Caine-Johnson Wedding — Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Jennie Spencer, 119 West Arch street, Miss Alice Caine of this city and Emil Johnson, of Negaunee, were united in marriage the Rev. Joseph Dutton, pastor of the Methodist church, performing the ceremony. The bride has resided in Marquette for several years and numbers many friends. After a wedding luncheon, the couple left on the 6 o'clock train for Sacramento, Cal.
where they will make their home.
At M. E. Church Tonight—There will be a "Mother Goose Entertainment" in the Methodist church parlors this evening at 8 o'clock. This is to be presented by members of the Oairis literary society of the Normal school. It was given by them several weeks ago and was pronounced as being excellent by those who attended. It is now being given under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school. The admission has been placed at ten cents.
Many Sparrows Coming In—City Recorder Donovan reports that more sparrows are being brought in and bounty claimed on them than for several years.
On Saturday 294 birds were brought to the recorder's office and there have been forty or more a day the first two days of this week. In all, bounty had been paid on 476 sparrows up to last evening.
The ground being covered with snow
makes the birds easier to kill than usual, for they are hungry and are readily attracted to grain and other "bait." Most of the sparrows are brought in by boys, who earn a part of their Christmas money in that manner.
Elimination Contest—An elimination contest to determine the five that are to take part in the High school declamatory contest will be held in the High school assembly room next Tuesday afternoon. There are ten pupils who are planning to enter the declamatory contest. The local declamatory contest and oratorical contest will be held some time in February, the two winners of which will compete in the district contest, usually held in March or April. As there are but five who intend to enter the oratorical contest, no elimination contest is necessary, except in declamation.

emaugh at Buffalo Dec. 7, all the company's boats are safely in port for the winter. The company reports a very satisfactory season and that the business was well cleaned up before the close of navigation. The various boats of the line will winter at the following ports:
Buffalo—Junata, Tionesta, Codorus, Conemaugh, Schuylkill, Lehigh and Alaska.

YEAZEL BURNED OUT.
Minneapolis Hotel of Which He Was Manager Destroyed by Fire.
The Hotel Brunswick, one of the best known hostilities in Minneapolis, of which Walter Yeazel, for many years chief clerk at the Hotel Marquette, was manager, was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. J. H. Lewis, of the Hotel Marquette, yesterday received a letter from Mr. Yeazel relating that he managed to get out of the burning structure only with the clothes he had on his back, all of his other personal effects having been destroyed. The fire, which had its origin under the Brunswick cafe, spread with great rapidity and only the heroic and efficient work of the firemen prevented a heavy loss of life, as there were 150 guests in the house at the time,
besides a large number of employes.
Ten minutes after fire had started the firemen had given up the idea of saving the structure and devoted all their efforts to getting out the guests and preventing the spread of the flames to adjoining property. The corridors were filled with smoke, making escape difficult, and it was only by using the greatest presence of mind that the rescuing parties were able to find their way back into the street after the guests and prevented the spread of the flames to adjoining property. The damage to the hotel is estimated at $75,000 and tenants were also heavy losers.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING.
Will be Held at Marquette Club Tomorrow Evening.
Cards will today be sent to the members of the Marquette Commercial club urging them to attend a meeting at the Marquette club tomorrow evening. Carl L. Zimmerman, who has had much experience with organization for the industrial developments of cities, will be present to discuss the proper way to proceed to get results, and, in particular, the good results that can be secured by putting such work in the hands of an experienced secretary, who will devote his entire time to it. W. P. Belden, of Ishpeming, has also accepted an invitation to talk on a subject of interest in the same connection. Other matters will be broached to the membership. The meeting of the Commercial club will be coincident with a horse night at the Marquette club and during the evening an appetizing lunch will be served. It is expected that there will be a large attendance, and full representation of the members of the Commercial club is particularly desired.

THEATRICAL

"Seven Days."

"Seven Days," which is to be played at the Marquette opera house next Monday night, is an exceptionally worthy comedy, according to the Menominee Herald Leader. "Seven Days" was presented in Menominee a few nights ago, and the Herald Leader critic speaks of it as follows:
"No one but a woman could have perpetrated 'Seven Days,' and a mighty clever woman at that. No mere man could steer his dramatic bark safely amid sunken rocks of such a theme and land safely with his cargo of fun. He would be sure to run afoul some of the dangers that beset his perilous way, but Mary Roberts Rinehart has demonstrated what a deft fingered woman can do. The bright humor quality of the lines makes 'Seven Days' one of the best purely farcical plays of recent years.
"The company which Wagenhals & Kemper sent to the Menominee theatre Saturday night played the comedy with a tempo that was fairly boisterous and reaped a harvest of unstrained laughter such as is seldom gathered in the local playhouse."
"The plot of the play deals with a girl passing herself off as the wife of the host of dinner party, in order that a rich aunt who arrived unexpectedly will not know that the man is divorced. Shortly after aunt's arrival the house is quarantined because the cook has a case of what is thought to be smallpox, and the dinner party and the divorced wife, a burglar and a policeman are kept barricaded for a week.

"One of the funniest situations of the play was furnished by Jean Patriquin as Anne Brown, when she attempted to walk off being 'wobbly' and to tell the party of her mother's sister cat. Another funny situation that scored a decided hit was when Mary Land as Belle Knowles, the divorced wife, was found trying to escape through the coal hole besmirched with coal dust, and hat awry, and she was introduced as the lady from Pittsburg."

A Liberal Offer We Guarantee to Cure Dyspepsia. If We Fail the Medicine Costs Nothing

To unquestionably prove to the people that indigestion and dyspepsia can be permanently relieved and that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will bring about this result, we will furnish the medicine absolutely free if it fails to give satisfaction to any one using it.
The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is due to the high degree of scientific skill used in devising their formula as well as to the care exercised in their manufacture, whereby the well-known properties of Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin have been combined with Carminatives and other agents.
Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin are constantly employed and recognized by the entire medical profession as invaluable in the treatment of indigestion and Dyspepsia.
The Pepsin used in Rexall Dyspepsia

Tablets is prepared by a process which develops its greatest efficiency. Pepsin supplies to the digestive apparatus one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid, and without it the digestion and assimilation of food are impossible.
The carminatives possess properties which aid in relieving the disturbances and pain caused by undigested food. This perfect combination of these ingredients makes a remedy invaluable for the complete relief of digestion and dyspepsia.
We are so certain of this that we urge you to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets on our own personal guarantee. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at—The Rexall Store, The Stafford Drug Co.

Volume of Sales made by Cable Piano Co. at their Great HOLIDAY CLEARING SALE

Remarkably Low Prices and Easy Terms on Highest Quality Pianos Creates Big Demand For Them

Beautiful Conover, Cable, Kingsbury, Wellington and Inner Player-Pianos Going at Wholesale Prices.

BUY NOW AND YOU WILL NEVER REGRET IT

Were you among our visitors yesterday? If not, you should not fail to see us today. We are doing the biggest business ever done in Marquette in Pianos, right now, and we can interest you, if you want to own a Piano that you can be proud of and at the same time feel that you have saved money in buying it. This is your opportunity—Take it.

A Guaranteed Piano for $187

It doesn't seem possible, does it? Yet we are making that proposition to you on a thoroughly good piano and you can pay for it on easy terms. We are selling other pianos for $235, $245, $260, etc., and as a result we are having difficulty in taking care of our increased business. In short, every piano price in our house has actually been cut to pieces but—the pianos are the same Artistic Instruments we have always sold. This exceptional discount will only be in force during the Holidays and the buyer who gets in now is going to save a lot of money. You will get a piano that is durable and well made to the smallest detail, and that is thoroughly artistic. You will get a piano that is not "just as good" but—Is the Best, and—you will buy it at the lowest price and easiest terms ever quoted on a strictly first class instrument.

There are only a few days in which to take advantage of this big, money saving sale. Will you pass it up, or will you be one of the shrewd ones and get a piano for Xmas at our present prices? If you belong to the latter class, you will come in at once as our stock will not last a week longer at the present rate of sales per day.

What You Save

You will save from $100 to $150 by buying from us at our present prices as compared with other pianos of same grade. Being manufacturers, the largest in the world, and selling as we do, thru our own stores, our regular prices are far below the retail dealer's.

For the next two weeks they are still lower and if you ever expect to own a piano Now Is Your Time.

Special Holiday Terms

If you have already expended all you can spare from your month's income on Xmas presents, we will sell you a piano and let you begin payments in January. A very small first payment will do and small monthly payments thereafter. Our financiers are such that we can carry you and you need not fear that we will ever dispose of your contract. Every contract we write is locked in our vaults at Headquarters and your business is between you and the Cable Piano Co. absolutely. Should sickness overtake the wage earner, we can wait till you are able to pay. In fact there is never any danger of us having to crowd you for money if you are doing your best. Therefore there is no reason why you should not add to your family's happiness by presenting them with a fine piano for Xmas.

Daily Concerts. Visitors Welcome.

We are giving concerts on the Inner Player Pianos and Victor and Edison Phonographs afternoon and evening. No matter whether you want to buy anything or not come in and hear these programs. You will be well paid for your trouble and we will be too, as you will certainly recommend and advertise our instruments after hearing them.

Only 10 shopping days left till Christmas. Pianos going out daily and stock growing proportionally smaller. DON'T WAIT but come now while selection is good. Delivery at any time you wish. Figure it out. Your fault if you don't see us. We are doing our part.

CHARLES MOORES DIED AT HIS POST

Northwestern's Veteran Engineer Expired Yesterday With His Hand on Throttle.

Charles Moores, the veteran passenger engineer on the Chicago & Northwestern Railway system, running between Ishpeming and Escanaba, died suddenly in his cab yesterday morning at the north "Y" about one mile this side of Escanaba. The announcement of Mr. Moores' death, which was flashed over the Northwestern wires a few minutes after he passed away, caused profound sorrow in Ishpeming.

The Ishpeming employees of the Northwestern company tried several times yesterday to get the details of Mr. Moores' death, but all they could learn was that he passed away without a minute's warning and that his fireman noticed almost the instant that he fell back into his seat that he was in a dying condition. The train was stopped as soon as possible and Henry Armstrong, the conductor in charge, wired the Escanaba office of the occurrence.

Mr. Moores was not only one of the best known railroad men in the upper peninsula, but he was also one of the most popular. He was the youngest and youngest engineer on the Peninsula division, Theodore Farrell, who pulls the day train from Escanaba to Green Bay, being the oldest. Mr. Moores did his first railroad work in this region on the Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon railroad, leaving the service of this company thirty-nine years ago to take a position in the Northwestern shops at Escanaba at his trade as machinist. Before coming north he learned the machinist trade in Racine, Wis., where he was born. During the greater part of the time he was employed in shop work he worked on locomotives, so that he acquired a knowledge of the mechanical workings of engines that all engineers do not possess.

Mr. Moores was regarded as one of the most competent and careful engineers in the employ of the company, and when he decided to give up shop work for the locomotive he was immediately promoted to a position of passenger engineer by the Northwestern management. It is said that he was the only man that ever pulled a throttle on the Peninsula division who was not first employed as a fireman. A former old employe of the company, who was working on the road at the time Mr. Moores was given an engine, yesterday recalled the fact that his advancement created much comment among the railroad employes, as it was an unusual thing for a man to be advanced from shop work to the throttle of a passenger locomotive.

An employe of the company who had known Mr. Moores for a quarter of a century or more yesterday paid him a high tribute saying he was one of the most efficient and trustworthy men who ever pulled a throttle "on the system." Mr. Moores had the unique record of never having been in a wreck, and only once during all of the years that he drove an engine for the Northwestern company was he called to headquarters because of an error. That was about two years ago, when he failed to notice an open switch in the Ishpeming yards one morning when he was pulling out his train. The steam from the engine prevented him seeing the switch.

Mr. Moores for years held the record for fast runs between Escanaba and Ishpeming, he having several times covered the sixty-five miles in an hour and ten minutes.

The people of Ishpeming had become so accustomed to seeing Mr. Moores on the day passenger train running between here and Escanaba that many of them called it "Charley Moores' train."

Ill the Past Few Weeks.

While Mr. Moores' death was due to heart disease, his friends here did not know that he suffered from that trouble. About two months ago he was taken with a severe throat affection and as a result had barely been able to speak above a whisper.

For more than twenty-five years past, all the time he had been pulling the passenger train into Ishpeming, he had always taken his annual vacation at Christmas time, spending it with his only sister, who lives at Oak Park, Ill. He had planned to lay off the 20th and while he was in Chicago he intended to consult a specialist regarding his throat trouble. Monday he informed one of his friends in the city that if his throat would not receive in Chicago he would probably spend the winter in the South.

The deceased was unmarried and the only immediate member of his family living is his sister. He was something over sixty years of age. He was a member of the Ishpeming Masonic, Knights of Pythias and Elks lodges. He was a past exalted ruler in the latter organization, and he was a charter member of Zenith lodge, Knights of Pythias, and carried $3,000 insurance in the endowment rank, payable to his sister and her two children. Three years ago he and J. D. West of this city and Dr. Carpenter of Iron Mountain were presented with veteran jewels.

While no definite arrangements for the funeral had been made last evening, Mr. Moores' friends in the passenger service who came up from Escanaba on the evening train reported that in all probability it would take place at Racine, where the remains of his parents are interred.

George Gilbert of Sault Ste. Marie was a visitor in Negaunee yesterday.

J. M. Perkins is distributing an attractive calendar among his patrons.

Mrs. Herman Wagner and daughter, Ann, are spending a few days visiting her father, T. W. Smith, of Calumet.

J. J. Darcy, who had charge of the exploratory work in the Dead river district during the past year, left Monday night for his home in Duluth.

Charles Perrino, a former resident, who spent the past several weeks in Negaunee, has left for his home in California, where he is engaged in the fruit raising business.

D. C. Comstock, former proprietor of the livery stable in the Johnston building, on Silver street, who is now operating the farm formerly owned by Charles Taylor at Sands, was in the city on business yesterday.

A party of old time Finnish people of Negaunee drove out to Matt Koivisto's home at Palmer Saturday night, returning Sunday morning. There were about fifteen couples in the party. The affair was a most enjoyable one.

George Penglass, a former Negaunee man, who is now master mechanic of the United States Equipment company of Chicago, spent Sunday in the city visiting his parents, Captain and Mrs. Penglass. He stopped off here on his way from Duluth to Sault Ste. Marie.

The December pay days in Negaunee will begin today, when the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company will square their pay rolls at their Jackson, Maas and Negaunee mines. The Oliver company will pay its Negaunee workmen on Saturday.

J. W. Elliott's painters will complete their work in the new union passenger station today or tomorrow. The waiting rooms are prettily decorated, but the officials have not provided sufficient light to show them off in the evening. There are to be only four small incandescent lamps in the two waiting rooms.

This is the first time in several years that the Marquette County Gas & Electric company has found it necessary to remove snow from Iron street in December. Men have been working for several days past cutting down the ridges on either side of the track. The snow is being dumped over the embankment north of the tye crossing.

Joseph Peterson, who was in the employ of H. J. Peterson, the tailor, is preparing to engage in the tailoring business on his own account. Mr. Peterson's brother, Ole, who lives in Denmark, has left for his old home in Denmark, where he will spend several weeks visiting his parents. This will be Mr. Peterson's second visit to the old country in the past four years.

At a regular meeting of the L. A. A. O. This year Mr. Perkins has arranged with Mr. Wagner to display his line, on this occasion, to the public who can have immediate delivery of any article selected.

TOY MANUFACTURING A BIG INDUSTRY

Most of Them from Germany but More Are Being Made in U. S. Than Formerly.

Where do the Christmas toys come from? is the question often asked by those who have passed the age of thinking about the big Santa Claus factory in the far North. In spite of the fact that its products occupy the attention of the public for only a few weeks each year, the toy industry is among the greatest of the land. Up until a short time ago Germany led all other countries in the production of Christmas delights, but the United States is fast coming into its own in the toy manufacture. The great factories of this country are proving to be too great a competition for the peasants of the foreign countries. There is an exception to this rule, however, in the wooden animals, the weird-looking occupants of Noah's ark and other strange portions of the animal kingdom. No machine has been constructed that can duplicate the menageries as whittled out by the poorer classes of Germany and other foreign countries.

The peasant children are taught to make toys from the time they are able to walk. They commence by making little rolling pins or some such simple contrivance. It is a life work with them and they follow it the year round. Representatives of wholesale houses come around at certain periods of the year and buy their products. The toys they make are the best that can be produced because they take much pains with them, yet they are bought at ridiculously low prices. A barnyard set, with an array of half a dozen different varieties of animals, will net the maker about four cents. It can be purchased here for perhaps twenty-five cents.

The more substantial articles, such as wash sets, furniture, hobby horses, etc., are nearly all made in the United States. Nearly all of the metal toys are also made in this country. That is because the factories here are equal, if not superior to the German factories, and there is no duty to pay on them.

The question of duty brings out another point in the toy industry. The German children receive much finer presents for Christmas than their cousins, the American "kiddies," and all because the import duty is so high. It practically prohibits the very finest toy products from being sold in this country, and it goes without saying that the best there is, is made in Germany, the birthland of toys.

The next question is, where do all the brilliant ideas come from which result in a marvelous array of strictly new toys each year? It is true that the factories employ designers who devote their entire time to designing new toys. But the more radical ones come from geniuses in different parts of the country who work out new ideas and have them patented. The manufacturers keep a tab on the new patents that are taken out and if they run across an item that appeals to them, the inventor has already made a fortune.

Take, for instance, the new baseball game that is making such a hit this year. The idea originated in the mind of a young woman by the name of Crawford some three years ago. A manufacturing concern took it up but did not make a go of it. The young inventor figured out that the failure was due to the fact that the balls did not curve as in a regular game. She overcame that difficulty, made a new contract with a new company, and is now reaping the reward from her brilliant idea.

Dolls are made in nearly every country on the globe. The Parisian dolls

WILLS 63 FARMS TO AGED PASTORS

Dr. Charles F. Simmons, Patent Medicine Maker, Gives M. E. Church 630 Acres.

San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 12.—Six hundred and thirty acres of land and $10,000 is left by the will of the late Dr. Charles F. Simmons to provide homes for superannuated ministers of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. The will disposes of $850,000.

Dr. Simmons' winter home was in San Antonio and his summer home in Excelsior Springs, Mo. His fortune was realized from the manufacture and sale of patent medicines. The land left for the use of the ministers is in Live Oak county, Tex., and is to be under the control of the bishops and divided into sixty-three farms of ten acres each.

Funds to Build Cottages.

The bishops are to designate such superannuated ministers as they see fit to occupy these farms for such a period as they may name.

The sum of $10,000 is for building cottages on each ten acres, to cost $1,000 each, and to dig wells and make such other improvements as may be necessary to make the farms available for use.

To insure that these farms shall be in constant use the will provides that where one is not used for two years it shall revert to the estate. The colony is to be established on some of the most fertile land in Southwest Texas and will form one of the most unique settlements in the history of the United States.

Two of his daughters, Mrs. Margaret D. Freudenstein, wife of Dr. W. H. Freudenstein of St. Louis, and Mrs. Maude Feamster, wife of C. N. Feamster of San Antonio, are cut off with $100 each.

A note attached to the will says his reason for giving these daughters only that sum is not a matter of concern to the public but will be thoroughly understood by his daughters, who know his reasons. To his widow he leaves $150,000, to be paid at once.

The remainder of the estate is as follows: One-sixth to his widow, in addition to the $150,000; one-sixth to each of the following: Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Stroth, wife of Emil Stroth of St. Louis, a daughter; Mrs. Harriet James Family, wife of Edward Fomby of San Antonio, a daughter; Minnie O. Simmons and Paul Simmons, grandchildren.

It is provided that should any one contest the will, that person is to lose all under the bequest.

are perhaps the most famous, for they are made at the center of the world's fashions. In this country they are duplicating baby's faces in making dolls. A child's photograph is transmitted onto a special kind of cloth, much as an impression is made on a camera film. The picture on the cloth is then re-touching, filled out with sawdust of other form of packing, and the doll is as lifelike as can possibly be made.

Mother's if you love your son come in and see Geill at his store, you will not regret it.

According to D. Seth-Smith, curator of birds of the London Zoo, birds of paradise are not so very rare. His statement is called forth by the great interest shown in one of the birds exhibited at a recent show in London that was said to be the only one in England and valued at $4,500. Mr. Seth-Smith writes to "The London Daily Mail" to say that while the bird of paradise is becoming scarce in its own country solely on account of the barbarous fashion of ladies wearing its plumes in their hats, there are now living in the Zoological Gardens in Regent's park no fewer than forty examples of this wonderful family.

COURT IMPOSES THE SENTENCES

Samuel Robinson, Convicted of Manslaughter, and Mary Houtala, a Self-Confessed Disorderly, Were Given Terms in State's Prison by Judge Flannigan.

Oscar Lindgren, Who Stole a Fur Lined Coat from Salvation Army Barracks, Will Spend Four Months in Jail—Liquor Responsible for Three Offenses.

Three of those convicted of criminal offenses at the December term of circuit court received their sentences at the hands of Judge Flannigan yesterday, leaving only Mrs. Elizabeth Hibering, who has pleaded guilty to illicit sale of liquor at the Baraga cafe in this city, yet to be sentenced. Mrs. Hibering is now supposed to be in Ishpeming and is under bonds. It is likely that she will be sentenced within a day or two.

Those who were meted out their punishment yesterday are Samuel Robinson, convicted by a jury of manslaughter last week; Oscar Lindgren, who pleaded guilty to having stolen a fur lined coat from the Salvation Army headquarters in Marquette, and Mary Houtala, of Ishpeming, who pleaded guilty to drunkenness and disorderly conduct, third offense.

Robinson, who shot Clement Schmidt at Northland last September, was sentenced to not less than five and not more than fifteen years in the Marquette prison, with five years recommended by the court. In the trial a week ago Robinson alleged that he had fired the fatal shot in self-defense, believing that Schmidt was about to do him great bodily harm. In pronouncing sentence, Judge Flannigan stated that he was not particularly impressed with the self-defense plea, but that he considered alcohol to have been wholly responsible for the crime. The court stated that he did not consider Robinson a dangerous man when not in liquor, and was certain the crime would not have been committed had all the parties not been intoxicated. For this reason he was disposed to make the sentence as lenient as consistent with the circumstances and the protection of society.

In sentencing Oscar Lindgren, the court stated that he had found no one who knew anything about Lindgren or his previous record. Lindgren stated that it was drink that caused him to steal the coat and that he had never been arrested before. Judge Flannigan asked the prisoner which he would prefer, a term in prison or a term in the county jail, and Lindgren's choice was a jail sentence, promising to work faithfully for the sheriff during the term of his imprisonment. A sentence of four months in the county jail was then imposed. Mary Houtala, the third prisoner sentenced yesterday, has been a disturber of the peace in Ishpeming and Negaunee for several years. The county jail record shows that she has been imprisoned in the jail for drunkenness and disorderly conduct no less than twelve times. She is unable to speak English, and her conversation with the court was carried on through an interpreter, A. W. Jurma. Judge Flannigan was of the opinion that her troubles, too, were at the bottom caused by the liquor habit, and stated that the sentence was imposed, not as a punishment but in the hope that she might be placed where she could break away from intoxicants. The court then decreed that she should be confined in the Detroit House of Correction not less than six months nor more than two years, with six months recommended. Mrs. Houtala is a woman past middle age and does not look to be the disturbing element that she has been, according to the reports of the police.

In the action brought by the American Sales Book company against Chas. J. Anderson, of this city, to recover on a contract for a book called the "Recapitulator," Judge Flannigan handed down a decision in favor of the defendant. Anderson claimed that the book was misrepresented to him when he signed the contract, and the court was inclined to take his statement as true, inasmuch as there was nothing in the contract itself describing the exact nature of the book.

The motion to quash the suit brought by Roach & Seeler against Abraham Fine was granted, the reason being that the original writ of garnishment had not been properly sworn to by a notary. At the May term of circuit court, Judge Flannigan decreed that Frank Dams must pay his wife $25 a month for her separate maintenance. At this term he reduced the amount to $17 per month.

Mrs. Marion Crane will be at the Hotel Marquette Tuesday, Dec. 13, and will remain until Thursday, the 15th. She will have an assortment of fancy work and Christmas novelties, and will be pleased to see her old friends.

Our store will be open evenings from now until Christmas.

FINIS ON FISHING UNTIL NEXT SPRING

Local Fishermen Hope Legislature Will Make Any Changes Early in Session.

Local fishermen have taken in their nets for the year and no more fishing will be done until next spring. The four tugs which were engaged in the herring trade are being laid up for the season, with the exception of Ethel J., which will be used in fishing in the vicinity of Keweenaw point all winter. The Theora and Columbia are now being put in shape for the winter here and the Silver Spray has returned to Munising, a very satisfactory one for Marquette fishermen. Catches of whitefish and trout were woefully small in summer, although what were caught were sold at fancy prices, the active market in some degree making up for the reduced catches. The herring season was about an average, though not so large as last year. It is estimated that nearly 500 tons were shipped from Marquette during the season, which began Nov. 10, and has just closed.

Fishermen are considerably interested in what the legislature may do as to changing the commercial fish laws at the coming session. While it is not generally expected that any radical changes will be made, as the law was pretty thoroughly made over two years ago, they are apprehensive that amendments to the present laws may be proposed.

"It is the wish of the fishermen," said August Anderson yesterday, "that whatever the legislature does in the way of amending the game laws be done early in the session. As a rule, fish legislation has not been taken up until near the end of the session and changes made at such a late date cause the fishermen much inconvenience. Now is the time that we should be buying our nets for next year, but we cannot buy until we know what kind of nets will be legal and what illegal. For this reason, the legislators will do the fishermen of the state a great favor by disposing of the commercial fish laws as early in the session as possible."

According to a Canadian dispatch, the negotiations between the United States and the Dominion relative to joint regulation of fisheries in international waters have reached a conclusion, which means that another year local fishermen are likely to be under national rather than state control. The dispatch says: "It is understood that as a result of the conference held here during the last three days between Prof. David Starr Jordan, the United States representative on the international fisheries commission, and Prof. Prince, the Canadian commissioner, an agreement has been reached whereby the joint international regulations governing the fisheries in inland boundary waters, as drafted over a year ago, will be brought into force without further delay by simultaneous promulgation at Washington and Ottawa."

All hats will be sold at reduced prices for the remainder of the season.

affected, your life is in danger. M. Meyer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." The People's Drug Store.
