IN DETROIT the best police head the city has ever had suffers the fate that too often falls to men who have given the public exceptional service—premature retirement because of the exigencies of politics.

HOWEVER, the issue will probably prove that there is more interest in the question of charter revision than the paucity of candidates for the commission would appear to show.

THE swap in editors for Harper's Weekly will not be attended by any change in the editorial attitude with regard to President Wilson. It will be remembered that Brother Collier sacked

Many people sprinkle the famous antique powder, Allen's Foot-Paste, into the shoes, and find that it saves its cost ten times over in keeping holes from hoisting as well as lessening friction and consequent smarting of the feet."

Epworth League Non-Sectarian Institution at Phoenix Will Be Opened June 12.

Announcement was made yesterday by Rev. Horace H. Mallinson of Lake Linden, president of the copper country union of Epworth League chapters, that plans had progressed so satisfactorily for the establishment of the rest home for tired mothers at Phoenix, Keweenaw county, that the institution will be opened June 12, instead of June 24 as first intended.

All of the chapters of the league in the Methodist Episcopal churches of the copper country are interested in the enterprise, which includes the renting and equipping of the former residence at Phoenix of Superintendent Shields of the Keweenaw Central railroad. It will have accommodations for twelve patients, who will be tired mothers there on the order of their physicians.

HOUSING THE FIREMEN.

Chief Voetsch Remodelling the Sleeping Quarters of the Squad.

Acting under instructions from the village council, Chief Voetsch of the Houghton fire department has commenced operations on the remodelling of the sleeping quarters of the firemen. These quarters are in an old dwelling at the rear of the fire station. In the past the firemen slept in a small number of rooms; two or more to a room.

One of the latest dicta of social science is that the quartering of a number of men in dormitories or common rooms is unhygienic to the men for various reasons and the desire is to give each man such quarters as may be possible. Chief Voetsch is following this idea, by cutting up the sleeping quarters into small rooms, one for each man. As a result he expects to have a waiting list of bachelor firemen eager to take up quarters there. The rooms are maintained for the purpose of having on hand at night a small number of firemen ready for immediate action.

WANT IMPROVED POTATOES.

Houghton County Farmers Eagerly Purchase Fair's Seed Tubers.

That the farmers of Houghton county are desirous of making every possible improvement in the quality of their products is the opinion of Secretary Haas of the Copper County fair. The fair recently offered for sale to farmers twenty-five bushels of Sir Walter Raleigh seed potatoes, an excess from the seed distributed in the potato-growing contest. The seed was disposed of in short order and the secretary says that he could have sold easily one hundred bushels for the same purpose.

COPPER MOVEMENT IS HEAVY.

The steamer Finesta of the Anchor Line cleared from the Copper Range dock Sunday afternoon with three hundred tons of Michigan Smelter copper for the East. This cleaned up the stock at that point and reports from other wharves in the harbor of Lake Linden, 15 to 20, and the Cobscook from the High lands of Houghton, 12 to 15. Mayor Ojala threw the first ball to O'Neill, catcher for the Independents. Senator James was to have been a part of the battery in opening the season, but illness prevented.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS.

The baseball season in Hancock opened Sunday afternoon with a double-header at the Driving park in which Hancock teams broke even. The Independents lost to the Hustlers of Lake Linden, 15 to 7, and the Cubs won from the High lands of Houghton, 12 to 5. Mayor Ojala threw the first ball to O'Neill, catcher for the Independents. Senator James was to have been a part of the battery in opening the season, but illness prevented.

COMFORT STATION UNSIGHTLY.

A petition will be presented the Hancock council, likely tomorrow evening, signed by some of the most prominent citizens, asking that the comfort station built near the city hall several months ago be razed. It is asserted that the building is unsightly and is characterized as a joke by visitors as well as town residents. When the station was erected several months ago opposition was advanced, but it was successful. Families living a short distance away are strongly opposed to the building occupying its present site just off Quincy street but would not be opposed to its removal to the rear of the city hall.

HANCOCK PUBLIC BAND CONCERTS.

Committee Seeking Funds to Defray Cost of Finnish Band.

The temper of businessmen in Hancock on the question of Saturday night open-air band concerts is to be tested this week. A committee of which John Kisilka is chairman will ask for contributions to help finance the movement. The merchants and other business interests will be asked to make a small donation every week to meet the expenses of concerts by the Finnish band in the city park and to help purchase music for the organization. So far strong support has been shown for a continuance of public musical entertainment. The concerts will commence soon, if the right encouragement is given, and will continue throughout the warm months.

BEAUTIFYING STATION GROUNDS.

The lighting system is but a part of a general plan for beautifying the Copper Range station grounds, at all stations as well as in Houghton. The Houghton station presents an excellent opportunity to the landscape artist and while no professional designer has been engaged to carry out in an effective manner, the Copper Range railroad yard is not a naturally level space. It was in fact a lowland of solid rock with steam shovels and dynamite and it fronts a jagged embankment left by that operation. The ground slopes to the edge of this embankment and it is now overgrown with grass. In many of the hollows of the embankment shrubs have been planted and flower beds have been located. The beautifying operation is being carried out in a ruggedly effective manner. A small space in front of the incised approach to the station has been set off from the feet of the railroad men and the destroying hoofs and wheels of conveyances by a border of large cobble stones. This space is to be made into a simple lawn, which will be a most effective contrast to the dust and rust of railroad track and yards.

D. J. Norton of the Norton Lumber company, Ontonagon, returned Saturday from Marquette, where he had been on an unsuccessful quest for a lumberman who would find a way to keep up the lumbering industry in the upper peninsula and he doubts the ability of lumbering concerns to keep up their normal production this summer if labor conditions do not improve.

COCHRAN AT THE U. OF M.

Advices from Ann Arbor lead to the belief that William Cochran, the Houghton football player, is going to play track athletics as well as in football. He seems to be a fixture on the varsity football team and in the meantime he is working with the freshmen track team. At Lansing, in the meet against the M. A. C. team, he won the 100-yard sprinting event, with a mark of 35 feet, 10 inches. He was third in the 200-yard event. Cochran is the upper peninsula high school champion with the sprint and discus, having won both events at the interscholastic meet at Marquette last year.

RIPLEY BRICK PLANT WORKING.

Operations at the Lake Superior Stone & Brick company's plant at Ripley have begun for the season and it is expected, considering the orders received in advance for brick, that the plant will be in operation the entire season. Colonel W. J. Wyckoff is manager. A crew of thirty men is employed on the daily output which is close to 25,000 sand lime brick. Orders the last few months resulted in the sale of last year's output to the extent that only a small surplus was on hand when the plant started recently.

ORNAMENTAL LIGHTING SYSTEM.

Copper Range Railroad Will Illuminate Approach to Station.

The construction crew of the Houghton County Electric Light company yesterday began work on the erection of a system of ornamental street lighting for the Copper Range railroad, from the Houghton to the Portage Lake passenger station. The lights will be seven in number. They will be large tungsten lights enclosed in big frosted globes, similar to those in the Sheldon street system, but larger. They will straddle ornamental iron poles twelve feet high, which will be placed at regular intervals along the route described.

Food That Bind Little Children

MARJORIE DARLING

Mothers are often unconsciously very careless about the diet of their children, forcing all to eat the same foods. The fact is that all foods do not agree alike with different persons. Hence, a diet what seems to constipate the child or to give it indigestion, and urge it to take more of what is quickly digested.

If the child shows a tendency to constipation it should immediately be given a mild laxative to help the bowels. By this is not meant a physic or purgative, for these should never be given to children, nor anything like salts, pills, etc. What the child requires is simply a small dose of the gentlest of medicines, such as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which in the opinion of thousands of watchful mothers is the ideal remedy for any child showing a tendency to constipation. So many things can happen to a constipated child that care is necessary. Colds, Piles, headaches, sleeplessness, and many other annoyances that children should not have can usually be traced to constipation.

Many of America's foremost families are never without Syrup Pepsin. Because one can never tell when some member of the family may need it, and all can use it. Thousands endorse it, among them Mrs. M. E. Darling, R. F. D. No. 6, Bellevue, Pa., who writes: "I certainly think Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin saved my baby's life. Marjorie is a bottle baby and I could not get her food to digest, but I found by giving her a small dose of Syrup Pepsin when she had colic it always cured her." Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by Druggists at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter size being bought by those who already know its value, and it contains proportionately more. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. Everyone likes Syrup Pepsin as it is very pleasant to the taste. It is also mild and non-grinding and free from injurious ingredients. If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

Markets

WALL STREET STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co. wired from New York yesterday as follows: While the market today, taken as a whole, was not a broad affair, yet the trade indicated more real interest in standard issues of an investment nature and the market shows more of a tendency to shake away from the influence of low priced inactive issues. The favorable testimony of the United States Steel suit continues to bring about better feeling and with the betterment of general conditions, steel common should show a good response. We still believe in stocks as Steel, Copper, Reading and B. & O. T. acquired on our recessions will show moderate profits. The closing prices were:

Boston Coppers.

Of the market of Boston Paine, Webber & Co. wired yesterday as follows: There was no change in the general situation today. Prices fluctuated only fractionally and everybody is still adopting a waiting position. The New York city bond issue will come out tomorrow and if that is overclouded it should be a good thing for market. Interest on local coppers is still at a low ebb but the next move will surely be upward. The metal is selling freely at 15 1/2 cents and it looks as if this price could be maintained indefinitely. MARKETS

WALL STREET STOCKS.

Paine, Webber & Co. wired from New York yesterday as follows: While the market today, taken as a whole, was not a broad affair, yet the trade indicated more real interest in standard issues of an investment nature and the market shows more of a tendency to shake away from the influence of low priced inactive issues. The favorable testimony of the United States Steel suit continues to bring about better feeling and with the betterment of general conditions, steel common should show a good response. We still believe in stocks as Steel, Copper, Reading and B. & O. T. acquired on our recessions will show moderate profits. The closing prices were:

Boston Coppers.

Of the market of Boston Paine, Webber & Co. wired yesterday as follows: There was no change in the general situation today. Prices fluctuated only fractionally and everybody is still adopting a waiting position. The New York city bond issue will come out tomorrow and if that is overclouded it should be a good thing for market. Interest on local coppers is still at a low ebb but the next move will surely be upward. The metal is selling freely at 15 1/2 cents and it looks as if this price could be maintained indefinitely. WAITED TWENTY-SIX YEARS.

Stanislaw Andrzejeski Files Petition for Second Papers.

After waiting twenty-six years after receiving his first papers of naturalization from the late Gen. Smith, then clerk of Marquette county, Stanislaw Andrzejeski, a subject of the German emperor, yesterday filed a petition for the second papers which will make him a full-fledged citizen of the United States. His case cannot, however, come up until the September term of circuit court, the naturalization list for the May term having been closed several weeks.

Andrzejeski has been a resident of Marquette twenty-eight years, he having come here directly from Baltimore, where he left the ship which brought him from Europe. As his name would indicate, he was a native of that part of the German empire that formerly was a part of Poland. Andrzejeski is a blacksmith by trade. In 1887 he filed his declaration of intention with Mr. Smith, who mistook the applicant, who was none too fluent in his use of English, for a Russian and used the blank on that the applicant forswore allegiance to the czar of Russia. This, however, is but a technical error and will interfere in no way with Andrzejeski's becoming a citizen next fall.

When asked why he had not applied for second papers before, he said that he simply had overlooked this step and had practically forgotten, except that he had no voting privilege, that he was not a citizen. He had likewise almost forgotten that he had his first papers.

INSURE WITH PETER WHITE & CO.

LOCAL ORDINANCES PROHIBITED BY LAW

Motorists Need Conform Only to Statute Speed Regulations, Except in Parks.

City Attorney Brown, in connection with a controverted question, directs attention to the fact that no city, or village, council has any right to pass any ordinance relating to the speed of automobiles within their corporate limits, except as they may regulate speeds in public parks. Otherwise the state law dealing with the subject is supreme and must be enforced by local officials. Section 9 of Act No. 218, public acts of 1909, prohibits the enforcing of local ordinances, and subdivision No. 1, of Section 7 of the same act gives clearly and conclusively the rules of speed that drivers of motor vehicles shall observe under all conditions. However, subdivision No. 3, of Section 7 provides that local authorities may, notwithstanding the provisions of the act, make, enforce and maintain such reasonable ordinances, rules or regulations concerning speed at which motor vehicles may be operated in any park or parkway within a city or incorporated village, but in no case to permit greater speed than is provided in this act and as a condition thereto, such local authorities must, by signs at each entrance of such park along said parkway conspicuously indicate the rate of speed permitted or required and may exclude motor vehicles from any cemetery or grounds used for the burial of the dead.

Negaunee has an ordinance making the speed limit within the city fifteen miles an hour, which is five miles an hour faster than is legal in the business district, although it is the speed allowed by the statute within other portions of cities or villages. In Marquette the police enforce the speed laws as provided in Section 7. Iron River, which is said to limit the speed to six miles an hour, has no power to enforce such a requirement.

Speed Law Is Clear.

Section 7 provides: "No person shall operate a motor vehicle upon a public highway at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and the use of the highway, or so as to endanger the life or limb of any person or the safety of any property; and shall not in any event while upon any highway run at a higher rate of speed than twenty-five miles an hour and within the corporate limits of any city or village the rate of speed shall not be greater than ten miles an hour in the business portion of any such city or village, and not greater than fifteen miles an hour in all other portions thereof, subject, however, to the other provisions of this act. Upon approaching an intersecting highway, a bridge, dam, sharp curve or steep descent, and also in traversing such intersecting highway, bridge, dam, curve or descent a person operating a motor vehicle shall have it under control and operate it at such speed as is reasonable and proper having regard to the traffic then on such highway and the safety of the public."

Section 9, under the heading "local ordinances prohibited," provides: "Except as herein otherwise provided, local authorities shall have no power to pass, enforce or maintain any ordinance, rule or regulation requiring from any owner or chauffeur to whom this act is applicable, any license or permit for the use of the public highways, or excluding any such owner or chauffeur from the free use of such public highways, or in any other way respecting motor vehicles or their speed upon or use of the public highways. No ordinance, rule or regulation contrary to the provisions of this act now in force or hereafter enacted shall have any effect. Provided, however, that the powers given to local authorities to regulate vehicles offered the public for hire and processions, assemblies or parades in the street or public places, and in all ordinances, rules and regulations which may have been or which may be enacted, in pursuance of such power shall remain in full force and effect. Provided further, that local authorities may set aside for a given time a specified public highway for speed contests or races, to be conducted under proper restrictions for the safety of the public and that said authorities may exclude motor vehicles from any cemetery or grounds used for the burial of the dead."

Theatrical

Blanche Bates Tonight.

Marquette theater-goers will this evening see Blanche Bates, one of the leading actresses on the American stage, in a new play, "The Witness for the Defense," by A. E. W. Mason, the prominent English novelist and dramatist, in which she appeared during a successful season at the St. James theater, London. Miss Bates will be supported by a cast of thoroughly capable stagefolk and in whose company she has played since taking up the difficult role of "Stella Balantyne," the heroine of the piece. She will be accompanied to Marquette by her husband, George Creel, former police commissioner of Denver, Colo., but who is not included in the cast. The stage of the opera house has been ordered "cleared" for the production, which indicates that the company carries a large complement of scenery and properties. The setting of the story, opening in picturesque India and closing in the beautiful Sussex country of England, lends itself strikingly to the scene painter's art.

As "Stella Balantyne," Miss Bates will be seen in a role which taxes her strength to the utmost and which is one of the most ambitious efforts to portray with sincerity the sufferings of a sorrowful woman that the actress has ever attempted. On her own admission, the play affords her a "bigger" part than anything in which she has recently appeared.

"The Witness for the Defense" is one of the biggest attractions the Marquette Opera House will have to offer this season and it is so far the only one booked under the management of Charles Frohman, the famous Broadway producer, whose attractions seldom leave the metropolises.

The advance sale would indicate that "The Witness for the Defense" is generally conceded to be one of the banner attractions of the season. While the desirable seats are still to be had, the sale has been excellent.

TYPEWRITING MARVEL AT BUSINESS COLLEGE

Seventeen-Year-Old New York Typist Will Give Exhibition Friday Evening.

P. H. Ross, of the Marquette Business college, has arranged with Master Richard Y. Schleibner, the seventeen-year-old typewriting marvel of New York, to give an exhibition at the school Friday evening. The young man will be accompanied to the city by W. O. Davis, a school man of wide reputation. The two are touring the country, giving exhibitions on one of the standard machines turned out by a well-known manufacturing company. The exhibition will open at 7:30, to continue for over an hour, and will be free to the public and the present and former students of the college.

Master Schleibner is one of the typewriting experts of the country. Though educated to the use of the typewriter by only a six months' school course, he, through private practice, has acquired a speed of 115 words a minute without an error, equalling the best amateur record ever made in competition. The demonstration consists of tests in practice writing, such as are given in all business schools, writing of business letters from copy and from dictation, and exhibitions in speed and accuracy. In addition, a short lecture is given by Mr. Davis on the use of the typewriter and instructions to the students in the acquiring of speed and accuracy in their work.

Master Schleibner illustrates in his work the possibilities for speed in the touch system of typewriting. Blindfolded, the young expert has written from dictation, nearly 115 words a minute, a feat which probably stands unparalleled by even the professional typists. In practice tests it is estimated that the

POINCARÉ OPPOSES KILLING FOR SPORT

President of France Will Join No Hunting Parties During His Term of Office.

Paris, May 18.—President Poincaré is strongly opposed to the killing of animals and birds for sport, and one of his first acts after election was to announce himself a patron of the French society whose purpose is to afford protection to animals. He does not, however, wish to pose as an animal lover merely in name, and he has just made the official announcement that he will not hold a gun in hand during his term of office.

This decision of the president is an entirely personal one. He declares he has no intention of interfering with the sport of others, and that when his duties require him to be present at a presidential hunting party, he will fulfill them.

It is believed, however, that this attitude of M. Poincaré will have a considerable effect on presidential entertaining during the coming years of his administration. One of the chief attractions of France to royal visitors has been the magnificent coverts of the president's country seat at Rambouillet, but out of deference to the opinions of M. Poincaré, it is believed that most royal visitors will refrain from hunting while in France.

BOOMS PUSS PALMER FOR NEXT GOVERNOR

State Senator Curtis Says the Manistee Man Could Solve Republican Problems.

Lansing, May 18.—Gubernatorial booms are springing up like mushrooms in the night, but unusual interest is attached to a movement inaugurated by State Senator Edwin J. Curtis of Flint, the Thirteenth district in the upper house of the legislature, to nominate Insurance Commissioner Calvin A. Palmer of Manistee at the Republican primaries next year.

It is the claim of Senator Curtis that if a fusion of the two factions is to be brought about in Michigan that it is absolutely necessary for the Republicans to nominate for governor a man who is known to have Progressive leanings and he claims that Commissioner Palmer is the logical candidate. Curtis declares that the Bull Moose will not support Frederick C. Martindale or Alex. Groesbeck if the Republicans nominate either of these men.

Praises Palmer's Record.

"I am for Palmer for the nomination as a means of bringing about a settlement of the troubles," said Senator Curtis. "Palmer has as fine a record as an insurance commissioner as was ever made by a public officer. Beyond that he is the logical man for the nomination. He was for Roosevelt and made a speech at the Chicago convention which contained a world of good advice for his party and which if followed would have healed the breach. He did his best and then stayed regular.

"The Progressives will never support Martindale after the MacDonald incident and Chairman Groesbeck of the Republican state central committee is in bad repute as a result of the Bay City convention. There is a chance for a coalition if Palmer is nominated, because the Progressives as well as the Republicans believe in him. I am for Palmer for the Republican nomination for governor."

Senator Curtis ignores the grievance some of the fraternal men have against Palmer because of his active work for the Mobile bill.

Commissioner Palmer appeared to be greatly surprised and considerably pleased when informed of Senator Curtis' statement this morning.

"Of course I don't know what will come of it, but I appreciate the fact that it is an honor for any man to have his name mentioned for the office of governor," said Palmer.

DEATH-SAVING DEVICE FOR MOTOR CARS.

The municipal authorities of Paris have under consideration an ordinance making it obligatory for all motor cars to carry a device by means of which passengers in the interior of their car may stop it instantly without the assistance of the chauffeur.

The proposed device which the technical committee of the prefecture of the Seine have before them for consideration is said to be easily applied to any automobile at a cost of about ten dollars.

Moving Picture Work Nets Fortunes.

The two most celebrated moving picture actors in France are M. Prince, of the historic Varieties theatre, and Max Linder. They are both exceedingly inventive and manage to evolve every week some clever pantomime comedy in which they take the principal parts and stage manage the entire production.

Although both regularly employed in playing leading parts in the best theatres of Paris and the provinces, the earnings of these two actors in royalties from the moving pictures far exceed not only their own considerable salaries from the "legitimate" practice of their art, but probably the profits of most popular actor-managers.

Max Linder alone is understood to have received over $200,000 from his moving picture work in the past three years.

Physicians in Spain have been conducting experiments to determine the relative value of wines as tonics. Portuguese Girl a Royalist Heroine.

A young and beautiful Portuguese woman, Mademoiselle Constance de Gama, is indelible in her efforts to procure better treatment for royalist prisoners in Portugal who suffer had treatment at the hands of the Portuguese government. Court proceedings do not deter her any more than the hardships of navigation deterred her former ancestor, Vasco da Gama, from sailing out to India in the fifteenth century.

The activities of this young woman brought her before a court martial in Lisbon in April on a charge of conspiracy against the government. She was tried and acquitted. She at once resumed her campaign in Oporto, where she has collected $15,000 for the relief of royalist prisoners. As Mademoiselle de Gama journeys through the country she is hailed as a heroine by royalist prisoners, who bow down before her in grateful acknowledgment of her self-sacrifice in their cause. Her courageous persistence is attracting considerable admiration even from officials of the republic.

To the Duchess of Beaufort, another woman devoted to the royalist cause, belongs the distinction of being the principal accuser of the Portuguese government in the matter of their treatment of political prisoners. Material for her revelations, which have caused something of a sensation, was secured during visits which she made in person to the various prisons. The Portuguese government, however, protests against these revelations, as well as the attacks against the republic which have appeared recently in foreign newspapers.

BOOMS PUSS PALMER FOR NEXT GOVERNOR

State Senator Curtis Says the Manistee Man Could Solve Republican Problems.

Lansing, May 18.—Gubernatorial booms are springing up like mushrooms in the night, but unusual interest is attached to a movement inaugurated by State Senator Edwin J. Curtis of Flint, the Thirteenth district in the upper house of the legislature, to nominate Insurance Commissioner Calvin A. Palmer of Manistee at the Republican primaries next year.

It is the claim of Senator Curtis that if a fusion of the two factions is to be brought about in Michigan that it is absolutely necessary for the Republicans to nominate for governor a man who is known to have Progressive leanings and he claims that Commissioner Palmer is the logical candidate. Curtis declares that the Bull Moose will not support Frederick C. Martindale or Alex. Groesbeck if the Republicans nominate either of these men.

Praises Palmer's Record.

"I am for Palmer for the nomination as a means of bringing about a settlement of the troubles," said Senator Curtis. "Palmer has as fine a record as an insurance commissioner as was ever made by a public officer. Beyond that he is the logical man for the nomination. He was for Roosevelt and made a speech at the Chicago convention which contained a world of good advice for his party and which if followed would have healed the breach. He did his best and then stayed regular.

"The Progressives will never support Martindale after the MacDonald incident and Chairman Groesbeck of the Republican state central committee is in bad repute as a result of the Bay City convention. There is a chance for a coalition if Palmer is nominated, because the Progressives as well as the Republicans believe in him. I am for Palmer for the Republican nomination for governor."

Senator Curtis ignores the grievance some of the fraternal men have against Palmer because of his active work for the Mobile bill.

Commissioner Palmer appeared to be greatly surprised and considerably pleased when informed of Senator Curtis' statement this morning.

"Of course I don't know what will come of it, but I appreciate the fact that it is an honor for any man to have his name mentioned for the office of governor," said Palmer.

PRIZE FOR FINEST OPERA.

National Music Federation Offers $10,000 for Work in English.

New York, May 19.—The National Federation of Musical clubs has announced a $10,000 prize competition, open only to composers and librettists who are citizens of the United States for the best grand opera submitted before Aug. 1, 1914.

According to Mrs. Jason Walker of 116 South Michigan avenue, Chicago, chairman of the American music com-

MITTEE OF THE FEDERATION, WHO IS NOW AT THE MARATHA WASHINGTON HOTEL, THE CITIZENS OF LOS ANGELES HAVE ALREADY RAISED THE CASH PRIZE AND PROMISE A $40,000 PRODUCTION OF THE WINNING OPERA AT THE NINTH BIENNIAL FESTIVAL OF THE FEDERATION IN THAT CITY IN THE SPRING OF 1915.

The federation proposes to make the competition a permanent institution, holding a similar contest every four years to encourage American writers to produce native operas. Among the conditions set forth by the federation are the following:

The opera must not exceed three and one-quarter hours, including intermissions, in presentation time. The text must be in English, the scenes and characters may be foreign, but preference will be given an opera with American characters, other things being equal.

Scores must be clearly written in ink and the opera must not have been presented before nor previously published. Scores must be anonymously submitted with identification in a separate sealed envelope. Two-thirds of a jury of recognized experts will be required to vote the award.

The national federation will reserve the right to produce sixty performances of the opera during the first year and after that will release all claims to it.

The other members of the committee are David Bispham, Mrs. Emerson, H. Brush, Mrs. David A. Campbell and Mrs. E. T. Tolby.

MANY WOULD MARRY OREGON WOMAN MAYOR

Miss Clara Cynthia Munson, of Warrentown, Is Buried in With Proposals.

Seattle, Wash., May 18.—Miss Clara Cynthia Munson, mayor of the little town of Warrentown, Oregon, has been deluged with offers of marriage since she assumed the mayoralty chair. Nearly every mail she receives brings proposals from men who evidently think a woman who is clever enough to manage the affairs of a municipality would be a desirable household manager. These proposals are tossed into the waste basket by Mayor Munson, who takes a humorous view of the situation.

The facts woven about the life of Miss Munson are full of historic as well as romantic interest. The first Munson to adopt America as his home country was Captain Thomas Munson, who came from England in 1728, the Mayor of Warrentown being a direct descendant of this founder of the American branch of the family. Her father, J. W. Munson, was an Oregon pioneer of 1833, and for over thirty years was in the lighthouse service. When the weight of years began to grow heavy on his shoulders, his daughter became his able assistant in caring for the light at Point Adams light station.

The mother of this remarkable young woman was a pioneer of 1867, and was one of the few survivors of the Whitman massacre of that same year. This massacre, while not costing as many lives as some other massacres, is considered one of the most atrocious in the history of the west. Mrs. Munson, who is now seventy-two years old, was the first woman to cast the ballot in Clatsop county. It is most fitting that the pioneer woman mayor of the western coast should come from such a history-making family. Even the home of Mayor Munson is only a stone's throw from the historic ground of Lewis and Clark, where they spent the winter of 1805-6, and not far from Astoria, the Astor settlement of 1811.

Warrentown is a prosperous and growing little city near the mouth of the Columbia river, and is within hearing distance of the booming waves of the Pacific ocean.

Although Miss Munson confesses that she has never been an ardent suffragist, this is not her first appearance as a public officeholder. She has been school clerk of her district for the past four years, and for eight years has been assistant postmaster. The ballot was given to the women of Oregon in November, 1912, and the following December the present mayor of Warrentown was elected, although the office was entirely unthought by her.

In speaking of her duties as mayor, Miss Munson says:

"I am trying to give my city an economical and businesslike administration, and I am trying to manage the affairs of Warrentown as faithfully as I manage my own. My council are all men, and so far everything has been pleasant and harmonious. I rather enjoy the office."

It is not an unusual thing for a woman to be elected mayor of a western town. Kansas alone has elected more than twenty-five women to that office. The records of these women have been invariably good, their administrations showing an improved condition in sanitation, schools, sidewalks, etc., while thrift and economy in the management of affairs have usually resulted in a better financial footing in the towns thus presided over.

How do you feel when your breakfast is late?

Kind of grouchy, eh? Well, it is aggravating to have the cook oversleep herself. Then to add insult to injury, the old coal range balks.

The cook, to hurry matters, dumps on an armful of wood, which only serves to fill the house full of smoke, which doesn't improve your temper a little bit. Let us suggest that right now. This very day, you OREER A GAS RANGE. Then your breakfast will never be late, nor will your other meals. A gas range is always ready. It's willing--it's cheap. COPPER WIRE CONDITIONS.

Keen competition has arisen among the copper wire manufacturers who have been obliged to shade prices materially in figuring on new orders. The base price for wire has been 17 cents ever since the metal got back to 15 1/2 cents as compared with 19 cents when copper was at 17 1/2 cents. Base prices, however, do not represent quotations obtainable, as considerable concessions have to be granted. A leading wire manufacturer says: "A decidedly open market exists in copper wire. HAVE YOU A FRIEND AFFLICTED WITH ASTHMA?

Frank S. Archibald, of West Swansea, N. H., writes:—"For the past five years I have suffered with Asthma almost constantly. I was so nervous at times, I could hardly remain in my school. This disease coupled with the nervous strain to which teachers are always subjected made life almost unbearable. During a visit to my home in Hillsdale, N. H., a local druggist, called my attention to your White Wine of Tar Syrup. At first I was skeptical as I had tried almost everything with no permanent help. Finally I took home a bottle and the cure it effected seems almost miraculous to me after my former repeated disappointments. I want to recommend your remedy to everyone who has been afflicted as I was for five years and I shall be glad to reply to enquiries regarding my case."

Camp No. 128, Modern Woodmen of America, will give a card party, lunch and dance in the Anderson hall Thursday evening, May 22. The members of the camp and the members of the Royal Neighbors are invited to be present. Card games will commence at 7:30 o'clock.

A charitable society in Moscow organized a Day of the Red Rose, on which that flower was sold on the streets to aid its funds. In the evening when the boxes were opened one of them was found to contain a check for $250, with a note in which the giver said he gave 20 cents for the roses and the rest for the good looks of the collector.

This was a princess. She therefore summoned the man, who was a merchant, before a judge, as she said she was not selling her good looks. The donor apologized for his mistake, but asked for his money back. The merchant was later ordered to leave Moscow.

The New Unifold Davenport

Finally solves the problem of making a davenport as comfortable for sleeping purposes as a regular open bed and at the same time retaining no features suggestive of the ordinary bed davenport.

We justly claim many points of superiority for our new bed davenport over any style heretofore in use, a few of which are as follows:

- First: The back is stationary. It does not have to be moved from the wall when being converted into a bed.
- Second: Unlike other bed davenports, when not in use as a bed, it possesses the style and outlines of the ordinary straight davenport.
- Third: While in use as a bed the occupant sleeps on a real mattress, not on hard upholstered tufts, as is the case with other bed davenports.
- Fourth: It is the only davenport bed that equally divides the merits of the bed and the davenport, in as much as it is a comfortable and real bed when used for that purpose, and at other times a stylish davenport not even faintly suggesting its double purpose. The springs and mattresses of the bed have nothing to do with the upholstering of the seat and back.

Step in and let us demonstrate the utility of the davenports and view the various patterns in the different grades of upholstering, all marked at Gately's Reasonable Prices.

TEACHERS MEET IN SALT LAKE IN JULY

Michigan Member of Board of Directors of N. E. A. Sends Out Circular Letter.

Superintendent E. E. Scribner, of the Ishpeming public schools, the Michigan director of the National Educational association, has issued a circular letter to school superintendents and teachers in the state directing attention to the fact that the fifty-first annual session of the national organization has been called to meet at Salt Lake City, Utah, July 5 to 12.

Mr. Scribner's letter is as follows: "To School Officers and Teachers of Michigan:

"The fifty-first annual session of the National Educational association is called to meet at Salt Lake City, Utah, July 5 to 12, 1913. The N. E. A. is the largest and most influential educational organization in the world. Its past history is replete with achievements, which have increased the efficiency of the schools of the nation.

"The program for the Salt Lake meeting has been prepared by President Fairchild with much care. It will be of unusual interest both to teachers and school authorities. Its aim is to voice the progressive educational spirit of the period. There are many educational problems pressing now for solution by school authorities. Some of these problems perhaps are more theoretical than practical. It is the part of wisdom, for those who have charge of the training of the future citizenship of the nation, to thoroughly discuss and carefully weigh improvements. Change does not necessarily mean progress. Modern educational theories, and the results obtained from their application in schools where they are being tried, will be brought out and discussed in the program. It, therefore, will be a profitable association for all teachers and school authorities who appreciate the enormous responsibility which present day school problems present to them. Again, the convention will be pleasurable for the tourist and the sightseer. It offers an opportunity for the education which comes from travel. Salt Lake City is peculiarly adapted to the needs of a large convention. Its well-known 'Tabernacle' is one of the best general meeting halls in the world. There are many famous and wonderful regions near the city which should attract those who attend the meeting. Salt Lake City is one of the gateways to the National Yellowstone Park.

"The railroads offer a fare of $43 from Chicago and return. The fare and return from Chicago to the coast, with stopover privileges is $65. The fare one way over the Canadian Pacific, the other by Salt Lake, Los Angeles and San Francisco is about $30. These continental railroads are offering good trains and the best accommodations.

"Michigan headquarters at the Utah Hotel. All Michiganers should register there. Those who desire accommodation in advance may secure them by writing to Superintendent D. H. Christensen of Salt Lake City. The great Wolverine state should have a large representation; first, because it has the best known State University on the continent, and second, because it has a splendidly organized public school system. Teachers and school authorities should attend this meeting not alone for its inspirational educational value but also to maintain the educational prominence of our state among the sister states. Michigan to the front should be the slogan of every teacher and school officer.

"I shall be glad to answer any questions which may come to me relative to stopovers and expenses. The trip can be made in a pleasurable as well as comfortable manner, first class, from anywhere in Michigan and return at an expense not to exceed $150.

"Superintendents will please read this matter to their boards of education.

E. E. SCRIBNER, Ishpeming, N. E. A. Director for Michigan."

STOLE HORSE.

Eli Schatno, of Iron River, is now under arrest at the city jail for stealing a horse from Fred Neault, of Iron River. Schatno drove the animal from Iron River to Ishpeming, arriving here Friday. He drove to the livery of Antoine Dolis, where he sold the horse, carriage and harness for $100. Later in the day he met a man from Iron River, to whom he told the story of his taking the horse. Mr. Neault was notified at once, and he asked the city police to hold Schatno until his arrival in Ishpeming. When taken into custody he had $200 of the $100 received from Dolis, this being returned to the liveryman. Mr. Neault was expected to arrive in the city last evening.

FORMER ISHPEMING GIRL IN LIMELIGHT

Charged With Aiding in Plot to Murder in Chicago, She May Get Prison Term.

Garnett LaFairfield, who attempted to aid her lover to escape from a Chicago court last Tuesday, when she passed him two knives wrapped in a handkerchief, which were later used on court officers by the man and a fellow prisoner, the former well-known Ishpeming girl. The Mining Journal's Associated Press dispatches contained an account of the sensational affair one day last week.

The girl had a bad reputation here. Her parents died when she was young and she was adopted by an Ishpeming family, who did everything in their power to have her lead a good life. She behaved in such a shameful manner, however, that a few years ago she was sent to the reform school. On her return her conduct showed no improvement, and after remaining here for several months she left the city. The last heard of her, prior to her escapade in Chicago, she was in St. Paul.

Not as Timid as She Seems.

Miss LaFairfield is referred to by a Chicago paper as a seemingly timid girl whose brain is believed to have hatched the bloody plot of the prisoners to escape from the court room. The struggle took place immediately following the announcement by the jury that they had found the two men guilty of the charge of robbery.

One of the prisoners was Harry Evans, twenty-four years old, a hold-up man, with no previous criminal record. The other was Peter Jensen, twenty-five years old, on parole from Joliet as a burglar. The girl was arrested on the charge of planning the escape and furnishing the knives with which the stabbing was done. In describing how the girl succeeded in passing the knives to her lover, whom she declared was her brother, the Chicago paper said:

"Things happened swiftly in the courtroom from the moment the assistant state's attorney concluded his argument denouncing the two youths as hold-up men. Each court official unwittingly played the part mapped out for him in the plot.

"The jury filed out and Miss LaFairfield walked up to the judge, said she was a sister of Evans and asked if she might speak to him. She was given the permission. She walked up to the man, placed an arm about his waist, and according to several witnesses, dropped a handkerchief into his pocket. The handkerchief is believed to have contained the knives. Then she kissed him and walked away.

"Fifteen minutes later the jury returned and announced a verdict of guilty. Judge Cooper called the prisoners before him and sentenced them to from one year to life in the penitentiary. The lawyer for the men made the customary motion for a new trial and the judge answered the word that was the signal for action.

"Motion overruled," said Judge Cooper. "That was the signal. Evans drew his knife and made a vicious slash that opened the front of Policeman A. C. Boschulte's throat. Jensen sprang at Deputy Sheriff Joseph Bohobay. Jensen slashed at the deputy's breast while he plunged his other hand into his trouser pocket for the revolver he thought rested there.

Prisoners Dash from Room.

"Both prisoners then dashed for the rear room, where an open window showed the inviting top of the fire escape they had marked. Fred Schwarz, personal bailiff to Judge Cooper, and Benjamin Cramer, were close at their heels.

"A moment later all four men were down on the floor among the benches. A horde of spectators piled on top of them, foreshadowing, in an effort to quell the disturbance. Jensen was on his feet first. He made a final lunge for the window, but saw it was a hopeless move. "I'm done," he shouted, and drew the knife across his throat.

"But in his attempt to end his life he was unsuccessful. Somebody knocked the knife from his hand and he was overpowered. A few minutes later the prisoners were posing for their pictures and boastfully telling of their daring exploit.

"I was going to kill that cop, Boschulte, if I could, because he is a brute," said Evans. "He beat us with his club the night he arrested us last March until we were both so cut up that we couldn't see. He put something in Jensen's wounds to make them smart so that we would talk. Well, my only regret is that I didn't get him."

Large Paving Contract.

Charles C. Butler, a former resident of Iron Mountain, now engaged in the contracting business for the season in the United States, has now put a new device on the market. By placing an extra drum on his log-loading machine, Mr. Raymond has produced a stump puller. One of the machines was recently sold to the Schoolcraft Land Improvement company at Hunt's Spur and placed in successful operation. The machine with five men accomplishes more in one day than a force of fifty men and reduces the cost of clearing from $80 to $10, aided with dynamite, to from $5 to $10 an acre, it is asserted. The Schoolcraft Improvement company owns 5,000 acres about Hunt's Spur and the newly invented machine will be used in clearing the stumps from the tract.

Invents a Stump-Pulling Machine.

O. L. Raymond, of Escanaba, inventor of a log loader in successful use by lumber companies in various parts of the United States, has now put a new device on the market. By placing an extra drum on his log-loading machine, Mr. Raymond has produced a stump puller. One of the machines was recently sold to the Schoolcraft Land Improvement company at Hunt's Spur and placed in successful operation. Menominee Postoffice in Woman's Charge

M. H. Kern, head of the Menominee postoffice for the past fifteen years, has turned over the office to Mrs. August Ludwig, who for ten years was assistant postmaster. Mrs. Ludwig, formerly Margaret M. Root, resigned April 1st as assistant and James R. Evans was appointed in her stead. She is thoroughly conversant with all the details of the work. Mr. Kern has waited patiently for the appointment of his successor, but as this has not been done he asked the postoffice department to be relieved, as he must be in Portland, Ore., this week. Acting on the advice and consent of the postoffice department and with the consent of his bondsmen, Mr. Kern turned over the office to his sister-in-law, when Mr. Kern took charge of the office in 1898, there were employed one assistant, two clerks and five carriers, a total of eight. The receipts in the postal department were $16,000 a year. There are now employed one assistant, five clerks, ten carriers and two janitors, a total of eighteen, and the annual receipts are $35,000. An increase in revenue of 120 per cent in fifteen years speaks well for the growth of Menominee. Mr. Kern resigned on April 10th and since that time the people of the city have been watching for the name of his successor.

Logging at Witbeck.

The Sagola Lumber company suspended operations for the season in the Witbeck district last week. The operations were under the supervision of Patrick Fox and excellent results were obtained. A crew of about seventy men was employed. The input includes about 2,000,000 feet of logs, 12,000 pieces of piling and 200 cords of spruce. The logs were shipped to the Sagola mill, the piling to Chicago and the pulpwood to the paper mill at Niagara. The company has remaining in the district sufficient timber to keep about the same crew of men busy another season. In the same district, Emerson Smith, of Ishpeming, cut 500,000 feet of logs, 17,000 posts and 8,000 poles. The G. W. Britton Cooperage company, a Green Bay concern, cut 1,800,000 feet of logs. The timber of Smith and the Britton company was delivered to the St. Paul road by the Sagola company's logging road.

"Mike" Kern's "Wake."

More than one hundred of the leading businessmen of Menominee were gathered together at the banquet held at the Hotel Menominee last week to do honor to Michael H. Kern, who is leaving the city to locate in Portland, Ore. It was a fitting farewell tribute to an esteemed citizen and man of large affairs, who for the last thirty-five years had made himself felt in the business and social life of the community. The guest of the evening sat facing the rest of the company, with Judge Waite of the municipal court and Judge Flannigan of the circuit court on either side of him. Although the event was "Mike's wake," as his friends termed it, it was an exceedingly happy one. It was easy to discern an underflow of deep regret and sincere sadness over the departure of Mr. Kern from the city, yet the waves of buoyant good fellowship ran high and strong.

Sidnaw Death is Mourned.

The citizens of Sidnaw mourn the death of L. J. Tripp, part owner of the Sidnaw Lumber factory. Mr. Tripp's health had been failing for the last year and about two months ago he had to give up active business life. Since that time he was constantly confined to his bed. He is survived by a wife and two sons, Oliver and Leo, of Sidnaw. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tripp, live at Kalamazoo. The remains were sent to Kalamazoo, where the interment took place. Mr. Tripp was born in Kalamazoo county, was forty-six years of age, and for the last twenty years had been engaged in the handle factory business.

Forest Fire Warnings.

Secretary-Forester, Thomas B. Wyman of the Northern Forest Protective association has to date appointed the following wardens for the season of 1913: H. J. Hotchkiss, Trout Lake; Frank J. Park, Newberry; J. H. Roundtree, Grand Marais; Mike White, Sturgeon; Rius Guidebeck, Munising; C. H. Slater, Au Train; Carl Markley, Winters; Frank W. Osgood, Gwinn; E. F. Sandberg, Ishpeming; Frank E. Kreig, Birch; H. S. Smith, Big Bay; Chas. H. Anderson, L'Anse; John G. Real, Baraga; John Welsh, Greenland; Harry G. Vincent, Ontonagon; Richard Henry, Ontonagon; N. J. Ferguson, Mabelwood; T. R. Browning, Wate-meet; William Ristad, Iron River; W. S. Mickey, Crystal Falls. In addition to the wardens some eighty commissions as special fire wardens have been granted to woods superintendents and lumbermen throughout the peninsula. The warden of the association went on duty May 1 and were immediately confronted by serious conditions. Although some severe losses are of record, they occurred on lands not listed with the Protective association and no losses of consequence have as yet been reported from lands patrolled by this organization. The work of the association is well in hand and every thing feasible is being done to protect Vows Taken by Escanaba Couple.

In the presence of only immediate friends and relatives, Miss Margaret Corcoran, daughter of Mrs. Anna Corcoran of Escanaba, was married at St. Patrick's church in that city to Charles Lefebvre, Jr., Rev. Father Corcoran of Iron Mountain, brother of the bride, officiated, assisted by Rev. Father Buchholtz of Negaunee and Rev. Father Feldhaus, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rosetta Corcoran, as maid of honor, and John McDonald attended the bridegroom. The bride wore a gown of white serge, a hat of white and a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid's gown was of white embroidered silk and her corsage bouquet of lavender sweet peas. Following the service at the church, the members of the party went to the home of the mother of the bride, where an elaborate wedding breakfast was served. At 11 o'clock the couple left for an extended wedding trip through the East, after which they will return to Escanaba to make their home. In addition to Rev. Father Corcoran of Iron Mountain, persons from outside points in the city to attend the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hogan and son, of Amery, Wis.; Miss Margaret Carpenter, of Marquette; Lawrence Corcoran, of Marquette; and Miss Louise Rossen, of Iron Mountain.

COLORED LABORERS MAY CAUSE TROUBLE

Great Northern Co. Has Brought First Lot of Negroes Into the Minnesota Field.

The Great Northern Railway company has recently imported negroes into the Mesaba field, and, according to The Hibbing Tribune, trouble may result in the Kelly Lake district, where they are employed. The Tribune says:

"To the most cosmopolitan laboring element of any industrial section of the United States, the Mesaba iron range of Minnesota, today is added a new people—the American negro.

Twenty-three negroes, hired, so far as the best information obtainable extends, by the Great Northern railway through a St. Louis labor agency, arrived at Kelly Lake last night in a special car attached to the Duluth passenger train. Today they are making habitable boarding cars of the Great Northern Railway company at Kelly Lake, and tomorrow, it is reported, all will be put to work in the yards of the Great Assailant Still Missing.

Dominic Pattrosso, wanted at Iron Mountain on a charge of making a murderous attack upon John Amicangeli, is still at large, despite extensive advertising. He has not been seen since the moment he disappeared over the Chapin hill, as near as the officers can learn. Amicangeli is still in the hospital, but his recovery from the knife wounds inflicted is only a question of time.

Menominee Parsonage Sold.

The Presbyterian Manse near the Northwestern tracks on Ogden avenue at Menominee has been sold to Roy Smead, who will take possession about June 15. The property has been owned by the Presbyterian congregation for over twenty years, and was first occupied by the Rev. A. W. Bill. It is planned to build a new manse, and there is some talk of erecting a residence on the ground on Parmenter street directly back of the church.

Prisoner Arrested Himself.

Frank Trudo, who pleaded guilty to larceny, has been sentenced at the Soo to serve from one to five years in Ionia. This is the fourth trip that Trudo has made from the Soo to Ionia. Trudo, who had been working on the canal excavations and on the streets, says the Soo News broke into a shed and took some clothes which were hanging there. A number of chickens in a nearby hen coop were also appropriated. He sent the chickens, but kept the clothes. In a day or two the clothes were stolen from Trudo. Seeking justice for such an outrage, he hurried to the police station, where he described the goods and asked for assistance. The police recognized the clothes by the description as some that were reported stolen a few days before. "You appear here at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and we will have your clothes," said Chief Swart to Trudo. Trudo appeared and was arrested. While out on parole from Ionia several years ago he was arrested and sent back to that place.

Ex-Sheriff Geo. Moody Is Dead.

Geo. Moody, one of the best known citizens at Manistique, died late last week, after a long and painful illness. About two and one-half years ago Mr. Moody was stricken with paralysis, and while he temporarily recovered and was enabled to resume his work as camp clerk, his condition soon became serious. He was taken to the hospital at Ann Arbor, where he took treatment for several months. He was taken back to the city in December of last year, and since then his death had been expected at any time. The deceased was born in Elmira, N. Y., in 1858. He went to Manistique thirty-three years ago. He was engaged in business at one time and later followed the avocation of

RAY CONSOLIDATED.

Stockholders of Ray Consolidated can find little to complain of in the quarterly report of the company for the first quarter of 1913. It is, almost without exception, the best ever issued by the company and reports excellent progress in all departments. It is true that in some items, namely, in the cost per pound of copper produced, which increased to 3.5696 cents per pound as against 2.3774 in the last quarter of 1912, and in the recovery at the mill which declined to 68.265 per cent from 68.102 per cent in the previous quarter, that the showing might have been better, but taken as a whole the document was quite satisfactory. The net earnings of $88,223 were the largest ever reported and compared with $38,826 for the previous quarter, an increase of about $49,400. Taken on a per annum basis the earnings for the first quarter of 1913 were equal to $170 per share as against $147 per share on the basis of the last previous quarter's operations. Seven sections of the mill were in operation at the end of the quarter, the last section being in commission two months out of the three reported on. The eighth section is expected to be completed during the coming quarter.

QUINCY.

The future was considered when Quincy directors decided to pay but $1.25 a share from first quarter's earnings against $1.50 three months ago. Smaller production, higher costs and a lower price received for its copper were factors. An average of about 17 1/2 cents was received for last quarter of the 1912 production, whereas during the first three months of this year the average was close to 15 1/2 cents. Comparatively little January copper was marketed at the top price before the break. Higher costs than a year ago may prevail at Quincy. One item tending toward this direction will be the employers' liability law, to cover which, Quincy charges certain sums monthly which will equal about one-fourth of a cent a pound of production. A 12-cent cost for 1913 is not improbable. There will fall due on July 1 the final payment of $150,000 for land acquired from the St. Mary's Land company, thereby completing a transaction totaling $600,000, all paid from earnings, in addition to which dividends have been maintained.

NOTES OF MINING NEWS.

Quincy has established a new low record since 1911, when it sold at 55. The high record is 190, the low 10.

Calumet & Arizona will show in the first of its two great blast furnaces at new smelter at Douglas on June 2.

The reduction in Quincy dividend rate from a 6 to a 5 per cent basis came as a surprise and was reflected by a decline in the stock.

May 1 the Isle Royale company had cash and copper on hand (all copper since sold at 15 1/2 c.) amounting to a little under $450,000. This is after $175,000 recently paid out on account of dividend and $25,000 paid out on account of the Montezuma purchase. By July 1 the company should have cash or cash equivalent of $300,000, with the $50,000 due the City of Chicago the only current indebtedness. The company would need to be justified in declaring another $1 dividend as of July 1, at least so far as its cash position is a factor in the matter. The previous disbursement of $1 labeled "a dividend" was paid March 31.

Diamond drilling at No. 29 hole at the Mayflower property started two months ago, has been finished at a depth of 1,203 feet without important development. This hole is located about twenty-feet to the west of No. 28 hole, which was abandoned last March owing to the breaking off of a section of the casing pipe which could not be recovered. No. 30 hole, which is the farthest north on the property and located about 350 feet from No. 29 hole, has reached a depth of 686 feet. This hole was started about five weeks ago. A new hole—No. 31—has just been started at a point about 300 feet west of No. 29 hole.

There has been no change in the Mass labor situation. Not a wheel has turned at mine or mill since the shutdown three weeks ago and there are no indications of an early change in attitude either on the part of the mine officials or the men. Mass, like every other Lake Superior mine, is prepared to fight to a finish any attempt to force recognition of unions and as long as the men stand out for recognition there can be no settlement. It is the general opinion that when the shutdown has continued a while longer the men will see the hopelessness of their endeavor, and be willing to go back under the conditions. A few have left the district and others have obtained other employment, but the large majority are still at the location and idle. There has been no sign of disorders.

The future was considered when Quincy directors decided to pay but $1.25 a share from first quarter's earnings against $1.50 three months ago. Smaller production, higher costs and a lower price received for its copper were factors. An average of about 17 1/2 cents was received for last quarter of the 1912 production, whereas during the first three months of this year the average was close to 15 1/2 cents. Comparatively little January copper was marketed at the top price before the break. Higher costs than a year ago may prevail at Quincy. One item tending toward this direction will be the employers' liability law, to cover which, Quincy charges certain sums monthly which will equal about one-fourth of a cent a pound of production. A 12-cent cost for 1913 is not improbable. There will fall due on July 1 the final payment of $150,000 for land acquired from the St. Mary's Land company, thereby completing a transaction totaling $600,000, all paid from earnings, in addition to which dividends have been maintained.

NOTES OF MINING NEWS.

Quincy has established a new low record since 1911, when it sold at 55. The high record is 190, the low 10.

Calumet & Arizona will show in the first of its two great blast furnaces at new smelter at Douglas on June 2.

The reduction in Quincy dividend rate from a 6 to a 5 per cent basis came as a surprise and was reflected by a decline in the stock.

May 1 the Isle Royale company had cash and copper on hand (all copper since sold at 15 1/2 c.) amounting to a little under $450,000. This is after $175,000 recently paid out on account of dividend and $25,000 paid out on account of the Montezuma purchase. By July 1 the company should have cash or cash equivalent of $300,000, with the $50,000 due the City of Chicago the only current indebtedness. The company would need to be justified in declaring another $1 dividend as of July 1, at least so far as its cash position is a factor in the matter. The previous disbursement of $1 labeled "a dividend" was paid March 31.

Diamond drilling at No. 29 hole at the Mayflower property started two months ago, has been finished at a depth of 1,203 feet without important development. This hole is located about twenty-feet to the west of No. 28 hole, which was abandoned last March owing to the breaking off of a section of the casing pipe which could not be recovered. No. 30 hole, which is the farthest north on the property and located about 350 feet from No. 29 hole, has reached a depth of 686 feet. This hole was started about five weeks ago. A new hole—No. 31—has just been started at a point about 300 feet west of No. 29 hole.

There has been no change in the Mass labor situation. Not a wheel has turned at mine or mill since the shutdown three weeks ago and there are no indications of an early change in attitude either on the part of the mine officials or the men. Mass, like every other Lake Superior mine, is prepared to fight to a finish any attempt to force recognition of unions and as long as the men stand out for recognition there can be no settlement. It is the general opinion that when the shutdown has continued a while longer the men will see the hopelessness of their endeavor, and be willing to go back under the conditions. A few have left the district and others have obtained other employment, but the large majority are still at the location and idle. There has been no sign of disorders.

ELECTRIC LINE TO LOCATION.

Electricians last week started work on the transmission line to the Mackinac and Gardner mines and the new location, situated halfway between the two properties. The distance from Princeton to the mines is approximately five miles, requiring about forty miles of wire. Ten miles of telephone wire is also to be strung.

Work was commenced yesterday morning at the sub-station at Princeton, where two new transformers will be installed. These will step the current up from 2300 volts to 6600 volts, at which voltage it will be carried to the sub-station, which will be built at the mines. Two transformers at this point will step the current down to 2300 volts again, for use at the mines and location. With a full crew of men at work, the line will require about two months for completion. As linemen are scarce now, it may not be completed within that time.

LOOKS FAR FOR PLANS.

Navy Department Asks Diplomats to Hunt for Stolen Papers.

Washington, May 19.—Every diplomat in the service of the United States has been asked to use the secret agencies at their command to find the two sets of plans that disclosed the methods of firing the twelve-inch gun broadside of the super dreadnought Pennsylvania. As far as the officials of the department are concerned they profess to know no more about the person or persons who stole the important plans than they did the day of the discovery of their disappearance.

It is admitted the plans could be of no possible value to anyone other than a foreign government, although it is pointed out that such a government need not necessarily be in any controversy with the United States at the present time.

The point is made that it would have been next to impossible for any agent of such a government to know the exact spot in which fell the greatest secret this government wished to guard without the aid of someone familiar with the department building and the arrangements of the room from which the plans were stolen.

The secret theory is that possibly some employe of the government tempted by the price offered, stole the plans and delivered them or a copy to the representative of the government interested.

OLD MEN TO BE LET OUT OF ARMY.

Washington, May 19.—Young officers in the navy today were discussing with mixed emotions the announcement by Secretary Daniels that hereafter the department would frown upon the retirement of juniors from the service. In the past, young officers retiring had done so with a rank higher than the grade they occupied. This is to be stopped. The statement that caused the flurry follows:

"While the secretary of the navy has not issued any general orders restricting the applications for voluntary retirement under the personnel act of 1899, yet it is well understood that his attitude and the probable attitude of the administration is in opposition to allowing the retirement of the younger officers who are in health and have a number of years of useful service on the active list before them."

Secretary Daniels, it is well known, looks with extreme disfavor on the retirement of young officers before they have made through service some returns for the education and training received at the hands of the government.

Under the new "packing" system by which senior officers will be retired much more rapidly than in the past, the junior officers will have less complaint on account of slowness of promotion.

Playmates Save Child's Life.

The little daughter of Chas. Swingle of Manistique came near drowning while playing alongside the river near the Goodwillie plant. The girl was standing on the bank when she suddenly took a step forward with the result that she fell into the water. Her little comrades succeeded in catching hold of her skirt and pulled and tugged at it until they managed to get her on shore. She was then unconscious and those who went to the rescue worked a long time before they could restore her.

New School for Witch Lake.

The new schoolhouse at Witch Lake will be erected on the west side of the county road south of the depot. Charles A. Dean has donated an acre for school grounds. The new structure will be of frame construction, with ground dimensions about 30 by 40 feet. It will be but a single story in height, with a basement extending under the whole of the building. The basement will be adapted for use for manual training and domestic science. The home attendance at the school now averages twenty, and between six and ten Whitebeck children also receive instruction, making the trip morning and afternoon between the two places by St. Paul trains on transportation furnished by the district.

School Children to Be Gardeners.

The busiest point in Escanaba last Friday afternoon was the school garden site on the south shore, where three hundred pupils of the public schools gathered, armed with hoes, rakes and shovels, and began the work of preparing plots for seeding. The site had been plowed and harrowed. To each school a plot forty feet square was staked out and labeled and the big crowd of boys and girls demonstrated their interest in the movement by beginning the preliminary work with enthusiasm. Both flowers and vegetables will be grown on each of the plots and some of the schools have laid out elaborate designs to be carried out in flowers of different colors. Some will have borders about the square; others will have a diamond-shaped design, while others will offer a huge letter of flowers and plants, indicative of the school to which the plot belongs. The work of seeding will not be started until this week, but each plot is to be perfectly prepared and the ground thoroughly worked before that time.

Car Is Smashed by Joy Riders.

While attempting to make a flying turn, a chauffeur employed by Kurt Bros. and driving Moses Kurtz's car, went into the curb at Escanaba, badly crippling the auto. Both wheels on the right side were broken off and other damage was done. The young man had gone into the garage in the evening, taken the car out and invited a number of his friends for a ride; then came the smash-up. Fearing arrest, the youngster left the car in the street and at last accounts had not been seen since.

Prosecutor's Good Record.

An enviable record has been made by Prosecuting Attorney Thomas J. Green of Chippewa county in the present term of circuit court. Acting as prosecutor for the people in fifteen cases, he procured convictions in eleven. In two cases the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, while two cases were continued until the next term of court. The following were found guilty and sentence will be placed on them: Mike Daleach, violation of the liquor law; Ed Kerwin and Kate Lewis, Arthur Buchanan, William Waddell, Lawrence Fleming, Frank Shagwanbe, Nick Pohora, Charles Grinnell, William Hale and Ruth Hale, William O'Connors and Frank Trudo.

Former Sweetheart Loses Case.

The judgment of $50 given Elizabeth Dubcek against Donald McKinnon in justice court at Menominee has been reversed by Judge R. C. Flauntigan in circuit court. The young woman is a former sweetheart of McKinnon and is said to have been engaged to him, during which time he gave her a number of gifts, including silk stockings and other wearing apparel. Later his love grew cold and he demanded his presents back. She refused and he had a writ of replevin served on her. When the officer called for the goods the girl claimed she was wearing them and the officer was obliged to wait while she disrobed. In justice court, the jury found for the young woman and, besides giving her possession of the clothes, returned a verdict of $50 in her favor. McKinnon appealed the case.

PENINSULA DIVISION ENGINES IMPROVED

Those Pulling Passenger and Freight Trains to Have Electric Headlights.

That the management of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company intends to improve its rolling stock on the Peninsula division is evident from the fact that some of the new locomotives, the first of which was received last week, are to be used in the passenger service. The engines that are now pulling passenger trains will be used for freight traffic. The company will also equip all of the locomotives on this division, with the exception of the switch engines, with electric headlights.

The latter improvement is required by the interstate commerce commission, which recently held that all passenger and freight locomotives engaged in interstate commerce must be so equipped. Mechanics are now employed in the Escanaba shops installing the electrical equipments. Generators, have already been placed on twenty of the locomotives.

Many of other railway companies are equipping their engines with electric lights, in compliance with the commission's ruling, and as a result the demand for apparatus is so great that the manufacturers are behind their orders. The Chicago & Northwestern company has already received thirty-six generators at the Escanaba shops.

The heads are to be equipped with both arc and incandescent lights, the arcs to be used on the road and the incandescent when the train is pulling into or leaving terminals. The cabs of the locomotives will also be electrically lighted.

HIGH FINANCE AT CITY HALL

With Lots of Room in the City's $50,000 Lemon for Its Purposes, Light and Power Commission Is Allowed to Close $6,000 Lease for Downtown Quarters.

It and Water Board Have Paid No Rentals for Over Twenty Years Although They Have Been in Receipt of Substantial Incomes—Taxpayers Foot Bill.

That there is plenty of floor space at the city hall to provide the light and power commission with an ample display and stock room and that at any of these several years past the commission would have been glad to enter into an agreement to pay the city rent for the quarters it has been using in the city building, was the interesting statement made yesterday morning by Superintendent Retaille, as he looked over the commission's prospective quarters in the Bacon block, in company with a newspaper man.

What makes this statement interesting is the fact that the commission has entered into a five years' lease for its new quarters at $1,200 a year, or a total rental of $6,000. And while the light and power commission is paying $1,200 annually for rent in a downtown building, the city will be paying $2,250 annual interest on the $50,000 city hall bonds that are still outstanding; they not having been reduced a dollar since the city hall was built. The rent for light and power commission will pay in ten years, if the present lease is renewed for a similar period, would be sufficient, if paid to the city, to discharge over 25 per cent. of the outstanding bonds.

Superintendent Retaille passed the buck for this condition of affairs up to the council. "We could have done very nicely at the city hall," he said, "if we could have had the band room, which is little used, for a display and stock room. This would have given us shop quarters in the basement. In any event, a little remodeling would have fixed us out in fine shape. We were loath to leave the city hall, but couldn't get the room we wanted there, even though we were willing to pay for it. We have been willing to pay rent at any time these several years. The subject of rental has been on occasions, but has never come to anything. Needing more room and not being able to come to any agreement about the city hall, the commission finally decided to close a downtown lease, although some of the members were loath to do so."

Taxpayers Are Stung.

The peculiar business administration of the city hall that has resulted in the withdrawal of a large share of the activities of the light and power commission from the structure—which will leave it about two-thirds unleased—stings the taxpayers. Ever since the erection of the city hall both the light and power commission and the fire and water board have been quartered there, and they have never paid a dollar's rent. Both these boards have been operating under special acts of the legislature. They do business to a large extent with non-taxpayers, and both have for many years shown substantial earnings, the light and power commission in particular having made money hand over fist.

Up to the Council.

The responsibility for this condition is largely up to the council which, through its appointive officers, is the custodian of the city hall and determines how it shall be managed. As stated, the two boards concerned have been willing to pay fair rentals for the office and stock room, but in view of the fact that the light and power commission has been due to the failure of the council to arrange a schedule of rents and put it in effect by resolution. It has been a leak that has compelled the levying of many thousands of dollars in extra taxes, and that, in view of the fact that the light and power commission has not taken the most important part of its operations away from the city hall, will cost the taxpayers tens of thousands of dollars in lost income.

As operated, the city hall has been a huge lemon, but with proper administration by the council it would have been but little of a burden on the city. Where the council has fallen down has been in not assessing proper charges against the two boards referred to.

When the light and power commission has finished its moving, which was started yesterday, not more than a third of the big structure will be used steadily. All that part of the basement now used by the commission will be vacated; and outside of the fire room the city lock-up will be the only part of the basement in use. On the first floor the recorder's, controller's and treasurer's office are in constant use, and the cramped office quarters of the light and power commission and fire and water board. The band room, so-called, which could easily have been remodeled into a display and stock room for the light and power commission, according to Superintendent Retaille, is only used for elections, band practice and occasional small meetings

Some Interesting Business, However, Was Transacted—Cummings Reports Favorably on Proposed Additional Extension of Presque Isle Avenue Sewer.

Aldermen Resolve to Assess Normal Property for Street and Sewer Improvements—The Policy of the State Is to Pay for These—Right-of-Way Troubles.

At a brief but interesting adjourned regular session of the common council, held last evening, the matter of assessing the Normal school property for street and sewer improvements came up for discussion and the city attorney's salary was raised from $600 to $900 a year. The aldermen also talked over matters pertaining to the right-of-way for the eastern trunk sewer and placed on file a report of Charles Cummings favoring an additional extension of the Presque Isle avenue sewer to the cemetery. This project aims to exclude the bulk of the Palmer addition sewage from the North Marquette sewer and to take the water from the cemetery to the latter improvement.

Mr. Cummings' report follows: "Referring to an engineer's report adopted Sept. 3, 1912, in which the extension of the Presque Isle avenue sewer from the flush tank at the south end, to the present manhole in Specular street was recommended, I would further report in favor of the additional extension to Park street, for the purpose of excluding the bulk of the sewage of the Palmer addition from the North Marquette sewer and taking only the water from the cemetery to the latter improvement. "I would also recommend that the pipe line laid be twelve inches in diameter, to furnish an adequate storm sewer for the protection of the streets from flooding; the flow of water in the sewer to be so controlled that an excess can be diverted from the flush tank to the eastern trunk sewer."

State Will Pay Assessments.

City Attorney George P. Brown reported that he had interviewed President J. H. Kaye, of the Northern State Normal school, relative to the assessment of the state property for sewer and street improvements. Mr. Kaye told Mr. Brown that it was the policy of the state to pay such assessments, but because of the largely increased budget necessary to cover the cost of the proposed new building, for which the school succeeded in getting an appropriation of $100,000 this year, no appropriation was asked at the last session of the legislature to cover the sewer assessments. The question whether the state could be assessed for its share of the cost of the sewer on property on Presque Isle avenue and Waldo street, facing the state property, would have to be doubled, a condition which is considered unjust. President Kaye recommended that the council assess the state property, but stated that payment would be held until the fall of next year, when the assessment would be included in the school's budget. Mr. Kaye promised to do his part in having the assessment approved. When it was learned that the money for the Waldo street improvement was on hand and ready to be collected, the council at once authorized Controller Primeau to assess state property for the proposed new improvements. The controller insisted that a formal resolution to this effect be passed, that in the future the roll would still be legal. The aldermen believed that while virtually state property is unassessable, still to do this is the only means of dividing the cost, inasmuch as the improvements the assessments will cover, will ultimately benefit the school.

Right-of-Way Troubles.

Mr. Brown reported that the city engineers had obtained the necessity of the council's paying for right-of-way for the eastern trunk sewer on certain pieces of property, the roll would still be legal. The aldermen believed that while virtually state property is unassessable, still to do this is the only means of dividing the cost, inasmuch as the improvements the assessments will cover, will ultimately benefit the school.

Chocolay Getting Attention.

Mr. Mosher has been giving the Chocolay river considerable attention of late and finds that not only has the quarter been arranged yesterday, but that some of whom he already has ascertained, have been dynamiting the stream. He has not yet developed a case against any of the alleged dynamiters, but he gives warning that as soon as he makes an arrest he will recommend a jail sentence as well as a fine. For those who have been using dynamite have done so with full knowledge that they were violating the law and he believes they are men whose circumstances could offer no excuse for them. By the use of dynamite trout as well as suckers are indiscriminately killed, as well as all living things in the portions of the river that are blasted. The violators are not only taking trout illegally, but are destroying feeding grounds and killing thousands of small fish and fry. The dynamiter operates early in the morning or late at night and after setting off a charge of lead with large screw nets the dead fish which float downstream. Evidence at several places along the banks of the river above Mangum indicate that the fishermen clean the fish and leave the offal, which is a means of pollution and contamination, lying along the shore in absolute contravention of the law, which provides that offal and refuse shall be buried or otherwise disposed of at a safe distance from the stream. In places Mr. Mosher has found the blasted carcasses of fish, too badly mutilated to be used, left rotting on the banks.

Caught in the Act.

The two Nobergs and the two Larsons were caught by Mr. Mosher at Joslyn's clearing, about one and one-half miles back of the Green Garden church. In the clearing there are a deserted log hut and two barns. Mr. Mosher went there at an early hour Sunday morning. After a short wait he heard a wagon approaching and hid himself in the garret of the house, climbing through a square opening above the kitchen stove. The four men entered the hut, deposited their cooking stoves and packs and stables their horses. When they went to the river Mr. Mosher followed them, fish-pole and reel ostentatiously displayed. As he approached, the men were working on the net and he engaged a fifth man, who was in no way a party to the act, in conversation. The party took him to an early morning fisherman and continued their labors. Finally they hoisted the net. After removing the suckers

City Attorney's Salary.

Alderman Schauer introduced a resolution rescinding the action of the council in confirming the appointment of George P. Brown as city attorney, which was unanimously adopted, after which a discussion ensued as to how much of an increase in salary should be allowed in this office. Mr. Brown has been receiving $600 a year and asked that his salary be increased 50 per cent. Alderman Schauer introduced a resolution granting the increase, but before it could be seconded Alderman Donovan proposed an amendment making the salary $800, the same as that paid the city attorney of the Soo and Escanaba and which he declared to be the usual salary for this office. His motion was seconded.

Alderman Mellin urged that if the council would not give Mr. Brown $900, that he be paid at least as much as the policemen, and offered a resolution making the salary $70 a month. Alderman Schauer said he had talked with various taxpayers relative to the increase, but the city attorney's salary and had found the majority satisfied that it should be increased to $800 and believed that amount should be settled upon.

A vote on Alderman Donovan's amendment resulted four to five in favor, but as the legal majority against it was too small the motion was killed and Alderman Schauer's original resolution to increase the salary to $900 was unanimously carried. Thereupon a third resolution to confirm immediately the appointment of Mr. Brown as city attorney was read by Mr. Schauer and the council again voted unanimously in favor.

Mr. Brown has served for a number of years as a thoroughly efficient and painstaking city attorney and his request for an increase in salary was justified by the fact that the next year or so will produce a large girth of work which will require that he give a larger amount of his time to municipal affairs; the proposed revision of the city charter being the principal cause.

Other Business.

The petition of Joseph Fay and others for an arched light at the corner of Main and Lake streets was read and referred to the committee on parks, cemeteries, streets and sewers.

A. H. Palmer and six other property owners of the vicinity, petitioned the council to have Cedar street, produced between Hewitt avenue and Crescent streets graded in anticipation of the laying of sewer and water pipe and other improvements. The matter was referred to the committee on parks, cemeteries, streets and sewers.

A petition signed by Martin Rustenhoven and eight others, asking that the concrete sidewalk on the east side of Presque Isle avenue be continued to the end of that thoroughfare, was also referred to the committee.

The special committee appointed to consider playground projects with the Commercial club committee and the school board asked for further time, which request was granted.
