

IMPORTANT MOVE IS MADE BY MR. TAFT

First-Hand Information Relative to the Political Conditions in the Western States Is Wanted by the President, and He Sets About to Procure It.

He Calls in Senator Crane and Induces Him to Undertake the Mission—Another Action of Interest Is the Cancellation of All His Fall Engagements.

Beverly, Mass., July 29.—Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, who occupies in the senate a position similar to that of the Republican "whip" in the house, was summoned to Beverly today by President Taft and had a long talk with the chief magistrate.

The president is said to desire this information first-hand. He has the utmost confidence in Senator Crane's political sagacity. Today's action is regarded as one of the most important politically that Mr. Taft has ever made.

The senator's visit was surrounded by the greatest secrecy. Not until the visitor was seen was it admitted that he had been anywhere in the vicinity.

Another important move made by the president today was the announcement that he has cancelled all engagements, tentative and otherwise, that he had made in different parts of the country for the fall.

Whether the cancellation means a reversal of the president's travel policy or not could not be learned. He has left open the question of whether or not he will speak at the national conservation congress which meets at St. Paul Sept. 5.

GOVERNOR KEEPS TROOPS IN CAMP

With Three Regiments of Soldiers in Columbus, Rioting Is Most Desperate.

Columbus, O., July 29.—The presence of three regiments of the National Guard did not deter the Columbus rioters, and tonight proved the worst since the car strike began.

Illinois Miners' Leader Is Out Against Lewis

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—State President John H. Walker, of the Illinois Mine Workers, today announced that he would be a candidate for the national presidency against President Lewis, because of the latter's endorsement of the proposed compromise agreement of the Illinois strike.

Jury in Rawm Case Leaves Question of Suicide Open

Chicago, July 29.—The coroner's jury impelled to inquire into the death of Ira G. Rawm, late president of the Monon railroad, returned an open verdict today. The verdict is worded so as to show that the jurors believe Rawm responsible for his own death, but leaves the question of suicide or accident to be fought out by the family and the insurance companies.

Clara Rosen's Murderer Perishes on the Gallows

Fort Madison, Ia., July 29.—John Jenkins, negro murderer of Clara Rosen, the young white woman killed while returning from choir practice in Ottumwa in February, 1908, was hanged at noon today in the penitentiary here.

Montreal, July 29.—A wireless message from the Canadian Pacific steamer Montrose says that Captain Kendall is confident that the two suspects aboard his vessel are Dr. Crippen and Miss Levee, the latter disguised as a boy.

Their Arrest Due Today

Father Point, Que., July 29.—Inspector Dew, the Scotland Yard detective who holds the key in the Crippen case, arrived here today, being taken off the liner Laurentic by a pilot boat.

The wireless station here re-sounded all day with messages being exchanged between the Canadian authorities, Dew and the captain of the Montrose.

MISSING CASHIER CAUGHT BY POLICE

Wider's Stealings Total $800,000, It Is Said, and Bank May Never Recover a Penny.

New York, July 29.—A frail little man with grey cheeks and hollow eyes, in whose manner and presence there was nothing to suggest that, single-handed, he had lifted some $800,000 worth of bonds and stocks from the strong box in a bank, was arrested today in a downtown restaurant.

Wider, the missing cashier of the Russian-Chinese bank. In court his lawyer, Leon Ginsberg, said that he would plead guilty. Wider was committed to the Tombs in default of $25,000 bail.

CHURCH CRISIS IN SPAIN STIRS UP THE PEOPLE

Premier Canalejas' Stand for Religious Reform Has the Support of the King—Ambassador to the Vatican Is Recalled and Rupture Is Held Inevitable.

There Are Many Clashes Between Catholics and Protestants and to Add to the Excitement the Pretender Announces He Will Lead the Carlists to Battle.

San Sebastian, Spain, July 29.—At the conclusion of a conference this evening between King Alfonso and Premier Canalejas, it was announced that Marquis Oleja, Spanish ambassador to the Vatican, had been recalled.

At the same time the opinion was expressed that a rupture with the Vatican is inevitable. Senor Canalejas told the king that the government could not accept the conditions of the Vatican's last note and that the Vatican would be so informed.

In some quarters it is believed the holy see counts upon the fall of the government. Premier Canalejas, however, is believed to have had the support of King Alfonso ever since he started on his plan for religious reform.

Following the reports that a break with the Vatican was imminent, Prince Jaime, the pretender, issued a manifesto in which he says he will lead the Carlists in battle, which he intimates may be coming soon, and there were numerous clashes between Protestants and Catholics.

Premier Canalejas, referring to the Vatican's last note, said that the government would tolerate no imposition. Spain's recall of the ambassador, it is expected, will be followed by the departure from Madrid of the papal nuncio, when the rupture will be complete.

In addressing a liberal organization tonight the premier declared Spain was struggling for liberty of conscience. He said: "Poor Spain, if we succumb, it will be decadence. The government, which possesses the confidence of the king, will save Spain, despite all and against all."

Spain's recall of the ambassador, it is expected, will be followed by the departure from Madrid of the papal nuncio, when the rupture will be complete.

"Indeed," commented Colonel Roosevelt on the tariff plank of the Ohio platform, and then he spoiled it all by refusing to interpret his "indeed."

Additional information in regard to the school trouble at Escanaba shows that several Escanaba corporations and well-known citizens are the complainants in the injunction proceedings against the school board, in behalf of Mr. Davis. Judge Flannigan orders the board to show cause August 8 why it should not be required to observe the contract Mr. Davis holds, in which he is assured of the position of superintendent for three years at a salary of $2,700 annually.

The Republican state central committee met this week at Grand Rapids and selected Detroit as the place for holding the state convention and October 6 as the time. The county convention will be held September 14 for the purpose of delegating men to attend the state meeting. Senator Smith was appointed the temporary chairman, and will deliver the keynote address. October 6, though a late date, is about the earliest that could be selected. There will be only a month left for the general campaign. The convention will be a harmonious one, in all likelihood, as the only contest of any importance looming up is the one over the office of attorney general. The platform will be a strong administration utterance, but will probably be discreetly phrased, so as not to give wanton offense to any body of voters in the Republican party.

The Chicago Tribune has put forth a story purporting to tell of another angle of the rottenness with which the senatorial election in Illinois last year was permeated. In introducing it the Tribune said that probably every man mentioned in its course would deny any and all of the facts alleged, but that they would be liars. The Tribune was quite right about the denials. They have come thick and fast, and there is general agreement by all the persons involved that the story is but a bit of midsummer madness. It is, in brief, that prior to the sale and delivery of enough Democratic votes to secure the election of Lorimer a bargain was struck and closed, all except the passing of the money, by which Hopkins' re-election was to be obtained also by Democratic votes, some eighteen of which were to be picked up at $2,000 each. This deal did not go through, it is alleged, due to the indiscreet blabbing of one of the legislators who had bargained to sell his vote. The story got to Shurtleff and Sullivan and other parties in interest. They did not want the nomination sold—at least they didn't want it sold for Hopkins' benefit—and they put an end to the deal. The Tribune does not allege that Hopkins knew of the plan, and advances the suggestion that philanthropic friends, who find it worth while to have senators under material obligations, had the project in hand. The story sounds a little far-fetched, but the developments in the Lorimer case show that it is within the bounds of possibility that it should have a firm foundation of truth. There was a goodly part of the last Illinois legislature that was purchasable and apparently there were many bargain hunters at Springfield during the session who were looking for damaged legislative goods. Furthermore the developments in the Lorimer case indicate that the Tribune does not go off half-cocked in its exposures of the devious ways of the Illinois legislature. It usually knows just about what it is doing, and why.

THE STEEL REPORT. Interest in the report of the United States Steel corporation for the quarter ended June 30 centers in the unexpected increase in earnings. It was in March, or even before, that the business world began to be disturbed by rumors of a probable falling off. Pessimistic surmise ran at full tide during April, May and June, and a feeling of uncertainty was aroused that was acutely reflected in the course of stock market prices, culminating in the slump of this week.

The report for the period of apprehension suggests that there was overwork. The net earnings of the Steel corporation for the June quarter are nearly $3,000,000 larger than for the March quarter, when nearly every breast was filled with hope. There was a progressive, although small, improvement. Earnings for June were larger than earnings for April. Unfilled orders fell off from 5,402,514 tons on March 31 to 4,237,794 on June 30, but a large part of this is due to the usual seasonal contraction. The tonnage orders on the books for June 30 were 250,000 tons larger than on the same date in 1909, and 800,000 tons larger than on the same date in 1908. Since June 30 orders are said to have been received in good volume.

Of the earnings of $10,170,000 for the quarter $6,200,205 is allotted to meet sinking funds, depreciation, and extraordinary replacement funds. The debt against the company and its subsidiaries thus suffer its regular reduction, representing as much net gain as if the sum were carried to surplus. For interest $7,311,962 was paid out, and $6,304,919 for the dividends on the preferred stock and $6,357,810 for the dividends on the common. These deductions leave a surplus of $13,910,093 for the quarter, or twice the amount of the common dividend. The Steel corporation earned approximately at the rate of 15 per cent on its common stock during the quarter. This does not suggest extreme poverty. Of the surplus $7,500,000 is appropriated for new property and $6,410,093, equivalent to a 5 per cent extra dividend, is carried to the credit of the common stock.

Further applying its policy of publicity, the Steel directors have passed a resolution requiring the publication of monthly reports of unfilled orders. The insider and the outsider are thus to be placed more nearly on a parity with respect to information that affects investment. The next step will be for the corporation to make monthly, even weekly, reports of earnings, as many railroads do. Big business is to be continued to be done in America, but it is to be less and less done in a corner, and it is possible that in the end the excessive fluctuation now infesting our security market will be lessened.

DIKEMA FOR SPEAKER.

In an interview given out at Grand Rapids this week Representative Dickema again asserts that he is a candidate for speaker of the next house to succeed Cannon, and he professes confidence not only that he will defeat Mayor Ellis of Grand Rapids in the Republican primaries, but that his ambition to succeed Uncle Joe as the arbiter of the house's proceedings will be gratified. While there may be some politics in Mr. Dickema's declarations on these points at this time, he is no doubt sincere in his expressions.

"I believe it is for the best interests of the county that Mr. Cannon should not be re-elected to the speakership," he says. "Next I believe it for the best interests of the party. I believe the speakership is going to go to the middle west. I can see nothing to it but the middle west. Michigan has been a strong state in the Republican party and in the halls of congress. She has been a leader in everything worth while. Why should she not have the speakership?" Mr. Dickema discusses the question of insurgency clearly and interestingly. "Comparatively few understand what insurgency is or what the conditions are in congress," he asserts. "In the legislature party lines are not carefully drawn except once in a great while when some party issue comes up. But this is seldom. Now in congress the party line is sharply defined on every proposition that comes up. In the first place you have the party platform. Then you have the president's message which is backed by the cabinet and the president and represent their best thought and their most ardent wishes. They represent naturally the majority party, and the majority has the pledges of the party platform to carry out. It was that platform upon which the people placed them in power and they must make good.

"The minority party has no constructive policy whatever. The minority in the house is merely an obstructionist party. Its sole duty is to place as many stones on the track of the majority policies as possible and to prevent so far as possible the carrying out of the pledges made by the majority. It frequently happens that not half a dozen of the minority will know what is being voted upon, but will on principle vote against it because it comes from the other side of the house.

"Therefore, if the insurgents joined with the minority become strong enough to obstruct the policies of the majority then we get nothing. There is nothing left when the majority policies are overthrown because there is nothing constructive in the minority policy to take its place. While it is not necessary to do always as one might be told, it is necessary if we are to have any legislation at all that the party of the majority, whichever party it may be, shall stand together sufficiently to enact its legislation. Thus the so-called insurgents when the time comes will be found fighting shoulder to shoulder with the so-called regulars. It is simply a case of when the troops are in camp, this officer may have a difference of opinion on some detail with another officer, but the moment the enemy appears and begins shooting then all the officers move as one man to fight that enemy and all differences are forgotten. It is that way in the congress, and this fall you will see regulars and insurgents fighting shoulder to shoulder against the enemy in order that the pledges of the majority party may not be lost because of lack of a solid fighting front and ammunition."

STATE POLITICS.

This far there is but one contest in sight in the state convention. This is for attorney general. Most of these minor offices have been lost sight of in the gubernatorial and senatorial campaigns. But it should be remembered that all state officers must be elected this fall and the convention must nominate all officers below lieutenant governor. These are: Secretary of state, land commissioner, state treasurer, auditor general and attorney general. For this latter office there are several candidates and some who are well known to the voters. Franz Kuhn, appointed to succeed John E. Bird when the latter succeeded Judge Montgomery on the supreme bench, is a candidate for election. Grant Fellows of Hudson wants the job, and so does William S. St. Johns and John O'Keefe of Saginaw. All these have announced their candidacies and are hustling for the office, while Roger I. Wykes of Grand Rapids is certainly a receptive candidate if there is a chance.

Chase S. Osborn reeled off another century run when he covered Cass county under the direction of Charles E. Sweet. The day's program began at Glenwood and closed with a big open meeting at Dowagiac. Osborn in three weeks covered the lower peninsula from the Straits of Mackinac to the southern border. With the exception of Oceana every county on the west shore has been invaded. Oceana will be visited on a big picnic date in August. No candidate has ever planned and carried out such a systematic tour as Mr. Osborn is now engaged in. The Ninth congressional district has been completely covered with splendid results. One of the features of the Cass county tour occurred at Calvin, a township near the Indiana line dominated by colored people. Five hundred people, mostly negroes listened to the speech, which was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm. Ten stops were made in all.

Milton Oakman, one of the three auditors of the county of Wayne, and probably the liveliest in Detroit and Wayne county politics, has been visiting relatives in Saginaw for a day or two, says the Courier-Herald. Oakman is a very political organizer and has risen in metropolitan politics so steadily and so high that he is often called "The King of Wayne." He is one of the leaders of the Osborn-for-governor movement and is on the job every moment. He said: "Osborn will carry Detroit and Wayne county by a good round majority, and nothing can stop him. We are going to have a change and a marked one, and it's coming through the nomination and election for governor of Chase S. Osborn. Wayne county is going to be a very big factor in bringing that about."

Representative Townsend held nine meetings in Livingston county Monday closing with an evening meeting at Howell. He was met by crowds everywhere, and was accompanied by Supervisor Bourman. Candidate Crandall for the legislature, Senator Leeper and other prominent Republicans. F. R. Cummings introduced him at Pinckney, the postmaster at Howell and Hugh McPherson at Howell. Representative Townsend is in fine speaking condition. Heavy rains made some Oakland county roads very muddy, making Representative Townsend late on his schedule Wednesday. However, all ten meetings planned for were held. At Oxford 200 were waiting, although he was one hour late. He was introduced at Rochester.

A LAUGH OR TWO.

A Quick Trip. The young son of a prominent railway man was playing with the drawing room chairs one afternoon when his father entered, accompanied by a gentleman whom the child had never particularly fancied.

"As the visitor took a chair, the boy remonstrated. 'I beg your pardon, sir, but this is a train of cars.' 'Very well, my son,' was the answer; 'I'll be a passenger.' But the youngster didn't want the grown-up for a passenger, so he said: 'Where do you wish to get off?' 'Cincinnati.' 'All right,' said the boy. 'This is Cincinnati.'—Lippincott's.

An Epigram for Dramatists. William Dean Howells, the noted novelist, praised recently the plays of Eugene Walter, but the American stage in general he condemned. "The only difference between going to the theater and going to bed," said Mr. Howells, "is that you dress for the theater and undress for bed. Of course you sleep in both places."

On Chicago. Dr. Heinrich C. G. Hirsch, the Viennese conductor, said the other day that New York's musical taste was much better cultivated than Chicago's. "A New York and a Chicago girl," he went on "met at the seashore. In the twilight, while the sky flamed pink in the sunset and the hotel orchestra played Massenet on the terrace, the New York girl said to the Chicago girl: 'Do you like fugues?' 'The Chicago girl sighed and answered wistfully: 'No, but I adore clams.'"

The Philanthropist. They were seated on a bench in the park, when he heard footsteps and, looking up remarked: "Have a good look at this chap. He's a great philanthropist." Immediately interested, she asked for further particulars. "He spends his life," he said, "in assisting his fallen brothers and sisters. He raises them when they are down. They stretch their hands appealingly to him, and he bruiseth and crusheth humanity cling to him, sure of help!" "Oh, what a good man. Whoever he is," she asked, breathlessly. "Yes, sir," replied the inquisitor at the skating rink, "was the answer.—Tid-Bits.

A Nice Come Down. Mr. Marcus Stone, R. A., the famous artist, who celebrated his seventieth birthday the other day, tells a very amusing story about himself. He was visiting the Zoological Gardens, when he came across a man who had sat for one of his pictures. "What are you doing now?" asked Mr. Stone. "Last time I saw you was when you were sitting for Mr. Blank for one of my pictures," he said. "Yes, sir," replied the model sadly. "An' now I 'cleavin' out the elephants' stables. Nice come down for one of the Twelve Apostles, ain't it, sir?"—M. A. P.

HERE AND THERE.

A correspondent of the New York World, writing from San Juan, says that the growing of sugar cane in Porto Rico has proved so profitable that farmland prices are soaring. "In the interior," he says, "sugar land is being bought at from $50 to $500 an acre, while coffee land is not worth more than $10 to $15 an acre." Other evidences of prosperity are quoted as follows: "A new million-dollar hotel, a building for the Y. M. C. A. to cost $150,000, a new federal building that will cost $425,000, and other big building operations will be under way in a few months. During the year ending June 30 the export trade increased 25 per cent, jumping from $30,391,000 in 1908 to $37,960,000 last year. During June fifteen new business concerns, with an aggregate capital of $3,600,000, thirteen of which are engaged in the sugar cane and fruit industries, were incorporated, and the outlook for the current month gives promise of as many more."

An inventory of the estate of George Cabot Lee of Newton, Mass., who died in 1881, shows it to be valued at $1,062,821, of which $1,569,821 is personal and $83,000 real. Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, who is a granddaughter of Mr. Lee, receives one-twelfth of the property.

The last of the Goethes was the poet's nephew, who died in 1885. He was a "fonderling"—an eccentric man who guarded the many valuable documents bequeathed to him as Father guarded the Nibelung treasures. When he died, however, he not only left all these things to the public, but founded the Goethe society, which was thus able, at its recent meeting in Weimar, to celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary. Its members include many prominent scholars who have taken pride in making an exhaustive record, in yearbooks and other publications, of everything that relates to the poet, based largely on the documents made available on the death of his nephew. The complete and final edition of his works—known as the "Sophien-Ausgabe" (named for the Grand Duchess Sophie)—is nearing completion, and the monument of the society's endeavors is a cheap popular edition of Goethe's works, embodying the results of its critical labors.

S. S. S. THE REAL CURE FOR SCROFULA

Scrofula is a blood disease manifested usually by an ulceration of the glands. It is almost entirely hereditary in its origin, being the seeds or drogs of some specific blood poison which has been transmitted, in modified form, to the offspring of diseased parentage. Where the blood is specially vitiated Scrofula attacks other portions of the system beside the glands, and we see its effects frequently in weak eyes, poorly developed bodies, running sores and the usual diseases like scaldhead, catarrhal troubles etc. While the young are the usual sufferers from scrofulous troubles, it is true that it is sometimes held in check until middle life is reached, or passed, and then, as the physical system begins to decline, other persons are attacked by the disease. S. S. S. is the one real and certain cure for Scrofula. It is a blood purifier without an equal and it cures this destructive blood poison by removing the germs from the blood and so enriching and building up the circulation that the disease can not remain. S. S. S. searches out every taint and impurity from the blood; it gives to the blood the richness and power necessary to the healthy growth of children, and it strengthens and invigorates the constitutions of older persons, by its fine tonic effects. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable medicine, perfectly safe for young or old. Scrofula being a blood disease can only be cured by a blood purifier like S. S. S. BUILDING CONCRETE SIDEWALK.

Some Observations on Operations of Gang on Huron Street.

It was to be observed yesterday on Huron street, Houghton, where Anderson & Son are building a concrete sidewalk in front of the village and Harrington properties, that even this somewhat crude operation can excite the interest of the onlooker if he looks on long enough.

For example, in the mixing gang, all of whom seemed to be on an industrial level, the biggest man on the job had the easiest work. While four men turned over the heavy batch with shovels this biggest man turned a hose on it, supplying the proper proportion of water for the mixture. This big man was asked by a reporter if he was elected to the job by ballot or by the law of natural selection and there was a gleam in his eye which indicated he might turn the hose in another direction and the reporter went away from there. The mixing of concrete is to an extent an operation similar to the concentration of copper in stamp mills. The crushed rock and sand and concrete are thrown onto a big mixing board in a mass and it looks to be pretty messy work. Then the workman turns it over with shovels, moving it twice in the operation and when they have finished the rock has settled to the bottom and the sand and cement are on top, which appears to be an exemplification of the law of settling as explained by Dr. Richards and other authorities.

Some More Observations.

In connection with the building of this sidewalk the village of Houghton is displaying true economy. The planks taken up from the old wooden walk are saved and Dave Denomie, the village handy man, is going to make them up into boxes to protect hydrants next winter. This is an example of conservation of natural resources. The fire alarm box of the central fire station, which is in the village hall, has been attached to a telephone pole at the outer edge of the sidewalk on the corner. This pole has been removed to make way for the sidewalk and Chief Voetsch has caused the fire alarm box, which is No. 43, to be attached to the corner of the building. The box is red and the building is red, so Chief Voetsch is going to paint a white target around the box to make it more noticeable. Carrying the discussion a little further, the village has a rock crusher which breaks big rocks into little ones for road and concrete purposes, and it gives a small example of hard luck. The crusher was purchased under a guarantee for six months, but after a few days it was found that there was something wrong within that time. A part technically known as a pitman broke last week, about two years after the crusher was purchased, eighteen months after the expiration of the guarantee period. It is shown that there was a decided flaw in the pitman and the wonder is that it did not break the first time the machine was used. But there was no such luck for the village.

VICTORIA WATER POWER.

Hydrographic Survey Indicates Possibility of Big Electric Plant.

The Victoria Mining company has just completed an extensive hydrographic survey of the Ontonagon river from its source in Lake Gogebic down to and through the Victoria territory, which may be the forerunner of a big electric plant of 12,000-horsepower, or more, to supply electricity throughout the copper and iron districts. The Victoria itself has a head of 110 feet of fall in the river, seventy feet of which is already developed by the canal which turns the water into the famous hydro-air compressor. In addition to this head, there are other owners, including the St. Mary's Mineral Land company, who own water power on the Ontonagon river which could be united with Victoria's at a great advantage. An extensive report on the project is to be made by J. G. White & Co., hydraulic engineers, of New York. In the survey just completed, five-foot contours have been made.

CONCERNING THE WIRELESS.

Frank W. Packer Says the Radio Company Expires to Resume.

Frank W. Packer, agent for the sale of the stock of the Great Lakes Radio company, which has suspended its wireless telegraph office in Houghton, says that the company has suspended only temporarily. The suspension is in force pending the consolidation of the Great Lakes Radio company with nine other concerns into the North American Wireless company. When this consolidation is effected the Houghton and other stations on the great lakes will resume, according to Mr. Packer. The adverse criticism of his company in Duluth, Mr. Packer says, is prompted by a rival company. He contends that his company has a better wireless telegraph system, a commercially practicable wireless telegraph system, and any number of stations in successful operation in the United States, foreign countries and the various of the world. Mr. Packer has sold much stock of his company in Houghton and feels that some explanation of the closing of the Houghton and other lake stations is due.

TELEPHONE TROUBLE CURED.

Wire Chief Manes of Marquette Here to Complete Repairs.

C. Manes of Marquette, wire chief for the upper peninsula district of the Michigan State Telephone company, arrived in Houghton Thursday night to take charge of the repairs to the telephone company's submarine cable in Portage lake, which was damaged by the Zenith dredge near Pope's dock this week. The repair work was completed yesterday. The injury to the cable caused the putting out of commission of 101 telephones, through the wires in the cable being short circuited by water coming through the broken jacket of the cable. The cable was picked up out of the water near the dock and repaired, one pair of wires at a time, so that the number of telephones out of commission was decreased steadily. The repaired cable was returned to the water yesterday afternoon.

CHINESE HAVE HOPE.

Joe H. Pang of Chicago Talks of Contingents Under Trial.

Joe H. Pang, the Chinese merchant, who has been looking after the interests of his fellow Chinese of Houghton county who were arrested last winter under charges of violating the exclusion law, and who are now on trial in the United States circuit court at Marquette, arrived in Houghton yesterday. He is here to secure further evidence in the cases. Mr. Pang says that all of the Houghton county Chinese stand a good chance of acquittal. The cases have all been heard and Judge Denison has taken them under advisement. Mr. Pang considers this a good sign. The case of Ngan See Duck, the young Chinese who conducts a laundry at Ontonagon, was the last one heard. Mr. Pang believes he has proved conclusively that the youth was born in the United States.

C. & H. PICNIC TODAY.

Annual Charity Entertainment for M. A. M. Fund at Calumet.

The annual picnic of the underground workers of the Calumet & Hecla mines will be held at the C. & H. park today. It will be preceded by a monster parade through Laurium, the Calumet & Hecla location and the principal streets of Red Jacket. The parade will be made up as follows: Calumet & Hecla band, Miners of Calumet branch, Miners of Hecla branch, Finnish Hunt band, South Hecla branch, Red Jacket branch, Tamarack band, Anygdaloid miners, Gihasson's Miners band, Automobile with Chairman James MacNaughton and Hon. George C. Bentley, speaker of the day. Village officials of Red Jacket and Laurium.

Butte hammer and drill team, Butte mine officials, Old miners, pensioners.

The big event of the day will be the hammer and drill contest between a team of Calumet & Hecla miners and a team of Amalgamated miners from Butte. The world's championship goes with the event and the winners receive $1,000 from the mining company which they represent. This affair takes place at 5 o'clock at the Athletic Park baseball grounds. The committee in charge of the big contest has procured an excellent piece of granite block, the hardest kind obtainable, sixty inches through. This will make it impossible for the drillers to entirely pierce the block.

President Frank H. Schumaker of the village of Red Jacket and Clerk Nicholas F. Kaiser are the two men named as local judges of the contest. The Butte team will name the third judge. Mr. Schumaker will be timer and Mr. Kaiser will measure the distance drilled. The big granite block will be set up on a wagon before the grandstand at Athletic Park and will be in full view of all those in the grandstand and the bleachers and those who are forced to stand.

SOME AQUATIC GRASSHOPPERS.

Plague of Locusts Has Infected Portage Lake—Queer Tale.

Were it not for the fact that Albert W. York, manager of the Lakeside Floral company, told this story to the reporter it would not be given credence. Mr. York is a serious-minded man who raises flowers and sells them up from Chassell, where his greenhouses are located, Thursday evening and he told the reporter that he had seen the broad expanse of water known as Big Portage literally covered with grasshoppers. Mr. York says that each one of these grasshoppers occupied a small chip of wood and were floating peacefully and aimlessly. He was asked if he were joking but he solemnly repeated his assertion. His motor boat passed through thousands of the little insects, each on its individual chip. Mr. York does not attempt to explain the mystery. He does not know where the chips came from because they are as unusual in Portage lake as are the hoppers. Had the latter been possessed of wings a story might be built up of this, showing the hoppers with their wings set before the passing breeze and they steering a definite course to the green fields of Boatjack point.

Speaking of grasshoppers, another Houghton man declares that this summer grasshoppers have repeatedly jumped through second story windows in his room, from the ground below. He believes the present summer crop of grasshoppers contains the best jumpers in the insect world.

T. F. COLE'S YACHT HERE.

Thomas F. Cole of Duluth arrived in Portage lake yesterday with his palatial yacht Elvira. He is accompanied by a number of Duluth friends. They spent yesterday visiting points of interest in the copper country.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired, or broken down through indigestion which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

SEEK ROAD ENGINEER JOB.

Many Applications for Position Under County Commission.

The Houghton county road commission is now actively engaged in an effort to decide upon a road engineer to take charge of the technical part of the road building campaign which will be commenced next year. A large number of applications have been received and final action is expected within a short time. The commission will not give out anything regarding its plans for the immediate future. Until the engineer has been engaged there can be no preparations for road work. Then, too, there are so many preliminaries to be gone through with that it is not likely any work on county roads will be begun this summer.

GOLF ENTHUSIASM INCREASES.

Portage Lake Golfers Taking More Interest—Field Day Events.

There is a revival of interest in golf in Houghton. The great Scotch game seemed early in the season to be affected with the apathy which was noticeable in the stock market, but people are again waking up to the delights of the links and the Portage Lake golf club members feel that when this season closes it will be recorded as the best in the history of the club. The first indication of this interest was seen in the "Tall" Goodell trophy tournament, in which sixteen men entered, the largest field of the season. This contest is still undecided and it is likely that it will not be decided until next week, but the members are taking a great interest in the outcome because of the greater number of players entered.

The co-operation of the Ontonagon club has boosted golf stock this season also. The Ontonagon is serving a table d'hote dinner and it has increased golf playing, because the players find it restful and refreshing to go from the links to the Ontonagon club to be fanned by lakes breezes while dining. The field day contests of Thursday showed an increased interest. It was somewhat of a gala day with a big field of men and women out and much fun and good golf. The contests ended as follows:

—Events for Men— Nine-hole match—Nichols, first; Barry and Hubbard, tied for second.

Approaching—Miss Streeter, first; Thompson, second.

Putting—Worcester, first; Moss, second. Driving—Pryor, first; Robinson, second.

—Events for Women— Nine-hole match—Miss Streeter, first; Mrs. Cairns, second. In this match Miss Streeter made the nine holes in the phenomenal score of fifty and broke all records of the course for women. It is a record which probably will stand for some time.

Approaching—Miss Streeter, first; Mrs. Thompson, second. Putting—Miss Pope, first; Mrs. Thompson, second. Driving—Mrs. Thompson, first; Mrs. Rogers, second. The golfing committee of the club found the field day such a success that similar events will be arranged for various dates later in the season. No definite plans have as yet been made for the proposed automobile golf tour which is being talked of among the members of the Portage Lake club's Calverley cup team. The plan is to take automobiles to Duluth in September when the tennis goes there to play the second Calverley cup match and from Duluth to motor to St. Paul and La Crosse for matches in those cities.

GOOD WILL FARM APPROVED.

Mrs. Walker Advised Children May Be Committed There.

Mrs. G. M. Walker, superintendent of Good Will Farm, has received from M. T. Murray of Lansing, secretary of the state board of corrections and charities, a letter which is sincerely gratifying to her and to the Good Will Farm & Home Finding association. It states that at a meeting held July 22 a report of a recent visit of inspection to Good Will Farm was made and on hearing it the board approved the institution. The board will immediately notify probate judges of this fact in order that the institution may make arrangements with them for the commitment of children. The approval of Good Will Farm by the state board of corrections and charities does not make the farm a state penal institution, as might be gathered from Secretary Murray's letter. The approval makes it possible for judges of probate to commit children to the farm and Judge Bentley was asked about the matter yesterday. He said that the ruling made it possible for him to send dependent children to the farm in lieu of the state public school at Coldwater, but it did not authorize him to send juvenile offenders there. Mrs. Walker, the superintendent, understands the ruling in the same way as Judge Bentley, but it gives the farm an opportunity to get a revenue from the county for children who are actually county charges. There was an instance last year of five children who were dependent. Mrs. Walker sought payment from the county for their board, but it was refused, as the county had no jurisdiction. Now the judge of probate may commit such cases to the farm and the county will be liable for the payment of their board. This is the first time that the state

PROHIBITION CONFERENCE.

Members of the Cold-Water Party Will Meet at Laurium Next Week.

A conference of the Prohibition workers of Houghton county will be held at the Finnish Temperance hall, corner of Third and Hecla streets, Laurium, next Friday night. All Prohibitionists and others interested are invited to attend. A number of speakers will address the meeting and there will be music by a male quartette. At this conference the Prohibitionists hope to prepare for a rising county and congressional campaign and will decide whether or not to enter a full ticket for county offices. They will do all in their power, too, to assist the state candidates.

No Prohibition candidates for any of the county offices have been mentioned as yet and no nominating petitions are being circulated.

NEARLY $2,000 IS RAISED.

The young men's soliciting committee of the Calumet Y. M. C. A. which has been assisting to raise money towards the current expense fund the past two weeks held a meeting this week and reported total subscriptions from members and businessmen amounting to over $1,800. There remains something more than $400 to be raised before the campaign can be dropped. It is believed this sum can be procured.

SNATCHED FROM THE JAWS OF DEATH

MONSTER TAPE WORM DESTROYED

Mrs. F. Adams and Mr. Coy Simmons Saved Through Fazakerley's Formulas

The young man who has been promising such wonderful results from his formulas is undoubtedly showing his audiences that he is not making idle boasts. People reading of his work were no doubt sceptical as to the veracity of the reports of the extraordinary cures accomplished by these formulas. But what the eyes see, the heart believes in. Among the many people who are grateful to Fazakerley for what he has done for them are the following:

Mrs. F. Adams of 114 Eleventh street, Traverse City, Mrs. Adams in speaking of her case said:

"For a long time I have been in that half sick condition that so many people complain of. I was nervous and irritable and could not sleep nights. My appetite was poor and I seemed to be getting worse every day. I felt myself to be on the verge of an entire break down as I could no longer properly care for my children and home. When Fazakerley came to Traverse City, I like many others, was skeptical as to his ability, but was persuaded as a last resource to try his formulas, and after taking a few doses, a monster tape worm was passed from my system. I know that it was the cause of all my sickness as I feel like a difference woman now and am improving every day. I cannot say enough in praise of the Fazakerley formulas."

Mr. Coy Simmons of Barker Creek, Mich., was another victim of the monster parasite, commonly known as a tape worm, who received relief after taking a few doses of Fazakerley's formulas. Mr. Simmons who had been in poor health for several years and had tried all kinds of doctors and medicine, was persuaded by his aunt, Mrs. Simmons of 317 W. Ninth street, Traverse City, to visit her and give the Fazakerley remedies a trial. Mr. Simmons returned to his home a happy man, after having his system relieved of the life-sapping parasite.

Mr. P. J. Denn, of 413 E. Pearl street, Ishpeming, who had suffered with extreme deafness of the left ear for 21 years, was given great relief in a few minutes time and made to hear plainly by Fazakerley, with one of his formulas.

The office at 607 Third street, Ishpeming, is crowded daily with suffering humanity seeking the restoration of their health, and many who had given up hope are sent away with the joyful news that they can be cured by the eminent specialist, Dr. Gorman who is in charge of this branch of the work. All diseases that are curable are treated successfully at the office from 10 a. m. to 12 noon and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. Consultation, examination and advice free.

On Sunday the office will be kept open from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. for the benefit of working men who cannot call during the week.

City Brevities
 Today's weather: Generally fair; slightly cooler.
 Yesterday's temperature: Seven a. m., 68 degrees; noon, 74; 7 p. m., 67. Maximum, 80 degrees; minimum, 66.
 Mass will not be celebrated at St. Mary's hospital tomorrow morning.
 Miss Louise Hogan has gone to Iron River to spend two weeks with friends.
 Mrs. J. A. Malhot was called to the copper country yesterday by the illness of her mother.
 Mr. La Bonte, of Ashland, Wis., has taken a position in the office of the wood department of the Lake Superior Chemical company.
 The German Aid society will hold a basket picnic in the Blenheim grove at the end of Fisher street tomorrow. There will be music and dancing and all are invited.
 First Church of Christ, Scientist—Services will be conducted in the society's hall in the Opera House block at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The subject is: "Love."
 For refusing to give a boy a ride, little Lowell Bricker, 122 Crescent street, was violently pushed off his wheel, breaking his arm and dislocating it at the elbow. Dr. James reduced the fracture and the boy is resting as easily as can be expected.
 The general public can take advantage of the special train to run from Ishpeming tonight after the performance of "Up and Down Broadway" at the Ishpeming theater to visit that city for the evening. The round trip fare will be fifty cents.
 A few friends of Miss Emma Bruggan gathered at her home on Genesee street yesterday afternoon and had a very pleasant time. Refreshments were served at 3 o'clock. Among the guests were Miss Minnie Fritz, Birch and Miss Julia Kettle of Harvey.

State Board of Education—A meeting of the state board of education was held at the Normal school yesterday. All of the members of the board and the four Normal school presidents were in attendance. The state board meets at each of the Normal schools once a year. A very profitable session was had, and in the afternoon a picnic was enjoyed at Presque Isle.
Marquette at Ishpeming—The Marquette baseball team plays at Ishpeming today and tomorrow, while the Neguene nine goes to Crystal Falls. The Marquette line-up will be the best in the league, except that Day will be behind the bat and Magnum will be stationed on the first sack. Day is now captain of the team. Frost is slated to do the pitching today.
Only Equity Cases Left—The present term of the state court will probably close Monday, a few equity cases being all that remain to be heard. The Ironwood public schools case was completed yesterday, and the court has taken the question at issue under advisement. The same is true of the demurrer submitted in the case of Tillinghast, receiver, vs. E. D. Nelson. Briefs have been filed in each of the deportation cases and no decisions are expected to be handed down for some time. The three Chinese cases that were not tried this term are likely to be heard in Grand Rapids.

Peter Wurth Defeated—In a sparring match at Munising this week, Peter Wurth, who until recently was employed at Muhlhauser's cigar factory in this city, was defeated by Kid Shampane of Bay City in the last session of a ten-round exhibition. In the first and second rounds Shampane had a little the best of it, but after that until the opening of the ninth it was all Wurth and those at the ringside were certain he would win. A change left on the jaw in the tenth round, however, put Wurth down and out. Shampane and Fitzgerald of Bay City will meet in a ten-round exhibition at Munising Thursday, August 4.

Campbell Bros.' Circus—Campbell Bros.' circus is coming to Marquette next Thursday, and will pitch their tents on the old fair grounds at the foot of Third street. This show is comparatively unknown in the upper peninsula, but they claim to have something new to offer and to have one of the biggest and best circuses on the road. They advertise a company of 500 people, 200 horses and a large, costly collection of animals, wild and domestic, which have never been near this part of the country, and thousands of dollars worth of circus paraphernalia. The Campbell Bros. give a street parade at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, which is said to be a magnificent pageant. As Marquette has not had a circus for a long time, it is expected that the two performances, afternoon and evening, will be well patronized.

Business to Be Expanded—The Decorating company, under the new management of Richards & Kukuk, successors to A. J. Pleyte, are making their bow to the public today by inaugurating a wall paper sale, announcement of which will be found elsewhere in the advertising columns of this paper. Mr. Pleyte has enjoyed a reputation both as an artistic workman and as a square and competent business man. It is the aim of the new firm to carry on the business along practically the same lines, but on a larger scale, carrying a more complete stock of wall paper and interior decorations and employing a large force of mechanics as the business increases. They are doing the postoffice job for the government and will finish it in about two weeks, when several other large contracts will be started. Mr. Richards comes well recommended as a first-class sign and fresco artist. Mr. Kukuk, the junior member of the firm, is also a competent house painter and decorator. Mr. Pleyte will remain in the employ of the firm.

INITIAL SUCCESS WAS REPEATED
 "Up and Down Broadway" Was Warmly Received by Second Bumper Audience.
 Mr. MacDonald and the cast of "Up and Down Broadway" last evening attained what seemed to be the impossible. They made the production of this admirable musical concert go over a bit smoother than it did on the opening night. To witness it and to manifest vociferous approval of their efforts was present an audience that filled every seat in the house and overflowed into the standing room. And it was a rarely enthusiastic audience. The finished performances of the principals, the attractive steps and evolutions and the tuneful singing of the beautifully gowned and handsome choruses, the many clever surprises and the inimitable burlesque of Miss Palmer and Miss Watson were applauded to the echo as the fifteen numbers were rapidly unfolded before the enthusiastic assemblage.
 The people engaged in the performance moved with the increased confidence that invariably comes with the second night, and the numbers were unfolded with even more dash and precision than characterized the premier. The successes of the Thursday evening performance were all secured again, only with additional emphasis. The finales of two numbers in particular showed a more notable finish. These were the Matinee girls number, the conclusion of which was somewhat marred the opening night by the failure of the electric caissons at the critical moment, but which were perfectly given last evening, and Mrs. Kaufman's number, "Bring Me a Rose." This was so effectively rendered last evening by Mrs. Kaufman and her supporting male chorus that after she had been liberal with encores the audience insisted on another, even when the curtain had been dropped.
 Mr. MacDonald himself was most effective last evening, and the numbers in which he appeared, particularly " Aren't You the Girl I Met at Sherry's " and "Charming Weather," aroused the audience to great enthusiasm, excelled perhaps only by the waltz of the reception of Mrs. Kaufman's wonderfully graceful and finished toe dancing in conclusion of the "Smile, Dearie, Smile" number. "My Spanish Rose," by Miss Rettallic and chorus, was another number which won particularly emphatic approval. It is a delightful bit of music and Miss Rettallic's rendition of the solo part is colorfully done. As on the opening night, Miss Watson's rendition of "Heaven Will Protect the Working Girl" was a scream, quite the cleverest bit of amateur burlesque that has even been seen locally.
 But to enumerate all the good things in "Up and Down Broadway" last evening would be simply to enumerate again all the principals and to praise very highly the bright, graceful and musical choruses. The entire program was again superlative. The Ishpeming audience that will witness the performance tonight will have a rare treat, as the company will be better perfect in the lines and skilled to the final touch in all the business of the delectable entertainment. The Ishpeming verdict will doubtless be one with the verdict returned in Marquette—that "Up and Down Broadway" has the edge on even professional musical plays.
 Many Marquette people are going to Ishpeming tonight to see the performance. A large number of automobiles will make the trip. The company will travel in a special car attached to the train leaving at 5:55 o'clock, and will be returned on a special train leaving at the close of the performance. The performance will be greeted by a large lounge at Ishpeming, and the company expects to give the people there the most effective entertainment of the series.

 List of Applications for Final Papers at September Court Compiled by Clerk.
 A list of those whose applications for final citizenship papers will be heard at the September term of circuit court has been compiled by the county clerk. The list contains 117 names, which are about twice the number that ordinarily ask for citizenship papers at a single term of court. The importance of and interest in the coming state election is believed to be the reason for so many seeking enfranchisement at this time. The applications will be heard Sept. 7 and 8 and all the applicants should be present in the court room at that time. The list is as follows:

CALUMET & HECLA.
Some Significant Selling of Centennial and La Salle Stock.
During the past year there have been some significant changes in Calumet & Hecla's holdings in the shares of its subsidiary properties. The changes have been as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Shares bought, Shares sold. Rows include Centennial, Cliff, La Salle, Laurium, Isle Royale, White Pine preferred.

The sale of Centennial and La Salle shares is significant. We understand that at the time Calumet acquired a majority of the outstanding 90,000 shares of Centennial it was the purpose later on to dispose of an amount sufficient to reduce its actual ownership to slightly under 50 per cent, and it is quite likely that it was in pursuance of a similar policy that the company has sold 6,550 shares of La Salle. This selling of La Salle was evidently in process at the close of the fiscal year, April 30, 1910, as at that time Calumet & Hecla still owned slightly over 50 per cent of La Salle's 302,977 shares. The sale of 1,730 shares of Centennial has reduced Calumet & Hecla's interest therein to 49.27 per cent.

By disposing of an actual majority of Centennial, Calumet & Hecla has removed what might at some future time be made the basis of some vicious legal proceeding if there was any interest to acquire the company of an illegal control of its subsidiaries. Of course, this would not hold true with respect to such subsidiaries as the Calumet & Hecla actually organized and which were not going propositions at the time the big company obtained its dominating interest. Calumet & Hecla today owns 42.9 per cent of Alouez, 49.59 per cent of Almeek, 49.27 per cent of Centennial, 18.3 per cent of Isle Royale, 34 per cent of Osceola and 32.3 per cent of Tamarack. It will be readily seen, therefore, that Calumet while dominating the management of all the companies above mentioned, possesses, as a matter of fact, less than one-half of the outstanding shares of such companies as were active producers at the time the ownership was secured.

ARIZONA COMMERCIAL.

The Eureka shaft of the Arizona Commercial at a depth of 745 feet has entered into a shear zone showing well-marked displacement of the vein. The quartzite is brecciated and heavily mineralized with iron oxide, copper glance and carbonates. The carbonate of copper appears to be the result of a leaching that came from the main Black Hawk vein, having been leached and reprecipitated in the fractured zone. So far they have gone through this zone about six feet in width, and on account of the hardness of the ore it is hard to disseminate throughout the rock, but occurs in larger quantities close to the slip planes. Although the flow of water prohibited a general sampling, there have been assays made of various samples from the zone. This occurrence in the shaft gives new importance to economic bearings upon the future possibilities of the mine below the 700-foot level. The flow of water has not increased since the shaft sinking was begun below the seventh level, but remains around 1,500,000 gallons a day.

FRANKLIN.
Franklin has discontinued its diamond drill exploration for the Hancock lode without disclosing anything that afforded promise. Drilling has now been started underground, driving laterally from the openings on the Peavick lode and hanging wall of these openings. Franklin's south drift at the fifteenth level of No. 1 shaft has holed through to No. 3 shaft, the distance between the shafts being 2,100 feet. This underground connection is of the utmost importance, as it will on that account add immeasurably to the comfort of the men and increase the efficiency of the work. The two noblest things, which are sweetness and light.—Swift.

form and direct the social and educational thoughts of the present day are Jacob Riis and Booker T. Washington. In his third and last lecture, "Our Schools and Their Critics," he spoke of the various criticisms of the public schools, especially as expressed in recent magazine articles, and he showed how unfounded were the statements made. His denials of the claims of "old fogies" that the schools of their youth were better than those of to-day, and lent point to his remarks by quotations from the text-books of former generations.

COMMUNICATED.

Calumet, Mich., July 28, 1910.
To the Editor: Your editorial "Those Vicious Organs" of July 25th is refreshing to one who has followed the Detroit Journal in its feeble and puerile attempts to stem the growing tide of popularity of Congressman Townsend's candidacy for the United States senate. You are right when you say that the worst feature of the Detroit's Journal's attacks on Mr. Townsend is its "distortion of its news matter in an unfair and unreasonable manner."

Senator Burrows' real regard for the public is evidenced by the kind of a law for the publicity of campaign contributions he was instrumental in having passed. The bill which the lower house passed provided that these contributions be published before election. But the Senate Committee upon Privileges and Elections, of which Mr. Burrows is chairman, changed it to read after elections, and Mr. Burrows assumed full responsibility for this change. Senator Burrows has thereby deprived the people of the greater part of the benefit which would be derived from the publication of these contributions.

Senator Burrows' tendency to Alldrich, and the interests Alldrich represents, is shown by the fact that he voted with him only two exceptions during the last congress. Is it any wonder, then, that the Republicans of Michigan have fired of Senator Burrows' standstill and non-progressive attitude, and are supporting Congressman Townsend, who has stood for real progressive legislation?

Yours truly,
A REPUBLICAN.

Long Automobile Journey—
After traveling 2,887 miles by automobile, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Royce arrived in Escanaba from Chippewa Falls, Mass., in a new touring car. On the long trip a single punctured tire was the only accident to mar the journey, which was made in easy stages, practically an entire month being consumed. Mr. and Mrs. Royce went east by rail and purchased the car at Chippewa Falls and as soon as it was in running condition they started for Escanaba.

Soo Tug Sinks in Lake Erie—
News of the sinking of the tug Bues in Lake Erie has been received at the shore and are safe at Pointe Pelee, although the tug is still in the water. The Bues left the Soo last Friday in command of Captain Taylor, with Norman Raines as engineer and Dan Campbell and another young man as firemen. She was bound for Cape Breton island, N. S., and was part of a dredging outfit. The Bues was carrying a cargo of coal on board. The Bues was a small tug, and was insured. The crew will return to the Soo as soon as they receive transportation money, which will be forwarded them at once.

Investigating Forest Fires—
Deputy State Fire and Game Warden Robert E. Ellsworth of Alpena is in Baldwin township, Delta county, with County Game and Fire Warden Charles Olmsted, investigating fires that occurred two weeks ago and which it is charged resulted from carelessness on the part of homesteaders. It was after working violently for several days in an effort to prevent the spread of forest fires that Supervisor B. L. Bridges of Maple River township died of a heart ailment, and the game warden's department, the officers of which are also fire wardens of the state, will make a complete investigation of the matter. It is found that the fires were started by carelessness or negligence in any way arrests will be made.

"Course of True Love"—
Paul P. Rasmussen, who was arrested at Menominee some time ago on the complaint of his sweetheart, was married to her the present week by Justice of the Peace John E. Jones. It is not so long since that he became jealous of her affections and smiles for other men and made an attack on her, an attack which she bravely withstood. He had done her great bodily injury and possibly would have choked her to death had not assistance been rendered. Shakespeare was right when he said the course of true love never runs smooth. And for fairly has been a rough old road, but they intend to smooth over their differences and travel the road to happiness hereafter.

Charged With Assaulting Boy—
John Hansen, a shoemaker at the Caspian township, Iron county, has been arrested, charged with assault and battery. It is alleged that while in an intoxicated condition he struck the fourteen-year-old son of Fred Dennis in the face. The boy was knocked down in an unconscious condition, receiving a bad cut over the right eye. The examination of Hansen's tooth took place in Justice Kinney's court before a jury of six men, who, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of guilty. Judge Kinney imposed a fine of $25 and costs, amounting to $39 in all, or thirty days in the county jail. Pending a notice of appeal to the circuit court Hansen was released on furnishing $200 bonds.

Drown in Escanaba River—
While crossing the Escanaba river at Groos on horseback, Martin Johnson, twenty years of age, was thrown from the horse and drowned before help could reach him. The young man was seen as he fell by the crew of a switch engine at work nearby. Some of the men went to the spot in a boat while others swam out, but he could not be located at the time. The body was nearly seven feet in depth where he disappeared and the strong current in the river carried the body down stream, where it subsequently was found. His parents live at Ingalls, Menominee county.

Republic

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT.

Theodore Ehmann Passed Away After Illness of Four Months.
Theodore Ehmann, one of the oldest residents of Republic, died Monday of old age and was buried Wednesday, services being held from the Catholic church. Mr. Ehmann was nearly eighty years old and was one of the first settlers in Republic. He was born in Pader, Germany, and came to this country when he was a young man. He lived in Humboldt shortly after the war and a few years later moved to Republic, where he had lived ever since. Mr. Ehmann is survived by his widow.

MUCH BUILDING.

Number of Republic People Are Erecting New Houses.

Julius Heekkala, the contractor from Ishpeming, has completed a number of houses here and has taken contracts for others. He has finished the Finnish paragon, on Republic avenue, and a house for Matt Maelki, at Svedetown. Mr. Heekkala is making improvements on August Augustsson's house at Frenchtown and is building an addition to John Makkala's residence and additions on houses owned by Mrs. Mallatila, Alfred Davo and Charles Hooper. He is also building a four-room addition on Al Hoeking's house. Mr. Hoeking is also having a bath room put in.

Mr. Heekkala has a crew of men plastering the office of the Republic Iron company and is going to build a veranda for Mathew Gibson. Louis Laforis has given him a contract to build a nine-room house across from the Catholic church, and he has completed a barn for Jacob Scholtzen on his farm. Mr. Heekkala has a crew of thirteen men working and he expects to employ double that number before the summer is over.

ISSUE CHALLENGE.

Republic Businessmen's Baseball Team Is Looking for Games.

The Republic businessmen have organized a baseball team. Wednesday they lined up against a team known as the "Miner Bubbles," but were defeated in the last half of the ninth, the "Bubbles" scoring nine runs in that inning. The businessmen intend to play one game a week and are now open for dates with any strictly businessmen's team in the county.

A large crowd witnessed the game between the miners and businessmen. The score was 9 to 8 in favor of the businessmen in the eighth inning, but in the ninth the miners hit the ball all over the lot. The batters were Johnson and Nelson for the businessmen and Weinberg and Dower for the miners. Johnson had eleven strikeouts and Weinberg six.

The feature of the game was the work of Arthur Carlson, who made a sensational catch on the Republic grounds. He overthrew a ball that was thrown into the line-ups of the teams were as follows: Miners—Alfred Dower, catcher; Chester Weinberg, pitcher; Chester Nelson, first base; Randall Foss, second base; Albert Nelson, third base; Frank Munson, shortstop; Jake Scholtzen, right field; Bert Martell, center field; Alfred Ringetto, left field. Businessmen—Peter Johnson, catcher; John Nelson, pitcher; Alex Laxstrom, first base; John Thomas, third base; Mose Godner, shortstop; Arthur Carlson, right field; Arthur Uberg, center field; Jake Scholtzen, left field. J. H. Caspar is captain and manager.

STORM DID DAMAGE.

The rain and wind storm Sunday night did much damage here. A number of trees were blown over and the telephone system was badly crippled because of the damage done to the wires. Al Hoeking, who has charge of the Marquette County telephone exchange here, township clerk, had fallen and limped straight a pole which had been pulled down by the falling trees.

PENCIL POINTS.

The Erie mine has begun working again, after being closed down for two weeks, because of trouble with the machinery.

The Witch Lake road is completed and the bridge will be finished by the end of the week. Gust Freedin, the contractor to lay his men working on the road between Witch Lake and Tugit, his farm, so the autoists can now drive their cars on fairly good roads all of the way to Milwaukee.

E. M. Anderson of Ishpeming was a business visitor here Monday.

Harry Soady of Duluth was here Monday, on business.

Mrs. B. Darlington and daughter Bolla of Butte, Mont., and Mrs. H. Chadwick of Milwaukee visited with Frank Pascoe and family this week.

Albert McCarthy and wife of Milwaukee were here Thursday to attend the funeral of the late Theodore Ehmann.

Obediah Jones and wife are here from Bessemer, on a visit with relatives.

Oscar Davidson of Duluth is here on a two weeks' vacation visiting his family. Mr. Davidson is in the employ of the Northern Pacific railroad as train dispatcher.

Mrs. James Gamble and son, Roland, are expected home this week from Moyer, B. C., where they have been visiting the past few months.

Mrs. Axel Forstrom and Mrs. August Johnson have gone to Virginia, Minn., where they will visit with relatives.

Game Warden Phil Hogan of Negaunee was here Thursday.

Miss Bertha Wilson has returned from Marquette, where she has visited for the past six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vilneuve of Milwaukee are here visiting Louis Laforis and family.

E. Isaacson has moved his family to the second floor of the Ferrys building, while his house is being repaired.

Michigamme

AUSTRIANS SHELL UP.

Carload of Men Tried to Work Employment Agency for Railroad Fare.

A carload of Austrians arrived here one day this week from the Mesaba range to work for Hoose & Person, the contractors at the Portland mine. An employment agency in Duluth paid their railroad fares from Duluth to Michigamme and the Austrians, many of whom wanted to go to Chicago, refused to go to work. The railroad fare from Duluth here for each man amounted to something over $5, which Hoose & Person would have had to pay if the Austrians did not work it out. When the men refused to work the sheriff was notified and he instructed a local deputy to get after them. The latter made each man pay his fare and they were then permitted to go where they pleased. As soon as they saw that the contractors were not trifling with them they wanted to go to work, but they were shipped out of town to distant points.

LONG JOURNEY IN A DORRIS TOURING CAR

Automobile Driven from St. Louis, Mo., to Ishpeming in Four and One-Half Days.

R. E. Funsten, Jr., of St. Louis, Mo., arrived in Ishpeming Thursday evening at 6 o'clock in his Dorris touring car, accompanied by his chauffeur, George Dauran, after having made the run from St. Louis to this city in four and one-half days. The cyclometer on the machine registered 848 miles. The run between St. Louis and Chicago, 366 miles, was made in eighteen hours. Mr. Funsten is a brother-in-law of Dr. V. H. Vandeventer, of the Ishpeming hospital staff, and he will visit the doctor and his family until next Wednesday, when he will leave for home. Mrs. Funsten has been here for a week or more, visiting. She and Mrs. Vandeventer had planned to meet Mr. Funsten in Chicago and make the trip from there up with him, but they were prevented from doing so because of the sickness of one of the Vandeventer children. Mr. Funsten is president of the R. E. Funsten Dry Fruit & Nut company of St. Louis.

"The trip was an unusually pleasant one," said Mr. Funsten yesterday. "We left St. Louis last Saturday noon. We did not attempt to make a record run, not even on good roads. The roads between St. Louis and Chicago are excellent and many automobiles are being driven over them. We did not have a mishap of any kind. In fact we did not have occasion to open the tool box of the car from the time we left St. Louis until we arrived in Ishpeming. We had but one puncture.

"On the corduroy road between Trenary and Marquette we went into the ditch and we spent three hours propping up the car and building a temporary road through the mire. From Escanaba we went over to Rapid River and from there to Trenary and then on through the country to Marquette. That was the slowest part of the trip, and the road was by far the worst we encountered, though we got over all but the corduroy road at a fairly rapid rate. We ran just eighty-nine miles from Trenary to Ishpeming and we made the run, including the three hours delay while we were getting the machine back on the road, in just ten hours.

"We met two touring parties at Escanaba who desired to come through to Marquette, but they were afraid to tackle it, as they were told that the road was bad in places. Getting over the corduroy would not have been difficult if the foundation was solid. The timbers would move in all directions under the car and we came over after a rain shower, so that they were slippery. In making the return trip I shall select an entirely different route. I plan on going east from Marquette, perhaps to Mackinaw, and from there down through the lower peninsula.

Praises Upper Peninsula Roads.
"I think the road between Marquette and Ishpeming is a fine one, but it does not compare with an eighteen-mile stretch between Menominee and Escanaba. This piece of road is perfectly level and straight for the entire eighteen miles. The surface is as smooth as a floor, in spite of the fact that dozens of automobiles run over it every day. This is the finest piece of road that I have ever seen in a country district. We could easily have made sixty miles an hour on that road, but our greatest speed was forty-eight miles. At no time on the trip did we exceed forty-eight miles.

"There has never before been a time when so many touring parties are going through the country as at present. The manager of the LaSalle hotel at Chicago, where we stayed Monday night, told me that eighteen touring parties from outside places had come into the hotel that evening. Every gate in Chicago is crowded with cars. I think a lot of the Dorris car. It is only thirty-horse power, but in a pinch will develop considerable more power than that. Since I put it into commission on the 15th of July, 1909, I have traveled 30,692 miles and the car has been in a repair shop. It has cost me for repairs only $469.75.

Mr. Funsten's car made the run from Island Lake to the city yesterday in forty-five minutes.

"UP AND DOWN BROADWAY."

Big Production on View at the Ishpeming Theater Tonight.

The Marquette people who will produce "Up and Down Broadway" this evening at the Ishpeming theater will be given a hearty reception by Ishpeming and Negaunee theatergoers. The advance sale is already much larger than was the advance sale for "The Talk of the Town," which was presented here two years ago. Marquette people have reserved seats and many of them will be up in automobiles. Most of the seventy-five people taking part in the entertainment will make the trip by train. The curtain will not ring up until 8:30 o'clock. The men having charge of the stage work under Mr. McDonald will come up from Marquette this morning in an automobile and will spend the day putting the stage in readiness for the big show.

MELBY-YAGER.
Former Ishpeming Girl Married Wednesday Evening in Duluth.

The Duluth Evening Herald had the following account of the marriage of Miss Josephine Melby, daughter of Christian Melby, a former Ishpeming business man, to Henry Yager, which took place Wednesday evening at the Melby home in Duluth:

"A pretty home wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Melby of 514 First avenue west, where the daughter, Miss Josephine Melby, because the bride of Edward Henry Yager of this city. The service was read by the Rev. E. J. Shewell of St. John's English Lutheran church. The bride was attended by Miss Theodora Schneider and the groomsmen were Herbert C. Yager. The rooms were prettily decorated in flowers and ferns and the wedding music was played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Huntington. Before the ceremony Miss Cora Hilliard sang. The bride wore a pretty gown of white and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

"Mr. Yager and his bride left for a wedding trip. They will be at home after their return at 528 East Fifth street."

RUSHING ROAD WORK.
Good Headway Being Made on Township Highway West of the City.

Gust Fredin, who has the contract for the improvement of the main highway for a distance of two miles west of the Ishpeming city line, is employing a large crew and is making good headway. Mr. Fredin plans to finish the job within two or three weeks. When he was given this contract he was also awarded the contract for similar work on a part of the Witch Lake road, west of Republic. This job has been finished and the men employed there have been transferred to the highway west of the city.

Mr. Fredin will soon finish his contract with the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway company on the North Lake extension. The filling has been extended through the Barnum swamp within fifty or seventy-five feet of Division street. The first of the concrete abutments for the steel structures has been finished and the tracks have been extended to Division street on the north side and within a short distance of the Northwestern tracks on the south side.

The Barnum boarding house has been moved from its former location to a point about 100 feet to the west. Charles Johnston moved the building and preparations are now being made to put in the foundation. Work on the foundation of Captain John Gill's dwelling, to the east of the boarding house, will be started within a few days, as the excavating is nearly finished. Both houses are standing on props.

HANDICAP TOURNAMENT.

Members of Wawanowin Club Will Begin Series of Contests This Afternoon.

The greens committee of Wawanowin Golf club announces that the handicap tournament will begin this afternoon at the golf links. Two cups will be given to the winners. The cup to be given as first prize has been donated by Geo. A. Newell. A smaller one will be given as the second prize. Members desiring to enter the tournament are asked to notify the greens committee at once.

The contest is to be a two-match competition of eighteen consecutive holes. The handicaps will be given in strokes for each round. Any number of the handicap strokes may be applied at any hole or holes at the discretion of the man handicapped until all are used, but all the handicap strokes given for each round must be applied during that round. As an example as to how the handicap shall apply the committee issue the following:

"A is scratch; B has a handicap of five strokes; A makes first hole in four, B in five; B has option of applying one stroke to halve hole or two to win or he may reserve strokes."

The handicaps will be posted at the golf club house today at noon.

TO LAY CORNER STONE TOMORROW

Exercises to Be Conducted at Site of New Labor Temple on Tobin Street.

The corner stone of the "Labor Temple," in which several Negaunee labor organizations are interested, will be laid tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, with appropriate ceremonies. The building is to be located on Tobin street, near Teal Lake bluff.

The exercises tomorrow will consist of speeches in both English and Finnish, and selections by the Negaunee Italian band.

The movement for the erection of the temple was started by the Negaunee Socialists, but since then other labor organizations have united with them in it. The building will cover a ground space of 115 feet in length by forty-four feet wide. The plans were drawn by Lars Florell, one of the best known Finnish architects of the country, who is now in the city and who will be present at the cornerstone laying. The basement will extend under the entire building and the structure will contain rooms for athletics, baths, reading rooms, a small assembly room and restaurant.

The hall, which will be on the first floor will be one of the best in the upper peninsula. The stage will be provided with scenery, and will be forty-two feet wide, twenty-six feet deep and forty feet high. All of the curtains will pull up into the loft, as in modern theaters. The auditorium will seat 500 people and the gallery will have 100 seats. The ceiling will be twenty-four feet high.

The front of the second story will be fitted up as a library, with several reading rooms in connection. The property, including the lot, will represent an expenditure of $16,000.

Victor Vainio, a well known Finnish contractor of Drummond Island, has charge of the construction work. It is expected that the building will be ready for use within three months. Preparations are already under way for the opening entertainment. The proceeds will go to the building fund. The floor of the main room will be highly polished for dancing, and it is expected that a good revenue will be received from dancing and other social entertainments.

THOSE PIES OF BOYHOOD.

How delicious were the pies of boyhood. No pies now ever taste so good. What's changed? The Pies? No. It's you. You've lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion—Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels—Try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50c at The Stafford Drug Co.

A FEW SHORT WEEKS.

Mr. J. S. Bartell, Edwardsville, Ill., writes: "A few months ago my kidneys became congested. I had severe headache and pain across the kidneys and hips. Foley Kidney Pills promptly cured my backache and corrected the action of my kidneys. This was brought about after my using them for only a few short weeks and I can cheerfully recommend them." Sold by all Druggists.

FELL 500 FEET.

Workman at Negaunee Mine's New Shaft Killed Thursday Night.

Abel Himotta, one of the best known Finnish miners in Negaunee, met instant death Thursday night, when he fell 500 feet in the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company's new Negaunee mine shaft, where he was working. This shaft is being lined with concrete, the work having been started some months ago at the surface. The men are working downward to the bottom of the raise that was extended to surface a year or more ago. Himotta and his partners were working over 200 feet from surface when he fell away. The body was badly shattered and death was instantaneous.

The deceased had resided in Negaunee ever since he came to America some years ago. He was about thirty-five years of age and was married here five years ago. He is survived by his widow and two children. The family lives in the Negaunee mine field location.

Coroner William Priu came over from Ishpeming yesterday morning and he impaneled a jury, which is composed of William Verran, J. H. Summe, Gustaf Anderson, John Rock and Felix Chibotte. The inquest will be held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at Judge Verran's office.

NO SPECIAL TRAIN.

Fans Will Not Have Opportunity to See Team Play at Crystal Falls.

The movement started early in the week for a special train via the South Shore and St. Paul lines from this county to Crystal Falls tomorrow did not come to anything, as the sale of tickets fell below the guarantee required. The baseball team will leave this morning for the Menominee range city. T. A. Thoren was in Crystal Falls this week, and he said yesterday that six new men have recently been added to the team there. He saw them practice and he said that he has never seen a more snappy practice in this league. Among the new players are a catcher, first, second and third basemen and a right fielder. Crystal Falls has used over forty men in her team since the season opened.

AUTOMOBILE DESTROYED.

Paul Honkovara, the well known Palmer man, lost his White Steamer touring car by fire Thursday. He and a friend were fishing out from Palmer and he left the machine in a farmer's barn. When they were taking the car out, preparing to go home, it caught fire in some unaccountable manner, and was about completely destroyed. The only thing remaining was the metal frame work.

WHOOPING COUGH IS DANGEROUS

Malady Is Prevalent in This City and It Is Said That Some of Those Affected Are Not Exercising Due Precautions to Prevent Others Taking It.

Physician of World-Wide Repute Declares It Ranks First Among Acute Infections as a Cause of Death in Children Under Five—Means of Prevention.

In view of the fact that whooping cough is quite prevalent in Marquette, a few facts regarding the rules and regulations of the state board of health as to this affection may not be amiss. One who is giving her time to the people in this city were very careful in the restriction and prevention of whooping cough and did not seem to realize its seriousness. The old idea that whooping cough, measles and other kindred diseases were a gauntlet through which every child had to run, and that the quicker they "had 'em" the better, is obsolete, and the medical profession everywhere is now advising the public to use every means possible to protect children from contracting these diseases.

Concerning the seriousness and danger of whooping cough, Dr. Oeler, one of the world's greatest physicians, says: "If we include its complications, whooping cough is a very fatal affection, ranking first among acute infections as a cause of death in children under five years of age. It exceeds diphtheria and scarlet fever in gross mortality." The state board of health has laid down the following rules for the health officer to enforce in families where there is whooping cough: "The local health officer must report to this board every case of whooping cough reported to him. He must, upon request of the secretary of this board, distribute pamphlets relating to the restriction and prevention of the disease, according to directions of said secretary. He need not quarantine other members of the family, but he must not allow children of the same household, where there is a case of whooping cough, to attend school or other public gathering. He must observe and enforce the instructions regarding this disease promulgated by the state board of health."

Dangerous to Public Health.
The state board of health has very recently issued a bulletin on whooping cough from which the following excerpts are taken:

"Whooping cough is a contagious disease, and because of complications and sequelae induced by it—such pulmonary complications as broncho-pneumonia, hemorrhages, and tuberculous, and accidental sequelae as diphtheria, etc., it is a disease dangerous to public health and as such should be restricted. The pernicious practice among some people of allowing children to become exposed to this disease should be abandoned and combated, for the effect of a child is, the better able he or she is to resist fatal or debilitating effects of whooping cough. In adults the disease, if taken at all, is usually mild.

"The law requires householders and physicians to give immediate notice of the first case and every case of whooping cough to the health officer. The local board of health should make effective provisions for the safety of the inhabitants and use all possible care to prevent the spreading of the infection, by securing complete isolation of all sick and infected, and a thorough disinfection of all infected houses, clothing and all articles likely to be infected, before allowing their distribution or use by persons other than those in isolation.

"Do not let a child go near a case of whooping cough. This is especially important to be observed. Children are in much greater danger of death from whooping cough than are adults; but adult persons often get and spread the disease, and sometimes die from it. Mild cases in adults may cause fatal cases among children. Unless your services are needed, keep away from the disease yourself. If you do visit a case, bathe yourself and change and disinfect your clothing, hair, beard, if any, and hands, before you go where there is a child. Do not permit any person or thing, or a dog, cat, or other animal to come from a case of whooping cough to a child. No cat or dog should be permitted to enter the sick room.

"Do not permit a child to wear or handle clothing worn by a person during sickness or convalescence from whooping cough.

Beware of Sore Throat.
"Beware of any person who has a sore throat. Do not kiss or come near to such a person. Do not drink from the same cup, blow the same whistle, or put his pencil or pen in your mouth. Whenever a child has a severe cough, becoming paroxysmal, with sneezing and sometimes watering of the eyes, and a slight fever, the child and attendant should immediately be isolated until a physician has seen it and determined that it is whooping cough. Isolation of the sick should be established and maintained throughout the course of the disease.

"Persons who are attending upon children or other persons suffering from whooping cough, and also the members of the patient's family, should not mingle with other people nor permit the entrance of children into their house. "Every person recovering from whooping cough should be considered dangerous; therefore such a person should not be permitted to associate with others, or to attend school, church, or any public assembly until in the judgment of a careful and intelligent health officer he can do so without endangering others. No child of school age, living in a household where whooping cough is prevalent, should be permitted to attend any public school, Sunday school, church, or other assembly, until the period of incubation has passed, and then only after disinfection of said child and its clothing."

Nothing is there more friendly to a man than a friend in need.—Plautus.

WILL EXCHANGE PULPITS.

Rev. Maywood to Preach in Pittsburg, Pa., and Rev. Burnett Here, During August.

The Rev. Walter E. Burnett, of the Pellevue Episcopal church, Pittsburg, Pa., is not unknown to many of the people of Marquette. Several years ago Mr. Burnett conducted ten days of union services in this city under the auspices of the Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches, coming at that time from the Preston Methodist church, Detroit. Last fall he was called from Detroit to Pittsburg, where he is now the pastor of a large church. Mr. Burnett is remembered by those who heard him while here as a brilliantly gifted young minister. He has a genius for dealing with vital subjects in fresh and charming manner. Mr. Burnett will exchange churches and parsonages with Mr. Maywood of this city during the month of August, beginning his ministry in the local Methodist church Sunday morning, Aug. 7.

Mr. Maywood will conduct the last Sunday services previous to his departure for Pittsburg tomorrow. The morning service will be given up to a sermon appropriate to the Commission of the Lord's Supper and the celebration of that sacrament. The evening service will be a service of sacred music. There will be vocal and instrumental solos, duets, double quartet numbers and violin solos, forming a very delightful and inspiring program.

MACCABEES OF WORLD HAD GOOD MEETING

Upper Peninsula Rally Closed Last Night With Public Session in Fraternity Hall.

The first upper peninsula rally of the Knights and Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, which has been in progress in this city since Thursday evening, was brought to a fitting and successful close last evening with a public meeting, followed by a ball at Fraternity Hall. The session last night was the first in which the Sir Knights and Ladies met together. The closed meetings of the Ladies were held in Legion Hall and of the Knights in Fraternity Hall. Large classes were initiated into the two branches of the order at these sessions, and they proved highly interesting and profitable to the members.

The meeting last night was of a public nature and was very largely attended. The program proved very interesting and was given close attention. Addresses of welcome were delivered by James Russell and Alderman Herman Schauer, as the representative of Mayor Vaughan, who was unable to be present. Other speakers were Judge T. A. Thoren, of Negaunee; Mrs. Alberta

THEATRICAL.

"The Squaw Man."

Rarely has a dramatist succeeded in bringing the breezy western life of the early eighties to the stage as has Edwin Milton Royle, in "The Squaw Man," which H. E. Pierce & Co. are presenting here next week. The playwright of the present day, he is a resident of the east or west, but faint conception of the insult attached to the appellation "squaw man." To call a white man that on west is as deadly an affront as to design a cowpuncher "sleep herder" or a "rustler." It means light.

Yet were it not for the "squaw man" western civilization would not have reached the high plane it now occupies. Running over the list of great plainsmen, it will be found that Kit Carson, "Trapper" Baker, Jack Hardy, Jim Stillwell, Colonel Parker and other men whose names are indelibly engraved on the pages of the history of the west all took squaws as wives.

Later on the disgrace came, for the simple reason that hundreds of white men, worthless beyond description, married Indian women for the purpose of securing six hundred and forty acres of land, beef, flour and the regular issues of annuity goods given by a philanthropic government. Visit any of the great reservations today and you will find that the whites surrounding the tract have nothing whatever to do with a "squaw man" and the Indians treat him with absolute contempt.

One exception to this rule is a man on the Ute reservation, "Henderson" by name, who claims to be related to one of the wealthiest families in America. He is about sixty-five years of age and has lived with the Indians for over forty years. It was just about this time that a brilliant young society man dropped out of view in New York and has never been seen since.

"The Squaw Man" will be seen here, as will "Strongheart" and Charles Frohman's great success, "At the White Horse Tavern." All these well-known productions will be played by a capable company of twenty well-known players and with the original scenic productions.
