terms. It depends largely on the conditions existing at the conclusion of first terms.

OSBORN WAS RIGHT.

The Detroit Journal devotes a column to an editorial article about the request Mr. Osborn made of Mr. Navin that he resign as a member of the Jackson prison board.

There's one thing to be said for Ish-peming's population, as reported by the census bureau. There is no danger that the good people of Ishpeming will be charged, as those of Tacoma and other western cities were, with bribing the enumerators to pad the figures.

Now that he has announced that he is through with his benefactions to the University of Chicago numerous other educational institutions are wondering where Mr. Rockefeller's lightning will strike next, or if it will strike at all.

There are a few streaks and spots on Senator Lorimer's toga, but the senator is accustomed to wearing soiled political garments. The begrimed toga won't bother him, in the least. He will feel entirely at home in it.

The Mining Journal has noticed some inquiry whether a sophomore interview about Mr. Osborn published in the Detroit News, and credited to Mr. Knox, was authorized by the latter gentleman. The Mining Journal has been informed emphatically that it was not.

The Pullman company has yielded to moral suasion and has announced that it is prepared to put in effect even more advantageous rates, for the public, on its lower berths than those announced in its recent proposed schedule made public at the hearings of the interstate commerce commission.

Regarding his decision not to be a candidate for governor for a second term Mr. Osborn is quoted as saying, at Saginaw: "I would have to play politics if I wanted another term, and this I won't do."

Allan's Foot-Paste, the antiseptic powder. It cures painful, smarting, nervous feet, and instantly takes the sting out of corns and bunions.

There were 213,272 votes cast for the Democratic assembly candidate in New Jersey. Of these less than 64,000 voted for the two men who asked for senatorial votes. If the proportions in the Democratic primaries had been up to the proportion in the Republican primary, there would have been 125,000 instead of 64,000, indicating their senatorial preferences.

From Dec. 1 until the close of the bounty period, Feb. 1, last year, bounty was paid on but 943 sparrows, indicating that perhaps twice as many sparrows will be killed this season as were killed a year ago. Patrick Shea, who lives near the brewery, brought in 210 at one time a few days ago. He caught the birds in his chicken coop, first putting in grain for bait, then closing the door and killing the birds with a broom. The boys are catching many sparrows in the grain cars in the South Shore yards and around F. B. Spear & Sons' warehouse.

The orphanage was built about forty years ago by Father Terhorst, who was both architect and builder and gave the best years of his life to the institution. There are four stone buildings of old-fashioned, quaint appearance, and by many they are revered because of their age and sentiment in much the same way as are the old Spanish missions in the Southwest.

The mission at Assinins was founded about 1849 by Father Baraga, who left there in 1853 to become bishop of the diocese of Sault Ste. Marie. He was succeeded by Father Terhorst, who took the orphanage and remained at its head until his death about seven years ago. Father Terhorst at his death was succeeded by Father Faust, who is still in charge of the institution.

ASSESSED VALUATION IS TO BE BOOSTED

Board of Equalization Expected to Raise State Over $200,000,000 Next Year.

Auditor General Fuller is of the opinion of the state board of equalization which will meet in Lansing Aug. 21, 1911, to equalize the state tax, will boost the assessed valuation of Michigan over $200,000,000, says a dispatch from the state capital. This board meets once every five years and is composed of the lieutenant governor, auditor general, secretary of state, state treasurer and state land commissioner.

At present the total valuation of all property in the state amounts to $1,724,000,000, but the investigations of the state tax commission during the last few years make evident the fact that an increase is necessary and it is thought that the valuation will be fixed at $2,000,000,000.

The state university receives three-eighths of a mill on all state taxes, and the amount the state institution received last year was $637,287.50; but should the board of equalization raise the valuation the university will receive about $850,000. At the present time the university does not utilize all of its appropriation.

Special appropriations aggregating approximately $1,500,000 will be asked of the next legislature by the penal and charitable institutions of the state according to figures which have been collected for presentation to the next legislature. This, of course, will have no effect on the amounts which these institutions will require for maintenance and that the institutions of the state require a huge sum for this purpose is disclosed by a report which shows that the disbursements for current expenses of all state institutions, including the educational, for the last fiscal year amounted to a little more than $3,000,000. As the population of these state fostered colleges, asylums, homes and prisons has increased it is probable that this amount will be increased next year, in fact, some of the special appropriations asked are for extensions and new buildings to provide for the growth of the institutions.

The amount which the penal and charitable institutions want the legislature to appropriate is more than $400,000 in excess of the amount asked two years ago, which is pointed out as a fair criterion of the steadily increasing demands which confront the legislature session after session.

Nine boxes containing eatables, provisions, clothing, etc., contributed by the members of St. Peter's cathedral parish, were sent to the diocesan orphanage at Assinins, near Baraga, yesterday, and two more boxes will be shipped today. Among the largest contributors to this Christmas offering were the Knights of Columbus and one of the local meat dealers, who gave a barrel of turkeys.

There are now about 100 children at the Assinins orphanage, quite a number of whom are of Indian descent. The institution is beautifully located and under the direction of Father Faust, who is a natural farmer, the place is one of

L. S. & I. VIADUCT HAS BEEN COMPLETED

Trains Can Now Run Over the North Lake Line, from West Superior Street.

The Warden-Allen company's construction crew, which has been employed on the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway, company's viaduct, on West Division street, for the past several weeks completed the last of the structures Tuesday, and the section crew laid the rails across the spans yesterday. This completes the line to the Cliff and Cliffs iron company's North Lake properties, four and one-half miles northwest of the city, with the exception of some ballasting that will be finished in the spring. The steel crew has been transferred to the Cleveland-Cliffs company's steel trestles at the Cliff shafts mine and will remain there until that work is finished.

B. W. Bodell of Toledo, O., who superintended the steel work on the railway line for the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway company, has left for his home. For the past twenty years Mr. Bodell has made a business of superintending this class of work and the steel spans on the Lake Superior & Ishpeming Railway company's new line near the Jackson location were put in under supervision of one of his men. He usually has several superintendents looking after work of this kind for different companies.

The style of the bridge put up on the line here is known as the "through plate girder viaduct." The total length of the steel structures is 256 feet. Two of the spans are each forty-nine feet in length, one thirty feet and the other sixty-eight feet. The total weight of steel used is 408,000 pounds. The spans are guaranteed to carry the weight of three heavy ore trains. Mr. Bodell said that the steel in the structure should stand without replacing for at least twenty years, if it receives proper care. He said that it should be painted every two years to prevent it from corroding. The steel was made in Buffalo. The Warden-Allen company's headquarters are in Milwaukee.

Ever since trains began running to the North Lake properties, some two months or more ago, they have been entering the North Lake extension from a siding near the Cliff shafts property. This spur will be left undisturbed and will probably be used considerably during the shipping season. All of the trains running from the mine to the docks will pass over the elevated portion of the line.

Silk mullers, silk half hose, silk handkerchiefs, silk suspenders, silk garters.

SAM APOSTLE, Prop.

Citizen Suggests Plan of Dealing with Sunday Law Violations.

To The Mining Journal:—Since it has pleased the state solons, for what reason they best know, and others may guess, to make it a very hard and roundabout thing to procure convictions and punishments under the Sunday observance statute, it is up to this city to pass an ordinance on a subject which so vitally concerns us. An ordinance has many advantages over a state law. Under a general or state law one is entitled to a hearing before a jury; it seems indeed not a jury's province where the fact of breaking the state law is so evident to all; a jury is to ascertain facts, and say guilty or not guilty as the facts warrant. It seems strange that the facts should be in doubt here. When the attorney makes much of the argument that others are violating the law, and hangs the jury so an agreement is impossible, and an acquittal likely, and the violation is where are we then? Now I understand that the Sunday law violators, even in a civil action to fine them, are entitled to a hearing before a jury; not even here are the facts established, that they are guilty, but a jury must pass upon it; and as the prosecuting attorney said at the late trial: "It is the city of Ishpeming which is on trial, whether it will stand for this law breaking." I do not say this is an improper way of proceeding, for of that I am incompetent to judge, and we have a right to believe that it is conducted in a proper form under our laws. But I say to the lay mind it seems strange. I wonder if, when the game warden finds a game law violator, with the prohibited game at the prohibited time, if a jury is required to find him guilty, before he can be fined. If so the great provision that a man shall not be deprived of liberty or property, without due process of law, is pervertedly overdone.

Now what I was going to say is this: Let us get a city ordinance on the matter, taking it out from under the state law. For the benefit of those readers who may know even less law than this writer, and who might wish the city council to pass an ordinance allowing Sunday shows, I want to draw on my small stock of legal knowledge and say that such an ordinance would be absolutely void, being against a state law on the subject. So there is but one thing to do, pass an ordinance in accordance with the state law, but which has the advantage of a much simpler enforcement. Here I quote from my textbook on law: "There are two methods of enforcing ordinances. First by actions of debt or assumpsit to recover the fine. In such case the action is a civil one, and the procedure the same as in any other civil action. In some as in any other civil action. The second method is by complaint and warrant for arrest of the offender, followed by imprisonment, if the fine and costs are not paid. Some courts hold this proceeding to be a criminal proceeding as regards the method of trial, rules of evidence, and matters of cost. Other courts hold the proceeding to be only quasi-criminal in character, and that constitutional guarantees providing for a jury trial in criminal cases do not apply." Here then, gentlemen, we have clear sailing, let us get the ordinance.

FUN FOR THE BOYS.

Youngsters of City Will Be Feasted and Entertained Next Wednesday.

Plans for the entertainment by the Y. M. C. A. boys next Wednesday of all the other boys of Ishpeming are well under way. The use of the A. O. U. W. hall on Main street has been granted by J. D. West free of charge.

A program of races, athletic stunts, and other events will be held in the gymnasium, also a plunge in the pool, from 4 to 6, after which the boys will march to the hall, where a menu of coffee, sandwiches, cakes and fruits will be served. Mayor McCrekendale and others will talk to the boys. Every lad between the ages of 10 and 16 years is cordially invited.

The Y. M. C. A. boys will be glad to have aid in the matter of providing food for this entertainment, and to that end invite the townspeople and stores to send contributions of bread, cake, ham, cold meats, coffee, cocoa and fruit.

The decoration committee will go to the woods to procure greens and trees to decorate both the Y. M. C. A. building and A. O. U. W. hall. For this purpose, J. R. Hodgkins, the livery man, has donated the use of a team for a day.

The committees ask the citizens not to wait for members to call on them, but to send donations to the association building.

PLAN CHRISTMAS CHEER FOR NEEDY

Salvation Army Will Distribute Bounteous Dinners to the Poor Saturday.

All arrangements for the distributing by the Salvation Army of Christmas dinners to poor families of the city are about completed. Forty names of deserving poor, most of whom are women depending upon their own efforts for a livelihood, are on the list, and it is the purpose of the army officers to see that they have a good substantial dinner, with a few luxuries thrown in. During the past week or more, Adjutant Charles Staiger has been receiving cash contributions and provisions of various kinds from the citizens. Several of the merchants have contributed goods for the Christmas baskets, and the total value of the forty dinner will be in the neighborhood of $150. Adjutant Staiger has already received a little over $100, including cash and $20 worth of supplies.

There will be thirteen articles in each basket, as follows: Pork roast, bread, potatoes, apples, butter, coffee, sugar, cookies, mince meat, candy, nuts, corn and tomatoes.

The dinners will be given out at the army barracks at 3 o'clock tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon, to those who have been provided with tickets entitling them to a basket.

At 8 o'clock Saturday evening there will be a Christmas tree in the barracks. Members and friends of the army are invited to bring their Christmas presents for their friends and to have the Salvation Army Santa Claus distribute them. Bags of candy, fruit, nuts, etc., will be given out to about 100 children.

The services on Sunday at the Army will be at the usual hours, and Monday evening Adjutant Staiger will give a stereopticon sermon entitled "From the Manger to the Throne."

The athletic events will open tomorrow morning, when a sixty-yard dash and a running high jump will be run off. Points will be given to each boy taking part, according to their ability, and these points will be scored for their team.

The Junior A baseball championship has not yet been decided. The Pirates have won seven games and lost two; the White Sox won six and lost two and still have a game to play with the Tigers. If the White Sox defeat the Tigers the White Sox and Pirates will be tied for first place. These games will be played next week.

[The Junior A basketball and athletic league, just organized, is composed of six teams, which will be designated by the names of the captains as follows:

Carlyon's—Cooley, Bone, Vidlund, Chapman, Francis and Elson. Flaas—Lund, Henriksson, Peterson, Jerquist, Benedict and Harma.

COMMUNICATED. Ishpeming, Dec. 22, 1910. To the Editor of The Mining Journal:

Ancient the Sabbath and Sunday laws, our Christian friends persist in treating the Sabbath and Sunday as synonymous, when, in fact, they are as different as Friday and Saturday. The command to keep the Sabbath is from the Bible, the command to keep Sunday is from the laws of Michigan.

The Bible says, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, six days shalt thou labor and do all thou hast to do, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt do no work, etc. Wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it." Ex. 20-11.

The laws of Michigan say that the people shall not labor, work, or do any kind of business except work of necessity on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday. So therefore, anyone who works on the Sabbath breaks God's law, likewise any one who works on Sunday breaks the laws of Michigan.

I think the time spent in trying to maintain such laws had better be spent in trying to repeal them, as their history has not been very humane, and instead of wrangling over them, would it not be better agree to disagree, or in other words, if any one chooses to go to church, to say to him, "Go, I hope you will hear a good sermon," and if the other's choice is a picture show, to tell him you hope he will enjoy himself. I do not think it good merely to punish another for not doing what I would like him to do unless by so doing he injures some one. In conclusion, I will say that I am not a Jew or Seventh day Adventist, but a lover of justice.

AN OBSERVER.

Sheriff to Feast Prisoners—
Christmas will be a great day at the Delta county jail at Escanaba. Mrs. Aronson, wife of the sheriff, has arranged a menu for the occasion that will surely appeal to every guest. Turkey will lead the bill of fare and this will be only one feature of the feast. All the trimmings that go with a holiday dinner will be thrown in, even to the plum pudding and mince pie accessories. There are ten prisoners in the county lock-up now. More may be added to that number before the great feast of the year will have come. During the day the men will be given unusual privileges. They may roam the corridors at leisure, mirth and song will prevail and all visitors will be admitted.

Bridge Contract Awarded—
The contract for building a concrete bridge over the Escanaba river at Wells has been awarded by the Delta county board of road commissioners to the Delta Contracting company for the sum of $39,200. The work is to be started at once and the bridge will be completed by July 1 of next year. Three bids for the contract were filed. The Delta Contracting company, John Gasman, Jr.,

manager, submitted three separate propositions, as follows: For an eight-foot bridge with six-foot walk on side and with forty-foot concrete piers, $38,200; for the same bridge with two six-foot walks, $42,200; for a twenty-foot bridge with a six-foot walk on either side, $48,450. The Illinois Bridge company of Chicago offered to construct a thirty-two-foot bridge without walks for $49,000. The Wynkoop-McGormley company of Toledo, Ohio, submitted two propositions, one for a twenty-foot bridge with six-foot walks on either side for $75,000 and for a sixteen-foot bridge with four-foot walks, $67,200.

Hunter Loses an Eye—
Joseph Piette, Sr., an old resident of Norway, while hunting recently came in contact with the limb of a tree with such force as to knock an eye out. The injury resulted in partial blindness and he remained in his camp for several days, until a son arrived, being fearful that he would go astray if he attempted to return home alone. Piette is about sixty-five years of age.

Vote Against New School—
The proposition of bonding the district for the erection of a school building to cost $35,000 has been turned down by the people of Menominee. Out of 244 votes cast at a special election, the scheme received only four votes. It is believed now that the school board will return to the instructions for sanitary improvements at present buildings, given them by the taxpayers at the annual meeting last summer.

Restaurant Man Fined—
Allen Valentine, a Menominee restaurant proprietor who is alleged to have purchased stolen chickens from Cyrus Scott at the rate of three big fat hens for a quarter, was fined when arraigned before Municipal Judge Waite. He was assessed $1 and costs, a total of $3, in addition to $4, the price of the chickens. Along with the fine went a lecture from Judge Waite, who urged the restaurant man to keep on the path of righteousness at all times, and especially around Christmas.

Robber Holds Up Bookkeeper—
Pointing a gun at the bookkeeper of the L. Stephenson company at Escanaba, a masked bandit, forced that gentleman to hand over the company's strong box, containing $12, and draw the blinds to the office windows for five minutes while the robber escaped. Six hundred dollars in another compartment of the safe was not touched. At the end of five minutes, when Max Luedtke, the bookkeeper in question, had regained control over his nerves, he called the police. Patrolman Nels Nelson hurried to the place, but when he arrived no trace of the robber could be found. Luedtke says the intruder wore a handkerchief mask over the lower part of his face completely covering it from the nose down. He is described as a man about five feet six inches in height, weighing about 140 pounds. He wore brown clothes and glasses and had black hair. He had no overcoat. It is believed that he is an Escanaba man.

Saloon Men Sued for Damages—
Through their attorney, Henry R. Dotseh, Mrs. Eliza LaSalle and Miss Albertina LaSalle, wife and daughter, respectfully, of Orson LaSalle, have instituted actions in the circuit court for Delta county to recover damages in the sum of $30,000 from five Escanaba saloon keepers and their surety, the Michigan Bonding & Surety company.

The defendant liquor men are Christ Westlund, William Wiseman, Peter Jaussey, Eugene Sullivan and Stanislaus Pelletier. Mrs. LaSalle and Miss LaSalle are bringing the actions to recover $15,000 damages each for the injuries they sustained when Orson LaSalle shot them both in an alleged attempt to murder Mrs. LaSalle, and while under the influence of liquor claimed to have been sold him by the defendants. LaSalle did the shooting last August and was twice tried at the October term of circuit court on a charge of assault with intent to commit the crime of murder. His first trial resulted in a disagreement of the jury, but on the second trial he was convicted of assault with intent to commit great bodily harm less than the crime of murder. The following day, Nov. 2, Judge Finnigan sentenced LaSalle to an indeterminate term of from three to ten years in the branch state prison at Marquette, with a recommendation of four years. LaSalle is now at the prison. Mrs. LaSalle, in her claim for damages, sets up not only the injuries she sustained at the hands of her husband but also the loss of his support caused by his imprisonment. Miss LaSalle's claims are practically the same. The defendants are alleged to have been responsible for the condition that led LaSalle to do the shooting of which the plaintiffs were the victims.

Soo Liquor Men in Trouble—
That a big sensation will shortly be sprung at the Soo by special agents of the Indian bureau is a report from the Look City. It is said the agents have secured what is considered conclusive evidence against all but three of the twenty-four retail liquor dealers in the city and which charges them with selling intoxicants to the red men. There are thirty-two retail liquor dealers in the county. It is learned on authority that the Indian bureau is not confining its attention alone to the prohibited territory in Minnesota, but is busy in securing evidence to stop the practice of selling liquor to Indians in every part of the United States. The agents of the bureau have been quietly working in Chippewa county the past several months and have secured evidence of violation of the law against nearly every saloon keeper in the county, only three doing business in the Soo being exempt.

During the past few months, it is alleged, there have been four different agents of the Indian bureau of the inferior department in the Soo; each of them remaining from five to fifteen days. Every dealer in intoxicating liquor was visited on several occasions and some of them were caught violating the law in regard to selling liquor to Indians two or three times. The evidence secured is said to be conclusive, including the names of witnesses to the transaction and conversation between the parties and the seller at the time. Each agent in making his rounds was accompanied by two Indians who would make the purchases, after which they would compare notes and prepare the evidence to be used against the dealer when the case came to trial. It is said that the government laid no traps with which to catch the dealers but that the bureau is after those dealers who are deliberately breaking the law.

Prosecuting Attorney Wiley was asked if he had been called upon in connection with the violation of the Indian treaty laws and said that he was not in the habit of saying anything about the criminal business of the county until warrants were issued. He said, however, that he had information that "agents of the Indian bureau had been operating in this locality, but that their work was along lines not taken up by the local officials. He said that if the matter was brought before him he would treat it along the same lines that he would any other matter wherein the violation of the laws is concerned. He further stated that he had been advised by United States officials that an investigation of the local conditions had been made by the secret service of the Indian bureau and that complaints against alleged offenders would follow.

Wedding is Society Event—
A society event on the Gogebie iron range has been the wedding of Miss Frances P. Healy, daughter of Frank A. Healy of Ironwood to Russell C. Williams of Chicago. The bride and groom being cousins, they were married in Wisconsin, the ceremony being performed at the residence of Dr. J. M. Trezona, in Hurley. The Trezona home was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and ferns. The bride wore a gown of white silk taffeta and a wreath of maiden hair ferns and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Angie M. Healy, with Edward A. Wood of Chicago acting as best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. M. Tourtellot of the Presbyterian church, the bride being given away by her father. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. Luther C. Brewer. After the ceremony of the party returned to the residence of Will A. Cole, at Ironwood, where a reception was held and a wedding supper was served. Mrs. Cole is a sister of the bride. The decorations at the Cole residence were garlands of ground pine, southern holly and laurel leaves in the living rooms and red carnations and red roses and hand-painted place cards, done by Mrs. Flora Johnson Mason, of California, in the dining room. The only guests outside of the wedding party and relatives of the family were the Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Tourtellot, Mr. and Mrs. Luther C. Brewer, Dr. and Mrs. Will Trezona, James O. Wanzor of Superior, and Misses Hettie Monroe, Hettie Seelye and Kathryn Owen, girl friends of the bride. There were many beautiful and useful gifts. The bride, who has lived in Ironwood since childhood, is the third daughter of one of its pioneer citizens, Frank A. Healy, and is a young woman of charming qualities. The groom has a responsible position with the Zeno Manufacturing company of Chicago, and the young people will make their home in that city.

Now About Clean Food

Another Splendid Opportunity to Bring Out Facts

When the "Weekly" which sued us for libel (because we publicly denounced them for an editorial attack on our claims) was searching for some "weak spot," they thought best to send a N. Y. Atty. to Battle Creek, summoned 25 of our workmen and took their sworn statements before a Commissioner.

Did we object? No. On the contrary, we helped all we could, for the opportunity was too good to be lost.

Geo. Haines testified he inspected the wheat and barley, also floors and every part of the factories to know things were kept clean. That every 30 minutes a sample of the products was taken and inspected to keep the food up to standard and keep out any impurities, also that it is the duty of every man in the factories to see that anything not right is immediately reported. Has been with the Co. 10 years.

Edward Young testified had been with Co. 15 years. Inspector, he and his men examined every sack and car of wheat and barley to see they were up to standard and rejected many cars.

H. E. Burt, Supt., testified has been with Co. over 13 years. Bought only the best grain obtainable. That the Co. kept a corps of men who do nothing but keep things clean, bright and polished.

Testified that no ingredient went into Grape-Nuts and Postum except those printed in the advertising. No possibility of any foreign things getting into the foods as most of the machinery is kept closed. Asked if the factory is open to the public, said "yes" and "it took from two to three guides constantly to show visitors through the works." Said none of the processes were carried on behind closed doors.

At this point attys. for the "Weekly" tried to show the water used was from some outside source. Testified the water came from the Co.'s own artesian wells and was pure.

He testified the workmen were first class, high-grade and inspected by the Co.'s physician to be sure they were all in proper physical condition; also testified that state reports showed that Co. pays better wages than the average and he thought higher than any in the state.

F. B. Martin, Asst. Supt., testified Grape-Nuts made of Wheat, Barley, Yeast and Water. Anything else? "No, sir." Postum made of Wheat, Wheat Bran and New Orleans Molasses. Statements made on his experience of about 10 years with Co.

Testified bakers are required to wear fresh white suits changed every other day. Said had never known of any of the products being sent out that were below the high standard of inspection. Asked if any one connected with the Postum Co. had instructed him how to testify. Said "No, sir."

Horace Brown testified has been with Co. 9 years. Worked in Grape-Nuts bake shop. Testified the whole of the flour is composed of Wheat and Barley. Attys. tried to confuse him but he insisted that any casual visitor could see that nothing else went into the flour. Said machinery and floors always kept clean.

So these men were examined by the "Weekly" lawyers hoping to find at least one who would say that some under-grade grain was put in or some unclean condition was found somewhere.

But it was no use. Each and every man testified to the purity and cleanliness.

As a sample, take the testimony of Luther W. Mayo.

Testified been with Company about 10 years. Now working in the bakery department making Grape-Nuts. Testified that the ovens and floors are kept clean and the raw products as they go in are kept clean. Also that the wearing apparel of the employes has to be changed three times a week.

Q. Do you use Postum or Grape-Nuts yourself at all?

A. Yes, I use them at home.

Q. If from your knowledge of the factory which you have gained in your ten years at the factory you believed that they were dirty or impure in any way, would you use them?

A. I do not think I would. No.

Asked if any one on behalf of the Company had asked him to testify in any particular manner. Stated "No."

All these sworn depositions were carefully excluded from the testimony at the trial, for they wouldn't sound well for the "Weekly."

Think of the fact that every man sworn to the purity and cleanliness so that the Atty. for the "Weekly" was forced to say in open court that the food was pure and good.

What a disappointment for the "Weekly!"

But the testimony showed:

All of the grain used in Grape-Nuts, Postum and Post Toasties is the highest standard possible to obtain.

All parts of the factory are kept scrupulously clean.

None of the workmen had been told how to testify.

Most of them have been from 10 to 15 years with the Co. and use the products on their tables at home.

Why do their families use the products, Grape-Nuts, Postum and Post Toasties, that they, themselves, make?

NEGAUNEE CEMETERY REMOVAL NOTICE.

The contractor engaged in removing the bodies from the old Catholic and City Cemeteries to the new Cemetery has found a large number of unmarked graves, and is having difficulty in such cases in giving notice to relatives. To facilitate this work it is desired that all persons having friends or relatives buried in unmarked graves should immediately furnish to Mr. Charles O. Stensrud, contractor, or to Mr. Thomas M. Wells, and Mr. Dan Shea, superintendents, information as to the names of persons buried, and the location of their graves, particularly within the following described portion of the Roman Catholic Cemetery, to-wit: "A strip two hundred feet (200 ft.)

in width across the Roman Catholic cemetery, one hundred fifty feet (150 ft.) distant from the westerly fence of same."

On account of the difficulty also in finding relatives in many instances where the graves are marked, all persons having any information that will assist the contractor or superintendents are earnestly urged to communicate with them at once.

Similar notices will be published from time to time as the work progresses to other portions of the cemetery.

(Additional Negaunee on Page Three.) LIVERY MUDDLE FINALLY SETTLED

Sandy Johnson Is Now the Owner of Both of Negaunee's Livery Stables.

The Hakenjos - Comstock - Newald - Pace livery muddle has finally been adjusted. The straightening out of the tangle, which was perhaps the worst of the kind that has ever occurred in Marquette county, caused several of the parties involved sleepless nights, and others evidently did some clever scheming in the hope of getting the best end of the deal. The livery is now owned by Sandy Johnson, who obtained possession Wednesday evening. The story of the transaction from the time Newald secured Charles W. Taylor's farm at Sands, is interesting, and all of the men whose names are mentioned above were in one way or another concerned in the affair.

Several weeks ago L. J. Newald, of Chicago, entered into a deal with C. W. Taylor of this city for the purchase of his farm at Sands agreeing to pay $8,000 for the real estate, equipment and stock, in fact everything but Mr. Taylor's household goods. No money was paid over in the transaction, Mr. Newald giving Mr. Taylor notes payable at the rate of $1,000 per annum, commencing Jan. 1, 1912, and bearing interest at 6 percent. Mr. Taylor did not include in the mortgage his stock and equipment, the mortgage merely covering the land. The deed for the property was turned over to Newald on a Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock, and before Monday morning at 8:30 Newald had transferred the deed of the property to C. S. Comstock, who was the proprietor of the livery stable on Silver street, which he a few years earlier purchased from John Hakenjos. By 10:30 of the same day Newald had the Taylor deed, also the deed that he had given Comstock, recorded in the register of deeds office in Marquette, before Taylor had recorded the transfer.

Exchange of Mortgages.

The estimated value placed on the Comstock livery, including equipment and horses, was $6,000. In negotiating the trade of the livery for the farm Mr. Comstock assumed $4,500 of Newald's mortgage on the farm. Taylor was then given a mortgage from Comstock for this $4,500 and Newald gave him a mortgage on the livery for $3,500 as the balance of the security on the purchase price of the farm. Mr. Taylor was not satisfied with the deal, as he was not certain that the livery outfit was worth the full face of the mortgage, so after much negotiation between Newald and Taylor, the former assigned to Taylor a lease of some property in Waterman, Wis., which is drawn at a rental of $95 per month. The rental money was assigned to Mr. Taylor, and if there is no hitch in this transaction he should receive rental on the lease for twenty-eight months.

The next move in the transaction was Newald's transfer of the livery to Patrick Breen of Chicago, through R. R. Pace, who, it appears, makes a business of negotiating deals of this kind. Breen is the only one of the parties who has been interested in the deal from time to time who did not appear in Negaunee, but Pace spent several days here as representative. In the deal between Newald and Breen, the former secured equity in a farm in Illinois, so that he was fully protected. Breen also assumed $2,125 of the original mortgage on the livery outfit held by Taylor. This reduced the Taylor mortgage from Newald to $1,375.

When Pace arrived here to take charge of the livery business for Breen he found that before he could do so a mortgage of $500 held by John Hakenjos against C. S. Comstock on the sale to the latter had to be discharged. Mr. Comstock soon settled up this matter, so that his hands were free so far as the livery deal was concerned. Other complications arose over the payment of the insurance on the farm and livery. Newald had agreed to pay insurance on $4,500 on the farm property for a period of five years, but he did not make the full payment. M. J. Greenthal, who managed the livery for Newald, and who owned part of the equipment, including eight horses, was alarmed for a few days, as Pace claimed his property, although it was not incumbered in any way. After some work on the part of five lawyers of the two cities, Mr. Greenthal's affairs were straightened out satisfactorily and he sold part of his outfit in Negaunee and shipped the balance to his home in Beloit, Wis.

Wanted to Ship Outfit. The most sensational part of the deal occurred Wednesday when Pace returned from Chicago, accompanied by J. Crosby of Sycamore, Ill., announcing that he had sold the livery outfit to Crosby and that the horses and carriages were to be immediately removed from the city. Mr. Taylor learned that Pace and Crosby had planned to ship the outfit, and there were more "doings" for a few hours. Mr. Taylor finally bought the entire equipment, discharging the mortgage and paying $768 in cash to apply on the purchase price. He then sold the horses and rigs to Sandy Johnson, who has conducted the livery business in the Hakenjos building on East Iron street, and Mr. Johnson is now in possession and will conduct both liveries.

The businessmen are well pleased that Mr. Johnson has come into possession of the business, as he is capable of handling both liveries and the city will now be provided with better livery service than has had in many years. Before Pace left the city Wednesday evening several creditors became alarmed and a number of them stepped pretty lively. All of his accounts were settled out of the money he received from Mr. Taylor, however. Pace's outstanding accounts during the few days that he had been in possession of the livery totaled nearly $300.

COOKING OF FOOD BY ELECTRICITY

Persons Doing Light Housekeeping Find Electric Devices Now on Market Very Convenient for Preparing Meals Quickly and Are Being Generally Used

Current Transformed Into Heat by Means of Resistance Unit, Calorite Being the Best Material for Accomplishing This—A Modern Electrical Kitchen.

It is reported at the office of the light and power commission that electric cooking devices are coming into more general use each year and that many people are giving them as Christmas presents this year. Electric cooking devices are especially convenient for persons doing light housekeeping, and are more cleanly and sanitary than any other form of heat.

Of the people who use electric cooking devices only a few understand whence comes the mysterious source of heat. In the last analysis the food is cooked by water and cold water at that. That is to say, the city water in Detroit is heated against the blades of the water wheels, and the water wheels drive electric generators. The electricity so generated is transmitted over copper wires to the home, where it can be used to cook food, light the house, do the ironing or operate the vacuum cleaner.

Electricity is the one form of energy which can be transformed wholly into heat energy without loss. A simple little device called a "resistance unit" in the bottom of each cooking device instantly changes the electricity into heat. There is no form of energy in the world which can be transformed into heat like electricity. The electric furnace, the highest type of this transforming apparatus, is the hottest thing in the world. Electricity can be changed into a gentle form of heat so slight it will barely feel warm to the hand or to the carbon-melting point of the electric furnace.

Calorite the Resistance Unit. The heating unit in the new and best kitchen devices is made of a metal alloy called calorite which has a peculiar faculty of resisting the flow of electricity and therefore changing the electrical energy into heat. Skilled engineers have calculated to a nicety the exact amount of heat necessary for each device so there is no waste energy, no loss from overheating or radiation. The heat is applied just where it is wanted in just the degree required.

When you connect the flexible cord of the electric flatiron to the lamp socket and turn on the current the electricity flows down the cord at the rate of 180,000 miles a second and passes through the resistance leaf concealed in the bottom of the iron. This resistance metal gets quite hot and the heat radiates throughout the iron, keeping it at just the right temperature for the work in hand.

Of this heat you see nothing, not a spark, not a bit of flame; nothing to indicate that the iron is hot, for electricity does its work quietly, quickly and very thoroughly. At the turn of a switch the mysterious force vanishes just as quickly as it came. The modern electrical kitchen contains a "wooden stove" or rather a polished oak table wired and fitted for the various cooking devices. With the old type of stove the cooking apparatus had to be placed on the stove over the fire. But with the new all the heat is confined to the utensil itself, concealed from view, so that the cooking could be done on the dining room table if there was room and it were necessary. The wooden range is merely a convenient place to place the device, affording an easy means of connecting them to the electric circuit and the proper switches for regulating the amount of current to be used.

With electricity there is no waiting for slow fires, no coal or ashes to be carried. At the touch of a finger the heat is ready. All electric cooking devices are made so that anyone, even though totally unfamiliar with the rudimentary principles of electricity, can operate them with safety and economy.

SKATING RINK.

James Clish Building One on Washington Street, Corner of Fourth.

The many young people in Marquette who have long been wishing for an ice rink are to have their wish. James Clish has rented the Meske lot at the southwest corner of Fourth and Washington streets, which is to be enclosed and covered and made into a rink as soon as possible. The work of building walls of snow around the four sides and leveling off the ground preparatory to flooding was begun yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Clish first made his project known Wednesday afternoon, when he inquired at the city hall regarding the ordinance covering licenses for skating rinks and the cost of water for that purpose. The ordinance provides that a skating rink shall pay a license of $5 per month, but it is thought that the fee will be remitted. The water board has agreed to furnish him with all the water he needs during the winter for $15.

Mr. Clish has had considerable experience building logging roads over soft ground and is believed to understand making a rink that will have a smooth, solid ice surface. He expects to push the work with all possible dispatch and hopes to have the rink ready for use by New Year's. He has a large quantity of rough lumber on hand, which will be used to enclose and roof over the part of the lot to be made into a rink.

LOTTERY AND GIFT SCHEMES UNDER BAN

Examination of Michigan Statutes Discloses Many "Blue Laws" Never Enforced.

The agitation for and against the picture shows in Ishpeming being allowed to be open on Sunday, has aroused considerable discussion in this city, but while there the controversy has resolved itself into a question of Sabbath observance, in this city the point principally at issue is the legality of lottery schemes and gift enterprises. A study of the "Blue Laws" on the statute books of Michigan reveals some very surprising laws, not the least startling of which is Section 1 of Chapter 316 of the compiled laws. This section makes it a misdemeanor to set up or promote any lottery or gift enterprise, and has been interpreted by the supreme court to mean that it is illegal to give tickets or chances on any prize whatsoever, even if the price of the chance includes a theater ticket, or any other article, presumably worth the full amount paid.

A local attorney stated yesterday that this law has been construed by the supreme court that many of the schemes for stimulating trade carried on regularly in this city are unquestionably illegal. As examples, he cited raffles at church fairs, giving away prizes in connection with theater tickets, drawings on boxes of candy or cigars, shaking dice or any other scheme the result of which is to induce people to spend their money by introducing the element of chance. It is safe to say that public sentiment does not demand nor desire the literal enforcement of this law in Marquette.

In the connection, it may be stated that there is also a law on the statute books forbidding the sale of candy on Sunday. The section applying to lotteries and gift enterprises reads as follows:

"Every person who shall set up or promote, within this state, any lottery or gift enterprise for money, or shall induce or attempt to induce any person, personal, goods, chattels or merchandise or valuable thing, by the way of lottery or gift enterprise, and every person who shall aid, either by printing or writing, or shall in any way be concerned in the setting up, managing or drawing of any such lottery or gift enterprise, or shall in any such lottery or gift enterprise, or shall knowingly suffer money or other property to be raffled for in such house, shop or building, or to be there won by throwing or using dice, or by any other game or course of chance, shall for every such offense be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year."

FOUR PRISONERS FROM DETROIT.

Two Legislators and an Old Ball Player Among Deputies With Them.

Four men recently convicted of crimes committed in Wayne county were brought to the Marquette prison on the late train Wednesday night. The men were in charge of eight deputy sheriffs, Joseph Dickson, Robert Minnis, Wm. H. Martz, John Stevenson, Wm. Muratski, C. L. Rutter, John Delor, and Simon Blumberg. Messrs. Martz and Stevenson are members of the state legislature, while a third member of the party, Mr. Rutter, formerly played baseball in the upper peninsula, pitching for Negaunee in 1890 and for Ishpeming the following year. Dan Sullivan, proprietor of the Hotel Clifton, has the score book containing the record of several of the games played in those years, and the book shows that Rutter was some pitcher in those days. Mr. Rutter states that he still plays the game in an amateur way and that his interest in the game has not waned. Yesterday, the two members of the legislature sought out Representative-elect Ewing and the three spent the afternoon together, presumably talking over things political.

The convicts brought to the prison by the Detroit men are: Joshua Fry, colored, and Joe Bohanly, both convicted of attempted rape; Abe Miller, convicted of larceny, and Ed Jones, convicted of larceny from the person. Fry has a sentence of from five to ten years with ten recommended; Bohanly, five to eight years, with eight recommended; Miller, two to five years, and Jones from six to nine months.
