Marquette, Mich., June 13.

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

The Chicago trade expansionists are preparing to give the good people of Marquette a hearty welcome.

News print paper is becoming scarce, it is reported. Senator Lorimer is doubtless tickled to death to hear it.

Detroit Saturday Night is afraid upper peninsula interests may suffer because so many old 'uns are not going back to the legislature. Wait until it sees the new 'uns.

There is one advantage about the Milwaukee style in conventions. They can be made just what their promoters want them to be.

The committee on elections and privileges did not meet Saturday to consider the sad case of Mr. Lorimer, because Senator Burrows was unable to be present.

A federal grand jury at Washington returned forty-two indictments against the Western Union Telegraph company on charges that it had violated the law against the conduct of bucket shops.

Representative Harrison says he cherishes no hard feelings because he was not allowed to reach President Taft the other day.

Former Mayor Black, of McKeesport, was, in the recent, cutting into Representative Dalzell's slender majority so rapidly that Dalzell found it expedient to resort to court proceedings in an attempt to tie up the proposed review of the vote.

Governor Davidson has just removed the sheriff of Iron county, of which Hurley is the capital, and has ordered District Attorney Lennon to investigate reported direful conditions there.

Uncle Joe Cannon, we are informed, is to take the stump in various parts of the country to defy his political foes and invite a general charge on the insurgents, hangmen's ropes in hand.

In view of the rosate reports Gentleman Jim Corbett and dozens of other experts are sending out from the Jeffries training camp, it is hard to understand how Mr. Jack Johnson can have any hopes for himself, but he keeps pegging ahead as if he was sure of still being the big smoke when the disturbance is over.

Governor Vessey, of South Dakota, the insurgent candidate in the primaries, was renominated for governor. It was first reported that Egan, the independent candidate, had won, but complete returns indicate that he was outran by Vessey by something over 1,000 votes.

Chancellor Day of Syracuse university will doubtless observe that Princeton has lately received $1,000,000 of endowment money. His theory that the activities of the insurgents are responsible for the Syracuse university being a million or two shy of the money that it might have had appears to have fallen down.

At Battle Creek Representative Townsend said: "We want no repetition in Michigan of the disgraceful experience in Illinois. I desire now to repeat what I have said heretofore, namely: If my opponent receives more votes at the primaries than I receive I want him to have every Republican vote in the legislature for senator, and I hope that he will make a like declaration—a positive declaration that if I should receive a majority in the primaries he wants me to have every Republican vote in the legislature." Mr. Townsend then takes a proper stand, and one that reflects credit on him.

Cheering word comes from Iowa. The leaders of the insurgents announce that they will give loyal support to all regulars who obtained nominations in the primaries last week, and the regulars, for their part, say there will be no fault to be found with the manner in which they will uphold the nominees who belong to the opposing faction.

The house of representatives has its back up on the question of maintenance of the automobiles provided by the government for the use of the vice president and the speaker of the house.

Markets

WALL STREET STOCKS.

New York, June 12.--Paine, Webber & Co. say of yesterday's stock market: "The market does not act as though it were the desire of prominent interests to force a sustained higher level at this period. The buying is not aggressive, and although occasional support is tendered, still it is apparent in the recoveries that long stock is being distributed. The recent drastic decline served the purpose of eliminating a great many weak accounts and strengthens the position of the list, but as the demands of the short interests were satisfied, the buying power appeared only nominal. The immediate course of prices depends on a great measure upon the progress of the railroad bill, and various other legislation now occupying the public mind, and therefore the Washington news will undoubtedly receive much attention. Money appears to be working easier, and crop conditions are rather satisfactory, but the unfavorable trade statistics are still the subject of adverse comment."

Boston Stock Quotations.

Boston, Mass., June 12.--Yesterday's stock market in Boston is summarized by Paine, Webber & Co. as follows: "Liquidation continued again today, but the selling did not seem as aggressive as yesterday. The bears made several drives at the market, but the support was better and prices at the close showed little change for the day. Holders of North Butte are disappointed at the delay in declaring the dividend and weak margined accounts are being sold out. The catch of stop orders was responsible for the break in California & Arizona, there being practically no buying orders in the market to support it."

Paine, Webber & Co.'s Wheat Letter.

Chicago, June 12.--The way wheat prices broke yesterday started considerable talk of the possibility of a September wheat for this market. This sort of bullish enthusiasm always is noted when there is a soft day in the market like the present. The market was bullish several days last week on the theory of depletion of old stocks of wheat because of heavy cash sales and a probable light movement from the new crop because of a somewhat late season as a result of cold weather, and a probable unwillingness of the wheat raisers to sell at this time. The break in all wheat markets today, Winnipeg, Minneapolis, Chicago, Kansas City, where the declines were the greatest, was entirely due to the magnificent weather which spread all over the country from the Canadian northwest to Texas and a change for the worse in the cash demand. Unless the near future shows important hedging sales against the new crop movement there is likely to be an early recovery from the forced break at the close.

New York Cotton Market.

[Paine, Webber & Co.] New York, June 12.--The market opened six to ten points lower, and rallied slightly on reports of damage to the crop in sections of the Mississippi valley from excessive rains and fears of further rains before Monday in the eastern belt. The recovery was short lived, however. The bears were encouraged to work for lower prices on further curtailment in the Fall River district, one of the largest mills were deciding to close each alternate week for an indefinite period, and also by the favorable weather prevailing in Texas, where the crop is making satisfactory progress. The market was quite dull and new crop options were relatively stronger than the current months. We still believe in buy-in the new crop months on these dips.

hibition, it is as much against the inherent Democratic constitution in Nebraska as it is anywhere else in the North. Douglas county (Omaha) which is now the Democratic voting stronghold, is heartily opposed to county option or any other form of prohibition, Congressman Hitchcock, the editor of the Democratic "World-Herald," who is said (though as yet without sufficient authority) to be Bryan's residuary legatee for the senatorship, is heavily down on the whole county option business, and perfectly satisfactory to the brewers. So are all the other influential Democrats who could be named.

Bryan and His Principles.

This development, together with Mr. Bryan's announced determination to start in on a religious evangelizing crusade, had led political observers to come here with a sort of an idea that free silver and other obsessions Democrats, their perfect work in Mr. Bryan's teeming brain, and that he is now definitely insane. However, no one here regards him as any more insane than he always has been. An old Democrat expressed what seemed to be the general estimate when he said: "Bryan always has a long long-handled spoon to stir the people up with. First it was free silver. That didn't go. Then it was anti-imperialism. That didn't go. Then it was the initiative and referendum, and that didn't go. Now he is trying prohibition, and I think that when the people turn that down he is getting ready to spring a religious revival on us. It's just Bryan, that's all."

Bryan May Be Senator Yet.

Meanwhile, it must not be regarded as settled that Bryan is the man of the Democratic nomination for senator. Nobody here believes that, and there is no real ground for the report. He may take it into his head--he may have it very firmly there now--to run for the senate, and he would be a very strong candidate.

There is nobody on either side who is strong enough to make his candidature ridiculous. Congressman Hitchcock, a somewhat independent and cantankerous Democrat, does not possess the confidence of the Democrats there so far as outside of Omaha, and is not leaned to at all by Republican insurgents.

Congressional Fight.

In the congressional campaign the insurgent will be heard from. In the First district the contest will be between Aldrich, of David City, against Hayward, regular. In the Second district, Sutton will be the insurgent candidate. In the third no one has yet been brought forward to run against Latta, Democrat.

WHO WAS BOSS?

Once on a time, runs a modern fable, a youth, about to embark on the sea of matrimony, went to his father and said: "Father, who should be boss, I or my wife?" The old man smiled and said: "There are 100 hens and a team of horses. Hitch up the horses, put the hens into the wagon, and wherever you find a man and his wife dwelling stop and make inquiry as to who is the boss. Wherever you find a woman running things, leave a hen. If you come to a place where a man is in control, give him one of the horses." After about ninety-nine hens had been disposed of, he came to a house and made the usual inquiry. "If the boss of this farm," said the man. "So the wife was called and she affirmed her husband's assertion. "Take whichever horse you want," was the boy's reply. "So the husband replied, 'I'll take the last.'" But the wife did not like the bay horse and called her husband aside and talked to him. He returned and said: "I believe I'll take the gray horse." "Not much," said the young man. "You get a hen"--Tit-Bits.

ONE STATE'S BIG CHERRY TREE.

One of the prominent landmarks of Snohomish county is the mammoth cherry tree on the farm of Snohomish, which is said to be the largest of its kind in the world. The trunk of this cherry tree is twelve feet seven inches in circumference midway between the ground and the first great branches; it is fifty-five feet high, and its branches have a spread of seventy feet. It was planted in 1857 in the country's first orchard. No accurate record of its production has been kept, but in 1903 a ton of fruit was picked from it. No one has of late years been able to pick the full crop. Its variety is unknown, but the fruit ripens early and resembles the Black Republican--Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

ISHPEMING WINS TWO FROM CRYSTAL FALLS

Goulette Held Visitors to Three Hits Saturday—Dixon Allowed but Four Yesterday.

Ishpeming won a rather listless game from Crystal Falls Saturday, the score being 8 to 0. Had Crystal Falls given their pitcher, Hallenbeck, any kind of support, the game might have been close, though Goulette, who was in the box for Ishpeming, had the visitors completely at his mercy. He allowed but three hits, and two of these were of the scratch variety. He retired twelve batters on strikes.

Ishpeming started her run-making in the first inning, when two men crossed the plate. Laxstrom opened but flow out to McGee at third; Whitman hit a grounder to McGee. The latter fumbled it and threw wild to first, the runner reaching second. Burke walked and Klebs singled. Secore hit a grounder to Schock at first, but it was fumbled. Burke attempted to steal home, but was put out at the plate. Simpson singled, scoring Klebs. St. John fanned, Ball missing the third strike, but throwing the runner out at first.

In the second inning Ishpeming scored two runs. In this period Crystal Falls had four errors, two of them by Schock, one by Noyes and the other by Krobel. Larson opened the inning and was thrown out. Secore hit a grounder. It reached first on an error by Schock and later scored on an error by Anderson, who tried to catch him at the plate, but threw high. Laxstrom flew out to McGee and Whitman sent a high ball into center that Noyes dropped. Burke hit to short, but Krobel let the ball get by, Whitman scoring. Klebs sent a grounder to Schock and was retired.

Ishpeming scored again in the third when Secore, the first man up, sent the ball into left field for a home run. It was a straight hit, the ball dropping in front of Gunstrom, the fielder, but bounded over his head, going to the corner of the lot. Ishpeming scored twice in the fifth. Klebs opened and went to first when Ball missed the third strike. Secore singled and Simpson sacrificed, McGee to Schock, Klebs scoring. St. John hit a grounder that Schock failed to get, scoring Secore, but in his attempt to reach second was thrown out.

Ishpeming scored her final run in the seventh. Burke was passed and Klebs singled, advancing Burke to third. Burke attempted to steal home and was thrown out. McGee to Ball. Secore batted an infield ball, advancing Klebs to third, and the latter scored on a wild throw by Anderson.

In only two innings, the first and ninth, did Crystal Falls have more than three men up to bat. In both of these innings five men faced Goulette. McGee, the first man up in the initial inning, went out on a pop fly to Klebs and Schock sent a grounder down near first that Goulette, St. John and Larson went after, but none of them touched it. Krobel was fanned; Anderson walked and Ball also was fanned. Schock reaching third. This is the only inning in which a Crystal Falls runner reached that station. In the ninth McGee was left on second and Krobel at first when the side was retired.

Nault sniped, but his decisions on strikes and balls did not seem to satisfy either team. If the score had been close Mr. Nault might have had at least a few warm debates on his hands, but he seemed determined to have his own way when he made his decisions, which was one good feature. Once, when Noyes attempted to argue a point too long to suit Nault, the latter threatened to put him on the bench.

Yesterday's Game.

Ishpeming won again yesterday by a score of 3 to 0. It was a good exhibition, with the pitching of Dixon for Ishpeming and Scott for Crystal Falls the features. Two wild throws gave Ishpeming her first two runs. Had it not been for these misplays the game would likely have ended with the score of 1 to 0.

Ed. Scott, Crystal Falls' new twirler, joined the team here yesterday morning, he having come from Freeport, Ill., where he has pitched for four seasons past. Scott more than made good. He held Ishpeming to five scattering hits, and he held his position fast, and he was the only player on either team who hit the ball for more than a single sack, he having had a nice double in the ninth. Schock, Crystal Falls' new first sacker, also gave a good account of himself yesterday. He joined the team Saturday.

Clifford, formerly of the Marquette team, played in left field for Crystal Falls. Outside of the poor throwing the Menominee range nine played a fine game, and judging from the general work of the team yesterday it will not be necessary for Manager Corcoran to make many more changes, as his bunch will average up as well as any of the other nines of the league. With Scott and Whitman on the pitching line the pitching staff is strong. Bert Sineock, who played second for Crystal Falls a week ago yesterday, wore an Ishpeming uniform yesterday, but he did not get a chance to play. Dixon had the visitors just where he wanted them, his work in the box being quite in contrast to the previous Sunday, when he was not in good form, and was obliged to retire in the fifth inning. This was the second shut-out game that Dixon has pitched this season.

In the second innings Klebs fanned and Secore singled and stole second, Ball throwing high. The runner kept going and Noyes sent the ball over McGee's head at third, Secore scoring. Ishpeming scored her next run in the fifth. Simpson singled. Laxstrom hit to Scott, who threw Simpson out at second. Larson sacrificed Laxstrom to second and Dixon singled, scoring Laxstrom. Ishpeming scored her third run in the eighth. Dixon drew a pass and went to second on a passed ball. St. John sacrificed him to third and Whitman brought him home when he sent a grounder that McGee found too hot to handle.

The visitors secured their first hit in the sixth, when McGee sent a hot grounder that Whitman could not handle. Schock sacrificed McGee to second; Krobel walked and Noyes, who sent a grounder to Larson, advanced McGee to third and Krobel to second, where they died, as Clifford fanned. In the seventh Dixon again pitched himself out of a tight hole, having retired the side after the bases had been filled with no one gone. Ball opened and drew a pass. Anderson bunted to Dixon, who threw to second in plenty of time to make a double, but St. John dropped the ball. Oswald sent a grounder to Whitman and Larson dropped the thrown ball, though it came a trifle wide, this filling the sacks. Scott fanned, and McGee sent a grounder to Dixon, who returned the ball to the plate, Klebs then hitting on McGee at first. Krobel and Noyes each touched Dixon for singles in the eighth, but neither reached third. Five men came to bat in the ninth, but Anderson and Oswald, the first two up, fanned. Scott touched the ball for two bases, and McGee reached first on a ground hit that Secore picked up nicely but was slow in getting it to first. Schock went out, Dixon to Larson.

Nault was scored by the fans again yesterday for his decisions on balls and strikes, but it was evident that he was not trying to favor either team. In the seventh inning he got into a bad mix-up, but he bluffed out after a few minutes of arguing by the players on both teams. Ball was passed and in his attempt to steal second he was thrown out, Klebs to St. John, but the umpire was facing the plate and did not see the play. Ishpeming claimed the out, while Crystal Falls protested.

THE FIRST RICKSHAW.

An American Said to Have Suggested the Glorified Go-Cart in Japan.

Twenty years or so ago, when railways in Japan were yet few and motor-cars undreamed of, the common method of travel for natives and foreigners alike was the rickshaw.

Horses were scarce and of indifferent quality, the bicycle had hardly made its appearance in the Far East, so practically the only means of getting about the country away from the main line of the railway between Tokio and Hogo was in the modified perambulator which is known all over the world as the rickshaw.

There are a number of versions of its invention and to whom credit should be given for it. The Japanese themselves claim it for a paralytic old gentleman of Kyoto, who some time before 1868, finding his palanquin uncomfortable took to a little cart instead. The usual foreign account adopted by Mr. Black, the author of "Young Japan," is that an American named Goble, half-teacher and half-missionary, was the person to suggest the idea of a glorified go-cart somewhere about 1867.

The first official application to be allowed to manufacture rickshaws was, however, made in 1870. They were soon being turned out in hundreds and thousands, for the middle-class Japanese found it a cheap and comfortable way of traveling long or short distances and there was an inexhaustible supply of men eager to turn themselves into beasts of burden in order to earn the high wages which the employment brought them. Curiously enough, though elsewhere the thing is called a rickshaw, in Japan it generally goes by the name of jinrik.

Both are abbreviations of the real word which is jin-riki-sha, meaning literally "man-power vehicle," that is, a cart pulled by a man. Sometimes you hear kuruma used as an equivalent, and that is a Japanese of the Chinese syllable sha. Kuruma-ya is a rickshaw puller, and you would call it out in Japan when you wanted a rickshaw, just as we call "hansom" in the days when the hansom had not been driven off the ranks by the taxicab.—London Daily News.

The man who has no faith in himself will never bring anything to pass.

MAY CELEBRATE HERE.

Louis Villeneuve and O. J. Lacombe will call on the business men of the city today to ascertain what they will contribute towards a celebration on July 5. It is felt that it would be useless to make a canvass in the interest of a celebration on the Fourth as the liquor dealers, who usually contribute the largest share of celebration funds, would not be permitted to do business. As the fifth is usually an idle day with the men at the mines, both in Negaunee and Ishpeming, it is thought that many of the citizens will favor celebrating that day.

OLIVER COMPANY HAS LOSS.

The Oliver Iron Mining company's new warehouse at Taconite, on the Western Mesaba range, was completely destroyed by fire last Thursday, entailing a loss of $30,000. The building had only been completed five days, and was completely stocked with supplies. The origin of the fire is unknown. The structure will be rebuilt immediately.

LOCAL LACONICS.

George Williamson has been ill and confined to his home the past few days. The barn at the rear of E. W. Adams dwelling was damaged by fire Friday.

Earl Spalding, who erected the new fire hall, spent the latter part of last week here.

Mrs. F. D. Verran of Rock Island, Ill., formerly of Republic, is in the city, visiting William Verran's family.

Benjamin Neely, Jr., came from Crystal Falls Saturday and remained over yesterday with his folks.

Sam Farson, Robert Thompson and Robert Jackson, Jr., went to L'Anse-au-Loup morning on a fishing expedition. They returned last night.

The council will meet as a board of review today and tomorrow to review the assessment roll. The board will be in session eight hours each day.

Mrs. William Treloar will leave today for Deerwood, Minn., where her husband located some time ago. The family's household goods were shipped last week.

Negaunee Department

CUYUNA RANGE HAS GRAPHITE

Rich Find Reported to Have Been Made With Diamond Drill While Boring for Ore.

Operators on the Cuyuna range, where several former Negaunee men are holding responsible positions, are interested over the discovery of graphite in that district. Investigations are now being made, and if the first impressions prove to be correct it is said that quite a number of Cuyuna range land owners will probably make a good thing out of it. The discovery was made by Contractor Foley, of Brainerd, while drilling for ore. Samples of the graphite have been tested and the mineral has been pronounced first-class. It is said that the Foley drill has already gone through a sufficient quantity of the graphite to convince the owners of the property that it will pay to mine it. Patrick Hammel, a well-known Duluth mining man, who is one of the pioneers in the district, and others, own the tract on which the graphite has been found.

Graphite, sometimes called plumbago or black lead, although it contains no lead, occurs as a form of carbon and constitutes the last form in the mineralization of vegetable matter. Graphite is practically pure carbon. Specimens from different deposits show a wide divergence in structure and purity.

Throughout the United States crystalline graphite is widely distributed. Known deposits, however, sufficiently extensive to be of any commercial value are few in number, located principally in Essex county, N. Y.; Chester county, Pa., and Clay county, Ga.

Graphite occurs in two forms, the crystalline and the amorphous. The latter form is soft and friable, and is used for the former. Near Stevens Point, Wis., it is mined and marketed, as it is in Rhode Island, the Eastern product being of a lower grade than the Wisconsin graphite. In South Dakota, near Custer, there are several properties containing promising veins. The island of Ceylon is the chief producer of high grade crystalline graphite.

That graphite should occur in the Cuyuna range is not to be wondered at, as the alchemy of nature is more wonderful than that evolved by man. One artificial method of making graphite is by allowing the molten metal to cool slowly in the production of cast iron from ore containing a large proportion of carbon. Cast iron will retain in combination a much larger proportion of carbon when molten than when solid, so that when the mass cools the carbons separate, forming scales of graphite all through the iron. When this form of pig iron is dissolved by acid, the graphite scales remain as an insoluble residue. Although this form of graphite is of no commercial importance, it would seem reasonable to suppose that in some of the gigantic processes of nature rich deposits of the substance may have been created and deposited in the ore lands of the Cuyuna range.

Some of the valuable properties of pure graphite are: High electrical conductivity, great resistance to chemical action, absence of the property of absorbing gases.

The graphite used in the manufacture of lead pencils is comparatively small, but the best quality is required for the purpose. In stove polish, fireproof safes and graphite paint such as is used to protect iron work, graphite of a low grade is used. Should it be determined that the Cuyuna find is of the crystalline form, its value will be very great; and should it be the amorphous form it will be certain of a ready and growing market, according to the available information.

MARRIED FRIDAY.

Ernest Hawke, leader of the Negaunee City band, and Miss Lillian Williams, daughter of Mrs. Mary Williams of MacKenzie avenue, were united in marriage Friday afternoon by Justice Irving Argall, at his office on West Iron street. The bride was attended by Miss Marcell Johnson and Stephen Johnson supported the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Hawke will board for the present with Al Bennetts and family.

IMPROVING PARK.

Management of Street Railway Company Has Provided New Boats and Swings.

New boats, recently purchased by the Marquette County Gas & Electric company, were placed on the pond at Cleveland park Saturday. Several swings have also been erected and the grounds have been thoroughly cleaned. So far this year the park has not been used much, but it is expected that from now on private and public picnic parties will be held there frequently. Several of the Ishpeming school teachers gave their pupils outings Thursday and Friday and quite a number of Sunday school and other picnics have been planned.

Two big picnics are being arranged for Midsummer Day and the Fourth. On the 24th and 25th the Scandinavian societies of the county will be entertained by the Negaunee lodge, which is to conduct an old fashioned Swedish market, and on the Fourth the Sons of St. George and their families of the county will be entertained by the members of Sir Humphrey Davey lodge of Ishpeming. Another big picnic will be the Ishpeming old settler's annual outing, which will be held in August. Last year's picnic conducted by the old people was one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held in the Hematite city and now looking forward to the event with a great deal of interest. It has been suggested that the old settlers of Negaunee perfect a similar organization and hold an outing annually. There are quite a number of people here who located in the city prior to 1875.

The management of the Marquette County Gas & Electric company takes particular pains to keep the park in good order for picnic parties. The pavilions are in first-class condition and the grounds are kept perfectly clean. Men will be employed all summer to keep cattle out of the grove.

OPERATING NEW MINE.

Republic Iron & Steel Company Has Good Property at Eveleth, Minn.

The Schley mine, one of the Republic Iron & Steel company's new underground properties, on the Vermilion range, has started to ship ore. Development and improvement work have been carried on there for some time past and the property has been provided with a very complete equipment of machinery, as well as buildings, etc. An electric lighting plant and a telephone system have just been installed.

Mining is now being done at the 200-foot level in the main shaft, which is to be lowered to a depth of at least 600 feet. When this point is reached the shaft will be the deepest on the range. Most of the shafts in that district are quite shallow. The management expects to send out at least 80,000 tons of ore this year.

The local officials of the Republic Iron & Steel company have not yet been advised when operations will be resumed at the Hartford mine, which was taken under lease the first of the month. It is thought here that the Republic Iron & Steel and Oliver Iron Mining companies cannot agree on a price for the surface equipment, but as soon as an understanding is reached operations will doubtless be resumed.

EXCITING RUNAWAY.

A horse owned by William Sundquist, who conducts the P. C. Peterson farm at Eagle Mills, created considerable excitement Saturday noon. Mr. Sundquist was making a delivery of cream at a dwelling on Main street, and left the horse untied on the street. An automobile came along and the animal started west, running down Jackson street, after leaving the main street, in making a turn across the front of the city hall lawn, the animal fell on the concrete walk and fractured its right leg above the knee. The brak was a bad one and Marshall Rough was obliged to shoot the animal. Mr. Sundquist valued it at $300.

SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT.

The class day exercises of the Negaunee high school held Friday evening in the auditorium, were largely attended. Every seat on the main floor, as well as those in the gallery, was occupied, and it was necessary to put in a few extra chairs. The play produced by the seniors was very interesting and was greatly enjoyed. A member of the faculty on Saturday said that in his opinion the entertainment was the best of its kind that has been given in the schools in this section. The religious exercises held last evening in the auditorium were also well attended and Rev. R. T. T. Hicks preached an interesting and instructive sermon. The Fifth grade exercises will take place tomorrow evening.

HIS ONE MEAL A DAY.

The problem of whether or not a man is better off working or staying at home was solved to his own satisfaction by the eccentric Dr. Eodivve, a well-known professor of chemistry, in the eighteenth century. He studied the habits of carnivorous animals, and came to the conclusion that man requires but one meal a day, and as far more than twenty years his solitary feast was taken at four o'clock in the afternoon, when he would present himself at Doily's Chop House in Peterborough row and take his seat at the table reserved for him. On his arrival the cook would place a pound and a half of rump steak upon the gridiron, and while it was cooking the doctor would amuse himself with some such trifle as half a boiled eel or a thick salmon cutlet and a glass or two of brandy. Then came the steak, with a generous accompaniment of bread and potatoes, the whole washed down with a quart of strong ale. This was followed by a bottle of old port, and when the dinner was finished the doctor walked to his rooms in Essex street, Strand, where he met his classes and gave his lectures in chemistry until late in the evening.—London Chronicle.

CEMENT SIDE WALKS.

I will be glad to have you ask me to figure with you on that cement sidewalk. My work and prices should be attractive to those having cement work done.

Marquette Ball Tossers Capture Saturday's Game After Ten Innings But Drop Sunday's Contest Before Record Crowd by the One-Sided Score of 16 to 1.

Both Nines Field Brilliantly in First Struggle, Which Is a Pitcher's Battle Between Frost and Rosevear—Home Boys Had Off Day Yesterday—Nine Errors

Standing of the Teams. W. L. P.C. Marquette 5 6 750. Negaunee 5 3 625. Ishpeming 5 4 555. Crystal Falls 1 8 111.

With one of the largest crowds in attendance that ever witnessed a baseball game in Marquette, the home team went down to decisive defeat Sunday afternoon, the score being 16 to 1 in favor of Negaunee, after nine innings of agony, from a Marquette viewpoint.

Things started badly for Marquette in the first inning. Scholtus, who was on the mound in Marquette, the home team went down to decisive defeat Sunday afternoon, the score being 16 to 1 in favor of Negaunee, after nine innings of agony, from a Marquette viewpoint.

Three Runs in First Inning. Cullis came near making a three-bagger on the second ball pitched, but was cut off by Roppel's sensational catch in deep left. McCrory, who followed, hit down the first base line, Messier followed to Roppel and the fans breathed easier. Swick rolled an easy one to Young, who threw it high to first, giving him a life when the side should have been retired.

Notes of the Game. Follard's baserunning was another feature of Marquette's off color playing. Those errors in right field were excusable, as the sun was shining directly in the field's eyes.

guessing all the time, (two of the seven hits off him coming in the last two innings, when he was indulging in a few vaudeville stunts.

Hamilton made a new record for himself in the ninth, fumbling three grounders one after the other. Luckily, they came at a time when a few runs more or less made little difference.

Saturday's Game. Saturday's game between Marquette and Negaunee, won by the former by a score of 2 to 1, was, unlike yesterday's farcical exhibition, one of the prettiest games of the season, and delighted a fair sized crowd. It went an extra inning before Marquette landed the deciding run.

Frost was the distinguished performer for Marquette. He pitched a heady and safe game, letting Negaunee down with four scattered hits, and greatly inspiring the Marquette team. Rosevear, in the box for the visitors, also put up his excellent performance, but the Marquette victory was fairly earned for the visitors were out-hit. In fact if it were not for a little loose holding in the eighth Frost would have been credited with a shut-out.

Marquette scored one run in the seventh by good honest clotting. Mack, the first man up, pounded out a two-bagger, with which even Steinle, who was prancing about on the side lines, could find no fault, and then Roppel followed suit with another smashing drive. Big-wise for two stations. Mack getting home on it without even being hurried. The united efforts of the next three batsmen, however, did not avail to move Roppel beyond second.

The way the teams were traveling made it look as if this one run might be enough for Marquette, but the next inning showed that it wouldn't be. Roberts lifted a fly out to center. Scanlon misjudged the ball and Robert got to second. Rosevear knocked a grounder at Hamilton and Hamilton made a bad peg to Clinton at first. Roberts beat Clinton's return of the ball to the plate.

An error by LaFave in right field played an important part in Marquette's second. Rosevear knocked a grounder at Hamilton and Hamilton made a bad peg to Clinton at first. Roberts beat Clinton's return of the ball to the plate.

Negaunee looked dangerous in the sixth, when Cullis started out with a hit which Roppel extended to two bases by not handling the ball cleanly. However, he was thrown out at third by Richardson, on attempting to purloin that sack. McCrory also hit safely, but was caught napping off first. The summary:

PRISON PROBLEM CALLS GOVERNOR

Fred M. Warner and Other Members of Prison Labor Commission Here to Study Conditions, and Will Go from Marquette to Stillwater, Minn.

Are Busy on Preparation of a Report That Will Be Completed in December and Will Be Presented to Legislature in Early January—Will Visit Other States.

Governor Fred M. Warner, accompanied by Leonard Freeman, of Fenton, a member of the board of control of the Ionia reformatory, arrived in Marquette yesterday morning and today will, in company with E. C. Anthony of Negaunee, make a study of labor conditions at the Marquette prison, and confer with the officers at the institution in regard to them.

The duty with which the commission is charged, Governor Warner said yesterday, "is to make a report to the next legislature on the best method to be followed in employing convicts in the Michigan prisons. As a basis for this report, it is the purpose of the commission to visit many prisons outside of Michigan. On the present trip we will inspect the Minnesota penitentiary, where the Minnesota penitentiary will be visited next. Governor Warner is an ex-officio member of the commission.

Settled Railroad Litigation. Governor Warner has been instrumental in settling the million dollar suits pending between the Michigan Central railway and the state, the settlement having been reached last week. The state has been suing for $4,000,000 taxes out of which it alleged the Michigan Central defrauded it by means of false reports. The Michigan Central has been suing for $6,000,000 damages alleged to have been suffered because of the repeal of the special charter. The cases were settled by the governor and attorney general's department on the payment by the Michigan Central to the state of $125,000, to apply on the expenses the state has undergone to date in the proceedings. This is the settlement Land Commissioner Russell and Secretary of State Martindale, of the board of auditors, some weeks ago refused to concur in.
