

MEXICANS HIGH IN DANK DESERT FEDERAL CAMP

Sending Peace Envoys to Juarez, Seven Generals of Huerta's Army Formally Surrender—Backbone of the Dictatorship in the North Thus Is Shattered.

A Mile Long, a Caravan from Chihuahua Is Fleeting Over the Desert Toward the Border, Pursued by Rebels—Many Wealthy Families Among the Refugees.

BULLETIN

Juarez, Mex., Dec. 2.—Seven generals of the Mexican federal army have surrendered and the backbone of the Huerta dictatorship in the north has been broken.

Federal Government Bankrupt

Juarez, Mex., Dec. 2.—The federal peace commission is headed by Odilon Fernandez and came from Chihuahua bearing a proclamation signed by General Salvador Mercado, Huerta's military governor and commander of the federal forces in all the north.

Generals Fleeing to the Border

The generals who have signified through General Mercado their willingness to surrender, but who nevertheless are fleeing to the United States border, are: General Salvador Mercado, General Pascual Orozco, General Jose Salazar, General Marcelino Garcia, General Jose Manilla, General Blas Obando, General Landis.

Villa Promises Protection

The peace commissioners stated that before leaving Chihuahua the federals had destroyed all the postage and government stamps and that there existed practically no money in the city. They estimated that two thousand citizens had left with the troops.

Chihuahua Citizens in Flight

Juarez, Mex., Dec. 2.—Fleeing over the desert, and pursued by rebels, several thousand persons, including some of the richest families in northern Mexico, who deserted Chihuahua in fear of a rebel attack, tonight were reported to be nearing the United States border.

Paris, Dec. 2.—The government of Premier Barthou was defeated by a vote of 290 to 265 in the chamber of deputies this evening on the question whether the new loan of $200,000,000 should be subjected to taxation or immune, like the existing ones.

wished to go were given notice to gather their possessions.

Exodus Began on Sunday

Reports had been received that the Terrazas family, which is reported to own almost half of the land and cattle in the state, would suffer severely at the hands of the rebels.

Early Sunday the exodus began. General Mercado first turning over the portfolio of state to General Moye, who was directed to notify General Villa that the federal troops formally surrendered.

General Villa, who now assumes military command of all the north and whose authority is second only to that of General Carranza, entered the revolution five months ago with only a borrowed revolver. He is a former bandit and for twenty years, under Diaz, was sought as an outlaw.

Elated by the capture of Chihuahua without bloodshed, General Villa tonight prepared for the dispatch of more troops south. He said ten thousand troops are to be concentrated at Chihuahua, after which the rebels hope completely to crush the Huerta regime.

OIL PRODUCERS DEAL HUERTA SERIOUS BLOW

Will No Longer Supply Railroads With Fuel—Fear Vengeance of the Rebels.

Mexico City, Dec. 2.—Preferring to incur the displeasure of the Huerta government to a very practical manifestation of the rebels' wrath, the producing oil companies will no longer supply the national railroads with fuel oil.

This is regarded as one of the most serious blows dealt the government, because it is likely to bring about the early suspension of all railway traffic, which would interfere greatly with military operations and would strike vitally at the commerce of the country.

In spite of General Aguilar's assurances to Rear Admiral Fletcher that the oil properties would not be molested, representatives of the companies have been given to understand that further sale of oil to the government would be regarded as too great a manifestation of friendship to the enemies of the Constitutionalists.

Practically all the locomotives have been using oil for some years and the security of coal will make a return to that fuel difficult.

Laredo, Tex., Dec. 2.—More than a thousand families, many of them wealthy, have arrived here from Monterey and Sanitillo, as refugees, during the last week, bringing millions of dollars in securities deposited in United States banks, and the Mexican situation is clarified.

FRENCH MINISTRY IS OVERWHELMED

Defeated in Effort to Make New Loan Free from Taxation, the Cabinet Resigns.

Paris, Dec. 2.—The government of Premier Barthou was defeated by a vote of 290 to 265 in the chamber of deputies this evening on the question whether the new loan of $200,000,000 should be subjected to taxation or immune, like the existing ones.

The government by a narrow margin yesterday was victorious in a trial of strength against the opposition, the new loan being approved, 291 to 270. The debate today was on the question of extending to the new loan the same immunity from taxation as enjoyed by the old ones, and the government again made it a question of a vote of confidence.

The opposition urged that to exempt the new loans would enable those investing exclusively in these to evade unfairly the projected income tax.

Premier Barthou and M. Dumont, the minister of finance, made eloquent appeals to the chamber to respect the traditional immunity of the rents. To tax rents, they declared, would deal a deadly blow to the financial prestige of France, but their appeal fell on deaf ears.

CLEVELAND WINS AT HOCKEY. Detroit, Dec. 2.—The Cleveland hockey team tonight won the second game of the series from Detroit, three goals to one. Last night's match was won by Detroit.

SOLONS LIKE THE MESSAGE OF MR. WILSON

Pithy and to the Point, the President's First Annual Communication, Read by Author, Himself, Is Novel State Paper—Is Less Than 3,000 Words Long.

Of Especial Significance Are the Declaration That Huerta Must Abdicate and the Recommendation of the Primary System for Selection of National Candidates

Washington, Dec. 2.—President Wilson laid before congress today the legislative ambition of the Democratic administration.

For twenty-eight minutes the president stood before the essential senate and house chamber of the lat and read his first annual message. When he had finished there was an enthusiastic demonstration, with handclapping and cheers.

Less than three thousand words long, the message was one of the briefest and most novel of American state papers—a marked contrast as presented by its author today to the hitherto lengthy documents, averaging twenty thousand words or more, droned through by a reading clerk to an inattentive congress.

Statesman's Utterance, Says Mann. "I like the idea of the president coming before congress," said Representative Mann, the Republican leader, "and reading a short message, pithy and to the point. In the main, I like the message today. I think everybody will recognize it as the utterance of a statesman, regardless of whether he agrees with its details."

Of particular significance was the unmistakable approval that greeted the president's remark: "There can be no certain prospect of peace in America until General Huerta has surrendered his usurped authority in Mexico."

The scene of today's function was much the same as on the previous occasions when President Wilson has addressed congress. Much Legislation Mapped Out. Democratic leaders like the emphasis placed by the president on the need for early action on the currency, for dealing with monopolies through anti-trust legislation, the importance of rural credit legislation to benefit the farmers, the recommendation of the government construction of railroads in Alaska, the development of the nation's resources by a conservation policy alike acceptable to the states and the federal authorities, the enactment of employers' liability legislation, and the selection of presidential candidates by the primary system.

"It was a fine statesmanlike speech," said Speaker Clark, "covering points that I have been agitating for years, particularly presidential primaries."

"I think," said Representative Underwood, "the president's message was the address of a broadminded statesman. It was in accord with the principles and policies of our party as declared at Baltimore, and I have no doubt it will meet with favorable action by congress."

For nearly all of the legislation outlined in the message the ground work has been laid and the president plans to speak further to congress with relation to anti-trust reform legislation.

Synopsis of the Message. The Mexican situation, President Wilson dismissed with brief comment, reiterating the sentiments he expressed in a special address to congress upon a special subject some time ago, and expressing the belief that the Huerta government slowly was crumbling and that the United States probably would not be obliged to alter its policy of waiting.

No program for the trust legislation was presented, further than the mention of the desirability of an early amendment to the Sherman law, to prevent private monopoly more effectively than it has yet been prevented, and an announcement that the president would later address a special message to congress dealing solely with that subject.

The building of Alaskan railways, which the president indicated, was for concentration by the senate on the pending currency bill, which he emphasized, the urgent necessity of rural credit legislation; self-government for Porto Rico and Hawaii; ultimate independence for the Philippines; a policy of "common counsel and conference" between the federal government and the states on the conservation question, and a revision of the system of primary elections were the other principal features of the president's address.

For details of the government's business, the president referred congress to the annual reports of his cabinet officers. Mexican Situation. The message opened with this comment on the Mexican situation: "There is but one cloud upon our horizon. That has shown itself to the south of us, and hangs over Mexico. There can be no certain prospect of peace in America until General Huerta has surrendered his usurped authority in Mexico; until it is understood on all hands, indeed, that such pretended governments will not be countenanced or dealt with by the government of the United States."

The Weather

Washington, Dec. 2.—The following is the weather bureau's forecast for Upper Michigan: Continued unsettled weather, Wednesday and probably Thursday; light to moderate west and northwest winds.

EX-OFFICIAL ARNOLD DEPOSED AT MILWAUKEE, IS ADJUDGED GUILTY.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 2.—Louis A. Arnold, deposed Socialist tax commissioner of Milwaukee, discharged assessors for political purposes and is guilty of malfeasance in office.

Arnold is out of office and the common council is satisfied in its action in deposing him. The decision was received here tonight. It is understood that Arnold will appeal to the supreme court.

GERMAN WOMAN INVENTS A POWDER THAT CAN PUT WHOLE ARMIES TO SLEEP.

Dresden, Dec. 2.—The Saxon war ministry has been testing a recently invented powder which produces stupefaction. It is claimed that the gas from a single bomb has thrown several hundred men into a deep sleep lasting seven or eight hours. The inventor is a woman—Ida Bauer—and the Prussian military authorities have asked her to go to Berlin to demonstrate the efficacy of her invention.

NAVAL HOLIDAY PLAN HAS STRONG BACKING

Resolution Committing the U. S. to the Idea Is Due to Pass the House Friday.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The house today debated the Hensley resolution to commit the United States to the Winston Churchill plan for an international year's holiday in naval construction and tonight the advocates of the project predicted the passage of the proposition in the house by late Friday.

Representative Hensley, of Missouri, author of the measure, pointed out that only 2 per cent of the United States revenues is devoted to the benefits of agriculture, while 60 per cent goes to defray the cost of past wars and to prepare for future wars.

Representative Hobson, of Alabama, said he preferred the upbuilding of the Atlantic fleet as a means of obtaining a quiet equilibrium and an assurance of peace.

Representative Barthold, of Missouri, pointed out that with an international agreement for a year's naval holiday the relative strength at the end of a year would be the same among nations and that the United States would save $50,000,000, Britain $60,000,000 and Germany $30,000,000.

ROCKEFELLER STATEMENT PROVED IN CHICAGO COURT.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—A statement attributed to John D. Rockefeller, that dull days breed unhappiness and that lack of sunshine tends to lower morality, was confirmed today in the records of the court of domestic relations.

The governor's proposition, which was agreed to by the operators, called for the granting of all demands made by the strikers, save those of union recognition and increased wages. The union officials at first refused to consider the proposition, but later agreed that it should be put to the miners for a referendum vote.

HUNDREDS OF MINERS WORKING DESPERATELY TO FREE ENTOMBED MEN.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Dec. 2.—Fighting against tons of rock, hundreds of miners vicinity. Deputy sheriffs and mine guards were on the scene within a few minutes, but there were no traces of the perpetrators of the outrage.

Following a running gunfight between two strikers and two deputy sheriffs at Painesdale tonight, eighteen strikers were arrested and an arsenal consisting of four shotguns, four rifles and six revolvers was taken from a Painesdale boarding house. The affray was a result of the guerrilla warfare that has been waged for several weeks.

Deputy Sheriff Chellev was sent from Houghton by Sheriff Cruise in an automobile with a force of armed deputies and between Trimountain and Painesdale, the automobile in which the party were traveling was fired upon by a man who is claimed to be George Swigles, a

ADMITTS HAVING SUPPLIED MEN WITH WEAPONS

Questioned by Military Board, President Ullrich of the Trinidad Union Confesses That He Armed Colorado Coal Strikers Just Previous to Recent Battle.

He a German Army Deserter and Believes Only in Socialist Rule—Will Be Asked Now About Possible Unlawful Activities of Other Miners' Leaders.

Trinidad, Colo., Dec. 2.—Robert Ullrich, president of the Trinidad union of the United Mine Workers of America, tonight confessed before the military commission to having supplied the strikers at the Ludlow tent colony with arms and ammunition on Oct. 27, 1913, the day preceding the battle at Ludlow in which one man was killed.

Ullrich, who has been prominent in the conduct of the strike and in the councils of the union just prior to the issuance of the strike call, told the commission that he was a German deserter and a naturalized resident of the United States, and that he would not become naturalized because he did not approve of many things for which the American government stands.

Is Detained as Military Prisoner. The commission ordered Ullrich detained indefinitely as a military prisoner. What action may be taken in his case was not indicated tonight, nor would the commissioners state that Ullrich's confession implicates any other union officials.

Ullrich stated that he purchased the munitions of war and gave them to the men at Ludlow for defensive purposes only, and that on the following day they used the arms for offensive purposes. He further stated that he was a deserter from the German army and opposed to all forms of non-socialistic government.

Adjutant General Chase, at the conclusion of tonight's session of the military commission, stated that Ullrich further would be questioned concerning possible unlawful activities in the strike of other union officials.

Ullrich is one of the federal grand jury yesterday, charged with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law and with having conspired to restrain trade.

According to General Chase, seventy-three miners from outside the strike district were put to work today under military guard in the mines adjacent to Trinidad, and the military commanding officer stated that many workmen were expected in the immediate future.

MINERS REJECT GOVERNOR'S PLAN.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 2.—Unofficial reports received at the union headquarters here tonight from all regions of the southern Colorado mining district indicate that Governor Ammons' strike settlement proposition had been rejected almost unanimously by the strikers.

John Lawson, president of the Colorado State Federation of Labor, stated tonight that the official announcement of the rejection of the settlement proposition had been made until tomorrow night, as the full vote would not have been counted until that time.

The governor's proposition, which was agreed to by the operators, called for the granting of all demands made by the strikers, save those of union recognition and increased wages. The union officials at first refused to consider the proposition, but later agreed that it should be put to the miners for a referendum vote.

working in shifts of twenty-five minutes each struggled today and tonight to reach the three miners still entombed in the Golden Cycle mine, near here, in which four men were entombed late yesterday afternoon by a cave-in and from which one miner was rescued alive. A fifth miner was entombed in the Christmas mine, adjoining, and was rescued late last night.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES IN BRITAIN, THEIR DEMANDS TURNED DOWN, TAKE TO DESTROYING PROPERTY

London, Dec. 2.—The disaffection among the staff of the British postoffice, nearly one thousand of whom recently threatened to strike at Christmas for an increase of pay, is finding expression in acts of willful destruction of government property.

The postmaster general on Nov. 19 rejected the men's demands. Since that date telegraph instruments have been damaged in the central postoffice here, typewriting machines dropped down the air shaft and a number of books and records destroyed.

The leaders of the fifteen postal workers' unions admit that preparations are being made for a strike at Christmas time, unless their demands are granted. A joint conference of the unions is to be held on Saturday for a final decision of the question.

BLOOD IS SPILLED IN INDIANAPOLIS STRIKE

Special Officers Kill One Man Who Attacks a Wagon and Wound Four Others.

Indianapolis, Dec. 2.—The first fatality of the strike of the teamsters and chauffeurs in this city occurred today when a crowd interfered with an ice wagon in charge of six men on whom special police powers had been conferred. When the crowd began throwing bricks and trying to force the wagon moving, the special officers shot, killing Claude Lewis, a negro elevator man, and wounding four others, one fatally.

Another crowd was fired upon by William Wharton, a negro, when the wagon owned and driven by himself was attacked. James Long, a teamster, was wounded in the right leg. There were several other minor disorders, but no one was seriously injured.

General Strike Is Proposed.

An effort to call a general strike in sympathy with the teamsters and chauffeurs was started at a meeting of the teamsters' union late today. No definite action was taken, it being decided to wait until the union officers had conferred with the leaders of the central labor union. The question will come up again at tomorrow's meeting.

Congressional Inquiry Sought.

An appeal for a congressional investigation into labor conditions in Indianapolis was telegraphed to United States Senators John W. Kern and B. F. Shreve tonight. The action was decided upon at a meeting of the special committee appointed by the central labor union to try to find a peaceful solution for the teamsters' strike. The message was signed by the officers of the central labor union.

COUNTY ALMS DENIED KANSAS FAMILIES THAT HARBOR CANINE PETS.

Topeka, Kas., Dec. 2.—A dog is a luxury, decided the poor commissioner of Shawnee county today, when he declined to aid a family because it harbored such a pet. "If a family is poor, it has a dog," said C. A. Bacon, commissioner of the poor, in making his ruling. "If it is very poor, it has two dogs. There is nothing so nice as a dog, but like Oliver Twist, they do eat tremendous." Dogs are a luxury, and people with luxuries cannot expect county aid.

SALEM, ORE. CLOSES SALOONS.

Salem, Ore., Dec. 2.—Salem, the capital of Oregon, yesterday adopted an amendment to the city charter prohibiting the concealment of saloons by licensees. As a result fifteen saloons of the city are closed today, all licensees having expired at the close of the month of November.

MINE THOUGHT TO BE TOMB OF BANDIT LOPEZ

Though Many Officers Watch, It Is Believed the Mexican Is Dead—His One Chance the Bare Possibility He May Have Sealed Himself in Some Remote Stope.

Deadliness of the Gases That Now Fill the Utah-Apex Workings Is Shown When Men Sent to Explore Tunnel Are Overcome by Fumes Seeping Through Doors.

Bingham, Utah, Dec. 2.—Not since last night has a sound come from the Utah-Apex mine, where Ralph Lopez, the Mexican desperado, is confined. Today all the exits except that in the lowest level were sealed with double bolts, and tonight it was believed that the gas-filled mine had become the fugitive's tomb.

The tense watchfulness of seven sheriffs and more than two hundred deputies for a break for liberty was relaxed, although the number of guards was not lessened. It was considered impossible for the inmate to approach any of the exits without being overheard.

One by one the polyglot crowd of miners which had stood awaiting vengeance, since two of its members were killed in the underground battle last Saturday, dispersed tonight. The men felt satisfied that the poisonous fumes pouring into the mine since yesterday had done their work.

Bare Chance the Outlaw Lives. "That the jaunty Mexican who first killed a fellow countryman, and then five peace officers, because he coveted another suitor, may still still alive remains a bare possibility. His one chance for life was to have sealed himself up in some distant stope, against the invasion of the poisonous gases."

Before erecting the outer bulkhead in the Andy tunnel late yesterday, six men went to the inner bulkhead, three hundred feet from the mouth, to examine it. Shortly afterwards one of their number staggered out and fell to the earth, overcome by the gas that had leaked through the partition. Deputies rushed inside and carried out the other five, all of whom had dropped within the tunnel. They were soon revived, but the incident offered striking testimony to the deadliness of the gases that fill the mine.

Even "Black Damp" Created. "Thousands of pounds of wet sulphur were consumed to generate what is known and feared by the miners as "black damp." Sulphur, coal gas, formaldehyde and black oil were the chief ingredients used, in addition. The fuel of the smudges was composed of coal, green wood, hay and cotton waste.

Two hundred men are out at work in the lower level as the result of the smuging operations. The leaders are said to be suffering a net loss of more than $1,000 a day. They announce, however, that they will gladly remain idle a month in order to bring about the death of Lopez.

The smuging will continue for twelve or twenty-four hours more. Not before Friday night, it is thought, will the deputies be able to enter the mine.

SUPPOSED LUNATIC MAKES DEMAND FOR BADGER BANK ON PLEA THAT HE OWNS IT. Oshkosh, Wis., Dec. 2.—"I have been told I own this bank, and I have a warranty deed issued by the United States for it. I also own railroads and other transportation lines. I want this bank right now."

This was the statement of Reuben Peck to Cashier A. J. Marble of the Farmers' bank of Oshkosh today. Mr. Marble concluded that Peck was deranged and turned in a burglary alarm meantime engaging the intruder in conversation.

The alarm brought Edward Bardwell with a shotgun, but before he could raise the weapon Peck had him cuffed. Peck finally was seized and taken to jail.

The man is said to have at one time been an inmate of a hospital for the insane.

Men Returning to Work. The announcement of a revision in the scale of wages and hours in the copper country is having an effect on the strike. Exact figures are not obtainable, but the fact is that non-federally organized men have returned to work in the South range, Quincy and Isle Royale mines. Reports of a similar condition at Calumet are not heard, but at Chibout there are few strikers remaining.

Dynamite Again Used in the Copper Country. Non-Union Miner's House at the Quincy Is Badly Shattered and an Attempt Is Made to Blow Up a Mineral Range Train at Mohawk--Deputies and Strikers Have Gunfight at Painesdale.

Houghton, Mich., Dec. 2.—[Special].—A dynamite bomb was exploded at the house of Armand Tanealoni, a miner at the Quincy, at the Handscribble locality, Hancock, this morning at 2 o'clock. The house was badly damaged. None of the occupants, consisting of Tanealoni, his wife and three children and one boarder, was injured.

IN POLITICS.

It is again reported that Amos Musselman, G. O. P. candidate for governor in 1912, is feeling out conditions in the state, and may presently announce his candidacy. Mr. Musselman makes no concealment that he would greatly like to be governor, and he believes he could be of service to the state by applying his practical experience as a business man to the administration of its affairs.

Meanwhile Secretary of State Martindale has favored interested persons with an extended statement of his platform, in an authorized interview in the Detroit News, in which he gives utterance to progressive views that embrace even the recall of judges. Martindale's supporters vigorously contradict the assertion that "there will be nothing to it but Groesbeck in Wayne county," and, furthermore, they assert that in the state outside Wayne Martindale will run away from Groesbeck. They point to the resurrection by many newspapers of Groesbeck's part in the 1912 Bay City convention as conclusive proof that his selection would serve to open all the old party scores.

But while all this is going on there is noted an increasing number of voters who are not Democrats who frankly express the opinion that Governor Ferris has proved himself perhaps the largest sized man who has been engaged in public activities in Michigan for several decades, and they make no concealment of their purpose to vote for him in 1914, if he will only give them a chance.

IS HE LOSING HOLD?

Is the President losing something of his grip on congress? Mark Sullivan, sometimes described as the Democratic editor of Collier's, seems to be somewhat of the opinion that he is. He remarks: "The failure of the senate to take up the currency measure until the last week of the special session marks a lessening of the hold that President Wilson has had on his party. He was committed strongly to final action upon this bill during the special session. He began to urge the measure as early as last May. If President Wilson is losing the dominancy with which he drove congress so masterfully in the tariff matter, it will be in its effect upon the future of political parties in this country an event of the highest importance. Many persons believe that the Democratic party is no more homogeneous today than the Republican party was two years ago, and that the time is bound to come when President Wilson will take one path and a large section of his party will take another."

Mr. Sullivan discusses the apparent inability of congress to do big work efficiently, and with fair speed, in these sentences: "The recent session of congress began on April 1. During eight months it passed only one important measure—the tariff bill. (Meanwhile it is safe to say that nineteen-twentieths of the time of the 435 members of the lower house was spent in inefficiency and idleness.) This is an impossible situation. The tariff bill had been agitated continuously for four years. . . . Practically all the personnel of both houses were intimately familiar with those discussions. There was nothing more to learn, and there was no excuse for delay. A system which lends itself to such incapacity and procrastination will have to be mended. "There is no corruption left in congress—and very little undue reverence for special interests. There is practically nothing left of the conditions which caused the overthrow of Aldrich and Cannon, and all the political revolution of the past four years. There is, however, appalling incapacity, due chiefly to the archaic system, and in only a minor degree to spots of individual low efficiency where there ought to be intelligent and energetic leadership."

THE TWO LEADERS.

General Carranza, the nominal head of the Constitutionalists, has, in a measure, of late been eclipsed by General Villa, the most daring and successful of the leaders now arrayed against Huerta. Villa's recent victories have greatly extended the territory dominated by the Constitutionalists, and have apparently given them heart for a movement on the capital that is as likely as not to prove successful. The Constitutionalists have been almost uniformly victorious over the Federal arms. They have more enthusiasm for the war than their opponents, from whose ranks desertions occur in disconcerting numbers, and are apparently much more effective fighting men than the levies Huerta is able to send to the Federal forces.

The rapid rise of Villa among the Constitutionalists has already occasioned much speculation as to what would be likely to result if the allied armies were able to compel the withdrawal of Huerta from the capital. Would Carranza and Villa be able to act in concert in dealing with the resultant situation, or would the proverbial jealousies between the Mexican leaders cause a split in the Constitutionalist camp?

In the arts of government Carranza is conceded gifts of natural ability and lessons of experience that make him much more likely to point the way wisely than Villa. But, on the other hand, Villa's successful soldiering has made a marked appeal to the warlike elements that make up the Constitutionalist army, and it is not without the bounds of possibility that, despite Carranza's admitted ability better to grapple with the problems of peace than Villa, the army would prefer Villa for the leadership.

In the anxiety of the press correspondents to keep the public informed as to what Huerta is doing, or is likely to do, the most important thing of all, what will be done after Huerta, is too generally lost sight of.

As was to have been expected, the copper country strikers adopted strongly worded resolutions protesting their purpose to continue their strike, in spite of the concessions the mine managers made effective Dec. 1, and there is little doubt of their ability to hold a considerable number of men in line for some additional weeks. The concessions at the mines may lead to some further defections, but it is the best opinion that the Federation is down to fighting weight, and that its present supporters will hang on until it is finally necessary to throw up the sponge. This may be somewhat disappointing to the managers, who would, of course, like to have the trouble settled up as soon as possible, but it is only what they might have expected. The strike now has its greatest support in Keweenaw. The opinion is expressed that if it broke in Keweenaw, it would soon peter out in Houghton, but in that county it still appears to possess much strength.

Muskegon reports, in connection with its effort to secure new industries for the town, that "the bonus system has been proved to be a delusion and a snare." The bonus industries, without exception, lived a brief and unprofitable life and then faded out of sight, leaving the men who had supplied the bonuses somewhat lighter in purse, but with a largely increased store of worldly wisdom. The experience of Muskegon has been the experience of many other cities. While in exceptional cases it may be that meritorious industries can be placed on their feet, and on the high road to growth and prosperity, by a bonus, as a general rule men looking for a bonus of assistance are not the men who will show net earnings at the end of a business year. The safest way is not to have any truck with the bonus plan. It has been abundantly tried and almost invariably it has been found wanting.

What between the increased state taxation and the heavy county budget caused by demands on account of the strike, the Houghton county taxpayer has a rate this year the like of which had hoped he would be many years in seeing. Fortunately he is not over-assessed, compared with the assessment of the mines. They will have the burden of raising the most of the money.

If, as is claimed, the only alternative to government ownership is feeding up the railroads by higher rates so that they will be able to take care of their necessities, the public should hasten to fall behind the feeding up movement. We have plenty of government problems to tackle for the present, without venturing into the realm of railroad management.

The number of private banks that have cracked of late months, and the number of private bankers of high and low degree that have been sent to prison, should lead the legislators at their next session to look with more favor than last time on proposals to make these institutions accountable and less likely to deceive the public.

It is one of those contradictions that we so frequently encounter that the mildest November we have had in nearly two decades should have been broken into by a storm that caused on the Great Lakes more loss of life and of ships than ever before occurred since their navigation was begun.

The council met and adjourned Monday evening without showing any disposition to throw local municipal affairs into hopeless chaos by refusing to give up their offices to the commissioners who will be elected the latter part of January.

The legislators have settled down to a new grind. Grind is the word the newspapers always use. But it hardly conveys a proper idea of the dwindling idleness that characterized the greater part of the special session for most of the members. They had, as a rule, little to do but mark time while committees sought to formulate their business for them. They may not be lazy; they are not, in fact. Give them something to do and they are willing to do it. But the system prevents them from being continuously busy even if they wanted to be, and keeps them no small part of their time on the waiting list.

Four additional battleships are on their way from the Mediterranean to Mexican waters. If anything cracks in Mexico there will be, for a starter, a sizable force of marines available.

The new tariff law has cut the income of the government. And there is a growing apprehension that presently it will cut a lot of other incomes, too.

The inactivity of the hen makes the boycott on eggs comparatively easy. No surplus is pressing for sale to break prices, and thus to undermine the boycott.

If Dr. Wiley gets back into the pure food game Commissioner Helme will have to share his laurels with him.

A LAUGH OR TWO

His Brogue. An Irishman, who for some reason did not wish to be taken for such and was not proud of his brogue, entered into a heated argument on the subject with a friend who was a lawyer, and finally said: "If I were on trial for the brogue, do you mean to say that any jury in the country would bring me in guilty?" "Well," said the lawyer, "speaking professionally, I would advise that if you wish to deny the brogue you had better do so in writing."

Learning to Report. At a certain "school of journalism" a part of the practical work is to do regular reporting. Not long ago a student was sent in haste to "cover" a railway wreck at a town a little ways out. It grew to be almost time for the paper to go to press, and still no word from the young man on the assignment. In desperation the dean of the school telegraphed to ask why the story was not forthcoming. The reply was: "Too much excitement. Wait until things quiet down."—Unknown.

A Rapid Grower. Seth Low, president of the National Civic Federation, said the other day of an article against arbitration: "The author of the article shows an amazing degree of ignorance. He shows presumption, too. He is like little Willie Budd. "A man rang the bell of Willie Budd's house one day, and Willie, aged eight, answered. "Is Mr. Budd in?" asked the man. "In Mr. Budd," said Willie, "or do you want to see old Mr. Budd?"

As She Is Spoke on Clyde. The best English is said to be spoken in Scotland—but not on the Clyde! A Londoner, just returned from Scotland, sends a Daily Chronicle correspondent this example of Firth of Clyde language: "Poo-pa-poo; a-ma-noo, ganr-pa-poo." The strange sounds are supposed to be uttered by a wee MacGregor in a rowing boat with his parents; and the interpretation is "Pull, pull, pull; oh, ma, now, ganr (make) pa pull." The Chinese-like exhortation is a good companion for "Fla-diddly"—which is sound Glasgow for "Fellow fell off a lorry."

Taking a Risk. A New York wine agent, who was trying hard to introduce a new brand of champagne, called upon Wilton Lackey, the actor. "Mr. Lackey," said he, "you are so very well known throughout the country that your opinion in such matters

How to Detect the Alum Baking Powder

"Which are the alum baking powders; how can I avoid them unless they are named?" asks a housekeeper.

Here is one way: take the can of a low-priced powder in your hand and read the ingredient clause on the back label. The law requires that if the powder contains alum that fact must be there stated. If you find one of the ingredients named alum, or sulphate of aluminum, you have found an alum baking powder.

There is another and a better way. You don't have to know the names of the alum powders. Use Royal Baking Powder only; that assures you a cream of tartar powder, and the purest and most healthful baking powder beyond question.

carries great weight. You would be doing me a great favor if, when ordering champagne, you would ask for my brand."

"Certainly, old top," said Lackey. "I shall be delighted to do so."

Whereupon the agent was profuse in his thanks. "Don't mention it," said Wilton, "but, I say, old top, what if they should have it?"—New York American.

Ladies First. Going to the blackboard the teacher wrote this sentence: "The horse and the cow was in the stable."

"Now, children," she said, "there is something wrong with that sentence. Who can correct it and tell why it is wrong?"

One small boy waved his hand excitedly and the teacher called upon him. "It's wrong," he said with importance. "It ought to be 'The cow and the horse was in the stable, because ladies always ought to go first.'"

Their Generosity. A popular doctor was not long ago much pleased with a certain aerated water, and by his assiduous recommendations procured for it a celebrity it justly deserved. The doctor acted solely in the interests of humanity generally and expected no return. To his surprise and there came one morning an effusive letter from the company, saying that his recommendations had done them so much good that they "ventured to send him a hundred." Here the page came to an end. "This will never do," said the doctor; "it's very kind, but I could not think of accepting anything." Here he turned the page and found the sentence ran, "of our circulars for distribution."

Notter German in Dixie. An old negro went into a drug store in Richmond and said: "Boss, will you please sell, call de colonel on de telephone?" "This was done, and the old man said: "Colonel, dat ar mule done stall right in de main street, right on here in front of de store. Yaas, suh; I done tied strins round his ears, but he didn't budge. What's dat? What's dat? Yaas, suh; I built a fire under him, but it didn't do nuthin' but scorch his harness. Yaas, suh, yaas, suh, I took de things out, but he wouldn't budge. Yaas, suh; yaas, suh. What's dat? No, suh; no, suh, colonel. I didn't twist his tail. Yaas, suh; yaas, suh, another german twis' his tail; he look like a northern german. What's dat, colonel? Yaas, suh, dey tuk him up to de hospital."—Argonaut.

It would be a distinct drawback to the world celebration of the opening of the canal were the nearest neighbor to stand in a position of undisguised hostility. Not A Time For Strikes. News of threatened strikes in Indianapolis elsewhere inspires a thought: Is it wise at this time for labor to contemplate strike measures? The fact is undeniable, and not denied by anybody worth listening to that we know of, that business throughout the country is slackening up. There is no necessity, for the impartation of force to the thoughtless revival of the fact, to inquire into the causes of the fact, to much less to seek to lay the blame. The slackening is seasonal, if not seasonal. There are those who even regard it as a seasonal, arguing that a check and a warning is an excellent alternative in business. Aggravatingly, however, reasons for the diminution of business pace, there is legislation lately enacted, and more pending.

The seasonal condition is of thousands employed during the summer in navigation and agriculture, being released for candidacy for new jobs, and there are fewer new jobs than usual at this season because of the other reasons.

Is this a good tactical time for labor to contemplate strikes? The question seems to answer itself.—Detroit News-Tribune.

Von Buelow Faces Facts. Prince Bernhard von Buelow's homily to the German people on their relations with France is the plain spoken sort of utterance one imagines may sometimes be voiced in the secrecy of the European chancelleries when the ministers are gathered together to face facts as they are and not as they wish them to appear to the world. The prince says plainly that France has been injured by Germany in the seizure of Alsace and Lorraine and that it is sheer nonsense to attempt to mollify her by makeshift protestations of friendship.

Only time or force will lead the breach between the countries. Von Buelow expresses no regrets, no contrition. He indulges in no condemnation of his country for what has been done. He merely points out the fact that the territory of Alsace and Lorraine has been left sorely in the hands of the enemy.

This manly attitude, this sensible advice, is really encouraging in a day when the chief aim of many persons in high official position is to color facts to suit their theories. There is safety too in such honest facing of consequences and realities—far more safety than there is in any theoretic supposition. Moreover, the ex-chancellor shows a dignity which might very well be emulated by some near statesmen of the moment who try to gloss over matters far more indefensible than the seizure of Alsace and Lorraine by Germany by delivering sugar-coated discourses concerning social justice and higher ideals and brotherhood.

Von Buelow acknowledges that his country "put one over on France," and he leaves the impression that he is glad of it. Possibly not a very high ground to take, but thoroughly honest.—Detroit Free Press.

LOWER STATE NOTES

ANN ARBOR—Attorney A. F. Freeman, formerly a member of the state tax commission, was thrown from a limited interurban car, near Chelsea, and hurt seriously. He is in University hospital suffering from a dislocated shoulder, a fractured leg, and possible internal injuries. Mr. Freeman was riding on the back platform of the car and when it struck a curve about four miles from Chelsea, was thrown off.

OWOSSO—Information that Wacly Katoinebenjo, who fatally stabbed his fellow workman, Roman Wasilkow, in August, while on a spree here, and escaped after an armed posse had sought him all night, has been captured in Russia has reached the police here. The murderer came to America a fugitive from justice, having killed a man in his native land while making his escape from officers seeking him on a charge of forgery. It was for this crime that he was nabbed as soon as he returned to Russia.

BATTLE CREEK—I am not going to send any more troops north, and I most assuredly will not go to send them into Keweenaw county, declared Governor Ferris over the long distance telephone, when questioned concerning the report sent out from Calumet by Sheriff Hepting stating that Ferris had promised all troops needed. "Any talk to that effect that is not true," added the governor. "As far as Keweenaw county is concerned I talked with General Abney and told him to tell Hepting and the supervisors that it is time for them to get busy and do something, as the civil authorities with power in that county. The state of Michigan has waited four months for them to do something. I emphatically deny I wired the sheriff that I would send them all the help needed. No more troops will go into that county."

PETOSKEY—All Emmet county has been aroused by the failure of numerous searching parties to find any trace of Rev. Anton Vandermeer, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Harbor Springs, who mysteriously disappeared. Rev. A. Vandermeer, a native of Holland, is a graduate of the McCormick seminary, Chicago, and Harbor Springs is his first charge, he having occupied the pulpit over a year. He is unmarried, but is engaged to a girl in Chicago. At first the belief was held that he had gone "off his head," but by telegram he denies all knowledge of his whereabouts. The lady at whose residence the minister roomed says he was very queer in his habits, and often studied all night. He was nervous and high-strung, but preached eloquent sermons. He left a note which said "I am going away." With the note was an envelope containing the money which the minister had collected to take several boys to the state convention. Those intimately acquainted with Rev. Vandermeer declare he has experienced many disappointments of late in his congregation, and was greatly upset by news of the recent death in Holland of his stepfather, his only relative. Many think that the minister has done away with himself and that his body will be found in Little Traverse Bay or in the neighboring woods. There is another belief

Direct Line—from Gogebic Range. The Soo railroad is preparing to put Ashland on the map according to reports that have leaked out from general headquarters at Minneapolis and are borne out by actual happenings in this vicinity, says the Ashland Press. When it was announced that the Soo road was to build a concrete ore dock at Ashland and the wise ones knew that there was more to the story than came out. It is now learned that the Soo has had a gang of surveyors at work all summer in the country south of Ashland and that it intends to get a more direct route to the Gogebic range and also one that is more suited to heavy traffic. The roundabout way via Mellen is expensive on account of extra mileage as against the mileage of the competing line, but it is more so expensive on account of Plummer's sag and the Penokee gap, two bad grades over which it is impossible to pull heavy trains. It is proposed by the Soo to utilize the South Shore road and thus get a direct line to Ashland. The new road will leave the Soo a short distance from Hurley on the Hurley-Mellen branch, cut across to the South Shore, which will be utilized for some distance, and then another cut-off will be built into Ashland or over to the Soo's Chicago-Ashland line. The Soo officials were much pleased over the settlement of the Stuntz avenue matter with the city commissioners, and it looks as if Ashland will in a few years rival any port on the lakes in ore shipments.

AFTER SICKNESS

Mrs. Gardner Tells How to Restore One's Strength. So many people are asking how to recover their strength after severe sickness that we are publishing this information for their benefit. After gripe, pleurisy, pneumonia, or any illness what you need is new strength and better blood. The most certain way to get this is by taking Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation. Mrs. M. T. Gardner, Chicago, Ill., says: "After a very serious operation I was a total invalid for nearly a year and a convalescence for months thereafter, I gave the remedies of a number of eminent specialists a thorough trial, but without deriving the slightest benefit. Vinol was recommended. Without the least faith in the merits of the medicine, I took it faithfully, and it seemed to bring back the old color to my cheeks and the elasticity to my step which I had despaired of ever recovering. I can say, conscientiously, that for nervous, run-down people, Vinol is an excellent remedy."

Try a bottle of Vinol. Your money will be returned if it does not restore your vitality and strength. The Stafford Drug Co., Marquette, Mich.; also The F. P. Tillson company, Ishpeming, and J. E. O'Donoghue, Negaunee.

Small Boy Travels Far. One of the youngest lads to make a trip of thousands of miles all alone is Master Peter Catterson, aged nine years, who has arrived in the Soo from Glasgow, Scotland. He is living at the home of his uncle, W. B. Robertson, of Daveson street. The lad is nine years of age, but does not look more than six. He sailed from Glasgow direct to Quebec. He had pinned to his clothing a tag on which was written the piece of his destination. The boy says that the immigration officers at Quebec were kind to him, taking him to the station in an automobile and there asking the conductor on the train to see that he got through all right. He had only one change to make and arrived at Montreal. Master Peter has already enrolled in the Garfield school, which he will attend.

ARE PREPARING FOR XMAS WORK

Salvation Army Will Send Appeals for Contributions to Marquette Residents.

The Marquette corps of the Salvation Army has begun preparations for bringing cheer into the homes of the city's poor at Christmas time, and its work this year will be more extensive than ever before. The officers are planning on distributing at least seventy-five Christmas dinners. The work of the Marquette corps, especially at Christmas time, has always been thorough and no families are left in need.

Within a few days Captain and Mrs. Lawrence W. Redgrove will send out appeals as follows, for contributions and contribution cards to about two hundred of the city's residents:

"Dear Friends: Christmas comes but once a year, and with it comes both the desire and opportunity of contributing something to increase the happiness of somebody else.

"For many years the Salvation Army has been the medium through which those who are well provisioned have passed their gifts of clothing, money and food to the neediest poor. The poor eagerly and hopefully look to us, and we in turn look to you. May no disappointment dim the joy of this festive season for either of us. Your kindness in the past encourages the hope that you will again find through us the way to allow your generosity to flow toward the less favored.

"Last Christmas throughout the United States no less than 400,000 were supplied with basket dinners, while thousands of children received gifts, clothing, toys, etc. In Marquette we are preparing to give 75 basket dinners, to be distributed the day before Christmas to families whose need and worthiness has been carefully investigated, also to provide a Christmas entertainment with gifts of clothing, toys, etc. for 300 poor children, who otherwise would wonder why Santa Claus has passed them by.

"In addition to this special help, as appropriate to the season, our Relief Department must supply food, fuel, clothing, etc. to worthy poor families during the winter season, each case being dealt with on its own merits.

"We are relying upon fullest co-operation and generous gifts. Kindly mail us your contribution at once, and it will be your happiest Christmas gift.

"Yours in grateful anticipation,
LAWRENCE W. REDGROVE,
Commanding Officer.

"P. S. Make all checks and money orders payable to the Salvation Army, Inc. The surplus, if any, will be used for local work."

SNATCHED FROM RAILS IN VERY NICK OF TIME

Girl Bound on Railroad Track Is Found by a Farmer as Train Is Approaching.

Grand Haven, Mich., Dec. 2.—Hazel Paine, a seventeen-year-old girl, whose home is in Ferrysburg, Mich., was found bound hand and foot on the Grand Trunk railway track a few miles east of this city tonight. She apparently had been drugged and was only partly conscious. The glare of a locomotive headlight exposed her position to a farmer who was walking along the track, and she was removed from the rails only a few moments before a train rushed by.

The girl was still too ill tonight to explain the predicament in which she was discovered. The authorities learned today she had been the victim of an illegal operation. Her condition, it is said, was known to her relatives.

The officers believe the young woman was placed on the rails by a man whose arrest is expected soon.

LAW-MAKERS LIKE WILSON'S MESSAGE

First Annual Communication of the President Is Pithy and to the Point.

and prestige of the Huerta government was rapidly crumbling, and added: "We shall not, I believe, be obliged to alter our policy of watchful waiting."

Presidential Primaries.

Mr. Wilson suggested that there be promptly enacted legislation providing for primary elections throughout the country, at which the voters of the several parties "may choose their nominees for the presidency without the intervention of nominating conventions." Party conventions, the president suggested, should be retained, "but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the primaries and formulating the platform of the parties."

The president suggested, moreover, that the delegates consist of the nominees for congress, the nominees for the vacant seats in the senate, the senators whose terms have not yet closed, the national committees and the candidates for the presidency themselves, "in order that platforms may be framed by those responsible to the people for carrying them into effect." That is essentially the system which Mr. Wilson introduced in New Jersey state conventions.

Colonial Policy.

The president referred to the need of administering the Hawaiian islands, the Philippines and Porto Rico "for the people who live in them," and not for selfish exploitation. He advocated self-government for the Hawaii and Porto Rican territories and urged that the United States go a step further with the Philippines, "holding steadily in view their ultimate independence."

Conservation Question.

On conservation, the president suggested a policy of common counsel and conference along lines "which need be no less acceptable to the people and governments of the states concerned than to the people and government of the nation at large." The president declared that "there need be no conflict or jealousy as between state and federal authorities, for there can be no essential difference of purpose between them."

He argued that the resources ought to be used and not wasted or destroyed. "A common purpose," he added, "ought to make agreement easy."

Employers' Liability.

Recommendations that the bureau of mines be empowered, and equipped to render more effective service and that a fair and effective employers' liability act be provided were the remaining subjects dealt with.

The conclusion of the address was an expression of confidence in congress for having labored so "unreservedly during the past seven months of uncomplaining concentration upon the business of the legislation. I hope," said the president, "that it may not be deemed an impertinent intrusion of myself into the picture if I say with how much and how constant satisfaction I have availed myself of the privilege of putting my time and energy at their disposal alike in counsel and in action."

STOCK MARKET AT NEW YORK STRONGER AND MORE ACTIVE THAN FOR SOME TIME PAST.

New York, Dec. 2.—More business was done in the first hour of today's stock market than during yesterday's entire session. All during the forenoon the market, led by the coalers, displayed a degree of strength and activity such as has not been seen often of late. Some of the favorite stocks were purchased in large blocks and there was a substantial rise in prices. In the afternoon the trading became quiet and the gains were sealed down.

The technical position of the market was favorable to a rise and traders worked more confidently today on the long side. There was no important change in conditions to explain the increased activity on the long side.

Wheat at Chicago Gains in Value.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Black rust in Argentina and green bugs in Texas brought about a bulge today in the wheat market. Closing prices were: December wheat, 87 cents; May, 90 1/2 to 90 3/4; December corn, 70 1/2; May, 70 1/2; standard oats, 40 to 40 1/2.

ATTORNEY FOR DEFENSE PICTURES DR. WM. B. CRAIG AS A PERSECUTED MAN.

Shelbyville, Ind., Dec. 2.—The defense had its inning today in the trial of Dr. William B. Craig, for the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe.

In a three-hour address by Henry N. Spaan, of counsel for the accused man, Dr. Craig was exhibited as a persecuted man, who not only could establish a reputation for clean living through the testimony of one hundred witnesses, but who could produce other witnesses who will swear that he was elsewhere, until a late hour at least, on the night he is alleged to have killed Dr. Knabe in her flat.

Mr. Spaan declared that there was nothing in the relations of his client with Dr. Knabe to furnish a motive for the crime with which Craig was charged. The two were never more than friends, he said, and Dr. Craig could have had no reason for desiring the woman's death. Dr. Knabe he pictured as a failure in her professional life, a woman grown despondent through a succession of reverses in her business career.

He said that many circumstances would be introduced to sustain the probability that she died by her own hand.

SUFFRAGISTS PROVOKED AT PRESIDENT WILSON

Message Silent on Equal Rights, They Say He Fell Short of Great Opportunity.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman's Suffrage association, created a sensation at tonight's session of the annual convention when she declared that President Wilson had fallen short of the greatest opportunity he ever had or will ever have in failing to say a word in behalf of woman's suffrage when he read his annual message to congress. Her remarks provoked loud and prolonged applause.

Dr. Shaw said she had hoped that the president would arise at the occasion, but that while he had recognized the necessity for the extension of the ballot to the Filipinos and urged territorial voters' rights for Alaska, he had failed to mention woman's suffrage in his message.

"President Wilson," Dr. Shaw continued, "referred in his message to the fact that the time had come for an extension of greater social justice, and we women eagerly listened to this. We had hoped that social justice would include some measure of political justice due the women of this country. I feel fully that measure of disappointment which under the circumstances is natural for the time has come for the president to say a word in our behalf."

Even Lincoln Had No Such Chance.

"We feel that President Wilson has fallen short of the greatest opportunity which has come to him or ever will come to him. No other president has ever had such an opportunity. President Wilson had the opportunity of speaking a word which might ultimately lead to the enfranchisement of a large part of the human family. Even Lincoln, who, by a word, freed a race, had not this opportunity to release from the bonds one-half of the human race."

"I feel that I must make this statement, as broad as it is, for the reason that we at Budapest last year realized that womanhood throughout the world looked to the United States to blaze the way for a coming woman's freedom of franchise in every quarter of this globe. President Wilson has missed the one thing that might have made it possible for him never to have been forgotten. I am saying this on behalf of myself and of my fellow officers."

Resolution Carries Unanimously.

When Dr. Shaw concluded, the convention, amid enthusiastic cheering, adopted by acclamation the following resolution, introduced by Dr. J. William Funk, of Baltimore:

"Resolved, That in the sense of this meeting, President Wilson failed to rise to the sublime heights of Democracy, when he failed in his message to congress today to recommend the freedom of half the citizens of the United States, and probably half the citizens of the civilized world."

HARD LUCK.

In these days of devices for doing everything, it is pleasant to hear of a man who is not at a loss when forced to rely on his own resources. A dentist in a Missouri town, while eating lunch the other night, remembered that during the day he had done some work for a man without entering the charge in his account books. As no writing paper was to be had, he wrote the charge on the surface of a hard, white cracker. He put the cracker in his pocket and took it home. All might have been well, and the man's ingenuity might have resulted to his advantage, but for the unfortunate fact that a rat ate the cracker during the night, and the dentist has not been able since to remember the name of the man for whom he did the work.

HUERTA IS LOVER OF BRUTAL HUMOR

Is Known as a Heavy Drinker and Tremendous Eater and Jokes About Death.

Mexico City, Dec. 2.—Victoriano Huerta a fighting man. He is not a statesman or a diplomat merely a fighter. If he wants a thing, he fights for it. He did good work for Diaz in the Yaqui campaigns in Sonora, although in some manner he fell from grace. He fought well for Madero, too, but was too bloodthirsty and ruthless for him. Madero shamed him. That was a mistake. Huerta formed a contempt for Madero because he wasn't a fighter. He believes President Wilson isn't a fighter, either. Therefore, he holds him in contempt also.

But though a fighter by profession, a skilled fighter being a graduate of Chulapue military academy, a man to whom the mere matter of putting out of the way an obstacle, even though that obstacle is a human being, is a matter only of detail, he has another side. Huerta, dictator of Mexico, possesses a quick wit and appears to advantage in company. When he is delivering his monologues, based on observations and brightened by a very little by education, he is a somewhat likable old chap.

This was brought out at a dinner given by Henry Lane Wilson to Huerta just before Wilson was recalled to America. Wilson wanted Huerta to get acquainted with the kitchen cabinet, most of the members of which wanted something from Huerta. During the dinner Huerta kept up a conversation concerning the condensation of the American in inviting a "plain old Indian" to stick his legs under the table.

"Yes, even in the flashes of wit, there was shown the cool, fearless brutality of the man who seized the reins of government.

Huerta's sense of humor keeps him from taking himself too seriously. The day of a comic weekly much given to cartooning public men, called on Huerta to ascertain his standing.

"I don't suppose you would give me 33 if we cartooned you a little in a good-natured spirit," asked the editor, "for of a comic weekly much given to cartooning public men, called on Huerta to ascertain his standing."

"Oh, no," said Huerta. "We might give you 30-30, though."

Thirty-thirty is the caliber of the rifles most used by Mexicans. There have been no cartoons of Huerta in that publication since.

Shows Constant Caution.

Huerta does not favor residing in Chapultepec castle. He holds that it is too lonely there on top of a rock to suit him. "Besides, it is not proper for a man as bad as they say I am to venture so near heaven. I'd better stay down where I belong," he explains.

The French minister, during a recent call on Huerta started to leave by the same door he entered. "Suppose we go out this way," suggested the dictator; "I'll tell you why."

"My mother was an Indian. When I left home to make my fortune she called me back and said: 'My son, I have no money or property to give you, but I can give you some good advice. The most valuable advice I can give you is this: Never go the same way twice. I never go out the same door I come in, so they never catch me.'"

It is stated Huerta seldom lies down to sleep in the same place. He holds that he can care for himself when awake, but not when he is asleep. "Some of the fellows who belong to me will get me some day," he volunteered. "But when they get me when I'm awake, He meets his cabinet at various places, changing the point at very short notice.

His house is plain and differs from the others only by a guard of soldiers. These are called looking men, who flirt with passing women, lunch on bananas and smoke cigars, but they are members of Blanquet's first and true Twenty-ninth battalion. They are not handsome or soldierly, but they are weak fighters.

Huerta is almost 60 years old, but is strong and active. He is a friend of the cognac bottle and his drinking exploits are narrated very often. Also he is a tremendous eater. A dinner of many courses means only bare dishes. He has lived the greater part of his life out of doors.

$500,000 RAPHAEL MADONNA COMING ACROSS ATLANTIC.

New York, Dec. 2.—Another of Europe's most highly prized treasures of art is coming to America, according to special cable advices, which say that the celebrated Cowper "Madonna and Child," by Raphael, has been purchased by American dealers at a price above half a million dollars. The painting is known as the Cowper picture, because it was the chief treasure of the late Earl Cowper's collection at Pangloss, Hartfordshire, England. It has lately been in the possession of Lord Desborough. One of the conditions under which the famous picture was sold is said to be that it should first be offered to the British national gallery. This was done a month ago, but the national gallery, with its small grant, was unable to raise the high price asked.

The painting portrays the virgin wearing a red tunic cut square over the breast and a blue mantle. The child has one foot resting on its mother's right hand with its arms around her neck. The canvas is of small dimensions, 23 1/2 inches by 17 1/2. It has often been described as one of the most valuable in the world. It was painted in 1505 and is said to be the last Raphael painted by the master's own hand that remains in possession of private parties, with the exception of Lady Montagu's picture, which has already been bequeathed to the British national gallery, and Mrs. John L. Gardner's Inghirami, and her Predella piece, which it is believed are to go to an American museum.

The dealers who have purchased the Cowper madonna announce that they have no American purchaser in sight, but that the picture will be immediately removed to the United States and undoubtedly will be disposed of to private collectors there.

ANTS CAN GIVE SIGNALS.

"Soldiers" Issue Warning by Knocking Jaws on Leaves.

London, Dec. 2.—Ants have long been unfavorably known for their excessive industry, but they seem to have surpassed all other insects by organizing an elaborate system of signaling. Professor Bugnion, who recently investigated the habits of the white ants, reports that the "soldiers" of that species give warnings or encouraging signals by knocking with their jaws upon dry leaves, thereby emitting a crackling sound.

Placing some of these ants on a big plate and covering it with paper, he found that the "soldiers" among the ants responded to his taps with a rustling, crackling sound.

Moreover, apart from this audible signaling, there appears to be some inaudible form of signal, for the professor asserts that the "soldiers" ants salute the worker ants. To do this the insect stands firmly on its legs with the head raised and the body slightly oblique, and shakes itself for an instant with a convulsive shudder. This seems to mean something.

GABY DESLYS PACKS HER TWO HUNDRED GOWNS IN SPECIAL CELLULOSE TUBES.

New York, Dec. 2.—Gabry Deslys has solved the question of packing. All her wardrobe is rolled and inserted in special cellulose tubes and these in turn placed in compartments in special honey-combed trunks. The idea is Gabry's own.

On her present trip to America, Gabry has brought with her nearly 200 costumes. Many of them are sheer and diaphanous and no matter how carefully they might be packed in the ordinary trunk with trays, even if protected by an outer casing or wrapped in linen or silk, there would be a certain amount of friction. With the capsules or tubes, however, this is removed. The gowns are folded and slipped with ease into tubes where they remain without creasing, without friction and without the admittance of moisture until they are removed.

Gabry is the most expensively dressed woman on the French or American stage and it is estimated that nearly one-third of her time is actually given up from year to year to the designing of costumes, fitting and the care which must be bestowed upon them.

How does she pack in tubes? "Let us so simple," says the fascinating young woman, with a flash of her glistening teeth and sparkling eyes, "I just take zee gown zee way and—"

Gladstone Boy Drowns.

At Gladstone last Saturday, Roy, the fifteen-year-old son of Dan Stollker, was drowned in the bay north of the old rock dock. With Dale Dabney he was fishing from a cedar raft. The raft capsized. Dabney hung on until the Buckeye boom crew could reach him, but Stollker's body remained under water forty-five minutes before it was raised. The water is from ten to fifteen feet deep. Methods of resuscitation were applied, and in response to a call Manager P. L. Utley of the Escanaba Traction company hurried over with a pulmotor. After two hours' work it was determined that the effort was useless, as the boy's lungs had been filled with icy water. The boy was an eighth grade student and was well liked by his associates.

A Delayed Payment.

Robert Albrecht of St. Ignace was much surprised to find his name in the county treasurer's annual statement, published recently, as the recipient of $3.20 from the judiciary fund. During the year past Mr. Albrecht had performed no service for the county and had presented no claim. County Treasurer Soume explains the mystery. The county for a few years past has been compelled to borrow money from the bank. That institution has cashed and carried a lot of orders, holding them until the county treasurer could take them up, interest accruing in the meantime. There is still a heavy floating indebted-

Soo Democrat for Congress.

The Soo Times is informed that a number of prominent Democrats will endeavor to induce Francis T. McDonald of that city to accept the nomination of their party as a candidate for congress to represent the new Eleventh congressional district. If Mr. McDonald will consent to enter the race, it is understood that he will have no opposition within his party. Colonel William P. Preston of Mackinac Island having declined to become a candidate. While the Democrats realize that under normal conditions the district is hopelessly Republican, they are counting now on the fact that the G. O. P. is badly split up by the ball mouse element, and that a three or four-cornered fight for the Republican nomination next year will make the situation still worse. Francis T. McDonald is now serving the Soo for his third successive term as city attorney, and he has been making good on that job. Since coming to Michigan about eleven years ago he has always been active in Democratic politics. As his party's candidate for state representative from Chippewa county he made a good showing against the Hon. N. L. Field of Rudyard; the Republican candidate who was seeking a second term. Later he was nominated as his party's candidate for secretary of state, thereby gaining political prominence throughout Michigan. Last year he was a member of the Michigan delegation to the Democratic national convention at Baltimore. He has served on several district, state and national delegations and has a wide acquaintance among the party workers. Mr. McDonald is an eloquent orator and a good campaigner.

SHAFT UNDER WAY AT NEW IRON MINE

Pittsburg & Lake Angelina Co. Starts Operations at Iron Mountain Lake.

The Pittsburg & Lake Angelina Iron company has broken ground for a shaft at its new Iron Mountain Lake property, about a mile east of the Lake Angelina mine, where diamond drilling operations have been in progress for the past four years. The shaft will be sunk at a rapid rate, as three crews, working on eight-hour shifts, will be employed. The company has had several men at work for a few weeks past, building a team road into the property. It will not be finished until next spring, when the weather will be more favorable.

A crew of twenty-five men is employed at the new mine. The company has taken care of the men who were laid off at the Lake Angelina mine a few weeks ago and the old hands formerly employed at the Mitchell mine, are at the Winthrop, where operations were suspended during the summer. A few of the former Lake Angelina men have been given places at the company's Rolling Mill mine, Negaunee, and four or five were sent to the Forbes mine, at Iron River.

A temporary engine house and boiler house have been erected at the Iron Mountain property. Two boilers that were formerly used at the Mitchell mine have been installed. A temporary hoist is being provided for work in the shaft. Permanent machinery will not be needed for nearly a year, as it will take that length of time to sink the shaft to a point where drifts will be started to reach the ore body.

The shaft will be ten by twelve feet in size, with compartments for skip and a ladderway. The ledge is only about six feet below the surface. The shaft will be timbered.

The permanent plants will be brought in over the Northwestern, which has a roadbed, extending from the Empire property, on the Cascade range, that was used some four or five years ago by the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company, when it was exploring and operating on a small scale at the same location.

The tracks still in position but new ties will be needed and the bridges will also have to be reconstructed. It is expected that the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company will put the track in good condition before spring.

APPEARED BEFORE MILWAUKEE BOARD

E. E. Scribner Being Considered for School Superintendency in That City.

E. E. Scribner, superintendent of the Ishpeming public schools, may be chosen to take charge of the Milwaukee public schools. Although not an applicant for the position, he went to Milwaukee upon invitation of the trustees, and Friday night appeared before them, explaining his qualifications for the position. The board is expected to take final action some time this month.

Yesterday Mr. Scribner said he did not care to have much to say for publication, other than that he had not applied for the position, but went to Milwaukee upon invitation of Frank M. Harbach, secretary of the board of education. It is said that 100 or more school men applied for the position. Mr. Scribner was informed, however, that he and three others were the only ones being considered. The other three men were also invited to appear before the board, and the last of the trio presented his qualifications last evening.

The superintendency has been vacant since September, when Carroll G. Pease resigned to accept the superintendency of the Milwaukee Normal. The position is one of the most desirable of its kind in the country and carries a salary about twice as large as that paid Mr. Scribner here. The superintendent has three assistants and there are also superintendents for special branches. Milwaukee employs 400 teachers, and has an enrollment of between 40,000 and 50,000 pupils. Five high schools are maintained, a school for the deaf, another for the blind, one for exceptional children, an open air school, boys' trade school and girls' trade school. The board is now considering the establishment of a school for cripples.

The board of education is composed of fifteen members, three of them women. Among the latter is Mrs. Berger, wife of Victor L. Berger, who during the first term of Emil Seidel's administration as mayor of Milwaukee was elected to congress from his district. There are three physicians on the board, and the president, G. W. Augustyn, is a prominent banker.

Speaking of the position, Mr. Scribner said that he felt fully qualified to handle it, although he is aware that it is a big job. Mr. Scribner invited the members of the Milwaukee board to come to Ishpeming to look over the schools here. Mr. Scribner has been in charge of the Ishpeming schools for the past twenty years. Prior to coming here he was superintendent in New York state for four years.

While Mr. Scribner's many friends in Ishpeming and Marquette county would regret to see him leave here, they would all be pleased if he secured the Milwaukee superintendency, as it would be a big advance for him.

PROPERTY OWNERS TO PRESS CLAIMS

Assert Their Houses Were Damaged by Blasting at the New Public Playgrounds.

Andrew Lindquist, Richard Kappes and Ernest Kalm have served notice on the board of education of the Negaunee public schools, and also on Paul Sheridan, the Houghton contractor who filled the playgrounds near Teal Lake, that they will begin suit for damages, if their claims are not settled without delay.

The school board is secured against any loss by a bond given by the contractor prior to starting the work.

The filling of the playgrounds was recently completed. It is said that the contractors did not make any money on the job, although they received something over $7,300. Their price per cubic yard, two and one-half cents, is said, was too low to permit them to finish the job anything ahead.

Although the contractors had to haul the ground for the fill a short distance, the work moved slowly, as they had to level all sand into the small tram cars. It was taken from a hill where a scoop shovel could not be worked to advantage. The fill was from one to three feet in depth.

Equipment for the playgrounds will be ordered by the board of education during the winter. They are of ample size to permit the laying out of a base ball diamond and a regulation sized gridiron for football. Swings, horses, parallel bars, and other paraphernalia will be purchased.

ERUPTION ALL OVER CHILD'S BODY

Began With Small Red Spots. Cried Almost Day and Night. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Well in One Week.

R. F. D. No. 2, Jackson, Mo. — "Our daughter who is ten months old was suffering from an eruption all over the body. In the beginning they were small red spots and afterwards turned to bloody sores. We tried all sorts of ointments but they did not procure any relief for our child. She had no rest day or night and we tried everything to procure relief for our baby.

She cried almost day and night and we scarcely could touch her, because she was covered with sores from head to foot. "We had heard about the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and made a trial with them, and after using the remedies, that is to say, the Soap and the Ointment, only a few days passed and our child could sleep well and after one week she was totally well." (Signed) August F. Bartels, Nov. 25, 1912.

were married in Sweden in 1863 and in 1881 they immigrated to America. A few years later they went to the copper country, where they have since resided. SAVE YOUR HAIR! IF FALLING OUT OR DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Ladies! Men! Here's the Best 25 Cents You Ever Spent—Don't Wait! Apply a Little Tonight.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—growing all over the scalp.

More Iron Mines Closed. The McDonald mine of the Huron Iron company has been closed for the winter. The McDonald has not been a big winner at any stage. The ore produced was shipped to the Lake Superior Iron & Chemical company and as that company is now in the hands of a receiver, the shipments were shut off. It is not known yet whether the mine will be allowed to fill with water, but it is likely that this course will be pursued. The pumps and piping at the Lake Superior Iron & Chemical are now filling up the mine. This action has been expected for a long time. In fact, many wondered that the company had pumped water at this property as long as it had. How long the company—the United States Steel corporation—will continue to occupy the Mansfield is conjecture. The lease does not expire for several years. There is a lot of property belonging to

Two acquittals and a conviction was yesterday's record in circuit court and good headway was made with a fourth case. The acquittals were in the cases of the People vs. C. A. Johnson, of Negaunee, charged with a violation of the liquor law, and the People vs. John Niemi, of Negaunee, accused of carrying concealed weapons. Rudolph Laux, bartender for Martin Rustenoven, North Marquette, was found guilty of a violation of the liquor law in having permitted Leo Rivers, a minor, to remain in the saloon.

The case now before the court is that of the People vs. Edward Mursu and Barney Boyer, of Negaunee. The defendants are charged with committing an assault on John Jetty, using a dangerous weapon. The people's case was heard late yesterday afternoon and the examination of the defendants and their witnesses will be undertaken this morning, when court is resumed at 9 o'clock. It is expected that the case will go to the jury early in the morning.

One of the most important cases on the criminal calendar, that of the People vs. James N. Fohrman, of Ishpeming, is set for trial today. The defendant was arraigned at the September term of court and at that time pleaded not guilty.

Johnson Is Acquitted.

Chris A. Johnson, of Negaunee, who was accused of having kept his saloon open after hours, was acquitted yesterday morning, after the jury had been out for more than an hour. The taking of the testimony was finished Monday afternoon, the case going to the jury at 9:10 o'clock yesterday morning. The witnesses for the prosecution were police officers of the city of Negaunee. The principal witnesses for the defense were Mr. and Mrs. Johnson.

Bartender Found Guilty.

Rudolph Laux, of this city, was convicted of a violation of the liquor law, the verdict of guilty being returned by the jury late in the afternoon. Sentence has not yet been imposed by the court. Laux is bartender for Martin Rustenoven and was alleged to have permitted Leo Rivers, a minor, to remain in that place of business May 15, 1913. It was conceded by the defense that Rivers was in the saloon that night, the question being whether Laux had permitted him to remain in the saloon long enough to take a drink. Some of the testimony was taken during the latter part of the morning session and the case went to the jury at about 2:30 o'clock. The defense was conducted by W. T. Potter.

Acquittal for Niemi.

John Niemi, of Negaunee, charged with carrying concealed weapons, was found not guilty, the case being the second tried at the present term. Mr. Niemi was defended by A. W. Jurna, of Ishpeming. It was alleged that on Oct. 2, Niemi threatened William Deacon and a number of boys who were playing football on a lot adjoining his home. The defense showed that Niemi did not own a revolver and that on the day in question he had used an old black pipe which resembled a pistol when viewed from a distance. Four of the boys testified that they were sure that Niemi held a revolver in his hand. The case was given to the jury shortly before the noon recess. The verdict of "not guilty" was returned at about 2:30 o'clock.

Another Negaunee Case.

Another Negaunee case is now occupying the attention of the court—that of the People vs. Edward Mursu and Barney Boyer, charged with having committed an assault on John Jetty, of Negaunee. The offense is said to have occurred some two months ago during a drunken brawl on Iron street. Jetty was seriously stabbed. A large part of the testimony was taken late yesterday afternoon. The case will probably go to the jury early this morning.

MR. BROWN WINS.

Says the Thing He Had in Mind Was the Preferential Ballot.

To the Editor of The Mining Journal: In your editorial of today you demolish no proposition mine whatever.

In saying that "I would place the names of candidates directly upon the non-party ballot by means of petition, without the circumlocution, inconvenience and expense of the preliminary elections we shall have hereafter." I do not explain how real majority rule may be obtained by means of one election under the latest development in ballot reform.

This is accomplished, however, under the preferential voting system now in use abroad, in Cleveland, Spokane, and other American cities, and in primary elections in Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota and elsewhere.

Under this system the voter expresses by numbers opposite the names on the ballot, the order of his choice among the candidates; that is, first, a second, third, etc.; and by Professor Nanson's method of counting such ballots, this system affords a complete solution of the problem of ascertaining the will of the majority at a single election.

CONSISTORY IS NOW IN SESSION

Presentation of Charter a Feature of Scottish Rite Masonic Meeting—Opening Sessions Yesterday—Many High Degrees Will Be Exemplified Tomorrow.

Annual Assemblage of the Order of the Mystic Shrine Will Be Held Friday—Novices Will Cross the Burning Sands and Year's Officers Will Be Elected.

The second gathering of Francis M. Moore consistory, Scottish Rite Masons, is being held this week, opening yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock with work in the Lodge of Perfection, fourth degree. The sessions will continue until tomorrow evening, when the meeting will close with a Scottish Rite banquet in the Masonic dining hall in the Colonial building. The charter of the new consistory is itself one of the features of the session and it will be formally installed, following ritualistic ceremonies. Deputy John J. Carson, thirty-three degree, of Flint, will present the charter.

In many respects the present meeting is one of the most important Masonic gatherings that has ever been held in the upper peninsula. There are nearly one hundred members in the class to be admitted. The meeting is notable also since the consistory hereafter will operate under its charter and will no longer be a consistory under dispensation.

Dispensation was granted for the Francis M. Moore consistory Sept. 16, 1913, and the charter was issued only a short time ago. This is unusual, as it seldom happens that a charter is issued the same year that dispensation is granted. It was done in this case owing to the good work of the consistory, the great enthusiasm that was shown and the excellent report of the deputy.

Among those here to participate in the ceremonies are: Frederic B. Stevens, thirty-third degree, Detroit; Richard D. Swartout, thirty-third degree, illustrious grand secretary of the DeWitt Clinton consistory, Grand Rapids, and William E. Van Sickle, of Detroit, commander-in-chief of the Michigan sovereign consistory.

Many Degrees Exemplified.

Opening yesterday afternoon with the interpretation of the fourth degree in the Lodge of Perfection, the exemplification of the degrees continued throughout last evening. At 3 o'clock yesterday there was work in the sixth degree, and at 4 o'clock the seventh degree was put on, in each instance Munsing Masons conducting the ceremony. At 8:30 o'clock last evening there was work in the fourteenth degree or degree of the grand-elder Mason.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning the degree of the Knight of the East or Sword will be exemplified; this is known as the degree of the fifteenth grade. The sixteenth degree, the Apartment of the West or the Ruins of Jerusalem, will be worked this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. This evening there will be work in the seventeenth and eighteenth degrees, the Chapter of Rose Croix.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the degree of the Grand Pontiff will be exemplified, followed at 1:30 p. m. by work in the twenty-first degree or the degree of the Patriarch Noahite. The degree will close at 3:30 o'clock with the interpretation of the thirty-second degree or the degree of the Sublime Princess of the Royal Secret. At 6:30 p. m. the Scottish Rite banquet will be served.

Shriners Here Friday.

Directly following the close of the sessions of the consistory, Friday will mark the holding of a ceremonial session of the Order of the Mystic Shrine. This will attract Shriners from all parts of the upper peninsula, as well as from the lower part of the state. The potentate of the Mystic Shrine of Duluth, together with the potentates of Detroit, Grand Rapids and Sault Ste. Marie, will be in attendance. It is expected that fully three hundred Shriners will be present.

The Shriners hope to round out their ambition for 1913, bringing their total number of members up to one thousand.

The primary purpose of the Shriners' session is to conduct the election of officers, this meeting being known as the annual meeting. The session will open at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon with balloting on candidates for the Shrine, about sixty in number.

Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock there will be a parade in the principal business streets, followed by the ceremonial session, conforming the order on the candidates. At 11:30 o'clock a banquet will be served in the hall in the Colonial building.

The Masonic lodge rooms in the opera house block, where the degree work is being conducted, presented a beautiful picture last evening. They were artistically decorated with cut flowers, ferns and palms. The Scottish Rite quartette, of Chicago, appeared in several numbers before the large assemblage.
