FISHER SUCCEEDS CHARLES MOORES

Wellknown Engineer Will Take the Day Run Between Ishpeming and Escanaba.

The day passenger run on the Chicago & Northwestern Railway system between Ishpeming and Escanaba, held for so many years by the late Charles Moore, who died suddenly in his cab while his train was pulling into Escanaba a few weeks ago, has been given to John Fisher, who has been pulling the morning passenger into Ishpeming for the past eight years. This will be pleasing news to Mr. Fisher's friends in Marquette, where he is almost as wellknown as he is in Delta county. It is said that a number of the older engineers on the Peninsula division hoped that they would be selected for the Ishpeming-Escanaba run, which is considered one of the best on the division.

AN ATTEMPTED HOLD UP.

Hobo Got Action When He Tried to Rob an Ishpeming Man.

David Anderson, of North Third street, who drove members of the Ishpeming Ski club and their ladies to the club house Thursday evening, had an exciting experience about 12:30 o'clock, when he was leaving the city for his second trip. As he was driving along Euclid street, near the corner of Second, a hobo jumped into the back of his sleigh box started to walk toward the seat, at the same time commanding Mr. Anderson to throw up his hands. Instead of doing so, Anderson jumped from the seat to the box and struck the hobo a blow in the eyes that sent him reeling backward over the tailboard. Anderson did not see a gun in the hands of the would-be hold-up man but after he knocked him from the sleigh he put the whip to the horse and was soon out of reach.

BASKETBALL GAME TOMORROW.

Ishpeming "Y" and Marquette Guild Hall Will Battle.

The basketball season with outside teams will open Friday evening at the Young Men's Christian association gymnasium, when the Ishpeming five will line up against the Guild Hall team of Marquette. The "Y" players have been practicing hard for some time past and are in fine condition. They have been doing more or less team work and they will give a better account of themselves than they did in any of their games last season. As a preliminary to tomorrow's contest there will be a thirty-minute game between two fast teams of the "Y". The main contest will start at 8:30 o'clock. The admission will be twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen for children.

ENJOYABLE SOCIAL.

About seventy-five Ishpeming people attended the social hop at the Ishpeming Ski club house Tuesday evening. A number went out on skis. They found the snow in excellent condition for the sport. Most of those who made the trip went through the Carp river valley. A hot turkey supper was served and there was dancing until after midnight. Lundahl's orchestra furnished the music.

HAKONEIMI INQUEST.

No One Is Held Responsible for Death of North Lake Man.

The coroner's jury in the case of Jacob Hakoneimi, the North Lake man, who met a tragic death in Ishpeming Saturday night, returned a verdict to the effect that he was under the influence of liquor, he was asleep on the street car-track and that his death was accidental. William Connell, the motor man, on the street car was the principal witness, and his statement as to how he tried to stop the car on the downgrade was corroborated by a Houghton man who was standing beside him at the time. Mr. Connell believes that the front of the scraper struck Hakoneimi on the head. His skull was badly fractured.

DEATH OF JOHN KALINK.

John Kalink, who had been a resident of Ishpeming for thirty-five years or more, died Tuesday evening, eighty-seven years of age. He is survived by one son, Garret Kalink, and one daughter, Mrs. William McKinley, at whose home on Baum street he resided. The deceased was in the employ of the Oliver Iron Mining company for many years, until a few years ago, when he retired.

A Particularly Fine Dinner Was Served and Those to Whom Responses Had Been Assigned Acquired Themselves Most Creditably—Enjoyable Event.

Twenty-two upper peninsula attorneys, one justice of the supreme court and one circuit judge sat down to the twenty-second annual banquet of the Marquette County Bar association, held at the Marquette club last evening.

From an epicurean standpoint, the dinner was all that could have been desired and great credit is due the club steward for the excellent cuisine and service.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Justice C. B. Grant, Lansing, a former Marquette attorney and circuit judge. He gave a most entertaining and instructive talk, to which all present gave close attention.

WATER LEAKED OUT.

First Test of Sterilization Plant Results in a Surprise. The water sterilization plant at the pumping station, which has been in course of construction for some time, has at last been completed, or at least it was supposed to be finished until a test was made a few days ago.

Workers went at the tanks again yesterday and are putting them in shape so that they will hold water, and as soon as the repairs are made the plant will be put in operation.

VETERAN POWDER MAN LEAVES CITY

Rod Campbell Went to Houghton This Week, to Take Position at Senter Plant.

Rod Campbell and his brother Alex were among a party of eight employees of the DuPont Powder company who left Marquette this week for Houghton, where they expect to reside in the future, as they have accepted positions at the Senter plant of the company, which is now being turned up in preparation for continuous operation after the first of the year.

With the exception of J. G. Reynolds, who has been superintendent at the Marquette plant practically from the time it was built, Rod Campbell was the oldest employee here, and he had been a resident of Marquette for thirty years, all of which time he had been employed at the powder mills.

Several former Marquette men have gone to Houghton to take employment in the Senter plant. Among those who will have important positions are E. V. Maynard, formerly chemist here, who has been chief clerk here, who will have a similar position; Rod and Alex Campbell and Peter Harris. All of the workmen at the Marquette plant were given preference of positions and many of them decided to make the change.

The plant, which is several times as large as the one that has been abandoned at Marquette, is about ready to go into commission, and shortly after the first of the year will be a regular producer. It will supply all the copper country mines and the mines of this county, as well as other parts of the upper peninsula.

FIFTEEN VESSELS; FIFTY-ONE LIVES Summary of Disasters on the Great Lakes During Navigation Season of 1910. Fifteen ships and fifty-one human lives were the toll exacted by the great lakes and connecting waters in the principal wrecks of the season of navigation just closed. Total losses of the season represented the destruction of vessel property valued at approximately $1,382,000. Of this aggregate, three ships, the W. C. Moreland, Pere Marquette, No. 18, and Frank H. Goodyear made up $1,005,000, while the loss of the last two named also involved the loss of forty-six lives. The loss of the Moreland, the largest ship ever wrecked on the lakes, amounted to $450,000, of which the cargo represented $300,000. The sinking of the Frank H. Goodyear in collision with the steamer James B. Wood, off Pointe Aux Barques, Lake Huron, caused the death of eighteen persons and a loss of $255,000 to the underwriters. The largest loss of life of the season in one wreck attended the foundering of Pere Marquette, No. 18, in Lake Michigan when twenty-eight lives were lost and the vessel property, valued at $350,000 went to the bottom. There were two other wrecks involving loss of life, the sinking of the large Grace Whitney in collision with the steamer Ogdenburg, near Bar Point, when two persons were drowned and the sinking of the tug General, in collision with the steamer Atabasca in St. Mary's river with the loss of three lives. The first represented a loss of vessel property of $9,000, the second $20,000. Of the fifteen total losses, nine were due to fire which destroyed Gaffney No. 4 of the Ann Arbor railroad, and the steamers T. R. Wiehe and F. L. Vance on Lake Michigan, the steamers Langham and Wasaga off Keweenaw Point, the steamers Lycoming and Leeward on Lake Erie, the steamer Ottawa on Lake Ontario and the steamer Alaska on Georgian bay. All these, and the New York, which foundered on Lake Huron, were of the old wooden type of vessel. The vessels lost had an aggregate freight capacity of about 648,000 tons a season. In 1909 there were 21 vessels and 64 lives lost.
