local oratorical contest was held in the high school assembly room.
There were four high school pupils who competed in the contest, who spoke in the order and on the subjects printed below:

- "Church Taxation"—Earl Ross.
 - "Thomas Jefferson"—Ethel Culver.
 - "Warship of the Air"—Austin Catlin.
 - "Industrial Education"—Wm. Hyrie.
- The orations have been previously judged as to thought and composition and Rev. J. M. Rogers, Miss Templeton and Mrs. Hodgkins acted as judges on delivery. Austin Catlin received the highest average in the markings of the judges and will represent the Marquette
High school at the sub-district contest to be held in Marquette some time in March or April. Second place was awarded to Earl Ross. In the sub-district contest, the Marquette, Ishpeming, Negaunee, Republic and Escanaba High schools will compete. The winner of the sub-district contest will compete in the district contest, comprising the whole upper peninsula, which will be held in Negaunee in May.

From the standpoint of thought and composition, the orations delivered yesterday were worthy of commendation, and they showed careful study and fairly comprehensive knowledge of the subjects discussed. On the basis of delivery, however, all of the speakers were open to criticism in that they had not memorized their efforts perfectly, and consequently could not devote sufficient attention to the manner and effectiveness of their delivery.

SPLendid LECTURE.

Dr. Gillies Delighted a Capacity House
at Guild Hall Last Night.

Dr. Andrew Gillies of Minneapolis, who lectured at the Guild Hall last night on
"Jean Valjean," the hero of Victor Hugo's masterpiece, "Les Miserables," was greeted with a capacity house. This was the noted divine's first appearance in this city and he made a profound impression upon his hearers. While his lecture was rather more serious than the average popular lecture, it was not so scholarly as to be beyond the grasp of anyone, and he held the close interest and attention of his audience from beginning to end. His language is graphic and picturesque; his sentences are terse and crisp, and he is witty and at the same time fascinatingly entertaining. The strongest part of his lecture was his graphic portrayal of the struggle between the forces of good and evil for the soul of Jean Valjean.
Many of those present declared Dr. Gillies to be the best lecturer they had ever heard.

The Bureau Drawer vs. The Bank Account

The bank account and check book make the financial side of housekeeping a pleasure. Their use also tends toward accuracy and businesslike methods.

The bureau drawer is unsafe as a banking proposition—tends toward leaks and carelessness, inaccuracy and lack of system, out of date in every way.

MARKETS

WALL STREET STOCKS.

New York, Feb. 23.—Paine, Webber & Co. say of yesterday's stock market: "Extreme dullness prevailed during the greater part of today's session, but prices held firm. There was good buying of the American Telephone and Telegraph issues, said to be mostly of an investment character, and a few other specialties were higher. Trading was confined chiefly to the operations of room traders, who did not seem disposed to commit themselves to any great extent on either side of the market. The foreign news did not indicate very much apprehension in that quarter. The comparative lack of selling pressure makes it appear that stocks are a better purchase on declines than a short sale on rallies, but the policy of lightening accounts on the judges would appear to be the most conservative at this time."

Closing prices were as follows:

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKETS.

Chicago, Feb. 23.—The poor demand for cash wheat, coupled with a steady stream of offerings, kept wheat prices on the down grade today. Occasional rallies checked the decline, and these for the most part were based on crop damage reports which, however, had less than their usual bullish effect. The receipts were large and added to the bearish sentiment. The July was given preference over the May by many traders, and held its strength better. The close was weak, near the low point, with the May 1/2 lower. The May opened at 113 1/4 to 114 1/4; highest, 114 1/4; lowest, 113 1/4 @ 113 1/2; closing, 113 1/4 @ 113 1/2.

Corn—Little Eastern demand, together with big discounts for cash grain and large offerings from interior shipping points, kept the market weak throughout the session. The close was weak, with the May 1/2 lower. The May opened at 65 1/2 to 66 1/4; highest, 66 1/4; lowest, 65 1/2; closing, 65 1/2.

Outs—The trade was sluggish, of small volume and exhibited the downward trend noticeable in other grains. The offerings were liberal. The market close was weak, the May 1/2 lower. The May opened at 47 1/4 to 47 1/2; highest, 47 1/2; lowest, 46 1/2; closing, 46 1/2 @ 46 3/4.

Upper Peninsula

Thief Steals from Dying Man—

Some time early in the morning fifty bushels of oats are alleged to have been stolen from the premises of the late Alexander Wilson, near Pine Grove settlement, a few miles from the Soo. Robert Smart, who lives half a mile from the Wilson place, and who has been looking after the stock during the recent fatal illness of the unfortunate man, discovered the theft. The matter was reported to Sheriff Bayless, and the load of oats tracked to the Soo. Several men have been pointed out as suspects, but up-to-date the real culprit has not been located. The sheriff is indignant and considers the deed a very contemptible one. The oats were taken when the owner was lying in a critical condition at the Soo hospital.

Broke Hand on Prisoner's Head—

Marshal DeHill of Newberry broke one of the bones in his right hand the other day while placing William Sherbrook, a disturber of the peace, under arrest. The officer has always scorned the use of a policeman's billy in making arrests, preferring to use nature's weapons when it came to a rough and tumble. He wandered into the Murphy House just about the time that Sherbrook, who had imbibed more booze than was good for him, started to clean out the place. When Sherbrook attempted to resist arrest, Marshal DeHill landed a blow hard enough to fracture a bone in his hand. Notwithstanding this handicap he succeeded in placing the steel cuffs on his man and lugged him off to jail. Justice Maloney assessed Sherbrook $10 and costs or thirty days.

Politics at Newberry—

While the Newberry village election will take place March 14, there has been little talk as to who the probable candidates will be. President Hunter has served two terms and has made an excellent executive officer. His supporters are urging that he make the race again, and if he can be induced to accept he will probably be accorded a re-nomination and election. W. C. Spring announces that he will not again be a candidate for clerk, having already served two terms. This is the best paying elective office in the village, and there will probably be no dearth of candidates. The treasurer and assessor are the only other village officers commanding a salary, but up to the present time no candidates have announced themselves. There are three trustees to be elected this spring to succeed M. E. Buernmann, John Starik and James Holt, whose terms expire. The office of trustee is considered an unpleasant and thankless job, and business men are prone to shy when asked to serve the community in this capacity.

Insurance Case Decided—

It was after being out five hours that a jury in circuit court at the Soo brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the matter of John F. Maloney et al. vs. the Germania Fire Insurance company, the sequel to a fire in the saloon of John McKee at Brimley a year ago last October. McKee had assigned the policy of $500 to John F. Maloney & Sons of the Soo. The case was tried in the circuit court last September and the jury after being out for many hours disagreed. Briefly outlined, the contentions of the contestants in this case were about as follows: The plaintiff held that the insurance was written on the premises and paid, the fire occurred, there was an adequate amount of goods in the place at the time of the blaze, and the adjuster was informed that there was a chattel mortgage on a portion of the property. The defense alleged that the company was not insured in regard to the mortgage, and that the quantity of goods as set forth in the proof of loss was not in the saloon at the time of the fire. Horace L. Spice, state agent for the Germania Fire Insurance company, says that the case will be appealed.

Power People Hit Again—

In response to an order from the United States war department the Michigan Lake Superior Power company has again been forced to curtail the flow of water through the big power canal, at the Soo, but this time only to the extent of 20 per cent. Low water, of course, is

WILL MEET WITH OPERATORS.

Miners of the Central Competitive District Yield Disputed Point.

Cincinnati, Feb. 23.—A conference to consider settling the differences between the miners and operators of Ohio, Indiana and western Pennsylvania will be held here March 8. This was decided tonight at a meeting of the leaders of the unions involved. President Lewis of the conference will be present. The Toledo conference ceased owing to the insistence of the operators that the Illinois miners be considered outside the scope of the conference. It was settled today that this contention was correct, in view of the special agreements between the operators and unions in the Illinois field.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 23.—Called for the conference of the Illinois miners and operators tomorrow. President Moore, head of the latter association, and fifty members here arrived tonight. Heroic Mother Saves Baby—

Only by the heroism displayed by Mrs. William Allen was a tragedy averted at Northland, Marquette county, when she rushed into the burning home of her family and grasping her babe from a bed, threw the child through the open window into the soft snow and then escaped herself with but a few slight burns. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mrs. Allen was calling at the home of a neighbor when the alarm was given. Rushing to the house she found the building enveloped in flames and the interior filled with fire and stifling smoke. Without thought of herself, the frantic mother plunged into the house and, crawling through the smoke, fought her way to the bed where she had left her babe asleep. Quickly grasping the little one, she raised a window and dropped the child into the soft snow outside. The building and all of its contents were destroyed, leaving the family in pitifully destitute circumstances. They are temporarily housed in a shelter among friends at Northland. The building destroyed was the property of Joseph L. Perow.

"Drys" Win in Mackinac—

Circuit Judge Shepherd's decision in the so-called local option case in Mackinac county has been received in St. Ignace. It grants the prayer of the "dry" forces for a mandamus directing the county board to meet and submit the matter of prohibition to vote of the people, and it is now up to the supervisors to comply or carry the controversy to the supreme court on appeal. The decision is based on the supreme tribunal's opinion in the Marquette county case. Judge Shepherd says: "All of the judges seem to be very clearly of the opinion that the board could receive no other evidence aside from the affidavits themselves, and the canvass of the preceding election, to determine the number of voters, one-third of which should be sufficient to warrant the submission of the local option question." Other objections are disposed of by Judge Shepherd as follows: The Hendricks affidavit, with the year omitted, is held to cure its own defect by its own language. As to the Sunday signature in Nantawan, the board could not inquire into the matter of when the signatures were obtained. If the St. Ignace township petitions were thrown out and not counted, "there would still remain to be counted more than the requisite number of signatures."

CANADA NOT WORRYING.

She Is Little Interested in Tariff Negotiations and Is Not Inclined to Ask Any Favors from the United States—Fails to Respond to a Hint by the State Department.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Canadian indifference to the prospect of a tariff war with the United States is causing some uneasiness here. The maximum and minimum schemes of the Payne law was instituted on the theory that the maximum never would be applied to any country. This supposition, not to say bluff, has worked very well with most of the countries of the earth, but now that the president must take positive action to prevent an increase of twenty-five per cent in the duties on goods coming from Canada, he is surprised and a little disturbed to learn from the tariff board that Canada apparently takes no interest in the situation. Canada is found to be asking no favors of the United States, and Canadian sentiment generally is to the effect that the United States would injure itself much worse than the Dominion if it should add twenty-five per cent to the cost of imports from across the line.

The largest items of import from Canada are lumber, copper, wood pulp, cattle hides, furs, furs and skins, spirits and horses. Many of these great staples are on the free list, while the remainder the people of the United States must buy anyway. Our maximum tariff cannot be applied to free goods, hence it is apparent that Canada can afford to regard with complacency the imminence of a tariff war. Practically the only discrimination against the United States which the tariff board can discover is found in the new treaty with France. It is possible that the Canadians will be willing to extend the French concessions to this country, but the United States for a hundred years has stubbornly rejected the European doctrine of the most favored nation hence she cannot without embarrassment claim now to be granted concession for which she has nothing to give in return.

The state department already has hinted its official regret that the Canadians decline to get excited over the approaching crisis, but so far, it is understood, has been unable to arouse the amused statesmen of the Dominion. Although negotiations still must be conducted through the British government, it is safe to say that Great Britain will use no influence upon the situation unless possibly to express to Canada the gentle hope that she will avoid trouble with her neighbor. It has been no secret in Washington that a serious situation was expected when the negotiations with Canada were reached. It is possible that the public sentiment in the United States would tolerate a tariff war with France much more readily than with Canada. While the French attitude, owing to agrarian influence, has been violently hostile toward special concessions to the United States, the attitude of the British character often are more easily relieved by diplomacy than such as arise from the indifference and inaction of a country, like Canada, which cares very little what threatens the other party to the negotiations may make. The last day of grace with Canada expires March 31. Between now and then President Taft and the tariff board may have the liveliest, if not the most fruitful, time of their official lives.

Take the Post-Office Out of Politics

In attempting to charge up the deficit in his Department against the magazines the Postmaster-General has done the country a genuine, even if an unintentional, service. He has drawn attention to the necessity for a thorough reorganization of the Postal Department. He has emphasized the importance of taking the Post-Office out of politics for all time.

The Fifty-ninth Congress authorized an investigation of postal affairs, and a joint commission, headed by Senator Penrose and Representative Overstreet, made a thorough investigation of the whole subject. As a result, the Overstreet bill, which contains many excellent recommendations, was presented. It is not from guesswork that we have concluded that the Department is in need of radical reorganization, but from the official reports of this Joint Congressional Postal Commission and of the disinterested accountants hired by it to investigate the business methods of the Department. We quote from these reports, remembering that the findings and criticisms are not ours, but those of a Congressional Commission and its authorized agents. First read these recommendations from the preliminary report of the Joint Postal Commission, in this week's number of

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

Then read these extracts from the report of the public accountants employed by the Joint Commission:

"The service has grown from small beginnings over a long period of years, hampered by restrictive laws which may have been necessary in the past and may even now be considered necessary to some extent for a Government department, but which would render it practically impossible for any private business to survive.

"The general absence of any efficient methods of accounting has been brought to light by the inquiry carried out by the Joint Commission on second-class mail matter. This report was referred to Congress on January 30, 1907, and our investigation has confirmed the impression gathered from the study of it, that the whole of these methods are crude in the extreme and such without the certainty of loss, if not of financial disaster.

There are half-a-dozen more of these extracts on the Editorial page of this week's issue of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

In the Joint Postal Commission's report of 1907 we find:

"As an indication of the views at present entertained it is proper to say that the commission is profoundly impressed with the wisdom of the accountant's report in recommending the following:

"That the actual direction of the business of the Post-Office Department and postal service be committed to an officer with necessary assistants to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for long terms, so as to insure the continuity of efficient service, and that the Postmaster-General, as a member of the Cabinet, be chargeable only with general supervisory control and the determination of questions of policy."

We ask Congress to give us a Director of Posts—as recommended by the Joint Congressional Committee of 1907, an officer who shall be non-political, and whose term of service shall not be subject to political changes, and who shall conduct the workings of the Post-Office Department with the efficiency, economy, and businesslike methods which distinguish high-class American business enterprise.

ACTORS EAT—OH, YES!

But Diet and the Time of Dining Are Often Serious Problems With Them.

Eating often gets to be a problem with actors on matinee days—that is, actors who are engaged. On other days most actors dine at 5 o'clock and by 8:30 are feeling keen for work. Of late the actors seem less inclined to patronize the lobster palaces, and though the high cost of living may have something to do with this, it seems a remote cause to anyone who knows "the profession." More and more of the players take advantage of their time in New York to lead domestic lives. It is possible now to engage furnished apartments in convenient neighborhoods by the month, and actors who "have a permanent home" take these suites, and with the support of the delicatessen stores they get many of their meals in their kitchens. Of course their friends are always at liberty to take pot luck.

So much advice has been printed on the advantages of simple diet that the people who don't eat at home are treating their digestive organisms with more respect. Walter Hampden now and then gains a convert to vegetarianism, though he has to admit that most of them become backsliders before long. His star convert is Cyril Scott. After a matinee performance of a heavy dinner at the Lamb's of "The Lottery Man" Mr. Scott had disclub, and was telling Mr. Hampden that he knew it would be hard for him to get up steam for the evening performance.

With such an opening the leading vegetarian of the profession was soon launched on the familiar argument that meat was man's undoing. Scott was converted and decided not to eat meat for

CHIPPewa FALLS IN 1911.

Association Ski Tournament Next Year Will Be Held in Wisconsin City.

At the annual meeting of the National Ski association, held at Coleraine, Minn., it was decided to hold the 1911 tournament at Chippewa Falls, Dr. C. H. Johnson, of Superior, was elected president of the association, succeeding Eric Hoyseth of this city. Nick Nelson of Stillwater was chosen vice president; Axel Holter of Ashland was re-elected secretary and H. E. Beebe of Utica, N. Y., was elected treasurer.

Contrary to expectations no records were broken at the National tournament. Andres Haugen, who made such fine jumps here Tuesday, won first prize. His first jump was 125 feet and his second 116 feet. Osome Gunderson jumped 118 and 117 feet. Barney Riley, winner of the first prize in the amateur class, had jumps of 119 and 116 feet. Young Riley also had the longest standing jump of the day, having cleared 126 feet.

The riders attributed their inability to make long jumps to the weather conditions. Saturday night and evening a light snow fell and the weather turned colder. Sunday the snow was dry and fluffy, checking the speed of the riders. The Coleraine hill is not as well sheltered from the wind as the Ishpeming slide.

The records made on the hill here Tuesday were a surprise to many who did not believe that such jumps were possible. Even the amateurs and smaller boys in the juvenile class made excellent jumps.

WINDSAND-PETERSON.

Miss Marie Windsand, of Munising, and Hans Peterson, of Milwaukee, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother-in-law, J. S. Wahlman, on North Third street. Rev. E. A. Ekeberg, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church at Munising, performed the ceremony. John Peterson, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Hannah Windsand, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Following the marriage a sumptuous feast was served. Only the relatives of the contracting parties were present. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. Windsand, formerly of this city. Some time before moving to Munising she held a position in J. Sellwood & Co.'s dry goods store. The groom is a member of one of Munising's oldest and best known families, but has been employed in Milwaukee for some years past. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are recipients of many beautiful presents, a large gift being from Milwaukee, their future home.

PRESENTED WITH GIFTS.

James Rowe, retiring commander of Ambrose tent of the Knights of the Modern Maccabees, and William Watters, the past finance keeper, were given a surprise at the regular meeting Monday evening, when the newly elected officers were installed. Mr. Rowe was presented with a handsome upholstered chair, and Mr. Watters' gift was a watch chain, suitably inscribed. At the close of the meeting a banquet was served. Several of the members responded with short talks. There was a large attendance.

SHOOTING TOURNAMENT.

W. W. Graff of North Lake and Alexander of Houghton Had High Scores.

Considering the cold weather and the high wind, the members of the Twin City and Houghton Gun clubs, who participated in a trap shooting contest at the Union park range Tuesday morning, had good scores. W. W. Graff, superintendent of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company's North Lake property, a member of the Twin City team, had the highest score, his total being ninety-one out of a possible 100. A. F. Maitland, a member of the Twin City team, and Alexander of the Houghton team, were a tie for second place, each having a score of eighty-nine. Three of the Ishpeming men shot but fifty targets, while the others shot 100. Those having only fifty shots were Raskys, Keese, Oakley and Eaton. Keese had a total of forty-four, Raskys forty, Oakley thirty-six and Eaton thirty-three. The records of the several participants were as follows:

FROM MORGAN'S CURB LETTER.

The New York market opened generally higher today. The trading was almost entirely professional and the fluctuations narrow, with the undertone quite strong, with a notable absence of selling pressure. The market awaits developments at Washington, and but little change either way is expected until some definite idea can be had of the tenor of the pending supreme court decisions. In the meantime activity will be confined to specialties. Lake was distinctly the feature in Boston. Opening at 83 1/2, it quickly advanced to 84 1/2, when heavy selling appeared and about noon it broke from 81 to 75 in a few minutes, then recovered to 78. The erratic action of Lake tended to weaken the other Lake issues and all were slightly lower. Indiana lost 1 1/2 points, Franklin, LaSalle and North Butte all lost fractions. Greene-Cannara sold at 94, but was quiet, as were also Giroux and Superior & Pittsburg. New York reports the labor situation at Butte much improved and resumption by all mines is expected by the end of the week.

WHERE MONEY IS SAFE.

There is no other place in the world, I am sure, where such large sums of money, in gold and silver, is handled with as little loss and as little apparent protection as in the canal zone," remarked a gentleman from Manhattan to the Philadelphia Record. "I used to watch the pay-train each month when it went out with the wages of work people, amounting always to hundreds of thousands of dollars, the most of it in specie. Now here it would require an armed guard to protect a train known to carry so much gold coin, and there would be attempts at holdups between towns at that. But down there the train stops at the stations, distributes its contents to thousands of men, who walk up and look through frail wooden grating at piles of gold and silver, and generally there is not more than a single policeman on hand to protect the cash. There are supposed to be some noted crooks down there, too. But the narrow limits of the zone, the impenetrableness of the adjoining jungle and the impossibility of a man getting away doubtless insure better protection than a company of mounted soldiers. Nevertheless, I have often been surprised that attempted robberies of the pay-train are not more numerous."

SAVED FROM AWFUL PERIL.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio, R. R. No. 3, "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 115 pounds in spite of many remedies and the best doctors. And that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 160 pounds and can work hard. It also cured my four children of croup." FORGOTTEN NAVY OF TEXAN REPUBLIC.

Heroes of the Days Before Annexation to Have a Monument.

FOUGHT THE MEXICANS.

First Navy of Texas Consisted of Three Small Sailing Vessels Bravely Manned.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 23.—That the republic of Texas had a full-fledged navy in her day is not generally known and for this reason it may be of interest to note that a movement about to be started may result in the near future in the erection of a monument that will fittingly commemorate the fame of the men who guided its destinies during the few years of its existence. Three small sailing vessels composed the first navy of the republic of Texas. They were the Invincible, Captain Brown; the Brutus, Captain Hurd, and the Independence, Captain Hawkins. The organization of this naval force had been effected during the years 1835-6 and for that reason it had an opportunity to take part in the Mexican war of independence. During April 1836, the Invincible went on a cruise off Brazos de Santiago, and falling in with the Mexican frigate Montezuma, in command of Captain Thomas, had a set-to lasting two hours, which resulted in the Mexican ship being driven ashore and left in a sinking condition. So bad was the fire of the enemy that the only injury the Invincible received was in her rigging. This was hastily repaired, and another vessel having come into sight, chase was given. This vessel proved to be the brig Pocket, from New Orleans to Matamoros, and freighted with provisions for the Mexican army. The Pocket was captured and taken into Galveston as a prize.

Although the battle of San Jacinto put an end to all hostilities on land, the Mexican navy continued for some time to molest Texas shipping. In April, 1837, the Champion, a vessel carrying provisions and munition for war for the Texas army was intercepted and captured by a Mexican man-of-war. The Julius Caesar, with a cargo worth $30,000 was taken shortly afterwards, and so was the Independence, a Texas schooner having aboard a crew of thirty-one men and several passengers, among the latter William H. Wharton, who was returning from his mission to the United States. Wharton was held as a prisoner until the recognition of the Texas republic. Two Mexican war sloops met the Independence at Velasco and after a severe engagement overpowered her.

These high-handed acts on the part of the Mexican government caused the Texas government to adopt a policy of reprisal. On May 10, 1837, the Texas navy set sail for the coast of Mexico, and later taking two small prizes en route, bombarded the town of Sisal in Yucatan. Returning the Invincible captured the Mexican sloop the Invincible, and the Brutus took the Telegraph, a small vessel laden with a very rich cargo. Nine towns along the Mexican coast were burned by the Texas sailors, and of course looted.

Both the Invincible and the Brutus met a rather inglorious end. Returning from a foray in the gulf with prizes, the Invincible found it impossible to get over the bar at Galveston harbor and had to seek anchorage outside. Next morning, August 26, two Mexicans brig of war showed in the offing and began to attack the Invincible. The Brutus, rushing to the assistance of the Invincible, ran aground, thus leaving the latter to fight it out alone. All day long the fight raged, but when night came the Invincible was abandoned by its crew and left to batter itself in pieces on the breakers. With these two vessels gone there was practically no navy left for the Texans. In November of the same year the congress of Texas authorized Samuel Williams to contract for another navy. Baltimore navy yards were the successful bidders. The contractors were to build one ship, two brigs, and three schooners, fully armed and munitioned. In June, 1839, the vessels arrived at Galveston; they were the San Bernard, the Colorado, the Charleston and the Potomac. General Hamilton bought another schooner with his own funds, the Zavala, and added her to this fleet. It is rather of interest to note here that the Texas politicians of the day ranted considerably about the expenditure this great (!) and useless navy had involved, costing as it did the sum of $800,000. To justify the attitude of the Texas government the secretary of the navy naively took the stand that "in a very short time this navy will pay for itself, for its captures and reprisals will afford the government a source of revenue equal to the amount expended." Good, old days. On the Mexicans the acquisition of this powerful navy had a decided effect, for the depredations on the gulf ceased. With the annexation of Texas by the United States the Texas war fleet became a part of the United States navy.

NEGAUNEE BOY WINS SKI HONORS

CHARLES TALL, THE FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD YOUNGSTER WHO JUMPED 131 FEET TUESDAY WITHOUT FALLING, LIVES HERE

Charles Tall, the fifteen-year-old boy who distinguished himself at the Ski tournament Tuesday, is a Negaunee product, not a resident of Ishpeming, as announced on the official program. He is a son of Fred Tall, who lives at the Jackson.

Negaunee people are much pleased with young Tall's work. It was not generally known Tuesday that he lived here. His remarkable jump of 131 feet, without a fall, was the talk of the entire assemblage. Tall is an unassuming lad and he did not seem to take his wonderful performance as anything out of the ordinary. This is the first year he has entered a ski tournament, but he was the principal performer at last year's juvenile tournament, held on Teal Lake bluff. He rides gracefully and jumps with ease. Had he made a perfect jump on the second run Tuesday, he would easily have taken the honors away from Barney Riley, the clever amateur from Coleraine, Minn., but because he touched his hand to the ground on his last run his percentage was considerably reduced. Kenneth Sterling, another Negaunee boy, who won fifth prize in the amateur class, also gave a good account of himself. He was one of the smallest boys in the tournament, and made a fine leap, covering 101 feet without falling.

Young Tall did not know that he had been declared the winner of the Marquette county amateur until he read The Mining Journal yesterday. As he was entered in the juvenile class he was not entitled to one of the amateur prizes. Had he been entered in the amateur class his name would have appeared among the winners.

The Negaunee people who attended the exhibition, in spite of the fact that there were not as many professionals participating as had been expected. Several of the crack riders and their friends from other places who had entered decided at the last moment to attend the Eau Claire tournament, instead. This was a great disappointment to the officers of the Ishpeming club, but they were pleased that the men who have carried off the honors at most of the big tournaments this season were present. It is said that the Duluth men did not care to compete against the Haugen brothers and Guderson, the Chippewa Falls man, who have made some remarkable jumps this year. Out of the forty jumps by the professionals participating in Tuesday's tournament, there were only seven falls and only three jumps were under 100 feet. The alterations in the bump and the favorable weather conditions were responsible for the perfect scores made by most of the riders.

AN EXTENSIVE CONTRACT.

Steel Corporation Will Build Concrete and Steel Structure on Mesaba.

A former Negaunee man, down from Hibbing, yesterday said that the Oliver Iron Mining company recently began erecting on the range, will be largely across the Hull and Mahoning striping at First avenue in that city. The structure will take the place of a crossing destroyed by the striping at the Sellers-Burt property. It will be the most extensive structure of its kind ever erected on the range, and will be entirely of steel and concrete and will cost in the neighborhood of $800,000. The structure will be about 300 feet long and twenty-five wide.

The Oliver company has greatly increased its holdings in the Mesaba district during the past year, and larger forces will be employed this year than at any previous time. Several of the new properties are showing up well and many of them will be operated on a fairly large scale within a year or two. The Steel corporation has been the largest investor in the district for some years past. The company is to spend an enormous amount this year in development and general improvement work in the district.

What has become of all the people who tried to buy into the millionaire class a few years ago by raising Belgian hares?

Mr. E. A. Kelley, Belvidere, Ill., writes: "I am an ex-engineer with 22 years active service to my credit. About three years ago my kidneys were affected so that I had to give up my engine. First I was troubled with severe, aching pain over the hips. Then followed inflammation of the bladder, and specks appeared before my eyes. A sample of Foley's Kidney Pills that I tried so benefited me that I bought more. I continued to take them until now I can safely testify that they have made me a sound and well man." STRANGE COMPANIONS.

The "Happy Family" Are a Kitten and a Hawk.

The first public exhibition of "happy family" in England was given about fifty years ago, when there were shown a monkey, a cat, several rats and three or four pigeons in one cage. The monkey was on excellent terms with the cat so long as puss would allow him to warm himself by cuddling her; otherwise he would show his vexation by slyly giving her tail a nip with his teeth. The birds perched on the cat's back and pecked at her fur, and the rats were as friendly with their natural enemy as if she were one of their own sort.

A lady walking in the Isle of Wight observed a kitten taking a midday nap. As she stopped to stroke it, the hawk swooped down and, pouncing upon the kitten, hid it from sight.

The lady, fearing for the life of the kitten, tried to rescue it, but the hawk firmly faced her, stood at bay and refused to move. She hastened to a fisherman's cottage and told the inmates of the impending tragedy.

"It's always so," they said, laughing. "That hawk always comes down if any one goes near the kitten. He has taken to it and stays near at hand to watch whenever it goes to sleep."

The lady, greatly interested, made further inquiry and learned that the kitten's mother had died, after which the nursing was missed for several days. One day the hawk was seen about the cottage picking up scraps of meat and carrying them to the roof of the cottage.

The fisherman climbed up and found the lost kitten nestled in a hole in the thatch and thriving under the care of its stranger foster father. I was brought down and restored to the cottage, but the hawk would not resign his charge and was always at hand to rescue the kitten from the caresses of strangers.—Philadelphia North American.

FLOWER FARMING.

The United States now shows an output of domestic perfume of more than $8,000,000 a year, and to that amount France adds another $1,000,000. Most of the imported perfume is in the form of the finest extracts, which are used by the American manufacturers in making up their own brands, for at present the domestic makers seldom try to get their attars from native flowers. In France flower farming is one of the staple industries of the country and the quality of the flowers and the richness of their odor are unequalled except only by a few of the choicest products of Turkey, Arabia and Syria. In the valley of the Var in France more than 100,000 acres are devoted to the raising of flowers, and such figures as are available show that in 1908 the French manufacturers use 6,000,000 pounds of orange blossoms, 5,000,000 pounds of roses, 2,000,000 pounds each of violets, tuberoses and cassia, besides smaller quantities of many other blossoms. Some of the oils, like wintergreen, peppermint and spearmint, now are made in this country, but the four principal animal perfumes, musk, civet, ambergris and castor, whose use gives permanence to the most delicate vegetable perfumes, all have to be imported.

Has not only brought the foods and drugs of this country up to a higher standard of purity, but it has eliminated the harmful medicines with which this country was flooded. Such medicines, however, as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, purely a roots and herbs product, will continue its beneficial work among women.

COUNTY BOARD HAD PEACEFUL SESSION

PROHIBITION AND BOND ISSUE FOR TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL SUBMITTED TO PEOPLE.

WHEEL TAX ON MOTOR CARS

Prosecuting Attorney Instructed to Ascertain Whether Supervisors Have Right to Levy Against Automobiles.

Business transacted at the meeting of the board of supervisors yesterday consisted principally of the formal declaration for an election to determine whether or not spirituous liquors shall be manufactured and sold in this county, and whether or not the county shall be bonded for $15,000 for the purpose of erecting a tuberculosis sanitarium. The vote by which a local option election was declared, to take place on April 4, was taken in obedience to the mandate of the supreme court, and to have failed to take such action would have been equivalent to contempt. One or two of the supervisors, however, voted "Nay" when the roll was called on the local option election resolution, and it was evident that there was a strong undercurrent against the prohibition movement. The motion to put the tuberculosis hospital bond issue up to the voters carried without opposition.

In the absence of Chairman D. W. Powell, Captain John Treblelock was elected temporary chairman of the meeting and the meeting passed off smoothly and without parliamentary squabbles of any sort. After all other business had been disposed of, Chairman Treblelock asked Supervisor Jackson to take the chair, and the captain spoke before the board on the question of a wheel tax for automobiles. He stated that the autos were playing havoc with our county roads, and believed that the owners of the machines ought to pay a special tax to help keep them in repair. However, he was not sure that the supervisors had authority to put a special tax on automobiles and finally moved that the prosecuting attorney be asked to look up the law on the matter and report at the next meeting. This motion was carried after considerable discussion on the justice or injustice of such a tax.

The resolution adopted at the joint Republican and Democratic judicial convention, requesting the prosecuting attorney of each county in the judicial district to take up the matter of purchasing oil paintings of Judge Stone, to be placed in the several court rooms, with the board of supervisors, was presented by Prosecutor Bell. Mr. Bell stated that five such portraits could be obtained for about $300 each, while one would cost between $300 and $400. The Menominee county supervisors have already voted $300 to purchase Judge

Stone's portrait and the Marquette county board voted a like sum yesterday.

J. A. Dresser's Report.

The report of J. A. Dresser, an expert accountant who went over the county books a few weeks ago, was read. Mr. Dresser examined the books and records of the county treasurer, county clerk, county road commissioners, superintendents of the poor, soldiers' relief commission, and the criminal dockets of the justices of the peace in the cities of Ishpeming, Marquette and Negaunee, and Champion, Michigan and Republic townships. All of the books examined were found to be well kept and accurate in their footings.

Mr. Dresser's report shows the following receipts and disbursements from the county treasurer's office during the year 1909:

Cash on hand, Jan. 1, 1909	$ 28,688 98
Receipts during year	428,159 27
Total	$456,848 25
Disbursements	451,533 15
Balance Jan. 1, 1910	$ 5,315 10

The liabilities of the county on Jan. 1, 1910, appear as follows:

Court house bonds outstanding	$ 50,000 00
Court house bonds paid in January, 1910	10,000 00
Orders and certificates outstanding	22,881 72
Due cities and townships	16,943 57
Library fund	1,274 00
Teachers' institute fees	216 90
Total	$101,318 19
Cash on hand, Jan. 1, 1910	5,315 10
Direct liability, Jan. 1, 1910	$ 96,003 09

During the year fines and costs in criminal cases amounted to $1,522.20, and entry, jury and stenographer's fees to $155, a total of $1,677.20. The justices' dockets examined show that $861 was collected in fines during the year.

WIRELESS STATION HERE.

Duluth Report Says One Is to Be Erected at Once in Marquette.

According to a report published in Duluth, Manager F. G. Moe, of the United Wireless Telegraph company, has received instruction from the principal office of the company at New York, to install stations at Marquette and on Isle Royale. He is to have both stations ready for the opening of navigation. That at Marquette will be erected at Marquette will be erected at once and for the one at Isle Royale, employees of the company will leave on the first boat in the spring and will have the instruments in place by the time navigation is fairly under way.

Mr. Moe received a wireless message from Chicago recently saying that the United Wireless company has made contracts for the equipment of the big passenger steamers of the Detroit & Cleveland and the Detroit & Buffalo Navigation companies.

These comprise all of the big side-wheel passenger steamers plying the lower lakes. Mr. Moe says that these boats have been equipped with wireless for the past five years, using a different system, which have now been discarded.

CAREFULLY AVOIDED SHOWING HIS HAND

CANDIDATES FOR MARQUETTE COLLECTORSHIP GOT LITTLE SATISFACTION FROM SENATOR BURROWS AT MENOMINEE.

Senator Julius Caesar Burrows was given a most hearty reception by the business interests and men prominent in the political affairs of the upper peninsula, at Menominee Tuesday, according to those from this city who went to that city to take the senator by the hand and assure him of their fealty. More than 200 from all parts of the north country were on hand to greet him, including a delegation of 178 from Escanaba, who traveled on a special train. Those from this county who were there are: E. W. McPherran, John D. Mangum, T. C. Howie, D. W. Powell, W. W. Osband, M. J. Sherwood, C. J. Byrns and John Jones.

Other prominent politicians present were: Ex-Lieut. Gov. O. W. Robinson, Chassel, Mich.; H. W. Coburn, Escanaba; State Senator M. H. Moriarty and C. H. Watson, Crystal Falls; Representative F. C. Sterling, Iron Mountain; John Cumminskey, A. H. Reilly, Representative Jensen, N. C. Spencer, Escanaba; Grant Stephenson, Charles W. Kates, R. E. McLean, Wells; J. A. McGuire, Ford River; Representative Harris, Menominee; Ira Carley and Louis Dobias, Ingalls.

It will be noticed from the list that every active and receptive candidate for the office of customs collector at Marquette was "among those present." No doubt the senator was approached regarding this appointment during his visit to Menominee, but, if so, he was very careful not to say anything that would commit him in any way, and all of the candidates have come back just as wise as to Senator Burrows' attitude on the collectorship as they were before—and no wiser.

During the afternoon the senator was given a reception at the hotel, in the course of which he came into personal contact with many Menominee and upper peninsula prominent men. In the evening he gave a patriotic address on "George Washington" before an audience that packed the opera house. His eulogy of the "father of his country" is said to have been a masterly effort, delivered in an effective manner.
