

WILL RAISE A BIG FUND FOR THE FAMILIES

Citizens of Chicago Move to the Relief of the Wives and Children of the Martyrs Who Met Their Doom in the Nelson Morris Fire at the Stock Yards.

At Least a Quarter of a Million Is Desired, and of This Sum $50,000 Is Subscribed the First Day—Chief Horan to Be Given a Great Public Funeral.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—Fire Marshal James Horan, who met death at the Union stockyards fire, will be given a public funeral of military character. The common council, a regiment of cavalry, a squadron of mounted police, platoons of police and firemen on foot, with various public bodies and semi-public organizations and a concourse of leading citizens, will all have places in the cortege. The funeral probably will be held Monday.

With all the city firemen accounted for, recovered and identified, the dead in the police list number twenty-four. The twenty-fifth man believed to be dead, and whose body has not been recovered, was a private fireman from the fire station No. 6, where the flames had broken out afresh. The body of the man who died was Alexander D. Lannon, a captain of the department, who expired late today. Coroner Hoffman, following a day's investigation with the members of a jury, announced that the inquest would be opened Wednesday morning.

Dead Man's Son Collapses. A peculiarly pathetic scene occurred at the fire this afternoon when the body of Captain Dennis Doyle, the last to be recovered, was taken from the ruins. Phippen Edward Doyle, son of the captain, collapsed when his father's body was found. Edward Doyle had been at the fire nearly thirty-six hours. He had assisted in finding the body of his brother, Nicholas, also killed in the fire, and refused to leave until that of his father was recovered.

Many firemen narrowly escaped death this morning. As the members of ten engine companies were playing water on warehouse No. 6, where the flames had broken out afresh, the walls suddenly collapsed. Captain Windheim was knocked down and seriously injured. Other firemen escaped with minor injuries. Wm. Sheridan, a clerk at the stockyards, was probably fatally injured.

The citizens' relief committee, of which Harlow E. Hildreth is chairman and John J. Mitchell treasurer, established headquarters at a bank today. It was announced that a fund of at least $250,000 is desired. Of this sum, $50,000 had been subscribed when the committee's office was closed for the day.

ATTEMPT TO ROB KILLS A MAN TWO WEEKS AFTERWARD. Chicago, Dec. 23.—An attempt to burglarize a building at Kinmen, Ind., two weeks ago, resulted in a man's death in Chicago today. The victim was trying to repair the damage done to a safe. The safe had been brought to a shop here and Stephen Pavlik endeavored to open the door, which had been wedged shut. A blow on the door straightened a corner touched off a charge of nitro-glycerine which had been behind the door ever since the attempted robbery. The safe door was blown across the room, crushing the repairman's head.

WILL BE ZERO AT EQUATOR. Dr. Wiley Says So, but It Will Not Be for a Million Years Yet. Washington, Dec. 23.—Men will freeze to death on the equator millions of years hence, according to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley. Dr. Wiley said he believed the earth was slowly cooling. "In the frigid days that are yet to come," according to Dr. Wiley, "the winds will serve as fuel. From my knowledge of the laws of electricity, and from practical experiments already being made, I prophesy that the currents of air which have been agents of destruction to man will yet be harnessed for his benefit."

"JURY ESCAPED." Sharon, Pa., Dec. 23.—Bargain stands as it is. Each juror pays half the costs. Jury escaped. This is the entry in the docket over a horse trade. Declaring that no such verdict should be rendered, the justice went to the jury room, found the windows up and saw the jurors scampering away.

LOOKS LIKE PEACE ON WESTERN ROADS

Compromise Proposed by Mediator Neill Stays an Order Calling Out the Engineers.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—With the railroad managers and the locomotive engineers on the verge of an open rupture and the most gigantic strike in railroad history but a few hours off, Labor Commissioner Neill today stayed the strike order and paved the way for a settlement. The issue of peace or war will be determined tomorrow. At midnight the chances appeared on the side of peace. A compromise which Mr. Neill considered fair to both sides was presented to the leaders tonight late for the committee to act upon it. Each side will discuss it tomorrow and if it is a reputable agreement may be signed by noon. The compromise provides for some concessions on both sides, though its acceptance, it is said, will give the men a good advance over the offer made to them by the managers. That it will be accepted by the general managers is said to be almost certain.

Mr. Neill would not discuss the matter of the compromise, but he admitted that it was his final step in the mediation line. If it is rejected by either side, Mr. Neill will formally offer arbitration, which he is required to do under the law.

HIS "FISH" WAS A HEN.

New York, Dec. 23.—A row of chickens hanging near an open transom in the butcher shop of Frank Reinboth aroused the sporting instinct of Frank Tolliver and William Blanchard, negroes. It was said in court. Tolliver got an iron rod and bent one end into a hook. Then, with one foot on the doorlatch and one arm and the bar over the transom, he angled. A five-pound chicken was hooked. He was about to pass it to Blanchard when a policeman grabbed both chicken and fishers.

PICTURE IN A LOCKET REUNITES AN AGED COUPLE.

St. Paul, Dec. 23.—George W. Roberts and wife quarreled at the outbreak of the Civil war, he joining the Union army and she becoming a Confederate nurse. They lost all trace of each other. Not long ago a patient of Mrs. Roberts in the South recognized a picture of Roberts that the nurse was wearing in a locket as that of a man she had seen in St. Paul. Investigation proved that man was Roberts, and the couple were reunited today. As they had been married in Mexico in 1850, Roberts said he had come to remark, but being told that their marriage bonds had not been broken they left the court house happy. They are now preparing to take another "honeymoon" trip to Mexico. Roberts is 77 years old, and his wife is 75.

MANY CONVICTS OWE JOB TO A POET'S GENIUS.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 23.—The clemency for more than one hundred long term prisoners that was granted by Governor Comer today can be directly attributed to the genius of Lord Byron. Before the governor made his annual trip through the prisons he re-read Byron's "Prisoner of Chillon," and the thought of the hopelessness of a prison confinement so eloquently told by the poet struck the governor forcibly.

London, Dec. 23.—With the approach of midnight and no tidings yet of Cecil S. Grace, the young aviator who disappeared Thursday afternoon while essaying to return across the channel in a flight from Calais to Dover in an aeroplane, the belief generally prevalent in London was that the North sea held somewhere the story of a tragedy. SEEK CHANGE IN THE RULES OF THE HOUSE

Led by Insurgent Representative Norris of Nebraska, Republican Members Will Strive to Overcome a Joe Cannon Fiat That Seriously Blocks Business.

Amendment Will Be Offered Directly After the Holidays Providing That Only the Title Need Be Read on a Motion to Take a Bill from a Committee.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Representative Norris of Nebraska, the insurgent Republican whose resolution investigated the rules fight in the house last March, immediately after the holidays will introduce a proposed amendment to the rules to permit the reading of only the title of a bill, instead of the entire measure, on a motion to discharge a committee from further consideration of the legislation. Mr. Norris and other Republicans have been in conference since Speaker Cannon rendered a ruling a few days ago that on such motions a bill must be read in entirety, thus seriously blocking the business of the house. He said today that he felt it was not to be regarded as an insurgent change, as the rule enabling such motions was reported out of the regular rules committee of the house. He believed the speaker's decision was wrong, particularly as the motion involved was not one for the passage of the bill, but assuming that the speaker's decision would stand, a change in the rules was imperative.

UNCLE SAM SELLS UNDELIVERED MAIL

Merchandise Found in 130,495 Parcels and Letters Nets the Government $8,739.

The net revenue was $8,739.75.

The merchandise disposed of embraced undelivered matter of saleable value for which the owners could not be found and which was received during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1909. It represented the saleable articles found in 130,495 parcels and letters. The failure to restore this matter to the owners in nearly all instances was due to the neglect of the sender to place his card address upon the wrapper.

NATION'S HEAD BUYS GIFTS FOR MANY PERSONS

Mr. Taft's Remembrances Foot Up Into the Hundreds—He Is Fond of Giving Books and Trinkets of Jewelry and He Always Makes His Own Selections.

He Has Been a Tardy Shopper This Year, Because of Matters of State, but He Does the Job in Three Afternoons—Makes Tour of the Stores.

Washington, Dec. 23.—President Taft finished his Christmas shopping today. Matters of state made the nation's chief magistrate one of the tardy shoppers. Altogether he has devoted three afternoons to the task, which is not a small one.

Yesterday Captain Butt, the president's aid, carried thirty-five of Mr. Taft's cards with him, but they were all exhausted before the president was willing to leave the holiday counters and the captain had to make a hurried trip to the White House in an automobile for more cards to go with remembrances.

Mr. Taft believes more in the sentiment of Christmas giving than in the intrinsic value of the gifts themselves. As a consequence he does not confine himself to a small coterie of relatives and friends and his gifts mount up into the hundreds.

The president is very fond of giving books. In each book he gives he writes a suitable sentiment on the fly leaf. The president also is fond of giving trinkets of jewelry. He always makes his own selections. When he starts on a tour of a shop he goes just like any other holiday buyer, armed with a long list of names and probable purchases.

Outside a large circle of relatives and friends, the president gives presents to various White House clerks. He also presents turkeys to the married employees about the executive mansion. There are 102 of these employees, and this item alone requires an outlay of from $350 to $400. To the three secret service men who are assigned to look after his welfare the president always gives personal remembrances.

EARTH CRACKS STRANGELY ON KANSAS RANCH. Dodge City, Kas., Dec. 23.—Professor Hayworth of the University of Kansas today made an investigation of some peculiar fissures that lately have appeared in the earth on a ranch twenty miles southwest of here. He was unable to determine the cause of the phenomena. The largest of the fissures is 300 yards long and three feet wide. Another is fifty yards long. A forty-foot rope did not touch the bottom. On the occasion of the appearance of a smaller crack, smoke issued from it and the ground nearby rumbled and shook.

GIFTS TO HIS CONVICT WIFE

Boyle, Prisoner, Sells Tobacco to Get Money for Presents.

Pittsburg, Dec. 23.—The devotion of Jimmy Boyle, who is serving a life sentence for the kidnapping of Willie Whittala, to his wife, Helen, who is serving twenty-five years for her part in the same crime, became known when it was learned that he was the "friend" who had been sending her books, fruit, flowers, etc. Boyle admitted that he had been mailing money to a friend who purchased the luxuries for her.

From a lad Boyle had been an inveterate user of tobacco, and in prison has a daily allowance. Instead of using it he has been selling his share to other convicts and sending the money to a friend to aid his wife. The prison authorities have been so touched by this that they have announced that on Christmas day Boyle will be permitted to see and talk with his wife.

HAWAII PROHIBITION BILL

Congressman Offers Measure—Islanders Are Opposed to It.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Federal prohibition is proposed in a bill which Representative Miller of Kansas has introduced in the house. Mr. Miller asks congress to forbid the sale of intoxicants in the territory of Hawaii. A bill to this effect was offered about a year ago, but was modified to provide a plebiscite last July, when Hawaii voted three to one against prohibition. It is unlikely that the Miller bill will be given much consideration.

There was also a strong effort over a year ago to persuade congress to enact a prohibition law for the District of Columbia. Local sentiment was very strong against much legislation and congress refused to legislate.

He bit Mrs. Cupa in the arm and then clawed his way to her back, which he bit several times. A policeman shot the cat.

DAILY MINING JOURNAL
 A MORNING PAPER PUBLISHED BY THE MINING JOURNAL CO. (LIMITED).
 Entered as second class matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.
 MARQUETTE, MICH., DEC. 24.

Merry Christmas? Why not?
 The only thing that Dr. Cook appears to feel very certain about is his identity as Dr. Cook.

Medicine Hat may still be the coldest point in the country, but Marquette is entitled to place, at least, when it comes to measuring snowfall.

Don't overlook giving the Salvation army a helping hand in its Christmas work. It will mean holiday cheer in many homes where otherwise the cupboard would be bare.

The bunch of four convicts brought from Wayne county to Marquette prison this week must have been composed of very desperate men, otherwise it would not have required a party of eight deputies to deliver them in safety.

Mannel, until recently king of Portugal, plans on a tour of the United States. In order that there may be no misunderstanding on this point, it perhaps may well be explicitly stated that Mannel has no intention of entering vaudeville.

The underlying patriotism of Andy Carnegie's $11,000,000 peace gift now appears. We are unprepared for war.
 Therefore Mr. Carnegie is going to do his level best to assure, by endeavoring to do away with war, that we won't be caught in that embarrassing condition.

It may be, as is claimed, that some people were missed by the enumerators
 who counted the population of Negaunee,
 but it is rarely that a census is absolutely correct and the mistakes, if the census is an honest one, are all against the city. Negaunee fared well, and has no particular fault to find.
 The enumerators made returns that give a large increase in population and that prove it to be a growing and prosperous city. It is different at Ishpeming. Any one who knows that town cannot help but believe that the enumeration there was made very carelessly. Figures that show a loss of population in Ishpeming are absurd on their face, and indicate lax work on the part of some persons employed in the work of enumeration.

The metropolis of the upper peninsula, with its over 13,000 population, will make excellent company for Marquette, Negaunee and Ishpeming in a baseball league next year. After the turn of the year, when the holiday excitement is out of the way and we have settled down to our annual midwinter quiet, plans for the next baseball season should be taken up and all the details arranged early,
 so that the teams can prepare for their campaigns in good season. A Marquette-Delta county baseball league should be a much easier one to finance than the league that was formed last year. The four towns would have well over forty thousand people to draw on for patronage and all games should be money makers. Some of the men who were prominent in the baseball managements
 last season are reluctant to take hold again next year, but it is to be hoped that others will step forward to take their places, and to profit by the experience that has been obtained. There would be widespread disappointment if baseball was given up.

It has been reported that the liquor interests are opposed to the nomination of Perry F. Powers, of Cadillac, to be state labor commissioner, because he has been a "dry." It is possible this report is unfounded, as are so many other stories given circulation in connection with Mr. Osborn's political plans and projects, but at Saginaw Mr. Osborn said plainly that if such opposition arose he would certainly disregard it. He is not interested in knowing where the prospective labor commissioner has stood on the liquor question, with which he will have nothing to do, but solely with the question of whether he will make a good official. This is the proper stand for Mr. Osborn to take.
 He would take it as certainly objectionable were raised by prohibition sympathizers to a prospective appointee in whose ability he had confidence because he had been liberal in his views on the liquor question. In other words Mr. Osborn can be depended on to take a stand against the injection of this vexatious question into matters in regard to which there is no valid reason for raising it.

Ex-Senator Clark has completed his $7,000,000 house in New York. It is to be hoped, for Mr. Clark's peace of mind, that he will not be troubled by the thought of the many who are suffering from the effects of his political maneuvering.

that he will cut a bigger dash when he is within its portals than he cut in the senate at Washington. There the only thing that disclosed the presence of Mr.
 Clark was the occasional roll calls. It might have been different if before he had acquired a valid title to his seat he had not once been kicked out of the senate for buying his way into that august body with the idea that he could make the deal stick. Mr. Clark was ever so much more careless than the blonde statesman from Illinois. His trail through the Montana legislature that elected him was about thirty feet wide and was piled knee deep with money. It was a cinch to make out an iron clad case against him. His experience was a great lesson to him. He either reformed entirely or acquired a cunning that at that time he had no idea of. At least he has never been caught at anything since.

A MOOTED POINT.
 In connection with the appointment of John S. Haggerty, of Detroit, to succeed the late T. J. Navin as a member of the board of control of the Jackson prison,
 an interesting question has been raised.
 The suggestion is made that the appointment may expire by statutory limitation the first of the year. According to section 2081, of the compiled laws of 1897, whenever a vacancy occurs on a prison board, otherwise than by expiration of a term, such vacancy can be filled by the governor, by and with the consent of the senate if it is in session, for the remainder of the term. If the senate is not in session the appointment shall continue until the next regular session of the senate. It is contended that the statute means that an appointment to fill a vacancy expires when the senate convenes. If such is the case, Governor Osborn would have the choice of Mr. Haggerty's successor. On the other hand, it is asserted that it is the intent of the law that an appointee should continue in office until the senate convened, when the appointment should be confirmed. Attorney General Kuhn has been asked for an opinion on the point, which, under the circumstances
 now existing, becomes an important one.
 Whatever construction is placed on the law, there can be no doubt that Mr.
 Haggerty will be in full possession of his powers as a member of the Jackson prison board on the 28th, when the board is called to take action on the proposed selection of a warden. If a majority of the board agreed on Nate Simpson, or any other man, for the office of warden he would have an assured position under the statute, it appears,
 no matter what was the subsequent fate of Mr. Haggerty, or any other member of the board which appointed him. This Jackson prison situation continues to attract much attention below the straits and will be a subject of much comment until the question of what is going to be done is finally disposed of.

REP. BAKER TO REP. CAMPBELL.
 Representative Baker, candidate for speaker of the house of representatives in the legislature which begins its sittings next month, in a letter to the Detroit Journal emphatically denies the statement that he connived with the Democrats to bring about the defeat of Representative Campbell, the speaker of the last house, because he desired to get him out of the way, to assure that he would have no serious opposition for the office in the next session, and he pays his respects to Representative Campbell,
 who has been instrumental in spreading this report, in no uncertain terms. He says:
 I have read in your paper of the 16th inst. an editorial entitled,
 "Speaker Campbell's Charge Against Representative Baker," in which you state, "Mr. Campbell was defeated for re-election in his district, and declares Mr. Baker was instrumental in his defeat. That Mr. Baker sent campaign material to his opponent. The charges thus made are grave political accusations," and that if they are true that the party guilty of such conduct "has lost all claim to party betterment."
 I subscribe to this sentiment.
 I have ignored Mr. Campbell's childish whine, by reason of its very absurdity.
 In 1906 and again in 1908 Mr.
 Campbell was elected without opposition in either the primaries or the general election.
 After his spectacular service as speaker of the last house, he won a third nomination over an obscure farmer of his district by the magnificent majority of nine.
 His Democratic opponent, barely within the age limit, by far the youngest man elected to the legislature, placed on the ticket by the Democratic county committee
 without his knowledge or consent,
 with limited means and that narrow acquaintance he was able to gain in a sixteen months' residence in the district, beat Mr. Campbell before the people whom he (Campbell) had grown up amongst, and throwing his record squarely in his face, overturned a normal Republican majority of several hundred, securing his own election, the first Democrat to be elected in that district in forty years.
 If the people among whom I had lived all my life should so emphatically repudiate me as did the Republicans of the third district of Kent repudiate Mr. Campbell, I presume that I, too, should be looking for someone beside myself to attach the blame to.
 To say that I assisted Mr. Taylor in his campaign against Mr. Campbell is absurd. It is absolutely unqualifiedly and maliciously false.
 At no time, during or before the campaign, have I had any communication with Mr. Taylor, directly or indirectly, and I challenge Mr.
 Campbell to produce a scintilla of evidence to the contrary.
 The time has come for him to

Famous "Dint of Cough Syrup" Recipe
 No Better Remedy at Any Price.
 Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of granulated sugar and 1/2 pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of pure Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle,
 and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup.
 This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2.
 It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.
 The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough, and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore lungs and asthma, and an unequalled remedy for whooping cough.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is a prime favorite in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, though never successfully. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in quinaloin and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this recipe.
 A guarantee of absolute satisfaction,
 or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has

WRECKING MASTER IS NOT DISMAYED

Capt. Reid Will Stick to His Task at the Moreland All Winter If Necessary.

The tug Sarnia City, flagship and pride of Captain James Reid's wrecking fleet, ploughed through Portage Lake yesterday coming in from the stranded steamer Moreland. A big crowd of people stood on the docks to witness the midwinter feat and to cheer the crew for information about the wrecking job.

Early Captain Reid came ashore in a fur coat and cap and gloves, looking more like a polar explorer than a simple fresh water sailor. He had little to say as to his task. Right here it should be said, in justice to Captain Reid, that he has never made any claim regarding the Moreland other than that she was in condition to be saved and he could save her if the weather would give him a chance. He never admitted to discount the possibility and has never been glib about the matter. Captain Reid is a man of few words.

To an insistent and temerous reporter yesterday the wrecking master stated that the Moreland is in good condition, and that he still thinks he can save her if the weather will only calm itself for a day or two. He was asked as to the prospects of giving up the task. "We have all winter before us," was his answer, "and we will work all winter unless the ice becomes too thick to use the tugs. In that event we will lay up in Portage Lake and tackle the job again in the spring. The Moreland will not be damaged further by laying out there all winter."

The wrecking crew spent Thursday knocking the ice off the wreck. The big waves of Lake Superior have been washing over her in the freezing weather, and have added a few tons of ice to her weight. It is just as important to keep this off as it is to get out the cargo and water. The crew is managing to keep up fires in the wreck to keep her boilers and pipes from freezing up and Captain Reid says, as he has said ever since he undertook the job, that calm weather is all he needs to turn the trick.

Dumelm Is Released.

The Canadian steamer Dumelm, wrecked on Canoe rock, Isle Royale, has been successfully floated. It was released by the Canadian Towing & Wrecking company, which took the contract on a basis of "no cure, no pay." The Dumelm will be taken to Fort Arthur and placed in the new drydock recently completed there. The Dumelm, a package freighter, bound down from the Canadian head of the lakes with a cargo of general merchandise, went on the rocks at Blake's point, easterly end of Isle Royale, in a thick snowstorm, Dec. 7. She was owned by the Inland Navigation company, Ltd., Hamilton, Ont.

MORE SPORT IN PROSPECT.

Houghton Light Infantry Would Relish Another "Contest."

It has come to the ears of Captain Martin M. Foley, commander of the Houghton Light Infantry, that the Hancock Naval Reserve claims to have defeated the H. I. in a "contest" at wall scaling in the recent athletic and military tournament at the Kerreged theater for the benefit of the Portage Lake Athletic club of halfforgotten memory. Captain Foley has no objection to the implication that his company can be beaten at anything.

The facts in the matter are that when Dr. Farrand invited the two companies to give an exhibition of wall scaling in the tournament they assented gladly. Wall scaling is probably not included in the war curriculum of the Naval Reserve division, but it is in the tactics to be learned by an infantry company. It has a distinct purpose, the teaching of a charging military company to go over obstacles in good order, a sort of an addition to the extended order drill.

The Naval Reserve squad came on the stage that memorable night attired in athletic garb and their wall scaling act was about as effective a bit of military practice as the work of a running team pulling an archaic hose cart at a fireman's tournament. The Light Infantry appeared fully equipped with rifle and side arms. The squad formed by bugle command, went over the wall with the aid of the rifles and formed to repel a charge on the other side. This was a demonstration of the use of wall scaling knowledge and skill in warfare.

Captain Foley says that if the Hancock Naval Reserve wants to try conclusions in the matter of wall scaling he and his company will be glad, yet they are eager to accommodate them. But the contest must be under the same conditions for both companies and include the full uniform and arms and equipment. Captain Foley waits an answer with ill concealed impatience.

BAD FIRE AT LANSE.

Levitan Department Store a Total Loss Yesterday Morning.

The Levitan department store, the leading mercantile establishment of the village of Lansé, Baraga county, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The fire broke out at 5 o'clock from unknown causes. It is estimated the loss will exceed $8,000.

The store is one of the oldest established in Lansé. It was conducted for years by David Levitan, who failed a year or so ago. After his failure a stock company was organized with Mrs. Levitan at the head, her husband having left the town.

His skull was fractured and he died within a short time after being taken to the Tri-mount hospital. Bagt was twenty years of age and single and had no relatives in the copper country or elsewhere as far as is known. The funeral will be held today. The remains will be interred at Forest Hill cemetery Houghton.

It is not known just when the postal bank will be opened, but Postmaster Lang probably will have definite information on his return.

NEW PORTAGE LAKE SEVEN.

Manager McNamara of the Amphidrome Confirms Duluth Claim.

Manager McNamara of the Amphidrome says that Manager Ed. Furni of the Duluth curling club hockey team is not so far wrong when he says that a Houghton hockey team is to play its club in that city in January. Manager McNamara has a letter from Manager Furni asking for a game with a Houghton team, and the former says: "I am sure that the Houghton Portage Lake hockey team which will be best seven that has represented Houghton and Hancock since the old professional days."

Asked if he would forecast the personnel of the team, Mr. McNamara said he would not. He would say absolutely nothing more about it, as he what he has up his sleeve is a matter of conjecture, but it is a fact that between Houghton and Hancock he could pick a pretty fair hockey team, as the majority of the members of the last year's league teams are still here and willing to get into the game again if they can be shown good reason for doing so.

The Mohawk hockey team, winners of last year's league championship, has received the silver cup representing that trophy. The trophy has been in the custody of Matt Bang since last spring and the fact that Mohawk did not previously receive it was due to Mohawk's disinclination to come after it.

CELEBRATE MIDNIGHT MASS.

Catholic Churches Make Preparations for Beautiful Service. All the Catholic churches of Houghton county will celebrate midnight mass tonight. The services will introduce the observance of the feast of Christmas. The Sacred Heart church of Calumet will have a particularly impressive service. A beautiful musical program has been arranged by Professor August Espe. The choir has held five rehearsals each week lately to master the several compositions.

TAKE CARE!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." The People's Drug Store.

For Business Use

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

PERFECTION OIL HEATER

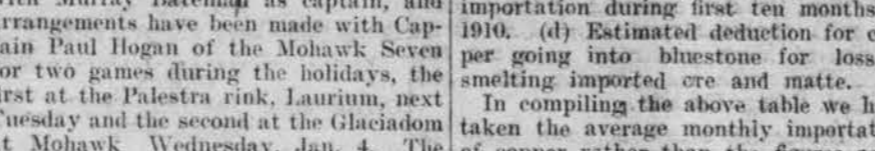

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. It is a safe, anti-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the fuel. The fuel-cap it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the front by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

HOCKEY PLAYERS RETURN.

Back from College and Will Play Two Games with Mohawk Seven.

With the return of a number of players from schools and colleges for the holidays, Calumet hockey fans are to be given exhibitions of Canada's great winter sport. A team has been organized, with Murray Bateman as captain, and arrangements have been made with Captain Paul Hogan of the Mohawk Seven for two games during the holidays, the first at the Palastra rink, Laurium, next Tuesday and the second at the Glaciarium at Mohawk Wednesday, Jan. 4. The Mohawk team will be practically the same as that which represented the town last year. The Calumet Seven will line up about as follows: Goal, Gray or Herman; point, Stake Herman; cover, Mahan or Jack Herman; center, Bateman; rover, Reynolds, right wing, Kaiser or Osborne; left wing, Derowin; with Cameron, Hall, Peters and Houghton as spare men. Games will be arranged with Portage Lake teams if possible. Carlos Haug will be asked to referee the Mohawk games.

SHE CANNOT BE HOME.

Mrs. Cordelia Jacka, the aged head of the well-known Jacka family of Calumet, owners of the wealthy Jacka estate, is in Milwaukee in a sanatorium and cannot be home for Christmas. It will be the first Christmas in fifty-eight years that she has not spent in Calumet.

HE IS NOT A CANDIDATE.

Captain H. S. Goodell, commander of the upper peninsula battalion of the Michigan Naval brigade, says that he is not a candidate for reelection. He will not present his name at the election to be held in Houghton Dec. 31.

COPPER CURTAILMENT.

On the Total Production, It Is Less Than 15 Per Cent.

We are at last able to form a fairly accurate idea of the extent of the copper curtailment as affecting the supplies of American refiners, respecting which there has been so much discussion during the last four months. The majority of American smelters report their production monthly. We make the following comparisons for July and October, 1910. Both are months of thirty-one days. In July the production was at or near the zenith. In October all of the curtailment planned for the present had doubtless been effected:

(In pounds, taking the nearest round figures.)	Company or District.	July.	October.
Anaconda	23,750,000	22,100,000
Arizona	2,900,000	3,000,000

The production in November was swollen by the Michigan smelters, who made a clean-up in anticipation of the close of navigation, their output having been about 2,000,000 pounds larger than in October. The extraordinary receipt of blister copper in September from Cerro de Pasco also, without doubt, played a part in the refinery figures for November.

If the present rate of curtailment by the smelters be maintained we ought to see the refinery production come down to 112,000,000 pounds in 1910, 100,000,000 pounds, according to the length of the month. As we have pointed out in the earlier part of this article, this is the minimum to be expected. Increasing importations of crude copper, matte and concentrates may prevent the realization of that minimum. There is a tendency for such importations to increase, our splendid smelting and refining facilities being an inducement to draw hither a custom business that otherwise would go elsewhere. Of course this is to be regarded with approval rather than with distress as to any adverse affect it may have upon our statistics.

As for the November statistics in other particulars no further comment is required. Small fluctuations in the domestic and foreign deliveries from month to month are apt to be without special significance. The most satisfactory feature about the November statistics as a whole, is the further large decrease in the combined accumulation, amounting to 13,735,045 pounds, bringing the present total down to 323,580,000 pounds, against the maximum of 401,278,817 reported at the first of last July.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

STANTON PROPERTIES.

The Stanton properties at Lake Superior will close the year 1910 with a combined production of approximately 20,975,000 pounds of copper. This is a decrease of 2,200,000 pounds from 1909. Mohawk will account for a new high record production at 11,300,000 pounds, although the gain over the preceding year will amount to only a trifle in excess of 100,000 pounds. Wolverine, on the other hand, will be some 400,000 pounds behind previous year, with 9,538,000 pounds. Both the Michigan and Atlantic have been out of the producing ranks the former since early last year and the latter since 1906. Each of these companies, however, in cleaning up their stock piles put small amounts of rock through the Atlantic mill, with the result that about 50,000 pounds evenly divided was returned.

It was back in 1907 that the Atlantic mine ceased to produce, the output of the mill work has been actively carried on in section 16 where a shaft has been sunk to the twenty-fifth level and cross-cutting and drifting carried on from this and other upper levels. In recent months diamond drills have been put down on old mine property, in undeveloped territory, but this revealed nothing of great value. It is considered probable that a plan will be devised whereby the old mine, now flooded, may be again called into activity. Notwithstanding the shut-down of the mine the Atlantic mill has been kept in operation, the rock of the Superior Copper company, although the tonnage treated has not been sufficient to keep the entire plant in operation.

Michigan has likewise been keeping up development work since it was decided to close the mine early in 1909, owing to low metal prices. Work on the company's new stamp mill was long ago abandoned. Not only Mohawk and Wolverine have been developing as well as producing. The former now has No. 6 shaft below the seventh level and rock shipped to the mill for treatment. Wolverine has started to open up virgin territory through a new shaft, but no great depth has thus far been attained. During the year Mohawk paid two dividends of $1 each and Wolverine also made two disbursements of $1 each.

OSCEOLA.

The declaration of $4 per share on the stock of the Osceola makes the third successive year that the company has paid $8 per share, the amount last spring being $10 per share. This dividend will make a total distribution of $9,378,250 since organization, or a total per share of over $97, almost four times the par value. It is more or less of a question as to whether the company has earned its $8 dividend this year as the production has been curtailed to a very large extent. The output for the year will be about 19,000,000 pounds as compared with almost 25,000,000 pounds last year. It is very likely, however, that the costs per pound of the year are much lower than in 1909, so that part of the mine from which a low grade of copper was being taken was closed early in the year and thus the copper which has been mined was at a minimum cost. Last year the cost per pound was 9.43 cents, the lowest in the company's history, and it would not be surprising if the annual report for 1910 showed a cost of less than nine cents per pound. At a nineteen-cent cost and a selling price of 12 1/2 cents the company would show total net earnings of about $7 per share, which would compare with over $11 earned in 1909. There is in the company's treasury at the close of 1909, a total surplus of $1,800,000, equal to over $18 per share, so that there is no good reason why the $8 per share dividends should not be maintained. One of the features of the Osceola operations in recent years has been the steady decline in the copper values. In the year 1904 the yield of copper per ton of rock was 18.7 pounds; in 1907 the figure had gone down to 17.4 pounds, and last year it was 16.9 pounds. Owing to the shutting down of the "Old Osceola" this year it is very likely that the yield per ton of rock will show much higher.

SAVED FROM AWFUL DEATH.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day. As all remedies failed until Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. It's the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." WALL STREET STOCKS.

New York, Dec. 23.—The attendance on the floor dwindled to exceedingly small proportions, which made today's session dull and uninteresting, to say the least. The bank statement will not be issued until tomorrow, but preliminary estimates indicate a substantial increase, which, taken into consideration with the lack of intense speculation during the past week, may result in a favorable exhibit. The opinions are general that the security markets are likely to fluctuate within comparatively narrow limits for the rest of the year, so that the incentive to make new commitments is lacking. The close today was as follows:

Boston Coppers.

Boston, Dec. 23.—The entire market today consisted of a Christmas celebration. The past year has been a hard one for people interested in copper, but we firmly believe that the worst is over and that next year will see a return to the profitable condition which we have looked for so long. AFTER THE COAL DEALERS.

Saginaw, Mich., Dec. 21.—Following numerous complaints of citizens who alleged that they were receiving short weight in their coal deliveries this winter, the police department of Saginaw has been ordered to enforce the city ordinance in regard to the weighing of coal. Saginaw has a good ordinance covering the coal question, and if properly enforced the citizens will get all the fuel they pay for. The ordinance referred to provides:

Section 1. That all drivers shall be provided with a certificate by the seller containing the name of purchaser and the total weight of coal purporting to be delivered.

Section 2. No person in charge of a wagon or conveyance used in delivering coal, to whom the certificate specified in section 1 has been delivered, shall neglect or refuse upon demand, to exhibit such certificate to any police officer of Saginaw, or purchaser, or when said officer or purchaser shall demand that the weight shown by the certificate be verified, then it shall be the duty of the person delivering such coal to take the same forthwith to some scale (not in use by any person or firm engaged in carrying on the business of selling coal) nearest to the place of delivery, where consent can be obtained from the person in charge of such scale, and to permit the verifying of the weight shown by the certificate; provided, that no person shall be required to convey said coal to any scale more than 10 blocks from the place where said demand is made, and shall after the delivery of such coal return forthwith, with the wagon or conveyance used to the same scale, and there verify the weight of such wagon or conveyance; provided, however, that the scale certificate shall not exceed the price of 10 cents for each load of coal so delivered, including the weight of the conveyance with which the delivery is made.

CURE OF ECZEMA AND DANDRUFF

By One Box of Cuticura Ointment and One Cake of Cuticura Soap. Head Perfectly Clear.

"I am pleased to inform you that I have been cured by Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Since was a boy I have suffered with dandruff, not only from the itching but from its disagreeable appearance in a scaly form all over my head. I had to brush it off my clothes all day long. I used every kind of preparation supposed to cure dandruff, also soaps and shampoos, but it seemed to me that, instead of improving with these remedies, the dandruff increased, even my hair began to fall out and the result was that two months ago eczema developed on my scalp.

"I suffered so from this that as a last resource I thought I would try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. They had the most gratifying results for I had used only one box of Cuticura Ointment and a single cake of Cuticura Soap when I was cured, the eczema and dandruff were gone and my head perfectly clear. I can assure you that so long as I live no other soap will be used by me and all those near to me. I will also add that I will always use Cuticura Ointment as a dressing for the hair. I feel that you should know my cure and if you desire you may use this as a true testimonial which comes from a sufferer of thirty years' standing. I will be happy to tell any one of my experience in order to assist those who may be suffering from the same disease. J. A. Acevedo, General Commission Merchant, 69 Pearl St., New York, Apr. 21, 1910.

CHRISTMAS IN STRANGE CITY A DREARY DAY

Eastern Traveling Man Describes How It Is to Be Away from Home During Holidays.

No one but a stranger, far from home and friends, who is compelled to spend Christmas Day in a city whose streets are unfamiliar and whose faces are the faces of strangers, can fully appreciate the full significance of being away from home on Christmas Day, dejectedly declared a New York traveling man who was in Marquette yesterday. Continuing, he said: "If ever there is a day in the year when one does not want to be alone in a strange city, that day is Christmas, yet for four years I have been away from my family during the holidays.

"The stranger awakes on Christmas morning with no fond recollections of a happy evening before, spent around a family Christmas tree. Be the day dark and stormy or clear and cold, it is all the same to him. Through his eyes it takes on a gray hue that lasts all day. As he dresses mechanically, his thoughts turn to other and happier Christmases. When he comes down to breakfast in the hotel, on every hand he finds old friends greeting one another with "Merry Christmas." When he steps out into the open air he only hears others passing the salutation as they hurry to and fro along the street.

"Breakfast over, he sits down to read the day's news. On the front page of the morning paper is a Christmas cartoon and a story telling of the joys of the day. Try as he will, he cannot concentrate his thoughts on the printed page, but his fancy turns to his home and family. He strolls out into the open air hoping against hope that he will find something to cheer him up and some way of passing the time. However unselfish he may be and however much he may take pleasure from the happiness of others, nevertheless, there is a tugging at his heartstrings as he finds himself left out of all the greeting.

"Thus it goes through the entire day. However good the dinner may be, he has no appetite and it does not taste right. After sleeping away most of the afternoon, he goes to the theater in the evening, but the play doesn't suit and he goes back to the hotel in no happier frame of mind. At last the long day ends, and he goes to bed vowing that he will never spend another Christmas away from home."

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM AT METHODIST CHURCH

Services at 6.30 and 10.30 Sunday Morning and Christmas Tree Monday Evening.

The anniversary of the birth of the Christ child will be fittingly observed in the Marquette churches tomorrow. The choirs of the various churches have arranged special music and the pastors will speak on themes appropriate to the holiday season. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bridges, no services will be held at the Baptist church, and the Baptist is specially invited to worship with the other congregations.

At St. Peter's cathedral there will be Pontifical High Mass at midnight Christmas eve, at which special music will be rendered. On Sunday the usual masses will be observed, at 7.30, at 9 o'clock and Solemn High Mass at 10.30. At the French Catholic church mass will be sung at midnight Christmas eve, with Sunday masses at 8 o'clock and 10.15 o'clock, and vespers at 7.15 p. m. Special music will be rendered at midnight mass and at the last mass Sunday morning.

Services at St. Paul's church on Sunday morning will be as follows: Holy communion at 7.30 a. m.; holy communion and sermon at 10.30 a. m. The communion music to be sung at the 10.30 service was composed by the late Professor F. C. F. Cramer, a former organist at St. Paul's church. Marchant's "Let Us Now Go Even Unto Bethlehem" will be sung as an anthem and there will be other Christmas music. This service will be Mr. Shaddick's farewell as organist at St. Paul's church, his resignation taking effect at the end of the year. Mr. Shaddick has been in charge of the choir and music for the past sixteen years, and his resignation is the occasion of great regret among the members of the parish.

Arrangements had been made for an address by President Kaye of the Normal school at the Presbyterian church tomorrow, but he was called to leave Michigan by the illness of a brother, and Dr. G. C. Fracker has kindly consented to speak in his stead. The musical program will be rendered by a choir of eight voices, with accompaniment of organ, piano and violin, and will be as follows: Christmas anthem, "The Manger Crag"; "The Night Song of Bethlehem"; "Dudley Buck Festival Te Deum, No. 7"; "Dudley Buck Cantique de Noel, 'O Holy Night'"; "Adolphe Adam Christmas solo and quartet" (Arranged for soprano solo and quartet by Dudley Buck).

Instead of the regular session of the Sunday school at noon, the school will participate in the church service, which will begin at 10.30 a. m. In the evening at 6.30 the Christmas Endeavor society will enjoy a Christmas song service and will be assisted by the church choir. The Sunday school Christmas exercises will be held this evening at 7 o'clock. At the Methodist church the following musical program will be rendered Sunday morning:

Organ prelude
Miss Hicks
Anthem, "Calm on the Listening Ear of Night" Park
Quartet
Solo, "In Old Judea" Agnes Bergh
Organ offertory
Miss Hicks
Anthem, "Christmas Song", Harrington
Vested Choir
Anthem, "Oh, Holy Night" Adolphe Adam
Quartet
Organ postlude
Miss Hicks

At the Swedish Lutheran church, the Christmas service will be held at 5 o'clock a. m., at which special music will be rendered and a sermon by the pastor will be given. No other service will be held on Sunday. There will also be a service at 10 o'clock Monday forenoon and the children's Christmas exercises will take place Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

At the Sunday morning service at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Mrs. A. T. Roberts will sing a solo. The subject of the lesson will be, "Christian Science."

Christmas exercises for the children will be held at the German Lutheran church Sunday evening at 7.30. The regular Christmas services will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

VANDEVENTER MINE HAS BEEN LEASED

Wisconsin Parties Have Secured Property Owned Principally by Ishpeming Men.

The Vandeventer Lead and Zinc Mining company has leased its property, in the Wisconsin lead fields, to mining interests of Galena, Ill., who are to take it over within a few days or as soon as the lease is signed by the officials of the Vandeventer company. The terms of the lease are considered very satisfactory by the Vandeventer interests. The lessees have agreed to pay a royalty of ten per cent of the gross value of the lead and zinc ores mined and sold based upon the price of the product f. o. b. on cars at the shipping point, also to pay interest upon the value of the mining equipment.

The lessees are George H. Short, former president of the Wisconsin Mining company, and F. H. Rieckman, chief electrical engineer for the Inter States Power & Light company of Galena, Ill. It is the intention of the new operators to thoroughly explore the property by drilling and drifting, the latter work to start from various points underground. Should the developments at the Vandeventer meet the expectations of the new operators, the mine will be at once supplied with electrical power, when it would eliminate the great expense of hauling coal by steam from Cuba City to the mine, a distance of five miles. This has been one of the worst obstacles the old management had to contend with, as during a great part of the year the roads are in bad condition.

Robert Fox, who has had charge of the property for five years, has severed his connection with the Vandeventer company. He says the mine looked much better when he suspended development work than it did a few months previous, when the mining operations were closed down, and he expressed a belief that the lessees will find the Vandeventer property a 160-acre tract, and only a small portion of this has been explored.

Both lead and zinc ores are now commanding a good price. Zinc ore of the 40 percent average is bringing about $47 per ton, and the lead of 80 percent average sells for a considerably higher price. During the greater part of the time that the Vandeventer company operated the property it produced a high grade mineral.

The Frontier Mining company, with which Mr. Short is connected, is a consulting engineer, is one of the most profitable and successful mining enterprises in the Wisconsin district. It has had properties in operation for many years and its shareholders have received large returns. Mr. Rieckman has had charge of the building and installing of the large power and lighting plant of the Inter State Power & Light company of Galena, and during the past two years has installed and introduced the concern's power at nearly all of the leading lead and zinc mines in the Wisconsin and Illinois districts. The company is also furnishing light for the towns of Galena, Plattville, Benton and Cuba City.

As a rule the runners on sleighs of this kind are from seven-eighths to one inch in width. Canoes Bigger Than Days—According to an ancient document displayed in the window of Ryan's cigar store at the Soo, the canoes of a century ago were somewhat larger than the frail things that go by that name of the present day. The document spoken of is a bill of merchandise entered at the Soo by Dominick Rousseau in a canoe, commanded by himself. The list of articles enumerated takes up nearly two pages of foolscap and was valued at $1,201.75. The cargo was taken aboard the canoe at Montreal and arrived at the Soo June 10, 1817, at which time Adam D. Stewart was the deputy collector of customs.

Bagged by Game Warden—H. B. Underwood of Detroit was arrested at the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul station at Iron Mountain last evening by Deputy Game Warden Andrews and Leggett. He subsequently appeared before Attorney W. H. Hurley, justice of the peace, and paid the sum of $11.50, which included the fine and costs. It was while Underwood was enroute from Sidlaw bound for his home in Detroit that he was intercepted. His grip was searched and was found to contain four beaver hides and two pieces of venison which it is alleged he was attempting to smuggle through to the Michigan metropolis, following which he was charged with violation of the game laws. The Detroit had been spending some time at Sidlaw to recuperate, having gone there on advice of a physician to seek the northern climate.

Impressed With Upper Michigan—Robert A. Lumm of Indiana, who has been making an investigation of the conditions of northern Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin, was in the Soo the other day, on his way home. Discussing the regions visited he said that none offered greater opportunities for the farmer of small means than some portions of the upper peninsula. He named Chippewa, Schoolcraft, Luce and Menominee counties especially in this respect. Others were given favorable mention. He had been much interested in the experiments made in Marquette county in alfalfa and predicted that it would be a successful crop in the peninsula. Mr. Lumm, when asked as to what he believed the prospects were for this region becoming a grazing country, said that he did not know, as he had not given the matter sufficient thought to speak with authority. His first impressions, he said, were that the winters were too long to make the raising of stock a financial success, but he was not sure that this feature would prevent Mr. Lumm said that he would return to the north country next summer.

Iron River Creamery Project—At a meeting of the Iron River Cheese & Creamery company, held in the village hall, a majority of the stock, distributed among about twenty members, was represented. The meeting was called to order by Charles F. Johnson, vice president. A proposition was submitted by L. W. Byers that if a satisfactory board of directors was selected, one which would be willing to authorize bonding the company for $2,000 to put in a sufficient amount of machinery to operate a creamery, that he and others would take over the management. This proposition was not received favorably by many of those present and it was suggested that Mr. Byers and those associated with him buy up the stock, as they preferred selling rather than bonding or mortgaging the present plant. The discussion finally ended in a motion to proceed to the election of a board of directors, which motion was duly supported. This motion not being satisfactory to Mr. Byers, that gentleman withdrew from the meeting, taking with him eight or ten proxies which he held. This action left the meeting without a quorum, which caused an adjournment to be taken to Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 27, when it is hoped that satisfactory arrangements can be made to operate either a cheese factory or a creamery. With a farming community capable of taking care of 1,200 to 1,500 cows, there is no good reason why one or both of these institutions should not be operated at Iron River.

Widow Asks Large Damages—Unless the claim is settled or otherwise disposed of, the city of Escanaba will be obliged to defend itself against a suit for $10,000 damages. Mrs. Mary Reddick, widow of John A. Reddick, has filed notice of her claim for that amount as compensation for the death of her husband, who was killed by an electric shock the night of Dec. 25, 1908, while in the battery room of the Western Union telegraph office. Mrs. Reddick claims that Reddick received the fatal shock from and through the are light system operated by the city. She is now in Worth county, Missouri, and the affidavit made in connection with her claim is attested by a notary public of that county. Mr. Reddick was electrocuted while examining Western Union wires in the battery room of that company, which was located in the basement of the Continental Clothing company's store. Earlier in the evening a barber shop adjoining the telegraph station had been damaged by fire. Reddick, who was employed as a lineman by the Postal Telegraph company, happened to go into the clothing store and there learned that throughout the evening the basement had been filled with flashes of light from the wires belonging to the Western Union. He volunteered to try to locate and remedy the trouble, which it was found would endanger the building by fire. Accompanied by George Johnson, a clerk, Reddick went into the basement and while moving about came into contact with a heavily charged wire and was almost instantly killed. Reddick was about forty years old. Besides his widow, he left two children.

Commercial Club Launched—With a board of twelve directors, the Commercial club of Iron River and Stambaugh has been launched. The directorate is made up of the following prominent citizens: E. S. Coe, J. W. Byers, M. S. McDonough, W. W. Johns, O. G. Grossschell, P. O'Brien, W. J. Blair, W. J. Tully, P. N. Minkler, Geo. L. Woodworth, D. H. Campbell and W. H. Maroff. The initiation fee, which includes the first six months' dues, is $10 and the dues thereafter are $10 per year, payable semi-annually in advance. There will be twelve committees on industrial and social propositions, of which one of the directors will be chairman, with power to select his own assistants of two or more members. It is planned to hold monthly meetings at which the directors and the several committees will make their reports. The board of directors is empowered to secure a suitable club room, and it is probable that this room will be kept open from seven in the morning until eleven at night. A determined effort will be made to secure as large a membership as possible among the business, professional and other people who may be interested in the success of a live commercial club.

Was a Walkman Innes—It was after an illness of only ten days that Captain Samuel Ashmun died at the Soo. Pneumonia caused his demise. Captain Ashmun was one of the best known mariners on the chain of lakes. He was familiarly known at every port between Duluth, Chicago and Buffalo. He was born at Midland City, Mich., where he lived until the death of his parents when he was but five years old. He went to the Soo, where he made his home with relatives. He early came to a decision to follow the lakes as a sailor and began as a linesman on the tugs of the L. P. Trempe company. The calling seemed to become natural to him and his apprenticeship as a common sailor was short, he being granted master's papers soon after he had reached the age of maturity. During his life he was in command of many vessels and his life was filled with exciting experiences. While in command of the old tug Antelope, then owned by Captain Charles Ripley and the first steamer ferry running regularly between the two Soos, the boat was wrecked and sunk in the middle of Lake Superior. Captain Ashmun and the crew making their escape in a small boat. It was while acting as first mate of the steamer T. S. Christie that he contracted a cold, which was the direct cause of his death. This was about Nov. 1. He continued to stick to his ship however, until the boat was laid up at Chicago, when he returned to his home and took to his bed. Captain Ashmun was married in 1884 to Miss Vera Hood, and to them there were born six children, three boys and three girls, all of whom survive. They are residents of the Soo, with the exception of the eldest daughter, Vera, who went to California last fall for the benefit of her health.

How the Lock City Lost Out—In order to defeat Sault Ste. Marie's aspirations for the honor of entertaining the meeting of the state grange in 1911 it was necessary for the recent convention of that farmer's big organization to change a rule of long standing. As it was the grangers voted to go to Kalamazoo. Five cities were aspirants for the next convention, the Soo being the only town from the upper peninsula, while Kalamazoo, Lansing, Ann Arbor and Battle Creek from below the straits put in their claims. The Soo led on the first ballot, receiving 126 votes; Kalamazoo 114 votes and the balance of the delegates divided between the three other lower Michigan cities. Had the former rule prevailed the Soo would have won then and there, as it has always heretofore been the rule to give the convention to the town mak-

HAS WON DISTINCTION IN MUSICAL WORLD

Helene Koelling, Wife of A. A. Matheson, Formerly of Marquette, Praised by Critics.

Marquette friends of A. A. Matheson, who was a resident of Marquette for several years, when he was in charge of the office work of the Marquette plant of the DuPont Powder company, will be interested to learn that his wife, who was formerly Miss Helene Koelling, of Chicago, is this season engaged actively on the operatic stage, where she is meeting with marked success. The Musical Courier, date of Oct. 7, said of her work, in part:

"Helene Koelling is the only daughter of Carl Koelling (a well known American composer of orchestral music) and Marie Koelling, equally well known as a coloratura singer in Italy, Germany and England, and a pupil of the Italian master, Francesco Lamperti.

"Madame Koelling, a pupil of Madame Gerster, has sung with marked success in the principal houses of Germany and Austria and for two years was a member of the Manhattan Opera company. In her London and Berlin concerts she established herself as a favorite. Professor Taubert, the German critic, said in the Berlin Post:

"Helene Koelling's singing and playing of the most difficult mad scene in Thomas' 'Hamlet' had an enchanting and grand effect. Her voice, a soprano, which reaches apparently without any effort into the highest register, sounds beautifully equalized in its entire scope, and at the same time very expressive. The culminating point of the scene was the melancholy Scandinavian folk song, which was sung beautifully and with very characteristic expression.

"The English critics were equally enthusiastic in their praise, as may be seen from the following extract taken from one of the criticisms on Madame Koelling's London concert:

"Madame Koelling made a good impression by her clear singing of 'Ah fors a lui' from 'La Traviata.' Her perfect control of breath in executing passages on high notes enabled her to make great effect with the cadence to the words 'delizia al cor' and similar passages, and in so doing she showed artistic judgment as well as technical skill."

"Madame Koelling is thoroughly versed in four languages. She has a repertoire of more than thirty operas. On Nov. 3 and 5 she sang the title role in 'Lakme' with the Montreal Grand Opera company, the following extract from Le Canada of Nov. 4 voicing the opinion of press and public:

"Regarding Madame Koelling's work in 'The Tales of Hoffman,' the Montreal Star spoke as follows:

"Madame Koelling displayed great versatility in her remarkably clever and telling character work, and in her vivid and convincing representations of three widely differing roles. As the automaton she was wholly satisfying. It is an intensely trying role physically, vocally and by reason of its limitations. Madame Koelling surmounts its difficulties with a facile skill that means the whole success of the Olympia scene. She has an admirably balanced sense of humor, and that is the one dominating essential.

"As the Venetian courtesan she is equally effective. All the languorous grace, the soft, languid charm, the feminine fascination, she portrays with a power one is bound to admire."

Date Muffins
A New Way of Using Dates
By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

The value of dates as a food is hardly appreciated. They are wholesome, nutritious, and when used in K C Date Muffins, make a recipe that is appreciated by the entire family.

K C Date Muffins
One-half cup butter; 1/2 cup sugar; 1 egg; 3/4 cup milk; 2 cups flour; 3 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; scant 1/2 pound dates.
Cream the butter, add the sugar and the egg, beaten light. Sift together three times, the flour, baking powder and salt; add these to the first mixture, alternately with the milk; beat thoroughly and add the dates, stoned and cut in pieces. To bake, have a slow oven until the muffins double in bulk, then increase heat to bake and brown quickly. Muffins baked this way will be light, appetizing and more easily digested.

This is only one of the many appetizing recipes found in the K C Cook's Book. The wonderful K C Cook's Book is substantially bound and printed in nice colors, contains timely tested and easily-made recipes by Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, of the world famous Boston Cooking School Magazine. You can secure a copy FREE by sending the colored certificate packed in 25-cent cans of K C Baking Powder to the JAGURS MFG. CO., Chicago. Be sure to write name and address plainly.

UNDER AUSPICES OF

The Daily Mining Journal

TO

New York City, the Metropolis of the New World, and the Beautiful Bermuda Islands, "The Land of the Lily and the Rose."

The Daily Mining Journal

Has inaugurated this contest for the purpose of giving an opportunity to the young ladies of Marquette County to win an unusual reward in return for the assistance given this newspaper in conducting a dignified campaign for more new subscribers.

The combination of such a popular newspaper as The Daily Mining Journal with that of a corps of well known and active workers such as only Marquette, Ishpeming and Negaunee can furnish, should result in an event long to be remembered in the newspaper annals of this section.

How Votes are Obtained

As has been stated, the winner in each district will be the woman who secures the highest vote of all those candidates in that district. The votes are secured from two sources—through being clipped from the various issues of The Daily Mining Journal, and from paid-in-advance subscriptions thereto. Each issue of The Daily Mining Journal will contain a coupon ballot, good for five votes, which is to be deposited in the ballot box at the office of The Daily Mining Journal, No. 146 Washington street. These coupon votes must be deposited at The Mining Journal office within seven days from the printed date.

The annexed schedule shows the votes that will be allowed for paid-in-advance subscriptions to The Daily Mining Journal. What this paper desires is to increase its subscription list, and therefore will allow double the number of votes for new takers as for those who renew. Those folks whose names were on our books at the inception of the contest, or Dec. 15, will be considered old subscribers. Such persons must pay up their arrears as well as at least three months in advance before votes can be allowed; as no subscriptions, whether from old or new takers, will be accepted in this contest, unless paid for in cash for a period in advance of not less than three months. But the friends will be allowed to pay as far beyond that period as they may wish.

View of New York City's Towering Skyscrapers.

Winter travel today is so expeditious and luxurious that all the discomforts and dangers which that inclement season brings to so many people may be easily avoided by a pleasant journey to a more genial clime. Even though it may not be practicable to spend the whole season in this manner, the benefits and pleasures of a brief respite from the winter's storms and stress are so marked that thousands of business and professional men and women seek every year renewed strength and energy in a short trip to the tropics.

"Forty Hours from Frost to Flowers"

The winter voyage from a northern port to Bermuda or the West Indies is a delightful experience worth taking the trip to enjoy. The passenger embarks with the mercury far down in the tube, a disagreeable chill in the air, and a cheerless aspect upon the sea. Within twelve hours the Gulf stream has enveloped the vessel, and its genial warmth has thawed the blood and the spirits of those on board. Deck life becomes attractive, wraps are thrown aside, the temperature mounts as the latitude decreases, and when—within two days—the verdure-clad coral islands of Bermuda push their palm-fringed tops above the southeastern horizon, the tourist, in summer garb, prepares to step ashore in a land of perpetual springtime and flowers.

Grove of Bermuda's Palmettos

Dame Opportunity

Knocks but once at every door! She is now loudly clamoring for admission at yours, young woman. This is an occasion ripe with golden possibilities. Do not let it slip, as once lost it cannot be regained. Timidity has no place in this day and age with those who would perform achievements that will lift them above their fellows. Do not be bashful. Enroll your name among those who mean to make an effort to earn a membership in the tourist party that is going to take the educational tour at the expense of The Daily Mining Journal.

Committee of Firemen Will Ask Permission to Reorganize Department.

At the quarterly meeting of the Negaunee fire department, held last Tuesday evening, a committee was appointed with instruction to appear before the council at its January meeting, to ask for advice as to what steps the department should take relative to disbanding the two hose companies and reorganizing the department.

At the firemen's meeting the question of giving the organization's annual ball on Easter Monday came up for consideration, but the members felt that no steps should be taken in the matter until the department has been reorganized. The committee that will appear before the council will be composed of Chief E. G. Jackson, Foreman Napoleon Marketty, O. J. Larombe, C. L. Sperry and Thomas Gribble.

DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT.

Pupils of Public Schools Pleased Many With Their Christmas Exercises.

The auditorium of the High school building was well filled Thursday evening, when the students of the High school and grade departments gave their first annual Christmas entertainment. Many parents of the children attending the schools were present. The program was made up of old carols and other Christmas music, and practically all of the departments of the public schools were represented. The program was given under direction of Mrs. Marden, the director of music in the schools. Many encores were demanded; and the entertainment lasted for more than two hours. The ladies' quartet, composed of Mrs. Marden, Miss Langhin, Mrs. Trudell and Miss McAniff was well received, as was also the singing and reciting of little Miss Josephine Hornbrook. The program consisted of twenty numbers. It included selections by the High school orchestra, Girls' and Boys' glee clubs, choruses by children of the different grades, and vocal solos.

FLOREST FOOLS HIS HENS

Puts Nest Next to Greenhouse and They Think It's Summer.

Winsted, Mass., Dec. 21.—Henry A. Roeske, a florist of Oakville, has hit upon a novel scheme for making his hens lay. He has screened off part of his greenhouse and placed fourteen pullets—cross between buff Plymouth Rocks and Rhode Island Reds—in the warm enclosure. The pullets scratch in ten inches of dirt he spread over the cement floor, and seeing flowers in bloom through the screen, think it is summer and go to laying. Roeske is now getting from six to nine eggs a day, and before he fooled the birds they fooled him with empty nests.

MARQUETTE MAN HEADS BIG BANK

Consolidation of Chatham and Phoenix National of New York City Will Put L. G. Kaufman at the Head of a $25,000,000 Institution as President.

It is Announced That the Merger Will Be Brought About in Sixty Days, the Phoenix National Interests Having Been Taken Over by Chatham People.

Word was received here yesterday of a consolidation of New York banks that will result in making L. G. Kaufman, president of the First National bank of Marquette, president of a bank that will have over twice the resources of the Chatham National, of which he was elected president some six months ago. The consolidation will make the Chatham National and the Phoenix National one institution, with deposits of about $25,000,000, and shows that Mr. Kaufman and the men who are associated with him have been busy with important projects for the extension and strengthening of their banking interests during the few months that he has been at the head of the Chatham National.

The news concerning the consolidation was received in a telegram sent to E. S. Bice, of the First National, by B. L. Haskins, cashier of the Phoenix National of New York. Its text was:

"Control of the Phoenix National bank, New York City, has been obtained in the interest of the Chatham National bank, New York City, and a merger of the two institutions will become effective within sixty days. The Chatham National bank will then have a capital of three million dollars and deposits of twenty-five millions. Mr. Louis G. Kaufman, of the Chatham National bank, will be president of the consolidated bank."

An Old Institution.

The Phoenix National of New York, like the Chatham National, is one of the oldest banking institutions of the city. It is, in fact, even older than the Chatham National, as it was established in 1812, whereas the Chatham National was established in 1851. Also it is a larger bank than the Chatham National. Its capital is $1,000,000 and its surplus and undivided profits are given as $704,000. Its deposits, according to the latest statement available, are $14,202,000. The Chatham National has a capital of $450,000, surplus and undivided profits, according to the statement of Nov. 10, 1910, of $1,068,821.27, and deposits of $10,173,857.23. In the few months since Mr. Kaufman was made president of the Chatham National the deposits have increased $1,500,000. Its business and banking connections have been extended in various directions, including the upper peninsula, where several banks now do their New York banking through the Chatham National.

Both the Chatham National and the Phoenix National have been among the strongest and most dependable of the New York City banks, and both have exceptional records. Men are still identified with them who have been officers throughout their banking careers. In the Chatham National there are officials who have held their posts for a full half century, and the business of both institutions has been of a most desirable and conservative nature. The new management will continue the traditional policies of the banks, but at the same time the rapid development that the Chatham National has seen since Mr. Kaufman assumed the presidency indicates that the infusion of new blood means that while the conservatism of the banks' business methods will be continued still the consolidated bank is going to be handled with much more aggression than has characterized the management in the recent past.

The consolidation is regarded as one of the most important banking deals in New York during the year now drawing to a close, and it will be learned of with the greatest interest by Mr. Kaufman's friends throughout this region.

FARMER MAKES COMPLAINT.

Says Baraga Avenue Fountain Should Not Be Shut Off in Winter.

A farmer who was in the city yesterday made complaint because the drinking fountain for horses on Baraga avenue, in front of the city market, has no water in it in the winter time. While water for horses can be obtained in the market building, he states that it would be much more convenient for the farmers if they could let their horses drink at the fountain, the same as in the summer.

The water in the fountain is shut off in the winter because of the danger of the pipes freezing, but the farmer stated that he knew of other cities where danger of freezing had been eliminated (just how he was unable to say) and that running water for horses was obtainable all winter. He was of the opinion that the same plan ought to be followed in Marquette.

He also stated that in the summer time, not enough water flows into the fountain to supply water as fast as the horses drink it at certain times of the day. He is of the opinion that the pipes leading from the water mains to the fountain are too small. The fountain is a great convenience to farmers and if horses could talk, no doubt they would express their gratitude in even more enthusiastic terms.
