

CASE IN ITSELF IS INSIGNIFICANT

Interstate Commerce Commission, However, Hands Down One of the Most Important Decisions It Has Rendered in Months.

Refusing to Accept an Alabama Rate as Fair or Reasonable, It Enunciates a Principle of Country-Wide Application and That Opens at Once the Question Whether National or State Authority Is Paramount in Fixing Railroad Tariffs.

Washington, May 22.—Regulation of railroad freight rates is a complicated question, involving intricate matters of law; but it becomes even a more serious problem when two regulating authorities clash on a proposition of the reasonableness of rates. Thoughtful observers of freight rate regulation have anticipated that, sooner or later, a conflict of authority would arise between the interstate commerce commission and one or more of the state railroad commissions concerning the fixing of rates.

Recently, the railroad commission of Alabama fixed an express rate on fish from Mobile, Ala., to other intra-state points that was far below the express rate from Pensacola to the same points of destination. This rate the express company was forced to not to effect, although it protested against it. Mobile fish shippers, by reason of this rate, were given an advantage over the fish shippers of Pensacola to points within Alabama, although, in many instances, the distance from Pensacola to points of destination was less than from Mobile.

Decision of Great Importance. The commission's opinion in the case was handed down today. It was prepared by Commissioner Harlan and is the unanimous judgment of the commission. It indicates clearly the lines of conflict between the national commission and the various state commissions, in the regulation of freight and express rates; and, in that sense, is one of the most important decisions rendered by the commission for many months.

Discrimination Iniquitous. The carriage of traffic by a common carrier for one community or one set of shippers at less than it carries for other traffic for a like distance, and under substantially similar transportation conditions, for another community or another set of shippers is not only in contravention of fundamental right and justice, but is essentially iniquitous. If such a discrimination is practiced by a common carrier as between communities or different sets of shippers, within the same state and on traffic moving only within the state, redress may usually be had under the state laws. On the other hand, if an interstate carrier is guilty of such a discrimination with respect to interstate traffic, redress may be had under the act to regulate commerce.

CRUELTY RULES IN KIEV. Expulsion of Jews Goes on Rapidly Both There and at Moscow. Berlin, May 22.—The Hebrew Aid society has received from Kiev, Russia, the following dispatch: "The expulsion of Jewish families is being carried out in the cruelest manner. Respectable Jewish citizens are corralled within police cordons and then led in groups to police headquarters. Even in the most favored cases a maximum of two days is allowed for leaving the city. A feeling of desperation prevails among the Hebrew population."

Mr. Wyman is said to have had two great dominating passions—one, Princeton University, from which he graduated more than fifty years ago, and the other the acquiring of real estate.

It Is Hinted That Undue Influence Was Brought to Bear Upon Certain Members of the State Law-Making Body, and Representatives of Both the "Wet" and the "Dry" Forces Have Been Summoned to Appear Before the Investigators.

Not only will the furniture contract for the new chairs and desks for the capitol be probed, but local option will undergo scrutiny. The probe of the local option legislation will open Tuesday, when James K. Shields, president of the Illinois Anti-Saloon league, and Ernest A. Scroggin, legislative superintendent of the league, will appear before the jury.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL

MARQUETTE, MICH., MAY 23.

JOURNAL IS FRANK.

Wonder if Friend Baldwin is willing to stake his standing as an influential factor in Delta county on the vote in the primaries September next?

The writer is willing to stake his standing as one who has had some little connection with politics for a few years, and who has a slight knowledge of the people of Delta county, that Chase S. Osborn, who sold himself to the whisky interest of this county, will come within a few hundred votes of getting the entire vote of Delta county—Escanaba Journal.

The Mining Journal has had the Delta county situation figured out the same as the Journal. Like the Journal, The Mining Journal has figured that Mr. Osborn would "come within a few hundred votes of getting the entire vote of Delta county."

In 1908 Delta county polled 4,426 votes for the candidates for governor. Of this number 3,164 were Republican votes. Assuming that all these Republican voters go to the polls in September and that the Escanaba Journal is correct—and we have no doubt it is—in predicting that Osborn will get all but a few hundred of them, Osborn's majority in the primaries in that county will be over 2,000, which will be doing very well for Delta.

If Friend Baldwin pursues throughout the campaign such shortsighted tactics as are indicated in his empty slur about Mr. Osborn selling himself to the whisky interests of Delta county, we believe the issue will prove that Friend Baldwin is a false prophet, in that he has greatly underestimated Mr. Osborn's strength, and that instead of the 800 candidate getting all but a few hundred of the votes he will have them almost unanimously.

Meanwhile we congratulate Mr. Baldwin on his frankness in facing conditions as they actually exist, and on bearing in his excellent Journal frank testimony to the real situation in Delta, notwithstanding that it is not one that meets with his ideas of what it should be. We can assure him that we are wholly pleased with his reply, and delighted to find it so completely in line with our own ideas on the subject.

FOR TARIFF COMMISSION.

Senator Smith is one of the late converts to the tariff commission idea, vigorously upheld by President Taft as the only satisfactory plan for securing a fair carrying out of the promise of the last Republican platform to revise the tariff on the basis of difference of cost of production at home and abroad. Senator Smith has not always had his present views on this subject. To quote him: "I have never thought it was wise to take the tariff out of politics. Taxation is the most important function of government, and all voters should be familiar with the principles on which it is based. A scientific tribune will tend to destroy this interest because of a lack of detailed responsibility."

"This has been my opinion in the past, but I am ready to concede that perhaps the advocates of a tariff commission have been wiser than my opponents," he states in an interview published in the Indianapolis News. "That my friend, Senator Beveridge, for whom I have the highest respect and in whose success I am deeply interested, and whom I regard as one of the ablest and most conscientious and worthy of our public men, was much wiser than some of us who early opposed his commission plan. I am willing to grant."

"I have been and am an ardent protectionist. I was in congress when the Dingley bill was passed and the Wilson bill repealed and the people of the United States heaved a sigh of relief when we finished that work and Republican majorities were maintained high in all parts of the country. I believe this country to be thoroughly committed to the principle of protection and any party that attacks it will be short-lived, even in victory, and yet in the consideration of the last tariff law, which I believe to be the best one ever enacted, there was so much confusion and doubt about the figures, from whatever source obtained, that senators of the same mind were led to different views because of the varying sources of our information."

"It would be of incalculable value to the people in and out of congress to have accurate information as to the relative cost of production at home and abroad. While I want this protection so high that it will not operate as a threat or menace to industrial enterprise, still I am fully convinced that the government, through unquestioned sources, must gather information and submit recommendations in order to dispel factionalism and honest doubt. To that end I shall do what I can in favor of the creation of a strong tariff commission."

Regarding his views the Indianapolis News says: "Senator Smith is one of the ablest speakers in the senate and it is expected that during the tariff commission discussion he will make some convincing remarks showing the desirability of having accurate statistics showing the cost of production at home and abroad as the basis for just and equitable tariff revisions."

There is no need to be apprehensive that Mr. Osborn's interests will suffer because of over-confidence, as some of Mr. Osborn's newspaper friends seem to fear. Mr. Osborn is not the sort of a man who lies down on a fight, any more than he has lain down on any job he has ever tackled. He will push his campaign through to the end, vigorously and manfully. Mr. Osborn is no tyro in public life. He knows that the price of success in politics, as in business, is sustained and vigorous effort. However much he may believe things are coming his way, Mr. Osborn will not permit roseate report and attractive word pictures of the victory in September to slacken him in an aggressive, earnest and always effective campaign, in which he will deal with the voters fully and frankly on every issue that properly figures in the discussion. No, friends, there is no need to fear the sapping effects of over-confidence in the Osborn camp. If Mr. Osborn was assured of a lead pipe cinch on the governorship tomorrow, he would still plunge in to make the victory as decisive as it could possibly be made. That's the kind of a man he is.

With the mining companies paying three-quarters of the taxes, and favorable to the project, Negaunee certainly cannot afford not to pave iron street. The small taxpayers ought to be as public spirited as the mining companies. They would not feel their share of the cost of carrying the proposed bonds. Besides, it will be as cheap in the long run to pave iron street as to lay a macadam surfacing. The latter is expensive to keep in repair, and if not kept in repair goes to pieces rapidly. The Mining Journal hopes to learn that the Negaunee people have declared for paving. This good example might ultimately lead this city to follow suit. Every city in the upper peninsula should show visitors well-paved principal business streets, and the improvements should be, in whole or in part, charged against the general property.

Ironwood built a city hall that cost $8,000 several years ago. In the interval it has had large sums in rentals on the lower floor, which was fitted up for business purposes, and it has just closed a ten-year contract with the federal government, by which the government will pay $950 annually for the use of the rooms for postoffice purposes. Many people, those Ironwood citizens. Our $50,000 city hall bonds are about ready for refunding and we haven't saved up a single dollar to pay any of them off with.

Baldwin, of the Escanaba Journal, is usually frank about saying what he believes to be the truth, even when his own interests are not served by it. He's an out and outer. No beating about the bush about Baldwin. Not always fair, to be sure, but usually fair as he sees things, and that, perhaps, is the most that can be said for any of us. The Mining Journal thinks a good deal of Baldwin, even when not in agreement with him.

If the people of San Francisco and California don't want prize fights, the thing for them to do is to insist that the legislature wipe from the statute books the law legalizing them. It's idle to brawl with promoters and pugilists who are only acting within their legal rights. The pugilistic contingent has solid ground under it in the pending controversy in California.

And, it may also be stated, Judge Flannigan's attitude in relation to the liquor law is one that meets with the approval of the great majority of people in this county. If Judge Flannigan had been on the bench a little sooner there would probably have been no local option elections in the counties of his circuit.

Dick Fletcher, of Bay, was in Marquette county to school a new man in his duties as deputy state labor commissioner, not, as Marquette people might have been accused for believing, to reorganize the official force of the Marquette federal building.

We repeat, it's quite too bad that Vice President Sherman can't run for something, somewhere, on his platform that the Aldrich-Payne bill has failed on the score of under protection. What would he advance, the wool and cotton schedules?

We haven't been hearing much of the house insurgents lately. It's the restless gentlemen at the other end of the capitol who have been most in the public's eye.

The Iron Mountain Press is informed that it is sadly in error in its assertion that the Marquette county road commission is not living up to all its advance notices.

Though the St. Louis aeronauts did not break any records they are still to be congratulated on traveling over Lake Michigan instead of into it.

Representative Young is home in an endeavor to ascertain whether Candidate Kerr is cutting as wide a swath as his friends say he is.

Mr. Bryan is very much in earnest about prohibition, and there's no politics in his latest attitude either. Doesn't he say so?

Judge Flannigan has the faculty of making himself very clear.

ANOTHER DISCHARGE.

Speaker Cannon always outdoes himself at a banquet, especially at a banquet of magnates. Without pausing to speak authoritatively, yet with reasonable certainty, it may be asserted that Speaker Cannon's notion of paradise is a bankers' banquet without end. It might have been predicted, then, that when the National Association of Manufacturers elected him as its guest of honor it was assuming a position of entertainment and inspiration, and it got what it was looking for. It is not ascertained that the distinguished speaker literally peeled off his coat or jumped over the banquet board. But he did both metaphorically, and great was the enthusiasm.

The speaker began joyously with a broadside at his pet aversions—"the demagogue" (i. e., the men who disagree with the speaker and say so effectively), "the shortsighted man" (i. e., the man who can't see the speaker as the house of representatives), "the specialist" (i. e., the man who trips up the speaker on his economic facts), "the philosopher" (i. e., the man who believes the American republic was not established to pile up the highest mountain of material wealth and make it a private park for the few thousand of the nation's millionaires).

With these wretched victims shriveling in the breath of his wrath, the speaker proceeded to point out the unpardonable sin. Sometimes in the "uplift magazines"—detestable and contemptible word, that "uplift"—sometimes in the metropolitan dailies—but never, no, never in that fountain of pulchritude, the Danville Beacon—these miscreants "find fault with our country!"

"Think of it, my countrymen, "find fault" with a country whose affairs have been largely arranged by the speaker himself! No wonder that, stricken by this blasphemy against the best of all possible schemes of things, the impassioned banqueters rose as one man and declared for the immediate execution of all their agitators, and we lift magazine editors, metropolitan editors, specialists, demagogues, philosophers, and shortsighted men will go into the tumbrel with them.

HERE AND THERE.

"There has been a general decline in religious interest throughout the world," said Professor George B. Foster of the University of Chicago in an address before the western Unitarian conference.

"Many persons have turned from the old religions to Christian Science, Spiritualism, and other modern religions," said Professor Foster in a Baptist, but was expelled from the Chicago Baptist ministers' conference last year because of his religious views.

The Democrats of Nevada expect to replace United States Senator George S. Nixon, Republican, with a Democrat after next fall's election. The Nevada legislators voted twenty-five Democrats on joint ballot. The Democrats are looking for a candidate among the rich members of Esmeralda county, where Bryan received 2,787 votes in 1908, as against 580 votes for Nixon.

Bill Sprague kept a general store at Crofton Four Corners, says the Eastern Traveler. One day he set off for New York to ship a lot of goods. The goods were shipped immediately, and as Bill had fingered in New York, they reached Crofton Four Corners before he had time to get home.

There is a certain banker and broker, doing business not a hundred miles from the bank, says a London weekly, whose health for some time has not been all that he could desire. Not long ago he was complaining to his brother, when the latter, after a careful survey of his brother's countenance, said:

"What you need, old man, is plain country food. Come to my place in the rich food and well soon set you up. This rich food is proving too much for you. Take breakfast, for instance. All I have is two cups of coffee, a bit of steak with a baked potato, some light mutton or a stack of buttered toast, together with a bit of watercress or lettuce. 'What do you take?'"

For a moment the city banker gazed in hearty admiration at his brother. "A cup of hot water and two slices of dry toast," he replied soberly. "But, Jim, if you think a simple diet like yours will 'set me up,' why I'm perfectly willing to try it."

"Why, Benjamin Harrison, of course," responded two or three of the members in chorus. "Not only is Benjamin Harrison the best lawyer in Indiana, but he is best in the country. There is absolutely no doubt of this."

S. W. Shaull left last evening for Chicago and Cleveland.

Mrs. S. Faneher and sister, Miss Emma LaRoche, left for Chicago Saturday night.

Hon. H. O. Young, of Ishpeming, was a Marquette visitor yesterday. He is home from Washington for a few days' visit for the first time in several months.

G. A. Johnson, of Hering & Fuller, of New York, has left the city, after a study of conditions surrounding water supply here. A preliminary report is expected from him this week.

The funeral of the late Mrs. E. A. Mortenson, who passed away Friday, will take place tomorrow afternoon. Services will be conducted at the house at 2:30 o'clock and at the Swedish Lutheran church at 3 o'clock. The interment will be in Park cemetery.

John Rivers, of the South Shore railroad's passenger department at Duluth, was in the city Saturday, and was a spectator at the Marquette-Ishpeming baseball game. It's more years than Jack likes to remember since he was the premier backstop of the old Marquette River.

The trial of David E. Hampton, a former Marquette prison convict, well remembered by many Marquette people, for burglary, was expected to be started at Stillwater, Minn. When it was first put up to him that he had served time in Marquette he denied it. Burr Catlin, Jr., who is now located in Minneapolis, was one of the witnesses called to identify Hampton.

Eclipse of Moon Tonight—There will be a total eclipse of the moon tonight, visible throughout North and South America. The schedule for this region is as follows: Moon enters the dark shadow, 5:46 p. m.; totality begins, 11:09 p. m.; totality ends, 12, midnight; moon leaves the dark shadow, May 24, 1:22 a. m.

Little Folks' Concert—The program for the Little Folks' concert at the M. E. church this evening contains many excellent numbers. Among these are the song by the Dutch children, selections by the village quartet and solos by the very little children. The march of the fire-flies will be a novel and interesting feature.

Crystal Falls Here This Week—The Marquette team will be seen on the home grounds again this Saturday and Sunday, when Crystal Falls will make its first appearance here. The Crystal Falls team has been materially strengthened since Marquette played it a week ago, and by the end of the present week is expected to be traveling at a fast clip.

Spear vs. Pendill Case—The case of John W. Spear vs. James Pendill progressed slowly Saturday, and without developments of any great interest. Mr. Spear, who was the first witness called Friday afternoon, was examined and stood a good share of Saturday morning and was followed by James Pendill. The basis for Mr. Spear's suit for damages is in large part a pamphlet published and circulated by Mr. Pendill relating to the plaintiff's business dealings. It is expected that the case will go to the jury today.

Five Home Players—The Marquette team certainly has the league record for home players in its line-up, a baseball fan said yesterday. "Saturday no less than five of the players, Richardson, Scholtus, Dunaway, Riopelle and Weisner, were Marquette men of long residence, and Young is now a bonafide resident of the city. I think that Marquette could get together a strictly home talent team that could defeat any other home talent team that could be organized anywhere in the upper peninsula. A number of the Marquette players have now been playing together for several years."

Summer Time Table—The summer time table for the South Shore road went into effect yesterday. The principal change noted is in the departure of the St. Paul train which has been leaving Marquette at 8 a. m. for the past few years. Under the new schedule this train will leave at 7:35 a. m., or twenty-five minutes earlier. This change, it is said, will meet with the approval of the traveling public, as it will get them into town up the line earlier. The St. Paul train from Chicago is scheduled to arrive at 10:25 a. m., instead of at 10:40. The Sunday train from Michigan will leave Marquette at 12:30 p. m., arriving in Marquette at 2:08 p. m. Returning, it will leave Marquette at 10 p. m. Passengers for Ontonagon county points can now get through to their destinations the same morning by taking the 5:15 train. They arrive at Sidaue at 8:30 and leave there half an hour later on the St. Paul train.

LUIGI D'URBANO'S BAND HAS "BUSTED"

DISPUTES BETWEEN LEADER AND MUSICIANS HAVE LED TO ITS DISRUPTION AT MILWAUKEE, IT IS REPORTED.

According to press reports, Luigi D'Urbano, the Italian bandmaster, well known in the upper peninsula because of frequent appearances during the past year, and his band have parted company in Milwaukee, owing to disputes between D'Urbano and his men. Shortly after the band played its last engagement here Miss Ried, the soprano soloist, left the organization. It has been under the management of Milwaukee parties. A Milwaukee paper has the following story of the falling out between D'Urbano and his musicians: "It's all off with D'Urbano and his 'Royal Italian Band.' The band playing an engagement at the Hippodrome in Milwaukee suddenly became disrupted owing to disputes with the players by the great bandmaster himself. 'Donnerwetter,' said Sig. D'Urbano, in Italian. 'His musicians thought the remark was addressed to the weather man. But Sig. D'Urbano was undisturbed there. He stopped the rehearsal. 'Then in fine choice Italian, he told some of his musicians what he thought of them. He was practically caustic in his remarks to the man who played the first slide trombone. 'You, but that was a bum note,' said the director. The slide trombone felt hurt. 'A fly lit on the notes,' he offered by way of explanation. 'And you played the fly?' inquired the signor director. 'Sure,' said the trombone. 'And when the fly flew you still played him—your trombone slipped.' The slide trombone colored. He thought it was not worth while attempting to be a great artist if one had to be talked to that way. The more the signor scolded the madder the first trombone got. Then Sig. D'Urbano fired the first trombone. He was just in time. Had he been a second later the slide trombone would have 'beat him to it' by quitting. Having completed what he had to say about the first slide trombone the signor director began with the first oboe with the intention apparently of going through the band and showing what he considered the shortcomings of each musician. But the first thing he knew he had no band. The band struck. There was no concert at the Hippodrome. Some of the musicians went to Chicago. Some stayed in Milwaukee.

L. M. Geismar, superintendent of the agricultural college experimental station at Chatham, writes of the beginning of corn growing in the upper peninsula. "It is not generally known that corn was successfully grown in the upper peninsula probably long before Columbus discovered America and by at least two tribes of Indians, the Ottawas and the Chippewas, who controlled that portion of country lying between the St. Mary's river on the east and the Escanaba and Chocoma rivers on the west. In his Relation for 1669-70 the early explorer and missionary, Father DeBion, mentions the fact that the Ottawa squaws, in digging holes in the sand to hide their corn, often find masses (of copper) weighing twenty or thirty pounds. "In May, 1671, Father Alouez, before a grand council of Indian chiefs assembled at Sault Ste. Marie, pronounced a panegyric on the king of France, during which he said, 'You think yourselves very rich when you have ten to twenty sacks of corn and hatchets, and kettles, and other things of the kind.' It is quite certain that the corn thus referred to is the same variety which is still being grown in a small way in the neighborhood of Sault Ste. Marie, in Chippewa county, the seed having been secured from Indians over half a century ago by the father of J. M. Ryan, of that city. While considerably hybridized at present, this corn, a Flint variety, is still found occasionally as pure-bred, and as such is readily distinguished by its peculiar satiny luster and its bright straw color."

LAW HURTS MINOR PARTIES. Fee That Is Asked May Keep Candidates Off Missouri Ticket. Jefferson City, Mo., May 22.—The primary law, as amended by the last legislature, repealing the petition feature of the act and substituting the payment of a fixed fee for state and lesser candidates for office, operates unfavorably for the minor political parties and may prevent the placing of the names of their candidates on the official ballot. Unless the making up of a ticket is made a party matter the individual candidates would hardly feel like paying the fee out of their own pockets, with no chance of election. Few men in either the Populist, Socialist, the Prohibition or other minor political organizations would care to put up $100 to run for state office; $50 to run for congress, or $25 to run for circuit judge, simply to maintain party identity. There are three state offices—supreme judge, superintendent of public schools and railroad and warehouse commissioner—to be elected this fall. If a minor political organization wants to get its ticket on the official ballot in November the ticket must be regularly nominated in the August primary. This would cost $300. So far no candidates representing either of the minor parties have filed their declarations with the secretary of state. Old Velvet Whisky—Call for it—pure and mild. The F. Bending Co., Distributors. S LUGGISH buying on your part, caused by weather conditions, has left us with a store full of merchandise—that should have been in the hands of our customers weeks ago. We won't carry these goods over a season—its against our established rule—made when we started this business. "Clean decks at the season's close, even if sacrifice prices are necessary." PARTY UNITED FOR KERN.

Old Charges Made by Candidate Are Not to Be Considered—He Will Have the Aid of Senator Shively—Republicans Also Seem Solid for Beveridge.

Indianapolis, May 22.—It is now well established that it will be the policy of the Democratic state organization not to mix up in the charges which have been made in regard to the election of B. F. Shively to the United States senate.

The interview probably would have been forgotten by this time had it not been for the fact that John W. Kern, recently nominated for United States senator and that an investigation of the election of Senator Lorimer was started in Illinois.

Republican newspapers all over the state will continue to insist that Mr. Kern is the right man who doubtless crossed him, or at least that he give what information he has to some kind of an investigating body—say the grand jury.

It is known that Mr. Kern went so far some time ago, as to prepare a statement on the subject of the charges which he had made in regard to the election of Senator Shively.

A close friend of Senator Shively is quoted as saying that the senator will bring into Indiana next fall and do all that he can to bring about the election of a Democratic legislature for Kern in spite of the charges made by Kern that Shively was elected by bribery control.

The Republican state committee is expected to meet soon to fix the assessment of candidates on the state ticket.

But Senator Beveridge, who now is the chief figure in the campaign, does not believe in high assessments and he has a theory which some call Quixotic that it does not take money to win a campaign.

Some of the old politicians say he will learn something before he is elected, but he is persistent. No candidate on the Republican ticket this year is in more than moderate circumstances and probably all will welcome the ideas of Senator Beveridge on this subject.

ADD TO LIVING EXPENSES.

New York, May 22.—Some things that add to the high cost of living were shown in the quarterly report of acting Chief McCoy of the bureau of weights and measures.

Weights saved off so as to weigh more than twelve ounces to the pound were discovered. Devices for cheating included measures containing false bottoms, while weights were found to be drilled out and the holes filled in with wax and blackened over.

HORTON COMES OUT FOR C. E. TOWNSEND.

Former Master of the State Grange Strongly Endorses the Candidacy of the Congressman for the United States Senate.

Lansing, May 22.—Hon. George B. Horton, of Fruit Ridge, former master of the state grange, in a letter to Paul H. King, secretary of the Townsend campaign committee, announces himself as being unqualifiedly in favor of Congressman Townsend's candidacy for the senate.

It seems that at the banquet of the Adrian McKinley club last winter, Mr. Horton expressed his approval of Senator Burrows' attitude on the postal savings bank bill.

Mr. Horton's attitude is of considerable significance, and his letter leaves no room for doubt as to his position. The letter is as follows:

My Dear Sir:—Special reference having been made in a communitary to the Burrows campaign of a few words of commendation which I expressed to the senator at the Adrian McKinley club banquet because of his favorable speech.

It is not in line with statements which have been made by certain Democrats that Senator Burrows is a man who naturally comes of a long and continued public service is not compatible with the earnest demand of the state in these strenuous times when our state and Uncle Sam have questions to contend with which require active, constructive and assertive statesmanship.

Very truly yours, GEO. B. HORTON.

Mr. Horton's position is in harmony with that of the Michigan grange who adopted resolutions on the subject of the senatorship at its annual meeting at Traverse City last December.

They ought to pass the plate at church weddings, says Life. It comes natural to do it in church, and to do so would add a pretty and useful employment to the duties of the ushers, who always have a little spare time before the bride arrives.

Instead of the list of gifts which the newspapers sometimes print, we should read: "The collection yielded $4,000,000." That would be nice. It is much easier to store and care for money than plate and glass.

COLLEGE CREWS TO MEET.

Great Interest in This Year's Regatta at Philadelphia.

Annual Races of American Rowing Association—Two Crews Have Been Entered by Harvard—Columbia Will Start an Eight for the First Time.

Philadelphia, May 22.—America's intercollegiate rowing season opens on the Schuylkill river, Philadelphia, next Saturday, with the eighth annual regatta of the American Rowing Association.

The two events the junior race is the more important, because it is a try-out for the big intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie, New York, last year the Cornell junior eight, which won this event because the Cornell varsity eight, and as such it defeated Harvard in the dual race on Memorial Day and swept the river at Poughkeepsie a month later.

The four crews which will try for the junior championship this year are Harvard, Pennsylvania, Columbia and Georgetown. This will be the first time that Columbia has ever entered a crew in this regatta.

But the freshman eight-oared race is the one that will establish a precedent. For the first time on record four crews will face the starter. These are Columbia, Pennsylvania, Yale and Georgetown.

The board of stewards, which includes representatives from Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Cornell and Columbia, is anxious to make this event as important as that for junior college crews.

Columbia has reason to be thankful to this regatta for getting her a meeting with the Yale freshmen. Yale and Columbia have frequently met in a freshman race in former years, but of late Yale has not been over-anxious to meet the New Yorkers and declined a dual race with them this year.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 22.—In the village of Merrittstown, in Fayette county, is a Presbyterian church which dates from 1774, and is therefore 136 years old.

The church was organized in September, 1774, and is the oldest Presbyterian organization west of the Allegheny mountains.

Rev. James Dunlap, who was pastor of the church from 1812 until 1839, was the first to build a stone church.

Rev. Mr. Power left this charge and went to Mount Pleasant. For two years the church was without a pastor, but in 1782 Rev. James Dunlap accepted a call to this and the Laurel Hill pastorate.

C.C.C. CURES OLD BLOOD TROUBLES.

Contagious Blood Poison is at the bottom of a great many old blood troubles. The disease may have been contracted years ago and some treatment used that removed the outward symptoms and shut the virus up in the system to slumber in the blood, but it only awaited a favorable opportunity to break out in some form again.

Certain forms of catarrhal troubles, especially where the bones are affected, scrofulous affections, non-healing sores, ulcerated membranes, etc., are due to this specific poison. Perhaps many who are afflicted in this way are ignorant of the fact that the seeds of this mighty poison are still hidden in the blood.

The best time to get rid of Contagious Blood Poison is when the disease is first contracted, and before its virus so penetrates the blood as to cause ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots, falling hair, etc.

Some eight years ago I was inoculated with poison by a nurse who infected my babe with blood taint. I was covered with sores and ulcers from head to foot.

MOVING PICTURES.

Y. M. C. A. CAMP SITE IS SELECTED

Building will be erected on one of the most picturesque spots on the south shore of Lake Michigan.

R. J. Wise, general secretary, and W. E. Hawthorn, physical director, of the Young Men's Christian association, together with Clarence Jaedecke, Herbert Devine, Harold Shadlick and George Skogberg, returned Saturday from Lake Michigan, where they spent a few days selecting a site for the association's club house, also clearing the brush at the place chosen. The structure will be built of logs.

The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company gave the officers of the association the privilege of selecting a site anywhere on the lake shore. The one chosen is one of the most attractive spots on the lake, near the Three-Mile point. A path will be made to the point, where a fine view can be had of the lake, also of many of the beautiful islands close by. The clubhouse will be surrounded by some of the finest pines, maple and birch trees found nearby. The trees are all first growth.

The members plan to blaze a trail from the camp to the train road leading to Republic, also to make a path from headquarters to the private cottages farther west on the lake shore. The distance between the camp and the cottages is nearly four miles, and the walk to Michigan by way of the present path is about seven miles. All of the building material and supplies for the camp will have to be taken in by boat.

Michigan township has a crew of men at work building a road leading from the town to the cottages, and last fall by George A. Newett and J. S. Wahlman of this city. Other parties have secured sites near the Newett and Wahlman cottages and will likely build this summer. The road will be put in good condition for automobiles. There is an old logging road not far from the camps that can be put in good repair at a nominal cost.

DEATH OF JOSEPH SEARPHINE.

Former Wellknown Resident of Ishpeming Has Answered Final Summons.

Joseph Searphine, son-in-law of Jacob Locher, of this city, passed away last Wednesday at his home at Ely, Minn. The deceased attended the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Locher on the 9th of this month. He was then feeling fairly well, but he had been ailing for some time. Dropsy was the cause of his demise.

The deceased lived in Ishpeming for a number of years and was employed during the greater part of the time at the Lake Argonne mine, where he held a responsible position. He was also for a time deputy sheriff at Marquette, Minn., under Deputy Malmborg. For some years he played a bass horn in the Ishpeming City band.

The deceased left Ishpeming for Ely fourteen years ago. One of his sons, Joseph, is now chief of police at Gilbert, Minn., and the other, John, is foreman of the Ely Miner. About two years after leaving in Ely Mr. Searphine received serious injuries, from which he never fully recovered, in the Pioneer mine. He was fifty-two years of age and is survived by his widow and the two sons mentioned. His mother lives in Ishpeming at 507 Second street, and he has a brother, Charles Searphine, formerly of this city, who now lives at Rosslyn, B. C., and one sister, Mrs. George Smitz, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Locher attended the funeral, which was held Saturday at Ely.

TO CLOSE JUNE 10.

The Ishpeming public schools will close for the summer vacation on Friday, June 10. The senior class day exercises will be held in the auditorium of the high school on Wednesday evening, the 9th, and the commencement exercises will be held the following evening in the Ishpeming theater. The manual training exhibit will take place on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, the 7th. The resignation of Miss Grace Clisbe as director of music in the schools has been accepted by the board of education, but her successor has not yet been engaged. Miss Clisbe has accepted a position in a school in the West. R. C. Platt, principal of the Petoskey, Mich., high school, who was a few weeks ago engaged to succeed C. L. Phelps, has asked to be released from his contract, so that he might accept an offer, with a better salary than he was to receive here, at Providence, R. I. The board has granted the release. There are several vacancies in the teaching corps yet to be filled, but a large majority of the present teachers are to return next year.

A LEGAL DISTINCTION.

A long-winded, prosy counselor was arguing a technical case recently before one of the judges of the superior court, says the Philadelphia Ledger. He had drifted along in such a desultory way that it was hard to keep track of what he was trying to present, and the judge had just vented a very suggestive yawn.

"I sincerely trust that I am not unduly trespassing on the time of this court," said the lawyer, with a suspicion of sarcasm in his voice.

"There is some difference," the judge quietly observed, "between trespassing on time and encroaching on eternity."

FROM THE THEATER MANAGER.

To The Mining Journal: I wish to deny the statement that appeared in the Iron Ore, of Saturday, to the effect that the attaches of the Ishpeming theater answered the questions put by the girl mentalist. The reporter who made this statement certainly has another guess coming. I direct his attention to the fact that on the first two evenings that the Ita company appeared at the theater the girl answered the questions from the floor of the auditorium, and thus no one could accuse her of having confederates on the stage. Friday and Saturday evenings she answered questions which were not collected by her manager, but which remained in the hands of those who wrote them. I make these statements in defense of my employees, whom I know to be honest and trustworthy and above assisting anyone in any scheme to deceive the public. This is not written in defense of Ita or her manager. They are quite capable of taking care of their own interests. Those who attended the Ita performances seemed to have gotten full value for the small admission prices charged. My aim always has been, and always will be, to provide the best attractions obtainable for the patrons of the theater.

Morgan & Co.'s Letter.

"The New York market opened very strong and although the volume of trading continued small nearly every issue on the list advanced. The market news is the most favorable character. There are persistent rumors that Steel common will be listed in Paris and that fully $200,000,000 of American railway securities will be placed there in the not distant future. This is the most cheerful news for this year. The best New York authorities look for a big market and higher prices next week. Our correspondent strongly advises buying Smelters. The crop news on the whole is very satisfactory. The bank statement today is excellent. The trading in Boston was larger in volume today, with advances in price the leading issues. The market is very strong, but the buying demand is indifferent. The technical position is excellent and little effort would be required to lift prices to a higher level. Any good news or a little concerted buying by insiders, which may be expected at any time in the present state of the market, would accomplish this result. There is every reason to expect a real good market next week. The curbs were quiet, with no changes worth mentioning. There is a good demand for San Antonio but no stock comes on the market. We are advised to look for an advance in the Helioze stocks for the coming week. Shattuck, Cactus, Ray Central and Chief are all strong and look higher."

George F. Ruez's Review.

"The market showed further improvement in strength and activity today and closed with every indication of going higher next week. Anticipation is steadily creeping up and this cannot help but result in a big demand for the Boston coppers, which will go up in jumps when they get started as stocks are in strong hands and won't come out unless prices are marked up materially. Calumet & Argonne was strong today on the advice that the 1,500-foot level of the Oliver shaft has opened a big body of sulphide ore running from 4 to 4 1/2 per cent copper. This ore body is directly under the big ore bodies of the 1,200-foot level and therefore practically proves the continuation of the 1,450-foot level East Butte continues to be taken under 9 and looks like one of the best medium priced stocks on the list. It is said that the earnings from the mining of ore, the custom smelter work and the sale of lime rock have been netting East Butte $25,000 monthly since the first of the year. This is at the rate of $1 per share on the 250,000 shares outstanding. This makes East Butte look attractive when compared with some of the other producing mines. The curbs were strong and in good demand. Shattuck is taken under 29 when offered. Live Oak was wanted in good sized lots under 29 today. San Antonio is being picked up by good people who are in close touch with operations at the property. Chief Consolidated, Cactus, Ray Central, Bohemia, Omsco, Giroux and Inspiration are also curbs which will advance easily when the market gets under way."

NEGAUNEE DEFEATS CRYSTAL FALLS

MEMONINEE RANGE TEAM PUT UP GOOD ARTICLE OF BALL, CONSIDERING THAT THERE WERE THREE NEW MEN IN LINE-UP.

Crystal Falls lost to Negaunee Saturday at the Union Park its first game on the Marquette range by a score of 6 to 4. Considering the fact that three of Crystal Falls men--Baker, in the box; Kahl, at second, and Sheehan, at short--joined the team here only Saturday morning, it gave a good account of itself. Only once, and that in the second inning, did the team play ragged ball. Negaunee went bad in the fourth, the only inning when the visitors scored. For a time it was thought it might be necessary to pull out Rosevear, and Siebenthal warmed up, but Rosevear settled down to business after he had been touched for three hits.

In the second Baker had a bad period throughout the remainder of the game, but he did not let the second Swick and Messier draw passes. Roberts reached first on Kahl's fumble of any easy ground hit between first and second. McGee, at third, missed a throw ball, allowing Kahl and Messier to score. W. McCrory flew out to Kahl. Heidenson sent a grounder to Deidrich, at first, and Roberts crossed the plate before the baseman returned the ball to the catcher. Rosevear flew out to Kahl and Cullis singled. Heidenson and Cullis scored on H. McCrory's two bagger into right field. Scanlon flew out to McGee, retiring the side with five tallies to Negaunee's credit.

In Negaunee's loose inning, the fourth, McGee was permitted to walk. Ball singled into center; Sheehan hit out a grounder that Cullis fumbled, this filling the bases. Noyes was hit by a pitched ball, forcing McGee in from third. Henry singled into center and Scanlon made a fast and pretty throw, nailing Kahl at the plate. Sheehan led off from center, Rosevear throwing to Cullis, and the latter heaving the ball to third. Messier let it get away, Sheehan and Noyes scoring and Kahl advancing to third. Deidrich singled, scoring Henry. Baker fanned and Kahl went out. Swick, to Roberts, this retiring the side, with four runs for Crystal Falls.

In the fifth Negaunee scored another run. Scanlon reached first on an error by Sheehan, at short. Swick, at first, and Scanlon to second. Messier singled. Scanlon scoring.

McLaughlin, the umpire, had more hard decisions than in either of the two games between Ishpeming and Negaunee, but his work seemed on the whole to be very satisfactory.

Crystal Falls has the making of a fast team. Kahl and Sheehan came from Chicago, where they have been playing with city league nines. Both of them also Baker, were first rounders on their trip, but judging from the showing they made they will greatly strengthen Crystal Falls. It was reported here Saturday that Ball, Crystal Falls' veteran catcher, has a "glass arm." This is not true. He throws well and he is a "bad man" with the bat.

The baseball game to have been played yesterday between Negaunee and Crystal Falls was declared off on account of a poor condition of the Union Park grounds, due to the rain of the previous night. A double header will probably be played the next time the Memominee range nine meets the Negaunee team here.

BONDING PROPOSITION.

Payments of Bonds Will Be Spread Over a Period of Five Years.

If the bonding proposition carries in the special election a week from today, the city will not be obliged to redeem any of the bonds issued until 1912, when $7,000 will become payable. In the following year $4,000 will become payable and two years later $7,000 will be due. In 1916 $7,000 more will become due, and in 1917 the remaining $6,000 will be retired. The bonds will bear interest at not to exceed 5 per cent per annum.

The resolution adopted by the council at a special meeting held recently relative to the bonding question and the special election, also the registration, to be held next Saturday, is as follows:
"Whereas, It is the sense of the council that from street should be put in a condition so that it shall at all times be able to meet the requirements of public travel and to bring this about it will be imperative to have said street paved, which, it is estimated, will cost the sum of $31,000; and
"Whereas, There are not sufficient funds in the hands of the city treasurer to pay for said proposed work, therefore, be it
"Resolved, That the question of making a loan of $31,000 to pay for the said proposed work, be submitted to the qualified electors of the city of Negaunee who are liable to pay a city tax thereon on Monday, the thirtieth day of May, 1910. That the city recorder be and is directed to give notice thereof in the manner provided by the charter of the city; that the manner of conducting the election under this resolution be the same as the annual election of this city as near as may be; that, in voting on the question of whether such loan shall be authorized, the ballots shall read as follows:
"To authorize the common council of the city of Negaunee to borrow the sum of $31,000 and to issue the bonds of the city therefor, to be used by said common council in paying the cost of paving Iron street in the city of Negaunee; said money so borrowed to be repaid as follows: 1912, $7,000; 1913, $4,000; 1914, $7,000; 1915, $7,000; 1916, $7,000; 1917, $6,000; and to bear interest not to exceed 5 per cent per annum.
"For the loan [ ] Yes.
"For the loan [ ] No.
"That the recorder prepare and furnish ballots having instructions at the top directing the electors to make a cross in the square opposite the words 'Yes' or 'No' as they desire to vote; that the number of ballots so furnished be the same as the number furnished for a general city election; and be it further
"Resolved, That the following places be and they are hereby designated to hold the registration sessions May 28, 1910, and to hold the said special election May 30, 1910: First ward, at Jackson office; Second ward, at city hall; Third ward, at the residence of Chauncey Washburn, Iron street; Fourth ward, Finnish hall; Fifth ward, at No. 2 hose house."

FIRE CHIEFS MEETING.
City Officials Invited to Send Representative to Convention.
C. B. Driscoll, chairman of the fire department committee of the council, on Saturday received an invitation from the officers of the International Association of Fire Chiefs to send a representative of the city to the thirty-eighth annual convention, to be held at Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 23, 24, 25, and 26. The city officials are specially asked to send the chief of the fire department or some other person directly connected with department affairs.
Two years ago the council sent ex-Chief Johnson to the International association meeting. Chief Lacey of Ishpeming and Chief Maney of Marquette also attended.
For this year's meeting it is planned to have an unusually large display of fire fighting apparatus and there are to be extensive exhibitions demonstrating the latest methods of fire extinguishing and life saving.

GOOD AMATEUR NINE.
The Buffalo baseball nine is playing a fast game this season. Yalmer Heinberk is the captain and Yalmer Heinmen is manager. The nine has already won two games, having defeated the high school team by a score of 7 to 2, and the South Jackson Tigers by a score of 10 to 3. The team is composed of the following: John Peel and W. Heinberk, catchers; August Morse and W. Koski, pitchers; Thomas Flynn, first base; Yalmer Heinmen, second; John Peel and August Morse, third; William Peltto, shortstop; Joseph Flynn, left field; James McAniff, center field and C. Peterson, right field.

GUTERSLOH BLACK BREAD.
Gutersloh, though only a village eighty years ago, was already becoming quite a large town of 1,500 inhabitants or so when one day during the manœuvres a young lieutenant took up his quarters there. He came from Pomerania, where they also make tasty black bread, but he liked the peculiar Westphalian taste better. His name was Bismarck. In 1879 he was travelling through Gutersloh once more, this time as prime minister of Prussia, together with old King William. When the train stopped he shouted in his jovial fashion to the crowd which had come to meet them: "Is there anybody who can get us some pumpernickel with butter and plenty of ham?" There were reporters present--and the fortune of Gutersloh black bread was made. It became the fashion. The craze for Westphalian pumpernickel spread far and wide--euniquely furthered by the bakers, who now baked for export only small one-pound loaves, "to make it look more like a delicatessen," as they say. Though Gutersloh still looks an Old World town, they are very world-wise, the bakers of black bread, for from the same kneading troughs there go into the ovens first the huge loaves (some that go to the farmhouses often weighing half a hundred-weight) and then shaped of what is left the tiny loaves, which are wrapped in paper, sent abroad and sold as a delicatessen.--London Express.

PERFECT BALL BY MARQUETTE TEAM

SCHOLTUS OUTDID HIMSELF

Three to 0 was the count at the conclusion of Marquette's game against Ishpeming at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon, and Ishpeming took home it for the Ishpeming gentlemen.

Scholtus was the principal cause of Ishpeming's failure to carry out its well laid plan for putting one over Negaunee by defeating Marquette.

Clifford Also Starred.

On the offensive side, Clifford played the stellar role for Marquette. Marquette showed its purpose with regard to the game in the first session, when it took to Mr. Goulette of Ishpeming with great kindness.

Clifford also batted in Marquette's third run. Ropelle got to second on a bad heave to first by Whitman of his infield hit, and Mack advanced him to third with a clean single.

With the exception of the two sessions described the game was uneventful, and neither team had any particular chance to score.

Summary of game statistics including runs, hits, errors, and fielding percentages for both teams.

Notes of the Game. Goulette pitched a steady game throughout, but was unable to keep Marquette's hits scattered.

SHIPPERS DEFRAUD RAILROAD COMPANIES

STATE COMMISSION IS TO TAKE COGNIZANCE OF THE ABUSES—LOSS ANNUALLY AMOUNTS TO MANY THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS

Although daily protests are received by the state railroad commission that the transportation companies are robbing the public in various ways, little is said about the methods employed by unscrupulous shippers and other persons who are constantly scheming to defraud the corporations.

Representatives of one of the larger railroads made a complaint to the commission that a certain shipper had secured a car for the purpose of shipping baled straw.

Had the car reached its destination the shipper would have saved $11.29, but a railroad detective pried the door open and the shipper's dishonesty was discovered.

So unique are some of the methods employed by dishonest shippers that detection is at times an absolute impossibility, and as a result the railroad companies suffer a great loss in the course of a year's time.
