

CONVENTION AT DETROIT IS A LOVE FEAST

Peace Reigns at the State Assembly of the Republicans—Only Contest Is That for the Attorney Generalship—Franz Kuhn Wins Over Four Competitors.

Platform Adopted Is Calculated to Please Both the "Stalwarts" and "Insurgents"—Roosevelt's Name Is Cheered—Knox of the Soo Choice for State Chairman.

Detroit, Oct. 6.—Peace reigned in the Republican state convention here today. The platform adopted is calculated to offend neither the "stalwarts" nor the "insurgents."

The mention of Theodore Roosevelt by the speakers brought applause. He was eulogized by Chase S. Osborn, the nominee for governor, while Congressman Dikeman linked his name and Taft's as two of the world's greatest men.

The only contest—that over the nomination for the attorney generalship—was won by Franz Kuhn, the incumbent, against four competitors. The other nominations, all by acclamation, are: John E. Bird, justice of the supreme court.

Frederick C. Martindale, secretary of state. Albert S. Sleeper, state treasurer. Hentley Russell, commissioner of the land office.

O. B. Fuller, auditor general. W. Fred Knox of Sault Ste. Marie was named as chairman of the state committee. Chase S. Osborn and John Q. Ross already elected in the primaries held four weeks ago as the candidates for governor and lieutenant governor.

Strong Bid Made by Fellows. Grant Fellows of Adrian made a strong bid for the nomination for attorney general, the first ballot resulting: Kuhn, 548; Fellows, 462; J. F. O'Keefe, of Saginaw, 105; Wm. Smith, of St. Johns, 61; C. E. Sweet, of Cass City, 77; necessary for a choice, 653.

The platform, while satisfactory to both wings of the party, is of progressive tenor. It endorses the primary nominations for governor, lieutenant governor and United States senator and pledges the nominees to an honest, economical and businesslike administration of state affairs.

The address of Senator Wm. Alden Smith, the convention chairman, aroused great enthusiasm. Chase S. Osborn also made a stirring address.

TENNESSEE DEMOCRATS AGAIN NAME TAYLOR FOR GOVERNOR. Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 6.—The Democratic state convention held here today, named Senator R. L. Taylor for governor, vice Governor M. R. Patterson, who resigned the nomination recently.

FOREIGNERS ARE WON OVER AT LAST

Europe Endorses the Indeterminate Sentence Principle After Combating It Many Years.

Washington, Oct. 6.—After opposing for thirty years the efforts of American criminologists to induce the International Prison congress to endorse the principle of the indeterminate sentence, which underlies the reformatory system, the European members today yielded and resolutions advocating the system were adopted. The foreign delegates are said to have been won over by observing its successful application during a ten days tour of the country prior to the meeting of the congress.

Other important resolutions adopted today recommended legislation providing for the extension of probation with some central authority to exercise general supervision over probation work; the consideration of participation in criminal acts or agreements as an aggravating circumstance, and the augmentation of the power of the courts and increased penalties for such offenses; a penal procedure for young delinquents different from that applied to adults, with a view to keeping the child as far removed as possible from the atmosphere of the court or prison; reformation treatment combined with the system of liberation and parole, with special treatment for adolescent criminals sufficiently long to permit the full application of all possible means of reformation; separate confinement, as far as possible, for prisoners awaiting trial and those serving short sentences; making parents responsible for the wrong-doing of children; compelling fathers to support children, and allowing children to be taken from unfit homes and properly placed.

The congress also recommended treaty agreements between all civilized states whereby each country should receive from the others notice of the sentences pronounced by foreign courts against its citizens, such notice to form the basis of special action for the forfeiture of the status of the offenders by the courts of their own country.

A banquet was given to the foreign delegates tonight by the United States government, Attorney General Wickham representing the president.

LEE BROWNE IS WITNESS AT CHICAGO

For the First Time Under Oath, Illinois Democratic Leader Tells the Story of the Election of Lorimer—He Enters a Sweeping Denial of Any Wrong-Doing.

He Admits Meeting Legislators at the Time He Is Said to Have Paid for Their Votes, But Says the Conference Was for an Altogether Different Purpose.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—For the first time under oath, Lee O'Neil Browne, Democratic leader of the lower house at Springfield, today told the senatorial investigating committee the story of the election of Wm. Lorimer to the United States senate.

Browne testified on the charge of bribing Representative Charles A. White to vote for Lorimer, but he did not testify. The first trial resulted in disagreement and the second in acquittal. He has still to stand trial on an indictment making similar charges, returned at Springfield.

Enters a Sweeping Denial. The witness talked composedly, entering a sweeping denial of any wrongdoing in connection with the election of Lorimer. He is a lawyer, and his attorney, Thomas A. Dawson, found little to do in advising his client as to his answers.

The matter of securing Democratic votes for Lorimer, the witness stated, was first mentioned to him in a casual way by Representative Shanahan. About three weeks before the election, Shanahan stated that he had many of his following among the Democrats would be willing to vote for Lorimer. "I told Mr. Shanahan, and later Mr. Lorimer himself," Browne said, "that no Democrat would vote for Lorimer with my consent unless they (Shanahan and Lorimer) would give me their word that no Democrat should vote for Lorimer until his election was assured."

Browne testified that he saw Lorimer and Shanahan frequently after having decided to support the former, and that he talked to many Democratic representatives, including White, Beckemeyer, Shannon, and Clark, all of whom have testified before the senatorial committee. The witness said he did not personally see all the members of his faction about their votes on the senatorship, that some of them were spoken to by Representative Cermak and J. C. Wendell. He admitted that he saw Representative Wilson, the alleged distributor of the jackpot, to St. Louis in July. He admitted he had written to several persons expressing regret that he could not have been with Wilson.

Declares He Discussed No Money. Browne said that he was in St. Louis June 21, 1909, the place and the time fixed by other witnesses when $1,000 packages of money were handed to them by Browne. He said he met Representatives Henry A. Shannon, Michael L. Egan, H. J. C. Beckemeyer and Charles Lake in the Southern Hotel. He asserted that he did not tell Representative White he was going there. His purpose in going to St. Louis was to confer with the representatives named on the subject of state patronage for the Democrats, and Governor Degen was taking up the question of the minority patronage. Later he talked with the governor on the subject.

Browne denied that he had given Link or Beckemeyer any money in the Southern Hotel at St. Louis, June 21, 1909, as testified to by other witnesses. He said that he had no relations with White, the witness said that he helped White draw up bills and assisted him in his legislative labors, because he saw that White was deeply interested in his work.

Republican Legislator Testifies. Another witness of the afternoon was Thomas Curran, a Republican legislator, who testified in rebuttal to the testimony of White. Curran said that White had approached him at Springfield and asked him to hold out the women's ten-hour bill, which was in the committee of which Curran was chairman.

"White told me there might be some thing in it," the witness said. "Later he asked me if anything was doing on the Lorimer election. I told him that I didn't know and observed that he, as a Democrat, ought to know. 'Why do you ask?' I inquired. And he replied, 'I think there was, and Browne has double-crossed us.'"

The hearing will be continued tomorrow, with Browne again on the stand.

MILLIONS OF WHISKEY STAMPS.

Enough Put on Bottles Last Year to Give Everybody One.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—About eighty million bottles of whiskey bearing the green guarantee stamp of the federal government went out into the markets from the government bonded warehouses last year. That is one bottle per capita for the population of the United States under the figures of the old census. The stamped bottles hold the kind of spirits concerning which Chief Chemist Wiley wrote the late General Lew Wallace, when Wiley told him in substance that the government's guarantee for stamp over the cork was green and so was the man who did not look for it. It is this green stamp over the cork of each of these eighty million bottles that practically marked the line of cleavage between the opinion of Theodore Roosevelt and President Taft on "Whiskey!" Roosevelt limited the terms entirely to the pure, straight article of the bonded warehouses, capable of this being bottled in bond. Taft held that while this pure article was undoubtedly the most costly kind of whiskey, nevertheless, goods which could not get this guarantee stamp might be whiskey also, even when unaged and mixed.

The paper upon which these stamps are printed, strangely enough, comes from the prohibition state of Maine. Five years ago one press and two helpers sufficed to produce the stamps, and they were often idle. Today the printing of these stamps is a feature of the business, as well as the production of our paper money, and twenty-two big presses are busy. Nine million gallons of whiskey was put under these stamps during the fiscal year just closed, and three million gallons during the first four months of the current year. Of course, all of the eighty million bottles are not quarts and fifth gallons and pints, for under the provisions of the statute from half gallon bottles even down to single drinks are bottled under the guarantee stamp, which tells the curious the Missouri supreme court, died suddenly tonight, of apoplexy, aged sixty-three. KING MANUEL FLEES FROM NATIVE LAND

With the Queen Mother and Other Members of the Family, the Boy Sovereign of Portugal Arrives at Gibraltar on Board the Royal Yacht Amelia.

Whether the Revolution is Broad Enough to Sweep the Country Is Still Unknown—Monarchy Has Many Supporters and a Civil War Is Not Impossible.

Gibraltar, Oct. 6.—The Portuguese royal yacht Amelia entered the harbor at 11 o'clock tonight. The queen mother and the Duke of Oporto are on board, as are King Manuel and the queen dowager, Maria Pia. All are well.

Monarchists Still Powerful. Lisbon, Oct. 6.—While the capital city is in the hands of the revolutionists and a republic has been proclaimed, with Theophile Braga as provisional president and other prominent republicans constituting the ministry, still many thousands of people in and around the capital are loyal to the monarchy. The revolutionists include a portion of the Lisbon troops and troops massed in entrenched camps about the city. Thus far these have refused to ally themselves with the revolutionists and the provisional government is taking steps to enforce their allegiance.

The people of Lisbon are ignorant of the events in the province, and therefore it is not known whether the movement is broad enough to sweep the country. Nevertheless the republicans are proceeding as though the transformation of the monarchy into a republic is an accomplished fact, to stand for all time. The provisional government has issued a communication to the foreign powers, notifying them of the proclamation of a Portuguese republic. No serious obstructions are expected to be offered by the provinces to the new regime. The government has already appointed civil governors for the different provinces.

President Cheered Enthusiastically. The Brazilian president-elect, Marshal Hermes Fonseca, passed through the streets today with the provisional president. Both were enthusiastically greeted by the people. Order has been restored throughout the greater part of the city. Patrols are guarding the thoroughfares.

Announcement was made late tonight that King Manuel, Queen Mother Amelia and the Duke of Oporto are aboard the royal yacht Amelia. The government has taken measures to protect them. It was further stated that the queen mother would proceed to Italy.

The English cruiser Minerva arrived today to reinforce the cruiser Newcastle, which reached here while the fighting was in progress. After receiving notification of the establishment of the new government at Lisbon, the British minister, Sir Francis P. Villiers, requested an audience of the foreign minister, Machado. This will be held tomorrow.

Republic Proclaimed in Other Cities. Madrid, Oct. 6.—A report from Lisbon indicates that the fighting there continued today. It is admitted, however, that the republicans have the upper hand. A moderate estimate of the losses would be 200 dead and 450 wounded. The city was but slightly damaged by the bombardment.

Official advices received in Madrid this afternoon state that a republic has been proclaimed at Selva, Braga and Coimbra, Portugal, and the indications are the struggle is reaching an end. The revolutionists have triumphed and the republican government is re-establishing order.

After a meeting of the Spanish cabinet this afternoon, presided over by the prime minister, the cabinet announced that Spain's attitude towards the events in Portugal would be the same as that of the other powers. Two Spanish cruisers sailed from Almedia for Lisbon today.

Disorders at Oporto. Oporto, Oct. 6.—When the news reached here that a revolution had broken out at Lisbon, a vast crowd ran through the streets, cheering. They gathered in front of the republican newspaper Patrie and engaged in an enthusiastic demonstration. Large forces of police attempted to disperse the crowd, but were received with showers of stones and other missiles, many of which were thrown from the windows of the newspaper building. The police then charged fiercely, thirteen civilians and two policemen being seriously wounded. Many arrests were made, but the prisoners were soon released. There is great unrest in Oporto.

Bloody War Yet Possible. Paris, Oct. 6.—The Portuguese legation here is under the impression that loyal troops from the fortress at Elvas and those garrisoned at Oporto are marching on Lisbon to engage the revolutionists.

Naples, Oct. 6.—The Italian battleship Regina Elena left tonight for Cadiz, where it will receive cable instructions to proceed whenever necessary to take on board Dowager Queen Maria Pia, of Portugal.

FIRE IN ILLINOIS MINE IS BRULIANT UNDER CONTROL.

IOWA GIRL'S MURDERER FOUND DEAD IN CORNFIELD.

Hartley, Ia., Oct. 6.—The body of George Godfrey, who shot and killed Miss Rika Amelsberg near here last evening, because she had resented his attentions, was found this morning in a cornfield near the spot where he murdered the girl.

COLLISION OF AUTOMOBILES COSTS THE LIVES OF TWO MEN.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 6.—J. L. Meredith, head of the Meredith Automobile company, of Mason City, Ia., was killed and J. W. Wallace, an employee of the Sears Automobile company, of Des Moines, was fatally injured when their cars, competing in a fifteen-mile race at the fair grounds this afternoon, collided at the quarter-stretch turn.

CHINESE PRINCE IS NEAR ASSASSINATION

San Francisco, Oct. 6.—George Fong, a member of the young Chinese association, an alleged revolutionary body, was arrested today just as he was about to shoot Prince Tsai, uncle of the emperor of China, who was boarding the steamer Chiyo Maru to sail for home. Fong confessed that he intended to kill the prince.

BODIES OF TWELVE JACKTARS RECOVERED AT NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 6.—Twelve bodies of the drowned or more sailors of the battleship New Hampshire, who were drowned by the swamping of the whale-boat last Saturday night were recovered today. One was found five miles within half a mile of the scene of the accident on North river. The names are: P. H. White, Robert Karl, P. J. Uehlin, P. E. Bekeman, Moses Johnson, R. E. Werner, Guido Amalozzi, W. A. Richardson, Norman T. Seals, E. N. DuBe, John F. Erhere and Norman S. Hoy.

STOCK MARKET IS CALLED HESITATING

New York, Oct. 6.—The stock market was hesitating today and the tone was listless. The sharp reaction of the day before resulted in a considerable discouragement to the movement for a rise. At the same time, with the recession in prices, there was a famine of offerings, which had been urged on the market yesterday. This was taken to mean that no aggressive movement to depress prices to market stocks at concessions was contemplated. The consequence was a fresh hardening of the market, with the closing at net gains. Renewed attention was paid to stocks known as specialties and which are in part subject to individual influences outside the current of general tendencies in the market. The sudden advances here and there in such stocks are believed to be caused by market pools formed for the purpose by small bodies of operators. The recurrence of this movement overcame to some extent the heaviness shown at one time during the day. Lower prices for copper in London did not hurt the copper industrials in the local market.

THE TONE IS LISTLESS—PRICES HARDEN, NEVERTHELESS, AND CLOSE AT SMALL GAINS.

Chicago Grain Markets. Chicago, Oct. 6.—The views of wheat traders regarding the Argentine crop were much mixed today, and as a result the prices saw-sawed up and down in a lively fashion. Because the latest cablegram from Rosario seemed to imply no serious fresh damage, if any had been actually done, the market closed weak, 1/2 to 3/4 below last night's level. The business increased somewhat in volume today, but the commission trade was by no means large. The contradictory reports from Argentina kept the speculators guessing. All the despatches conceded the dry weather to continue, but a number asserted fears of frost while others said it was too hot. Meanwhile the export trade from this country was practically nonexistent and owing to the absence of any notable domestic demand stocks piled up at a decidedly faster rate than a year ago. Considerable interest was taken in a crop expert's estimate putting the total yield of wheat in the United States at 684,000,000 bushels against 737,000,000 bushels last year. The affect on the market, however, was only temporary. The December opened at 98 1/2 to 99 and closed at 98 1/2 to 98 3/4.

The fine weather in the corn belt had a bearish effect in the corn pit. So did predictions that the government figures would place the crop at 3,000,000,000 bushels. On the other hand there was a better shipping call. The December opened at 50 1/2 to 50 3/4 and closed at 49 1/2 to 49 3/4.

Expert opinion that the oats yield will total 1,050,000,000 bushels, the largest on record, had depressing effect in the oats market. The close was 1/2 lower. The December opened at 33 1/2 to 33 3/4 and closed at 32 1/2 to 32 3/4.

PEACE ENVOY VISITS HOME OF JOHN DIETZ

Present Indications Are That the Threatened Bloody Battle at the Cameron Dam Will Be Prevented—Doughty Settler Appears Likely to Surrender.

Friends Have Proffered Financial Assistance in Obtaining a Fair Trial Before An Unbiased Jury, and Their Proposition Has the Support of the Wife.

Winter, Wis., Oct. 6.—A report has reached here that John Dietz has told G. W. Froelich, of St. Paul, that he will not surrender. However, the matter is still up in the air. Froelich is a St. Paul manufacturer who went to the Dietz home to offer him financial assistance in obtaining a fair trial before an unbiased jury. For three hours Dietz was undecided what to do, but Froelich argued with him. He suddenly made up his mind and dismissed Froelich, telling him that he wanted to see Governor Davidson. Mrs. Dietz told Froelich that she would use her influence to have Dietz surrender. Froelich is on his way back to Winter. Attorney General Gilbert and Colonel Munson, private secretary to Governor Davidson, will probably go to see Dietz tomorrow morning.

Milwaukee, Oct. 6.—Dr. Kleinschmidt, who went to Winter in order to see John Dietz, returned here today, being obliged by a business call to leave the completion of his mission to others. He says that a fair and square offer has been made to Dietz to surrender and accept the protection of friends, and if he refuses the law will have to take its course.

AVIATORS GIVE EXHIBITION AT HAWTHORNE PARK.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—The aviators who are to engage in the Chicago-New York race next Saturday made short trips at the Hawthorne park today. G. F. Willard's race was the most spectacular. He rose in his machine in a series of large spirals to a height of more than 2,000 feet.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—Arch Hoxsey, a Wright aviator, will fly from Springfield, Ill., to St. Louis, a distance of eighty-nine miles, next Saturday. This announcement was made today.

SUFFRAN BISHOPS PROPOSED FOR ALL EPISCOPAL DIOCESES.

Cincinnati, Oct. 6.—The house of deputies of the Protestant Episcopal church of America, in convention here, today adopted an amendment to the constitution providing for suffragan bishops throughout the dioceses of the church. The vote was 90 to 22. The amendment will have to be adopted in by the house of bishops before being effective. In the house of bishops an amendment making the presiding bishop elective instead of the post automatically reverting to the eldest in point of service was decisively beaten. An amendment changing the constitution of the book of common prayer to suit local conditions in the countries where the printed language is other than English was also beaten.

MORMON PRESIDENT WARNS AGAINST PLURAL MARRIAGE.

Salt Lake City, Oct. 6.—At the semi-annual conference of the church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, today, President Joseph F. Smith said that the manifesto against plural marriage must be obeyed. One bishop who had married polygamously has a partner who had officiated at a polygamous wedding were excommunicated.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 6.—Resolutions favoring congressional appropriations for the construction of good roads and urging the electors to vote only for candidates pledged to such movement were adopted by the National Good Roads convention here today. The use of convict labor on public roads was endorsed. The convention adjourned tonight.

BEWARE OF LOUIS HEEL.

Budapest, Oct. 6.—Beware the Louis heel! Dr. von Koranyi says that study of a large series of statistics prepared from the experience of others confirmed him in the belief that high-heeled shoes play a distinct part in the displacement of the kidneys, especially in conjunction with the heavy drag of clothes above the constricted waist.

The elevation of the heels causes an increase in the lumbar curve, says Dr. von Koranyi, and this entails displacement of the kidney, even if that organ lies originally well back, as a well-healed kidney should.

The theory that to drink water with meals is injurious because it dilutes the gastric juice, has been declared unsound by the Journal of Experimental Medicine, published by the Rockefeller institute for medical research. The Journal says that it has been shown by experiments that water stimulates the secretion of gastric juice and thus assists in the digestion of food.

MARQUETTE, MICH., OCT. 7.

Now for the serious business of the state campaign.

The lively new town of Gwin is knocking loudly at the door of the Marquette county baseball league.

Our friend Doyle, over Menominee way, is beginning the campaign of 1912 rather early, we should say.

The question is will 20 per cent of reduction in the price of medium priced automobiles mean that our macadam roads will be ripped into 20 per cent faster, and can they stand it?

Perhaps Senator Cummins wanted to see Colonel Roosevelt to explain that the reports that he had read him out of the ranks of Republican progressives were not authentic.

The Democrats propose to concentrate their attack on Mr. Osborn. But they will find before they go very far that Mr. Osborn is not the sort of man who lies down under attack.

Though motor cars frequently wing pedestrians and though many of them meet untimely deaths on grade crossings, walking continues far the safest mode of travel, as it is also the cheapest.

Grand Marais is naturally much excited over the possibility that the only line of railroad connecting it with the outside world will go out of business.
 What town wouldn't be, under the same circumstances?

Governor Davidson has gone to the front in the Dietz war in Sawyer county, bearing a flag of truce. It will be much better to get Dietz under a flag of truce, if that's possible, than to have twenty or thirty deputies shoot him up.

Colin C. Lillie, state dairy and food commissioner, has refused to take the stump for the Republican ticket this fall. Mr. Osborn, in the course of the primary campaign, expressed the opinion that Mr. Lillie is hardly just the man for the position he holds. Possibly the two things are related.

Whether King or Whelan is named secretary of the state central committee, the brunt of the work of the campaign will fall on the shoulders of W.
 F. Knox, of the Soo, as chairman, and he has shown abundant ability to carry it through to a successful conclusion.

Barney Oldfield and his Benz car have been barred from the Grand Prize automobile race on Long Island, Oct. 15, because of his severe criticisms of the faulty policing of the recent Vanderbilt cup race. Like as not the indignant managers of the meet are saving Old-field's life. In any event, he did not go after them a bit too strong. The policing of the course during the Vanderbilt cup race was little short of a crime.

Attorney General Kuhn, who was yesterday nominated for the two year term, has made a most favorable impression in the few months that he has held the office. He is a young man of excellent ability, fine presence and apparently whole-hearted devotion to high ideals of public service. Withal he is vigorous and unafraid. He is a fit successor to the able and conscientious men who have lately served as attorney general of the state, and those who know him have not the remotest doubt that he will make an admirable record.
 Mr. Kuhn recently visited the upper peninsula and made many friends throughout this region.

The Grand Rapids Herald thinks that the direct nominations law should be revamped so as to guard against minority nominations, which, it says, are fraught with peril. It would also be an excellent thing, if it were possible, which is perhaps doubtful, to so modify the law as to keep the Democrats on their own side of the party barrier. At this time a large percentage of them are enrolled as Republicans, expressly for the purpose of taking a hand in the Republican nominations. Then, when the election rolls around, they all vote the Democratic ticket. There is no question that Democrats had the controlling influence in a dozen and one Republican primary contests throughout the state last month. The most serious defect in the law is its failure to keep the Democrats where they belong, as many defeated candidates for Republican nominations are prepared to testify.

A SIGNIFICANT MOVE.

An important event in the automobile world has come to pass this week. It is announced that for next season's delivery a clean $250 will be sliced off the price of the E. M. F. "30," one of the best known of medium priced cars.

Next season $1,000 will carry off an E. M. F. "30," as against $1,250, the price at which it has been held the past two years. This car has been regarded as excellent value. It has been shown to stand up and to be capable of good and dependable service. The scaling of its price a clean 20 per cent is regarded as one of the first steps in a general movement to get the automobile industry down to a narrower basis of profit than it has returned in the past. The price cut made by the interests controlling the E. M. F. company will have to be met by other companies outputting the same class of car, or they will see the E. M. F. factories driven twenty-four hours a day while the demand for their product languishes.

The reduction on the E. M. F. car no doubt indicates that the multitudinous automobile factories, with their astounding capacities, have begun to catch up with demand. The public is no longer falling all over itself to get in orders for cars at any price the manufacturers see fit to ask. The first grand rush to get equipped for tearing around the country in automobiles has passed.
 The pristine glamor of the thing has worn off. The demand of those to whom price is little or no object has been largely taken care of. The time has come when the manufacturers have to open up new fields of expansion by bringing their products within reach of purses of people who have heretofore had to forego any thought of buying cars, as a luxury ticket beyond them.

There need be no fear about the permanence of the automobile industry.
 It has a long and prosperous life before it. Of course there will be a gradual elimination of the unfit. Factories that should never have been started will go to the wall, and the stockholders will salvage what they can from the wrecks, sadder and wiser men. The day of making 200, 300 or more per cent on investments in automobile concerns is doubtless past. The industry will speedily settle down to a condition of only fair commercial returns on the investments made. The public will be tempted to buy cars by prices that will offer the makers no more than reasonable profits. The cream is doubtless off the automobile industry, but the industry itself is here to stay, even if less sensational earnings than the past few years have seen are to rule in the future.

LAUGH OR TWO.

Not to be Fooled.
 Proudly young Tomkins displayed
 the sights of London to his uncle, fresh from the verdant country. They visited St. Paul's and the Embankment and the National gallery and all the places they could get in free; and, finally, as an especial treat, they visited a music hall, where a trombone solo was in progress when they entered.

With rapid attention the old man watched the instrumentalist's facial contortions. At the close the audience applauded thunderously; but the old man sat mute.

"Well," said young Tomkins, "didn't you like it?"

"Very good, verry good, no doubt," nodded the old man; "but we country folk can be taken in so easy as all that; I knew all the time he wasn't a swallowin' of it!"—Answers.

One Way of Killing Them
 He had besought the pharmaceutical chemist to give him something with which he might kill moths, or anything the pharmaceutical chemist had supplied him with camphor balls; but the next day he was back again, holding some of the fragments of the balls within his hand.

"Aye, yez the same young man phwat sold thin things to me yesterday?" he roared.

"I am," replied the pharmaceutical chemist composedly. "What's wrong with them?"

"Phwat's wrong with thin?" repeated the idle purchaser. "The idea ay sellin' thin that'll kill moths, or anything else! See here! I yez can show me the man that can hit a moth wid a single one av them. I'll say nuthin' about the ornaments an' luki-glass me an' the missus broke!"—Answers.

Warning Royalty.
 In many ways England is quite as real a democracy as the United States.
 A story about the young Prince Edward told in the Atlanta Constitution, illustrates well this point. He was sent to school at Osborne. He had just arrived and was wandering about the grounds when he was accosted by another small boy, who had already been a term at Osborne.

"Hello!" said the other boy—who was the son of a captain in the navy. "You're a new boy. What is your name?"

"Edward," the little prince replied.

"Edward what, stupid?" said the other boy. "You must have another name."

"Edward of Wales," said the prince.

"Oh, so you're that chap," was his comment as he walked away. "I hope you'ven't put on too much side."

Mistaken Identity.
 Smifkins was to put it mildly, a boaster, and when he was giving Brown glowing accounts of the fine holiday he had had in Paris, Brown suspected that the veracious Smifkins had been no further than Folkestone. He didn't say so, however.

"And what do you think?" Smifkins rattled on, "as I was strolling along the Rue de Rivoli one afternoon a pal I hadn't seen for years came up and said,
 'Hallo! old chap, is that you?'"

"And was it?" asked Brown.—Ideas

One Better.
 "My uncle used to smoke his pipe and blow smoke rings that would float across the room and ring the door knob."

"My uncle," said the other liar, dreamily, "used to blow some that would ring the door bell!"—Tit-Bits.

"EXERCISE" AND "REST."
 What's the relation between exercise and rest? The question is asked by Luther H. Gulick in the North American Review.

Mr. Gulick answers his query as follows: Work is that at which we must whether we wish it or not. It used to be thought that the prime requisite of rest was the use of facilities other than those involved in the labor of the day, but there is such a thing as fatigue which goes deeper than daily work. We can work so hard as to become exhausted—too exhausted for any kind of work.
 Perhaps this is will fatigue. It is coming to be regarded as fundamentally true that rest from such fatigue demands continuity; that, for example, four periods of fifteen minutes each of rest is not the equivalent of one hour's rest; that a man who goes on a vacation and takes half an hour of his business work every day, is doing the same

FOUND IN ASH HEAP BY PAINESDALE BOY

Old Pocketbook Spurred by Many Has as Its Contents Four Twenty-Dollar Bills.

The First National bank of Houghton has received three of the four twenty-dollar gold certificates which were found in an ash heap opposite the Copper Range depot at Painesdale a few days ago.

The certificates were picked up last Sunday at Painesdale by Wilfred Parsons of that place. They were found in an old purse which had been allowed to remain on an ash heap opposite the depot for several weeks.

The condition of the purse indicates that it must have lain there for several months, probably two years. The certificates so far sent to Houghton are considerably worn, but not enough so that the numbers cannot be deciphered.

A large class has already been started for next week's trip to Houghton and it is expected that between fifteen and twenty-five more prospective citizens will be taken in to the office of the county clerk next Wednesday evening.

PROTEST AGAINST GAS COMPANY

People of the Florida Location, Calumet, Declare Refuse Almost Unbearable.

The residents of the Florida location, in Calumet township, a district which actually is a portion of the village of Laurium, though not incorporated with it, have petitioned the township board for redress against the Gas Company.

The petition, which is signed by seventy-five residents of the location says that the refuse from the gas company's plant, which is located in Florida, is so offensive that many residents will have to move if the nuisance is not abated.

The board was expected yesterday to take up the question of establishing a system of standard signposts for the use of automobile drivers in the township. The matter also was deferred for a week.

The increase is $60 per annum.

BRASS KNUCKLES IN CALUMET.

Chief Trudell Arrests Two Men Carrying Vicious Weapons.

Chief Trudell believes that brass knuckles is becoming a popular weapon in Calumet, though he has as yet found no evidences of its use. He arrested yesterday James Sandretto on a drunk and disorderly charge and found a pair of the knuckles in his possession. They look like a home-made article and are particularly dangerous because the knuckles are decorated with spikes.

Valerio, the Laurium bartender, arrested last week on a charge of holding up and robbing Peter McDonald of Lake Linden at Calumet, also had a pair of the knuckles tucked in his possession.

BUTTE NOT WORRYING.

Bearish Reports of the Future of the Camp Declared Baseless.

In all the discussion of the copper and copper mining situation that finds its way into print in the East, appearing in financial papers and market letters, there is a strained period of pity and sympathy for the Butte district and the Butte mines because of their high cost production and decreasing values, making it therefore impossible to compete with the steam shovel and porphyry producer.

RHEUMATISM PAINFUL & DANGEROUS

Rheumatism is due to a disease condition of the blood cells and corpuscles, brought about by an excess of uric acid in the circulation. It is not only a very painful disease but a extremely dangerous trouble. The uric acid, or uric acid, coats the joints, forming a coating over the muscle and by depositing a cement-like substance in the joints frequently terminates fatally, or leaves its victim a helpless cripple. It is natural to quote right to use liniments, hot applications, etc., to get temporary relief from a painful joint or swollen tendon.

Rheumatism is not a skin disease and such things, when depended on alone make one careless, and the disease gets a firmer hold on the blood. S. S. S. cures the disease because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers.

I go into the circulation, and removes every particle of irritating uric acid, builds up the blood, makes it rich and oily, and it this way prepares it for proper nourishment of all joints, muscles, nerves and bones.

If you have Rheumatism, get the uric acid out of the blood by taking S. S. S., a purely vegetable medicine, and enjoy freedom from its misery. Book of Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

New York, Oct. 6.—The market opened steady today and somewhat higher, prices sold off and traders offered stocks down, but they were well taken and in the afternoon became quite strong. Boston Coppers.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 6.—The activity in coppers continued again today and conditions all around are looking better. The metal prices were higher and the demand for copper good. The producers' report will be issued tomorrow and is expected to be in a very prosperous condition. There are 9,600 members and the risks aggregate $16,000,000. The losses for the year have been so small that the assessment was lowered $2 per $1,000.

LUDINGTON.—The parents of Clara Shappe, the Riverton township girl who has been missing from her home for a week, are convinced that she has eloped to Arizona with a well-to-do farmer who formerly resided in Riverton. The young man has been successful as a contractor in the West and the family of the missing girl feel quite sure that he came back to his old home to claim Clara, with whom he formerly kept company. A telegram to Chicago authorities has asked the officials there to look for the girl and to ascertain if a marriage license has been issued to them.

TRAVERSE CITY.—Mayor E. Wilhelm made official announcement that he requested E. C. W. Ashton, chief of police, to resign. He charges the police with neglect of duty in freeing the city from questionable resorts. At the council meeting Ashton resigned, and the resignation was accepted unanimously. When Wilhelm was elected mayor it was on a platform for a better city, morally.

Through the efforts of the mayor two notorious houses have been closed and the inmates have left town. Mayor Wilhelm says that Ashton has blocked his efforts at a further cleaning up. The two houses closed were ordered to do so when the chief was having his vacation. The mayor says if necessary he will have some men from out of town for the office. He says he will not tolerate any man being swayed from the path of duty by friends or acquaintances. Ashton has been connected with the police force here for many years. He is from a pioneer family.

ALBION.—There will be no more rushing parties or social events in midweek, was the declaration of President Dickie of Albion college at chapel exercises. "Social affairs will have to be given on Friday and Saturday nights only, and possibly only on the latter day, as it may be that we will reserve Friday night for the literary societies," he continued. "One girl came to me recently and asked to be protected from her too numerous and persistent admirers. She is picketed by day and by night by one society and has a date for every night, which makes it impossible for her to see other girls. They entertain her at these gastronomical functions every night in the week. I would advise you to go easy. There are plenty of fish in the pond to go around. One young man said he thought of going to a school where there were no coeds, as the demand on his time for social functions was more than he could stand. Instead of spending five hours for pleasure each day I would advise that you sleep eight hours out of every twenty-four, take three hours a day for meals, three for outdoor exercise and put two full hours on each lesson. Cut out late luncheon and too much pie, as a disordered stomach will not put you at your best mentally and physically."

KALAMAZOO.—Edward Nadeau, the Detroit operator, who assaulted C. D. McElheney, editor of the Evening Telegraph last week, was fined $100 in municipal court and was fined $10. Every newspaper man in Kalamazoo, except employees of the Evening Telegraph, donated toward the payment of the fine. New York Cotton Market. New York, Oct. 6.—Various causes conspired to lift the price of cotton this morning. The weather was unfavorable in the Mississippi valley. There were heavy damaging rains that were leading to an early start in the fall of the maturity of a late crop that will scarcely be able to escape damage from frosts. The outlook in Manchester was reported settled and the laborers are to return to work next Monday, which will have its effect in stimulating a demand for spot cotton, as the mills are being run on a narrow margin on available supplies. The technical position of the market, as well as the statistical position, is strong. All the cotton that is wanted sold recently to secure profits is being purchased when these opportunities are afforded.

MUSKOGEE.—In a race with death across the country, Miss Emma Thompson of this city arrived in San Francisco too late to see her sweetheart, George Fuller, alive. Fuller was a line-man, who formerly resided in this city, where he was betrothed to Miss Thompson. A few days ago she received intelligence that he was dangerously ill and started for the coast at once. Relatives later received word that he had died and that his fiancée had not reached San Francisco. It had been planned by the young couple that Miss Thompson should go to California in a few weeks, when they were to be married.

LANSING.—State Treasurer Sleeper has received $100,000 from the Federal surety company of Indianapolis, Ind., as part payment of the amount due the state as a result of the failure of the Chasler state bank at Clesema. The bonding company still owes the state $22,000. Since the first of the year it has paid $35,000. The total amount still due from the various bonding companies on the bond of the defunct bank amounts to $167,907.24.

BATTLE CREEK.—Republican members of the city council are incensed at the action of Mayor Bailey who refuses to sign the pay check of Alderman Thomas Elinski, and they say the city executive may be cited for contempt of court. Recently the circuit court issued an order directing Mayor Bailey not to interfere with Alderman Elinski in the discharge of his duties as alderman. The mayor obeyed the court's mandate, and Mr. Elinski has been allowed to retain his seat in the council. However, the mayor says he will not be given any salary for his work. The trouble has grown out of Mayor Bailey's vetoing the election of Alderman Elinski. The case was carried to the circuit court and the restraining order followed.

LANSING.—Clause Hamilton, secretary of the Emmett Lumber company, one of the largest lumber firms operating in northern Michigan, is Elinski in the state land office has a keener eye for trespassers on state lands for he has assessed $865 by the state officials. Hamilton is a friend of Land Commissioner Huntley Russell, of Grand Rapids, and at a recent social event in that city took occasion to take the commissioner's attention to the fact that considerable trespassing was being done in the upper country and in his opinion some parties were trespassing on the Emmett Lumber property and state lands. The commissioner investigated and found that Hamilton was appointed to look into the matter. When his report was filed at Lansing, it was discovered that instead of some persons being guilty of trespassing on the property of the Emmett Lumber company, employees of that company were found to be cutting timber on state lands adjoining the lands of the company. Mr. Russell said despite the fact that stockholders of the concern were his personal friends the same action should be taken against them as against any other offender and as a result the company has been asked to pay the state $865, that being the value of the timber taken from the state lands. In a letter to the department, Hamilton says that though he thinks the price rather high as fixed by the department, his concern will pay.

Football Team Will Be Strong.—Manager Harry McPherson of the Soo High school football team is enthusiastic in his declaration that the school will this year have the greatest team in its history. Coach Arlington Joseph has the men out working every night and claims to have an abundance of strong and fast material from which to pick his players. The men who just now are being worked out as the regulars are Blair, Feetham, Hughes, Rye, Trautman, Tromblay, O'Donnell, McKinney, Downey, Campbell, Captain Povey, Smart, and Wilson. Manager McPherson has written to Newberry for games and also to the Marquette, Escanaba and Marquette schools.

He has served in the navy the past two years, and is now ranked as a third grade electrician. His acrobatic feats were fairly successful; at least 100,000 young men joined. But the idea as enlarged by General Sir Robert Baden-Powell has in less time achieved greater popularity in England; the results have been such that we are justified in adopting his innovations.

BOY SCOUTS MAY BE ORGANIZED HERE

Guild Hall Considering Taking Up Movement Along With Other Nearby Cities.

Falling into line with the copper country, Duluth and other places in all parts of the country, the "Boy Scouts" movement is likely to get a foothold in this city. Officers of the Guild Hall association are now investigating the plans and purposes of the organization, which has grown to important proportions, both in America and England, and camps of which have recently been organized in Duluth and the copper country.

Captain Percy Patterson of Sault Ste. Marie, a member of the Michigan National Guard, who was here during the Gun club shoot, gave his hearty endorsement to the movement and is entitled to some credit for giving the idea of organizing a camp in this city a start. The purpose of the "Boy Scouts" is to train the boys of the country to live in and have a greater appreciation of the great out of doors. The members are organized into small parties, taken to the woods and taught wood lore and how to live in the open.

"I did not imagine that this movement would attain anything like the proportions that it has in England. Liverpool, one of the originators of the movement in England, while in Duluth this week. "That much good can be done through the medium of the Boy Scouts' organizations has been thoroughly demonstrated here and in England. The underlying idea of the movement is to take the boys of the cities from the streets and from unwholesome surroundings out into the pure and invigorating out-of-doors, where, under proper guidance, they cannot but reap benefits. Not only are these benefits physical; the physical good that results is really a minor consideration. Under the scheme of organization that is followed, the boys are taught to submit to discipline; to be considerate of others, and to be self-reliant in any emergency."

Objects of Movement.

The aims and objects of the Boy Scouts are ably stated by Ernest Thompson Seton in the preface of his book, "The Boy Scouts of America," which is in part the work of General Baden-Powell. Mr. Seton says: "The woodcraft and scouting movement which I aimed to foster began to take shape in America some ten years ago. Because the idealized Indian of Hiawatha has always stood for the model of outdoor life, woodcraft and scouting, I called the brotherhood the 'Woodcraft Indians.' In 1904 I went to England to carry on the work there, and knowing General R. S. Baden-Powell as the chief advocate of scouting in the British army, invited him to cooperate with me in making the movement popular. Accordingly, in 1906, he organized his Boy Scout movement, incorporating the principles of the Indians with other ethical features bearing on savings banks, fire drills, etc., as well as giving it partly military organization, and a carefully compiled and fascinating handbook."

All these features that are applicable in America have been adopted. There were eight distinct national movements in this country, but now they have been united under one central national body or council.

"To combat the system that has turned such a large proportion of our robust, manly, self-reliant boyhood into a lot of flat-chested cigarette smokers, with shaky nerves and doubtful vitality, I began the woodcraft movement in America," says Mr. Seton. "Without saying as much, it aimed to counteract the evils attendant on arena baseball, football and racing, by substituting the better, cleaner, saner pursuits of woodcraft and scouting. Its methods were fairly successful; at least 100,000 young men joined. But the idea as enlarged by General Sir Robert Baden-Powell has in less time achieved greater popularity in England; the results have been such that we are justified in adopting his innovations."

Guild Hall Notes

The Guild Hall football team lined up against the High school eleven for twenty minutes' scrimmage last evening. Both sides tried new plays and gave little attention to line blocking. The Guild Hall men had a little better of their opponents. This evening the entire Guild Hall squad will report on Longyear field for signal practice and a short scrimmage. The game Saturday between the Guild Hall and the Ishpeming Y. M. C. A. will be played on Longyear field. It has been decided to charge no admission but to collect some amount from every body on the field. Nothing less than fifteen cents will be received from adults, while children under fifteen will pay at least five cents. Those who pay will be given a tag. No one will be allowed to watch the game who is not wearing a tag.

The indoor baseball game between teams A and B last night proved to be a good opening contest. Team A defeated team B, 10 to 7. Team B led until the seventh inning, when team A got at the team B pitcher and scored six runs. Another match game between the same sides will be played Saturday night. Both teams are ready to receive challenges from any team made up of Marquette men for games to be played before next Friday night.

The Young Women's club will have the exclusive use of the gymnasium and swimming pool tonight, after 7 o'clock. The rest of the building will be open to the Young Men's club.

USERS OF TOBACCO GET LESS FOR MONEY

Dealers Now Pay Same Price for Fourteen Ounces That Was Paid for a Pound.

Local users of tobacco, both chewing and smoking, have found that there is but fourteen ounces in a package of the weed for a given price, instead of the accepted sixteen ounces as formerly. This change in policy went into effect July 1, and a number of local dealers who had stocked up in tobacco are able to sell sixteen ounces to the pound without a loss in profit, but when it comes to a question of laying in a new supply, they will be obliged to sell fourteen-ounce packages at the same price that they had received for sixteen-ounce packages in order to realize the same profit.

In speaking of the situation that confronts tobacco users, a local dealer had the following to say: "Since July 1, dealers have found that if they must buy tobacco by the gross, instead of by the pound or hundredweight as formerly, which makes it incumbent upon the ultimate consumer to pay for this change in policy, as he is receiving less than he is paying for, to the extent of two ounces per package. Of course, some dealers in this city had laid in a large supply of tobacco before July 1, which makes it possible for them to sell sixteen ounces to the pound as usual. In buying tobacco by the gross we are compelled to pay more for a supply than previously, but in order to realize the same amount of profit on the various qualities comprising this commodity we find that it is necessary to charge the same price that existed before the change went into effect, which means that there is a deduction of two ounces from each pound package."

If you ever had a notion of going on the stage don't fail to see Edison's Great Feature Picture entitled

"The Footlights Or The Farm"

Shown at the

ROYAL THEATRE

2 DAYS, COMMENCING FRIDAY Oct. 7

"The Footlights or the Farm" is a quiet story which tells simply, but graphically, how a country girl developed a longing for a life on the stage. But the picture goes on and tells with equal strength how she was cured of this infatuation and explains why she returned to the farm and her old sweetheart, satisfied to rest there. A view of dramatic life is given that will probably be new to many. It isn't so alluring after the glamor of the footlights is removed and the disagreeable features of the work are unsparingly revealed.

TAXPAYERS ARE TO HAVE A HEARING

Parties Objecting to Opening of Thompson's Alley Ask to Appear Before Council.

At the September meeting of the council J. R. Thompson sent in a communication, asking that the city take steps to vacate and abolish the alley situated at the rear of lots abutting on his property in The Cleveland Iron Mining company's third addition. The committee on streets and alleys, to which the petition was referred, presented its report at Thursday night's meeting, advising that so far as it could ascertain no objections have been raised to the opening of the alley referred to. It, however, recommended that the council meet on the evening of Wednesday, Nov. 9, to hear objections, if any are raised. This recommendation was approved.

The petition of E. A. Johnson, Arvid Braastad, James A. Blackney and the Consolidated Fuel & Lumber company, asking that the alley at the rear of their properties on Third street be opened, was granted, upon recommendation of the committee on streets and alleys.

Victor Mastama sent a bill to the council for $23.95 for damages received by himself and property, caused by the running away of the city fire department's team on Sept. 15. The petition was referred to the committee on claims and accounts.

Alderman Siney, chairman of the committee on finance and taxation, reported that the balance in the treasury at the close of the month was $27,973.35. Alderman Olson, chairman of the committee on claims and accounts, presented the bills and payrolls for September. The bills total $4,750.00 and the payrolls $8,007.29, making a combined total of $12,757.29. The amounts payable from the different funds were as follows: Water, $414.71; sewer $45.77; highway, $2,121.83; police, $121.72; cemetery, $108; fire, $219.00; general, $401.01; library, $410.29 and street lighting, $808.

The official payrolls totalled $1,603.59; highway payroll, $3,513.66; sewer, $54.65; water, $883.40. The council adjourned until this evening to pass upon the amounts to be charged property owners for curbs recently put in on Ely street, from First to Oak street, and on Washburn from Third to Seventh streets.

WILLIAM ANDREWS HONORED.

Ishpeming Man Elected to Third Office in Supreme Lodge, Sons of St. George.

William Andrews, judge of the Ishpeming municipal court, who is this week attending the triennial convention of the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of St. George, yesterday elected to the office of supreme messenger, the third highest office in the supreme body. The announcement of Mr. Andrews' election, which was conveyed in a telegram, was a surprise to his relatives and friends here, as he was not a candidate for the office. Captain John Treblecock, who was one of five candidates for the office of inside sentinel of the supreme body, was also elected. The other candidates represented New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

Mr. Andrews served the supreme body as chairman of the board of trustees for twelve years, until he gave up the office a few years ago. He was one of the two delegates representing Michigan when the supreme body was organized in Detroit in 1889. The late Samuel Redfern of Negaunee was the other Michigan delegate. Mr. Andrews has been prominent in the affairs of the society ever since he joined it and has held various offices of trust in the grand lodge.

The first lodge of the Sons of St. George was organized at Saranton, Pa., where the supreme body is meeting this week, in 1873. The supreme lodge has met but twice in Michigan, once in Detroit, and three years ago in Calumet. There are now about 30,000 members in the jurisdiction, which includes a number of states.

WHAT COLLEGE GIRLS READ.

Four hundred and fifty Wellesley girls having been interviewed as to their reading. It was found that only thirty-six care for fiction, Maeterlinck and Shaw. The same number have read a biography within the last few months. One hundred and twenty-six read poetry for pleasure. Tennyson is the favorite poet. Meredith the favorite novelist. Kipling was the favorite short story writer and Stevenson the favorite essayist. One hundred and sixty-five habitually read a daily paper, skimming the headlines, skipping the editorials and dwelling with greater interest upon the society columns. Magazines are read for their fiction. The demand for short stories being almost universal. One-fifth of the number still read Scott, Thackeray, Dickens and Jane Austen. All of which goes to show, says Collier's Weekly, whether or not a preachment be dictated that the college girl is very much of a girl after all.

FOOTBALL TOMORROW.

Ishpeming and Marquette School Teams Will Meet at Union Park.

The first football game of the season for the Ishpeming high school team will be played tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Union park gridiron, with Marquette as the opposing eleven. The Marquette team has had the advantage of having played one game, it having met the Negaunee team last Saturday at Marquette, giving a good account of itself. The Ishpeming boys have been practicing diligently ever since the schools opened early last month and the team is in good condition.

The line-up tomorrow will be as follows: Childs or H. Johnson, center; Johnson or Collek, right guard; Peters or Bushaw, right tackle; Roberts or Shaddick, right end; Hayden or Shea, left guard; Ed Johnson or Mountjoy, left tackle; Moody or Eger, left end; Ed Nolan, quarterback; Henriksen, full back; Sivula, right half back; Steier or Eger, left half back.

The admission will be twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen for children.

MANY UNIQUE CHARACTERS.

Twenty-six Persons, Including Children, in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch."

In the full cast of twenty-six characters in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" to be seen at the Ishpeming theatre this evening, almost every role is representative of an odd and unique type. Even "Cubby," the "fit horse" whom Mrs. Wiggs rescues when his "lights are riz," and who is one of the comical personages of the play itself, comes into this category, for the old nag which plays the part was first found after a long search and is one of the sorriest and most broken-down specimens of horse flesh that ever showed his ribs.

The juvenile element in the story of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Lovely Mary" is decidedly happy in its humorous appeal, and plays an equally delightful part in the play which has been based upon those tales. All the little Wiggses with their frizzled locks, Asia, Australia, Europeana—the "Jog-graph" children—Chris with his wooden legs, the peewee which led to the benefit party—Pete, and the other sons and daughters of the "patch" make the scenes bright and merry with the sunshine and play of childhood.

NEW FIRE HALL IS RECOMMENDED

Council Committee Says There Is No Economy in Improving the Old Structures.

The council committee on buildings, grounds and insurance, which a few days ago inspected the headquarters of the fire department on First street, recommended to the aldermen Wednesday evening that a new site be procured and a larger and better headquarters be built thereon as soon as possible. The committee found that the present buildings are not only too small for the requirements of the department, but that it would be a waste of money to repair them, so badly are they run down.

The question as to whether the committee's recommendation should be adopted and immediate steps be taken for the procuring of a site for a new building was discussed at some length by the members of the council, and it was finally decided to defer action until a future meeting. Meanwhile the members of the committee will try to ascertain the sentiment among taxpayers relative to the matter.

GWINN.

GWINN WANTS A PLACE.

Baseball Fans Would Like to Enter Marquette County League.

Since the Gwinn baseball team made such a creditable showing against the "upper peninsula champions" a few weeks ago, the fans have decided to make a bid for a berth in the Marquette, Ishpeming and Negaunee league next season. Gwinn can support a team as well as, or even better than, Crystal Falls or Munising, and outside teams coming here now only one-third the expense that was incurred in going to Crystal Falls. As far as the division of the receipts goes, Gwinn will not ask to play at 60-40, as did the fourth team last year. Gwinn has a population of about 5,000 to draw from counting the little villages and hamlets near here. Visiting players would have the advantage of the Gwinn club for a bath and a plunge after the games. Dr. H. B. McCrory, who played on the Negaunee team the past two years, has expressed the opinion that if Gwinn is given a chance to play in the league, the team will at least win as many games as it will lose.

A number of new players have been signed for next season and one of the fastest teams that has ever been assembled in the upper peninsula will appear in Gwinn uniform.

Enriching Our Children

The average citizen would deny vehemently that he wastes enough in 20 or 30 years to make a family quite independent; but it is nevertheless true. The principle of small savings with the ultimate almost amazing results has been lost sight of in these days of quick fortune schemes. Its the 5 and 10 cent pieces which slip away each day that make a big hole in your income at the end of each month. A bank account will make it easy to stop the little expensive habits.

SLAYS MAN WHO DESPOILED HOME

J. H. Green, Rich Battle Creek, Shoots T. D. Skidmore at Los Angeles.

Battle Creek, Oct. 6.—The curtain dropped on a domestic tragedy of thirty years' duration in Los Angeles, Cal., when J. Howard Green, University of Michigan graduate, prominent member of the Alhambra, Amateur Musical club, Monday club, and president of the executive board of the Independent Congregational church of this city, shot and killed Thomas D. Skidmore, a graduate of the Adventist college of this city, who became acquainted with Mr. Green's wife, before her marriage, and ever since forced his attentions on the woman.

Twenty-five years ago, weary by the persistence of his former rival, and thinking that perhaps his wife reciprocated Skidmore's affection, Mr. Green attempted to take his own life, but was prevented. Immediately afterward Skidmore left this city, and went to Texas. The married and for several years nothing was heard of him. Then he paid an unexpected visit to Battle Creek and spent several weeks at the Green home the guest of Mrs. Green, it is said. Mr. Green's wish to avoid trouble, say his friends, led him to allow Skidmore to remain a guest at his home, and for many years Skidmore paid repeated visits to the home.

When the members of the Knights of Pythias, who composed the famous Battle Creek team, journeyed to Los Angeles last year, Mr. Green accompanied the party as a member of the team. There he met Leslie Clawson, former city attorney of Battle Creek, and while Mr. Green was in the western city the two made an agreement of partnership.

Four months ago Mr. and Mrs. Green left this city for Los Angeles, where Mr. Green entered the law business with Mr. Clawson. The couple's daughter, Hazel, a prominent member of local society, stayed here, as she had taken up a position in the local high school as teacher of domestic science.

Skidmore Followed Them.
According to word received here, Skidmore, the father of eight children, whose wife is living, followed the couple to Los Angeles from his home in Texas.

On the night of the tragedy Mr. Green returned from his office and found Skidmore visiting his wife. He entered his room, returned with a revolver and fired two shots, both bullets entering Skidmore's body.

The police were summoned by Mr. Green, and Skidmore, who remained conscious until his death, a few hours later, made a statement, in which he declared that Mr. Green was justified in shooting him. After his death, the police found a note in a pocket of Skidmore's coat, in which Mrs. Green declared that he "must pass out of her life."

Word came to Miss Hazel while she was in the midst of gaieties of a week-end party at Gull Lake, near this city, and she is prostrated. The news came in a telegram sent by Mr. Clawson, and conveyed the injunction to impart absolutely no information on the subject of the trouble that has pervaded the Green household for the past 30 years.

Former Friends Don't Blame Him.
Mr. Green still has a fine home, a beautiful mansion on one of the finest residence streets of the city, and also maintains a summer villa at Lake Gogewic, near this city. He has been one of the most influential men of Battle Creek, and when the news of his act reached the city none of his friends condemned him, for all have been cognizant of the situation that has existed in his home for many years.

FACE FAMINE IN LABRADOR.
Result of the Failure of the Shore Fisheries During the Summer Season.

St. John's, N. F., Oct. 6.—Conditions approaching starvation exist in the north of the Labrador coast as a prospect for the coming winter, owing to the almost complete failure of the shore fisheries. The catch for the season which is soon to close will be the poorest in the annals of the organized Labrador fisheries. As an indication of the extent of the falling off in the proportions of the catch of this year over previous years, it is estimated that the fish ex-

ENORMOUS YIELDS OF EGYPTIAN WHEAT

Remarkable Results Obtained in Rio Grande Valley.

Production Is 280 Bushels to the Acre—Irrigation Has Quadrupled the Size of Crop.

Austin, Texas, Oct. 6.—Reports of enormous yields of Egyptian wheat this year in the lower valley of the Rio Grande and that the production per acre will average about 280 bushels are fully corroborated by the state department of agriculture. Professor Frederick W. Mally, agricultural expert of that department, has made a personal investigation of the Egyptian wheat crop in the lower valley of the Rio Grande, and it is his estimate that the average yield of the grain per acre will be 280 bushels, or probably more.

This year's crop is obtained from three cuttings of grain. The first two crops upon the same land and from the same stubble have already been harvested and the third crop will be ready for cutting the latter part of November. Each of the first two cuttings yielded an average of approximately 100 bushels per acre. It is calculated that the third crop will yield at least eighty bushels to the acre. Some of the growers say that they see no reason why the yield from the third harvest should not be as large as that of each of the other two.

This grain bears very little resemblance to the ordinary wheat that is extensively grown in other parts of this country. Egyptian wheat resembles kafir corn, milo maize and sorghum cane in the general appearance of its head. The grain is small and light in color. It is said to contain more nutriment than the other grains which it resembles. The stalk of the Egyptian wheat is small and delicate. Its foliage is specially suited for fodder. In Russia the grain is ground into flour and is the staple bread product of the poorer classes.

Egyptian wheat has proved a profitable crop in many sections of the semi-arid regions of the Southwest for several years, but it was not until this year that the experiment was tried of raising the grain in the lower valley of the Rio Grande in Texas by means of irrigation. Several fields of the wheat, each embracing several acres, were planted in the vicinity of Mercedes, Donna, and Lyford, and also near Kingsville, in the upper Gulf coast region. The seed was planted in March, and the first cutting was done in late May and the first of June. The stubble was given good irrigation, and a new growth of the wheat immediately sprang up. This crop was equal to the first one. It was harvested the latter part of August and the early part of September. The same stubble is producing another crop and promises to give an abundant yield of grain. The third cutting will be over early in December and the new growth from the stubble will afford an excellent winter pasture for livestock.

Another remarkable feature of this crop is the large yield of forage which each cutting produces. This year two to three tons of fodder were obtained off of each acre after the heavy loads of grain had been cut from the stalks. This yield of from two to three tons was from an acre of wheat which yielded six to nine tons of fodder per acre for the nine months. "The slender stalks and foliage of this wheat rank superior to kafir corn, milo, maize or sorghum," Professor Mally says. "The forage is an ideal feed for livestock. The grain is especially adapted for fattening hogs, and that one bushel is almost equal in nutritive qualities to one bushel of corn. The large crop and the fact that the grain has wonderful fattening properties for hogs and other livestock makes the hog-raising proposition unusually attractive for that region and opens up a new avenue of greater profit to the stock farmer. Cholera and other hog diseases are unknown in the valley territory.

There will be a great increase of Egyptian wheat acreage next year. Plans are already on foot to thresh and market the grain on an extensive scale. It commands a good price as a food for livestock. It is also in demand as a poultry food. It is believed that the large market for the grain can be quickly established in Mexico where it can be made to take the place, to a large extent, of corn which is now the principal food product of the poorer class of Mexicans. Experiments are being made in the manufacture of flour from the grain with the view of placing the product on the market in Mexico. While the bread that is made from this flour is coarse, it is richer in nutriment than bolted wheat flour, it is claimed. Some of the Mexicans of the lower Rio Grande valley are using the wheat in place of corn in making coarse bread and cakes.

The cost of growing a crop of Egyptian corn is comparatively small. After the land has been prepared in March it was the practice of some of the farmers this year to give the ground a thorough irrigation just prior to planting the seeds. Other growers did not put the water upon the land until after the seed had been planted. It is considered practically certain that the stubble will live through the mild winter season in the valley, as frosts are seldom felt there, and that it probably would produce an abundant yield the second year without replanting.

The growing of Egyptian wheat in other parts of Texas is urged by Professor Mally. He says that although it is essentially a dry land crop yielding fifty to sixty bushels per acre per annum when grown by dry land farming methods, it produces a much larger yield when it is grown by means of irrigation.

MR. OSBORN'S MOTHER IN HER 83D YEAR

Only Ambition To See Her Son Michigan's Executive.

Is Now Recovering From Operation On Her Eye—Has Rugged Constitution.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 6.—An old resident and one of the most widely known women of this city is Mrs. Margaret A. Osborn, mother of Chase S. Osborn, candidate on the Republican ticket for governor of Michigan. Mrs. Osborn is in her eighty-third year and until a month ago enjoyed excellent health for a woman of her years. At that time, however, one of her eyes became affected, the ailment becoming aggravated until it was necessary to remove the eye-ball. Mrs. Osborn is recovering from her ailment and expects soon to be able to see about.

For many years Mrs. Osborn was one of the leading women physicians of South Bend. Both she and her husband, George A. Osborn, were identified with the medical profession and cultivated a wide acquaintance in this section of the country. Mr. Osborn was active in his profession until he died, six years ago, at the age of 81.

Many old patients of Mrs. Osborn continue to call at her residence for medical advice, although she has not practiced actively for several years. Throughout her life she has possessed a rugged constitution which was of material assistance in bringing her through the recent delicate operation she sustained. Mr. Osborn was similarly rugged, and until a short time previous to his death was hale and hearty. He died from the effects of a wound on his head which he received when a young man, after warding off its effect until old age.

Mrs. Osborn was born in Circleville, Ohio, April 29, 1827, and moved to Indiana in 1848. She took up her residence in South Bend 25 years ago. She is the mother of eight children—Chase S. Osborn, William D. and Stephen P. Osborn and Mrs. Georgiana Brown, South Bend; Eugene B. Osborn, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. D. N. Healy, Lafayette, Ind.; Horace E. Osborn, Jackson, Mich.; and Charles R. Osborn, Jackson, Mich., proprietor of the Jackson hotel.

Mrs. Osborn was married December 24, 1846, her maiden name being Miss Margaret Fannon. Mr. Osborn was born a pioneer settler in Ohio, and during the Civil war Mr. Osborn was actively identified with the underground railway. He was an abolitionist of the old school.

Mrs. Osborn has taken great pride in the achievements of her son, and one of her special delights is to hear him speak. Before she became ill she went to Jackson and to Niles, Mich., to hear her son deliver addresses.

When 7 years old Mrs. Osborn was bound out to a family in southern Ohio following the death of both her parents. She attended the public schools and was graduated from the Ladies' Commercial college, Xenia, O. She began the study of medicine after her marriage under the preceptorship of her husband. She practiced during the Civil war and later attended the Indiana Medical college.

Mrs. Osborn has lived to see three generations enter life. Surrounded by members of her family and several grandchildren, she lives a quiet life in South Bend, her one ambition to live to see her son honored by the state of Michigan in his election to the state's highest office.

EXPLORER'S MAGIC.
Tells How Henry Savage Lander Frightened Tibetans.

In "An Explorer's Adventures in Tibet" Henry Savage Lander tells how he had the pleasure of frightening his cruel Tibetan captors by its success is almost unbelievable.

The Lamas had got hold of his bath sponge which was dry and pressed to great thickness by a heavy weight which had rested upon it. Throwing it from them, it fell in a little pool of water. "I addressed the sponge in English and with any words that came into my head, pretending to utter incantations."

"The attention of the Lamas and soldiers was quickly drawn to this unusual behavior on my part. They could not conceal their terror when, as I spoke louder and louder to the sponge, it gradually swelled to its normal size. The Tibetans, who at first could scarcely believe their eyes, became panic-stricken. There was a general stampede."

Every one is familiar with the use that Columbus made of an eclipse on a similar occasion, but "An Explorer's Adventures in Tibet" undoubtedly reveals the first miracle with a bath sponge.

MR. OSBORN'S MOTHER IN HER 83D YEAR

Only Ambition To See Her Son Michigan's Executive.

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 6.—An old resident and one of the most widely known women of this city is Mrs. Margaret A. Osborn, mother of Chase S. Osborn, candidate on the Republican ticket for governor of Michigan. Mrs. Osborn is in her eighty-third year and until a month ago enjoyed excellent health for a woman of her years. At that time, however, one of her eyes became affected, the ailment becoming aggravated until it was necessary to remove the eye-ball. Mrs. Osborn is recovering from her ailment and expects soon to be able to see about.

For many years Mrs. Osborn was one of the leading women physicians of South Bend. Both she and her husband, George A. Osborn, were identified with the medical profession and cultivated a wide acquaintance in this section of the country. Mr. Osborn was active in his profession until he died, six years ago, at the age of 81.

Many old patients of Mrs. Osborn continue to call at her residence for medical advice, although she has not practiced actively for several years. Throughout her life she has possessed a rugged constitution which was of material assistance in bringing her through the recent delicate operation she sustained. Mr. Osborn was similarly rugged, and until a short time previous to his death was hale and hearty. He died from the effects of a wound on his head which he received when a young man, after warding off its effect until old age.

Mrs. Osborn was born in Circleville, Ohio, April 29, 1827, and moved to Indiana in 1848. She took up her residence in South Bend 25 years ago. She is the mother of eight children—Chase S. Osborn, William D. and Stephen P. Osborn and Mrs. Georgiana Brown, South Bend; Eugene B. Osborn, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. D. N. Healy, Lafayette, Ind.; Horace E. Osborn, Jackson, Mich.; and Charles R. Osborn, Jackson, Mich., proprietor of the Jackson hotel.

Mrs. Osborn was married December 24, 1846, her maiden name being Miss Margaret Fannon. Mr. Osborn was born a pioneer settler in Ohio, and during the Civil war Mr. Osborn was actively identified with the underground railway. He was an abolitionist of the old school.

A BACHELOR WREN.

His Host Marveled at Eglessness of His Nest.

Some time since I placed a tit's nest in an acacia tree about 4 yards from my kitchen window. To my great pleasure, in April last, I saw a wren building in it. I saw a wren, as, although I kept a careful watch, I never saw two birds.

The bird seen completed the nest in two days, displaying very little shyness, and drawing all the material from within a distance of a couple of yards. From that time until about May 20 I saw the bird at intervals entering or leaving the box, occasionally with something in its beak. The intervals became longer, and before the end of May it had disappeared entirely.

Last Sunday thinking the nest was certainly deserted, I removed it. It was a perfectly finished nest. There were no eggs. The next day, to my dismay, the wren appeared, entered the box, remained some time, then emerged, clung to the entrance hole, and gave vent to a loud burst of song, whether of distress or surprise it is impossible to say. I am so disappointed that my first attempt with a bird box should have ended so disastrously, and should be very grateful if you could explain through the Queen why the usual hatching process did not take place and why the bird deserted. I was most careful in my observations not to go near the tree, or allow any one to do so, writes Puzled to the London Queen, which answers: "The facts stated show that the owner of the nest was a cock bird, otherwise there would have been eggs laid and no song heard. It is well known that cock wrens are in the habit of making nests for their own use, and sometimes several will occupy the same nest in winter. Some interesting notes on this subject have been quite recently published."

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble presses upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; heavy, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

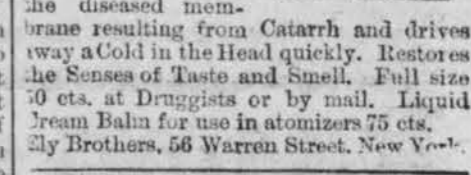

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root.

Negaunee Man Says Farmer is Trying to Get Easy Money.

Don D. Smith, who was arrested at Escanaba charged with having forced Olaf Hansen, a Hyde farmer, into the ditch, yesterday said that he would fight the case. He has engaged Attorney Jennings, of Escanaba, and the trial will take place next Monday. Hansen will attempt to secure $23 damages. Mr. Smith contends that he should not be held responsible, as he had as much right to the road as the farmer. He said that he stopped the car when he approached the rig and did not start it up again until Mrs. Hansen, who was with her husband, asked him to do so. Mr. Smith left Negaunee Saturday for Escanaba in his Mitchell touring car. He sells the Mitchell in Marquette and Delta counties, but had not before driven his car to the Sandy city. He made the trip over the Iron Mountain route, and went from there through Norway, Hermansville and Waucedah. The distance from Negaunee to Escanaba over the route traveled is 32 miles. He left here at 9:10 o'clock in the morning and he reached Escanaba at 4 in the afternoon. The road is in very good condition with the exception of the four miles of bush road between Voegtlin's mill and Welch Lake. He had planned to return by way of Trenary, but it was raining quite hard Tuesday when he left Escanaba, and people who had been over the road advised him not to tackle it.

CITY WILL RAISE NEARLY $100,000

Appropriations Are $57,086.75 for General, and $40,000 for School Purposes.

The council last evening adopted the recommendations of the finance committee on appropriations for the several funds for the ensuing year. The sum to be spread upon the tax roll, including $40,000 to be raised for school purposes, is $97,086.75. The valuation of all taxable property on the roll is $6,231,863.

The appropriations do not vary a great deal from those of last year, with the exception of the city fund, to which a half mill has been added because of the change to be introduced in the handling of the cemetery. The council will, at some future meeting, create a cemetery fund, to which the extra appropriation will go. The special tax fund, which takes care of all outstanding bonds, interest, etc., has also been increased.

The appropriations for the several funds are as follows:
City tax (2 mills) $12,463.72
Street and Highway (2 1/2 mills) 15,579.65
Fire department (1 1/2 mills) 9,347.80
Special fund (2 mills) 12,463.72
One mill tax 6,231.86
School tax 40,000.00
Library 1,000.00

It will be necessary to redeem $5,000 of bonds during the year. This amount, together with the interest, $450, will come from the special fund. The bonds were issued for the construction of the trunk sewer Jan. 1, 1893, in the sum of $10,000. The second payment of $5,000 will be made in 1912. Bonds of $4,000 will be due June 1, 1913. They were issued Jan. 15, 1893, for general city purposes. On Sept. 1 of the following year, 1914, $15,000 in bonds, issued Sept. 1, 1904, on account of the electric lighting plant, will be due. No more bonds will then be due until 1918, when $10,000 of the second series issued on account of the water works system will be payable. These bear interest of 4 1/2 per cent. All the other bonds outstanding bear interest at 5 per cent. The amount the city pays each year in interest on account of the outstanding bonds is now $3,150. The total bonded indebtedness is $81,000. The last of the bonds will not be wiped out until 1926, when the final payment will be made.

on the electric light bonds. The $15,000 in bonds issued last year on account of the new fire hall will be paid in five installments, each of $3,000, commencing with May 1, 1918, and ending May 1, 1922. The bonds outstanding against the school properties will be taken care of by the school district.

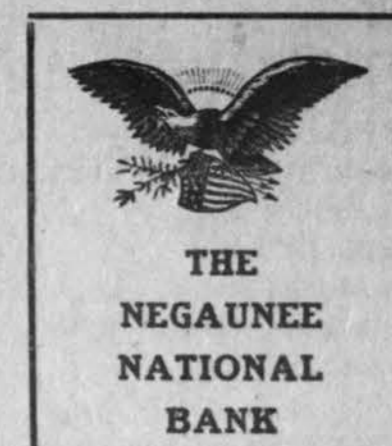

MEETING LARGELY ATTENDED.
Negaunee Business Man Presented Paper at United Drug Co.'s Convention.

J. E. O'Donoghue arrived home yesterday morning from Boston and other eastern points, after an absence of ten days. In Boston he attended the eighth annual convention of the United Drug company, which was declared by Boston papers to be one of the greatest conventions ever held in the United States. Leading druggists from every part of the North American continent were present. More than 1,800 stockholders and some 600 ladies, members of their families, attended the meetings.

Mr. O'Donoghue was one of ten of the 3,500 stockholders of the company who was invited to present a paper at the convention. Mr. O'Donoghue spoke on "Cherry Juice Cough Syrup." When he announced that he had placed an order for 3,500 bottles of this remedy for the coming season, many of the druggists present nearly fell off their chairs, and he was interrupted from various parts of the convention hall by dealers who wanted to know what he intended to do with that great quantity of cough syrup. Mr. O'Donoghue said that he had planned a series of advertisements for the newspapers that he felt sure would bring him great results and that he expected to dispose of every bottle of the remedy before the winter season is over. He was then asked to explain his plans for his advertising campaign, which he did.

According to one of the Boston papers, which devoted considerable space to Mr. O'Donoghue's talk, he created a most favorable impression, arousing special interest in the Cherry Juice Cough Syrup. Mr. O'Donoghue is one of the forty original stockholders in the western territory of the United Drug company. When he took stock in the company eight years ago, it was manufacturing but one remedy. Now it has some 300 different remedies on the market.

The keynote of the business session of the druggists was the advancement of the sale of pure drugs and the prevention of the sale of noxious preparations. The United Drug company is now the largest co-operative organization of its kind in the world. It buys its drugs in such large wholesale quantities as to permit a great saving, in which the

PARISIANS SMOKING PIPES.

Pipes are again in favor in Paris. The high taxes on tobacco have been their triumph. The pipe has invaded the fashionable world, and the reason for this is the increased price of cigars, cigarettes and all high-grade tobacco. The sale of the ordinary smoking tobacco for pipes sold in five-penny packages is daily increasing. The dealers in pipes are naturally delighted. Three times more pipes are being sold than in any previous year. The man who goes to the seaside or the mountain resorts takes a pipe with him. The pipe enters into the preparation for the shooting season, and even the college students are good customers—London Evening Standard.

COUNTY JAIL CRITICISED

State Board of Corrections and Charities Advises County Board of Supervisors to Replace Present Structure With a New and Modernly Equipped Building.

Secretary M. T. Murray Writes That Present Jail Is Well Kept, But Is Poorly Arranged and Not in Keeping With the Other Excellent County Buildings.

That a new jail is needed in Marquette county is the substance of a communication from Marl T. Murray, secretary of the state board of corrections and charities, addressed to the county board of supervisors. One of the members of the state board inspected the county jail several weeks ago and the recommendation made is undoubtedly the result of that inspection. The board's principal criticism of the present jail is that it is out of date and not in keeping with the standard of the rest of the buildings.

This is the second time that the Marquette county jail has come in for criticism from the state board of corrections and charities. Two years ago the county board of supervisors, upon the recommendation of George Clapperton, one of the members of the board, and he, too, expressed the opinion that the county ought to have a new and modern jail building. Mr. Clapperton especially criticised the basement cells, maintaining that it was out of date and not in keeping with the standard of the county to give its prisoners roomy, light and airy quarters above ground.

Sheriff Lehman states that the capacity of the present jail is sufficient to take care of all the county prisoners, except under rare and very exceptional circumstances. There is cell room in the building for about thirty people, and during the winter two years ago the jail was pretty well filled. Last winter, however, there were only about twelve prisoners at the jail on an average, and the past summer the average number has been but six or seven. From these figures it appears that the present jail is large enough to accommodate all the prisoners likely to be incarcerated there at any one time. There is no denying, however, that the present jail is not a modern structure, nor does it, standing beside the beautiful court house, make a favorable comparison, on the other hand, being rather out of harmony with the surroundings.

Secretary Murray's Letter.

Secretary Murray's letter to the county board of supervisors reads as follows: "At a meeting of the state board of corrections and charities held Sept. 22, I was directed to advise you that in the opinion of the members, more adequate and proper jail quarters should be provided in your county. A member of the board inspected the jail a short time ago, and it was found that the jail was constructed many years ago, it is poorly arranged and not adapted to the needs of the county. The jail is greatly in contrast with the other public buildings in your county, most of which are excellent, and it is believed by members of the board that a new jail is the proper solution of the question. Will you kindly give this matter consideration with a view of taking action which may result in an improvement of conditions in your county?"

This communication will probably be presented at the annual meeting of the county board Monday, but it is not expected that any final action will be taken at that time. The state board makes no criticism whatever of the manner in which the jail is managed and kept. In fact, Sheriff Lehman is complimented on his management of the institution. The state board simply takes the position that the present building is out of date in arrangement and equipment.

The annual reports of the sheriff for the past three years show that the number of persons confined in the county jail is decreasing, rather than increasing. The past year there were twenty-three persons in the jail charged with high crimes, as compared with thirty-three in 1908, and in the same two years, the number confined for minor offenses has dropped from 310 to 256. Better industrial conditions are generally thought to have been the cause of the decrease in the number of jail prisoners.

LITTLE DONE IN U. S. COURT.

Grand Jury Returned Nine Indictments and Has Been Discharged.

After having been in session since Monday morning, the United States court grand jury completed their work yesterday and were discharged from further duty by Judge Denison. They reported that nine indictments had been found, but the names of those indicted are withheld until the parties are arrested, bench warrants having already been issued. Though the number of indictments is somewhat larger than usual at one term of court, it is the impression that most, if not all of them, are for minor offenses, principally violations of the government liquor laws.

Practically no work was done in the federal court room yesterday. The jury was impaneled in the case of the United States against J. H. Worden, F. P. Duell and Alex. Person and the remainder of the panel were excused until next Tuesday. The actual hearing of this case was not taken up yesterday, because of the absence of Mr. Duell, one of the defendants, who is expected to arrive in the city not later than this morning. The three defendants are charged with conspiracy to defraud the government out of timber land in Chippewa county. The case was tried last term and resulted in a disagreement of the jury. The trial will take several days.

BREWERY EXPANDING.

Upper Peninsula Brewing Company Erecting Handsome New Building.

A handsome new building is being erected at the Upper Peninsula Brewing company plant, west of the city, the masonry of which will be completed within a few days. The new building is located across the road from the bottling works, and will become the home of a new brand of beer, which the company intends to put on the market, called "Castle Brew." The building is of brown stone construction and the architecture will be in the castle-on-the-Rhine style, the same as the present brewery building. The dimensions of the new building are fifty-four by eighty feet, and, when completed and equipped, will add considerably to the capacity of the plant, as well as being a beautiful architectural structure.

PLAYING POLITICS.

How American Collars Defeated a Member of English Parliament.

A collar and cuff salesman who calls upon local merchants tells an interesting story of how a member of the English parliament lost his seat in the House of Commons through the agency of American-made linen men's collars. Some time ago, one of the largest manufacturers of collars in this country got up a style that was an innovation from the ordinary men's collars, which they believed had distinctive advantages that would assure it a large and ready sale. Accordingly, a very large stock of these collars was manufactured and introductory lots were sent to merchants in all parts of the country. The new style, however, did not strike the fancy of the collar-wearing public and merchants everywhere reported that the new collar was a failure and was not to be sold for it. The result was that the manufacturer had a large stock on their hands for which there was no market in this country.

As last resort the English market was invaded, and at last a dealer was found who agreed to take the entire lot at a greatly reduced price, the figure being much below the cost price of the consignment. The English retailers through this purchase were able to sell this particular kind of collars at less than one-half the price charged for English made. A champion of the doctrine of free trade was the member of parliament from the borough in which these American collars were put on sale. His opponent in the last election used the political advantage made possible by the collar deal, citing it as an example of the ruinous effects of the free trade policy, and won the election by a sizable majority.

THEATRICAL.

"Paid in Full."

"It is truly a great play." This is the estimate placed on Eugene Walter's "Paid in Full" by the Philadelphia North American, an opinion whose worth is multiplied by the fact that it was expressed in an editorial. Since the founding of the North American, only one play besides "Paid in Full" has been held of sufficient importance to merit the distinction of an editorial. Not alone the wide public interest in "Paid in Full" because of its enormous success, but its notable superiority as a play and the graphic accuracy with which it depicts the social conditions it deals with, commended it to the North American for special consideration. "How many men are there," said this newspaper, "who have at one time in their lives fought the man higher up with his hand upon the pay roll? How many women, wives of these men battling for their raise, have consecrated their lives to fighting the good fight along with the men they love and have found their reward in the mere glory of the struggle? A great many, yes, a very great many." "Paid in Full" is this economic theme, caught into final, appealing gripping drama. It is one play out of a thousand." The United Play company will present this play at the Marquette opera house Saturday night.

The Doctor's Question

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Recall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction. Recall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Stafford Drug Co.

CUT IN PRICE OF E. M. F. CAR

Will Sell for $1,000, Reduction of 20 Per Cent—Flanders Cut to $700.

Much interest will be aroused among automobilists, prospective purchasers of cars and among the trade, by the announcement, made in Detroit this week, of a 20 per cent reduction in the price of the popular E. M. F. "20," several of which are owned in Marquette. During 1911 the car will sell at $1,000, as against $1,250 in 1910 and 1909. The Flanders "20," which has sold at $750, will be cut to $700. These reductions are to take effect immediately. It is understood that agents' discounts will continue unchanged. The change in the schedule for these two cars is expected to force similar reductions for other lines of popular cars.

It is said that there has been a decided drop in the cost of materials and that cars of proven durability and workmanship can now be sold for more reasonable prices than in the past. For the last two years the industry has been afflicted with inflated values, brought about by the rush for material, which reached the stage where companies were willing to bid against each other in order to secure preference. The reaction has set in and the market is now back to normal. Pig iron is cheaper and there will be a decided drop in the manufacturing facilities are able to take advantage of existing conditions.

The fact that the E-M-F company is able to top off $250 from the price of its "thirty" car is regarded as little less than sensational and can only be accounted for by the fact that the company manufactures the car complete. There have been only a few minor changes in this car and instead of a new model every year it has become a standard, and is so recognized. Another pertinent fact is that the company is backed by the Morgan interests, and the reduction in the price of cars can be taken to mean that it is seeking to broaden its market.

To Increase Output.

It is assuring to find that instead of retrenching the company is preparing to increase its output. An immense addition to plant No. 1 on Piquette avenue, Detroit, is just being completed and for 1911 the output will be 30,000, the Detroit Free Press says.

Walter E. Flanders, president of the company and the wizard of the automobile industry, is responsible for the new order of things and in making the announcement he very frankly discussed the details of the situation. "Let me say to you," he said, "that we will be able to make the same margin of profit at the reduced cost that we did two years ago. We now have an investment of $7,000,000, every cent of which is paid, and every unlimited financial resource. In addition to this we have a highly developed manufacturing and selling organization and we are able to turn out every day eighty cars of the "thirty" type and 125 Flanders cars, so you see we are not carrying any burden.

"Again, we are very heavy layers of raw materials and enjoy facilities by reason of that which very few companies can touch. It has always been my aim to produce the best value possible for a reasonable price and the fact that there are now 18,000 "thirty" cars in use indicates that we have succeeded pretty well. We make our own drop forged steel, motors, bodies and tops and do our own stamping, so we are absolutely independent.

"Now as to present conditions. The price of materials has dropped. It had to drop because we had been having inflated values. In producing a perfected car in large quantities the manufacturing cost has been reduced and we found that for 1911 we could reduce the price and maintain the standard.

"I have never believed in changing the shape of a door or using different colored paint in order to bring forth a so-called new model. We add any improvement just as soon as its worth is proven, but it goes with the car. Our aim has been to produce a standard car and we have reached a stage where we guarantee our cars for a year. The reduction in price takes immediate effect and today we have not a car on hand. Although we are busy, I doubt if there are any unsold cars in the hands of dealers.

The action of the company will be welcome news to dealers throughout the country, who have been disturbed by the uncertainty of the past few months. It is hinted that the E-M-F company has in process of construction a new passenger car which will sell for less than $2,000 and which will compete with any car regardless of cost, but this is evidently a state secret, as none of the officials would say anything about it.
