

SUFFRAGETTES CARRY FIGHT TO PALACE OF KING

Despite All Precautions, Militants Succeed in Making a Demonstration in Buckingham While the Sovereigns Are Holding Court—Assemblage Is Shocked.

Presentations Interrupted by a Demand the Monarch Lend Aid to Equal Vote Movement—Two Titled Women the Instigators, One Published Version Says.

London, June 4.—The King and queen held court at Buckingham palace tonight and in spite of all precautions, a militant suffragette gained access to their presence and caused an interruption to the presentations.

The woman was attired in court dress and her action caused profound astonishment. She continued to admonish the king, but her words were inaudible, as the conductor of the brass band in the gallery, quick to observe the incident, signalled to the band to play louder and the woman's voice was drowned.

Handed Over to Police. The suffragette was removed from the room and handed over to the police. The name of the woman is not known and close inquiries are being made as to how she obtained a card of admission.

Whether the woman was one of the invited guests who sympathized with the suffragette movement, or an intruder who gained admission by forged card, is unknown. It is difficult, however, to imagine how any person could have gained access to the court on a forged invitation, as the police had knowledge of a conspiracy to approach the royal presence, and every guest and every carriage arriving at Buckingham palace tonight had been subjected to close inspection by detectives.

Another Version of the Incident. London, Friday, June 5.—The London morning papers publish various versions of the court incident.

According to the Daily Chronicle, the demonstration was made by two titled ladies, sympathizers with the suffragette movement, both of whom had been previously presented at court and were entitled to cards for all court functions.

Striking scenes were witnessed at a meeting of the Women's Social and Political Union last (Thursday) night. Mrs. Mansell presided and threatened the London editors with the fate of the two Belfast editors who on Wednesday were assaulted by militants who visited them at their offices.

VOICE CARRIED 150 MILES IN REMARKABLE EXPERIMENT WITH WIRELESS TELEPHONE.

Paris, June 4.—By means of a wireless telephone apparatus invented by two naval officers, Commander Victor Colin and Lieutenant Laurice Jeanne, conversations were carried on today over a distance of one hundred and fifty miles.

The inventor of the new apparatus succeeded in transmitting speech by wireless five years ago. Their instruments were installed on two French battleships, but they could not be depended upon, chiefly owing to the variable quality of oscillations of the Hertzian waves.

SOUTHWEST SIZZLES. IS 101 IN OKLAHOMA

Kansas City, Mo., June 4.—A heat wave today swept over western Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma. Record temperatures for the year prevailed in several cities, and prostrations were numerous.

In Kansas City the public schools were dismissed this afternoon, because of the heat, the record for the season being marked when the thermometer reached 101.

BOLT OF LIGHTNING SOUNDS FIRE ALARM

Chicago, June 4.—A bolt of lightning struck a pipe on the Haymarket theater during a storm tonight, caused the fire alarm signal attached to the pipe to sound and passed harmlessly into the ground. The fire department, which responded to the special lightning call, found the stage attaches frightened on the flash, but no fire. There were no patrons in the theater at the time.

HAIL AND SNOW FALL ON THE PACIFIC COAST

Day at St. Louis Is Hottest of the Year—Violent Storms in Various States.

Chicago, June 4.—"Freak" weather conditions extended from Pennsylvania to the Pacific coast today.

Oregon reported hail, snow and heavy winds that gave the state the appearance of December, rather than June, while St. Louis was suffering the hottest day in its history, street thermometers there registering more than 100 degrees. Schools were dismissed during the afternoon because of the intense heat.

At Somerset, Pa., two persons are reported dead, and six injured, one probably fatally, and a number of buildings destroyed by a terrific storm of wind, rain and lightning. Many towns in that region are cut off from all communication tonight.

At Green Bay, Wis., scores of families were driven from their homes and many others were held prisoners as a result of an electrical storm that later struck Chicago, accompanied by a heavy rain-fall.

Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma report a heat wave accompanied by the highest temperatures of the year. Many prostrations are reported from these states.

Reports from northern Ohio show two dead and two injured in a storm that swept that part of the state.

MOTHER RECOGNIZES SCAR OF BOYHOOD DAYS

"J. C. R." Man of Mystery, Is Identified as Mining Engineer Missing Since 1906.

Chicago, June 4.—The "man of mystery" who has been known only as "J. C. R." by the offices of the Park Park infirmary and the hospital attached at Rochester, Minn., today was positively identified as Earl W. Hes, a mining engineer, who has been missing since 1906.

The identification was made by Hes' mother, Mrs. M. E. Pitkin of this city, and the proof was considered complete when the man revealed the obscure scar of a cut on his right foot, which he had suffered when a boy. Mrs. Pitkin described the cut, which had not lithered, to the speakers who recognized it.

When McCannell returned the argument was renewed and there followed a scuffle in which Flanner, who is a former fighter, struck McCannell on the jaw, knocking him down. In the fall McCannell struck the sidewalk, causing a fracture of the skull.

CANADA HOLDS MOTHER JONES "UNDESIRABLE"

Aged Agitator of Strikes Is Refused Permission to Sail from Seattle on Steamer Bound for Vancouver—Stopped at Gangplank by Immigration Official.

Invited, It Is Said, by Striking Miners, Woman Was Billed for a Speech at Nanaimo, B. C. Next Sunday—Labor Leaders Wire a Complaint to Secretary Wilson.

Seattle, Wash., June 4.—"Mother" Mary Jones, organizer of the United Mine Workers of America, was not permitted to board a Canadian Pacific steamer bound for Vancouver today, being stopped at the gangplank by a Canadian immigration official.

"Mother" Jones, who had purchased a ticket to Vancouver, presented herself at the gangplank of the steamer and was subjected to the usual questioning by the Canadian immigration inspector.

"Yes, and proud of it," "Mother" Jones looked at her ticket and said, according to Mrs. Jones: "You're not going to Vancouver. You're going to Nanaimo to kick up a disturbance among the miners, and you can't go."

The inspector would make no further explanation, and the woman was obliged to step aside.

"Mother" Jones announced tonight that she would leave for Denver tomorrow.

Protest Wield to Washington. Frank Farrington, a member of the international executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, sent the following dispatch to Secretary of Labor Wilson in Washington:

"Mother" Jones was prohibited by Canadian immigration authorities from embarking at this port when she attempted to take ship this morning for Vancouver island, where by their request she was going to address the striking miners. Our information is that she was stopped by instructions of the chief of the provincial police.

"We have had matter up with the Canadian immigration authorities, who advise that they will not admit her without instructions from Ottawa. We ask that you set the proper machinery to work at once to see that 'Mother' Jones is accorded every right to which she is entitled as an American citizen."

The Canadian authorities refused to permit Joseph Etkor, an organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, to cross the line into British Columbia last year.

"Mother" Jones had been billed to deliver an address at Nanaimo next Sunday.

BLOW ON THE JAW. STRUCK BY CLERGYMAN, CAUSES DEATH OF VICTIM.

Springfield, Mo., June 4.—A dispute at West Plains, near here, this afternoon, on the labor question tonight resulted in the death of Helen McCannell.

McCannell engaged in a dispute with Rev. Lawrence Flanner, a Methodist circuit rider in this district, while both were eating lunch. Witnesses say that McCannell tried to prevent trouble and left the house. The minister, who also left and went into the street, calling to McCannell to return.

When McCannell returned the argument was renewed and there followed a scuffle in which Flanner, who is a former fighter, struck McCannell on the jaw, knocking him down. In the fall McCannell struck the sidewalk, causing a fracture of the skull.

Flanner is being held, awaiting a verdict by the coroner's jury.

RAIN DRENCHES THE PRESIDENT AND DAUGHTERS

Many Others of Big Crowd in Attendance at Exercises in the Arlington National Cemetery Get a Thorough Wetting When Clouds Let Torrents Loose.

Downpour Comes as Ceremony of Unveiling Monument to Confederate Dead Is Almost Finished—Leaders of Both Blue and Gray Are Among the Speakers.

Washington, June 4.—A terrific thunder-broke over Arlington National cemetery late today while President Wilson was addressing a great crowd gathered for the unveiling of the monument erected there to the 267 Confederate dead interred in the grounds.

Torrents of rain drenched the blue and gray veterans, women and children before they could seek shelter, and then there was a wild dash for automobiles and trolley cars, participants and spectators alike forgetting the almost finished program.

The president, who had cut short his speech to ride to his car with his two daughters, Mrs. McAdoo and Mrs. Sayre. They were inside before the rain came, but the machine's top afforded poor protection and the party was thoroughly drenched on the drive back to Washington.

Disgraced Veterans Speak. General Washington Gardner, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic and General Bennett Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, were notable figures among the speakers.

Colonel Robert E. Lee, grandson of General Lee, also spoke. All the speakers commented on the appropriateness of delivering the memorial to the government through a Southern-born president, and when Mr. Wilson was introduced he was given an enthusiastic reception.

Thousands of Confederate and Union veterans from all parts of the country were present.

Mrs. Daisy McLarrin Stevens, head of the Daughters of the Confederacy, turned the monument over to President Wilson on behalf of the Daughters, who are the principals in raising the fund for its erection.

The unveiling was conducted by Master Paul Herber McManis, grandson of Colonel Henry A. Herbert, former congressman and secretary of the navy and chairman of the committee in charge of the monument project.

Two hundred and seventy-five roses, one for each of the dead, were laid on the monument. These were provided for by General Eli Torrance, former commander-in-chief of the Grand Army.

The designer of the monument is Dr. Moses Ezekiel, a native of Richmond, but long resident in Rome, Italy, where he has his studio. It was unveiled at Virginia Military Institute, at Lexington, Va., when, in 1861, he marched with 224 others to fight for the Confederacy.

The design, as outlined by himself, is as follows: An heroic-sized figure, typical of the South, in her extended right hand a laurel wreath, with which to crown the dead; her left hand resting in a plough-share and underneath, on a circular base, figures representing the heroism and sacrifices of the men and women of the South.

Memorial Wholly of Bronze. The completed monument, including the base or plinth and thirty-two life-sized figures, all in full relief, surrounding the South, in her extended right hand a laurel wreath, with which to crown the dead; her left hand resting in a plough-share and underneath, on a circular base, figures representing the heroism and sacrifices of the men and women of the South.

East St. Louis, Ill., June 4.—William Boselager, an eleven-year-old boy in the sixth grade of the public schools here, was the victor in a spelling match today. WANTS ROOSEVELT TO HEAD TICKET

New York Advisory Committee Urges the Colonel Be Named for Governor.

New York, June 4.—Theodore Roosevelt as the Progressive party candidate for governor of New York is the desire of the state Progressive campaign advisory committee, which met here today to consider campaign matters.

After his return from his South American explorations, Colonel Roosevelt stated he would not be a candidate for governor. The advisory committee, after its meeting today, issued a statement saying there was a demand for Colonel Roosevelt to be the Progressive gubernatorial nominee.

Alluding to the announced candidacy of District Attorney Charles S. Whitman for governor on the Republican ticket and the published statement that Colonel Roosevelt probably would support Mr. Whitman, the committee asserted that it approved the statement of State Chairman T. Douglas Robinson on Tuesday pointing out "the impossibility of Mr. Whitman's candidacy on the Progressive ticket."

Badger Prohibitionists Nominate. Madison, Wis., June 4.—Wisconsin Prohibitionists in state convention here today nominated Charles L. Hill of Rosendale for United States senator. D. W. Emerson of Ashland for governor heads the state ticket named.

REFUTES STORY TOLD BY CHAS. S. MULLEN

Lewis Cass Ledyard Denies Man Offered Himself as Sacrifice to Shield J. P. Morgan.

Washington, June 4.—Charles S. Mullen's recent testimony that he, as president of the New Haven railroad, allowed himself to be indicted in the Grand Trunk case for violation of the anti-trust law to shield the late J. Pierpont Morgan was natly denied before the interstate commerce commission today by Lewis Cass Ledyard of New York, who was a director of the New Haven at the time.

"I want to say in the most unqualified terms," declared Mr. Ledyard, "that Mr. Mullen did not offer himself as a vicarious sacrifice for Mr. Morgan."

Telling of the letter to the United States district attorney at New York in regard to the Grand Trunk investigation, written by Mr. Mullen in the presence of E. D. Robbins, counsel for the New Haven, and himself, Mr. Ledyard said:

"That letter was not the letter of a man accepting responsibility. It was the letter of a man claiming innocence."

Mr. Ledyard denied that the letter was written at the suggestion of himself and Mr. Robbins. The suggestion, he said, came from Mr. Mullen himself and he (Ledyard) then had acquiesced.

Earlier in the day William Skinner completed his testimony, begun yesterday. He said he could not recall any instance in which Mr. Morgan had tried to dominate the board of directors.

JURY IN HEART BALM SUIT OF MAE SULLIVAN VS. HOE REPORTS IT CANNOT AGREE.

New York, June 4.—After deliberating for more than fourteen hours, a supreme court jury reported today that it was unable to come to an agreement in the matter of the $225,000 suit for alleged breach of promise brought by Miss Mae Sullivan against Arthur I. Hoe, son of the late millionaire printing press manufacturer.

Unusual Suit Filed at Chicago. Chicago, June 4.—The state law forbidding divorced persons to marry until a year has elapsed from the date of their decree resulted in a breach of promise suit with a new angle here today.

Mrs. Mary Q. Brady filed a suit for $30,000 for breach of promise against James J. Brady, state auditor. According to Mrs. Brady, she married Brady April 28, 1913, only a week after receiving a divorce from her former husband, Charles O. Kuhns. In November, 1913, they separated and, according to Mrs. Brady, promised to remarry her after the expiration of a year from the date of their decree. In today's suit she charges that he failed to keep his promise.

INTENTIONS OF CARRANZA ARE STILL UNKNOWN

Mediation Is Halted While Word from the Constitutional Chief Is Awaited—Delay Is Taken to Mean That the Matter Is Being Given Careful Consideration

On This Score, However, Advices via El Paso Are Not Optimistic—Spanish Refugees Arriving at New York a Sorry Lot—Fear of Villa Still in Their Hearts.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 4.—Mediation waited another day for word from General Carranza as to Constitutional participation in the conferences here, but no word came. The silence was regarded as a favorable omen, for it was interpreted as meaning that the Constitutionalists were carefully weighing the advantages of mediation. There were no conferences again today between the mediators and either of the delegations.

Will Make Answer from Saltillo. El Paso, Tex., June 4.—General Carranza announced today through agents here that he would not make answer to the communication from the "A. B. C." mediators until he reached Saltillo. At the same time it was announced here that the Constitutional commander-in-chief departed today from Durango on his way to Saltillo by way of Torreon.

The opinion of those surrounding Carranza regarding the conferences at Niagara Falls was reflected once more in a semi-official statement sent to the Associated Press from Durango. The message says:

"Hamlet with Hamlet left out," is the way many of the Constitutionalists leaders here expressed themselves today regarding the conferences at Niagara Falls.

"That a plan can be found to settle interior affairs in Mexico without the participation of the Constitutional government is regarded by them as impossible."

"The Constitutionalists have declared repeatedly that the differences between them and the Huertista party were not possible of mediation."

Huerta's Reported Price. Vera Cruz, June 4.—The price Provisional President Huerta demands for his retirement is the legalization of his official acts since his appointment to the provisional presidency, according to advices from the capital today.

General Huerta is understood to be determined not to abandon power without adequate provision being made for the protection of his own future and for that of the men with whom he has surrounded himself.

The Constitutionalists, it is said, have insisted that no act of General Huerta's administration shall ever be regarded as legal, and in this case General Huerta foresees enormous financial losses for those who joined in the flotation of his loans, as well as personal risk for the members of his cabinet, for the new congressmen installed in place of those whom he imprisoned and for thousands of minor officials and even private citizens who willingly or unwillingly aided his government.

Once Wealthy Spaniards Impoverished. New York, June 4.—Two hundred and fifty refugees from the interior of Mexico, most of them Spaniards, arrived today on a Spanish liner from Vera Cruz and Puerto, Mex. The majority had come from Torreon and Saltillo, and they brought stories of the advance of Villa's army and of terrible suffering and hardship.

Without exception, the refugees had lost their property and their business and, in some cases, all their money. The fear of Villa was still in the hearts of the bedraggled lot, who huddled together in corners of the ship and sought protection from the rain under flapping covers. Five Catholic priests from Torreon said Villa did not like the clergy and that they had fled for their lives.

Perhaps the most distinguished refugee on board was Abigail Nicolson, editor of El Imparcial in Mexico City. "Huerta will never see," he said, "and El Imparcial will continue as heretofore. In Mexico we have very little hope of successful mediation. President Huerta will not resign. I think."

A family group which for sheer misery and dejection detached itself from the rest of the picture consisted of Ugo Bardeci, an Italian opera conductor, and his wife and son. They were from Guadalajara. The wife had been a successful opera singer, and they had been in good circumstances. They traveled in the steerage.

Nearly all the refugees will sail Saturday for Barcelona.

RESOLUTE SAILS RACE ALONE; SLOOP VANITIE QUILTS WHEN TWO SAILORS FALL INTO SEA.

Rye, N. Y., June 4.—Alexander Cochrane's cup defense candidate, the sloop Vanitie, was forced to retire from today's trial race with the Resolute because two of her crew fell overboard and by the time they were rescued the Vanitie was hopelessly behind. The Resolute finished alone.

Pittsburg, June 4.—Announcement was made today that Andrew Carnegie has made another endowment gift, amounting to $2,000,000, to be divided equally between the Carnegie Institute of Technology and the Carnegie Institute, both of this city. Today's gift brings Mr. Carnegie's donations to the two institutions of learning to $26,000,000.

A NEW INTEREST.

Mr. Osborn's word at New York is different, both in phrasing and tone, from his expressions in the recent cablegram to the Grand Rapids Press and other Michigan newspapers, when he said, in effect, that he could conceive of no crisis that would induce him to run as a candidate for governor. It indicates that Mr. Osborn is now in a receptive mood, and that if the men who desire him to run for governor make a convincing showing at Lansing on June 10 he will accede to their request.

There will be little surprise at Mr. Osborn's attitude. If his friends have kept him in touch with the situation in Michigan he is thoroughly well-informed that the Michigan Republicans find themselves with a gubernatorial situation on their hands that is not at all to their liking. This is so clearly the case that it is generally admitted that if the Hon. Pat Kelley had intimated at the recent conference of Republicans that he would run, if sufficiently urged, the assemblage would quickly have gone off its feet with a demand that he essay the task of leading the party to victory.

As The Mining Journal remarked yesterday, the situation is one that invites a strong, aggressive man like Mr. Osborn, suited for the time with travel and with no pressing work to be done at home. It is inconceivable that he will long remain out of the political arena, or that he will permit the present year to pass without taking some part in its events. Certainly the injection of his forceful personality into the campaign would insure much color in it and not even the bitterest of his enemies—and some of his enemies are very bitter—will gainsay that he would be a factor in the subsequent proceedings.

An interesting feature of Mr. Osborn's entry would be the stir it would cause among Wayne county machinists who have been busy the past several months in a carefully planned effort to insure that if the gubernatorial plum is shaken down by the Republicans this year it will be shaken into their laps. Presently they will make known what they think of the Osborn project in no uncertain terms. And unless Mr. Osborn has undergone some great change, their attitude will perhaps confirm his inclination to throw a monkey wrench into the fruits of all their careful planning.

THE STORY OF THE SMITH.

If the reported message from Captain Owen, master of the steamer Henry B. Smith which sailed out of Marquette harbor to her doom the evening of November 9 last fall, is authentic it proves that the marine men who elaborated theories to account for the loss of the Smith, and fixed the probable place of her foundering, were close to the mark.

The purported message says that the Smith broke in two at No. 5 hatch, about twelve miles east of Marquette. The weather records here show that the highest wind velocity of the three days' storm occurred about 8 o'clock of the evening of the 9th. Captain Owen took the Smith out of the harbor about 6 o'clock. It is believed and it is altogether likely, that the Smith foundered some time within the next few hours, probably before midnight. Her position at the time was probably not far from twelve miles east of Marquette. That was the course she took as she left the harbor and the violence of the storm would have prevented her making very great headway. The finding of the wreckage from Chocoy cast also verifies this probability.

Even if the apparent message from Captain Owen is found to be unauthentic, there is reason to believe it describes with reasonable accuracy the manner of the Smith's loss. No doubt her hatches were opened by the heavy waves and her hull was loaded down with water. Under this extra burden she may have broken in two at No. 5 hatch, though she would have been to have sunk, smothered by the great seas, even if her hull had remained intact.

About the manner of the Smith's loss and the approximate place and time there has been little doubt. But impenetrable mystery still surrounds, and ever will, the considerations that led Captain Owen to take the terrible risk that resulted so disastrously. Rarely in the annals of great lakes shipping has a master headed his ship into an equally violent storm. And nothing has yet been written, or said, to throw any definite light on why he did it.

The statistics on ore shipping from Lake Superior show that the movement to date is over 4,000,000 tons behind the average of recent years. And there is excellent prospect that the next time a statement is made it will be still further behind.

If all the convicts in prisons were of the mind of Peter Pelinski, the star boarder at the Marquette institution, the walls could be razed and the appropriations for guard service whittled down to the point of disappearance.

IN THE TWELFTH.

The comment by newspapers and by men who have kept their ears open and their mouths shut in an effort to determine the political drift in the district indicates that the candidacy of James T. Fisher, of Calumet, for the Republican nomination for congress has not been taken to kindly.

Glowing tributes to the genial personality and social gifts of Mr. Fisher abound. They are, however, generally tempered by expression of the view that his entry in the congressional contest is a mistake and of an intention to support Senator James, on the ground that the excellence of his service in the state legislature has made him a tried man who is fully entitled to the promotion that he seeks.

The attitude of the newspapers of the district is enlightening and no doubt can be taken as indicative of the drift of sentiment among the voters. With the exception of the Lake Linden Times, which is pro-Fisher, the copper country newspapers have taken a middle of the road attitude, which they apparently intend to maintain. In the other counties of the district, however, but one newspaper, the Marquette Chronicle, is on record as supporting the candidacy of Mr. Fisher. All the other newspapers that have definitely expressed themselves favor Senator James.

In Marquette county the set of the sentiment toward Senator James is very strong, indeed, and it is the consensus of well-informed political opinion that he will poll a heavy majority of the vote cast in the Republican primaries. James' record has been closely followed in this county, and the voters have liked it. It is the principal source of his strength. And when a man has strength that is based on a record of performance he has a strength that stands up even in politics, and that usually becomes more pronounced the more vigorously he is fought.

WILL MEAN LIVELY DEBATE.

The proposal of the senate foreign relations committee that the Panama canal tolls controversy shall be submitted to arbitration is one that is certain to open up an interesting debate on a new aspect of the subject.

It has been said that the senate will make the disposal of the issue that President Wilson desires. While this will probably be the case, it is to be remembered that the President does not expect the endorsement of his program in the senate wholly by votes of Democrats, as some of the strongest opposition to it has been shown by Democrats. Thus if some of the Republican support for his measure was transferred to the proposal to arbitrate, and it also had the sanction of the Democrats who are opposing the administration measure, it would be tough and go whether it would be possible to pass the latter.

The proposed amendment is interesting, among other things, for the fact that it proposes what Colonel Roosevelt said in his statement on the subject should, in his opinion, be the utmost concession that should be made to the interests now demanding the modification of the tolls enactment of the Taft administration.

Thus it would stand, if congress adopted the committee amendment, that it would have fallen in with a statement of basic policy recently outlined with great force by the colonel. This fact, indeed, may have a tendency to deaden the appetite for the amendment of some of the democrats in opposition to the President's plan.

When Senator Townsend invaded the upper peninsula in the course of his campaign against Julius Caesar Burrows one of his right hand men was Arthur H. Tuttle, formerly senator from the Ingham district, and down in Lansing Paul H. King, former clerk of the house of representatives, was master of the records and keeper of the checkbook. Not long after Senator Townsend's quest for the seat of his venerable predecessor eventuated in success, Mr. Tuttle was appointed federal judge for the eastern district of Michigan. And now comes word that Judge Tuttle has named Paul H. King chairman of the board of receivers for the Pere Marquette railway. That ought to make pretty much everybody happy except a lot of onery plain voters who were beguiled in 1910 by the savor of the senator's oratory and the insistence of his play on the Roosevelt string.

A LAUGH OR TWO

The Two Halves.

"But it comes to the same thing in the end," said Senator Reed, apropos of a quibbling amendment to a bill.

"It is like the case of Jinks," "Jinks," a man said, grinning, "has changed so since he lost his money that half his friends don't know him."

"And the other half?" "Oh, the other half don't know he's lost his money."

A tourist in Scotland came to a wide ferry. It was stormy and the wind was constantly increasing, says Youth's Companion. The Scotch ferryman agreed to take the tourist across, but told him to wait until he had first taken a cow across.

"When he had returned and started across with the traveler the latter became curious."

"Will you tell me why you took the cow across and made me wait?" he asked.

"Well, now," explained the ferryman, "you see the cow was valuable, and I feared th' wind might upset on th' boat might upset on th' second trip!"

TIMELY QUIPS

The Canadian parliament is passing a bill imposing a fine of $100 for giving or receiving a tip, or permitting an employee to receive one. If this law works well, there will be a move to place it on the statute books of our states.

The Canadians are more tractable and phlegmatic, and take more kindly to state regulation than do our people. But our tipping system causes intense irritation and is a heavy tax on salesmen and others whose business requires constant travel. An unenforced law is not merely deadwood, but it tends to make a joke of all law. It will not be the least use to enact statutes against tipping unless the American people really mean to end the practice.

Landlords have never realized what a large support there would be for strictly "no tip" hotels and restaurants. Few people like the dilemma that tipping places on them. If they do tip, they know they are the victims of a graft; if they don't they feel they have been mean to a working man. If the associations of commercial travelers would hand themselves together to patronize "no tip" houses, a strong basis of support would be given to such establishments.

A statute might well be passed as an experiment making it illegal to tip on the railroads. The tip to the sleeping car porter is not usually compensation for additional service performed. It is merely a gratuity to the company that pays the porter's salary.

In choosing restaurants, the man who dislikes tipping can at least select less aristocratic places, where the custom has little hold. In railroad travel he may avoid a first-class dining car, where the new monarch temporarily sits his capital with his family for safer quarters aboard an Austrian warship. This stirred the German emperor to the roots of his hair. He announced that he would retire to the mountains, but should have permitted himself to be killed and that he acted the coward in doing otherwise.

From here such an attitude seems to be rather stretching the question of honor, particularly in King William's case. The rather nervous fact year, most of us never hope to catch up with the Brooklyn Eagle, which refers to clergymen as "sin lounds."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

EDITORIAL OPINION

Courage of William of Albania.

William of Germany is quite put out because William of Weid has refused to be a hero after the kaiser's program. Recently when Essad Pasha and his Albanian friends lived at the royal palace in Durazzo and the town was full of hostility and bombardment was in progress, the new monarch temporarily sat his capital with his family for safer quarters aboard an Austrian warship. This stirred the German emperor to the roots of his hair. He announced that he would retire to the mountains, but should have permitted himself to be killed and that he acted the coward in doing otherwise.

On the Verge of Farce.

President Roosevelt, during the war between Japan and Russia, offered the mediation of this government. The offer was accepted and plenipotentiaries were appointed who met at Portsmouth.

It is not recorded that President Roosevelt assumed that it was his privilege to write a treaty for these plenipotentiaries, or that it was permissible for him to determine who should be admitted to the conference. His duty ended when he had brought the belligerents together.

It is thus not easy to credit the press reports from Niagara to the effect that the A. B. C. mediators are passing on the question of whether or not representatives of the Mexican constitutionalists shall be admitted to the conference and on what terms. If the mediators were umpires or arbitrators, such assumptions of authority would be understandable, but they are only mediators. What has this country or Huerta to do with the punctilio of whether Carranza treated their excellencies of South America with due or scant courtesy?

In the mean time it is increasingly plain that the country as to Mexico with the constitutionalists absent is to play

"Hamlet" with the title role unfiled. The constitutionalists in the personnel of their leadership represent more nearly than the Huertistas the Madero government, the last legal one that Mexico has known. Their provisional government has a sounder title than the Huertista provisional government. The constitutionalists seemingly represent the dominant physical force in Mexico. They represent, except for a few clerical and a few army officers, an almost unanimous public opinion. Even Huerta recognizes that there can be no peace in Mexico except the constitutionalists agree.

The negotiation at Niagara is becoming superfluous. It verges on farce. Huerta, the subject matter of the conference, will disappear before adjournment if the conferees do not hurry. There is more peace in shipload of arms to the constitutionalists than in all the parleys or in all the landings at Vera Cruz or elsewhere. Thereby our friendship for the Mexican people would be shown in an effective way and Mexicans would find it difficult to maintain their anti-American prejudices.—New York Globe.

Legislating Against Tipping.

The Canadian parliament is passing a bill imposing a fine of $100 for giving or receiving a tip, or permitting an employee to receive one. If this law works well, there will be a move to place it on the statute books of our states.

Earning Prejects Business Revival.

President A. J. Easting, of the St. Paul railroad, declares that the crop and business outlook, taken together, are "distinctly encouraging," and he looks for a decided revival of business during the coming months of summer and autumn. Crop prospects, he observes, are "superb," and this condition is fairly general throughout the central west and northwest. Merchandise stocks are rather low in some sections, due to a lack of business, but he believes they will be "made." But when crops and merchandise both commence to move again it is going to mean a heavy traffic for the roads and lively times in trade, and President Easting thinks the net earnings of his own road will be nearer 10 per cent than five, during the coming fiscal year.

That is the way for business men to talk, and especially when conditions warrant an optimistic outlook, as they certainly do at the present time. Prosperity cannot be made by talk, it is true, but pessimistic talk and a tendency to hold back and complain and criticize can retard and injure prosperity, even when conditions are generally favorable. Confidence and optimism are essential features to make prosperity "go," and if business men, bankers and everybody would follow the example of President Easting and talk good times, it will help to hasten the arrival of good times and give trade and business a boom that will be to the advantage of everyone.

That conditions are ripe for a revival of good times and general prosperity is evident to practically everyone, and a revival of business is bound to come in spite of retarding influences, whether intentional or otherwise. But to get the full benefit and advantage of this business revival it should be encouraged and hastened by a general feeling of confidence and optimism. And President Easting is doing his part to spread this feeling.—Oshkosh Northwestern.

LOWER STATENOTES

LANSING—Two brothers, Albert and Arthur Lietzau, of Lansing, were drowned in the Cedar river when an old, leaky flat bottom boat in which they were fishing suddenly sank from under them. The men went to fish after finishing their day's work. They did not notice the leak until the boat had partially filled. Although they were not 20 feet from shore, the men went under before aid could reach them, neither being able to swim. Both worked in local factories, and were 21 and 25 years of age, respectively, and single.

KALAMAZOO—If you can find me on a railroad train without a valuable book in my grip, I will be glad to resign my position as governor of this state and live for the rest of my life on the South Sea islands." This was a statement made here by W. N. Ferris in his address to the graduates of the Kalamazoo State hospital training school for nurses. The governor emphasized the need of constant study and declared that women should be capable of earning their own living before marrying.

"When men and women stop growing mentally, they are as dead as though they lay in a cemetery."

PETOSKEY—The Emmet county probate court faces a problem in the disposal of James Ingold, age 11, and Charles Adams, 10, who were arrested, and who confessed to a series of small robberies and assert they had planned larger jobs. The boys were taken on a charge of breaking and entering McCabe hardware store Sunday night, and taking revolvers, cartridges and knives valued at $100. They acknowledged the robbery, declaring they stole hammer and pliers to open windows. The boys likewise confessed to stealing property from the Temple theater. The authorities believe the lads are connected with a band of youthful bandits and that they use a cave near the city as a rendezvous.

LANSING—The state insurance department sees in the filing of about 90,000 names with the secretary of state, asking for an amendment to the state constitution, to be voted upon at the next regular election, an effort to wipe out the only act on the statute books regulating fraternal insurance companies. The petitions, which were filed by a representative of the New Era Association, a fraternal beneficiary society of Grand Rapids, ask an amendment to the constitution that will do away with state regulation of fraternal companies that are not organized for profit. At the last session of the legislature the New Era people fought the Mobile bill, regulation of fraternal insurance companies and their rates, in the house and senate. "The effort now being made to overthrow the Mobile bill would be a step backward, Michigan would have no law regulating fraternal insurance companies, and would, practically nullify the Mobile bill," declared State Insurance Commissioner Winship when asked about the petitions.

DETROIT—A man identified by the police as Thomas S. Todd of Kansas City, Mo., jumped from the ninth story window of a downtown office building, landed on the brick pavement in the alley and broke practically every bone in his body. He was instantly killed. According to the police, Todd was an convict, having served time in prisons at Ogden, Utah, and Canon City, Colo., for murder. He was afflicted with tuberculosis and despondency over his condition was playing on the trainwreck of his life. J. F. Smith, employed by the Standard Accident association, located in a nearby office building, saw the man standing in front of one of the Ford buildings leading to the fire escape on the ninth floor. "When I first saw him he was leaning against a window frame," said Smith. "I stopped to watch him and just then he leaped forward, put his hands together and then I could see him." Smith did not see the man strike the pavement as an adjoining building shut off his view.

BATTLE CREEK—Because Fred GreenSmith, rural mail carrier, simply would not let his drover, William T. Lane, a Grand Trunk employee, slip after a well planned attempt at suicide, Lane left his work and went to an isolated foot-bridge to jump into the Battle creek at its deepest point. To make it doubly sure he would not be interrupted, he walked down the bank several rods and jumped in. GreenSmith happened to be fishing a few feet away, behind a bush, and when he heard the splash, he ran to the rescue. Three times Lane went under, but GreenSmith hooked him under the chin with a net pole and towed him nearly to shore. They he lost hold, so he leaped in and swam ashore with the nearly dead man. By the time Lane's son, hunting for his father, reached the scene, GreenSmith had rolled enough water over the man to save his life. Lane, who came here from Port Huron, has been in the Kalamazoo insane asylum until recently. Lane lost his youngest child was detained in England by the immigration authorities. Worry over this caused a mental breakdown after which the immigration authorities started proceedings to send him back to England on the claim that he was liable to become a dependent.

LANSING—Michigan Agricultural college is "broke" now for sure. From now until the first of July it cannot tap the state of Michigan for one red cent, simply because there is not one red cent in the treasury which belongs to the college. Deputy State Treasurer Gorman made out two big gray slips signifying that the Michigan Agricultural college had withdrawn every cent which the college had to its credit with the treasurer. The sum total of the checks was $48,023. One was for $29,050 and the other for $18,973. The larger one was for the balance due the college from the general fund, a matter of $8,800, plus $250 allowance for the weather bureau and the entire special appropriation for the new veterinary building, amounting to $20,000. This appropriation had been forgotten in the figuring done by the state officers, but the moment the purple strings were loosened by the court the college officials were after it. The second and smaller check for $18,973 represents the interest which was due the college the first of last April, plus some few small sales of the lands which belong to the college up state, Secretary Brown took the checks, and at once deposited them to the credit of the college in the local bank which carries the account. He then hid himself to East Lansing, where checks for bank salaries were handed out to the members of the faculty.

Copper Country

AUTOMOBILE CLUB'S ANNUAL MEETING

Session at Houghton Tonight Important—Bigger Touring Radius Is Wanted.

The annual meeting of the Copper Country Automobile club, at the Houghton club at 8 o'clock tonight, promises to be interesting, because of the general desire of automobile owners to enlarge the touring radius from district to district in other regions a motor car owner can make a call on a friend 100 miles away with the same convenience that formerly would involve a call on a friend in the same city. This is not true of the copper country.

This district has taken up the automobile with a fervor characteristic of the United States. On the whole, the copper country has as many large, high-powered touring cars as any district of like population. But topographical difficulties make it impossible for the automobile owner to derive the full pleasure of the ownership of the greatest modern convenience. There are so many difficulties attendant upon even short tours that the automobilist of the copper country virtually is confined to Houghton and Keweenaw counties. Baraga county almost is inaccessible, by reason of the condition of the roads. A motorist takes an even longer chance with an expensive machine if he tries to get through Ontonagon county.

Marquette, one of the nearest cities in the upper peninsula with attractions for the motorist, is only about ninety miles distant from Houghton. It might just as well be distant a thousand miles, for all the possibilities presented for Houghton county motorists in reaching it. And if Marquette can be reached, the whole country is open to the automobile, because south of the city are good roads and a tour to Chicago is easily possible from there.

Covington Road Being Built.

A copper country-to-Marquette tour is what the officers and members of the Copper Country Automobile club are trying to make possible. The activities of the Copper Country Commercial club have done much toward bringing this about. The club has succeeded in hastening the action of Covington township, Baraga county, in ordering the construction of a road from Covington through that township to connect with an excellent trunk highway. This road is now in process of construction and the Copper Country Commercial club is in hope the work will be completed in time for the upper peninsula automobile tour to Chicago in July.

But the Copper Country Automobile club finds that there are smaller stretches of road on this same route that require improvement in order to make them suitable for automobile traffic, and the club tonight will take up these matters and make recommendations looking toward their adjustment.

President Sheldon expresses a particular desire that new automobile owners in the copper country attend the meeting and join the club. It is impossible for the club secretary to notify these new eligibles.

TO CELEBRATE THE FOURTH.

Meeting of Red Jacket Businessmen Called by Mayor Schumaker.

The Fourth of July is to be celebrated in the village of Red Jacket. The sentiment of the businessmen is that the town should mark appropriately the national day of the nation and President Frank W. Schumaker has, therefore, called a meeting for Thursday evening of next week, when the matter will be discussed and preliminary committees will be named.

To properly celebrate the Fourth it will be necessary to raise in the neighborhood of $1,000, it is figured, and it is believed that this amount can be raised without any trouble. The matter of sports has already been well arranged. Two teams of the Calumet & Hecla Baseball league will play at Athletic Park the morning of the Fourth, while the four teams of the Houghton County Independent league will play in a double-header during the afternoon.

STATE CONVENTION OF HIBERNIAN ORDER

Gathering at Calumet in August Will Draw Visitors from All Over Michigan.

The biggest gathering in the copper country this year is to be the state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians at Calumet, beginning Aug. 18, Tuesday.

The Calumet committee has the announcement that Right Rev. Frederick Eis, bishop of Marquette, will be present on the opening day to celebrate pontifical high mass in honor of the gathering. The mass will be at Sacred Heart church the morning of Aug. 18. Bishop Eis will be assisted by numerous clergy of the copper country.

The gathering of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Michigan in the copper country will give rise to many memories. Hancock division, No. 1 for Houghton county, is the oldest division in the state, the first organized in Michigan and thus the copper country is the home of the order in this state.

Hibernians all over the copper country are taking an interest in the coming convention, and the attendance from the copper country alone will be large. The Calumet division has not as yet given out the program in detail, but in general the following is the arrangement:

Tuesday, Aug. 18—Arrival of the delegates.
Tuesday morning—Pontifical high mass by Bishop Eis.
Tuesday afternoon—Reception at the Red Jacket town hall, convention headquarters.

Wednesday and Thursday—Business sessions.
Thursday afternoon—Sightseeing trips.
Thursday evening—Banquet; address by National President Raegen of St. Paul.

MAKES BIG IMPRESSION.

Peter W. Collins' Lecture Against Socialism Well Received.

Peter W. Collins of Chelsea, Mass., lectured against socialism at Calumet Wednesday night, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. He made a profound impression. The speaker was given a continuous ovation throughout the lecture.

Mr. Collins revealed himself as a man with an analytical mind, an unimpaired speaker whose words were based on knowledge and conviction. He handled the socialists without gloves and challenged the refutation of any of his statements. It is a significant fact that in the socialism-ridden copper country, when the lecturer invited questions at the close of his lecture, not a socialist was present to challenge any of his statements. He stood in silence for ten minutes to give everyone a chance to put a question, but none was forthcoming.

FORMER PORTAGE LAKE MARINER.

Capt. Martin Daniels of Marquette Here on Business Visit.

Captain Martin Daniels of Marquette, who had not been in Houghton for at least fifteen years, arrived here Wednesday on a business visit and to look up old friends.

Captain Daniels formerly owned and sailed a schooner that brought powder into Portage lake for distribution to the mines. He continued in this business for twenty years, up till about a score of years ago, and in consequence is very well known to the older generation of copper country mining men. He gave up sailing for the purpose of exploring the Sauk's Head gold copper property near Marquette, a property that has not been operated for some years.

COUNCIL WILL STOP IT.

Laurium Contractors Must Not Block Street With Materials.

The Laurium village council has decreed that the habit of contractors and of certain of the merchants and others of leaving piles of sand, and rock, building material, wagons and the like in the streets must be stopped at once. The council proposes to bring into play a village ordinance against such practices and to make a test case at the first opportunity.

It is claimed that contractors building walks, buildings and curbs and making repair work have been in the habit of dumping their materials in the streets, sometimes up to the middle of the thoroughfare, such material constituting a danger to traffic, particularly after dark. Not all the contractors place the required red light warnings on their heaps of material or their wagons, either, it is charged. Very few of them have asked permission to dump their materials in the streets.

The Michigan College of Mines board of control was in session yesterday morning at the administration building of the college. It was announced after the meeting that only routine business had been transacted.

ENTERTAIN FOR MISS WOODS.

Telephone Girls Give a Party for Traffic Supervisor.

The girls employed by the Michigan State Telephone company at Houghton entertained Wednesday night in the rest room of the exchange in honor of Miss Margaret Woods of Detroit, state traffic supervisor, who has been in town for the last three weeks instructing the operators in the use of the new switchboard.

Miss Woods made herself popular with the girls under her instruction and the party Wednesday night was an expression on their part of their appreciation for the kindly manner in which she conducted her instruction sessions. There were thirty guests from among the employees of the telephone company. A program of dancing, a luncheon and other entertainment features combined to make the evening pleasant. The rest room was decorated with lilacs.

Activities at Houghton Indicate Conditions in All Schools.

There remain just two more weeks of school. A fortnight hence will come commencement day. In the intervening time there is to be much bustle and preparation for the closing week, in all copper country, school sessions are under way.

Superintendent Doelle of Houghton yesterday received from Hon. W. J. Galbraith of Calumet an acceptance of the invitation to deliver the commencement address to the eighth grade graduating class at the evening of June 16.

Superintendent Doelle says the schools are making an extra effort this year and the exhibit will be a revelation. Another pre-commencement activity in which the Houghton schools are interested is a contest among track meet at Hancock tomorrow afternoon. The Houghton team holds the upper peninsula championship and has this year a good team to defend the title.

TO BE IMMUNE FROM TYPHOID.

National Guardsmen at Houghton Prepare for Inoculation.

Captain W. J. Sanders of the Houghton Light Infantry, acting under orders from the adjutant general, last night began a canvass of the members of his company for the purpose of learning what members object to taking the typhoid fever inoculation ordered by the state military board.

The health regulations of the National Guard provide that the members must be immunized against typhoid unless they can give a justifiable reason for not taking it. One acceptable reason is that of having had at some time a well-developed case of the disease. This immunizes the individual.

Orders received yesterday state that if a large proportion of any company is reported as objecting to the vaccination, the condition will be investigated by a board of officers. The orders also state that commissioned officers must accept the inoculation or leave the service.

The canvass last night was not complete, owing to the absence of several members, but it will be completed within a few days and reports to Lansing. It is not believed that any large number of the Houghton company will make a beneficial objection, because they saw the beneficial effects of the treatment during the strike camp last year.

There was not a single case of typhoid in the Michigan National Guard during the strike. This is ascribed in a large measure to the inoculation of large numbers of the men, though the excellent sanitary arrangements in the camps contributed also.

Regular Rifle Practice.

The Houghton Light infantry is conducting an elimination rifle contest to determine the eight men to constitute the company team in the competition with the Calumet Engineers, beginning June 28, for the possession of the Dr. J. W. Moore trophy.

The company began last Saturday night a series of weekly camps at the Hurontown rifle range. The men go out Saturday evening, camp over night and shoot all day Sunday. Last Sunday they shot from 5:30 a. m. till 3:30 p. m. and used up several thousand rounds of ammunition. This persistent practice is going to have a good effect on the trophy competitions, and it also will help the standing of the company with the military board, which is eager to serve out all the ammunition it can, provided that ammunition is used with good intention.

The Hancock common council Wednesday evening instructed the city engineer to establish grades in districts not already provided with concrete walks. This means that eventually every part of the city will be provided with concrete walks, and where property owners refuse to act after due notification the city will go ahead with the work and tax the cost against the property.

BOSTON COPPERS.

Wednesday's rally was followed by a dullness Thursday. At times stocks showed a disposition to sag, but renewed buying came in and Union Pacific, Steel and Amalgamated showed considerable strength. The interest in the Boston market was in Shoe Machinery, it advancing to 61 3/4. United Fruit was also strong, Granby was in good demand around 8 1/4, and closed 8 1/2 bid. The metal market is so dull that there is nothing to inspire speculation in the coppers, but investment buying is going on constantly and the floating supply at this level should be easily taken care of. PARALYTIC WALKS AFTER PRAYER

Seven Days of Supplication Restores Woman the Use of Her Legs.

Richmond Centre, Wis., June 4.—Mrs. S. H. Moran, for twenty-six years a paralytic, stepped from her chair and walked around the room at the close of a seven days' continuous prayer meeting held in her room. She is now able to do about her housework without aid and has appeared in public carrying a child on her arm. She tells thus of her recovery:

"My neighbors and friends gathered in my room for that special prayer meeting. Our minister began the service; then all knelt about me as I sat suffering in my wheel chair. That chair had been a prison of torture to me for over a quarter of a century.

"All through the night, and all through the following week the watchers stayed with me, relieving each other in turn. Finally one night the pastor tiptoed silently into the room. He said that seven days of worship had passed.

"Then the pastor turned to me and announced me with oil. The room was very dark. There was the perfume of flowers in the air, and the sound of musical breathing prayers. A sort of musical throbbing beat dully on my ears.

"Suddenly I knew that not my friends' prayers, but only my own perfect faith in God would bring me His mercy. Then everything around me fell into blackness and I saw Jesus himself in a glow of gold.

"Will you walk," came His voice, "leaving on none other than Mine."
"Right with His words, a great strength flowed into my spirit. 'I will!' I cried, and I rose to my feet. I walked about the room, and I seemed to feel the guidance of His arm."

Mrs. Moran's sudden cure is regarded as miraculous.

KAISER HER GODFATHER.

The Kaiser, for the first time on record, has become godfather for an American child. He acted in that capacity at the christening of the infant daughter of Lieutenant Commander Walter H. Gherardi, the naval attaché of the American embassy in Berlin.

The Kaiser sent as his representative for the ceremony Captain von Buelow, of the ministry of marine. Mrs. Gherardi, grandmother of the child, acted as godmother.

The child is a great-grandee of George Bancroft, the American historian. In his honor she was christened Bancroft Gherardi.

The Kaiser presented his godchild with a valuable silver cup.

91 Year Old Pioneer Thanks Duffy's

"Grand Old Age and How To Attain It" has been told hundreds of times by willing testimonials to the fact that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey actually delays the effects of old age and brings back the vivacity and versatility of youth to its grateful users. Here's another achievement to its wonderful record:

"In 1835 I landed in New York after a voyage of about eight weeks from Germany, then to Buffalo via the Erie Canal, staying in Buffalo a short time. We started through the woods for our future home, known as the 'Hyman Homestead' to this day. Our family consisted of nine children, and not having much money to start with, we had the experience of the early pioneers. Later, as I grew up, I became interested in the milling business, farming, cattle dealer—worked hard for a good many years, and the famous John Miller, at that time one of the leading doctors in this section, said my time was short, so for the last 25 years or more I have been using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and I am thankful to say that I am well and healthy at 91 years and hope to make a good record yet."—Conrad Hyman, Strykersville, N. Y.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

gives to the aged the vigor of youth and the power to sustain strength and energy. When taken just before bedtime it stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to healthy action, thereby improving the digestion and assimilation of food thus giving to the body its full proportion of nourishment. Thousands of people in all walks of life have enthusiastically testified to the wonderful and sustaining powers of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is a remedy you should not fail to try. "Get Duffy's and keep it!" At most druggists, grocers and dealers, $1.00 a large bottle. DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.

When this tube is inflamed you have rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

AGRICULTURE IN SCHOOLS.

Farm Course to Be on Many a Michigan
Curriculum Next Year.

Lansing, Mich., June 3.—When the school year opens next September about forty high schools of the state of Michigan will be offering regular courses in agriculture taught by specially trained graduates of agricultural colleges. This number includes the new schools introducing the work for the first time. All of these schools are either giving four-year courses or are developing toward that standard. The work is not the result of a state bonus of any kind, but has been promoted by the Agricultural college solely through the interest of school superintendents, farmers and others interested in the extension of agricultural knowledge. The permanence of the place which agriculture now occupies as a high school subject is shown by the fact that the most important colleges of the state, except it for entrance credits. The importance of this movement can be appreciated from the fact that this high school instruction is reaching directly about 1,200 young men, and through them more than 1,000 farms.

When diplomas are given out to the 200 members of the senior class on June 23 the Michigan Agricultural college will have graduated the largest class since it was founded in 1857. The number is four times as great as the class graduated ten years ago and is made up of 77 graduates in agriculture, 59 in engineering, 50 in home economics 12 in forestry and 2 in veterinary medicine. Nearly all these young men and women are from Michigan, although 13 other states and 2 foreign countries are represented.

During the present season over one hundred boys' and girls' clubs organized by the Michigan Agricultural college are in active working order. Through these clubs the members of the extension staff of the college come in contact with approximately 3,500 young people and assist them with their projects, such as growing corn, potatoes, strawberries, tomatoes and vegetables, raising poultry and canning fruits. Training in organization, public reading and speaking is also offered by this plan which is proving a great influence in developing good farmers, good home makers, good neighbors and citizens.

What's Doing in Baseball World

Sik O'Loughlin has invented a mask to protect his ears while he is umpiring behind the bat.

The Cleveland club has procured
Pitcher Evans from the New Orleans club of the Southern league.

Buffalo of the International has released Outfielder Del Paddock to St.
Paul of the American association.

Catcher Rogers, the star of the University of Michigan nine, has joined the Pirates. He looks like a very promising youngster.

Joe Yeager, the Montreal third baseman, is out of the hospital and on duty again, after being laid up with blood poisoning, the result of a spike wound.

Marty O'Toole does not seem to be any better than he was last year. Manager Clarke thought the $22,500 prize would come through this spring and have a grand season.

Jimmy Callahan of the White Sox is slipping away from the team every few days, according to reports from Chicago.

It is thought that Jimmy is mining for new talent in college circles.

Frank Bancroft, business manager of the Cincinnati Reds, has just celebrated his 68th birthday anniversary. He is the oldest official in the league, and is one of the most popular. He has been with the Reds twenty-three years.

The Cincinnati Nationals are trying to obtain Pitcher Koestner from the Chicago Nationals. President Thomas admitted that Cincinnati had made a tentative offer, but said the deal was not complete.

Lon Criger has been operated on in a Boston hospital for the trouble with his knee. He is to be sent to Arizona by his friends soon in the hope the climate may improve his health. Ban Johnson visited him in the hospital last week.

Owner Lannin of the Red Sox has 1,000 tenants in his apartments in Boston and has presented every one of them with a season pass to the Red Sox games. No wonder the new owner of the Boston team is popular in his home city.

Manager Birmingham has not been able to stop the Naps from slipping in the percentage column. He has just about made up his mind that he will have to discard several of the players on his list before he can get down to a winning basis.

In response to a letter requesting that used balls, bats and masks be sent to prisoners in Joliet penitentiary, President Charles Thomas of the Cubs sent a consignment of a dozen baseballs, bats, masks and two chest-protectors to the prison. The letter was written by an inmate signing himself "John Doe, No.
2,375."

Donnie Bush, the Tigers' little shortstop, is complaining of an injured ankle.
Bush fears that one of the small bones has been broken, and for several days he has been playing under a heavy handicap. His ankle has been heavily bandaged and, of course, this has impaired his speed. Other players are suffering from sore arms, sore backs and severe colds, and even Manager Jennings has a husky voice, the result of contracting a cold.

The release of Charles Meara, outfielder of the Perth Amboy club of the Atlantic league, has been purchased by the New York Americans. Meara formerly played with Manhattan college.
Since the opening of the Atlantic league season he has made twenty-four hits in forty-two times at bat, in eleven games, five of which were homers. In addition to his five-homer runs he has hit for four triples and one double. He has stolen eight bases.

Jimmy Callahan, manager of the Chicago White Sox, has not changed his opinion regarding the American league race. "Four teams are in the race. They are: Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia and Washington, and I believe the west is going to give the east a real argument.
My pitchers are in shape again, my batters are hitting with a greater degree of regularity and we are again in our stride. We will show the East something when it comes to Chicago. The Tigers are in a slump now, but Jennings has a team that bears close watching.
The team is much stronger than its work of the last week or two has indicated, and as soon as Cobb gets back in the game as a regular it will show its real class."

The Tigers' leader is figuring on giving Stange a rest and placing Ray Mc-Keen in the line-up as the regular catcher.

"Oscar has been receiving in fine style,
but he has not been hitting in his stride and a rest will probably do him good," declared Jennings. "There is also a chance that I will play Partell at third in place of Marty for a few games.
George has been working hard this year and of late his batting has suffered. A rest should do him a lot of good."

Last season it was a neck and neck race between Wallie Schang of the Athletics and Ray Schalk of the White Sox for premier backstopping honors. The opportunities the world's series gave Schang the edge, and he was generally acknowledged the best in the league.
The sudden rise to fame seems to have affected him somewhat this season, and his Chicago rival is playing the game of his life. Ray has the handicap of a much slighter build than Schang, but uses his head to better purpose.

"When Walter Johnson begins to lose his jump ball he will perfect a flounder which he can mix in with almost the same results," said a prominent umpire recently. "When he loses his speed, he will depend on his head to fool 'em, and in that way he'll go along successfully for a couple of years longer. It would not surprise me to see Johnson's speed curtailed at any time, because of the way he snaps the ball with his arm extended at full length. But he knows so much about pitching that he'll be in the major league swim for at least six years to come."

Sam Crawford's homer in the eleventh inning of Monday's game at Navin field is not the first that he has made off Fab-ber. It might have been noticed by the spectators that the Wahoo man looked longingly in the grandstand after completing his round trip, as though searching for some friend. Well, he was looking for no less august a personage than King George V. of England. You see the other time that Sammy tapped Fab-ber for the circuit, the king was sitting in a box, and it didn't seem quite right for the tiger slinger to wallop one to the boundaries without having a royal audience. Faber was pitching for the Giants on the round the world tour and was working when Crawford made the drive that won the game played in London and convinced even some of the British that baseball after all may be quite a sport.

"Unless the unforeseen occurs Cobb will be back in the Detroit line-up the first part of next week," said Dr. Wm.
E. Keame. "The physician made an examination of the extent of the injury to the Georgian's sixth rib. 'A green-stick' fracture put the Georgian out of the game, but the bone is knitting nicely and as Ty has avoided exercise since the accident, there should not be an unreasonable delay in the cure."

DAIRY ORDINANCE HAS BEEN DRAFTED

Was Read to Council Wednesday Night and Laid on Table Until Next Session.

A draft of a proposed milk and dairy ordinance has been prepared by Dr. V. H. Vandevanter, city health officer, A. W. Jurna, city attorney, and the council committee on ordinances and legislation, and copies have been sent to the aldermen. It was read at Wednesday's meeting and laid on the table until the next meeting. In many respects the ordinance is similar to that now in force in Marquette and Sault Ste. Marie. Provision is made for the creation of the office of dairy and milk inspector, the inspection of milk and dairy products, and the testing and tagging of all cattle. A few of the important sections, sufficient to indicate the sweeping nature of the measure, follow:

Sec. 1. The office of dairy and milk inspector is hereby created, and the term of office of said inspector shall be during the pleasure of the mayor and common council, and no person not a veterinarian, registered under the laws of this state, shall be eligible to appointment or shall hold said office.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of said dairy and milk inspector to enforce in this city, all state laws relative to dairies and dairy products, and also all the provisions of this ordinance; and at least once in each month, to inspect all dairies, stables and premises in the county of Marquette, where cows or other animals are kept, from which milk, cream or butter is sold or furnished in this city, by any licensed milk dealer; that said inspector, once in each and every year shall inspect every cow in every herd, with the tuberculin test, supplying milk to be sold in this city, and every cow added to said herd by any such owner, shall before selling any milk, cream or butter from said cow, be inspected; that said inspector shall tag each and every cow by him inspected, as a means of identifying cows by him inspected and approved.

Sec. 9. Before any person or persons shall engage in the business of selling milk or dairy products in the city of Ishpeming, he shall apply to and obtain from the dairy and milk inspector, a permit, and in the application thereof for such permit, the applicant shall state his name, residence, location of business, and the number of cows owned by such applicant, for which permit the inspector shall charge the sum of One ($1.00) dollar; that said inspector shall not issue any such permit unless he shall have inspected the cow or other animals from which milk is sold, of such applicant, before issuing such permit; but if said inspector finds the cows or other animals from which milk is sold, healthy, and all premises and animals in good condition, then it shall be the duty of said inspector to issue a permit to said applicant. Sec. 11. Said inspector shall not issue any permit unless he shall have proof of the healthy condition of the cows and the cleanliness and sanitary condition of the stables and places of business of said applicant; also the cleanliness of the utensils used by said dealer, from which milk or cream products is obtained, and that all persons engaged in the care and handling of milk, cream or butter, are free from contagious disease, and that all persons connected with said business use due cleanliness in the performance of their duties.

Sec. 13. If after the issuing of such permit to sell milk, cream or butter, said inspector shall find that the provisions of this ordinance are being violated, it is hereby expressly made the duty of such inspector, at once, to revoke such permit, and no new permit shall be granted or issued to such dealer until all unsanitary conditions have been removed, and the provisions of this ordinance complied with.

Sec. 16. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to use any other containers than bottles in the distribution of milk, and such bottles shall be thoroughly cleaned either with hot water and soap or hot water and soda, and sterilized with boiling water or steam before same are used.

Sec. 17. No person shall sell or offer for sale in the city of Ishpeming, milk containing less than three per cent. of butter fat, except as sold and labeled as skimmed milk or butter milk, and having a specific gravity of less than 1.029, except as sold and labeled as skimmed milk or buttermilk, or containing any dirt, foreign matter or sediment, or drawn from any cow having a communicable disease, or showing symptoms of tuberculosis, or from a herd which contains any diseased cattle, or are afflicted with or have been exposed to any communicable disease, or drawn from any cow within fifteen days before or twelve days after parturition, or drawn from any cow with inflamed or sore nipples, or having a temperature or which has been kept at a temperature higher than 55 F.

MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY.

Salvationists Here to Honor the Empress of Ireland Dead.

Sunday evening the Ishpeming corps of the Salvation Army will conduct a memorial service for the members who were lost in the Empress of Ireland disaster on the St. Lawrence river a week ago. Ensign and Mrs. G. G. Swanson, who were recently placed in charge of the Ishpeming Salvation Army, have received the following letter from George French, territorial secretary of the army in Chicago.

"Despite all that has appeared in the newspapers, we feel confident that our comrades will appreciate getting some information from us direct regarding this exceedingly sad event.

"The first news of this terrible calamity reached the commissioner and party by telegraph whilst on the train enroute to New York. The commissioner immediately gathered together his leading staff, conveying the sad news to them, the staff in turn imparting the information to the balance of our delegation. Every heart was grief-stricken. A later telegram contained the information that all Salvationists were safe. This naturally gave us new hope. However, upon arrival in New York we learned the worst. It was immediately arranged by the commander to dispatch personal messages of sympathy through their representatives, and accordingly Colonel Breglio and myself proceeded to Canada, spending most of Saturday visiting the bereaved widows and children, whose loved ones had perished in this terrible calamity, including Commissioner and Mrs. Rees, Colonel and Mrs. Faidment, Brigadier Potter and son, and also Brigadier Walker. We found Lieutenant Colonel Rees, (the officer in temporary charge of the territory during the absence of the delegation to the congress) at the point of collapse, he having been constantly a sick bed for thirty-six hours. In welcoming the survivors upon their arrival at the station at Toronto later on Saturday night the beaming countenance of Mrs. Potter was seen in the crowd endeavoring to give comfort and cheer to others. The following message in substance has been dispatched to the various headquarters throughout the west and will be self-explanatory:

"I have personally visited Toronto, lent aid to sufferers. Participated in welcoming survivors. Scene indescribable. Entire city of stricken. Sympathy unbounded. Give generosity to survivors unstinted. Municipality regards calamity as stupendous loss to them. Breglio and self visited bereaved families. Whilst sorrow and grief reigns, fortitude very remarkable. Presence of God as real comfort everywhere manifest. Memorial service June seventh."

Snap Offerings

The great bargains we are offering in the closing out of our Dry Goods, Shoes, etc., are attracting large crowds to our store. The goods are moving rapidly, but our lines are still unbroken.

Among the merchandise being sold at a big sacrifice are goods received a few days before we decided to go out of these lines. These are being sold at astonishingly low prices.

It may be a long time before there will be another opportunity like this to "pick up" such bargains. Come with the crowds. The morning is the best time to shop, store not so crowded, with clerks having more time to wait on you.

BRAKEMAN'S BLUNDER GIVEN BLAME FOR INJURY TO EIGHT CIRCUS MEN.

Saginaw, Mich., June 4.—Eight employees of Ringling Bros' circus were injured severely when two sleepers and a flat car of the first section of the circus trains en route from Flint to Post Huron over the Pere Marquette railroad were thrown from the track at Hoyt Junction, just east of Saginaw, at midnight last night. It is said the accident was caused by a brakeman throwing a switch before all the cars had passed. The eight men were brought to a hospital here today. A number of other employees were bruised, but they continued with the circus.

STOCK MARKET IS DULL; FREIGHT RATE DECISION EXPECTED ANY DAY NOW.

New York, June 4.—Speculation suffered today from lack of stimulus and the stock market was a dull affair. The quotations were narrow and irregular. During the early session the market was held back by the weakness of New Haven and Lehigh Valley. These stocks began to recover before noon. The whole list picked up with them and a general advance followed. The freight rate decision, according to Wall street, is likely to come out on any day now.

MISHAP TO STEAMER VAN HISE.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., June 4.—As the steamer Van Hise was passing the Encampment this afternoon, she broke her quadrant and, losing control in the strong current, was forced on the banks. Tugs from the Soo released her and she was brought here tonight. Examination showed she had sustained no damage to her hull. After her broken quadrant and some engine repairs are made, she will proceed to Duluth. The boat is light.

CHICAGO PRODUCE QUOTATIONS.

WORLD'S BIGGEST DAM OPEN.

It is in Alberta and is 7,000 Feet Long—Irrigates 440,000 Acres.

Calgary, Alta., June 4.—Sir Thomas Shughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific railway, has opened the Bassano dam, the largest dam in the world. It is a gigantic structure built to conserve the waters of the snow-fed mountain Bow river for the irrigation of nearly half a million acres of western Canadian land—to be exact, 440,000 acres.

Stretching 7,000 feet in length and containing over a million cubic feet of earth and concrete, the Bassano dam took three years to build. J. S. Dennis, assistant to the president of the Canadian Pacific, and head of the department of natural resources, supervised the work. The dam is about eighty miles east of Calgary. It has elevated the waters of the river forty-six feet, so that 2,500 miles of canals may be fed from its accumulated supply. The main dam consists of a reinforced concrete spillway in the original river channel, that continues in a long high earthen embankment. The spillway is of the American type, consisting of a heavy floor built upon the bed of the stream with suitable cut-off walls at upstream and downstream edges. Upon this floor are built parallel buttresses of triangular shape with a slope to the upstream edge of about forty-five degrees, the whole designed to pass 100,000 cubic feet of water per second with an extreme height of thirteen feet above the crest. Upon brackets projecting from the faces of the buttresses are cast concrete slabs to form a deck, terminating at the top of the buttresses in a curved crest and passing over the downstream side in the form of an apron. Rising from each alternate buttress and separating the gates, are piers, carrying a broad bridge.

RAIN STORM GIVES TARRYTOWN RESPITE

Industrial Workers Demanding Right of Free Speech Spend the Day Indoors.

Tarrytown, N. Y., June 4.—A rain storm today caused a lull in the open air activities of the Industrial Workers of the World who have been holding demonstrations demanding the right of free speech.

"Jack" Butler, one of the fifteen persons arrested Saturday, went today to Judge Moorehouse that he was ready to renounce his affiliation with the Industrial Workers of the World if allowed to go free. He was brought from jail and a term of six months in the penitentiary was imposed upon him, after which sentence was suspended under a stipulation that he would cease to make trouble.

Village President Pierson today received a telegram which it was understood, threatened serious consequences if the authorities attempted to use hot tar and cold water to prevent the holding of unlicensed meetings. Soft tar was spread in a public square where Industrial Workers of the World had planned to meet yesterday.

Cleveland Parade Project Vetoed.

Cleveland, June 4.—By a vote of fourteen to sixteen, the executive committee of the Home Protection Equal Suffrage club today decided not to call upon women to join in a march upon John D. Rockefeller's Cleveland church as a protest to a sermon preached last Sunday by the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. W. Bostard, in which he upheld Mr. Rockefeller's attitude in the Colorado mine-strike trouble.

The march on the church was proposed by the president of the club, Mrs. A. H. Gillard. The executive committee decided merely to question Dr. Bostard in regard to the sermon, and a committee of five was appointed to decide how and when the questioning shall be done.

PLUMBERS' ASSOCIATION IS INDICTED ON CHARGE OF VIOLATING SHERMAN LAW.

Des Moines, Ia., June 4.—Indictments were returned against thirty-six officials and members of the National Association of Master Plumbers and officials of state organizations in Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska and Iowa by the federal grand jury here this afternoon.

The indictments charge conspiracy in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. It is alleged that the association has been operating in violation of law ever since its organization in 1884 and that it continually has conspired to interfere with the business of plumbers and plumbing supply houses.

Among those indicted is William A. Decker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., national state vice president, director of the national association and secretary-treasurer of the Michigan association.

Only the Middle West is represented in the present investigation, but it is the plan to extend the inquiry to all parts of the country, according to District Attorney Porter.

COUNCIL DONATES TO TOURNAMENT FUNDS

$500 Is Given to Ishpeming Firemen for Entertainment During U. P. Gathering.

For the entertainment of the firemen and other visitors who will be in Ishpeming during the Upper Peninsula Firemen's association meet the week of Aug. 11 the council Wednesday evening appropriated the sum of $500. Alderman Grigg, chairman of the fire committee, introduced the resolution, which was passed by a unanimous vote.

The committees of the Ishpeming department and the Ishpeming Advancement association, which have been soliciting funds for the tournament the last few weeks, have been highly successful. The mining companies, business and professional men and others have subscribed liberally, and a sufficient amount is on hand to insure an abundance of entertainment for the visitors.

No Additional Work.

A petition was recently received by the council from the residents of Pearl street who asked that the street be paved with asphalt and that ornamental lights, the same as those now in use on Main street and Cleveland avenue, be installed. The matter was referred to the committee on streets and alleys, which reported Wednesday evening that, owing to the extensive street work that has been planned for this summer, they could recommend no additional work.

The executive committee of the Upper Peninsula Firemen's association will assemble in Ishpeming Saturday for the purpose of arranging the details of the program for the annual tournament, to be held in Ishpeming the week of Aug. 11. The program of races in which firemen from all parts of the upper peninsula will compete will be planned. The committee will also go over the tentative plans outlined by Chief John Lacey.

The amount of funds raised is larger than has ever been raised before for a firemen's tournament and the meet promises to be the most eventful that the firemen of the upper peninsula have ever had the privilege of attending. Besides the balloon ascensions, announced some time ago, there will be numerous other entertainment features.

The present officers of the Upper Peninsula Firemen's association are:

President—Ernest Drer, Ironwood.

ENRIGHT-M'GUIRE.

Ishpeming Young Woman Is Wedded to Fenton Business Man.

At Holy Trinity church, Fenton, Mich., on Monday of this week, Miss Agnes V. Enright, wellknown in Ishpeming and a resident here until a short time ago, was wedded to Donald J. McGuire, of Fenton. The ceremony took place at 8:30 o'clock in the morning. Rev. Thomas Carey read the marriage service.

Mr. McGuire is one of Fenton's businessmen, and for the past year and a half Miss Enright has conducted a millinery store in that city, after closing out her business in Ishpeming.

During the ceremony the couple were attended by Miss Mary Enright and Leo McGuire. The ushers were Frank Locke, a cousin of the bride, and Steven Reardon, of Fenton. Breakfast was served at the Locke residence.

PAUL KLEIST PLEASES.

Clever Pantomimist Opened Engagement at Ishpeming Theater Last Night.

Paul Kleist, who is appearing at the Ishpeming theater in a pantomime novelty, has an act that is entirely different from anything that has been seen here, and it created a sensation last night. Kleist has overcome the handicap of the pantomimist, by cultivating a whistle which he has graduated to such exquisite shades of expression that he can whistle words and phrases to his audience as plainly and intelligently as if they were spoken. He is a soloist on musical instruments, and his act is one of the most diverting ever seen here. Waltzing in mid-air, bringing life to wooden figures or commanding a battleship to float in thin ether—these are a few of Mr. Kleist's interesting features.

Mr. Kleist will be at the Ishpeming theater a week, and will offer a complete change of program next Monday.

Soo Deadlock Is Broken.

After weeks of parleying at the Soo over the matter of appointments, during which time the board of public works held eight meetings and each time was deadlocked, an agreement was reached, the only change made in the present officers for the ensuing year being that of the appointing of Kenneth Meloy to the post of water works commissioner to succeed the incumbent, George Larke. The real fight with the board, however, seemed to be in the appointments of superintendent of streets and commissioner of the water works. Patrick Brady was reappointed street superintendent, and Kenneth Meloy to succeed Mr. Larke. The employees at the pumping station reappointed as follows: B. F. Kelly, chief engineer; Mose engineers; John Washell, George Gordon and Henry Anhe. At present Mr. Meloy is a member of the city police department and also transient officer. He will resign these positions shortly to take up his new duties. Mr. Meloy has held this office previously.

Death of John N. Davis.

John N. Davis, superintendent of schools of Menominee and who passed away at St. Joseph's hospital in that city this week, had been ill about four weeks. A gastric ulcer of the stomach was the cause of death. His demise came as a great shock to the people of Menominee. Mr. Davis was born in Sandridge, Tenn., in 1868. He took his master's degree from the University of Chicago. He entered school work with the idea of making it his profession. After teaching awhile in Tennessee and after in southern Illinois he went west. He was superintendent for four years in Sturgis, S. D., and from there he went to Wabasha, Minn., then going to Wisconsin, where he was superintendent of the Stevens Point schools. He went to Menominee three years ago and proved to be one of the most able and efficient superintendents ever in charge of the schools there. Mr. Davis was the oldest of a family of seven children and his death was the first break in the family. His parents are still living in Jefferson City, Tenn. He is survived by his wife. Burial will be made at Omaha.

TAKE PLENTY OF TIME TO EAT.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and swallowed. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by All Dealers.

WRESTLING TO BE A BIG FEATURE

Over $600 Will Be Spent for Sports During Home-Coming Celebration.

A tentative program has been arranged by the committee in charge of the sports for the homecoming celebration and the list of prizes for the catch-as-catch-can and Cornish style wrestling, and all of the races and sports, has been completed.

The wrestling tournament, which is to be one of the most important ever staged at the roller rink, will be pulled off at the roller rink. The prizes will be among the largest ever offered in this region, and it is expected that upwards of one hundred mat artists will take part.

The prizes for the Cornish and catch-as-catch-can matches will amount to $500, and will be the same for both events, $100 first prize, second, $80; third, $40, and fourth, $25. Consolation prizes of $15 and $10 will be given in each event.

Captain Joseph Thomas, chairman of the committee in charge of the wrestling, will make a special effort to bring some of the best wrestlers in the country here. Karl Lehto, Jack Rowett, the Champion brothers, Jack Varcoe, Oscar Grundlund, Emil Wirtinen, Joe Zier, Chris Pearson, Kid Cutler and Kata Pasha have notified the committee that they will be here to take part. It is expected that some of the following Gwinn men, who are now training for the Sons of St. George tournament, will also be here: Harry Mathews, Mike Sather, Dick Johns, Chester Kuder, Charles Aho, Charles Tappala, Victor Laundry, Ralph Koski, Sid Harvey, Tom Atwell, Oscar Nyquist, and "Young" Bessola. "Young" Sorelli, the Iron River lightweight catch-as-catch-can wrestler, may participate. Several Me-saba range wrestlers will be present, as will Joe Peterson, the Republic heavyweight.

The committee on sports has announced the prizes for the races, which will be open to all, as follows:

100-yard dash—First, $5; second, $3; Running high jump—First, $5; second, $3.

Running broad jump—First, $5; second, $3.

Sixteen-pound shotput—First, $5; second, $3.

Three-legged race—First, $5; second, $3.

Fat men's race—First, $5; second, $3.

Reg. leg race—First, $5; second, $3.

Slow horse race—First, $10; second, $5.

Boys' race—First, $5; second, $2, and third, $1.

The races will be run on the afternoon of the Fourth and will take place on the downtown streets, starting at 1:30. The children's races and sports will take place Thursday, which has been designated as children's day.

Prizes for Decorations.

The executive committee announced yesterday that prizes will be offered for the best decorated business houses and residences. The business men will be requested to decorate their buildings as well as their homes.

The prizes for the business blocks will be $5, $10 and $5, and for the residences $10, $5 and $5.

Some of the businessmen have begun working out plans for floats in the industrial parade. It is the plan of the committee to make this event a notable one.

Besides the floats several bands and all of the fraternal organizations will be in the line of march.

FAULL SELLS OUT.

Ed Faull, who has conducted a barber shop in the Kuhlman building on Iron street for the past five years, yesterday sold his business and fixtures to Clarence Donithorne. Mr. Faull expects to go to Chicago, where he plans to engage in the same business. Mr. Donithorne, who will take possession of the place Monday, has conducted a shop in the Rice building for the past three years and has a large trade. He is one of the most popular young businessmen in the city. Mr. Donithorne will have four chairs in his new location. Gene Ramberg, who has worked for Mr. Faull for the past three months, will work for the new proprietor.

FIREMEN'S GRAVES MARKED.

The graves of the forty-three deceased members of the Negaunee Fire department at the Negaunee cemetery were marked yesterday with aluminum markers set in concrete. Chief Julius Johnson requests that persons who are not members of the department and who wish to send flowers to be placed on the graves of friends leave their offerings at the Fire hall Sunday morning, before 9 o'clock. The members of the department will march to St. Paul's church for the memorial services, which will be held at 10:30. At the conclusion of the services they will be taken in automobiles to the cemetery, where the graves will be decorated.

SECOND BASEMAN HERE.

Foster White, a second baseman, arrived yesterday from Cadillac to take a position on the Negaunee ball club. White, who has been playing as utility man on the Cadillac team here by Orlando Swick, White played with an independent team at Howell last year. He played in four games with Cadillac and hit the ball hard, but was forced to give way to Swick. Last season White batted over 200 and Manager Willman is confident that he has a valuable man. "Bill" Dabb, who has played first base on the Gwinn team for the past two seasons, will hold down the initial sack for Negaunee against Gladstone Saturday and Sunday. Dabb is a clever first sacker and may be induced to play here during the remainder of the season.

FIRST ENGLISH BOOK PRINTED.

The first printed book in the English language has, it is said, gone into the hands of a collector, who bought it for a large sum. This is one of the collection of the Duke of Devonshire, who recently sold his library of rare books for $1,000,000. Among these books were twenty-six volumes of Caxton, the earliest of printers in England. This first book printed in the English language belonged to Elizabeth Grey, queen of Edward IV., and was probably, says J. F. Blacker, the English expert in curios, printed in Bruges. It bears the title, "Recnyell of the Hystories of Troye," 1474. "Recnyell" being a printer's error for "Reynell," old French, meaning a collection.

FISHING SEASON AT ITS HEIGHT

Biggest Catches of Summer Will Be Made During This Month—Fishermen Hastening to Get Ahead of Hot Weather—Anxious to Know Outcome of Treaty

Shipments from the City This Year Compare Favorably With Those in Previous Years—Much of the Catch Taken Hereabouts Is Sold in This County.

The commercial fishing season in Marquette is at its height. During the remainder of this month and the first week in July, the biggest catches of the summer will be brought in.

Beating Hot Weather.

The fishermen are operating full crews at present and are utilizing every means to get in as much time this month as is possible. When the hot weather comes, the fish swim in schools along the top of the water in quest of insects for food, and the nets which the fishermen have set toward the bottom of the lake are left empty.

Considerable anxiety exists among the commercial fishermen on the Great Lakes because of the apparent neglect of the Canadian fishing treaty in the senate. The pact was just about to be taken up when the Mexican crisis developed, and since then nothing has been heard of the measure. August Anderson, of the Anderson Fish company, has been in communication with the officials at Washington in regard to the treaty and he intends writing another letter to find out just what has become of it.

Purpose of the Treaty.

The treaty establishes a uniform mesh for the nets to be used in the waters tributary to the United States and Canada, and according to the present draft would make changes which would necessitate the fishermen procuring entire new outfits. The fishermen are especially anxious to have the treaty ratified at this session of congress, so they may have new winter in which to prepare to comply with its conditions.

The concerns manufacturing nets require on each order an advance notice of from thirty to sixty days. If the thousand or more fishermen on the lakes would be forced to order new nets at the same time, some could not have their orders filled without considerable delay and probably would have to forego a season's fishing.

Average Business Is Done.

No unusual orders have been placed for the fish taken here this season. Much of the catch is sold to wholesalers at Negaunee and Ishpeming and some to the retail trade in the city, the surplus being shipped to Chicago and Milwaukee. The Marquette fishermen have been favored with unusually good weather the last few weeks and have been given an opportunity to catch up for the time lost when they were hampered by harbor ice. There has been very little loss to the nets. During a gale early in the Maney, a suit to recover a loan of the amount that was awarded by the jury. The trial consumed the entire session of the court yesterday. The case was given to the jury at 3:30 o'clock p. m. The verdict was returned shortly after 11 o'clock last night.

WARNED AGAINST DOCK.

Small Boy Narrowly Escaped Drowning at Grace Furnace Structure.

Loosing his balance while he was fishing off the old Grace furnace dock yesterday afternoon, a small boy whose name was not learned narrowly escaped being drowned. He was saved by the timely work of a fisherman.

DENTISTS TO ESCANABA.

Several from Here and Up-the-Road-Towns Will Make Trip in Autos.

Doctors R. J. McCann, W. H. Vandenberg, R. W. Boyer and Mudge, members of the Upper Peninsula Dental association, will leave this morning with an automobile party from Ishpeming and Negaunee for Escanaba, where they will attend the annual meeting of the association. They will remain until Saturday night. Most of the 100 or more dentists in the upper peninsula will, it is expected, attend the gathering. The sessions will extend over two days. Prominent dental men from Chicago have been engaged to deliver addresses and clinics will be conducted. Papers on different subjects will be read by members of the association.

SQUEALED ON BLIND PIGGER.

Negaunee Man Held for Trial for Selling Liquor to Boarders.

George Dimondich was yesterday brought to the county jail charged with operating a blind pig at Negaunee. Later he was released when he gave bonds of $250 for his appearance at the next term of circuit court, for trial.

WALLACE-CHRISTENSEN.

The marriage of Miss Ella Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wallace, 703 Champion street, to Hans J. Christensen took place at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Christensen left in the evening for a honeymoon trip to Chicago and Cleveland. After June 20 they will be at home at the corner of Rock and Sixth streets. Mr. Christensen is employed as a clerk in the office of the South Shore railway.

NOTICE.

The board of review of Richmond township will hold session on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 9 and 10, for the purpose of hearing the public with regard to the assessments on the tax rolls. 6-5-14

IMPROVING LAWN AT ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT

Plat Will Be Parked and Sodded and Two Gravel Roadways Will Be Installed.

Landscape gardeners were yesterday placed at work on the gravel lot fronting the city electric light station, and will convert it into an attractive lawn. The frontage of the plant, which is 160 feet wide and 60 feet deep, will be sodded and two roadways will be cut through.

The road encircling the heart-shaped grass plot will be eleven feet wide. It will first be graded with a clay mixture, and then gravel and fine crushed rock will be strewn on top. The lighting station has about forty pounds of water pressure from Dead river, and after the lawn has been put in condition sprinkling attachments will be installed. It is planned to make the grounds the most attractive to be found at any municipal plant in the peninsula.

CONCERT A SUCCESS.

Annual Music Festival at Northern Normal Brings Out Good Talent.

Talent of high order made the annual concert of the music department of the Northern State Normal last evening in the assembly room of the school an event of unusual pleasure. Every number on the program was warmly received by an assemblage that filled the auditorium to its capacity.

Sunday trains to Big Bay, Munising, and Ishpeming will be placed in service on the Lake Superior and Ishpeming and the Munising, Marquette and Southern railway, starting next Sunday.

ORE MOVEMENT WAY BEHIND.

Up to June 1 It Was Over 4,000,000 Tons Short of Last Year.

Ore shipments for May show a big slump compared with a year ago, a Cleveland dispatch says. The movement to June 1 was little more than half what it was to June 1, 1913.

SERVES ALIKE BOTH WEALTHY AND LOWLY

Veteran Digger of Graves Gazes Unmoved at Death's Constant Procession.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 4.—Who is the man most universally employed by rich and poor alike in the city of Grand Rapids? Who is the man who has performed more intimate services for citizens of Grand Rapids than any other man? Who is the man for whom there is no difference of rank, age or sex among those who come to him for service?

Asel L. Rising, 434 Crawford street, is the man—Asel L. Rising, for twelve years grave digger at Oakhill cemetery. In that time Mr. Rising has dug about four hundred graves each year, or a total of nearly five thousand graves during his term of service in this city. He has been present at as many funerals, held at all hours of the clock, in every sort of weather, at all seasons of the year. To him death is a daily occurrence and mourning is the atmosphere in which he lives.

In his daily proximity to Death and its mysteries, Mr. Rising has evolved a philosophy regarding it which in many of its points suggests Maeterlinck's ideas on the same subject as expressed in certain scenes of "The Blue Bird." To be sure, he does not present them with the same deft touch and beautiful phrasing that the Belgian philosopher uses, but underlying his crude, even harsh, manner of speaking of Death there is a subtle understanding of the principle of "Life in Death" which scholars have struggled through all the centuries to attain.

His Own Philosophy.

"I've seen so much of Death and dead people, that I guess I'm pretty hardened to it," said Mr. Rising to a press representative. "When I first came here I used to spend my nights digging graves. I couldn't get my peculiar business out of my mind. But now I never think about it. We have had as many as eight funerals here in one day and I've helped 'em all of them. When a man's dead, he's no better than any other man. It's the 'wind in him that makes him great or small."

"The bodies that come to me are just the same old things of those sinners or souls, and they will soon turn to the dust from which they were created. I know, for I have moved hundreds of bodies and they do turn to dust—fine black dust with bits of silver in it. Sometimes I like to think that the silver comes from the soft touch of some sweet soul the very innermost lining of the physical part, which touched the 'God given spirit.'"

"I don't like the idea of cremation. I hate to think of a man's body being burned up. Of course as far as he is concerned it's all the same. I suppose it's quicker, but I sort of like this calm, peaceful place here with the birds singing and the trees rustling and the everlasting quiet."

Mr. Rising looked about him. It was a wonderful spring day, the first day of the real horse the soft touch of some sweet summer. The green lawn with its ranks of mounds marked by granite shafts and solemn blocks of granite swept away until it lost itself in the swirling trees. Come here, through the infinite silence came the song of a bird saluting its mate. Gay tulips nodded on every hand. It was indeed a place of peace and rest. Such a thing as sorrow or lifelessness could not exist here. One only could think of the words of Maeterlinck's boy, Tytyl as he looked about him in the transformed graveyard, "There are no dead!"

Touched by Child's Grief.

"The sound of mourning never bothers me any more," Mr. Rising spoke of his surroundings. "Only when little children call for their 'daddy' or their 'mamma' am I touched. It's a funny thing, but those who make the biggest fuss and fret at the grave side are the ones who never come back. It's the ones who stand by quiet, holding back their feelings that you'll find coming day after day to sit by the mound in deep sorrow. I don't believe in mourning if you don't really feel it. It doesn't help any one. The man who has lost a friend, who comes to his grave as to a shrine, is the man who never dies."

"I have never dug a grave for a friend, I never could dig one for any of my own people. Grave digging is a business, just like anything else, but it can't kill all of a man's finer feelings, even though he knows he's burying nothing but the body of his friend."

DON'T MISTAKE THE CAUSE.

Many Marquette People Have Kidney Trouble and Do Not Know It.

Do you have backache? Are you tired and worn out? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular? Highly colored; contain sediment? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warning of distress. Heed the warning; don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy. Read this Chatham testimony. John Jacobson, Chatham, Mich., says: "For over a year I had kidney trouble. I suffered from pain in the small of my back and was hardly able to stoop or lift. I became easily tired, was languid and nervous and was also subject to headaches and dizzy spells. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, obliging me to arise at night. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a supply and three boxes permanently cured me." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.
