SLEUTHS SAY THE SCHEME IS A SWINDLE

On a Warrant Charging the Use of the Mails to Defraud, Agents of Uncle Sam Raid the Extensive Offices of the Redeemable Investment Company at Boston.

Concern Has a Capital of Ten Million Dollars and Rev. Norman Plass Is Its President—Its Manager Is Arrested and Its Head Is Being Hunted.

Boston, Oct. 13.—The federal authorities raided the extensive offices of the Redeemable Investment company here today. They took Manager Charles H. Brooks, the books of the company and several thousand dollars in cash, under a warrant charging the concern with the use of the mails in a scheme to defraud.

The officers are hunting for Rev. Norman Plass, president of the company, who had the alleged endorsement of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, the late Justice David J. Brewer, and Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas.

The Rev. Mr. Plass is a graduate of the Yale Divinity school. He has held pastorates in Detroit, Lincoln, Neb., and other places. In 1897 he was state superintendent of the Rhode Island Anti-Saloon league and later was an agent of the Congregational National Home Missionary society.

Manager Brooks was born at Council Bluffs, Ia., thirty-nine years ago. According to the federal officials, Brooks was arrested at St. Louis six years ago and was tried and convicted in the Rialto investment company, of that city. He was sentenced to eighteen months in jail and subsequently was pardoned by President Roosevelt, on the ground that he had furnished valuable evidence for the government in the trial of Senator Furton. Brooks was released tonight on $3,000 bail.

STOCKS ARE BOUGHT WITH DETERMINATION

New York Market Is Strong and Active and Closes Very Near the Top.

New York, Oct. 13.—The stock market today gave convincing evidence of a growth of the speculative spirit, this being shown in the expanding and broadening of the dealings.

The determination with which stocks were bought and the prices were bid up witnessed the entry of new forces and a spread of the advancing tendency into one of more comprehensive scope.

The source of the new strength was a subject of conjecture, pointing to familiar financiers, names and calculated to give prestige to the operations. The trading element showed suspicion of the creditions by contesting the advance, professing the conviction that the rise was artificial and was designed to resist in the distribution of accumulated profits.

The close of the day, with the close very little under the top figures.

ART DEALERS ENMESHED IN CUSTOMS NET

United States Authorities in New York City Seize the Fifth Avenue Establishment of Duveen Bros. and Take Two Members of the Firm Into Custody.

Smuggling Which Is Charged Has Been Going on for Years, It Is Alleged, and Involves More Than a Million Dollars—"Suspicious" Goods Confiscated.

New York, Oct. 13.—The Fifth avenue establishment of the Duveen brothers, known the world over as dealers in rare art objects and antiques, was seized by federal officers this afternoon. Benjamin R. Duveen, the only member of the firm in town, was arrested, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government out of customs dues.

United States District Attorney Wise said that the frauds would reach more than $1,000,000, and that all four brothers and an uncle, a fellow partner, were implicated. Duveen was released on $50,000 bail.

The Duveen brothers have establishments in New York, London and Paris. It will be recalled that last year the Duveens were reported to have paid half a million dollars for a painting, which at the recent sale of the Yerkes art gallery the same firm paid $129,000 for "Rockets and Bluebirds," by J. M. W. Turner.

New York, Oct. 13.—Henry J. Duveen, an uncle of the four Duveen brothers, and who with them makes up the firm, was arrested on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government out of customs duties on works of art and antique furniture imported by means of false consular invoices, and that the records of the customs office seemed to substantiate the charges. Mr. Wise declined to give out the name of his informant tonight. He said that while the complaint was based on the illegal entry of three vases, the government was in possession of a great many fraudulent importations. He added that the consular invoice gave the value of the vases as $1,107, while the real value was $28,000.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED).

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

MARQUETTE, MICH., OCT. 14.

Now what is Uncle Sam going to do with that $5,000, or more, that he saved because the Marquette collectorship was vacant for a whole year?

The "unfettered Democracy" of Massachusetts seems to be a house divided against itself. Internal dissensions promise to greatly decrease the vigor of the attack it had planned to make against the Republicans.

It is written that Senator Lorimer did not deliver a speech at the Knights of Columbus banquet in Chicago Wednesday evening. He rarely does. He is more accustomed to making money talk for him.

The phalanx of Republican orators about to be turned loose in Michigan, under the leadership of Mr. Osborn and Representative Townsend, are not going to await the attack. They are going to advance upon the enemy, and engage them in their own trenches, if necessary.

A provident thought for the future, one that found expression in the making of substantial investments abroad, assures Manuel, late King of Portugal, a peaceful and luxurious retirement in England, or wherever else he wants to spend his time. Why doesn't he come to America? Who knows what this country might not do for an ex-king?

Even those individuals who are not at all pleased with William Alden Smith's final success in the case of the Marquette collectorship have to give him credit for being a man who "goes through" with his friends. The issue generally proves that this is a much safer policy, in the long run, than the one of trying to placate original opponents at the expense of one's friends.
In any event, it is much the more manly and courageous way, and these are qualities that the public likes.

We sincerely hope that before Candidate Hemans gets through with his campaign he will get a more effective inspection on his list than that of oil inspection, says the Saginaw Courier-Herald. At Lapeer he again referred to the topic, told us: "Why do we still have kerosene inspection? Because it furnishes jobs for twenty-seven inspectors at $1,000 a year each." Perhaps it is not necessary for the state to watch the scrupulously honest Standard Oil monopoly with kerosene, or work low grade stuff off on the people, but Hemans ought to be told that inspection does not cost the taxpayers one penny—indeed, a very substantial sum is turned into the state treasury each year over and above the cost of inspection. The oil company pays every cent of the cost of inspection, just the same as the salt companies, with much less reason, must pay the cost of state inspection of their product.

Alton B. Parker, remembered as the man who made the worst list of running for president of any man nominated by the Democrats of late years, says the colonel plans to entrap the New York voters by a bogus declaration that he will not be a candidate for president in 1912. Alton B. says the colonel will make this announcement because he has found the tide setting against the Republican ticket, but it won't be worthy of serious attention, he asserts. "From my knowledge of and experience with him I have no hesitation in saying that while the assurance will be given by him that he will not be a candidate in 1912, his purpose is to deceive the people of this state in the hope that they will elect his ticket," says Mr. Parker. "That done, he will accept the result as a command by the people of the state that he is its candidate for the presidency. There is one sure way and only one to avoid Mexicanizing this country, and that is to defeat his ticket now." Surely this is strong enough to satisfy even those patients who are in the advanced stages of Rooseveltphobia.

The decidedly "mixed" condition of politics in Michigan this year was indicated at the meeting of the Republican candidates at Detroit this week. Some of them want progressive speakers to assist them with their campaigns, but others call for men with "regular" leanings, to help them secure election. Several of the congressmen have decidedly "regular" records, and if progressive Republican speakers entered their districts the Democrats would at once turn their arguments against the party nominees. On the other hand, there is in other quarters demand for frank progressives. Mr. Osborn and Representative Townsend will make progressive campaigns, though naturally they will, as far as lies in their power, endeavor to avoid placing the "regular" aspirants for the favor of the people under any heavier handicap than they now are. It was doubtless thought for the welfare of these candidates that stood in the way of more frankly progressive declarations in the state platform. Michigan has not entirely "found" itself as yet.

There is no doubt that a large majority of its voters in both parties are progressive, but there are many Republican leaders and many Republican candidates who have not yet managed to get in full step with the new movement. If they survive the clash November 8 they will doubtless get squared away in the ensuing two years. Meanwhile they find that their campaigns demand the best licks they can put into them.

That there is lots of discord beneath the surface in the Republican organization in New York is shown by the resignation from the state committee of William Barnes, Jr., for the reason that Chairman Prentice had failed to appoint him to the executive committee, on which he had served for many years.
Mr. Barnes chose to assume that his omission from the executive committee argued either a belief in his inability to be of service or a lack of belief in his loyalty to the ticket, and felt that he could, with proper regard for his dignity, no longer have any connection with the state committee. Chairman Prentice has disclaimed any idea of reflecting on Barnes' loyalty, but Barnes' step is an irrevocable one. It is predicted that it will prove difficult to secure a new committeeman from Barnes' district. No prominent Republican in Albany county, in which Barnes is still as potent as of yore, is likely to accept the appointment. Schenectady county broke away from Barnes at Saratoga, but it has but a minority of the votes in Barnes' district. Despite his withdrawal from the state committee, Barnes protests that he is still loyal to the Saratoga ticket and intends to vote for it.

The taxation issue has practically dropped out of the pending campaign, as a reading of recent addresses by some of the principal spellbinders on both sides shows. The complete agreement of the Republican and Democratic platform in the demand that the entire taxing system of the state be overhauled by a competent and disinterested commission, and the identity of the sentiments expressed by Mr. Osborn and Mr. Hemans on this subject, carries a guarantee that either man would, if elected, propose, in his message to the legislature, thorough and honest legislation on this subject and that he would find in the legislature a body of men who fully realized the necessity of meeting the situation, frankly and adequately. There is, and can be, no doubt that a Republican legislature, under Mr. Osborn as governor, will deal with this problem in a manner satisfactory to the entire citizenship of the state. There can be no doubt that there is a statewide demand for a revamping of the obviously wrongful conditions now existing. The party that refused to carry out its platform pledges on this subject would insure its own emphatic rejection the first time the voters got a fair crack at it. No part of the state can have valid objection to a statewide investigation of the subject.
It will disclose that valuations are generally too low and in many cases are most inequitable. It is a plain duty to provide ways and means for bringing the valuations up where they belong and for correcting inequalities, wherever they exist. To provide a proper remedy for wrongful conditions, the tax laws will have to be largely made over. It will be the plainest duty of the next legislature to take up this work and to treat it as one of the most important subjects it will be called on to deal with.

PRODDING COUNTY BOARDS.
Marl T. Murray, secretary of the board of corrections and charities, is continuing his good work of joggling to a sense of their duty to unfortunate the boards of supervisors of the counties in which jails and poorhouses fall short of the standard of cleanliness and decency which common humanity demands.
Boards throughout the state have lately had the deficiencies of their county buildings urgently called to their attention by Mr. Murray, and already, as a result of his work, many improvements have been made. The publicity he is giving the matter will gradually arouse a public sentiment favorable to the correction of all the bad conditions.
It is not always the mistaken economy or the stubbornness of the boards of supervisors that is responsible for the continued existence of discreditable conditions. In one county which has come in for drastic criticism because of the inadequacy of its public buildings, the supervisors have so far tried in vain to get a vote of money from the people for the purpose of making the necessary improvements. In this case the fault lies with the people themselves.
As a rule, however, the people are quick to vote for decent jails and county infirmaries, once the need for them is made clear, and the blame for bad conditions rests with county officials and supervisors.

There is no need of coddling prisoners in county jails. Plain fare and strict living in not too comfortable surroundings is a good rule to enforce with regard to them. But the lowliest prisoner is entitled, by right, to sanitary quarters, free of vermin, free of stenches, and to plenty of fresh air and plenty of water, with the obligation to use the latter, whether he will or not.
The food should be wholesome and generous in quantity, no matter how simple it is. The infirmaries for the poor, the floods and jetsam often cast ashore shipwrecked through no fault of its own, should be buildings in which the sanitation is beyond reproach, all the living conditions cleanly and the food appetizing and well prepared. Herding should be avoided by keeping the size of the buildings in proper relations to the demands made on them. Common humanity demands these things.
The Marquette county infirmary has been pointed to by the state board of corrections and charities as a model. It will soon be complemented by a county hospital for tubercular patients, in which all persons afflicted with this dead disease who need county aid can be properly cared for. The Marquette county jail, also, has come in for criticism from the state board, which declares that the structure is out of date and poorly arranged. Even in this case the criticism made is not drastic. The jail is not all it should be, it appears, but it compares very well with those average of jails. Notwithstanding this fact, the criticism of the board may well be heeded and the jail remodeled or rebuilt so as to put it beyond reproach.

Marquette county is rich enough and progressive enough to have a set of county buildings no one of which will

THE ONLY WAY.
Many Marquette Citizens Have Discovered It.
Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to life-long suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth or age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden.
There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys and cures these troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills owe their world-wide fame to the fact that they cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Follow the example of this Marquette citizen and you will be convinced that this is so.
Mrs. W. Lawrence, 212 W. Crescent St., Marquette, Mich., says: "For some time my back ached and I had other symptoms of kidney trouble. Doan's Kidney Pills made me feel better in every way and for that reason, I recommend them highly."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The most popular joke which has been published in any language in the history of the world is stated to be that which appeared in an obscure corner of the Punch Almanac for 1845. It read: "Advice to persons about to marry—Don't." It would be interesting to know who was its author. Another, founded on a similar subject, was the "fallen in love —Fallen out!" One of the most brilliant things that ever appeared in our contemporary was the brief dialogue between an inquiring child and his impatient parent: "What is mind?" "No

Tate, all of Munising, were Marquette visitors yesterday.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. Chas. Richardson, corner of High and Prospect streets.
Rev. Joseph Dutton, the new pastor at the First Methodist church, and family, arrived in the city last evening. He will preach his first sermon Sunday.
In honor of her birthday, Miss Marion Quarters was given a surprise party at her home, 206 Crescent street, last evening. A company of twenty-five young people were present.
There will be a "wrong-side-to" social at the M. E. church tonight, under the auspices of a number of the young ladies of the Sunday school. An evening of fun may be anticipated.
A. W. Lehman, the special agent of the government who worked up the case against the Worden Lumber company, returned to his home in Omaha, Neb., last evening.
Genevieve, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Boyan, 312 South Sixth street, passed away last evening, at the age of ten months. Funeral arrangements have not been made.
Deputy Marshal Mosher has gone to Ironwood to serve papers on the directors of the defunct First National bank of Ironwood, who have been sued for $205,000 by Receiver P. Tillingshast.

Upper Peninsula
Some Big Cedar—
August Ekman, a jobber who is engaged in logging near Dequet, Menomi-see county, is cutting some unusually large cedar. One pole cut a few days ago is seventy feet long and eight inches across at the top. Another one has a seven-inch top and is sixty-five feet in length.
Caught With Song Birds—Deputy Game Warden Wilson made a haul near Crystal Falls the other day that netted the state $30, in addition to $15 fees for the officers. He caught Joe Stochera, Meg Linseck and John Gonto with several song birds that they had killed. He met the fellows west of the Bristol mine early in the morning as they were returning from a hunt with the "makings" of their morning meal.
In addition to several robins and blue birds the men had two partridge. Mr.
Wilson took the trio to Justice Davidson's court, where they pleaded guilty to the charge of a violation of the game laws and were each fined $10 and costs of $5.
Bond Issue to Be Submitted—The city council has decided by unanimous vote to submit to the voters of Escanaba at the coming election the question of whether bonds to the amount of $15,000 shall be issued to allow the construction and equipment of the proposed Seventh Ward fire station.
The council, accepting the report of the special committee, also has gone on record as favoring the construction of a modern municipal gas plant. It has instructed the board of public works to file plans and specifications and estimates of the cost with the city clerk at the earliest possible date. Whether the question of bonding the city for $30,000 to allow the construction of the gas plant shall be submitted at this time will be decided next Tuesday evening.
While all of the aldermen expressed themselves in favor of the immediate construction of a gas plant, some of them doubted the expediency of submitting both bonding questions at the same time.

Republic
Moy Lon spent Sunday in Ishpening, visiting friends.
The interior of Levine's store is being redecorated.
About 210 excursionists came up from Ishpening Sunday.
Miles Butler and Al Andrews, of Ish-pening, were here on business Tuesday.
Charlie Lavigne, of Champion, called on friends here Wednesday.
Phil Levine and wife, of Negaunee, visited with Republic relatives Tuesday.
Mrs. Al Hocking and son, Newell, are visiting with relatives and friends in Negaunee.
About 500 tons of ore were shipped from the Kloman mine to the Ardis furnace at Iron Mountain during the past week.
Nearly all of the teachers of the Republic schools are attending the sessions of the Upper Peninsula Teachers' institute at Negaunee.
Emil Frizze, of Houghton, visited with friends here Monday. He and John Dravs, of Houghton, left Nestoria Sunday on a hunting trip and walked through the woods to Witbeck.
Wade Siebenthal, Joseph Labold, Al Hocking, Captain Peter Pascoe and C.
W. Munson attended the Masonic meeting at Ishpening Monday. Messrs.
Siebenthal, Hocking and Labold made the return trip from Ishpening in D. T.
Morgan's automobile.
The baseball team known as Republics first nine refused to play Dower's Infantry Sunday. Mr. Dower challenges the first nine to a game for next Sunday. The Infantry now claims the town championship.
Eugene St. Clair, of Iron Mountain, was here on business the forepart of the week. Mr. St. Clair was formerly a resident of Republic. He is now superintendent of the Ardis furnace at Iron Mountain.
Captains James Stevens and Alfred Collick, of Ishpening, and J. H. Rough, of Negaunee, were the guests of Captain Peter Pascoe on a partridge hunting trip Sunday. They went to Martell's camp. H. K. Gamble, Fred Lind, George Thompson and Carl Peterson were also members of the party. It is reported that two birds fell before their guns.
Charles Larson died at the home of John Peterson, Sunday, from cancer.
The funeral was held Tuesday. The deceased had spent considerable time in Alaska, having returned from there two months ago. He had been confined to a hospital in Minneapolis and came here a few days ago to visit his sister, Mrs. Peterson.
Miss Ruth Nelson and Frank Brockman were married Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage of St. Augustine's church. Rev. Father Hollinger tying the mortal knot. They left Wednesday for Green Bay and other points south on their honeymoon.
Al Hocking has on sale at his store a large collection of Republic scenes on postcards. The pictures were taken by a Milwaukee photographer, who spent some time here during the summer. Mr.
Hocking bought such a large number of the cards that he will be able to sell them at half the regular price.

of Chocolay, who was arrested on complaint of Alphonse Mallette, of the same place, of having used indecent language in the presence of Mallette's wife and children, was acquitted by a jury in Justice Byrne's court yesterday. A number of witnesses were subpoenaed and much of the testimony was of an unsavoury nature.
Death at Hospital—Mrs. Eva Johnson, a widow woman who lived at Chatham, died at St. Luke's hospital Wednesday night, from complications following an operation. She was sixty-nine years of age and was well known in Alger county, one of her children being Mrs. Frank Fetherly, of Munising. The remains were sent to Chatham last evening, where the funeral and interment will take place.
Some Wagers Being Made—A few wagers on the forthcoming state election are being made here. A Hemans Democrat has covered a 2 to 1 bet for a modest sum, and an Osborn Republican has shown sufficient confidence in the soundness of the reports coming from the Republican headquarters to wager a "best bet" that Osborn will be elected by 40,000 majority.
Bound Over to Court—On the charge of having assaulted Jacob Pellinen with intent to murder, John Bakkala, of Princeton, has been bound over to circuit court. The alleged crime was committed Sept. 18 at Princeton. At the hearing before Justice Sarasin, Bakkala waived examination and in default of the required bond, was committed to the county jail pending a hearing in circuit court.
Senator Smith Coming—While no definite announcement to that effect has been made, it is reported that the Republican state central committee will send Senator William Allen Smith to the upper peninsula for a number of speaking dates. Mr. Osborn will not visit this region during the campaign, all of his time being given to the lower peninsula. The Democrats have not as yet announced any meetings for this county, but they expect to hold a rally or two before election day.
Foreign Travel Light—According to those connected with immigration busi-now, as very few persons are leaving for the East with the intention of returning to their native lands to spend the winter. The same condition prevails in travel from European countries to the Lake Superior district and very few immigrants are arriving in this section.

Mining News

ANACONDA.

The St. Lawrence mine of the original Anaconda group has been closed down and it is not expected active mining operations will be resumed again for at least two months. This is due to the big ore house alongside the mine, containing about 3,500 tons of ore, sliding down the hill and being utterly demolished. The ore house was over twenty years old and the question of constructing a new one was under consideration. Advantage of the enforced shut down of the St. Lawrence will be taken to retimber the shaft and this work will be commenced at once. The closing of this shaft, it is stated, will not mean any decrease in the output of the original Anaconda group as the production of the other mines will be increased about 1,000 tons a day, which was the output of the St. Lawrence. Plans are already being prepared for the erection of a new ore house of a substantial and modern character and work will be commenced just as soon as the plans

NORTH BUTTE-TUOLUMNE.

The Tuolumne Copper Mining company has filed its answer to the North Butte Mining company in the suit brought to recover ground alleged by the latter to be its property. The answer makes a general denial of the claims set forth by the North Butte company and charges that the North Butte has extracted large quantities of ore from the eastern portion of the Tuolumne and from the so-called compromise strip, belonging to the Tuolumne company. The Tuolumne asks for an accounting of the ore alleged to have been taken from the Tuolumne property by the North Butte and in addition an injunction is asked against further extraction of ore from the property in question. The answer declares that a great portion of the ore which has been extracted by the Tuolumne company is from the compromise strip and denies that the North Butte has a three-eighths interest in this strip or any interest at all and claims that the deed obtained by John G. Morony for the North Butte company does not convey any interest whatever.

It is further alleged in the answer that the entire interest in the compromise strip has been claimed and possessed by the Tuolumne company for many years and that the company has paid all taxes on it and spent large amounts in developing it and making it valuable. It is stated that neither Mr. Morony nor his grantor has contributed anything toward development or any other expenses and that it was only upon the last year when the strip was found to be valuable that any claim was made by the North Butte to a small interest in the property. It is also set up that the North Butte company and its grantors are barred by laches from making any claim to any portion of the compromise strip.

It is alleged that the Tuolumne is an older location than the Jessie, that the ore in the compromise strip belongs to a vein apexing in the compromise strip and that the apex has been clearly developed and that the Tuolumne claim has the ore in this vein below the point near the 400 foot level where it is probably joined by the Jessie vein. The answer further states that the development work has not been made on the extreme western end of the Tuolumne and Jessie lodes to the extent necessary to determine whether or not the great ore bodies belonged to the Jessie or the Tuolumne but declares that if development shows that the ore belongs to the Tuolumne it will make claim again the North Butte for the same.

BUTTE-BALLAKLAVA.

The Butte-Ballaklava company is doing a large amount of development work outside of the ground in dispute and is shipping about 150 tons of ore each day to the East Butte smelter. On the Burke claim, to the west of the Ballaklava ground, the company is proving its apices by means of drifts and raises. On the 800-foot level of the Ballaklava claim some very fine ore is being opened up and it is claimed that it is equal to that which was being taken from the Edith May vein at the time the injunction was secured by the Anaconda company. Development work is also proceeding on the 300, 500 and 600-foot levels and new ore bodies are being opened up which are reported to be very promising.

UNITED VERDE EXTENSION.

Advices from the United Verde Extension property are that the carbonate ore body, which was drilled on for 350 feet and supposed to be 100 feet wide, has had its crosscut extended beyond the first hundred feet and is still in ore. This ore body assays 4.7 copper and from two to three dollars in gold and silver. Should it be found 300 feet below on the 1100-foot level it would mean 1,000,000 tons of ore as far as prospected. The United Verde Extension has not a smelter but it has a sulphide ore body about 200 feet distant from this carbonate ore body on the same level and estimated 120 feet in length and crosscut thirty feet. This sulphide ore averages 3 per cent copper and $2 to $3 in gold and silver, but its value is not in the precious metals or in the copper. It

RHEUMATISM

PURIFYING THE BLOOD
THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE

No case of Rheumatism was ever cured except by a thorough purification of the blood; just as long as the blood remains charged with fermenting uric acid poison, the painful disease will continue. The pains and aches of Rheumatism are simply superficial effects of the impurities in the circulation, and sometimes may be temporarily relieved by the application of plasters, liniments, hot cloths, etc. But the person who trifles with this dangerous disease by depending on local treatment alone, is certain to pay for the mistake with constant suffering later on. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to cure the disease. It goes down into the blood, and removes the uric acid from the circulation, so that the nerves, bones, muscles and joints are lubricated and fed with nourishing elements instead of being continually irritated and inflamed with the sharp, uratic impurity. When S. S. S. has cleansed and purified the blood, the pains and aches cease, all inflammation disappears, stiffened muscles are made pliant, and every troublesome symptom of Rheumatism is permanently corrected. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

last week 267 tons of 8 and 9 per cent ore were taken out in the course of development work on new veins. This is an indication of the showing the management will make when metal prices justify a policy of pushing production.

The shaft at the New Baltic is nearing a depth of 100 feet. The boiler is in place and the hoist is on the ground, and as soon as the compressor gets to work greater speed in sinking will result. The first crosscut, which will be at a depth of 125 feet, will be started early in December.

The Algoham shaft, which is down eighty feet, continues sinking in the same character of ground had from the beginning. This same ore has been found in the cross trenches and at various other points on the surface for a distance quite one-half a mile along the presumed strike of the lode. Some disappointment was felt that the first drill hole at a depth of 500 feet did not encounter native copper, and the opinion has been held that no matter how rich the ore might be which Algoham has so far opened up, it would not prove of sufficient extent to make a mine. Recent developments, however, have gone far towards changing the opinions first formed. Developments in No. 2 drill which is expected to cut the lode about 1,000 feet from the surface are awaited with much interest.

Markets

[By Paine, Webber & Co.]

WALL STREET STOCKS.

New York, Oct. 13.—The stock market displayed pronounced strength throughout today's session. The trading was on a much broader scale than has been witnessed for some time, and about the most favorable feature was the increase in the outside demand. The news with regard to the foreign political situation is meagre, but strict attention is being given to all reports, especially with regard to the status of affairs in Spain, Portugal and France. So much stress has been laid in the past upon the unfavorable factors in the situation that at this period, judging by the action of the list, it would seem that the same have been discounted marketwise, to a considerable degree, but at the same time the outlook is still such as to warrant a cautious attitude on the part of traders. We still believe that a generally higher level will prevail, but would await a recession before increasing commitments on the long side. Today's closing prices were as follows:

Boston Coppers.

Boston, Oct. 13.—The market opened dull this morning, but as the day progressed activity increased and the closing prices were practically the best of the day. There seems to be no question of the fact that the management of the market is in very strong hands. New York interests are evident all through the local list, accumulating coppers. This is especially true in North Butte, Giroux and Greene Cananea. The copper market has surely turned the corner and much better things may be expected. Buy any of the good coppers and hold them for a good rally. Closing prices today were as follows:

these things were factors in the grain market today, and helped the decline along. While the decline was in progress, it was believed that a leading La Salle street bear operator covered good-sized lines without so much as checking the break in the market. There may be a rally from oversold spots, but there certainly is nothing in the situation to justify buying operations for any important turn.

New York Cotton Market.

New York, Oct. 13.—A tropical storm in the Gulf, an intense scurrying for spots in the South and a gradual awakening to the merit of the staple, speculatively caused the advance today, and makes it a safe investment until long lines are accumulated, and no evidence of accumulation is noticed anywhere.

COLLECTOR TO BE HOME TODAY

Many Congratulatory Telegrams and Letters Received for C. J. BYRNS.

Charles J. Byrns, whose appointment by President Taft to the position of collector of customs in the district of Superior, with headquarters in Marquette, was announced in yesterday's issue of the Mining Journal, is expected home today from Rock Island, Ill. He had planned to attend two big meetings of the Woodmen society in Detroit the latter part of the week, but Mrs. Byrns said yesterday that she expected him home this morning, as he decided, after receiving notification of his appointment, to cancel his Detroit engagements.

Many congratulatory telegrams and letters were received yesterday at the Byrns residence. They came not only from various parts of Michigan, but from other states as well. Wednesday evening a telegram came from Senator Smith, stating that he had received Mr. Byrns' commission from Washington, and that he is now collector of customs.

When Mr. Byrns told his friends in Grand Rapids last week that he would receive the appointment, he knew what he was talking about, as he then had in his possession a copy of the letter sent by Senator Burrows to President Taft, recommending his appointment, also a reply from the president's secretary, acknowledging the receipt of the endorsement and advising him that the matter had been referred to the proper department and that it would be disposed of in a few days. With these letters in his possession, Mr. Byrns was assured that the commission would be forthcoming in a short time.

It is assumed that Mr. Byrns will take up his new duties soon after his arrival home. He intends to resign his position as director of the Modern Woodmen of America, but it is possible that he will remain on the board until the expiration of his term in June, when the head camp will meet in its triennial session at Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Byrns is being strongly urged by his colleagues on the board, as well as by other prominent officials of the society, to retain the place until that time.

During the years that Mr. Byrns has been a Woodmen director, he has made a most efficient officer, and he has long been regarded as one of the most capable fraternal society workers in the United States. He accepted his first position with the Woodmen, as district deputy in the upper peninsula, nearly eighteen years ago. He made such a fine record in securing applications that he soon advanced to the position of state deputy, which he held for several years, until he was chosen a member of the national board of directors. When Mr. Byrns was appointed state deputy the Woodmen had about 8,000 members in Michigan, and when he resigned to accept the directorship, the membership was in the neighborhood of 40,000. The increase was largely due to his efforts. Since the last head camp session, held at Peoria, Ill., Mr. Byrns has been at the head of the committee in charge of the Woodmen tuberculosis sanitarium, at Colorado Springs, Colo., and he is also chairman of the committee on bonds. These are two of the most important chairmanships in connection with the society.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.

Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

IMPORTANT MINING DEAL.

Rogers-Brown Ore Company Has Acquired Rich Tract on Cuyuna Range.

Favorable reports continue to be received relative to the ore developments on the Cuyuna range, where three or four former Negaunee men hold important positions with the Rogers-Brown Ore company. This concern has just secured control of what is known as the Weyerhaeuser eighty, which adjoins the Ironston property. Indications are favorable for the discovery of a rich body of mineral on this tract, and it is said that the Rogers-Brown company paid a big price for it. Mining will be done on a royalty basis. Several other mining interests sought to acquire the property. Drilling operations are to commence at once.

Pat Hammell, a prominent Duluth mining man, and his associates, who have been drilling on Section 35, have encountered ore, which assays 69 to 70 percent in iron, at a depth of 170 feet from surface. It is reported that there is absolutely no phosphorus in the iron. Mr. Hammell has already been offered a royalty of $1 per ton.

MANY TEACHERS AT INSTITUTE MEETINGS

Several Sessions Will Be Held Today—Public Reception This Evening.

School superintendents and teachers from all parts of the upper peninsula arrived yesterday, and by evening fully 500 were in the city. Large delegations came on the morning trains from Escanaba, Gladstone, Menominee, Iron Mountain, Norway, and other Menominee range points. A number of Marquette teachers also came up on the early trains. The delegation from the copper country, arrived here at 2 P. M., and included several of the superintendents, a number of principals and a few of the teachers.

Yesterday was a busy day at the High school, several sessions having been held. Meetings are scheduled for this morning and this afternoon, and the final session will take place Saturday morning. This morning, John V. Brennan, superintendent of the Ironston schools, will talk on the theme "Present Day Educational Problems," and Miss Nina C. Vanderwalker, principal of the kindergarten training department of the Milwaukee Normal school, will talk on "The Need of Strengthening the Work of the Primary Grades." There will be music by the third and fifth grade pupils of the Cuse street school, and the second grade pupils of the Park street school.

The section meetings this afternoon will be commissioners, school officers, athletics, grammar and manual training. A. C. Adair, is chairman of the commissioners' section, and Edward S. Bice, a member of the Marquette board of education, is chairman of the school officers' section. At the meeting of the last named section, Hon. Henry E. Straight, of Bay City, will speak on "Shall There Be Uniformity of Text Books Throughout the State, with Price Regulation?" L. L. Wright will also speak at this meeting. His subject will be "The Distribution of the Primary School Fund." E. L. Parmenter will talk on "Safe-guarding the Health of School Children."

At the athletic section meeting, which will be presided over by Superintendent J. V. Brennan, of Ironwood, there will be several short talks. The speakers will be Superintendent S. O. Clinton of Baraga, D. Kelly of Houghton, Superintendent T. W. Clemo of Republic, Superintendent R. A. Brandt of Iron River, Superintendent P. A. Mellonup of L'Anse, and Superintendent L. Roy Conn of the National mine.

Miss Mary Atfield of Marquette will preside over the meeting of the grammar section. The speakers will be Miss Mary E. Deasy of Marquette, who will talk on "Seventh Grade Language," and Miss Christine Campbell of Marquette, whose subject will be "Development of Ideals from Eighth Grade Literature."

Homer P. Yutzy, instructor in the manual training department of Ishpeming, is chairman of the manual training section, which will also meet this afternoon. There will be talks by Superintendent E. E. Scribner, Joseph Bayley, supervisor of the manual training department at Marquette, Dr. Fred W. McNair, president of the Michigan College of Mines, and Miss Lucy Condon, head of the domestic science department in Ishpeming.

The public meeting last evening, in the auditorium of the High school, was largely attended, and the address by Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, president of the Armour Institute of Technology, of Chicago, was a rare treat. Dr. Gunsaulus' theme was "The Next Step in Education." Pleasing musical numbers were given by the High school orchestra, the Girls' Glee club, and the ladies' quartette.

Reception This Evening.

The entertainment of the teachers this evening by the board of education and Negaunee citizens promises to be an enjoyable feature. A general invitation is extended to the people of Negaunee to attend, and they are asked to do their part toward making the teachers of the upper peninsula feel they are welcome. A committee, consisting of the board of education and their wives, the superintendent, and the four principals, will receive the guests near the center of the first floor corridor. After the reception, which will be from 8 to 9 P. M., there will be dancing in the gymnasium, with music by Trombley's orchestra. Chairs for spectators will be placed on the running track, or gallery, of the gymnasium, where those who do not dance can be accommodated. The committee specially request that those who do not dance will occupy these chairs, so that the entire floor of the gymnasium may be clear. Light refreshments will be served after 10:00 o'clock, in the sewing rooms on the first floor.

F. Braastad & Co. announce a special sale tomorrow of ladies' suits, coats and trimmed hats at their Negaunee store. (10-14-21)

BACK FROM EUROPE.

Well-known Negaunee Man Returns After Three Months' Visit Abroad.

John Kunz, a pioneer resident of Negaunee, who left here three months ago for his old home in Germany, arrived in the city yesterday morning. In spite of the fact that Mr. Kunz is over seventy-five years of age, he did not find the trip a hard one to make and he gained seven pounds in weight. Mr. Kunz met very few people in the old country whom he had known before coming to America, as it is nearly fifty years since he left this country. He found many changes in the towns he was familiar with in his boyhood.

Mr. Kunz is now one of the oldest residents of Marquette county. He was one of the first workmen at the Washington mine at Humboldt, and he was

ORGANIZATION BADLY NEEDED

Many Sportsmen of the Opinion That Perpetuation of Fish and Game in This Locality Demand That an Active Rod and Gun Club Be Organized Here.

Such a Body of Men Could Get Better Results by Carefully and Systematically Planting Trout and Bass and Wild Rice—What C. C. I. Company Is Doing

Partridges and ducks are more scarce in this locality this fall than ever before and trout fishing near Marquette is getting poorer every year. It is claimed by sportsmen, which, in the opinion of many, is evidence that Marquette needs a gun and rod club, such as is effectively organized in the copper country. As it is now, about the only systematic effort made to preserve fish and game in this locality is that made by the officials of the Cleveland-Cliffs railroads, who plant many bass and trout each year and in other ways do what they can to protect and perpetuate game and fish.

Recently H. A. St. John, general passenger agent of this company, has directed a quantity of wild rice, which will be planted in Lake Independence and Silver Lake, for the purpose of providing food for wild ducks. It is said that ducks are attracted in large numbers to wild rice marshes, even in sections where there were none before the rice was planted.

At one time ducks were very plentiful along the lake shore near Marquette, but of late years they have been very scarce. Two years ago, a number of sportsmen planted wild rice in the marshes north and east of the city, but it does not appear to have grown anywhere. The plants came up the first year, but for some reason failed to produce seed and none of the rice could be found the past summer. At Grand Marais, however, wild rice has been successfully planted for about five miles along the river, and the attempts are to be made to grow it here.

Wild rice is a plant that grows in shallow water near the shore of lakes and streams in marshy ground. Directions of the seedmen say that it should be planted in the water, but many old hunters claim that the seed should first be rolled in clay or sand, to insure its finding the bottom and being imbedded in soil under conditions suitable to its germination. Mr. St. John intends to plant the seed in shallow water and it was planted two years ago, and his experience should be of general interest to hunters.

Lack of Organization.

"Before this part of the upper peninsula can be brought back to the game and fish country it was a few years ago," said an active sportsman yesterday, "an active organization in the nature of a rod and gun club must be effected. If there was any organization among local sportsmen, much might be accomplished in the perpetuation of wild game in this vicinity."

"Were it not for the efforts of the Cleveland-Cliffs people, the game and fish would be much scarcer by this time than they are. They are doing a great work, but citizens generally are not doing their part. A well organized club could see to it that rice is planted every fall in marshes, which would come great feeding grounds for ducks, if there was anything for them to eat. Much could also be done toward better observation of the game laws."

"In the improvement of trout and bass fishing in this locality, a club would be of even greater benefit. With both state and government hatcheries nearby, large numbers of fish could be planted in the streams and lakes every year, and everyone now recognizes that artificial propagation is the only way in which trout can be preserved in a settled community. As it is now, a few cans of fish are ordered every spring by individuals, and those who put in the orders are assured that when the fry arrive, everyone will help plant them. The chances are, however, that not more than one or two will show up on planting day, and the fish are of necessity dumped in or miss into the nearest stream, with little regard to its suitability for fish propagation. The result is that only a small proportion of the fry planted live to become fish of angling size. In my opinion, with an organized gun club, much better results could be obtained."

BARGAIN SALE OF LAND.

State to Auction Off Descriptions in This County Nov. 15.

Huntley Russell, state land commissioner, has given formal notice that the lands in Marquette county, which were decided to the state several months ago because of taxes on them not having been paid for a number of years, will be sold at public auction at the court house Nov. 15, beginning at 10 o'clock. A request for the use of the court room for this sale has been received by the county clerk, and it is expected that the auction will be conducted by officials of the state land department.

It has been eight or ten years since a bargain sale of state lands was conducted, and it is expected that the sale will be largely attended. While the presumption is that any land which has been permitted to revert to the state there are probably some exceptions, and many of the descriptions have not been redeemed because the amount of back taxes more than equalled the value of the land. Back tax claims have now been cancelled and the descriptions will be offered for sale at their appraised value.

Deeds issued to purchasers of land at this sale will reserve the mineral, coal, oil and gas rights to the state, and deeds to all lands along streams and water courses will contain a provision reserving the right of ingress and egress over and across such lands.

W. C. T. U. ENDORSES MISS WALZ'S PLAN

Proposed Woman's Home, School and Sanitarium in Marquette Taken Up With Zest.

The annual convention of the Upper Peninsula W. C. T. U. closed yesterday afternoon, and the meeting was generally said to have been one of the best in the history of the society. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—Mrs. Carrie E. Clarke. Vice president—Mrs. Anna Seiden. Corresponding secretary—Mrs. M. MacPherson. Recording secretary—Mrs. W. Wilson. Treasurer—Mrs. M. Taylor. Superintendents of departments—Evangelistic work, Mrs. S. Becco; lumberman's work, Mrs. L. Peterson; Sunday school work, Mrs. E. Craig; L. T. L. work, Mrs. Lina Bell; medical work, Mrs. A. Seiden. The next meeting will be held at Crystal Falls.

Resolutions were adopted urging more active evangelistic work; a same celebration of the Fourth of July; the ringing of the curfew to keep children off of the streets at night; discouraging Sunday baseball playing; promising support to the suppression of the white slave traffic; heartily endorsing the proposed woman's home, school and sanitarium in Marquette, and expressing the appreciation of the delegates because of the kindness and hospitality extended them by the people of Marquette.

Much of the time of the convention yesterday was taken up with a discussion of the proposed purchase of the Hotel Superior for the purpose of establishing a woman's home, college and sanitarium there. All but one of the delegates visited the hotel while in the city, and all went to their homes with an enthusiastic determination to work for the consummation of the idea which is generally credited with having originated with Miss Maggie Walz, of Calumet, whose work among foreigners has won her fame, not only in America but also in Europe.

While Miss Walz was abroad this summer, but little was heard in Marquette of the Hotel Superior project, and many supposed that it had been given up. It appears, however, that Miss Walz is just as firm a believer in its ultimate success as ever. At the World's Missionary conference in Edinburgh and the W. C. T. U. meeting in Glasgow last summer, Miss Walz explained what it was hoped to accomplish at the Marquette institution, and literature regarding it was disseminated throughout England, Scotland, Sweden, Finland and Norway. Everywhere, Miss Walz states that she was assured of the hearty cooperation of foreign women.

Since returning to Michigan, Miss Walz has taken up the plan with renewed zest, and plans were formulated at the meeting yesterday for getting subscriptions in every part of the upper peninsula. Enough has already been raised to make the first payment on the building, under the terms of the option, and Miss Walz hopes that the institution will be opened early next spring. "Marquette people generally do not seem to realize the possibilities for good that are in such a school," said Miss Walz yesterday. "It could be advertised as a training school for domestics in every port of immigration in foreign countries and on the immigrant steamers. Such a school could turn out cooks, laundresses, seamstresses, second girls, chambermaids, nurse maids, ladies' maids, homemakers and housekeepers. In this school foreign girls would first be taught the English language and domestic sciences in every phase. In other words these girls would first be Americanized and then taught American methods. There is an endless demand for such a school, both on the part of those who need work and from those who need workers. Many foreign girls come to America without any knowledge of the American way of doing things and are unfitted to make their living, because of which they often fall into evil ways. "Nursing would also be introduced—that is, simple, sensible methods of caring for a sick baby, or a sick woman, and the girls would be taught what to do in cases not serious enough to require the attendance of a trained nurse. What these foreign girls need most of all is to know how to keep house in this country, and the more generally they learn sanitary housekeeping, the less cases of tuberculosis, insanity and unhappy marriages there will be."

SENTENCES IMPOSED BY JUDGE DENISON

Worden and Person Given Short Prison Terms, but Case Has Been Appealed.

Judge Denison sentenced several persons yesterday, who have pleaded guilty to or been convicted of offenses against the federal laws at this term of United States court. James H. Worden, president of the Worden Lumber & Shingle company, and Alex G. Person, woods superintendent for the company, who were found guilty of having conspired to defraud the government out of timber land at Dick, Chippewa county, by a jury Wednesday, were among those sentenced by the court.

Mr. Worden was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000 and to be imprisoned in the Detroit House of Correction for six months. Mr. Person was fined $100 and sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the Detroit House of Correction. The case will at once be appealed to the circuit court of appeals on a writ of error, and a stay of execution of the sentence has been granted until the appeal is passed upon.

John Bush, a restaurant keeper of Sault Ste. Marie, who was indicted by the grand jury last week and pleaded guilty to having sold intoxicating liquor without a government license, was fined $150 and given thirty days in the custody of the marshal. The marshal decided that nothing would be gained by remaining in prison and he was permitted to go home on a promise of good behavior.

On motion of District Attorney Covel, the deportation proceedings instituted against Lee Gyp some time ago, were dismissed, and Gyp was given a clean bill of health, as to his right to be in this country. This Oriental worked in a laundry at Ishpeming at the time of his arrest. More careful investigation of this case convinced the government officials that Gyp was either born at Portland, Ore., or was the son of a merchant, and in either case he would not be subject to deportation.

Testimony in several Chinese deportation cases was taken before the court yesterday, and it is expected that all the business of the term will have been finished by tonight. Judge Denison expects to leave for Grand Rapids Saturday, and has a great deal of work to do during the next few months. He will hold court a few days in Grand Rapids, after which he will sit in Detroit for Judge Schwan for a few days, and he has consented to preside over United States court at Covington, Ky., Nov. 1. About the middle of November he will open an important term at Grand Rapids, at which the suit brought by telephone companies against the attorney general of Michigan is expected to be tried. This will be one of the most important cases tried in this state in years, and the constant availability of the telephone company taxation bill passed by the legislature two years ago.

THEATRICAL.

"The Kissing Girl"

"The Kissing Girl," a popular musical comedy, will be presented at the opera house Saturday night, fresh from a run of 250 consecutive performances at the Cort theatre in Chicago, where it received its first presentation. It is the joint product of a successful librettist, a clever lyric writer, and a composer whose name has been repeatedly coupled with tuneful jingles and song hits. The cast numbers in principals and chorists seventy people, and carries its own orchestra, under the conductorship of Whitney Bennington. The scenes of the opera are laid in a village in the heart of Bohemia, which gives fine scope for quaint and picturesque costumes. The cast which appears here will embrace the following:

- Lina, "The Kissing Girl", Texas Guinan
- Fritz Kobus, corporal in the American army..... Dick Temple
- Hippocrates Muller, a wealthy brewer..... Harry Hermon
- Karl Oppé, the king's forester..... Harold Rehill
- Christine Muller, a brewer's daughter..... Marion Mills
- Margaret Kobus, a landlady of the "Hunter's Rest"..... Ida Fitzhugh
