

FOREST FIRE SITUATION IS VERY SERIOUS

Swept Mercilessly and Relentlessly by Flames, Vast Areas in Montana, Idaho and Oregon Are Being Devastated and Lives Are Being Lost.

Half of the City of Wallace Is Destroyed, as Are Various Small Settlements and Enormous Quantities of Timber—The Losses Many Millions of Dollars.

Missoula, Mont., Aug. 21.—Mercilessly and relentlessly the forest fires of western Montana and Idaho are sweeping over a vast area, driving hundreds of fugitives before them, destroying small settlements and wiping out millions of dollars worth of property.

Communication with Wallace to the west has been possible at intervals to-day, but eastward the town is entirely cut off. It is known that the entire east half of the town, above Seventh street, has been burned.

The town of Taft, near the Idaho line, was entirely destroyed by fire before daylight. Saltese, below Taft, has been abandoned by its inhabitants and is known to be surrounded by fire.

The area covered is, roughly, one hundred miles square, mostly in the mountains and sparsely settled. It is difficult to obtain information from any points, and it is impossible to reach some isolated places at all.

Wallace, Idaho, Aug. 21.—Daylight this morning showed the imminent danger of this city's destruction had passed, but it brought also confirmation of losses which were only rumored and suspected last night.

At Big Creek, twelve are dead, two injured and three unfortunates blinded. One fighter was found dead near Mullan and sixteen were more or less seriously burned.

The fatalities known at Wallace are: John Boyd, father of Captain William Boyd, suffocated in his home while trying to rescue the family; two unidentified men whose bones were found in the ruins of the Michigan Hotel; an unidentified man burned in the Coeur d'Alene Hotel; William Hearnmouth, of Wainwright, a fire fighter; Joe Fene, a fire fighter, suffocated in the tunnel at Placer Creek; four unidentified fire fighters suffocated at Placer Creek; unidentified fire fighter, burned to death near Mullan.

Reports have reached the forest supervisor that a crew of twelve men have been burned in a gulch on Big Creek and that several groups of from two to six are missing.

Butte, Mont., Aug. 21.—A special dispatch from Thompson Falls, Mont., says: "The fire situation here is alarming. Thompson Falls is threatened. Portions of Belknap, White Pine, Noxon and Heron are burning and there is a solid line of fire from here to the Montana-Idaho boundary line, a distance of forty miles."

where the dangerous conflagration was stopped a couple of weeks ago. Another fire of serious proportions was reported tonight from between Storris and Hoffman, twelve miles southeast of here.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 21.—Tonight, after two days' work on the part of six hundred volunteer fire fighters, Lovellton, in Sierra county, Cal., twenty-five miles north of here, is out of danger from a forest fire that burned over a district nine miles square. The damage is estimated at $200,000.

Wholesale Incendiarism Suspected. Washington, Aug. 21.—Incendiarism is believed to be responsible in large measure for the spread of the devastating forest fires in the Northwest in which millions of feet of valuable timber have gone up in smoke and millions more are threatened.

Acting Forester Albert E. Peterson, in a dispatch received from Supervisor Back, of Medford, Ore., stating that the continued spread of fires in southern Oregon has revealed clearly the work of incendiarism. Mr. Peterson would not discuss what may be the purpose of the fire bugs, pending the official report.

ROOSEVELT CALLS IT TISSUE OF FALSEHOOD

He Has Sent No Ultimatum to Mr. Taft Demanding a Break With Sherman.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Theodore Roosevelt took the trouble yesterday to deny emphatically that he had sent an ultimatum to President Taft demanding that the president break with Vice President Sherman.

Colonel Roosevelt's attention was called to a report to the effect that Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the New York Republican committee, was to go to the summer capital this week to carry the terms of peace between Beverly and Sagamore Hill.

"I have sent no ultimatum to President Taft," Colonel Roosevelt said. "The report is a tissue of falsehood from beginning to end and has no warrant in fact."

New York, Aug. 21.—Republican leaders here hear the report that Vice President James S. Sherman might announce in the interest of harmony that he did not fully understand the position in which he was placed when he let his name go before the New York state committee for temporary chairman of the state convention and that he would retire in order that Colonel Roosevelt might have the unanimous vote of the committee for the temporary chairmanship.

Mr. Taft Hopeful of Harmony.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 21.—As time goes on it becomes more and more apparent that no direct answer will be made here to the reports of a break between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt and the charges alleged as the foundation for the rupture.

It is taken here to mean that the president has no fight with the insurgents, he is glad to welcome them as Republicans. As to the tariff, Mr. Taft, it is believed, will lay the chief importance upon the results that it is hoped to be accomplished through the work of the new tariff commission.

RAILROAD DETECTIVES JAIL ALLEGED WOULD-BE WRECKER.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—With the arrest of Patrick Zanetta at Waukegan, Ill., it became known tonight that three attempts were made last week to wreck trains on the Chicago & Northwestern between here and Milwaukee.

PEDESTRIAN JOHN ENNIS OUT-WALKS THE CHAMPION.

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 21.—Seventy-eight days out of New York city by actual walking time, and three weeks ahead of the coast-to-coast walking record of 105 days, held by Edward Payson Weston, John Ennis, sixty-eight years of age, arrived in this city at four this morning and rested for the day prior to continuing his walk to San Francisco.

LA FOLLETTE HAS THE FIGHT OF HIS CAREER

He the Best Hated Man in the Senate from the Standpoint of the G. O. P. Regulars, and the "Old Guard" Is Hopeful He Will Be Defeated.

It Is Not Improbable, too, That His Foes Will Have Cause to Rejoice—He Is Deprived of Many Former Advantages and Has an Uphill Struggle.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Among the senatorial campaigns which are being waged this year none is exciting more interest in Washington than the one in Wisconsin where Senator Robert M. La Follette is a candidate for reelection.

The senior senator from the badger state is without doubt the best hated man in the senate from the standpoint of the Republican regulars. It is doubtful if one member of the old guard would regret the substitution of a Democrat for the former governor of Wisconsin, whom they cordially dislike personally and politically.

Reports which have reached Washington indicate very clearly that Senator La Follette is up against the fight of his life. His political battles have always been strenuous ones, but this year he is deprived of many of the advantages which marked his former campaigns.

In the first place the senator is confronted with a bitter factional quarrel within the Republican party, which means that he will lose thousands of votes. In the second place it is more than probable that he will lose a very considerable portion of the Democratic support which he has heretofore commanded.

Senator Stephenson, believed by many to be the richest man in the senate, is known as a lavish spender in political campaigns. It has been estimated that his own reelection a little more than a year ago cost him far in excess of $100,000.

The principal candidates against Senator La Follette are Bart Williams of Ashland, Democrat, and Samuel A. Cook of Neenah, the primaries will be held on Sept. 6, all parties are in the same day. For the first time in many years the Democrats and Socialists feel confident of victory.

Senator Tuttle and Congressman McLaughlin also made brief addresses at the meeting. Mr. Tuttle addressed the meetings at Rudyard, Trout Lake, Pickford, Donaldson and Algonquin.

NOTORIOUS PAIR SAIL FROM QUEBEC

Dr. Crippen and Ethel Leneve Are Due to Arrive in England Saturday Noon.

Quebec, Que., Aug. 21.—Quebec bade farewell last evening to Hawley Harvey Crippen and Ethel Clare Leneve. They sailed for England on board the Megantic, due in Liverpool at noon next Saturday.

It is understood that Crippen and Leneve will be confined closely to their cabin during the voyage, except for a short time each day when they will be permitted to take exercise on the bridge.

Father Point, Aug. 21.—Dr. Harvey Hawley Crippen and Ethel Clare Leneve, passed again today the point where they were arrested in their flight from England some weeks ago.

Philadelphia, Aug. 21.—In one of the most important elections in years, Pennsylvania is to have the first real test of its independent reform sentiment in the fall, when in three cornered contest for the governorship, the non-partisan Keystone party will oppose both the old party machines.

William H. Berry, ex-state treasurer, "for civic righteousness." That element has been subordinated this year. In addition, the bolt of the independents from their old party organizations has been so decisive that the platform adopted is pitched entirely upon state issues.

That He Will Carry Chippewa County by a Big Majority Is Freely Predicted.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 21.—In great contrast to the Burrows meeting a week ago, when forty-three persons attended the township meeting last night, attended by at least eight hundred enthusiastic Republicans of the Soo, besides a large number from surrounding country districts.

Representative Townsend paid his respects to Senator Burrows when he said was now going through Michigan advocating the selection of senators by the direct nomination system.

His splendid meetings in the upper peninsula have convinced Representative Townsend that the reports sent out that the country north of the straits was solid for Burrows have been false and he expects to see the Republicans of that region line up with those in the lower part of the state on the side of progress.

Senator Tuttle and Congressman McLaughlin also made brief addresses at the meeting. Mr. Tuttle addressed the meetings at Rudyard, Trout Lake, Pickford, Donaldson and Algonquin.

CAMPAIGN IN PENNSYLVANIA IS INTERESTING

Non-Partisan Keystone Party, Composed of Insurgent Republicans and Independent Democrats, Is Lined Up Against Both of the Old Organizations.

With Berry Heading the Ticket and With Local Option and Other Reforms as the Issues, Victory for It Can Come, However, Only by a Revolution.

er's day book, there finding payments that ran into many millions. Berry's connection with this case will help him, and it is expected that the churches will play a prominent part in a campaign aimed especially at the liquor interests.

Of the 1,000,000 votes in Pennsylvania the Democratic vote is estimated 350,000 to 400,000. Berry's total vote for state treasurer five years ago was 552,932; if he can poll that next November he will win.

That is the situation as shown by the figures. In an interview Berry conceded that the figures were against him and he frankly admitted that it would take a revolution to carry the Keystone ticket to victory.

Aside from the state election the Keystone party intends to invade at least half of the 136 legislative districts. If they can elect fifty members of the next legislature, in addition to the Democrats who will be chosen, they can seriously interfere with Senator Penrose's control of the legislature.

Senator Penrose and his associates ridicule the idea of the Keystone party winning. Harry W. Baker, secretary of the regular Republican state committee, one of the shrewdest observers in the state, predicts that the majority for Toner will be "not less than 150,000."

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 21.—Former President Roosevelt will for the first time in his career, attend the annual frontier celebration at Cheyenne, Aug. 27, that day being especially set aside in his honor and observed as "Roosevelt day."

This year the celebration is being planned fourteen years ago by the citizens of Cheyenne in a spirit of daring and thrilling deeds of frontier life on the plains.

FREED FROM SCANDAL IN INDIAN DEAL

Neither Vice President Sherman nor Senator Curtis of Kansas Interfered in the Oklahoma Contracts, Announces Congressional Investigating Committee.

Use of Their Names Was Entirely Unwarranted, It Is Declared in Statement Given Out, and This Conclusion Is Indorsed by Mr. Gore, Himself.

Sulphur, Okla., Aug. 21.—The select committee appointed by the senate to investigate the Indian land affairs, and the so-called McMurray contracts, which has been investigating the Gore bribery charges has issued the following statement:

"The committee has heard and has carefully read all the testimony submitted and is unanimous in the opinion that there is and was no warrant for any person to use the names of Vice President Sherman and Senator Charles S. Curtis in connection with improper relations with any of the Indian contracts whatever."

In giving the decision the committee said it had received from Senator Gore a statement relative to Vice President Sherman and Senator Curtis, and that the committee "commended" Mr. Gore's statement. Senator Gore's statement says in part: "Neither the name of Vice President Sherman nor Senator Curtis was mentioned by me on the floor of the United States senate."

The committee announced that the investigation has not been concluded. Attorney McMurray will continue his testimony on tomorrow.

CHILLY WAVE WILL SWEEP THE COUNTRY THIS WEEK.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Chilly weather is on the way, according to a general forecast for the coming week issued by Professor Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau. A chilly wave will begin to sweep across the country the middle of the week, starting from the Northwestern states and reaching the Atlantic coast Friday or Saturday.

DOCTORS REPORT MR. GAYNOR STEADILY GAINING STRENGTH.

New York, Aug. 21.—Only one bulletin was given out today relative to Mayor Gaynor's condition, and no consultation of the physicians was held. The Pioneer's time was one hour, thirteen minutes and twenty-one seconds.

It appears that one of the baseball players has made another error.

Negaunee and Escanaba will play a post-season series, for revenue and the championship of the upper peninsula.

The United States imported $250,000, 000 worth of luxuries last year. And we were not particularly flush last year, either.

The Indian contract cases have gone far enough to prove that the Choctaws and Chickasaws have a mighty soft thing for one J. F. McMurray.

Never has man found alleged enemies' country more hospitable than Representative Townsend, who comes to Marquette tonight, has found the upper peninsula.

The Detroit News cartooned Chase S.
 Osborn in the likeness of "Washington Crossing the Delaware," whereupon Chase reminded the News that Washington got across, and so would he.

It is Colonel Roosevelt's present intention to be a good Indian, but it is noted that he reserves the right to leave the reservation whenever conditions seem to demand a demonstration by him.

Colonel Roosevelt may have been defeated by a trick, but no sensible person will have any patience with the suggestion that President Taft had knowledge of it. President Taft plays the game square.

Candidate Kerr expresses himself as being more than satisfied with the outlook in Marquette county. Candidate Young will doubtless return the compliment by remarking that Houghton county promises to be good to him September 6.

It will, naturally, under the circumstances, be interesting to observe how the people of New York state like Sunny Jim Sherman's speech as temporary chairman. In any event it ought to please his dear pals of the "old guard."
 And we have no doubt, too, that the Democrats will keenly relish it.

And what, pray, has there been about Senator Burrows' record in regard to the really popular legislation of the past decade that should cause any enthusiasm at the suggestion that if he is sent back to the senate again he will be the head of the finance committee? Judging by the people to whom his service has been given, that is the last place in the world where the people of Michigan and the country should want to see Mr. Burrows. Power is an unmixed evil unless it is placed in the right hands.

Now the Kelley newspapers are exercised because it appears that some of the Osborn petitions have many signatures written in one hand. We can't know anything about the facts at this distance, but if there are any Osborn petitions that aren't just right it's merely an oversight, and they should certainly be tossed out. The tossing out will occasion no inconvenience, because there are some thousands of petitioners for Osborn whose names are held in reserve.

O'Laughlin, in the Chicago Tribune, has reviewed the Michigan senatorial situation at great length. He finds that Senator Burrows has the fight of his life on his hands and concludes that he stands a fine and increasing chance of being defeated. O'Laughlin's comment shows that the lower state Burrows men are counting largely on the upper peninsula's vote to pull Mr. Aldrich's chief lieutenant through. The Burrows people below the straits should send a plain clothes scout up here to prove around when the local "leaders" are not on dress parade, and the bands are not playing. They might then get some bona fide information.

An interesting story is current that Hearst has demanded of Murphy the retirement of six Tammany congressmen who voted with Representative Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, to uphold Speaker Cannon, on March 15, 1909. Hearst is reported to have asked that Riordan, Goldfogle, Fornes, Conroy, Harrison and Goulden be dropped, as part of the price of his support of the Democratic ticket.
 Of the Tammany congressmen who voted with the Republican regulars he only proposes to spare Representative Sulzer, the best known man of the Tammany delegation. Hearst is said to desire to get back into the Democratic party. Certainly the New York Democrats are desiring of seeing him back. The accesion of his string of newspapers and his personal following to their strength would greatly enhance their chance of victory. On the other hand, if Hearst should resurrect his old Independence league, or start up some other new fangled organization, the probability of the Republicans retaining the state would be considerably increased. The Democrats need Hearst to win and Hearst, it is apparent, needs the Democrats if he is to be a power for any definite accomplishment. It will not be unlikely that they will get together, at some price or other to be paid by the Tammany organization.

Uncle Joe evidently has some hopes that if the Republicans control the next house, and he can get all of 'em into a caucus, he will be able to set up the pins so that he can command the votes of a majority. If all agreed to support the caucus choice, and none of 'em bolted, the Uncle can see where he still may occupy the speaker's chair, even with a majority of but one of the Republican members voting for him in caucus. Uncle Joe doesn't seem to think so. His enemies will now doubtless move to kill him a little dead.

Representative Townsend took a stiff fall out of the Detroit Journal and the Free Press last week, in an address at Ionia.
 These papers, particularly the Journal, have been conducting a singularly malevolent campaign against Mr. Townsend. The Journal has been wholly unconscious in its opposition, but, as is usually the case with a newspaper that has thrown discretion to the winds, it has largely nullified its efforts by its excesses. The Free Press need receive little serious attention. As Mr. Townsend remarked at Ionia, it is more often than not bolting Republican candidates.

Two years ago it gave all the aid and comfort it could to Hemans, after its singularly vicious campaign against Governor Warner was largely responsible for the critical condition in which the Republican party found itself at the close of the primaries. The Free Press and Journal are generally credited with being under the domination of E. D.
 Stair, a gentleman who picked up his pile in the show business, and who rattles around in the newspaper profession like a bull in a china shop. The interesting thing about Mr. Stair is that he is reputed to possess political ambitions.
 The state is full of people who want to be in on the killing when he submits them to the electorate for ratification.

THE PRESIDENT'S DUTY.
 The New York Globe looks upon the present situation in the Republican party with considerable concern and is all the more regretful for its existence because it believes there is not half the reason for factional division there appears to be. The president's duty in the premises is, it believes, to strike boldly out on a middle course, urging all Republicans who have the ultimate good of their party at heart to sink their differences and ignore the solicitations of purely factional leaders, no matter what faction they may represent.
 "There must be an unequivocal and understandable declaration of policy—a standard set up around which the average non-factional Republican can rally," the Globe says. "Good-humored aloof-ness has been tried as a molifier and it has failed. For futile experiments with it we owe the appearance of vacillation.
 One day the report is that the president has become a "progressive" and no "regular" is to apply, and the next that he has floundered back to the "regulars" and a war of extermination is to be waged against the "progressives."
 "The president, by an authoritative announcement if necessary, should end such foolishness. He should definitely cut himself loose from factional affiliation either way. All Republicans should look alike to him. It is not his business, nor does it comport with his dignity, to be a heresy chaser. In the various states the party branches are autonomous organizations and have a right to be served by men of their own selection. It was last winter that President Taft laid the foundation of his present difficulties, and he did so by apparently countenancing the proposal to read certain large bodies of men out of the party.
 It was the foolish speech of Mr. Wickersham at Chicago that convinced the "insurgent" that they must fight against political extinction and led to the adoption of an anti-administration attitude.
 The mistake was followed up and emphasized when the White House gave a chilly reception to the Republican malcontents. Doubtless they were unreasonable and in detail gave excuse for establishing a patronage embargo against them, but it would have been wiser not to have proclaimed it.
 "No such real division exists in the Republican rank and file as exists among its sub-leaders. There is no irrepressible conflict except as it has been manufactured in the imagination. The struggle is three-fourths, if not nine-tenths, over persons rather than principles. No one has solved the mystery, so far as the president is concerned, of what the row is about. In actual program and achievement he has been far more progressive than his predecessor and, on the other hand, he is far more acceptable to the great masses of conservative Republicans than any other public man in sight. If the president, judging the suf-

EXPLODED CLAIMS.

Representative Townsend's tour of the upper peninsula, in furtherance of his praiseworthy ambition "to be United States senator in succession to Julius Caesar Burrows, has not progressed very far, but it has progressed amply far enough to explode the preposterous claims of the Burrows' boosters that their venerable candidate is going to get anywhere from 75 to 85 per cent of the vote.

These preposterous claims have been based on false assumptions. One of these is that the upper peninsula voters are so remote from the world, and average so low in intelligence, that they have little or no appreciation of great movements in national politics and little understanding of what interests their representatives in the national congress have been serving.

Another false assumption has been that the gentlemen who are doing such able work in handling the great mining interests of this region will be able to do equally effective work in delivering the votes of the men who get out their ore to Senator Burrows.

Both these assumptions are wrong, as are others of the same piece. The upper peninsula is subject to the same influences as the rest of the country, and its people average high in intelligence.
 Its foreign population is by no means the dumb, driven mass that careless observers sometimes conclude it is. This population has its newspapers, schools and churches. It is essentially patriotic, and to a wonderful extent is seeking to find the best thing to do for its adopted country.

As for the ability of the men who handle the upper peninsula mines to vote the men as so many chattels for a candidate of their choice, it is, to all intents and purposes, non-existent. And it may be said to the credit of these gentlemen that they have no intention of adopting any unfair means to try to accomplish such a purpose. They are frankly supporting Senator Burrows.
 The iron men, particularly, are interested in his welfare, for he was most responsive during the tariff session of congress to their wishes affecting the iron ore schedule. They are now repaying him as far as lies in their power. To a considerable extent the mine organizations are Burrows organizations and the Burrows' campaign coffers have been swelled by substantial contributions from this source.

But the upper peninsula miner knows now, if he didn't a few years ago, that when he sells his work he doesn't sell his vote. The latter he retains, to be disposed of as his good citizenship dictates, as one of the most priceless things that he possesses. Nothing is more likely to put him edgewise and get his back up than any effort to deliver him in the mass.

The fallacy of the assumption that the upper peninsula has no response to make to the valiant progressive campaign of Representative Townsend, to succeed in the senate a man who ardently boasts his "standpattism" from every platform, has been shown by the flattering nature of his receptions in Menominee, Escanaba and the Soo. The genuine enthusiasm that was so noticeably lacking throughout the tour of Mr. Burrows in this region has been present in significant volume. The upper peninsula is apparently living in the twentieth century and is awake. It knows the difference between a modern statesman and an antediluvian one. It is warming up to Representative Townsend in a most significant manner. He is going to get

BURROWS—"A LEADER."

The predicament of the Burrows managers is best indicated by the extravagant claims they feel obliged to make for their man. The latest is that Julius Caesar Burrows is to be the real leader in the senate! They might at least have spared him that. A good many things can be said about Mr. Burrows, but he would be an exceptional and cruel enemy who would ridicule him by calling him a "leader."

Julius Caesar Burrows, the most treatable, leadable man in the senate—a leader!
 Why, so far from being a leader,
 his value even as a subservient official has suffered a slump since his boss—Senator Aldrich—is going to retire. It is undoubtedly true that in his day Mr.
 Burrows has had many an opportunity to lead, but he has never grasped any of them. His senatorial initiative has seldom consisted in more daring ventures than the introduction of pension bills.
 He had a chance to lead recently when his committee handled the bill making it obligatory on candidates to tell before an election just how much they spent in their campaign and where they got it.
 The president wanted such a bill. Every conscience-bearing man in the senate wanted such a bill. Mr. Burrows did not want such a bill. He smothered the proposition and turned out a mongrel substitute that doesn't require anything in particular and that prevents the voters from finding out where the money is getting the man in. If Julius Caesar Burrows had been the first element of leadership in him he would have used it at that time.

In another recent matter, Julius Caesar Burrows had a chance to lead. It was to lead, by reason of yearling bills, the senate, to investigate the rotten Lorrimer case and to mete out justice. Did he do it? No; he let the case daily for weeks; he didn't turn his hand over to probe the charges. While the citizens and courts of Chicago and Illinois were being his duty, Senator Burrows was obstructing the course of justice in the United States senate. It was only when the scandal of his attitude threatened to become a party issue that senatorial leaders arose and demanded either that Mr. Burrows act or the case be taken from him. He didn't judge an inch west of the mark. He was compelled to. Is that the quality of leadership?

Under three presidents, Senator Burrows has been just as prominent and just as efficient as he is today, but you recall any president who ever placed one member of dependence on Senator Burrows? Can you recall one president who ever regarded him as a "leader"?
 William McKinley knew him as a man would vote as he was told. Theodore Roosevelt called him "an old skeezicks." Mr. Taft hasn't said out-and-out what he thinks of Mr. Burrows, but the fact that Mr. Burrows was one of the Aldrich crowd that prevented the president giving the kind of tariff revision he promised, and no one has heard of Mr.
 Taft entrusting Julius Caesar Burrows with any task that requires "leadership."

No, the facts lie too near the surface for any Burrows man to make twice the mistake of claiming Burrows to be a "leader." He has too long a reputation as a follower. There is need for leaders this moment in Washington. When the president is wanted to know for himself the sentiment of the west, did he send for Mr. Burrows? When the president wanted to know for himself the true inwardness of the Indian contract muddle, did he ask Burrows to dig it out and report? No; at a time when the president is amazed to find every capable friend he has, we don't find Julius Caesar Burrows engaged in any higher patriotic duty than smothering campaign publicity bills and hindering the investigation of senate bribery scandals.

Why, the better press of the country are amazed to think that Michigan ever even thought of returning Mr. Burrows to the senate. From Boston to San Francisco he is the joke of political experts. As soon would they expect Ohio to return Foraker as Michigan to send back Burrows—Detroit News.

HERE AND THERE.

Cincinnati in 1880 was a much larger city than Cleveland, and remained ahead of it in 1890. The census of 1900, however, showed Cleveland in the lead and the population of Cincinnati has since increased it, for Cincinnati's population increase in the past decade has been only 11.8 per cent, which is below what the cities so far heard from are generally showing. St. Paul's in the same time is 31.7 per cent. The New York Tribune speaks of Cincinnati's "stagnant" population on the steep river bank as a hindrance to its expansion. This causes a drift of residence population to Newport and Covington, on the southern side of the river.

What William J. Gaynor, mayor of New York, has to say on "The Problem of Efficient City Government," is of interest to every American citizen. His discussion of the problem will be one of the features of the September Century, dealing with the training needed for a mayor, the first duty of officials, the folly of patronage, the passing of boss-control, and other civic matters of vital interest.

The Outlook, commenting on Mr. Roosevelt's recent visit to the Pennsylvania coal fields, says: "No one knows better than Mr. Roosevelt that a complete economic study of industrial conditions with statistics and figures and scientific data cannot be made of any given industrial region in two days. The object of this visit was not scientific; it was human. In order to give scientific facts a right proportion in any economic study of the greatest value to see and talk with the actual people whose interests are involved. It was to get the value of this human equation that Mr.
 Roosevelt made this journey to Scranton and Wilkesbarre."

A Columbia university statistician has been comparing the census figures thus far announced at Washington with those of the previous enumeration. He figures that the average gain thus far shown is 29.7 per cent. If a similar percentage applies to the rest of the country the net gain for the United States will be about 17,900,000, making its total population more than 93,600,000.

Modern chemistry enables man to make over some of the most useful metals very much at his will, and greatly to his profit. Dr. W. Rosenhan, in England, recently made a report on the properties of new alloys of copper, aluminum and manganese, which show remarkable peculiarities. An alloy of 8 per cent copper, 9.99 per cent aluminum and 2.01 per cent manganese showed enormous tensile strength, a cold-drawn bar having a yield point of 40.83 tons per square inch, and an ultimate stress of 52.08 tons a square inch. Another alloy is so hard that it can take a cutting edge sharp enough to sharpen a lead pencil. The British admiralty is experimenting with these alloys to determine their resistance to corrosion in sea water.

John Richard Green, author of the well known history of England, was a parish priest in 1866. He took a prominent part in the work of relief when an epidemic killed many people. Mrs. J. R.
 Green has left on record a typical instance: "On one occasion he found a man dangerously ill in an upper room. Some big draymen in the street refused to help. Green, therefore, tried to carry the man downstairs. His slight frame was unequal to the effort, and the two fell from the top to the bottom of the stairs together. The man, who was in a state of collapse, was not injured."

A LAUGH OR TWO.

Better Than He Expected.

Not long ago a young lawyer of Baltimore undertook the defense of an old negro who had been arrested for "helping" himself without asking, and who in slavery days had once been owned by the young man's father. It was his first case, and his defense was not brilliant, either in construction or in delivery. The old darky received no mercy, his guilt being clearly proved.
 "Thank you, sah," the prisoner addressed the judge cheerfully, after the sentence had been pronounced. "Tain't anywar near's bad as I s'pected, sah.
 I ought s'ar, t'ween my character and pore. Mars' Frank's speech, dey'd hang me for certain."—Youth's Companion.

Two Bulls' Eyes.

Senator LaFollette was talking about two corporations that had been attacking one another in the press.
 "They both scored," he said. "They made me think of two prisoners in Atlanta, one of whom had been convicted of stealing a watch, the other of stealing a cow."
 "These two prisoners hated each other and as they passed one morning in the exercise yard the cow stealer said with a sneer:
 "What time is it?"
 "Milking time" the watch stealer answered.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Art As A Refuge.

"Among the students who did most to prevent my task being a sinecure," says Mr. Beckwith, "was one young woman whose backwardness and total lack of interest finally roused my ire.
 While criticizing an unusually bad piece of her work I asked, exasperatedly:
 'Why do you come here, anyway?'
 "Because," she answered, "my twin sister takes her banjo lesson just at this hour, and I have to do something, so I thought I would study art."—

 The way he could slur over the defects amounted to genius.

silver would resemble anthracite coal. In other words things appear as they do merely from the circumstances that in the process of evolution our eyes have developed a sensibility to a certain region of the light which comes to us from the sun.

"If we have used an ordinary photographic plate in our experiment we shall find that it has received some impression from the red and yellow parts of the spectrum and very little from the green. The plate therefore suffers a little from the same defect as our eye; it is sensitive only to a limited region. Recently, however, means have been found of producing plates sensitive to the entire visible spectrum, and to a certain extent to the extension beyond the violet analogous to the one beyond the violet.

"With a photographic plate rendered sensitive to the entire spectrum we could obtain an idea of how things should appear if our eyes received some impression from regions other than the one adapted by nature by excluding from the lens of the camera all rays other than the ones with which we wish to operate. This is done to a limited extent every day by all photographers, who employ color screens in their cameras and it is well known that increased contrast can often be obtained in this way.

"If for example, we attempt to photograph white clouds against a blue sky without the use of such a screen we get a scarcely any trace of the clouds at all, whereas if we place a yellow glass in front of the lens the clouds come out snow white on a very dark background. We can see this same effect by viewing the clouds first through a piece of deep blue glass, which is what the photographic plate 'sees' and then through the yellow plate.

"I have found that in general most white garden flowers are black, or nearly so, in ultra violet light. Next summer I am going to raise some white flowers under glass which will screen them from the ultra violet rays during their development and see if this makes any difference in their color. We have found that the color of flowers is related to the color of the light which falls upon them."

ABOUT LUCK

"There is no such thing as luck," remarked the pompous individual, taking possession of the best chair in the hotel parlor.

"I suppose that's the last word on the subject," said the small man, who had the worst chair. "You have the appearance of a man whose opinion is final, and it would be a sin to dispute anything you say. But I have always believed in luck—in bad luck, anyhow. Why did the waiter spill a cup of coffee down my back at the support table? I have been a small guy all my life. Why am I sitting in the worst chair in town at this writing? Why is the chair so situated that the smoke from all you fellows' cigars and pipes blows into my face? Why did the waiter spill a cup of coffee down my back at the support table? Ever since I was old enough to walk I have been getting the worst of it. It isn't my fault, for I have ordinary intelligence, and try to sidestep disaster. It isn't the fault of other people, for they usually treat me with consideration and I may modestly say that I have been popular wherever I lived. I have always charged my misfortunes up to bad luck, and now you tell me there is no such thing as bad luck, so I feel like the two orphans."

"Last Christmas an old friend of mine, who lives in Indianapolis, gave me a cordial invitation to come down there and spend the holidays with him. I went anticipating a good time. My leg in the suburbs, and as I entered his garden gate his family dog bit my leg so that it was a sight to be seen, and I had to have a lot of wounds cauterized. The dog was a family pet. It had been owned by my friend since its early infancy. It was a moral and polite dog and never before had it offered to injure a stranger. Why did that dog wait seven years to bite me? "When I was a boy there was a sort of public swing in the village. It was strong enough for a rhinoceros to swing on. All the heavyweights of the neighborhood had swung on it. One evening I climbed aboard to have a little amusement. "There's a Reason."

A new feature has arisen in connection with the fight now raging between the House of Commons and the House of Lords in England, and it may yet prove an important factor in bringing about peace. As many American visitors to the palace of Westminster are aware the House of Commons rejoices in a particularly excellent restaurant, which costs them about $20,000 a year, voted for this purpose.

The House of Commons declines to listen to the protests of the upper house, on the plea that the members of the latter seldom have night sittings and usually adjourn before 8 o'clock. This is however, not altogether correct. For, while it is true that the Lords generally adjourn before eight, there are many nights in the season when the debates extend throughout the entire evening and when the restaurant finds itself entirely incapable of keeping up with the sudden demands for dinner by several hundred hungry lords.

Indeed, during the present parliamentary year, the Lords have had more night sessions than ever before in their existence, owing to their desire to show to the public that they were not so indifferent to their legislative obligations as had been alleged by those in favor of their abolition.

Probably the best timekeeper in the world is the electric clock in the Berlin observatory. It is enclosed in an airtight glass cylinder, and its deviation is practically nil.

To Hibernians' Convention—James Hanley and Thomas P. Gary leave this morning for Port Huron, where they will attend the state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians as delegates from the Marquette division. Incidentally they expect to put in their spare time boosting Chase S. Osborn's candidacy for governor.

Scout Watched Game—Ted Sullivan, scout for Comiskey's White Sox, was an interested spectator at the Marquette-Crystal Falls game Saturday, and before it was called worked up a good perspiration by battling 'em out to the fielders. If Mr. Sullivan expects to pick up any of the players for Commy, he gave no intimation of his purpose, but was content to look wise and say little.

Allen Defeated Dunster—The golf match between E. W. Allen, winner of Class B players in the recent tournament, and C. B. Dunster, winner of Class A, was finished Saturday and won by Mr. Allen, four up and three to play. The championship of the city is still in doubt, however, as there are several Class A players who are as yet undefeated by a Class B player. Challenges are now in order.

Chocolate Political Meeting—A political meeting in the interests of Iron, H. O. Young and others was held in the Chocloy town hall Saturday evening, which was well attended by the voters residing in that vicinity. Those who spoke in the interests of Mr. Young's candidacy were his secretary, Mr. Williams, and Joseph H. Primeau, Jr., of Marquette. W. S. Ewing explained something of the nature of the primary law and its importance to individual voters, and John Robertson, of this city, gave a brief talk, endorsing Mr. Ewing's candidacy for representative from this county.

Munising Defeated—The Munising old leaguers went down to defeat before younger blood at Munising yesterday. The Marquette second team winning by a score of 15 to 10. Gwinn has to win all the remaining games in order to tie the Next Sunday Marquette goes to Gwinn for the last time and a good game is expected. Gwinn has secured the services of Eddie Paul, formerly of the Negaunee team, who will hold down third base.

Kerr in City—Angus W. Kerr was in Marquette part of yesterday and last evening. He will leave this morning for Big Bay, where he will be the speaker at a mass meeting of voters this evening. His itinerary includes meetings right up to the primaries.

Bijou Bill This Week—The McDonald musical team comes to the Bijou theater for the first half of this week fresh from a record breaking engagement at Postosky and the two Soos. They are headliners and change their act at every performance.

Blueberry Excursion—The employees of the South Shore shops enjoyed a delightful excursion to the blueberry plains west of Seney yesterday. This is one of the best blueberry patches in the upper peninsula this season and many well filled baskets were brought home last night. The excursion was well patronized and it is estimated that from 500 to 600 made the trip.

DR. ADAMS BACK.

Man Who Forfeited $10,000 Bail Returned to Prison.

Sheriff Gaston, of Wayne county, brought back Dr. Adams to the Marquette prison Saturday. Dr. Adams, who was formerly a medicine fakir, was convicted on a charge of seduction. Pending an appeal for a new trial, he sought release on bail and a few weeks ago was let out of the Marquette prison on an order of the court, he having furnished $10,000 security. The new trial was denied, and Dr. Adams failing to appear at the proper time the bail was declared forfeited. He claims that he failed to receive notice of the denial of the new trial, and is endeavoring to secure the return of the $10,000. Shortly after the bail was forfeited he returned to Detroit and made no special effort to keep out of the hands of the officers. Dr. Adams was advised against seeking bail, as it was certain that his case would be disposed of shortly.

THEATRICAL.

Theater Opens Tonight.

The first attraction of the theatrical season of 1910-11 comes to the Marquette opera house this evening, when "The Flower of the Ranch," a musical play with a well-defined plot, of real dramatic significance, will be presented. The story of the play is laid in California, during the days of '49, and has been effectively developed by Joseph E. Howard, composer of "Stamborn Cinderella," "The Girl Question," "The Time, the Place and the Girl," and other successful offerings. There are about twenty musical numbers, two of which alone would be sufficient to make any musical play a success, namely, "California" and "The Boys of '49," a stage coach, of the frontier type, is introduced, making one of the prettiest of stage pictures. The company consists of Jess Harris, a comedian really entitled to star, John E. Frank, J. D. Jaxone, Robert Saburn, Chester Carter, Fred Van Rieken, Miss Nellie Watters, Miss Mabel de Nordendorf and a singing and dancing chorus of thirty pretty girls. The scenic and electrical effects and costumes are adequate in every respect.

BALL GAME ENDS IN DISAGREEMENT

Decision by McLaughlin in Eighth Inning Caused Ishpeming to Leave Field.

Yesterday's ball game between the Ishpeming and Negaunee teams ended abruptly in the first half of the eighth inning, with the score 5 to 2 against Negaunee, when the Ishpeming team quit the field because of a decision by umpire McLaughlin that Captain Larson and his team mates considered unfair. With Dixon pitching gilt-edged ball and the team giving him excellent support until the eighth, when Negaunee was presented with two runs by errors, and with men occupying second and third and one gone, McLaughlin led to far off third and Nevitt ran him down. McLaughlin held that the catcher did not touch the runner and he called him safe. Larson claimed a putout on the ground that the runner had gone more than two feet, the allotted distance, off the base. Dixon and Nevitt both protested strongly against the decision. After the point was argued for ten minutes or more McLaughlin refused to yield and Larson called his players off the diamond. Captain Steimele, of the Negaunee team, offered to allow a putout, but the Ishpeming men refused to resume playing unless McLaughlin was put out of the game. Larson entered a protest with one of the league officers.

Goulette Hit Freely.

The game was easily the most exciting seen on the grounds this season. The announcement that Goulette was to pitch for Negaunee against his former teammates was the means of bringing out of the largest crowds of the summer. Goulette was given excellent support, but his clever teammates could not stop the batfist that started in the second inning. This inning started with a strikeout, and after two men had been retired the next three up secured hits, but Lemers was caught between third and the plate when Dixon led too far off second and Heidenson tried to catch him at second. Lemers' throw for home, but he was not speedy enough to make it, the inning ending without a run.

Ishpeming had a picnic at Goulette's expense in the fourth, when three runs were scored on four hits, the first one being a two-bagger by Nevitt. Lemers was the first to start the party, hitting Goulette freely. Dixon hit Cullis, who caught Lemers at second. Whitman struck out, Faul walked out and Secore fled out to McCrory, retiring the side.

In the fifth, after two men had been retired, C. Larson singled and Laxstrom scored him by a three-base hit. The Croxy's head in left field. Sib Larson made the final run in the seventh. He singled, stole second and third and then made a bluff at stealing home, Heidenson throwing wild to third, allowing the runner to come in.

Dixon Effective Throughout.

Although Dixon pitched a fine game Saturday he was more effective yesterday. In the eighth inning, before the ruction, there were four errors. Goulette opened, sending a pop fly back of second that Whitman dropped. Cullis sent a grounder to Secore. Dixon hit throwing high to second, permitting Goulette, who was coming down from first, to reach third. Rains batted to Lemers, who threw Goulette out at the plate. McCrory also sent a grounder to Lemers, but he did not get the ball to the plate in time. Rains scored on a wild throw by Whitman and McCrory reached third as a result of the throw. Swick walked and Heidenson was at bat when McCrory led too far off third, Nevitt running him down. The disagreement followed.

By hitting Goulette freely the Ishpeming players were loudly cheered by the local fans, and the Negaunee crowd lost no opportunity to cheer Goulette and the other members of the team. Of the three men who secured hits off Dixon Goulette was the first, he having touched the ball safely the first time up. The features of the game outside of the work of Ishpeming's battery were Sib Larson's base running, a hard catch after a long run into left field by Cullis of Sib Larson's drive, Lemers' playing at second and Laxstrom's fielding, he having had two different putouts.

DONATO CARSO KILLED.

Wellknown Italian Resident Meets Death in Mine.

Donato Carso, who was one of the first Italians to locate in Ishpeming, was killed Friday night at the Salisbury mine, where he had worked as a miner continuously for the past nineteen years. Carso and his partner, William Quayle, were working in a stop, when some one came down, burying Carso and almost catching Quayle. John Rae, one of the shift bosses, who was in the stop taking the men's time, also had a narrow escape. One of his feet was caught by the falling ore, but he managed to free himself without being injured. Carso's body was recovered within two hours after the ground came down.

The deceased was one of the best known Italians in the city and was very popular. For some years past he had been repeatedly elected to the office of constable in the Ninth ward. He had considerable influence among his people and was usually active among them in the political campaigns.

Carso was fifty-one years of age. He was in this city for several years before he brought his family out from Italy. One son, Michael Carso, is serving in the United States navy. Another son works at the Salisbury mine. The widow and three other children survive him.

The deceased was a member of the Ishpeming Italian society, under whose auspices the funeral will be held tomorrow morning from St. John's church.

KERR ADDRESSES LARGE AUDIENCE

Copper Country Candidate for Congress Spoke in Ishpeming Saturday Evening.

Angus W. Kerr of Houghton county, candidate for the Republican nomination for representative in congress, who is opposing H. O. Young of this city, addressed a large audience of voters in Ishpeming Saturday evening.

The meeting was held in the city square. The crowd not only filled the square, but extended out into the adjoining streets. It is estimated that there were at least 1,500 people present. The Finnish band played a number of selections before the meeting was called to order by Judge Olivier of Hancock. The judge also closed the meeting, thanking those present for their attendance and the interest they manifested in Mr. Kerr's remarks.

James J. Fisher, of Calumet, preceded Mr. Kerr with a five-minute talk, in which he referred briefly to the life and work of the congressional candidate, declaring him to be an upright, honorable and conscientious citizen, and a man possessed of the ability to intelligently represent the people of the district in congress.

Mr. Kerr occupied the platform for about twenty minutes. He spoke rapidly and he covered much ground in that brief time. He expressed pleasure at having the privilege of coming into what he called his opponent's camp to address the voters in his own behalf. He reviewed a few of the important phases of the primary law, declaring it to be a good law because it gave the individual voter a right to decide what candidates' names shall be placed upon their ticket. He made a strong appeal to the voters to turn out on Sept. 6 to cast their ballots for their favorite candidates.

Mr. Kerr declared that of all the men whom the voters will elect next November there is none more important than the man who shall be chosen as their representative in congress. He declared himself as strongly opposed to Speaker Cannon and those who have upheld him. He spoke in favor of a liability law that will protect the working men of the country and compensate them in all affairs in the hands of all of the representatives in congress instead of in the hands of a few.

Twenty-five or more of Mr. Kerr's copper country friends arrived in the city Saturday evening, bringing with them a large number of copies of a copper country paper in which were articles referring to Mr. Kerr's war record, together with a picture showing him when he left the hospital, where he was confined with fever. At the conclusion of the addresses, a sextet sang a song dedicated to Mr. Kerr, entitled, "Why We Are Working for Angus."

At Bijou tonight, quartet will sing "On Mobile Bay," "I've Taken Quite a Fancy to You". At the price you can't afford to miss it. (8-22-11)

Iron Mountain Manager Praises Musical Comedy Here Thursday.

A. J. Rundle, manager of the Rundle Opera House at Iron Mountain, writes the manager of Ishpeming theater as follows regarding "The Flower of the Ranch," which will be the musical comedy offering here Thursday evening:

"Mr. Ed. J. Butler, 'Ishpeming, Mich. 'Dear Sir:—The Flower of the Ranch' played my house tonight to capacity business and the audience of my best theater-going people say they got their money's worth.

"The parts are all played by capable people, and the girls of the pony ballet bunch are as lively a chorus of dancers as I have ever seen in a musical comedy, and they are as good to look at.

"The costumes all seem new and there are a lot of them. Their carload of scenery makes rick pictures of all the acts.

"The show went great here, and the willing response they make to all their encores made the piece a big favorite. LeCompt & Flesher can have the pick of my time for their show, at any time, and I will give them the business.

"Sincerely yours,

years he has held the balance of power. His personal following has been large and mostly men of Populist tendencies, but he himself is now dodging Populism. Those who have been fighting the battles of Georgia Democracy while Watson has been flirting with Populism have been hoping that this contest will witness his political annihilation. Should he fail in his fight against the five Congressmen he is opposing it will be accepted as a repudiation of the attempt of Watson to again become a factor in the Democratic party. But the defeat of Congressmen Hardwick, Howard, Edwards, Bartlett and Livingston, whom he is bitterly opposing, would mean that Watson is more powerful than ever. In his contest against them Watson has been speaking for the other candidates and in several instances he has met Hardwick and other candidates in joint debates. On the stump he is a whirlwind orator and difficult for even the most seasoned Congressman to defeat in joint debate.

INDICATIONS THAT REPUBLICAN FACTIONS WILL MAKE PEACE BEFORE THE CAMPAIGN OPENS—FAIRBANKS AS A "DARK HORSE" CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR.

Indianapolis, Aug. 21.—In spite of factional differences and the division within the party on the Payne-Aldrich tariff the Republicans promise to get together well before the opening of the campaign early in September. Former Vice President Fairbanks has informed Edwin Lee, chairman of the Republican State committee, that he will be pleased to make speeches. Ex-Senator Hemanway and Representative Watson, who was the party "whip" in the House, are regarded as leaders of the "regulars." The former has written Mr. Lee telling him that he will participate in making an effective organization. While Hemanway, Watson, and their followers are not enthusiastic over the candidacy of Senator Beveridge, they say that they are not anxious to turn Indiana over to the Democrats. Mr. Hemanway says that the prospects are good for a Republican victory. However, he has not conceded Senator Beveridge anything on the tariff. Senator Beveridge is having his insurgent convention speech printed as a campaign document. He is sending out 50,000 copies of his speech.

GEORGIA'S HOT CAMPAIGN

Contest Between Smith and Brown for Governor the Most Bitter Ever Known in the State—Much Interest in Thomas E. Watson's Attitude.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Politicians in Washington are wondering whether the coming Georgia primaries for the selection of Democratic candidates for governor and congressmen will witness the annihilation of the balance of power heretofore held by Thomas E. Watson in the politics of that State and whether the contest that he has returned to even greater power in the Georgia Democracy. These primaries are to be held Aug. 23 to determine whether former Governor Hoke Smith or present Governor Joseph M. Brown shall be the next governor of the Peach State, and whether the ten Democratic congressmen, all candidates for reelection, shall retain their seats in the House of Representatives. The contests are the bitterest Georgia has witnessed in years.

Throughout the campaign the figure of the erstwhile Populist leader, "Tom" Watson, who has announced himself no longer a Populist, but again a Democrat, stands out boldly. Watson is so busy with the congressional campaign that Georgians have been unable to get a clear impression as to where he stands in the contest between Smith and Brown for governor. Watson has at one time or another supported both men, and some Georgia politicians say that but for the support which they obtained from him in their successful campaigns in the past neither could have been chosen governor.

Until recently Attorney General Hunt, of Georgia, was a candidate for the nomination for Governor, but he has since withdrawn and the contest is a straight fight between Smith and Brown, with Watson, as yet, in the doubtful column.

Some believe that inasmuch as Watson has indicated to both men in the past the strength of the Populist following which he has, and as he announced himself "again a Democrat," with the Congressional fight as his main concern, he may not attempt to actively interest himself in the gubernatorial fight. Watson's influence, however, is said to be on the wane. For some time he has been predicting that neither Senator Beveridge nor John W. Kern, former nominee for Vice President, and his party's candidate for the Senate, will be chosen.

There is talk of bringing out Fairbanks as a "dark horse" for the Republican senatorial nomination, and many hold the belief that even if Senator Beveridge wins out on election day, his opponents in the old machine never will permit the caucus to agree on anything. Both parties are preparing to open the campaign by Sept. 10.

NEGAUNEE WINS FROM ISHPERING

Teams Played a Close and Interesting Game Saturday, Score 3 to 2.

Negaunee and Ishpeming played a close and interesting game Saturday, Negaunee winning by a score of 3 to 2. With three men on bases and one going, Ishpeming had a fine chance to win in the ninth inning, but they were not there with the stick, and although one run was scored on an error the best the last man could do towards clearing the bases was to send a grounder to Rosevear, who threw him out at the initial sack.

The Ishpeming team pitched Dixon, who is now the only regular Ishpeming twirler. The management intended to pitch Reinhart, but he went to Chicago and did not return until yesterday. Ed Faul, a former Negaunee player, was in the field in place of Lastrom, who was ill, and "Chinee" Larson was in the left garden. Primeau, a copper country player who came to the city last week, was to have played, but he came to the grounds without spiked shoes. However, he started the ball rolling in the fourth, when he was called in as a pinch hitter in place of C. Larson, and sent out a Texas leaguer, landing safely on the first sack. He was later forced out at second on Lemers' ground hit to Rosevear.

Ishpeming secured her first run in the second. Nevitt walked, but was thrown out at second, when Nichols hit to Cullis. C. Larson singled, advancing Nichols to second. Lemers fanned and Dixon singled, scoring Nichols. Whitman went out, Rains to Steimle.

Negaunee's first run was scored in the fourth. Rains opened and went out to Nichols, in center. McCrory was retired, Dixon to Larson. Swick was hit by a pitched ball and went to second on a wild pitch. He came home on Heidenson's single into center. Steimle went out, Lemers to Larson.

Rains opened and went out to Nichols, in center. McCrory was retired, Dixon to Larson. Swick was hit by a pitched ball and went to second on a wild pitch. He came home on Heidenson's single into center. Steimle went out, Lemers to Larson.

Negaunee scored again in the sixth. McCrory fanned, but Swick reached first on S. Larson's error, then took two stations on a passed ball, and scored on Heidenson's hit. Steimle hit to S. Larson and Swick was thrown out at second. Messier fanned and Simpson fanned, retiring the side.

Negaunee's final run was made in the ninth. Messier opened with a single and was sacrificed to second by Simpson. Rosevear sent a fly between second and right. Lemers and Faul attempted to field it. In the mixup Messier scored. Rains and Swick were out, but the former hit a grounder to Rosevear and was retired at first, thus closing the struggle, with all the bases occupied.

BUSINESS GROWING.

Peterson Bros. of Skandia Making Head in Lumbering.

Theodore and John Peterson, who are known in Negaunee, and who a few years ago engaged in the lumber business under the firm name of the Peterson Lumber company, have built up a nice patronage. They now have a saw mill at Skandia and are working seventeen men at the place. They expect to cut 2,000,000 feet of lumber for the year. They own sufficient stumpage to keep their plant in operation for ten to fifteen years.

Practically all of the maple lumber that is being turned out at the plant is shipped to the Consolidated Fuel & Lumber by company here, for the new flooring mill. The firm is also cutting birch, which is used in the manufacture of furniture. A trade has been established on other grades of lumber and the firm is shipping considerable mining timber, the greater part of which is handled by Thomas Connors of this city.

Peterson Bros. were in business at West Branch for seven years before moving their plant to Skandia, five miles distant. They have recently made several improvements at the mill and it is being operated economically. All of the waste clippings and saw dust are carried from the operating room to the

WATER IS FREE OF TYPHOID GERMS

Spring Water Ideal, But Teal Lake Water Contains Much Organic Matter.

Reports on the samples of water sent to the hygienic laboratory at Ann Arbor indicate that no typhoid fever germs were found in either the Teal Lake water or spring water. The report on the sample of spring water, both from a chemical and a bacteriological standpoint, indicates that it is not only a perfectly safe drinking water, but is very nearly ideal. The people of Negaunee are fortunate in having an abundant supply of such water for drinking purposes.

The report on the Teal Lake water is not so gratifying. It contains large quantities of organic matter and substances which indicate pollution from different sources, and though no pathogenic germs were found, it would prove a good culture medium for such germs and if infected with typhoid the germs would multiply with frightful rapidity and a severe epidemic would result among those drinking the water unboiled.

Typoid fever is a good example of a water-borne disease, still of late years the house fly has come into notice as a carrier of the disease. Who knows where the flies have been that seek admission at the doors and windows and that will crawl all over food and dishes at the first opportunity? Careful screening of doors and windows and proper disposal of garbage that may attract flies to the neighborhood, are precautions that should be rigidly carried out.

MISUSED TROLLEY RIDERS.

A party of Negaunee young boys and girls, who were taken for a trolley ride Friday evening in the carryall, were treated shabbily by youngsters living at the New York location in Ishpeming. As the car passed there the boys threw stones and eggs at it. Several of the children were hit with the stones, and a number had egg splattered over their clothing. The matter has been reported to Manager McCorkindale.

PICNIC AT PALMER.

The newly organized tent of the Maccabees of the World will give a picnic next Sunday at Palmer. The Ishpeming band has been engaged for the day and evening, and all of the members in the county, as well as the general public, are invited to attend. In the evening at the Finnish Temperance hall a social will be held.

TWO WERE TAKEN BY MARQUETTE

Defeated Crystal Falls in Excellently Played Games Saturday and Sunday, Despite Fact That Some of the Players Were Weakened by Sore Arms.

Fine Fielding by Both Teams Characterized—Contests—Marquette's Defense Was the Best Seen on the Grounds This Season—Crystal Falls Strong.

Marquette took two well played games from Crystal Falls Saturday and yesterday by scores of 3 to 2 and 3 to 1. Both teams played classy ball, and the exhibitions were among the most pleasing for the spectators that have been seen here the present season. The Crystal Falls team is now made up of hard and determined players, and they fight until their last man is gone.

Marquette held yesterday's game safer than the one Saturday, which two or three times was in serious danger. Yesterday Scholtus had the Crystal Falls batsman mystified most of the time, and while Botteroff pitched well for the visitors he was found for enough hits to entitle Marquette to the victory, irrespective of any misplays that figured in the scoring.

Young at shortstop was in no condition to play, and only struck the game out because there was no one to send in to replace him. He is suffering from a sore arm which makes it almost impossible for him to have a ball from his position at shortstop to first base.

In the fourth inning he and Tallion exchanged places, so that he might have a shorter throw. Two of the errors charged to him were short throws to first and the third was a fly ball that he would have had no difficulty catching had not Mack, through a misunderstanding, invaded his territory. Young's bad arm prevented the completion of two pretty doubles. His misplays were, under the circumstances, entirely excusable.

Marquette Scored Early.

Marquette made a bid for the game early, a sharp hitting line in the second inning, coupled with a lead to second by Botteroff, netting two runs. Magman pushed a hit by McGary at third base. LaFave knocked one to the pitcher and was thrown out at first. Magman going to second. Botteroff threw to second to try to retire him, but the throw was high and the ball got by Anderson in center, Magman scoring. Young picked up a single and was advanced to third when Richardson also landed on the ball safely. He scored on a hit to Korbelt at short by Scholtus, who was thrown out at first. Tallion went out on a fly to center.

Marquette added another in the fourth. LaFave hit safely and after Young had gone out on a fly to McGary, Richardson hit by Botteroff. McGary booted the ball and a throw to Allan at second got by him, LaFave counting.

Crystal Falls made its lone tally in the sixth inning. Allan hit safely, but himself reached second on Young's weak throw to first, which got by Magman on a bad bound. Korbelt scored on Geelan's hit between center and left, which was fielded by Riopelle.

Crystal Falls looked dangerous in the second inning. Geelan waited for the ball, but lost this advantage by being caught off first by Day. Scholtus then hit Anderson with a pitched ball, and he got second on a bad throw by Hap. After McGary had been thrown out at first by Mack, Kagy hit to right field, but a good return to Day by LaFave resulted in Anderson being out at the plate.

Saturday's Game.

Bunched and timely hitting and fine playing in the field returned Marquette a 3 to 2 winner over Crystal Falls Saturday in one of the best and snappiest games of the season. Frost was in the box for Marquette. He was suffering from a lame arm, but gave an excellent performance notwithstanding and though he allowed more hits than Miller for Crystal Falls he kept them well scattered. He used an easy ball throughout the game and got hit a single throughout, but girt edged support at the critical periods and a hair raising play by Tallion got him by all the bad spots. The Crystal Falls team was even a little more finished than Marquette's and Miller pitched a good game. However, two of the men he walked subsequently scored. His wisdom, though not pronounced, happened to be costly.

Marquette counted first. In the third inning Frost got to first on four bad ones. Tallion laid down a bunt and beat it to the same station, advancing Frost to second. Frost was scored by Mack's long hit into the center field. Mack was caught going down to second, and then Tallion, who got to third on Mack's single, was scored by Day's clean hit. This ended the counting. Riopelle and Magman being easy outs.

Crystal Falls made it two all in the sixth. After two men were down, Korbelt drew a base on balls and stole second. Geelan hit for a single and scored Korbelt, advancing to second on the throw to the plate. Geelan was scored by Anderson's hit. McGary was thrown out at first by Mack, ending the attack.

Marquette took the lead again in the seventh, and Frost turned the trick. Young got a base on balls and stole second. He took a big lead off, as two men were gone, and scored on Frost's single by Korbelt at short stop.

Frost in a hole in Crystal Falls' half of this inning that seemed to promise a bunch of runs for the visitors. Kagy opened proceedings with a hit into right field, and advanced to second because LaFave allowed the ball to get by him on the bound. Tiffany reached first on an infield bingle, the ball being fielded to third in an attempt to head off Kagy. Harris, however, gave Kagy the benefit of a close decision, and called him safe. With Crystal Falls men on third and first, and no one out, Miller turned a twisting fly over Frost's head. It looked good to score Kagy at least, but Tallion rushed in, pulled the ball out of the air with que hand and slapped it to first, retiring Tiffany and completing one of the prettiest and most opportune double plays seen on the Marquette diamond this year. McGee closed the inning by flying out to Mack. Earlier in the game Mack pulled off a sensational play at third. He knocked down a bullet-fast grounder from Geelan's bat with his bare hand and recovered the ball in time to complete an out at second, stopping what threatened to become a serious rally.

The fielding throughout the game, both by Marquette and Crystal Falls, was perhaps the most brilliant exhibition of the defensive game seen here this year. Mack, Young and Tallion all figured in beautiful plays, and for Crystal Falls Korbelt covered much territory and made some fine pickups. Harris did the umpiring and handled the game well.

The summary is as follows: Marquette—A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E. Tallion, 2b..... 4 0 1 6 4 0 Mack, 3b..... 4 0 1 2 2 0 Day, c..... 4 0 3 4 1 0 Riopelle, lf..... 4 0 0 2 0 0 Magman, lb..... 3 0 0 9 0 1 LaFave, rf..... 3 0 0 1 0 1 Young, ss..... 1 1 1 4 0 1 Weiser, cf..... 3 0 0 2 0 1 Frost, p..... 2 1 1 0 2 0

Some of the numbers are a solo by Mrs. Arthur Young, "Le Credo in Paganini," solo by Miss Virginia L'Huilier, "Le Rosario," of Tinel; duet by Orpha La Bonte and Uger Vertulille, and other solos, piano and violin numbers. On Tuesday a musical program will be given by the Peerless orchestra.

Great interest is being manifested in the census voting contest, particularly in the diamond ring contest between Misses Elva Rivers and Jennie Turcotte. Both young ladies have a large number of staunch supporters.

Rev. Father Jodecy stated last evening that this will be the last fair given for the French church, as by the proceeds from this fair the church debt will be reduced sufficiently to make it possible, not only to meet other obligations as they come due, but to build a parish school within the next three years.

Plans for this school have already been drawn, providing for one wing east from the church tower to Fourth street and another from the tower to Bluff street. This would make a T shaped building, with the church on the south, the school on the east and the sisters' home on the north. The school will be built first.

FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE. Today is the last day for filing petitions for primary nominations, which occur on September 6th, when every voter registers his choice by secret ballot for candidates for governor, U. S. senator and congressman, state senator and representative and the county officers.

Heretofore caucuses and conventions have been held and a few, comparatively, decided whom should be nominated. Candidates are now to be named by primary nominations by all the voters.

The true meaning of "primary nomination" is simply "a secret ballot," where each and every voter expresses his choice privately in the voting booth for one of the candidates for both of those whose names are on the nomination ticket.

I have filed my name for Representative of the First District, Marquette County, and most respectfully ask the voters of the district to give me their support by voting: For Representative First District, Marquette County:—

MANY WILL GREET REP. TOWNSEND

Candidate Here Tonight Has Had Busy and Eventful Career in Michigan.

Representative Charles E. Townsend, who comes to Marquette tonight to address the voters on his candidacy for the U. S. senate, has been a conspicuous member of the Michigan delegation ever since he was elected from his district, the Second, in 1902, and, in particular, has been prominently identified with the sweeping changes in the railroad laws made effective during the past six years.

There was sturdy opposition, both in the house and in the senate, to President Roosevelt's proposed measures affecting the railroads. This condition made it impossible for the president to get loyal service in the senate, and the older members, in this respect, he called on Representative Townsend of Michigan and Representative Each of Wisconsin. His measure was originally introduced in the house as the Townsend-Each bill, and Townsend's admirable services, both in debate and as an organizer, for the measure gained the emphatic approval which President Roosevelt gave him March 3, 1909, when he said:

"I wish we had more men in public life like Charles E. Townsend. He is a credit to the state of Michigan and the country at large, and has given faithful, able and distinguished service to the people of the United States."

Representative Townsend's experience with the important railroad rate legislation led to his being called as one of President Taft's associates on this subject this year, and he had a large part in drafting the measure the last congress placed on the statute books. He also formulated much other important legislation, and he has been—though independent and not fawning on either faction for favors—one of the strongest men of the house.

Michigan was Representative Townsend's birthplace. He was a farmer boy and grew up in plain but wholesome American surroundings. He educated himself and after a common school course attended the university. Following this he taught school. In 1886 he was elected register of deeds of Jackson county and served four terms. He was admitted to the bar in 1896, and was subsequently one of the state's attorneys in the celebrated railroad cases. Since his election to congress in 1902 there never has been a more devoted devotion to him, the high order of his service thoroughly recommending him to his constituents.

McLaughlin With Him. Representative McLaughlin will accompany Representative Townsend to Marquette, and will also speak this evening. Much interest has been aroused in Mr. Townsend's visit, as it will be far the most important gathering of the primary campaign. Menominee and Escanaba men who have been here the past few days have reported that the success of Mr. Townsend's meetings in those cities was astounding, and that there was widespread surprise at the general sympathy shown with the principles he sets forth. Representative Townsend is an eloquent orator, who presents vital matters quickly and forcibly, and who meets with great success in holding large crowds.

It is anticipated that there will be no difficulty about holding tonight's meeting on Spring street, directly west of Front, as the outlook is for fair weather. If it should rain the meeting will be held in the City Hall. Representative Townsend and Representative McLaughlin will arrive on the evening train from Munising due here at 7:15 o'clock. The train will be met by the band, and the speakers escorted first to the hotel and later to the place where the meeting will occur.

AUTOMOBILE TURNED TURTLE. Ishpeming Party Had Narrow Escape West of City Saturday Night. A party of Ishpeming young people narrowly escaped serious injury Saturday evening, while automobiling from that city to Marquette. The car was driven by Howard Joachim, four persons being with him. At the old Dead river mill railroad crossing, just west of the Golf clubhouse, the front wheels of the car, instead of crossing over the rails, started north along the track and before it could be stopped, the machine turned turtle over the bank with the occupants underneath. Luckily, none of them was seriously injured, though they all bear scratches and marks of the accident.

It appears that the driver of the car did not notice the switch light along the South Shore track at that point until he was very close to it, and coming into view suddenly, one of the party exclaimed that it was the highlight of a locomotive. This must have caused the driver to lose control of the steering gear for a moment, the wheels instead of clearing the rails, skidded along the track.

The car came to a standstill bottom side up at the foot of the embankment, where it remained until yesterday, when it was righted and drawn back into the highway by a South Shore locomotive, which was called into service. An examination showed that the car was not seriously injured and Mr. Joachim drove it back to Ishpeming last evening. Considering the nature of the accident, it is almost miraculous that neither the occupants nor the machine were seriously hurt.
