

THREE FLYERS BRAVE DEATH IN DARING TRIP

Grahame-White, Moissant and DeLesseps Travel in Monoplanes from Belmont Park to the Statue of Liberty and Return—The Best Time Is 34 Minutes.

America Is the Winner of This Event; but the Blue Ribbon of the Air, Emblematic of the World's Championship, Goes to England—Two Aviators Hurt.

New York, Oct. 30.—Three aviators flew from Belmont Park, L. I., this afternoon, circled the Statue of Liberty in aeroplanes, except back without mishap and alighted, chilled but exultant. John B. Moissant, flying for America, covered the estimated thirty-six-mile course in 34 minutes and 38.4 seconds. Grahame-White, of England, was second in about 40 minutes, and DeLesseps, of France, was third. Hardly had the bomb announcing the flight exploded when up the field scurried DeLesseps, in a 50-horsepower Bleriot. Nothing daunted by the jump the Frenchman got on him Grahame-White, in less than a minute, was in the air, also in a Bleriot 26-horsepower machine. Passing the grandstand at an elevation of 1,000 feet, both aviators headed above the railroad tracks, which took them across the town of Jamaica. The Frenchman was the first out across New York Bay and around the statue. With the wind at his back, Grahame-White put on full speed and began eating down his rival's advantage. Reaching the outskirts of Brooklyn, Grahame-White forged ahead.

Moissant was timing up his newly bought Bleriot. When the four hours after mile he sped, high up in the air, crossing Brooklyn at an altitude of 2,000 feet. Returning, like his two rivals, Moissant also had the wind at his back. He sped across Brooklyn at a mile a minute. When he reached the aerodrome, the wind at his back, Grahame-White when his time showed that he had accomplished the feat at better time in the aggregate than a mile a minute. Saturday, Grahame-White, flying for the Royal Aero club of the United Kingdom, lifted the Gordon Bennett trophy, a silver cup, from the custody of America in the fastest time ever covered for the full distance of 100 kilometers (62.14 miles) under a five-kilometer course. His average speed was a fraction faster than sixty-one miles an hour.

Accident Robs France of Victory. The captain of the French team, Alfred Le Blanc, flying a similar machine, a 100-horsepower Bleriot monoplane, was making each lap on an average of twenty seconds faster than White and would have won if he had not met with a disastrous accident in the last lap, when he had the race seemingly in his grasp.

Le Blanc was running with the wind at an estimated speed of eighty miles an hour when the feed pipe from his gasoline tank to his motor loosened and he suddenly found himself with nothing but his momentum to carry him. Racing aeroplanes are trimmed down so fine that they cannot execute the proper glide if the engine shuts off. They must come to earth under power and they bump severely in landing. Le Blanc was helpless and panic-stricken. He tried to lift his planes so that the last few drops of gasoline might filter into the engine and lend him strength enough to make a landing. A puff of wind caught him and he drifted sideways, still driving at tremendous speed, and he crashed head foremost into a telegraph pole.

Breaks the Pole to Pieces. The pole was fourteen inches thick but he broke it in three pieces as if it had been a toothpick. The steel shield which encloses the motor crumpled, but the solid steel motor itself stood the shock. Had Le Blanc hit the pole in any other manner it is difficult to see how he could have escaped death. Grahame-White admitted that Le Blanc would have won the race and would have established a world's record even better than his own, except for the mishap. Charles K. Hamilton of the American team said: "Le Blanc is the best track driver in the world. No American machine has a chance with him. I am going to throw my machine into the scrap heap and buy a Bleriot. The Bleriot is out of date and we might as well admit it."

Hamilton will challenge for the cup next year. The Wright brothers will also build a new racer and go after it. John B. Moissant will be a third challenger.

Water Brokens Injured. In addition to Le Blanc's accident, the day was marred by a serious mishap to Walter Brookins of the Wright team, who had taken up a new "baby" Wright racer for the first time. The machine was comparatively untried and in previous flights Orville Wright had always guided it. Even a had predicted that if the engine ever refused to explode the machine could never glide safely to a landing, but would fall. That is what happened.

Brookins was coming around a turn into the home stretch for a trial circle, preparatory to entering the Gordon Bennett race, when four of his eight cylinders ceased firing. With only half power, he tried first to sustain himself by mousing; then he decided it was wiser to land and plunged to earth. In a strict sense he dived. He hit the earth from a height of fifty feet. An ambulance hurried him to the field hospital.

Later it was announced that though he had been painfully injured in the groin and severely bruised there were no bones broken. His life is in no danger.

SYRACUSE QUITS ROWING FOR PRESENT COLLEGE YEAR.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Syracuse University will not send crews to the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie or engage in any regatta with colleges next year. The athletic governing board has voted to eliminate intercollegiate rowing from the list of sports for the present college year. The services of Coach James A. Ten Eyck will be retained. The temporary suspension of the crew is necessitated by the financial problem that has long vexed the athletic authorities. As rowing necessitates the heaviest expenses and brings no financial returns, it was deemed best to drop that sport for the present, to effect economy. The governing board expects that rowing will again be taken up in 1912.

In Savannah, a grand prize race will be held Nov. 12, preceded by certain races for small cars Nov. 11.

ALLEGED POISONER SENTENCED TO DEATH

Martin O'Malley, a Minnesota Farmer, Convicted of Killing Two Step-Children.

The Suez Canal, Minn., Oct. 30.—Less than four hours after a jury had returned a verdict of murder in the first degree, Martin O'Malley, a prosperous farmer of Dereynow township, tried for the poisoning of his step-children, Frances Bergel, aged five years, and Mary Bergel, aged three years, was sentenced by Judge E. W. Morrison, in the district court, to be hanged.

O'Malley appeared unmoved when sentenced. His demeanor throughout the trial has given the impression that he is not mentally sound. When first taken to jail O'Malley remarked: "I did not do it, but I will tell who did." Evidence, however, was strong against the prisoner and included a signed confession, which O'Malley, in testifying at his trial, contended was written from him by threats of lynching. O'Malley will be confined in the county jail for ninety days, pending the fixing of the date of hanging by the governor.

O'Malley was arrested July 16, a month after his marriage to Mrs. Bergel, a widow of Montgomery, with three children, the oldest of whom was six years old. O'Malley was a widower with eight children. Soon afterward two or three children died and were buried. A Le Sueur Center doctor diagnosed their disease as spinal meningitis, but suggested that the bodies were examined and the stomachs sent to the state university for examination. The chemist's report was that the children had been poisoned by arsenic.

SHE REMAINS FOUND IN A LONELY SPOT

Mrs. Elsie Cochrane, the Wife of a Railroad Man, Murdered in a Clump of Woods Near Danville, Illinois—The Tragedy Much of a Mystery to the Police.

Officers Locate the Horse and Buggy They Say Were Used to Convey the Woman to the Scene of Her Death, but as Yet They Have Made No Arrests.

Danville, Ills., Oct. 30.—The police today found the horse and buggy which they say were used to carry Mrs. Elsie Cochrane to the place where she was slain last Thursday night. This horse and buggy were driven over the route supposed to have been followed by the slayer and Mrs. Cochrane. Both hoof and buggy tracks fitted the old ones, the police say.

The man who owns the rig said that if his buggy was used Thursday night it was stolen from his carriage shed and later returned, as he knows nothing of its use at the time when, it is alleged, someone took Mrs. Cochrane to the lonely spot outside of Danville and shot her there.

The spot where the body was found Friday morning shows that a violent fight took place between Mrs. Cochrane and her slayer. Owing to the fact that Mrs. Cochrane's face was severely scratched and her hair partly torn out, the police are inclined to think that she may have been killed during a quarrel with a jealous woman. The police assert they have no evidence against any person.

HUSBAND PROVES AN ALIBI.

Mrs. Elsie Cochrane was thirty-five years old and the wife of an employee of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railway. She was found in a forest three miles from Danville. Her head was beaten to a pulp and her face so badly cut that it was almost unrecognizable. Her husband, J. S. Cochrane, was taken into custody, but he proved an alibi and was released. Since the murder two other men have been questioned, but have not been arrested.

This morning Sheriff Helmick and a force of deputies also claim to have the murderer and after measuring and taking footprints of the horse and the tire of the vehicle secured the rig of one of the men whom they had questioned and drove it to the field. The police say the hoofprints and the buggy tires are the same, and they also claim that the horse entered the field without being urged. The sheriff fired his revolver twice to show that the animal would not run away at the unusual sound. The rig had not moved. The owner then he said it was possible that the rig had been stolen from the barn and returned after the crime had been committed.

Hundreds visited the scene of the tragedy today. Mrs. Cochrane leaves three children.

New York, Oct. 30.—The World (Democratic) today publishes a letter from Wm. Randolph Hearst which says, in part: "An editorial in your paper Wednesday refers to me as a supporter of or rather a co-partner with Roosevelt. This is not in strict accordance with the facts. On the same day, the statement that I'm not a supporter of Roosevelt, I know him to be astonishingly inconsistent and I cannot reconcile this great inconsistency with his reputed sincerity or high purpose. I know him to be ambitious, vain and selfish, reckless and erratic. I do not consider the qualities compatible with a sound policy or a safe conduct of public affairs."

CAMPAIGN BILLS HAVE BEEN SMALL

Senator Lodge Denies the Charge He Has Spent Large Sums of Money.

Boston, Oct. 30.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge has issued a statement of considerable length, in which he replies to political attacks by Congressman Eugene N. Foss, Democratic candidate for governor of Massachusetts. Replying to the charge that he had spent large sums in campaigns of the past, Senator Lodge says: "I ran five times at the polls as a candidate for congress, and my expenditures in those five campaigns averaged $3,000 and $3,500 in each campaign. The first time I ran the sum I spent between $300 and $400 for printing circulars and sending them through the state. In my second and third elections I spent nothing. This year I have contributed what I could afford to the state committee, and I wish I were rich enough to be able to give more."

"I have never in all my twenty-four years' service in Washington spent any money except what I have subscribed to the state committee and to my own city committee in Lynn last year. Mr. Foss consented in his own return to the expenditure of a sum of money for his candidacy as lieutenant governor which far exceeded all the money I have ever spent in politics during my whole public life. If he could spend over $40,000 on his own admission for an election as lieutenant governor his other expenditures may be readily imagined."

"No man who knows anything of politics doubts that if the Democratic party had been left to choose its candidate without the sinister use of money Mr. Hamlin would have been nominated."

GOVERNMENT OF FRANCE IS TRIUMPHANT

Political Storm Resulting from the Suppression of the Recent Strike of the Railroaders Is Successfully Weathered by M. Briand and His Colleagues.

Following the Most Violent Session in the History of the Parliament, the Chamber Re-convenes and Votes Confidence in the Ministry, 329 to 183.

Paris, Oct. 30.—Amidst an impressive hush, which contrasted strangely with yesterday's unprecedented passion and tumult in the chamber of deputies, Premier Briand today, in cool, incisive phrases, and with unexcelled gravity, played the socialists for their violence in forbidding him to speak. The premier assured the chamber that he was no dictator, but a man of law and order, and at the end of the session his frank appeal for republican support resulted in a vote of confidence, 329 to 183.

Since the days of the Boulanger and Dreyfus affairs, no such interest had been displayed in a session of the French parliament. Vast crowds besieged the doors of the assembly, waiting for hours to learn the outcome. M. Briand today declared that his remarks yesterday had been entirely misunderstood, but the socialistic fury and disorder had not permitted him to complete his statement. What he had tried to say was that in grave hours of national peril exceptional measures were justified. Nevertheless, the government was proud it had kept within the limits of legality. Then with a dramatic gesture, he flung out his hands, crying: "Look at these hands—now a drop of blood!"

A resolution introduced by the socialists, impeaching M. Briand for "this detestable crushing down of the wage earners," was rejected by an overwhelming majority, after which the chamber voted confidence in the government to safeguard the interests of the working classes and preserve the vital interests of the nation. A scrutiny of the vote shows that 100 radicals, who ordinarily support the government, joined with the socialists.

The Temps, characterizing yesterday's session as a "shameful orgy of violence," goes so far as to suggest that President Fallieres dissolve the chamber if similar anarchy persists.

Saturday's Turbulent Session.

Paris, Oct. 30.—The debate on the railroad strike in which the government has been bitterly attacked in the chamber of deputies by the socialists, took a new and dramatic turn last night. The session was not only the most violent in the history of the French parliament, but rivaled in disorder and turbulence the sessions of the national convention during the French revolution. Premier Briand himself was the pivot on which the drama turned and the general verdict was that a certain government victory had been changed into possible defeat.

Startling under repeated attacks by M. Jaures, leader of the socialists, and others, the premier leaped to his feet and, defending the cabinet's suppression of the strike as a revolutionary act, exclaimed: "If the actual laws and the constitution were not to have hesitated to resist even to the point of the purpose of preserving the fatherland."

An uproar followed. The socialists jumped up and were joined by a number of radicals. With shouts of anger they moved towards the tribune, crying, "Resign, dictator, resign!" They were banged and the chamber was a perfect bedlam with the noise of the shouts and cheers. One socialist tried to fight his way to the tribune to strike M. Briand.

Throughout it all the premier stood calm and dignified, and for three-quarters of an hour waited patiently but vainly to make himself heard. Finally, M. Brisson, president of the chamber, amid cries from the socialists, adjourned the debate.

Jaures charged that the mobilization of the strikers—the calling of them to the colors—was an illegal military coup d'etat which violated the most sacred rights of the wage earner. He asserted that the government had played itself into the services of capitalism.

Premier Briand hurled back the charges, affirming that he had saved the country from anarchy, into which the socialist deputies were trying to plunge it by opening a way for the disorganization of society.

The premier, in an interview later, declared that the tumult had been arranged by the socialists, who had seized upon his speech to launch a movement of disorder and win over the republicans, who normally are supporters of the government.

Lisbon, Oct. 30.—Senor Franco, ex-premier of Portugal, who held office for the late King Carlos and Crown Prince Luis were assassinated in 1908, has been arrested on the charge of abuse of power during his incumbency. It is declared by the government that it did not inspire the arrest of Franco, but that it was the result of an investigation held by the judiciary. Franco's bail was fixed at $200,000. The charges against him include the issuance of seventy illegal decrees and the liquidation of King Carlos' debts, amounting to $300,000, with Crown funds on the pretext of augmenting the civil list.

ere granting the right to strike and has named a commission of arbitration to take up labor disputes. Pale green and bright red have been adopted as the colors of the national flag.

FOES MADE FRIENDS BY KAISER'S VISIT

Belgium, Prejudiced Against the German Ruler, Won Over by His Tact.

Brussels, Belgium, Oct. 30.—Kaiser Wilhelm has left a deep and favorable impression on Belgium. Royal and aristocratic circles were delighted with him, while the majority of the people were proud that their little kingdom had been honored by so august a visitor. Through his sojourn here the Kaiser behaved with peculiar tact and kindness. He seemed to realize that the situation was "delicate and therefore was determined to win the approval of all, including even the socialists.

Attempts to organize active demonstrations against him came to nothing and this is regarded as especially remarkable since Brussels is a center of socialism, besides being a French-speaking city where French are numerous and French ideas popular.

Visitor Silenced His Foes.

Before the emperor came one heard indignant expressions concerning him. People said he ought to stay at home and not flaunt himself in the face of a city where everything German is regarded with suspicion and dislike by many of the inhabitants. Belgians, however, admire a brilliant and eloquent man and the Kaiser took the first opportunity to show his gifts in this direction. The effect was magical. Men ceased carping, were silent and eventually expressed their admiration.

"We would rather take off our hats to President Fallieres," said a shopkeeper. "We admire the French executive, but we must not forget that during the Brussels exhibition the Germans were our best customers. They came over here to have a good time and they spent money freely. Belgian workers dislike the Germans, but they held their peace when Wilhelm passed through the streets."

The Kaiser chose the right time to come, just after the Germans had made so good an impression at the exhibition. Everybody here regards the visit as a part of his far-seeing plan to make Germany popular on the continent, thereby lessening the difficulties that confront the fatherland's aspirations to become an even greater empire than it is.

That the men intend to continue the fight and that if necessary it would be extended throughout the country was declared today by Vice President Hoffman of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters at a meeting of the strikers today. A tentative list of grievances was drawn up, it includes a demand for an eleven-hour working day, with one hour for luncheon, and an increase of $5 a month for all men who are now receiving $75 a month or less.

WILL TEACH MINERS HOW TO SAVE LIFE

Newly Established Branch of the Federal Government Arranges to Send Six Portable Rescue Stations to Various Mining Districts of the United States.

This is the First Important Step by the Bureau in Its Efforts to Reduce the Appalling Death Roll at the Collieries—Demonstrations Are to Be Given.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The first of six portable mine rescue stations with which the new bureau of mines plans to instruct miners in the use of mine rescue apparatus and first aid to the injured appliances will start on its mission tomorrow morning. It will be known as car No. 1 and will start from Pittsburgh and cover the anthracite fields in Pennsylvania and vicinity.

About Nov. 1 car No. 2 is expected to reach the bureau of mines rescue station at Urbana, Ills., where it will receive its full equipment. This car will then proceed to Danville, Ills., Terre Haute, Ind., and through southern Indiana to Evansville. Four other cars, with headquarters at Rock Springs, Wyo., Billings, Mont., Salt Lake City, Utah, and Knoxville, Tenn., will be turned over to the bureau of mines shortly.

This is the first important step taken by the new bureau in its efforts to reduce the appalling loss of life in American coal mines. In addition to a mining engineer, who will lecture on greater safety in mining, and a Red Cross surgeon, who will give demonstrations in first aid to the injured, each car will have a complete corps of rescue men who will teach the miners how to use oxygen helmets, as well as train them in practical rescue work. Stops long enough to enable the miners to gain through training in rescue work will be made at each mining town. This training will be free to the miners.

The loss of life in the mines of the United States, according to the bureau, amounts to from three to five for every 1,000 men employed, while the records from foreign countries show from one to two killed in each 1,000 men employed.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The population of Minneapolis is 301,408, an increase of 48.7 per cent over 202,718 in 1900. St. Paul's population is 214,744, giving the twin cities together 516,152. The gain for St. Paul is almost 32 per cent as against the 49 per cent of Minneapolis. In 1900 St. Paul showed a gain of 12 1/2 per cent and Minneapolis a gain of 23.1 per cent.

In announcing the figures for Minneapolis, Census Director Duran issued a statement in which he said that 4,668 names had been eliminated from the original enumeration, but that there was no evidence of any concerted attempt on the part of the enumerators to fraudulently pad the returns.

State Attorney Burke, following the discharge of the jury, declared the case would be retried at once and probably would be the first criminal case set for the November term of the Sangamon county circuit court.

MR. TAFT STOPS REMOVAL OF IVY FROM ARLINGTON.

Washington, Oct. 30.—President Taft has sustained the protest made by many Grand Army posts and civil war veterans against the removal of ivy from the graves of soldiers in Arlington national cemetery. The president has issued orders that no more ivy shall be removed. At the same time the rules against planting ivy and regulating the size of tombstones will be enforced.

There should be no word of criticism of Chairman Knox because more speakers have not been sent to the upper peninsula to speed up the Republican campaign.

Senator Root approached the question from a little different angle. His point that the reputation of the Republican party in New York would be more a repudiation of the Taft administration than of Roosevelt is a valid one.

If the action started by United States District Attorney Todd at Tacoma, Wash., is carried to a successful conclusion a precedent will be set that will perhaps lead socialists who are accustomed to use violent language regarding the government and the federal constitution to curb their tongues.

There is only one more week for the candidates to get in the last of their campaigning.

A LAUGH OR TWO.

Mother Love. The late William James, Harvard's famous psychologist, would often illuminate a mystic subject with an appropriate anecdote.

Discussing motherhood in a lecture on psychology, Professor James once said: "A teacher asked a boy this question in fractions: 'Suppose that your mother baked an apple pie and there were seven of you—the parents and five children. What part of the pie would you get for your portion?'"

"A sixth, ma'am," the boy answered. "But there are seven of you," said the teacher. "Don't you know anything about fractions?"

"Yes, ma'am," said the boy. "I know all about fractions, but I know all about mother, too. Mother'd say she didn't want no pie."—Exchange.

A Matter of Opinion. Father's voice rolled down the stairs and into the dim and silent parlor.

"Yes, papa dear." "Ask that young man if he has the time." "A moment of silence." "Yes, George has his watch with him." "Then ask him what the time is." "He says it is 11:48, papa." "Then ask him if he doesn't think it is about bedtime?"

By the extraordinary conditions of her neck he concluded she was trying to get a glimpse of the back of her new blouse; by the tense line and scintillating flash about her lips, he concluded that her mouth was full of pins.

"Umph—goof—suff—wuff—she—ff—suff," she asked. "Quite so, my dear," he agreed. "It looks very nice."

"Ouff—wuff—so—gs—ph—rf—ugh—ight?" was her next remark. "Perhaps it would look better if you did that," he nodded, "but it is very nice as it is."

"I've asked you twice to raise the blinds, so that I can get more light, James!" she exclaimed. "Can't you understand plain English?"—Lippincott's Magazine.

What a Woman Knows. Here is a bit of conversation that is as clear-sighted as it is witty.

"So Erna is engaged," said Eleanor, with a curl of her lip. "Well, I'm sorry for the man, that's all. She doesn't know the first thing about keeping house."

"Oh, yes, she does, though," was Fannie's assuring reply. "Well, I'd like to know what it is," was the doubting response.

"The very first thing, which is to get a man to keep house for."—Judge.

A Miracle Defined. Michael Butler, one of Uncle Sam's trustees, who carries mail to the jockies at the Philadelphia navy yard, and over Gray's ferry road to the naval home, had this joke the other day for a party of friends.

"Mike said to Pat: 'Can you tell me the definition of the word miracle?'" "Sure," said Pat, with a grin. "Well, you tell me?" queried Mike.

"I'll do that," replied Pat. "Now just turn around." "Mike did as he was told, and Pat booted him hard.

"Mike straightened up in anger. "Did you feel that?" asked Pat, with a chuckle. "You bet your life I did," Mike replied.

"Well, if you hadn't felt it, it would have been a miracle."—Philadelphia Times.

REPUBLICANS NOW SHOWING ENTHUSIASM

County Chairman Bentley Expresses Bigger Majorities This Fall Than Ever.

The Republican campaign in Houghton county has just opened, but already a great deal of enthusiasm is being shown.

County Chairman Bentley, who is being shown as the Republican candidate for Congress, is the one who has been the most active in the campaign.

Horatio Earle tonight. Hon. Horatio S. Earle, former state highway commissioner, prominent as a gubernatorial candidate in the Republican primary two years ago, is to be in Houghton this evening.

Those who know Mr. Earle will go a long way to hear him talk. This need not necessarily be because of his Republicanism, either, though that is of the highest standard.

On Getting Out the Vote. Chairman Bentley wants this campaign to blaze with enthusiasm, because he finds that many Republicans have believed that the election of the Republican ticket is a foregone conclusion.

County Naturalization Club. The campaign for the naturalization of every resident of Houghton county who is foreign born and can comply with the tenure regulations is growing.

Children Who Are Sickly. Mothers who value their own comfort and the welfare of their children, should never be without a box of Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children.

Upper Peninsula. John Clark of Whitefish, Chippewa county has just marketed 2,900 bushels of cranberries that were raised on his farm.

Indian Lands Escaping Taxation. The board of supervisors of Baraga county has adopted a resolution the text of which is as follows: "We respectfully protest to the Hon. Commissioner of Indian Affairs against his approval of deeds conveying timber only, for the reason that such alienation keeps the fee of the land in the Indian allottee and therefore exempts from taxation, in practically every instance of sale the inclusion of the fee would add very little to the purchase price and would add the lands to our tax rolls."

MUCH CASH HOARDED IN COPPER COUNTRY

It Is Placed at $2,000,000 - Postal Bank System May Bring It Out.

Postmaster R. B. Lang of Houghton has not as yet received an official notice of the call to Washington to take instructions in the management of the new postal savings bank, and knows of it only through the Associated Press dispatches.

Houghton county appears to be a good field for the postal savings bank experiment, judging from the expressions of businessmen. They find that a portion of the large foreign-born population knows little of American banks, and the value of a bank to them being a matter of education.

Widow Awarded Damages. A jury in the Ontonagon county circuit court on Saturday awarded to Mrs. Jackola, administratrix of the estate of Matti Jackola, deceased, a verdict of $5,000 damages against the Lake Copper company.

LADIES OF THE MACCABEES OF THE WORLD

Is Not Raising Its Rates Nor Making Any Change or Readjustment. Local members of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World have called attention to the confusion which seems to exist in the minds of the public on account of the similarity of the name of that order with the name of another fraternal insurance society for women.

The Ladies of the Maccabees of the World has absolutely no connection with the Ladies of the Modern Maccabees, an order which is at present re-adjusting. Its management is and has always been wholly by women and its funds have always been entirely separate from those of any other order.

It has a membership of 154,000 women in 46 states and provinces of the United States and Canada. It is further distinguished from other orders by the fact that it is the original of its order. Its growth here has been steady, and it now has in this state a large number of members, all of whom are paying rates based on the National Fraternal Congress Mortality table.

Although established in 1892, this order did not begin to work in Michigan until 1904. Its growth here has been steady, and it now has in this state a large number of members, all of whom are paying rates based on the National Fraternal Congress Mortality table.

These rates provide for a reserve fund for the safe protection of the home without increased cost to the members. This fund, which now amounts to $4,512,561.64, is safely invested in municipal bonds, and draws interest annually of $175,000 and over.

Women who join the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World receive a 10% increase in cost in years to come as they advance in years or possibly fail in health. Each member pays the cost of her own protection.

The following names are taken from the Report for 1909 of the Michigan Insurance Department, and from published official reports of the Order, show its splendid financial condition and substantial growth:

Table showing membership statistics for the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World, including total membership, benefit membership, and assets.

Net increase in benefit membership for Michigan in 1909, 1908, 1907, 1906, 1905, 1904, 1903, 1902, 1901, 1900.

Dear Madam: Answering your inquiry of the 3rd inst, permit me to say that the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World is financially one of the strongest fraternal societies doing business in this state.

Mrs. Max Klar was elected a member of the club, and it was announced that Evan Williams the tenor would give a recital in Marquette January 20th.

Rogers will tender his resignation as pastor of the church, and if the resignation is accepted the Presbyterian church at its meeting at Iron Mountain Friday, will be asked to dissolve the present relation of Mr. Rogers and the Marquette church. LOST CHILD DROWNED.

Bloodhounds Traced Escanaba Boy's Steps to Bank of River.

T. D. Arnold, of the Arnold Detective bureau, of Grand Rapids, was in the city yesterday with two bloodhounds, having come from Escanaba, where the dogs traced the footsteps of little Rene Chaille from his parents' home to the bank of the Escanaba river, and the body was found in the stream a short time later. The child strayed away from home last Tuesday and was last seen by a man digging potatoes, about a mile from the house. The child evidently started to go to the place where the family formerly lived, but took a road leading to the river instead of to the old homestead. The dogs got the scent through the afternoon with little difficulty and brought up the river bank not more than thirty feet from where the child's body was found. The Chaille family live on a farm about ten miles from Escanaba. Mr. Arnold's dogs attracted considerable attention in Marquette yesterday as they are splendid specimens of bloodhounds. Mr. Arnold left last night for his home in Grand Rapids.

BOWLING NEWS.

Past Week Has Been a Lively One at Down Town Alleys.

The past week has been a lively one at the down town alleys. All of the games scheduled in the handrap match were played and all but a very few games in the blind five-back league have been played. Those who have games yet to play must play them off today or tomorrow, as the drawing will take place Tuesday night. Johnson has the highest total and the highest score for one game in the five-back game, 517 and 67, respectively.

Tonight a number of Marquette bowlers will go to Ishpeming to play with Ishpeming bowlers and will return on the Owl's special train. It is expected that enough will make the trip to make up two five-men teams.

The schedule for the five-men league games this week is as follows: Monday—Lafayettes vs. Canucks, and Lafayettes vs. Summit House; Tuesday—Square Deals vs. Guild Hall B; Wednesday—Vikings vs. Pilgrims; Thursday—Vikings vs. Summit House; Friday—Guild Hall A vs. Yankees.

REPUBLICAN RALLY
WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Lower Peninsula Speakers and W. R. Oates of Calumet Will Be Heard Here.

The deadly quiet of one of the most lethargic campaigns that has ever been experienced here will be broken in on Wednesday evening, when a Republican rally will be addressed, either at the opera house or the city hall, by Thomas W. Nadell, dean of Olivet college; W. S. Humphrey, of Saginaw; and W. R. Oates, of Calumet. It will be the only Republican rally held here so far this fall, and for all that is now known to the contrary will be the only rally of the campaign. As the Democrats have held but one meeting, which was addressed by Mr. Hemans, no previous campaign of similar importance has ever passed so quietly in this city and in Marquette county as a whole.

Messrs. Nadell and Humphrey are reported to be strong speakers and they will discuss all the issues of the campaign, speaking particularly for the state ticket. Mr. Oates was an effective campaigner for Mr. Osborn before the primaries and is thoroughly informed on all the mooted matters in connection with state affairs.

The apparent lack of interest in the campaign is commented on in every gathering where politics are referred to. It has rarely been that the voters have displayed so much apathy with a fall election so close at hand. There is considerable apprehension that the vote will be light, but it is hoped that the apathy is more apparent than real, that it only means that the voters have made up their minds what they are going to do, and that they will be at the polls in force a week from tomorrow.

Tom A. Hanna, the publisher of the Iron Mountain Press, was in Marquette the latter part of last week. He said that there was little interest in politics apparent in Dickinson county, but ascertained that, notwithstanding, the situation is one satisfactory to the Republicans, as there is practically no disaffection and the normal party majority will be obtained. Mr. Osborn being particularly strong. Mr. Hemans also predicted that a large vote will be polled, as the party wheelers are taking steps to get the voters out.

So far there have been few signs of activity on the part of the Republican committee in Dickinson county. Two years ago much more interest was taken in the campaign than now, but, of course, 1908 was a presidential year. Candidates for county offices are conducting very unobtrusive campaigns. The Republican nominees figure that they are safe with large majorities, even without much work, and that is a naturally a condition that does not conduce to work.

SCHOOL LEGISLATION WAS MUCH DISCUSSED

President Kaye Greatly Pleased With State Teachers' Meeting at Bay City.

President J. H. Kaye, of the Normal school, returned Saturday afternoon from a trip to the lower peninsula, in the course of which he attended the meeting of the Michigan State Teachers' association held at Bay City. President Kaye states that the meeting was unusually well attended and that the program was of exceptional interest. One subject of general interest—that of revised and additional school legislation—received a great deal of attention. The resolutions as finally adopted contained a provision recommending the passage of a law requiring county uniformity in school text books. The matter of text book uniformity received considerable attention at the Upper Peninsula teachers' meeting at Negaunee a few weeks ago. As at the state meeting, there were some who favored state wide uniformity, others who wanted county uniformity and still others who preferred that the law be left unchanged. Those favoring county uniformity were in the majority at the Bay City meeting. Another resolution adopted calls for a re-apportionment of the primary school fund. In some counties this fund is increasing faster than it is expended, while in other counties it is being wisely utilized from year to year. Some thought it best to change the law so that the fund might be used for school apparatus and adornment, as well as for teachers' salaries. The wish of the majority, however, as incorporated in the resolution, was to pass by those counties where the reserve had reached more than a stated sum until it was reduced, and to divide the entire amount available each year among the counties that had no large reserve. Numerous other matters of legislation were considered, among them being: Pensions for teachers who have served for a specified term of years; legalization of the office of superintendent of schools; powers of boards of health relative to unsanitary school buildings and the construction of new buildings; and the advisability of bringing all school boards under a uniform law, the same as a general law now governs unincorporated towns and cities. Considerable attention was devoted to the subject of teaching agriculture in the high schools, and reports from schools where agriculture is being taught were of a very favorable nature. One of the most interesting lectures was given by Captain Peary, who told of his experiences in finding the north pole. Professor E. A. Lyman, of the State Normal school at Ypsilanti, defeated Superintendent I. N. Gilbert of Traverse City for state president. The other officers were elected as follows: First vice president, E. E. Ferguson, Sault Ste. Marie; second vice president, N. B. Sloan, Lansing; treasurer, E. N. McElroy, Coldwater; executive committee, W. F. Lewis and Professor C. O. Davis, Ann Arbor.

PLEASED WITH OUTLOOK.

Wm. M. Smith, of St. Johns, Says Osborn Will Get Handsome Majority.

Wm. M. Smith, of St. Johns, formerly prosecuting attorney of Clinton county, who is making a campaign speaking tour in behalf of Chase S. Osborn and the entire state ticket, spent yesterday in this city and left this morning for Onawa, Presque Isle county, where he will address a Republican meeting tonight. Last week Mr. Smith spoke at meetings in Manistique, Gladstone and Escanaba, and Saturday night he addressed a large and enthusiastic assemblage of voters at Iron Mountain.

That Mr. Osborn will carry the lower peninsula by 40,000 and that his majority north of the straits depends largely on the extent to which the vote is gotten out, is the prediction of Mr. Smith. He states that no such apathy is apparent in the lower peninsula as is to be found here. Politics is lively in the down state counties, and while the Democrats are better organized than two years ago, he says that a big majority of the voters are with the Republican candidate. The mayoralty fight in Detroit puts an uncertain aspect on the result in Wayne county, but Mr. Smith is confident that Mr. Osborn will get a substantial majority, notwithstanding local conditions.

THEATRICAL.

Comic Opera in German.

Americans who do not speak German are just as enthusiastic over the merits of "Alma, Wo Wohnst Du?" ("Alma, Where Do You Live?"), which comes to the opera house Saturday night, as are the Germans themselves. There have always been as many Americans in the audiences as there have been Germans, and while they have not been able to speak the language of the fatherland, they have been just as enthusiastic in their laughter and just as happy in their appreciation of the delightful music as the many who are more familiar with German. This play was originally a Parisian vaudeville so-called because it pictured the life of the great city. It was written by Paul Herve, with music by Jean Briquet. It was adapted for the American stage by Adolf Philippe, who wrote some additional music for it. One of its big numbers is "Alma, Wo Wohnst Du?" waltz, which has succeeded the "Merry Widow" waltz in popularity. A dashing German singing comedienne, Miss Cora Morena, will appear as the heroine, Alma Defaur, and incidentally will sing the "Alma" waltz. The play will be presented by the Adolf Philippe company. The organization of comedians and singers includes besides Miss Morena several capable players. The musical comedy scored a great success at the Chicago Opera House.

CITY RECORDER HAS HIS HANDS FULL

Business of the Cemetery Will Hereafter Be Conducted Under Complete New System.

W. H. Mitchell, the city recorder, has been the busiest man in Negaunee since the new cemetery was taken over by the city. Practically all of the clerical work in connection with the transfer, the sale of lots and recording of the same, has fallen on his shoulders.

The city cemetery has been loosely conducted for some years past, and no records were made of many of the lots sold. Under the system being prepared by Mr. Mitchell and Engineer Brotherton of the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company, the records will be complete.

Mr. Mitchell has been besieged by people desiring deeds to their lots, but up to the present time he has been unable to furnish them, as the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company has not yet deeded the property to the city.

More than 300 people who procured deeds to their lots, but who were not paid for them. The recorder is preparing receipts for the money paid to him, with the understanding that the deeds will be mailed to the purchasers as soon as possible.

The opening of new books for both cemeteries involves considerable work. In order to ascertain who are entitled to $10 lots in exchange for lots they own in the old cemeteries, a list of the owners of lots in both old burial grounds had to be secured. Some 200 lots had never been recorded and the only way that the owners could be ascertained was by looking up the number on the graves.

Mr. Mitchell is receiving many inquiries from persons living outside of the city who will not be able to come here to look after the transfer of the remains of their relatives. More than fifty people have asked him to look after the work for them, and to select their lots.

R. A. Brotherton and some of the members of the council were at the cemetery yesterday, issuing lot certificates to persons who were unable to make their selections during the week. The transfer of the caskets and tombstones from the old cemetery will start this morning.

LOCAL LACONICS.

A. C. Seass went to Little Lake yesterday, on a few days' visit to Joe Richardson.

The Marquette County Gas & Electric company is putting in its winter supply of coal.

Samuel Spargo has returned to Escanaba, after a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Bowden, of Negaunee.

Mrs. Able Levine, who, with other members of her family, accompanied the remains of her father, the late Ferdinand Bendig, to Detroit, has returned home.

The funeral of the late E. LeBeau was held Saturday morning and was largely attended by Negaunee friends. The remains were taken from the train to St. Paul's church, where services were conducted. Interment was in the new cemetery.

Fred B. Trathen, a former well-known resident of Negaunee, who held the office of justice of the peace in Calumet for some years until last spring, when he was defeated, has announced that he will be a candidate for the office again next spring.

Several Negaunee young men plan to conduct a series of dancing parties during the winter months. The first was given a week ago Friday at the Scandinavian society's hall. The second will be given next Friday evening. The holiday party will be conducted on an elaborate scale.

The Lake Superior Heating company is installing a steam heating plant in the Bijou theater, in the Sundberg block. The plant will be used only for heating the theater and it is the property of D. E. Rice, the proprietor, who has a ten-year lease on the room. The plant will be in operation the latter part of the week.

Thermometers in the city Saturday morning registered fourteen degrees above zero at 5 o'clock. This was about 10 degrees colder than it had been at any previous time this fall. Several sleighs were in use Saturday morning, but the sleighing was not good.

The Catholics at Lathrop are soliciting funds to aid in the erection of a church. The Britz brothers of Lathrop contributed $500 toward the fund, and arrangements are now being made to start work on the building. Peter Britz and Mrs. John Britz were in the city recently, soliciting aid.

Good progress is being made at the new Labor temple building on Tobin street, which is now entirely enclosed. It is expected that the building will be completed by Thanksgiving day, when it will be dedicated. A turkey dinner will be served and an entertainment will be given in the evening.

Several Negaunee sportsmen plan on hunting deer this year at Grand Island. The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company will permit hunters to shoot there on payment of the regular state license in addition to a fee to be charged by the company. There are many deer on the island and hunters should have little difficulty filling their license tags. Permits to hunt can be purchased at the Hotel Williams, on the island, and parties hunting there will be able to secure accommodations at the hotel or in the company's cottages. Several parties hunted there last fall as guests of the company.

foot is probably the best in the mine, which shows that the ore is improving in grade with depth.

President Amster states that since Mr. Neill's report was made the shaft has reached the 900-foot level and cut the ore body. From the location of the ore cut on the ninth level it would indicate that it is at least 250 feet longer on that level than it was on the seventh. While little or no drifting has as yet been done on the ninth level, the showing is very encouraging and promises to be much better than on any of the upper levels. Developments have proven the Bertha vein to dip slightly from vertical and this has simplified future prospecting for the vein. It has proven the Bertha ore body 150 feet further east on the 350-foot level than on the 300-foot level; 200 feet further east or longer on the 500-foot level than was previously known to be on the 350-foot level, and 325 feet further east or longer on the 700-foot level than previously known to be on the 500-foot level. Developments have also demonstrated that the ore extends in depth and most of all it has proven that the strength and value of the ore increases in depth, as the ore on the 700-foot level is by far the best ore in the entire mine. In short, the past year's work has really begun to demonstrate the value of the property as a mine.

EVER WATCHFUL

A Little Care Will Save Many Marquette Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health. The discharge not excessive or infrequent. Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you. They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick.

Peter Doetsch, 330 E. Prospect St., Marquette, Mich., says: "I found Doan's Kidney Pills to be a remedy that lives up to the claims made for it. My kidneys were weak for some time and the kidney secretions not only contained sediment, but were irregular and painful in passage. My back ached intensely and I was unable to stoop or lift without having sharp pains in my loins. Headaches were common and I felt all tired out when I arose in the morning. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they restored me to good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mining News

BOSTON & CORBIN.

Incorporated in the Boston & Corbin annual statement is a report of Consulting Engineer James W. Neill. This says that "since October, 1909, work has been confined almost entirely to sinking the shaft and opening the 700-foot level. In rough figures, the ore is now developed 1,000 feet in length and 750 feet in depth and in this area it is conservative to estimate a developed ore tonnage of between 200,000 and 250,000 tons. The 900-foot level will, of course, add a considerable ore tonnage to the ore in sight. I have no hesitation in saying that it is all of as good or better grade than the average ore now being mined in the Butte mines or elsewhere in the state of Montana, and there the ore of the 700-

Wife Has Disappeared—

E. A. Squires, of Escanaba, was in Marquette the latter part of the week, looking for his nineteen-year-old wife, whom he says mysteriously disappeared from his home three weeks ago. He is working southward and is stopping in every town.

Big Output of Bricks—

At the brickyard of W. J. Turner at Vulcan, Dickinson county, over 2,500,000 bricks were manufactured the past season. A ready sale is found for the product. The product is well-made and the material is of high grade. Mr. Turner has practically an inexhaustible supply of clay.

May Buy Grand Marais Mill—

The concrete work for the new boiler-house at the manufacturing site of the Sagola Lumber company at Sagola, Dickinson county, will be completed this week. Work on the main building is being held back pending the result of a deal now on for the purchase of a saw-mill plant near Grand Marais, which, if the deal is closed, will be taken down and shipped to Sagola to replace the one destroyed by fire some weeks ago. John J. Flanagan and C. F. Kusely, officials of the company, were in Grand Marais last week to look the plant over.

Mail-Carrying Contract Awarded—

C. B. Beaulieu, former county road commissioner and one-time resident of Grand Marais, has secured the contract for carrying the United States mails between Seney and Grand Marais. The distance is about thirty-five miles. Mr. Beaulieu will enter upon his duties as soon as the tearing up of the railroad prevents further transportation by rail to and from Grand Marais.

Important Real Estate Deal—

The biggest realty deal of the year at the Soo was consummated when the Great Lakes Towing company took over all that part of private land claim No. 105 lying north of Water street, having purchased it of Eben S. Wheeler for a consideration of $25,000. The property is the best improved water frontage in the Soo. It lies between the Perry and Kemp docks and has a length of about 120 feet. It is the intention of the company to put the property in shape to accommodate its tugs and wrecking outfit next summer and the work of constructing a dock will be begun in the near future.
