

DAILY MINING JOURNAL A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED.)

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

We will see Senator Burrows later on in the summer, and Representative Townsend, too.

There are three candidates for the legislature in Menominee county and but one job. Somebody's hopes are bound to be disappointed.

Bat Nelson wants another go with Ad Wohltag. Inasmuch as Ad has twice turned the trick of trimming him up, it appears that Bat is a hard man to satisfy.

Senator Burrows continues a high past master in the art of keeping his hand covered. It is said that no one of the candidates for collector put anything over at Menominee. The others were keeping too close tab on proceedings.

The records made at the Ishpeming tournament were better than those recorded at Coleraine, though the Coleraine tournament was the official meeting of the National association and was presumed to be the most important event of the skiing season.

The Lansing Journal and Lansing Republican are showing a deal of temper over the prohibition campaign waging in Ingham county. The Journal is out and out "dry" and the Republican, while professing neutrality, seems to show something of a "wet" leaning.

The milk trust has now been visited with the fruits of the inquiry into its alleged illegal combination to extort exorbitant prices from the public. Eight directors are under indictment and will have to stand trial in federal court.

On their way home from the Menominee gathering the Escanaba men in the Delta county party united in a petition requesting Mayor Solomon Greenbush to again be a candidate.

President Taft, following out the recommendation of Representative Young, has sent the appointment of M. H. Kern, to be postmaster of Menominee, to the senate, and it will shortly be confirmed.

The "drys" give evidence of a purpose to push a vigorous campaign. Representative Cranston, one of the authors of the Warner-Cramton law, under which the licensed liquor business in Michigan is now being conducted, is announced for several speaking dates in Marquette county, and it is said that Senator Dickinson, one of the candidates for lieutenant governor, will also be along to take up the "dry" end of the argument.

There's one insurgent who has no trouble getting all the patronage he wants. It's Senator Beveridge. Beveridge insured on the tariff and has insured on many things since, but somehow or other he has managed to keep on the right side of President Taft and enemies of his who come forward with proposals that his will in regard to appointments be disregarded but cool comfort. It happens, too, that Beveridge has far more than the share of patronage that falls to the average senator.

SOME LIMITATIONS. The Mining Journal is giving a limited amount of space over to discussion of the prohibition issue. This does not mean, however, that it is its purpose to print everything and anything that anyone interested in the pending campaign chooses to send to the editor.

THE SPACE, approximately a column to each side, which The Mining Journal proposes to devote to this subject, daily if necessary, will be reserved for original communications on the controversy, written by people who have something to say about it, to which they are willing to affix their names, for publication.

IT STOOD THE TEST. The additional safety to life and limb furnished by cars of steel construction was well illustrated this week in a wreck which occurred on the Milwaukee road near Hastings, Minn.

LANSEING—Statistics show that the recent ruling of the state dairy and food department in regard to the amount of butter-fat to be used in the manufacture of ice cream has caused the manufacturers throughout the state to spend $75,000 extra to bring their product to within requirements.

LANSEING—Articles of incorporation have been filed as follows: People's Co-operative company, Wakefield, $12,000; James A. Blanchard company (foreign), New York and St. Joseph, Mich., $50,000; Long Manufacturing company (foreign), Chicago and Detroit, $30,000; Eby Manufacturing company, Detroit, increased from $25,000 to $100,000; Adva Investment company, Detroit, $5,000; Mueller Bros. & Watson, Bemick, $6,000; Wayne County Savings bank, Detroit, increased from $100,000 to $150,000.

There's more strength in a bowl of Quaker Oats than in the same quantity or the same value of any other food you can eat.

Most nourishing, least expensive. Loss of life and injury to body are things that can scarcely be measured in dollars and cents, while, furthermore, safety to the traveling public is a thing to be sought, no matter what the expense.

LOWER STATE NOTES. PONTIAC—P. H. McKay, a section foreman employed by the Grand Trunk railway, broke madly from local option restraint when he sold a parcel of Royal Oak property for $1,000.

CHESHAMING—The home of former Village Marshal Charles Masters burned to the ground and his aged wife had a narrow escape from death. She is an invalid and was carried from her bed by neighbors with the house a mass of flames.

CORINNA—As the result of breathing smoke Eugene Hoover, night operator for the Union Telephone company, lies in serious condition at his home. He was awakened from sleep by the ringing of a phone.

GRAND HAVEN—The merger between the Grand Haven State bank and the National Bank of Grand Haven, in progress since Feb. 1, has been accomplished. The Grand Haven state bank will continue the combined business of the two banks, the National Bank liquidating.

OSWOSO—That farmers do not employ business methods in their farming operations is well illustrated by the fact that the population had increased out of proportion to the supply, and as a result the farmer was having his living.

IN DEFENSE OF WORRY. Nobody Advances Much, It Is Argued, Who Is Always Tranquil. The turtle never worries. He lives, it is said, in some parts of the earth for one thousand years, or very nearly that long, and maybe longer.

Worry kills, they say. If it does, it is simply because it stimulates the qualities which are life, and in the degree that there is stimulation there is wearing out, which is death. But what man would want to live the life of a turtle?

S.S.S. THE REMEDY FOR SORES AND ULCERS

There is but one way to cure an old sore or chronic ulcer, and that is to remove the cause that produces and keeps it open. No matter where located, any sore that remains until it becomes chronic does so because of impure blood; the circulation constantly discharges its polluted matter into the place and it is impossible for nature to heal the sore.

midshipmen at Annapolis, cadets at West Point, and a sensational armor plate test. The usual program of travel, pictures and comedy is promised.
Vaudeville at the Bijou—Manager Gillard of the Bijou theater has secured Oma Crosby's Kinkies, one of the best vaudeville troupes in the business, for a week's engagement, beginning next Monday. These high class performers have made a decided hit at the Soo, where they are now under engagement, and in a number of Canadian cities, where they have recently appeared. It is said that their act is of a high order and something entirely different from the ordinary cheap vaudeville show. Two sisters and their brother make up the trio.

officers of the order of the Ladies of the Maccabees who spoke before the Marquette members of the order Wednesday last at the hospitals yesterday. These women have been appointed a committee to inspect the upper peninsula hospitals, and make a report on each, for the assistance of the order in establishing beds at certain hospitals in the upper peninsula, where sick members of the order may receive care and medical treatment.
More Water Yesterday—Water in the Dead river dam at the head of the flume was about a foot higher yesterday than the day before, and the city electric power plant was able to operate its water wheels without difficulty. Whether the increased supply was caused by the Silver Lake dam having been opened or by less water being used over Washington's birthday is not known. Owing to the continued cold weather, Superintendent Re-talle did not go to Silver Lake yesterday as he expected, but will go today or tomorrow, unless there is a marked increase in the flow of water in the river, showing conclusively that the dam has been opened.
Keep Chimneys Clean—As a general thing, more chimney and other fires occur during February and March than in any other months of the year. The reasons given are that stoves and furnaces have been lighted for several months pipes and chimneys have become clogged and dirty and with the combination of open drafts and high winds, the accumulated soot is liable to ignite and a fire ensue. At this time the public would do well to investigate the condition of their pipes and chimneys and clean them if they need to be cleaned. Another custom which fire wardens discountenance is that of running stove pipes through the roofs of summer kitchens or sheds, where such pipes are not properly protected by brick work. Such stove pipes are very productive of fires that may become serious.

MOON FIXES DATE OF EASTER SUNDAY
OCCURS FIRST SUNDAY AFTER
FIRST FULL MOON FOLLOWING SPRING EQUINOX—EATING OF EGGS A SAXON HERITAGE.
Did you know the day upon which you are due to appear in your new spring hat? Of course, it's Easter. But do you know when Easter is? You'd like time to look on the church calendar and then you can tell?
Now that's not necessary. If you have a calendar that tells when the first full moon after March equinox comes, you can safely say Easter is the first Sunday after that event, for that is the secret of the fixing of the mysterious Easter date. Easter this year falls on March 27.
The March equinox comes on the 21st of that month. Therefore, the earliest possible Easter would be March 22. Once in the past 200 years this has happened.
It was in 1818. The moon was at its full on March 21, which happened to be Saturday, therefore the following day was the regulation Easter date.
Beginning in 1780, the Easter dates have been calculated to the year 2013, or twelve lunar cycles. Four times in that period Easter was found to be as late as April 25, as it did in 1886. It will not come on that date again until 1943. In 1781 it came upon April 24, but this will not recur until 2011. The next early Easter will be in 1913, when it will come on March 23.
Easter Story Is Interesting.
When the Latin people came marching into England to try their hand at civil-izing and Christianizing the merry Saxons, they found they were up against something of a problem. The Saxons were made of stubborn stuff, and they loved the paganistic customs of their ancestors and they revere them. They flatly refused to have a new festival for rejoicing at the resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth, of whom their first knowledge was then being gained.
These stalwart Saxons had, however, a festive day at about the time the Latins had their resurrection festival. The Saxon day was called Oester day, meaning egg day, and was in honor of the coming of the spring and was celebrated in the name of a certain heathen goddess.
The wily Latins, when they found that the Saxons would not concede the native festival to the foreign, decided upon combining the two, and while allowing the Saxons to celebrate the heathen festival, to gently lead them to incorporate the idea of the other celebration in it.
This was done, and the name gradually became changed to Easter, and finally all connection of the heathen feast with the Christian day of rejoicing was forgotten. Until this day, however, the idea of celebrating the day with the eating of eggs has continued, a heritage from religion of our forefathers.

WARNED AGAINST SWINDLER.
Man Wanted at Fremont, Neb., May Be Operating in Michigan.
County Register of Deeds J. H. Primean has received a circular from the sheriff at Fremont, Neb., offering $200 reward for the arrest of one John H. Kline, a man of many aliases, who is alleged to be one of the most clever real estate swindlers in the business. It is said that he has operated in Michigan, Missouri, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois and Ohio, and it may be that he is now in this state.
His method of working at Fremont, Neb., which is the same scheme that he has pulled off in many other places, was as follows: He came to Fremont about Jan. 21, 1910, and represented himself as wanting to buy a farm. One of the real estate dealers cited him to a farm that suited him, and especially so because of its being located near a Catholic church, claiming that his folks belong to that creed. The farm was about thirty-five miles from the county seat. He made two or three trips back and forth to see his farm and finally came to Fremont having in his possession a deed signed and acknowledged by a notary public at Dodge, Neb., he having partially made out the deed as well as the instrument, and having secured a facsimile of the notary's seal by having him acknowledge his signature to an instrument which was the power of attorney to sell railroad stock. By so doing, he obtained the impression of the seal and was able to have an exact duplicate made. He made arrangements with a real estate man for a loan of $3,000, secured by a mortgage on the farm, drew the money at the bank and has not been heard of since.
As the fellow is in the habit of visiting the register of deeds offices to look up titles on any property he is dickering for, these officials are warned to be on guard in case he should appear. He is described as a man fifty-five years old, of medium height and weight, dark complexion, and has the general appearance of an ordinary farmer. He is said to have cleaned up $75,000 in different states in the manner outlined above.

THEATRICAL.
"The Man of the Hour."
Managers Wm. A. Brady and Jos. R.
Grisner's big production of George Broadhurst's great play, "The Man of the Hour," with a special company, is underlined for production at the opera house tonight. "The Man of the Hour" is commended by critics everywhere to be one of the best American plays ever written. There is not a discordant note in it, every character moves and breathes and lives a natural life. It is a play for the people who like the heart stirrings of a play, and who cling to the old beliefs about rugged honesty and love for women and home. A mere recital of the story conveys little idea of the sparkling charm there is in the play.

WAGES IN JAPAN.
Wages are not excessive in Japan. Of skilled operatives, the highest paid are spectacle and precious stone workers, $1 a day. Shipbuilders receive seventy-five cents a day, masons seventy cents, fire-workers and carpenters sixty cents.
Printers receive nine cents.

INSURE WITH PETER WHITE & CO.
RING INFORMATION.
"Rings should be chosen with discretion," says a woman who has made a study of the subject. "Few women, for instance, can wear a large solitaire diamond ring, which requires as a background the whitest of dimpled hands.
The antique, old Venetian and marquise rings look best on thin hands with bony fingers, the sunken places below the enlarged knuckles requiring to be filled out with rings of a showy type."

The Bureau Drawer VS. The Bank Account

The bank account and check book make the financial side of housekeeping a pleasure.

The bureau drawer is unsafe as a banking proposition—tends toward leaks and carelessness, inaccuracy and lack of system, out of date in every way.

Open a bank account. Let your wife draw the checks. Teach her the ways of business. She may need the knowledge some day.

EXCITEMENT IN COURT. Husband of Witness Assaults Attorney at Trial of Dr. Fitch.

Detroit, Feb. 24.—There was only reason in the Fitch trial today, court adjourning at noon. The defense produced little new testimony after the cross-examination of Mrs. Bessie Knott, its leading witness, was concluded. When the jury was filing into the courtroom at the opening of court, Frank Knott, husband of the witness, was pleading with her not to go on the stand. Attorney Lodge, of the defense, stepped up and Knott struck him a stinging blow on the face. The angry husband attempted to follow up the blow, but was restrained by detectives.

KLING'S CASE GOES OVER. Baseball Player Must Show Cause Why He Should Be Reinstated.

Cincinnati, Feb. 24.—John Kling, former star catcher of the Chicago National league baseball team, must show cause to the national baseball commission why he should be restored to good standing as a player. This mandate also extends to the management of the Chicago club. Because of lack of evidence, the supreme court of baseball today refused to take final action on Kling's petition for reinstatement. The case was discussed and laid over. Kling and President Murphy, of the Chicago club, were asked to furnish the commission with copies of all correspondence that has passed between them since 1908.

HE OPPOSES SHIP SUBSIDIES. Kentucky Nolen Feels Government Is Becoming a Pawnbroker's Shop.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Vigorously opposing mail steamship subsidies, Representative Nolen of Kentucky in a speech in the house today declared that the United States government was being converted into a gigantic pawnbroker's shop for the purpose of extending trade to the maritime interests of the United States.

BOWLING SCORES. The first five games in the Ford-Van derstine cup contest were rolled at the downtown alleys last night. The scores follow:

CHICAGO WHEAT MARKET. Chicago, Feb. 24.—Wheat closed strong and high today. The first half of the session was heavily affected by the poor demand for cash wheat, coupled with unexpected large arrivals.

DEATH RECALLS ROMANCE. General Rucker's Cherokee Wife Is Buried in Oklahoma.

Fort Gibson, Ok., Feb. 24.—The recent death in Washington, D. C., of General Daniel Rucker, aged ninety-eight, the oldest officer in the United States Army, recalls the time he was stationed here at Fort Gibson, a number of years before the Mexican war, in which he participated, being at the battle of Fort Mifflin with Jefferson Davis, where he was promoted for gallantry.

GERMANS OPPOSE U. S. WIVES. Washington Diplomat's Choice of Miss Hoy Criticized at Berlin.

Berlin, Feb. 24.—The marriage of Third Secretary Von Stamm of the German embassy at Washington, which was announced in Berlin newspapers, such as a union, is said, is a departure of only a too frequent kind from the Bismarckian principle that only a German wife can be considered as a trustworthy companion for a German diplomat.

BARNYARD HATS NOW THE FASHION. "Chanticleer" Craze Has English Women in "Fowl" Grasp.

London, Feb. 23.—London has seldom accepted any craze from Paris as quickly as the present "chanticleer" craze, so common did the weird feather concoctions known as "chanticleer" hats appear in the gay city than they were imported posthaste into England in all their hideousness.

EXPLOSION INJURES THREE. Montpelier, N. J., Feb. 24.—Three persons were injured, two of them seriously, by the explosion today of a gas stove and water heater in the home of Lester G. Wislar, a New York stock broker.

MICHIGAN PACKER PRESIDENT. Chicago, Feb. 24.—The Western Packer association today elected the following officers: President, Wm. B. Bouch; Vice President, Robert J. Dill; Secretary, J. J. Lewis; Treasurer, J. J. Green; and also may be, Louis E. Green, who was buried about the head.

MARKETS. WALL STREET STOCKS.

New York, Feb. 24.—Paine, Webber & Co. say of today's stock market: "Foreign investment demand was reported as improved in stocks today, but the news was not of a character to stimulate activity. It is rumored that some new financing will be announced in the near future, and money conditions are said to be such as to indicate that the sale of New York city bonds, scheduled for the early part of March, will be a success. We still feel that stocks are a better purchase on declines than a short sale on the advance, but would adhere to the policy of protecting commitments on the long side by means of the usual safeguard, in order to be prepared for anything which is likely to result from the unfavorable factors in the situation."

Boston Quotations. Boston, Feb. 24.—Today's stock market at Boston is summarized by Paine, Webber & Co. as follows:

DEMOCRATS' LOST CHANCE. By Avoiding the Cost of Living Inquiry a Good Opportunity for Political Capital Is Neglected.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The Republican leaders in the senate are delighted over the attitude of the minority senators toward the investigation into the cost of living. Senator Aldrich and his associates took it for granted that the Democrats would assign strong men to this committee, with the view of digging up facts and submitting a minority report that would impress the country. Great was the surprise of the Republican leaders when the minority decided to have little or nothing to do with the investigation.

SOME BEEF-BRED WORK. England Has Still a Few Ale and Beer Men, Like Cromer and Kitchener, Who Can Face the Threatening Storm.

England has still a few ale and beer men, like Cromer and Kitchener, who can face the threatening storm. It is unnecessary to say that Cromer and Kitchener are not wasting time addressing Hotel Plaza pink tea aggregations. It is highly probable that England, instead of passing laws about anti-vice, made to consider not only conscription, but also that old, soap-craving, starting, houseless, scurvy horde of human derelicts nightly gathering on the banks of the Thames, under the shadows of its wide-awake embankments, is the heart of London.—New York Press.

Investigation. Privately the Republicans are saying to each other that the Democrats have let a fine opportunity to make a showing before the country go by. "You would not catch the Republican party if it were the minority party letting an opportunity like this slide by," said one of the Republican senators. "If the Democrats were wise enough to see if they have an opportunity here to put through strong men on this committee and force a real inquiry, three men of the right caliber could prepare a minority report which would certainly show that the tariff does have something to do with high prices in specific instances and that the protective system as a whole is responsible for everything being on a pedestal."

That Postal Deficit

The Joint Postal Commission in 1907 reported as follows:

"It appears too obvious to require argument that the most efficient service can never be expected as long as the direction of the business is as at present entrusted to the Postmaster-General and certain assistants selected without special reference to experience and qualifications and subject to frequent change. Before the Postmaster-General and his assistants can become reasonably familiar with the operations of the service they are replaced by others, who, in turn, are called upon to resign before they can, in the nature of things, become qualified by knowledge and experience to perform their allotted tasks. Undersuch a system a large railroad, commercial or industrial business would inevitably go into bankruptcy, and the Post-Office Department has averted that fate only because the United States Treasury has been available to meet deficiencies."

The public accountants' report said:

"The work of the Department and its development is hindered all along the line by slavish adherence to old methods and to precedents created in previous years, and many reforms which might otherwise be instituted are hindered—frequently prevented—by appeal to the decisions of the Comptroller, made, perhaps, many years ago under entirely different conditions. Then, again, the conservatism of Government officials is a generally admitted fact. There is no inducement to employees to suggest improvements in the service for the reason that if these improvements result in greater efficiency or economy of administration they will receive little credit; and, on the other hand, if new methods are not successful they will be charged with the whole blame."

In view of these official statements by those whom Congress authorized to investigate the Post-Office, we submit that the Postmaster-General's attempt to wipe out the deficit in his Department by raising the postage on your magazines, instead of by devoting his energies to securing legislation that will place the service on a sound, efficient and economical basis, is unwise and unbusinesslike. The nature of his recommendations, and the attempt to exempt newspapers from any increase, are final grounds for a divorce of this great business department from politics.

HUSTLE AND BOOST SECRET OF GROWTH

DEVELOPMENT OF WEST DUE TO ITS PEOPLE, RATHER THAN ITS GREAT RESOURCES.

IS NO PLACE FOR KNOCKERS

Residents of Pacific Slope Loyal to Their Home and Tell Strangers of Its Beauties.

"Western people are the finest in the world but the western country and climate are no whit better than in the upper peninsula of Michigan," declares a man who has made several visits to the Pacific slope and has business interests there. "The secret of the wonderful growth and development of the West," he continued, "is not its phenomenal natural resources but its manner of means. It lies in the spirit of the western people, who are hustlers and boosters all the time. In a certain hotel in Seattle, the following motto hangs in the lobby: 'Do you like Seattle? If you do, say so; if you don't, get out.'"

"These words are the embodiment of the spirit of the West. Everyone is a booster; there are no knockers. The knockers find it a mighty unpleasant place to live and are glad to move on. No matter what the weather may be, the climate is just fine. As a matter of fact, compared with the upper peninsula, the greater part of the far west is inhabitable, as far as climate is concerned, but you would never find this out from one of the inhabitants. When it rains, it rains for days and days, and both men and women walk about clad in rubber boots and mackintoshes; when it is dry, it is so very dry that not a spear of anything green can be found anywhere. Suggest this to a westerner, however, and he is peeved, and nine chances out of ten he will convince you that you are mistaken before he leaves you. The heavy rains are just what is needed for the country, and when it gets dry, that's just what the country needs, too. 'If God sends rain, why rain's my choice!' That is the way the westerner looks at everything, at least when showing his country to a stranger. "The last time I was in Oregon, red-wood stump lands that I would not consider worth $25 an acre after they were cleared, were being sold for $200 an acre and upwards, stumps and all. The man who wants to buy land had better invest his money right at home, not on the Pacific coast where the real estate men are laying for moneyed customers. They are getting them, too. It is the hustle and bustle of the western people that is developing the West so rapidly. "Points Worth Taking Home. "Without presuming to make any odious comparisons, there are many characteristics of western people which might well be taken home by residents of other localities. When a stranger goes West with the idea of establishing a home or buying a farm, he is not told that this is a dead town, that there are fearful blizzards in the winter, that it gets so cold that the mercury drops out of the thermometer, and that the land is so poor that farming is impractical. Every man whom the stranger meets tells him of the delightful features of his proposed new home, how many other men have made fortunes in the same line of business in which he desires to embark, and, in short, does everything he can to make the stranger welcome and perfectly at home.

"When asked where is the best place in town to buy a rug, a suit of clothing or some furniture, the westerner does not say, 'Oh, everything is awfully high here, you had better send to Chicago if you don't want to be robbed.' He directs the stranger to one of the home stores, where he is received and treated in the same hospitable manner. When a real estate dealer has a prospective customer for some valuable land, his rival in business does not get hold of the customer and run down the purchase he intends making, with the result that the purchaser goes away from the town, disgusted with everything and everybody in it. Everybody works together for the West in the West, realizing that by so doing all will gain in the end. It's really all summed up by that motto in the Seattle hotel:

"Do you like Seattle? If you do, say so; if you don't, get out."

STOCK FOR NEW STORE.

A. L. Huetter to Deal in Women's Ready to Wear Goods at 118 Front Street.

A. L. Huetter has just returned to the city after an absence of three weeks in New York, where he has been making his purchases for his new store, which will be opened at 118 South Front street some time in March, with an exclusive line of women's ready to wear garments. Mr. Huetter visited the most fashionable stores in New York and states that he has selected an unusually attractive, desirable and complete line of goods.

The store building, which was formerly occupied by Hager Bros. as a furniture store, is being thoroughly remodeled and redecorated. Handsome fixtures have been purchased and the store promises to be up-to-date in every respect, which should make it a popular shopping place among the women of Marquette and vicinity.

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by he People's Drug Store.

NEW ORGANIZATION OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

REVISED CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS ADOPTED AT WELL ATTENDED MEETING AT CITY HALL LAST EVENING.

A special meeting of the Commercial club was held last evening to pass on the proposed new constitution and by-laws drafted by a committee appointed at an informal meeting of members some weeks ago. The session was well attended, thirty or more being present. The new constitution and by-laws, which were drawn up by A. E. Miller, A. E. Archambeau and E. S. Bice, were read by Mr. Miller, who explained as he went along the departures from the former plan of organization and the reasons therefor.

The name of the organization is changed from the Queen City to the Marquette Commercial club. It is explicitly declared to be non-political in its character, and to exist for the industrial and civic development of the city. Any citizen is eligible to membership, and dues for half year periods will be accepted. The membership is to be of two classes, sustaining members, whose annual dues shall be $5, and regular members, whose dues shall be $2. Members in arrears are to be given notice, before membership shall terminate. The principal change provided for is the concentration of the authority and responsibility for carrying on the club's work in an executive committee of five members, including the officers, two other members to be elective. Under the old plan of organization there were twelve committees and the general membership of the club, assembling monthly, was to a considerable extent relied on for carrying on the work. Under the new order general meetings are to be held quarterly, but the executive committee is empowered to call special meetings.

The date of the annual meeting of the club is fixed as the second Monday in April, and the regular meetings are set for the second Monday in the months of April, January, July and October. The by-laws are subject to amendment at any regular or special meeting of the club, provided that notice of the proposed amendment is given in the call of the meeting. The new plan of organization and Mr. Miller's explanations were received with much favor by the members, and with a few minor changes the plan was adopted.

A. E. Miller nominated E. S. Bice and E. O. Stafford for membership on the executive committee, and on motion put and carried the secretary cast the vote of the meeting for them.

MANUFACTURER'S OUTLET GARMENT CO.
FIRST NATIONAL BANK BUILDING, MARQUETTE, MICH.

A Waist Sale for 10 O'clock This Morning

Two hundred Waists are here laid out for your choosing; they are all new patterns and of such grades as you would gladly pay $1.50 for.

79c

Is what the Red Tags on all of them are saying. Some of them are of woven madras cloth, yes, fast colors, in grey, tan, pink and blue, pleated down the front and with starched collars and cuffs, and then there are some very dainty white ones, trimmed in lace and embroidery. You'd think they ought to be $1.50. Lingerie Waists is what this lot is; all of them at the same small 79c each, and sale begins at 10 o'clock.

3 Lots Black Petticoats

One of the lots is of mercerized satteen, another of Heather-bloom cloth and the third is of lustrous Italian cloth, all of them nicely ruffled; the saving is at least half on either of the three your fancy may pick; the price for today and tomorrow is

49c, 79c and 95c

We say today and tomorrow because they cannot remain here longer at these prices, and we want to make no undue promises.

Come and See What the Red Tags Are Saying

They are saying "money saving things" about every garment in this store. They are saying $7.88 for some beautiful $15 Capes, and $9.75 for Spring Suits that cost as high as $20.00. You just ought to see the nifty, natty, sweet little Suits that have just come in. They are in the prettiest pinks, blues, lavenders and leather shades; some of them are made nearly all of lace, and at that they are so substantial that they'll stand all the washing you can give them. You can now buy them for $6.75 and their kind will cost $13.50 later on. There is smartness in the new Spring styles. Be sure you give them a look.

Here are special lots that go on sale today. Give them your attention.

25 New Cloth Suits. 35 New Spring Coats

We are going to show you how much garment you can really buy for

$6.95

That's the figure the Red Tags are saying. Suits that are fully silk lined in the newest spring models, with pleated skirts of woolen cloths that come in neat dark checks and fancy stripes, sizes mostly in 34, 36, 38, 40.

THE COATS

Are of that hard twisted grey diagonal cloth, semi-fitted and full length. There are also some of them in tan, covert cloth and broadcloths, in navy and green. None of them can be had anywhere at 6.95 only. Here look around all over and you will be the more convinced. We advise you to come early, for you know how quick $15 and $18 Coats and Suits will sell for
