ROBERTS-FLACK.

FOUR ATTRACTIONS HERE NEXT WEEK

Ishpeming People Will Have Great Variety of Offerings at Their Play House.

After being dark for a week and a half the Ishpeming theater will reopen Monday evening, with the H. E. Pierce Associated players. Next week will be a lively one at the theater, as three other attractions have been booked. "German, the Wizard" and his company, will appear Tuesday evening. Shubert's magnificent production of "The Lottery Man" will be seen Thursday night, and "The Volunteer Organist" Friday night. A number of attractions have been booked for October.

The Pierce players cancelled two nights of their engagement here because of having an opportunity to occupy the Lyceum theater in Duluth the remainder of the week.

Of the principal members of the company and their presentation of "The Prisoner of Zenda" the Calumet Evening News Monday said:

"The Pierce Associated players, headed by William Jossey and Miss Blanche Douglas, opened a week's engagement at the Calumet theater last evening, by presenting 'the Prisoner of Zenda' to a crowded house.

"The Prisoner of Zenda" was presented in a capable manner and made a good impression on those who were in attendance.

"William Jossey in the dual role of Rudolph the Fifth, King of Ruritania, and Rudolph Rassendyl, a young Englishman, handled the parts in a capable manner and as Princess Flavia, Miss Blanche Douglas could not well be improved upon. Miss Edna Marshall, as Antoinette De Manbon, had a difficult part to handle, but won the appreciation of all as did Frederick Monley as Colonel Sapt, and Jack Livingston as Fritz Von Tarneheim. Other members of the cast gave excellent support."

Prof. Germain, here Tuesday evening, is recognized as the leading magician on the road and he carries a number of acts besides his own work. His entertainment is one of real merit and is presented with special stage settings.

The last two plays, "The Blue Mouse," and "The City," produced here by Shubert companies gave such universal satisfaction that "The Lottery Man" on Thursday evening will doubtless be greeted by a large audience. It is a comedy drama that has had long runs in several of the larger cities.

REMODELLING DEPARTMENT.

Miss Margaret Walsh, who for some years past has conducted a dress making business here, has taken a position with F. Braastad & Co. in the suit department, and will be employed with Miss Savageau in remodelling ready-to-wear garments. The firm has put in an unusually large stock of suits, cloaks, skirts and other garments for the fall and winter trade and all goods will be fitted before they leave the store. It is Mr. Braastad's intention to establish a dress making department after the first of the year. Miss Walsh will take charge of it. A number of seamstresses will be employed and house dresses, kimono, dressing sacks, etc., will be made to order.

DEATH OF JOHN McNEFF.

Old and Wellknown Resident of Ishpeming Passed Away Unexpectedly.

John McNeff, a pioneer resident, was found dead Wednesday morning in his bed at the boarding house conducted by John Lapoint, on First street, next to No. 1 hose house. The deceased had not been feeling well and had laid off work. Tuesday evening about 9 o'clock he was about the house and he complained of not feeling well, but he refused to permit Mrs. Lapoint to send for a doctor. He was about the house until 11 o'clock. Meanwhile his roommate went to bed. About 11 o'clock the latter was awakened by McNeff, who had been taken with a vomiting spell. McNeff said he did not want a doctor, as he thought he would feel all right in a short time. The roommate then fell asleep and when he awoke in the morning he found McNeff's lifeless body lying across the foot of the bed, he apparently having died shortly after being seized with the vomiting spell.

The deceased was one of the Oliver Iron Mining company's oldest employes, he having worked there for more than thirty years, most of the time as foreman under Captain John McEnroe at the Hard Ore property. He held this position until his death and was popular with the workmen. He was about forty-seven years of age and had no relatives so far as could be learned yesterday.
