Admitted Now That Practically an Ultimatum Was Sent, Washington Still Is Awaiting Word from Huerta -- Press Dispatches Indicate That Dictator Plans to Continue in Power Indefinitely -- Increasing His Army, He Is Drafting Hundreds of Persons of the Humble Class -- Even Women Are Not Exempt from Enforced Military Duty -- Merchants Alarmed at Decree Making Bank Notes Legal Tender.

BULLETIN.

Havana, Nov. 6.—General Felix Diaz was stabbed by a Mexican here at 10:30 o'clock tonight. He was wounded twice, although probably not fatally.

Cuban Government Warned of Plot.

General Felix Diaz made his escape from Mexico on Oct. 27, taking refuge on board the United States gunboat Wheeling at Vera Cruz. He was transferred to the battleship Louisiana on Nov. 1, and later being put aboard a steamer which reached Havana on Monday last.

Feared to Leave Seaport.

General Diaz was the candidate of the National Democratic party for the presidency. He had been sent out of the country by General Huerta as head of the Mexican special mission to Japan, but returned for the purpose of carrying on his campaign.

Diplomatic Situation Unchanged.

Washington, Nov. 6.—No developments, good, bad or indifferent—this was the word that came from the White House late today as to the status of the Mexican situation, following the presentation to Provisional President Huerta of the "wish" of the United States that he resign.

U. S. MINING MAN KILLED AND ROBBED BY MEXICAN REBELS.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Nov. 6.—R. Weiniger, assistant superintendent of a mining company in the state of Durango, Mexico, was robbed and then killed at the direction of a Constitutional leader and, after the murder, his fingers were cut off so the rebel commander might obtain valuable rings the American wore.

ENVOY LIND LEAVES VERA CRUZ, HEADED FOR CITY OF MEXICO.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 6.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, accompanied by Captain W. A. Burnside, military attaché of the American embassy in Mexico City, departed suddenly at 7:30 o'clock tonight, traveling in the direction of Mexico City.

Practically an Ultimatum.

From the way White House officials discussed the situation there existed no doubt tonight that the "instructions" of Mr. O'Shaughnessy to convey the desires of the United States to General Huerta were substantially as outlined in the dispatches from Mexico City last Monday, although the department's denial that any "ultimatum" had been sent was regarded by many as indicating that the United States government in its communication to Mr. O'Shaughnessy did not mean that it had said its last word.

Confiscated Specie Is Restored.

Vera Cruz, Nov. 6.—One hundred and eighty boxes of silver pesos, each valued at about $3,000, forwarded here by bankers of Mexico City for shipment on the steamer Mexico, were seized by government officials today, giving credit by the authorities that under the law prohibiting such exportation, the money is liable to confiscation.

Maderos in Capital City Prison.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Manuel Madero, uncle of the late president of Mexico, and several relatives, who were recently arrested at Salsillo and placed on a Mexican gunboat supposed to be bound for Vera Cruz, have been taken to Mexico City.

Paris to Follow Washington's Wishes.

Paris, Nov. 6.—Although no official denial regarding possible mediation by France between the United States and Mexico has been issued, inquiries at the foreign office today seemed to indicate that the situation has undergone a slight change since yesterday.

Dr. Henry Allen Tupper, according to Secretary Bryan, is not representing Carranza in any negotiations with the United States, but is giving his own interpretation of the situation.

Huerta's Money Fiat Alarms Merchants.

Mexico City, Nov. 6.—Prevented by the most impetuous reserve displayed at the national palace from learning more of President Huerta's intentions regarding his answer to the American demands, the Mexican people are indulging in speculation as to the final outcome.

Even Women Subject to Conscription.

Unusual activity in recruiting has been displayed recently. So great has become the fear of conscription that Mexicans whose work forces them to go out after dark have begun to carry credentials, showing that they have steady employment. Much drafting among the humbler classes has taken place.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1913.

TOO GLEEFUL BY FAR

The administration is getting more satisfaction out of the election returns than they appear to warrant. President Wilson, as he surveys the tabulations, seems far too expansive, and Secretary of State Bryan too gleeful.

It is much more difficult for a disinterested person to find any marked endorsement of the administration in the voting of the week. It exhibits results of the helpful nature, for the Democrats, of the Progressive and Republican split, rather than any general desire to give the President token of approval for his work.

In Massachusetts and New Jersey the successful Democratic nominees for governor polled fewer votes than were cast for their Progressive and Republican opponents. No reason exists to doubt that if the Progressives and Republicans had been united on a progressive candidate of unimpeachable reputation and without embarrassing connections, the Democrats would have been defeated in both these states.

At the same time, it would be erroneous to conclude that the minority vote by which the Democrats have elected governors in New Jersey and Massachusetts is to be taken as indicative of a lack of sympathy with the administration. Local issues played a considerable part in both elections, and it was a matter of remark in Massachusetts that the men running Walsh's campaign were persons non grata to the administration.

It is easy to overestimate the degree to which the administration was an issue in the recent elections, and of course it is as easy to draw, along that line, false conclusions of the significance of the results. No substantial evidence has been given that the Wilson administration is not establishing a firm hold on the good opinion of the country. At the same time it would be unjustifiable to assert that a general opinion warmly favorable to it had yet been achieved. The public is in a waiting frame of mind. And particularly it is waiting to observe whether the latest "hit and miss" revision of the tariff—one whose results will punish the people in the neighborhood of the pocketbook.

YOUNG MR. MALONE

Dudley Field Malone, one of the assistant secretaries of state, who had much to do with the early stages of the pre-convention Wilson campaign in Michigan, and who has been one of the best bets of the Michigan "originals" who have been seeking a large measure of recognition at the capital, is referred to as a likely successor to Mitchell, the New York mayor-elect, as collector at that port.

Malone created one of the sensations of the recent campaign by appearing at the Fusion meeting at Madison Square garden and denouncing Tammany, among other things characterizing McCall as "Murphy's messenger boy." Although Mr. Malone explicitly asserted that he spoke for no person but himself, his address was taken as visible token of President Wilson's approval of the fight on Tammany.

Malone is a son-in-law of Senator O'Gorman, of New York, and when within a few hours O'Gorman gave out a statement in which he endorsed Tammany, highly praised McCall and announced his determination to support the whole ticket, visions of a showdown in the O'Gorman family and its related branches were at once conjured up. It is suggested that the senator would like to have the picking of the new collector of the port of New York, and it is intimated that his choice would not be Malone, but there appears to be as good an even chance that the President will keep his own counsel in filling this office.

Not having heard anything to the contrary, The Mining Journal is apparently warranted in concluding that its estimate of the "Workingmen's club" and the value of its contribution to the debate over commission government in Marquette is substantially correct.

Our understanding of the matter is that Gus Gardner, of Massachusetts, did not lose the bird in the hand to go after the one in the bush, and that, therefore, he will still continue a member of the house of representatives. Canny Gus.

And we have no doubt that Charles Sumner Bird, the irrepressible and delightful contributor by the Progressives to the politics of Massachusetts, has already entered on his plans for the campaign of 1914.

William Barnes, Jr., Republican state chairman of New York, and Mr. Murphy's side kick in dubious bi-partisan political enterprises, boasts that the Re-

EDITORIAL OPINION
Glyn's Business

Governor Glyn is quoted as saying: "Let Honesty furnish the proof of graft in the state departments." If the governor has said this he need not be surprised to see flame up against him doubts that recently there has been an effort to suppress. It is not Honesty's business to furnish the proof. That is the business of Glyn, not of Honesty. It is Glyn's business, who possesses power to investigate.

Before his work was interrupted Honesty uncovered enough facts to warrant a further scrutiny of the highway and canal contracts and how they have been carried out. If Governor Glyn does not go on with the work there is not an intelligent person in the state who will have any doubt as to why he will not. It will be more of a vindication of Sulzer than any election result in an Assembly district.—New York Globe.

Beef As Food. Perhaps a greater service than he had any idea was rendered by Gustav Bishop, of St. Louis, when he said before the Chicago meat packers that if the failure of the beef cattle supply continues for ten years the best beefsteak will cost a dollar a pound, and with rice and potatoes and other articles of diet we shall descend to the condition of the Chinese.

Nobody takes this pessimistic assertion seriously, but it has had two results. It has caused a country-wide discussion of the means to increase the beef supply and brought out some important facts in regard to the habit of making beef or meat of some kind the chief article of diet.

The use of meat in sanitarians is not being increased, not by reason of its cost, but because fooders are coming to hold it in esteem. The Japanese, a rice-eating people, defeated Russia in a great war. There are no stronger men in the world than the Chinese, whose feats as laborers have long been the wonder of the civilized world. The Turks eat very little meat, and mostly mutton, but they are a powerful race. Although the English have eaten much less meat than Americans and more mutton than beef, they are no weaker.

It is not impossible that the people of the United States will soon be taught by experience that they do not need the quantity of beef they have accustomed themselves to and would be better off with a more moderate use of it.—Cleveland Leader.

Mr. Churchill's Naval Holiday. The French press treats the proposal of Mr. Churchill, the head of the British Navy Department, to suspend the building of warships for two years, if Germany will do the same, rather cynically. The Temps dismisses it as an "electoral device." It holds that Mr. Churchill is bound to perform his duty as a statesman much faster than the German Navy is increased; that in doing so he meets a good deal of opposition from the more radical wing of his party, and that it is to these radicals, and not to Germany, that his proposition is really made. Only by making this offer, and having it refused, as he must have known that it would be, can he prove to the radicals that he is absolutely compelled to go on spending money on the navy. It does not mean that Mr. Churchill of old faith. His proposal is a good one in itself, and he would doubtless be very glad to have it accepted. But he could have had very little hope that it would be. It has shared the fate of previous propositions of the same sort.

It is not clear, however, that there may not be some advantage in the policy of Mr. Churchill. It has not yet been definitely rejected by Germany; it has been received in that country with decidedly less ill-temper than has been shown in the past. While it has been ridiculed by the Navy League and the more bellicose newspapers, it has been treated with respect by the organs of the financial and industrial classes, and there has been no clearly adverse criticism in official quarters. Moreover, the proposition is likely to have some effect on public sentiment in Germany, accompanied, as it is, by a frank declaration that if the offer is ignored Great Britain will go on as fast as ever in building up her navy. If Mr. Churchill's purpose was to convince his own countrymen that he is helpless so long as Germany goes ahead, he may convince the Germans that it is their own government that forces him to continue building. As the pressure accumulates, and the Germans feel that they are being outperformed by British financial expression. When it does the government will be forced to listen to it.—New York Times.

A Compulsory Wireless. The arrival of a steamer at St. Johns, N. F., after a race against destruction with her bow stove in and her pumps working to their greatest capacity in order to enable the ship to reach the shore before her hold was so filled with water as to prevent further progress, suggests the need for a compulsory wireless. The Manchester Commerce had on such equipment. On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock she ran into an iceberg and within a few minutes had no radio, there was no assistance near and there was no way of summoning other ships to aid. Fortunately the engines were not incapacitated and there began the long race for land, with the engine striving to keep down the flood in the hold. The race was won, when the harbor was reached two days later.

But suppose the accident had been just a little more serious, that the opening in the bow had been so great that the pumps could not be controlled by the pumps, that it had been imperative to have assistance. In that case still another would have been added to the tragedies of the sea. The ship would have gone down and the crew would either have been lost or would have floated about on the ocean in the little open boats until by chance they were picked up.

When the Titanic sank in mid-ocean the message of the wireless had already summoned help and ships were speeding from all directions to the scene of the disaster. The loss was not so terrible even then as it was due to the promptness with which assistance came. More recently the message speeding through the air summoned vessels from all sides to the aid of the burning Volturno and made it possible to save many of the people aboard. The value of this modern invention that keeps the ships of the sea in touch with each other and with land has been fully demonstrated. We have admirably laws compelling ships to carry wireless. It is not fully as necessary that they be equipped with the wireless, for the safety of those who happen to be on board in time of accident. Is there not need of regulations making the wireless a compulsory part of the equipment of every modern ocean-going vessel?—Saginaw Courier-Herald.

Punctuality. If two men have an agreement to meet on business at a certain hour and one of them is ten minutes late without excuse, it seems a small matter—only a sixth of an hour. It is not a small matter, however. It punishes one of the men for the carelessness of the other and deprives them both of a measurable part of a day already too short.

Someone should write a textbook on punctuality. In one of the old readers was a story entitled "A Moment Too Late," aiming to teach that lesson and to show the variety of tragic things likely to happen when one arrives behind schedule. That is the theme, but there is too much tragedy. One needs a more sane treatment.

It is not without reason that a pupil gets a tardy mark for being a laggard. Unless a child can be taught promptness in meeting obligations at school not much need be expected of him in later life. He is likely to spend his mature years rushing headlong after opportunities which have already expired.

Be punctual. If you agree to do a friend or associate a job, do not keep him waiting till 10:15. If efficiency ever comes to rule the ordinary habits of life some form of severe punishment will have to be devised for those habitually late in keeping appointments.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

against the city. It is contended that the information will show that while Port Huron is entitled to but thirty-seven saloons under the 1910 census, forty-five are operating. The case may not only establish a precedent in Michigan, but may result in the cancellation of many local licenses.

MARSHALL—In a report which will be submitted to the Calhoun County Bar association, H. E. Winsor, formerly circuit judge of the county, will advocate that every young attorney, who is admitted to the bar shall be placed on probation, at least three years, in the office of an older attorney to determine whether he is competent to practice.

LANSING—Attorney General Fellows holds that a county clerk or his deputy is not entitled to charge a fee for administering an oath to an applicant for a hunter's license regardless of whether such oath is administered by the county official as a notary public. "The fact that the oath is administered by the clerk in the capacity of notary public does not change the situation," says Fellows.

OWOSSO—Samuel Phillips, the Lenon merchant, thought to have been fatally hurt in an automobile accident several weeks ago, was discharged from the hospital. When Phillips arrived at the hospital he had a wealth of raven black hair. Today it is pure white. The intense suffering following the accident and the mental cloud under which Phillips has rested since the accident causing the change.

OWOSSO—Leaving his young wife perfectly well at Alma, John C. Engelson, a young traveling man, started for Toledo. At the station here a telegram was delivered to him, telling him to come home at once, for his wife was dying. Prostrated with grief and desperate in his efforts to avoid losing time in getting back, he chartered a locomotive here, and was rushed full speed back to his home.

ALBION—Albert C. Behling was awakened by dogs barking in his sheep pasture. When daylight came he found nearly two hundred of his flock of 348 lying dead in a ditch with two dogs worrying the remainder of the flock. He killed one dog. The authorities hope to locate the owners and place the responsibility on them. The loss was $750, and is the greatest ever sustained here at any one time through sheep-killing dogs.

LANSING—Grant Slocum, of Detroit, head of the Cleaners, has written a letter to State Game Warden W. R. Bates in which he says that the Cleaners have no intention of demanding an investigation of Oates' office. In a published interview E. V. Edmund, of Isocoo county, was quoted as saying that one of Oates' deputies had tried to bribe him, and said that the Cleaners, of which he is a member, were behind a movement to investigate Oates.

PORT HURON—Every saloon license in the city of Port Huron will be investigated by the St. Clair county courts as the result of mandamus proceedings in connection with the Stephen Allen liquor license. Some time ago the city commission refused to approve the bonds which had been filed by Edmund Utting, administrator of the Allen estate, on the ground that Allen's death constituted a voluntary surrender of his license. Mandamus proceedings were instituted.

PONTIAC—Mrs. Margaret Gordon, seventy-seven years old, was instantly killed when she stepped in front of an automobile driven by R. Lutz, an employee of the Tiffany Electric Car company of this city. The accident occurred in front of the home of her son. An inquest will be held. The man was driving slowly, but a shawl which Mrs. Gordon wore around her hat obscured her view of the car.

LANSING—The simplest office equipment offered by the state of Michigan has been discovered. It is in the office of "The board of inquiry into the conditions and hours of laboring women." The name of the commission is the only elaborate thing about it. The commission has picked out a little room on the third floor of the capital, and for furniture has a table and a few chairs. When the members want a stenographer they "borrow" one from some other department.

LANSING—The Wolverine Coal company, of Bay City, has appealed to the supreme court from the decision of the industrial accident board in the case of Mrs. Anna Andropewski, whose husband was killed by falling rock at the Wolverine mine a year ago. The arbitration committee and the accident board awarded the widow a compensation of $10 a week for 300 weeks. It is contended by the company that the accident board is allowing the widow more than her husband earned as a miner.

TRAVERSE CITY—The resort hotel Neatwanta, fourteen miles from Traverse City on Grand Traverse bay, was destroyed by fire. As the water supply had been cut off at the time the resort season nothing could be done to save the building, although aid was sent from Traverse City. Thirty minutes after the fire started the building was in ruins. The hotel was built in 1903, and had been improved and remodelled until it was regarded as one of the best in this section. The loss is estimated at $30,000. It is probable that the hotel will be rebuilt. Local capitalists owned it.

MONTON—Frank Moffitt, who lives near this place, knows well what it means to have good friends and neighbors. Over a year ago he was the victim of a runaway in which his back was broken. Constant lying on his back has been his lot ever since. This spring neighbors put in his crops, and kindly hands from time to time attended to keeping things going for him. But when the harvest time came Mr. Moffitt was in the same hard physical condition. What good are corn, potatoes, etc., if left in the ground, asked Mr. Moffitt's lodge brothers and sisters. No good at all, and they set aside a day to garner in the harvest. In a crowd they proceeded to the Monton farm last week, hocked and cribbed the corn and potatoes, gathered the potatoes in the cellar, gathered the vegetables, and pulled all the roots.

ANTIQUITY OF FOOTBALL. At Derby a game of football was played as early as the Third century, in commemoration of a victory over the Roman legion at Chester. The first football used in the annual game, still played each Easter, is said to have been the head of a Danish invader. In the tale of Purbeck, too, says the London Chronicle, the free quarries from time immemorial have perpetuated their claim

A NIGHT OF TERROR. Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by All Dealers.

THEY HAD STUDIED ENGLISH. The editor of the Wisconsin experiment station, desiring a complete reference library of the resources of the state, sent a circular letter to the horticultural, dairying and other agricultural organizations of Wisconsin, asking for copies of their "last reports." In the same hour the same right, not called by the organization wrote: "Our last report, we hope, is not yet published, but we take pleasure in sending under separate cover a copy of our latest report."

ANY ACCEPTED. One morning while Mrs. Cobb was at her summer home in the country she decided to go uptown and spend the day with a friend. Her goods had not called by the time she was ready to leave so she wrote on a card: "All out. Don't leave anything." And tucked it on the door.

Upon her return at night she found the house had been ransacked and nearly everything of any value had been taken. On the card which she had left on the door these words had been added: "Thanks. We haven't left much."—Lippincott's.

DO NOT MISTAKE THE CAUSE. Many Marquette People Have Kidney Trouble and Do Not Know It. Do you have backache? Are you tired and worn out? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular? Highly colored; contain sediment? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warning of distress. Heed the warning; don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy. Read this Chatham testimony. John Jacobson, Chatham, Mich., says "For over a year I had kidney trouble. I suffered from pain in the small of my back and was hardly able to stoop or lift. I became easily tired, was languid and nervous and was also subject to headaches and dizzy spells. The kidney secretions were too frequent, in passing obliging me to arise at night. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply and three boxes permanently cured me." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, the sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

to a grant of land by kicking a football across it. In the fourteenth century the game was so popular as to call forth an edict forbidding it, on the ground that it interfered with the practice of martial exercise. In later times Shakespeare referred contemptuously to the game, but perhaps few would be able to turn up readily the passage in "King Lear" describing "a base football player."

ANCIENT RELICS ARE FOUND.

Priest in New Mexico Discovers Ruins Antedating Spaniards.

Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 6.—Forgotten cities of a prehistoric people far beyond what was deemed the farthest eastern limit of the town buildings are reported by Father Julius Hartman of the Catholic parish at Willard, Torrance county, to the School of American Archaeology at Santa Fe.

Father Hartman was compelled to give up his exploration by severe weather until next spring, but made a survey of sixty miles of ruins and rock inscriptions, extending from the present Mexican village of Pinos Wells to the Canyon Pintada in a region that is desolate and uninhabited, and touched only at long intervals by sheep herders.

The ruins of the villages and communal dwellings antedate the Spanish conquest of 1598 and more years ago, and judging from the debris that covered the sites and hides the ruins the cities are a thousand and more years old. The two villages nearest to Pinos Wells are located on a high mound and the communal buildings are circular in form.

From the burial place Father Hartman took skeletons, funeral urns, pottery, stone implements, weapons and other relics characteristic of the prehistoric town builders of the Rio Grande valley.

Tuolumne, for the first time in many months, earned profits in October estimated at $20,000.

City Brevities

Today's weather: Rain; not much change in temperature. Yesterday's temperatures: Seven a. m., 44 degrees; noon, 52; 7 p. m., 51; highest, 56; lowest, 43.

M. A. Doty and Frank Williams, of Munising, were here yesterday. J. C. Abel, of the Soo, is in the city on his days' business trip.

H. Pimstein, of Houghton, spent yesterday in Marquette on business. St. Paul's guild will meet in the Guild hall this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. J. J. Lang is visiting in Detroit. Her mother is actually ill in that city.

The Cloverland club will give a dancing party at Keough's Hall Saturday night.

W. B. Pattison was down from Ne-gawace yesterday on a business mission.

Born Monday, at St. Luke's hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Borseth, of Bergland, a daughter.

The Women's society of the German Lutheran church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Richard Sparrow, of Duluth, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Handford, East Hewitt avenue.

M. C. Quinn, of Escanaba, spent Wednesday in the city visiting his daughter, Mrs. John McCarthy, 316 South Fifth street.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Montford, 412 Hewitt avenue.

The Women's society of the Presbyterian church will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. George Tucker, corner of Pine street and Hewitt avenue.

The usual bi-monthly dancing party at the Guild Hall will be held tomorrow evening. Dancing will start at 8:15 o'clock instead of 8:30, it is announced. Refreshments will be served, as usual.

The world's championship baseball series will be shown on the motion picture screen at the Marquette Opera House Saturday afternoon and evening. Six reels of pictures and vaudeville will be the bill for the matinee.

Manda Hendricks will be the vaudeville attraction at the Marquette Opera House tonight and tomorrow night in a catchy singing and talking act. Miss Hendricks makes a number of quick changes in costume in her act.

The remains of the late Mrs. Martin Cleven will be interred at Park cemetery Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. Platte T. Amstutz, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Cleven's body has been in the vault at the cemetery for some weeks, illness of relatives delaying the funeral.

House Again Sold Out—The Marquette opera house was again sold out last evening for the Howe Travel Festival. The opera business for the two nights exceeded that of the previous engagement of this attraction here, plainly showing that it is losing none of its popularity.

Must Go Back for Trial—Frank Hivak, arrested here a week ago by Sheriff Toloney, at the request of the authorities at Detroit, will be taken to Detroit today by two special officers from that city to stand trial on a charge of wife desertion. Little is known about his case here. He has one child.

Prisoners Brought Here—A deputy sheriff of Wayne county yesterday brought Peter Mackiewicz to the Marquette prison to serve a life sentence for murder. Paul Chopp was received from Houghton county Wednesday evening, he having been sentenced to from two to three years for a statutory offense.

Preparing Petition—A petition to be presented at the next meeting of the city council, Nov. 17, asking for the use of the lake shore for the next winter as a speedway, is now being prepared by the members of the Matinee Racing club. It is planned to flood the drive, and use it for "bike" and cutter races two afternoons a week.

Ready in About a Month—Superintendent Johnston, of the fire and water commission, expects that it will be possible to have the new electric pump in operation within a month. The installation is complete, with all the pumps set up, and the delay starting them at present is due to a wait for fittings that could not be ordered until the pumps were in place.

Adjourned Hearing Today—The adjourned hearing of Thomas McElroy held on a murder charge, will occur this morning in Justice Byrne's court. The hearing was continued from Wednesday. Only a few more witnesses remain to be examined, and from the character of the testimony taken so far, it is almost a certainty that McElroy will be held for the next term of circuit court.

Takes Desirable Position—Joseph LaBonte, who has been in the employ of his brother, Frank LaBonte, the grocer on North Third street, has accepted a position as representative of the Loose, Leach & Co. of Chicago, manufacturers of Sunshine biscuit specialties, in the upper peninsula, and has entered on his new duties. Mr. LaBonte succeeds the late W. C. Smith, who represented the company in the upper peninsula for a number of years, and whose death recently occurred at St. Mary's hospital.

Open Saturday Evening—The office of the county clerk will be open tomorrow evening from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock for the convenience of Marquette hunters who may desire to obtain deer licenses. The season will open Monday, and there are large numbers of hunters who plan to start for the woods Sunday. Already many Marquette men have gone to their camps to get them in order for the hunting season. It is expected that the number of hunters from this city will show no falling off compared with other seasons.

Orchestra Is Well Received—Frank Trombly, formerly of Marquette, writes friends here that he has been given a cordial greeting in Escanaba as leader of the new Military band orchestra, and that the people of the city are showing great interest in the organization. The Escanaba Mirror had the following reference to his first dance engagement: "More than ninety couples made merry at the dance given by the Cloverland Dancing club in the Clark hall from 9 until nearly 1 o'clock. The decorations were unique. Black cats and witches peeped from behind the shadow curtains, pumpkin-devils glared from every corner, while a man of straw with a pumpkin head, standing upon several bales of hay supervised the festivities. Chairs were dispensed with for the main part and bails of hay served as seats. About the edges of the hall corn stalks were strewn. The Escanaba Military Band orchestra gave of its best and so insistent were the dancers in their demand for encores that a limit of three had to be placed. Refreshments were served throughout the evening."

"Timmy" Downs Surprised—To have the hose wagon and hook and ladder cart of the Marquette fire department come dashing up to his home at 247 Fisher street and to be told that his services were required, and then to be taken to the house where he entertained at a celebration in honor of his having become a benedict, was the experience of T. J. Downs last evening. Mr. Downs was recently married to Miss Rachael Beaudry. At the house house last evening James Donovan and Chief Manoy both gave short talks, and Mr. Downs responded, telling of his deep appreciation for the wedding gifts received from the department, and spoke feelingly of the cordial relations that have existed at all times among the firemen.

Buried by Sand—Michael Dwyer was seriously injured yesterday afternoon while working in a ditch on the city water main near Longyear & Hodges' plant. The ditch was cribbed to hold back the sand, and Dwyer stepped on one of the braces, causing the crib to fall on him. The sand slid down on the crib, and only the quick action of a number of employes on the sewer contract, who heard his cries for help, saved his life. When they arrived the sand was already up to his shoulders and was gradually creeping up to his head. It required about fifteen minutes to dig him out. He was taken to his home on Rock street.

Another Store Front—A new front is to be put in the Watson-Palmer building on South Front street, the sixth building in Marquette for which such plans have been made this summer. J. M. Byrnes, architect, yesterday completed the drawings for the changes. The building will be divided into two stories, with a new entrance leading to the second floor. A modern front, with large plateglass windows and the main doors set in slightly from the street, allowing show windows in the doorway, prism plateglass transoms, all in an ornamental iron, and a new brick cornice above the transom line are some of the changes to be made in the building. Work on the remodeling will be started as soon as the material arrives.

TO SUPPLY DEMAND.

Paris Fashion Display Pretty Dresses for Approaching Party Season.

Realizing the necessity for supplying the demands to be made this fall by Marquette's young women for party gowns and dancing frocks, simple and elaborate, The Paris Fashion, Marquette's "Style Authority Shop," has introduced a line of dresses which they believe will exactly meet the requirements of those who desire style embodied in materials of good quality and excellent workmanship. In furnishing the store with such stock, they have selected judiciously in regard to price and are offering the gowns at reasonable prices within a great range. Popular priced gowns are especially numerous.

Marquette young women who expect to attend the several series of parties to be given during the forthcoming social season by the Kappa Alpha Pi fraternity of the Elks, Masons, Knights of Pythias of the other social clubs of the city, or the private parties to be given will find a suitable gown for each and every occasion awaiting them at the Paris Fashion. Unquestionably, there has never been such an array of fine dresses brought to this city.

Blacks are especially strong in party dresses this year. Typical styles may be seen in the north window of The Paris Fashion. Also for markedly women, gowns in suitable models and colors are shown. To those who stop in will be shown visions of loveliness in Oriental net; shadow lace gowns with girdles of soft silks in a variety of colors; chiffons with accordion pleated skirts, over-draped with coats of shadow lace; white chiffon with the popular coral velvet trimming; the new rainbow hue, of delicate pink and blue combination, trimmed with beads, which is very largely in vogue in the fashion centers this fall; also beaded coat effects over colored charmeuse of light hues. An especially charming dress is of light blue crepe, flounced with ruffles of shadow lace, carrying a touch of narrow black velvet ribbon, and having a bodice of chiffon with a Dolly Varden design, the whole giving a charming Louis XIV effect largely sought by the fashionable modistes of this country. The charming effects found in the entire line could scarcely be produced through any other medium than "The Style Authority Shop" at prices comparable to those at which they are being offered now.

AUXILIARY ORGANIZED.

Wives of Railway Conductors Formed Society Last Evening.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors is the name of a new society formed at Keough's Hall last evening at a meeting of twenty-five wives of conductors who live in Marquette. The lodge has twenty-five charter members and will meet on the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Mrs. Frances T. Valentine, of Escanaba, deputy of the upper peninsula auxiliaries of the order, and Mrs. Rose Wade, also of Escanaba, officiated at the organization last evening.

Officers were chosen as follows: President—Mrs. Amelia Vaughan. Vice President—Mrs. Kate LaBranch. Secretary and treasurer—Mrs. Margaret Brown. Senior sister—Mrs. Margaret MacDonal. Junior sister—Mrs. Helen Woods. Guard—Mrs. Mary Dorie. Executive Committee—Mrs. Emma Dettman, chairman; Mrs. Belda Oberg and Mrs. Elizabeth Toussaint. Insurance—Mrs. Hattie Clemenson. Link Officers—Helen Woods, Mrs. Etta Cox, Mrs. Kate Annier and Mrs. Florence O'Neill. Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Minnie Sullivan. Financial Secretary—Mrs. Loretta Pickett.

Two sessions were held yesterday, one in the afternoon, when the general plans for the organization were discussed, and one in the evening, when the auxiliary was formally organized and placed on an operating basis. A delectable supper was served in the hall at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Valentine will return to Escanaba today.

CITY ATTORNEY ON CHARTER.

To the Editor of The Mining Journal: The drift of thought upon municipal government has of late been towards centralized authority and responsibility.

The scheme of the new charter is of the first type above mentioned, which the later thought has modified.

With the evident purpose that the mayor should be given such powers and responsibilities as to attract to the office men who would distinguish the city.

I have before me a letter written Nov. 4, to Dr. Dawson, of this city, by the police justice of Pontiac, giving the following among the reasons for the success of commission form of government in that city.

SPEAKER'S DAUGHTER IS HOUSE'S EMISSARY

Genevieve Clark in New York to Select Wedding Present to Jessie Wilson.

New York, Nov. 6.—Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of Speaker Champ Clark, is in New York this week to select on behalf of the house of representatives the gift of the house to Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the president, on her wedding day.

Miss Clark was not sure that she would buy the present, but said today: "I am only going to see the best things the jeweler has to offer, and then let the house decide if my selection is what it wants."

THE WEATHER

Washington, Nov. 6.—The following is the weather bureau's forecast for Upper Michigan: Local rains, Friday or Friday night and probably Saturday; cooler, Saturday; moderate to brisk southwest winds shifting to west and northwest by Saturday.

MAN WHO ASKS DIVORCE APPLIES AT SAME TIME FOR WEDDING LICENSE FOR SON

Chanute, Kan., Nov. 6.—Because W. W. Bagle, of Altoona, had made a failure of married life, he considered it no reason why his son should. When he came to the county seat today to file action for divorce from his wife, he obtained a marriage license for his son, eighteen years old. The father alleges in his divorce petition that his wife refused to cook his meals and do the housework.

District Attorney Fredericks Denies the Informer Plans to Flee Country.

Los Angeles, Nov. 6.—Ortie E. McManigal, the confessed dynamiter, who implicated the McManiga brothers and other dangerous evildoers against other labor leaders, will be formally freed soon, according to a statement made today by John D. Fredericks, district attorney, who on Monday, last, ordered the informer's release from the county jail because of the prisoner's "poor health."

ATTORNEY DANIEL DONAHOE A MAN OF GOOD REPUTATION, TESTIFIES CARTER HARRISON

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Mayor Carter Harrison, several city officials, members of the bar and others testified in behalf of Daniel Donahoe today in his trial on a charge of conspiracy to defame Clarence S. Funk, Mayor Harrison said he had known Donahoe for twenty-five years, and that the attorney's reputation as a man and lawyer was good.

COUNCIL PLANS TO FORCE PAYMENTS
DELINQUENT SEWER ASSESSMENTS
Will Be Placed on Forthcoming Tax Roll.

Upon information from the city treasurer relative to the failure of property owners in the Sixth ward to pay the fifth installment of the expense of constructing the sewer designated as extension No. 3, of District No. 2, the finance committee recommended to the council Wednesday evening that the assessor be instructed to place on the tax roll the sum due from each property owner and collect the same with the taxes next month. The following resolution was adopted:
"Whereas, It appears from the returns made by the city treasurer of this city, with reference to special assessment roll No. 15, for extension No. 3 of sewer district No. 2 covering fifth installment of the expense of constructing sewers in the Sixth ward; that as to certain parcels of land included within said assessment roll, the said installment covered by said roll have not been paid. Now therefore be it resolved, That the city recorder be and he hereby is required to furnish the city assessor a description of the lots and premises contained in said assessment roll heretofore referred to as to which said taxes are unpaid, with the amount of the assessment levied upon each, and the name of the owner or occupant against whom the assessment was made, and be it further
"Resolved, That said city assessor is thereupon required to levy the said sums so delivered with interest thereon, upon the respective lots and premises to which they are specially assessed, and against the person chargeable therewith as a tax in the roll of this year, in a column for special assessments."

RESOLVED, THAT THE CITY RECORDER BE AND HE HEREBY IS REQUIRED TO FURNISH THE CITY ASSESSOR A DESCRIPTION OF THE LOTS AND PREMISES CONTAINED IN SAID ASSESSMENT ROLL HERETOFORE REFERRED TO AS TO WHICH SAID TAXES ARE UNPAID, WITH THE AMOUNT OF THE ASSESSMENT LEVIED UPON EACH, AND THE NAME OF THE OWNER OR OCCUPANT AGAINST WHOM THE ASSESSMENT WAS MADE, AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, THAT SAID CITY ASSESSOR IS THEREUPON REQUIRED TO LEVY THE SAID SUMS SO DELIVERED WITH INTEREST THEREON, UPON THE RESPECTIVE LOTS AND PREMISES TO WHICH THEY ARE SPECIALLY ASSESSED, AND AGAINST THE PERSON CHARGEABLE THEREWITH AS A TAX IN THE ROLL OF THIS YEAR, IN A COLUMN FOR SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS."

BILLS LIGHT LAST MONTH.

Other pictures will be "Scenes in Honolulu," Vitagraph topical, and an Edison drama, "By Fire and Water." The Homatite City Four will complete its engagement tonight.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!
People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.
No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.
Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result.
Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet company, Columbus, O.

WITH THE BOWLERS.
Team No. 1 took two out of three games, and also won by total pins, from Team No. 9, in a match game of the three-men league series at the Empire alleys Wednesday evening. Geelan had the high score of the three games, rolling 192.

SNOW SHOE CLUB OFFICERS.
The newly elected officers of the Ishpeming Snow Shoe club are as follows:
President—W. H. Newett.
Vice President—Leo Schilling.
Secretary and Treasurer—Harry Hickory.
Captain—W. H. Norman.
Lieutenant—James Roberts.
The first meeting at the club house will be held Monday evening. Volley ball will be introduced at the club house for the first time, and if the members like the game it will take the place of indoor baseball during the winter.

MASONS ENTERTAIN.
Delegation of Members Down from Copper Country Wednesday.

Twenty-eight members of the Masonic lodges of Houghton and Hancock paid a fraternal visit to the Ishpeming lodge Wednesday evening, arriving on the 6:30 train and returning on the midnight train on a special sleeper.

On arrival, the visitors were entertained at the Masonic hall, where a fine dinner was served. Several members, including nearly all of the officers of the Negamie lodge, were also present. In the neighborhood of 100 were served.

Following the dinner a session of the lodge was held and the third degree was exemplified by the Ishpeming officers. After the business session, the evening was enjoyably spent in social diversions. Several of the copper country men gave short talks and a number of the Ishpeming Masons were also heard. Among the visitors who spoke were: Worshipful Master Fox of the Hancock lodge and Worshipful Master Fisher of the Houghton lodge.

V. S. Hilyer, worshipful master of the Ishpeming lodge, Rev. C. G. Zeigler, rector of Grace Episcopal church and Dr. T. F. Felch gave short addresses. Mr. Hilyer's talk was in the nature of a welcome to the visitors. Rev. Zeigler spoke in a humorous vein, and Dr. Felch gave an account of the career of George Washington and Alexander Lodge to which he belonged. Dr. Felch had the pleasure last spring, while visiting Dr. Joseph Vandeventer in Virginia, to attend the session of Alexandria lodge. He spoke principally on Washington as a man, soldier and Mason, and presented a number of interesting pictures he secured while in Alexandria.

The visit of the copper country Masons was in the nature of a return call for one that the members of Ishpeming lodge paid them last winter.

Tonight, if you feel dull and stupid, or bilious and constipated, take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you will feel all right tomorrow. For sale by All Dealers.

SKI CLUBS ACTIVE.
Twenty-Eight Tournaments Planned, According to Aksel Holter.

Aksel H. Holter, of Ashland, Wis., secretary of the National Ski association, stated a few days ago that the coming winter will be the most successful in the association's history. A number of new clubs have applied for admission. Mr. Holter expects a membership of 1,500 in the thirty-five clubs this season.

"Several of the clubs which deserted as last fall during the fight between the Duluth club and the association and who joined the International Amateur Ski association have again applied for membership in the old organization," said Mr. Holter. The Monomnie (Wis.) club is one of the deserters desirous of coming back into the fold.

The national meet is to be held this year in Virginia, Minn., Feb. 14 and 15, and the officers of the club are to make big preparations for it. The first tournament to be held will be in Mount Horeb, Wis., near Madison, on New Year's day. The Mount Horeb club is one of the new members this year, having been organized by Mr. Holter the first part of September. The other dates have been definitely arranged by the officers are as follows: Hudson, Wis., Feb. 8; Fergus Falls, Minn., Feb. 12, and Ishpeming, Feb. 22.

Chas. Flagstad, president of the Superior club, will call a meeting next week to prepare plans for the winter's activities here. The Ashland club will hold its tournament during the month of January. The other dates of the tournaments will soon be announced.

There will be twenty-eight interstate tournaments held this year in addition to the local meets, according to Secretary Holter. "We are also going to have many fine riders and everything points to the coming winter proving the banner year for the sport," Mr. Holter also said that since the secession of Duluth and St. Paul last winter the other clubs are taking a greater interest in the affairs of the association.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

The employees of the Oliver Iron Mining Company will receive wages for the last half of October as follows: Stogermiller mine, Swanzy range, next Wednesday, the 12th, Lake Superior mines, 13th, and Queen group, Negaunee, the 14th.

Louis Geelan, brother of "Pop" Geelan, arrived in the city yesterday from Alberta, Can., to remain here two months, taking John Talo's position at the Empire Millard hall. Mr. Talo will leave next week for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will spend two months at a sanitarium.

George Winter and bride, who have been visiting relatives in Ishpeming for the past week, left last night for Bisbee, Ariz., where he holds the position of head carpenter at the Copper Queen company's mines. They will stop enroute, in Chicago, New York, Memphis and New Orleans.

Mining News

AMALGAMATED.

It was just about fourteen years ago on Oct. 16, 1899, that the Amalgamated Copper company paid its first dividend. It amounted to $2 a share. And just fourteen years later, without a skip or a break, sometimes more, sometimes less, the company paid its fifty-seventh dividend.

102,180, or an average of $6,850,153 a year, and in addition has charged off against earnings and surplus of subsidiary companies for depreciation and disbursement more than $31,000,000.

The year 1900 was the company's banner year as regards dividend payments, a total of 8 per cent, or $8 per share, being distributed in that year. The lowest annual disbursement since 1907, when the annual disbursement was 2 per cent in 1903, that rate having been paid in 1902, 1904 and 1908 to 1911, inclusive. In 1912 the payments were increased to 4 per cent, while in the current year 6 per cent will have been paid, the largest yearly disbursement since 1907, when 7 per cent a share was paid.

MIAMI.

It has been practically determined to alter the first five sections of the Miami concentrator to conform with the sixth unit, which now procures a two-pound per ton better extraction than the rest of the plant. In carrying out this program each section will be enlarged sufficiently to permit of the total treatment of 4,000 tons of ore daily, against 3,000 tons, the existing capacity. Such an enlargement would increase Miami's monthly production from about 3,000,000 pounds to 4,200,000 pounds. If the plans materialize this work will be carried out next year so that by 1915 the full increase may be enjoyed. Under the direction of J. Parke Channing, consulting engineer, there have been carried on for some time a series of experiments which, if adopted, will be utilized both by Miami and New Keystone. The treatment of mixed sulphide and oxide ores has been most puzzling, not only to Miami but to other companies having similar mixtures. A twenty-ton experimental plant will soon be started by Miami upon a new process, the details of which follow, in brief:

- 1. Coarse crushing and removal of fine dust.
2. Rough water concentration to take out coarse sulphide matter.
3. Roasting of tailings from above.
4. Leaching with sulphuric acid solution.
5. Precipitation of copper by electrolysis and regeneration of solution with sulphurous acid gas, the solution then being used again for leaching.

During October Miami treated about 2,500 tons of ore daily. Some improvement has been noted in the extraction which has run about 70 per cent, but copper costs have not yet got down to the level believed in store for the property. It is understood that costs of late have been between nine and ten cents a pound.

NOTES OF MINING NEWS.

The Anaconda produced 18,400,000 pounds of copper during October. This compares with 22,000,000 pounds in September and 25,000,000 pounds in October a year ago. The decrease in the output was due to a ten-day shutdown of the Washoe plant. The falling off of but 4,200,000 pounds was a favorable surprise, inasmuch as a 10,000,000 drop had been expected.

The Anaconda has announced its intention of sinking a 2,000-foot shaft on the Nettie claim, in the extreme western part of the Butte district, and has started building a surface plant. The company will look for copper or zinc. The Notorious Michigan Character Sent to Marquette Jail by Negaunee Judge.

Matt Laakso, of Michigan, a notorious character who has served time in the Marquette county jail and who was a year ago sent to the state hospital at Newberry, only to be released later, is again in trouble, having been sentenced to serve thirty days in the county jail by Judge William Verlan yesterday for drunken and disorderly conduct.

Saloon Keepers Warned.

A communication from the Woman's club of the city, asking the council to see that the saloons do not sell beer to minors or allow them to carry beer from saloons in pairs, was received by the Iron Mountain council this week.

Met Death in an Explosion.

It was as the result of a shocking accident that William Poyseor, son of Rev. William Poyseor of Crystal Falls, met his untimely death. The young man was killed by an explosion of dynamite. The accident took place on the father's farm at Fortune lake. The young man was blasting stumps. Three or four charges went off and one blast failed. The young man went to see the cause and just as he reached the stump the explosion took place. The boy was instantly killed.

Postoffice Job Goes Begging.

Because no one seems to want the postmastership at Donaldson, Chippewa county, Postoffice Inspector A. H. McDougall is having troubles which he says may culminate with the discontinuance of the office. Inspector McDougall has visited Donaldson several times, but has not received a single application. Unless I receive at least one application within a short time I will be obliged to recommend the discontinuance of the office, and I believe the people of the vicinity will find it very inconvenient to be without a postoffice, says the inspector.

Married Months Ago.

The friends of George Distel of Laurium have learned with great surprise this week of his marriage on June 19 of this year to Miss Marie Lagasse, daughter of John Lagasse of Houghton. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Father Boissenoit of St. Anne's French church of Calumet. So successful were the young people in their efforts to steal a march on their friends that not even the immediate relatives were aware of the marriage until this week. Mr. and Mrs. Distel will make their home in Laurium, where the bridegroom is engaged in business with his father.

Tit for Tat in Common Council.

A remarkable situation prevailed at the council meeting last evening, reports the Iron Mountain Tribune-Gazette. As is well known to the people of the city, council is tied. There are five People's party aldermen and five Progressive aldermen. When the vote is tied, as it usually is the case, either the mayor must vote, or if he cannot vote, nothing can be done. A communication was received last evening from the Iron Mountain club in regard to the rent for its rooms. It seems that the club got behind and wanted the council to accept payment on a $20 basis. This caused a great deal of argument. A motion was presented and the result was a tie vote. Both sides had aldermen from both parties. The mayor decided the question by voting yes.

Lighting Rates Divide Aldermen.

The feature picture at the council rooms last evening was a five-reel war drama entitled "Producing the goods," says the Iron Mountain Tribune-Gazette. The principal actors were the five People's party aldermen on one side, and the five Progressive party aldermen on the other. The general was the mayor, but he was a prisoner of his own making. The scene of battle waged around the Electric Light company, and as the mayor is a stockholder in this company this made him a figurehead when it came to casting a vote. Those who were opposed to the rates offered by the company worked hard to keep the mayor a prisoner, and the climax of the drama was reached when Alderman Eslick jumped out of his chair and waved the "goods" in the air. These goods were what the Alderman claimed is the law in regard to the mayor voting on the light question. The city attorney was not present and so the matter was not thoroughly settled. However, the mayor did not vote and the council seems to be hopelessly tied on the question. Half of the aldermen claim that the Electric Light company is right in regard to its rates, and half of them claim that the company should lower the rates. A communication from the company said that the company was not in a position to present to accept the proposition offered by the city. It stated that the rates now charged were as low as any other city in the upper peninsula under similar circumstances and that the private consumers had not made any complaint.

LAW.

"Yes," said the fugitive, "I understand. You have five kinds of law that apply to my case."

"True," they told him. "And we have ten ways of evading them."

"Good," said the fugitive. "Give me about seven of them at the usual market price."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

DANCING AS LIFE WORK.

Many Years of Hard Work Are Necessary Before the Period of Tinsel and Glitter is Reached.

Each year about 120 nine-year-old boys and girls, including children of ballet-dancers, and often children of stagehands, present themselves at the department of the Imperial Theater school in St. Petersburg. As there are only from fifteen to eighteen vacancies annually, a selection must be made.

The youngsters are medically examined, and a proportion of them are rejected. Those who pass this test are brought before a commission of dancers and ballet-masters, who put them through examination, watching critically every movement and every physical perfection or fault.

The members of the commission note those they consider to be the best, and of their collective opinion depends the choice of somewhat over eighteen of the children, who are accepted provisionally. All the newcomers are then on trial for a year. At the end of that time those not considered good enough are dismissed.

During this period the girls wear, except when dancing, the brown dress and black apron which are the uniform of all schoolgirls in Russia. The boys wear no special clothes to mark their position. Each girl, when she is accepted finally, receives a beautiful cranberry blue uniform dress, which reaches to the ground, and black aprons, with white aprons for festive occasions. For the dancing lessons she wears the short ballet-skirt, not of gauze, but of light gray-green cotton, with tights of the same color, or of grayish olive-green.

The more talented of the pupils find themselves, in due course, in a higher class, and then wear pink ballet-skirts as marks of distinction. The highest sign of all is the white ballet skirt.

The boarding school for these dancers of the future holds forty-eight girls and thirty-four boys. In addition, some twenty-five pupils and twenty boys live at home. The girls and the boys are taught their dancing apart, but are together in the school for other lessons.

The pupils are awakened at 8 o'clock in the morning. At mid-day they are taken for a walk. The mornings are devoted to dancing; the afternoons to the learning of languages, a little geography and arithmetic. Fencing and miming are taught also. Further, the boys have to learn how to hold the girls while they are posing and twirling during their dancing, an exceedingly difficult art. The work of dancing is indeed, and obviously, very hard; none substantiate this statement more certainly than the great dancers. Only the other day, for instance, Mme. Anna Pavlova, talking to a London newspaperman, said: "To dance for a living, is it good—for the health—for the woman?"

It is splendid; but it is a life of hardship—of renunciation. Who does dance must be prepared to sacrifice all other things to our art—give to the dancing all our thoughts and all our energies. Dancing is quite unlike every other form of art. There are arts at which one works hard—then success comes and one can work less hard. But it is not so with dancing. Here the more one progresses the harder it is necessary to work.

Today I work harder at my art than ever before. One must practice everlastingly in order to make progress, and when progress comes one must still practice—practice—practice! There is no stopping place—the life of a dancer is a life of continual hard work from beginning to end.

With those who dance as a hobby it is not as with those who dance for a living. The latter must have the spirit of dancing in their blood, so that they do not regret the many things that they sacrifice in order that they may dance."

MR. JOHN LISA DIES. Passed Away Wednesday Evening At Nine O'Clock.

Mrs. John Lisa, aged thirty-three years, one of Negaunee's best known Italian residents, died at 9 o'clock Wednesday evening at the Lisa home on the corner of Pioneer avenue and Clark street, after a brief illness. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from St. Paul's church, with interment in the Negaunee cemetery. Several out-of-town relatives will be here.

Mrs. Lisa was well known in this city, where she spent her entire life. Mr. Lisa is the owner of the bakery on Pioneer avenue. Besides her husband and son, Francis J., survives her. Her mother, Mrs. Maria Vattoraro, of this city, and a sister, Mrs. John Saratti, of Baraga, are also living. All will be here for the funeral.

WILL CONDUCT SURVEY. D. A. Brotherton Has Important Job in Chippewa County.

D. A. Brotherton, of Escanaba, a brother of Ray Brotherton, has completed his work as engineer for the city of Crystal Falls for the season and left yesterday morning for St. Ignace, to make a preliminary survey for the state trunk line road from that city to Sault Ste. Marie. Mr. Brotherton has been engaged by the state highway department to undertake the work. The proposed highway has already been laid out from Escanaba to Isabella and the greater part of the survey between the point and St. Ignace has been completed.

Mr. Brotherton will now push the survey from St. Ignace northward to the Lake city. He expects to complete the survey before severe weather sets in. During the season Mr. Brotherton has made a complete street, sidewalk and sewer records for Crystal Falls, giving to that city its first comprehensive data on these systems. In addition to preparing and establishing the new records, Mr. Brotherton has had the supervision of all sewer and street construction work undertaken this summer.

The reinforced concrete floor for the second story of the new manual training school is now being laid. When this is completed the erecting of the building will go forward without further interruption.

mand for lower rates. He also offered a proposition to the company. Alderman Eslick moved that the resolution be adopted. The vote resulted in a tie, and that killed the resolution, as the mayor was not allowed to vote. The only thing left to do seems to be to put the matter up to the Michigan railway commission and a motion was made and carried to the effect that the city attorney draw up a resolution to the commission. The resolution will be ready for the next meeting.

Is Foe to Race Suicide.

In the council meeting at Menominee this week, Alderman Seidl directed attention to the fact that Alderman Hogan had just celebrated his twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. He moved that the council give him a rising vote of congratulation. "The newspaper account of Mr. Hogan's anniversary," said Mr. Seidl, "made no mention of the fact that he is the happy father of nine children. The two facts certainly entitle our brother alderman to congratulations from this body and I move that we give him a rising vote of our regard and esteem." The motion was passed and the rising vote followed, whereupon Mr. Hogan made a short talk, thanking the aldermen and denouncing race suicide on general principles. Then he sent out for a box of cigars and emptied it among his fellow aldermen.

More Game Law Violators Fined.

Martha Olson, G. Green, Daniel Grouleau and B. Freitag, all of Nahma township, were arraigned before Judge Glasser at Escanaba this week on charges of violating the hunting laws. Olson was charged with having venison in his possession out of season and the other three were charged with killing deer out of season. All pleaded guilty. Olson paying a fine and costs amounting to $29.75 and the others $24.75 each. Deputy Game Warden Herman Leisner of Escanaba and William Harrington of Ishpeming made the arrests. Hunting deer with headlights was the charge to which John Implement and Jesse Cartwright of Beaver township pleaded guilty when arraigned before Judge McEwen at Escanaba. They were arrested by Wardens Leisner and Harrington. Implement paid a fine and costs amounting to $24.75. Cartwright was assessed a like amount. He was unable to pay and was sentenced to spend ninety days in the county jail.

DECLARE WAR ON COLDS.

A crusade of education which aims "that common colds may become uncommon within the next generation" has been begun by prominent New York physicians. Here is a list of the "don'ts" which the doctors say will prevent the annual visitation of the cold: "Don't sit in a draughty car." "Don't sleep in hot rooms." "Don't avoid the fresh air." "Don't stuff yourself at meal time. Overeating reduces your resistance." "To which we would add—when you take a cold get rid of it as quickly as possible. FIRST REPORT IS OVERRULED

Securities Commission, Administering "Blue Sky" Law, Reverses Itself on Finding That the Breitung Mines Corporation Should Sell No Stock in State.

Decision, Announced Some Weeks Ago, Caused General Comment, and Steps Were Taken to Have the Matter Reopened—Members Acted on Inadequate Data.

Word was received in Marquette yesterday that the Michigan securities commission, following a hearing at Lansing, had reversed itself on the recent order forbidding the Breitung Mines corporation from selling its stock in Michigan. E. N. Breitung, one of the principal stockholders in the corporation, appeared before the commission personally, and he was reported on the legal phases of the matter by W. R. Oates, of Marquette.

Officers of the corporation, particularly Mr. Breitung, were indignant at the former ruling, and especially at the unofficial comment in connection with the decision of the committee. They at once took steps to have the matter reopened. Their indignation arose largely from the fact that the commission had taken the serious step of forbidding the sale of the corporation's stock in the state without calling on any of its officials for a personal statement.

It now appears that the original action of the commission was based on incomplete data relating to the company furnished from the New York office. In response to a request for information, the commission received that did not give adequate information as to the plan or scope of the corporation. The commission acted on these papers, without seeking any further information.

Because of Mr. Breitung's prominence in the business world, the action of the commission received wide publicity in financial and mining papers, and it is likely that the wrongful impression it created will be the means of doing the company some damage.

One of the interesting features of the case is the fact that prior to the hostile action by the Michigan commission the plan of the Breitung Mines corporation had been submitted to other states having "blue sky" laws more drastic than the Michigan statute and had been approved. One of these states was Kansas. Another interesting phase of the case is the fact that Mr. Breitung early refused to co-operate with the bankers and brokers who are fighting the constitutionality of the law, because he endorses the principle involved.

Little information concerning the operations of the Breitung Mines corporation can be secured at Mr. Breitung's offices here, as its affairs are handled entirely from the New York office. It is said, however, that the corporation's stock is closely held and that there is no immediate purpose of placing any of it with the general public. Associated with Mr. Breitung in the corporation are a number of well-known Eastern capitalists and the directorate is a strong one.

The general plan of operation outlined by the officers of the corporation is entry into a variety of mining fields, on prospects that are sufficiently attractive. In the belief that this procedure will yield, in the long run, the best results and will greatly reduce the risk ordinarily attaching to mining ventures. The Breitung corporation has retained the services at different times of some of the most noted engineers and has conducted surveys over a wide range of territory. One field to which it has given much attention is the placer gold country of the United States of Columbia. The corporation has important holdings there, and has had several engineers report on its interests.

WOODS OPERATORS MET HERE YESTERDAY

Seek to Establish Uniform Conditions of Employment in Marquette and Alger.

Well-known lumbermen and lumbermen of Marquette and Alger counties met here yesterday, at the offices of the Lake Superior Iron & Chemical company, to consider conditions surrounding woods operations in this district. They included representatives of some of the largest interests operating in the two counties, and there was an exhaustive discussion of the wage question and the general state of the market.

The meeting, which was foreman by a preliminary gathering a week ago, is said to have been due largely to the unsatisfactory state of the lumber market. The demand is slow and prices in some directions are soft. This, it is said, means that there must be some re-employment in the woods operations unless the jobbers are to suffer losses.

"Our organization is an informal one," a Marquette lumberman explained last evening. "We have no desire to lay ourselves open to the charge of combining in restraint of trade, and we are making no agreements. Still the condition of the market is such that it is important that there shall be a certain uniformity of conditions in the woods operations, and this we are seeking to bring about."

While the wage scale in the woods is not uniform the average wage is now lower than in previous seasons, although it is high enough to give the man who sticks to his work a good start at the close of the season. Wages run from $26 to $32 a month at the camps, with most of the men receiving around $30. Within a few years as high as $40 has been paid, with a minimum of $20 but to stand wages as high as that the lumber market must be active at high prices. The former high scale, the operators assert, would be ruinous to them at this time, and in most of the camps the

BISHOP BURT, OF BUFFALO, COMING

Methodist Church Worker, Known All Over the World, to Be Here Nov. 20.

Bishop William Burt, of Buffalo, N. Y., in charge of the Detroit conference of the Methodist church, will arrive in Marquette Nov. 20, and on Nov. 21 will address a meeting of laymen and clergymen of this district at the Marquette Methodist church. His subject will be "The Eternal City."

Bishop Burt is known in Methodist church work practically all over the world. He has often been asked by sovereigns in Europe to confer with them on conditions in Europe, and to offer suggestions for improvement in the church work in their respective countries. He is a personal friend of the King of Italy, and is well acquainted with the Emperor of Germany, the president of France, and the King of England.

This will be the first time Bishop Burt has ever come to the upper peninsula, although he has been in charge of this conference for years. Formerly he has looked after the work through his representatives, but he recently decided to come here and look over the field personally.

On the afternoon of Nov. 21, he will confer with the officials and pastors of the Methodist church of this district at the Marquette church. While only affairs of the Methodist church will be discussed, anyone interested may attend. The meeting in the evening, when he will make his address, is to be public. In fact, every effort will be made to have a large attendance of persons not connected with the church. The address of Bishop Burt will not be along religious lines, and for this reason it is expected many non-Methodists will hear him—a man well known for his ability as a church worker.

Bishop Burt will leave here Nov. 22 for Iron Mountain to address a meeting in that district, and will go from there to Calumet, Marquette, Calumet and Iron Mountain will be the only three churches in this district that he will visit, however.

Plans for his entertainment while he is in Marquette have not yet been definitely mapped out, but it is expected a reception will be given in his honor. If the weather is favorable, it is probable Bishop Burt will be taken on an automobile ride through the county, in order that he may see the iron mines at close range and be given an idea of the natural beauties of the district.

FIFTY APPLICANTS LISTED FOR HEARING

Ishpeming, Negaunee and Marquette Furnish Most of Prospective New Citizens.

Fifty applicants for final citizenship papers have been listed by County Clerk Jenks for hearings at the December term of circuit court. They give the places of their residence principally as Negaunee, Ishpeming, Marquette, Republic and Dorr, and the Finnish and Italian nationalities are most largely represented among them. The list is one of fairly good size for a December term of court, and shows a steady interest in gaining full rights of citizenship on the part of those who have taken out their first papers.

One of the interesting features of naturalization noted of late years is the fact that it is not influenced in any notable extent by the occurrence of important elections, but goes steadily ahead at every term of court. Also it is receiving less and less attention from the men who are primarily interested in how the new citizens vote rather than in the fact that they should aspire to citizenship. Of late years naturalization has been permitted to take its natural course, and that the list of applicants for both first and final papers is always large reflects merely the esteem in which most of the aliens hold American citizenship.

Applicants for December. The applicants who are eligible for hearing at the December term of court are as follows: Negaunee—Pizzato Ettore, John Siiteri, Victor Lamm, Luigi Guizzetti, Richard White, Noah Hares, John Carhart, Frederick Bruska, David Wendroff, William Frederick Worth, Reuben James Taylor, Frank Walker, Antonio Corallo, Pete Delaporte, Frank Palonen, Henry Krook, Diorite—Taavetti Tapaninen, Cyrille Couture, Frank Nammikoski, Thomas Rajakorpi, Louis Roman, Alexander Noall, Frans Oscar Vainio.

Ishpeming—Frank Heino, Kaarlo Wirtanen, Etti Puri, Kalle Tuomela, Charles Peterson, Edli Koivula, Isak Haavista, Ole Siim, Albert Kokkinen, Matti Heikkila, Otto Stadius.

Marquette—Gustav E. Gilbertson, Lizzie Korpi, John Dwyer, Joseph Donohue, Joseph Elzer Rouleau, Martin Alfsen, Pete Remortel.

Republic—Johan Traminemi, John Toivonen, Henry Aho, Salmon Maki, Jaakko Hautakorpi.

Marquette County—Oscar Carlson, Princeton—John Tramonina, Carlshend—John McMaster, Gwinu—John Abraham.

"It has become known through information gleaned at the treasury department that friends of William P. McKnight have placed his name before Secretary McAdoo as a candidate for the appointment as revenue collector for the western district of Michigan.

"Congressman Samuel W. Beakes presented Mr. McKnight's name in the presence of a dozen Michigan Democrats, on behalf of the 'progressive' wing of Michigan Democracy, three weeks ago, when the distribution of Michigan patronage was discussed with President Wilson. He was not present, it appears, at the time Secretary McAdoo was asked to consider the application.

"Mr. McKnight, who is a well-known lawyer at Grand Rapids and a prominent Democrat, has been identified with state and national Democratic politics for over twenty years and he is well known to the Washington politicians. He is credited with being the first Michigan Democrat to invite Woodrow Wilson to Michigan and that, too, at a time when Mr. Wilson, who was then governor of New Jersey, had few political friends in the Wolverine state.

"He not only enjoys the personal acquaintance of Secretary McAdoo, it is said, but he also has a personal friend in Secretary of State Bryan.

"Interviewed by The News relative to his candidacy, Mr. McKnight would say nothing more than at the solicitation of his friends who placed his name before the treasury department, he is a candidate for the office of revenue collector, when there is a vacancy."

TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS IN BAD CONDITION

Official of Educational Department Severely Arraigns Them in Statement.

A serious indictment of the rural schools of the state has been made by G. S. Lasher, auditor in the department of public instruction, the superintendent of which was lately resigned by E. L. Wright. It will attract much attention, particularly among county school commissioners and members of township boards.

The rural one-room school is here; it has persisted despite all its limitations for years; it will remain for years to come," Mr. Lasher asserts. "While Michigan is one of the richest states in the nation, its natural resources are superb, its population ranks high in intelligence and culture, its schools rank seventeenth among those of the country. While the state is considerably above the average a survey of the situation reveals the appalling fact that the vast majority of the boys and girls are Joseph Elzer Rouleau, Martin Alfsen, Pete Remortel.

REXALL ADVANTAGE NO. 3

"The Effect of Your Message Greatly Depends Upon the Style and Quality of Your Stationery"

You are more often judged by the paper you use than by the thoughts you express in writing. Pride, good taste, refinement—all demand that you use stationery that is distinctive, stylish, good.

Shown here are two brands of stationery to be had in a wide variety of beautiful tints, modern shapes and correct sizes—each so rarely good that its use will help establish you as a person of excellent good taste in the minds of those you write to.

Symphony Lawn Writing Paper

is made exclusively for The Rexall Stores in a big mill way up in the Massachusetts Hills, from the best and cleanest rag stock. Each sheet has an exquisite lawn surface made by pressing it between plates of zinc lined with sheets of specially-woven French cloth.

Symphony Lawn has a splendid writing surface, is beautiful to look upon, is in every respect correct, is stationery you will be proud to use.

Illuminated Crest Initial Stationery

—for those who prefer an initial stationery, has an artistic finish and high quality that makes it distinctive and different from most other initial stationery. It suits best those who are hardest to please. Each sheet is die-stamped with a graceful initial in gold and sepia, as illustrated.

Any initial, with envelopes, 50 cents a quire. These low prices are possible only because the more than 7,000 Rexall Druggists—one in each of the principal cities and towns in the United States, Canada and Great Britain—buy together in such immense quantities as to be able to get the lowest possible prices. It is an advantage to you to buy stationery at The Rexall Stores.

"Stationery Week" begins today at all the Rexall Stores
