Indianapolis, Oct. 5.—Twelve persons were injured today when a traction car on the Logansport division of the Indiana Union Traction company turned over at a curve near Broad Ripple, a suburb of Indianapolis. Wet rails and the failure of the emergency brakes to work are given as the cause of the wreck. None of the passengers were seriously injured.

Illinois Crew Arrested.

Staunton, Ills., Oct. 5.—Both the conductor and the engineer of the Peoria and Logansport division of the Peoria Railway company are today endeavoring to place the responsibility for the disaster which snuffed out thirty-six lives and injured thirty-one others at Dickerson curve, two miles and a half north of here, late yesterday afternoon.

A romance followed on the heels of the wreck. One of those injured was Miss Agee, nineteen years of age, daughter of the night chief of police at Springfield, Ills. With her mother, she was on the way to St. Louis to marry her fiancé, J. E. Ferry, of St. Louis. Ferry was awaiting his sweetheart and her mother with an automobile at the station. When he heard of the wreck he started for the East side. At the bridge he heard that the couple, injured, were taken to St. Louis hospital.

MUST TAKE THE STAND IN THE LORIMER CASE

Senatorial Committee Rules That Minority Leader Lee O'Neil Browne Must Appear Before It—Other Indicted Legislators to Submit to the Same Ordeal.

Testimony of Broderick and Wilson Is Wanted as Well as That of the Bible Student—One Witness for Defense Can't Recall An Interesting Conversation.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Minority Leader Lee O'Neil Browne, under indictment in connection with the election of Senator William Lorimer, is to submit to the ordeal of being questioned before the Lorimer investigating committee. This decision was made today by the United States senators inquiring into the motives of the legislators who voted for the junior senator. The same ruling was made in regard to State Senator John Broderick, indicted on the charge of having bribed State Senator D. W. Holtzlar to vote for Lorimer, and it applies also to Representative Robert E. Wilson, against whom bribery charges are pending.

Neither Browne nor Broderick, who were on the stand for a few moments today, were questioned, on the plea of Attorney Thomas Dawson, counsel for Broderick, that he wished to confer with his assistant counsel before advising his client what course to pursue. The committee granted the counsel until tomorrow morning to decide his course. The same ruling was made in relation to Lee O'Neil Browne. Representative Wilson has not yet been subpoenaed.

In the afternoon session, Representative Daniel D. Donahue, a Democrat from Bloomington, testified that he did not vote for Lorimer and sought to prevent his election, because he believed that if the session adjourned without electing a senator a Democrat could be elected at the succeeding session. "I was asked to vote for Lorimer," Donahue said, "but I refused. No offer of money or any other thing was made to me, and no intimation was given that I could profit by so voting."

Representative Groves was recalled and testified that in a conversation with Donahue he had said that Representative Shaw told him that he understood the Democratic legislators had each received $1,000 for voting for Lorimer, and that Donahue replied that he had supposed they had got more than that, and especially the men who could make speeches in favor of Lorimer. Donahue was called back to the stand and asserted that he had no memory of such conversation.

Attorney Haneey summoned Miss Katherine A. Woods, of East St. Louis, to testify in the testimony of Representative Charles A. White. She said that in the fall of 1909 White told her that he was writing a history of his life and occurrences in the legislature and expected to make a fortune out of it, and that "Lorimer and his bunch" would have to pay him enough to keep him for life or he would make it hot for Lorimer and his friends.

Wm. H. Sturmer, assistant manager of the Briggs Hotel, Browne's headquarters in Chicago, told of threats he said that White had made to falsely say he had been bribed to vote for Lorimer and so compel Lorimer and his friends to enrich him.

The perjury is said to have been committed while the man was being examined by the grand jury with regard to the business methods of the Moxley company. Congressman William J. Moxley, a close political associate of Senator Lorimer, is the head of the concern. Harding furnished $5,000 bonds for appearance tomorrow. District Attorney Sims has been conducting an investigation of the alleged illegal coloring of imitation butter for many weeks. The investigation was started upon allegations that the national government has been cheated out of large sums in taxes by the fraudulent use of the government label.

SCHMITZ OPENS CAMPAIGN; FLAYS THE REPUBLICANS.

Manitowish, Wis., Oct. 5.—Adolph J. Schmitz, candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket, opened his campaign here tonight. He reviewed the various planks of the platform adopted at the Madison convention and arraigned the Payne-Aldrich tariff. He accused the last congress of being grossly extravagant and said that the only hope of the betterment of conditions lay in the return to power of the Democratic party. The Democrats, he said, favored the conservation of the natural resources for the benefit of the many instead of the few. The expenses of administration under Republican rule were denounced as unjust and unnecessarily expensive.

STOCK MARKET VALUES TURN DOWNWARD AGAIN.

New York, Oct. 5.—Stock market prices turned downward today, representing in part a contentment over the extent of the advance already achieved and the profits accrued and in part a misgiving over the adequacy of the forces to accomplish further advance. Evidence that the newly awakened demand for bonds was being harmed by the action of the stock market was a potent factor in checking the organized efforts to a further rise in stocks. Fear that a premature reversal of the stock market will interfere with the orderly readjustment of needed financing by bond issues has influence in restraining stock market activity. The revolution in Portugal was of minor effect on the day's market. The expectation of a poor showing to be made by next Monday's report of the Oct. 1 unfilled tonnage orders of the United States Steel corporation weighed on the sentiment. The better tone of the coppers was due to a belief that the curtailed production the next month will make a better showing in the producers' forthcoming report.

PENAL EXPERT SAYS CRIME IS DECREASING IN AMERICA.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Dr. Frederick H. Vines, of Philadelphia, reviewed the prison conditions in various countries at the session of the International Prison congress today. He said that Russia was behind the others and that there was evidence that the incidence of crime was on the decrease. A wide diversity of opinion was shown in a discussion on the progress of treating young delinquents. The congress approved resolutions endorsing the principle of conditional release on parole as unadvisable. The congress also endorsed a recommendation that tramps should be kept by the police of all cities and towns. Work houses for this class were advocated, with agriculture as the leading industry.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL

MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED.)

Entered as second class matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

MARQUETTE, MICH., OCT. 6.

King Alphonse's neighbor on the west, King Manuel, of Portugal, is having a riotous time with his dearly beloved subjects. Does it make Alphonse nervous o' nights?

Congressman Lawrence, of the First Massachusetts district, in accepting a renomination, announced that he will not vote for the re-election of Speaker Cannon. The public no doubt thought it had heard the last of that old chestnut.

As Mayor Gaynor observes Hearst beating Charley Murphy all over the front pages of his newspapers, he doubtless reflects that he was even wiser than he knew when he absolutely refused to allow himself to be made a candidate for governor of New York.

Timothy L. Woodruff, for several years chairman of the New York state Republican committee, has given way to Ezra P. Prentice. It's another result of the killing off of the "old guard" bosses at Saratoga. Thus passes from the arena of active public life a gentleman who has long been famous for the quality and quantity of his fancy waistcoats.

Lawton T. Hemans and Chase S. Osborn, the rival candidates for governor, had a pleasant meeting at the Soo Monday of this week. Mr. Osborn went to the hotel to call on Mr. Hemans. The Democratic leader was out, but Mr. Osborn subsequently met him on the street, and they exchanged the compliments of the campaign. Mr. Hemans, in his address before the Soo Democrats, dodged away from anything approaching an attack on his rival, Mr. Osborn and Mr. Hemans seem to hold one another in real esteem, as well they may. Their attitude promises that the campaign will be conducted in a dignified and creditable manner. Hard blows will be dealt and received by both, no doubt, but there is every reason to expect that they will respect the political deities.

ANOTHER TRACTION HORROR.

The wreck on the Illinois Traction system reported from Staunton, Ill., is almost identical in the toll of dead and injured and in the details of its occurrence with the one some two weeks ago near Fort Wayne, Ind., and, following so close on the heels of the first disaster, it suggests that there must be something radically wrong in the methods now in vogue of handling electric trains.

Both wrecks were due to one of the cars destroyed running past a meeting place. In both cases the resultant crash occurred on a sharp curve, and there was practically no warning to the people in the cars of the impending disaster.

The weak spot in traction system on which such dreadful disasters can occur appears, at first glance, to be the dispatching. Failures of the dispatching to gain accurate results have, in the Indiana and Illinois wrecks, been responsible, in less than a month, for the sacrifice of eighty lives and a long list of seriously injured persons. The dispatching has been done by telephone. While the telegraph is still the generally accepted means of dispatching on steam roads, the telephone is now being introduced for this purpose, and is regarded as satisfactory when the dispatching is properly safeguarded. It, therefore, isn't the method of dispatching that is responsible for the traction disasters. Probably the explanation of their occurrence lies in the manner in which the telephone dispatching is employed. Presumably there aren't proper checks on the orders received by the cars moving on the line. If such checks are provided, they must have been ignored in the cases of the Indiana and Illinois wrecks, or else someone blundered. Certainly something is badly amiss somewhere.

Railroad wrecks rarely attain the degree of horror that attended these disasters, which must have greatly shaken the confidence of the public in the electric interurbans as a means of safe travel. Let such disasters become periodical and the business of the traction lines will be adversely affected, for the public will conclude that the railroads, if they offer less frequent service, are at least safer. It will be hoped that a searching inquiry will reveal beyond question just what shortcoming was responsible for the Illinois disaster, and Emblagaard Dairy Pure Dairy Products from Holstein Cows. GEO. GILLETTE, Distributor.

TERRIBLE, ISN'T IT?

Charles H. Young, of New York, president of the Republican club in 1907 and 1908, described as a model of party regularity, is another of the fearful gentlemen whose rest at night is disturbed by spectral visions of the colonel, with teeth on edge and eyes a-gleam, trampling over the prostrate corpse of our once democratic nation. He has bolted Stimson as the Republican candidate for governor because Roosevelt favors him. Mr. Young has satisfied himself that if Stimson is elected Roosevelt will be president in 1912, "and if that man ever becomes president again," says Mr. Young, in his truly great apprehension, "we'll never get him out of the White House. He is the most dangerous man in the history of the republic, the gravest menace to liberty, the most alarming figure who has arisen in the world of politics since Waterloo."

There is no need for absolute despair on the part of the Republican party because of the bolt of this Mr. Young, for he gives his solemn word as a gentleman, a former president of a Republican club, and a voter who has not split his straight Republican ballot in twenty-nine years, that he will be back in the party fold in time to work for President Taft for renomination in 1912. We hope President Taft has heard of this. It would doubtless somewhat solace him for the terrible blow of Mr. Young's defection this year, for he remembered that President Taft has expressed himself as greatly pleased with the outcome of the New York convention, particularly with the nomination of Mr. Stimson, whom he has endorsed in the most glowing terms. And in this connection it cannot escape notice that Mr. Taft seems in no manner disturbed by this Roosevelt bugaboo that Mr. Young has conjured up to frighten himself with.

As for Mr. Young, judging by the length and seriousness of his pronouncements, he must be a most important gentleman in New York, though we must confess to never having heard of him before. However, that's probably our fault. It's too bad he's backsliding, whatever his importance, for the Republicans need all the votes they can muster in New York this year. But the political backslider is always to be reckoned with and figures in all campaigns. Nothing having been heard to the contrary from Mr. Stimson and the colonel, we are doubtless justified in concluding that they are bearing up well under the shock of learning that Mr. Young has declared for Dix and, particularly, against the colonel. After all, they can reflect, this Young person has but one vote of his own, and hardly anybody can control as many votes of other people as he thinks he can. This Young defection must certainly be put down as a tremendously serious affair, but doubtless the political prophets will continue to concede Stimson at least an outside chance.

MR. DOYLE'S LETTER.

Yesterday The Mining Journal published a letter from the pen of M. J. Doyle, under the head of "The New Nationalism," presenting that wellknown Democrat's views of the former president. Even people who did not agree with his conclusions, and must feel that Mr. Doyle's fears are ill-founded, had to agree that it was an interesting and well written letter, and certainly they can have no difference with Mr. Doyle in reference to his exhortation to the people to think, and to think deeply and well, on the matters of public concern now so prominently before them. Any man or any set of principles that cannot successfully stand the test of the best thought that can be applied to them must, of necessity, be rejected.

The most closely reasoned and much the largest part of Mr. Doyle's letter had as its text one of the Saratoga utterances of Colonel Roosevelt, namely: "There never has been here in the state of New York a convention that was more methodic—a people's convention—not a lobbyist, not a representative of a single great interest exercised a finger's weight of influence in that convention." On the basis of this remark Mr. Doyle makes a spirited attack on Colonel Roosevelt. He denounces his embargo on special interests in party activities and government as un-American, and argues that every material interest worthy of safeguarding is, in fact, a special interest that is entitled to a full part in the affairs of political parties and of government.

There is no gaining the truth of what Mr. Doyle contends, and it is our opinion that Colonel Roosevelt, in the remark that Mr. Doyle quotes, had no remote intention of implying anything to the contrary. The special interests Colonel Roosevelt had in mind were not interests that come forward frankly and fairly to present their views to a convention or a legislature, as the case may be, and to ask for the recognition that they deem fair and proper, but the sandbagging special interests that work in the dark, through "yellow dog" funds and lobbyists and corruptionists, to secure the elevation of candidates whom they are assured in advance will give them undue favors and to "load" or "trim" platforms, as need be, so that after election they shall not be found embarrassing when these greedy interests come to pursue the main chance.

It was this sort of interests that Colonel Roosevelt boasted, and properly, had no single finger's weight in the de-

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup" Recipe

No Better Remedy at any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and 1/2 pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of pure Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore lungs and asthma, and an unequalled remedy for whooping cough.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is a prime favorite in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in galical and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this recipe.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

liberations of the Saratoga convention. It was this sort of interests that suffered a signal rebuke in the rejection of Barnes, and Woodruff and Wadsworth. It was the outsiders of these interests who fought Governor Hughes at every step in his program for needed reforms during the four years of his administration. They fought the praiseworthy insurance bills, the anti-race track gambling bills, the public utilities commission bills, and, finally, the government's modest direct nomination bill. They fought them with generous resources of money and with all the arts of trained lobbyists, and they never once showed their heads while fighting. Only their agents were put forward.

The special interests, and all other interests, are always entitled to a full and fair hearing and a decent measure of consideration in party councils and in the legislatures and in congress. Their fair and just treatment is one absolute prerequisite to the orderly and prosperous life of the nation. This Colonel Roosevelt has always preached. But when the special interests become agents for party and legislative corruption, when they seek to timbering the instruments of government by means of "yellow dog" funds and corrupt, and corrupting agents as they have in New York and many another state, then they must be shown, and that forcibly, that the time for such activity is past, and the man who leads the fight to demonstrate as much clearly to their rather slow understanding of such matters, as Colonel Roosevelt has done, must be regarded as one of our most enlightened and patriotic leaders.

HERE AND THERE. Miss Della C. Torrey of Milbury, aunt of President Taft, observed the eighty-fifth anniversary of her birth at the home of Mrs. Clara E. Waters at Newburyport, Mass., last week, where she is visiting. Miss Torrey enjoyed a drive about the city and a tea was given in her honor by Mrs. Waters, at which she met a few old friends. To the president Miss Torrey is "Aunt Della," but the "aunt" rather provokes Miss Torrey, she says, "I do wish the newspapers would call me Miss Torrey and not 'Aunt Della.' I am not everybody's aunt."

When comes the system of trial by jury? In the opinion of Bourgeois, a French jurist, "its origin loses itself in the night of time." Blackstone speaks of it as "a trial that hath been used time out of mind." Reeves thinks it was introduced in England by the Normans, who themselves obtained it from northern Europe. It is certain that the Scandinavians had an established jury system more than a thousand years ago. The Normans on their arrival in England found prevailing there the ordeal of hot irons, which entailed the carrying of a pound of heated metal by the accused for a given distance, and the ordeal by water, in which by way of variation a stone had to be withdrawn from a pitcher of boiling water. No attempt at reform in this direction was made by William the Conqueror. To the practical engineer who visits Canada nothing is so astonishing as the enormous extent of the waterways and the tremendous possibilities of the yet unharmed water powers for the supply of electrical energy, says Canada. Considering the recent utilization of power from the Niagara falls over a large area in Ontario it seems almost incredible that only 516,000 of the 25,652,000 horse power which it is estimated can be produced in Canada is as yet in use. In Ontario the water power is computed at 3,130,000, nearly 10 per cent of which has been developed. The province of Quebec, however, owns two-thirds of the entire water power of the dominion of which as yet a bare fraction has been utilized.—London Globe.

Robert Louis Stevenson used to relate the following amusing story told him by a South Sea trader. It had been in the habit of carrying all sorts of tinned meats, which the natives bought with avidity. Each tin was branded with a colored picture—a cow for beef, a sheep for mutton and a fish for salmon. It happened that the firm which furnished the tinned meats thought it a good plan to alter its labels so that its goods might be more easily distinguished from the others. The mark chosen was the figure of a frock-coated Stiggins-like individual in a chimney jacket. The natives at once came to the conclusion that the tinned meats contained potted missionary, and there was a great run on the new line of goods.—Dundee Advertiser.

Sir Thomas Vesey Strong, elected lord mayor of London without opposition, is a pronounced temperance advocate—the first teetotaler chosen as chief magistrate of the metropolis. He was born in 1837 and in 1900 married Lillie, the eldest daughter of the late James Hartnell. Sir Thomas was educated privately and is a self-made man. In business he has been successful as the head of a paper supply firm. While occupying the office of sheriff of the city of London he was knighted. He is a director of the United Kingdom Temperance and General Provident Institution and a commander of the Order of Isabella the Catholic of Spain and of the Order of Our Lady of Vila Vicosa of Portugal. The mayor will still figure prominently in the entertainments and ceremonies connected with the coronation of King George.

A LAUGH OR TWO.

One Kind of Anonymity. Booker T. Washington, at the National Negro Business league's convention in New York last month, praised the modesty of the anonymous giver.

"But of course," he added, with a smile, "when I praised anonymity I don't include the kind—common enough among philanthropists—that Deacon Brown of Loachapoka favored."

"Loachapoka is a little place not far from Tuskegee. Deacon Brown arose in the church there one Sunday morning to read a list of subscribers to the missionary fund. He began:

"The Rev. Calhoun Travers, $10; Broc Stephen Paget, $5; Sister Phoebe Rice, $7; anonymous donor, myself, $6."

The Thing to Do. George Sargent, the golf champion, said, at the Englewood links, of a poor player:

"I love his caddies make fun of him. The other day he had worse luck than usual. He continually got bunkered. It took him hours to work his way from one easy hole to another."

"In every bunker he asked his caddie for advice. 'I'll try this,' he'd say, 'stick, caddy.' And after he had stuck in one very sandy bunker for half an hour, he said, as he fumbled helplessly in his bag:

"What shall I take now, caddy?" "Well, if I were you, sir," the boy answered, "I'd take the 6-15 train home."

FIG INDUSTRY OPENS CHANCES

Investors Plan to Establish Preserving Plants in Texas. Kingsville, Tex., Oct. 5.—The fact that the fig planting in the Gulf Coast region has outdistanced the establishment of fig preserving plants, and that many thousands of bushels of figs went to waste last year because there was no market has served to attract attention of investors to the preserving industry. A number of preserving plants are planned and may be in operation in time to care for next year's crop.

In the vicinity of Alvin, as well as other sections of the fig-growing territory, where factories for preserving the fruit are located, growers realized large profits from their orchards during the past season. One grower, N. E. Stout of Friendswood, was paid $3250 for his crop on thirteen acres of land.

The only drawback to the fig industry is the lack of care in the selection of the varieties of trees. Copper Country

DOG SHOW IS LATEST COPPERDOM PROJECT

A Proposed Additional Attraction for the Annual Poultry Exhibition at Houghton.

At the annual meeting of the Copper Country Poultry association, to be held in anticipation of the annual poultry show at the Amphidrome in January, a proposal will be made by some of the members to add a dog department to the exhibition. Chief interest in the matter is being taken by H. F. Nickerson of Houghton and Arthur Uren of Calumet, the latter a conductor on the Houghton County Traction company's lines.

Mr. Uren brought the matter to Mr. Nickerson's attention because of the latter's interest in both poultry and dogs. Mr. Uren is an expert judge of dogs and setters, having been engaged professionally with his father in England in his boyhood. His father still owns a large kennel in England. Mr. Uren believes a dog show would be an attractive feature of the poultry exhibition, more particularly because the Copper Country fair excludes dogs from its show and there has been no effort made to promote an interest in good dogs in the copper country.

Mr. Nickerson says that a dog show in the copper country would do more to rid the district of our dogs than any other movement. As soon as this public sees a few good dogs on exhibition it will be inclined to want to own good dogs or none at all. A number of prominent members of the poultry association favor the movement and will advocate it when the association meets.

A number of people in the copper country own good dogs and would be glad to show them. Such fancy breeds as Russian staghounds and various Italian greyhounds and various spaniels are owned here, to say nothing of the collie, the St. Bernard and setters of various sorts. The dog show would attract to the show people who are not interested in poultry, in the opinion of the dog fanciers, and the poultry association probably will make the experiment this winter.

ALLEGED BANDIT ESCAPES.

Andrew Johnson, 15 Years of Age, Is Recaptured, However.

Andrew Johnson, fifteen years of age, one of the boys arrested by Special Officer Beck Tuesday at Calumet on a charge of breaking into and looting a freight car in the Mineral Range yards, was taken to Houghton Tuesday night and placed in charge of Matron McGrath of the juvenile building. When the boy's room was opened yesterday morning, it was found that he had escaped. He was recaptured in Red Jacket yesterday morning by Chief Trudell and was returned to the juvenile building.

Norbert Kallio, eighteen years of age, Johnson's alleged companion in crime, is in the county jail, awaiting hearing. He is past the age limit for trial in the juvenile court and will be taken before Justice Fisher at Calumet today. Johnson will be heard by Judge Bentley in the juvenile court at Houghton Saturday.

The goods which the boys are charged with taking from the car consisted of 2,000 rifle cartridges.

LOSES RIGHT HAND.

Accidental Discharge of Gun Necessitates An Amputation.

Iving Gilbeau of Beacon Hill met with an accident yesterday while hunting partridge which resulted in the amputation of his right hand above the wrist. Gilbeau, together with Frank Vadnais, had gone hunting in the morning and had gone only a mile from town when the accident happened. He was standing on a decayed log and after resting the gun on the log he leaned on the firearm to rest. The gun sank in the rotten wood above the trigger, and when he attempted to jerk it from its position the weapon was discharged and he received the contents of the shell in the right hand. Gilbeau was taken to the Copper Range hospital at Trimountain, where amputation was found necessary.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WILL BE CLOSED

Teachers in Houghton and Keweenaw Counties to Attend Inspiration Institute.

The annual inspiration institute of the teachers of the schools of Houghton and Keweenaw counties will open tomorrow morning in the Washington school hall at Calumet and will continue till Saturday noon. The schools in both counties will be closed tomorrow and all teachers are expected to attend all sessions of the institute.

This institute will be in many respects the most important ever held in the copper country. It will be conducted by Professor Woodbridge N. Ferris of Big Rapids, head of the Ferris institute and one of Michigan's leading educational forces. He will be assisted by Professor A. E. Winslip of Boston and Dr. S. H. Clark of Chicago University. Both of these men rank high as educators and their presence will add greatly to the interest and future benefits to accrue from the institute. Dr. Clark will give a dramatic recital in the hall tomorrow night, reading from classic drama.

ANNUAL MEETING MONDAY.

Houghton County Supervisors Will Present Assessment Rolls.

The annual meeting of the Houghton county board of supervisors will be held next Monday morning at the court house. The day of meeting is one day earlier than usual, but this is because it is the annual session.

County Clerk Richardson stated yesterday that he did not know what would come up at the meeting. The supervisors will have their assessment rolls prepared and will present them. This is not compulsory at this time but it aids the board of equalization in carrying on its work.

HIGH WINDS PREVENT SEARCH.

Parties Dragging Portage Lake Unable to Work Yesterday.

The strong wind and choppy sea yesterday made it impossible to continue the search for the body of Homer Hazard, the missing aeronaut, and which it is believed lies in the bottom of Portage lake. The search, which commenced several days ago, had been continued every day until yesterday morning. Chief of Police Voetsch stated yesterday that the search so far had been conducted in a thorough manner, and that it would continue indefinitely.

The fact that the body has not been taken from the water leads some to think that the strong undercurrent has shifted it to another point and that it may be brought to surface a considerable distance from where it was originally supposed to lie. Then again, it is a problem whether the man went beneath the water where he was last seen.

ANNUAL HOCKEY LEAGUE PLAN.

Canadian Manager Visits Duluth and Talks of An Organization.

The Duluth newspapers are telling of the visit there of a hockey manager from Canada who would organize a professional league with teams in Duluth, St. Paul, Port Arthur and Houghton and various other towns. It is the first of the annual leagues, though before now six or a dozen probably will be organized. Manager McNamara of the amphidrome was asked yesterday for an expression of opinion on such a league and he replied it would be all right if all the different towns mentioned had risks. Duluth is without a rink, but the annual newspaper movement is on in that city now to build one.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Miss Salisbury Gives Out Her Report for Month of September.

Miss Winifred Salisbury, secretary of the Calumet Associated Charities, yesterday gave out her report for the work done during the month of September. There are some interesting facts in the report.

There were added to the society's list of needy during the month eighteen families. Of these nine were widows who had lost their husbands through mine accidents in recent years. Four were the families of men who are incapacitated by illness. Eight nationalities were represented among the applicants for aid. There were 497 individuals helped during the month. Groceries alone cost $43.51 and shoes cost $50.69.

Miss Salisbury pleads for more contributions. She wants money and clothing and food for her charges. Eight families are now receiving from the Charities two quarts of milk per day, the tuberculosis allotment. The Charities would like to be relieved of this burden, at least in a few instances. The Charities has lists of women who want work at scrubbing or washing and in some instances sewing and fancy work. One merchant sent in a fine lot of coats last week, goods that are welcomed by the poor. Miss Salisbury asks for further aid of this kind.

HANCOCK FRONT STREET FILL

Contractor McGlynn Sees the End of Long Reclamation Job.

Another chapter of the long, interesting story of the Hancock front street fill has ended. It ended with the filling of the ravine to the top of the fourth retaining wall, which was completed this week. Upon the reaching of the top of this wall, men were put to work excavating preparatory to the building of the fifth and last wall for the fill. It is the beginning of the end.

Contractor McGlynn has his concrete mixer on the ground, and as soon as the excavating is completed the concrete work will be started. In about a week the last wall will have been completed and then the Dakota Heights company can commence on its last stretch of filling the ravine. Filling to the top of the last wall should not take very long and Hancock people may look forward to an early completion of the tedious task, which has been puzzling the city for years.

The last wall is to be built flush with the front of the Exley building, so that front street and the sidewalk can be continued eastward in the same direction as at present. The old wood on bridge will be removed and the street made a straight one, giving Hancock an attractive entrance. It is not known whether the bridge will be removed this fall or next summer, but all will be ready this year.

NO POST-SEASON SERIES.

Manager Smith of Mohawk Claims His Team Has Won Pennant.

Manager Smith of the Mohawk baseball team has come out with a statement which settles the question of a post-season series between Mohawk and the Double H to determine the championship of the league. He says his team will not play the proposed series.

Manager Smith asserts that his team finished first at the conclusion of the regular schedule and that Double H finished third. He refuses to play again for an honor which he claims his team has already won. The league directors tried to get out of settling the question by making the two teams play a series of three games, when Double H protested the award of the pennant to Mohawk. Manager Smith's action seems to settle the matter so far as Mohawk is concerned.

JUSTICE COURT CASES.

Justice Fisher of Calumet has set Oct. 11 as the date of hearing of Louis Barber and Martin Masello, the Laurium men who are charged with holding up and robbing Peter McDonald of Lake Linden last Friday night. The men are charged with robbing McDonald of $200 and his watch.

Justice Fisher has issued a warrant for Joseph Young of Lake Linden, who is charged with a violation of the game laws. Warden Gipp believes Young had partridge in his possession last week when seen in the woods.

GENDER MACK DOING WELL.

Gender Mack, the speedy stepper owned by Reding of Calumet, is doing well on Central Western tracks this season. Driven by Joseph Bernard of Laurium, he has already won many purses. Gender Mack took first money in the 2:15 race at Beaver Dam, Wis., recently in a field of seventeen starters. He is racing this week at Springfield, Ill.

DEATH AT HANCOCK.

Joseph Thebo, aged seventy-seven, died at his home on Front street, Hancock, Tuesday evening of paralysis, after an illness of two months. The deceased was a pioneer of the copper country, having resided in this district forty-three years. He was employed for many years as estimator at Dollar Bay for the Detroit Copper Works. He is survived by three sons and three daughters—Charles of Hancock, Frank of Duluth, Edward of Butte, Mrs. J. H. Raymond of Houghton, Miss Thebo of Ripley and Mrs. Peter DeMoris of Hubbell.

CONDUCTOR CRIES "WOLF!"

Mayer Dan Vaughan of Marquette, South Shore conductor, reported when he came into Calumet on his run Tuesday that his train crew had seen a big timber wolf at Swedetown, which is within the borders of Calumet. The mayor says the wolf did not try to board the train and was apparently little interested in its surroundings.

Negaunee

NEGAUNEE MAN ARRESTED.

D. D. Smith Charged With Responsibility for Farmer's Mishap.

D. D. Smith, a merchant of Negaunee, who is charged with having forced Olaf Hansen, a Hyde farmer, into the ditch, overturning the rig and injuring slightly Mr. Hansen and his horse, while driving to Escanaba in an auto on Saturday, was arrested and arraigned before Judge O. V. Linden Tuesday, says the Escanaba Press. Mr. Smith gave $100 bail and the trial of the case was set for Oct. 10. Mr. Hansen claims that the auto driver did not heed his warning to stop when his horse became frightened but put on full speed and left the farmer with his overturned rig at the side of the road. Mr. Smith denies the charge and asserts that he used every possible precaution in passing the rig. He asserts that the horse did not appear to be frightened until the machine was exactly opposite when it suddenly reared into a ditch at the side of the road. It is understood that an effort will be made to reach an amicable settlement of the case before it comes to trial.

PATRONIZE THE FARMERS.

According to a farmer living below here on the line of the Chicago & Northwestern, this year's potato yield in that district will reach at least 10,000 bushels. Most of the farmers near Sande, Little Lake and McFarland's hill have fine crops and they want to find a market near home. He suggested that the Negaunee and Ishpeming merchants would save money if they bought their potatoes from these farmers, who are now offering them for ten cents per bushel cheaper than the prices quoted for first-class stock in either the Chicago or Milwaukee markets. The prices now prevailing is fifty-five cents per bushel. The prices quoted in Chicago and Milwaukee the past few days have been from sixty to sixty-five cents. B. J. Goodman, who has one of the largest farms in that district, has a fine crop of potatoes, and he would like to sell them to merchants in this county, in preference to outside firms.

LOCAL LACONICS.

W. J. Galbraith, the well known Calumet attorney, looked after business in Negaunee yesterday.

N. P. Crooker, district deputy of the Macabees of the World, was in the city on business for the society yesterday.

Levine Bros. of the Savings Bank store, announce their first fall opening of suits, coats, hats, etc., for Saturday. The new goods have been arriving the past several days.

The city is doing a nice piece of work around the new fire hall, where crushed rock macadam is being put in. The average depth of the several grades of rock is nearly a foot. The surface of the street will be brought up to a level with the concrete walk on the front and east sides of the building.

James Gaffney, John Martin and several other Negaunee men spent yesterday in the woods hunting partridge. Most of the Negaunee hunters went out towards Palmer, but quite a few of them hunted around the Cliffs, where birds are said to be plentiful. A Negaunee man who hunted out there Saturday saw thirteen partridge, but only shot one. He could not get close to the birds, as they were very wild.

CONSTERNATION AT GRAND MARAIS

Notice Is Given the Railway Proposes to Suspend Operations Oct. 12th.

As a sequel to the recent sale of the Manistique railroad, an Alger-Smith property, to the Manistique Lumbering company, also controlled by the Alger-Smith interests, it is the reported intention to abandon the railroad. This has caused consternation at Grand Marais and other towns along the line of the railway concerned. The road was sold at public auction to satisfy a mortgage of $76,125 running to the Union Trust company of Detroit and given to secure an issue of bonds, which latter were held by the lumbering company. Following the sale, the following notice was posted at Manistique railway stations:

"Notice is hereby given that the Manistique Lumbering company has purchased at foreclosure sale all of the property of the Manistique Railway company, real, personal and mixed. Inasmuch as said Manistique Lumbering company is not prepared to operate said railroad, it hereby gives notice that said railroad will cease to operate on and after Oct. 12, 1910, at which time the property will be dismantled and sold for what it will bring. Any person or persons desiring to purchase said railroad property from the undersigned, either as a going concern or otherwise, may make application for the same to said Manistique Lumbering company at its office, Detroit, Michigan, on or before said Oct. 12, 1910. (Signed) Manistique Lumbering Company, by G. H. Staker, secretary."

When the intentions of the lumbering company became known, a mass meeting was held at the Masonic temple at Grand Marais which was attended by practically every citizen of the community. It was decided to procure a petition protesting against the discontinuance and removal of the Manistique railway and that Supervisor Leighton be delegated to present the same to the state railroad commissioner and ascertain from this source and legal counsel what course, if any there be, should be taken to prevent the threatened suspension. The notice of the proposed discontinuance of service and the possible dismantling of the road came as a great surprise and naturally has been the cause of much uneasiness among Grand Marais citizens and business men. What the outcome will be is a matter of conjecture. Voicing the protest of the community, the Grand Marais Herald says:

"To the firm of Cook, Curtis & Miller, operator of the hardwood mill and which is dependent upon the railroad for the transportation of its logs, as well as to other industries and to merchants and business men and to the laborer with his home, the discontinuance of a railway outlet means heavy losses and in many instances the sacrifice of years of savings. It means blotting out of the town a source of the most prosperous towns in Northern Michigan until such time as railway connections are re-established. It is to be hoped that pending the date set for the discontinuance of the service something will develop whereby the railroad will be taken over and operations continued.

"With the mass and varied natural advantages possessed by Grand Marais in point of location, excellent harbor, oceans of virgin hardwood timber at her very door and section after section of rich fertile soil suitable for agriculture, it does not seem possible that she is destined to become one of the 'deserted lumber hamlets of Michigan,' now and again pictured in the news columns of the day. Yet, without railroad facilities, the town would be given a setback from which it would be hard to recover. That Grand Marais will see to her own some day there is every reason to believe, but how long a time will intervene, no one is ready to say. However, with railway service continuing in the future as in the past, thus containing a lease of life to our present industries, the town will progress and business will be maintained, making of it a fairly good town with good prospects of becoming better in the future. All may end well yet."

TROPHIES FOR THE WINNERS. Another Trap Shoot to Be Held Here Saturday Afternoon.

Another trap shoot will be held on the grounds of the Town and Country club next Saturday afternoon. The program has not yet been decided upon, but several trophies will be shot for by club members and their friends. The new 25-yard 22-caliber rifle range will be tried out, and as all of the best local rifle shots, as well as McLaughlin of Ishpeming, will shoot the 250-yard range, some interesting contests are expected. The five men to represent the local club at the trap shoot in Munising on the 14th and 15th will be picked out Saturday.

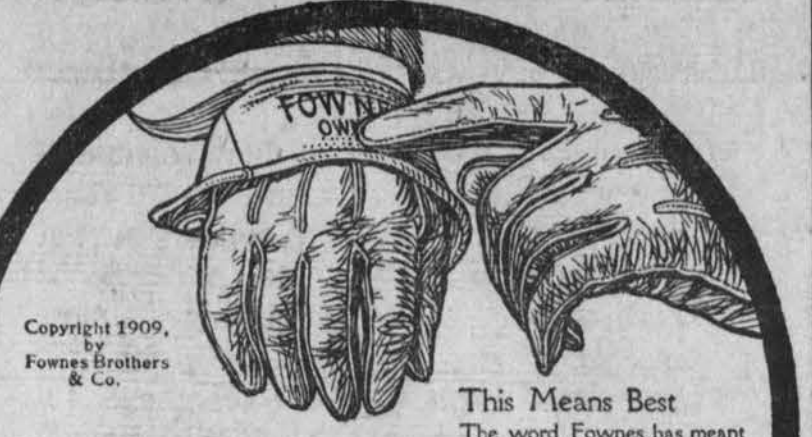

Golf Affairs. The ladies' golf tournament will be completed during the afternoon on Saturday and it is proposed to begin a new tournament at that time.

The finals in the handicap trophy tournament will also be completed, and as this trophy is to be played for only in tournaments, it is proposed next week to play the qualifying round on thirty-six holes in a second contest. The cup will become the property of the player who wins it three times. In the present contest W. H. Schweitzer has won from Dr. Cunningham, and W. O. Johnson from L. J. Jacobs, in the semi-finals, and in the finals W. O. Johnson is already six up on W. H. Schweitzer.

FEDERAL COURT HAD LIGHT DAY

Several Cases Quickly Disposed of and Adjournment Was Taken Until Today.

United States court was in session but a short time yesterday, as the jury trial which was scheduled was continued until next term with the consent of both parties. This was the case of Metz against Darcy and others. The criminal action brought against J. H. Worden, F. F. Duell and Alex. Pearson, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government out of timber land, is set for re-trial today, and if taken up, will occupy the attention of the court for three or four days, it is expected.

The grand jury also adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning, after a short session yesterday. It is reported that adjournment was taken because of the absence of witnesses wanted in connection with alleged bootlegging operations at and near the Soo, which are under investigation. Three witnesses were brought to the city yesterday in the custody of officers and lodged in the county jail until they are wanted in the jury room. It is said that these persons are Canadians who have been ordered deported, and that they are being held in custody for that reason.

In the case of the United States against Fred Avery, judgment by default was entered for $546.90. In the case of Tillinghast, receiver of the First National bank of Ironwood, against Elven T. Larson, the jury went through the formality of returning a verdict and judgment in favor of the plaintiff for $71,225.07. In the case of the United States against Alfred Nyland of Crystal Falls, charged with violation of the oleomargarine law, the defendant pled guilty and was fined $50. In one of the suits brought by Tillinghast, receiver, against Edward Barnaby, judgment by stipulation was entered in the sum of $638.60. Another suit brought by the receiver against Barnaby was discontinued, as was the suit brought by Barnaby against the First National bank of Ironwood. The case of the Walter Alexander Timber company against Byron Hoyt was dismissed.

COUNTERFEIT COINS.

Canadian Quarters and Halves Being Circulated in the U. P.

Dan Vaughan, conductor on the South Shore road, who is also mayor of the city of Marquette, displayed a counterfeit Canadian "silver" quarter, which he recently received along with other coins in payment of railroad fares, says the Calumet News.

The counterfeit quarter is the exact counterfeit of the genuine Canadian quarter, with the exception that on the reverse side from the head of King Edward the counterfeit coin has the crown sign in its normal or proper position as if resting on the head, while the genuine coin in the same position the crown is shown upside down.

Conductor Vaughan says that he believes that 50-cent and 25-cent Canadian spurious coins are being circulated broadcast throughout the upper peninsula. He states that it is his belief that the coins are being molded and coined in Canada, and are being smuggled over the border into this country and placed in circulation here instead of in Canada.

Conductor Vaughan has seen quite a number of these spurious coins lately. The counterfeit coin has a lighter ring than the genuine article, but this is not enough to test the genuineness of the coin. The sure test is the position of the small crown on the reverse side. Evidently the counterfeiters in making their dies overlooked this small but very important feature, and thus left a loophole for detection.

WALL STREET STOCKS.

New York, Oct. 5.—Although the foreign markets reflected the uneasiness in Portugal, the New York market opened rather steady and held relatively firm during the first hour, but it later became apparent that liquidation for both foreign and domestic accounts was in progress, with the result that prices receded gradually throughout the remainder of the day. Aside from the reports from the Portugal affair, there was nothing in the news of the day of an adverse character marketwise, except that call money was a shade firmer than heretofore. We still believe that a great many of the unfavorable features in the situation have been largely discounted, but until the outcome of the Portuguese troubles is definitely known it may be well to exercise caution and safeguard purchases. would cross 35 on this move. There was also a good demand for Allouez, Superior & Pittsburg and Groux. Granby is about the only weak spot in this market, on an unfavorable report published yesterday, and the stock looks lower.

In the late trading considerable profit-taking appeared and prices eased off over a point in the active issues in New York, but the public is becoming more friendly to the bull side each day and barring occasional setbacks such as we

Chicago Wheat.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Messages coming from the southwest today have been telling of rather large floor sales booked ahead and the mills owning much of the big wheat supplies at Kansas City. The northwest houses also report a better demand for cash wheat and sales to the mills improving. This, together with the Argentine scare, turned the market strong and advanced it over a cent and a quarter today. It will be a good fighting market now, with better activity, and much will depend upon the character of the Argentine news, in case any danger is in sight.

New York Cotton Market.

New York, Oct. 5.—Fables were poor enough to influence slightly lower prices at the opening of our market, but there was a display of strength from the start and the opening proved the lowest of the day. Private cables from Liverpool, advising that the strike had been settled, provoked heavy buying to replace long lines that had been disposed of yesterday, forcing prices 14 to 18 points above the opening before there was sufficient realizing to check the advance and bring about a slight reaction. Heavy engagements of freight room for export and the meager supplies held by the domestic spinners portend a good absorption of the crop, as it moves from the farm, and the taste of high prices will tend to a withdrawal of a portion of this cotton from the market in the event of a decided decline. We would buy cotton now and hold for very much higher prices.

George F. Ross's Review.

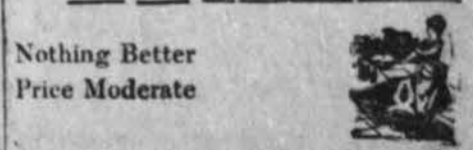

The News Bureau writes the following on the metal situation: "A majority of the selling agencies, including the United Metals Selling Company, and American Smelting and Refining Company, are holding electro on a basis of 12 1/2 cents a pound. Sentiment for copper circles is more cheerful and estimates of the reduction of stocks in the month of September continues to range between ten and twelve million pounds. There has been a slight improvement in buying but it has not reached large proportions as yet. Electrolytic copper has been advanced to 12 1/2 cents a pound on actual sales by interests which were sellers last week at 12 1/2 cents. Crying copper has also been advanced to the same level and the demand for this brand of copper has improved with that for the better grade."

"CHECKERS"
THAT GREAT RACING PLAY

That fine dramatic production which had a run of several months in New York City and Chicago with Thomas Ross in the leading role, can now be seen in picture form

UNDER THE TITLE ROLE OF

"The Tout's Remembrance"

AT THE

ROYAL THEATRE TONIGHT

"Checkers" attracted a great deal of attention as a drama. Here is a picture like the drama. It is a tense, thrilling story of the race track with lively action, deep heart interest and touches of spraking comedy. Pictures dealing with racing are always interesting, and when it is not posed, but is made from actual scenes on the track, it is all the more so. The race track here represented is Juarez, Mexico, and are reproductions of actual occurrences at that track. When the reformed tout plays Goddy at 100 to 1 to win $10,000 the scenes are intensely dramatic, and when he wins the applause is spontaneous. A racing picture arouses the emotions as nothing else can, and when is worked out as well as this it is all the more attractive.

ISHPEMING GIRL IS ELECTROCUTED

Taking Hold of Arc Lamp Chain Miss Alfansina Lindstrom Is Instantly Killed.

Miss Alfansina Lindstrom, daughter of Theodore Lindstrom, living at 133 Cliffs street, on the north shore of Lake Bannock, was electrocuted Tuesday evening, shortly after 9 o'clock, when she took hold of the main wire used to raise and lower an electric arc lamp located near her home.

Miss Lindstrom had been working in a potato field all day, and she came home about supper time, feeling rather tired. She was in the house, playing the organ with two of her girl friends, Miss Carlson and Miss Peterson, called, and asked her to go with them for a walk. They were out about fifteen minutes when the fatality occurred. The pole which supports the cross arm from which the arc lamp is suspended is about 100 feet from the roadside, and the space between it and the road is marshy. While it is not known what caused the young lady to approach the pole, it is believed that she got into the marsh and advanced toward the pole in her effort to reach dry ground again. The companions did not see her crossing from the road to the pole and the first they knew of the fatality was when she screamed and fell to the ground, dead.

The girl caught hold of the chain which is used to raise and lower the lamp. It is thought that at that instant the wires above must have been crossed by the wind, charging the chain with electricity. The girl's feet were wet, and a heavy charge passed through her body. She never spoke after receiving the shock.

Mr. Lindstrom, the girl's father, heard her scream and immediately ran out of the house, but she was dead by the time he reached her. He worked over her for some minutes in an effort to restore life and in the meantime, another member of the family telephoned for a physician.

The deceased was the oldest of eight children, and she was born and reared in the city. She had planned to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of her birth next Monday evening, and had invited the members of the Epworth league of the Swedish Methodist church to be her guests. The girl recently returned from Bull, Minn., where she spent three months with Mrs. Holley, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Thomas Walters, who is now visiting her parents in the city. She was a fine young woman and her untimely death was a shock to her friends and acquaintances. She was a member of the church choir and had been an active worker for the Epworth league and other church societies for several years. She lived at the home of D. D. Ranfall for four years, before going to the Mesaba. Her father is in the employ of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company at the North Lake mine.

Coroner William Prin empanelled a jury yesterday. The members of the jury inspected the place where the girl met her death.

The deceased is survived by her parents, one brother and six sisters, all living at home. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Swedish Methodist church.

MANY WILL ATTEND.

The members of the Ishpeming Alumni, who have planned a banquet for Wednesday evening of next week, the 12th, in the high school building, have sent out about 200 invitations to alumni, city officials and others. Any patron of the school will be welcome. It was impossible to send invitations to all whom the committee would like to invite. Those who plan to attend are requested to notify Thomas Clancy, secretary of the committee, so that they can be properly taken care of at the banquet. The charge will be fifty cents per plate. Two or more good speakers will be present.

MAN OF MYSTERY COMES TO ISHPEMING

Raffles, Who Offers Cash Rewards For His Detection, To Be Here Next Week.

The Barnum-Raffles company will appear at the Ishpeming theatre all next week, playing at popular prices. Mr. Barnum is one of the best known of hypnotists, and Raffles is the man who became famous a few years ago through his work for the Chicago American. He evaded the Chicago police and citizens for weeks in their attempts to identify him on the streets, in order to capture a big cash prize offered by the publishers of the paper.

At Monday night's performance Raffles will put on one of the most sensational acts ever seen in an upper peninsula theatre. He will be handcuffed and shackled and locked in a steel safe. It will be locked and people in the audience will be given chains or ropes around it. The safe will then be lowered into a tank containing 1,000 gallons of water, and Raffles will begin the work of freeing himself. The front of the water tank is plate glass and a spot light will be thrown upon the glass, so that the audience will be able to see Raffles getting out of the safe, also struggling in the water in freeing himself from the handcuffs and shackles. At Mount Pleasant, Mich., the week before last, he broke his own previous record in the length of time he remained under water. It took him just four minutes and thirty-nine seconds from the time the safe was lowered into the water to free himself from the handcuffs and shackles and to rise to the surface of the water.

During the week Raffles will offer rewards of from $50 to $100 to any person who can identify him on the streets. He will appear on the principal streets at certain hours of the day, and will announce from the stage the time of his appearance and the conditions under which he will give the reward. Raffles will also offer a liberal prize to any person who can catch him stealing from any store or office in the city. It is claimed that he has never yet been captured stealing goods from merchandise stores in cities where he has played, and he has carried away such articles as screen doors, washing tubs, wash boilers, etc. The articles he steals during the week will be placed on exhibition in the theatre lobby and will be returned to the owners.

The safe in which Raffles does his sensational act Monday night will also be exhibited Monday in front of the theatre.

LOOKING FOR GAMES.

Ishpeming Football Team Ready to Meet All Comers.

The Ishpeming Young Men's Christian association football team, which will play its first game next Saturday afternoon at Marquette against the Quil hall eleven, is ready to book games for the full season. Managers of teams desiring games are asked to correspond with W. H. Norman, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., or Ted Butler, manager of the team. "Bony" Dixon, the well-known baseball pitcher, will be in the line-up and will probably play full-back. Dixon played a few seasons ago with the Stambaugh team and is said to be a whirlwind when it comes to bucking the line.

The indoor baseball league will be organized for the winter evening by B sections, Intermediates, Business Boys and Senior classes this week and the schedule will be opened next week. Each class will have a four-team league and will play a series of six games, two with each team of their league.

STRONG COMEDY.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" Said to be a Good Attraction.

Ishpeming theatregoers will have an opportunity Friday evening to see "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." This production is under the control of Leibler & Co., who have sent a number of first-class attractions to this circuit during the past few years.

The comedy interest in the play centers on the mirth provoking episodes of Mr. Stubbins, and his matrimonial designs upon little Miss Hazy, the meek and shiftless neighbor of Mrs. Wiggs. Both characters are humorous and original. The impersonation of Miss Hazy has proved a perfectly fitting viz-a-viz to that of Hiram Stubbins, who, in the first act, woos and wins her, then falls from grace and disappears for a time from the patch, though not of his own volition. On his return, however, thanks to his brilliant war record and pension allowances, he is once more received by his wife and friends and made the hero of the closing scenes.

TO DIRECT LOGGING WORK

George Goodman, who has held a position as instructor in the Michigan College of Mines for the past year or more, has resigned to take charge of the logging operations of his father, B. J. Goodman, in the Clowry district, where work is now being started. Mr. Goodman has had considerable experience with his father in the logging business and he is to have entire charge of the camps. Mr. Goodman, Sr., who is also interested in the Little Lake mill, will travel considerably between the two points during the winter. His sons Bernard and Austin will remain at the mill, which is to be operated throughout the winter.

MANY TEACHERS EXPECTED HERE

Annual Institute Meetings Will Open Thursday With a Public Meeting.

Orr Schurtz, superintendent of the Negaunee public schools, yesterday said that there will be an unusually large attendance at the annual upper peninsula teachers' institute, to be held in Negaunee next week Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The members of the committee on entertainment have completed their work, and will be prepared to take care of all who come. They have secured accommodations for more than 500 teachers, exclusive of the hotels.

The superintendents report that most of their teachers plan to attend the meetings. The reports from the rural districts have been encouraging, the commissioners in the various counties expecting a large attendance. Mr. Schurtz believes the meeting will be one of the most successful ever held in the upper peninsula. The program was completed yesterday.

Among the prominent educators who will be in attendance are Dr. Gunsaulus, president of the Armour Institute, Chicago, and Miss Nina Vanderwalker, director of primary instruction of the Milwaukee State Normal. Mr. Gunsaulus will deliver the principal address at the public meeting, to be held Thursday evening in the auditorium of the high school, and Miss Vanderwalker will address the primary teachers. There will be no public meeting Friday evening, as the board of education and citizens of the city are planning a reception to the teachers, which will be held in the auditorium. It will be followed by a hop in the gymnasium and refreshments will be served all evening, commencing at 9:30 o'clock, in one of the rooms or in the corridor on the first floor.

MARRIED AT GRAND RAPIDS.

Miss Olive Goudge, daughter of John Goudge, the Volunteer Ore company's master mechanic, was married Tuesday evening at Grand Rapids, Mich., to Harry M. Temple. The bride attended school in Grand Rapids last year, and she left here a week ago for that city. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the Wollin Congregational church, by Rev. J. T. Husted, the pastor. The bride was born and reared in Negaunee and was graduated from the Negaunee high school in the class of 1909. The groom is an electrical engineer and is holding a responsible position in Grand Rapids with the H. Newgard company of Chicago. They will make their home at Grand Rapids.

BACK FROM ENGLAND.

Negaunee Man Says Many Young Englishmen Are Coming to America.

John Carhart, a former resident of Negaunee, who spent two and one-half years in Arizona, and left there three months ago for his old home in England, returned to this city yesterday. He was accompanied by Henry Furse, Richard Pascoe and William Yoe, young natives of Cornwall, who intend to make their home here. Mr. Carhart, who worked as a miner at the Blue property for two years and five months before leaving for Arizona, intends to again locate in Negaunee. Mr. Carhart says many people have left England this year for America and many more are preparing to come to this country. Every day in the week a number of young men leave their native home. While many are bound for the upper peninsula, the number going to Montana, Idaho, California and other western states is considerably larger than the number leaving for this region. Several hundred young Englishmen left Cornwall for Butte during the three months Mr. Carhart was visiting his people.

Industrial conditions in and around Cornwall were never better than they are at this time, but the wages there do not compare with those prevailing in this country. It is largely because of the increased pay that the men come to America. The mines of England are now being worked more vigorously than ever before in their history and the men are receiving better pay than for several years past, but the increase in the cost of living has been proportionately larger than the increase in wages.

WILL BE A BIG TASK

Removal of Bodies From Old to New Cemetery Will Mean Large Outlay.

Members of the board of public works and the cemetery committee of the council, together with representatives of the Cleveland-Cliffs iron company, looked over the new cemetery Tuesday. The contract for the removal of the bodies has not yet been awarded. E. McCarthy, junior member of McCarthy & Sons of St. Paul, who has submitted a bid, is in the city awaiting the outcome of the meeting. McCarthy & Sons a short time ago completed a very large contract similar to the one here for the government, in Minnesota. The cost of the work will be heavy and the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company will probably have to pay between $80,000 and $100,000 to have it done. The contractors will furnish new rough boxes where the old ones are not in good condition and they will also have to replace any monuments or foot markers that may in any way be damaged in the transfer. All monuments must be set properly and the graves put in first-class condition. The heaviest monument in either of the cemeteries is eleven tons, and a number of them weigh from four to eight tons. A pretty accurate idea as to the number of bodies in the Catholic cemetery can be obtained from the records kept by the church board, but it is impossible to tell how many are interred in the city cemetery, as the records are not complete.

The council will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

FINE PROGRAM FOR TEACHERS

Upper Peninsula Educational Association Meeting at Negaunee Next Week Will Be Addressed By Several of the Foremost Educators of the Country.

Besides Many Upper Peninsula School Men, Dr. Gunsaulus of Chicago, Miss Vandewalker of Milwaukee, S. J. Heeter of St. Paul and Others Will Be Present.

Complete programs of the fifteenth annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Educational Association, to be held at Negaunee Oct. 13, 14 and 15, are being sent to teachers in all parts of the district. A special effort has been made to make this year's meeting one of unusual interest, and it is generally expected that it will prove to be one of the best in the history of the association.

Several outside educators of nationwide reputation have been secured to speak at the meeting, and the subjects to be handled by upper peninsula educators promise to afford instructive and interesting sessions, which no wide-awake teacher can afford to miss. The first general session will be held Thursday night, Oct. 13, and at that time Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus, of Chicago, will speak on "The Next Step in Education." Dr. Gunsaulus is president of Armour Institute of Technology and is recognized, not only as a great educator, but as one of the most eloquent pulpit orators in the country.

Teachers in the kindergarten and primary grades will be especially interested in the talks to be given by Miss Nina C. Vandewalker, principal of the Milwaukee Normal school. Miss Vandewalker is one of the best authorities on kindergarten work in the country and is also said to be an entertaining speaker.

Straight, of Bay City, a member of the state legislature; Dr. F. W. McNair, of the Michigan College of Mines; Professor Lautner and Dr. Downing, of the Northern State Normal school, and others. F. M. MOORE RESIGNS.

Chas. Kelsey Takes His Place as Deputy Clerk of U. S. Court.

Chas. Kelsey, of this city, formerly probate judge of Marquette county, was appointed deputy clerk of United States district and circuit courts for the western district of Michigan by Judge Denison yesterday, succeeding Frank M. Moore, who has held the office for more than twenty-three years. Because of impaired health, Mr. Moore for some time has been desirous of resigning the position, but refrained from so doing until a desirable man could be found to succeed him. Mr. Moore has decided to retire from active business life.

Attorneys and all others who have had occasion to meet Mr. Moore in a business way during the long period in which he was clerk of the United States court in Marquette have known him as a jovial, obliging, competent public official, and the manner in which the affairs of the office have been handled have won high praise from the government inspectors. He retires from public life with an enviable record. Being what is known as a "good mixer," and also one of the four "Thirty-third degree Masons in the upper peninsula of Michigan, he is one of the most widely known men in this section. He is an active Democrat and his counsel has often been sought by the leaders of the party. His host of friends wish him navigated happiness and comfort in his declining years.

A CITY OF SURPRISES.

J. C. Monaghan, Noted Catholic Lecturer, Writes of Marquette.

Professor J. C. Monaghan, who delivered a most entertaining lecture at Baraga auditorium a few months ago, has written a eloquent tribute to the city of Marquette, which is published in the current number of The Columbiad, the official organ of the Knights of Columbus. Professor Monaghan has travelled widely and is recognized as one of the foremost Catholic laymen in the United States. He writes of Marquette as follows:

Progressive Marquette
"Marquette is a city of surprises. I expected to find Marquette a quaint, quiet old place. It is as up to date as New York or Boston. It has one of the most beautiful courthouses in the world, one far ahead of any found in a city of the same size in other parts of the country. The cathedral, French church, the Parochial school surpass anything seen in cities of one, two and even three hundred thousand. Marquette's population is less than 15,000. The audience that greeted me was large, cultured and refined. It was pleasant to look at, Dr. Kay and Dr. Faught, among the leading educators of the country, were there with their wives.

"The High and Normal schools here surpass anything in cities ten to fifteen times as large. This indicates the spirit of the people.
"If one is looking for a summer trip, begin at Quebec or Montreal, or take both, the Thousand Isles, the 'Soo' and this northern peninsula or part of Michigan. The railroad and hotel rates are reasonable, the means of moving about the best."

MINES EXACTED A HEAVIER TOLL

Twenty-nine Killed in County During Fiscal Year Ending Sept. 30, as Compared With Twenty-three During the Same Period a Year Ago — Recapitulation.

Seven More Mines in Operation Than Last Year and Nearly 1,000 More Men Are Employed — Season a Fairly Satisfactory One, Says Inspector J. T. Quine.

The annual report of the county mine inspector, John T. Quine, for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, has been filed with the county clerk, and contains much information regarding the mine accidents that have occurred in the county the past twelve months, as well as other interesting information concerning mines. During the year there were twenty-nine fatal accidents in the mines, as compared with twenty-three for the previous year. Mr. Quine states that many of the accidents could have been prevented, had the men used proper precautions and obeyed the rules laid down by the companies.

The following persons were killed during the year: Peter Alund, Oscar Mattila, Victor Maki, Marto Maki, John Mattila, John Gundry, Benjamin Pascoe, Jas. Saari, John Grivetti, Jalmar Niemel, Nicholas Pearce, Abel Himattu, of Negaunee; Frederick Johnson, Frank Murray, Samuel Hill, of Diorite; Charles Carlson, of Republic; John Couch, Simon Kokilla, Edward Laitinen, John Aytte, Jonato Cars, Reginald Bohemia, of Ishpeming; Louis Bosetti, John Krouch, of Princton; Emil Latvala, John Maja, of Humboldt; Alex. Coron, of Champion, and Sulo Kolama of Palmer. Of the twenty-nine killed, four were of English nationality; fourteen were Finnish; one French; two Swedish; five Italian; one French-Canadian; one Austrian and one American.

Business Better Than Last Year.
In his recapitulation, Mr. Quine states that the year has been a fairly good one, though the shipments were not quite as large as were anticipated early in the season. Operations have been suspended at the West Republic mine at Republic, and work has been resumed at the Lucy, Breitung Hematite No. 1, and Milwaukee-Doris mines at Negaunee; the Eric and Kleanan at Republic, and the Franklin at Humboldt. Two new mines, the Maitland shaft at Palmer and the Barnes at Dexter, have been opened during the year. A new concrete shaft is being constructed at the Negaunee mine at Negaunee, and considerable diamond drill exploring is being done at different points in the county. The foundation company of New York has recently completed the Northwestern shaft of the Northwestern mine at Gwin, and is preparing to sink two more shafts, one three miles from the Northwestern mine.

Nearly 1,000 more men are employed in the mines of the county than a year ago, and there are seven more mines in operation. Below is given a comparative table showing some phases of the year's operations:

Mines in operation	1910	1909
Quarries in operation	48	41
Men employed	6,546	5,982
Fatal accidents	29	23
Accidents per 1,000 employed	4.43	4.00

The inspector says that every safeguard possible to devise tending to safeguard employees has been adopted by the companies and the suggestions of the inspector have been carefully compiled with. The inspector made 518 visits to mining properties during the year and attended twenty-six inquests. Fences have been erected around several pits at the request of the inspector.

"PAID IN FULL"

"Paid in Full" The United Play's company production, will be seen at the opera house Saturday night. Acton Davies, the well known writer, says of the play: "After all, if the play is really the thing then there's a new 'thing' in town. It's called 'Paid in Full' by Eugene Walter. 'Paid in Full' scored an immense success last night—one of the sensational successes of the season. Its boldness, its simplicity and its originality all told in its favor. Here at last was a young American playwright brave enough to dramatize a Harlem flat and its occupants; he has taken his theme right out of every day life on the upper west side of New York and played his dramatic cards so well that he held his base first night and then intensely, but gave them in one act both a great surprise and a real thrill. Young Mr. Walter arrived last night and the management, the Wagenhals and Kemper Company, is to be congratulated upon the uncommonly fine cast which carried 'Paid in Full' to its great success. 'Paid in Full' can speak for itself, and more than that, it is one of those plays which pays its audiences with full measure."

ONE BIG REASON

Why You Should Buy Our Pianos

Conover Cable Kingsbury Wellington Pianos

Victor Talking Machines

Edison Phonographs

Full Line of Records

Just this. We are in a different position than any retail house. We own and operate the largest piano factories in the world. With our unequalled factory facilities, modern labor-saving machinery and unlimited capital we are able to build pianos at the closest possible figure and at the same time make them the very best. Then instead of selling all of them to retailers we run our own stores and sell direct to the public in a great many states. In this way the buyer can save a lot of money dealing with us.

A thorough investigation of our Inner-Player Pianos will convince you beyond a doubt that for ease of operating and getting those beautiful artistic effects so necessary to the true lover of music, the Cable Piano Co.'s Inner-Players are the leaders in every respect. We will be pleased to demonstrate them for you.
