Government Wins.

A point of far reaching importance sting contract between the Lackawanna railway company and the Lackawanna Coal company for the transporration of coal, this contract having been erranged in 1909 and giving certain advantages to the coal company not enoved by other shippers. In the lowe ourts the decision upheld the validity of this contract, but the lederal su preme court has reversed this ruling nd enjoined the railway company from continuing the service called for. In other words, it is held that the federal law requiring the railroads to get out of the coal business means just what it says, and that even with a contract no favors must be extended to a coal com pany that has taken over a railway ompany's coal business. This of course is in line with simply ustice and will give teeth to the law ntended entirely to divorce the coal usiness from railroad management and control. Public policy has long des manded this *eparation of these interests, and this decision by the supreme court apparently removes the last obstacle to the consummation of suci dan. The contract excuse was appar ently nothing more than an attempt to evade the real intent of the law, but the supreme court says that such subterfuge will not go. And the point thus won by the government is really in favor of the people generally, for the atter are the consumers of the coal which the government seeks to have distributed under rules of free and fair competition. Wo brock, a clerk, who gave an affidavit that he sold eigarettes to Kimbrough b the store about 6:30 o'clock on the night of the murder, was not on duty that night. Wobrock also said he could identity Kimbrough from pictures in the local papers. Affidavits by the prese cution stated that Kimbrough's name did not appear until a week after the murder and his picture was not printed for ten days. Jacob Pollen gave the defense an affidavit that he saw Kimbrough leave a movie theater between 6:30 and 7 o'clock. The prosecution produced two affidavits from Herman . Buckhardt, foreman of the jury, and Charles Germuss, that Pollen told them the day the negro was found guilty that he was in the theater between 7:30 and s o'clock. The attorney for the defense contended that the court erred in some remarks to which Judge Gage replied: "If I ever gave a man a fair trial, it was Kimbrough.'

COTTON'S NEW USE.

Cotton is being blown up now at a faster rate than at any previous time in the history of the world. The use of guncotton in up-to-date warfare is enormous, being used largely in the high explosives; for instance, the English cordite is 37 per cent guncotton. United States ordnance experts estimate that every time one of the big fifteen-inch guns of Uncle Sam's mavy goes off there is one less bale of cotton, or 500 pounds. One discharge of the twelveinch gun consumes 300 pounds of cotton. Those same experts figure that it requires one pound of cotton to make one pound of guncotton, the loss in weight

Hiltunen at once notified Mine Inspetor Pakkala of Atlantic, who was the nearest officer at hand, and Pakkala Hiltunen and other friends of the deceased started out to search for th body, being convinced of the ghastly truth of the message.

The men scoured the intervening country till 6 o'clock Tuesday evening and in a little hollow at the side of the road between Dakotah Heights and Frog Pool Grove they found the body. Hill lay dead, with a bullet hole in his head, a revolver in his hand. Justice Little was notified and he called an inquest. The jury will meet Friday night to determine the facts.

Hill was twenty-eight years of age, a native of Finland. He leaves a wire and two children in Europe. He had lived in the copper country for four

CITY OFFICIALS TO HOME-COMING

Unfavorable Weather Has Hit Invitation of Mayor Begole of Marquette Is Accepted by the Ishpeming Council.

> At a special session Tuesday evening, the Ishpeming city council accepted an nvitation from Mayor F. II. Begole of Marquette to attend the Marquette ming and Nation's Day celebraion, Monday, July 5. The Ishpeming officials will make the trip in automo siles and will participate in the parade which is to be one of the features of Mayor Begole's invitation is as fol-"Marquette, Mich., June 19, 1915.

To the Honorable Mayor and Commo Council, Ishpeming, Michigan, "Gentlemen: Our city commission, as vell as all the people of Marquette, wish to extend to you a most hearty invitation to attend our homecoming, which s to be held from July 3d to July 6th, nclusive, 1915.

"For July 5th we have arranged ammoth parade, in which we would like to have representatives from each of the municipal governments of the pper peninsula of Michigan participate. We surely will make your visit to our city at that time a most pleasant and ntertaining one.

"Hoping that we may receive a faorable reply, which will enable us to make arrangements for your city to hav

"Yours most respectfully, "FRED H. BEGOLE, Mayor." The arrangements for the Ishpeming fficials' visit will be looked after by he council's committee on purchasing and printing.

At Tuesday's meeting, the board of ublic works' appointment of Victor Holmgren to the position of street commissioner was confirmed by the council. City Will Pay for Connections.

Upon recommendation of the board of thic works, it was agreed that the city vill pay the cost of connecting the vari streets with the new sewer. In its report to the council the board stated Rehan and Estelle, who present | that inasmuch as the owners of property along these thoroughteres have already paid their pro rata share of assessments n Sewer District No. 3, the board did not think it fair to ask them to bear the expense in this case,

The board estimates that it will cost $805.40 to make the necessary changes and new connections. The estimated expense for each property runs from median, in "Old Dutch," a Shubert $10.80 to $56. The connections in a majority of instances will cost in excess of $25. The owners of the prop mated cost of the work, are: "
