TEUTON DRIVES ON OTHER LINES FAIL, CLAIM IS

Effective Resistance of the Allies to Further Advances Through France in West, Through Italy to South and Russia to the East Leaves Only One Other Path.

Bulgaria Still Is Holding Off, Apparently Waiting to See What Austro-Germans Achieve—Secret Treaty Between Sofia and Berlin Is Alleged, but Is Denied

Paris, Oct. 10.—The view is entertained in diplomatic and other official quarters that the operations in the Balkans have assumed a new and important significance.

It is conceded that the Germans have gained substantial successes in the last year in Belgium, France and Poland. Nevertheless Europe, as a whole, is a vast theater of war and the entente powers now are maintaining, as a French observer expressed it today, an effective resistance against further German advances through France to the west, through Italy to the south, or through Russia to the east.

ONLY ONE PATH LEFT.

It is therefore maintained that the allies, having demonstrated their power of resistance in all directions, except in the southeast, Germany now is massing her forces against the one remaining point where she may be able to break through the encircling wall.

SERBIANS SEEK GOOD GROUND.

London, Oct. 10, 10 p. m.—The Austro-Germans are now in full possession of Belgrade and the heights surrounding the city and have begun an advance eastward toward the mountains which the Serbians so stubbornly last year defended against the Austrians.

BULGARIA STILL WAITING.

The Bulgarians, so far as is known, have not yet made any incursion into Serbian territory and it is believed that they will withhold their hands until they know how matters go with the Austro-Germans.

SECRET TREATY ALLEGED.

Greece and Roumania remain interested spectators, although the former has given assurance of her benevolent neutrality toward the allies.

Bulgaria and Germany, which, it is asserted, gives the Bulgars a free hand to deal not only with Serbia, but with Greece as well, should the central powers win.

VON HINDENBURG HELD BACK.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg is making slow progress in his operations against Demak and, although he claims to have taken more of the Russian positions, he does not appear to be much nearer the city than he was two months ago.

ENTENTE ANXIOUS FOR REPLY.

Athens, via Paris, Oct. 10.—The representatives of the entente powers, while exercising no pressure on the Greek government, are urging it to reply to the question put last Thursday in regard to its future course respecting the Serbo-Grecian alliance.

A neutral diplomat in Athens reported to his government his opinion that with less than a month former Premier Venizelos would be returned to power or else the ports of Greece blockaded by the entente powers.

SOFIA HAD AGREEMENT?

It is learned from an authoritative source that the representatives of the quadruple entente have advised Greece that Bulgaria's present attitude results from a written engagement signed July 17 by Prince Hohenzollern-Langenburg, then acting German ambassador to Turkey.

GERMANS DENY STATEMENT.

London, Oct. 11, 3:40 a. m.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegram company from Athens says:

BRITAIN TO ENFORCE ANTI-TREATING LAW TO LETTER, IT IS SAID

London, Oct. 11, 2:34 a. m.—The new anti-treating regulation, in connection with the use and sale of alcoholic drinks, goes into effect in London and the surrounding districts today.

TWO BOATS COLLIDE; PASSENGERS ARE SAFE

New London, Conn., Oct. 10.—Passengers on the Bay State line steamer Tennessee were transferred at sea to the steamer Concord of the Colonial line late last night after a collision in Long Island sound, off Fishers Island, between the Tennessee and the schooner Samuel S. Thorpe of Perth Amboy, N. J.

One Seriously Injured.

New York, Oct. 10.—Nearly 250 passengers, including Robert Keating, of Woodhaven, Conn., who was seriously injured, who were transferred from the steamer Tennessee after her collision in Long Island sound with the schooner Samuel S. Thorpe last night, were brought here today aboard the Colonial line steamer Concord.

LATIN-AMERICA WILL RECOGNIZE GEN. CARRANZA

Argentina, Brazil and Chile Are in Accord With U. S. Decision in Mexican Situation—First Chief Will Be Notified Within Week His Government Is Supported.

Action Will Be Followed by an Embargo on Arms and Ammunition to Villa Who Has Declared He Will Continue Fight to Prove His Right to Reign.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Official advice has been received here that the governments of Argentina, Brazil and Chile are in accord with the decision of the United States to grant recognition to the party led by General Carranza as the de facto government in Mexico.

It became known tonight that some of the South American governments long before yesterday's conference had authorized their diplomatic representatives to favor the recognition of General Carranza in the Pan-American deliberations.

RECOGNITION WITHIN WEEK.

The form in which recognition is to be accorded has not been decided, but it may be done by formal notification to Eliseo Arredondo, authorized representative here of the Carranza government.

VILLA TO CONTINUE FIGHTING.

George C. Carothers telegraphed the state department the substance of a long interview he had with General Villa at Juarez, in which the latter explained, in line with utterances to the press last night, that he intended to continue fighting Carranza.

CARRANZA IS PLEASED.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 10.—General Carranza received with great pleasure the news that the Pan-American conference at Washington had decided to recommend recognition of the party led by him as the de facto government in Mexico.

NO AMNESTY JUST YET.

"This news puts an end to all the efforts of our enemies to bring about foreign intervention. When peace is absolutely restored and tranquility firmly established throughout the republic, amnesty will be granted to all these persons, but now now. To permit them to return at this time would be to endure their machinations within the republic."

ALEXANDER TO PITCH.

Weather conditions approaching those of summer were in prospect tonight. The weather forecast predicted that the day would be fair and somewhat warmer than today, when light coats were aids to comfort.

LEONARD FOR THE RED SOX.

To oppose Alexander Manager Carrigan is expected to select Leonard, a strapping young man who pitches with his left hand. His cunning, which brought him to the head of all American league pitchers last year and to a high place on the list this season, is expected to overcome the advantage which the Phillies hold over lefthanders in presenting a lineup almost entirely composed of righthand batsmen.

NOT NONE BUT AMERICANS ON GUARD.—WASHINGTON.

SUFFRAGE CONVERTS.

The number of men who believe woman suffrage to be right in principle is undoubtedly increasing. Not all converts to the cause come forward with trumpet flourishes or formal statements, but they are coming. There is a growing conviction among the men of the United States, not only that it is only right and fair to give women the franchise, whether many of them want it or would use it or not, but also that there is no reason to suppose any resulting change in political conditions would be for the worse. It cannot be claimed male voters do any too well in the exercise of their exclusive responsibility.

Why is it that German diplomacy which clearly misled Germany as to the conditions under which it would confront its enemies in the great war became so effective after the war had actually begun?

Perhaps it is because the Germans are more successful in dealing with facts than with theories. Their forte has not been interpretation of other peoples. They made poor work of reconciling that part of Poland that fell into their hands, and Alsace-Lorraine was still aggressively French after forty-five years. It was to have been expected, perhaps, that the German diplomats would misread the Irish disturbances attending the home rule legislation, and would entirely underestimate the stability of the fabric of the British empire.

But when theories gave way to facts German diplomacy made a better showing, though for a time it seemed that German theories about what the American people would, or would not, do threatened trouble in this direction. With facts the Germans have grappled patiently and resourcefully. Von Buelow's astute negotiations at Rome for a time seemed likely to keep Italy out of the war. In the Balkans their diplomats have skillfully managed a situation in which they had to face the initial handicap of a vast suspicion of both Austria and Germany. Patiently they built up an elaborate structure. Their problem was less difficult, in a way, than that of the allies. It was sufficient unto their purpose to win Bulgaria. The allies had to reconcile the differences, acute to a degree, of four Balkan powers. But no inferior diplomacy could have achieved the Germans' purpose. Theirs was the diplomatic victory. It consoles the allies little that the task in which they failed was the more difficult task.

When the Germans face an all square practical problem they are likely to outplay their opponents. When they have to put themselves in the places of other men to determine what to do and what is likely to happen they are likely to go wrong. In that they have not the sure hand of the British or the French.

There's a fine little recall campaign in progress in Munising. Mayor Sullivan's opponents are vehement; the mayor is more vehement. Both are using no end of language. The Munising people know the kind of a mayor Mr. Sullivan has made. If he has not enforced the law regarding the conduct of the saloons, if he has permitted gambling, if he has foisted incompetent and discredited men on the city government, as alleged, he should not only be recalled, but he should be recalled by such a decisive vote that at least ten years will pass before any public officer in the town will dare again to play fast and loose with his oath of office. If he has been a good official he should be retained. In the degree that the voters of Munising allow old warmed over issues to obscure their judgment or are swayed by personal considerations they will deal unkindly by themselves and their town. They know what the facts are. If they are guided by them alone they will surely arrive at a wise decision.

Commenting on the ever interesting subject of the allies' offensive in the west and the present situation on that front, the New York Times says: "The German line is still unbroken. But that is only to say that disaster has not been inflicted upon it by the Anglo-French forces. It is not likely that the German line will break. Experience in this war has shown that armies must hold each other by the hand in a continuous line or accept almost certain helplessness and defeat. No line has yet been broken. The Russian line would bend and stretch and writhe, but it would not break under any German punishment. The French, making a terrific frontal attack on the weakest part of the Germans' western line, would, of course, very much like to break it, in which case the flying ends would be vulnerable to flank attack; but it is not

EDITORIAL OPINION.

Back to Panama. General Goethals said once that he would remain at the Panama canal until his task as builder was completed; consequently it may be assumed that he believed his work concluded when he handed the resignation. Arguing from this, only one thing could have influenced the general to recall that resignation, a knowledge that the canal is not finished; that the Culebra slides whose importance has been constantly minimized by reports constitute much more than a mere superficial and temporary trouble; that they threaten the permanent usefulness of the waterway. All this is particularly disquieting because it naturally suggests the probability that General Goethals and the other experts who have studied the matter have been mistaken in their diagnosis of the fundamental conditions at the Culebra cut, though the statistics of a final clearing of the passage are much greater than has been supposed and may prove a menace to navigation for an indefinite period.

The situation is anything but reassuring to the American people who have seen their industries and millions go into the attempt to cut the isthmus, and who naturally will now be asking whether the canal ever can be a success and whether the early skepticism of some engineers was not well founded.—Detroit Free Press.

The Armenian Problem. A few weeks ago there was hope—especially among those who do not know Turkish history—that the tales of atrocities in Armenia were exaggerated. That hope has disappeared. Overwhelming proof has accumulated that the Turkish government is bent on destroying the Armenian nation and is pursuing that end through horrors which can not even be printed, much less magnified. The most recent estimate of the number of Armenians who have lost their lives in this campaign of butchery is 800,000. Many of these have been slaughtered outright. Many more have been driven into the mountains to freeze and starve to death. Great numbers have perished in their efforts to reach the coast, where a French or English warship might be able to render them some aid. And while men, old women and children are being killed, young women and girls are herded into Turkish harems or thrown to the undiscovered and savage soldiers.

There is no doubt that Germany sees the advantages to be gained by a single word to her Turkish ally, but though the butcheries have been in progress, since last May, no such word has been spoken. Count Reventlow appears to speak for the German government when he declares in the Deutsche Tages Zeitung: "There can be no question of meddling at the instigation of a third party with the affairs of our Turkish ally. If the Turkish authorities believe it opportune to take vigorous measures against unreliable, bloodthirsty, riotous Armenian elements, it is not only our right, but its duty to do so." Turkey assured that Germany will always regard the matter as one concerning Turkey alone.

Surely, the zoned of "frightfulness" never was stated with more headless frankness. The Armenians have nothing to hope for from Berlin. The remnants of them who still remain alive can be saved only by an allied victory.—Chicago Journal.

Arguments in New Jersey. The particular "arguments" concerning which there is bandying of epithets in New Jersey concern the woman's vote. It is not clear whether the woman would vote the same way as their husbands or brothers. The "antis" say they would and that to add another pint to a pint of water would not alter the character of the fluid in the quart. Dr. Shaw is strangely of the contrary opinion. He would have the average woman vote to out how her husband or brother was to vote, and that this would be a sufficient reason for her voting the other way. Whichever abandoning their original contention that the vote would be doubled in quantity, with no effect on result, the "antis" lift their voices in a howl of protest. "Behold confession that equal suffrage means household disharmony and new armies of persons seeking the divorce courts."

The truth probably lies between. Many husbands and wives and sisters and brothers would vote the same way—perhaps a majority would. There is evidence that such is the case in many of the equal suffrage states. But not always. It is unreasonable to think that an industrious and thrifty wife, who found herself encumbered with a worthless husband, would not willingly accept his political advice. Moreover, several millions of women of voting age are unattached in a matrimonial way and their brothers are far away. Elections are decided not by the great body of electors who have a tendency to vote matrimonially, but by the minority of non-matrimonial voters. That women feel in an independent, individualistic way and cast their ballots accordingly. Moreover, even in cases where families vote the same way, this does not mean a mere doubling. It is a matter of common remark that in matrimonial partnerships there is often a dominating partner. Sometimes it is the man. Sometimes the woman. The one whose will or intelligence is the stronger gets his or her views adopted in a natural and beautiful way. So it is possible that the result will be altered from what it would have been even though the women vote the same way. That women will have more influence on public affairs with the ballot than they now have thus does not seem open to dispute. If they do not all confess his story will be belied.—New York Globe.

HOW CATARRH IS CONTRACTED. Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucous membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronically contracted a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.

To Avoid Dandruff. You do not want a slow treatment when hair is falling and the dandruff germ is killing the hair roots. Delay means no hair. Get, at any drug store, a bottle of zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed, for it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops itching scalp. It is sure and safe, is not greasy, is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is zemo, for it is pure and also inexpensive. Zemo, Cleveland.

The General Says:—

"There are some very good reasons why my business is bigger each year than it was the year before." Some years ago asphalt roofing was sold at high prices because the volume was small and facilities were limited. When the General entered the field he broke up the high price combine by taking advantage of all possible manufacturing economies, thereby reducing production costs to the minimum and at the same time making a roofing of unexcelled quality. Eventually the General became recognized as the leader of the entire field, and today the best known and largest used brand in the world is Certain-teed Roofing. The General's big success brought about an attempt by others to imitate his policies and prices, but they didn't have the General's wonderful facilities, nor his superior equipment, nor his big organization, and it was an economic impossibility for them to equal the General's quality and price. Consequently when the reduction in price there was a big reduction in quality, and these lower quality roofings began to be sold under labels that had formerly been used on better goods. Today the market is flooded with low quality roofings, made to sell at cheap prices without regard to the service they will give. When you roof your building with Certain-teed you have a responsible manufacturer's guarantee of 5, 10, or 15 years according to whether the thickness is 1, 2, or 3-ply respectively. This is your advance assurance that Certain-teed will give you at least a definite guaranteed service. Beware of guarantees without responsibility behind them. Certain-teed products are used and will be known all over the world. Consult your local lumber and hardware dealers. They will quote you reasonable prices.

A LAUGH OR TWO

Wanted to Be Sure. He had taken a transfer from the agent and started across to the other line when a sudden thought struck him, and he turned back and asked of the agent, "Is this ticket also a beer check?" "Of course not," was the reply. "Good for nothing except to ride somewhere else?" "That's all." "No beer, soda or ice cream, eh?" "No, a bid." "All right, all right," mused the man as he turned away. "Stranger in town, you know—got to learn the ropes—don't want to miss a good thing. No beer—no soda—no ice cream. Guess I'll ride around and look for a line which has the interests of its patrons at heart."—Washington Herald.

Eating to Grow. A certain Columbus newspaper man is proud of the precocity of his 3-year-old niece. A typical of her mental agility as well as her capacity for humor, he tells the following: "We were visiting recently at my brother's home. When dinner was called the child politely but firmly announced that she had no idea of dining and would remain away from the table. "Why Mildred, you must eat three full meals a day if you are ever to grow up and be a lady," remarked my wife, who happens to be a woman of substantial proportions. "Carefully surveying her gratuitous adviser, the little miss said: 'Auntie, do you eat four meals a day?'"—Columbus Dispatch.

Rough on the Dog. Miss Carlson was one of the young women who are determined always to have their own way in the face of "obstacles. When the conductor came along to take up her tickets and found her seated with a dog in her lap, he said: "Madam, I am very sorry, but you can't have your dog in this car. It's against the rules." "I shall hold him in my lap all the way," she replied laughingly, "and he will not disturb anyone." "That makes no difference," said the conductor. "I couldn't allow my dog to ride in here. Dogs must ride in the baggage car. I'll fasten him all right for you." "Don't you dare touch my dog, sir," cried Miss Carlson excitedly. "I will trust him to no one!" Very indignantly the young woman snatched to the baggage car. Lying the dog and returned. About fifty miles further on, when the conductor came through the car again, Miss Carlson inquired: "Will you tell me if my dog is all right?" "I am very sorry, madam," replied the conductor politely, "but you find him to a trunk, and he was thrown off with it some time ago."—Philadelphia Ledger.

They Don't Die That Way. The following story comes to us from old Virginia: A devout colored preacher, whose heart was aglow with missionary zeal, gave notice to his congregation that in the evening an oratory would be taken for missions and asked for liberal gifts. A selfish, well-to-do man in the congregation said to him before the service: "Ye've gone to kill dis church if ye goes on saying 'give!' No church can stan' it. Ye've give me kill it." After the sermon the colored minister said to the people: "Brother Jones told me I was gwine to kill this church if I kep' a-askin' yer to give; but, ay

LANSING—The estimated yield of wheat in the state is 20.18 bushels per acre, according to the crop report issued by Secretary of State Vanhise. The percentage of acreage sown is 57.50, compared to last year is 94. Last month a total of 404,767 bushels of wheat was marketed in Michigan, and the total for the last two years is 1,750,000 bushels. The total estimated yield per acre for the principal crops is: Oats, 39.72; corn, 27.77; potatoes, 67.50; beans, 9.44; buckwheat, 14.42. The estimated yield of sugar beets is 9.88 tons per acre. The estimated yield of beans is 26 per cent below the average of the last ten years. The yield of corn is 17 per cent below the average for the last ten years, and the yield of potatoes is 22 per cent below the average. Twenty-three per cent of the crop correspondents in the southern counties complain of severe damage to corn, beans, potatoes and sugar beets by cold weather, excessive moisture and blight. In the central and northern counties 80 per cent of the crop correspondents say, corn and potatoes have been badly injured by rain and frost. LANSING—A conference of the state treasurer, the secretary of state, attorney general and the auditor general will be held soon at which these officials are going to give the Newell Smith automobile tax law, passed by the 1913 legislature, the "once over." The law sends 50 per cent of the fees collected back to the counties where the autos are owned. As the bill was drawn there was no time specified for making the payments, but July 1 was suggested to the legislature. That body, for some reason or other, selected January 1, and now the various counties are kicking because they will not get the money due from the 1916 licenses until January, 1917. The law says that the money shall be paid back January 1, "or as soon thereafter as possible." The conference is to decide that "as soon thereafter as possible" means March 1, or thereabouts, so that the counties can have the money and spend it during the summer when they need it. The conference will be called as soon as Highway Commissioner Frank Rogers and Attorney General Fellows return from California.

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Marquette Citizens Show a Way. There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Marquette citizen says: Mrs. John Holland, 118 Genesee St., Marquette, says: "One of my family was troubled most of the time by back-ache. There were sharp, shooting pains in the back and to straighten after stooping caused sharp twinges in the side. Dizzy spells and faintness, frequent passages of the kidney secretions caused annoyance. Several medicines were tried without much relief until Doan's Kidney Pills were used. There has been no kidney trouble since." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. G. B. Bond recommends. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

BARAGA WILL PASS ON SALOON ISSUE

Anti-Liquor Interests Will Present Petition at the County Board Meeting Today.

At the annual meeting of the Baraga county board of supervisors today at L'Anse there is to be presented a petition for a local option election, a part of the somewhat general campaign throughout the state of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League. The necessary notices in advance of the presentation of this petition have been posted throughout the county.

It is understood that the liquor interests are to bring some opposition to the petition before the county board and that this opposition will be led by W. J. Galbraith of Calumet as attorney for some of the interests affected.

The impression was created some few days ago that it seems certain Baraga county will have the local option election and that the voters will vote in favor of no license. The liquor interests deny that this is a foregone conclusion. They say that there is no reason to believe that the voters of the county are overwhelmingly in favor of throwing out the saloon.

In any event an interesting session of the Baraga county board is expected tomorrow.

Houghton County Board.

The annual meeting of the Houghton county board takes place today also. Nothing but the annual routine will be discussed, this including the annual budget, the reception of reports and the appointment of officers, as well as the consideration of the assessments of the various districts. Final disposition of these matters will be made at an adjourned meeting to be held a week later, this adjournment being taken to permit the committees to do their work.

The Keweenaw central railroad will suspend operations on Oct. 31, it is announced, as is the annual custom. Winter traffic over the lines of the road does not warrant a continuance of service.

CIRCUIT COURT COMES TO A SUDDEN CLOSE

Judge Fead Unable to Try Remaining Cases This Term—Supervisors in Session.

The September term of the Houghton county circuit court, constructively in session during the past week, came to a sudden end yesterday, at least as far as jury cases were concerned. Judge O'Brien instructed Sheriff Cruse to notify the members of the jury they are not to return for duty tomorrow.

Judge O'Brien explained that as it is unlikely Judge Fead could this week dispose of the two cases he is yet to try in this term, it was thought best, by agreement with the attorneys concerned, to let these cases go over. As the court room will be in use during a great part of the week by the supervisors for their annual session and as the Baraga county term opens at L'Anse a week from Monday it was thought best to let all the remaining jury cases go over.

Judge O'Brien will be in court all week for the consideration of such emergency or other non-jury matters as may be brought before him and he expects to dispose of a number of such cases that have been hanging fire for some time.

No criminal cases have come to trial in the present term though many of them have been disposed of. There remain a few old cases growing out of the strike and the most interesting of these is the case of James Johnson, who is charged with manslaughter. He was convicted several terms ago of killing John Laflala, during the strike, the victim being a striker and Johnson a miner. The supreme court sent the case back for retrial.

Emil Strang was a joint defendant with Johnson but at the time of the trial Strang had developed tuberculosis and his condition could not permit his being tried. He has been carried on the calendar but it is doubtful if he ever will be tried.

Another interesting case that is set for trial next term is that of Frank Aaltonen, the Finnish strike orator. He is charged with carrying concealed weapons. Aaltonen returned to Houghton county early the past summer and began making his characteristic inflammatory speeches. It is alleged that he was found to be carrying a knife while in Laurium at that time and it is for this alleged offense he is being tried.

ACME SUIT CLUB CASE.

Important Developments Expected—Hearing Set for Tomorrow.

It is expected that there will be more and important developments within the coming week or ten days in the Acme suit club case, although the nature of these developments cannot be learned yet. It is known, however, that Deputy Sheriff Sheridan of Houghton county, who went to Cheyenne, Wyo., to bring back to Houghton county the four members of the club, has been working further on the case and it is expected further arrests will be made.

Weiss and other members of the suit club, who are suspected of being the heads of the concern, are said to have gone from the copper country to points in the southwest following up the re-organization work of the four arrested in Cheyenne.

The cost to Houghton county of investigating the case is likely to come high. It is alleged the club profited to the extent of at least $8,000 in this county and $2,000 or more in Keweenaw county. Marquette county people also contributed largely to the club's profits.

The examination of the four arrested in Cheyenne, Harry Zuleh, Emily Zuleh, Floyd Widdle and Herbert McCaffery, has been set for Tuesday before Justice C. O. Jackson, but is likely to be adjourned.

To Attend Crystal Falls Meeting.

Leo M. Geismar will leave tomorrow for Crystal Falls to attend the annual meeting of the agricultural extension workers of the upper peninsula. Mr. Geismar goes as a member and will actively participate in the program.

MRS. DONALDSON TO PRESIDE.

Good Will Farm Superintendent at Battle Creek Conference.

Mrs. L. J. Donaldson, superintendent of Good Will Farm, vice president of the Michigan Conference of Charities and Corrections, yesterday was advised on the program for the annual meeting of the conference, which is to take place in Battle Creek next week.

Mrs. Donaldson is to preside over the conference session the afternoon of next Thursday. This session will be devoted to the general subject of "Health Control in Smaller Communities." Mrs. Donaldson does not expect to contribute to the discussion. Good Will Farm, Mrs. Donaldson said yesterday, wishes to make a related public acknowledgment of the kindness of the Twin Counties fair at Laurium and the Copper Country fair at Houghton. Both sent quantities of vegetables to the farm and they were much appreciated, particularly because the bad season has somewhat reduced the farm's own yield and every little contribution now goes further toward insuring a supply for the winter.

MIKE GIACHINO AMERICAN.

Expatriated Italian Is Permitted to Remain in United States.

By grace of County Physician LaBine and the United States immigration bureau Mr. and Mrs. Michele Giachino of Battle are now residents of the United States in good standing, entitled to the protection of the stars and stripes, no longer fearful of being denied these benedictions and benefits.

From the experience of Mike Giachino and his family might be written a treatise on some ancient philosopher once said or at least this sounds like the saying of an ancient philosopher: "The things we attain by the hardest striving, those things we value most."

Residence in the United States is something that is valued highly in these days when Hun, Slav, Teuton, Saxon, Celt and Tuscany are tearing at each other's throats across blood drenched trenches. Citizenship in the United States is more to be valued still and Mike Giachino very probably will attain this boon with the passage of time. One or both cost him dear and he should prize either highly.

Mike left Italy with his family probably a year ago and chose northwestern Canada as that place in the New World in which he would locate his home. How he starved in Canada and walked into the United States and after a short job at Battle set back for his family has been told often.

Mike found that getting into the United States is not as easy as might be imagined. He went through anguish and expense before he finally got his family back and after that he had to pass a satisfactory physical examination before he and they would be allowed to remain. He has no need to fear deportation longer. He is a resident of Battle and a future citizen of the United States.

FOOTBALL DOPE IS UPSET.

Houghton Trims the Landed Hancock Team—Various Sport Notes.

The Houghton high school football team upset the dope Saturday. The advance announcements of the game between Houghton and Hancock, which was played on Vivian field Saturday afternoon, was that Hancock would go through the Houghton team with riding ease and score about 20 to 0. As it turned out Houghton beat Hancock 3 to 0 and the game was quite a real exhibition. Houghton's quarterback, "Lardie" McCormick, made a drop kick in the last quarter for the only score.

An indoor baseball league of three teams representing the S. P. L. club of the First Methodist church met under way Friday evening. The teams will be captained by Fred Sullivan, James Koida and William Polglaze. The league will play its games Friday evenings. A schedule will be drawn up this afternoon and submitted to the club members tonight. The club will have charges of tonight's session at which Rev. Dr. Pierce will speak on "Moral Stamina." The material of the subject is made up largely of Dr. Pierce's experience in college athletics.

At a meeting of bowlers at the Club alleys, Calumet, Saturday evening the Bowling League, to be made up of eight teams, was organized. Each team will be captained by a well-known bowler. Cash prizes are to be hung up in this league. The schedule for the six-team Commercial league, organized early in the week, has been drawn up.

The Battle bowling league is to be reorganized this week, at a meeting to be called later. The Battle Mining company maintains bowling alleys for its employees and it has been the custom for years to organize a league. The league has been composed of teams representing the Italian miners, English miners, Shop, Surface and Office employees. It is expected these will constitute the league this year.

DEER LICENSES ARE RECEIVED.

County Clerk Will Issue Metal Tags To Hunters After Oct. 20.

County Clerk Kaiser has received from State Game Warden Oates the county's annual allotment of deer licenses, for the season of 1915. Accompanying the licenses are an equal supply of metal tags, which must be attached to every deer killed.

In his accompanying instructions the state game warden advises hunters to be careful about hanging these metal tags. He does not say "don't mangle with 'em" but that is what he means. The tag is a strip of tin stamped with the words "Deer license, 1915," one end of the strip having a slotted metal ball attached. The tag is attached to a deer by passing it through one of the limbs of the deer and inserting the free end in the slot. It locks automatically and cannot be opened without destroying the tag. If a hunter happens to make an effort to learn how the tag works he will find that when he has made his kill he has no tag to attach and then the game warden will get him if he doesn't watch out.

The deer season opens Nov. 10 and ends with the month. The deer licenses may not be sold before Oct. 20. The county clerk will in the meantime make every possible preparation for dealing with the 1,800 licenses as rapidly as possible. He will have the usual number of deputy clerks at various parts of the county.

Only one deer may be killed by any hunter this season.

DESPONDENCY.

Get in the Game—"Roll Your Own"

When the umpire shouts, "Play Ball," light up a fresh-rolled "Bull" Durham cigarette and settle down to root for the home team—the one best way to enjoy a ball game, as millions of "fans" will testify.

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

has been identified with the great national pastime for so many years that it has practically become a part of the game itself—the spectators' part. No other game can ever supplant baseball—no other tobacco can ever supplant "Bull" Durham—in the enthusiastic favor of sport-loving, enjoyment-loving America.

The unique fragrance of this pure, mild, mellow tobacco—the smoothness and freshness of "Bull" Durham hand-made cigarettes—afford distinctive, wholesome enjoyment and thorough, lasting satisfaction.

FREE An illustrated booklet, showing correct way to "Roll Your Own" Cigarettes, and a package of cigarette papers, will both be mailed, free, to any address in U.S. on request. Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N. C.

THE HIGH COST OF COLDS.

Banks to Close Tuesday.

Tomorrow will be Columbus day, the anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus and one of the days set apart in the statutes of Michigan as a legal holiday. The banks of the copper country will close on this day. There will be no general observance of Columbus day in Calumet or Laurium.

Arrested for Robbery.

Jerry Bolis, of Munising, formerly of Manistique, was arrested at the Manistique Hotel by Sheriff Orr, who had been notified by the Munising authorities to be on the look out for him. The charge against Bolis is robbery from a drug store in Munising. He is said to have taken about $180 in cash and two gold watches. He was out on parole from Jackson prison and will no doubt be taken back to that institution to serve the balance of his term. Jerry Bolis lived in Manistique about five years ago and worked part of the time at his trade as a barber and later was bartender at the Barnes Hotel.

Pape's Diapiesin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with him, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.

EDWARD KRUMMICH, KILLED BY TRAIN.

Edward Krummich, an employe of the Manistique & Lake Superior railroad, while attempting to board a caboose at the rear of an ore train of the M. & L. S. railroad, at the Klondike, twenty-five miles north of Manistique, was killed when his foot caught in a frae and he was thrown underneath the car wheels, which passed over his abdomen. Death resulted almost instantly. Peter Krummich, brother of the unfortunate man, was the engineer of the train. Krummich with two other men had been at work repairing a bridge near the Klondike. The train had orders to stop at the bridge, but in order to save time, the men decided to board the train at the top of a hill a short distance from the bridge, where it slowed down to about eight miles an hour. Krummich's companions boarded the caboose from the rear while Krummich attempted to get aboard at the head end of the caboose and as the result he met his death. He was born in Negamsee forty-two years ago.

"Dry" Petitions Opposed.

The "dry" no doubt are convinced ere this they will encounter strenuous opposition in their effort to abolish the saloons in this county, says the Manistique Pioneer-Tribune. An imposing array of legal talent has been employed by the liquor interests in an effort to sidetrack the petitions at the meeting of the board of supervisors this week. Their activity shows that they are afraid of the cars, and are more than anxious that the people of Schobersart county shall not be given an opportunity of voting on the proposition next spring. They have discovered several "dry" specks on one or two of the petitions, and will make a vigorous attempt to defeat the proposition at its inception. No one knows the final result should the voters be permitted to vote on the question next spring, but when 500 voters petition the board of supervisors to order an election it is met and proper that the people should be permitted to express their opinion by the ballot on this, or any other question. The efforts of the liquor interests will be a home-rang, should their petulant contentions not be upheld by the board. We cite one of the objections whereby they hope to eliminate the Fourth ward petition. On the original petition appears the name of Geo. E. Holbein. When the petition was copied for posting the lady copying the list wrote the name Geo. S. Holbein. When they resort to such tactics, it certainly shows that they are afraid of the cars. Similar mistakes may have been made in other precincts, and it certainly would be stretching a point to eliminate any petition because of a clerical error, when the identity of the party is so well known. The liquor interests would fare better at the polls if they would cease their bickering on infinitesimal "errors."

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If Tongue Is Coated Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping. When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

After your cold drive stop at Stafford's Drug Store for a cup of delicious hot coffee or chocolate. Just what you need for a "warmer."

18 OF CHIEF SAM'S FOLLOWERS RETURN

Colony of American Negroes on African Coast Did Not Pan Out.

New York, Oct. 10.—Chief Sam has the beri-beri. The famous member of the tribe of Akim, Ashantee, Africa, lies ill on the west coast of the continent to which he led a contingent of American negroes. Of the 112 in the party that set sail from Galveston in August, 1914, on the steamship Currituck, rechristened the Liberia, some are dead, some are still in Africa, while others are on their way back to the real land of the free.

Eighteen members of the Liberia's original crew reached New York on the Nordsman from Liverpool, sadder, wiser, reticent and looking the part that their papers termed them, "distressed seamen."

Captain Manuel F. Caneca led his swarthy seventeen off the freighter, marshaling them with a tropical umbrella, gray outside, green inside, and with marvelous ostrich claw handle carved from ivory. The negroes were attired in everything from a fur-collared overcoat to the more modest attire of men with a year's pay coming to them.

Things all went wrong when Chief Sam's money gave out, the captain said. Dr. P. J. Dorman, of Manteo, Okla., the former ship's doctor on the expedition, was more communicative. "Yes," he said, "Chief Sam got the beri-beri. He's got it yet, but I guess he will pull through. What is beri-beri? Why, you'd just call it inertia in English, I guess; just inertia." Noah Webster called it a spasmodic rigidity of the lower limbs, and let it go at that.

"Inertia of the pocketbook, due to an absence of money," was the diagnosis given by a former wireless operator of the Liberia, Frederick Zalin, of Roxbury, Mass., the only white man of the crew. "The whole trip was hell! The rest of these fellows are afraid to talk about it."

A very disgusted eighteen called on the British consulate to be paid off. The clerk there sent them over to the shipping office on South street, where they were promptly sent back to the consulate again. The seamen who had done the 155-mile walk out to Chief Sam's place on the Gold coast stood the tramping the best.

At a late hour not one of the eighteen cared one large, rone mango for what might become of Chief Sam, the Gold coast in general or Africa in particular.

LAKE VESSELS TO OBSERVE NEW LAW

President Livingstone Says They Will Conform as Far as Possible.

Lake vessels of the Lake Carriers' association will conform, as nearly as possible, to the requirements of the seamen's labor law, enacted by the last congress. The law becomes operative Nov. 4.

Announcement that every effort would be made by the vessel men to meet the terms of the new law, despite the fact that the act goes into effect only 26 days before the official ending of the navigation season on the great lakes, is made by William Livingstone, president of the association. He gives warning, however, that in some instances it might be impossible for the boat owners to comply with all requirements of the law.

"Because of the urgent demand for vessels in the movement of lake commerce and the short interval that will elapse after the date when the law goes into effect and before the closing of navigation, it may be difficult in some instances to meet all requirements of the act, but so far as practicable, they will be observed," Mr. Livingstone said.

Administration of the seamen's law is in the hands of Secretary of Commerce Redfield. In a letter of instructions Mr. Redfield advised that the collector should use careful judgment in enforcement of the provisions of the act.

"There may be cases," he said, "in which it will be impracticable to make the necessary changes on the vessels to provide the accommodations which will be necessary under the law, while they are continuously in active service during the present season, and that the continued and incessant use of all available vessels will be necessary as late in the season as possible to transport the enormous crops of the northwest.

"The problem which your force of inspectors must face during November will be that of enforcing the law without, on the one hand, suspending traffic, or, on the other, permitting themselves to be blinded by the temporizing methods of any one who may wish to save present expense in the possible thought that changes in the law may be procured during the coming winter. "Both extremes are to be carefully avoided."

RESOLUTIONS OF U. P. E. A. Adopted at the Twentieth Annual Session Held in Marquette Oct. 6, 7 and 8.

To the members of the Upper Peninsula Educational association: The usefulness of an organized body of men and women, whose life work tends to promote the efficiency and the happiness of the commonwealth, grows with their increasing knowledge of the work they have to do. Unexpected problems arise from time to time, varying views toward these are held by different individuals, and it is largely through public expression and subsequent discussion at the periodical meetings of the organization that the general attitude toward such problems is understood, and this attitude is usually set forth in a set of resolutions.

Following the custom we take this opportunity to affirm our loyal adherence to certain paramount educational ideals, to tender our thanks to those who have rendered such efficient help to our organization in this meeting, and to set forth some ideas, the adoption of which in our opinion would seem to insure increased efficiency to the public school system. We beg leave to submit these resolutions: Whereas, This meeting could not have

Princeton, Ill.—"I had inflammation, hard headaches in the back of my neck and a weakness all caused by female trouble, and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with such excellent results that I am now feeling fine. I recommend the Compound and praise it to all. I shall be glad to have you publish my letter. There is scarcely a neighbor around me who does not use your medicine."—Mrs. J. F. JOHNSON, R. No. 4, Box 30, Princeton, Illinois.

Experience of a Nurse. Poland, N.Y.—"In my experience as a nurse I certainly think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a great medicine. I wish all women with female troubles would take it. I took it when passing through the Change of Life with great results and I always recommend the Compound to all my patients if I know of their condition in time. I will gladly do all I can to help others to know of this great medicine."—Mrs. HORACE NEWMAN, Poland, Herkimer Co., N. Y.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for booklet, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists. accomplished as much in as many directions without the splendid co-operation of many competent workers, be it resolved, That we tender to them our sincere appreciation for their able and unselfish assistance in their splendid co-operation. To the Hon. Fred L. Keeler, state superintendent of public instruction, for appointing an institute in connection with this meeting and for all other assistance rendered.

To the president of this association, Mrs. Cora Jeffers, for her highly efficient and untiring efforts to make the program of the meeting one to be long remembered for its excellence.

To the local committee President J. H. Kaye, and Superintendent A. R. Watson and their capable assistants for their well organized plans in caring for the housing and other material comforts of the visiting members.

To the section chairmen and to the members of all committees who have contributed so largely to the success of this meeting.

To Mr. Mangum, secretary of the Commercial club and to the school board of Marquette for their splendid co-operation and to all citizens of Marquette for their generous hospitality to our members, and especially for opening their homes for the entertainment of visiting teachers.

To the distinguished speakers for their magnificent addresses.

To the pupils of the various schools and to all the talented musicians whose generous services gave added enjoyment to every meeting.

Whereas, as a body of educators we should not only have in our own minds high ideals and standards toward which we aim, but we should express them, that the public may understand and thereby co-operate with us in working them out. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we continue to indorse the following: Systematic and intelligent medical inspection of schools.

Part time continuation schools.

That increased attention be given to individual instruction.

That greater emphasis be laid upon the teaching of good citizenship and the intelligent use of the ballot.

That the systematic supervision of play as a regular part of the school curriculum should be provided for.

That we endorse the movement for uniform and permanent teachers' licenses to be granted by federal authority.

That school officers be compelled to make school property sanitary.

That letters of recommendation in order that they may be of the most helpful, be sent directly to the party interested instead of being given to the teacher.

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the highly efficient administration of our present superintendent of public instruction and commend him for his splendid management of educational matters in the state of Michigan.

That we earnestly indorse the efforts of the state superintendent of public instruction and his department to establish standard schools throughout the counties of the state, and that we urge upon the teachers and the school boards of Michigan their hearty co-operation in extending this important work.

That we extend our sincere commendation for the work of the last legislature in making at least a beginning toward a teachers' retirement law, but we earnestly favor a further modification of the law that will provide for state aid.

Resolved, also, That we indorse and recommend the following: That no person should be allowed to teach in the schools of Michigan without having had at least twelve weeks of professional training.

That as a means of securing universal peace and a matter of justice to half of our citizens, we earnestly recommend that equal suffrage be granted to women.

That we most heartily indorse the efforts of President Wilson in behalf of American neutrality, and that we, as teachers, do all we can to maintain and develop the spirit of neutrality in our schools.

That we indorse the action of the U. P. E. A. in the establishment of a rural school section and that we urge further attention to the problems of the rural school in the upper peninsula.

Whereas, in April, 1914, it became the duty of the citizens of the state of Michigan to elect a member of the state board of education, be it

Resolved, That we here formally express our approval and appreciation of the good judgment and wisdom displayed in selecting for this important office our distinguished friend and associate, the Hon. F. A. Jeffers, whose long and varied experience in educational matters, together with his thorough knowledge of the same, prominently fit him for the position.

Whereas, it has pleased the overruling Providence since the last meeting of this association, to call to his rest one of our most valuable members, E. E. Scribner, who was at the time of his decease superintendent of the Ishpeming city schools and a year ago was a member of this committee.

Resolved, That we deeply deplore his untimely removal from our midst and we feel that in him we have lost from our membership a most efficient educator, a man of splendid qualities and a friend whose sterling worth won for him the love and esteem of all who knew him.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted by the secretary to the bereaved wife, to whom we extend our deepest sympathy.

She is assisted by Gertrude McCoy, Mrs. Wallace Erskine, Helen Strickland, Albert Conness, Duncan McRae, Sally Crute and William Wist.

CZAR FREED BISHOP ON WILSON'S APPEAL

Washington, Oct. 10.—The bishop of Lemberg, captured by the Russians in the fall of 1914 when they took the Galician city of that name, was freed from imprisonment through President Wilson's personal appeal to the Czar of Russia, according to information here today which is vouched for on good authority.

When the bishop was made prisoner there was a great protest from Catholics, and an appeal was made to the state department. This department, however, did not feel that it could move in the matter, as inquiry developed that the bishop was being treated with due consideration.

Manager Russell, pastor of St. Patrick's church here, thereupon appealed to President Wilson. As a result, the president, it is understood, sent a personal message to the czar through Ambassador Marjory and the bishop's release followed. Later the Austrians retook Lemberg.

2,000,000 ESTIMATED TOTAL DEAD IN WAR

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Since the war in Europe started more than 2,000,000 men have been killed, the wounded number nearly 4,000,000, while the total number of prisoners and missing is more than 2,000,000.

These are conservative minimum figures compiled from the best available data and made public here by Brigadier General Francis Vinton Greene, U. S. A., retired, in an address on the war delivered before the New York State Historical association.

General Greene is an honor graduate of West Point and the author of many standard works on military history.

ECONOMICAL GERMANS ARE MORE ECONOMICAL

Berlin, Sept. 20.—The war as a teacher of economy is scoring new results from time to time even among a people already so economical as the Germans. The newspapers are calling attention to the extraordinary increase this year in the cultivation of the common sunflower; it is seen in great quantities in the gardens in the suburbs of Berlin and other cities, and along railways everywhere. In previous years the only practical value of the plant was in feeding the seeds to birds; but this year the seeds are used to make an oil which is pronounced equal to the best olive oil for cooking purposes.

A writer is also pointing to further possibilities of the plant. The oilseed left after making oil, he says, is an excellent feed for animals. Whereas the seeds themselves can be roasted and used as a substitute for coffee. The young shoots and undeveloped leaves can also be cooked and eaten as a palatable substitute for spinach. In Belgium, too, the Germans are turning their thoughts toward discovering new uses for old and familiar plants. An agricultural weekly published by the German authorities there has just been showing that tea can be made from tender, half-grown leaves of the blackberry and raspberry plants, which have all the qualities of its famous Chinese cousin, without its nerve-disturbing effect.

ESCANABA HIGHS DEFEAT ISHPEMING

Visitors Gained Their Winning Points in the Last Three Minutes of Play.

The Escanaba High school football team defeated the Ishpeming High Saturday afternoon at Union park by a score of 12 to 0. The visitors won the game in the last three minutes of play when Brotherton hurdled the line and ran from the center of the field to Ishpeming's three-yard line. He was tackled by no less than a half dozen Ishpeming players, but he threw them all off, until he reached the line near the line. In three center line bucks Perrin was sent over for the final touchdown. The teams were very evenly matched, though Escanaba seemed to have somewhat the heavier players. During the first half Ishpeming played a strong defensive game, but the team was weak on the offensive. There were a number of bad fumbles, and they were really responsible for Escanaba's first touchdown. The ball was lost on a fumble in Ishpeming territory, within thirty yards of the goal, and after a few tries at the line Cooney went around the end for a touchdown, scoring in about five minutes after the whistle blew.

After this Ishpeming braced and after ten minutes of hard work in the second quarter Reily was sent over the line for a touchdown. Both teams failed to kick goal.

Neither team seemed to have the better of the argument in the second half. The ball changed hands frequently, and most of the time it remained in the center of the field. Both teams were several times compelled to punt. Finally Escanaba got the ball on Ishpeming's thirty-yard line, but it was punted back to the center, where the playing continued until Brotherton broke away for his run toward the goal.

The Ishpeming team has shown wonderful improvement since its first game two weeks ago. It has some excellent material, and it is certain that the 1916 team will be one of the best that has represented the school in several seasons. In Saturday's game the team displayed considerable speed, and a number of plays were tried with good results. W. D. McClintock, of the Northern State Normal, was the referee, and he gave excellent satisfaction. Coach Hutto of the Escanaba team was the umpire.

ESCANABA WAS EASY.

Ishpeming City Football Team Took Big End of 32 to 0 Score Yesterday.

"Billy" Gill's aggregation of football stars won an easy victory yesterday afternoon over the Escanaba City team, the score being 32 to 0. The Escanaba players were handicapped by the absence of five of their regulars, who missed the train to Ishpeming. The breach was filled by Ed Amelin, Ray Johnson and Joe Cons. of Negaunee, and Henry Hut and Pat Reily, of Ishpeming. The six men from Escanaba played good football and there would have been a good game if the entire team had been on the field. The feature of the contest was the playing of Ray Aas, who made several long runs for touchdowns. He scored Ishpeming's first touchdown with a run of seventy yards, after breaking through the line. The play was the second after the ball was kicked off in the first half. Gill failed to kick goal. Gill scored the second touchdown in the first quarter on a line plunge, and kicked the goal, making the score 13 to 0. The first quarter ended with the ball in Ishpeming's possession on Escanaba's two-yard line.

Gill scored again on a line plunge in the second quarter, but was unsuccessful in the goal kick. In the third quarter Aas broke through the line for a run of eighty yards for a touchdown. He again distinguished himself by taking the ball on a forward pass from an Escanaba player and made twenty-five yards. The third quarter ended with the score 22 to 0.

The only sensational play in the fourth quarter was a fifty-yard run by Swartzberg, after he caught a long forward pass. The game ended with the ball on Escanaba's fifteen-yard line. Joe Leffer, manager of the Ishpeming team, will try to arrange a game with the fast Marquette High school team, The Stambaugh City team, which defeated the Company 1 team of this city several years ago, will also be brought here for a game.

DIED AT ROCKFORD.

John Ventstrom, a resident of Ishpeming for a number of years previous to ten years ago, when he went to Rockford, Ill., to make his home, died there Saturday afternoon. He was over fifty years of age and was a member of the Ishpeming branch of the Swedish Home society. Besides a widow, a son and a daughter survive him. The funeral will be held at Rockford.

WAHLMAN GETS CONTRACT.

Will Build New Main Street Theater—Work to Start at Once.

Ed J. Butler has let the contract to build the new Main street theater to S. J. Wahlman, and work will start at once. Mr. Wahlman expects to have bricklayers on the job before the end of the week, and Mr. Butler hopes that the theater will be ready by the holidays. The material can be assembled rapidly, and except for the unfavorable weather that must be expected at this season of the year there should be no delays. The other contracts in connection will be awarded within the next few weeks. The foundation for the structure has been completed by Trebilcock Bros., who also excavated for the basement.

RESIGNATION REGRETTED.

W. H. Minnear Receives Complimentary Letter from Village Clerk.

W. H. Minnear, manager of J. A. Minnear & Co's brokerage office, in the Jenks block, who was a member of the village council in Laurium before he moved to Ishpeming, Saturday received the following letter from Martin Prisk, the village clerk: "My dear Sir—At the last regular meeting of the village council of the village of Laurium, held on the 10th inst., your resignation as trustee of the village was read and accepted with much regret. I assure you, for you will be greatly missed at our meetings. A vote of thanks was extended to you by the president and council for your untiring efforts in the efficient performance of your duties as trustee. We all extend to you and yours, prosperity, health and happiness in your new field and home, and remember that the president, council and clerk will also have pleasant memories of the past. Edward F. Bast has been appointed by the council as your successor, his judgment and a fine fellow for a fellow's place. Shall be glad to hear from you at any time, with kind regards from all the boys. I am, very respectfully yours, "MARTIN PRISK, Clerk."

A WONDERFUL PERFORMER.

Betty Nansen, Scandinavian Actress, to Be Seen Here Wednesday.

Wednesday afternoon and evening Ishpeming theater will present the famous Scandinavian actress, Betty Nansen, in "A Woman's Resurrection," Count Leo Tolstoy's powerful drama, in five parts. It is a Fox Film corporation production. The Nansen "ears" and the Nansen "eyes"—these latter said to be the most wonderful mediums of expression possessed by any actress in the world—are already known to millions of theater-goers. As a personal friend of the retiring and eccentric Henrik Ibsen, she inspired and created such characters as Hedda Gabler, Nora and Rebecca in "Rosmersholm," appearing in these roles at the Royal theater of Copenhagen. This classic playhouse is to the Northern Europe countries what the world-famed Theater Francaise is to France. The fame of her wonderful performances traveled. The actress toured Norway, Sweden, Germany, Russia and France. As a tribute to her extraordinary powers, she has been decorated by monarchs and emperors, and universities have bestowed upon her services to the drama. It was Miss Nansen that Henrik Ibsen wrote in his last days to his friend Bjornsen: "She does not act she is."

WENT "BAY" IN DETROIT.

"Twin Beds," Here Tomorrow Night. Commended by Critic of News.

The Detroit News Sept. 20 said of "Twin Beds," the Selwyn comedy production that will be presented at Ishpeming theater tomorrow night, "Blanche Hawkins, played by pretty Juliette Day in a most charming manner, invites all the other apartment dwellers into her apartment to have a good time. Her husband, played well by J. Morrill Morrison, except for an indistinct occasion in the earlier part of the play, hopes to have a peaceful and quiet home, which he does not get because of the multiplicity of entertainment. Signor Monti, a soulful tenor with a great weakness for feminine society, is a star guest. Paul Percassi plays this role splendidly, and sings it very well. Signor Monti is kept exceptionally busy keeping the Signor out of breach of promise suits. Marion Lord gives a fine characterization as the Signora. The Larkinses, played respectively by William Weston and Editha

Maxham, figure secondarily in the play and help to complicate matters. Nora is a first class first aid to the comedy as enacted by Susanne Morgan, and no maid in real life ever had more to do or caused so much fun. "All these people try to get away from each other, and, unknown to each other, all get in the same apartment. Then things happen and keep on happening."

"Signor Monti, instead of going to his own twin bed, acquires so much Scotch that he sounds like a bagpipe," to quote from the play, and gets into one of the twin beds of the Hawkins apartment. Henceforth, Mrs. Hawkins endeavors to keep him concealed from her husband and his wife, and get him away. It is so funny that the only way to realize it is to go and see the play. It is really surprising how much fun is crowded into that third and final act. Signor Monti gets home at last. The twin beds of the Hawkins family are

FRENCH STORK AFIELD.

Berlin, Sept. 20—A French stork has recently been discovered in East Prussia. It was proven to be from France by a ring fastened around its leg—a device that has been adopted by ornithological societies in Europe for studying the migrations of birds. At the same time it is reported that the storks have entirely deserted the regions of France and Belgium where fighting has been going on this year. When this fact was first made known it was hoped that the French and Belgian birds would seek new homes in the Baltic country of Victoria; but this appears to have occurred only to a slight extent. It is regarded probable that many of them have gone to East Prussia, as some regions there have far more than their usual numbers. It is also assumed that the storks which have been driven out of Russian Poland also by the noise of war, have largely sought new homes in East Prussia.

MANY PRESENT AT EXERCISES

Commissioner Pearce and Father Barth of Escanaba Principal Speakers at Exercises at Which Holy Family Orphanage Was Dedicated Yesterday Afternoon

Catholic Societies Marched to the Grounds and Many Hundreds Inspected Building on Conclusion of the Program—Visiting Clergymen in City for Occasion

The Holy Family orphanage was dedicated and blessed by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Frederick Eis yesterday afternoon, in the presence of several thousand people. The weather was most auspicious, the afternoon being bright and warm enough so that the exercises could be conducted out of doors with comfort for those who participated in them.

Preceding the program the Marquette Catholic societies, which had assembled at their several halls, the Young Men's sodality, the St. Jean Baptiste, the Ilbermians and the Knights of Columbus, led by Klammert's band, marched to the orphanage grounds, through Washington and Front streets. The assemblage there, in addition to many hundreds of Marquette residents, included delegations from Ishpeming and Negaunee. The Marquette Catholic clergy, with many visiting clergymen from other parishes, escorted Bishop Eis.

The Marquette government was represented by Commissioner E. L. Pearce, who addressed the assemblage on behalf of the commission. Mr. Pearce said:

Commissioner Pearce's Remarks.

"It is a privilege and honor I assure you to be present with you today at the formal opening and dedication of this magnificent structure, the Holy Family orphanage.

"The very purpose for which this institution has been erected appeals to us as worthy of the most auspicious exercises. It is a splendid tribute to those whose energy and efforts have made possible such an admirable structure, to see such an assemblage as is gathered here today.

"This institution certainly is a source of pride to the seventy parentless children who have been brought here to share the benefits which are afforded in such a modern, spacious and beautiful home. These children must surely feel that their benefactors have provided an environment as nearly parallel to that which their parents would have presented as human hands can provide.

"The occupants of the Holy Family orphanage will certainly leave its doors to be better men and better women through the excellent advantages which were extended to them during their residence in it, and when the young men and young women more fortunate in the possession of those priceless treasures, a mother and father, full of the kindness and gratitude extended in their home life, the young men and young women who leave the Holy Family orphanage will surely have occasion to point with pride to the motherly care, the excellent instruction and the beautiful surroundings which were extended to them in their home life here.

Orphanage a Source of Pride.

"This orphanage, I am sure, is a source of pride to the Catholic institutions and societies which have made its erection possible. It is an edifice in which all members have had a part, and this connection brings forth an individual satisfaction in the completion and dedication today. I do not know of a more lasting or creditable monument which could be erected than one of this kind, planned to provide for homeless children the comforts and attentions of which they were deprived by their affliction.

"This structure is a source of pride to the community and to its citizens generally. The people of Marquette are proud of their city for its splendid homes, streets, parks and public buildings. Those who have traveled return with the knowledge that Marquette is one of the best small cities in the United States. It is because of our well built and beautiful buildings that we attain this distinction. It is because of such substantial and well-appointed buildings as this one that we will be enabled to maintain this reputation.

"On behalf of the Marquette city commission, I desire to compliment you on this handsome structure and its pleasant surroundings, with its admirable facilities and capable management. I desire to express our appreciation of and interest in this institution."

Father Barth's Address.

The address of Father Barth, of Escanaba, was on the subject "The Universal Brotherhood of Man." It was an eloquent effort, and one that merited the high praise it received. In part, he said:

"As in many other aspects, so for the alleviation of human woes the advent of Christ introduced the most important epoch in the history of mankind. Not only does the Christian conception of life differ radically from the Pagan, not only does the Christian teaching impart a new sort of knowledge and lay down a new principle of action, but Christianity supplies the effectual means of making its ideals actual and of carrying its precepts into practice. Through all the vicissitudes of conflict and the adjustment of varying opinions, in spite even of the shortcomings of its own adherents, Christianity has steadfastly held up before men the life and lessons of its divine Founder.

"There was a time in the history of the world when men and governments stood unmoved in the presence of human distress. The Roman government apparently did not provide for the widows and orphans, and the Athenians viewed the matter as one of economic and patriotic aspects, but when Christianity began to affect the Roman life the best fruits of the new order were charity, and special solicitude was manifested toward the orphan. All of this had its expression from the sovereign law, 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.'

"In the ancient constitution and traditions of the church it is clearly stated that the bishop must protect the orphan child, lest he be oppressed by strangers. The death of one of both parents makes the child of the very poor a ward of the community and the church has always taught that the bishop must be father of the poor, and that they must participate in the excess fruits of the harvest.

Worked for the Poor.

"Now the rise of monastic institutions followed closely on the apostolic age, and the work of the monastic organizations was confined chiefly to the poor, and particularly to the care of children. During the middle ages the monasteries preserved to modern times the notion of the duty of the church to care for the orphans. The monasteries were the shelters where the orphans were taught learning and trade avocations, and the laity was instructed to share in the burden of the expense.

"The greatest exponent of the Christian teaching as regards the care of the poor, the very apostrophe of Christian work, was St. Vincent de Paul, who died in 1660, who was the founder of the Sisters of Charity and the Ladies of Mercy, and whose main ideas still govern the Society of St. Vincent de Paul throughout the world.

"When the bishop of the diocese of Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette called the orphans to their home in Marquette, to shelter them in this splendid institution, he was but instinctively faithful to the ancient tradition and constitution of the church, which ordains that around each bishop, to be under his personal supervision and support, there must be hospitals for the sick, shelter for the orphan and homes for the aged.

To Bishop Eis should go out, Father Barth said, great gratitude for the thoughtful care with which he had planned the orphanage, and for the provident manner in which he had saved for it through the years—a saving perhaps often misunderstood, but which is now fully explained by the great work that has been done.

Inspected Orphanage.

On the conclusion of the exercises many hundreds of persons inspected the building. So great was the number of visitors that it was with difficulty that they made the way through the various rooms and corridors. There was general surprise on the part of those who had not been in the orphanage before at its appointments, and the completeness of its appointments.

ANNUAL SESSION TODAY.

Supervisors Will Make Equalization and Consider Annual Reports.

The annual meeting of the supervisors of Marquette county will be held today. The principal and most important business of the session will be the making of the annual equalization of the cities and townships of the county, which will determine how the state and county taxes will be distributed. It is the opinion of the supervisors who have expressed themselves on the subject that there will be but little change from the equalization of last year, though in the interval some of the nine valuations have been reduced. It is thought that Marquette city will have to pay about the same proportion of state and county taxes as in other recent years.

WILSON ANSWERS CHARGE.

Munising Chief of Police Tells of His Record as County Treasurer.

Munising, Oct. 9, 1915.

To The Mining Journal—As you have published the attack on me made in connection with the recall fight on Mayor Sullivan, for the protection of myself and my family I desire to answer the charges, and I will appreciate publication of this letter.

"At the expiration of my term as treasurer of Alger county, an expert accountant audited the county books and found many account short. I was absent from Munising that day on Grand Island. The county board of supervisors were in session and immediately placed the auditors report on the county records. I feel that this action by the supervisors was unjust to me, it not giving me an opportunity to have an account of mine verify the report of the county auditor. But one of the supervisors was very anxious if possible to get something on me. On my return home the following day I was amazed to learn of the situation, and immediately went to work on the books, going to AuTrain, Burt township and all other places I had dealings with to get proper data, as I did not believe I was short. After finding I could not satisfy myself, I engaged a bookkeeper, not being one myself, and found by his report that I had to turn in more money to the county to balance my accounts, which I immediately did. I here give the receipt received from the county treasurer.

"Munising, Michigan, June 20, 1907. "This is to certify that the amount found due the county of Alger from Geo. Wilson, late county treasurer, has been fully paid and adjusted, and the Fidelity & Deposit company of Maryland is accordingly discharged from its liability upon the official bond of said Wilson.

"JAMES G. GIBSON

"County Treasurer."

The law, or any just person cannot equitably find me a defaulter. I have lived in this county the last thirty-five years.

"My record is clean everywhere and I have held federal offices, also, township offices and county offices of trust. I was nightwatchman here for three years, from 1910-1913, and the only complaints I heard were from some pronounced enemies that I met on our streets in the wee small hours of the morning.

It is a conceded fact that the ballots were hardly counted in the last election of Jan. 26, when Mayor Sullivan was elected, before this bunch of recallers were stating that the charter would allow them to go after Sullivan in six months, and that they would be out for a recall.

I was not appointed chief of police for several months after, for the reason that the city did not have a dollar in the treasury, but Commissioner Johnson did the work free gratis for the city.

GEO. WILSON.

SWINDLERS REAP HARVEST.

London, Sept. 30.—Many swindlers have posed as Victoria Cross heroes with profit since the beginning of the war, but it remained for Sam Rutherford, a Scotsman, to dress himself in the uniform of an officer of the Black Watch with V. C. and D. S. O. decorations on his chest, give his face a coat of metal polish and announce at a well known health resort that he was a victim of a German gas attack.

Rutherford did serve in the medical corps in England for a while before deserting. From there on he lived in first class style on worthless checks, even numbering among his victims a Y. M. C. A. secretary, whom he induced to advance him $40.

He has been convicted and sentenced to twenty-one months in prison.
