

PEACE PLAN OF W. J. BRYAN IS FINDING FAVOR

Eight Countries, It Is Stated by the Secretary, Have Accepted the Scheme in Principle—Four Great European Powers Among Those Replying.

Sympathy With the Project and an Expression of Willingness to Consider Details Are Given as the Attitude of Still Others of the Leading Nations.

Washington, May 30.—Secretary Bryan signalled the day commemorating the country's heroes dead by announcing that eight nations have responded favorably to his peace plan and have asked that suggestions be submitted in regard to details.

Me. Bryan discussed the progress of his plan in the following statement: "It will be remembered that about a month ago a plan was by the president's direction submitted to all the governments having representatives here, the plan being, in substance, as follows:

Agreements Proposed. "First. That the United States is prepared to enter into an agreement with each and every country severally providing for the investigation of all disputes of every character and nature by an international commission, the contracting parties agreeing not to declare war or begin hostilities until such investigation is made and a report submitted."

"Second. The investigation to be conducted as a matter of course upon the initiative of the commission, without the formality of a request from either party."

"Third. The report to be submitted within a given time, the time to be agreed upon."

"Fourth. The parties to receive the right to act independently on the subject matter in dispute after the report is submitted."

"Fifth. The composition of the commission was a matter of detail to be agreed upon by the contracting parties; the time in which the report should be submitted also was a matter of detail to be agreed upon by the contracting parties."

"Sixth. Eight nations have up to this time responded favorably to these principles, asking that suggestions be submitted in regard to the details, others replying that the proposition is received sympathetically and expressing a willingness to consider details."

GOVERNMENT IS TESTING AN INVENTION DESIGNED TO STOP ROOSTER CROWING.

Washington, May 30.—Roosters, guaranteed absolutely soundless, and which will solve the problem of light sleeping city dwellers annoyed early in the morning by the neighbors' loudly crowing cocks, are now the subject of experiment by experts of the department of agriculture. A correspondent who discovered the process of eliminating the cock's crow set the experts at work. The simple and painless operation of cutting one of the rooster's vocal cords does the trick, he said. The rooster can still lift his lungs and go through all the evolutions which accompany a hearty crow, but can make no sound.

His parachute failed to work when he made his leap.

Tacoma, Wash., May 30.—Japan does not want war with the United States, according to Y. Yamaguchi, a member of the Japanese parliament, who arrived here today. "One-half of all the Japanese trade is with the United States," he said. "On this account the Japanese merchants and the majority of the people generally do not care to make trouble with their best customer and friend."

"Of course there are some jingoes in Japan, the same, I suppose, as there are in this country. The Japanese nation as a whole, however, is not influenced by them."

PRESIDENT ENJOYS ALL-DAY HOLIDAY

With Family He Covers 116 Miles of Maryland Roads in an Automobile.

Washington, May 30.—President Wilson returned to the White House tonight at 7 o'clock, after an all-day holiday, spent with his family traveling in Maryland in a motorcar. The party covered 116 miles.

At Baltimore the president and his party, who came entirely unannounced, first attempted to get their meals at a North Charles street restaurant, but were unable to obtain service through lack of accommodations, the place being crowded with customers. The party had dinner at a hotel.

The proprietress of the restaurant was still fluttering with chagrin and embarrassment half an hour later. "Yes, I knew that it was the president and his party in the auto," she said, "but what could I do? The room was packed. We were full, and before any of the tables could be cleared they had left."

INVESTIGATING TEXT BOOKS IS NOVEL DUTY OF UTAH'S POOR FOOD COMMISSIONERS.

Salt Lake City, Utah, May 30.—What text books on American civics government can be digested most easily by Utah public school children? This important question is being investigated by the state pure food commissioners. If a green or yellow-covered book is more easily assimilated than a red one, the text book in Utah's schools may be changed.

The investigation is the result of the illness of several school children in Jan county. It was disclosed that all had attempted to imbibe knowledge literally by chewing on the corners of their civics government.

SENATE TO REDUCE DUTY ON DIAMONDS

Importers Show That Rates of the Underwood Bill Would Foster Smuggling.

Washington, May 30.—Diamond importers scored a victory before the senate today when the committee in charge of the sundries schedule of the tariff bill, the committee having decided upon a rejection in the proposed Underwood rate of 20 per cent. ad valorem on cut diamonds. The present 10 per cent. rate may be restored, but it seems more probable that 15 per cent. rate eventually will be determined upon.

When importer after importer appeared before the committee and declared that any rate over 10 per cent. on cut diamonds would increase and greatly encourage smuggling, the members of the committee began to investigate their statements. Finally, when large importers insisted that a high rate on cut diamonds, assessed with a view of obtaining revenue on a luxury would force some importers to ally themselves with the smugglers, the committee took the matter up with the customs officials.

Members of the diamond trade tariff league of New York had declared that a 20 per cent. duty would force dealers to buy diamonds from smugglers despite their unwillingness to do so, and that in many cases they would buy smuggled goods unknowingly.

MR. TAFT REFERS TO CUBA AS OUR "FOSTER CHILD"

As She Errs, the United States Must Bear With and Aid Her, He Says in an Address at New York—Our Duty Is to Maintain Her Independence.

Former President Is a Speaker at the Dedication of the Monument Erected to the Memory of the Maine Dead, a 40-Foot Pylon in Central Park.

New York, May 30.—In memory of the two hundred and sixty-seven officers and men who were lost with the battleship Maine in Havana harbor fifteen years ago, the national Maine monument was dedicated here today. From a dozen American warships, a salute echoed as there was swept aside the veil that revealed the country's tribute—a pylon, forty feet high, that stands in Central Park.

Noted citizens spoke words of praise for the dead heroes of the war with Spain. Former President Taft, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, the governors of Maine and New York, representatives of the Cuban republic and others took part in the exercises. A military parade preceded the ceremonies at the monument.

Mr. Taft paid tribute to the men of the Maine, referring to Cuba, the speaker declared the island republic is "our foster child. As she errs in the use of her national life, the United States must bear with her and aid her," he said, adding:

"We must hold to a persistent purpose to maintain her as an independent and self-respecting republic. This monument should typify in its enduring character the permanency of the new government which it is our duty to preserve."

Sigsbee's Bathtub on Exhibition. Findlay, O., May 30.—No unveiling ceremony today was accorded the bathtub which was recovered from Admiral Sigsbee's quarters in the battleship Maine and awarded to the citizens of this city. Lack of funds has prevented the erection of a pedestal in the square and so today the tub was taken from its nook in the comfortable cellar and placed on the steps of the warhorse for patriotic citizens to gaze at.

HOBOES STREW FLOWERS ON GRAVES OF PAUPERS AT CHICAGO POOR FARM.

Chicago, May 30.—For the first time in the city's history, the graves of the paupers at Dunning, the Cook county poor farm, were strewn with flowers today. The remembrance was from Union No. 2, of the Itinerant Workers' association, known as the "hoboes' union."

Several hundred men and women gathered in the potter's field, where the dead are buried three in a grave. Services were held and numerous members of the union spoke. Resolutions were adopted declaring that "potter's fields" are a disgrace to civilization.

Chicago, May 30.—A return to the Virginia, reel, quadrille, waltzes and plain two-steps will be sought by the Chicago Association of Dancing Masters as the result of a resolution adopted tonight. They are not strong enough to wear with the general public. There will come soon a return to healthier dances."

BALKAN WAR IS BROUGHT TO ITS FORMAL CLOSE

Historic Ceremony Is Enacted in the Picture Gallery of St. James' Palace When the Delegates of Turkey and the Allies Sign the "Peace of London."

Protest of Montenegro That She Has Been Robbed of Her Just Spoils Is a Dramatic Feature—Relations Between Bulgaria and Servia Show Improvement.

London, May 30.—The eight months war between Turkey and the allied Balkan states is ended. The "peace of London" was signed today in the picture gallery of St. James palace. Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, presided over the formalities.

The only dramatic feature of the historic occasion was the Montenegro delegates' expression of keen disappointment that Montenegro had "been despoiled of her just share of the spoils of a triumphant war and the hope that England, which took the lead in the negotiation," would take every step to compensate Montenegro, for her sacrifice.

The actual ceremony was brief. The delegates signed the treaty without reading it, evidently in full confidence that all the seven articles were in such wording as the power chose to have them.

The Bulgarian delegates proposed that peace become immediately effective without ratification of the treaty. This proposal was rejected, and the delegates then left, after having agreed to meet June 2 to consider the advisability of an eventual annexed protocol.

Three Questions for Ambassadors. After informing the ambassadorial conference of the signing of the peace treaty, Sir Edward Grey suggested that the conference limit its discussions to three questions—a constitution for Al-

FRENCH CAR IS THE WINNER OF BIG AUTO RACE

Jules Goux, Driving a Peugeot at an Average Speed of 76.59 Miles an Hour, Is the First to Finish at Indianapolis—An American Entry Is Second.

Chas. Merz, Finishing Third in a Stutz, Thrills Crowd by Making the Last Lap With His Vehicle Afire—One Machine Is Upset and Two Men Are Injured.

Indianapolis, May 30.—The United States fell before France here today when Jules Goux, a Frenchman, driving a French car, the Peugeot, won the third annual 500-mile automobile race at the speedway in 6:31:33.45, at an average speed of 76.59 miles an hour. The race was worth $20,000 to the winner.

No fatal accidents marred the running of the race, although two persons were seriously injured when the Mason, driven by Jack Tower, upset, due to a tire blowout. Tower's right leg was broken and Lee Dunning, his mechanic, received three broken ribs and internal injuries. Physicians were not sure of the extent of Dunning's injuries tonight.

Blazing Car Is Spectacular Sight. Charles Merz, who finished third, in a Stutz, brought the biggest thrill to the crowd, estimated at one hundred thousand, when he drove the last lap of the race with his car on fire. The flames broke out in the upper stretch turn and Merz refused to stop at the pits until he had circled the track another time and finished the race. Coming down the home stretch in the finish, Harry Martin, Merz's mechanic, climbed out on the hood and unbuckled the straps so the pitmen could extinguish the flames immediately.

Four out of the eight foreign cars entered finished in the prizes, the other four being forced out by broken parts. An American car, a Mercer, driven by Spencer Wishart, finished second, seven laps behind the winner. The Sunbeam, an English car, driven by a Frenchman, Albert Guyot, came in fourth.

PLOTTERS IMPERIL ROYAL ACADEMY

Attempt to Burn a Famous Institution at London Is Laid to Women.

London, May 30.—An attempt was made tonight to set fire to the Royal Academy. Although the usual "votes for women" placards were not found, the police suspect that militant suffragettes were responsible for the attempt to destroy the building, in which are housed some of the world's greatest works of art.

Shortly after the exhibition closed for the night, a watchman discovered in a small room on the ground floor a cardboard box filled with rags and cotton saturated with oil. A number of wax tapers were bound about the box. Four of these were burning when the watchman found the box, which had been so placed that the flames from it easily would have communicated with the walls.

Various Other Outrages. The suffragettes resumed their campaign of destruction tonight in the Lewisham branch postoffice, which they had attacked several times previously. They set fire to the letters in the building and the flames were extinguished only after some mail had been destroyed.

Bottles containing corrosive mixtures and addressed to Reginald McKenna, home secretary, were found today in a mail box. Railway telegraph and telephone wires were cut today in various places in Wales. Suffragette literature was found scattered near the scenes of these depredations.

Automobile drivers and cyclists in the Doncaster district made complaints today that tacks which punctured their tires were scattered over the highway.

Mrs. Pankhurst Is Freed Again. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, was again released from Holloway jail this evening. She was removed in a motor ambulance to a friend's home.

Mrs. Pankhurst started a "hunger strike" as soon as she was reincarcerated on May 26, after enjoying a temporary release on account of her hunger strike a month ago.

The woman is being closely guarded by plain clothes men at the home of her friend in the West end of London. They report that she is not as ill as she was at the time of her former release from prison, but the officials of the Women's Social and Political Union declare that she is at the point of death.

CHICAGO COUPLE DRIVEN BY IRATE MAN WITH GUN NEARLY FREEZE IN ICEBOX.

Chicago, May 30.—Taking refuge in an icebox when pursued today by an irate man with a revolver, R. Hoffman, a saloon keeper, and his wife came near being frozen before they were liberated. A policeman appeared on the scene in time and arrested Frank Brady, a young salesman from St. Louis, who stood outside the refrigerator, threatening to shoot. The saloon keeper and his wife were chilled through and through. According to Hoffman's story, the salesman entered the saloon and ordered a drink. He took the drink and refused to pay for it, so Hoffman and a porter ejected him from the place. "I'm coming back and I'll kill you," Brady threatened as he left, according to Hoffman. Soon Brady returned with a gun, which he pointed at Hoffman and also at his wife, who was in the place. Fearing that he would keep his wife, Hoffman and his wife ran into the icebox and closed the door.

The film is highly educational and as such is being brought here by the dental society to exhibit as part of the program for the meeting here next week. The film is a little over 1,100 feet long and takes about seventeen minutes to present. The picture is said to be highly instructive and highly entertaining and those in charge of the exhibition are anxious that it be seen by as many as possible.

WONDERFUL SKIN SALVE.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve is known everywhere as the best remedy made for all diseases of the skin, and also for burns, bruises and boils. Reduces inflammation and is soothing and healing. J. T. FIRST OF CONCERTS TONIGHT.

Calumet & Hecla Band Will Render Splendid Program This Evening.

The full Calumet & Hecla band will give the first of its series of summer concerts this evening, commencing at 7:30, on the lawn of the Calumet & Hecla Mining company's office, Calumet avenue. A fine program will be played. A feature will be "Copperdom," a new march written by George D. Barnard and dedicated by him to the miners of the Michigan copper country.

LAST OF ROLLER SKATING.

The Amphidrome will be closed for the season after this evening's skating and dancing. The big pleasure house has been very popular this spring and the attendance has been good since the close of the ice skating. The big rink will not be re-opened all probability until after the copper country fair is completed. The rink will be opened for the roller skating again and kept open until it is cold enough to form ice.

CURIOUS NOTIONS ABOUT MINES HERE

Lower State Surprised to Learn Rock Gives but 20 Pounds of Copper to the Ton.

Many curious notions and misconceptions as to the copper mines of the state exist in the minds of the people of southern Michigan, reports Professor E. D. Cronin, superintendent of mines on his return to Houghton from a series of extension lectures about the state. For example, his audiences were startled to hear that the rock mined runs off only about twenty pounds to the ton, or 53 per cent of present prices. They have been accustomed to think of the copper as occurring in large masses and of the rock as being half copper. Another notion is that the workings run for miles under Lake Superior. Professor Cronin's talk about the social conditions of the mines attracted considerable interest everywhere. Professor Cronin talked to fifteen audiences, altogether to about five thousand people. Most of the addresses were before high school students, but sometimes he talked in the evening, and the parents attended in considerable numbers. The College of Mines will probably repeat the series next year, adding a lecture upon the iron mining industry and including a large number of towns not on the list this year.

Superintendency in Demand.

Many Applicants for Hancock Position Resigned by Eugene LaRoue. If the number of applicants received for the position of superintendent of the Hancock public schools is a criterion, then Hancock must be a pretty good place in which to live and to teach. The resignation of Superintendent LaRoue was scarcely announced until the secretary to the board of education commenced receiving applicants for the position, and each day the number increases.

Tom Thumb Republic.

The newest of all European countries is far and away the tiniest. Its name is Mount Athos, and it only came into existence a week or two ago, when the ambassadors of the powers decided that, however small the Balkan question is settled, Mount Athos is to be an independent holy republic. It is a mountain twice as high as Ben Nevis, near Saloniki, and is certainly unique among the countries of Europe in the fact that no woman has set foot in it for five centuries. The new republic, which has a little seacoast of its own, holds another record. It is the only state in Europe whose national income is obtained solely by selling crucifixes, rosaries, amulets and other holy objects. As Mount Athos contains twenty-two monasteries, the export is quite a large one.

Like Magic.

When a man has suffered from dyspepsia so many years that he can't remember when he had a natural appetite, and then hits on a way out of trouble he may be excused for saying "it acts like magic." When it is a simple, wholesome food instead of any one of a large number of so-called remedies in the form of drugs, he is more than likely to feel as though a sort of miracle has been performed.

Test Run on Gold Ore.

Five tons of gold ore from the Dome mine in the Precipice district in Ontario, Canada, will be put through the stamps, concentrators and amalgamating pans at the Michigan College of Mines in the practice course in ore-dressing. The test will be quantitative; that is, the ore and all the products of all the classifiers, jigs, vanners, concentrating tables and amalgamating pans will be weighed and analyzed and every pound of the original ore accounted for. A week will be spent in investigations at six of the mills in the district.

Funeral Services Today.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Con Sullivan of Hancock will be held this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church. Burial will be made in the old Catholic cemetery. Rev. Father Holland will officiate.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCES.

Programs Carried Out in Hancock and Calumet Yesterday.

In spite of unpropitious weather the two Memorial Day programs, one in Houghton and Hancock and one in Calumet were carried out yesterday, in detail as given in these columns yesterday morning.

The New C. & H. Hospital.

Excavating Work is Well Along—Material for Building Arriving. It is believed and hoped that the outer structure of the Calumet & Hecla hospital building which is to be erected on Calumet avenue opposite the present hospital edifice can be completed before fall and that by the time snow flies the country fair will be ready for the interior finishing work. The work is to be rushed as rapidly as possible through the summer months.

LAURIER IS STILL RULER OF CANADA

Beaten at the Polls, His Will Continues to Be the Law of the Senate.

Ottawa, May 30.—One year ago Premier Borden and other leading ministers of the Dominion entered into an agreement with the British government to advance $35,000,000 for the building of three dreadnoughts. These battleships were to be manned and maintained at English expense and used by England till such time as Canada recalled them and their crews when they were to be maintained at Canada's own expense.

This agreement of the government of Canada with the imperial government was submitted to the Canadian parliament and after six months of fierce and determined opposition on the part of the Liberals led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier the appropriation of the $35,000,000 was passed by a large majority. Today this bill was killed by the senate, although by constitutional usage it ought to have passed. But the Canadian senators are chosen for life and they are created not by the king but by the premier for the time being and during Sir Wilfrid Laurier's fourteen years of power he packed the upper house with his own faithful and earnest lieutenants. They are mostly rich men and they are as faithful to the chief as the Highlanders were to the Stuart kings.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier ordered his clansmen in the senate to repudiate the agreement between the imperial government and the Dominion. And as Laurier's benchmen are in absolute control, the naval agreement today was rejected. This was six months of fierce conflict in the house of commons brought to naught. It will take years before the Conservative government will be able to control the senate and meanwhile any and all legislation passed by the elected house of commons can be made null and void by the crack of the whip of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

How this struggle will end no one can tell. The act of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberals is a slap in the face of the imperial government and shows how alienated is all the talk of British imperial federation. It also reveals the hollowness of the much-vaunted loyalty of the French Canadians, but it may have far-reaching financial effects. Canada is riding on tidal waves of industrial and agricultural development. Her vast resources and her boundless possibilities are only just becoming known and fifty thousand immigrants are pouring into the country every four weeks. She needs billions of capital to develop her mines, and land, and factories, her vast forests, and her railways, and her fisheries, and money to make them profitable and that money was coming from England at low rates of interest.

Will the English investor grow furious at Canada over the refusal of this act of the house of commons? He will be, but he will also be angry with the British government and the British people. He will be angry with the British government and the British people. He will be angry with the British government and the British people.

The etymology of this word has been more disputed than that of any other in the English language, and from the opinions expressed upon the subject, Veretegan's has been accepted as the probable, though there can not be the slightest doubt that the Saxons, from whom he obtains his derivation, took their term from the Arabic. The Saxons, he says, "used to engrave upon certain squared sticks, about a foot in length, or shorter or longer as they pleased, the courses of the moons for the whole year, whereby they could always certainly tell when the new moons, full moons and changes should happen, as also their festival dates, and such a carved stick they called an almanac." One of these squared sticks, of uncertain date, is still preserved in St. John's college, Cambridge.—London Tit-Bits.

A WHIRLWIND COURTSHIP.

The recent death in a New Hampshire village of a placid, pleasant old woman, afflicted with very few infirmities at ninety-seven, has recalled anew the story of her courtship, which the villagers delight to tell.

As a girl, she was very pretty, and had several suitors. It gradually became evident that she especially favored a certain Joshua. The others, one after another, withdrew, and left him a clear field, and there seemed nothing to hinder the happy conclusion of his wooing. He was, however,—like the fair Diantha—of a leisurely disposition. It was two years before he proposed, and was accepted. Everybody expected the wedding to follow soon; all the relatives approved, and there was plenty of money to buy a house and land. But it was five years later when a farm helper overheard Joshua, invited to appraise the apple crop of his bride to be, digress from business a moment at the orchard gate.

MOTHER SO POORLY Could Hardly Care for Children—Finds Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Bovina Center, N. Y.—"For six years I have not had as good health as I have now. I was very young when my first baby was born and my health was very bad after that. I was not regular and I had pains in my back and was so poorly that I could hardly take care of my two children. I doctored with several doctors but got no better. They told me there was no help without an operation. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me wonderfully. I do most of my own work now and take care of my children. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."—MRS. WILLARD A. GRAHAM, Care of ELSWORTH TUTTLE, Bovina Center, N. Y. Lydia E. PEARL FISHING IN THE RED SEA. Fishing for pearl oysters is followed upon all the shores of the Red sea by the poor fishermen who gather mother-of-pearl and occasionally pearls, but mother-of-pearl is the article chiefly sought, says the San Francisco Chronicle. The oysters thus fished are shelled, and when the cargo is complete the fisherman puts into the nearest port, where he sells his merchandise to the highest bidder. There are no fishing stations properly so-called, and all parts of the shore are visited from time to time by the fishermen, who take chances on their expeditions. It is to be remarked, however, that certain ports are absolutely abandoned, such being the case with Djeddah, where for some years past no fisherman has put in, although apparently the business there in pearls and mother-of-pearl is quite flourishing; this is due to the fact that more remunerative prices are offered at Port Soufan, Massawah, Heideida, Djibouti and Aden as a result of the eager competition of the merchants at these points. The quantity of pearls gathered is not considerable, but it seems that the quality obtained altogether is quite good; they are white, of good orient, but adhere but slightly to the round form. Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

One of the Triplets—Among the young men who arrived in Marquette last evening from the Soo to participate in the upper peninsula high school track and field meet at the fair grounds today is Bishop Venti, a nephew of Dr. Angus W. Deadman, of this city, and one of the renowned triplet children of Dr. J. F. Deadman, of the Soo. The young man is but fifteen years of age, but is stalwart and hardy, as are his brothers, and he has entered practically all of the events.

Celebrated Thirtieth Anniversary—Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Foad, 1015 East Ridge street, celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of their marriage at their home yesterday. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and the felicitations of large numbers of friends. In the evening a party of about thirty of their friends dropped in unexpectedly, and this pleasant surprise was the signal for an evening of jolly amusements. Mr. and Mrs. Foad were both born and reared in this city and were married thirty years ago yesterday by the late Bishop Venti, a nephew of Dr. Angus W. Deadman, of this city, and one of the renowned triplet children of Dr. J. F. Deadman, of the Soo. The young man is but fifteen years of age, but is stalwart and hardy, as are his brothers, and he has entered practically all of the events.

Should Have Consideration—Without intending to hurt anyone's feelings in the matter, Sheriff Moloney requests the women who have attended about each session of the Roosevelt-Newett trial all this week to kindly refrain from going to the courthouse this morning, only out of consideration for the school teachers and others including many from Ishpeming and Negaunee, who have planned to witness the proceedings today and have no other opportunity to do so. The seating capacity of the courtroom is limited, but the seats are usually filled by the same persons and the unchanging portion of the assemblage has been made up so far chiefly of women.

Licenses Expire June 1—Marquette city milk licenses will expire Sunday, June 1, and all who are commercial milk producers or who supply the public to any degree must comply with the ordinance passed by the council last year and have their licenses renewed. The fee is $1 and upon application by affidavit and payment of the fee the license will issue. It is unnecessary for those who received licenses last year to have their cattle tested again, as the ordinance specifies only that at the time of licensing the cattle must have been tested within one year. As the ordinance went into effect late in 1912 not a year has elapsed since the last tests were made and to all practical intents and purposes the cows are as free from infection, if the dealers have been living up to the ordinance, and Dr. Deadman, the city dairy inspector, has found none violating it, as they were when last tested. There are persons in this city, however, who have been receiving milk from outside dairies which have not been licensed in other cities nor inspected and passed upon by state or federal authorities. This is in strict contravention of the ordinance and unless this practice is stopped Dr. Deadman threatens that prosecutions will follow. A person may bring milk to this city from outside, but only from licensed or inspected dairies.

Leave for Texas Sunday—John Sandberg and family leave Sunday afternoon for Houston, Tex., where they expect to reside in the future. Mr. Sandberg has been a resident of Marquette and the vicinity the last thirty-two years and is well known as a violin maker. He has established a reputation in this work, having produced several excellent instruments. Frank Trombly, a leading violinist of the court, and director of Trombly's orchestra, is the possessor of one especially fine instrument made by Mr. Sandberg and for workmanship and tone quality it exceeds any violin he has been able to select. It compares with violins valued at $500. Mr. Sandberg intends to devote his entire time to the manufacture and repairing of violins and stringed instruments and has decided that Houston is a better field for his vocation. Mr. Sandberg will take with him a dozen of his violins and a large quantity of violin wood, curly maple and spruce, from the woods of Northern Michigan, which he has carefully selected during a period of several years and which he finds especially adapted to his work.

INSURE WITH PETER WHITE & CO.

JOURNALISTS WERE DINED LAST NIGHT

Visiting Press Men Were Guests of Commercial Club at White-fish Dinner.

The directors of the Marquette Commercial club were hosts at the Marquette club last evening at a whitefish dinner given in honor of the newspaper correspondents who have gathered in the city to report the Roosevelt-Newett trial.

It was the most representative assemblage of newspapermen ever gathered in a Michigan city. More newspapermen have dined together in the state before, but on no previous occasion has an assemblage of correspondents represented so many important newspapers and press associations in an equally wide expanse of territory. Included among the guests were:

- C. D. Hagerty, Chicago, Associated Press.
- T. W. Steep, Chicago, Associated Press.
- Eugene MacLean, Cleveland, United Press.
- Louis R. Chaplin, Chicago American, and representing the Hearst syndicate.
- Jay G. Hayden, Detroit, News.
- Burt P. Thomas, staff artist, Detroit, News.
- Carroll McCrae, Toledo, Blade.
- Richard Henry Little, Chicago, Examiner.
- Homer Guck, Houghton, Gazette.
- Chas. S. Osborn, Jr., Sault Ste. Marie, News.
- Philip J. Roosevelt, New York, Globe.
- L. F. Curtis, Chicago, Associated Press.
- John T. Bourke, Cleveland, Leader.
- W. H. Durborough, photographer, Newspaper Enterprise association.
- Harry A. Atwell, photographer, Chicago Tribune.
- Richard Fairchild, Chicago, Record Herald.
- John Fay, New York, World.
- J. H. Dunnwind, Detroit, Free Press.
- Charles Willis Thompson, New York, Times.

In addition to the visiting newspapermen the members of the editorial staffs of the Marquette newspapers and the officers and directors of the Commercial club were present at the dinner.

The after-dinner program was presided over by Byron Williams, and took the form of a trial of Chris Haggerty, of the A. P., on the serious and solemn indictment that in press reports of the celebrated case of Roosevelt vs. Newett he had permitted Marquette to be heralded to the aroused nation as a frontier city.

After the indictment was read several members of the company were called on for expressions of opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused. After this subject was satisfactorily disposed of there was a half hour of good stories until the men of the press had to adjourn to file their final stories.

SUNDAY AT THE CHURCHES.

First Church of Christ, Scientist—Services will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Opera House block. The subject of this week's lesson is, "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism—Demanded." The First Church of Christ, Scientist, is remodeling the house on its property at the corner of Ridge and Blaker streets that it may be used for church purposes. The work is being rapidly pushed and it is expected church services may be held regularly in the new quarters within ten days or thereabouts. The church property includes two lots with a frontage of 160 feet on Blaker street and 200 feet on Ridge street. It is planned to erect a church edifice on this property in the future.

Baptist—The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 and men's Bible class at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. At the morning preaching service at 11 and at the evening service at 7:30 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. E. M. Martinson, will talk on matters connected with the Northern Baptist convention held recently at Detroit and which was attended by him. The B. Y. P. U. will meet tomorrow evening at 6:45 o'clock. His observations will be reflected in both the morning and evening sermons. The topic of the 11 o'clock service will be, "A Man and His Friends." The subject of the sermon to be delivered at 7:30 o'clock is "Some Impressions of the Trial." The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 o'clock. The adult bible classes will meet at 10 o'clock. When a boy takes up Latin he does not begin by reading Caesar—does he? He begins with the rudiments and slowly he works up to Caesar—Cicero—Virgil. As the boy learns Latin so should he learn banking. This week's progress in the remodeling work of our store fronts has seen rapid development of the novel design as well as the more particular work of setting up of the beautiful paneled window backs and ceilings.

Our next step in the remodeling process is the setting up of the 22 plates of glass for the 7 windows, the laying of concrete floor in the arcade and the setting up of the marble cases for these windows, which work will now follow in rapid succession.

For the present our store fronts are not as inviting as we would like, but our friends and customers find free entrance not in the least inconvenienced and a splendid selection of rightly priced merchandise for their particular needs.

JUDGE FLANNIGAN TO PASS UPON LAW

Prospective Ruling in Roosevelt-Newton Case Is Awaited With Interest.

[By Associated Press.]
Marquette, May 30.—The lawyers in attendance on the suit of Theodore Roosevelt against George A. Newton, charging libel, are looking forward with great interest to a prospective ruling by Judge Flannigan, construing Section 10425 of the Michigan compiled laws, bearing on libel.
The law was designed to protect newspapers from the consequences of honest mistakes, and provides that demands for the retraction of a libelous article should be made by the offended party. Colonel Roosevelt made no such demands, it is admitted, and on this point the legal experts are looking for interesting developments. The matter will come up when counsel for Mr. Newton attempt to show that the editor made his charge of drunkenness in good faith, and without malice, believing it to be true.
Judge Flannigan will have to rule, assuming that the article was printed maliciously, but in the absence of demands for retraction, whether the alleged bad faith of Mr. Newton may be taken into account in estimating damages.

Colonel Addresses War Veterans.
Colonel Roosevelt spent a quiet day, but he was unable to resist the persistence of the Civil war veterans who had asked him to address them and compromised by receiving them at the home of George Shiras 2nd, his host, where he addressed them at some length. The belting of a fog horn throughout the night and during the forenoon failed to disturb him.
William Loeb, Jr., who was Colonel Roosevelt's secretary while he was president, W. Emlen Roosevelt, his cousin, and Frank Tyree and James Sloan, secret service men, probably will be the witnesses tomorrow. Tyree and Sloan were Roosevelt's body guard at Washington and on his campaign trips while he occupied the presidency.

MINT PATCH NEW ATTRACTION.
Washington, May 30.—The White House mint patch, referred to by Colonel Roosevelt in his testimony in the libel suit he is pressing at Marquette, Mich., promises to become as much an object of interest to capital visitors as the Washington monument or the library of congress.
Already tourists are asking the White House police to point out the bed that gave up its fragrant leaves for Colonel Roosevelt's occasional naps.
The bed, fifteen feet long by four feet wide, is situated beside a lattice-work laundry in which to dry clothes. Although mint always has been within easy reach of the White House porch, the present "patch" was established by President McKinley.

President Taft seldom used it, although it furnished its part to many a refreshing nap served to Mr. Taft's callers. President Wilson also uses it for garnishing spring lamb.

MARQUETTE LOSES FIRST LEAGUE GAME

Gwinn Won in Ninth Inning Yesterday by Scoring Two Runs Against Home Nine.

Marquette was defeated by a score of 2 to 0 in the first baseball game of the county league season, played yesterday at the fairgrounds with the Gwinn team. Both clubs played excellent ball. Neither scored till the ninth inning, when Gwinn brought in two runs, then with two men out.
Marquette's only chance to score was lost when in the seventh inning Richardson ran home from second base on a wild throw when he should have interrupted his sprint at third base. Richardson was walked by Swanson, pitching for Gwinn. Devine sacrificed him to second base. Then the third baseman made his swing and the ball went high over the head of the first baseman and rolled in the meadows beyond. Richardson, unthinkingly, kept on his way after reaching third sack and was over home plate before his remonstrating supporters could make their protest heard.
The story of Gwinn's two scores is much more exciting. In the ninth inning, Kuder struck out and Swanson was retired on a grounder to first base. Then Dabb singled. Robare fled to Weiser and Weiser dropped the ball. Johnson singled to left field and brought in both Dabbs and Robare, but he was thrown out at second by Riopelle.

The game was really a pitcher's battle. The work of both Swanson, for Gwinn, and Scholtus, for Marquette, was excellent. The former struck out ten men, allowed only three hits and walked two men. Scholtus allowed eight scattered hits, struck out fifteen men and walked no one. The game was clean and swift from beginning to end and was largely attended. It was in every way a most encouraging contest, both for players and fans.

CONGRESSMAN PAYS ELOQUENT TRIBUTE

Mr. Heflin First Southerner to Give Memorial Day Address at Gettysburg.

Gettysburg, Pa., May 30.—Standing on the historic Gettysburg battlefield and bringing "a message of a united country," Representative Thomas Heflin, of Alabama, today paid eloquent tribute to the heroism of the men who wore the blue and the gray. His was the first address ever delivered by a Southerner at Gettysburg Memorial Day exercises.
"Our colonial fathers from North, South and East and West," Mr. Heflin said, "fought together when they brought together in the war of 1812, and triumphed together when they carried the stars and stripes into the heritage of the Montezumas. The final and crucial test of the republic's strength and durability was the combat on the field of battle in the war between the states."
The congressman added that the question of the right of the states to secede and the status of rights and relationship between state and federal government, "could not be determined in the councils of peace; it had to be settled by the arbitrament of the sword."
"The republic once abounding with conflicting opinions as to state and federal rights and powers," he continued, "is today the harmonious household of sovereign states, the home of a brave and happy people, where we bow with solemn reverence in honor of our nation's dead and pay to their blessed memory the tribute of our united love."

Battlefield Made Immortal.
"Heroism never had truer representatives than those who made this battlefield immortal. Here the soldier in blue and the soldier in gray read in each other's eyes courage born of conviction, devotion to principle, a willingness to do and die for what they believed was right. Here Union and Confederate soldiers by their daring sacrifice and heroism challenged the admiration of the world. Here Northern valor drew up in battle line the bravest of her brave; the noblest specimens of her patriotic manhood, and Southern chivalry marshalled the noblest types of her splendid citizenship."

"Here the brave Union soldier checked the march of the hitherto irresistible Confederate soldier. Here in the red glare of destructive battle fire two mighty lessons were taught; one that the Union should be preserved, and the other that the Union should be ever mindful and considerate of the rights of the states. So the soldiers of the two armies who baptized this soil with their blood did not die in vain; they started the work of cementing the bonds of an everlasting Union."
"I bring to you a message of good will and fellowship from the people of the South. As an evidence of our recognition and appreciation of the valor and heroism of both Union and Confederate soldiers, and as a token of the spirit of fraternal love now permeating the hearts of our people, I bring you floral offerings from the gardens of Dixie, one for the grave of the soldier in blue and the other for the grave of the soldier in gray. The sublime valor of the heroes of both armies is the priceless heritage of all."
Glorious Reunion in July.
Of the reunion in July of survivors of the two forces at Gettysburg, Mr. Heflin said: "What a glorious reunion that will be. The angels will smile upon that gathering and the God of our fathers will bless and approve it."
"Let the living join hands and hearts about a common center for the good of the republic," he concluded. "Let North, South, East, West all work together for the good of all. Here on this battlefield, incarnadined with the blood of patriots North and patriots South; let us, in the language of Lincoln, resolve that this government shall not perish from the earth."

MOVIES AND HEALTH.
The rapid multiplication of moving picture shows has been one of the remarkable developments of recent years. A recent number of the Chicago Health Bulletin calls attention to the picture shows as a health problem.
In Chicago it is estimated that these shows are patronized by 250,000 persons daily and a considerable portion of the patrons are children. Most of the picture "theaters" are merely ordinary storerooms which have been remodelled for the purpose and the Bulletin says that in many of them there is no adequate provision for ventilation. The article comments on this feature of the case as follows:
"In cities all over the country the problem is practically the same, involving the role of contact or close association in the spread of 'colds' and the various infectious diseases. It is a matter of observation that the incidence of the various infective diseases of childhood immediately increases on the opening of the schools in the fall on account of the increased opportunity for contact between infected and non-infected children. It may, therefore, be reasonably assumed that the close contact in the moving picture theater is also a factor in the distribution of infectious diseases. Since it is not easy to exclude those who have diseases or who come from homes where diseases exist, well considered regulations as to ventilation and sanitation should be enforced for the protection of the public."
When the picture shows first began to make their appearance many persons were disposed to look upon them as a passing fad. It is now evident that the picture theater has become a permanent feature. It fills a long felt want in supplying entertainment for the public at nominal prices. It attracts the masses and it is especially interesting to children. There is no reason why the picture theaters should not be subjected to the same regulations with regard to safety and sanitation that apply to other theaters. It is doubtless true that in many American cities too little consideration has been given to these matters.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

COL. ROOSEVELT

Members of Albert Jackson Post, G. A. R., and Men of Spanish-American War Paid Their Respects to Former President at the Shiras Home Yesterday.

They Listened to An Inspiring Address of Twenty Minutes, and Then Greeted the Colonel Personally—With Him They Recalled Incidents of Great Work.

Yesterday was one of the few times in many years that Colonel Theodore Roosevelt did not deliver a formal Decoration Day address. He did not, however, have to forego a word of greeting to the men who wore the blue, for he received them, shortly before 4 o'clock, at the residence of George Shiras 3rd, Men of the war of the rebellion, the dwindling ranks of Albert Jackson post, were there, the veterans of the Spanish-American war, and a lone veteran of the "lost cause," Samuel E. Byrne.

The veterans strolled to the Shiras residence in groups of two or three, and were gathered in the dim light of the drawing room, with a company of the newspaper men, when Colonel Roosevelt was escorted from the library to greet them.

With a few words of preface and welcome, expressing his pleasure that the day was not to pass without his having opportunity to greet the veterans of the local post, Colonel Roosevelt talked informally for some twenty minutes in an address charged with the spirit of patriotism, appreciation of the services of the men of the sixties and comprehension of present day problems. He threw the whole ardor of his spirit into his words. He might have been addressing an audience of 3,000, rather than one of thirty.

Colonel Roosevelt was heard with rapt attention by the little company of veterans of two wars. Occasionally a tear was wiped from the eye of a grizzled veteran as some reference went particularly home and called up a vivid picture of life in the field. Again there would be nods of appreciation as Colonel Roosevelt, by some reference to the conditions under which the war was fought, showed his intimate acquaintance with its history.

Refers to Present Day Problems.

Applying the lessons of the conflict of the sixties to modern conditions,

Colonel Roosevelt said: "It was what you did in your golden youth that has enabled us to meet with manly courage and sure steps the problems of today. Your sons, and grandsons, armed with the same courage and devotion and high ideals that took you to the war, are in the forefront of another battle for human welfare and for their country."

"We cannot tolerate a social condition under which men and women are tramped down. It is such a condition that we must fight today and it must be done by putting in the heart of every citizen the love of his brother and his native land. The contemptible arrogance of the rich man who despises his brother because he is poor and the mean envy of the poor man who hates his brother because he is rich have both the same seed. The same poor men made rich would be arrogant; the same rich man made poor would be envious."

"In the training of our manhood and womanhood we must give them the same noble inspirations that when you were young—the spirit of justice and kindness and freedom. Train them to service, not to the pursuit of pleasure; for happiness to be worth anything must be a by-product."

On the conclusion of his discussion of the duty of the patriot of today Colonel Roosevelt expressed regret that the circumstances surrounding his visit to Marquette had made it inadvisable for him to address the veterans at their memorial exercises, and thanked them for the honor of their visit, asking that he might meet them individually.

Greeted the Veterans.

Rev. Bates G. Burt introduced him to the veterans. The first man the colonel greeted was Stuart Zryd. "What's your command?" the colonel inquired. "Good, it's a pleasure to meet you," he assured Mr. Zryd on getting his response.

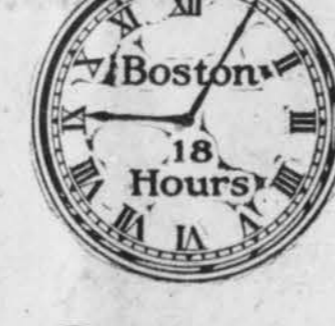

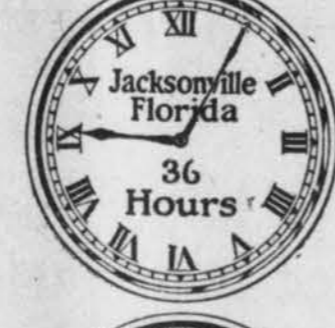

"Here's a man who wore the gray," Mr. Burt remarked, as he presented Samuel E. Byrne, who served with a Maryland battery. "I am most happy to meet you," was the colonel's greeting, and he expressed pleasure at this visible sign of the subsidence of the spirit of the old strife. "I had two of your men in Cuba," he added.

"And here's Mr. Byrne's brother, R. P. Byrne, but he wore the blue," Mr. Burt continued, turning to the latter, who had occupied an adjoining chair. "The blue and the gray in fact," the colonel commented, as the trio felicitated one another on the pleasure of the meeting.

Col. Roosevelt had a special word for each and was an eager and interested questioner of the veterans. He asked concerning their commands, and mention of the regiments gave rise to reminiscences and rapid fire comment on campaigns, engagements and picturesque incidents of the war. It was, both for the actors and the group of newspapermen who followed it, a most interesting and vital little drama of throbbing life, perhaps one of the most interesting that had ever been staged in the dim and artistic old drawing room.

When the last word of greeting was

THE Jeffery Company considers that every Cross Country owner is a stockholder in the service organization. His dividends are paid in the increased satisfaction he enjoys through the service such an organization provides.

A stock of duplicate parts, amounting in value to one-half million dollars, is maintained by us at the factory and branches, while all distributing dealers also maintain stocks.

WE have all the original patterns, dies, jigs and tools for every part of every Rambler car ever made. This stock is carried that we may assure to owners quick delivery of parts even of old models.

The price of Jeffery parts is one-half to two-thirds lower than that of parts for other cars.

THE Jeffery service organization not only includes an efficient department at the factory, but it is supplemented by a corps of experts on the road and by nearly five hundred branches and distributing dealers. The branches maintain a complete stock of parts, while the larger distributing dealers have all those for which there would ordinarily be any demand.

The clock faces show the time it would ordinarily require for the owner to get a part after his order reaches one of our distributing points.

A beautiful four-color reproduction of the Cross Country, from an oil painting by R. Philip Brainard, is ready for mailing. See the Cross Country by all means, at any Jeffery branch or dealer's display room, but send for the picture anyway.

given Col. Roosevelt bowed himself out, and the veterans filed from the home. But the colonel was again requisitioned, this time by the tireless photographers. He gave ready consent to be pictured with the veterans, and was posed both with the men of the sixties and his own fellow campaigners in the war of '98. The groups were posed on the steps of the Shiras home, the photographers' work being followed by an interested group of onlookers.

Col. Roosevelt's day, outside of his reception of the veterans, passed quietly and without incident. In the morning he drove out into the country in an automobile with members of his party, and spent the remainder of the day quietly reading.

This afternoon it is expected that Col. Roosevelt and members of his party will leave for the White camp, four miles from Deerton, where tomorrow will be spent. There will be no hunting, and Col. Roosevelt is no fisherman, but Mr. Shiras will have much to show his guest, who is particularly interested in observing the field in which Mr. Shiras has made his extensive study of the white-tailed deer.

VAUDEVILLE-MOTION PICTURES.

"She is a Fine Girl."

Since Miss Ida Bernes came to town—and it may be well to note for the benefit of those who do not know her that she is presenting the last vaudeville sketch that will be seen in this city in many months, no doubt—she has heard many flattering things about herself. As an example: "She is a fine girl," said one of the out-of-town newspapermen who have made her acquaintance since she arrived Thursday morning. "And to think that one so young should be traveling alone and that her experience has taken her to most of the larger cities and to every quarter of the United States."

Miss Bernes, who overheard this comment, smiled to herself and then regisly pinned a pink carnation in the reporter's buttonhole.

"Oh, I'm not so young as I look," said she, pointing to a seven-year-old girl sitting in a corner of the greenroom. "You would scarcely believe me if I told you she were my daughter."

However after the representatives of the press had fled to the front of the house they learned from the manager that she was truly a "single," and had merely "joshed" them.

Miss Bernes is presenting a novelty dancing and singing act. Her work consists of a half a dozen bubbling, refreshing, mirthful songs, all of them new, accompanied and interspersed with bright catches of wit thrown hither-skither and profusely among her hearers, striking especially those who sit near the front of the house and have bald heads. Miss Bernes goes down to the aisle during the latter half of her sketch and introduces a cabaret novelty, something new for Marquette. Miss Bernes does it real well, too, and is exquisitely dainty and neatly dressed in a party frock. Her work is done with excellent taste and she shows people that she thoroughly enjoys it, which makes it just that much better.

TAKING FIGURES.

Interstate Commerce Commission To Estimate Freight Traffic in Marquette.

T. F. Whittlesey, of Toledo, O., a railway man who is in charge for the interstate commerce commission of the work of estimating railway freight traffic, and Edward Allen, of Chicago, a specialist in this class of work, arrived in Marquette yesterday to organize a crew of men to carry on the work in this city for one month, beginning June 1.

A number of Marquette young men will be employed in checking incoming and outgoing freight shipments and after the month's figures have been compiled they will be forwarded to the offices of the commission at Washington, D. C. Freight of every kind and class will be checked. The reports will include the exact tonnages of ore handled over the railway docks and every car of coal that is lifted from incoming vessels will be recorded. All other classes of freight will be measured as well, no matter in what direction it is moved.

The purpose of the report is not clearly understood even by the men who are in charge of the work. They are reticent in talking of it. When asked whether it was the beginning of an investigation of new dock and yard storage charges imposed by the railways of the upper peninsula upon the ore shippers and which have been complained of by the mining companies, Messrs. Whittlesey and Allen professed ignorance. The commission carries on its work quietly and without explanation, but since it has taken on its supervisory attitude toward the railways of the United States as common carriers, it is likely to start an investigation at almost any point without announcement. Marquette alone is to be reported on by Messrs. Whittlesey and Allen, but it is expected that the work will be carried to other ore shipping cities of The Lake Superior district before the summer is over.

When the work is completed, the commission will have a complete census of the freight tonnage of this city during the month of June. One of the purposes of such investigation is to ascertain whether extortionate rates are being charged either generally or for any particular class of freight.

Mr. Whittlesey left last evening for his home in Toledo, although he expects to return to this city before the month's work is completed. He has left Mr. Allen in full charge of operations. Four or five Marquette young men will be needed to assist him in the clerical work.

A MODEL HUSBAND.

"There is one way by which a woman can always tell with absolute certainty whether her husband loves her or not," remarked a well known Macon lady to a representative of this paper one day this week. "Although I've been married several years I wasn't sure about the matter until this spring. Of course, as they always do, the milliners had lots of pretty bonnets in their windows, and, as all women are—I was longing for one, but didn't like to come right out and say so. But one night as we were walking down street he turned to me and said:

"Say, what's the matter with you getting a new hat? All the girls are."

"In subdued tones I said it might be better to send the money to the poor missionaries struggling to enlighten the heathen, and that—and that—"

"Heathen, fiddlesticks!" he said. "They'll not lose any sleep over what they don't get. Let's go and pick out something scrumptious. I want my wife to look as good as the best!"

"Now, what do you think of that? That actually happened right here in Macon. But I don't want you to print his name, because if you do all the girls in town will be shaming up to him.

"Well, I went into the shop and I picked out a good looking hat, entirely satisfactory in every way, and yet—and yet there was a prettier one in the shop—a simply lovely creation. I tried to keep my eyes off of it, because I knew it was out of sight, but the milliner paid no attention to my frowns, and of course he soon saw something was up.

"Say," he said, 'I like this hat over here, don't you?'

"But it costs $10 more," I murmured, weakly; 'this one here will do very well.'

"But I like this one best," he insisted, 'don't you? Get more style to it; rather more distinguished looking, ain't it?'

"I confessed that his judgment was akin to that of Mr. King Solomon, and he closed the deal at once. It sounds queer, I know. The funny papers never print anything like that. Guess it must be because there aren't many men like that husband of mine."—Macon (Mo.) Republican.

Acheson, Kan.—"For a number of years I suffered very greatly from skin eruption. My face was very red and irritated, being almost covered with pimples and blackheads. The pimples were scattered over my face. My face burned and looked red if exposed to either heat or cold. It was not only unsightly, but very uncomfortable. I tried several remedies but couldn't get any relief. I was recommended to use Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I applied the Cuticura Ointment in the evening, leaving it off for about five minutes, then washing it off with Cuticura Soap and hot water. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and hot water also several times during the day. After about four months of this application, my face was cleared of the pimples. I still use the Cuticura Soap. I will be glad to recommend the Cuticura Remedies to anyone suffering from skin diseases." (Signed) Miss Elsie Nielson, Dec. 29, 1911.)

FOR NINETY-NINE YEARS.

Whence originated the use of the odd term in leases, 99 or 999 years? In other days leases and mortgages in possession of real estate for 100 or 7,000 years denoted the same as an annual rental, retaining a reversion for the last year of the original term. The object of this proceeding was to be found in the unwillingness of the under tenant to become bound to the performance of the covenant contained in the original grant and also in the importance to the lessor of a reversionary interest, without which, under the old English practice, he could not recover his rent by distress.

Sometimes this reversion was for only three days or even for only one day, but usually in long terms the last year was retained. Out of this came the popular notion that the law provided this distrust and hence leases were made for 99 or 999 years, when there was no reason whatever for any such odd period of time.

In England there was in special cases a restraint on corporations or ecclesiastics tial persons prohibiting the demise of lands belonging to them to the impoverishment of their successors for a term beyond 100 years, and such leases were accordingly made for ninety-nine years.—Harper's Weekly.

HAVE YOU A FRIEND AFFLICTED WITH ASTHMA?

Frank S. Archibald, of West Swaney, N. H., writes:—For the past five years I have suffered with Asthma almost constantly. I was so nervous at times, I could hardly remain in my school. This disease combined with the nervous strain to which teachers are always subjected made life almost unbearable. During a visit to my home in Hillsdale, Mr. Mann, a local druggist, called my attention to your White Wine of Tar Syrup. At first I was skeptical as I had tried almost everything with no permanent help. Finally I took home a bottle and the cure it effected seems almost miraculous to me after my former repeated disappointments.

I want to recommend your remedy to everyone who has been afflicted as I was for five years, and I shall be glad to reply to enquiries regarding my case.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE HELD FINE MEETING

Officers Elected, Delegates to Grand Lodge Chosen, and Large Class Initiated.

One hundred and fifty members of Sir Humphrey Davey lodge, Sons of St. George, attended a regular meeting Thursday evening. Thirty-one candidates were initiated from a large list of applicants. Several of the prospective members, however, were working night shift and could not arrange to be present. These will be admitted to the order within the next few days, it is said.

Sixteen members of the class are residents of the American mine. Five or six (Swain members, all former residents of Ishpeming, attended the meeting. George Tucker of Marquette, one of the oldest members of the lodge, delivered a stirring address, speaking on the principles of the order. Senator Frank James, of Hancock, who was invited to be present, sent his regrets, but because of several days' illness he could not attend.

John H. Williams, who solicited twenty-four of the members of the class, was elected chairman of the delegation that will represent the lodge at the annual convention to be held in Hancock, July 17, 1 and 19. Mr. Williams was complimented upon his work. The other delegates elected were Thomas J. Mudge and Jabez Treblecock.

Officers were elected for the ensuing term as follows:

- Past President—Joseph Billings.
- President—Wesley Harris.
- Vice President—Harry Abbott.
- Messenger—John Covling.
- Treasurer—John T. Bennetts.
- Chaplain—William Bowden.
- Secretary—William Warmington.
- Assistant Secretary—John T. Miners.
- Inside Sentinel—William Chumbert.
- Trustees (three years), William Bamford; two years, Charles Burt; one year, Henry Treblecock.

Following the meeting refreshments were served and a smoker was enjoyed.

WILL ATTEND ANNUAL SCANDINAVIAN MEET

Three Ishpeming Men Will Represent City and District Lodges in Duluth Next Week.

Albert Bjork and Christ Prosthuis will leave Monday for Duluth, to attend the national convention of the Scandinavian Fellowship & Aid society, August 28. Both of this city, will also be present as a delegate from the district organization. Mr. Bjork is vice president of the national society and Mr. Prosthuis is secretary of the district organization.

The Duluth meeting will extend over three days. At the conclusion of the session Mr. Bjork will leave for Oklahoma City to attend the annual convention of the Brotherhood of American Yoenen, as one of the seven Michigan delegates.

Perhaps the most important question that will be considered at the Duluth meeting will be a proposed consolidation with the Scandinavian Brotherhood of America, whose field is principally in the east. If the grand lodge decides in favor of the merger, the question will be submitted to a vote of the various lodges. The Scandinavian Brotherhood has a membership of about 10,000, while the membership of the Aid & Fellowship society is about 8,000. The latter has sixty-five branches in Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and British Columbia.

The Ishpeming society is the oldest in the jurisdiction. It was organized nearly forty years ago in a dwelling at the Jackson location.

Warm Fight at Oklahoma.

Mr. Bjork yesterday said that the annual convention of the national body of the Brotherhood of American Yoenen in Oklahoma will be a lively affair. Contesting delegates from Michigan have been named by the upper and lower peninsula factions.

The Brotherhood of American Yoenen is now operating in every state in the union. It has a total membership of over 180,000. The meeting in Oklahoma City will be open to the public. This will be the first time that the Yoenen have held public sessions at their national meetings.

NEGAUNEE TEAM WINNER OF GAME

Score Is 9 to 10 Against Ishpeming in First League Contest at Union Park.

The Ishpeming and Negaunee teams opened the Marquette County Baseball league season at Union Park yesterday afternoon with a closely-contested exhibition of the national sport. Negaunee won by the score of 10 to 9. Ishpeming's failure to hit when his meant runs was disastrous to the Hematite City fans' hopes of victory.

Con Mahoney, a former Negaunee twirler, was in the box for Ishpeming the first six innings, allowing eight hits, and "Rube" Goulette twirled the last three, fanning six of the ten men who faced him and allowing two hits, these by McNabb and Andrews.

Andrews, a former Settlers pitcher, who now plays with Negaunee, did excellent work in the box, allowing but seven hits. In the first inning, when Ishpeming scored three runs, Andrews was wild, and he walked three men, but after that he settled down and was effective, particularly when bases were occupied.

Mack, former third baseman for the Marquette league team, wore an Ishpeming uniform and held down his old position. He has procured a job here and intends to remain. His batting and fielding were among the best features of yesterday's game. Adamson, in left field for Ishpeming, had two sensational catches, while Andrews in the box and Faulk at short did the feature work for Negaunee.

In the first inning, Negaunee went out in one, two, three order, Mack opened for Ishpeming and hit the ball over the center fielder's head for two bases. Embloom and Manley, the next two batters up, walked, Geelan hitting a grounder to Holman at third. The latter made a clean pickup and in attempting to return the ball to the plate made a wild throw. Mack and Embloom scoring. Martin fanned. Adamson hit a ball to the infield and Manley scored when an attempt was made to throw him out at the plate. Peel dropping the ball. Toumala went out, Faulk to McNabb.

After two had been retired in the second inning, Holman hit the ball into right field, Manley dropping it, the runner reaching second. Ford and McNabb drew passes. Holman went to third on a wild pitch and scored on Embloom's error.

In the second and third innings, Ishpeming was retired in one, two, three order, but in the fourth two runs were scored on two hits, an error, a walk and a passed ball. Adamson opened and went to first on Holman's error; he reached second on a passed ball, but was thrown out at third when Toumala hit the ball at short, the latter fielding the ball to Holman. Toumala stole second; Nichols walked, and Mahoney singled, scoring, Toumala.

Negaunee scored two in the third on two hits and two errors. Heinonen went out, Mahoney to Geelan. Mr. Auliffe singled; Peel reached first on Embloom's error and stole second. Faulk drove one into center that Toumala dropped. Dyer singled, scoring McNabb and Peel. Holman, went out to Toumala.

Ishpeming was blanked in the fifth and sixth and Negaunee was easy picking for Mahoney in the fourth, but in the fifth "Con" was touched for four hits and, besides, he was guilty of an error and a wild pitch, three runs being scored. Heinonen opened and singled; McAuliffe followed with a safety, and Peel hit a grounder to Embloom, who returned the ball to the plate, retiring Heinonen. Faulk hit for two bases, scoring McAuliffe and Peel. Dyer singled, scoring Enall. Holman and Ford were easy outs.

Negaunee made things interesting for Ishpeming again in the sixth, when three more runs were scored. Mahoney's support was wretched in that inning and if he had been given proper assistance no runs would have been scored. He fanned three, allowed two hits, one of them a double by Peel. There were two errors, one by Martin and the other by Embloom.

Ishpeming came back strong in the seventh. Mack opened with a single, but was thrown out at second, Faulk to Heinonen, on Embloom's hit to short. Manley walked; Geelan hit for two bases, scoring Embloom and advancing Manley to third, the latter scoring on a wild pitch. Manley hit the air; Adamson walked and stole second. Geelan scoring when an attempt was made to throw out Adamson at second. Toumala fanned.

In the seventh inning, Goulette pitched only eleven balls, fanning three batters; but in the eighth the first two men up hit safely and McNabb, the first one around, scored on a passed ball. Andrews, who followed McNabb with a single, stole second, but was caught in a double play. Martin to Embloom, after the former had pulled down Heinonen's fly.

In the eighth only three men faced Goulette, two of them fanning. Ishpeming had an excellent chance to tie the score in the ninth. Embloom drew a ball, Manley fled out on a bunt to Peel. Geelan hit for two bases, scoring Embloom. Martin singled, advancing Geelan to third. Martin then stole second and Adamson and Toumala fanned, leaving Geelan on third and Martin on second.

The attendance was not very large as the weather was disagreeable and the grounds in poor condition. For a time it was thought it would be impossible to play. A good deal of interest was manifested in the game and the fans were as enthusiastic as they usually are when Ishpeming and Negaunee clash.

There is some excellent material by both teams and it is likely that the games will be well patronized. Some of the players have had very little practice as yet. The members of the Ishpeming team met yesterday after the game and decided on practice days and

Mr. Foy and his company are now completing a tour of the West and they will come to the upper peninsula by way of St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth.

Mr. Foy's seven "kiddies" are also playing in "Over the River." It will be recalled that Mr. Foy took a flyer into vaudeville a few weeks last summer, using his large family as a chorus, and so aptly did they prove the old adage, "like father, like son" (and daughters, too), that the Orpheum circuit of theaters made him a princely offer to tour with his children over their chain of theaters. However, Mr. Foy's managers retaliated and even made a more tempting offer, with the effect that today Mr. Foy ranks as one of the highest salaried musical comedy stars in the world.

Mr. Foy's company numbers nearly eighty people and includes many stars of wide reputation. Among them are Nellie Daly, Cecelia Hoffman, Eleanor Kent, Marie Horgan, David Andra, Willie Selleny, J. S. Kinslow, Charles Swickard, Harry Meyer, Milton Dawson, Leavitt James, James Davis, and Pearl Matthews, the dancing Pages, the eight Berlin madsaps and the famous Globe theater beauty chorus.

Former Ishpeming Banker Is to Succeed the Late A. B. Miner.

Charles H. Moss, who has been at the head of the Citizens' and National bank of Houghton for the past ten years, or since he closed out his private banking business in Ishpeming, has been engaged by the board of directors of the Miners' National bank to succeed the late A. B. Miner, as cashier. Mr. Moss will not assume the management of the bank for a few weeks, as it will take him some time to settle his affairs in the copper country. Since the death of Mr. Miner, O. G. Aus, the assistant cashier, has been managing the Ishpeming bank. Mr. Moss is one of the popular banking men in the upper peninsula. He was an employee of the First National in this city for a few years before it was reorganized and the name changed to the Miners' National.

Taps Sound for War Veteran.

Joseph G. Moreau, the oldest Civil war veteran in the twin cities, passed away at the home of his son at Menominee this week at the advanced age of ninety-one years. Death was due to congestion of the brain, from which affliction he suffered about a week. Until the time of his recent illness, Mr. Moreau had been in excellent health. The old soldier was born in Batiscan, Canada, on Feb. 18, 1822. He went to Troy, N. Y., at the early age of nineteen and resided in the United States the rest of his life. Mr. Moreau went to Menominee in 1875, when the city was a small village. He was superintendent of the Menominee county poor house until eight years ago. Fifty-two years ago, in September, Mr. Moreau enlisted as a private in Company G, Seventeenth Wisconsin Volunteers. At Madison, a few weeks later, he was made second lieutenant and two years later, in 1863, he was made first lieutenant. Mr. Moreau was a grandson of General Joseph Moreau the marshal who served under Napoleon. The Menominee soldier sustained permanent injuries and was forced to return to the North before the end of the conflict. The family is long-lived, a brother passing away a few years ago at the age of ninety-two and one sister dying when he was a young man of the century mark. Mr. Moreau was married in 1855 at Green Bay to Miss Mary Anne Pearson, eleven children being born to them. The wife died in 1899 and six children survive. They are: Gilbert, George and William Moreau, Mrs. Fred Tuffs and Mrs. John Rolfe, of Menominee, and Dr. Joseph Moreau of Mediaryville, Ind. The funeral services will be held this morning, a solemn requiem mass to be celebrated by the Rev. Father R. G. Jacques, at St. Anne's church.

MEMORIAL DAY WAS GENERALLY OBSERVED

Rev. Hartley Cansfield Delivered Address at Negaunee High School in Afternoon.

Memorial Day was generally observed in Negaunee and Ishpeming yesterday, when the memory of the nation's soldier dead was honored by special exercises at 2 o'clock in the auditorium of the Negaunee high school. The order issued at the last national encampment of the G. A. R., requesting that all bells in every city be tolled for five minutes at noon, was carried out by all churches and fire halls both in Ishpeming and Negaunee. Flags in both cities were placed on half-mast.

Rev. Hartley Cansfield, pastor of the Mitchell Methodist church, delivered the Memorial Day address and Rev. R. T. T. Hicks, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, delivered Lincoln's Gettysburg address. The exercises were conducted under the auspices of the Charles H. Towne post, G. A. R., which are held each year alternately in Negaunee and Ishpeming.

Yesterday morning the veterans decorated the soldiers' graves in the Ishpeming cemetery, driving to the cemetery in automobiles. The degree team of the Modern Woodmen of America constituted the firing squad. In the afternoon the veterans, together with the Woman's Relief corps, went to Negaunee, where the exercises were held at the high school. The program included patriotic selections by the Negaunee City band and songs by the school children, the latter under the direction of Mrs. Mardeen, director of music in the public schools. The program was followed by the ritualistic service by the members of the post, which is now ten in number. Prayer was offered by Rev. R. T. T. Hicks.

Immediately following the exercises the old soldiers left for the Negaunee cemetery, where they visited the graves of the Negaunee veterans. Last Sunday the members attended the Memorial Day service at the First Presbyterian church in Ishpeming, when a sermon was preached by Rev. M. M. Allen, the pastor. Business was practically suspended in both Ishpeming and Negaunee yesterday.

NEW MINE TO BE OPENED WITHIN FEW MONTHS

Property Is Located on the Harvey Tract, Near Other East Range Workings.

Within the next few months the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company will open a new mine in the Negaunee field. Some time ago it was decided to open a shaft in what is known as the Harvey lots, directly north of the rocky Star shaft, now in the process of sinking, the operations being carried on by the Breitting.

The tract has been drilled and the Cleveland-Cliffs people have thorough knowledge of the extent of the ore body, which is said to be large. The Breitting interests are associated with the Cleveland-Cliffs in the Harvey property and the latter concern also has an interest in the Lucky Star, which, however, is to be operated independently by the Breittings. The ore on both the Lucky Star and the Harvey property lies approximately 1,000 feet beneath the surface, so that it will be a long time before the mine will give a product. Both tracts are favorably located with reference to other mines in the district and it is conceded by Negaunee mining men that they will be fairly large producers. Adjoining the Lucky Star property, on the south, is the Prince of Wales property, operated by the Oliver Iron Mining company.

The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company has decided to erect a steel headframe, and a brick power house at the Harvey mine. Work on these structures will probably be started at an early date and other buildings will be erected as they are needed. The shaft will be sunk in the footwall. As is now the case at practically all of the company's mines electric hoisting machinery will be installed.

The Cleveland-Cliffs company is working a larger force at its properties in Negaunee this summer than for several years past. The Maas mine working force is in the neighborhood of 200 men, while there are in the neighborhood of 500 at the Negaunee property, while some thirty or forty are now working at South Jackson, operating the crusher which is treating ore from the Cliffs shafts and the company's other hard ore properties.

Earl W. Bell, who had been assistant manager of the Negaunee office of the Michigan inspection bureau for nearly twelve years, has resigned his position here and will leave soon for Lansing, where he will enter the employ of the National Fire Insurance company, of Hartford, Connecticut. He will assume his new duties about June 10.

Mrs. J. M. Perkins of this city, and Mrs. W. H. Johnston of Ishpeming, will serve at the golf club this afternoon. This will practically be the opening of the social season at the club.

THE PERIL OF THE POPPY.

In view of the movement now on to secure from congress more stringent laws for the suppression of the opium traffic some figures recently compiled by the Journal of the American Medical association become peculiarly interesting. These figures show that since 1899 there has been an increase of 271 per cent in the importation and consumption of opium against an increase of 133 per cent in the population, and that during the last ten years there has been an average annual consumption of over 400,000 pounds, which is at least eight times as much as is necessary for legitimate use. The 60,000,000 people in Germany use only 17,000 pounds a year, and the 23,000,000 in Italy about 6,000 pounds.

A situation like this is really appalling and it may be added that the growth of the opium evil is no less menacing. One great difficulty in combatting the sale and use of both these drugs is to be found in the lack of uniformity in the state laws. As the Journal of the American Medical association puts it, "Lack of federal control resulting in various conflicting state laws, or more properly speaking, in giving rise to such a diversity of laws that stringency in one state can be overcome by ordering by mail from another state where the laws are less stringent, is undoubtedly the chief reason why our country compares so unfavorably with European countries in respect to the prevalence of morphine addiction."

There is no doubt that this is true and that the lack of regulation is fast creating a national peril as great as any the country has faced. It is pretty well understood by this time that the greater menace, France, lies not in the tendency of its people to race suicide but to their growing slavery to drugs. The poor morale existing in the French navy is well known, and the cause is unquestionably the use of morphine, cocaine and their variants. Even so steady and stalwart a race as the Chinese have been standing on the brink of ruin because of the prevalence of the poppy fields, and it has required almost superhuman determination for them to pull themselves back from the precipice.

The people of the United States are no more able to play with poison than the people of other nations. If this country is to continue great it must pay more than passing attention to the evil that is undermining its vitality and moral standing.—Detroit Free Press.

HAMBURG REGULATIONS.

Excessive noises created by dogs, cats, fowls, etc., in Hamburg may result in the collection from the owners of the offending animals of a fine not exceeding 150 marks (35.70.) or in imprisonment.

The regulations governing the use of automobiles within the imperial territory require that such vehicles shall be so constructed and operated so as to render impossible any preventable annoyance to persons and danger to other vehicles. The use of mufflers on automobiles is not specifically prescribed.

The crying of wares in the public thoroughfares by itinerant merchants is not generally forbidden in Hamburg. In the case of excessive noise of this description the offending merchants may be required by any policeman to moderate the noise and on being so warned must do so at once. If the offense is thereupon repeated, the offender may be fined for infraction of the street ordinances, which prescribe that unconditional obedience must follow instructions from city policemen for the preservation of safety, order and quiet.—Consul-General R. P. Skinner.

RETURN TO NATIVE DRESS.

Shortly after the revolution of 1911-1912 there was a marked tendency among the middle and better class of Chinese to adopt European dress. Most of those who could afford to do so made the change, but the bulk of the people—laborers, artisans and small shopkeepers—could not afford it. However, there was quite a large demand for all sorts of foreign wearing apparel. Lately, however, a reaction has set in, and the United States consul at Swatow is informed that of those who adopted foreign dress last year perhaps 60 per cent have gone back to native clothing. Silk, which declined greatly in price about a year ago, has lately risen again by 20 per cent, which in itself shows that the demand for native clothing is increasing.

DEFIED BY A LITTLE SEED.

A German princess on her death bed ordered that her grave be covered with great granite slabs and that around it should be placed solid blocks of stone and the whole be fastened together with clamps of iron, and that on the stone should be cut these words: "This burial place, purchased for all eternity, must never be opened."

It happened that a little seed was buried with the princess, a single acorn, relates Farm and Fireside. It sprouted under its stone covering; its tiny shoot, soft and pliable at first, found its way through a tiny crevice between two of the slabs. And there it grew, slowly and surely, and there it gathered strength until it burst the clamps asunder and lifted the immense blocks and turned the whole structure into a mass of upheaved rocks. The oak grew to be a mighty tree, and according to the story it still stands overshadowing the now opened tomb of the princess.
