DEATH OF JOHN CLAVEN, SR.
 One of Ishpeming's Oldest Scandinavian Residents Answered Final Summons.

BOYS ENTERTAINED AT THE Y. M. C. A.
 About 450 Youngsters Made Merry in "Gym" and Pool and Were Given Supper.

Over 450 Ishpeming boys from ten to fifteen years of age, who are not members of the Young Men's Christian Association, were entertained by the boys of the organization Wednesday afternoon and evening. It was far the liveliest event that has ever been held in the building, and the visitors enjoyed themselves to the limit. The youngsters were permitted to "get loose," and it is doubtful if a crowd of Ishpeming boys has ever had a more enjoyable time.

In the gymnasium the boys were invited to participate in some of the stunts that the regular members go through and many of their antics were of an amusing nature. The boys between ten and eleven years of age gave a free hand drill, under direction of the physical director, and they did good work, considering it was their first attempt. The boys from twelve to thirteen years of age were arranged into three relay teams and a crab relay race was run off. This was a side splitting event.

The older boys made up five basketball teams and after the rules were explained to them they were turned loose. The games were more like football than basketball, and some great acrobatic stunts were performed by the youngsters. The spectators cheered and laughed so heartily that the referee's whistle could not be heard, and as a result there were not many interruptions because of fouls.

The gymnasium program lasted from 3:30 until 5 o'clock, when Mayor McCordindale gave the boys a talk. He spoke of the qualities needed in a boy, declaring that he liked to see a lad pressing energy and mischief, but at the same time he warned them always to acknowledge when they are wrong in anything and to be honorable with all people. Such qualities as these, he declared, make the strongest and most useful citizen.

After the mayor's talk, the boys were divided into two sections and all were invited to take a swim in the pool, over 300 of them taking advantage of the invitation. The water was in relays of ten minute periods, under direction of several of the expert swimmers of the "Y" senior class.

Immediately following the swim the boys marched in a body to the hall on the third floor of the Heinenman block, where sandwiches, coffee, cake and fruit were served. A number of ladies assisted in preparing and serving the lunch, and the senior members of the league helped to handle the crowd.

Commencing today the pictures at the Royal Theatre will be changed every Sunday, Tuesday and Friday. (12-30-11.)

SHOOTING TOURNAMENT.
 Marquette County Gun & Rod Club Will Hold Annual Contest Tomorrow.

The officers of the Marquette County Gun & Rod club have arranged a tournament, to be held tomorrow afternoon, starting at 1 o'clock, at the club's range near Union park. There will be five events. First, ten birds; second, fifteen birds; third, twenty birds; fourth, twenty-five birds; fifth, fifteen doubles.

The entrance fee will be five cents per bird and the club's regular charge of one cent per bird will be collected in one cent per bird. The "jack rabbit" system of dividing the money will apply, five cents to be returned to the contestants for each broken bird, and the remainder to be divided between the four high guns of each event on the basis of 40, 30, 20 and 10 per cent. All ties will be divided equally. This will give all contestants a fair chance in the division of the money.

PRITCHARD-ROBERTS.
 Popular National Girl Becomes Bride of Grand Rapids, Wis., Man.

Charles L. Pritchard of Grand Rapids, Wis., and Miss Mary E. Roberts, of the National, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's cousin, former Mayor W. J. Roberts, 414 South Third street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Meade, pastor of Calvary Baptist church. The bride was attended by Mrs. W. J. Roberts, while Mr. Roberts supported the groom. Little Pearl Roberts was ring bearer. The bride was charmingly attired in a beautiful gown of hand embroidered chiffon over white silk, with pearl trimmings, and she wore a bridal veil carried by a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Lillian Davis presided at the piano, playing Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Immediately following the service, Ernest Roberts of this city sang "I Love You Truly," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, and "Only in Dreams," by B. Reginald Koven. The house was tastefully decorated with carnations, narcissus and smilax. At the conclusion of the ceremony the members of the bridal party and guests enjoyed a bounteous repast. Among the out-of-town guests present were Mrs. J. C. Johns, of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mr. Pritchard and his bride left last evening on the 6:50 train for Grand Rapids, Wis. After remaining there for a few days they will go to New Orleans where they will spend the winter. The bride's going away gown was a pretty costume of fawn colored broadcloth with hat to match.

The bride is a popular girl and is almost as well and favorably known here as she is at the National.
