

HISTORIC CITY IS A VERITABLE CHARNEL HOUSE

Twelve Thousand Manchu Soldiers at Nanking Perpetrate a Butchery, the Like of Which is Unprecedented in Modern History—Countless Persons Are Dead.

Chinese Men, Women and Children Are Slaughtered Indiscriminately, Stores Are Looted, Destructive Fires Started—Sun down Sees Town a Shambles.

Nanking, China, is desolate. Hundreds—perhaps thousands—of its inhabitants lie massacred and numerous business houses and dwellings have been looted and burned. One hundred thousand persons already have fled the city and still others are joining the exodus.

Nanking, China, Nov. 10.—Historic this evening is the shambles of a Manchurian butchery. The sun set upon a scene of fire, rapine, desolation and misery.

Rebel Forces Lack Ammunition. Innocent Chinese, leaving everything behind them, are fleeing, terror-stricken, to the shelter of the fields.

No Mercy Shown the Natives. Then the gates were opened this morning and the people were driven by the imperialists.

Horror Beggar Description. The horrors of the massacre cannot be described. An attempt tonight to estimate the number of innocent people and combatants slain would be futile.

THE LORIMER CASE.

The second investigation into the matter in which Senator Lorimer was elected is drawing to a close.

What the report of the committee will remain to be determined, but, as was shown following the first investigation, the committee's finding need not, of necessity, have any influential bearing on the course taken by the senate.

The personnel of the present committee suggests that even if a majority report favors Lorimer there will be a strong minority that will recommend that the senator shall be unseated.

During the debate in the German reichstag on the Morocco-Congo agreement, the crown prince approved, with evident enthusiasm, such phrases in the attacks leveled at Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg as "our peaceful professions are regarded abroad as a sign of weakness."

LOSING NO TIME.

Considering the trouble the state was at to get Abe Ruef, the plunderer of San Francisco, into prison, great haste is being exhibited in the effort to get him out, on a parole.

Probably these gentlemen hold that Ruef was more the victim than the creator of the conditions that caused his downfall, and that, in view of the escape of the men "higher up" from punishment for their heavy responsibility for the rein of graft in San Francisco, the punishment which Ruef will undergo unless he is given clemency will be excessive.

There is, to be sure, much to be said for this point of view, but it would appear that even with all allowances made Ruef might well have been permitted to have served at least one year of his time before the task of securing a parole for him was taken up with such earnestness.

tion of the canteen. He believes there would have been a continued decrease in the amount of alcoholism in the army if the canteen had been retained.

It should also be noted that these alcoholism records tell but a part of the story. The physical and moral balefulness of the outside saloons and gambling houses is far more serious than any statistics regarding drunkenness can show.

One plan suggested for putting intercollegiate athletics in the west on a more satisfactory basis than they are on at this time is to supersede the "Big Eight" by a "Big Five," in which the members will be Michigan, Minnesota, Chicago, Illinois and Wisconsin.

There are many people who believe that the real show will not begin until China succeeds in getting her republic.

FEDERAL COURT AT THE SOO.

The proposal advocated by a number of attorneys from Sault Ste. Marie for the holding of sessions of the federal district court in this city has ample warrant. A careful review of the litigation, both criminal and civil, in the federal courts in the upper peninsula will disclose the fact that a large percentage of this business originates in this city.

At the Soo this week a charter commission was elected that will have the responsibility of framing a new set of municipal laws. There has been considerable discussion at the Soo of the commission form of government, but there is little likelihood that the charter commissioners will recommend it to the people, as most of them have been quoted as opposed to making any radical change from the present system.

The Mining Journal this week, in these columns, made the assertion, taking as its authority one of the Detroit newspapers, that the supreme court had decided some ten years ago that the introduction of the Bible in the public schools was unconstitutional.

The proposal to increase the number of terms of United States court held in this region from two to four a year and to hold one term at the Soo has met with opposition.

A Laugh or Two

Defines Genius. Robert W. Chambers, the novelist, was called a genius the other day at the Century club in New York.

Woman's Face. Miss Ivy Brynton Hodge, one of the well-known girl drummers of the west, at a commercial travelers' banquet in Chicago, responded to a toast with the words:

The Cares of Business. The old storekeeper down in the country, who gave up keeping turkey red because the women insisted on buying all he had as fast as he got it, must be related to the New Hampshire merchant.

Mule Was a Dead Shot. A southern farmer was trying to sell a mule to a negro who two years before had been kicked on the head by the animal, says the Popular Magazine.

Ending a Bad System. That Murphy draws to an end is a conclusion written large in the election returns. He is on his way to the oblivion that holds Croker.

The Natural Thing. A native of Germany was visiting an American friend in New York, and the latter bethought himself to take his guest on a visit to Niagara Falls.

Eligible. The magistrate was asking of a certain young man whom he thought of employing in a confidential capacity.

And not only is the public to be rid of a boss of a most objectionable type, but there is a stronger hope than there has been for many years that the Tammany system also draws to its end.

And if the week's record is sad next year's prospect is sadder. The direct primary system is to come in. Murphy is under necessity of indicating his preference in advance of the primaries and must defend them if attacked.

City Brevities

Today's weather: Snow flurries and colder.
Yesterday's temperatures: Seven a. m., 44 degrees; noon, 41; 7 p. m., 42. Highest, 42 degrees; lowest, 40.

J. J. Ramsay, of Bruce's Crossing, is in the city on business.

Deputy Sheriff James Moloney, of Gwinn, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. C. H. Call, who has been in the city for some time, left for Pittsburg last evening.

E. O. Stafford left for Duluth last night, called there on account of the serious illness of his brother Harry.

D. H. Ball will leave today for Cincinnati, where on Monday he will argue a case before the United States court of appeals.

The Marquette Finnish band will give a dance tonight in the Owls' Hall. The full band will play and everybody is invited to attend.

The sand sucker Alice Vivian, which has been dredging the slips for the new L. S. & L. ore dock, has been taken to Duluth for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Gibson and two children arrived home last night from an extended visit at Marion, Ky. Mr. Gibson will leave in a few days for Tucson, Ariz.

The Bijou theatre has just installed one of the famous Daylight curtains, which reflects a brilliant picture free from flickers. Read the advertisement in another column.

A new adding machine with all the latest improvements was delivered at the city hall yesterday. It was purchased by the council about a month ago and will be used by all the city officers and clerks.

The Owls have completed the arrangements for their "old-fashioned" social dance to be given at the Owls' hall next Wednesday evening and they are prepared to give their guests a royal good time. A large attendance is assured.

The mild weather of the past few days appears to be having the effect of protecting the deer, and almost no venison compared with former years, is being brought into the city. Many deer hunters, however, have not yet gone into the woods and will wait for a fall of snow.

Death of Edna Petterson—Edna R. Petterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Petterson, 384 West Crescent street, passed away at St. Mary's hospital at 12:15 this morning, aged twenty. She was born and reared in Marquette. Aside from the parents, she leaves three brothers—Carl, Ernest and John—and two sisters—Mrs. A. H. Westlake and Mildred. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

Columbus Team Won—In the first basketball game of the season, played at Legion Hall last night, the Knights of Columbus five defeated the Guild Hall team by the score of 23 to 9. The contest was interesting, although neither team showed particularly good form, the work at times being ragged and denoting the need of more practice. A large crowd was present. Dancing followed the game.

Promised to Support Her—A bride of three months, Mrs. Koivo Karell, of West Washington street, was deserted by her husband about ten days ago and a few days later was found by the police in deplorable circumstances. Marshall Manning rounded up the husband night before last and yesterday he was brought before Justice Byrne. After promising to give bond that he would support his wife if given another chance, Karell was released with no greater punishment than a lecture from the court.

U. S. Court Closed—After being in session three days and a half, the adjourned September term of the United States court adjourned at noon yesterday, and the court officials returned to Grand Rapids on the afternoon train. During the morning session the court heard the bankruptcy case in which Arthur J. Loria is plaintiff and the Michigan Lumber & Fiber company, defendant. Arnaldo Emer, of Norway, who had pleaded guilty to filling a bonded bottle with whiskey, was fined $100.

Got Out of State—The Rev. S. Donald Rogers, whose high finance operations have been receiving a great deal of publicity in the upper peninsula press of late, and who is editor of the schoolcraft county, has been seeking to arrest for a week or more, is believed to have left the state and gone to the more congenial clime of Wisconsin. The "Reverend" left Iron Mountain only a few hours before the chief of police of that city was notified that the Quaker was wanted at Manistique and it has since been learned that he at once crossed the state line. He is now believed to be at Appleton.

Emblaard Written Up—The feature article in the October number of Kimball's Dairy Farmer, published at Waterloo, Ia., is a description of the Kimball dairy and farm at Ives lake, the interest of which is materially increased by numerous half-toned photographs. The frontispiece is a photograph of a part of the Emblaard herd grazing in the edge of the forest. Excellent pictures of the buildings and individuals and groups from the herd appear throughout the article. The article itself consists of an extended description of the herd and its record and of the farm itself.

356 Marriage Licenses—Up to yesterday afternoon, 356 marriage licenses had been issued from the county clerk's office this year. This is six more licenses than were issued up to the same date last year. In making a comparison of the number of licenses issued during the past five years, one is struck by the fact that it varies but slightly from year to year, although there are less indications as to the number of licenses issued in 1911 will exceed 400, which has been very close to the average for the past five years, with 425 the maximum and 370 the minimum issued in any year.

Had a Lively Chase—A few fortunate ones had the pleasure yesterday of witnessing an exhibition that is on the program of every conventional old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration—catching a greased pig—only in this instance the pig wasn't greased. However, the brute proved no easier to catch than the usual hog and all that mattered the entertainment was that it had not been advertised and many people missed it. When the South Shore train arrived yesterday from Sidway, it brought a full grown hog, which was consigned to Tumney.

Like most people who have to wait for trains, the hog became impatient early in the day and decided to get out of his crate and take a look at the city. A hog on Front street was quite a novelty and the interest heightened when the employees of the Western Express company, in whose charge the hog was, endeavored to recover their wandering charge. Finally, the animal was overpowered by sheer numbers and ignominiously dragged back to the express office, where he was tied with a rope washed to one hind leg until the crate could be repaired.

Died at the Sea—The Sault Ste. Marie News of yesterday had this mention of the death of a former Marquette resident: "Mrs. R. L. Mitchell passed away at an early hour this morning at the family home on the Hay Lake road, five miles from the city, at the age of sixty-one years. Arrangements for the funeral have not been completed. The deceased was a pioneer resident of the county, having been born in this city. She made her home in the Soo for many years, her husband having been a prominent business man and well known Republican politician in the township until the family's removal to their farm on Hay Lake. She was married to Mr. Mitchell in the city of Marquette thirty-eight years ago and is survived by a husband and three children, William, the oldest son, being mate of the steamer Barry; Louis R., clerk of Soo township and Mrs. Cuthbert, also a resident of Soo township. The deceased was a devout Christian woman, and for the past forty years had been a member of and a regular worshiper at the First Presbyterian church. Her death will be sincerely mourned by a wide acquaintance, as she was greatly beloved by all."

HOWE PICTURES NEXT WEEK.

Popular Travel Festival at Opera House Thursday and Friday Nights.

"When is Lyman Howe coming to town with his moving pictures?" is a question that has been asked frequently within the past few weeks, and it will be welcome news to Marquette people to know that the ever popular entertainment will be shown at the opera house next Thursday and Friday nights. It will be the first time in several years that Mr. Howe has given more than one performance here, but it is a safe prediction that the opera house will be filled both evenings.

Notable features of the Howe entertainment this year are pictures of Lincoln Beaches, a daring flight in an aeroplane and of the recent flood at Austin, Pa. These latter pictures were photographed a few hours after the disaster by one of Mr. Howe's camera men, who was among the first to arrive on the scene of devastation.

Other noteworthy scenes of Mr. Howe's new program are an exclusive reproduction of the coronation of George V, including the ceremonies, pageants, festivities, illuminations, close view of the latest winter sports in Switzerland, and a pictorial tour through Japan during which the land of the chrysanthemum is revealed in all the rich glowing colors of nature. The scenes take the audience to the sacred deer park at Nara; to the ancient shrines and temples at Nikko; to a thrilling boat ride through the rapids of the river Magdapis, etc.

Theatrical
"Busy Izzy."

Carrie Webber, leading woman of the company presenting "Busy Izzy" at the opera house Tuesday night, is cast as an Italian organ grinder. One would imagine that Miss Webber was a native of the land of the macaroni to hear her patois. She dresses like a Neapolitan and she dances well. She is one of the cleverest of comedienne. It is an easy matter for a stage favorite cast in a similar role to give so much abandon to the part as to approach the line of suggestiveness. This has marred the work of many a talented comedienne whose field of endeavor has risen above the burlesque boards. Miss Webber avoids anything like this. There is nothing to give offense in either her singing or in the work of George Sidney, one of the few impersonators of the opera house last evening, which, although appreciated most by those who understood the Swedish language, was an entertainment well worth hearing. In the recitations of children's songs by Miss Viola Uddgren the dependable character of words as a means of expression was remarkably demonstrated. All her songs were in Swedish, but her gestures, facial expression and the naturalness and the spontaneous simplicity with which she interpreted the children's lyrics, proved a language which all understood.

Miss May Corne, a coloratura soprano, possesses a voice of remarkable range and flexibility, which was particularly brilliant in the aria, and especially in the aria from "Mignon." It was in the folk songs, such as "Spin Spin" and "Drommen", that the trio was most appreciated. The range of their combined voices was remarkable, the deep contralto voice of Miss Selma Lind, as vibrant as the mellow tones of the cello, lingering in the ears of the hearers long after the trio had left the stage.

Altogether the program afforded a delightful evening's entertainment and was an excellent interpretation of the Swedish folk songs and the airy music of that nation.

Ishpeming

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes are the parents of a son. Mrs. T. W. Durham of Marquette, was in the city yesterday, visiting friends. The front of the Royal theatre, in the Voelker block, was painted yesterday, the lower portion dark green and the upper part white. The ladies of Grace Episcopal church congregation will hold their annual Christmas sale, and serve a chicken pie supper, in the Guild hall, on Dec. 5. M. W. Whims, representative of the Edson-Moore company of Detroit, returned to the city yesterday, after a three weeks absence on business for the firm. Henry Nelson, who is in the employ of a lumber concern at Pequaning, was down from there yesterday. He left last night for Menominee, on business for the concern. Will F. Anderson, who has been in the employ of Johnson Bros. for a number of years past, has resigned to enter the employ of L. Gensinger, proprietor of the Boston store, in the Dundon block. There will be a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. building tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, led by Dr. C. Haller, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. All men in the city are invited to attend. Mrs. John Veran has gone to the copper country to visit her daughter, Mrs. Charles Cornish. She will be accompanied home next week by her husband, who has been up there for the past few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Eger entertained quite a large party of their friends last evening, at their home on Ridge street, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. They were recipients of a number of beautiful presents. The evening was spent in card playing. Those who have purchased tickets for Miss Wilson's concert, to be given Tuesday evening at Ishpeming theatre, under auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian church, can exchange them Monday for reserved seat tickets. Another cut in prices. Special for Saturday only. Granulated sugar, 86.50 per 100 pounds; dressed chicken, 12.25 cents per pound. F. BRAASTAD & Co. 11-10-21

RUEZ'S MARKET LETTER.

George F. Ruez, broker, of Ishpeming, yesterday said: "The demand for New York stocks was greater today than at any time since the advance started. The tremendous buying carried prices up from one to five points and the closing prices were the high for the day. Amal was among the leaders and advanced from 38 to 61, and carried many of the Boston coppers with it. East Butte was the feature in Boston, advancing from 19 1/2 to 11 3/4, on very heavy trading on the report that a financing plan is to be announced in two weeks. Calmet & Arizona was also very active and strong. It advanced from 59 1/2 to 32 1/2. The Wolverine jumped from 84 to 87 with no sales between. There is an excellent demand for the coppers and it now seems certain that we are running into a bull market for copper shares. The leaders will be Calumet & Arizona, East Butte, Hancock, Lake, Butte, Coalition, Lake, North Butte and Alliance. Of the medium priced stock buy Giroux, Green Cananea, Ojibway, Inspiration, Indiana and Shannon. The curls also showed some life today. Bismut was the leader and advanced to 2 1/2. There is a good demand for Southwestern Miami under $1.50. The stock will be listed before the month ends and with a continuation of the favorable developments recently reported, this stock is good for 75 to 100 per cent. profit."

AEROPLANES BECOME FACTOR IN COMMERCE

In Three Months Machines Valued at $50,000 Have Been Imported or Exported.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Aeroplanes are becoming a factor of international commerce. The records of the bureau of statistics, department of commerce and labor, show that more than $50,000 worth of aeroplanes were imported into and exported from the United States in the months of July, August and September of the current year. The bureau of statistics only began the maintenance of a separate record of this comparatively new article of commerce with the opening of the current fiscal year. In the month of July, the first month of the new fiscal year, the official records show that two aeroplanes were exported from the United States to Canada, at a total valuation of $6,950. In the month of August, 1911, two machines were exported to Canada, their total value being $8,000. In the month of September, 1911, one aeroplane was exported to Canada, its stated value being $3,300, making the total value of exports of aeroplanes in the three months for which a record is now available $18,250, or an average valuation of $5,900 each. On the import side no transactions are given for the month of July, but in the month of August two aeroplanes were imported from France, their combined value being stated as $13,900. In September, the number imported was five, valued at $22,752, one being from England, valued at $4,700, and five from France, valued at $18,052, making the total importations of the three months in question eight aeroplanes, valued at $27,852, or an average valuation of $4,730 each.

Statistics as to Automobiles.

The same paragraph which records the imports and exports of aeroplanes also deals with automobiles. The number of automobiles imported in the nine months ending with September, 1911, was 670, valued at $1,450,222, against 809 automobiles valued at $1,623,140, in the corresponding months of 1910, and 1,208 valued at $2,218,414, in the corresponding months of 1909. Of the 670 automobiles imported in the nine months of 1911, 227 were from France, 113 from Germany, 105 from the United Kingdom and eighty-five from Italy. The number of automobiles exported in the nine months under consideration was, in 1911, 11,244, valued at $11,265,934, against 6,472, valued at $8,874,096, in the like period of 1910 and 3,426, valued at $5,481,707, in the like period of 1909. The largest exportation in the nine months of 1911 was to Canada, 4,107 cars, compared with 2,563 to the United Kingdom, 322 to France and 881 to other European countries, while shipments were also made to Mexico, the West Indies and various countries in South America, Asia, Oceania and Africa.

CANDIDATES SHAKING HANDS WITH LABOR

All the Men Mentioned for the Presidency Very Friendly to the Toiler.

Washington, Nov. 10.—One of the most pungent of political cartoons was that once published from the pen of the great Nast of a candidate for office shaking hands with a ditch-digger three days before election. A supplementary picture was that of the candidate with averted head passing the same ditch-digger three days after the election. The press agents of the different candidates for the presidency today are shaking hands not alone with the ditch-digger, but with the car driver, the conductor, the machinist, the hod-carrier and the brick-layer. The candidates love labor and would have labor love them. From Columbus, O., comes "printed proof" that Judson Harmon is the one friend of the toiler. The candidate of labor always appealed to him. It still appeals to him, and the implied promise is that it will continue to appeal to him, sure of kindly response in the years to come. In the meantime, he is busy appealing to labor.

From the Washington Progressive news bureau comes the information in a statement that "one of the strongest elements in the movement to make Senator Robert M. La Follette the Republican presidential candidate in 1912 is organized labor." Then we learn that the senator has a long record of achievement on behalf of organized labor, and this record is certain to command an untold number of votes in the event that he is named as the party leader next year. It is disappointing to the curious that the number of votes is put down as "untold."

Possibly the press agents of Woodrow Wilson are grieved because they cannot put forth in neatly typewritten form record proofs of the kindness of the editor-statesman toward the man whose hands perform the major part of his work. It is an injustice to labor perhaps to suggest that in any of its forms the head does not work with the hands, but custom of speech has so made it appear. Mr. Wilson has not been given honor long enough to have become the record champion of the workers' cause, though it is said that when he was president of Princeton he looked kindly on the diggers. The Broadway office force devoted to the Wilson cause is making much out of discovery where practice has been given no chance. Organized toil will support Governor Wilson.

It seems that cemented labor, and possibly un cemented labor, also, will be forced despite itself to become a reporter. The worker stands solidly behind three candidates ready and there is the promise of the advocates of the ambitions of Champ Clark of Missouri that before long labor will be a unit for him. What are Mr. Taft's chances of securing the united support of labor, organized and unorganized, support which we know is solidly behind four other gentlemen with presidential ambitions? Mr. Taft doubtless when the time of his press agents comes to its fullness will claim "labor" and this being one of the curious contradictions of human nature, it seems possible that the very frankness of the president in some of his opposition to labor's demands may stand him in better stead with the toiler than will the typewritten records of La Follette and Harmon achievements, the theoretical records of Wilson and the legislative record of Clark.

President Taft made the first speech of his presidential campaign under the direction of a labor union in Orchestra Hall, Chicago. His first words were that he had no excuse to offer for his labor decisions when he was on the bench. Labor leaders had assailed him on his judicial record, but the Taft speech took hold and while there was no tremendous enthusiasm in the hall at the time of its utterance, its strengthening effect later was manifest. The president has not been in sympathy with the full anti-injunction demands of Samuel Gompers and his lieutenants. Mr. Taft has defended his own proposals for curtailing the injunction powers of the federal judges. Labor seems to have admired the president's sincerity.

Labor may be restrained by considerations of policy from putting the blunt question to all the presidential candidates now in the field, but if the query "If elected president will you sign a federal eight-hour law if congress shall pass one?" were to be thrown directly and publicly at the different candidates, the dodging would give certain gentlemen all the exercise of a course in gymnastics. For years there has been an eight-hour law before congress. Work in government shops stops when the eight-hour law has struck, but private corporations, doing government work have no federal limitations put upon the time of toil. Labor wants such limitations set. By one means or another the Republicans, aided frequently by the Democratic minority in the house, were able to keep this bill in committee. It is the measure closest to the heart of the hundreds of thousands of organized workers. The really live press agent ought to put the question to his chief on behalf of his publicity bureau. The chances are remote, however, that he cheerfully would go to his task of making the answer public.

A HOUSEHOLD MEDICINE

That stops coughs quickly and cures colds is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. Anna Pelzer, 2326 Jefferson St., S. TEMPERANCE WORKERS HAD FINE MEETING

President of Ishpeming Organization Has Returned from W. C. T. U. Convention.

Mrs. J. A. Riley, president of the Ishpeming branch of the W. C. T. U., who has returned from the thirty-eighth annual convention of the national organization, held in Milwaukee, says the Michigan contingent is determined to make the state dry. The convention lasted from Oct. 28 to Nov. 2, and was considered the most successful gathering of the organization ever held. The people of Milwaukee were extremely courteous and gave the delegates a hearty welcome. Mr. Gilpatrick, owner of the Elpatrick hotel, closed his bar room, which is run in connection with his hotel business, during the entire time of the convention, putting a sign on the door reading: "This bar room closed in honor of the ladies of the W. C. T. U."

After the convention about seven hundred delegates went to Evanston, Ill., to visit the home of Francis Willard. The citizens of Evanston took the visitors on a sight seeing trip in automobiles.

The delegates were very enthusiastic over the victory in Maine and claim their national president, Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, is responsible, she having worked strenuously during the campaign. The convention voiced its disapproval of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson's attitude in regard to the brewers' convention, and praised Dr. Wiley for his work. Woman suffrage and the white slave traffic were given considerable attention.

Among the speakers were Seaborn Wright of Georgia, Mrs. Margaret D. Ellis of the District of Columbia, Mrs. H. E. Hollingshead of Ohio, Mrs. M. N. Stevens and others.

PLAYED FAST GAME.

Indoor Ball Teams of Y. M. C. A. Gave Good Exhibition.

The first indoor baseball game of the season in Ishpeming between senior teams was played Thursday evening in the Young Men's Christian association gymnasium, between the Miners' nine and the "Y" team. The "Y" team won by a score of 9 to 7, but it was a close game, and had it not been for the hard hitting of the "Y" nine the Miners would have won. The players on both sides did fast work in the field and many snappy plays were pulled off. The battery for the "Y" team was Waters and Martin, and for the Miners, Heppie and Mandley.

Two baseball teams have been organized by members of the Junior A class. They are to be known as the "Giants" and the "Phillies." George Werner has been elected manager of the "Phillies" and Stanley Williams will lead the "Giants." The opening game was played Thursday afternoon. It proved to be a batfest, and the Giants won, 23 to 21.

The tie game between the Athletics and White Sox, composed of members of the Junior B class, will be played off this morning.

The "Y" basketball squad had a good work out Thursday night, and all of the old players, as well as some of the new ones, gave a good account of themselves. Two teams are to be organized.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHNS.

Mrs. Thomas Johns, formerly of this city, who had been a patient at St. Mary's hospital in Marquette since early last March, died yesterday morning. Cancer, from which she had been a sufferer for several years, was the cause of her death. Prior to going to St. Mary's hospital the deceased submitted to an operation in the Columbus hospital, in Milwaukee. Her demise was not unexpected by her relatives as her condition had been growing worse daily for some time. The deceased was thirty-one years of age. She was born and reared in the copper country, where she was married thirteen years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Johns moved to Ishpeming over a year ago, remaining here a short time when they took up their residence at Doric where he holds a position at the American mine. The remains were received in Ishpeming yesterday and taken to the home of his relatives. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon from the First Methodist Episcopal church. Edward Johns, brother-in-law of the deceased, and wife, came down from Calumet yesterday.

Nothing but figures ones will be needed to tell the date on November 11 next, and it may be some satisfaction to busy persons who live to save time and energy to know that they can write the date of their letters, bills and what not with six strokes of the pen, thus, 11-11-11. Last January 11 the date could have been recorded with five strokes of the pen, 1-11-11. Calendar makers further tell us that eleven years from now we can write one of our dates entirely in twos, February 22, 1922, is the date. It may be written 2-22-22.

VIOLATED GAME LAW.

Humboldt Man Arrested on Complaint of Deputy Game Warden Laggett.

Joseph Sturer, of Humboldt, was arranged in Judge West's court Thursday on a charge of violating the game laws preferred by James Laggett, deputy game warden at Siskiwit. Warden Laggett intercepted eighty-one muskrat and ten mink skins on a South Shore train and traced the shipment to Sturer. Although Sturer pleaded guilty to the charge, sentence was suspended for two weeks as he is an old man, without work and in very poor circumstances.

About three years ago his wife died, leaving him with a boy, three years old. He advised the court that since then he has had a very hard time supporting himself and the boy and that he trapped the animals as a means of getting money to pay for their board. Sturer recently purchased a license to hunt deer and was advised that under the law he could trap both muskrat and mink, but it appears that he got most of the animals prior to the first of this month, when the open season started. It will be lawful to trap both muskrats and mink until next April.

Both Acting Prosecuting Attorney Kennedy and Judge West are inclined to be lenient with Sturer on account of his poor financial circumstances. The value of the skins was placed at $50.

CITY WILL PAY REWARD.

Effort Will Be Made to Capture Persons Who Are Damaging Crusher Plant.

The men in charge of the highway department of the city have been greatly annoyed for some weeks past by the depredations that have taken place at the city's crusher plant, near the St. Lawrence mine, and in order to put a stop to them a reward of $25 is offered for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the guilty parties.

There is nothing in the crusher building that is of any particular use to any one, but the place is broken into every few days. Belts have been cut, castings broken and other damage done. The brasses and other small parts were removed from the engine and boiler when the plant was closed for the winter.

Three locks have been broken from the door this week and it makes no difference how securely the openings to the building are fastened, it is entered at frequent intervals. A short time ago the cars that are used for hauling the gravel were overturned and the workmen's tools stolen. It is evident that either good-sized boys or foreigners living in that neighborhood are doing the damage.

JONES & LAUGHLINS CO. TO ERECT DWELLINGS

Mining Corporation Gives Ishpeming Firm Contract on the Menominee Range.

The Jones & Laughlin Iron company has awarded J. Wahlman & Son a contract for the erection of six single dwellings at the site of the mine the corporation is to develop near Iron River, on the Menominee range. The houses will be of the same design, and each will have six rooms. The order for the lumber and other material has been placed, and as soon as it is delivered at Iron River the contractors will send men down to start the work.

An effort will be made to finish the houses before the severe winter weather sets in. Several carpenters and laborers will be employed on the job, and the contractors expect to have them ready for occupancy soon after the first of the year.

While the management of the Jones & Laughlins company has not yet announced when development work at the new property will be started, it is thought that a crew will begin erecting buildings and installing machinery at an early date. The property was thoroughly explored during the past year, when a number of drill holes were put down and a body of good ore was located. Michael Gleason, of Gladstone, is the principal owner of the tract on which the Jones & Laughlins company will operate.

Wahlman & Son will, within the next thirty or forty days, finish up their work on the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company's seventeen dwellings at the North Lake location. One of the two single houses, which is to be occupied by the family of one of the bosses at the mine, has already been finished, and eight of the double dwellings have been plastered. Both of the single dwellings will be equipped with bath rooms, steam heating plants and other conveniences. The Lake Superior Heating company has the contract to install the heating plants and J. A. Blackney has the plumbing contract. Wahlman & Son expect to have the last of the double dwellings ready for occupancy on or before the first of the year.

The new school at the North Lake location has been completed and the second floor rooms will be used at an early date. J. A. Blackney has just finished the plumbing and Trembath Bros. have the painting contract.

Wahlman & Son, who this season employed a larger number of carpenters than for several years past, are now working fifty-five men, exclusive of those employed at the Silver Lake dam, which is being constructed jointly by this firm and Trebilcock Bros. J. S. Wahlman, junior member of the firm, is spending most of his time superintending the dam work. The firm is finishing up its contract for the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company at the Neganuone mine, where several buildings have been constructed during the past six months.

SPECIAL PRAYER WEEK.

Christian Men's Societies Have Prepared a General Program.

Next week is the week set aside each year by the brotherhoods and other organized Christian men's societies of the country for special prayer for young men. Booklets containing the list of topics and other information have been received here, and plans are being made for services.

The general program provides the following:

Nov. 12—Prayer for the Young Men's Christian association, its officers, members and committees, both here and in foreign countries.

Nov. 13—Prayer for all church brotherhoods and their part in "Men and Religion," also the missionaries and heathen of South Africa.

Nov. 14—Prayer for the teachers and members of young men's Bible classes, and the workers and people of South America.

Nov. 15—Prayer for the community extension service; for new fields opened and the work being done. For the missionaries and heathen of Asia.

Nov. 16—Prayer for men to do social service; for the missionaries and people of Australia.

Nov. 17—Pray that every Christian man may prove his patriotism by helping to purify politics and to raise the standard of justice and morals, also for the workers and people of Europe.

Nov. 18—Prayer for those promoting the service for the 300,000 young men coming into America every year. For the work done in Mexico and Central America.

Nov. 19—Prayer for everything being done to living men and boys for Jesus Christ.

WORK PROGRESSING SATISFACTORILY

Removal of Poles and Wires Will Greatly Improve Appearance of Main Street.

That Main street will present a much improved appearance after the telephone and electric light poles and hundreds of wires have been removed has been evident since the Michigan Bell Telephone company began to remove the wires from its poles.

Both the Marquette County Gas & Electric company and Michigan Bell Telephone company have had crews working for the past two weeks or more putting up poles, preparatory to moving the wires to the alleys. Yesterday most of the Bell company's single wires along the west side of Main street were taken down. The Bell company will make their transfers to the new lines extending through the alley sooner than the Marquette County Gas & Electric company, as new electric wiring will have to be done in all of the buildings on both sides of the street before the change can be made by the latter company. All of the Marquette County Gas & Electric company's poles are in position and

"THE COW AND THE MOON"

Extravaganza Will be Offered at Ishpeming Theatre Wednesday.
Of "The Cow and the Moon," which will be on view at the Ishpeming theatre Wednesday evening, the Journal of Sioux City, Ia., in its issue of Oct. 10, said: "Featuring Ed Gilmore as 'Happy,' Charles A. Sellon's annual extravaganza of the musical comedy sort under the title, 'The Cow and the Moon,' this year has a number of startling novelties that appeal to the house at the New Grand theatre last evening.

"The Sellon production resembles Hanser before. New gutters will be put in and the surface of the street will be covered with a bituminous macadam, which is guaranteed to stand up as well as the average paving material. While the surface of the street is at present satisfactory, the dust rises from it in dry weather and the mud that accumulates in the fall and spring are objectionable. They will both be eliminated by the proposed new pavement.

"While these various characters were appearing and disappearing in mysterious fashion via trap doors, airships and automobiles a continual stream of humor emanated from 'Happy's' corner.

"One of the most spectacular novelties, and one that was given marked applause was that in which an engine, a bridge and a plot to wreck a train figured. First a headlight appears, then the light draws nearer and nearer and when the train comes to a full stop a shower of fire from the smokestack reveals the full engine front. "In the Temple of the Cow a number of Chinese dances were given that received approval."

CARD OF THANKS.

NEW SHAFT AT ROLLING MILL

Henry Luke Has Started a Third Hoop Mill at Lathrop.

A new shaft is being raised at the Jones & Laughlin company's Rolling Mill mine. It will reach surface a few hundred feet south of the old shaft, and over it will be built a new steel shaft house. Operations have been carried on there for some time. There is only about 600 feet between the top of the raise and the surface, and it is expected that the work will be finished before spring. The purpose in building the new shaft is twofold to facilitate the getting out of the ore and to safeguard the mine for the men.

It is expected that a new engine house and hoisting machinery will have to be installed. It has only been a short time since underground operations were started at the Rolling Mill mine. Only a few years ago the ore was taken from an open pit, just west of the shaft, on the other side of the Palmer road. Seven years ago the first shaft was sunk, and since that time a goodly amount of ore has been shipped.

At present ore is being shipped both directly from the shaft and from the stockpile. Considering that the Rolling Mill mine is one of the best and smallest properties in Negaunee, it is making a good record in shipments.

QUEER FOODS.

In Egypt certain portions of the camel are regarded as great delicacies. In Arabia the horse is considered a very fine article of food. The folk in Coochin China greatly prefer rotten eggs to those which are fresh. In India the flesh of the elephant is a favorite article of food. Some South Americans eat lizards, serpents and centipedes. The Chinese like cats, rats, dogs and serpents; bears' paws and birds' nests find particular favor with them. There is a large caterpillar found in the West Indies on palm trees which is considered a great dainty. The nests of Java swallows are so rare a luxury that a dish of them would cost around $75 in our money. In many parts of the earth a curious taste prevails for clay. Women on the Magdalena river while shaping their wooden vessels frequently put lumps of the clay into their mouths and consume it with relish.

BACKACHE, HEADACHE, NERVOUSNESS.

And rheumatism, both in men and women, mean kidney trouble. Do not allow it to progress beyond the reach of medicine but stop it promptly with Foley's Kidney Pills. They regulate the action of the urinary organs. Tonic in action, quick results. For sale by all dealers. J. E. Parker, 2021 No. 10th St., Ft. Smith, Ark., says that he had taken many kinds of kidney medicine, but did not get better until he took Foley's Kidney Pills. "No matter how long you have had trouble, you will find quick and permanent benefit by the use of Foley's Kidney Pills. Start taking them now. For sale by all dealers."

SAVED MANY FROM DEATH.

W. L. Mook, of Mook, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 5 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe it is the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by The Stafford Drug Co.

A NEW INDUSTRY.

Henry Luke Has Started a Third Hoop Mill at Lathrop.

Henry Luke, who has been in the city for the past few months with his son, Norman Luke, the manager of the Palmer roller mill, has started a hoop mill at Lathrop, halfway between Escanaba and Negaunee. The plant will be practically the same as two others he is now operating, one at Lockport, Canada, and one at Cheboygan. It will have a capacity of 2,000,000 hoops a year, and will employ between twenty and thirty men. The latest machinery used in the manufacture of hoops will be put in. Mr. Luke is a veteran in the hoop making business, he having been engaged in it for some thirty years. He is opening his plant at Lathrop because of the natural resources for the industry there. He will get his raw materials from the vicinity. Hemlock, ash and cedar are used. His products can be disposed of anywhere in the country, and the demand is far greater than the supply. As long as he can obtain the materials at low cost, the business is a paying proposition, but otherwise it amounts to little. Wages are high, as only skilled labor can be employed.

The date for the opening of the plant is still indefinite. Mr. Luke will locate permanently at Lathrop.

LABOR UNIONS APPROVE.

Fight Against Tuberculosis Has Support of the American Federation.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Direct approval of the campaign for the sale of Red Cross seals has been given by the American Federation of Labor, according to an announcement made by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

At the last annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, a resolution was adopted calling on all the members of the federation to further the sale as much as possible. The resolution reads as follows:

"Whereas, the American Federation of Labor has in every possible way aided the movement for the study and prevention of tuberculosis throughout the United States and Canada, and

"Whereas, the American National Red Cross has been in the past and is now making an especial effort, through the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals, to secure funds to carry on the war against tuberculosis, and by means of the funds raised in this manner has been able to do much effective work in this direction, therefore be it

"Resolved, that the American Federation of Labor give its endorsement to the movement of the American National Red Cross, and encourage its members to further in every reasonable way the sale of these seals in their respective communities."

There are now four special methods by which consumptive workmen in the United States are being cared for. In such cities as Albany, Elmira and Binghamton, N. Y., the unions support a separate pavilion or hospital. In cities like Hartford, New Britain and South Manchester, Conn., the workmen contribute towards the maintenance of a fund for the care of consumptives. The employers also contribute to these funds. There are also two national sanatoria for treatment of tuberculosis owned and operated by labor unions; one by the International Typographical Union, and the other by the Printing Pressmen and Assistants' union. In Massachusetts, Illinois, and elsewhere, large corporations and manufacturers have agreed voluntarily to care for all their consumptive employees for a limited length of time.

"But as long as consumption kills one in every three workmen between the ages of fifteen and forty-five," says the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, "more education, better shop and home conditions, and more hospitals are needed." Red Cross seals provide these things."

LOOK INTO TAXABLE VALUES

Work of Special Committee Appointed by Council to Revalue Marquette Property Likely to Be Superseded by State Tax Commission—Field Men Here.

Property in All the Mining Counties to Be Assessed by State Board—Representatives Already at Work in Powell Township—To Determine Cash Value.

As R. H. Shields, the state tax commissioner, predicted would be done when he visited Marquette in the course of his trip to the upper peninsula to review the work of Expert Finlay in valuing the iron mines, the commission is taking steps to value the general property of the iron counties, with the purpose of putting it on the same basis of valuation as the mining property. Field Agent McNiff, representing the commission, is now in the upper peninsula preparing for this work. He has been in Marquette county the past few days, looking the ground over and he has had consultations with numerous men who are informed concerning values. The work in Marquette county will begin immediately, and will start in Powell township, where the wild lands are said to have more value than similar lands in any other township in the county. It was in this township that the Marquette men who looked into the question of general values in the county, in connection with the meeting of the county board of equalization a few weeks ago, were convinced that some of the worst cases of under-valuation in the county would be found.

Mr. McNiff also states that Marquette city is to be revalued, a piece of information that comes with special interest in the light of the steps taken by the council this week to have this same work carried out, without waiting for the commission to take the initiative. Whether the plans of the commission to enter Marquette on its own account will affect the work, however, remains to be determined, but it is apparent that if the commission is to make a new roll for Marquette there is no particular virtue in the city carrying on this work at its own expense, as no matter what figures the city returns will be superseded by those prepared by the agents of the tax commission.

May Change Local Plans.

Speaking of this matter last evening, a city official said to The Mining Journal: "It strikes me that before we spend any money on the work we authorized this week we should get in touch with the tax commission and find out what their plans are. If they intend to make a complete new roll for Marquette city there is no good purpose to be served in carrying out this work on our own account, as the tax commission will figure up the same matter by results we arrive at. We should get full information on this point."

The commission will follow the same rule in valuing the general property in Marquette, Iron, Dickinson and Gogebic counties that it follows in valuing the remaining property, that is, it will find and fix to the best of its ability the true cash value. This is the only rule that the commission has for this work. The result is bound to be a large increase in the total of the tax rolls for all the counties, general property is now valued at much less than cash value. When the mining men had their hearing before Commissioner Shields in this county they made the assertion that general property in the mining townships of Marquette county was valued at not more than one-third of its true value.

It is not to be anticipated that putting the iron counties up to their true values will work to their injury, however, in the apportionment of state taxes, because the equalization arrived at by the state board a few weeks ago will stand for five years. The revaluation will work out to relieve the mining companies from bearing an unfair share of the tax burden, because they will have to pay considerably less taxes when general property is put up where it belongs.

The reassessment of the iron counties will be a work of great magnitude, one of the largest tasks that the state commission has ever entered on, and it will be well into next year before it can be completed. The final step in the work will be the holding of public reviews, such as were held early in the fall in Alpena county. It is the expectation of the tax commission that before another state equalization is held practically the entire state will be placed on a cash basis, if in the meantime the entire system of state taxation is not changed.

DEATH OF ALEX PATENAUDE.

Former Marquette Druggist Passed Away at Iron River Yesterday.

Marquette relatives of Alex Patenaude, who was born and reared in Marquette, received yesterday the sad news of his death at Iron River, where he has been in the retail drug business for several years. Mr. Patenaude had been ill for about two months with a complication of diseases. He was fifty-five years of age.

Mr. Patenaude was the son of Mrs. T. J. Patenaude, East Hewitt avenue, this city, and he is also survived by three sisters, Misses Rosa, Agnes and Cecil, and five brothers, Charles, Oliver, Henry and Timothy, all of this city, and Peter of Duluth. The deceased served as carrier boy for The Mining Journal in the days when A. P. Swinford was editor, and for a number of years he was employed at Stafford's drug store. He then moved to Norway, where he engaged in the drug business for a number of years, and a few years ago he moved to Iron River, where he was in the same business until his death.

The funeral will be held at Iron River on Monday, with interment at Norway.

WANT A CUSTOMS OFFICER.

Citizens of Ontonagon Desire Town to Be Made Port of Entry.

Collector of Customs C. J. Byrns has under consideration a request of citizens of Ontonagon county that Ontonagon be made a port of entry and that a customs officer be stationed there permanently. Under the present arrangement it is necessary that a customs officer from Houghton go to Ontonagon whenever a foreign boat arrives or clears, which requires an expense of about $7, which must be borne by the vessel owner. Collector Byrns spent a few days in Ontonagon recently and investigated the situation, but he has not yet decided whether he will recommend that a port of entry be established there. It appears that there is about one billion feet of standing timber near Ontonagon, which naturally would be marketed from that port. The three mills in that town are turning out over 30,000,000 feet of lumber a year, not all of which, however, is shipped by water. This at present is about the sum total of the shipping in Ontonagon recently and investigated the situation, but he has not yet decided whether he will recommend that a port of entry be established there. While Ontonagon is not an important lake port, those who believe that it should be a port of entry point out that other towns of less importance have been given that distinction. In addition to the convenience of having a customs officer stationed there permanently, making the town a port of entry would help to "put the town on the map," and this desire is doubtless one of the reasons why the matter has been put up so urgently to Collector Byrns.

TWENTY GALLONS OF BEER EACH YEAR

That the Per Capita Consumption in the United States, According to Statistics.

Every man, woman and child in the United States consumes each year 20.09 gallons of beer, 99 of a gallon of wine, and 1.45 gallons of whiskey and other distilled spirits, according to figures recently compiled by the United States bureau of statistics. The United States consumes more beer and malt liquors than any other country in the world, and more distilled spirits than any other country except Russia. The quantity per capita consumed in the United States is not, however, in the case of beer, as great as in Belgium, United Kingdom, Germany or Denmark, while this country's per capita consumption of distilled spirits is less than that of Denmark, Hungary, Austria, France, Netherlands or Sweden. Americans are not wine drinkers and the per capita consumption compared with other countries is low.

Statistics show that Belgians drink the most malt liquors per capita, a little more than fifty-five gallons a year. Inhabitants of the United Kingdom come next with thirty-nine gallons each, while Germany is third, with twenty-six gallons for every inhabitant. Denmark ranks fourth on the list and the United States fifth. Less than two gallons of beer, per capita, are consumed in Italy, Roumania, Servia and Russia.

Of wines, the French are the largest drinkers, the per capita consumption in that country being over thirty-nine gallons. Italy with thirty-one gallons is not far behind and Portugal is third with twenty-seven gallons. Canada, United Kingdom, Netherlands, and the Transvaal are the only countries that consume less wine per capita than the United States.

For per capita consumption of distilled spirits the palm goes to Denmark, where each inhabitant drinks 2.97 gallons a year. Next largest per capita consumers of distilled spirits are the Hungarians, whose average for the year is 2.11 gallons. Bulgaria has the smallest per capita consumption of distilled spirits, the average being only .13 of a gallon per inhabitant per year. Other countries whose per capita consumption is less than one gallon are United Kingdom, Switzerland, Italy, Norway, Roumania, Canada, Cape of Good Hope and Transvaal.

SUPPLY OF COFFEE IS WELL CORNERED

Scheme by Which Brazilian Government and Arbuckle Have Brought It About.

"The coffee situation is more acute now than ever," says a coffee salesman who regularly covers this territory. "Spot coffees are now worth sixteen cents a pound in New York and New Orleans. A month ago the same coffees were worth thirteen and a half cents. The same grade, roasted, is sold at wholesale for twenty-two cents and at twenty-five cents at retail. Even at the present high price, the dealer is making little money out of it. It takes about 15 per cent on the investment to pay for the expense of handling, and unless the dealer makes more than that he has no profit. Neither is there anything in coffee for the roaster under present conditions."

"I have been in the coffee business for thirty years and I never saw the situation so bad as it is right now. John Arbuckle practically controls the spot coffee situation. He owns most of the coffee that is on the ocean, coming to this country. He has made the spot markets at New York and New Orleans practically bare of coffee and has bought up most of the floating stock. For that reason the Brazilians are not coming in the least in what they demand for their coffee. So it is of no use for the roasters to buy coffee in Brazil and import it. It is actually cheaper to buy green coffee here from their competitor, John Arbuckle, the man who is trying to freeze them out, and who undoubtedly will in time freeze out a vast number of the smaller roasters."

"Our company has two ears of green coffee, which have cost us $12,000. Fourteen months ago we could have bought the same coffee for $6,500. Now I wonder where there is going to be a stop to this continual increase in the price of coffee. It must come to a stop some time in the very nature of things. Those who are holding the coffee will, in the while, find such an enormous quantity of it on their hands that the market will have to break. It will be an old tale repeated. When the break comes, the holders of the coffee will be stung. Roasters are not buying any more coffee than they have to. Already the demand has fallen off 15 per cent from what it was a year ago. The people are not using it so freely as they were."

"It was four years ago that the Brazilian government started out to get better coffee prices for its planters. It is because coffee is a foreign product that the government of the United States cannot take any effective action to break the corner, even though its own citizens may be among the beneficiaries of the corner. Coffee was very cheap at that time. The Brazilian government issued bonds in the sum of $85,000,000 and with the proceeds bought up 8,000,000 bags of coffee. What is usually understood as a bag of coffee contains 133 pounds at the time of export. The bonds were taken by banks in New York, London and Berlin. The coffee was put up as collateral to insure the payment of the bonds. It was agreed that the collateral should be sold from time to time to redeem the bonds. This valorization coffee, as it is called, must all be sold by the year 1915, and none must be sold at less than 10 1/2 cents a pound. So, you see, the corner must be maintained to make the deal good. Of the original 8,000,000 bags of valorization coffee, only 5,000,000 have remained, but there are about 3,000,000 bags of green coffee that have accumulated in the meantime, and of course the market must dispose of this. It is this gradual accumulation to which I look to see the corner eventually broken. The Brazilian coffee trees keep on bearing. I believe the corner would be broken by the establishment of new coffee farms, had not the Brazilian government, when it put the scheme into execution, placed a prohibitive tax on the planting of more coffee trees. The scheme has certainly been a success thus far. The Brazilian planter, who used to get 7 1/2 to 8 cents for his coffee, is now getting nearly twice that much."
