

WM. LOEB, JR., IN BEVERLY TO SEE TAFT

With No Warning of His Coming, Theodore Roosevelt's Right Hand Man Motors Into the Nation's Summer Capital—His Arrival Causes a Flutter.

He Denies That His Visit Has Anything to Do With Bridging a Chasm, Because No Chasm Exists—He Admits That He Is on a Political Mission.

Beverly, Mass., July 10.—Beverly was about to go to sleep tonight, after a dull Sunday, when Wm. Loeb, Jr., right-hand man of Theodore Roosevelt, motored into town.

Mr. Loeb's arrival caused a flutter of excitement. He will see the president tomorrow. He frankly admitted that politics would be the subject of their interview.

It developed later that Mr. Loeb was sent for by Private Secretary Norton, with the knowledge of Mr. Taft.

Mr. Loeb was asked if there was a possibility that his visit had something to do with bridging "a chasm between Beverly and Oyster Bay."

Asked if he thought Mr. Roosevelt would come out with an endorsement of the Taft administration, Mr. Loeb said the position that the president's administration needed no endorsement from Mr. Roosevelt or any one else.

Mr. Loeb was asked about the seeming preponderance of "insurgents" among Mr. Roosevelt's visitors.

Reports current tonight connected Mr. Loeb's visit with the governorship in New York. He frequently has been mentioned for the nomination.

MARVELOUS FLIGHT MADE BY AVIATOR

Walter Brookins Shatters All Existing World's Records for Aeroplane Altitude by Ascending to a Height of 6,175 Feet at Atlantic City, N. J.

He Would Have Gone Still Higher, He Declares, Only His Gasoline Gave Out—His Descent So Swift That He Lands With a Fearful Headache.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 10.—Glenn Curtiss made the only aviation flight here today, staying in the air only five minutes.

Brookins reached a height of 6,175 feet. At that height his gasoline gave out and his engine stopped when he had come down to 5,800 feet, compelling him to glide to the ground.

Brookins used his last drop of gasoline at his highest altitude and was still climbing when his engine missed explosions.

JOHNSON IS WILLING TO FIGHT THE WHITE MAN AT RENO ON LABOR DAY

Chicago, July 10.—Jack Johnson has responded to the report that Jeffries is seeking a new bout. He says: "I'll give Jeffries another chance to win the championship if he wants it. I'll meet him at Reno on Labor Day, if that suits him. I don't believe that Jeff was in as good condition on July fourth as he was two weeks before, and for that reason I'm willing to give him a chance. I don't want any dispute about my superiority."

OFFERED BIG BRIBE TO LOSE

Johnson took occasion to reiterate his charge that a former manager of his attempted to "fix" the fight for Jeffries to win. He said: "He offered me $500,000 providing I would let half of it that Jeffries would win the eighth round. He knew that he could get more than that sum back by betting on the outcome, and so wanted it fixed for a certain result. And there were a lot of people led to believe that I had accepted the offer. One Chicago theatrical manager, I have been told, lost many thousands of dollars. He should have known better."

JOHN WILSON RETURNS TO NEBRASKA TO CLAIM INTEREST IN $30,000 ESTATE

Crab Orchard, Neb., July 10.—After an absence of thirty-four years, in the interim of which both his father and mother have died, John Wilson, Jr., son of Judge John Wilson, has returned to the place where he spent his childhood days. In 1876, after a quarrel with his son, Judge Wilson told the boy to leave and never to make his appearance at home again. Taking the parent at his word, young Wilson left.

CLAIM THAT MORMON BOOK WAS WRITTEN IN EGYPTIAN

Elders Say It Contains History of Builders of Pyramids in Mexico. Little Rock, Ark., July 10.—According to James W. Brown and E. F. Robertson, elders of the Mormon church, engaged in missionary work in Little Rock, the Book of Mormons is the history of the people who built the pyramids of Mexico, which have recently been discovered. These pyramids are said to be larger than those of Egypt.

LOUISIANA MOB LYNCHES A MURDERER

J. D. Freeman, a White Man, Is Taken from Jail at Rayville and Is Hanged at the Spot Where He Shot and Killed the Town Marshal. Rayville, La., July 10.—Aroused by the fact that an appeal to the supreme court had been taken, following his condemnation to death here on the charge of having murdered Town Marshal C. C. Chenaux, a mob battered down the doors of the parish jail at Rayville today and, dragging out J. D. Freeman, a white man, hanged him at the spot where he had slain the marshal. This is the only case of public lynching in Louisiana since the passage of the federal law against it.

DECAPITATIONS DUE IN OHIO

Newark, O., July 10.—The sudden arrival of Governor Harmon this afternoon wrought consternation among the city and county officials who are threatened with impeachment as the result of Friday night's lynching of Carl Ederington, an anti-saloon league leader. The governor demanded to be taken over the battered jail. He examined the structure minutely, Sheriff Links explaining every step of the mob. The governor tested the bars and examined the locks, taking notes. He held a star chamber session with the sheriff, prosecuting attorney and mayor. Governor Harmon said that if he had any statement to make he would make it later from Columbus. Newark people believe that the governor's hurried visit presages the immediate suspension of the sheriff and possibly the mayor.

Can Burrows come back? That's simply another way of asking "Can Burrows go back?"

Why did John Blodgett go to Europe when he did? Doesn't he want to share the responsibility?

The lynching of a white man at least furnishes a little variety to the monotony of these affairs.

If Senator La Follette is renominated will the "Taft Republicans" in Wisconsin have been cleaned up?

Senator Burrows begins his cow path campaign without further delay. The cow paths will be thick with candidates this year.

The government says the country is going to have a very poor harvest. The country has been guessing as much the past several weeks.

It is generally agreed that it is a brave candidate who will aspire to be governor of Wisconsin with a county option plank in his platform.

At Marquette we at least have enough water, such as it is. In Negaunee the water is "such as it is," but there isn't even enough of it to go around for the mines.

There is an old saying that stolen fruits taste the sweetest, but it doesn't hold good for Senator Lorimer's stolen fortunes. Even the Democrats are after him now.

Detroit will give the representatives of the "Best People on Earth" a royal purple time this week. Detroit promises to surpass all previous Elks' reunions, and will doubtless do it. Detroit has a habit of making good.

The debate over the merits of the Delta county grange Muselman resolutions has now broadened into a general discussion of the prohibition question, with Baldwin, of the Journal, as usual, the leading exponent of the "drys."

Again come reports of distressing financial stringency at the Burrows headquarters. John Blodgett, who has been the chief architect of Burrows' political fortunes, recently sailed for Europe, without, it is said, leaving a cent behind, or making any arrangements to raise a cent.

I want to see an end of the 'jack pots' and the cheap thievery that have brought disgrace on Illinois. I don't care whether they are Republicans or Democrats, I am unwavering in my opinion that the guilty men should be run down and sent to the penitentiary. This is the way Senator Cullom views the existing Illinois situation.

If Indiana can't be redeemed to the G. O. P. under the leadership of Senator Beveridge, it is held that it is beyond redemption, this year at least. This is why the senator has been given the right of way, and why Watson, Hemway and the rest of the blighted "stand patters" have been ordered onto the side tracks and into the switches along the main line.

Variety is held to be the spice of life in baseball circles at Crystal Falls. So afraid are the Crystal Falls fans of the deadly effect of monotony that they never suffer the same lineup in two successive games. The Crystal Falls team is the one constant surprise party of the league. When it comes to town the other fellows do not know what they are going up against.

Representative Payne is of the opinion that national issues will far overshadow state issues in the forthcoming campaign, and that the tariff will be the leading issue. Mr. Payne is confident of his re-election in his own district. So unconcerned is he about that little matter that he is ready to speak in other districts, wherever he may be sent. It will doubtless be suggested that Mr. Payne's assignments to other districts be made with a great deal of care.

The advisability of sprinkling the Marquette county highway between this city and Marquette may be pretty clearly seen these days, says the Ishpeming Iron Ore. This beautiful roadway is fast going to pieces under the action of the heavy automobile tires, the road wagons being the worst. It would have been economy to have established water stations along the line, and kept the surface of the road wet so as to prevent its grinding and blowing away. There is plenty of water along the route, and the service could be maintained throughout the brief summer for less money than it will cost to repair the damage done to the road because of its dryness.

The political season has advanced far enough so that there is warrant for the assertion that the entire slate of county office holders in Marquette county will go through without any opposition. They, as a whole, stand well with the voters. They are efficient, obliging and popular, and if any ambitious citizens even remotely contemplated going after any of their jobs they evidently reached the conclusion that this is not the psychological year for changes in the county building. The natural result of the unopposed primaries for county nominations will be to reduce the vote in this county, compared with what it will be in other counties where closely fought county campaigns will come to a head on primary day, for it is the campaign closest to home in which, after all, the greatest interest is taken.

An unfeeling and unsympathetic Lansing correspondent writes: "Why Muselman stays in the gubernatorial campaign is a mystery to most politicians. Chase S. Osborn appears to be far in the lead and the Kelley men believe that their candidate has a fighting chance. But there is absolutely no sentiment for Muselman outside of Grand Rapids and a few counties in the northwestern part of the state. Said a prominent politician from the Thumb, while here on business a few days ago: 'Over in the Thumb Osborn is very strong. He is supported by all the leaders and business men. Kelley has some following here and there, but I have yet to find a man who says that he will vote for Muselman. He could have had a larger following had he declared for state wide prohibition. That was expected of him, but for some reason he contented himself merely with declaring for local option, and now he will not have the support of the dry element for that reason.'"

Mr. Hemans is a shrewd judge of political currents. He would as soon be governor of Michigan as the next man. He is not insensible to the feeling of elation common to men on whom political honors fall. Public life has an attraction for him, as his record shows. If he is fighting away from the Democratic nomination for governor this year, it is because he feels that to that honorable office in 1908, and that the combination of circumstances favorable to his candidacy that existed in that year will not be duplicated in 1910. Mr. Hemans has perspicacity enough to be able to see defeat ahead for the Democratic candidate. Naturally he would prefer not to be the man who makes the bootless run. At the same time Mr. Hemans appreciates that in return for the manner in which his party has honored him he owes it a certain consideration, and doubtless will not refuse to become a candidate if the demand that he again make the sacrifice is both sincere and insistent.

Recent steps of the management of the Western Union Telegraph company indicate that hereafter that company will not be an accessory before the fact to violations of the law by conniving to make the violators' operations profitable, and carry promise that it is, from now on, to be characterized by a higher moral tone than at times in the past. The cutting out of the service of a string of New York state bucket shops last week bore striking evidence of its new policy. Along the same line was the company's refusal to handle bulletins on the Jeffries-Johnson fight last week, which cost it thousands of dollars in tolls that it might have had if it had accepted the business. In the past all has been grist that has come to the Western Union's mill and it has handled bucket shop trade and racing dope for bookies operating in defiance of the law with the same readiness that it has taken regular commercial business. All it has wanted to know was whether the tolls would be forthcoming. The new policy is much more creditable and commendable, and while it may be accompanied by some loss of income the loss will be inconsequential compared with the aggregate of the company's business, and the company certainly will be the gainer in the long run.

The annual convention of the National Educational association at Boston last week will be looked back to as an epoch making gathering, for it promises to mark the advent of the fair sex as a potent, if not controlling, factor in the varied activities of the organization. Up to the present year the women, while greatly outnumbering the men in the membership of the body, and while they have furnished much the greater share of the attendance at the annual meetings, have been content to occupy a subordinate place at the business sessions and to allow the male members to dominate the politics of the association. Thus it happened that in the long period of years since its organization the body had not had a single woman president. It has been the custom to have a nominating committee representative of all the states recommend a slate of officers to the annual convention. In accordance with the accepted precedent, a majority of this committee this year recommended a Colorado man for the presidency.

But the convention walked all over this recommendation and by two votes to one made Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of the Chicago schools, head of the association. From now on emancipated woman will be an active factor in the politics of the National Educational association, as she should properly be. The woman membership is large and enthusiastic; it is entitled to its fair share of the offices and to a president once in a while. As long as it can put forward representatives like Mrs. Young it will be entitled to the highest recognition the body of delegates can give it. Her achievements in all departments of educational work clearly entitle her to the recognitions he has received, and the association has done well in honoring her.

ARE AFTER THE PACK. This promises to be a bad political year for all the men, Republicans and Democrats alike, who were mixed up in the election of William Lorimer as senator from Illinois. A convention of representative Republicans, assembled at the state capital lately, expressed itself in burning terms on the disgrace brought down on the state by the tainted election of the "blood boss," and a determined effort is being made to secure the retirement from legislative life of all Republican members who shared in the responsibility of that misfortune.

The Democrats are not to be behind their Republican brethren in an attempt to purge their organization of its betrayers. Two hundred of the most representative Democrats in the state have joined in a call for a conference to be held in Springfield, to consider ways and means of cleaning out the gentry who were responsible for getting the party in such an equivocal situation. Public sentiment in both parties has not waited on either conferences or conventions. It has been running high against the men who elected Lorimer, none of whom, in the light of the revelations we have had, can escape the suspicion of having shared in the pot by which it was brought about.

Of the two groups of men, Republicans and Democrats, the latter are open to the greatest censure, and they should receive no mercy at the hands of the members of the party. Their treachery was two-fold. They were not only loyal to the people of the state in conniving at the election of so notoriously unfit a man as Lorimer, but they betrayed their own party by deserting their own candidate for a Republican. That they did it for filthy bribe money should only increase the ardor with which their party will take their trail, with the purpose of putting them out of legislative life for all time to come.

Two things are urgently necessary to restore Illinois to decent standing in the family of states. One is the unremitting prosecution of all persons involved in the bribery by which Lorimer's seat was purchased, coupled with tireless grand jury investigations which shall continue until every chance of throwing new light on the deal by which Lorimer was named has been exhausted. The other is the retirement, as far as that may be possible, of every member of the Lorimer bi-partisan majority. There may be, and doubtless are, members of the legislature who voted for Lorimer without being bought to do it, but in the light of what stands revealed who can have any certainty who they are? The only thing to do is to clean the whole precious pack out. Fortunately Illinois seems bent on doing it.

A GOLD BRICK. The law providing for publicity of campaign contributions is described by the New York Times as an "impudent insincerity." This is a pleasant euphemism for the term which is used by members of congress in private conversation. The bill fulfills the original purpose of a gold brick. Within a high-sounding and ornate verbiage, calculated to make the public believe that much has been done, it accomplishes nothing whatever. One of the fundamental shams in the bill is suggested by these sentences spoken by Senator Beveridge, just as the bill was coming to a vote: "I rise for the purpose of asking a question of the chairman of the committee. Of course we are all in favor of this bill, as far as it goes, but does the chairman think that it is an effective publicity bill when it does not include state and other committees that have to do with the election of congressmen and legislators which elect Senators?"

If we confine it merely to national committees and to committees which influence the election of representatives in two or more states, have we not left the door open to the very thing which we are intending to prevent? Can not the corrupting interests furnish their funds to these committees which, after all, have the election immediately in charge?"

Another more obvious fraud in the bill is pointed out by Senator Bailey of Texas: "The amendment now pending provides only for a publication after the election. It seems to me that if we only publish these contributions after the election has passed, a large part of the benefit which would accrue from their publication would be lost to the people. It seems to me something like the performance of closing the door of the stable after the horse has been stolen."

The bill which the lower house provided for publication before election. The change was made by the senate committee on privileges and elections, of which Senator Burrows of Michigan is chairman. Indeed, Senator Burrows has frankly taken upon himself the responsibility of this change.

What the insurgents thought about this so-called publicity bill is shown by the fact that they all voted against it. This law is calculated not to break, but to conceal and perpetuate the partnership between big business and the Republican party.—Collier's.

Vandenboom's method of delivering bottled milk, packed in ice, was fully appreciated during the hot weather of last week and the demand is increasing daily.

THE STATE PRESS.

When the citizens of Alpena saw posters of the billboards advertising "Sapho" they thought they referred to a new kind of soap.—Flint Journal.

A Winchester, Va., woman was recently buried in a walnut coffin made from a tree that grew from a nut she had planted in youth. The moral of this story, children, is not to recklessly plant walnuts.—Detroit News.

It may have been the Lord's will, as Jeffrey's father declares, but Champion Johnson is likely to insist that his left hand considerable to do with it.—Detroit Free Press.

Speaking of the higher education, it is evident that Harvard scullership is superior to that of Yale.—Pontiac Press Gazette.

STATE POLITICS.

Senator Julius Caesar Burrows will well believe that his cow-pat campaign throughout Michigan. It is the plan to make every cross roads possible between now and September 6 in an automobile. The arrival of the senator will be well advertised in advance and he will meet and talk to all the crowds who appear to listen to his speeches will be exceedingly brief, the principal object being to meet personally all who may come.

Raymond M. Merrill, keeper of the big store at Grant, Newwaygo county, was in Grand Rapids, says the Herald. He declares the greater number of the farmers whom he meets in his business are talking of Osborn and Townsend.

Congressman Edward Denby of Detroit has returned for the summer, and incidentally to get busy with his campaign. He declares he stands where he always has stood, on his record of his past in congress. "I have voted as my conscience dictated," he says, "and would not be true to myself or to the people I represent if I did otherwise."

D. G. F. Warner, daddy of the Warner-Cramton liquor law of the last session of the legislature, is a candidate to succeed himself. He has two opponents and a diary. Warner represented the wet interests in the legislature and Cramton assisted him in the bill as a representative of the dries. Warner is now opposed for reelection by a radical wet and by a radical dry. Can you beat it?

Representative John Hoelt, who represents Presque Isle, Montmorency, Crawford, Osego and Osceola counties, is having opposition for his renomination. The opponents to Hoelt are out against him because he ran a saloon at Rogers City until Presque Isle voted dry and then turned his place into an emporium for soft drinks. An attempt is being made to induce J. Lee Mofford, the Gaylord banker, to run against him.

William F. Nank of Mt. Clemens, who he was sheriff and one time representative in the legislature, is being urged to enter the field for lieutenant governor. He has not yet given his answer, but is more than likely to get in while the water is fine.

The report has been circulated in some sections to the effect that Amos S. Muselman has allied himself with Senator Burrows' campaign. Mr. Muselman strongly denies this statement. "I am running a campaign of my own and do not care to be mixed in the senatorial fight in any way. Mr. Burrows is running a campaign for senator. I do not believe he would care to mingle in the gubernatorial fight in any way. My campaign is being run entirely independent of any person other than myself. My sole ambition is to defeat Messrs. Kelley and Osborn and secure for myself the nomination for governor."

CARE OF STORE FIXTURES.

Although brass fixtures when new have a fine coat of lacquer to keep them from tarnishing, their protection layer soon disappears before the attacks of the cleaner. Instead of wrestling then with the problem of keeping the unprotected brass bright, get a quiet dust remover can be put on. Instead of sending the fixtures to the factory for yourself by applying the following solution: Gum shellac dissolved in alcohol makes a thin varnish which is applied with a small brush; to cover with a shellac is enough and enough alcohol to make it thin. This is enough to cover many fixtures and the work can be done in less than an hour.

To prevent your nickel fixtures from rusting, especially when you store them in the basement, says the Shoe Retailer, go over them with a cloth dampened with linseed oil, wrap the nickel-plated parts in paper. When you need to use your fixtures you will not have any rust to contend with.

Many metal stands have glass tops. These tops, from frequent handling, get a quite dull appearance. To bring back the original sparkle and crystal effect to the glass all you need to do is to cover the glass with a coating of whiting dissolved in water and ammonia. When dry rub briskly with dry cheesecloth and you will have a bright surface again.

CURES D. S. S. OLD SORES

Every old sore comes from some kind of impurity in the blood. It remains an open, discharging place on the flesh because the circulation constantly deposits into the fibres and tissues which surround the spot, the infectious matter with which the blood is contaminated. It is impossible for the sore to heal while the blood in this impure state. S. S. S. heals old sores because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and removes the cause from the blood. When the blood has been purified there is no longer any inflammatory impurity or infectious matter to irritate the place, and nature causes a certain and natural healing of the ulcer. It is all well enough to endeavor to cleanse an old sore, or stop the itching, or absorb the discharge, with external applications, but a cure can never be reached in this way, because such applications do not reach the blood where the cause is located. S. S. S. does not simply cause a scab to form over an old sore, but beginning at the bottom it heals the place permanently by building new tissue, and filling the place with firm healthy flesh. S. S. S. is a purely botanical remedy, being made entirely of roots herbs and barks, each of which has a direct and lasting effect in removing impurities and poisons from the circulation. Old people who have suffered for years with a chronic sore will find S. S. S. a most helpful tonic and system builder in counteracting the debilitating effects of the old ulcer. A LAUGH OR TWO.

A Speaking Likeness.

Corner—You knew the deceased pretty well, I believe, and could identify him?

Witness—Yes, I should know 'im again. A photograph of the deceased was then handed to the witness.

Corner—Do you recognize that?

Witness (shaking his head)—No, I dunno who that is.

Corner—You said you would know 'im again if you saw him.

Witness—So I would, sir. But I don't think I could tell 'is picture.

Corner—What was there about the deceased that you would know and recognize again?

Witness (brightening up)—His stutter, sir. 'E stuttered awful!—Judge.

Making It Up.

Two men who had quarreled violently and had not been on friendly terms for some months met by accident one night at a social function. One of them made a friendly overture to his enemy. Go up to him, he offered his hand, and said: "Look here, Jenkinson, I've often been guilty of causing you considerable annoyance, and if I make that confession I dare say you won't mind admitting on your side that you've been a little unjust to me, too."

Jenkinson took the outstretched hand and the negotiations for peace proceeded satisfactorily until, in his concluding remark, the first speaker observed, somewhat pompously: "On this pleasant and auspicious occasion, Jenkinson, I would like you to feel that I wish you—the same as you wish me."

"What?" cried Jenkinson, angrily. "Are you beginning it again?"—"Tit-Bits."

Thrice Armed Is He.

Justice is of course demanded by every litigant in a court of law, but it is a frequent infirmity of the human mind to confuse justice with one's own case. The late Thomas B. Reed, according to a writer in Law Notes, used to tell an amusing story to illustrate this tendency.

He was once retained by an enterprising client to prosecute an action.

On talking with the plaintiff's witnesses Mr. Reed found that their stories were far from consistent, so he reported the fact to his client, and advised that the suit be dropped.

The client was not perturbed, but told the attorney he would have a talk with witnesses and let him know the next morning what he had decided to do.

True to his word, he dropped in bright and early, wearing the cheerful look of one who has fought the good fight.

"You know those witnesses," he explained, "and they say they must have been mistaken when they talked with you. They all see it alike now. I've also seen some of the jurymen, and they think I'll win. Now, if there's such a thing as justice in law, we can't lose."

He Was in the Game All Right.

While walking along the street one day a gentleman noticed a group of boys apparently playing a game of some description. Much interested, he stopped, and inquired in a kindly tone:

"Well, boys, what are you at today? A bright youngster looked up and said:

"Why, don't you know, sir? This is the latest game out!"

"Oh! What do you call it?"

"Automobile, sir."

"Automobile! Why, how do you play it?"

"Well, you see, sir, I'm the driver."

"Yes."

"And this here fellow," pointing to his neighbor, "he's the horn; and this fellow is the hamper, and those two boys over here are the passengers."

And so on, he described the duties of the happy youngsters.

With a kindly salutation the gentleman passed on. About ten paces away, sitting on the curb, he saw a little chap with a very forlorn countenance, so he stopped and asked:

"Well, my little man, why don't you join in the game with those other boys?"

"Please, sir, I am in it," he wailed.

"You are in it! Why, what are you?"

"I'm the smell!"

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS.

Marquette People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them. Sick kidneys give many signals of distress. The secretions are dark, contain a sediment.

Passages are frequent, scanty, painful. Backache is constant day and night. Headaches and dizzy spells are frequent. The weakened kidneys need quick help.

Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache and urinary disorders. Marquette evidence proves this statement.

Mrs. Leonard Richer, 407 Rock St., Marquette, Mich., says: "My daughter, eight years old, was afflicted with a kidney weakness and as the various remedies we tried did her no good, we became discouraged. The trouble was especially annoying at night. At length we procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at the Stafford Drug Co. and gave them to her. They not only restored the child's kidneys to a normal condition but greatly improved her health."

Mrs. Carrie Keough has gone to Detroit for two or three weeks.

Mrs. R. C. Lowe has returned from a three weeks' visit with relatives in Ohio.

Mrs. Herbert Fox will leave Tuesday to spend a month or more with relatives in Denver.

Miss May Taylor and mother have returned from Detroit. Miss Taylor has been attending school at Monroe.

Senator M. H. Moriarty, of Crystal Falls, was in Marquette Saturday seeing to the circulation of his nominating petition.

Henry Russell has purchased the residence on West Hewitt avenue, recently owned by Al Anshelmann, and will move there this week.

Rev. James Pascoe, district superintendent, will hold a quarterly conference with the members of the Methodist church in this city Wednesday evening.

Miss Clara Wettstein returned from Milwaukee Saturday, where she took a course in hair work with Mrs. Stadler, and will engage in this work in Marquette.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Egan, Jr., and daughter arrived in the city Saturday. Mrs. Egan will visit her mother, Mrs. Frank Pendill, for a number of weeks. Mr. Egan left last night for his home at Amboy, Ills.

The stag dinner at the Golf club will be given Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, instead of Monday evening, as erroneously announced. Golf will be played in the afternoon and a number of visitors from Ishpeming and Negaunee are expected.

Rev. J. M. Rogers leaves today for Lansing to attend a meeting of the Home Mission committee of the Synod of Michigan. This committee has charge of Presbyterian mission interests for the state. Mr. Rogers is chairman of the committee for the Lake Superior Presbytery, embracing the upper peninsula.

Commercial Club Meeting—There will be a meeting of the Commercial club at the city hall this evening for the transaction of any general business that may come up. A large attendance of the members is desired.

Beddoe Hearing Today—The arguments for a new trial in the case of the United States vs. Geo. H. Beddoe, convicted of having made false entries in the books of the defunct First National bank of Ironwood, are set to be heard at 10 o'clock this morning. In case the motion for a new trial is denied, it is probable that Beddoe will be sentenced at once. Mr. Beddoe's counsel, M. M. Riley and Arthur O'Neill, have not announced on what grounds they will ask for a new trial.

No Work, This Year—United States Engineer Taylor, of Duluth, in the city the latter part of last week on his way to the Marquette breakwater project. He stated that he had not yet received formal notice that the president had signed the appropriation bill, and that the amount of red tape involved made it extremely unlikely that anything will be done this year toward the extension of the breakwater in this city. It is possible that some dredging will be done this fall, but Mr. Taylor anticipates that that will be the extent of the work done this season.

Made Trip Round World—Miss Viola Pearce arrived home Saturday from a tour of the world on the steamer Cleveland, which she traveled as a member of one of the Curtis parties. She was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Crawford, of Covington, Ky. They sailed from San Francisco in February. They visited Hawaii, Japan, China, the island of Borneo, Ceylon and India, and, after a trip through the Suez canal, spent some time in Egypt. Later they visited Naples, Gibraltar and other Mediterranean ports. They also attended the Passion Play at Oberammergau in Bavaria. The young ladies found the trip an intensely interesting one from the time they left San Francisco until they arrived back in the states.

Passed Away at Birch—Following an illness of a number of months, Mrs. Andrew McVanel died at Birch Saturday night. She was twenty-eight years of age and is survived by her husband and one daughter. Mrs. McVanel formerly was Miss Celia Pulver of this city. She was born and reared in Marquette. She was a sister of Theodore, Wm. and Robert Pulver of this city and of Mrs. J. W. Hudson and Miss Amanda Pulver of Birch. The remains will be received in Marquette today and the funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon. Services will be conducted at the residence of Theodore Pulver, 129 East Prospect street.

Flower Festival—Weather permitting, the Flower Festival, postponed Friday and Saturday nights on account of the rain, will take place this evening. If, however, the weather proves unpropitious today, the final performances will be given Tuesday or Wednesday night, or whenever the clay court becomes sufficiently dry for the dancers. Those who have labored long and faithfully to make this pretty outdoor festival a success have worked under disadvantageous weather conditions from the start, since the human flowers found the excessive heat almost as serious a handicap as the rain. It is to be hoped that, by way of compensation, a large and enthusiastic audience will witness the final performance of this truly delightful entertainment, the first of its kind ever presented in Marquette. A full house—or rather, a full yard—is desired.

GUILD HALL BOARD AT IVES LAKE FARM

Were Guests of A. T. Roberts Saturday and Sunday—Plans Adopted.

A. T. Roberts entertained his fellow members of the Guild Hall managing board and several other friends at the Ives Lake farm on Saturday and Sunday. The party included H. R. Harris, M. W. Jopling, A. E. Miller, P. W. Phelps, P. B. Spear, E. O. Stafford, Rev. Bates G. Burt, Dr. R. W. Boyer, E. W. MacPherran and A. T. Thayer. On Saturday afternoon the Marquette men tried conclusions at baseball with the farm hands and would have won if they had made four more runs. Saturday evening was devoted to bridge and college songs. On Sunday the party climbed Ives mountain and held a lengthy conference with Director Thayer over Guild Hall affairs. Mr. Thayer made various suggestions with a view of placing the Guild Hall upon a permanently successful basis, and it was decided to put all his suggestions into effect as soon as possible. Nearly all the party returned to Marquette Sunday evening, having had a delightful and profitable outing, and voted their host a prince of entertainers.

The arrangement with the Marquette Tennis club for the use by Guild Hall junior members of one of its courts goes into effect today. Mr. Thayer will be at the court at 11 a. m. and again at 3:30 p. m. to give instruction in tennis and will do the same on Wednesday and Friday. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons for the rest of the season he will be at Longyear field to coach the baseball players.

One of Mr. Thayer's ideas is to organize the various groups of members into separate clubs who shall elect their own officers and be self-governing bodies. A start in this direction has already been made and the idea has been received with decided favor by those concerned. A meeting of boys eight to twelve years of age is to be held at 2:30 p. m. today and the young men will meet this evening at 8 o'clock for this purpose. Mr. Thayer hopes for a good turnout of both classes.

The managing board have also adopted Mr. Thayer's suggestion that a swimming class be formed to meet once a week for boys from seven to eight years old, who are sons of Guild Hall members. Boys under eight years are not eligible to membership in the association, but it has been decided to give this privilege without charge as there are quite a number of members who have boys of that age. Mr. Thayer will give this class his special personal attention. The time of the first meeting will be announced later.

Boys of twelve to seventeen years will meet Tuesday and the ladies' evening class Tuesday evening for the purpose of organization. Mr. Thayer is displaying fine ability as an organizer and in the few days that have passed since he arrived at Marquette his earnestness, energy and fine personality have made a deep impression upon all with whom he has come in contact. He pronounces the Guild Hall plant one of the finest in the United States and believes that it should and will become one of the greatest agencies for the social, physical and moral betterment of its members that Marquette could possibly have.

MAY A BIG MONTH.

Report of Light and Power Commission Shows Increased Business

The report of the light and power commission for the month of May shows a big increase in business, compared with the same month a year ago. The earnings of the plant were $4,431.44 in 1910, compared with $3,728.30 in 1909, while expenses were considerably less. Income from business lighting was about $350 more than last year and residence lighting shows a gain of nearly $200. Within the year the number of installations has increased from 1,927 to 1,833. Delinquent accounts have been reduced from $16,307.29 to $9,438.10. The report of earnings and expenses follows:

MEXICO HAS LOST HISTORIC DOCUMENT

Is to Observe Its Centennial, but Can Not Find the Declaration of Independence.

City of Mexico, July 10.—In connection with the so-called first centennial of Mexican independence, which is to be celebrated all over the republic on September 16, the curious fact has developed that what is known as the original declaration of independence has been lost, and all efforts to find it have failed.

It must be remembered that, excepting perhaps the City of Mexico, Monterey, with the state government by it, is the most noted commercial and industrial emporium of Mexico, having very large steel works, foundry plants of many sizes, a great brewery, cement factories and various other large manufacturing plants.

History of Independence.

Unlike the United States of North America, Mexico does not have a formal declaration of independence. The only thing that approaches it was the decree issued September 21, 1821, signed by Augustin Iturbide, who afterward became the first emperor.

It was not until 1820 that the second revolt broke out, headed by Augustin Iturbide, and the Indian, Guerrero. In this revolt all parties in the country were united. Iturbide was the leading figure through his influence with the church.

FIRST WATCH AND CLOCK.

Since celebrations are the order of the day why not observe the centenary of the introduction of clocks? It was, we are told, in 1309 that the first clock known to the world was placed in the tower of San Estorzius, in Milan.

The greatest astonishment and admiration were manifested by crowds who came to see the clock, in 1314, when it was installed in the palace of the nobles at Padua. This was a wonder of mechanism indeed, for besides indicating the hours it showed the course of the sun, the revolutions of the planets, the various phases of the moon, the months and the fates of the year.

RELIC OF FRENCH REVOLUTION.

The knife of the guillotine used at the execution of Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette has been discovered in the museum of a private collector in Brussels. The gruesome relic seems well authenticated.

THE FIRST HANDCUFFS

The Different Early Forms of Devices for Manaculating Prisoners.

In Virgil is to be found the first recorded instance of the use of handcuffs, for the poet tells us that Prometheus was thus fettered and rendered powerless by Aristaeus, who apparently knew that even the gods themselves were not proof against this form of persuasion.

MUST BE ABOVE SUSPICION.

Kidney and bladder ailments are so serious in their consequences, and if unchecked so often fatal that any remedy offered for their cure must be above suspicion. Foley Kidney Pills contain no harmful drugs, and have successfully stood a long and thorough test.

NOTED EDUCATOR AT NORMAL SCHOOL

Dr. Howerth, of Chicago University, Will Lecture on Educational Topics This Week.

Professor Ira Woods Howerth, of the University of Chicago, will deliver a series of lectures on Normal school education this week, which should prove of great interest and value to all interested in education.

Dr. Howerth is a graduate of Harvard university, and holds both the master's and the doctor's degree from the University of Chicago, with which he has been connected since 1893.

From Jan. 1, 1908, to April 1, 1909, Dr. Howerth was the secretary of the Illinois Educational commission, appointed by the governor to codify the school laws and recommend improvements of the school system.

WOMEN AND TROUSERS

Thoughts Suggested by the Recent Decision Rendered in Kansas.

When a Kansas woman addressed a letter to the attorney general of the state asking him if there was any law forbidding her wearing trousers, the matter caused considerable comment.

ROYALTY AT THE RING.

More Than 100 Years Since It Was Present at Prize Fight.

Although Edward VII witnessed many a boxing contest, and his son, George V, has personally figured in numerous bouts, and while the late Alexander III of Russia was, in his prime, as adept a boxer as his brother-in-law, King George of Greece, was a wrestler, many years have elapsed since European royalty has ventured publicly to attend a prize fight—a fact which it seems timely to recall in connection with the encounter of Jeffries and Johnson at Reno.

THE COW DECIDED.

"A judgment worthy of Solomon, as homely and almost as wise, was pronounced recently by a civil magistrate in Bucharest," according to a traveler who called at the Daily News office in Paris the other day after a tour of eastern Europe. "It came about this way," explained the traveler.

FIRE AT HUMBOLDT.
John Pollard, a well known resident of Humboldt, suffered a heavy loss by fire early Saturday morning, when his barn and its contents were consumed. The building was a combination barn and workshop. Mr. Pollard had a complete outfit of tools and other articles in the shop, which he valued at $1,200. He also lost some farm implements that were stored in the barn. It is not known how the fire started, but it is thought to have been of incendiary origin.

ISHPEMING PLAYED ERRORLESS GAME

Negaunee Defeated by Score of 10 to 1 in One-Sided Game Yesterday.

BOY FATALLY INJURED.

Republic Lad Run Over by Train Friday Night and Died Saturday.

Ishpeming defeated Negaunee yesterday by a score of 10 to 1. It was Ishpeming's game from the start, as the Negaunee players were badly out of whack, whereas the Hematite City men went through nine innings without an error. Dixon was on the mound for Ishpeming and Steimle and Siebenthal did the twirling for Negaunee, the former retiring after the second inning, when he found that his control was bad. Siebenthal also had poor control. He walked three men and hit two, but the best Ishpeming could do was to touch him for four safe hits. One of them, a double by Klebs in the eighth, the runner tried to stretch it into a three-bagger, and was put out.

Except for the strong work of the Ishpeming battery and infielders the game was featureless. Only two fly balls went into Ishpeming's outfield and both of these were caught by Nicholls in center. One of the hits off Dixon should have been caught, as the second baseman, shortstop and center fielder, any one of whom could have taken it, let it drop between them, each thinking the other would get under it.

Negaunee's ragged work started in the first inning and continued throughout the game. Whitman, the first man up in the initial inning, walked. Siebenthal fled out to Roberts and Klebs singled into center, the ball going by Messier. Whitman scoring and Klebs reaching third. Score and St. John went out on flies, the former to Cullis and the latter to Messier.

Larson, the first man up in the second inning, was passed and Laxstrom sacrificed him to second, Nicholls singled, scoring Larson. Dixon went out to Roberts and Whitman fled out to McKale in right. Negaunee's balloon went skyward in the third inning, when four Ishpeming men crossed the plate. This was Siebenthal's first inning in the box. He was touched for only one hit, and that was by Burke, who nailed the first ball pitched. Klebs and Siebenthal hunted with a view to advancing Burke, and Negaunee's throwing was wild. More wild throwing resulted in two scores. Negaunee made six of her nine errors in that inning. There were more errors, walking of batters, etc., again in the seventh and eighth innings, when Ishpeming made three more runs, two in the seventh and one in the eighth.

In four of the nine innings the Negaunee batsmen were retired in one, two, three order. In the fifth, when Negaunee scored, nine men fled out to Messier, Messier and McKale securing hits, the former scoring on McKale's hit back of the first sack. When the third man was retired the second and third stations were occupied.

The crowd was one of the largest of the season, in spite of the fact that it rained for fifteen or twenty minutes an hour or so before the game started. There were many minor mishaps and a few disputes that delayed the playing somewhat. Harris and Varebrook were the umpires and while there were some kicks on decisions the "umps" showed a desire to treat both teams fairly.

Almer Peterson, aged nine years, son of Alex Peterson, one of the carpenters in the employ of the Republic Iron company, was so badly injured by an ore train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway at Republic Friday evening that he died Saturday noon.

Young Peterson was riding on the side of an ore car on a train being pulled out from the mine. When near the St. Paul depot he either jumped or fell off, one of his legs going underneath the wheels. He also sustained a bad fracture of the skull, which was largely responsible for his death. The limb was completely severed below the knee and was so badly shattered that it was amputated above the knee. Dr. Lamb, the Republic Iron company's head physician and surgeon, happened to be near the depot when the accident occurred, and he took the boy to the hospital, less than two blocks distant. He was conscious most of the time until a few minutes before he passed away, and he talked with his parents and others about the accident.

William Prin, the coroner, went to Republic Saturday evening to conduct the inquest.

H. E. PIERCE PLAYERS.

Stock Organization, to be Here for Three Nights, is a Big Company.

The H. E. Pierce Associate players, organized especially to play six theaters of the iron and copper circuit, will fill their initial engagement at the Ishpeming theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. Ishpeming will be the first city in this region in which the company will appear, and it will go from here to the copper country, remaining a week at Hancock and a week at Calumet. It will then go to Marquette for three nights, returning from there to the head of the lakes.

The company is composed of twenty-two people and the plays to be produced are the best that could be secured. The management is paying a heavy royalty on all of them. William Jossey and Blanche Douglass are the leading members of the company. Mr. Jossey is an actor whose talent has won him approval in all parts of this country. He recently closed a season's engagement at the head of the Imperial Players, the strongest organization in St. Louis, and last season, with Maude Leone, he created a favorable impression at the Lyceum theatre, Duluth. He has been with many notable players, and had a splendid training under the direction of Thomas J. Keene, with whose company he was associated for some seasons prior to Mr. Keene's death.

Miss Blanche Douglass is an actress who has achieved great success both at home and abroad. Miss Douglass has been trained thoroughly in every detail of the stage work in the large cities on the Pacific coast, and more recently with Willard Mack in Salt Lake City, has enabled her to interpret the leading parts in many modern and classical plays.

Other members of the company are Lester Howard, Miss Jane Hampton, Wayne Ross, George V. Dill, Miss Marie Bonnell, George Alfred Smith, Joseph Kemper, Miss Flora Fairfield, H. Irwin Hardy, Edward Westfield, Miss Alice Morrison and Fred Monley.

ELKS TO DETROIT.

Ishpeming Lodge Not as Largely Represented as Expected.

Twelve members of the Ishpeming lodge of the Fraternal Order of Elks left Saturday for Detroit, to attend the annual grand lodge convention and reunion, to be held in that city this week. The Ishpeming members joined the copper country Elks on the special train that passed through here shortly before noon Saturday. The copper country had a good sized turnout. The delegation was accompanied by the Cannon & Hecla band, which will remain in Detroit until the upper peninsula members leave for home, the latter part of the week. All of the Ishpeming members were provided with miners' uniforms and they will appear in the parade with the Negaunee, Marquette and copper country Elks.

The Ishpeming members attending the reunion are George Wanek, Louis Toutloff, C. H. Dawson, Dr. A. E. Gourdeau, P. P. Chase, Arvid Swanson, W. J. Curtis, Henry Cox, Miles Sparks, Dr. E. C. Robbins, Bert Ramsdell and William Block, the latter of Michigan. If there is a prize for the smallest Elk Mr. Curtis will enter the contest. The prize for the smallest Elk in Milwaukee a few years ago was divided between Mr. Curtis and a lower peninsula man, but the Ishpeming member weighed nearly fifty pounds less than the Grand Rapids man. The latter was a trifle shorter than Mr. Curtis, otherwise he would not have been in the race.

The party who took a gold watch, coat and vest from John Solum in the woods north of the city is known and if he does not return articles to the address legal proceedings will be instituted. JOHN SOLUM, 217 Pearl St. 7-11-21

HOTEL CHANGES HANDS.

Harry Dunn and Peter Barnaby, who have been employed at the Nelson House for some years past, will today take the management of the hotel. J. P. Outhwaite, the owner, has managed the house ever since G. E. Voyer gave it up some time over two years ago. Mr. Dunn has been the chief at the hotel for the past four years and Mr. Barnaby has had charge of the mechanical work.

CURIOS EPIGRAMS.

Among the 1,300 epitaphs collected by Ernest H. Sulling in "Epitaphs" are many quaint and curious specimens. Grimalkin off the stage was said to be a sufferer from melancholia. It will be remembered that going to a physician on one occasion he described his case when the worthy doctor briskly told him to "shake off the feeling, go and see Grimalkin, and if he does not cure you your case is indeed hopeless." "Alas," said the poor sufferer, "I am Grimalkin." His epitaph reads "Here Am I."

A price of $800 to have been offered by one Thorpe, who was desirous of being perpetuated but briefly on his tombstone. One competitor sent in "Here Lies Thorpe's Corpse." This was certainly brief enough, but finally it was out to "Thorpe's Corpse."

Many of our readers know the Douglas Jerrold and Charles Knight story. They were dining together on one occasion when the conversation turned upon epitaphs. Knight, half in jest suggested that Jerrold should write his (Knight's) epitaph. The subject dropped at the time, but walking home together in the evening they came to a spot where each had to take a separate road. Jerrold, extending his hand to his friend, remarked: "I've thought of a capital epitaph for you."

"What is it," said his friend much interested. "Oh, very brief and very simple, 'Good Night.'"

There are many curious epitaphs on wives. Here's one from Ulverston, Lancashire:

Here lies my wife
Here lies she,
Hallelujah!
Hallelujah!

An inscription placed over the grave of a missionary who was accidentally shot in India read thus:
Here lies the Rev. A—B—, For many years missionary in B— district, He was accidentally shot by his native servant.
"Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

AN ARTISTIC TEMPERAMENT.

"I hear that your husband has gone to New York," said Mrs. Oldcastle. "Yes," replied her hostess. "We found that one of them old masters we had in the gallery wasn't the real thing, and he's gone to see if he can't find something else about the right size to fit in the place where it hung. Josiah is so artistic that he can't bear to see the gallery thrown out of proportion by having more pictures on one side than on the other."—Ideas.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. of Kansas are in the city visiting W. H. Johnson and wife.

Joseph Schilling and wife left Saturday for Detroit on a visit to their son, Edward, and his family.

Miss Phillips, who visited her sister, Mrs. Albert Beeson, has returned to her home in Milwaukee.

Mrs. M. M. Allen and son have returned from a visit with relatives in the East.

The Misses Mildred and Elizabeth Thomas have gone to Duluth, on a visit to friends.

Will Bettison and family have moved to Deer Lake, where they will live the remainder of the summer.

The two-month-old son of Fred Alderton died Saturday, and the funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Will Schaeffer and the Misses Bee and Margaret Laughlin have returned from a trip down the lakes.

Miss Lillian Wetzel is here from Depere, Wis., on a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. Jeffries, of North Fourth street.

J. R. Wood, a former resident, who now makes his home at Appleton, Wis., visited relatives here the latter part of the week.

The league baseball game between the Ishpeming and Negaunee teams scheduled for Saturday afternoon was postponed on account of the rain.

Peter Barassa & Co., Negaunee plumbers, have been awarded the contract for the plumbing in Victor Honkavara's new dwelling, recently started on Empire street.

The Marquette County Gas & Electric company is preparing to lay new rails on the street car line on South Pine street from Division street to the railway tracks, near the Oliver Iron Mining company's office.

Simon Forsberg and wife, former residents, are here from Coleraine, Minn., on a visit to relatives. Mr. Forsberg is a candidate for the nomination of clerk in Itasca county on the Republican ticket.

Miss Loretta Rowe, daughter of Nathaniel Rowe, entertained a number of her young friends Saturday, the occasion being the twelfth anniversary of her birth. Games of various kinds were played, and Mrs. Rowe served a delightful lunch.

The members of the Ishpeming home-stead of the American Yeomen attended services yesterday morning at Calvary Baptist church. Both the men and women marched from their hall to the church and return. Rev. W. J. Meade, the pastor, preached an interesting sermon.

The fences along Graham street have been removed and new ones are to be put in. The surface of the street is also being improved. The occupants of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company's houses there were recently provided with water and sewer service.

A Lafrenier will leave on the 17th for Montreal and other points in Canada, where he will spend two or three weeks visiting relatives. He will be accompanied home by his two daughters, who have been students at a convent in Montreal for the past four years.

Rev. T. E. Collier, wife and child, are here from Gernafast, Scholera's town, on a visit to relatives. Rev. Collier is pastor of the Methodist church there. Gernafast is in the district presided over by Rev. C. Collins, former pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church here.

Mrs. Abe Lawrence and two children of Bisbee, Ariz., formerly of Ishpeming, who visited relatives here, left Saturday for the copper country, where they will remain a week or more. They will go from there to Aurora, Minn., where Mr. Lawrence recently located.

Miss Olive Martin, daughter of Joseph Martin of West Superior street, was married in Houghton last Thursday afternoon to Irving J. Webber. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. B. Sutcliffe, pastor of the Methodist church there. The groom is a son of Isaac Webber of East High street. He is a painter by trade, and is now working in the copper country.

At the quarterly conference of the members of the First Methodist Episcopal church, held Saturday evening, Rev. C. L. Adams, the pastor, was invited by a unanimous vote to remain here another year. Rev. Adams is completing his fourth year as pastor of the local church.

Some of the members of the Young Men's Christian association will go to Michigamme today to make preparations for the construction of the camp. All of the lumber delivered last week was destroyed by fire, but a new lot has been ordered and the camp will be erected as soon as possible.

The funeral of A. H. Ross, the I. Stephenson company's workman, who committed suicide last Wednesday morning at Camp 10, thirty-two miles south of Ishpeming, will be held this afternoon with interment in the Ishpeming cemetery. Coroner Prin was not successful in ascertaining the whereabouts of Ross' relatives.

The Oliver Iron Mining company will begin paying its employees next Saturday, the 16th, when the workmen at the Regent mines, Negaunee, will receive their checks. The first payday in Ishpeming will take place a week from today, the 18th, when the men at the Lake Superior Hard Ore and Section 21 mines will be paid off. The workmen at the Section 16 and Hematite mines will receive their checks on Tuesday, the 19th, and the men at the Stegmiller mine, on the Swanzy range, and the Champion properties, will be paid on Wednesday, the 20th.

LOWER STATE NOTES.

TRAVERSE CITY—A mad dog running amuck here attacked J. W. Bowen, a mason, who was riding home on a bicycle, biting him on the left leg. A small boy was also reported attacked. Several men, armed with revolvers, chased the dog. Deputy Game Warden Snyder, who was also on a bicycle, shot the animal as it turned on him, killing it with the first bullet. The wound on Bowen's leg is not serious, but he had it cauterized at once.

HOLLAND—Anxious to secure a proposal from owners of every available site for the new postoffice in order that the selection may be made from the entire field, the board of trade has taken upon the matter and President Ver Schure has appointed a special postoffice site committee. The committee is sending out requests to all who have property answering the specifications to submit proposals, and as the time is very short urging immediate attention to the matter. The bids will be opened in the office of the supervising architect at Washington on July 27.

TRAVERSE CITY—With the assurance that Mason county is in the bureau to boost for all it is worth, the Western Michigan Development bureau has received a check for $693.61, being the one-tenth of one mill tax appropriated. At Cadillac the board of trade voted to raise $850. Of this amount $730 goes to the bureau, while $120 will be used to send a man to Chicago to boost Wexford county at the time of the land show. Fremont's board of trade has voted to raise half the amount necessary to put Newaygo county in good standing.

BATTLE CREEK—After all the special elections, aldermanic squabbles and court actions, it looks as if Battle Creek cannot buy the Niles Bryant city hall site for a year at least. The Harris Trust & Savings bank, of Chicago, has refused to buy the $30,000 bonds authorized by the council to pay for the site, on the ground that the city has no authority to bond for such purposes. It was Mayor Bailey, arch-enemy of the Bryant site, who recommended bonding and induced the city to vote on it, and his opponents now say he knew what he was doing and has "double-crossed" them. The council wanted to buy the site out of the general fund, but Bailey balked. Now the general fund hasn't enough left in it to buy one corner-of the site. The announcement came as a jolt to the public, which believed the question all settled at the late election.

PONTIAC—The acquisition of four manufacturing concerns, aggregating a capitalized value of $245,000, has been announced by the Pontiac Commercial association. They are as follows: Pontiac Foundry company, $80,000; Vulcan Gear works, $100,000; Champion Manufacturing company, $50,000; Pontiac Stamping company, $15,000. The stock is all paid in the buildings will be erected in the southern part of the city and ground will be broken within ten days. The Vulcan Stamping company comes from Detroit. The others are made up of Detroit and local capitalists. The Detroit parties interested in the deal are W. E. Finckers, R. E. Vance, W. E. Barber and W. L. Carpenter. The association has in view three or four other industries and expects to announce within in sixty days that they have been secured.

BATTLE CREEK—Two of Battle Creek's most prominent business men balk at accepting the "safe and sane Fourth" without a fight. E. Z. Fisher and Clifford J. Thayer, Main street merchants, were arraigned before Justice Batdorf on a charge of selling fireworks to minors. They stood mute and a plea of not guilty was entered. Simultaneously John Maximo and C. F. Russell, merchants pleading guilty, were fined $3 each and Perry Stone, who fired off explosives in McCauley park, was fined $1. The police had warned the business men that the ordinance against selling explosives or shooting them off would be enforced in Battle Creek and it was. Last year two were killed and many hurt. This year there was but one casualty.

the U. of M. and his assistants have LANSSING—Professor M. E. Cooley of consulted with the state railway commissioner relative to plans for making an appraisal of the plants of the water power concerns which have applied to the commission for authority for extensive bond issues. Professor Cooley and his men will visit each plant and make a thorough investigation of its equipment and report to the commission as soon as possible. When this is done the amount of bonds it is proper for the companies to issue will be settled. That will bring to the front, it is stated, the question as to whether the commission should only take into account the physical value of the plants or the business location they have and their future possibilities as money-making institutions.

LANSSING—According to the monthly Michigan crop report this year's yield of wheat will be large and the grain will be of excellent quality. The average estimated yield in the state and northern counties is seventeen, in the southern counties sixteen, in the central counties nineteen and in the upper peninsula eighteen bushels per acre. During the month of June 136,457 bushels of wheat were marketed by the farmers in the state. The estimated total number of bushels of wheat marketed in eleven months, August, 1909, to June, 1910, is 11,750,000. It is estimated that the amount of wheat yet in the possession of the growers is 250,000 bushels. Reports from the fruit belt show that the prospects for a good crop of peaches is most discouraging, owing to severe frosts and other unfavorable conditions early in the season. The average for the fruit belt this year is placed at thirty-nine, while the average in 1909 was seventy-seven. Rye, corn, potatoes and sugar beets are reported to be in good condition.

DETROIT—The Journal says: Back of the announcement of Prosecutor Reece that which Jackson prison needs is a thorough cleaning up, it is his opinion that the authorities are cognizant of the fact that the prisoners have been supplied right along with drugs and other contraband articles and that away underneath there are loathsome practices and disgraceful scenes more shocking than anything which has yet been exposed. It is said that during the year in which Mr. Wenger has been in charge the conditions within the prison walls have been such that they cannot be even mentioned publicly. It is not that the acting warden contented was going on, but his position was such that his authority was defied and a little attention paid to him by either the inmates or the employees. Only the influence of Deputy Ryan, who is acknowledged by everyone to be an excellent official, has kept order at all. Leaving out the Sniggen-Wenger incident, a man who knows whom, it speaks and who recently went through the prison, declared that he could pick out forty men by the outward marks who were regular users of drugs and that there must be many more on whom the habit had not progressed far enough to give outward indication. It is into this condition that Attorney General Kuhn and Prosecutor Reece will probe as soon as a new warden is appointed.

ANNUAL SCHOOL MEETING TODAY

Board of Education Will Present Its Financial Report for the Past Year.

The annual report of Dr. J. H. Andrus, secretary of the board of education, to be presented at the school meeting to be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the city recorder's office, will show a cash balance on hand at the close of the year of $24,147.22. At the close of the previous year the cash balance was $29,022.20. The receipts during the year were $98,594.58. Including the $29,022.20 on hand last year the total was $127,616.78. Of this amount $21,500 represented loans from the bank between Oct. 1 and Dec. 24. The sum received from the city on account of the tax levy and the one-mill tax was $56,229.56, and the primary money received from the state was $17,719.44. The expenditure for the year was $103,469.56. The number of orders issued was 909. A total of 344 interest coupons, each for $12.50, were paid, amounting to $4,300.

The last of the bonds issued on account of the old high school building, amounting to $3,000, will be due Sept. 1, and the bonds for the ensuing year will be $4,325. The amount to be paid by the board on bonds and interest this year is $7,325.

During the year the remaining bills contracted on account of the erection of the new high school were paid; they amounting to $22,287.05. The taxpayers will tonight be asked to vote to spread $40,000 upon the tax roll for school purposes. This is $10,000 less than was raised last year. The board estimates that the primary fund will be $9,900, and the one-mill tax, $6,400, making a total of $16,300 that will be raised by general taxation. The board's estimate of the running expenses of the schools for the ensuing year are as follows: Teachers $35,000; janitors, $4,000; books and supplies, $3,000; fuel, $4,000; sun-dials, $2,500; electricity, $1,500; gas, $1,500; water, $1,000; improvements, $1,500; new equipments, $3,000 and general repairs $5,000.

The polls for the election of two trustees will be open this afternoon between 4 and 8 o'clock. R. G. Jackson, president of the board, and Thomas Connors, are candidates for re-election.

CUYUNA GRAPHITE.

Recent Find in New Minnesota District Promises to be Valuable.

Graphite discoveries on the Cuyuna range promise to develop considerable value. Facts that have developed in the wake of the discovery of the precious black stuff here, led to the belief that the Cuyuna deposits will exceed in extent and value any other such find in the country. The highest assay that has been made of samples from the land owned by T. R. Foley of Aitkin, who has done all the drilling for graphite that has been attempted to date, shows that it runs from 5 to 75 per cent. This assay was made by Dr. F. T. Howard of the University of Wisconsin. What it means will be readily understood when it is said that the average of the known deposits of graphite is about 10 per cent. Thomas Feigh and A. Hammel are among the Duluth men who own land in the vicinity of the Foley tract. Mr. Hammel has been a student of graphite for some years, and has accumulated quite a library relating to the subject. He is enthusiastic in his conversation concerning the Foley find and what it means to the owners of other tracts in that region. He plans to begin drilling operations on his land some time this summer.

SMALL ATTENDANCE.

There will not be as many Negaunee Elks in Detroit this week as was expected. Several who had planned to go changed their minds at the eleventh hour. The members of the Negaunee lodge who left on the special train Saturday morning were T. A. Thoren, axatist ruler; C. Hansen, secretary; J. W. Whiting, Peter Rasmussen, H. J. Peterson, Clark Fitzpatrick and Captain John Ellis, accompanied by his daughter and Mr. Kirkpatrick was accompanied by his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick had been here for a week from Coleraine, Minn., visiting her parents, Captain and Mrs. J. H. Rough. Mr. Thoren is a delegate from the Negaunee lodge to the annual convention.

INSECTS KILLING TREES.

A number of Negaunee people are losing maple shade trees. A white insect is attacking the trees and if effective means of disposing of the pests are not discovered many fine trees will be destroyed. The insects form a web over the bark and after penetrating the latter they attack the trunk. Several people are white-washing the trunks, in the hope that it will stop the mischief. The shade trees here have escaped the ravages of insects for some years past.

DEATH OF JOHN STECHER.

One of Marquette County's Oldest Residents Passed Away Saturday.

John Stecher, who had been a sufferer from Bright's disease, died Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock. He had been confined to his bed for the greater part of the past two months, and his relatives and friends had known for some weeks that it was a question of but a short time when the end would come.

Mr. Stecher was one of Marquette county's oldest residents. He was born in Marquette fifty-six years ago and spent his boyhood years in the city. He then located in Negaunee, where he had resided continuously ever since. When about eighteen years of age he lost his right arm, in a hunting accident. He was passing over a fence and the gun was discharged, the contents taking effect in his arm, close to the shoulder. In his younger years Mr. Stecher had the reputation of being one of the best cornetists in Michigan. He played with orchestras and bands in this county for many years, beginning with the early sixties. Many of the older residents of the county will recall the time when John Stecher was a great card in dance orchestras, his playing being regarded as something out of the ordinary. For some years he led the Negaunee City band.

The father of the deceased was one of the county's first white settlers. For some years after locating in Negaunee he was janitor at the old Catholic church and sexton in the cemetery, when these properties occupied the present site of Thomas Fellow's dwelling, on Main street. The church stood there for some years, until the present Catholic church was completed in 1868. The old man died something over twenty-five years ago.

The deceased was in the liquor business in Negaunee for a number of years and later accepted the position of janitor of the Cass street school. He is survived by his widow.

LOCAL LACONICS.

P. H. O'Brien, the well-known Calumet attorney, was in the city Saturday, on business.

The Marquette County Gas & Electric company received a carload of rails Saturday.

Peter Barassa has just completed installing a water heating plant in Charles Steele's residence.

Miss Maude Burroughs of Cleveland, O., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gardner.

Fred E. Nightingale, formerly of Negaunee, now traveling auditor for the Oliver Iron Mining company, was in the city Saturday.

Eldridge Barabe, wife and two children, who recently arrived here from California, are visiting relatives in Hancock for a few days.

The funeral of the late John Stecher will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at the house by Rev. R. T. Hicks, rector of St. John's Episcopal church.

The ladies of St. Paul's church congregation will conduct a bazaar in August, commencing on the 15th and ending on the 20th. The net proceeds from the bazaar will be used to clean up the debt on the parochial school.

Thomas Milroy, who was called home a week or more ago on account of the critical illness of his father, Terrance Milroy, has returned to Coleraine. Mr. Milroy has been out of danger for several days and he is improving slowly.

Captain Elijah Toms, who had charge of mining operations at the Hartford mine until the lease was surrendered by the Oliver Iron Mining company, will spend the next two months at his old home in England. He will be accompanied on the trip by his wife and Miss Florence Hill.

Peter Lacross, who has the contract for the excavating at the new passenger station, has had considerable trouble on account of the water and he has not completed the job as soon as he expected to. The sides have been excavating, necessitating the removal of considerable extra ground.

Miss Mildred Andrus, daughter of Dr. J. H. Andrus, who was a student at the National Cathedral school at Washington the past year, is expected to arrive here today. Since the close of school Miss Andrus has been visiting relatives and friends in the East. She will be accompanied home by her cousin, Gordon Gray, of Fostoria, O., who will spend a few weeks here.

Captain James F. Foley will leave Friday or Saturday on a three months visit in California. He returned Friday from a visit with his son-in-law, Thomas Atkinson, and wife, at Green Bay, and while there decided to depart for California with Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson either on Saturday or Sunday next. Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson will not come to Negaunee as expected, but Mr. Foley will join them at the Bay.

HOAXING A NATION.

A Joke That Might Have Stirred Up Nativist War Against the British.

A short time ago the military chiefs out here were the victims of a practical joke; but there are means in India of keeping such little incidents a profound secret, so at present nobody knows what has happened outside a very small ring.

The story goes that about a month ago the daughter of a well-known lieutenant governor, about twenty years of age, accompanied by two girl friends, was on a visit to friends on the north-west frontier and one day went to Ali Masjid, a fort near the mouth of the Khaiber Pass.

From there the three ladies sent a telegram to General Wodehouse as if it were from a responsible officer declaring that they had gone out into the tribal country and had not returned. Great anxiety had been felt, and he concluded by declaring that he found it very difficult to restrain the garrison from turning out en masse to rescue the girls from their peril. The news of course, was sent on at once from the general's headquarters to Calcutta, where it created the intensest excitement in the highest quarters. The commander-in-chief spent several hours in deliberation and in hastening from Fort William to Government House and from Government House back to Fort William.

If the girls did not return a force would have to be sent out after them, and if a force were sent into the tribal country, however innocent the intention, it might set half a dozen suspicious tribes in arms and an engagement might lead to a big frontier campaign, which in turn might cause a rupture with a now well armed Afghanistan. The anxiety, therefore, was fully justified by the apparent gravity of the situation.

It is said it was not until twelve hours after the fateful message had reached Calcutta that it was discovered that the military organization of an empire had been shockingly hoaxed.—Indian correspondence London Chronicle

VISITORS GET HIT ON PLATTER

Crystal Falls, Out Pitched and Out Hit, Handed Yesterday's Game by Marquette Players by Score of Five to Four—Errors Prove Expensive.

Frost Hurdled Gilt-Edged Ball, Allowing But Four Hits, While Locals Took Eight Off Raftery, But Booting by Infield Cost Team the Victory.

W.	L.	P.C.
Marquette 10	4	625
Negaunee 9	8	329
Crystal Falls 4	13	235

Marquette won yesterday's game with Crystal Falls two ways and finally lost it a third. Frost won it by pitching gilt-edged ball, and letting the visitors down with but four hits. Again Tallion, Mack and Riopelle won it by honest clubbing of Crystal Falls' latest twirling acquisition, Raftery, who was hit for safeties eight times, twice for extra stations. Then after winning the game twice, Marquette, through boots by Hamilton and Young, handed it back to the visitors, and it was finally credited to them by a score of 5 to 4. Frost's high class pitching and the stout clubbing by Tallion, Mack and Riopelle, ought to have landed an easy victory, but the errors were too serious to be overcome by excellence in these departments.

Crystal Falls started off in a business-like manner in the first. With the first two men up out, Frost heaved a fast one that struck Corbel amidships, and he scrambled to first before plossed than hurt. Kagy connected with a shot to his kicking and got a long hit into right field, where Richardson failed to stop it even on the bound. Corbel scored and Kagy, who would have been well content with a single base on his hit, got around to third. Ball came to the front with a timely two-base hit, over Tallion's head in center field, and Kagy romped in. The inning ended with Anderson struck out. If Frost had gotten the support he was entitled to the scoring by Crystal Falls would have stopped right here.

Marquette came back strong in its half of the first. Raftery hit Young with a pitched ball, Longpre was struck out. Jacobs tried to pole out a long and hard hit, and by some mischance managed to draw a nice bunt along the third base line. Raftery fielded it and Young, who had previously stolen second, returned to the plate and scored when his wild throw to Geelan at first. Then Raftery struck Mack out.

Marquette Takes Lead.

In the fourth Marquette took the lead, by getting two runs, but it ought to have had three more as a result of the drubbing done. Jacobs started off with a base on balls, Mack drove a ball out for two bases and scored him. Tallion singled and advanced Mack to third, and Mack scored on Riopelle's single to left field. McKee made a beautiful return of the ball and Ball tagged Tallion out at the plate. Hamilton also took a single, hitting into left, but Riopelle must have had a bad start from first for McKee threw him out at second, when he should have been safe with time to spare. As a matter of fact, McLaughlin called him safe, but he ran over the sack and was tagged out. Richardson was walked, but Frost struck out, leaving but two runs as the result of four hits and two bases on balls.

Hamilton, at second, presented the visitors with the run that ties the score in the sixth. With two men out Kagy picked up a tidy single, one of the scant two hits Frost allowed after the first inning. Frost cleverly caught Kagy off first, on his way to steal second, and Longpre fielded his throw straight to Hamilton at second sack. The throw was not a hard one, but it seemed to go right through Hamilton out into center field. A moment later Hamilton booted Ball's infield grounder, and Kagy crossed the plate with a run. To prevent any more similar happenings Frost struck Anderson out.

Booffest in the Eighth.

The real booffest, and the one that did the final mischief, came in the eighth. McKee started this session with a hit. Allen knocked an easy grounder toward Hamilton at second, and it looked like a double play, but McKee rammed into Hamilton, upsetting him, and then ran on to third while Allen got to first. McKee wouldn't listen to Hamilton's claim of interference, inclining to the Crystal Falls view that Hamilton was encroaching on the base line when the play occurred.

Frost tightened his belt and would have pitched his way out of the hole if his support had been right. Corbel went out on a hard fly that was caught by Young, and then Frost took Kagy's measure with strikes. Ball hit a grounder to Young. It was a hard one to handle but he handled it well and a good peg would have put the side out. But Cy's peg wasn't a good one. It shot wide of Longpre and McKee scored, Allen and Ball advancing to third and second. Here Jacobs threw to second, hoping to head Allen off at home on the return, but the play went wrong and Allen scored. Immediately after this ambitious attempt on Jacobs' part, he retired Anderson and the side on a foul fly.

Marquette made a determined attempt to grab the game in the eighth. Mack got to first on balls for a starter. Then Tallion nailed out a two-base drive into left field territory. McKee made a fine recovery of the ball and relayed it like a shot to Corbel, who made a perfect peg to the plate, throwing Mack out. Tallion scored on an error by Corbel, who fell down on Hamilton's grounder, but that was the limit of the Marquette team's spurt and in the ninth the side went out one, two three.

Notes of the Game.

Negaunee dropped one to Ishpeming, so Negaunee and Marquette remain tied for first place. If Ishpeming keeps up its present fielding clip, however, there will likely be a new league leader within a week or so.

Frost is pitching some of the finest ball in his career heretofore for Marquette. In his last four games he has allowed the largest number of hits that he has allowed has been four. Every one of the games would ordinarily have been chalked up to his credit. Yesterday's looked like a cinch until the infield began its high kicking.

Captain Mack played a fine game yesterday. He accepted two or three hard chances and handled one bunted ball to first in a manner that brought a round of applause from the crowd. His striking was timely and counted in the run making. His one misplay had no bad consequences.

Tallion grabbed off three hits yesterday. His work was the most pretentious bit of sticking that has been put up by a Marquette player in some weeks. He comes from the South, and will probably stay, as the team needs stickers. He had nothing to do in the field yesterday. Longpre plays a fine game at first, but yesterday was among the missing at the swatting station, Raftery having his goat. He comes from Lake Linden.

E. N. BREITUNG PRESIDENT.

Marquette Man Elected Head of People's State Bank of Munising.

At a meeting of the directors of the People's State bank of Munising, held last Friday, E. N. Breitung, of this city, was elected president; F. S. Case and Frank J. Eaton, vice presidents, and H. H. McMillan, cashier. Mr. Breitung is one of the wealthiest men in Michigan, being prominently identified with mining and other interests in the upper peninsula, as well as president of the Negaunee National bank and one of the vice presidents of the Marquette County Savings bank. His judgment in matters financial is rated as very high among business men all over the state and with him at the head, the new Munising bank should enter an era of public confidence and prosperity.

Plans for a new bank building have been received and the contract for its construction will be let in a few days. It is intended to complete the building this fall. Since opening for business June 15, last, the new bank has made a very good showing and its business promises to increase steadily from now on.

ELKS IN DETROIT.

Large Crowd Greeted Special Train on Its Arrival in Marquette.

The Elks' special train to Detroit bearing some 200 or 300 members of the Ishpeming, Negaunee and copper country lodges arrived in Marquette at noon Saturday and did not depart for nearly an hour. When it left there were between thirty and forty Marquette Elks on board, all bound for the national convention, which will be in session this week.

The copper country Elks were accompanied by the Cahmet & Hecla band, and a large crowd was gathered at the station to hear the band concert that had been advertised, and as well to extend parting greetings to those of their friends who were going to Detroit. The band fell into line and marched to the Stafford Drug store corner, where they played one selection, and in front of the Hotel Clinton, where they took dinner, they played another.

Most of the copper country Elks wore large copper cents as badges, which attracted considerable attention. The whole crowd was made up of men who know how to have a good time and were bent on having it, and that their junket to Detroit will be long remembered goes without saying. The upper peninsula party was due to arrive in Detroit last evening.
