MANY SWAINS MADE VICTIMS OF BUNGO GAME

Martin W. Farris, Wife and Two Daughters, of Princeton, Ind., Charged With Conducting One of the Biggest Matrimonial Swindles Ever Operated in America.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 17.—Martin W. Farris of Princeton, Ind., who, with his wife and daughters, Louise and Ora, was indicted here upon a charge of misusing the mails in operating a matrimonial bureau, today told Judge A. B. Anderson that the federal court that Louise was responsible for what Charles W. Miller, the district attorney, characterized as one of the biggest matrimonial swindles operated in this country.

MISS LOUISE, WHOM FATHER SAYS IS ALONE RESPONSIBLE, ENTERS A PLEA OF GUILTY—SHE ENGAGED TO FIFTY MEN AT ONE TIME, SAYS PROSECUTOR—GOT GEMS AND CASH

Mr. Miller declared that the plan of the swindle was for Louise to write letters to men who wished to marry her. Mrs. Farris mailed the letters, he said, while Ora waited away prospective bridegrooms and, if they became impatient, the father threatened them.

PROSECUTOR INVOLVES WHOLE FAMILY

Five of the men who had proposed to Louise arrived in Princeton at the same time. Mr. Miller said, and at one time she was engaged to fifty men. One of the victims, who sent Louise $100, was a prominent pugilist, the district attorney asserted.

CONSERVATIVE.

Apparently there is a certain conservatism in the approval that the Lansing State Journal lavishes on Senator Smith. It comments:

A poll of the United States senate on the question of a presidential primary shows Senator Smith of Michigan as "non-committal."

There is, of course, nothing of real news value in this. A certain news editor illustrated the point very aptly when a green reporter rushed in breathless with the story of a dog biting a man.

"That's not news," said the editor. "But if you ever get a story of a man biting a dog write a half a column with pictures."

Like the story turned in by the cub reporter there is nothing unusual in Mr. Smith's attitude.

Yet, after all, why should a senator commit himself and make enemies. It is so much easier to go down the middle of the road waving the Star Spangled banner and making speeches on patriotism.

THE PLAN IN MANISTEE.

More evidence to show that the commission form of government is losing ground.

At Manistee this week on a vote of 1,150 the plan was approved by a majority of 767.

Manistee, like Cadillac, is going to waste no time fooling around the approaches to true efficiency in city administration, but is going to place a competent organizer and administrator in charge of the municipal business as general manager.

He will be expected to see that everybody on the municipal payroll works full hours and that a dollar of the city's money is made to go as far as it would have to go if he were responsible, as general manager, to an exacting individual employer, or a board of directors which was principally interested in efficiency and results.

One excellent thing about the new Marquette charter is the fact that it is sufficiently flexible to permit the introduction of this plan, if it should be deemed advisable. It is a plan that is coming into increasing favor, and by many students of municipal government it is regarded as the system that will finally solve the problem of securing efficient administration in all small sized cities.

NO CONVENTION AFTER ALL.

The Republican party is to hold no ad interim convention, after all. Its house is to be put in order by action of the national committee. This body is to provide a new basis of representation that will govern the action of the several states when they are preparing for the next convention—if there is a next convention.

The decision to hold the national committee responsible for the proposed changes in the organization of the party, and to forego the proposed convention, was reached with a fair measure of harmony and by a pretty conclusive vote.

It was espoused by some of the most progressive leaders, including Borah, and had the opposition, among others, of William Barnes, Jr., of New York, who thus managed so to relate himself to the issue that he suffered his customary experience of being bowled over.

One of the principal reasons urged against the convention plan is the prospective chaotic condition next year of the laws relating to the choice of delegates. Some states will have primary laws, and others will be in process of getting them. Then, too, the question of federal action to secure the direct nomination of presidential candidates is in the background. Apprehension was expressed by opponents of the plan that out of a convention would come more confusion than benefit. It was not rejected by a division between the conservatives and the progressives, otherwise Barnes would not have upheld it and Borah opposed it.

Those who wanted the convention contended that it would have afforded the party an opportunity to fix the attention of the Progressives on the bona fide nature of its protestations of reform and would thus have served the cause of political union. But while there is something in this, it is also true that the proposed convention would have set the stage for a possible clash between the progressives and reactionaries who still remain in the ranks of the Republicans, and thus it is not without the bounds of possibility that the convention would have left the party worse off than it was before it was held.

Probably the thing that would do most to bring the Republicans and Progressives together would be the general adoption of presidential primaries. At that event, it is generally predicted, the men in the ranks in both parties would make the same nomination for president, the standpatners could go to Wilson, or the devil, and a basis of future harmonious action would be successfully arrived at.

But much doubt exists whether the Wilson plan for presidential primaries will be carried out. Apparently it is open to grave constitutional objections.

jury, congress or special commission, the probe should go deep into who has been furnishing the combatants with arms, no matter in which camp such arms have been found."

The Michigan State Telephone company has asked the state railroad commission to authorize the introduction of metered service in Detroit and to increase that, on the present volume of business, would, it is said, give the company $120,000 a year additional income. The state commission recently investigated complaints at Detroit, and found that "saturation" of the telephone lines with business, much of it of a trifling nature, was the cause of faulty service. The principal advantage of the metered service would be the reduction in the amount of non-essential conversation that is now put on the wires, and the consequent certain improvement in the facilities enjoyed by that part of the public which has real use for the phones. The proposal to introduce metered service has, however, never been popular, and opposition to the company's plan is already gathering force at Detroit. It will, no doubt, be vigorously combatted.

MR. PROUTY'S VIEWS.

Charles A. Prouty, who remains a nominal member of the interstate commerce commission, pending the time when he will actively take up the work of supervision of the physical valuation of the railroads, in an interview in the New York Times expresses the belief that the railroads will have no difficulty securing authorization of rate increases as soon as they are able to show that the income obtained from the increases will be legitimately invested in betterments and will not be made the basis of further inflation of their capital. It is Mr. Prouty's idea that the position of the railroads in their demand for higher rates would be greatly strengthened by the passage of the proposed measure for federal supervision of securities.

"Briefly, my position, which is unofficial," Mr. Prouty said, "is that the railroads will always have a difficult time getting extra money until there is positive assurance that the extra money will be used right, and the only way we can get this assurance is through federal laws regulating railroad securities and investments, with government supervision of them. This has no direct bearing on the immediate request of the railroads. I was thinking particularly of the New Haven railroad's past history when I mentioned government supervision. I meant to be understood as meaning that the government wanted some assurance that the future policy of the New Haven would be different from its past before it granted the New Haven more money."

"In our recent investigation of the New Haven's affairs we found records of grossly improper practices in the management of the road. We found inflated capitalization, money used for improper purposes, investments made in trolley lines, the Boston & Maine and elsewhere that should never have been made. In fact the powers that were did everything with the New Haven but run a railroad. Now what I want to see is an absolute guarantee that these things cannot happen again. They are called 'bygones.' What I want is assurance that they are 'by-gones' and won't be repeated."

"If the railroads show they need more money they will get it. Let the railroads once convince the commission that their request is just and it will be granted, government supervision or no supervision. The only point is that it will be harder for the railroads to win their case without government supervision than with it. Personally I would like to see the railroads big money earners. When I am sure that their earnings will not be capitalized and will be used properly I shall be in favor of allowing them more than what we call 'a fair return upon investment.' I think they should have a liberal return upon investment, if they are properly run."

In this statement of Mr. Prouty's it is matter that should please both the railroad man and the layman. It is a fair presentation in a manner clear to the average reader, of some salient points in connection with the pending request of the railroads. Little desire exists to deny the railroads rates that will permit of fair returns. With Mr. Prouty, the public would probably even be pleased to have the railroads earn liberal returns, if it was assured that they would be applied to building up the properties to provide for the future and in fair dividends, and that the additional earnings would not be capitalized.

Most of the railroad bills come from outrageous financing. Not only did this financing divert money that should have gone into the properties, but it created the state of public mind that has sanctioned repressive measures with regard to the railroads that have resulted in their impoverishment, to some degree. With the assurance that future financing of the railroads will be fair, and morally honest, there will no doubt come a marked improvement in conditions, all around.

How time flies, to be sure! The mental vigor of Senator Root has been largely responsible for an impression that he is a much younger man than actually is the case. But he says, much to the surprise of many persons, that when the present administration draws to a close he will be seventy-two years old. There will be general agreement with the senator that a man of seventy-two is really incapacitated from undertaking the wear and tear of a strenuous campaign, to say nothing of the strenuous job of filling the presidential office. In view of the fact, as he shows, that the senator's age so clearly disqualifies him, there is no need to dwell on the other disqualifications that would, in any event, make his candidacy a serious mistake.

The University of Michigan officials have refused to remove the can they tied on the J hop last year, after it gave rise to riotous scenes near the building where it was being staged and after much invidious comment was made by the newspapers. No doubt the J hop was too highly colored in the press stories, but the fact remains it promised soon to become a notorious event. It has done no harm to put the lid on it. Good night J hop.

At the same time it, of course, must be granted that if the President had not found fault with the nature of the annual show of the Order of the Carabao many million persons who have now enjoyed the play of the officers' fancy would not have had it called to their attention.

It takes all kinds of candidates to make an election, and Marquette is going to have 'em when it elects its new officials the latter part of next month.

EDITORIAL OPINION

The Man in the Box.
One of the big weekly publications of the country scores the point well worth attention when it declares that the manner in which jurymen are treated in the United States is nothing short of barbarous.

"In at least half the jurisdictions of this country," it says, "to be summoned as a juror is to be treated as a calamity comparable to a fire in the house of the dangerous illness of a member of the family. For every hour a guilty felon spends in mortifying confinement some innocent juror spends at least forty-five minutes in a more irksome confinement."

So far as provision for personal comfort goes, the conveniences of the court are almost wholly for the judges and the lawyers. Here in Cleveland, with our fine, new court house, we have done much to ameliorate the condition of the unfortunate persons caught in a jury panel or involved in a test of rights before the law, but giving the jurymen more tolerable physical surroundings does not answer the whole purpose.

The average citizen is as anxious to avoid jury duty as he is to escape the inquiries of the tax assessor or avoid smallpox. And all because there is no one to protect him and he has no power to protect himself.—Cleveland Leader.

A LAUGH OR TWO

Definitions.
A witty judge declared recently that "a patriot was a man who refused to button his wife's blouse. A martyr," he went on, "is one who attempts and fails, while a hero tries and succeeds."

"Then, what is a coward?" asked a curious bystander.

"Oh, a coward," replied the judge, "is a man who remains single so that he won't have to try."

Too Rich for Him.

During the street car strike in Boston a year or two ago the cars were put in charge of conductors who were far from exhibiting the courtesy and obliging manners of the regular men.

"A lady signaled a car in Brookline, and as it stopped she said to the conductor, 'Do you stop at the Bourne?'"

"No, ma'am," said he, with a grin, "I can't afford to." And he gayly started the car Bostonward, leaving the lady agape with astonishment.—The Youth's Companion.

Reached Him Later.

During the last general elections in Canada, Rev. J. J. McKeckill vigorously upheld the reciprocity pact in the province of New Brunswick. At a meeting in Queens county he was discussing the effect of the agreement on the price of various commodities. "What about hay?" shouted an opponent. "I'm discussing hay," retorted the speaker, "but I'll come to your specialty in a moment."

And Then—

In a Western city are two councilmen, Byght and Barque, who love nothing better than to score each other. One evening Councilman Barque was calling attention to any "miserable" and other unsightly objects in the Central ward, when his hated rival sprang to his feet. "Well," remarked Byght, "I've lived in the Central ward all my life, and I know of no unsightly object. Pardon me," went on Barque, "but I, too, live in the Central ward, and yet it is only an extension, albeit though it is, of the company store plan, which is thoroughly vicious in principle and practice, and should everywhere be wiped out of existence.—Grand Rapids Press.

A Government Nursery.

Senator Stone of Missouri, though not always fond of criticism in his own criticisms of Wall street, is equally correct when he deplores the growing custom of the great financial interests in taking ex-comptrollers and other men from the treasury department into their own service at high salaries when these officials have, for one reason or another, left the government employ.

"Does not everyone know," said the senator in debate the other day, "that the treasury of the United States has for years been a sort of nursery house for the production of men who would go forth to serve these great financial institutions? Do these men serve their masters when they were holding positions of public confidence and trust? The great banks have for years sought to have and control agents in the treasury to serve their purposes."

The law is to the effect that the treasury department is likely to look ahead to the day when they, too, will become handsomely paid employees or partners in the great city banks. This feeling is too apt to influence their actions as federal servants, even with the most honest intentions, and the temptation to play into the hands of Wall street should not exist. Yet it is difficult to see what we are going to do about it.—Boston Post.

Loosen Up the Postal Banks.

On October 1, the total deposits in the postal savings banks amounted to $26,504,477. There is nothing to indicate that this deposit money has been a drain upon the ordinary banks. On the contrary there are indications showing that it is money that otherwise might have been withheld from circulation and that much of it would have probably gone abroad to be deposited in foreign banks.

The interest on postal savings is not of a rate to cause a preference over ordinary banks. This restriction was made for that very reason but in addition a rule was made limiting the amount that can be deposited by an individual in a single month to $100 and limiting total deposits to $500. This would seem to have been an unnecessary caution. There appears to be no good reason for making any other limitations for interest bearing deposits in postal banks than the established limitations of ordinary savings banks for the same reason. The interest rate will afford all the protection the latter banks will require. Postal deposits may be viewed as money salvaged from sequestration in private hoards and foreign deposits, for use in sustaining American business interests by any bank that can furnish security for a red deposit.

The government will do well to expand the deposit limit in postal banks for this only promises a greater usefulness of the new system without involving any penalty for other depositaries.—Detroit News-Tribune.

THE MARLBOROUGHS.

Another step toward the reconciliation of the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough was taken recently at a family conference, presided over by the chief solicitor for the Duke's family. The feature of the meeting was the destroying of the legal agreement providing for the care and disposition of the two sons, the Marquis of Blandford and Lord Ivor Churchill, who placed severe restrictions upon the Duchess regarding her association with her children.

NOT BEYOND HELP AT 87.

Sleep-disturbing bladder weakness, stiffness in joints, weak, inactive kidney action and rheumatic pains are all evidence of kidney trouble. Mrs. Mary A. Dean, 47 E. Walnut St., Taunton, Mass., writes: "I have passed my 87th birthday, and thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proved most beneficial in my case." For sale by All Druggists.

THE MAN WHO NEGLECTS HIMSELF

When his condition points to kidney trouble takes an unwise risk. Backache, pain and soreness over the kidneys, nervous or dizzy spells, poor sleep, and the water boy who disappears to see his regular use of Foley Kidney Pills. They put the kidneys and bladder in a clean, strong and healthy condition. For sale by All Druggists.

That Obliging Boy.

When Professor Vambury, the famous Orientalist, whose death occurred recently, arrived at Sandringham on a visit he received a message that Queen Alexandra wanted to see him. He decided to wash his hands first, so he went to his room and rang the bell to ask for some hot water. No one came though he rang the bell repeatedly.

Then there came a knock at the door and a youth entered. "Do you want anything, professor?" he asked.

"Yes," replied the professor, "I have been ringing for some hot water."

"Wait a moment and I'll get you some," was the obliging reply. The boy disappeared, returning in a few minutes with a large jug of hot water which he placed on the washstand. The professor thanked him and he withdrew.

After he had washed, the professor descended to pay his respects to his royal hostess, but after a few minutes' conversation he was surprised to see his "hot water boy" come up to the group.

"Ah, professor," Queen Alexandra remarked, introducing the boy "this is my son!"

After that the professor nicknamed the boy, who is now King George V., "The Royal Jug Bearer."

HERE TO INVESTIGATE THE CASE OF Wm. TURK

Special Agent of the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission Is Copperdom Visitor.

James S. McGill, special agent for the Carnegie Hero Fund commission, arrived in Houghton yesterday for the purpose of investigating the case of William Turk of Toivola, who gave up his life June 15, last, in an unsuccessful effort to save the life of his friend, Gus Kina.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Carnegie Hero Fund commission at the time by distressed people and it is being investigated with remarkable promptness.

Turk and Kina, neither of whom could swim, were wading in the water of Webster's lake, near Toivola, Sunday morning, June 15. Turk had left the water and from the bank saw that Kina had gone under, apparently having stepped into an unsuspected deep hole.

Turk ran into the water to help his friend, also went over his depth and lost his life in the attempt. It is understood from all information obtainable, that Turk went into the water fully conscious of the danger, but gave no heed to his own risk.

The matter was at once brought to the attention of the Carnegie commission. Under Sheriff William H. Hicklin, having done what personal investigating was necessary. There has since been some correspondence with the commission and yesterday Mr. McGill arrived to complete the commission's investigation.

Mr. McGill's duties as special agent of the Carnegie Hero Fund commission—he is only one of eight agents—keep him on the road constantly. He leaves Pittsburgh at Christmas and does not return there till the following Christmas. He still has three cases in Michigan to investigate before completing this annual tour.

The Carnegie Hero Fund commission was established in 1904 by Andrew Carnegie, who placed in trust a large sum of money to be used in rewarding men and women performing heroic acts. In the event that the hero loses his life in the act the award is made just the same, to the relatives or heirs of the deceased.

The wards are in the form of gold and silver medals and cash donations. Turk left a mother, to whose support he had contributed. He left younger brothers and sisters. If the commission decides his act was meritorious it may do one or more of many things. A medal may be given the mother and a sum of money placed in trust to give her a small annuity. It may be that one of the younger members of the family will be educated at the expense of the commission. The awards follow no rule, but are made in a manner to best assist the people surviving the man who gave up his life for another.

Mr. McGill spent yesterday and last night at Toivola, investigating the case. He cannot disclose his findings to anyone but the commission and very probably it will be well into the coming year before the final decision is made.

CLOSE FOR HOLIDAY VACATION.

Suomi College Will Not Reopen for New Year Until January 6.

A meeting of the directors of Suomi college, Hancock, took place Tuesday, when it was decided to close the institution tomorrow for the annual Christmas vacation. Sessions will not be resumed until Jan. 6.

"We have the assurance that several new students will enter the college in the year," said Secretary Ilmonen yesterday. "Our attendance has been a little short of that in other years, but this will be made up when the new term opens."

Many of the students will spend Christmas at their homes, and going to the iron district, while others will leave for northern Minnesota.

FOREIGN CHRISTMAS MAIL.

Ship to Land in New York Today Brings Record-Breaking Consignment.

Along about Saturday the clerks in the copper country postoffice will be called upon to handle a lot of incoming mail that will reach New York today from Europe. The liner St. Louis is due today and she is breaking all records in the number of mail sacks carried. The boat has more than eight thousand sacks aboard.

This mail is to be sent out from New York at once and the copper country will get its share. An account of the large number of former Europeans living in this district the shipment to the copper country will be heavy.

During the last week the annual rush of mail sent to foreign lands has been heavy. The parcel post business has been even larger than expected.

CLOSE STORE EVERY NIGHT.

The Lake Linden Co-operative Store company has voted to close its establishment each evening, excepting Saturday, the year around. It is believed the example will be followed by many Lake Linden merchants. This policy was adopted years ago by R. B. Lang, the Houghton dry goods merchant, by the two Houghton hardware companies, Swifts and Portage Lake, and they find that it pays.

GREEN CHRISTMAS STILL IN PROSPECT

Yesterday's Snow Flurries Not Considered to Mark Advent of Wintry Weather.

There is no certainty that the copper country will not have a green Christmas, in spite of yesterday's snow flurry. Weather Observer Cowdick inclines to the belief that permanent snow is still some days removed.

As soon as the snow flurry of yesterday became apparent the weather observer was reviewed. He said that it was only a flurry and that while last night was expected to be cold there was no snow in the air in serious quantity. He inclines to the green Christmas theory for this year.

Mr. Cowdick was reminded of the copper country theory that permanent snow must fall on wet ground, that in other words, snow does not stay in this country unless the ground is soft. The ground at present is frozen and this is taken as further evidence of the certainty of a green Christmas. The weather observer does not add that there is any scientific authority to the belief that permanent snow must fall on wet ground, but he says that his observations during his residence in Houghton justify the theory.

Bad for Sport and Business.

The weather undoubtedly is bad for business. This is unreasonable weather and buyers are not finding it necessary to lay in supplies of winter goods. The fine weather is an aid to Christmas shoppers, but it is against general business. The weather also is against hockey. Of course snow is not necessary to the making of ice, but the temperature has not been favorable to the latter requisite for hockey.

Midwinter golf is a possibility for Portage Lake. In fact, John J. Zealand, one of the old masters of the game in this field, was on Tuesday the recipient of a challenge from the Soo Country club. The challenge was delivered by "Ab" Ferguson, the Soo hockey magnate. Mr. Ferguson is an old-fashioned sportsman, but it is against general business. The weather also is against hockey. Of course snow is not necessary to the making of ice, but the temperature has not been favorable to the latter requisite for hockey.

RAILROADS NEED SNOW.

Superintendent Lytle Forecasts a Bad Season for Lumbering.

General Superintendent C. E. Lytle, who was here from Marquette this week, said that his roads, the South Shore and Mineral Range, have had a good year and have not had a great deal to complain of, although the Mineral Range has plain of the strike sadly because of the decrease in snow. The roads need snow, need it badly, for if there is no snow in the woods so the lumberman can skid on his logs, how is the railroad going to get the log-hauling business? Mr. Lytle says he is praying for snow and lots of it. The season for hauling logs is nearly over, and the holidays and there is no sign yet that there will be sufficient snow in the woods by the first of the year to enable the lumberman to get out his timber.

TAKES PICTURES UNDERGROUND.

Universal Film Company Has Powerful Apparatus for the Work.

Operator Reis of the Universal Film company, which has a crew taking a series of educational pictures on the copper mining industry and the strike situation, is obtaining a series of films depicting the work and conditions underground in the Calumet & Hecla mines. Mr. Reis will take pictures underground in other mines of the district. He will make a complete series. Mr. Reis has with him underground a crew of six electricians and a series of from six to a score of powerful arc lights. The pictures will show every branch of the work done underground.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC IN CHURCHES.

The directors in charge of the choirs of St. Patrick's and St. Joseph's Catholic churches in Hancock are arranging special music for the midnight mass service to be conducted in each house of worship Christmas eve. There will be special music by the children in both churches Christmas morning. In other churches of the city programs of music will be given on Christmas day. The Sunday school children will take part.

EXPRESSMEN ARE TROUNCED.

The Hancock postoffice basketball team came back strong Tuesday evening, and reclaimed itself by defeating the Expressmen's five by the score of 14 to 10. Nikkila, captain of the postoffice squad, says the result of the match was never in doubt. It was the fourth time the teams have met and the postoffice quintet claims three victories.

CONSTIPATION POISONS YOU.

If you are constipated, your entire system is poisoned by the waste matter kept in the body—serious results often follow. Use Dr. King's New Life Pills and you will soon get rid of constipation, headache and other troubles. Recommended by The Stafford Drug Co.

CAME HERE AS A CHILD.

Mrs. James Richards of Isle Royale Dies at Age of Fifty-Eight.

Mrs. Katherine Richards, wife of Superintendent James Richards of the Isle Royale Copper company, died yesterday morning at the family home at Isle Royale. Death followed a long illness, one that a serious operation last March failed to cure, though it brought relief which Mrs. Richards enjoyed till October, when she was again taken ill. From that time on death was expected.

Mrs. Richards was a native of Germany, she came to the copper country in 1873 as a child to join a brother at the Cliff mine, and she had resided continuously in the copper country ever since. She was fifty-eight years of age. Captain and Mrs. Richards were married at the Cliff in 1877. They lived at various places in the district and finally took up their residence at Isle Royale sixteen years ago.

Beside her husband, Mrs. Richards is survived by nine children, all residents in the copper country.

GOGGIN SAID TO HAVE FLED.

Italian Agitator Is Wanted Now by His Worried Bondsmen.

The danger facing bondsmen who go on the bonds of Western Federation of Miners agitators who so conduct themselves to be held on criminal court charges is shown in the case of Ben Goggia, alias Goggia. Goggia, who had been mixed up in various scenes of violence during the strike and had been arrested several times, is reported to have fled the district. Now his bondsmen, the men in court, are worried, since they have pledged themselves to either produce the body of the agitator or forfeit considerable money.

The bondsmen are wondering just what they will have to do in the event the man does not appear on the dates set for his examination, and whether they can bring Goggia back on the charge of jumping bail or fleeing while under criminal charges. However as justice court charges have been preferred against the man it seems unlikely that the authorities will be able to bring him back.

Goggia faces three charges at Calumet, one before Justice Fisher for assault and battery, scheduled for Dec. 23, the bonds for which are $200; one before Justice Jackson for assault and battery, scheduled for Dec. 29, with bonds of $300; and one before Justice Armit of Laurium for creating a riot and disturbance, the bonds being $100.

There are others of the trouble-makers of the federation, held on criminal charges, whose bondsmen are becoming worried since the members of this class have started to get out of the district.

WARDENS ON THE LOOKOUT.

Reports that rabbits are being snared for the commercial returns they will bring have spurred the deputy game wardens in the copper country to renewed activity. Rumors of every description touching upon violations of the law will be investigated at once here.

While for the two years past it was unlawful to sell rabbits, this year it is just the reverse, although it is still against the law to snare the little animals. Owing to the heavy demand for rabbits for steaks and other dishes, the wardens understand that trappers have commenced to set snares in order to supply the market. For this reason the officials intend to spend considerable of their time in the woods, watching for just such violations.

Deputy Game Warden Willson of Hancock received this week from Washington several copies of the federal game laws. These copies have been left at places where hunters and trappers are likely to drop in. The deputy warden suggests that every trapper or hunter in the copper country read these laws, that he may become familiar with what is and what is not a violation.

MASONIC LODGE ELECTION.

The Quincy lodge of Masons, No. 135, reconvened last year's officers at a meeting Tuesday evening. Because there are no changes in the list, no date was set for the installation. Those chosen follow:

- Master—Dr. N. B. Fox.
- Senior Warden—William H. Rowe.
- Treasurer—Thomas Ingram.
- Secretary—Jeremiah Bettins.
- Senior Deacon—George S. Armstrong.
- Junior Deacon—Charles MacDonnell.
- Stewards—Warren M. Bell and Thomas Stoddard.
- Tyler—Fred Rundle.

LIVED IN KEWEENAW.

Mrs. Edmund Brunenau, aged fifty-three years and one of the most widely known woman residents of Keweenaw county, died at her home at Phoenix Tuesday. She was born and reared in Keweenaw, living all her life at Phoenix and had been outside of the county only once. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. J. A. Wilson of Republic, Roy of Gay, Mrs. Charles Bryant of Phoenix and Ed. Oliver, Beecher, Norman and Miss Pansy, all at home. Her husband has a son, and she has a sister, Mrs. John MacAulay of Devils Lake, N. D.

COOKING WITH COLD.

That meat can be cooked by extreme cold as well as by extreme heat is the contention of a German investigator. He has taken the familiar phenomenon that extreme cold seems to the touch like extreme heat and applied it to meats. His tests have revealed the fact that a temperature of sixty degrees below zero, Fahrenheit, seems to do the work best; and he contends that meat cooked in this way is equal to meat cooked with heat. He recommends, however, that the meat be kept in tightly sealed jars after being cooked with cold.—Saturday Evening Post.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You

Costs Little, but there is Nothing Better at Any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough almost instantly, and will usually conquer an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This recipe makes a pint—enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50. Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste—children like it. Braces up the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.

You probably know the medicinal value of pine in treating bronchial asthma, bronchitis, spasmodic croup and whooping cough. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualaol and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.

The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

LET UNCLE SAM TAKE OVER THE WIRE SYSTEMS

That Postmaster General Burleson's Suggestion to Congress in His Annual Report.

any steps necessary for the government to take toward the acquisition of the telegraph lines of the country in accordance with section 5267 of the Revised Statutes. This committee is now engaged in preparing its preliminary report.

Mail Service More Than Paying Way.

Postmaster General Burleson presents an elaborate statement of the financial operations of the postoffice department, including a discussion of the methods of bookkeeping, which he has changed.

"It is gratifying to report," says he, "that the total expenses of maintaining the postal service for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, is found to be exceeded by the revenues for the same period; that there is an actual surplus of $8,341,936.78 and that the postal service is now for the first time since 1853 self-supporting."

As to his general financial policy Postmaster General Burleson says: "The dominant policy of the present administration will be to conduct the postal service for the convenience of the public and not for profit. Its controlling purpose will be to promote efficiency by the complete standardization of the service, which will be attained by harmonizing the postal service with the personnel and procuring the greatest possible cooperation in every quarter. The prime consideration in perfecting the personnel of the postal service will be to recognize efficiency, and to eliminate partisanship."

In conclusion, Postmaster General Burleson points out that the postoffice department is essentially a business institution, which touches every home in the land. A high standard of efficiency is demanded of all postal employees and he says that he will require from every postmaster his individual attention to the affairs of his office and that this requirement will be rigidly enforced.

STOCK MARKET IS DULL, FEW PRICES FLUCTUATING AS MUCH AS A POINT.

New York, Dec. 17.—Speculation in stocks lagged today and the price fluctuations were small and irregular. Few of the prominent stocks moved as much as a point in either direction. Traders were reluctant to bid prices, fearing that a higher level might be utilized for renewal liquidation. The selling of a nature seemed to have been completed, however, and there were no signs of severe pressure at any point. American Telephone reversed its course and, with several other issues which have been sold heavily of late, made a showing of strength, with the demand presumably coming from shorts.

Chicago Produce and Grain.

Chicago, Dec. 17.—Butter was unchanged in price here today. Creameries were quoted at 22@25 1/2 cents. Eggs, lower, receipts, 3.102 cases; eggs at mark, cases included, 26@31 cents; ordinary firsts, 28@29; firsts, 29@30 1/2; Poultry, unchanged; spring alive, 12 cents; dressed, 13; fowls, alive, 12 cents; dressed, 13; turkeys, alive, 12 cents; dressed, 21 1/2.

Because the average estimate in the government report today turned out to be larger than expected, wheat prices eased off. Closing prices were as follows: December wheat, 92 cents; May, 88 1/2; December corn, 70 1/2; May, 70; standard oats, 41 1/2@41 3/4.

EMPLOYEES OF COOK COUNTY TO GET CHRISTMAS SALARIES; BOARD'S DISPUTE ADJUSTED.

Chicago, Dec. 17.—An amicable settlement of a dispute on the Cook county board which threatened to tie up the Christmas salaries of all county employees was made possible today by the appointment of three arbitrators as a board of arbitration. The dispute originated in the failure of the eight Democrats of the fourteen members to ratify the appointment of a finance committee named by A. M. McCormick, president of the board. The Democrats then appointed a board which Mr. McCormick refused to recognize. The arbitration board will decide whether the sole power of naming committees lies with the president of the board.

REACTIONARIES PLAYED BY SECRETARY DANIELS

Head of the Navy Lambasts Foes of the Gospel of Progressive Statesmanship.

New York, Dec. 17.—Reactionaries who think to weaken the advance of progressive measures by declaring that they are the products of 'hysteria' were roundly denounced here tonight by Secretary Daniels, of the navy, in an address at the dinner of the North Carolina Society of New York.

"A few days ago," Mr. Daniels said, "a distinguished educator from a Southern state in a speech in New York declared that such new and progressive measures as the initiative and referendum were 'revolutionary.' Another distinguished authority, a statesman and an educator, referred to certain modern American political doctrines as 'wild theories' which common sense and wise experience demand be rejected as the result of hysteria."

"The real trouble is that this so-called 'hysteria' hurts. It keeps party pledges and does not take from labor the bread it earns, it makes protection-built wealth pay income tax. It elects senators direct from the people. They call it hysteria because it means we can have no more senators from the New York Central railroad, no more senators from the Southern Express company, no more senators from the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, no more senators from the Standard Oil trust.

"Standpats the Real Hysterics." "They call it hysteria because it prevents the classes from exploiting the masses, and brings the government back to the people. After all, the real hysterics are not the people who stand upon house tops and cry for reform, but the people who are guarding special privilege and are seeing the castles built by privilege tumble down about their heads. 'No, gentlemen,' continued the secretary, 'the victims of hysteria are not the forward-looking, promise-keeping reformers, who quietly convince the people that this new way, this gospel of progressive statesmanship, is best for the country, but your hysterical man of self-intoxicated patriotism and who madly waves the stars and stripes with one hand and grips his rebate-provided, protection-fostered wealth with the other and bewails an alleged tendency to put a period to class legislation; who wildly proclaim that we are turning away from those fundamental principles through which we have come to our present high estate."

Plans New Way for Rural Carriers.

It is the announced purpose of Mr. Burleson to encourage the extension of free delivery of mails in villages, because of the inferiority of the service and the impossibility to obtain economical administration of it. It is his intention, therefore, wherever practicable to utilize the services of rural carriers for the delivery of mails in small towns. On that phase of the service, the report says: "As rural routes emanate from practically all of the places where this village delivery service would be desired, the carriers should be permitted to make such deliveries as may be desirable and feasible to the residents of the villages. The compensation of rural carriers, however, at this time is based on the length of their routes and not on the amount of mail for the service indicated their salaries should be based upon an eight-hour day. With this change those carriers could be used not only to supplement the general delivery service as indicated, but in many instances in the delivery of parcel post matter, thus obviating the necessity for additional horse power. The compensation of rural carriers should therefore be changed from a charge on a eight-hour basis, and these carriers should be permitted to deliver mail regardless of the distance from the postoffice or the corporate limits of the city or town."

Merit System Held Essential.

In conclusion, Postmaster General Burleson points out that the postoffice department is essentially a business institution, which touches every home in the land. A high standard of efficiency is demanded of all postal employees and he says that he will require from every postmaster his individual attention to the affairs of his office and that this requirement will be rigidly enforced.

Legislation Recommended.

Notable recommendations to congress for the treatment of economical legislation to facilitate and extend the operations of the postal service are made. Among the more important are the following: "That the postoffice department be given exclusive jurisdiction over the selection of the sites for public buildings to be used wholly for postoffice purposes, and joint authority with the secretary of the treasury in the selection of sites for federal buildings to be used jointly by the postal and other branches of the government service. "To amend the existing laws in order to allow $2,000 indemnity for the accidental death of any officer or employee of the postal service or for death within one year as the result of injuries sustained in the service in the line of duty. Provision is made for leave with full pay for a period of one year for injuries sustained in the line of duty and then at half pay for not exceeding one year additional. This is an important recommendation, for the reason that the existing law applies only to railway postal clerks, sea post clerks and postoffice inspectors.

"The elimination of surety bonds now required of postal officers and employees and the substitution of a guaranty fund established and maintained by assessments prescribed by the postmaster general."

"To authorize the postmaster general to contract for experimental aerial mail service, for which an estimate of $50,000 has been submitted.

"To permit the postmaster general to transfer clerks from postoffices of the first and second classes to the railway mail service at salaries higher than the entrance salary in the railway mail service. The purpose of this legislation is to bring about an interchangeable personnel between the railway mail service and the postoffice service, with a view to a more effective utilization of the entire force of postal employees and to afford better opportunities for the advancement of worthy and efficient clerks in postoffice service."

"To extend the provisions of existing law so as to provide substitutes for railway postal clerks who are absent with pay on account of sickness, the expense of employing such substitute to be borne by the government instead of by the clerk."

"To authorize the issuance of postal money orders payable at any money order office.

"To authorize the removal of the limitation on the amount of postal savings deposits, with the proviso that interest shall not be paid on more than $1,000. This will permit postal savings depositors to deposit any amount."

Parcel Post's Growth Phenomenal.

The report indicates that the growth of the parcel post business has been phenomenal. "The experience gained in the operation of the system under the revised rates and weights has shown that a further reduction of rates and an increase of weight limit is justified," says the postmaster general. "It is believed that the parcel post should be made eventually to serve the people as fully and completely as possible without interfering with the efficient conduct of the postal service, and that changes in the regulations that will have the effect of increasing the volume of parcel post mail should be made gradually and only after experience and investigation have shown that they may be put into effect without loss of detriment to the service."

In connection with what is referred to as the "prodigious growth" of the parcel post service, particularly, Mr. Burleson discusses additional compensation to the railroad carriers for the extension of the postal service exceeded a billion pounds during the last fiscal year." In connection with the transportation of magazines and other bulky second class matter by regular mail routes, the postmaster general expresses earnestly the hope "that congress will remove the prohibition against the extension of this system of handling second class matter and enable the department to apply it where found practicable."

REACTIONARIES PLAYED BY SECRETARY DANIELS

New York, Dec. 17.—Reactionaries who think to weaken the advance of progressive measures by declaring that they are the products of 'hysteria' were roundly denounced here tonight by Secretary Daniels, of the navy, in an address at the dinner of the North Carolina Society of New York.

"The real trouble is that this so-called 'hysteria' hurts. It keeps party pledges and does not take from labor the bread it earns, it makes protection-built wealth pay income tax. It elects senators direct from the people. They call it hysteria because it means we can have no more senators from the New York Central railroad, no more senators from the Southern Express company, no more senators from the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, no more senators from the Standard Oil trust.

"Standpats the Real Hysterics." "They call it hysteria because it prevents the classes from exploiting the masses, and brings the government back to the people. After all, the real hysterics are not the people who stand upon house tops and cry for reform, but the people who are guarding special privilege and are seeing the castles built by privilege tumble down about their heads. 'No, gentlemen,' continued the secretary, 'the victims of hysteria are not the forward-looking, promise-keeping reformers, who quietly convince the people that this new way, this gospel of progressive statesmanship, is best for the country, but your hysterical man of self-intoxicated patriotism and who madly waves the stars and stripes with one hand and grips his rebate-provided, protection-fostered wealth with the other and bewails an alleged tendency to put a period to class legislation; who wildly proclaim that we are turning away from those fundamental principles through which we have come to our present high estate."

"Legislators in the recent past have been the favorites of great corporations. They have felt a compelling power from 'higher up.' The impersonal element in the situation made it hard to cure, but at last the ax has been laid at the root of the tree, and the people have demanded that all this must be changed. How? By legalized primaries, even for president, by pure food laws, by an income tax, by a lower tariff, by laws to protect seamen, by regulation of trusts, by the abolition of interlocking directorates and rebates, by the repeal of 'Take the tariff. The men who revised it were not hysterical. They used figures and facts. They were painstaking, and scientific, and what was the answer? The beneficiaries of protection—our infant industries, gray and iron—have with age, and obsolescence from their long pull at the pap bottle, cried out: 'You are going to impoverish our country.' Four months under the new tariff have passed and the report of Secretary of Commerce Redfield declares that the flooring of our markets with the cheap wares of Europe has not happened, as predicted, and America's foreign trade is still evidencing a healthy growth."

Currency Bill Attacked Now.

"The latest exhibition of hysteria is the effort to prevent the passage of the currency bill. It is well known by everybody that this bill is certain to become law substantially as now framed, and the principal features of it are as good as upon the statute books, and yet these who would destroy confidence in the American government and its ability to control its finances dub as hysteria the effort to pass a long needed currency reform, promised for years but never until now answered."

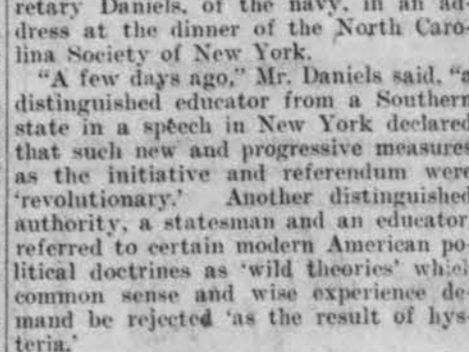

"Take conservation: The waste of our resources has been so wanton as to rob unborn generations. Men have arisen and declared it must stop. Those who wished to take all the coal for their generation and permit a few concerns to grab up all the mines and minerals declared that the conservationists were crazy. By this craft they had their wealth."

Joseph H. Winter, of Negaunee, was a Marquette visitor yesterday.

Nels Flodin, of the Lake Shore Engine Works, left last evening for Chicago.

W. H. Oakley, of Ishpeming, was a Marquette business visitor yesterday.

Herman Schumacher has accepted a position in Charles Willeson's news stand.

Mrs. J. Benson, of Big Bay, was in Marquette yesterday, visiting with friends.

W. A. Wautawa, of Waukesah, was among the business callers in the city yesterday.

There will be a meeting of Superior five in Fraternity hall this afternoon at 7:30 o'clock.

Officer John Rook, of Negaunee, was in the city yesterday, bringing a prisoner to the Marquette county jail.

F. J. Schweitzer and son, Ripley, left yesterday afternoon for Munising, to spend a few days on a business mission.

Miss Florence Jaerling will leave this afternoon for home in Calumet, where she will spend the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Frank LaBonte, Sr., is seriously ill at her home on North Third street. Her condition is reported to be gradually improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Barlow left yesterday afternoon for Detroit and Toledo, where they will visit with their daughters during the holidays.

E. R. Lewis, of Duluth, assistant general manager of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railway, left for Duluth last night, after spending the past two days in the city.

T. M. Wells, of Negaunee, county agent, returned yesterday afternoon from Lansing, where he took an Ishpeming boy committed to the state reform school. He left for Negaunee last evening.

Mrs. J. B. Moran, of Escanaba, and daughter, Miss Helen, a student at the Northern State Normal school, will leave today for Escanaba. Mrs. Moran has been visiting her daughter for the last few days.

J. M. Edgerton, of Negaunee, was among the visitors in the city yesterday, attending circuit court, which resumed its session yesterday morning on the arrival of Judge Flannigan from Iron county.

The board of education will hold a meeting this evening if all of the members are in the city. The meeting was to have been held last week, but was postponed, all of the members not being in the city at the time.

W. W. Walker, general manager of the South Shore, was in Marquette yesterday. While here he conferred with members of the firm of F. B. Spear & Sons in relation to the plans for providing a new merchandise dock in the lower harbor.

K. of P. Dance—The Marquette lodge of the Knights of Pythias was the host last evening at a dancing party in Fraternity Hall, it being the second of a series to be given by the lodge. The party was well attended.

No Snow Predicted—The snow of yesterday was only a flurry, the weather man says, and the present outlook is that the fair weather of the past two weeks will continue without interruption. Fair weather prevails throughout the greater part of the country.

Married in Chicago—Joseph Verelline, of Negaunee, and Miss Alice LaCrosse, of Champion, were recently married in Chicago. Mr. Verelline is salesman for the Duluth Land company. The couple have gone to the Western states and, upon their return, will make their home in Duluth.

K. O. K. A. Meeting—A meeting of the lowest court of the Knights of King Arthur was held last evening, and plans were made for the organization of a basketball team. Practices will be held in the Guild Hall. There is plenty of material for a good team in the court. It is also probable that the upper court will organize a team.

Fell from Dock—Amos Beaudin, employed at the Pickands new dock, suffered a ducking yesterday morning shortly after 10 o'clock, when he fell into the lake. With a fellow workman Beaudin was carrying a plank across a narrow beam. He lost his footing. He was rescued by fellow employees with the aid of ropes and planks.

Term Examinations in Progress—The term examinations at the Northern State Normal school were started yesterday afternoon and will be continued today and tomorrow. Most of the students will leave for their homes Friday afternoon to spend the Christmas vacation of seventeen days. The students now attending the school have already enrolled for the winter term. The formal enrollment day will be Monday, Jan. 5.

Boys Are Responsible—Recently youngsters in the neighborhood of Pine and Crescent streets have set numerous fires in a small area of woods near there that have caused much annoyance to persons residing in that vicinity. Tuesday night one of the bonfires got beyond control and it was necessary to call out the fire department. The residents in that part of the city have determined to put a stop to the practice, and complaint has been made to Marshal Manning.

Weds Madison (Wis.) Man—The marriage of Miss Emily Buys, formerly of this city, and William Van Keulen, of Madison, Wis., took place at St. Raphael's parsonage, at Madison, Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, with Rev. T. B. Johnson officiating. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of George Esser, West Wilson street, relatives and friends attending. Mr. and Mrs. Van Keulen will reside at 416 West Washington avenue, Madison, Wis.

CHRISTMAS SERVICE AT ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Carols Will Be Sung Sunday Night—Program of Music for Christmas Morning.

A chorus of thirty-five voices will sing the Christmas carols and hymns at St. Paul's Episcopal church at a special carol service Sunday evening and the Christmas service Thursday morning. Rehearsals have been under way for the last two weeks under the direction of Rev. Bates G. Burt, the rector. The carol service, which will be conducted Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, will consist of a group of old traditional carols, which have been sung for centuries at the Christmas season of the year. Sunday evening the rector will take as the topic of his sermon, "Preparation for Christmas."

The soloists of the choir will be Miss Sigua Gilling, soprano; Miss Ethel Hambly, contralto; Ed Gilbert, tenor, and A. O. Jopling, baritone. Among the carols to be sung are: "The First Nowell," a traditional English carol; "Good King Wenceslas"; "O' T'night," from the German; and "The Virgin Most Pure," ancient English.

Christmas Service.
The Christmas service will be held at 10:30 o'clock, the time being set one-half hour earlier than usual. The program of music follows:

- Picture of Star of Bethlehem—Song, "Shine On, Blessed Star." Kindergarten and First and Second grades.
- "Merry Christmas."

NEGAUNEE CASE IN COURT.
Two Factions Fighting for the Ownership of the Labor Temple.

When circuit court resumed work yesterday morning, following the return of Judge Flannigan from Iron county, the case of the "old" Finnish Socialist party, of Negaunee, against the "new" Finnish Socialist branch, to determine the ownership of the Labor temple, now held by the latter organization, was taken up. Testimony is now being given. Frank Aaltonen is the leader of one faction, and Oscar Kubtalakki heads the other element.

M. J. Kennedy, of Ishpeming, is representing the Aaltonen faction and Otto Christensen, of Chicago, and J. M. Edgerton, of Negaunee, are the counsel for the other faction. The Labor temple in question is valued at approximately $20,000. The fight between the two factions of the party has been bitter and has led up to the present suit.

The trouble originated with what was declared to be a "corrupt" election, it being contended that the election of officers was not conducted according to the laws of the society.

A decision in the case probably will be reached today.

PRELIMINARY PLANS ARE NOW BEING MADE

Executive Committee for U. P. Boys' Conference Will Meet in Ishpeming Dec. 29.

George D. Westerman, of Calumet, upper peninsula secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, is in the city making preliminary arrangements for the second annual upper peninsula boys' conference, which is to be held in Escanaba early in the spring.

ing last March, was a great success, and the sentiment at that meeting, and also of the executive committee, favored Escanaba as the next meeting place. Seven Escanaba boys recently went to the state conference at Saginaw, where they made a study of how to make the local arrangements for the conference. They have already commenced making preparations, although the conference is several months off.

At the first annual conference Marquette was well represented, and it is likely that several boys' organizations in the city will send delegates to the conference in Escanaba. Mr. Westerman said yesterday that much interest is being shown in the coming meeting and that a large attendance is expected from all parts of the peninsula.

MANY FEATURES BOOKED. Opera House Will Have Attractive Holiday Offerings.

As a holiday special attraction, the Marquette Opera House will present during the first part of next week two high-class vaudeville acts, in addition to the three reels of pictures, and commencing Christmas day and continuing to New Year's, there will be three acts on the bill. During the holiday week there will be matinees every afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The vaudeville attraction for tonight and the remainder of the week is Palfrey, Barton and Brown, presenting a comedy sketch, "The Follies of Vaudeville." It is a novel production of varieties in comedy. The act has played more return dates than any on the Glenn C. Burt circuit.

The new scenery, recently ordered from a Duluth concern, is expected to arrive daily and will be in place for the holidays.

Lower State Notes

ANN ARBOR—There will be no "J" hop at Michigan this year. The university senate passed the following resolution: "The senate expresses its appreciation of the efforts of the junior hop committee of the student council to reform the abuses which have existed in the junior hop, but deems it inadvisable at the present time to allow a resumption of the junior hop."

SAGINAW—Sent to the railroad tracks to gather a few lumps of coal with which to cook the family dinner, Emma Sagasser, twenty-two years old, was run down by a southbound Pere Marquette train near here and died in a local hospital. Her skull was fractured. The young woman is survived by her parents, five brothers and two sisters. The family is in destitute circumstances.

FLINT—The common council has taken up the question of disposing of garbage after February, when the city's contract with Isaac Finley will expire. He will not renew the contract because he says people have thrown glass and cans into the garbage, which killed hogs to which he was feeding it.

LANSING—Chairman Lawton T. Hoeman, of the Michigan railroad commission, has been selected as one of three men to represent the National Association of Railroad Commissioners for the third district, comprising the states of Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin in the interstate commerce commission valuation of railroad, telephone and telegraph lines. The work of the interstate commerce commission, according to Chairman Hemans will take from four to five years. The state railroad commission may be able to employ men to look into the Michigan valuations, but it is not yet known whether they have the power or the financial ability to carry on the work.

"LET BAROMETER ADVISE"

Psychology Professor Urges Business Men To Use It as Guide.

Boston, Dec. 17.—Business men should conduct their affairs on the advice of the barometer, according to Dr. Edwin R. Scott, professor of psychology in the Boston Normal school. "When the barometer is high," says Dr. Scott, "pulses are high and there is activity everywhere. In April, May, June and July when the pressure is low there are more violent crimes, house breaking and murders. Also there are more suicides. This is because of the depression caused by the low pressure."

OAKLAND CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS TO HAVE STILL ANOTHER CHURCH

San Francisco, Dec. 17.—An elaborate new church edifice, to cost $200,000, is to be erected in Oakland, to provide a meeting place for the overflow congregation now attending services at the First Church of Christ, Scientist. A lot 100x115 feet has been purchased at a cost of $10,000, and plans are being prepared for the building. This will be the seventh Christian Science church in Oakland. The First church building at Franklin and Seventeenth streets, seats but 700, and the average attendance at services there now is more than 800.

CLEVELAND HOTEL STRIKE SPREADS TO MORE WORKERS.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 17.—All union employees at the three Cleveland hotels affected by the waiters' strike were called out on a sympathy strike tonight. About one hundred workers are concerned, the hotel managers say. The strike officials claim that one hundred and fifty is the correct number. One hundred and fifty waiters already were out.

HEROINE GETS $20,000.

Seward, Kas., Dec. 16.—Ethel Mounts, sixteen years old, of this town, will receive $20,000 from the estate of Colonel C. Grant of Denver for her heroism in saving a baby from death under the wheels of Grant's motor car, according to a letter received by her. The girl

MISS JENNIE KELLGREN DIES IN SPOKANE

Former Wellknown IshpeMING Teacher a Victim of Acute Appendicitis.

A telegram was received in IshpeMING yesterday announcing the death, in Spokane, Wash., of Miss Jennie Kellgren, a former wellknown IshpeMING girl, who has been teaching school there for the past year and a half. She taught in the Grammar school here before going West.

Miss Kellgren's death was due to acute appendicitis. She had been ill for several days and relatives here were not surprised when they received the message announcing her passing, as they had been informed by her sisters, who were in Spokane for two or three weeks before she died, that the physicians had given up hope of her recovery.

Miss Kellgren was the daughter of the late Peter F. Kellgren, who was the Oliver Iron Mining company's head blacksmith for some twenty years or more. She was born and raised in IshpeMING and was a graduate of the IshpeMING high school, also of the Northern Normal. She taught school here for several years before accepting a position in Spokane and she was regarded as one of the city's most efficient instructors. She possessed a charming personality and had many friends in the city who will regret to learn of her untimely death. She was about thirty-four years of age.

Miss Kellgren's sisters, Mrs. Frank Isaacson and Miss Olga Kellgren, had been in Spokane for two or three weeks before she died. Miss Olga is employed as a trained nurse in Detroit, having left for that city several years ago.

The body will be brought to IshpeMING for burial, and is expected to arrive here Saturday morning.

ANNIVERSARY OF FIRE.

Commercial House Burned to the Ground Thirty Years Ago This Morning.

An old resident yesterday recalled that thirty years ago this morning the Commercial house, which stood on the site of the A. W. Myers Mercantile block, corner Main and Division streets, was destroyed by a fire which broke out at an early hour. By 8 o'clock the entire building had been consumed. The night was one of the coldest of that winter, thermometers registering in the neighborhood of twenty-five degrees below zero.

The building was a frame structure and it covered all of the ground occupied by the Myers company's block. After the fire the site was unoccupied until Manville Jenks and others erected the Superior roller rink, which did a flourishing business for three or four years. A part of the rink structure is preserved in the Myers building.

The Commercial house fire resulted in heavy losses for all of the boarders, as well as the proprietors, as very few of them saved any of their belongings. Jaedecke Bros. were conducting their cigar factory in a store room, facing Division street, and they lost practically all of their stock and fixtures. The firm later conducted its business in the rear of the Odd Fellows' block, facing on Pearl street, moving from there to the Truan building, on Main street.

TALKING PICTURES TONIGHT.

Edison's Company Will Fill Three Days Engagement Here.

Thomas A. Edison's talking pictures will open tonight at IshpeMING theater for a three days engagement. Mr. Edison's own company, with three expert operators and mechanics from the factory at East Orange, N. J., will be in charge of the delicate machinery required to show his latest and most wonderful invention.

The talking pictures played to a record business at the IshpeMING theater in August. As the programs this week will be entirely different from those presented in the summer, the attendance will again doubtless be large. The pictures to be presented here are varied in character, and will please all classes of showgoers. They include grand opera selections, comic opera and comedy drama. Mr. Edison is this season featuring selections by Signor Campanari, who is said to be Caruso's only rival. He will be heard in scenes from the opera "Carmen."

In addition to the talking pictures, the theater's usual vaudeville act, presented by Deihl and Carson, will be given. The usual three shows will be given each evening, starting promptly at 7 o'clock. There will be a special matinee tomorrow at 4 o'clock and the regular matinee on Saturday at 2:30.

KILLED IN TEXAS.

Raymond Bray, son of the late James Bray, who for many years lived on the Deer Lake road, was killed here on Thanksgiving day, and his body will be received in IshpeMING tomorrow morning, the funeral taking place from the station. The deceased, who was about twenty-four years of age, was born in IshpeMING. He left here about three years ago for Texas to take a position on a railroad. Word of his death was received yesterday in a telegram to a friend, announcing that the body would be brought to this city for burial. His brother-in-law will accompany the body. The mother of the deceased lives in St. Paul.

STOMACH TROUBLES DISAPPEAR.

Stomach, liver and kidney troubles, weak nerves, lame back and female ills disappear when Electric Bitters are used. Thousands of women would not be without a bottle in their home. Eliza Pool of Dewey, Okla., writes: "Electric Bitters raised me from a bed of sickness and suffering and has done me a world of good. I wish every suffering woman could use this excellent remedy and find out, as I did, just how good it is." As it has helped thousands of others, it surely will do the same for you. Every bottle guaranteed, 50c and $1.00. Recommended by The Stafford Drug Co.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Mrs. R. P. Bronson entertained the members of the Whist club yesterday afternoon.

Rev. T. E. Collister, wife and daughter, of Champion, were IshpeMING visitors yesterday.

The six-months-old daughter of Guy Canfield died yesterday. Death was due to bronchitis.

James F. Taylor, of Chicago, arrived in the city yesterday, to spend Christmas with relatives.

Only seven births have been reported to the city recorder so far this month. Six deaths have occurred.

Captain and Mrs. Harry Sleeman, of the Forbes mine, Iron River, formerly of this city, are the parents of a son.

The trading stamp booth in F. Braastad & Co.'s stores has been moved from the second floor to the grocery department on the first floor.

Several hundred IshpeMING youngsters have enjoyed skating on Lake Bancroft the past few days. Monday and Tuesday nights there were several hundred skaters on the ice.

Tonight will be ladies' night at the IshpeMING Ski club house. Volley ball will be played between 7:30 and 8:30 o'clock, after which there will be dancing. Lunch will be served at 11 o'clock.

The Iroquois club will give its annual dance in the Anderson hall a week from Monday night, the 29th. Dancing will start at 9 o'clock continuing until 1. The committee in charge of the party is composed of George Tucker, Roy Matthews and Will Cooley.

The employees of the Oliver Iron Mining company will receive their wages for the first half of December as follows: Queen mine, Negaunee, Monday, the 22nd; Lake Superior mines, IshpeMING, and Stegmiller mine, Swanzy range, Tuesday, the 23rd.

J. S. Wahlman, who for several weeks past has had a good-sized crew employed at the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company's Athens mine, Negaunee, building a solid brick power house, will finish the job this week. The workmen are now putting on the roof.

Births recorded in the city yesterday were a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Chapman, 210 Badger street; a son to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hendrickson, 659 East Division street; a son to Mr. and Mrs. John Harmala, 332 West Johnston street and a son to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Navins, 348 South Second street.

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds." So can you, 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At The Stafford Drug Co.

CHRISTMAS CLUB

Thousands will be made happy by joining our Christmas Club, which will open for business Dec. 29. Here is the plan:

Deposit either one cent, two cents or five cents the first week, which opens your Christmas Savings account. Then double this payment the second week, then adding one, two or five cents to the principle every week until the fifty weeks have expired. At the end of that time, if you have kept up the payments, your Christmas money will amount in the first case, to $12.75. In the second it will be $25.50, and in the third case $63.75. On all these accounts three per cent interest will be paid.

You can reverse the order of payment if you desire, starting out with the last and largest installment and winding up with one cent, two cents or five cents.

Can you think of an easier way to provide money for your next year's Christmas presents.

Join the club—get everyone in the family to join, and next year you will have

The business offices of the new company will be in Detroit. E. W. Cottrell is president and Wetmore Hunt secretary, and treasurer. Both live in Detroit.

Death of Thomas Mackin.

Thomas Mackin, once a resident of the Soo, passed away this week at Grayling, Mich., at the age of sixty-seven years. He held the office of sheriff of Rosemont county for four years and later the office of justice of the peace, a post which he filled at the time of leaving his home. Mr. Mackin was born in Flint. He leaves to mourn his sudden death, his wife and four children: Mrs. James McKenna, Sault Ste. Marie; Mrs. Mun McCarty, Mackinac Island; Thomas, Jr., of Detroit, and John, of Dollar Bay. He leaves one brother, John, in Flint. The funeral took place at the Soo Tuesday.

Trolley Service by July 1.

F. D. Sullivan, promoter and manager of the Iron River, Stambaugh & Crystal Falls Street Railway company, expects to have cars from Palatka running into Stambaugh and Iron River early in June, unless there should be a late spring which would interfere with the work. During the next few months the rails and ties will be assembled and everything put in readiness for laying the track as soon as the weather will permit. Mr. Sullivan expects to have cars running on the locations north of Iron River and to the Carnegie avenue loop and to the Rogers mine by fall. A large force of men will be given employment all summer, which will be a good thing for Iron River and Stambaugh.

Murder Suspect in Custody.

Peter LaLonde, suspected of being implicated in the murder of August Wellman, is held by the police in connection with the most brutal crime ever committed in that locality—the murder of August Wellman. As previously stated in these columns, Wellman the proprietor of a little store near the end of the street car line, was found murdered, the top of his head having been blown off with a shotgun. The body, says the Soo Times, was discovered by William Cist. Cist was employed in the woods in that vicinity and had been in the habit of leaving his tools in Wellman's store when he took the street car for home. Finding a side door of a shed adjoining the building unlocked he entered and was horrified to see the body of Wellman, fallen across a barrel, a pool of blood at his feet. He notified the police. It was at once discovered that robbery was the motive for the crime. In addition to any money Wellman had had on his person, the murderer had taken his watch and had rifled the cash register. It was evident that the assassin was thoroughly conversant with conditions about the little store. Investigation led to the theory that Wellman's slayer had entered the store at an early hour that morning, presumably to make a purchase of provisions. Three weeks of waiting had been laid upon the counter as if ready for a purchaser, and a large piece of salt pork was on the scales. The meat on the scales weighed considerably less than the amount indicated by the weights, and Wellman had evidently returned to the shed adjoining the store building to procure more. He must have been leaning over the barrel with his back to his slayer when the fatal shot was fired, the gun being held but a few feet away. A gun was found on the floor showing that a 12-gauge gun had been used. The murderer then bolted the front door in order to avoid interruption while he completed the robbery. Bloody finger prints were found on the door and bolts. Foot prints leading from the side door also showed stains of blood. The police department hunted down every clue and a number of arrests and examinations were made. This finally resulted in the arrest of Peter Henry LaLonde, generally called "Bill" LaLonde, and the police are now searching for a brother, Fredrick. The LaLondes live with an uncle, a little more than a block from the scene of the crime. The arrest of Peter followed information to the effect that he had displayed a large roll of bills. The LaLonde boys were traditionally "broke," and Peter is said to have made an unsuccessful effort to borrow a dollar and a half less than a week before. When questioned regarding his wealth he said they had sold some mining property in Canada. Later, he admitted that the story was false, and then claimed that he had found a roll of bills tied up in a handkerchief. He said the money in all amounted to $203. Of this sum he had but little more than $100 left when searched at the police station. The brother, Fred, left the city shortly before Peter was arrested. August Wellman, the murdered man, had conducted the little store on Portage avenue for about five years. He lived in the shed adjoining the place and had no 800 relatives. He had enjoyed a profitable business and was known to have saved considerable money. That it was his habit to carelessly carry money about in his pockets was evidenced by a search of his apartment, where currency was found in pockets of nearly all of his garments. Two bank books showed a balance of $1,000 in one of the 800 banks and $500 in another, and in addition he is said to have banked considerable money in Quebec to go out of the way, but the man made a will in which he left all of his property to a niece, Eva Robitaille, of Fort Raymond, Quebec. It was also stipulated that his body be sent to that city for burial in case of death.

Sam Page, Woodsman Killed.

Sam Page was instantly killed in Ontonagon county last week while working at the Brule Timber company's camps in charge of W. J. Forsythe. Page was passing the skidway when a pole fell and struck him on the head. Forsythe saw the pole falling and called to Page to get out of the way, but the man failed to move and the pole struck him on the head and crushed one side of it. Page had been working for Forsythe but two days. He had a sister living in Virginia, Minn. He was twenty-three years of age. Mr. Forsythe carries liability insurance with the Aetna company.

RADIUM IN COLORADO.

For over a decade the carbonate deposits of southwestern Colorado and southeastern Utah have been exploited in a desultory way. They have been regarded mainly as possible sources of vanadium and uranium, and up to two or three years ago the ores were mined and treated for those metals exclusively. Recently, however, a new phase has been put on the whole situation by the general recognition of these ores as a source of radium; and the demand for salts of the latter element has lent an added value to the deposits. Not only has this district come into prominence in the eyes of American scientists, but it has gained a world-wide reputation, so that foreign capital has sought to purchase the ores mined there, or failing in that, to buy mining claims that might be developed profitably.

Petition President and Governor.

Asking the president of the United States and the governor of Michigan to put a damper on the liquor traffic at Skaneateles, Rev. A. O. Nylin and other members of the "Christian Anti-Liquor society" of that Baraga county town have joined in a petition addressed to the two chief executives. The petition is signed by the Rev. Nylin and is attested by seventy-eight others of the society and by a notary public. Given verbatim, the document follows:

"A Solemn Petition: Forwarded to His Excellency, the President of the U. S. A. to His Excellency the Postmaster General at Washington and to the Governor of the state of Michigan.

This petition is sent in the name of our Almighty God and in the presence of his Holy Angels and all the saints in heaven.

"We, the Christian Anti-Liquor society of Skaneateles, town of Arvon, county of Baraga, state of Michigan, have signed a world-wide reputation, so that foreign capital has sought to purchase the ores mined there, or failing in that, to buy mining claims that might be developed profitably.

"First, we pray to the government of the U. S. A. who in congress establishes state laws for every state of the Union and such laws to be enforced with penalty upon every individual who with actual and illegal business transgress such laws, learning our citizens sinful and immoral deeds.

"We pray you to hear us when we desire to know if the Michigan state law allows a liquor traffic long carried on in Skaneateles, town of Arvon, by your mail carrier to such an extent that he is hauling beer and whisky very openly, both in large and small quantities, not having the least thought of doing harm.

"Second, that the mail carrier keeps a station separate from his home where he stops unloading boxes of liquor containing beer and whisky which is afterwards delivered in the community, so much that at times men are laying on the roadside intoxicated everywhere, and whisky jugs and beer bottles can be seen all through the settlement as a conviction proof of this evil merchandise.

"But not only is the liquor traffic carried on by mail between U. S. A. and Skaneateles but also by a freight boat between Houghton and Skaneateles.

"Some times this boat carries an average of fifty gallons of whisky at one time, and this business is carried on with order books so as to save the captain from individual responsibility, but in such a way we can not understand it a lawful plan, but merely a systematic scheme upon which he is unlawfully buying and selling the liquor for profit and gain to himself without legal right from the community.

"From the liquor traffic the whole community is reaping nothing but evil fruits. Our religious services are interrupted by intoxicated men. Our homes are in peril. Young and old people are led away from Godliness to serve the Baal of this world. Infidelity and crimes are the only harvest from this liquor traffic.

"We the Christian Anti-Liquor society of Skaneateles, Michigan, do hereby close our petition with our most solemn supplication to the government of the U. S. A. to immediately help us to enforce the state laws of Michigan forbidding all import of whisky, beer, wine, in general all intoxicating drinks to not be shipped into the settlement of Skaneateles, town of Arvon, county of Baraga, state of Michigan. "Furthermore do I, A. O. Nylin, servant of our Lord Jesus Christ, and minister of his Gospel, solemnly swear before any court of the U. S. A. that all written declarations in this petition are truth with all the rest of the names which here below shall testify."

SEASONING WOOD BY ELECTRICITY.

In the Nodon process of seasoning timber by electricity, the newly felled trees are sawn into thick planks and laid on a false flooring, one on top of the other, with the interposition, however, of moistened matting or similar material between each layer to act as electrodes for the introduction of an alternating current which is passed for ten hours or so. The effect of the current is to produce chemical changes in the cellulose and the sap, rendering them impervious to decay. Further, the sap loses those gummy and hygroscopic characteristics which normally prevent rapid drying. It is claimed that timber thus treated is ready for use a few weeks after it is felled, and is harder, stronger, more homogeneous, easier to work, and less warped by moisture than timber which has been seasoned by the ordinary air drying process.—Industrial Engineering.

GUARDING AGAINST CROUP.

The best safeguard against croup is a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. P. H. Ginn, Middleton, Ga., writes: "My children are very susceptible to croup, easily catch cold. I give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and in every instance they get prompt relief and are soon cured. We keep it at home and prevent croup." For sale by All Druggists.

"IN A BAD WAY."

Many a Marquette Reader Will Feel Grateful for This Information.

If your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; If urinary troubles set in; Perhaps your kidneys are "in a bad way."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. Local evidence proves their merit. Mrs. Hattie Parker, 175 W. Crescent St., Marquette, Mich., says: "For several years I had headaches and pains in the small of my back. My kidneys were weak and I lost so much strength that I could not get around to do my household work. I was treated by doctors, but got little relief until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. Two or three boxes made me feel better in every way. I publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills several years ago and I am willing to confirm all I then said about them. They are certainly a fine kidney medicine. Since I gave my first endorsement I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills for cold in my kidneys and they have always done me just as much good as they did at first."

PLANT AT PUMPING STATION SOON READY

Water Furnished People of Negaunee Will Be Purified by Chlorite of Lime.

C. E. Nebel, of Marquette, who was given the contract for the installation of a hypochlorite water purification plant at the city pumping station, has the work of constructing the plant well along and expects to finish it by the last of this week, or early next week.

Three tanks, each four feet in diameter and four feet high, have been put in, to be used for mixing and distributing the hypochlorite solution. These tanks are made of express, which is the only wood that the solution will not affect. Each of the tanks has a capacity of 375 gallons, and one will be placed above the other two, which will stand side by side. The top tank will be used for mixing the lime solution. After it is mixed it will be allowed to settle for a time before it is drained off into the lower tanks for distribution into the water. None of the lime can enter the water mains. An electric mixer will be used, and an even mixture of the hypochlorite will always be had.

Seven pounds of hypochlorite of lime will be used for every 1,000,000 gallons of water pumped, during the summer and winter months. During the spring and fall of the year the amount of bacteria in the water increases, owing to much pollution being washed into the lake from the surface every time there is a shower, and especially at the time of the spring breakup. "At that time of the year," said Mr. Nebel yesterday, "the amount of hypochlorite used can be increased to ten pounds, as may be deemed necessary by the health officer."

When hypochlorite solution is pumped into the water typhoid and other bacteria are made innocuous. Filters do not have any effect in removing the typhoid bacteria.

A small pump will be connected to the Prescott pump station. Regardless of the speed the large pump is run at, the small pump will be operated in such a way as to distribute the solution in equal proportion to the amount of water pumped into the mains.

CANADIAN SOO IS TO HAVE DRY DOCK

Town Is Prosperous and Projected Work Will Employ Much More Labor.

Robert Jackson, former city marshal, now a resident of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., is in the city on a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Jackson. Mr. Jackson owns a moving picture theater at Sault Ste. Marie, and reports business as good. The town is growing rapidly and has a population of about 12,000 and 18,000 and a still further increase is expected next year. Additional men are being taken on at the Algoma steel plant and in a few weeks the building of a large dry dock will be begun. Speaking of the cost of the new dock, Mr. Jackson said that over a million dollars will go to labor, alone.

"E. H. Clergue, who is one of the promoters of the dry dock, arrived in the Soo a few days ago," Mr. Jackson said. "He asserted that R. L. Newman, chief engineer of the Dry Dock company, had returned from England with the plans for the structure and shipbuilding yard that had finally been approved by Sir Douglas Fox and partners, the consulting engineers, who are probably the most eminent authorities in naval engineering in England. Sir Douglas Fox represents the syndicate of capitalists who chased the securities of the Dry Dock company."

"The British Construction company of London, England, has signed a contract to build the dry dock and equip the shipyard so that it will be in operation by the time contracted for."

"Chief Engineer Newman will bring the contract with the British Construction company to the Soo with him, shortly after New Year's. He will then go actively to work laying out the ground for construction, which will commence early in the spring. Nothing can be done, of course, until the agreement between the city and the Dry Dock company is ratified by the legislature, but this will be done it is expected very early in the session."

"The Soo is fortunate to have the plan finally completed, and they are fully satisfied that the capitalists behind the scheme. It has not been an easy matter to get the money, but it is now procured and nothing remains but to go ahead with the actual construction."

"One million dollars, it is estimated, will be spent in 1914, a very large part of it for labor. The total cost of the work will be close to $2,000,000. The preliminary estimate for the dry dock and shipyard is $1,350,000."

USING MUNICIPAL SERVICE.

Owing to the large number of complaints received from customers of the municipal lighting plant because of flickering of the light due to the unstable current being furnished by the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company, the city officials have decided to operate the city electric light plant at the pumping station until after the holidays, or until such time as the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company can supply a more steady current. The company will, it is understood, make a number of changes that will assure a good service. The flickering has been due to the varying loads at the mines.

Georgetown, Texas. J. A. Kimbro, says: "For several years past Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been my household remedy for all coughs, colds and lung troubles. It has given permanent relief in a number of cases of obstinate cough and colds." Contains no opiates. Refuse substitutes. For sale by All Druggists.

SOCIALISTS ARE SPLIT IN TWAIN

Negaunee Factions Are Fighting for Possession of the Finnish Labor Temple.

Much interest is being shown by Negaunee people in the outcome of the struggle between the two factions of the Negaunee Socialist society. Frank Aalto is the leader of the faction which is now in possession of the Labor temple, and Oscar Kuhtalaki, who was one of the leading Labor Temple workers until the split came, is now head and front of the "old socialist" party, which meets in McDonald's opera house.

An all night conference was held Monday at the Breitung House, and another Tuesday afternoon, between Angus W. Kerr, an attorney of Calumet, who opposed H. O. Young for nomination for congress three years ago, and E. A. McNally, another copper country attorney, and Frank Aalto, and other Negaunee Finns. No information was given out in regard to the conference, but it is believed that Kerr and McNally will represent the Aalto faction.

The fight between the two factions is a bitter one, as control of the Labor temple, which cost in the neighborhood of $20,000, is the prize. The disruption in the ranks of the socialists was due largely to a charge, brought against the officers, that they had not conducted an election according to the laws of the society. The Negaunee branch, which was affiliated with the state organization, lost its charter as a result, the officers of the state organization having been convinced that the affairs of the local branch were not conducted legally.

At the time the disagreement occurred the Aalto faction seemed to have the upper hand, as they held possession of the Labor temple. It later procured an injunction restraining the Kuhtalaki faction from using the temple. It is doubtful if the opposing factions will get together after the case is settled in court, as there is a very bitter feeling between leaders.

With the membership divided either side will have a hard time to maintain the temple, as it is an expensive proposition, and has not paid its way since the split in the ranks.

MOVING DAY PUT OFF.

Postmaster Thomas Gunnors decided yesterday that he would postpone the moving of the postoffice from the Simulz block to the new quarters in the Perkins building until after the holidays. An enormous amount of mail is being handled at the Negaunee office. The equipment in the new office will be somewhat different to that now in use, it will take the clerks some time to become accustomed to it, and it is deemed wise to take no chances on delaying the work of handling the mails.

EXAMINATIONS OF LANDS COMPLETE

Walter W. Smith, Official of National Forestry Department, Has Finished Cruise of Luce County, Preliminary to Exchange of Federal and State Holdings.

Is Now Engaged in Checking Over Records of Government Areas in Seven Lower Peninsula Counties—Many Thousands of Acres Will Be Looked Over.

Walter W. Smith, an official of the national forestry department, in company with W. C. Ford, a representative of the state land department, has just finished checking over and examining all federal lands in Luce county which have been withdrawn by the government and are not subject to entry. This work is preliminary to reforestation and conservation.

The lands designated by the federal government for this purpose were not compact and contiguous, and, with a view of grouping the respective tracts, the exchange of federal and state holdings was authorized July 31, 1912. Mr. Smith is now busy at the United States land office here checking up records of forestry lands in the lower peninsula. The state has selected in lieu of the tracts desired by the federal government lands of equal value. The exchange must finally be ratified by the secretary of the interior.

The withdrawal land, part of which is known as the Marquette National Forest, consists of 30,000 acres, 20,000 of which are in Chippewa county and the remaining 10,000 acres in Luce county. The grouping of the lands has been an unusual, and somewhat difficult, problem, and the work has taken the greater part of a year.

Reservation of Rights Withdrawn.
At a conference at East Tawas, Mich., October 17, between William B. Piper and Walter W. Smith, officials of the national forestry department and August Carton and Marcus Schaaf, representatives of the state land department, it was decided that as the retaining of mineral rights, which have formerly stood in the way of an exchange, had been waived by the state it was possible to examine the examination of all federal and state forestry land. It was determined that the representatives of the federal and state forestry departments should cruise the lands, so that any questions that might arise in regard to the examination of the lands could be settled on the spot.

The waiver of mineral rights by the state is provided for in the public domain commission act, of 1912, Section 12 of the act providing:

"When any sales are made by and under the direction of the commission, the deeds by which said lands are conveyed shall reserve all mineral, coal, oil and gas rights to the state, and said rights shall be owned by the state; but said commission shall have the power to make contracts with private individuals or corporations for taking ore, coal, gas or oil from said lands upon a royalty basis upon such terms as to said commission shall be deemed just and equitable. Said commission shall also have power to provide that all deeds issued for lands along water courses and streams shall contain a clause reserving the rights of ingress and egress over and across lands. Provided, however, that wherever an exchange of land is made either with the United States government, a corporation or an individual, for the purpose of consolidating the state forest reserves, the public domain commission is authorized to direct the commissioner of the state land office to issue such deeds to the United States government, corporation, or individual, without reserving to the state the mineral, coal, oil and gas right and the right of ingress and egress."

Much Data Was Taken.
In the examination of the government lands in Luce county, much field data was secured, full information under the following lands being required:

Location, including watershed, township and range and forties included in the examination.
Type—Sand, clay, swamp or other type.
General estimate of timber by species.
General notes on reproduction by species.

Water power possibilities, including protection and approximate amount of state and government lands and power site in question.

The state has already established headquarters at Cushman lake, in the northwestern part of Luce county, adjacent to the Big Two Heart river, and desires to obtain all the government holdings in Luce county so that the lands may be consolidated for protective and reforestation purposes.

In exchange, the state holdings in Chippewa county will be transferred to the government, which has already established headquarters in that county near Brimley.

Examination of Lower Counties.
With the checking over and examination of the federal and state holdings in Luce and Chippewa counties, the work has been well started. Mr. Smith is now engaged in checking over the records of federal holdings in Crawford, Roscommon, Ogemaw, Iosco, Oscoda, Alcona and Presque Isle counties.

The examination of state lands in Crawford and Roscommon counties has been completed, and the examination of the federal holdings in the lower peninsula is in progress. The lands to be checked over comprise many thousands of acres and the examination will be an immense task. All the descriptions must be verified and the titles must be shown to be absolutely clear before the exchange is consummated. The work will probably require a year.

Text of Act.
The act of congress, known as an act to authorize the exchange of certain lands with the state of Michigan, follows:

"Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, that upon the request of the secretary of agriculture, the secretary of the interior may accept on behalf of the United States, the conveyance to the United States by or from the state of Michigan of any lands owned by the state of Michigan, which the state is willing to convey to the United States and which in the opinion of the secretary of agriculture should be included in or made a part of or set aside as a national forest in said state; and upon such acceptance the lands so conveyed shall immediately, and by force of this act alone, be reserved and set aside as national forest lands, and shall be subject to all the laws affecting other national forests.

"Sec. 2. That the state of Michigan is hereby authorized to select, in lieu of any lands conveyed to the United States under the foregoing provisions of this act, other lands of equal area and approximately equal value from any part of the unappropriated public lands in said state, including lands within a national forest. A description of the lands selected together with a description of the lands conveyed or intended to be conveyed or intended to be conveyed under this act, shall be filed with the secretary of agriculture:

"Provided, that the question as to whether any lands intended to be conveyed under the provision of this act are approximately equal value to the lands selected and whether the mutual exchange of said lands would be beneficial to the public interests subserved by the national forests in the state of Michigan shall be determined by the secretary of agriculture.

"Sec. 3. That upon the certification of the secretary of the interior by the secretary of agriculture that the lands selected and the lands conveyed are of equal value and that the exchange of said lands would be beneficial to the administration of the national forest in the state of Michigan, the secretary of the interior shall determine in accordance to the rules and regulations to be prescribed by him whether the lands selected by the state are unappropriated lands, and if so found he shall issue a patent for said selected lands to the state of Michigan; Provided, that no deed or other instrument of conveyance shall be accepted by the United States until the attorney general shall certify that a good and sufficient title to such lands is vested in the United States by such conveyance."
