

VON BERNSTORFF TO DISCUSS ARABIC CASE TODAY

ROBBER HOLDS POLICE AT BAY OVER SIX HOURS

Thrilling Revolver Fight Between Geo. Nelson and Sixty San Francisco Patrolmen Ends When, His Body Bullet-Riddled, Bandit Fires Shot in His Own Brain.

Barricading Himself in Lodging House, Bank Robber Keeps Up Hot Revolver Battle from Midnight Until Dawn—Every Inch of Room Raked by Officers' Guns

San Francisco, Sept. 12.—A thrilling six-hour battle between sixty police and George Nelson, a foreigner, twenty-five years old, wanted for complicity in the robbery last month of a Los Angeles bank, ended at dawn today when Nelson's bullet-riddled body was found stretched on a cot in a rooming house. He had ended his life by sending a bullet through his head.

The house where the bandit successfully held the police at bay from midnight is in a populous residential district and thousands of spectators on sidewalks and building tops watched the gunfight.

TWO PERSONS WOUNDED.
Hugh MacBeth, a lodger who attempted to escape from the building when the battle between the police and Nelson began, was shot twice through the head, probably fatally, by the cross-fire. Policeman Peter Hammond was shot through the arm and leg by Nelson.

All night long the police directed an intermittent fire into Nelson's room from an upper window of the residence of Bishop Edwin H. Hughes of the Methodist Episcopal church, across the street, and from adjacent windows and house-tops. A powerful searchlight was placed in the window of another dwelling across the street, directly facing the bandit's room, and by its glare the police centered their fire more or less accurately.

NELSON'S ROOM IS RIDDLED.
Shotguns, repeating rifles and revolvers were used and hardly a square inch of Nelson's room escaped the raking fire. Shortly before 4 o'clock Nelson fired a single shot and the efforts of the police to bring further response were futile, although a score or more shots were sent into the room.

With the coming of daybreak the officers entered the building and burst through Nelson's door. Nelson had been dead more than two hours. Three automatic revolvers and a quantity of ammunition lay on the table near the body. The floor was littered with glass and splinters of wood and the walls were riddled with shot.

The police learned of Nelson's whereabouts through the arrest last night of William Juber, a companion.
FOUR KILLED IN RIFLE BATTLE.
Carlsile, Ark., Sept. 12.—Two white men and two negroes are dead and a third white man is dangerously wounded as a result of a murder and subsequent action by a posse near here about noon today. The trouble started when Jack Bowers, twenty-four, negro, shot and killed his wife at the home of a negro named Nichols, in the outskirts of Carlsile. Bowers fled to the home of his father, ten miles in the country. He was pursued about an hour later by Constable Thomas Burnett, Dr. W. H. Crawford, Chester Crawford, son of the physician, and Deputy Constable Jim Johnston.

The posse alighted from an automobile in front of the Bowers home and were immediately met by a raking gunfire from Bowers and his three brothers, barricaded in the house. Dr. Crawford fell with a bullet through his left side. Deputy Constable Johnston fell with nearly a hundred buckshot wounds. Both died within a few minutes. Chester Crawford fell with a shotgun wound in his left arm, left side, left rib and left thigh and leg. Constable Burnett ran for the automobile and hurried back to Carlsile unhurt. One hundred white men, heavily armed, rushed to the scene and charged the house. Jack Bowers was killed when a volley riddled the thin walls of the house. His brothers immediately surrendered.

Chester Crawford is in a hospital and is not expected to live.

MIKE GIBBONS OUTPOINTS M'FARLAND IN HARD FIGHT

Packey Fails to Show His Former Snap; St. Paul Man Had Advantage All Through.

Brighton Beach, New York, Sept. 12.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul, outpointed Packey McFarland in a ten-round fight here last night. The bout, which brought together two of the cleverest fighters in the ring today, was hard fought from start to finish, but Gibbons scored the more frequent and more effective blows.

McFarland showed that his long absence from the ring had dulled his speed and power to smash punches to vulnerable points of his opponent's head and body. McFarland showed flashes of his old rapid-fire left but the leads were little more than snaps and did not check Gibbons' more effective assaults. McFarland appeared nervous when he entered the ring and was not as finely conditioned as his opponent. The St. Paul bantam immediately took the aggressive and showed that he intended to make a fight of it, instead of a sparring exhibition.

Blows Have Power.
There was power behind almost every blow that he landed, and he found little difficulty in beating the stockyards boxer to the punch. For the first four rounds Gibbons was in the lead trying, alternating for the head and body. In the fifth McFarland took the aggressive and being fairly warmed up fought desperately to stem the tide of defeat. Gibbons met him half way, however, and the best Chicago boxer could get was an even break in this round.

Mike increased his speed in the sixth and scored the majority of effective blows. McFarland made a strong play for Gibbons' body but the latter covered so well that few of the blows reached their objective.

Packey cut loose in the seventh and rained a shower of blows to Gibbons' face, one of which split the St. Paul man's left eyebrow. McFarland tried to outslug his opponent in the next period, but although the latter was beginning to weaken he staggered Packey with several blows to the head and still maintained his lead.

Packey Smiles in Eighth.
McFarland came up with a smile in the eighth and fought with his old confidence. He out-boxed and out-punched Gibbons and continued his advantage in the final round, being strong at the finish and master of his opponent. The final lead that Gibbons had gained in the earlier rounds, however, was too great to be overcome and the consensus of opinion was strongly in favor of the St. Paul boxer as the winner on points, and the largest purse ever offered for so short a no-decision bout.

A throng which was estimated at 45,000 witnessed the contest.
Gibbons was the favorite in the wagering odds, ranging from 8 to 5 and 2 to 1. A purse of $32,500 was divided, $17,500 to McFarland and $15,000 to Gibbons.

POLICE SAY THEY HAVE MEN WHO GOT WEALTHY THROUGH INCENDIARISM
St. Louis, Sept. 12.—Insurance agents, human "torches" and an unnamed "prominent" businessman comprised the personnel of an arson syndicate which the police claim they uncovered last night. The incendiaries, the police say, are responsible for most of the big fires which have baffled fire and police departments here for five years and the profits of the arson syndicate, the police assert, ran into millions of dollars.

So far one insurance agent and four "torches" have been arrested, the latter being trapped yesterday as they were about to carry four barrels of gasoline into the Christen Bellows company's plant which they had made arrangements to burn, the owners having agreed to the plan at the direction of the police. Arrest of the men higher up is expected as soon as the evidence can be presented to the grand jury, which probably will be within the next few days. These men, the police say, are under surveillance and cannot escape.

CHINESE LAUNDRYMAN, REFUSED LOAN, MURDERS THREE OF COUNTRYMEN
Springfield, Mass., Sept. 12.—Baw Young, a Chinese laundryman of Greenfield, today murdered three of his countrymen. His first victim was his business partner, Ong Pen, whom he killed with a knife at their laundry at daybreak today. Several hours later he arrived in this city and shot and killed Wu Shoe Chang, one of the proprietors of a restaurant on Hampton street, and Ng Hong, son of Wing Sing, proprietor of the Canton restaurant on Worthington street. The failure of the three men to assist him financially in defraying the expenses of his trial for violating the immigration laws was given as the motive for the crime.

Ty Cobb's famous speed failed him last year when he tried to beat out cotton margins. Brokers are now suing him for $2,432.

TODAY'S WEATHER.
Washington, Sept. 12.—The following is the weather bureau's forecast for Upper Michigan:
Showers Monday and Tuesday.

MEXICO WILL BE THE TOPIC TODAY AT WHITE HOUSE

President Wilson and Secretary Lansing Will Review Situation Preliminary to Another Meeting of the Latin-American Diplomats Endeavoring to Establish Peace.

Carranza's Proposal That Conference Meet With Him to Discuss International Questions Is Favored by Many—Reports General Villa Was Killed Are False.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Consideration probably will be given tomorrow by President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing to the Mexican situation and the proposal made by General Venustiano Carranza that the Pan-American conference meet with him in some border city to discuss international questions growing out of the Mexican revolution.

After this conference plans will be made for another meeting of the secretaries of state and the diplomatic representatives of Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Bolivia, Uruguay and Guatemala to discuss the replies to the recent appeal to the Mexican factions for a peace conference. Carranza's rejection and counter proposal, it is said, will be given serious consideration, and some of the conferees, it is believed, will urge that his suggestion be accepted.

When the conferees meet they will also have before them, in addition to replies from General Villa and his military leaders accepting their plans for a peace conference, a Villa communication challenging the claim for recognition made by General Carranza in his note to the Pan-American members, and denying Carranza's charge that Villa was bribed to desert Carranza's cause.

GENERAL VILLA NOT KILLED.
The military situation in northern Mexico is being closely watched. Carranza's generals are planning a general attack on Villa's forces at Torreón. Advice to the Villa agency here today established the falsity of last night's rumors that Villa had been killed on a visit to General Urbina's ranch in northern Durango. It was stated, however, that Villa had succeeded in obtaining the accumulation of money which Urbina, as second in command of the Villa forces, had in his possession. The amount has been variously estimated at from $2,000,000 to $5,000,000.

BANDITS HOLD AMERICAN.
El Paso, Tex., Sept. 12.—Edward Ledwidge, joint commissary manager of the Mexican Northwestern Railway company, El Paso Milling company and Madera company, Ltd., was taken off a Northwestern passenger train near the Cumbe tunnel by bandits last Saturday and is held prisoner, according to reports here today. The train at the time was en route from Juarez to Madero, where Ledwidge and J. C. Paddock, general superintendent of the El Paso Milling company, were going on business for the company. It is said that while the train was running at low speed the bandits, some mounted, others afoot, appeared, fired upon the engineer and stopped the train. Paddock and another American were commanded to leave the train. Ledwidge accompanied them. Ledwidge, on learning the bandits intended to hold Paddock and his companion, whose name is not given in the reports here, persuaded the leader of the band to accept him as a substitute, declaring that Paddock and his companion had wives on the train who would be overcome by the kidnapping.

ARMY MAINTAINING PEACE.
Brownsville, Tex., Sept. 12.—Presence of United States army patrols brought a peaceful Sunday to the lower Rio Grande valley district today. Two patrols, hurried out last night to points where it was reported Mexicans might try to cross the river, returned today without having seen any Mexicans. One boat on the Mexican side about twenty miles above Brownsville was under close observation last night and early today when it appeared that some persons were gathering behind it in the brush. The presence of troops, however, prevented any use of the boat.

An eye's policy is to leave no rumor, however slight, unnoticed. This policy usually consists of sending forces to the point of the rumor origin to prevent any developments. Occasional shooting along the river bank is still reported, but none of it has endangered anyone on the American side.

FRENCH STEAMER AFIRE AND CALLING FOR HELP; IS IN TRACK OF LINERS
Halifax, Sept. 12.—The French steamer Sant Anna is on fire at sea, according to a wireless message received by the marine department from the Cape Race station late tonight. The message said:
"Steamer Sant Anna in distress, on fire, and in need of assistance. Position latitude 40.23 north, longitude 47.39 west."
The position given is in the track of trans-Atlantic liners.

The Sant Anna registered 5,814 tons and is owned by the Fabre line. Captain Pavy is in command. She is bound from New York to Mediterranean ports.

GERMAN OFFICER WHO IS BLAMED FOR CHECK DISMISSED BY KAISER

London, Sept. 12, 9:55 p. m.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Amsterdam says:
"Emperor William has dismissed General von Kluge, commander of the Eighth division, who was held responsible for the Austro-German check by the Russians on the Sereth river in East Galicia."
General Kluge, according to the German newspapers, retired from the service at his own request and with a pension.

RUSSIAN DESTROYERS TO CHASE SUBMARINES
Petrograd, Sept. 12, via London, 6:28 p. m.—Russian torpedo boat destroyers and sea planes have been sent in pursuit of German submarines operating near the Crimean coast, according to an official statement issued at the war office last night. The statement reiterates the report made Sept. 8 of a great success near Tarnopol and Trenbowl.

DISCUSSES WITH CZAR NEW REFORMS PROPOSED
London, Sept. 13, 3 a. m.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Petrograd says that Premier Goremykin has gone to the headquarters of Emperor Nicholas to confer with the emperor regarding the reforms proposed by the duma.

MOTORCYCLE RACER SETS A NEW RECORD
Chicago, Sept. 12.—C. F. Gowdy won the 300-mile motorcycle race at the speedway today in 3:29:51. C. Carroll was second in 3:35:17, and K. Weishaer was third in 3:37:12. Gowdy's time establishes a new record for the distance. Twenty-seven pilots started in the race, but the pace proved too fast for nineteen and at various distances they dropped out, leaving eight to finish. Gowdy's average time for the distance was 83.8 miles an hour.

STRIKES OUT 18 BATTERS, BEATING O'TOOLE'S MARK
Louisville, Sept. 12.—David Danforth, left-handed pitcher, in defeating Kansas City, 8 to 6, in the first game of today's doubleheader here, struck out eighteen batters. This sets a new record for the American Association. Marty O'Toole's mark of seventeen having stood since 1911.

GERMAN PUBLIC IS UNEASY.
Berlin, Sept. 12.—Publication of the Arabic note, although with virtually no comment, in the German press, has caused a feeling of uneasiness here over the probable attitude of the United States. The note in itself appears to be highly satisfactory to the public generally, but the constant inquiries received at the offices of the Associated Press for news or predictions upon the Arabic attitude is only one indication of apprehension that the Arabic note and the Hesperian case may result in a renewal of the tension which was believed to have relaxed with Ambassador von Bernstorff's communication to Washington of the instructions given German submarine commanders.

Well-informed Germans, such as Maximilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft, believe the situation again serious, not so much because of its intrinsic merits, but on account of the manner in which it has been handled.

DUMBA KEEPS HIS SILENCE.
Lenox, Mass., Sept. 12.—"There is no statement ready and the ambassador has nothing to give out," was the reply at the Austrian summer embassy in Lenox this afternoon, when inquiry was made for the "statement" which Dr. Constantia Theodor Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States, has said he would give out to the newspapers in a few days. It was said, however, that perhaps early this week the ambassador would have something for publication.

MR. LLOYD-GEORGE MAKES SIGNIFICANT STATEMENT ON SUBMARINE WARFARE
London, Sept. 12, 10:35 p. m.—That the central powers still have an overwhelming superiority in all the material and equipment of war, and that the allies, to win, must put forth all their strength, is the statement made by David Lloyd-George, minister of munitions, in the preface of a book containing his speeches since the outbreak of the war entitled "Through Terror to Triumph."
"After twelve months of war," said Mr. Lloyd-George in part, "my conviction is stronger than ever that this country could not have kept out of it without impairing its security and its honor. We could not have looked on cynically with folded arms while a country we had given our word to protect was being ravished, trodden on by one of our own co-trustees."
"If British women and children were being brutally destroyed on the high seas by German submarines, this nation would have insisted on calling the infatigable empire to a stern reckoning."

"Everything that has happened since the declaration of war has clearly demonstrated that a military system so regardless of good faith, honorable obligations and the elementary impulses of humanity constitutes a menace to civilization of the most sinister character and despite the terrible cost of suppressing it the war being of humanity demands that such a system should be challenged and destroyed."

CHICAGO AUSTRIANS BITTERLY DENOUNCE AMBASSADOR'S ACTION
Chicago, Sept. 12.—A mass meeting of former subjects of Austria-Hungary today adopted resolutions condemning the action of Ambassador Dumba that caused the United States to ask his recall. The leaders of the meeting were officers of the Bohemian National Alliance, the Croatian League of Chicago, the Serbian National club and the Slovak Guard. The resolutions resent the reference Ambassador Dumba made to the Austrians in America as ignorant and uneducated and unable to care for themselves and declare loyalty under any condition to the United States.

HOPES TO PAVE WAY TO REACH AN AGREEMENT

German Ambassador Will Informally Take Up With the American Government Supplementary Note from Berlin in Effort to Obtain Satisfactory Adjustment.

While Nothing Official Has Been Heard from Vienna News Dispatches Predicting Compliance With Request for the Recall of Dumba Are Thought Accurate.

Washington, Sept. 12.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, returned to Washington today to initiate informal discussion with the American government supplementary to the note from the Berlin foreign office regarding the sinking of the Arabic, with the hope of paving the way for formal negotiations for adjustment of the situation growing out of the loss of American lives in the tragedy. He expects to see Secretary Lansing tomorrow.

The ambassador is optimistic in spite of the growing serious concern here over the state of relations between the United States and the German allies, following the receipt of the disappointing note from Germany on the Arabic incident and the request for the recall of Ambassador Dumba of Austria.

GERMANS HOPE TO ARBITRATE.
It is held in German circles that the Arabic note with its reiteration of the announcement that submarines are not to sink ships without warning is in accord with assurances already given the state department and confidence is felt that an agreement can be reached for arbitration of the request for reparation.

High officials of the administration were silent again today regarding the entire situation. President Wilson and Secretary Lansing are considering the testimony of survivors of the Arabic, all tending to show that the Arabic was torpedoed without warning while proceeding peacefully on the high seas. This is in direct contravention of the statement made in the German note that the submarine commander launched a torpedo because the liner's actions convinced him he was about to be attacked.

TO READ ORDUNA NOTE TODAY.
Belief is expressed in official circles that while the German explanation is considered weak and not satisfactory the United States will consent to the proposal that the question of indemnity be arbitrated on condition that discussion be limited to the question of facts as to whether the submarine commander was justified, without involving the general principles for which this government has contended.

The German memorandum on the Orduna case reached the state department during the day but was not decoded in time for consideration. It probably will be before Secretary Lansing tomorrow when Count von Bernstorff reaches the department, furnishing an additional phase for discussion. No intimation as to the contents of the memorandum has been given officially. In German quarters it is thought probable that the Berlin government declares that the torpedo which hit the Orduna was fired in the belief that the vessel was not a passenger-carrying ship.

VIENNA LIKELY TO COMPLY.
Nothing was heard officially from Vienna today regarding Dr. Dumba. Press dispatches today stating that the ambassador would be recalled without making an issue of his right to plan Austro-Hungarian strikes in American munitions plants were accepted as accurate. Notice of his recall would be given to Ambassador Penfield at Vienna.

So far the administration has taken no step against the Austrian consul general, von Nuber, at New York, and Captain von Papan, the German military attaché, who were involved in Dr. Dumba's plans. Both could be dealt with without communicating with their respective governments. A suggestion to the German ambassador that Captain von Papan was undesirable would result in his removal, while mere cancellation of equivoques would leave von Nuber without official position.

Patriotism is an instinct and one often perverted. Love of one's native land is gained with the earliest impressions of childhood.

The Car and the Grand Duke. Something hieratic, symbolic, Byzantine hangs about the czar of all the Russias.

Dr. Dudley A. Sargent of Harvard thought that a woman should make as good a soldier as a man.

Dr. Sargent, at a tea in Boston, said to a group of flattered, smiling girls: "Why shouldn't you, indeed, make as good soldiers as men? Look how resourceful you are."

"I consulted a palmist last evening, and she told me I would marry a brunette within three months."

"The girl, tossing her golden head, answered with a roguish smile: "Well, I can easily be a brunette by that time, Jack."

Recently a prominent matron in a big eastern town had occasion to employ a new domestic, and as soon as the girl reached the house a large questioning "sneeze" started.

"Yes, ma'am," answered Gwendolyn, reflectively, "that is, they did sometimes and sometimes they didn't."

"No, ma'am," was the startling rejoinder of the domestic, "they always washed before they came to the table."

In Time of Trouble. During one of the revolutions in Haiti a party of Americans made a riding tour of the mountains.

After some search they found a path that zig-zagged up to the wild place they followed it, and at last discovered an aged negro sitting before his wretched hut smoking his pipe, while he kept an eye on the flag.

"What's the flag for?" someone asked. "Perfection," said the old neg, quietly. "I heah dey done begin amuder."

Flattering, But a Warning, Too. Michigan's national guard has received from the inspecting officers of the United States army a well deserved but not unexpected compliment.

One of our regiments, it appears, could be ready for actual service within two months after a call for duty; another would need three months; the third four. Whether the several periods relate to the regiments as at present or on a war footing is not mentioned in the dispatches.

Perhaps Mr. Archibald, the complacent quality of whose Americanism was at the root of all the trouble, had just been reading about the man who carried the message to Garcia.

Meanwhile the course of events is of a nature to confirm the suspicion of a part of the public that the principle mission of ambassadors is to cook up trouble.

From Willie's Viewpoint. There are some very funny things in a big store beside the things the girls say about the floorwalker or the fancies personalities of buyers and heads of departments.

For instance: The other day a small lad, with the unmistakable stamp of the country, was trailing his mother along through a big store.

"Come on, Willie," said the mother. "Aw, maw, wait," begged the boy. "No," protested his mother. "What's de matter with you?"

"Look!" cried the boy. He was pointing to a young man leaving an employe time clock, which the young man had just punched.

"Wait, maw," continued Willie, "I want to see what he wins!"—Columbus Dispatch.

Channing Prospering

During the last few years, a large number of public buildings and private residences have been built at Channing, making substantial additions to the town.

Channing is the headquarters for many train crews. At present the St. Paul road is handling greater shipments of iron ore than for years.

The average daily shipment from Iron River, passing through Channing to the docks at Escanaba, is 500 cars, each averaging fifty tons of ore, making a total of 25,000 tons a day.

To handle these shipments twenty-two train crews of five men each are employed.

Copper Country

"TANGO TOWN" TONIGHT AT KERREDGE THEATER

Production of Comic Opera With Copper Country Talent Musical Event of the Season.

The big social and musical event of the season in the copper country will be the production tonight at the Kerredge theater of "Tango Town," an entertainment that may be best described as a vaudeville, though Donald MacDonald, its producer, calls it variously a review, a comic opera and a musical comedy. It is a succession of beautiful dancing and chorals ensembles.

Some of the best known names in copper country appear in the program and these names are coupled with undoubted talent. Mr. MacDonald has a genius for bringing out this unexpected ability and it can be expected with confidence that the audience will see dancing and hear singing that will have an appeal entirely apart from any personal interest they may have in the performers. In other words, "By any other names they could dance as well and sing as beautifully."

The Kerredge performance will be repeated Thursday night. In the interim the review will be presented at the Calumet theater for the delight of the Calumet community on Wednesday night.

Mr. MacDonald had in Marquette, for the same production, a short time ago the assistance of Miss Flora Rettalle, one of the most pleasing singers of that city. So delightful was her work there that the producer decided copper country people would enjoy her in the principal numbers of the show fully as much as they would a copper country girl and he has brought her to repeat her Marquette success.

The following is the complete program:

Act 1.

Opening chorus—"In Tango Land."

"The Girl I Dream of"—James Fox, Agnes Rice and chorus.

"I Want a Man to Love Me"—Miss Flora Rettalle and chorus.

"That's Love"—Mr. MacDonald, Misses Klausen, Rice, Penberthy, Bolles, McLean, Hanchette and Mrs. W. F. Corbett.

"At the Movie Show"—Mrs. Corbett, the Misses Bolles, Vail, Rowe, Messers, Roid, Nancarrow, Cross, McKenney.

"Little Girl Beware"—Miss Rettalle and Mr. MacDonald.

"This Must Be Love"—Miss Anna Trimmingham and chorus.

Act 2, Le Danse.

Chinese fox trot—Miss Bolles, Carlos Ryan.

Dance of pierrots and pierrettes—Misses Klausen, Penberthy, Vivian, Rowe, Courtney, Mrs. Corbett, Messrs. Rogers, Cross, Schulte, Starrett, McKinney, Condon.

Pas de deux—Miss Bolles and MacDonald.

Aeroplane waltz—Miss Gladys Stratton, Fred Cross.

Dance le Roi "Amuse"—Misses Bolles, Klausen, Penberthy, Van Orden, Rice.

Tango characteristic—Miss McLean, Mr. Rogers.

Ballet of the four seasons—Mr. MacDonald, spring maidens and summer maidens.

Act 3.

"Don't Tease Me"—Mr. MacDonald, Misses W. C. Douglas, H. A. Guck, W. F. Corbett, Misses, McEae, Maymow, Vivian, Courtney, Noyes, Rose, Barrett, Hanchette, Strobel, Penberthy, Nancarrow, Scallon, Rice.

"Come to my Garden in Persia"—Miss Rettalle, Mr. Fox, Misses Penberthy, Hanchette, McLean, Courtney and Mrs. Corbett.

"I Want Your Heart"—Miss Noyes and chorus.

"Song of the Months"—Lynn Whitney and Mrs. Douglas, January; Miss Vail, February; Miss Anderson, March; Mrs. Guck, April; Miss Barrett, May; Miss Penberthy, June; Miss Noyes, July; Miss Trimmingham, August; Miss Courtney, September; Miss McIntosh, October; Miss Vivian, November; Miss Rice, December.

"Are You the Girl from Sherry's"—Mr. MacDonald; Miss Noyes; Boston girl; Miss Penberthy, show girl; Mrs. Francesca Klausen, a waitress from "Larry's"; John Condon and Horace Cross as bowery toughs.

Finale—Chorus of show girls, pony ballet, waiters, guests, etc.

BANKERS' FIRST ANNUAL.

Copper Country Financiers Prepare to Entertain Colleagues.

The first annual meeting of the bankers of the upper peninsula, organized as a group of the Michigan Bankers association, is to be held in Houghton Oct. 14. A meeting of the bankers of the copper country was held Saturday at the Houghton club for the purpose of arranging details of the entertainment for the visitors. The arrangements are only tentative because the bankers do not understand as yet the extent of the program to be arranged.

It is understood that the state association will furnish speakers, how many is not known. The copper country bankers also expect to invite one speaker of prominence.

The meeting will be at the Houghton club banquet room, as far as now has been determined. The entertainment for the visitors will include a noonday luncheon and a dinner in the evening at the club and entertainment features incidental to the latter function may be provided.

INTERRED AT MARQUETTE.

The funeral service for the late Fred LaMora of Houghton was held Saturday morning at St. Ignace church. The Houghton tent of Camels of the World attended in a body and the pall bearers were members of that order. The remains were taken by Mrs. LaMora and other members of the family to Marquette for interment.

METHODIST PASTORS GO TO CONFERENCE

Several Changes in Copper Country Personnel Are Expected—Rev. Collycott Popular.

Pastors of the copper country Methodist Episcopal churches left last night for Port Huron for the annual Detroit conference, the governing body of the Methodist Episcopal churches of eastern Michigan and the upper peninsula.

The expectation is that several changes will be made in the copper country personnel. The following pastors are not expected to be returned to this district:

Rev. C. L. Adams, of Calumet, who is mentioned for appointment as a district superintendent.

Rev. J. R. Rankin, D. D., of Houghton, who has made known his intention to retire and to live in California.

Rev. Reuben Crosby, of Hancock, who has asked for another charge.

Rev. J. J. Strike, of Centennial and Ahmeek-Alhonet churches, who expects advancement.

Other expected actions of the conference are:

Appointment of a new pastor for the Pevasive church at Quincy, to succeed Rev. Mr. Polkinghorne, deceased.

Separation of the Centennial and Ahmeek-Alhonet circuit, the people of the last named church having asked for a resident pastor.

At Tamarack-Oscoda there is an interesting situation. The two locations have been served by one church, that at Oscoda, under the pastorate of Rev. W. H. Collycott. The Tamarack members of the joint congregation are now soliciting subscriptions with a view to forming a separate congregation. They will ask for a pastor and have included in their petition a request that Rev. Mr. Collycott be named for them. Oscoda also has asked that Mr. Collycott be returned.

Rev. C. L. Adams, of Calumet; Dr. Rankin, of Houghton; Reuben Crosby, of Hancock; J. J. Strike, of Centennial; A. B. Sutcliffe, Laurium; H. Magahay, Kearsarge; I. Wilcox, Mohawk; John S. Houghton, of Houghton; J. H. Rogers, of Latic-Balke; Richard Carlson, of Paines; W. H. Collycott, Tamarack-Oscoda.

WANTS HELP FOR PROBATIONERS

Judge O'Brien Eager to Have Dr. Hubbard's Suggestion Acted Upon.

Hon. Patrick H. O'Brien of Houghton, judge of the Twelfth judicial circuit, comprising the counties of Houghton, Baraga and Keweenaw, has during his four years on the bench given the probation system a rigid test. He has put on probation a hundred or more first offenders and a few with records and he believes the system is working well.

In fact only two paroled men have violated his confidence to a serious extent. They are now doing sentences in state penal institutions. Judge O'Brien believes in giving young men a chance to rehabilitate themselves with society after their first false step and he believes that society as a whole is not willing to give them that chance.

Judge O'Brien has listened to some moving stories from men who have been trying to make good under his system. Before he went on the bench he was a criminal lawyer and he knows from experience with criminal classes that men coming from state prisons have only a slight chance to get right with society. The prison brand is on them. Society as a whole naturally indicates that it chooses to let that brand remain, according to Judge O'Brien's observations.

The judge is therefore very eager to have Dr. Hubbard's suggestion acted upon.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Minneapolis, Minn.—"After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case."—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 606 Fourth Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

try a suggestion recently made to him by Dr. L. L. Hubbard, of Houghton, a regent of the state university, a man of humanitarian impulses, as shown by his various activities. Dr. Hubbard has suggested to the judge that there should be organized in every county in his circuit a committee of society of business men, particularly miners, manufacturers and large employers of labor, for the express purpose of giving probationers of the court a chance through cooperating with the probation officer. Judge O'Brien is confident that any man paroled by him will make good if he is sure of a job and an opportunity to break off his old associations. The organization suggested by Dr. Hubbard would go a long way toward insuring to society the conduct of such men. The judge yesterday expressed the hope that such an organization may be formed. He can go no farther with it than to offer his cooperation and this he is willing to grant in every way.

CIRCUIT COURT TOMORROW.

Bar Association Banquet Today—Judge Fead Begins on Tuesday.

Judge O'Brien on Friday evening instructed Sheriff Cruse to send out notices to the petit jury drawn for the September term of the Houghton county circuit court, to report for duty at 9 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The jury originally was instructed to report at 9 o'clock this morning.

The reason for the change is found in the cruise to be taken this afternoon by the Houghton county bar and the meeting of the Houghton county board of supervisors Tuesday morning. These two events would cause an adjournment of the court this noon anyway and Judge O'Brien decided to give the jury the benefit of the arrangement and another day and a half off duty.

The cruise of the bar this afternoon is to be in A. F. Rees' yacht Sea Fox and will be preliminary to the banquet of the Houghton County Bar association at the Oncoming Yacht club tonight.

Judge Louis H. Fead of the Chippewa circuit, who is to try cases for Judge O'Brien during the next two weeks, is expected to arrive this morning. He will probably open the court this morning and make preparations for his first trial Tuesday afternoon.

UNDER PYTHIAN AUSPICES.

Royal Gwent Glee Singers to Appear at the Amphidrome Sept. 20.

The Royal Gwent Glee Singers, a Welsh male organization of fourteen members, will appear at the Amphidrome the night of Sept. 20 under the auspices of Columbia lodge, Knights of Pythias.

This will be the first appearance of this organization in the copper country, though it has previously appeared for several seasons under the auspices of various Chautauques and lyceum bureaus in the United States. The program offered is a varied one, consisting of choruses, solos, duets, trios and quartets. The company sings Welsh, Scotch and English folk songs for the most part.

Wales is considered a musical country and some of its old melodies are among the most beautiful in musical literature. Evan Williams made a few of the old Welsh songs known to this public some years ago. The Royal Gwent singers come highly recommended. They may be described as a choir similar to the familiar Cornish carol choirs of the copper country, though with individual ability heightened by training to a degree making them much superior to the amateur choirs so well known here.

BIG EXHIBIT FOR THE FAIR.

Federal Bureau of Roads Will Send Models to Copper Country.

Secretary I. N. Haas of the Copper Country Fair has had a check-up by the federal bureau of roads that his request for the use of the bureau's exhibit of model roads had been granted and that the Wisconsin State Fair, where the exhibit now is, had been instructed to deliver the exhibit to him in time for the opening of the Houghton show.

This exhibit, on display only at state fairs and large expositions because it is maintained at considerable expense and the fair using it must pay the freight on the shipment back to Washington. The first reason impels the government to send it only to the fair that will give it a chance to be seen by the greatest number of people. The second is prohibitory for most county fairs. The freight bill will be about $100. The bureau sends an expert who is in constant attendance and who explains the various types of roads to visitors.

The exhibit consists of nineteen models, each three by five feet, showing nineteen different types of road construction. In addition there are a large number of bromide enlargements of photographs of actual roads, showing the applications of the types of roads represented by the models. In view of the present interest in good roads in the copper country the exhibit is considered a valuable acquisition.

Charged With Forgery.

Charged with forgery, Alce Ward and "Nick" Farfille, who escaped from Rhineclaffer and were captured at Gladstone when they cashed a certificate of deposit, for $150 belonging to the near bride's mother, were taken to Rhineclaffer by Sheriff Charles Crofoot of that city. By returning to the Gladstone bank the amount that had been secured through the forgery committed there, the couple settled the local case and were given their liberty. They were enroute to Escanaba from Gladstone to be married when word was received by the Gladstone officers to arrest them on a charge of forgery preferred against them at Rhineclaffer.

Big Crop at County Farm.

Frank Crisp, superintendent of the Dickinson County poor farm, has made a good record there. The farm proper contains 115 acres, all of which is under cultivation. In addition, Mr. Crisp rented seven acres from the estate of William Turner, and the total number of acres now under cultivation is 122. This year Mr. Crisp set out 18,000 head of cabbage; planted five acres in potatoes; fifteen acres in turnips, peas, beans, beets, etc.; five acres in buckwheat; ten acres in Scotch peas, eight acres in rye; fourteen acres in barley; five acres in wheat; six acres in speltz. Up to three weeks ago he had out sixty-six tons of hay, which was put in the barn, and not a drop of rain touched it. Last fall Mr. Crisp cleared thirty-five acres. There are forty-four head of cat-

Sent to Marquette Prison.

William Johnson, who was found guilty on a charge of forgery by a circuit court jury at the Soo Thursday afternoon, has been sentenced to hard labor at Marquette prison by Judge Louis H. Fead. As fixed by law the maximum sentence for this offense is fourteen years. Judge Fead recommended a maximum sentence in this case of two and a half years, and a minimum sentence of one year, which means that if Johnson is a model prisoner for one year he will be released at the expiration of this time. John Avo, who pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery, was sentenced at the opening of court, was sentenced to serve sixty days in the county jail.

Had Narrow Escape.

Charles Kelley and John McCorry, of Ontonagon, had a narrow escape from death when the truck on which they were riding turned over and threw them to the ground, together with two barrels of copper. Mr. Kelly was pinned under the truck and was severely bruised, but fortunately no bones were broken and he was able to be around the same day. John McCorry was not so fortunate. Something, supposedly a barrel of copper, rolled over his head and smashed two fingers so badly that it was necessary to amputate them. The side of his face was bruised somewhat on account of a barrel of copper rolling close enough to just graze his face. Following the accident Mr. McCorry walked two and a half miles to Iron river and was then brought to Ontonagon for treatment.

Hughtitt Goes to Maine.

A brilliant future for "Tommy" Hughtitt, of Escanaba, as a football coach, is predicted in a press dispatch from Ann Arbor. Hughtitt has already left for Orono, Maine, where he will be engaged as coach for the University of Maine squad. The Ann Arbor dispatch says: "Tommy" Hughtitt has left for Orono, Maine, where he will coach the football team of the University of Maine this fall. Hughtitt was one of the most remarkable as well as most valuable athletes that Michigan has had in the last few years and won his varsity letter several times on both nine and eleven. "Tommy" who hails from Escanaba, didn't even make his All-Fresh eleven. He was so little the coaches overlooked him. He came out for the reserves his second season, however, and Yost soon spotted the gritty little chap who was always under the pile, where the ball was. The next year Hughtitt was on the varsity and played quarterback when "Shorty" McMillan was unable to be at the helm. Last fall Hughtitt was of course the regular pilot, and a vital cog in the Yost machine. His value was clearly shown in the failure of the eleven at Syracuse, when Hughtitt was out with a broken elbow, received at Lansing the Saturday before. In the Harvard game Hughtitt was unable to carry the ball, but it was his directing genius which kept the battered Wolverine machine to-

Opera House Program.

Mlle. Verna Mercereau and company, dancers, will open an engagement in vaudeville at the opera house today, presenting a sketch entitled, "A Romance of Old Egypt." The story of the act follows: "Sekhet, priestess of the temple, vows vengeance on the slayer of the pharaoh. Rames, vicary of Lower Lands, the guilty man, is the beloved of Sekhet, and visits the temple. It being deserted he departs. Sekhet appears and dances the temple dance. Rames, returning, is welcomed, and in his honor Sekhet dances the dance of victory. Rames departs, whereupon Sekhet dances to the departing day. The temple priest, recognizing the cloak of Rames, demands that the vow of Sekhet be fulfilled. During the dance of vengeance and death, Sekhet slays Rames, exacting the penalty for the pharaoh's death." The picture today will be "Shattered Memories," a Civil war story in three reels featuring Robert Leonard and Ella Hall. Mlle. Mercereau will be remembered here as having appeared in the two Kalem pictures, "The Dancer" and "The Dance of Death."

Delft Theater.

The feature picture at the Delft today will be "The Silent W," a two-reel production of the Vitagraph company. "The Midnight Limited," an episode of "The Hazards of Helen" series, will also be shown, as will the Hearst-Selig News Pictorial, depicting current events. "The Silent W," comments the Motion Picture World, "is a two-reel comedy of the 'Daddy Longlegs' order of romances. The pretty heroine's marriage to the wealthy and good-looking hero is a bit of stage fiction that is relished by all right-minded folk, and Lillian Walker and Evert Overton make a fitting pair of lovers."

Much of the ivory from which our piano keys, billiard balls, knife handles and combs are made is collected in Siberia from the fossil remains of the giant mammoth, the great-grandmother of the elephant. Many of these tusks are a quarter of a million years old, having been preserved in frozen soil or ancient ice only recently brought to the surface.

The hats worn by the models are from Mrs. Brown's Millinery Shop.

OUR FOURTH SEMI-ANNUAL STYLE SHOW

At the Marquette Opera House on Tuesday Evening, Sept 14th (TOMORROW)

will be a forceful demonstration of this store's leadership and "style authority" in women's apparel.

The newest style ideas chosen by us for this season's stock, will be reflected in the representation of the garments displayed and worn by a group of young women from the city, on the stage of this theatre. All of the garments being from our own stock.

Past experience has shown that it would require the largest auditorium in the city to accommodate all visitors, so have arranged with the Marquette Opera House to give the staging of this event as the prominent feature of their program Tuesday night, with no extra charge to the public.

We cordially invite everyone interested in the new fall styles, with the full assurance that the exhibit will this season be more extensive and to excel in beauty and interest all our previous efforts.

ANNUAL REUNION OF COLLEGE MEN

Program for Lake Michigan Event of Saturday Outlined at Marquette Meeting.

Over one hundred Marquette college men representing institutions east, west, south and north, will participate in the first annual reunion that will be held at Lake Michigan the coming Saturday. Seventy-five acceptances have already been received, and about half of those to whom invitations were addressed have not yet responded.

The committee in charge of the arrangements met in Marquette Saturday and outlined the following program:

- Morning-
- 8:00 Special train leaves Marquette.
- 8:45 Special train leaves Negaunee.
- 9:00 Special train leaves Ishpeming.
- 10:00 Arrival at Michigan.
- 10:15 Address of welcome by C. F. Sundstrom.
- 10:18 Conclusion of speech.
- 10:19 Response by the "gang."
- 10:20 "Grand Opening."
- 10:30 Baseball game, Fats vs. Leans, Muggsy McGraw Thoren, captain of the Fats; Connie Mack Miller, captain of the Leans.
- 11:30 Bathing contests.
- 12:00 Dinner.

-Afternoon-

- 1:30 Organization meeting.
- 2:15 Bunch of assorted stunts by old-time college stars.
- 3:30 Grand event of the day, championship baseball game, College "All Stars" vs. University of Michigan. Ty Cobb Belden will captain the College "All Stars," Honus Wagner Bell will captain the University of Michigan team.

(Note: The committee will have a first aid hospital adjacent to the ball field, and will also provide the umpires with guns, ammunition, clubs, etc.; in fact everything to run a ball game with, excepting police protection.)

5:00 Tag-of-war.

5:00 Bon-fire.

Farewell to Michigan.

Will Engage Band.

A band will be engaged to accompany the party, and it is planned to make the trip to and from Lake Michigan as pleasant a part of the outing as the actual stay at the picnic grounds. To this end the committee particularly urges the college men not to arrange to get to Lake Michigan by automobile, but to make their plans to travel on the special train. This is important, as it is necessary to sell a considerable number of tickets to secure the train.

Arrangements are being made to have meals served at the lake by Michigan game caterers, and a roomy bungalow has been secured there to be used in case the weather is unfavorable. The expense of the trip is estimated at $2.50. Tickets for the picnic will be placed on sale at Marquette, Ishpeming and Negaunee today. If there should be a surplus after the expenses are defrayed it will be placed in a fund which will be utilized when the picnic next year is held.

The committee has found it impossible to prepare a list of all the college men in the country and so some have been overlooked in making out the list of those to whom the invitations were sent. The committee desires through The Mining Journal to extend a cordial invitation to all college men to be present.

Much interest has been shown in the event, particularly by the older college graduates, and it is expected that they will be largely represented. Judge Flannigan will be one of the guests and it is also hoped that Judge Sessions, of the U. S. district court, whose September term opens here today, will be present.

A WORD OF WISDOM.

Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee. Light gains make heavy purses. 'Tis good to be merry and wise.—George Chapman.

UPPER PENINSULA HELPS SUFFRAGE

Mrs. Whittemore Gets Cordial Reception in Tour for Equal Rights.

Returning from a three weeks' tour of the upper peninsula of Michigan in the interests of the Congressional Union for equal suffrage, Mrs. W. Nelson Whittemore is enthusiastic over the spirit displayed by the women of the north country in their determination to win whatever they can for suffrage, says the Detroit Free Press. Mrs. Whittemore believes that feeling as strong as that anywhere in the United States in favor of equal suffrage exists there, in spite of the fact that little is heard from suffragists of northern Michigan.

"Suffrage sentiment is marvelous in the upper peninsula," said Mrs. Whittemore. "In fact, I believe it is more intense than in any other place where I have ever been."

"But the work is not heard from because the women have to work under cover. The corporations control everything up there, and suffrage is only organized through women's clubs, since there are no suffrage leagues. Yet as an example of what has been done, seven women carried Houghton county for suffrage during the last campaign."

"One suffragist up there is worth 25 down here. And the time for throwing around literature is past, it's time to do things now."

Since one thing to do, in the opinion of the suffragists who have adopted the methods of the Congressional Union, is to interview congressmen, Mrs. Whittemore has been doing that. Representative W. Frank James, of Hancock, was visited, and later Congressman Frank Scott, of Alpena, when Mrs. Whittemore returned to the lower peninsula.

James Says He's Favorable.

A deputation went to see Mr. James, and so eager was he to tell the women what he believed about suffrage that, for fear he should be out of town at the time set for the meeting, he wrote Mrs. Whittemore a most enthusiastic letter. In it he stated his position as being favorable to suffrage, having voted for the amendment in the house of representatives. Congressman Scott is not so enthusiastic, but rather polite, according to Mrs. Whittemore, though a deputation is being arranged to meet him during the last week in September.

"One thing that interested me," added Mrs. Whittemore, "is the way the women of Marquette and Alpena are allowed to use their city halls for meeting places. Having the commission form of government in both places, we used the city hall each time, and it seemed significant in our case. The rooms are big and bright, and it is good to feel that women are permitted there for such purposes."

"I was the first suffragist ever to come up from lower Michigan and my reception was surely most cordial."

Just at present, Mrs. Whittemore is preparing to assist in arranging for the convention of the Congressional Union, which is to be called in Detroit, October 1 and 2. Miss Margaret Whittemore is at Tecumseh, with Mrs. Jennie C. Law Hardy, writing the call for the convention. Mrs. Albert Sisk accompanied Mrs. Whittemore on her tour through the state.

U. P. COUNCIL GROWING.

Twenty-Six Copper Country Travelers Affiliate With Marquette Branch.

Copper council, No. 447, United Commercial Travelers, of Hancock, has ceased to exist. Its twenty-six members have become affiliated with Upper Peninsula council, No. 186, of this city. The final details of the consolidation were completed at a meeting of U. P. council at Fraternity Hall Saturday evening. The merger gives the travelers' organization having headquarters here a membership of 120. Hancock council, never numerically strong, has not been particularly active the last year and it was considered best for all concerned that its members become members of the stronger branch. The official roster of the U. P. council continues as heretofore.

The United Commercial Travelers is a fraternal organization, conducted on the lines of an accident insurance company. In the event of the death of a member, the beneficiary is paid $5,000 in cash and $25 a week for the period of one year, a total of 6,300. This amount is doubled should death have resulted from an accident on any public conveyance. Indemnities are paid for the loss of limbs or for other disabilities suffered accidentally. The order has 3,000 members in this state and 75,000 throughout the United States.

Prizes have been offered by the grand council for the largest percentage of gain in membership this year, and it is the hope of U. P. council to garner one of the three awards to be made. It is the expectation, in fact, that the council will show for the twelve months a gain of 50 per cent. The council is the only branch of the order north of the Straits. Its officers and members have entered upon a campaign to enlist as a member every upper peninsula commercial traveler not now affiliated with it.

Henry Smith, who does not claim to be the only bearer of that name, was saved from three vicious snakes the other day by his heroic drive of hogs.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO MATHEW DENNISON

James Clancey Reviews Career of Former Ishpeming Man Who Died in Butte.

In the September issue of the Michigan Hibernian, James Clancey, of this city, one of the national directors of the order, pays the following tribute to the late Matthew Dennison, formerly of this city, who died recently in Butte, Mont., where he had resided for several years:

"The death of Brother Matthew Dennison marks the passing to his eternal reward of one of the most prominent figures in Michigan Hibernianism. He is survived by a widow, formerly Johanna Wall, three daughters and a son. His burial took place at Butte.

"Brother Dennison was born in Boston, Massachusetts, of Irish parents in the year of 1855. At an early age he took up the seaman's life and for several years was engaged in the whaling industry. In 1874 he came west and settled at Escanaba and worked at the Escanaba blast furnace. The following year found him in Ishpeming. He accepted employment from the Lake Superior Iron company as a stationary engineer and continued in the employ of that company until his removal from Ishpeming to Butte about nine years ago.

"Brother Dennison entered the ranks of Hibernianism in 1880, joining Division No. One at Ishpeming. He successively held all of the offices in the local division and held the office of state secretary for twenty-two years. Nine years ago at the Bay City convention he resigned that office as he had decided to remove from the state. During his incumbency of this office he attended ten national conventions of the order. He was a well known figure at all national meetings and enjoyed a country-wide acquaintance with the foremost men of the order.

"Matthew Dennison became a member of the Hibernians at a time when the insurance feature was not in existence. He early felt that scheme of insurance should be adopted and he began to plan out a scheme that would protect the families of our members. He worked out the details of our present system and to his foresight, conscientious labor and thought, the Hibernians of Michigan are most deeply indebted. When he was first elevated to the state secretaryship, the office was merely a nominal one, but by his untiring efforts, he established a detailed system of accounting that has made the office one of first importance.

"In Irish Nationalist matters Brother Dennison played an important part. He believed in the physical force policies that were current a decade or so ago and took a deep interest in the development of the Irish policies fostered by Charles Stewart Parnell, the old days of the Land League, he was ever found in charge of a committee to raise funds for that cause.

"When one attempts an estimate of his efforts, in behalf of Irish Nationalism, it is difficult to correctly convey to the present generation the true value of his work. First and foremost, it may be said he was heart and soul in favor of everything that went to make a greater Irish national spirit. He never failed to give the utmost of his time, money and talent to aid the cause of Hibernianism. He was a member of the old guard, last passing, who have never been backward in the expression of their nationality—and whose acts and deeds will remain as a heritage to the Hibernians of a later day."

DEATH OF MRS. H. B. CROCKER.

RAILROAD MAN PASSES.

W. E. Rodgers, Wellknown to Ishpeming People, Dies Suddenly in Escanaba.

Of the sudden passing of William E. Rodgers, a passenger conductor on the Chicago & Northwestern Railway line, who was wellknown to many Ishpeming residents, especially the railroad men, the Escanaba Press said:

"William E. Rodgers, for many years employed as passenger conductor by the Northwestern road and known to a host of people throughout the peninsula, passed away suddenly at his home at 412 South Sarah street. Mr. Rodgers was forced to give up his regular work a week ago, but his condition was not thought to be serious. Early Friday night he entered from a sinking spell and the family physician was summoned. He rallied from the attack but later in the night the physician was again summoned. When he arrived at the home he discovered that the patient's pulse was not normal and was hurrying from the house to arouse a doctor to secure the medicine desired, when he was recalled to the sick chamber and when he reached the bedside Mr. Rodgers had breathed the last.

"Mr. Rodgers was born in Meadsville, Pa. in 1858 and came to Delco county, settling with his parents at Flat Rock when a child. He entered the employ of the Northwestern road when a boy and gradually worked his way upward, holding the position of conductor for a great many years. For a number of years he was on what is known as the Crystal Falls run, making his headquarters at Crystal Falls. For the past few years he had been in the passenger service out of this city.

"Probably no conductor employed by the Northwestern road was better known to the traveling public than Mr. Rodgers and with all who knew him he was held in high esteem. He was fifty-seven years of age and is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter, who are George and Leslie Rodgers and Miss Hazel Rodgers, all of this city. He was a member of the Order of Railway Conductors; of Escanaba council, Knights of Columbus and of Division No. 1 Ancient Order of Hibernians.

Upper Peninsula

Unusual Deed Filed.

One of the largest deeds ever recorded in the upper peninsula is that that has just been filed at Manistique by the Lake Superior Iron and Chemical company which transfers its property to the Charcoal Iron company of America. The deed of this transfer, which involved a sum of $4,000,000, required revenue stamps valued at $4,000. The exchange of the property was supervised by John S. Laurence, master in bankruptcy of Grand Rapids, and the property of the bankrupt company was secured and transferred by the Union Trust company of Detroit. The deed covers sixty typewritten pages.

While digging at the corner of River and Water streets, at the Soo, the city engineer's department Thursday unearthed a survey marker, or monument, which was placed there in 1854, according to the official records, as one of the various markers of lines determining the French private land claims. Records in the engineer's office show that the marker, which is known as the Vichy-bley monument, was placed there sixty-one years ago.

Saving Is a Sensible Proposition

The First National Bank does not believe in trying to scare people into saving money. Systematic thrift is such a common sense thing that it ought to appeal to every sensible person.

But it is human nature to forget and to procrastinate, so we believe in reminding people of their duty to save a portion of income regularly, and call attention to the fact that this bank provides a strong place for savings, and pays 3 per cent interest.

EXPERT HAS GOOD WORD FOR PLAINS

J. I. Smith Believes Sandy Soil Out from Negaunee Would Yield a Profit.

J. I. Smith, who spent several weeks in Negaunee during the summer, visiting his son, Harry A. Smith, physical director of the Negaunee schools, made several trips of inspection to the plains that lie south of Negaunee, between Cascade Junction and the Swanzy district, on the line of the Chicago & Northwestern railway, and vary in width from two to five miles. As a result Mr. Smith, who is an experienced farmer, is of the opinion that these plains, which have generally been looked upon as worthless for agricultural purposes, are ideal for the growing of alfalfa of the hardy Russian variety.

Mr. Smith has at North Platt, Neb., where he has been engaged in farming for the past twenty years. He took up land near his home, similar to that in the district south of here, which he bought at a low price, as it was considered of little value. Previous to his venture every attempt that had been made to raise grain on ground of that nature in Nebraska had been a failure. Mr. Smith had heard about the Russian alfalfa, and he decided to experiment with it. He was successful almost from the first. Throughout the state Mr. Smith is now considered an authority on alfalfa growing. He is a member of the Nebraska agricultural board and for several years has had a voice in every important farm congress and convention held in the state.

Before leaving Negaunee Mr. Smith said he felt sure that just as good crops could be raised on the plains near Cascade, Sands and the Swanzy district as in Nebraska. In appearance the soil is similar and the climate conditions in the upper peninsula are better. There are no long periods of drought here, as there are in Nebraska. Last winter Mr. Smith sold his original farm for $16,000 and he still has two more, which he is cultivating. "The knowledge that alfalfa could be grown successfully did more to advance agriculture in Nebraska than any other thing," said Mr. Smith.

Good Farms on Plains.

A party of Negaunee men, who recently made a tour of the plains, came across two convincing proofs that farms on the sandy soil can be cultivated with profit. One of the farms visited was owned by a Russian, named Joe Anise. It is located on Section twelve, near the Swanzy railway station. Anise took up the land as a homestead three years ago and is now about ready to prove up on it. He had no money to spare when he filed on the land, but he has comfortably supported his family and made enough for the sale of sections to pay for the building of a substantial house and a barn, besides the purchase of farm implements and a horse.

Anise has had no help other than that of his wife and children, and he did not use any fertilizers or manure on his land. In a conversation with the Negaunee men, Anise said that the land in the Swanzy district is similar to land that he had farmed in Russia. "This year my principal product is flax, and the Negaunee men say he had a fine crop of the flax seed, which was sold at a high price. Anise also raised wheat and potatoes. Potatoes is the only crop that had not shown up well, but the same can be said of potatoes grown on the best lands in the county this year. One half of potatoes, which was expected for section inspection of the Negaunee men, contained thirty tubers. Last year Anise raised 125 bushels of potatoes from three bushels of seed planted in soil that had not been fertilized in any way.

Another farm visited by the Negaunee men was that owned by J. Libby on section eight in the same township and range as Anise's place. Previous to locating in the Swanzy district, Libby had been a successful farmer near Chocoma for over twenty years. He sold his farm some years ago to take up a homestead on the Swanzy plains. At first he was doubtful whether he could make the land pay, but nevertheless he at once erected buildings. The Negaunee men were surprised to see a fine seven-room residence and good, large barn and outbuildings. Under bars and a large chicken house are covered with corrugated iron, and all of the buildings have been painted. Besides owning a complete outfit of farm machinery, Mr. Libby has several head of stock.

Besides the regular farm products Libby has raised several hundred chickens, ducks and turkeys this summer and has found a ready market at satisfactory prices for all of his product. When Libby was asked if he thought that a farm on the plains could be made to pay, he answered that there was no doubt of it, and he asked the visitors to look around his place. "Land on the plains can be fertilized and cultivated at a fraction of the cost that it takes to clear and break a piece of wooded land, and the work can be done in less than one-fourth the time. People have an erroneous opinion about the sandy soil of the plains. Experienced farmers have told me that any fertilizer would seep through the sand to the subsoil, but that is not the case."

In Mr. Libby's home the visitors were shown a library of scientific works on agriculture. Besides being a practical farmer, he keeps a record of the times on everything pertaining to farming. Mr. Libby said that he wished he could have more visitors from other parts of the county. "If I could meet Marquette county men who are thinking of taking up farming I think that I could prove to them that land like I am farming can be built up and made productive for a fraction of the cost that it takes to clear and cultivate out over hardwood lands."

LOST TWO GAMES AT ESCANABA

Score Against Negaunee Team Was 6 to 1 Saturday and 6 to 0 Yesterday.

The Negaunee baseball team was played off its feet Saturday and yesterday by the Escanaba team, which won both games by one-sided scores. Saturday's game went to the Sandy City clouters 6 to 1, and yesterday the count was 6 to 0. The Escanaba Press has the following account of Saturday's game:

"Escanaba triumphed over her ancient baseball enemy, Negaunee, at South Park by a score of 6 to 1. Escanaba's sluggers piled up nine bunched hits off the Negaunee hurler, six of them in one inning while Garland kept the blows off his delivery scattered, and was never in serious danger. "Except for the single inning when the locals clouted the ball to all corners of the lot, the game was a fast and snappy affair, both teams fielding cleanly. The Negaunee aggregation has an exceptionally fast infield."

CORN ON DRY LANDS.

A new method of growing corn has given good results in dry-land parts of western Kansas. The rows are seven feet apart, instead of three and one-half feet, but the plants are twice as thick in the row. The yield was double that of adjoining fields planted the old way.

COUNTY FAIR RUNS BEHIND

Deficit This Year Will, It Is Figured, Approximate $2,000—Receipts Disappointingly Small, Footing Up Only $1,500, Despite an Extra Day's Business.

Iron Depression of the Past Year, Friday's Shower and the Marquette Homecoming Are Adverse Factors—Engagement Not Profitable to Carnival Shows.

The Marquette county fair closed its gates Saturday, after the longest run it has ever had, for this year was the first time it had been continued through the last day of the week. And the last day's showing, as the event proved, was needed to bring the receipts up anywhere near the average. They were much below normal at that, and, in the opinion of the management, reflected the depressed conditions in the county the past several months, as well as something of the expenditure that was made on the Marquette homecoming celebration.

The Marquette County Agricultural society will have a deficit of $2,000, perhaps more, as a result of these adverse conditions. Last year the deficit was $1,700. The receipts last week were approximately $1,500. One thing that hit the fair hard was a rain shower of brief duration Friday. Friday is always the "big" day of the fair, but this year Friday there was, for an hour or so early in the afternoon, just about the time people are leaving for the grounds, a brisk shower. As a result, hundreds of persons decided to remain at home, and it didn't help the receipts any that the weather cleared up and the afternoon turned out fine. What that shower cost the society is indicated by the fact that the afternoon's receipts ran about $400, whereas last year for the corresponding day they were about $1,500.

The expenses of the fair were not far from $3,500. Of this amount the premium account will run about $1,500; pay roll, $650; work in grounds, $100; baseball, $205; motorcycle races, $75; horse races, $175; bonus to the Hendershot show, $400. Then, there were the advertising and other charges. The financial showing is disappointing to the directors, as they had hoped materially to reduce the deficit this year.

Carnival Made No Money. The Hendershot shows closed at the fair grounds Saturday night, and yesterday were engaged in packing their outfit for the run to Norway, where they will open today for a week. The fair management found Mr. Hendershot ready to meet all suggestions made to him, and his shows were free of immoral features such as often provoke criticism in connection with exhibitions of the kind. Mr. Hendershot greatly regretted that some of the attractions he had expected to bring north failed at the last minute, and also that the prevalence of hoof and mouth disease in northern Illinois prevented him from getting some attractions through. The shows, it is said, did not find the Marquette engagement a profitable one, as they were hit by the light attendance. If they broke even here they did well. It is believed by some that they failed to do this. Saturday the poodle dog and doll baby games, on which the police commissioner clapped the lid early in the week, were running full blast, in modified form. Instead of using the paddle game to keep the crowd interested, the passersby were invited to try their hand at a game of skill, to essay tossing croquet balls into small kegs, an invitation to which they responded with alacrity. The booths did a rushing business, showing that the public wants poodle dogs and doll babies and is willing to take any circuitous route to get them, but won't buy them at face value. Upwards of a thousand people were in attendance at the grounds Saturday afternoon. What with the carnival shows, the horse and motorcycle races and the baseball game between the Marquette City team and the Federals, the amusement feature was as attractive as any day of the week. The racing was excellent, marked by close and exciting finishes, and the contest on the diamond, if not well played, was at least interesting. In the horse racing, the free-for-all event was won by Chester Barnes, owned by Robert Rainey of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., in straight heats. Little Johnny, owned by August Koski of Marquette, took second money, and At-line, owned by Wm. Bell of Ishpeming, was third. The time was 2:24 1/2, 2:24 3/4 and 2:28. In the 2:50 class, the four horses finished in the following order: Dandy R, owned by Bruce Leslie, of Munising; Johnny C, owned by George Coleman of the Soo; Nora D, owned by George Watson, of Pickford; and Bobby C, owned by Joseph Love of Marquette. The time was 2:30 1/4, 2:29 1/4 and 2:35. The two-cylinder motorcycle race, ten miles, won by Ed Trombley in 13:18, was a thriller. Al Bellstrom, of Negaunee, was in the lead until the last lap, the Marquette man overtaking and passing him and winning by fifty feet in a sensational finish that brought the crowd to its feet. Gust Johnson of Negaunee, was third. The fourth contestant, Saunders, withdrew from the race in the fifth mile when his machine left the track with a jar that shook up the rider. The single cylinder motor race was won by John Neault of Marquette. Albert Swanson of this city was second, Wm. Lawler was third, and Melvin Evans of Marquette fourth. The time for the ten miles was 18:30. The baseball game was won by the Marquette City team, 13 to 11.

PARIS FASHION TO SHOW STYLES

Unique Event on the Stage of the Marquette Opera House Tomorrow Evening.

The fall opening of the Paris Fashion will be introduced tomorrow evening by a fashion show that will be presented, by an arrangement reached between S. D. Cohen and the management of the house, at the Marquette Opera House. Mr. Cohen is pleased at this opportunity to present his models under such favorable conditions as will be offered by the stage of the theater, and the opera house management appreciates the interest that a showing of the latest styles will have for the theatergoers of the city.

The annual show of the Paris Fashion has been an event that has created such a stir among the fair sex that the facilities of the store, even with the most thoughtful arrangements for accommodating the public, have been inadequate properly to care for the crowds. But at the opera house all who desire to see the styles will be assured of opportunity to do so with comfort and under the most favorable conditions. Part of the information for the audience program of the show, with each garment identified (for the men) and fully described for the ladies will be furnished. The models will be announced by numbers that will serve as a key to the program. There will be ten or a dozen of them, Marquette coming women of whom have appeared in previous shows and who have the ability to wear stylish clothes effectively. The millinery that will be shown with the garments will be furnished by Mrs. Warner Brown.

The show, Mr. Cohen announces, will comprise 100 different displays, including suits, coats, afternoon dresses, street dresses, evening gowns, dancing frocks and furs. It will indicate the range in fabrics, colors and designs of the fall fashions in these various garments, and will likewise be indicative of the resources of the Paris Fashion, for all the garments shown will be taken from stock.

The first show will be given following part of the picture program and the usual vaudeville, and will start about 8 o'clock. A second will be given later in the evening, in conjunction with the regular house program.

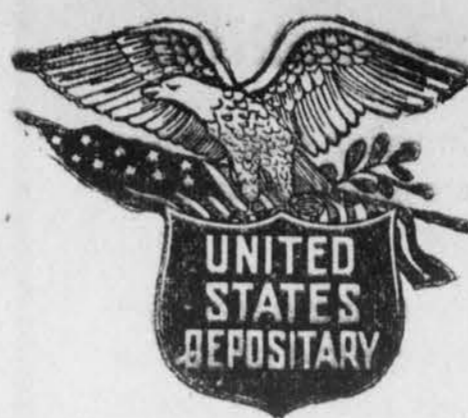

The event will be unique in Marquette. Style shows have been held here before, but never has one been given under such favorable conditions as the use of the opera house will afford. Keen interest has been caused by the announcement.
