"Revolution" Quelled, Reports Diaz.

New York, Monday, Nov. 28.—President Porfirio Diaz addressed the following telegram to the New York American and which is published here this morning.

The recent riots in certain portions of Mexico are the political work of Francisco Madero. According to proclamations he published on throwing himself into the attempted revolution, his object was to attain the presidency by force, since he was unable to do so by the votes of his fellow citizens.

"No danger exists here for natives or for foreigners, but it is very distressing that the press should publish sensational and exaggerated news which tend to cause alarm in the money markets and do damage to business.

The Mexican people love peace and understand its benefits and will not accept any revolution. Further, business men understand that their interests would be in danger in the hands of persons who profess socialism and carry on an anarchistic propaganda.

ONE BIG NEED IN ALASKA IS A CHEAP FUEL

Governor Clark Declares in His Annual Report That the Present Policy in Respect to Coal Lands is Greatly Hampering the Development of the Region.

He Says the Deposits Are Well Nigh Inexhaustible and He Wants Them Opened to Mining Under a Lease System Fair to All Interests Concerned.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Expressing it as his opinion that the want of cheap fuel and the delay in opening the Alaska coal fields are the strongest adverse factors in the present progress of territorial development, Governor Walter E. Clark, of Alaska, in his annual report to the secretary of the interior, made public today, declares that "the ill-advised policy of forbidding all development of the large coal resources of Alaska, or of placing such restrictions upon development as to make the embarkation of private capital impossible is to be deprecated, while the policy of conservation by proper use is to be encouraged.

"This coal," he says, "is needed for the industries of the territory and for the physical comfort of our people, and an account should be withheld from these uses.

Coal Enough For Centuries.

The governor says that the advice of the extremists that all the Alaskan coal should be kept as a reserve supply has nothing to commend it. A conservative estimate, made by Alfred B. Brooks, of the Geological survey, shows that at the present rate of consumption the marketable Alaska coals could last five or six thousand years.

Little progress has been made in railroad building in the Northwest territory during the past year, it is asserted. The officers of the Alaska Northern Railway, who will lay the main line to the coal fields, declare that the principal factor in preventing a continuation of construction is the unsettled state of the coal-land question and the inability of any citizen to obtain title or lease to these lands.

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—President Gompers and all the old officers of the American Federation of Labor were re-elected yesterday, without opposition. The election was assured because of the fact that Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison are under sentence to jail and at this time no one could oppose them.

code laws caused by the absence of legal requirement for the regulation of births, marriages and deaths in the territory, the governor says that instances have multiplied in the last few years illustrating in a striking way the evils which must surely result from the absence of vital records.

Domestic coal to the value of $208,350 was shipped to Alaska from the United States during the fiscal year ended June 30, according to the report. In addition to this, foreign coal valued at $83,453 was imported during the year, bringing the total of all coal importations for the year up to $664,794.

Merchandise and precious metals shipped from Alaska to the United States during 1910 amounted to $34,628,533, an increase over 1909 of $293,100, according to the report.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 27.—Arizona's constitution will be the briefest written in recent years by any state. According to estimates, it will contain only 16,000 words, as against 25,000 for New Mexico's constitution and 104,000 for that of Oklahoma.

ILLEGAL DISTILLING IS ON THE INCREASE

This Especially So Where There Is Statewide Prohibition—Interesting Data.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The United States has just passed through the banner year for drinks and smokes and oleomargarine. Here is the nation's record for the twelve months ended June 30, as shown in the figures of the internal revenue bureau: 183,000,000 gallons of distilled spirits—30,000,000 gallons more than the year before. 59,486,111 barrels of fermented liquors, an increase of 3,000,000. 7,900,000 cigars—100,000,000 more than 1909. 6,830,000,000 cigarettes, an increase of 1,000,000,000. 402,000,000 pounds of plug, fine cut, cube cut, granulated, sliced smoking or chewing tobacco or snuff—4,000,000 pounds more than the year before.

Illicit distilling and other manufacturing of moonshine whiskey is on the increase, especially where there are statewide prohibition laws. "where there are statewide prohibition laws."

WESTERN MINERS TO GET A CHARTER

Labor Convention's Action Wipes Policy of Trade Autonomy Out of Existence.

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—President Gompers and all the old officers of the American Federation of Labor were re-elected yesterday, without opposition. The election was assured because of the fact that Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison are under sentence to jail and at this time no one could oppose them.

A sensational feature was the announcement of President Gompers that there should be no hard and fast rule governing the jurisdiction of trade unions. It was a recognition of the fact that the labor movement is moving in the direction of industrial organization and means that the Western Federation of Miners will secure a charter from the executive council by a majority of more than 2,000 votes.

This was the most important question from a labor standpoint that has come before the convention and the action taken means that any organization in any industry can now claim jurisdiction over every worker in it. The old policy of trade autonomy is wiped out of existence. It also means that the standard of wages for the coal miners has been broken.

Several hundred letters have been received by President Gompers inquiring if he had opposed the organization of colored men. In answer to this a resolution was presented and signed by all the executive officers of the federation, in which it was stated that the organized labor movement knows no race, no

TASK OF TAFT IS ONE THAT WORRIES HIM

Difficulties He Must Face at the Coming Session of Congress Are More Complexing Than Have Confronted a President in a Score of Years.

Washington, Nov. 27.—When congress meets a week from tomorrow it will have just three months in which to perform whatever may be the demands of the Republican administration. After that the fate of the White House legislative program will depend upon Democratic house and a Republican senate, a condition which will continue until the end of Mr. Taft's present term.

Confronted with a situation strewn with confusion, the success or failure of the approaching short session of the Sixty-first congress is believed to rest with the character of the executive message, according to the Republican party leaders here. Many of the regular Republicans who were defeated in the recent elections can not be expected to carry with the best grace the blows so harshly administered and this fact itself sets out for the president a task offering difficulties far more complexing than any that have been presented an executive in a score of years.

Realizing that he will be criticised if he fails to demand a further revision of the tariff, especially of the wool and woolen schedule, and fully cognizant of the fact that the prospects would be all against the success of such a program if submitted, the president, it is said, has not made up his mind definitely what his course will be. The chances are that he will insist upon delaying the wool and woolen schedule, but will offer to the Democratic house and Republican senate a year hence a program for tariff revision.

HOSTILE RESOLUTION DEFEATED

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—An attack on President Taft was defeated in the final session of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterways association convention here yesterday afternoon after the resolutions committee had asked for the approval of its report. Friends of Mr. Taft rushed to the platform and appealed to the delegates to eliminate what governor Deussen of Illinois had termed "an insult." After two hours' warm discussion the objectionable section was stricken out.

The section causing the debate read: "And in bitter disappointment and in sorrow we are compelled to deplore the course of our executive in delaying the creation of the board provided in the last raters and harbors act, and in finally appointing a board which has proved unfriendly to our policy and project, despite our patriotic effort to aid him by information concerning physical and commercial conditions better known to us than to others."

Delegate Gallagher of San Francisco wanted to know if that would mean that the organized labor movement would take in Hindus, Japanese and Chinese. Congressman Wilson answered by saying that as long as they are here we must reckon with them and take them into our organizations.

"I want to say," said Gallagher, "that before we will organize the Asiatics we will see this American Federation of Labor in Hades."

Delegate Fuerst said that the declaration of the executive council resolution did not say that Asiatics had to live in the same house with Asiatics. The next convention will be held in Atlanta, Ga.

TIMBER INTERESTS WANT LEGISLATION

Michigan Very Backward in Her Forestry Policy—Thornton Green's Views.

"Michigan is very backward in her forestry legislation," said Thornton A. Green of Ontonagon at the Douglas House in Houghton yesterday.

Mr. Green is very confident that during its coming session Wisconsin's legislature will enact laws which will give the standing timber of the state adequate protection, thereby setting an example for Michigan and Minnesota.

"Compare this with the Michigan law," said Mr. Green, "which gives but $10,000 a year for the protection of the forests of the whole state!"

This legislation in Wisconsin is recommended by legislators, members of the public domain commission and by the big lumber interests and it seems certain of passage.

County Patrols Contemplated. The Northern Forest Protective association, which was organized recently at Marquette and of which Mr. Green is president, is formed partly for the purpose of promoting legislation for the protection of standing timber.

The forest fires in the last two years in the northern lake states have convinced state officials of the wisdom of protective measures.

Mr. Green said that there probably will be some objections to this legislation and taxation by people throughout the states affected, but he has an effective answer for any of their arguments.

Important Conference Shortly. Mr. Green has been appointed by the timber interests of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota to represent them at the Lake States Forestry conference at St. Paul Dec. 6 and 7.

THE OLD DOMINION LITIGATION.

The ruling of Judge Ward in the United States circuit court in New York in the suit of the Old Dominion Copper Mining & Smelting Company against the estate of Leonard Lewisohn permitting filing of certain amendments to the original bill of complaint involves only one of the two pieces of litigation instituted in New York for alleged fraud in promotion of the Old Dominion company.

One of the two cases in New York was based on the flotation of 100,000 of the original Old Dominion shares and the other on alleged fraud in the promotion of the Old Dominion company.

The Old Dominion company, since the decision of the Massachusetts suit in its favor, has been making strenuous efforts to secure a similar decision in the 100,000-share suit in which Judge Ward has just ruled.

The substance of the amendment concerned corresponds to the amendment filed in the Bigelow suit here in 1907. The amendment when filed will make the bill against the Lewisohn estate practically like the bill in the 100,000-share suit against Mr. Bigelow.

Recently Attorney Eugene Trendell, for the Lewisohn estate, moved in the New York litigation to strike the amendment in question from the court files and to have the case set down for final hearing next February.

A confirmation of this theory is had from a comparison of No. 7 and No. 9 drills which are only sixty feet apart, both vertical. No. 9 showed a felsite core practically its entire depth, similar to the Indiana lode, with more or less copper in it.

Expert geological opinion now is that the famous Indiana lode, which was cut by the No. 2 drill at a depth of 1,440 feet, is a felsite intrusion, having a strike due north and an outcrop of the usual northeast and southwest trend of the Lake Superior copper beds.

The theory is also advanced after a careful study of the various formations disclosed by the drill holes in the vicinity of No. 2 that the lode is practically vertical. Practical application of this theory explains why the various drills in the Indiana property, put down at various points and at various angles adjacent to No. 2, failed to intercept the thin conglomerate lode cut by No. 2.

A confirmation of this theory is had from a comparison of No. 7 and No. 9 drills which are only sixty feet apart, both vertical. No. 9 showed a felsite core practically its entire depth, similar to the Indiana lode, with more or less copper in it.

Vertical shaft will be sunk, following practically the course of the No. 9 drill hole and active operations will be begun as soon as the Copper Range railroad is completed in the Indiana locality, some time next week.

Holes No. 10, 11 and 12 are already being driven in the overburden and are planned to complete a cross section of the property. No. 10 expects to be in the ledge in a day or two.

Munising
MUNISING WOMAN GETS DEER.
Miss T. A. Koschmider a Successful Huntress and a Crack Shot.
Miss T. A. Koschmider of Munising, who without a doubt heads the list of expert lady rifle shots of Northern Michigan, has returned from a successful deer hunting trip in the vicinity of her former home in Chippewa county, having killed her license in an effort of but a few hours. The young lady went home to attend the wedding of her brother and after the nuptials, and a real old time German celebration of the event, hied to the woods in quest of deer. After a tramp of something like twelve miles she stationed herself on a run-away, where she remained but a short time when two deer had her in sight. Two shots from her 25-35 carbine were all that was necessary to dispatch them. Alone she dressed and hung up the deer in the true fashion of the skilled hunter, and she returned home in time for the evening meal. Miss Koschmider has been successful in killing a deer license for the past three years. During the past year Miss Koschmider has taken up target practice and at several of the meets made excellent scores against many old and skilled shots. At the Channing meet in September she won a medal, at the Marquette meet a gun, and at the Munising meet she tied the score of Captain Patterson, champion rifle shot of Michigan, scoring 99 out of a possible 100. The young lady inherits her talent for shooting from both her parents, both her father and mother being excellent shots with both rifle and revolver, and possessing a good eye and a cool, steady nerve. Miss Koschmider, with practice and training, could undoubtedly within a short time take a position on a par with many of the fancy shots of the country.

Munising in Brief.
General Bates of the Soo was in Munising Friday.
Dr. T. W. Scholtes spent Thanksgiving with Hermansville friends.
Several vessels were in port for shelter during Saturday's storm on Lake Superior.
Mrs. L. B. Geismar and daughter of Chatham were the guests of Munising friends Saturday.
H. B. Freeman, prosecuting attorney-elect, spent Thanksgiving at his old home in lower Michigan.
The Alger county road commission held a regular meeting Wednesday and transacted routine business.
Hugh Johnson, of Au Train, and Hans Erickson, of the Huron Mountain club, were business callers in Munising Saturday.
William Green was over from Grand Marais Wednesday to attend the meeting of the Alger County Road commission, of which body he is a member.
J. H. Gattis, of Chatham, and Swan Anderson, of Limestone, members of the county road commission, were in attendance at the meeting of that body here last week.
The Superior Veneer & Co. company has completed their lake shipments of lumber for the season, the last cargo going forward on the Str. Runnels.
Arthur D. Wood, of Munising, has been appointed high secretary of the high court of Northern Michigan, Independent Order of Foresters. Mr. Wood succeeds C. F. Shreve, late of Gladstone, who recently removed from the jurisdiction, causing the vacancy which has been filled by appointment by the high standing committee. The appointment of Mr. Wood gives Munising two members of the high standing committee. John McMillan being the present past high chief ranger. The high court convenes every two years at which time officers are elected and other business transacted. The next meeting will be held in September of next year, the Greenhouses—Beautiful—Sorensen's greenhouses are a mass of bloom. The large sales of chrysanthemums, for Thanksgiving made some inroads in the stock, but there are large quantities left for the Christmas holidays. Chrysanthemums this year are unusually large and brilliant.

Robbed a Gas Meter—Ernest Orchard, 213 Genesee street, noticed Saturday morning that the drop-a-quarter-in-the-meter in the basement of his residence had been broken into and between 82 and 83 stolen. Mr. Orchard and family spent Thanksgiving in Ishpening and it is thought that the money was taken while they were away. Two footprints in the snow near the cellar window are the only clue.
Complaint from Mothers—Mothers and others who are accustomed to take out babies in sleds or sleighs for an airing complain of the walks which are kept entirely free from snow throughout the winter. It is very hard to push sleds over bare stone walks, and it is suggested for the convenience of mothers that citizens either leave an inch of snow on the walks, as many do, or at least leave a strip of snow at one side or the other of the walk, wide enough for the sled runners.
Admitted His Guilt—Michael Lindberg, who was arrested Friday evening for stealing a lady's fur lined coat, which was hanging in the hall on the second floor of the Salvation Army headquarters in the Ida block, pleaded guilty before Justice Byrne Saturday and was bound over to circuit court. The coat is valued at $65, which makes the crime a penal offense. Lindberg states that his coat was stolen from him at Gwinw Thanksgiving Day. Lindberg formerly worked at Cordwood, Alger county.

Talk on Germany—The German club of the Marquette High school will give a public entertainment in the high school assembly room Tuesday evening, at which Professor Lautner, of the Normal school, will give a talk on Germany. This talk will be in English and all interested in German and Germany are invited to attend. The high school German club is composed of about forty pupils, who meet weekly and pursue the study of German outside of the regular German courses provided in the high school curriculum.
Short Time at Railway Shops—Beginning today, the men employed in the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad shops will work fifty-five hours per week, eight hours the first five days of the week and five hours on Saturday. Since early fall the shops have been running nine hours per day and five hours on Saturday. During the summer, the men put in sixty hours per week. There is always less work at the railroad shops in the winter than in the summer, and it is customary to work shorter hours in the winter, but it is several years since the men were put on an eight-hour day, with Saturday afternoons off. Employees of the L. S. & I. shops will continue to work nine hours a day, as usual.
Mirror Screen at Bijou—Continuing along the line of progress laid out for this playhouse during the winter, the management is arranging to install a mirror screen which is the very latest and best device known for the projection of picture plays. There are various curtains and screens to throw pictures, but none of these compare with this mirror screen. Picture plays at the Bijou will be greatly improved. George

Powers and company are the vaudevillians on the bill the first half of the week and all who like illusions and magic, sleight of hand and black art, will enjoy this show. For the last half of the week, the Edwards are booked in a high class singing and talking act that is being well liked everywhere.

"MY CINDERELLA GIRL."
Richard Walton Tully, author of "The Rose of the Rancho," is the author of William Norris' "My Cinderella Girl," which will be seen at the opera house Friday night. This piece is a farce concerning college life and baseball. The plot revolves about Tom Harrington, a young man who has a bad case of baseballitis, but whose father is dead set against the game. The young man is on the Siwash college team, and one of the best players. He gets along very well until his father comes to visit him, when there are complications upon complications, and the fun grows fast and furious.
Tom Harrington's explanation of baseball terms, which he twists to fit the occasions are ludicrous, and his gibberish variations while he is explaining things to his father are provocative of much laughter. The piece was made for laughing purposes and as such is a success, for it had a run of 300 nights in Chicago. Added to the excellent farceful plot, a dozen song numbers from the pen of William Frederick Peters, and staged by Gus Schlick, are given, and they add greatly to the interest of the play. The chorus of prize beauties is sprightly and full of life, and the stage pictures are unique and pretty.

A number of our young people talk of attending the production of "My Cinderella Girl" at the Ishpeming theatre Tuesday evening.

Charles Johnson, surface boss at the American mine, shot two deer on his recent hunt in the Flat Rock district.

W. H. Oakley, of Ishpeming, was a business visitor in Diorite Saturday.

Earl Leininger and George Jaskoske, of Ishpeming, visited here one day last week.

The bus line recently established by Albert Argall between Diorite and Clarksburg is greatly appreciated by the residents of this place. The line is being well patronized and Mr. Argall hopes to be able to continue the service throughout the winter.

Samuel Davey and wife spent Wednesday in Ishpeming.

The Misses Hermans and Matthews, of Escanaba, are the guests of Nicholas May and wife.

H. R. Schmidt, chemist at the American mine, spent Thanksgiving in Ishpeming.

The infant son of Joseph Galarick, of Diorite, died suddenly last Wednesday. Interment was in the Ishpeming cemetery.

The masquerade ball, given Saturday night in the Diorite hall, under auspices of the Diorite Social club, was by far the most important social function ever held here. The hall was crowded to its capacity the greater part of the evening. Delegations were present from Ishpeming, Champion, Humboldt, Clarksburg and Dexter. The character representations were excellent. Nearly every one present wore a mask, and there were several creditable costumes. The prize winners were John Wasley, Miss Sophia Hobby, Vincent Flatto and Charles Kammerer. Lundahl's orchestra of Ishpeming furnished the music.

LIFE INSURANCE FOR DOGS.

The people of Frankfort, Germany, have thought of a beautiful plan for making money, and the New York Tribune lets us in on the secret. They have started a company to insure the lives of dogs. Henceforth when a Frankforter gets hard-up he has only to purchase a dog with a quarrelsome disposition, insure its life for a good round amount and turn it loose in the neighborhood of some dog that has a better fighting grip than his own. If the Frankforter can escape the notice of humane societies and of dog lovers who might consider this insurance scheme a mean trick on the friend of man, they may make a goodly profit out of their pets.

HILL PREDICTS BAD TIMES.

"We Have Sown Wind, and Must Reap Whirlwind," He Says.

New York, Nov. 25.—James J. Hill, to whom the financial district frequently looks for forecasts of the general business outlook, upon his return from the West today, expressed the belief that there would almost inevitably be a lack of employment this coming year, but that trouble would be avoided because the business men of the country have exercised a good deal of prudence.

Mr. Hill feels that the year ahead is one which will bring the natural results of tendencies which have shown themselves in the last two or three years.

"We have sown the wind," said Mr. Hill today, "and must expect to reap the whirlwind. This will mean loss of employment for many men."

Mr. Hill has no misgivings on the final outcome.

"The business of the country," he said, "is all right, for it is proceeding under caution. It is not exceeding the speed limit, and there will be no broken axles and no broken necks. In the Northwest general business is good with the exception of the grain situation, and in the middle West is good as a whole."

"The railroad situation as a whole, however, is not good. They are handling a good deal of business, and they will handle a good deal, but the trouble is that there has been no new work done by the railroads, and when traffic expands more there will be congestion, and that in the centres of heaviest traffic will mean added expense."

Mr. Hill would not discuss the rate situation, nor say to what extent his lines and other railroads are likely to place orders this year for rails and equipment.

DEAD MAN IN CHARGE OF SPEEDING TRAIN

Racine, Wis., Nov. 27.—With his hand on the throttle of a Milwaukee road locomotive, drawing a train of ten coaches filled with passengers and running forty miles an hour, Engineer Michael Crowley, Milwaukee, was struck with apoplexy near Corliss and later found to be dead by his fireman.

The fireman was first attracted by the engineer's failure to give the whistle signals at crossings. When Crowley failed to reply to a call the fireman stepped across the cat to find him dead.

Crowley was in charge of the locomotive pulling train No. 6, due at Corliss at 7:50 o'clock. The train arrived at Corliss late. There Crowley looked over his engine and received his orders as usual before starting on. It was about a mile south of Corliss that the fireman discovered that something was wrong. The fireman stopped the train and backed into Corliss, where Crowley's body was taken from the cab. Later it was brought into Racine.

The front of the store will be first to be finished, and, excepting for the entrance into the front doors, customers will not be interrupted in the least.

The price reductions recently advertised on all Coats, Suits, Hats, Dresses and Furs remain in force throughout the building alterations, and we fully intend that all who have Fall Garments to buy will take advantage now of the savings in the prices.

Upper Peninsula

Farmers' Short Course—

The Farmers' Short Course at the Menominee County Agricultural School will open Monday, (today), and will continue until the last week in March. This course is especially arranged for the young men and women of the farm who cannot find time to take a full term at the school. The features will be practical and the instruction in farming and in domestic science will be of a character to be useful in every day life on the farm. Special inducements are being held out to girls and the course in domestic science has been designed to meet the needs of those who can find it convenient to attend while the work on the farm is not pressing. The arrangement of the short course has been carefully planned by Superintendent Wojta.

Secures Big Wiring Contract—

The firm of McLauren & Needham, electrical contractors of Gladstone, has been awarded the contract for wiring the big saw mill of the G. Von Patien Lumber Company at Iron Mountain. The contract is one of the biggest of its kind to be given in this district of late months. The Gladstone concern has carried out some of the biggest wiring jobs in the peninsula in the past few years doing the work at the I. Stephenson Company's mill; at the Northern Western Co. plant, the Van's Harbor Lumber Company's mill and other similarly large contracts in this part of the peninsula.

Cut In Saloon Brawl—

In a terrific fight at the saloon of Alfred Carlson Victor Hansen sustained a long cut across the arm from a knife wielded by Matt Johnson. Hansen is a section hand, employed by the Escanaba & Lake Superior Railroad at Corliss, and Johnson is a woodsman employed at the camp of John Duncan. Johnson had been drinking heavily. Hansen had lost his pipe and one of the men in the saloon asked Johnson if he had it. He asserted that he did not and pulling a knife from his pocket started for Hansen. Hansen did not see the knife and stood his ground with the result that he sustained a two inch gash across the arm before he escaped behind the bar where others came to his protection. Officers Hugh Early and Otto Sheriff went to the place and took both Johnson and the injured man to the police station. A physician was called and sewed up the wound sustained by Hansen. Johnson will be arraigned in court this morning.

Unknown Man Killed—

Either hit by a Soo Line train while walking on the tracks or falling from the train while stealing a ride, an unknown man some time Thursday night received injuries which caused his death a short time later. The body was found lying at the side of the track shortly before 10 o'clock Friday morning by Harold Foster, employed at the farm of Attorney Clyde Hayden, where the scene of the accident was. An examination of the place where the body was found showed that the unfortunate man had either been struck by the train or in being thrown off while stealing a ride had struck a stump at the side of the right-of-way, breaking the rotten tree stem at the ground. The man's ankle was injured and his face was badly cut in the collision with the stump. He had evidently gotten up and after taking off the shoe and stocking from his left foot and wringing out his vest, his clothing having been soaked in plunging through a small pond, he had walked back across the pond toward the track where he fell, dying later from exposure.

After making a careful examination of the scene of the accident, Coroner Dubs decided that death had been the result of an accident and an inquest was not considered necessary. Although a large number of people visited the undertaking rooms no one was able to identify the stranger. He was about thirty-five years of age; about five feet six inches tall was partially bald and wore a light hat, black coat and vest and dark striped trousers. In one of his pockets was found a card announcing a turkey raffle to be held at Green Bay Nov. 29 and it is thus considered probable that he was in that city some time previous to last Sunday.

WHITNEY DODGES PROCESS SERVERS.

New York, Nov. 25.—That Harry Payne Whitney and James R. Keene have knowledge of what money was contributed by the race track interests to oppose the passage of the anti-race track gambling law was the assertion of Judge M. Linn Bruce, counsel for the legislative graft investigation committee. Both men are out of the jurisdiction of the committee, according to Bruce.

Bruce has process servers camping on Whitney's trail. He got word today that the young millionaire sportsman is stopping at a club near Red Bank, N. J., and that, in attending the Yale-Harvard football game in New Haven last Saturday, he made the trip by boat in order to keep out of the reach of subpoena servers.

THE SENSATION OF THE PICTURE AGE

THE VAMPIRE

A picturization of the theme contained in that world famous poem by Rudyard Kipling, reproducing also Sir Ed. Bourne-Jones' celebrated painting.

ROYAL THEATRE

Ishpeming

Today & Tomorrow, Nov. 28-29

"THE VAMPIRE"—A picture dramatization from Sir Ed. Bourne-Jones' famous painting, with suggestions from that world famous poem by Rudyard Kipling—each conceded a peer in the literary and world of art. This great subject handles deftly the realms of the imaginary inner circle of society.

A fool there was and he made his prayer—
(Even as you and I)
To a rag and a bone and a hank of hair—
(We called her the woman who did not care)
But the fool called her his lady fair—
(Even as you and I)

Guy Temple, as "the fool there was," marries his brother's ward, his boyhood sweetheart, Emily. The young husband becomes ensnared in the coils of the Vampire (a destroyer of souls). Clandestine meetings are arranged and the cunning, unscrupulous, satanic actions of the Vampire compels the poor wailing Temple to falter and fall before her charms. John Temple, the older brother, determines to save the young husband when he discovers his perfidy and to recover the jewels given the Vampire by Guy. In a dream he remembers where he had seen Loie before. She it was, who had ruined the life of Emily's father and rendered the then slip of a girl an orphan. Seeking out the brother, John Temple told him Loie was a Vampire, that she had ruined his own wife's father and to quit her under threat of his life. He offers Loie a large sum of money to leave America. But her promise is soon forgotten—her diabolical work continues, the tightening strands on reeking souls of mortals.

The fool was stripped of his foolish hide—
(Even as you and I)
Which she might have seen when she threw him aside—
(But it isn't on record the lady tried)
So some of him lived, but the most of him died—
(Even as you and I)

BOWLING RECORD BROKEN SATURDAY

Ishpeming Man Knocked Down 267 Pins in One Game and 670 in Three.

Saturday evening P. J. Denn established a new high record for three consecutive games at the Bank street bowling alleys, when he knocked down 670 pins in the last of the three games he scored 267, within two points of tying the alley record, made three years ago by John S. Olson, of the A. W. Myers Mercantile company. Mr. Denn's score for the three games was ninety-three pins higher than the highest score for three consecutive games in last year's upper peninsula tournament. In the first game Mr. Denn knocked down 198 pins; in the second, 205, and in the third, 267.

The challenge issued by Franklin Wade, A. C. Braastad and T. Saline to bowl any three-men team in Marquette county has been accepted by Fred Lind, Dave Lind and Henry Hansen, and the contest is to take place Wednesday evening. There will also be a challenge match Thursday evening, when the City five-men team will bowl the Hematites in three games. The City team will be made up of F. Wade, H. Watters, J. S. Olson, A. C. Braastad and T. Saline; the Hematites of John S. Olson, Thomas Dyer, Leo Schilling, J. M. Fitzpatrick and Thomas Roberts.

There will be a unique contest at the alleys tomorrow evening, when five-men teams from E. Braastad & Co.'s grocery and dry goods departments will bowl a three-game match. E. Braastad is to be a member of the grocery team, and his son, Arvid, will bowl with the dry goods men. The clerks from the two departments, including the girls, are to be on hand to root for their team.

Tomorrow evening, also, the six men who comprised the Giroux team, leaders in last year's league, will compete for the bowling ball given as a prize. The participants will be Ed. Carney, Tom Ryer, Ross Morell, John Martin, Will West and Clarence Dawson.

A meeting of the bowlers will be held this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the alleys for the purpose of organizing a three-men team league, also for the appointment of committees in connection with the upper peninsula bowling tournament, to be held in this city in March. The tournament dates will soon be decided on by the president, vice-president and secretary of the Upper Peninsula Bowlers' association. A. E. Doherty of Marquette is president, George Deirain of Negaunee vice president, and J. M. Fitzpatrick, Ishpeming, secretary. Manager John Gray, of the Bank street alleys, will visit the copper country towns soon after the first of the year, to extend an invitation to attend the tournament. A number of fine prizes will be offered and they will be selected before Mr. Gray goes to the copper district. The tournament will close with a banquet.

DEATH OF THOMAS PENGILLY.

Wellknown Resident of Ishpeming Is Victim of Tuberculosis.

Thomas Pengilly, who had been afflicted with tubercular trouble for a long time, died Friday night at the home of his half brother, Samuel Davis, on South Third street. He was fifty-seven years of age and single.

The deceased lived in Ishpeming in the seventies, but he left here some years ago for the west, where he spent several years. For a few years before returning to Ishpeming, five years ago, he resided in Des Moines, Ia., and went from there to Tower, Minn. For some time before he was obliged to give up work on account of his weakened condition he held the position of fireman at the central school plant on Division street. He was a member of the Red Men's society of Des Moines.

Mark Davis of Minneapolis, another half brother of the deceased, was called to Marquette Saturday on account of the death of his brother-in-law, Frank Nies, who passed away unexpectedly on Thursday. Mr. Davis and his wife will be up from Marquette today to attend the funeral of Mr. Pengilly, which will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house. Rev. M. M. Allen, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will conduct the services.

SHIPPING CHRISTMAS TREES.

Ishpeming men have found a profitable market for Christmas trees in Chicago and they expect to ship a number of carloads to that city between now and Dec. 25. The first consignment of three cars was loaded Saturday and they will be delivered in Chicago early this week. It is said that the demand for Christmas trees from the larger cities was never better than it is this year. Chicago people will have to pay several times the price that trees will sell at here. Ishpeming people get the best trees at from twenty-five to fifty cents each, which have been the standard prices for some years.

Famous Entertainers from Stockholm Will Be at Ishpeming Theater.

The Swedish National Troupe from Stockholm, which is making a tour of the principal cities in America, will appear at Ishpeming theater this evening. The Scandinavian people of the city are showing much interest in the engagement.

The organization is composed of five women and two men. The women are Miss Blanche Holmgren, soprano; Miss Elin Johanson, mezzo soprano; Miss Signe Sundberg, alto; Miss Anna Greta Adamson, comedienne and dramatic reader, and Madam Fanny Soderholtz, pianist, and Messrs. Per Shenell and Tor Hardelin, violinists. Miss Adamson is from the Royal theater in Stockholm. Messrs. Shenell and Hardelin have won first prizes in many Spelman contests.

F. O. Renard, of New York, who is managing the company's tour, has written the manager of Ishpeming theater that Miss Adamson will decide within a few days whether or not she will accept one of the several flattering offers made her by American managers. One of them is now endeavoring to find a play that will be suitable for her particular talent. Miss Adamson has been connected with the Royal theater in Stockholm for several years. She is twenty-six years of age and comes from an aristocratic family. One of her elder sisters was for many years a prominent actress in the Swedish capital, but is now married to a noted physician, Dr. Johannes Hoiving, and is living in New York City.

COLLEGE COMEDY A HIT.

"My Cinderella Girl" Is a Laugh Producing Burlesque on College Life.

The Duluth Evening Herald said in part "My Cinderella Girl," which will be the offering at Ishpeming theater tomorrow evening:

"My Cinderella Girl" a college farce—perhaps it might better be called a burlesque—set to music, was the Thanksgiving Day offering at the Lyceum. Two large audiences laughed. Franker Woods, enjoyed the music and joined into the college spirit that was sent floating across the footlights. "A farce is a farce and one shouldn't be too critical of it. The action of 'My Cinderella Girl' isn't altogether spontaneous in places, there are spots when talkiness abounds, but most of the lines are clever, the principals are good, Ethel Bell has a voice that rings true and the chorus, though small, is good to look upon.

"Franker Woods is the star, but he isn't the whole show by a long margin. He makes the most of his lines, has good facial expressions and has funny legs when he wants to make them so. Sol Solomon as the freshman and Royal Cutter as the new professor have two exceptionally excellent comedy roles which they get the most out of them.

"The production isn't pretentious. The company is small for a musical farce, but it is made up of young, whole-hearted people, who enter into the spirit of the piece and make it a bright farce that furnishes nearly three hours of good entertainment."

MARRIED SATURDAY.

Miss Florence A. Charbonneau, of this city, and Charles P. Papazoni, of Birmingham, Ala., were united in marriage Saturday morning at St. Joseph's church. Rev. Father Borda, the pastor, officiating. The bride is a popular young lady, who was born and reared in the city. She was engaged in the millinery business for some time prior to a few months ago. The groom was for a time superintendent of the Pluto Powder company's works, south of the Winthrop, and is now holding an important position at Birmingham, their future home.

COPPER COUNTRY PIONEER.

Mrs. Richard Hicks and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Hicks, of Calumet, are in the city visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. W. J. Hubbard. The Hicks family is among the oldest in the copper country. Mrs. Mary Hicks, who is now eighty-three years of age, has lived in Calumet for the past fifty-four years. DEDICATION OF LABOR TEMPLE

Mayor Emil Seidel, of Milwaukee, Has Promised to Speak Here On Sunday, Dec. 18.

The members of the Negaunee Finnish Socialist society who are promoting the Tobin street labor temple project were greatly disappointed because they were unable to dedicate the building on the evening of Thanksgiving day. It was thought up to within a week or so before Thanksgiving that the auditorium would be completed by that time, but it was then learned that even if the interior work was finished the opera chairs would not be received in time to be put in position. The chairs were received Saturday from the American Seating company of Grand Rapids.

It is now been decided to dedicate the building the evening of Sunday, Dec. 18. Frank Altonen, who is helping make the arrangements for the dedication, recently visited Mayor Emil Seidel, of Milwaukee, and induced him to come here to deliver the principal address. When Mayor Seidel was first invited to speak at the dedication on Thanksgiving night he accepted, but was later obliged to cancel the engagement. Mr. Altonen Saturday said that Mayor Seidel assured him that he will be here. The society has published a booklet of fifty pages or more, containing a description of the building, advertisements of merchants, directory of all those who contributed toward the building fund, and other interesting matter. The committee expects to realize several thousand dollars from the dedication exercises, as tickets have been sold at from $1 to $10 each. More than 150 have been disposed of at $10 and a number of $5 tickets have also been sold.

Sixteen men are now working in the building. The carpenters have almost completed their work, and the painters have started in. The interior decorations will be simple but attractive. A part of the scenery for the stage has been received and is already in position. An asbestos drop curtain has been ordered. The committee has published a booklet of fifty pages or more, containing a description of the building, advertisements of merchants, directory of all those who contributed toward the building fund, and other interesting matter. The committee expects to realize several thousand dollars from the dedication exercises, as tickets have been sold at from $1 to $10 each. More than 150 have been disposed of at $10 and a number of $5 tickets have also been sold.

A free demonstration of the Fox wafer biscuit will be given at Haupt's grocery store today. Call and see the largest and best 10 cent package ever offered for the money. (11-28-21.)

DRY WOOD SCARCE.

Upper Peninsula Dealers Will Have to Sell Green Wood Before Spring. "Dry hardwood will be a scarce article in Marquette county before spring," said a Negaunee fuel dealer Saturday. "The shortage is already noticeable and some of the dealers are having difficulty in getting sufficient dry wood to meet the demands of their patrons. While there has been no particular shortage up to this time in Negaunee, I believe that many here will be burning green wood before winter is over, as the supply of dry maple in the districts where we buy our wood is short."

"The owners of wood stumpsage did not get the usual quantity last year, as the price was lower than the previous year and many of them decided to let their stumps stand. It is expected that the shortage of dry wood will result in an increase in the price. Wood operations are now being conducted on a fairly large scale, but the working forces will be considerably increased as soon as there is better sleighing. Dry hardwood is now selling at fifty cents per load more than it brought a year ago."

DISSOLVED PARTNERSHIP.

Lammii & Ryttonen, who have been engaged in the grocery business in Negaunee and Marquette, have dissolved partnership. The firm's Negaunee business was sold a short time ago to John Ollila, formerly in the employ of Levine Bros. John Lammii, the senior member of the firm, has taken over the Marquette business, which he has managed ever since the firm brought out Matt Koviisto, who now conducts the Palmer store.

ICE ON TEAL LAKE.

Within the past few days ice has formed on Teal Lake, and the boys have been skating there. A number of the boys took big risks Friday and Saturday, when they ventured on newly formed ice that was very thin. One youngster, more daring than the others, went out almost to the edge of the ice, by constantly falling, he was rescued, and by constantly falling, he was rescued. A large party of boys and girls skated at the lake Saturday, but most of them remained near the east shore.

A free demonstration of the Fox wafer biscuit will be given at Haupt's grocery store today. (11-28-21.)

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has discovered that Catarrh is a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. BEGIN SHOPPING NOW.

Merchants Urge Patrons to Make Early Selections of Christmas Gifts.

The merchants, who have been busy the past few days putting their holiday goods on display, now urge the public to begin the Christmas shopping without delay. While little buying for Christmas has yet been done, the season will open in earnest this week. The wise shoppers usually make their Christmas selections before the stocks are broken.

The early shopper is favored in many ways. The store employees have more time in which to show goods and help make selections. Early shopping is better for everybody, merchant as well as customer, but to stimulate early buying the customer must be made to see where it helps him personally.

LOCAL LACONICS.

The public and parochial schools will reopen this morning. George DeFrance is spending a few days with his family in Cheboygan.

Miss Elsie Proulx, of Houghton, visited her uncle, Cleo Meilher, and family the past few days.

D. D. McDonald, of the diamond drill contracting firm of Cole & McDonald, of Duluth, was here Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Zimmerman, who has been ill with pneumonia the past three or four weeks is improving, and is now able to be around the house.

Thomas C. Dougherty returned to Munising Friday afternoon, after a few days' visit with his son and daughter, Fred and Mary Dougherty.

The Negaunee dealers report that hay is scarce, due principally to the poor condition of the roads in the farming districts.

Wentalla & Ore received an engraving machine Saturday. The firm will now be able to turn out all kinds of engraving work on short notice.

Miss Anna Murphy, who teaches school at Munising, spent Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. D. Murphy, and other relatives in the city.

Ernest Zimmerman has taken a position at Au Train under Oscar Larson of this city, who is superintendent of the electrical work at the power plant there.

A. P. Johnson, the Negaunee agent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company, attended a meeting of the company's agents of the Peninsula division in Escanaba Saturday.

At the regular monthly meeting of the school board, Friday evening, an invitation from Professor Kaye of the Marquette Normal to attend a meeting of the school boards of the county at the Normal on Dec. 7, was accepted.

A temporary enclosure will be erected in front of the Negaunee National bank's new block, to permit of the laying of the concrete between the walk and the building, and the setting in of the prison glass windows to furnish light for the basement.

Charles Christianson, a former resident of Negaunee, who left here some years ago to engage in the farming business in South Dakota, is spending a few days with relatives and friends here. Mr. Christianson came down to look after the removal of the remains of relatives from the old to the new cemetery. His son, John, died here some twenty-nine years ago. Mr. Christianson has been successful in his farming business.

Two men in the employ of Durner, the Milwaukee tile man, have begun work in the Case street school building, where the toilets are being changed from the north side of the basement to the south side. Up-to-date plumbing is being put in. P. Barasa & Co. have the plumbing contract.

The members of the Negaunee tent of the Knights of the Modern Macabees and the Lady Macabees will hold a joint social tomorrow evening at the conclusion of the Knights' regular meeting. Officers who will serve for the ensuing year will be nominated at tomorrow night's meeting of the Knights.

James Olson, Charles Lindman, Peter Trudell, John Maning and Henry Lahnman, will serve as jurors at the December term of the circuit court, which will open a week from today, the 5th. Alec Frederickson will be the juror from Richmond township and A. B. Leubert has been drawn from the Negaunee township.

Thirty-five deer carcasses were transferred from the American to the West-Express company here Saturday, consigned to points in the lower peninsula. They came from the Watersmeet district, on the Chicago & Northwestern line. As more deer are being killed this season than for many years past, the express companies will reap a big harvest. The average express charges on a carcass from here to the lower peninsula is about $6. Over 200 have already been transferred here, to say nothing of the hundreds that have been shipped from other points.

VALUATION WILL NOT BE CHANGED

State Tax Commission Has No Authority Nor Does It Make a Practice of Going Back of Assessments as Equalized by County Boards, Says R. H. Shields.

Has No Intention of Interfering With Supervisors' Work in This County—Commission Now Assessing Public Service Corporations and Compiling Data.

R. H. Shields, of Houghton, a member of the state tax commission, was in the city yesterday attending a meeting of the Order of Railway Conductors, of which he is a member. Mr. Shields stated that his visit to Marquette was entirely social and had no official significance whatever. However, he was able to give some interesting facts concerning the work of the state tax commission and what was now doing.

"Is there any truth in the statement emanating from Lansing a few months ago to the effect that the state tax commission has ordered the valuation of a large number of Michigan cities (Marquette being included in the number) to be substantially increased?" Mr. Shields was asked.

"There is absolutely nothing to it," was his reply.

"The state tax commission has no authority to order changes in valuations anywhere without first having a hearing at which all parties are entitled to present their complaint or defense, as the case may be. As far as Marquette city is concerned, I do not know that any member of the commission has ever looked into the situation at all, let alone having had any intention of raising the present valuation."

"Now that the valuation has been equalized by the board of supervisors at their October meeting, the state tax commission has no right or authority to interfere with the assessed valuation of any city or township. The only time that the state tax commission has any jurisdiction is after the meetings of the local boards of review in the spring and before the annual meeting of the county board of supervisors in October. During that period the present year the commission admonished all of the county boards to make an effort to equalize the city and township valuations to represent the actual value of the property involved, in so far as possible, and in most instances the supervisors have very willingly responded to our request to the best of their ability. Marquette people may rest assured that the tax commission will make no attempt to change the equalized valuations as fixed by the county board of supervisors."

State Board of Equalization.

"Just now the state tax commission is very busy. We have to fix the assessments of every railroad, express company, telephone and telegraph company in the state by Jan. 1, which is a tremendous task, and besides we are busy gathering material to present to the state board of equalization, which meets next year. This board meets every five years and equalizes the taxes between counties. The state tax commission works with the board of equalization and is supposed to be able to give them information relative to conditions in certain counties, whenever so requested. The state tax commission has plenty to do all the time, much more than I thought when I became a member of the commission."

"Wouldn't the state tax commission be more useful if it were empowered by law to go back of the city and township valuations as fixed by the county boards of supervisors?" queried the reporter.

"Well, I don't know as that would help matters much," he replied. "There has got to be a limit somewhere or it would never be possible to collect any taxes. If the state tax commission could upset the work of the county boards at their October meeting, it would open an avenue for endless litigation and the taxes in many counties would not be definitely levied from one year's end to another. There must be an end to the review of assessment rolls somewhere, and I guess the final power of review might as well be in the hands of the county board as with a state commission."

Arbitrate Controversies.

"It might be a good thing, however, if the county board meetings in different counties were spread over the year, so that in cases of controversy between cities and townships in the same county, the state commission might be called in to arbitrate the matters in dispute. In nearly every county there are usually lively controversies between the supervisors of one locality or another, each claiming that the district he represents is getting the worst of it in the assessment roll, as finally adopted. If the state tax commission could arbitrate matters of this kind, better feeling and a greater measure of justice might result."

"I notice by the down state papers that George B. Horton is being talked of as a member of the state tax commission to succeed Wm. H. Hoyt, of Plymouth. This story has crept out in capital circles relative to the appointments Governor-elect Osborn is soon to make. That there should be even talk of appointing Mr. Horton to this important position is considered highly significant by those discussing it, in view of the attitude of the state range, of which he is an active member, relative to taxation matters in the state."

REDUCED RATES FOR THANKSGIVING.

The Marquette & Southeastern railway will sell excursion tickets between all stations at the rate of fare and one-third for the round trip, except that between Marquette, Negaunee and Ishpeming the rate will be fifty cents for the round trip in either direction. Tickets will be on sale Nov. 23 and 24; good for return until first train of following Monday, Nov. 28.

PEOPLE SHOULD BE ALERT.

Not Surprising if Smallpox Should Break Out Here Any Time.

Though as yet there are no cases of smallpox in this county, so far as can be learned, physicians say that it would not be surprising if the disease should break out in this community at any time, owing to the epidemic in sections of the lower peninsula at the present time. One or two isolated cases have recently been reported from the eastern part of the upper peninsula, but as yet the disease has not gained a foothold in any part of this county.

"People in this county should be on the lookout for smallpox cases," said County Physician Smith, of Ishpeming, yesterday. "There being so much of it below the straits, I should not be surprised to hear of its breaking out in this county at any time. I am keeping close watch of conditions and in case any cases should be brought to my notice, I shall recommend general vaccination, as this is the only method of coping with the disease. People would do well to get vaccinated, anyway, and be on the safe side. There has been no general vaccination in this county for several years and once started, the situation here could easily become as bad as it is in Saginaw and other lower peninsula cities, if not promptly and rigidly taken in hand."

ACCEPT ALMA SANITARIUM.

Grand Lodge Board Votes to Move Masonic Home From Grand Rapids.

The last vestige of doubt as to the acceptance of the Alma sanitarium by the Masonic grand lodge of Michigan for use as a Masonic home was removed last week, when at a joint meeting of the Masonic home board of control, of which Captain C. D. Blanchard of this city is a member, and the special committee appointed by the grand master to investigate regarding a new home, the grand master was authorized to have the sanitarium prepared for occupancy at once and to arrange for transferring the Masonic home from Grand Rapids to Alma.

Although the meeting ended harmoniously, the resolution authorizing the acceptance of the home was not adopted until after a spirited discussion. Some of the members present were strongly opposed to moving the home from Grand Rapids. The general sentiment, however, was decidedly in favor of accepting the splendid gift of Mr. Wright.

The meeting was held in the parlors of the new Masonic home. Those present were Grand Master E. G. Swift, Adrian; Dr. Arthur Hume, Oronoco; Frederick Stevens, Detroit; George Armstrong, Adrian, and John Carton, Flint, representing the special committee; Mrs. Eldredge, Adrian; J. H. Kingsley, Manchester; Thomas Williams, Jackson; John Rowson, Grand Rapids; W. E. Jewett, Pontiac; Edwin Wendt, Manistee; E. Wood, Niles, representing the Masonic home board of control, and Rial V. McArthur, its secretary. Captain Blanchard was unable to attend on account of illness.

The basis of the agreement which has finally been reached in the matter is as follows: The grand lodge will undertake the expense of making the required repairs to the sanitarium in order to place it in a habitable condition and a committee has been appointed to look after this work. When the building is prepared for the occupancy of the beneficiaries of the institution, the Masonic home board of control has agreed to formally accept the gift. At this time it is impossible to state just how soon the transfer will be made.

CALENDAR OF CASES FOR DECEMBER TERM

Less Litigation Than Usual to Come Before Circuit Court, Beginning Monday.

The December term of circuit court begins next Monday, with fewer cases on the docket, both criminal and civil, than usual. The criminal calendar is particularly light, only nine cases being slated to come up, though this number of cases is likely to be slightly increased by recent alleged violations of law, returns for which have not yet been made by the justices. There are but two alleged violations of the liquor law for trial at the coming term, both of which are from this city. One is charged against Thomas Horn, being continued from last term after the jury impounded at the first trial had disagreed. The other charges Mr. Horn and Mrs. Elizabeth Hibering jointly with liquor law violation.

One case in which murder is the offense charged is expected to come to trial. Samuel Robinson is accused of having killed Clement Smith, both men having been homesteaders living near Northland. Smith was fatally shot in a drunken brawl that occurred at Robinson's home about five months ago.

SHOWS GOOD GAIN.

Chatham National Expands Under President Kaufman's Direction.

Commenting on the returns of the New York banks, of the date Nov. 10, the New York Commercial and Financial World, issue of Nov. 19, remarks that with scarcely an exception, the banks are shown to be in excellent condition, and it speaks particularly of the Chatham National, of which L. G. Kaufman, formerly of this city, recently accepted the presidency, saying:

"A specially interesting report is that of the Chatham National bank, one of the oldest and most conservative institutions of the city, inasmuch as it shows that steady progress is being made under the administration of Louis G. Kaufman, who it will be remembered, was elected president a few months ago, succeeding George M. Hard, who was made chairman of the board of directors. It will be remembered that it was predicted in these columns when Mr. Kaufman took charge that an increase in the volume of business would have to be recorded, and it is gratifying to be able to say that this expectation is being justified by the course of events. Since June 10 of this year the resources of the bank have expanded as set forth below:

Total Resources.

June 10, 1910.....$10,851,554.55.

Sept. 1, ".....11,864,082.52

Nov. 10, ".....12,139,576.00.

"These are figures that speak for themselves and need no comment at this time."
