PENNSYLVANIA ROAD WILL HAVE NO OTHER THAN AN "OPEN SHOP"

Washington, May 5.-The Pennsylvania railroad company, answering before the United States commission on industrial relations today, declared through its vice president, W. W. Atterbury, that it did not oppose organization of its employes, but did insist upon the "open shop" principle and op-posed unions with affiliations which might bring on sympathetic strikes.

"We would welcome closer relations with our employes," said Mr. Atterbury, "if it could be brought about under proper auspices. We would more than welcome an organization of all Pennsylvania railroad employes among themselves without entangling outside

The objection of the Pennsylvania to the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, which made the complaint against the company to the commission, the witness said, was that it would make the men responsible to the president of the union and not to the proper officials of the railway company. Mr. Atterbury championed mediation as the best means of settling labor disputes and said that

SUMMARY OF WAR NEWS.

The extent of the Austro-German victory in the Carpathians is indicated in the German official communication which says that the Russian prisoners taken number more than thirty thousand. The Russian statement says that the fighting in Galicia is characterized by great stubbornness and that the Germans are suffering "enormous losses." The Russians admit that several nights ago some of the Russian units fell back to the second line of fortifications, In the western theater an at-

There are somewhat numerous transfers of city property, but this does not mean the existence of a house-building campaign, merely a rather more active condition of real estate trading.

In the last week five persons have made deals in Houghton for farm property with the intention of abandoning present occupations in response to the call of the land.

Another healthful condition is seen in the numerous loans being made by farmers with the purpose of bringing about improvements. The principal improve ment noted is in the acquisition of larger and better herds of cattle. The Houghton County Farm bureau and Copper Country Credit bureau, Miss other organizations have worked to create a sentiment for a more extensive activity in dairying. The county has the natural advantages for a big dairying industry and the farmers are beginning to realize it

NEGAUNEE FARMERS PLANTING GRAI

Do Not Apprehend Any Bad Results from the Heavy Frosts This Month.

Negaunee farmers have been busy the past few days plowing and seeding The weather, barring the spell of rain last week, has been exceptionally favorable for plowing. Only grain seed s being planted at present. Many of the farmers this year plan to raise large crops of wheat, barley, oats, clov er and timothy. Some of them also expect to plant a number of acres of

The farmers do not expect to experience frosts heavy enough to damage he crops already in the ground, alhough they look for light frosts.

Charles Taylor, who prior to five cears ago conducted a large farm at sands, and who was at one time considered one of the most successful farmers in the county, commenting on the early plowing and planting this spring, said that during the spring of 1910 the weather was so fine that the farmers planted on an extensive scale in April. He planted fifteen bushels of potatoes, as an experiment, on April 16. All of the ground on Mr. Taylor's farm was plowed before March 14. The farmers East Clark street. were able to do their fall plowing the revious year until Nov. 24.

During the month following the earplowing in 1910 snow several inches eep fell all through this region and many of the farmers feared that their crops would be ruined, but the snow melted in a few days and left the ground in good condition for the early seed. Mr. Taylor was able to dig his potatoes in July, that year. firmed rumors that the company had
