CONVENTION AT COLUMBUS A LOVE FEAST

Republicans of the Buckeye Commonwealth Transact the Business of Their Nominating Meeting Harmoniously and Adjourn in a State of Much Contentment.

Warren G. Harding, Who Heads the Ticket, Is the Choice of a Combination of Regulars and Progressives and Both Factions Are Satisfied With the Platform.

Columbus, O., July 27.—With a candidate for governor who was nominated by a combination of regulars and progressives and a platform pronounced good by the former element and 99 per cent good by the latter section of the party, the Ohio Republican state convention adjourned today in a state of much contentment.

A whole state ticket was named, headed by Warren G. Harding, for governor; Francis W. Treadway, of Cleveland, for lieutenant governor; Granville W. Mooney, of Amherstburg, for secretary of state; U. Grant Derman, of Toledo, for attorney general, and Rudy A. Archer, of Belmont county, for state treasurer.

The focus of the light over the government was sudden and unexpected. The convention seemed hopelessly divided between Judge Owen B. Brown, James R. Garfield and Carl Thompson. Mr. Thompson withdrew. Mr. Garfield said he was not a candidate, and George B. Cox, of the third district, took the strength of the Cincinnati delegation to Harding, who also was supported by most of the progressives. Congressman Longworth also was a factor in the earlier ballots. The nomination was made unanimous.

The platform adopted contains a strong endorsement of the president and of the purpose and tendency of the tariff law, as demanded by the "regulars." It contains the conservation plank and all but one of the state planks wanted by the "progressives." The omission is that of a demand for a law for the recall of unfaithful public servants.

Outcome Pleases Mr. Taft. Biddeford, Me., July 27.—President Taft and his party aboard the Mayflower spent most of the day cruising in Casco bay waters. They landed at Portland for an automobile ride. They will sail tomorrow for Beverly. Mr. Taft heard the result of the Ohio convention by wireless. He seemed delighted over the outcome. Mr. Taft would have given him hearty support had he been named for governor.

HE FINDS THE CROP AND BUSINESS OUTLOOK CHEERFUL. New York, July 27.—"From the Missouri river through to New York, the country looked like a garden nearly all the way." In these words William C. Brown, president of the New York Central lines, summarized his opinion of the crop outlook in the West on his return here today from a twelve-days trip. He also found the railroads in excellent position and he sees no cloud on the financial sky. Mr. Brown's opinion is based on personal observation and the reports of reliable men he sent through Montana, the Dakotas, Nebraska and Kansas.

300 VESSELS ATTACK RECENT TRAFFIC FIGURES. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 27.—The figures made public by the United States engineers on the traffic through the Soo canals for the year ending June 30, 1910, are declared misleading by vessel here. The criticism is that the figures show only the traffic through the American locks. When the figures for both the American and Canadian canals are taken, the traffic shows an increase of nearly 19,000,000 tons over that of 1909. The figures for both canals show: Entire tonnage, 1,009,476,579; 1910, 66,104,833. The figures for the American locks alone show 32,759,486 tons in 1909, as compared with 29,951,144 tons in 1910.

OKLAHOMA STATE OFFICIALS MUST RETURN TO GUTHRIE. Guthrie, Okla., July 27.—The state supreme court this afternoon decided in the capital removal case to the effect that Oklahoma's capital shall remain at Guthrie until the legality of the election recently held is determined and the courts have settled certain constitutional questions. All the state officials, other than the governor, who have removed their offices to Oklahoma City must return to Guthrie.

BUTCHERS TESTIFY THAT PACKERS STIFLED COMPETITION. Chicago, July 27.—Aaron Buschaum and Arthur Blesh, New York butchers, testifying before the federal grand jury investigating the packing concerns, declared today that the Chicago packers had cut prices and undersold the New York butchers' Dressed Beef association at a loss of two million dollars in order to obtain control of the New York concern.

MORE CENSUS FIGURES. Washington, July 27.—The census returns from Rock Island, Ill., show a population of 24,355. This is an increase of 4,842 over 1900, when the population was 19,493. Columbus, O., has a population of 181,548, an increase of 55,988.

INDICATIONS POINT TO JOHN LIND'S NOMINATION.

St. Paul, July 27.—With the opening of the Minnesota state Democratic convention at Minneapolis tomorrow the situation regarding the selection of the gubernatorial candidate is as unsettled as ever. In spite of insisting that he will not accept the nomination, the record of former governor John Lind received a boost tonight with the arrival of the advance guard of the country delegations. Among those mentioned as second choice of the convention are Congressman W. S. Hammond of St. James, Mayor James Hayes of Minneapolis, Judge C. W. Stanton of Bemidji and John Jenswold of Duluth. Fred Johnson of New Ulm, brother of the late governor Johnson, is a possibility. The attitude toward county option seems to depend on the chances of nominating Lind.

ROOSEVELT SIDES WITH PROGRESSIVES

He Will Support Men and the Things He Believes Stand for Best Interests of Nation.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 27.—Those who heard Theodore Roosevelt talk this afternoon came away with a sharply etched shadow picture of what his attitude will be in state and national politics. Primarily, he wishes to keep in the background, for he feels he may be accused of assuming a dictatorship.

Brooklyn speaking, Mr. Roosevelt will do all in his power to help the men who stood by him and his policies, but he is non-committal whether he expects to carry this to the point of coming out openly in favor of Republicans all over whom he considers to be standing for his ideas. He does say he must forget factional differences and even party lines and support the men and the things which he believes stand for the best interests of the country as a whole. But he has not made up his mind when he will take any decided stand.

DEFEAT OF BRYAN IS CRUEL BLOW TO HIM

He Grieves Particularly at His Reputation by Men Hitherto His Ardent Followers.

Grand Island, Neb., July 27.—The delegates to the Democratic state convention, which adjourned early this morning after defeating Wm. J. Bryan's liquor option plank, have all departed. Mr. Bryan was one of the first to leave. He declined to speak of the night's occurrence and referred the interviewers to his convention speech. Close friends, however, stated that Mr. Bryan's particular disappointment was because of the bolting from his standard of many men who had been his ardent supporters in the past. No intimation of his future political plans could be secured.

When he arose late last night to address the convention in behalf of his liquor option plank, Mr. Bryan was greeted by applause and was listened to with silence. He said, in part: "If I have advocated that which is not good for the state, let me feel your wrath. If you find I have done anything that is not for the good of the Democratic party, I don't thank you very much. Who, less than I, could desire to disrupt the Democratic party? Am I not aware what reputation at your hands will mean to me?"

"I've been called a dictator for expressing my opinion. You candidates here today have expressed their sentiments. By what law am I compelled to remain silent? I feel that the good name of my state is at stake. It has been said that I am aggrieved because I've been sold out by the liquor option plank. I don't intend to remain silent in my own state and saved by the votes of self-respecting Republicans who refused to aid in it. I expect to be in politics for many years yet. I expect to aid in the work of the Democratic party, but I'll not remain silent when a band of political assassins attack me."

The speaker attacked the seated delegates of Douglas county, in which Omaha is located, declaring they were not the choice of the Democrats of the state. Mr. Bryan declared that he had learned on his return from South America of a plan to betray Nebraska into the hands of the liquor interests. He said that the election of United States senators and state officials was a part of the conspiracy, and that he felt called upon to prevent the political burglary of the state.

"The Republican party and the Populist party of the state have adopted county option. If you don't adopt it, it becomes an issue," Mr. Bryan concluded. "Now speakers say the tide is turning toward the Democracy in national issues; then make your fight on them, and not in defense of the liquor traffic."

The platform raps the Payne tariff law and commends the Democratic opposition to the ship subsidy project. It further says: "We condemn the president for surrendering to Aldrich and Cannon the control of the tariff revision and for using his patronage to enforce unwilling congressmen of the Republican party to accept their dictation. We deplore the president's folly and weakness in surrounding himself with a cabinet of trust advisers."

Conservation of the natural resources is favored and the administration's opposition to the ship subsidy project is commended. The platform also says: "We condemn the president for retaining in his cabinet a close friend and a former attorney for a powerful and unscrupulous syndicate caught in the act of plunder."

DEMOCRATS OF IOWA OUT FOR LOCAL OPTION

State Convention Declares for the Trafficking in Liquor at High License Providing It Is So Decried by the People of the Various Communities.

This Plank Adopted Only After a Lively Fight—C. R. Porter, the Candidate for Governor, Lauds the Work of the Republican Progressives in Congress.

Ottumwa, Ia., July 27.—Such townships and municipalities of Iowa as are willing to pay high license for the sake of trafficking in liquor may do so in the event of Democratic success in the forthcoming gubernatorial election. At least the platform adopted by the Democratic state convention here today says so, but the pledge was not made without a fight both in the committee and on the floor.

Former Congressman Martin Wade, chairman of the resolutions committee, defended the plank against a vigorous assault by General J. B. Weaver. Mr. Wade said: "I am tired of belonging to a party which is known as the liquor party. Where the majority of a community desire liquor, they should have it, and vice versa. That is personal liberty, gentlemen, and it is democracy." General Weaver replied: "I don't know what will do more to make the Democratic party a liquor party than that plank."

The platform as reported was then adopted with a show of General Weaver moved for a roll call on the liquor plank. He said the people would thus know exactly where the party stands. He made a motion to strike out the vital parts of the plank, but he was overwhelmingly defeated.

H. B. Wolfe, of Clinton, received the long term and H. G. Van Wagenan the short term nomination for the supreme court bench.

Jerry B. Sullivan, of Des Moines, as temporary chairman, delivered the keynote speech. J. S. Stenger, of Toledo, was the permanent chairman. A ringing speech was delivered by Claude R. Fryer, Democratic candidate for governor.

The heat was oppressive. Frank Holme, recorder of Scott county was overcome, but was revived later.

Text of the Platform.

The platform denounces the recent tariff revision as a "masterpiece of injustice, declares trusts and monopolies intolerable, opposes the central bank, condemns the postal savings law in allowing the withdrawal of the savings from the communities in which they are deposited and accuses the Republican national administration of making reckless expenditures. It endorses the regulation of railway, telephone, telegraph and express companies, the income tax, the conservation of the natural resources, the principle of the initiative and referendum and the recall, and the improvement of roads. It urges the modification of the state primary law to reduce expense and declares for the Oregon plan of electing senators until it shall be possible to do so by direct vote.

The liquor plank reads: "The Democratic party is in favor of as large a degree of individual liberty as compatible with the rights of organized society and therefore, with reference to the use and sale of intoxicating liquor, we are in favor of a strict local option law, with high license, the minimum to be fixed by the legislature, under which a municipality shall declare by the vote of the people thereof whether or not intoxicants shall be sold therein."

Gubernatorial Candidate Porter, in his speech, applauded the efforts of both Iowa senators and the majority of the state's Republican congressmen to prevent tariff increases. He denounced President Taft as "the extremist of petty politicians" and "the servant of Wall Street" and advised the Democrats to stand for a downward revision of the tariff.

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY TO APPEAR ON THE STAGE. New York, July 27.—Laura Jean Libbey, author of "When His Love Grew Cold," "Lovers One" and other similar novels, will make her debut on the stage Monday night in a New York roof garden. She said today: "In the years I have been writing I have received thousands of letters from girls throughout the country asking for personal talks. This opportunity gives me the ability to answer them. When I was a school girl my teacher told me that one day I should be either a great writer or a great actress. Well, I have been a writer for a good many years. Now I am told I can act; the time has come to make a trial." Miss Libbey is Mrs. Van Mater Stilwell in private life. She was born in Brooklyn in 1862.

JACK JOHNSON IS SUEED FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT. New York, July 27.—More court troubles piled up today on Jack Johnson. A suit for $5,000 for alleged breach of contract was filed against him by theatrical managers, while an additional $1,000 was demanded by the plaintiffs on the ground that it was paid the pugilist-actor under duress.

Tells Striking Story of Wholesale Graft

How Railroad Is Alleged to Have Been Plundered Is Related by ex-Employee.

Chicago, July 27.—Harold A. Sims told a striking story of wholesale graft before the master in chancery here today in connection with the investigation of the alleged $1,500,000 car repair fraud in the Illinois Central railroad. Sims, a former car inspector for the railroad and later in the employ of one of the five car repair companies charged with fraud, declared that the Illinois Central was made to furnish not only the materials, but also the labor for the repairs, and then was charged from one to three prices for the work through a system of padded bills. He said that the greater part of the work was supposed to have been done in independent shops and for which the railroad company paid round figures really was done at the Illinois Central shops at Memphis.

He also testified that Illinois Central cars were dismantled to procure material to be used in the plant of the Memphis Car company.

WALL STREET MARKET REVERSES ITS COURSE

Prices Advance by Leaps and Bounds Where Tuesday They Slumped Disastrously.

New York, July 27.—The action of the stock market underwent a violent reversal today, with the prices advancing by leaps and bounds where yesterday they were breaking without sign of resistance. The speculative sentiment underwent a corresponding transformation. It was stated that some important private settlements had been made by which embarrassed accounts were taken over and there thus was avoided the necessity of sacrificing the securities in a market in which the demand had become almost paralyzed.

H. B. Wolfe, of Clinton, received the long term and H. G. Van Wagenan the short term nomination for the supreme court bench.

Jerry B. Sullivan, of Des Moines, as temporary chairman, delivered the keynote speech. J. S. Stenger, of Toledo, was the permanent chairman. A ringing speech was delivered by Claude R. Fryer, Democratic candidate for governor.

STRIKE AT CHICAGO IS A FAILURE

Less Than One Thousand Men in the Building Trades Have Walked Out, It Is Said, Where 18,000 to 30,000 Were Expected to Be Involved.

Rioting Takes Place in the Grand Trunk Yards at Durand, Mich., and Governor Warner Is Asked for Troops—Serious Trouble at Columbus, O., Also.

Chicago, July 27.—A general strike was decided upon in the building trades today. It is declared by the union leaders that it will immediately affect 18,000 men and may be increased to 30,000 in another twenty-four hours.

Chicago, July 27.—The efforts to break the carpenters, electrical workers, brick layers, plasterers, hoisting engineers and laborers join the building trades strike were without success tonight, and the contractors declare that the attempted general strike is a fizzle. It is said that less than a thousand men are out.

Michigan Troops Held Ready. Detroit, July 27.—Two hundred men of the Detroit battalion of the National Guard were assembled at the Armory tonight, ready to proceed to Durand, Mich., to protect Grand Trunk property and employes. The order came from Governor Warner, who has been notified that the situation at Durand is getting beyond the sheriff's control. Guardsmen also were assembled at Grand Rapids, awaiting call.

Columbus, O., July 27.—Mayor Marshall tonight made a formal call upon Governor Harmon for troops to be used in putting an end to the riots in connection with the street car strike in this city.

Miners Denounce President Lewis. Springfield, Ill., July 27.—At a mass meeting of three thousand miners here today, T. L. Lewis, national president of the union, and the committee which was selected to effect a compromise of the Peoria agreement at Indianapolis recently, were vigorously denounced.

John H. Walker, state president, was the principal speaker. Resolutions were adopted condemning Lewis for the proposed compromise and approving the course taken by those who opposed it. The acceptance of the compromise, according to Walker, meant the acknowledgment by the miners of Illinois that they were defeated.

Duncan McDonald, state secretary-treasurer, also spoke and gave the first announcement of a check for $15,000 received from the national headquarters, saying that this meant thirty-seven and one-half cents for each miner in the state. Cries of "send it back" were heard. He said that there would be 10,000 more men working in Illinois today if the Chicago and Indianapolis conferences had not been called.

Returns have been received from about twenty local unions on the referendum. They include those at Springfield, Vinton, Christopher, Benton, Eldorado, Pawnee, Marion, Staunton, Tushora, Midland, Breton, Carbon Hill, Ladd and Spring Valley. It is estimated by the miners that the vote stands almost unanimous against the adoption of the compromise.

MURDER SUSPECT IS CAPTURED IN ILLINOIS. Burlington, Ia., July 27.—Charles G. Warth was arrested here today and was taken to Clinton, Ill., to answer to charges of murdering Chief of Police Strubel July 13.

Chief Strubel attempted to arrest a man who, it is alleged, he caught struggling over an ice chest. The man shot Strubel dead. About the same time Warth disappeared. Thus the suspicion of the Clinton authorities was directed toward him. His wife admitted that Warth had been hiding in his home and finally had left for Monmouth, Ill., four days before under an assumed name. From Monmouth Warth was traced here.

CORONER'S JURY PROBES THE DEATH OF IRA RAWN. Winnetka, Ill., July 27.—The coroner's inquest into the death of Ira G. Rawn, late president of the Monon railroad, opened here tonight. Four witnesses, including Mrs. Rawn, were examined, but little new in the case was brought out. Five representatives of insurance companies on their way to the inquest in an automobile narrowly escaped death when their machine was run down by an interurban car at a crossing. The machine was wrecked, but the occupants escaped with bruises.

THREE SMALL CHILDREN ARE BURNED TO DEATH. Lena, Wis., July 27.—Edmund, Helen and Viola Gaspar, children of Michael Gaspar, all under five, were burned to death yesterday. They were playing in a buggy when a neighbor's child is said to have piled straw underneath the vehicle and set it afire for fun.

MARRYING TO ROB THEM JUST A HABIT OF HIS. New York, July 27.—Dr. Harry B. Keeler, dentist, who was arrested in Detroit with his wife on charges of having inveigled Mrs. Wilhelmina Lynch to marry him and give him $19,000, had the habit, the police say, of contracting marriages and then separating the vic-

COMMONS PASSES BILL CHANGING THE KING'S OATH.

London, July 27.—The king's accession declaration bill passed the second reading in the house of commons today in amended form. The bill as it stands provides that the proclamation against Catholicism shall be eliminated and the clause "and declare that I am a faithful Protestant" substituted. The non-conformists showed strong opposition to the original substituting clause, which read "and declare I am a faithful member of the Protestant church as by law established in England," and the premier finally accepted their amendment. It is believed that all difficulties have now been removed and that the bill will be accepted by the lords. During the discussion today several anti-Catholic societies gathered near parliament and a number of "no popery" placards were displayed.

CUBAN TROOPS CORRAL LEADER OF THE UPRISING.

Havana, July 27.—General Minoé, who started the uprising near El Cane, was captured today. This probably ends the trouble.

SPECULATION WRECKS BIG GERMAN BANK

Depositors Lose Most All Their Money and Directors Nearly All of Their Fortunes.

Dortmund, Germany, July 27.—The list of bank failures in Germany through excessive speculative operations has received a striking addition in the insolvency of the Nieder Deutsche bank, against which bankruptcy proceedings were begun today. The action was preceded by the arrest of Herr Ohm, one of the directors and the chief manager of the bank, who came to grief through his attempts to found a new industrial company which was inadequately capitalized. The liabilities of the bank are $12,500,000; the capital is $3,000,000. It is stated that the depositors will lose the greater part of their money and the members of the board of directors nearly the whole of their private fortunes. It is reported that Ohm owes the bank huge sums. It is understood that other arrests are impending.

Ed. Geers' New Trotter Has Little Trouble in Capturing Kalamazoo's $10,000 Classic.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 27.—Dudie Archdale, the favorite, had little trouble in winning the $10,000 Paper Mills stake for 2:11 class trotters—the classic of the Kalamazoo grand circuit meeting—this afternoon. Ed Geers, who had been unable to drive this week because of injuries received at Grand Rapids, watched his entry win the rich prize. F. G. Jones, who drove Dudie Archdale to victory, was carried in a floral hearse to the spot where he was given the Streeter silver trophy. The cup is given to the winner of this event as a memorial by the heirs of the late D. D. Streeter, Kalamazoo's noted horse breeder.

In the first heat, Gamar secured an advantageous position and kept it down the stretch. Dudie tried to nose Gamar out, but failed. After this, Dudie took the necessary three straight heats. Alice Roosevelt, in the second and third heats, raced Dudie under the wire to a finish less than a length's difference.

Another feature was the conclusion of the 2:17 pace, left over from Tuesday. Owings, driver of The Philistine, who had been taken down after the first heat Tuesday, was allowed to resume his place. Snow drove Hallie Lou to victory. The judges declared all bets off and Owings promptly drew Jonian, his entry for the first race today.

Every favorite today was a winner. The most interesting in the 2:11 trot was the fact that Dora, who won, is a Hungarian-bred horse, owned by Louis Winans, of England, whose Willy won Monday. Although Dan D won the first heat of the 2:14 pace, Sunny Jim had little trouble taking the next three. The 2:22 pace was tame. The day's summaries follow:

CROPS THRIVE WITHIN BLEAK ARCTIC CIRCLE

Raspberries in the Interior of Alaska Grow to Be as Large Around as 25-Cent Pieces, Reports a Census Agent—Other Fruits Ripen Also.

Vegetables Flourish Surprisingly Well and Are of Even Better Quality Than Those Raised in the States—Farming by Sub-Irrigation the Method Adopted.

Washington, July 27.—Farming by sub-irrigation and with the moistured supplied by melting ice is a novel agricultural method adopted in the interior of Alaska, according to the official report of Chief Special Agent McKenzie, who supervised the taking of the recent census in the fourth district of that territory. The system is proving surprisingly successful. Many kinds of vegetables are being grown, thus rendering living conditions more tolerable in the far northern country. The future is most promising in this respect, believes Mr. McKenzie.

Not only enumerating the population, but gathering statistics on agriculture, mining and manufacturing conditions was the work of Mr. McKenzie. All the concrete facts will be given in figures which will be given out later. The census agent's remarks regarding the farming operations are most interesting. He says that some homesteads have been taken up and that on them farming is conducted on a considerable scale.

Declares the Results Wonderful.

"Agriculture in this portion of Alaska is yet in its infancy," says Mr. McKenzie, "but it has arrived at such proportions as to be considered almost wonderful in its results. If all the returns are taken they will show a very remarkable condition when it is considered that it is a condition existing within the Arctic circle."

All the growth is attained between May 20 and Sept. 15. He attributes the fact that crops ripen not only to the fact that the sun shines from sixteen to twenty-four hours a day, but to the correlative fact that the plants are supplied with moisture from beneath, where the melting ice affords a regular and constant supply.

"Rain is practically unknown," he says, "but the necessary moisture comes from below." The they never extend deeper than three feet and often the farther than fifteen inches, but the thaw is regular and the water supply sufficient to force a rapid growth.

Celery, lettuce, radishes, cabbages, turnips and potatoes thrive, and Mr. McKenzie declares, "they are much better than in the states" that the high price charged by the growers is quite justifiable. Raspberries grow to be as large around as twenty-five-cent pieces, and blueberries and cranberries grow wild in great profusion. Experiments have been made with strawberries and grain, and while no great success is recorded the outlook is encouraging.

Dog the Beast of Burden. The dog is the favorite carrier throughout Alaska. The horse can be used only on the government trails, and the reindeer has been found to be unreliable. "As a beast of burden the reindeer has its limitations," says Mr. McKenzie, "and so far has not proved a substitute for the dog. If there is a man wants to work he will do so, but not so inclined he will quit wherever he may be and all the driving in the world will not get any thing out of him. Horses are good only on good roads, but the dog will travel anywhere. The dog will work at any temperature, where a horse cannot work below 50 degrees."

Manufacturing is confined to the city of Fairbanks. It consists largely of making tin stoves, window sashes and doors. The total product of the mines was easily obtained by Mr. McKenzie from the banks, but it was difficult to get individual returns because of the lack of method on the part of the mine owners. Very few keep books except to show the outline of production and the food purchased. "They are content," says Mr. McKenzie, "if there is a gain in their bank accounts at the end of the year."

Time Measured by "Snows." "Leatherstocking" is verified and Fenimore Cooper is vindicated in the report of Chief Census Agent McKenzie, Mr. McKenzie gives assurance that the Indians do measure time by the "snows" and "sums" and distances by "sleeps." Indeed, he asserts that they have no other standards of time or of measurement, and in relating the fact he cites an instance which throws no little light on the difficulties of enumerating the red men.

"One of the very young children, who has been educated in the government schools," he says, "has a knowledge of their ages or births, and the agents were instructed to use the age and birth months as nearly as talk and observation would seem correct. Time with them is counted by suns and snows, and distances by sleeps. Marriages, separations, births and deaths are all based on such calculations, and we were obliged to base our information in the same way." He then gives this instance:

"An Indian boy claimed to have lived '200 snows.' After much talk and use of the sign language it was determined that he was about eighty years old. He was found to have been twenty snows old when he 'got first woman'; to have kept her 'four snows, when she got away'; that he 'got more woman and

The Pink Pajama girl will not marry T. M. Barrie. Another newspaper romance blighted.

Now that the state health department has assured us that our water is pure, what have we been kicking about, anyway?

Mr. Bryan can be as dry as he pleases personally, but it's rank impudence for him to try to graft his views on the Democratic party, it seems.

The report that Senator Frye of Maine also intends to retire is denied. Senator Hale will do all the retiring for the Maine senatorial delegation.

If there were forty-nine candidates for governor there are certain distinguished citizens of our town who would be "with" every last one of them.

To be sure Senator Bristow appears to be about as extreme on one side of the argument as Uncle Joe on the other. Both seem to be carried away with the force of their high pressure eloquence.

Once more Bessemer is seeking the freemen's tournament. It would like to entertain the association in 1911. Let the freemen's delegates give Bessemer their votes. Its persistency is entitled to reward.

Secretary of State Wickereham cables from Manila that the talk of war between this country and Japan is ridiculous. For one thing, he says, Japan is too hard up to go to war, even if she wanted to. The secretary needn't have bothered about his other reasons for confidence in a continuance of peace. The reason cited is a most compelling one.

Col. E. M. Irish, of Kalamazoo, a well-known public man in Kalamazoo county, pledged his support to Chase S. Osborn for governor at a mass meeting held in that city this week. Colonel Irish strongly commended Mr. Osborn's candidacy and vouchsafed the opinion that he is ideally equipped to serve as governor of Michigan. Mr. Osborn hardly addresses a meeting where he doesn't enjoy the experience of having some well-known local man publicly announce support and endorsement, and pledge loyal work to advance his candidacy.

Inasmuch as the Nebraska Republican convention had Senator Brown, stand-patter, for its permanent chairman, and its platform strongly endorsed the new tariff law, at the same time it expressed unalterable opposition to the "system known as Cannonism" and hearty sympathy with the "insurgent" movement in and out of congress, it may fairly be called a drawn battle in which the spirit of consistency had to give way to the spirit of compromise. The Republican state conventions are turning out some wiser and wonderful platforms this year.

Ispheming is going to experiment with the oil treatment of its streets, to see whether their life cannot be sufficiently prolonged to make treatment worth while. Marquette has done some experimenting with tar, but not with the most satisfactory results. That they have not been better has perhaps been due to the fact that furnace tar has been used, and its consistency has varied. To obtain the best results the tar should run about the same and have a fair body. Despite discouragements met with, the towns that have macadam streets are on the right track in trying to find some adequate treatment to prolong their life by increasing their wearing capacity. Untreated macadam is an expensive form of pavement. It wears rapidly and rains play the mischief with it, particularly on streets of pronounced grade. If the ispheming experiment of oil treatment works out satisfactory we can profit from it by adopting the same method here.

Mr. Bryan's light has gone out in Nebraska, but he made a good fight of it. He advocated his county option plank on the floor of the convention, and was a member of a respectable sized minority that voted for it. How much Mr. Bryan has gone back in Nebraska was indicated by the unrestrained applause with which the announcement of his discomfiture was received. For some twenty years Mr. Bryan has been the practically undisputed leader of the Nebraska Democracy, which has accorded him the loyalist of support, but it seems to have finally broken away, restless under his long domination. The break might not have come this year had Mr. Bryan not become enamored with the idea of committing the party in Nebraska to the county option idea when there was so much distaste for it among its members. The issue has not been laid, however, by the action of the Democratic convention, for repudiated by the Democrats, the county option plank has found a resting place in the Republican platform, and will form one of the important issues of the campaign between the parties. The election returns will show whether Mr. Bryan was right about its expediency, the moral question aside.

Here's the way the Lansing Journal comments on a street fair recently held in that city:

Now that the carnival has gone the mental equilibrium of a lot of people who attended the attraction will return. As an agency for causing ordinarily well-behaved persons to lose, for the time being, all their common sense, dignity and reserve, a carnival, such as held forth in Lansing during the last week, seems to stand in a class by itself, while those who are naturally inclined toward undignified actions seize the opportunity to indulge in liberties that would not be tolerated anywhere else. Let us hope that Lansing will never again have to suffer from another of these moral cankers hiding beneath the cloak of legitimate amusement, and nurtured under the auspices of an organization composed of some of the city's best men, who should be above loathing the good name of their society for the purpose of furthering the interests of a socially demoralizing institution for the sake of the few paltry dollars that are received in return.

Owing to the comparative lethargy shown by the voters it is now in fashion to predict that the primary vote in September will be light. However, it should be in excess of what it was in 1908, even if there isn't as much steam in the gubernatorial contest as there was that year. Certainly it will be much heavier in the upper peninsula than it was then. Practically all the upper peninsula counties will name county tickets by direct vote in September, whereas the old convention system was generally in vogue two years ago; there are numerous legislative contests to be arbitrated in the same manner, and the congressional campaign is another contest in which the voters are taking considerable interest. To top it all off, we have an upper peninsula man who is aspiring to be governor. Thus the primary vote north of the straits should show a considerable increase over what it was in 1908. The voters are not showing the interest they will might in political meetings this year. These meetings are not, as a rule, as well attended as press reports indicate. Perhaps one reason for this is that the mass of voters know pretty well where the different candidates stand and through the newspapers are pretty well acquainted with their views on public questions, without being at the trouble to turn out to hear them.

A LAUGH OR TWO.

Ubiquitous Golf.

George Sargent, the golf champion, said one afternoon at Hyde Manor, Vermont:

"Golf has become so popular that it is mired up with everything. You wouldn't think that golf could have any relation to taxicabs and music, would you? But the other day, a group of taxicabs, a New York man told me that all the golf sticks of New York were becoming wry-necked. New York golf players, he explained, ride to the ferries in taxicabs, and their sticks get wry-necked from twisting round to watch the dimes mount up on the taximeter.

"Then, on the way to the next hole, our talk turned to grand opera, and the New York man declared that the other day his baby daughter, taking up the score of 'Elektra' pointed to a group of quarter-notes and said:

"'Papa, how does one play those little golf sticks?'"

The Wise Tailor.

"The late Goldwin Smith," said a magazine editor, "exuded good advice on all occasions.

"You know how barbers, in their desire to sell tonics and pomades, make coarse and insulting reference to their patrons' baldness? Well, a Montreal barber once criticized the condition of Professor Smith's hair in that way, saying:

"'Hopelessly bad as your scalp looks, sir, my Scalpene-Dandruffia will fix it up.'"

The aged philosopher flushed and retorted:

"You are very foolish to point out your patrons' physical defects. That saddens and displeases them. It doesn't make them buy. It drives them away, and they will never return. You would be wiser, my poor fellow, to imitate a successful downtown tailor. This man says to every patron as he takes his measure—he says it to fat and lean, short and tall, alike:

"'It's an extraordinary thing—of course you already know it, sir, but you have exactly the same measurements as the Apollo Belvidere.'"

A Story for Husbands.

Paul Morton, the noted insurance official, told at an insurance men's banquet in New York an appropriate story.

"In a town," he said, "where life insurance was a rare thing, a school teacher said to a little boy pupil:

"'Tommy, define the word widow.'"

"'A widow,' Tommy answered, 'is a poor woman with a large family of children who takes boarders.'"

Give and Take.

"American women, under the new reign, will be less prompt in London society," said Lady Cook (formerly Miss Tennis Claffin) to a New York reporter.

"After all, perhaps, they won't care much. There has always been a lot of give and take in their social adventures. But American women have spirit, and if they have taken a good deal they have given back still more.

"An Englishwoman called on an American countess in Belgravia.

"'Oh, I thought you were out—that's why I called,' the Englishwoman said, in her sweet, clear, insolent English voice."

"Well, do you know, I thought I was out, too! the American replied. 'My stupid man must have taken you for someone else.'"

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—Western District of Michigan. Whereas, on the 13th day of July, 1910, Edward E. Kennedy, by John L. Heffernan, printer for Huelland, filed in the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Michigan, against the steam tug "Ethel J," her boats, tackle, apparel and furniture, in a cause of contract civil and maritime;

And whereas, by virtue of process in due form of law, to me directed, returning to me on the 2nd day of August, 1910, I have seized and taken the said steam tug "Ethel J" and have her in my custody;

Notice is hereby given, that a District Court will be held in the United States court room, in the city of Marquette, Michigan, on the 2nd day of August, 1910, for the trial of said premises, and the owner or owners, and persons who may have or claim any interest, are hereby cited to be and appear at the time and place aforesaid, to show cause, if any they have, why a final decree should not pass as prayed.

FRANK V. WAITE, U. S. Marshal. By Deputy.

THE U. P.'S FAVORITE SON.

Mr. Musselman and Mr. Clapperton gave the audience assembled at the city hall Tuesday evening common sense and reasonable talks on state affairs, and left a good impression with those who heard them. Of the excellence of Mr. Musselman's parts, of his ability and of his integrity of purpose, there can be no doubt, and these things make good gubernatorial timber. If Mr. Musselman were elected to take charge of the state's affairs as chief executive there would be no doubt that the duty and trust would be well discharged, and that Mr. Musselman's conduct of the office would be characterized by good judgment and close devotion to duty. No one desirous of dealing fairly by Mr. Musselman would think of gainsaying these things.

But this does not furnish any particular reason why Mr. Musselman should expect material support in the upper peninsula. In Kent county Mr. Musselman has great strength because, in addition to his excellent qualifications for the office of governor, he is a loyal resident of Grand Rapids and Kent, whose devotion to the interests of his home city and county have never been questioned. He is Kent's favorite son.

The upper peninsula also has a favorite son. He likewise is admirably qualified for the office of governor. He is a man of broad sympathies, fine qualities of mind and dauntless courage. He has convictions and does not abate them a jot when he is called on to make them known. He has courage to hit a head that needs hitting and to sail in to clean up any bad place in state government that happens to need cleaning. He is one of the best equipped candidates for high office who has come before the voters of Michigan for many years.

All these things and the fact that he is a favorite son entitle him to the loyal support of the upper peninsula voters the same as Mr. Musselman is going to have the support of the voters in Kent. And make no mistake, Mr. Osborn is going to get it. Friends of the other candidates may paint the situation as rosy as they please in their misplaced hopes, but when primary day comes the upper Michigan vote will come up to Mr. Osborn's most sanguine hopes. The upper peninsula public applauds a game fighter and a fearless man, and when he comes from among them they back him to a finish.

LOWER STATE NOTES.

ITHACA—Mrs. N. M. Vernon, wife of a local painter and paperhanger, was convicted of assaulting her aged mother and sentenced to ninety days in the Detroit house of correction. The aged woman is said to be in a critical condition at the Gratiot county poor farm, whither she was removed.

ITHACA—Louis D. Cole, a contractor of St. Louis, Mich., was instantly killed two miles north of Alma, when his auto plunged off the road. When found by Dr. Lamb, of Alma, he was lying about sixty feet from the machine, and showed no signs of a bruise. One wheel of the auto was said to be in a critical condition at the Gratiot county poor farm, whither she was removed.

TRAVERSE CITY—The fight over who has the right to do the scavenger work of the city has reached the circuit court. Walter G. Struble, filed suit against George W. Geger and the county of Grand Traverse for $1,000 damages. Struble was former city scavenger and when Geger was appointed continued to do the work. Geger had him arrested, but the case was thrown out of court. Now Struble alleges that his former customers turn him down.

BATTLE CREEK—Printers at the offices of the Daily Moon, E.M.S. Publishing company, Gage Printing company, Good Health plant, Loring Lane Publishing company and the Phoenix Publishing company have gone on strike for an eight-hour day. The Enquirer Publishing company and the Journal Printing company granted the demands of the Union and the men did not go out.

TRAVERSE CITY—With a red hot nail in his foot and nothing to remove it with but his bare hands, Stanley Snyder, son of Dr. J. A. Snyder, pulled out the nail with the result that in addition to a seriously injured foot, his thumb and forefinger on his right hand are burned to the bone. At the Snyder caught fire and dropped to the porch. Forgetting that a large nail was used to hold the candle, Stanley undertook to stamp it out, the nail penetrating his shoe and going deeply into his foot.

KALAMAZOO—William E. House, a jeweler with a store on West Main street, across from the jail, was a victim of burglars. Goods to the value of $1,000, consisting of jewelry, watches and diamond rings, were taken. Mr. House closed his store early in the evening and went home to supper. When he returned he found the front door unlocked. Goods to the value of $1,000, consisting of jewelry, watches and diamond rings, were taken. Mr. House closed his store early in the evening and went home to supper. When he returned he found the front door unlocked. The burglars either used a duplicate key or were relieved of the trouble by the failure of the proprietor to lock the door.

LANSING—Allie Andrews was arrested in Jackson, charged with the larceny of an automobile, the complaint being made by a Lansing man. The wife of the prisoner was in the police court when her husband was arraigned and declared that her husband's arrest was a scheme of another man to compel her to live with him. This man she said once threatened to kill her husband. Mrs. Andrews declared that the automobile was given to her husband on condition that he would leave Lansing and leave her here, but when her husband left, she insisted on going with him, and this caused the complaint to be made, she said.

BATTLE CREEK—With Mayor John Bailey, Democrat, away on his honeymoon and every Democratic alderman absent for the first time since election, President S. A. Howes, Republican, acting mayor, sprang a sensation at the council meeting by appointing Aldermen Powers, Gillis and Zelinski as a committee to investigate graft on the part of at least one Democratic alderman whose name was suppressed. It is charged that this alderman accepted $50 from a steam roller company as a bribe, with the knowledge of one or more of his Democratic colleagues in the council. The Democrats hoped to prevent a council meeting in Bailey's absence for lack of quorum, but though taken by surprise, every Republican alderman happened to attend the meeting.

SAGINAW—That the state railroad commission can investigate a power company doing business without a fixed schedule of rates that attempts to disannul the concern, thereby blocking an investigation of rates and cutting off all competition in electric lighting rates, was the statement of Chairman Glasgow of the commission. Mayor Stewart sent a message to the council, giving a thorough history of the relations with the Barrett Illuminating company and its contract, but he recommended that a suit be started to test the legality of the transfer to the Eastern Michigan Power company, completely ignoring any appeal to the state railroad commission, as the citizens have asked. The council backed him up. A resolution to have the matter referred to the commission at once was defeated.

PAW PAW—During the year ending June 30, 1909, there were sixty-five drunks confined in the jail of this county and they divided the accommodations with 156 hoboes. The amended local option law went into effect in September of the same year and at the following October session the board of supervisors adopted a resolution advising magistrates to send convicted vagrants to the Detroit house of correction instead of imposing jail sentences. As a result there was a decrease of 151 in the number of these two classes of offenders for the year ending June 30, 1910. At present there is but one pending criminal case on the records of the circuit court and but one undecided criminal case before any justice in the entire county, a local option examination before Justice Phelps at South Haven. The jail is tenacious and has repeatedly been without a single occupant during the year.

The rule of self-obedience to the right will bring all things into order.—Gladstone.

BUYS MANY BUNNIES.

Uncle Sam Has Purchased The Rabbits for Scientific Purposes.

Washington, July 27.—Fear of an anti-visitation crusade caused Surgeon General Wyman of the public health and marine hospital service to explain today that large quantities of live rabbits, which the service is buying at twenty cents each, will be used only for making serums and anti-toxins. None of the bunnies are to be dissected alive. The rather unusual price for rabbits attracted attention and the surgeon general hastened to make clear that he has no quarrel with the anti-visitation society.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so? The general health of women is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is a female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick person should consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Centre of Population

How This Important Place is Located by Uncle Sam.

Problem Would Seem Hard, but Census Bureau Says It is Comparatively Easy—The Point Has Moved Almost Due Westward Since 1790—Movement Between 1890 and 1900 the Smallest in a Hundred Years.

Washington, July 27.—Every ten years, or when the census is taken, the centre of population of the United States is found to have shifted. For the last ten years this "centre" has been at a point six miles southeast of Columbus, Ind.

The census figures so far made public show that there has been an enormous increase in population in the southwest during the last ten years. The northwest has also grown rapidly in population. During the last two weeks, figures for counties in Texas have been coming out, and they show that counties which ten years ago were sparsely settled now have from 15,000 to 25,000 population each.

The governor outlined his plan before the convention of the Iowa Implement Dealers' association. The average county road, he pointed out, is sixty feet wide, whereas forty feet is sufficient. The result is that the middle and sides of the road grow up in weeds and make unsightly highways, the two channels of traffic being separated and bordered by unused and unsightly weed rows and ditches.

A little investigation discloses the possibilities of Governor Carroll's agricultural states. There are 100,000 miles of country roads in Iowa. This equals 800,000 acres in Iowa to compare with the main arteries of communication and transportation, others are little more than lanes, weed choked and rutty.

The "centre of population" of the country is first distributed by square degrees, where it is located by the intersection of the parallel and meridian lines has been designated. A point is then assumed, tentatively, as the centre, and correction in latitude and longitude to the tentative position are computed. Ten years ago, the centre was assumed to be at the intersection of the parallel of 39 degrees north with the meridian of 86 degrees west of Greenwich. The population of each square degree was assumed to be located at the centre of that square degree, except in cases where it was manifest that this assumption would be untrue, as, for instance, where a part of the square degree was occupied by the sea or other large body of water, or where it contained a city of considerable magnitude which was situated "off centre".

The house at Ormeau is small and offers scant opportunity for entertaining. At Gladys' castle, with its numerous suites, its splendid ball room and dining hall and its superb park, Count Szechenyi can dispense the hospitality which every Magyar is proud to lavish. But amid all the glories of the castle the countess, motherlike, is most absorbed by the suite which contains the bedroom, nursery, playroom and bath of her small daughter, Countess Correllia Maria Alexandra Nadine. This suite was constructed under the supervision of a noted specialist on hygiene brought here from London.

The castle is in the midst of a great estate on which stands a historic pilgrimage church and an ancient inn, both of which have been carefully preserved while the building and improvements have been going on. In the vicinity are the fine castle and estate owned by Count Alexandra Andrássy.

So the landed possessions of Count László Szechenyi and his American wife increase. Besides their estates at Ormeau and Felső Renete, they own a splendid house on the most elegant street of this city, Andrássy street, a palatial mansion in Vienna and they have been acquiring hundreds of acres of the most desirable farming lands in the kingdom.

Upper Peninsula

Canadian Policy Denounced. Last Sunday C. H. Humberford and Alfred Holge were arrested and their launch, fishing tackle and an automatic gun were seized by A. Calbeck, overseer of game and fisheries for the district of Algoma, and Provincial Constable Flanagan, reports the Soo Times. The young men were caught fishing in Canadian water without the necessary license. They had caught no fish, but as their lines were set, he said that because of the horrible crime had been committed. The magistrate compelled each of them to take out a license and pay $10 as costs for the constables and storage on their boat while it remained in the Canadian port. In regard to the launch and other paraphernalia seized by A. Calbeck, overseer of game and fisheries for the district of Algoma, it is reported to the department at Toronto and those interested would arrange for its recovery, provided the department saw fit to return it to its owners.

The action of the game warden and constable is stamped with an outrage by all who are familiar with the facts and conditions surrounding the case. Has the Canadian government ever planted trout in the St. Mary's river? No, but its people are always ready to take advantage of the generosity of the state of Michigan in that respect. On the other hand, the Michigan state fish hatchery has planted millions and millions of speckled trout, rainbow trout and brook-trout salmon in this stream. And these fish are driven from our waters by the constant dredging and channel improvements into the Canadian water where they are seldom disturbed by like enterprise. Then we are asked to pay $5 for the privilege of bringing a few of them back after they have crossed the line. It is an injustice and imposition. In addition to the fish planted in this river, a number of streams and lakes in Ontario adjacent to the Soo have been stocked from a surplus from the Michigan hatchery. Michigan authorities have never questioned the right of Canadians to fish on our side of the river, and they frequently indulge in the sport without interference and without being held up for a fee. Last Sunday, while the Canadian officials were holding the boys and launch above mentioned, two Canadian fishermen were casting flies at the rapids on our side of the river, and were not molested. There is no good reason why they should have been.

In view of the attitude of the Canadian authorities, it will be well for Michigan people to keep on their own side of the river with their launches. It is dangerous for citizens to put in at a Canadian dock for supplies if they happen to have fishing tackle, guns, ammunition or anything of a similar nature aboard that the constables or deputy game warden can offer as an excuse for confiscating the outfit and making a little easy money.

LITTLE FOLKS SCORE A HIT.

"Miles Standish" Given Before a Large and Enthusiastic Gathering.
 For a second time the children of the eighth grade of the training department of the Normal appeared last night in the dramatization of "Miles Standish" before a large and enthusiastic gathering. Playing to an appreciative assemblage, the children were at their best and presented a most artistic and intelligent interpretation of the story. The three leading characters won the audience from the first words they uttered and held it to the last. The part of Miles Standish was taken by Philip Case. For one so young his deliberate action and lack of self-consciousness were quite remarkable. His portrayal of the gruff, war-loving captain, his pathetic soliloquy as he stood gazing at the grave of Rose Standish and the intensity of his anger against John Alden showed unusual versatility. A more pleasing and winsome Priscilla than Signa Gilling can scarcely be imagined. Her dramatic temperament, combined with a flexible and magnetic voice, made the reading of her lines sympathetic and forceful throughout the evening. While she appeared to advantage in all her scenes, her rendition of the spinning scene was especially good. The fact that every character, no matter how insignificant the role, did the work as if it were a star part contributed no small amount to the success of the evening. The musical numbers of the program were most thoroughly appreciated and received with the pleasure of the evening. They were furnished by Mrs. H. C. Davis, the Misses Koob, Grills, Quayle and Olson and Ernest E. Roberts of Ishpeming.

ISHPERING DROPS GAME TO NEGAUNEE

Hemaitie City Team Was Outbatted and Outplayed in the Field Yesterday.

Negaunee	15	6	714
Marquette	10	10	500
Ishpeming	9	11	450
Crystal Falls	6	13	316

The postponed league game between the Ishpeming and Negaunee teams played yesterday afternoon at the Union park grounds was won by Negaunee by a score of 8 to 3. It was Negaunee's game from start to finish, as Negaunee players were stronger with the stick than Ishpeming and their all-around playing was superior. It was the first game in which Negaunee had been able to solve Dixon's curves. Yesterday he was touched for twelve clean hits, two of them three-baggers by Cullis and Rosewar, and two doubles by Cullis and McKale. Rosewar was in the box for Negaunee and was effective in all innings except the sixth, when he was touched for two singles and a double, the latter by St. John.

The game was the most sensational that has been seen on the grounds this season, as some of the players were inclined to do a little spiking, this resulting in a brief fist encounter at second during the third inning. Prior to this rumpus both St. John and Swick were knocked out. St. John was passed to first and stole second. He was leading off and Rosewar threw the ball to Swick, who collided with St. John as he was making a dive for the bag. Both men's legs were hurt, and it was fully ten minutes before they could resume playing. St. John was called out. The trouble on second occurred a few minutes later. Dixon had fanned. Burke was walked, then stole second. He took about the same lead that St. John had taken and in returning to the bag when Rosewar threw to Swick in an attempt to retire him, it looked as though he attempted to spike Swick. Burke fell and Cullis caught him by the throat. St. John, who was ready on the side line near first, ran out and struck Cullis. There was then a general discussion with several fists in the air, but playing was resumed without any more blows being struck.

In all of the innings when Negaunee scored timely hitting was largely responsible for the runs. Cullis' first man up in the first inning, had two strikes and three balls and then slammed the ball for three bases into center. Nevitt fielded the ball to St. John, who threw high to third, Cullis scoring. In the second inning, Negaunee scored again after Messier and Simpson had fanned. McKale singled and Rosewar followed with a three-bagger, bringing McKale home.

In the fifth, Cullis opened with a two-bagger and scored on Rains' single. Rains reached third on sacrifices by McCrory and Swick, and came home on Heidenson's single.

In the sixth inning Simpson fanned and McKale hit for two bases, scoring on Cullis' single. Negaunee's three runs in the eighth were due to errors, one by Dixon and the other by Whitman, and two singles, by Rains and Larson.

Up to the sixth inning Ishpeming had touched Rosewar for only two safe hits, one by Bilger in the first, and one by St. John in the fourth. The sixth opened with Klebs at the bat. He went out, Swick to McKale; Laxstrom was hit by a pitched ball and Larson, and Whitman secured singles. St. John hitting for two bases. Gonlette, who ran from second for St. John, was retired at third, when he attempted to reach the sack on Dixon's grounder to Cullis.

The features of the game were Cullis' hitting and playing at short, Swick's work at second and St. John's hitting and fielding of ground hits. The hit for made one very difficult pickup with his left hand of a ground hit over near first base, retiring the side with men on second and third sacks.

Reinhardt, who joined the team a few weeks ago, but who had never been given a tryout in the box, pitched the last inning for the Ishpeming nine. He fanned Messier, the first man up, but Simpson secured a hit. The Ishpeming players and fans questioned Harris' decision on the hit, as it looked as though it was a foul out from the third base line. McKale and Rosewar both hit to the infield and were thrown out at first. Reinhardt batted in the ninth inning, and although he did not secure a hit, he touched the ball for a half dozen fouls before he was finally thrown out on a ground hit to first.

Bilger, who played at third, is from the Gladstone team. Score was unable to come down from Hurley and Bilger was secured in his place. He played a nice game.

A BEAUTIFUL MUSICAL COMEDY.

Seats are going very rapidly for the beautiful comedy, "Up and Down Broadway," which will appear at the Ishpeming theatre Saturday night. There will be a procession of automobiles from the opera house to the theatre to have a jolly time on the way over, throwing serpentine confetti, and helping to boost the opera generally.

In Marquette, where the opera will play tonight and Friday, the theatre has been practically sold out.

The electrical effects are remarkable and the stage will present a wonderful display with its sixty chorus girls in attractive costumes. The songs are all of the jolly whistling kind and among the big hits are "My Spanish Rose," "Merry Little Milliner," "Aren't You the Girl I Met at Sherrys", "Starland", "After the Matinee," etc.

PYTHIAN PICNIC.

Second Annual Outing of Lodge Members a Big Success.

The basket picnic given yesterday at the Cleveland park by Zenith lodge, Knights of Pythias, was well attended from both cities, and many women and children were present.

During the afternoon a program of sports was enjoyed. The event consisted of 100-yard dash for Pythians; tug of war between married and single men; nail driving contest for ladies; anaerobic race for boys under twelve years; anaerobic eating contest for boys; apple contest for girls; shot put, free for all; parlor race for boys and orange race for girls. J. S. Olson directed the sports.

There was dancing at one of the pavilions in the afternoon and evening. The music was furnished by the Ishpeming band. Several hundred baseball fans, including men, women and children, enjoyed the game at Union Park following the league contest between the Ishpeming and Negaunee teams. It was played by nines captained by William Hooper and James Roberts. Owling to the fact the league game was not finished until after 4 o'clock, the Pythian teams played only four innings. The Roberts nine won by a score of 7 to 4.

George F. Ruez's Review.

Early London quotations for American stocks came from 1 to 2 points higher on the strength of the favorable Steel earnings announced yesterday. The New York market followed the London quotations and added from 1 to 4 points more before the market closed today. Well-informed people say that the action of the New York market today is better than it has been for months and that it looks as if something that has been hanging over the market has been lifted. Annual earnings were very strong. Closing around 56 last night, it opened this morning around 57 and closed around 59 1/2. The high for the day. Reports from New York today say investment buyers on a good scale was in evidence all day. The Boston coppers also acted well, and copper stocks were well accumulated all day on the strength of a better outlook for the metal. It was reported today that the United Metals Selling company today made additional sales of copper at a shade better than 12 1/2 cents for electrolytic. It is now estimated that this selling company has disposed of more than thirty million pounds of copper. It is said that there is a much better demand for copper and a large interest purchased close to 5,000,000 pounds of the foreign demand also shows improvement. Indications at last point to the long looked for turn in the copper metal market and this with a market for copper shares. I would buy any of the good copper now. We will get setbacks occasionally but the trend of the market is surely upward.

D. T. Morgan & Co's Letter.

The New York market was much better today and except for a short period following the opening held strong, with gradual gains during the day. The advances were general and ranged from a large fraction to 3/4 points. The quarterly statement of the Steel corporation is regarded as disproving the contention in several quarters that the outlook for the steel trade is gloomy. Light rains in the corn belt expected, as did also good buying for foreign metal, are further irregularities in the market which mean a market for copper shares. I would buy any of the good copper now. We will get setbacks occasionally but the trend of the market is surely upward.

GWINN.

REPORTS EXAGGERATED.

Accounts of Forest Fires in Outside Papers Were Overdrawn.

The heavy rains of Sunday and Monday completely extinguished the forest fires near Gwinn, Swazey and the mining locations of this range. The fires were the worst that have ever been experienced here. Many of the residents of the several locations worked hard in their efforts to save their homes.

The reports of the fires in this vicinity appearing in some of the outside city papers were greatly exaggerated, as will be seen from the following which appeared in a Chicago paper of Saturday: "Driven into Little Lake by forest fires which destroyed his homestead and all his belongings, John Carlson, living near Negaunee, stood up to his neck in the lake all last night and part of today to escape with his life. "Carlson stayed at his farm as long as he dared in a desperate struggle to save his property from destruction. The flames licked up his home, and then Carlson was forced to take the only way of escape open, the lake."

VALUABLE COW KILLED. Snare Set for Deer Catches It and Strangles It to Death.

Thursday a cow owned by Mrs. A. Oja, who lives about three miles from Gwinn, walked into a wire snare that was set for deer and was strangled to death. Parties residing in and near Gwinn and Princeton have been killing game out of season and the snaring method for catching deer is not a new one in this vicinity. It is not known who set the snare but if the party is caught a severe penalty will be dealt out. Game birds and animals are being killed regularly out of season and true sportsmen of this region are on the hunt for the violators of the law.

LAKE AND SPRING WATER TO BE TESTED

Health Officer Does Not Believe That Typhoid Is Due to Its Contamination.

Dr. C. J. Larson, the health officer, has decided to send samples of Teal lake water, also the spring water, to Ann Arbor for examination. The prevalence of typhoid fever in the city has caused many to believe that the disease is due to the impurity of the Teal Lake water. Dr. Larson, however, thinks that the water is free from typhoid germs. He plans to send several samples of water drawn from taps in different parts of the city, and one or two samples of the spring water, which is generally used for drinking purposes.

There are now some six or eight cases of typhoid in the city. Three of these are convalescent, and the others are now in their full stage of development. Dr. Larson said that most of the cases have come from outside. The case of the late Ross Hansen was the only one that has proved fatal. Mr. Hansen's seven-year-old son was taken down with the disease some days before he became ill with it, and it is assumed that the father contracted it from the boy. The child has about recovered. Mr. Hansen was suffering with the disease for from twelve to fourteen days before it was known what his trouble was, as he did not consult a physician until the case was pretty well developed. He was not sick enough to remain home from work.

Typhoid is now prevalent all over the country. Physicians are unable to determine the cause for so much typhoid at this time, unless it is due to the prolonged dry spell. Persons suffering with typhoid can be infected with the disease for from ten to fourteen days before it is fully developed. The Negaunee people suffering with it who came from outside places were home less than ten days before they were taken down, so that Dr. Larson considers this positive evidence that they contracted the typhoid enroute to the city, or at the places where they came from.

Most of those who are now and those who have been ill with typhoid here are young men and women. Miss Ray Ore is in a much worse condition than any of the others now down with it, but she is suffering from a complication of ill, among them being pneumonia. Miss Ore's condition was critical Tuesday night, but she seemed well yesterday, and it is hoped that she will suffer only a mild attack.

Oscar Larson is wiring the dwelling Andrew Carlson is building on Heath street, and he also has a wiring contract at a new house being erected in the Collins addition. Mr. Carlson's dwelling is now ready for the carter's.

Rev. W. B. Coombe, former pastor of the Mitchell Methodist church here, now located at Ironwood, was nominated for the office of secretary of the grand lodge, Sons of St. George, at Iron Mountain, instead of president, as some of the papers had it.

A delegation of Negaunee people attended the Knights of Pythias picnic at the Cleveland park yesterday. The ball games between the Negaunee and Ishpeming league teams and the two Knights of Pythias nines were also well attended by Negaunee fans.

Paul Brisson and Nicholas Kratz, flagmen with the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Railway company, have changed places. Brisson going to the Pioneer crossing and Kratz to the Gold street crossing. Mr. Brisson will take care of the switches as well as watch the crossing on Pioneer avenue.

She closes her letter by saying: "I heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to any sufferer of kidney disease. It saved my life."

STREET PAVEMENTS.

All Service Pipes Will Be Put in as Work Progresses.

The members of the board of public works anticipate that at least three or four bids will be received for the paving contract, which will be awarded Saturday afternoon, provided one of the bids is acceptable. If the contract is awarded the board will ask Manager McCormick of the Marquette County Gas & Electric company to immediately put in service gas pipes from the mains to the buildings on the streets that are to be paved. Most of the buildings on Iron street are already connected with the gas mains so that it will be necessary to dig up the street in only a comparatively few places. This work can be done within a few days.

The bids for the paving contract are to be put in with the understanding that the street railway is to be removed. In the event the street railway remains on Iron street, the expense of the work will be somewhat higher. The matter of removing the street car line to the proposed route north of the Northwestern tracks has not yet been disposed of.

BATTING AVERAGE IS RAISED.

As the members of the Negaunee team secured thirteen hits in yesterday's game against Ishpeming, the batting average of some of the players went up several notches. Cullis is still the batting star of the team and McCroly and Rains are not far behind them. The team's batting average, .257, is the highest of any team in the league. The individual averages are now as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Name, A.R., H, P.C. Cullis .82 27 329, McCroly .73 23 314, Rains .55 11 314, Heidenson .64 18 281, Swick .79 21 266, Steidle .21 5 238, Simpson .17 4 233, Rosevear .30 7 235, McKale .22 5 227, Messier .75 16 213, Seibenthal .17 3 176

ILL WITH DIPHTHERIA.

Mrs. Hicks, wife of Rev. R. T. T. Hicks, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, has been taken down with diphtheria. Mrs. Hicks is quarantined at her home. Rev. Hicks and his wife returned a week ago tomorrow from a trip down the lakes and it is thought that she contracted the disease while away, as there has been no diphtheria here for some months past. Mrs. Hicks was feeling well yesterday and it is hoped that she will suffer only a mild attack.

We wish to thank the members of the Odd Fellows societies of Ishpeming and Negaunee; the Scandinavian and Danish Brotherhood societies of the two cities and the Boys of Negaunee, also the officials and employees of the Brieting mines, for their kindness and for floral offerings. We also wish to thank our neighbors who rendered assistance and who sent flowers.

Scaffold Gave Way—

An accident occurred in Ironwood township, Gogebic county, the other morning in which seven persons had narrow escapes from meeting death. They were building a house for Andrew Niemi near Montreal when a scaffold gave away, dropping six men and a boy about fourteen feet. Otto Kiekko, Peter Juntenen and John Pepponen were seriously injured. The other four men escaped with slight bruises.

Tragic Deaths at Bessemer—

Three tragic deaths are reported from Bessemer. One of these was that of the two-year-old son of John Laupatt. The boy died from lockjaw. Helen Jurkonen, aged eighteen months, another victim, fell into a tub of hot water and was scalded to death. Carl J. Cederstrom, aged sixty-eight years, committed suicide by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver. Cederstrom was an old resident.

Started Over the Rapids—

Pete Murray, Charles Reid and Russ Stonehouse of the Soo had a hair-raising experience while fishing in the St. Mary's above the railroad bridge the other day. They had rowed out to one of the log broomsticks anchored above the International bridge, preparing to fish when their grappling hook slipped off the log, letting them down into the swift water. While all three of them were considerably agitated over their perilous position, they had the presence of mind to leave their anchor towards the shore, and it finally caught. With the right kind of maneuvering they finally managed to beach the boat.

New School Superintendent Chosen—

The Escanaba board of education has engaged Professor F. E. King, of Ames, Iowa, as superintendent of the public schools for the coming year at a salary of $2,300. For the past six years Mr. King has been superintendent of the schools at Ames and previous to that time he was superintendent at Centerville and at Montou, Iowa. He is forty-six years of age and for the past twenty years has been engaged in educational work. He is a native of Massachusetts.

Wireless Station Abandoned—

The Sault Ste. Marie office of the Great Lakes Radio-Telephone company has been abandoned, and it is reported that a dozen other offices of the same company have been closed down. This concern recently erected a tower on Ashmun hill at the Soo at a cost of $3,500 and installed a $5,000 equipment, but it is now said that it has become insolvent. A number of these wireless companies have proved to be mere stock-jobbing schemes, and it is wondered if this is one of that number, comments the Soo Times. The Soo is interested in the disposition of the big tower. Unless it is taken over and used by some company,

MORGAN PLACE FOR HOSPITAL

Board of Supervisors Decides to Build the County Tuberculosis Sanitarium on Hill Just North of the County Road, on Section 25, Township 48-26.

This Site Favored Because of Its Topography, Its Elevation and Its Nearness to Transportation Lines—Some Objection to This Location Expressed.

At a prolonged session of the county board of supervisors at the court house yesterday it was voted to empower the special tuberculosis hospital committee to secure the south half of the southwest quarter of section 25, town 48-26, for the site of such a hospital, and to advertise for bids for the construction of the proposed building, according to the plans drawn by Architect D. Fred Charlton and approved by the board. The eighty acres chosen for the site of the hospital is located at Morgan, on the high bluff on the north side of the county road, just east of where it crosses the south track of the South Shore railroad.

Those who have examined this location are unanimous in the opinion that it is an ideal site for a tuberculosis hospital. The eighty consists of a level plateau, 1,280 feet above sea level and 678 feet above Lake Superior. It is heavily wooded with second growth timber and is shielded from the north winds by a high hill. The hospital, when completed, will command a beautiful view and will be within a stone's throw of the South Shore and within a half mile of the L. S. & L. railway. The land is owned by the Champlain Lumber Company, and secured under a long term lease without expense to the county.

As has already been intimated, the decision to purchase this site was not reached without considerable discussion and opposition. The special committee reported to the board that they were favorable to that site, but stated that some objections had been raised and that they thought it advisable to have the matter discussed before the whole board. Prosecuting Attorney Bell outlined what the committee had done since its appointment. He said they had examined a number of sites, notably the one at the county poor farm, one at Harvey near the county road crusher, one at Negaunee south of the Lucy mine, one near the Marquette township town hall and this one at Morgan. The Morgan site was generally considered the most suitable because of the ease with which title could be obtained, because of its situation, surroundings and elevation and its nearness to the railroad and the public highway.

Mr. Bell admitted that a tuberculosis hospital could be more economically maintained at the county poor farm than at Morgan, but stated that many would object to taking treatment at the poor house, as it would be likely termed. Objections to Morgan Site. Dr. F. McD. Harkin was then asked to state his ideas on the question of location. Dr. Harkin has been very active in advocating the tuberculosis hospital and has advised with the committee from the start. He expressed himself as opposed to the Morgan site and in favor of building the institution at the county poor farm. His objections to the Morgan site were that it lacked good water, sewage disposal facilities and that it would be necessary to build an expensive pole line to have electric lights, which were necessary in such an institution. Its distance from any city and a physician were also urged as reasons for locating the building on the county poor farm. He stated that the institution would necessarily have to be for indigent patients only and that this class would have no sentimental prejudice against going to the poor farm for treatment.

Dr. L. L. Goodnow, of Michiganame, took issue with Dr. Harkin and spoke strongly in favor of the Morgan site. He said that the institution should not be built with the idea of treating indigent patients exclusively, but with the idea of attracting the semi-poor and semi-rich, afflicted with the disease, some of whom could pay in part at least for their treatment. He said that wells could be sunk to obtain water, that a septic tank would have to be installed to take care of the sewerage, wherever the building was located, and the expense of extending an electric light pole line from Marquette or Negaunee would not be a great item. He thought that the superior natural location of the Morgan site more than outweighed the economic advantages of the poor farm location.

The few opposing the Morgan site endeavored to defer final action on the question of site until a later date, but they were overruled. The motion to instruct the committee to secure the Morgan site was made, seconded and almost unanimously carried. The matter of proceeding with the construction of the building next came up. Here, again, some of the supervisors favored going slow and putting off final action, but the large majority voted otherwise. It was voted to advertise for bids for the construction of the hospital, providing for either wood or brick exterior, according to the plans drawn up some time ago by Architect Charlton, and sanctioned by the committee and the board.

Plans for Building. Mr. Charlton's plans for the hospital call for a two-story building, the dimensions of which are roughly 63 by 70 feet. At one end of the structure is a two-story porch, on which the patients would live, coming into the building only at meal time. On the second story, over the front entrance, is a compartment designed for those in the advanced stages of the disease, where they are permitted to live in rooms or out of doors, as they choose. The front entrance on the first floor leads into a reception hall and dining room for the patients on that floor. One half of this floor is designed exclusively for the use of doctors, nurses and attendants and their quarters would be entirely separate and distinct from those of the patients. The opposite wing of the building, to which the open porch is attached, consists of locker rooms and toilet rooms for the patients. The beds are on the open porch and the idea is to lock the patients out of the main building all the time, except at meals. They would live on the porch in the open air, it having been demonstrated that pure air and diet are the only effectual medicines for the disease.

The second floor is practically a duplicate of the first, one floor being for male and the other for female patients. Men and women would be kept separate at all times, and, in fact, would never see each other. These plans have been drawn after having inspected several tuberculosis hospitals in lower Michigan and other states, and are believed to embody the good points of all of them.

Other Business. But little other than the tuberculosis hospital question came up at the meeting yesterday. It was voted to pay Wm. Ford $100 and Chas. Briggs $50 as a reward for having captured Palmer Grunette, who is alleged to have committed a dastardly assault on a young girl at Little Lake a short time ago. A petition was referred to the committee on highways and bridges, asking an appropriation of $350 toward the construction of a bridge across the Ely river in Tilden township, in section 21, township 47-27.

A petition was also submitted asking for a new bridge across the Michigan river at Republic. This was referred to the same committee. The committee recommended that the county give $100 toward the repairing of the road south of Ely township. The board then adjourned until September 7, at which time bids for the tuberculosis hospital will be considered.

PREDICTS INSTANT SUCCESS. Capable Theatrical Man Says "Up and Down Broadway" Is a Fine Show.

An interested spectator at a rehearsal of "Up and Down Broadway" last night was Lee Parvin, business manager of H. E. Pierce & Co.'s Associate Players, who open an engagement here next Monday. Mr. Parvin, who has been at different times with various musical attractions, speaks as follows: "I predict instant and positive success for 'Up and Down Broadway' next Thursday night. The lines are witty and the musical numbers go with a snap and vim that would not be expected of old professional people who have been rehearsing wonders in this respect, and has used excellent taste in the selection of songs that are to be sung. It is often that a single catchy song will save a whole show. When it is considered that only the big hits of the latest successes have been used in this production, coupled with the fact that he has certainly rounded up some unusual talent, its success is assured, and it will not be due to the fact that the participants are local people either. It would go just as well in any other city in this section. Mr. McDonald is deserving of the success that is without doubt in store for him and the members of his capable company.

There are a few good seats left for the first performance tonight, but they will probably be taken quickly to-day and the "standing room only" sign will undoubtedly be necessary. The boxes are being decorated especially for this affair and with the beautiful gowns worn by the people in the audience the house will present a very brilliant appearance.

THEATRICAL.

"Strongheart." The press in cities where the Pierce Associate Players have made their appearance this summer is unstinting in its praise of the company. The Superior Telegram had the following to say of "Strongheart," which will be the opening bill here Monday night: "A large audience greeted the Pierce Associate Players at the Grand last night when they made their initial bow to the public in DeMille's famous college play, 'Strongheart.'"

"To say that the audience was pleased with the performance is putting it mildly. Few high-priced road organizations ever made a bigger hit with a single performance than did the Pierce players last night. 'Youth predominates in 'Strongheart.' Although 'Strongheart' is serious in theme Mr. DeMille has provided comedy in plenty—good, youthful, healthful, clean comedy, for it breathes the college spirit, particularly when football is in the air and pictures vividly the excitement attendant on the big game of the season. It reflects the days that are delight to recall—the days of youth, spontaneous fun, of frolic, of fraternities, of campus heroes and boy and girl love affairs. There is not an old person on the stage."

"Mr. Jossey's characterization of the red skin is the most delightful acting seen in this city for some time. Miss Blanche Douglas, who plays the role of Dorothy Nelson, is indeed a very clever woman with a talent for both comedy and emotion, that fit this play remarkably. The balance of the cast were remarkably well balanced and gave a performance that will long be remembered in Superior. Special mention should be made of Mr. Money as the coach. The scenic settings are very appropriate and are admirably suited to this play."

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Winkler, Evans, Ind. "I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. TOWNSITE BOOMERS ARE IN TROUBLE

Arrested on Complaint of Negaunee Man on Charge of Misrepresenting Facts.

F. Roach and Norman E. Ganung, who have been in this county for several days interesting local people in town lots at Trinidad, Wash., were treated to an unpleasant surprise yesterday, when they were placed under arrest by Sheriff Lehman, on complaint of Oliver Johnson, of Negaunee, charged with having obtained $15 under false pretenses. The men appeared before Justice Byrne and gave a cash bond in the sum of $100, guaranteeing their appearance at the justice court trial at 10:30 this morning. Mr. Johnson alleges in his bill of complaint that Roach and Ganung induced him to part with $15 in part payment for one of the lots in Trinidad, and that the lot was sold to him by gross misrepresentation of the conditions at that town. He declares that these promoters told him that there was a bank building, a hotel and drug store at Trinidad, that a large warehouse was being constructed and that a water and sewer system was being installed. By these and other statements of similar nature, Mr. Johnson claims that he was induced to make a payment of $15 on one of the lots in that town.

Some days ago Sheriff Lehman took pains to write to the Great Northern Land company, of Spokane, and asked them about the town of Trinidad and the Great Northern Land & Townsite company, which Roach and Ganung presume to represent. The reply received from the Spokane company was the cause of the promoters' arrest. The letter stated that the buildings at Trinidad consisted of a section house and water tank, that the land in that immediate vicinity was a sage brush desert and that practically the only signs of life there were an occasional jack rabbit or coyote. When in Justice Byrne's office yesterday, Roach and Ganung emphatically denied having made any such statements to Mr. Johnson as were alleged in the bill of complaint. They admitted that there was little at Trinidad at present except a railroad station, claiming for it 150 people and that it was a shipping point for the Big Bend wheat country. They said, however, that when the surrounding country was irrigated, it was destined to become one of the garden spots of the world. They declared without equivocation that they had never said there was a bank building or a sewer and water system in course of construction at Trinidad.

BAR MEETING ENDS.

State Convention Closed With a Whitefish Dinner at Presque Isle.

The annual meeting of the Michigan State Bar association closed yesterday afternoon with a whitefish luncheon at Presque Isle, given by the Marquette County to the bar of the Marquette county to the bar of the state. The dinner was cooked at the prison by Chef James Deagan and was served hot on the north side of the island. About seventy partook of the feast, among whom were a number of ladies. J. F. Hamblitz, of the copper country, was called upon to say something funny after the dinner and he responded nobly with several dialect stories, told in his own inimitable way. The rest of the afternoon was spent in automobile riding and boating at the island and elsewhere. Two excellent papers were read at the session in the court house yesterday forenoon. H. M. Oren, of Sault Ste. Marie, had for his subject, "Some Recent 'Soo' Legislation." He used this title as a cloak for a very interesting review of the litigation regarding the riparian rights in St. Mary's river. Burritt Hamilton, of Battle Creek, spoke on "Corporation Legislation" and called attention to numerous defects in the present laws governing the organization of corporations, particularly business corporations. His paper was a masterly presentation of the subject. The visiting lawyers were delighted with Marquette and their reception here and the meeting is generally considered to have been one of the best in the history of the association. The weather was perfect and those who came to Marquette for a summer outing were well repaid. The papers read were especially good, and served to arouse much interest in proposed remedial legislation, which will be presented at the next session of the legislature.
