

MR. TAFT WILL DROP THE INJUNCTION SUIT

As the Result of a Conference a Complete Agreement Is Reached Between Government and the Western Railroads.

Rate Increases Will Be Withdrawn and None Others Will Be Filed Until the Enactment of the Bill Which Gives Commerce Commission Power to Investigate—In Turn, the Administration Will Discontinue the Present Court Proceedings.

Washington, June 6.—A complete agreement between the government and the recently enjoined railroads of the Western Trunk Line association was reached at the White House in a conference this afternoon.

The railroads represented agreed to the withdrawal of all rate increases filed to be effective on or after June 1 and agreed to file no more increases until the bill in congress which gives the commerce commission power to investigate and suspend increases that are not justified becomes a law and goes into effect.

President Taft thereupon stated that the administration's purpose in bringing the injunction had been accomplished and that the suit would be discontinued. The discontinuance will not be entered until after the new railroad law is signed.

The belief was expressed tonight that all of the other roads which have filed increases will abide by the decision reached today. Tomorrow President Taft will hear the heads of the roads in the Central and Eastern territory. It is believed that they will acquiesce in Mr. Taft's proposition.

Everyone at today's conference seemed gratified over the outcome. It means that the roads will be relieved of embarrassing litigation, and they are assured of a "square deal" and are free to go ahead with their projected improvements which they threatened to cancel.

The new railroad bill contains a clause which gives it effect sixty days after being signed by the president. It will be necessary to make the provision as to the supervision of rates by the commerce commission immediately effective, and for this reason Mr. Taft indicated tonight that it will be necessary to send the bill to congress.

Attorney General Wickersham, Secretary Knox and Secretary Nagel sat in the conference, as did Messrs. Lane and Knapp of the commerce commission, E. P. Ripley, W. D. Hines, Frederick A. Delano and S. M. Felton were the representatives of the railroads. The agreement reached does not cover the rates put in effect in the last few months.

The railroads told the president that they had been misrepresented as to their doing anything secretly regarding the filing of the new tariffs. They said they had been advised by counsel that the government's injunction suits could not be sustained. The president said that he was willing to give them a chance on that, and that he thought the best way out for the railroads was for them to withdraw the increases.

DISCOVER A 'JOKER' IN RAILROAD BILL.

Proviso Adopted by the Senate Would Permit Rebating Without Fear of Prosecution, Say Minority Leaders of the House—A Democrat Its Author, Too.

Washington, June 6.—The Democratic leaders in the house today discovered an alleged "joker" in the senate railroad bill which they say would permit the railroads to engage in rebating without fear of prosecution. It is in the form of a five-line proviso to that section of the existing law which prescribes a penalty of $250 for failure to quote a rate to a shipper on request or for misquoting a rate.

The proviso was presented by Senator Shively, a Democrat. It provides that any person suffering damage as a result of a violation of this section shall have the right to recover by suit. The Democrats say that this feature would open the way for the railroads to give rebates under the guise of paying damages to the shipper. Lawyers of the senate ridiculed the suggestion.

Representative Underwood, of Alabama, said: "If this section were to become a law, the railroads might misquote a rate to a shipper and pay to him as damage anything they wished. The only penalty they could incur under the circumstances would be a fine of $250, and the payments in damages might amount to millions."

SERIOUS INSURRECTION BREAKS OUT IN MEXICO. Maya Indians to the Number of Five Thousand or More Rise Against the Government—Towns Are Sacked and Public Officials Are Killed.

Veracruz, June 6.—A most serious uprising has occurred in the state of Yucatan. Troops are being rushed to the scene. Reports here indicate there has been much bloodshed and that the insurgents are preparing for a battle with the government forces.

Despatches from Merida, the capital of Yucatan, say that forty persons have been killed by Maya Indians. Further despatches state that five thousand of these Indian insurgents have sacked the town of Valladolid, killing all of the principal government employes, the chief of police and others, and have instituted a reign of terror. Many of the inhabitants have fled.

The gunboat Morelos has left here with six hundred soldiers aboard, while another gunboat, the Railroad, which has a telegraph communication has been cut off. Twenty miles of the Yucatan railroad has been destroyed by the Indians. It is reported that telegraph operators have been killed or taken prisoners. The judge of the criminal court was killed. The rebels are strongly entrenched.

Maximiliano Ramirez Bonilla, a former rebel leader, and Colonel Victor Montenegro are said to head the uprising. The towns of Tinum, Gayman and Tunkas, all between Merida and Valladolid, have been attacked. To what extent the insurgents pillaged or killed at these places has not been learned.

It is understood that the cause of the trouble is the dissatisfaction of the Indians over the action of the government officials regarding lands. It is not thought any Americans are involved.

STATEHOOD BILL IS SIDETRACKED

Senate Takes Action That Leaves the Measure With a Very Slim Chance of Being Considered at This Session.

Democrats Are Out-Voted on the Proposition and They Are Inclined Now to Charge Bad Faith on the Part of the Republicans—In a Speech Demanded Significant, Chairman Nelson of the Ballinger-Pinchot Committee Denounces Conservation.

Washington, June 6.—The senate today voted 40 to 24 to take up for consideration the conservation bill authorizing the president at his discretion to withdraw from entry and settlement public lands, thus sidetracking the bill admitting New Mexico and Arizona to statehood.

The Democrats showed an inclination to charge bad faith on the part of the Republicans, saying that there had been a tacit understanding to consider the question of statehood immediately after the bill was passed. However, there is scant hope that statehood will be considered this session. Many big appropriation bills remain, and the statehood measure looks like the last to be considered, if it is acted upon at all.

Conservation Policy Attacked. Senator Nelson sharply criticized the conservation policy, which was considered as significant because of his position at the head of the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation. He favored conservative action on the part of the executive in withdrawing public lands, saying he thought that the present generation should have full access to these resources.

Illustrating how the executive action might go too far, Mr. Nelson instanced the course of Secretary Garfield in withdrawing 3,000,000 acres for waterpower purposes in the last month of Roosevelt's administration. He said: "There will be plenty of water power hundreds of years after we are dead. No man can stop it unless he can stop the precipitation from the clouds. Why should our supply of coal be tied up and the people prevented from utilizing that fuel?"

Alaska in a Straight Jacket. Discussing the application of the conservation policy to Alaska, he said that there was little lumber there and that the people would be without fuel unless allowed the use of the coal supply. He continued: "In the face of the fact that there are valuable coal fields in Alaska, the people have not been given an opportunity to use a ton of it, with the consequence that they are compelled to bring fuel either from Australia or China or around the Horn from our own Eastern states. Thus they are compelled to pay from $12 to $20 a ton when they ought to get it for $2."

HOUSE WAYS ARE GREASED. Leaders Hope to Put Postal Bank Bill Through Without Amendment. Washington, June 6.—The house postal savings bank bill was put on the ways by the committee on postoffice today, and with everything greased for its final passage it is expected to glide through the house without a single amendment.

The Democrats of the committee filed two minority reports against the bill, one by Mr. Mason, of Tennessee, declaring that all postal bank legislation is unconstitutional and unwise, and another by Mr. Finley, of South Carolina, criticizing the Republican bill and offering a Democratic substitute.

The bill will be called in the house tomorrow. The rules committee will consider a resolution asking a special rule with which to effect the passage of the bill and providing against all amendments. The Democrats will fight the passage of this rule. It will be supported by a number of insurgent Republicans. The Republicans claim enough votes to adopt the rule and pass the bill.

AMONG THE MEASURES PASSED BY THE HOUSE TODAY were bills authorizing the appointment of a committee to investigate the matter of the employees' liability and workmen's compensation and also admitting as second class mail the periodicals, publications, etc., of benevolent and fraternal societies, institutions of learning, trades unions and the professional literature of historical and scientific societies.

PRIMARY CONTESTS IN TWO STATES TODAY. Republicans of Both Iowa and South Dakota Will Choose Their Nominees—In Each Case It Is the "Progressives" vs. the "Stalwarts"—Dalzell's Opponent, in Pennsylvania, Refuses to Concede Defeat and Charges Trickery.

Des Moines, Ia., June 6.—Iowa at tomorrow's primary election will go on record for or against the Taft administration. Full state tickets will be nominated both by the Democrats and the Republicans and selections will be made to contest the representation in the lower house at Washington. The following candidates, styling themselves "progressives," will have no opposition for the Republican nominations in their congressional districts:

Charles Grik, Second; two Democrats seek the nomination of their party. Charles E. Pickett, Third; two Democrats seek the nomination. James W. Good, Fifth; will be opposed next fall by D. D. Murphy, Democrat.

N. E. Kendall, Sixth; will be opposed by Daniel W. Hamilton, Democrat, and W. C. Minnick, Socialist. Albert H. Hubbard, Eleventh; the Democrats have made no nomination, but may do so by petition.

Thus in six of Iowa's eleven districts the candidate divisions have no opposition within their own party. In the First, Seventh, Eighth and Ninth districts, the Republicans have contests between the so-called "stalwarts" or "stalwarts" and the "progressives." In these districts the Democrats also seek the nomination of their party. In the Tenth, Congressman Frank P. Woods, an unqualified progressive, is opposed by Lewis H. Payne, whom President Taft refused to appoint postmaster at Emmetsburg. Here the Democrats have selected no nominee, but latter may do so by petition.

The congressional candidates are modest in their pretensions. In the gubernatorial fight, Governor B. F. Carroll and Warren C. Garst claim majorities of 40,000 each, according to the vote, 150,000 being considered the maximum. Carroll claims to be running on his record despite the efforts made to make him stand as a "stalwart" candidate in a national sense. Garst has been referred to as a "progressive" largely because Senator Cummins has spoken in his behalf.

The stalwarts claim that the delegates to the state convention of Aug. 3 will be anti-Cummins; that they will endorse the Taft administration and, somewhat paradoxically, will endorse the Iowa delegation of the house and will ignore Cummins and Dooliver. This convention also will name the state central committee. Hence the selection of the delegates to the convention is of great importance. It is admitted, however, that the candidates for the delegations have not been required openly to declare themselves either for or against Cummins or Dooliver. It is understood, however, that the great majority of the candidates are declared to be "progressive." There are, however, contests in the Democratic primaries, both parties will name state tickets.

Warm Fight in South Dakota. Sioux Falls, S. D., June 6.—A three-cornered gubernatorial Republican contest will be the feature of the primary contest to be decided in South Dakota tomorrow. The candidates are Governor R. S. Vessey, "progressive"; Samuel H. Elrod, "stalwart"; and George W. Egan, "independent." The contest appears to be between Vessey and Elrod. Vessey's managers claim that the governor will win by a two thousand majority and that the merger with the Tribunes and which note was in evidence until after the reserve fund had been gotten hold of by the alleged looters. Frankel said that his wife executed the note.

RAILROAD SAYS IT HAS BEEN LOOTED

Following an Investigation of Rumors of "Graft," the Illinois Central Files a Sensational Suit for an Accounting. It Charges That It Has Been Defrauded Out of Approximately $2,000,000 on Repair Work in a Period of Four Years—Four Former Officials Are Implicated, It Claims, and So Are a Number of Car and Equipment Companies.

Chicago, June 6.—Charging that it had been defrauded out of about $2,000,000 on repair work in a period of four years, the Illinois Central Railroad company filed suit for an accounting against four of its former officials in the circuit court here today.

The bill, which alleges a conspiracy to defraud, names the following: O. S. Keith, former superintendent of transportation; Joseph E. Buker, former first assistant superintendent of machinery; William Henshaw, also a former assistant superintendent of the machinery department, and John M. Taylor, former general storekeeper.

The railroad declares that the following concerns profited as a result of alleged overcharges on repair work in the following amounts: American Car & Equipment company, $100,000; Blue Island Equipment company, $400,000; Assterman Manufacturing company, $750,000; Memphis Car company, $900,000 and International Car company, $1,000,000. The railroad also filed suits for an accounting against the West Pullman Car company and the American Car & Equipment company. The filing of the suits follows a month's investigation by the railroad and numerous rumors of an alleged graft "ring" in the Illinois Central.

How Alleged Game Was Worked. The bill against the four former officials alleges that the men entered a conspiracy in June, 1906, and that up to April, 1910, the railroad had been defrauded out of nearly $2,000,000. The defendants are alleged to have represented to the corporation that the company's repair work could be done more cheaply by independent concerns than at the railroad's own shops. When contracts were given to certain independent concerns, the bill charges, the railroad company began paying a long series of large overcharges from which certain superintendents are declared to have secured thousands of dollars.

IS NOT ALLOWED TO EXPLAIN. Former Insurance Commissioner Van Cleave Is Denied a Hearing. Rock Island, Ills., June 6.—James R. B. Van Cleave, former state insurance commissioner, failed today to get before the Rock Island grand jury as a voluntary witness in the fraternal insurance investigation. Van Cleave last week claimed that he had documentary authority for withdrawing the $57,000 reserve fund of the Fraternal Tribunes and depositing it in a Springfield bank, from which it was paid out, so it is charged, on alleged bogus death claims. He returned to Springfield Saturday, ostensibly to get this evidence, but came back today without it and was denied the privilege of making a verbal explanation.

Lozem E. Wheeler, postmaster at Springfield, was again before the jury to give evidence connected with the Springfield end of the investigation. Louis and Herman Minko and Herman Myers, of Chicago, former business associates of M. J. Frankel, of Chicago, testified regarding the mysterious note for $3,000 which Frankel held against the American Home Circle at the time of the merger with the Tribunes and which note was in evidence until after the reserve fund had been gotten hold of by the alleged looters. Frankel said that his wife executed the note.

FIRE CHIEF CROKER RAPS CIVIL SERVICE

Because of the "Merit" System, He Says, New York City's Flame-Fighting Department Is Only 40 per Cent Efficient. His Remark Follows a Panic Among His Men and When They Drop the Hose and Leave Two Comrades to Be Smothered—Force Demoralized by Cigarette-Smoking, Weak-Lunged and Under-Sized Appointees, He Declares Angriily.

New York, June 6.—Following a fire this morning in which two firemen were smothered, Fire Chief Croker, in anger, said that the department was only 40 per cent efficient as a result of civil service. He said: "There was a panic. The majority of the men fighting that fire were young civil service firemen. When they got into the thick of the smoke their lungs could not stand the strain. They got frightened, dropped the hose and ran. It was not much of a fire at that."

"In many fires I have seen these civil service firemen drop the hose and run. When one weakens, the whole bunch goes down like dominoes. I want some men with brains, yes. But I want all of them with lungs. Cigarette-smoking, weak-lunged, under-sized civil service firemen have been demoralizing the department for at least twenty-six years."

Education." Josephine Kreuz, the valedictorian, will speak on "Our Heritage."
The class colors are white and gold and the flower, Marguerite. The motto which was chosen after much competition is the rather invincible one of "Impossible is un-American." The graduates in addition to their troubles regarding the proper construction of their essays, are also kept busy with rehearsals for their class play, "Roseale." This comedy is of the old English school. It requires a large cast and contains some excellent situations and lines. It will be given at the opera house Friday evening, June 10.
The hexagram address will be delivered by Rev. A. A. Wood, of Marquette, Sunday evening, June 12, at the Presbyterian church.
Boy Prisoner's Pardon Is Asked—
At the February (1909) term of the Alger county circuit court Emil St. Martin and Frank Myzk were tried for robbing the Chinese laundry at Grand Marais. Myzk insisted on separate trials. He was acquitted, but his alleged partner, St. Martin, was convicted and sentenced to three to twenty years in the state reformatory at Ionia, the trial judge recommending six years as the maximum penalty. St. Martin's old mother went to Lansing last week with a petition which she presented to Governor Warner, asking her son's pardon.
The petition sets forth that St. Martin was not the prime mover in the commission of the crime. It is stated that for some time prior to the burglary the young man had lived in Grand Marais, had borne a good reputation, was regarded as honest and industrious and had supported his mother. But it is alleged that he was led into evil by bad boys who were older and it is claimed that the one who conceived the plan of robbing the Chinaman was Frank Myzk, who it is stated exercised a strong influence over St. Martin. The petition sets up the alleged fact that the escape of Myzk was a miscarriage of justice and that he should have been punished as the more guilty of the two. The petition further sets forth that in the opinion of the petitioners St. Martin's punishment has been "amply sufficient" to justify his release and to warrant the reduction of the minimum sentence. It is said that St. Martin has learned a good lesson; that he is the sole support of his mother who is well advanced in years.
The petition is signed by all the county officers, by former county officers, by township officers, by village officers, by members of the police, by the local representative in the state legislature, by clergymen, bank officials by managers of the various manufacturing institutions, by professional men and by business men. It is believed Governor Warner will give the petition favorable consideration.

BOARDS SUBMITTED ANNUAL BUDGETS

COUNCIL TO PASS UPON THEM AT MEETING TO BE HELD NEXT MONDAY NIGHT.

ALDERMEN HAD BUSY SESSION

Many Communications Received and Other Miscellaneous Matters Attended To—Last Night's Meeting.

The annual budgets of the water board, school board, park, cemetery and street commission, and police commission were submitted to the council at the meeting last evening and referred to the committee on finance and taxation.

Water board, $14,000; school board, 46,000; park, cemetery and street commission, 22,878; police commission, 6,500.

Last year, the amounts appropriated each of these boards were as follows: Water board, $22,500; school board, 42,000; park, cemetery and street commission, $22,000; police commission, $4,000.

The increased appropriation needed by the school board is to be expended in enlarging and improving school buildings, particularly the addition to the Third street school now under construction.

Street Budget. Of the amount asked for by the park, cemetery and street commission, $5,000 is to be expended on parks and cemeteries.

What action the council will take with these budgets will not be known until the meeting next week, but it is the general impression that some of them at least will be cut down.

Miscellaneous Matters. A petition from residents of Lee street asking that the alley between Harrison and Park was granted, as was the petition asking that Waldo street east from Presque Isle avenue be graded.

The park commission reported back to the council that the proposed improvements at Washington street park would cost $2,500. A petition asking that Washington street park be improved was submitted to the council May 2.

A blanket resolution ordering wood sidewalks in parts of the city to be replaced with concrete was adopted. This resolution included the strip of walk in front of the O'Heagan building at the corner of Baraga and Lake streets.

The city hall employees were given the usual Saturday afternoon holiday from now until Oct. 31.

Over 100 babies are now being fed on Vandenberg's Special Milk and all are thriving splendidly.

city officials had passes on the street car lines, while others did not, and expressed the opinion that all of these passes should be taken away, which, he declared, would be one way of increasing revenue, of which the company claimed to be sadly in need.

BIG CROWD AT DANCE.

Michigan State Telephone Girls Gave Highly Successful Party.

One of the largest crowds that ever gathered for a dance in Fraternity Hall was in attendance last evening at the ball given by the operators of the Michigan State Telephone exchange.

BIDS OPENED YESTERDAY.

Government Building to Be Redecorated and Otherwise Improved.

Bids were opened yesterday in the office for the improvement that are to be made on the postoffice and government building in Marquette this summer.

There were four bids on the interior work contract, as follows: Chas. T. Geill, $1,969; Frank Miller & Co., $2,200; The Decorating company, $1,476; Grone Decorating company, Joliet, Ill., $1,082.

The contracts are formally awarded by the supervising architect at Washington, and it is altogether probable that they will be awarded to the lowest bidder.

WORTHY ART EXHIBITION.

Canvases of William P. Silva at Guild Hall Evoke Admiration.

The second exhibition of the Marquette Art League, which opened yesterday at Guild Hall, and which will continue throughout the week, offers a large collection of canvases by William P. Silva, and is going to prove an occasion of much enjoyment for the art loving public.

The feature of the exhibition that will particularly strike all who study it is the considerable range of the subjects and the variety of treatments displayed.

FILMS ARE COSTLY.

Wonderful Character of Moving Pictures Often Not Realized.

"Few people realize the truly wonderful character of what they are seeing in a moving picture theater," said the manager of a local moving picture theater.

"Probably not many know that the films are taken out of dozens of miles to secure these romantic surroundings. Then there are the hundreds of actors in the scenes and the thousands of details to be worked out."

Upper Peninsula

Killed a Large Wolf—

William E. Gordon brought an unusually fine wolf pelt to the county clerk's office at Munising last week for the purpose of procuring the bounty. The wolf was killed near Neven's lake in Burr township. County Clerk Niness says that the pelt was the finest of its kind he has ever seen.

Poundmaster Uses Spy-Glass—

Poundmaster R. P. Nelson of Iron Mountain is strict up-to-date. He has invested in a spy-glass of exceptional magnitude. By the aid of this glass he can see from his home all over the city and can spot every cow which chances to be roaming the streets.

Brick-Maker Installs a Drier—

Nathaniel Lohb has equipped his brick making plant near Munising with a drier which will be of considerable advantage, inasmuch as it will enable him to operate three months longer than when he had to dry the brick out of doors, and will prevent all loss from freezing. The capacity of the drier is 15,000 bricks daily. Brickmaking is now well under way at the plant and it is expected that the first kiln of 300,000 bricks will be burned July 1st. Mr. Lohb expects to manufacture at least 1,500,000 bricks this season.

Has Fine Mineral Spring—

D. N. McLeod of Rexton, Mackinac county, reports that his lumbering operations are being successfully prosecuted and that the mill is operating steadily. Mr. McLeod believes that Rexton is destined to sooner or later come into considerable prominence as a health resort by reason of the location of a large sulphur spring at that point. The water of the spring, it is believed, equals the famous waters of Mount Clemens and West Baden for medicinal purposes, and it is proposed to exploit them as soon as arrangements can be made.

Found a Den of Wolves—

The carcasses of six wolf puppies were brought into Norway, Dickinson county, the other day by Garino Martini, John Guilmi and Alfons Pangrazzi. The men had seen a wolf in the vicinity of Holmes' farm, and suspected that it had a litter of pups in some obscure nook. The trio, each armed with a gun, repaired to the locality to make a thorough investigation and with the aid of a dog located the wolf's den. It was a hollow log and each of the pups, so small that they could have been easily captured, was brought forth and slain. The men did not wait for the appearance of the mother wolf. Subsequently they took the six small carcasses to Iron Mountain, where they were granted a $10 bounty for each. The bounty on the mother wolf would have brought them twenty-five dollars.

Trolley Line Well Patronized—

Since the opening of the new interurban railroad connecting Escanaba and Gladstone there has been a constant stream of people passing between the two cities. The patronage given the line, in spite of the unfavorable weather conditions, has proved most satisfactory to the officers of the Escanaba Traction company and it is believed that as the facilities offered are better appreciated the patronage will increase. The Gladstone end of the line has been completed to Tenth street and it is expected that the work of connecting up the tracks through the business section of the city will be completed this week and passengers will be able to board the cars at any downtown corner.
